Order of Court: Now, March 1, 1927, by agreement of counsel in open Court, the rule is made absolute, and the Court finds that Catherine Chapman Busse is in possession of the land in controversy, and that Carey S. Sheldon denies her title. An issue is awarded wherein Catherine Chapman Busse shall be plaintiff and Carey S. Sheldon shall be the defendant, to determine the right and title of the respective parties to said land in controversy. The petition and answer to be the pleadings; abstract of title to be filed within 15 days from the date if not already filed. By the Court. (See paper filed)

April 14, 1927. Plaintiffs abstract of title filed.

Now, September 6, 1927, It appearing to the Court, that on the first day of March, 1927, a rule having been made absolute, wherein the defendant was required to file an answer, and file an abstract of his title within fifteen days, and it further appearing that the said defendant, Carey S. Sheldon, has neglected and refused, and still continues to neglect and refuse to file his answer and abstract of title as required by said order of Court, -

Judgment is granted against Carey S. Sheldon, the defendant, and in favor of Catherine Chapman Busse, the plaintiff, for all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Boro. of Springboro, County of Crawford and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: Beginning in the west line of Main Street, it being the southeast corner of land of Baptist Church property; thence south along the line of said Main Street, about forty feet to a post and land of Mrs. Ida McCullough; thence westerly along said McCullough line two hundred and twenty-two feet to a post and land of Halls heirs;

— Contd on margin. —

thence northerly along the line of land of said Halls heirs, one hundred and twenty feet to a post; thence easterly along the line of Baptist Church property to a post, on the west line of Main Street and the place of beginning; containing the land within said boundaries, with house and building thereon. Order of Court

And now, to wit: this 31st day of January, A.D. 1927, upon consideration and examination of the foregoing petition and upon motion of Chas. B. Stegner of counsel for petitioners, the Court orders the same filed in the Prothonotary's office, and

(1) Appoints George W. Horne Guardian ad litem of John J. Carter, 2d, minor above the age of 14 years, George W. Horne, Guardian ad litem of John Herndon, minor above the age of 14 years, and George W. Horne, Guardian ad litem of Alice Herndon, minor also above the age of 14 years, to appear and answer this petition for their said respective wards, or to object and file objections thereto and to the vacating of said order and decree as prayed for in said petition, and to the granting of any other relief pursuant to the prayers of said petition, and in all respects and for all purposes to represent and defend and protect the interests and estates of their respective wards in respect to any relief sought or granted, or under or against any order or decree entered pursuant to the prayer of this petition or any amendment thereof.

(2) Grants a Rule to Show Cause why the Order entered at No. 31 November Term, 1926, in this Court, confirming said deed of Trust and Settlement and the Accounts filed at said number and term, should not be vacated, and set aside and the parties in interest given an opportunity to appear and object and file exceptions to said accounts or to any distribution made or to be made thereunder, returnable at 10 o'clock A.M. on the 4th day of April, 1927.

(3) Orders and directs that notice be given by advertisement to the parties in interest, the form and contents of which shall be substantially as follows:-

"Legal Notice.

"To Whom it may Concern:

"In the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County,

"State of Pennsylvania.

"At No. 150 February Term, 1927.

"In the Matter of the Trustees' Accounts of the Trust Estate of Jno. J. Carter, late of the City of Titusville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania,

"Notice is Hereby Given Pursuant to the Order of said Court:

"(1) That the Court has granted a Rule returnable at 10 o'clock A.M. on the 4th day of April, 1927, to show cause why the Court's final order and decree entered by said Court in a certain proceeding at No. 31 November Term, 1926, of said Court, entitled 'In the Matter of the Account of the Trust Estate of Jno. J. Carter, late of the City of Titusville, deceased', finally confirmed a certain deed of trust and settlement and the accounts of the trustees and certain distributions thereunder by them, should not be vacated and set aside and all persons in interest given an opportunity to appear and object and file exceptions to said accounts and to any distributions made thereunder;

(2) That upon the Return day of said Rule to show cause above fixed, the Court will make said rule absolute and will vacate and order and decree, unless objections or exceptions are filed protesting or objecting to such action by the Court; and—

(3) That upon the vacating and setting aside of said order and decree, unless exceptions or objections are filed to said accounts and the distributions made pursuant thereto, the Court will proceed, without further or other notice on its own motion or on application of the Petitioners or of any party in interest, and upon due proof being made of record, showing compliance with the Court's order requiring notice to be advertised and to be given the parties in interest, in substance as in this Notice provided, to examine said accounts and if it deems necessary, to audit the same and if found to be correct will confirm said accounts and any distributions made thereunder, and if there are no essential facts in dispute and from the record it can be properly done, and will order such further distributions as to it may seem just and proper, and if valid exceptions are filed, or if there are issues of fact to be decided, the cause will be set down for trial for the taking of evidence, but if only legal matters are to be considered, will be heard on the next equity trial list.

By the Court
Attorney for Petitioners,
Titusville, Pennsylvania.

Which said notice shall be advertised or inserted in Titusville Herald newspaper and Tribune-Republican newspaper, both in general circulation for the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania, the first publication or insertion in each paper to be at least 21 days before the return day of said rule as hereinabove fixed and a copy of such notice shall be served upon said Guardians ad litem at least 15 days prior to the return day above fixed for said rule and also upon all of said Donees or beneficiaries and parties in interest named in said petition, excepting the Petitioners, residing or domiciled or found in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania, and which said notice shall be mailed at least 15 days prior to said return day, by registered mail to all persons in interest not residing or found or served personally with such notice within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and not voluntarily appearing or filing herein written waivers of notice, so far as the same may be ascertained by reasonable inquiry addressed to said parties at their last known postoffice addresses. M. is fixed for hearing this application and it is directed that 10 days written notice thereof be given to Louisa Yarger and to the other members of her family residing within the jurisdiction of this Court by service of copy of petition and order of Court on each of them. If they do not reside in Crawford County, then by mailing to each one of them a copy of the notice and of this order.

