In the matter of a Memorial for David I. McKay, Deputy Prothonotary

Order of Court

And now, January 5, 1931, upon consideration of the within petition, an order is made, directing that the within memorial be entered among the records of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County and that a copy thereof be handed to David I. McKay, Deputy Prothonotary by the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas. Per Curiam

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, Judge of said Court:

The petition of the undersigned respectfully represents:

That they are members of the Bar Association of Crawford County and practicing attorneys in and for the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania and set forth that:

1. Whereas, David I. McKay has completed fifty years of service as Deputy Prothonotary and as Prothonotary in the Courts of Common Pleas of Crawford County and the Courts of Equity therein, that it is the desire of the said petitioners as practicing attorneys to express their appreciation of the faithful service rendered by David I. McKay, the strict attention to his many duties, the accuracy and care with which he has filed and taken care of the records of the said Office, as well as the courteous thoughtfulness and sincere efforts to oblige the attorneys, under many trying conditions, it is further desired to memorialize this appreciation among the records of Crawford County. We therefore ask that the within notation may be spread upon the minutes of the records of the Court of Common Pleas as a permanent token and memorial to the said David I. McKay, Deputy Prothonotary.

And they will ever pray, etc.

Attorney for Defendant

Report and Award:

And now, December 26, 1931, after due notice and by agreement and defendant herein, and having been chosen sole arbitrator in the above entitled case by the parties hereto pursuant to rule entered, and pursuant to the stipulation and agreement of the parties attached hereto, I sat and fixed December 26, 1931, at my office at No. 241½ Chestnut Street, Meadville, Pa., as the time and place for hearing said case. (Continued on margin)

And after hearing the testimony and evidence of the said plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing, I do find and award damages in favor of the said plaintiff, Roderick H. Barron, and against the said defendant, Earl Clark, in the sum of four hundred twenty-nine dollars ($429.00), the same having been duly proven as damages sustained by plaintiff on account of the negligence of defendant and being the compromise amount agreed upon by the said parties hereto.
