In Memoriam

James D. Roberts
a member of the Bar
of Crawford County
Entered Feb. 1, 1932

Pro. Greeley

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, President Judge and members of the Crawford County Bar Association:

Report of committee appointed by this Honorable Court to draft suitable Resolutions upon the Death of our late ~~mem~~member, James D. Roberts.

Resolution

James D. Roberts died at his home in Meadville on June 27, 1931, after completing a busy life, at the age of eighty years. It was the rounding out of an honorable and useful career, doing his duty with painstaking and fidelity.

There is no more sorrowful task than that of perusing the records of the lives of those whom we have known and with whom we have worked for many years. These are the sad milestones which are passed along the passage of time with a fearful certainty and unsparing equality of distribution. We must face these trials, however, as we look into the eyes of fate, or listen to its knocking at the door. It is for us to meet them seriously and yet without empty and helpless lamentation.

He was a farmer boy and possessed of an earnest purpose in life. He was a scholar in the public schools; he was a student in what is now called a State Teachers College; he taught school with success; he read law with the late Judge Henderson. Having been admitted to the Bar, he was at an early age elected District Attorney of this county, and practiced with success to the end of his life. He was of a refined and gentle nature and a man of much higher ability than was often accredited him. He was never given to self exploitation, but those who knew him best had no difficulty in discerning the excellent capacity which had given him throughout his busy life such a large measure of success and such a host of friends who mourn him.

He took his oath of office as attorney at this Bar seriously and with full appreciation of its significance and meaning. He observed it with fidelity and was never known to betray any person's cause for lucre or malice. But "one generation passeth away and another cometh but the earth abideth forever." The progress of the race goes on and we realize in each step more and more its upward purpose. If we in all things are not working together for good, if all life is but a breath exhaled and then lost forever, our work means little.

Our words of farewell to a fellow workman are not alone those of grief that man's common lot has come to him, but of pride and joy in all the good he has accomplished.

(See Margin.)

Of James D. Roberts it can be truly said he was a lawyer by profession, he was a gentleman by the very instincts of his nature, he was an elder by the vote of his Church, he was a Christian by the Grace of God.

Respectfully submitted,
Arthur L. Bates
Frank J. Thomas
J. W. Smith
Committee.

(See papers filed)

Now, February 1, 1932, upon presentation of the within Memorials in open Court, it is hereby ordered that same be filed, spread at length upon the Court's records, and a copy thereof be furnished the family and relatives of the deceased.

Per Curiam.

Geo. Greeley

Memorial
of the Committee of the Bar Association

Otto Kohler President of the Crawford County Bar Association, died at his home in Meadville, Pennsylvania, on Friday, September 11, 1931. He was in his seventy-seventh year having been born November 11, 1854, near Mt. Eaton, Ohio, a son of the Reverend Robert Kohler, a Minister of the German Reformed faith, and Augusta Kohler.

He was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County on September 28, 1885, and from the very beginning of his legal career until his death, he was closely associated with the industrial and economic development of the County.

In addition to a large and successful practice, as an attorney, he was a Director and Attorney for the First National Bank of Meadville, President of the Board of Incorporators of Spencer Hospital, a stockholder, with an active interest, in the Mead-Penn Iron Works, and President and Principal owner of the Meadville Malleable Iron Company. The last named Industry absorbed a great deal of his interest and activity, and through his effort and guidance rose from a small beginning to one of Meadville's most progressive plants.

His sympathies were always philanthropic, and every good mode for the benefit of the City of Meadville and vicinity received his generous support.

He was an accomplished musician, and always maintained a keen and active interest in that art. He was for years a mber of the Old Northwestern Band, took a leading part in the Meadville Philharmonic Society, and for some years his rich bass voice graced the choir of the Unitarian Church. He was a stockholder in the Pennsylvania College of Music and was its President up to the time of his last illness.

He found time in his busy life for fraternal activity, and was much interested in Free Masonry. He was a 32d degree Scottish Rite Mason, and a Knight Templar, and was a Past Eminent Commander of Northwestern Commandry No. 25.

He was a member of the Unitarian Church, and served for many years as a Trustee of the Meadville Theological School.

Although graced by a natural winsomeness of manner, and of a pleasing personality, he never married. For years his home and social activities were presided over by his widowed sister, Mrs. Henrietta Butler, for whom he always showed the greatest solicitude and brotherly affection. If, as is commonly quoted, "the law is a jealous mistress", it was amply exemplified