(Signed) Thos. J. Prather, P.J.

July 5, 1927, Proof of service of notice upon respondent and her next of kin filed.

And now, to wit, July 5, 1927, the Court upon hearing the testimony in this case of Paul Yarger, a brother of Louisa Yarger, and Dr. J. L. Axtell of Cochranton, and being satisfied that the said Louisa Yarger is weak in mind so that she is unable to care for her property, and in consequence thereof is liable to dissipate it and become the victim of designing persons, it is hereby decreed that said Louisa Yarger is a person of weak mind; and Paul L. Yarger, of Greenville, Pa., is hereby appointed Guardian of her estate, and charged with the duties and responsibilities devolving upon him under the acts of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in such cases made and provided.

And that he shall give a bond in the sum of Two hundred and fifty Dollars ($250.00), with sureties to be approved by this Court, for the faithful administration of his said trust. By the Court (See paper filed)

Final Decree of Confirmation and Distribution.

And now, this 4th day of April, A. D. 1927, said Rule to Show Cause Why the Final Decree of this Court entered at No. 31, November Term, 1926, confirming a certain Deed of Trust and the accounts filed therewith at said number and term by the Trustees should not be vacated and set aside, having been made absolute, and it being made to appear that due notice according to law, of the filing of said Accounts by the Trustees, being the Petitioners herein, and of their intention to, and of the time fixed to apply to this Court for the confirmation thereof, and for further orders of distribution thereunder and pursuant thereto, has been given and that said notice is in the words and form prescribed in the Order of this Court directing such notice to be given and was advertised and inserted in The Titusville Herald, a newspaper on Feb. 4th, 11th, 18th, 1927 and in Meadville Tribune-Republican, a newspaper on Feb. 5th, 11th, 18th, 1927, both papers being in general circulation in the County of Crawford, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the first publication in each newspaper being at least twenty-one days prior to the time fixed in said Order for making such application, and that a copy of such notice was served upon George W. Horne, the duly appointed Guardian ad litem of the minors, John J. Carter II, John Herndon and Alice Herndon, on the 21st day of February, 1927, and at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed in said Order for making such application, and that copies of said notice were mailed at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such application by registered mail to all persons who are or may be interested in the Accounts or distributions so far as known and so far as could be ascertained upon reasonable inquiry addressed to such persons at their last known post office addresses, and that a copy of such notice was served upon all parties in interest, excepting the Petitioners, residing or domiciled or found in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania, at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such application, and due proof being made of record herein showing compliance in all respects with the order prescribing the form and contents and manner of giving said notice, and it being made to appear that all the Trustees named in said Deed of Trust and filing said Accounts, and who are beneficiaries or distributees, have joined as Petitioners in the Original Petition filed at the above number and term, and that said Guardian ad litem has appeared for his said Wards, namely, John J. Carter, II, John Herndon and Alice Herndon, who are under age, and answering, says he has examined said Accounts and knows of no reason why the same should be objected to or why exceptions should be filed thereto or why the relief prayed in said Petition should not be granted, and it appearing that a copy of said notice was mailed by registered mail at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such application to said Wards, John J. Carter, II, John Herndon and Alice Herndon, who are over fourteen years of age, and to Mary E. Carter and Hugh Herndon, Jr., and to Alice Herndon Boardman, alias Alice Carter Boardman, assignee in trust as shown by said Original Petition of the distributable share of Hugh Herndon, Jr., under said Deed of Trust, addressed to them at their last known postoffice address; and it appearing that no answers, demurrers, or other pleadings have been filed denying or questioning the truth, correctness or sufficiency of any of the averments of the Petition or of the Petition itself, and that no objections or exceptions have been filed thereto, or to the granting of the relief prayed, and that no exceptions or objections have been filed or taken in open Court to said Accounts or to the sufficiency, correctness or accuracy thereof, or to the distributions made thereunder and shown to be in contemplation, on motion of Charles B. Stegner, Esq., of counsel for Petitioners, the Court proceeds forthwith to examine said Accounts filed at No. 31, November Term, 1926, of this Court and referred to and made a part of the Original Petition filed at the above number and term, and find an audit by it or other audit unnecessary, and that said Accounts are complete and correct and in accordance with the terms and conditions of said Deed of Trust, and Orders, Adjudges, and Decrees:

(1) That said Accounts referred to in the Original Petition as filed, and found to be as filed at No. 31, November Term, 1926, of this Court in a certain proceeding entitled, "In the Matter of the Trustees' Accounts of the Trust Estate of John J. Carter, late of the City of Titusville, Deceased", be approved and confirmed, and the same are hereby approved and confirmed.

(2) That the final distribution shown by said Accounts to have been made by the Accountants, consisting of certain sums and securities to the Petitioners, L. B. Carter, Emma Carter Sharpe and Alice Carter Herndon, respectively, as of January 3, 1917, are in full of their respective shares of and interests in said trust property, and in full and final settlement and distribution thereof, and said distributions to them respectively, are hereby nunc pro tunc approved and confirmed.

(3) That the Accountants as of and on October 3, 1925, held as the remainder of the corpus of the trust estate following said distributions hereinabove approved and confirmed, the cash and securities in said Accounts set out, and the Accountants are hereby charged with and shall be accountable for the same on and after October 3, 1925, which said cash and securities on October 3, 1925, as shown in said Accounts were as follows:
