3. Master. When a case shall be at issue on motion by the attorney for the plaintiff, accompanied by the Prothonotary's certificate of costs deposited, as provided in Sec. 10 hereof, the Court will appoint a Master to take testimony and return the same to the Court with his opinion of the case and recommendation that a decree be granted or refused. If a rule for a jury trial has been filed, no motion for an appointment of a Master may be filed until said rule has been discharged.

A motion for the appointment of a Master shall contain the following information:

1. The date that the complaint was filed.
2. The date that the complaint was served upon the defendant.
3. Whether or not an appearance has been entered by the defendant and an answer filed.

4. Notice of Hearing. At least five days before the date of hearing, the master shall give to the attorneys for both parties, or to defendant if he or she has appeared personally, written notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing, which may be done by sending such written notice through the mail to counsel or to defendant's last known place of residence; provided, however that when no appearance has been entered either by counsel or the defendant, the master may proceed ex parte and without notice.

5. Cross-interrogatories. In all cases of divorce it shall be the duty of the prothonotary to attach to the commission to the master the following cross-interrogatories, which shall be propounded to each witness by the Master -- viz:

1. Do you know or have you reason to believe that the parties have cohabited together since the cause of complaint arose?

Feb. 6, 1933 Order issued to Sheriff.

May 24, 1933 Sheriff's return and proof of publication filed.

Decree: And now, May 29, 1933, The Sheriff of Crawford County, J. A. Connell, having returned that he was unable to find the above named mortgagees or their legal representatives, or the holder or holders of the aforesaid mortgage, in his bailiwick; and in obeyance to said order of court to the said Sheriff directed, a notice of the facts set forth in the aforesaid petition was advertised once a week for three successive weeks after the presentation of the aforesaid petition, in the Titusville Herald, a newspaper published in the City of Titusville, Penna, as appeared by a schedule of said advertisement and affidavits of publication annexed to the return of the said Sheriff; And no person appearing to answer the said petition as aforesaid, and the Court being satisfied of the truth of the allegations of the said petition, it is on motion of John b. Spencer, attorney for petitioner, ordered and decreed that the prayer of said petition be granted, and that satisfaction shall be entered by the Recorder of Deeds of Crawford County, Penna, on the record of the mortgage given by Leon A. Fleek to the above named mortgagees, dated the 14th day of August, 1894, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in and for the County of Crawford and State aforesaid, in Mortgage Book No. "Y-2", page 369, for the sum of $1000.00, upon all that certain piece or parcel of land as described in the aforesaid mortgage, upon the payment of the costs due relative to the entry of said satisfaction of said mortgage, and upon presentation of a certified copy of said decree in said case to be filed by said Recorder of record. Which said satisfaction so entered, and filing of said decree shall forever thereafter defeat, release and discharge said mortgage, and shall likewise bar all actions brought thereon as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the satisfaction had been entered by the legal holder or holders of said mortgage

In the Matter of the Rules of Court, regulating the practice and procedure in the several courts of the Thirtieth Judicial District of Penna: Appointment of a committee for revision of said Rules.
Entered March 29, 1933

Pro. Greeley 3.00

Order of Court

It appearing that the rules regulating the practice and proceedure in the several courts of the Thirtieth Judicial District of Pennsylvania should be revised, and believing that this can best be done by a committee of attorneys representing the Crawford County Bar Association, we enter the following

Order

Now, March 29, 1933, Hon Thomas J. Grather, Paul E. Thomas, Esq., and John H. Bozic, Esq., are hereby appointed a committee to make such revision of the rules of the several courts, Common Pleas, Orphans Court, Oyer & Terminer and General Jail Delivery, and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, of the Thirtieth Judicial of Pennsylvania, regulating the practice and proceedure in the several courts, and present the same to the courts for adoption.

It is further ordered that all necessary expenses incurred by said committee be paid by the County of Crawford

Per Curiam.
O. Clare Kent
President Judge.

(See paper filed)

Order of Court: Now, March 20, 1935 Walter J. McClintock, Esq. is hereby appointed as an additional member of the said committee. Per Curiam. O. Clare Kent, President Judge.
(See paper filed)

Nov. 30, 1935 Motion for appointment of an additional member on above committee filed with following order.
Order: Now Nov. 29, 1935, in consideration of said motion, Gerald D. Prather, Esq. is appointed as a member of said committee Per Curiam O. Clare Kent P.J.

And now, November 5, 1934, we find in favor of the plaintiff, John A. Bolard, Executor and Trustee under the will of Alice J. Bolard, late of Cambridge Springs, Pa., deceased, and against the defendant, Mrs. Bertha Burdy, for the land described in plaintiffs declaration and Abstract of Title, viz:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the borough of Cambridge Springs, Pa., bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a post in the North line of Venango Avenue, at corner of lot formerly of Isaac H. Williams; thence Northwestwardly along said Williams's land to an alley; thence Southwestwardly along said alley, fifty-two (52) feet to a post; thence Southeastwardly along lands of Mrs. L. B. Crandall, one hundred sixty-five (165) feet to a post in line of Venango Avenue; thence Northeastwardly along line of said avenue, fifty-two (52) feet to the place of beginning. Having erected thereon a modern seven room dwelling, with finished basement and attic.

and direct that judgment be entered accordingly.

January 4, 1957 Amendment of the Rules of Court

Order

Mook, P. J.

And Now, December 31, 1956, the rules of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County are hereby amended as follows effective January 1, 1957:

Rule 11

Arbitrations And Awards

Section 7, subsection 5 shall be amended as follows:

(5) Either party may appeal as of course from the decision and report of the Arbitrators to the Court of Common Pleas not later than twenty (20) days after the filing thereof under the following regulations:

(a) Repayment to the county of the fees of the members of the Board of Arbitrators herein provided for but not exceeding fifty per cent (50%) of the amount in controversy, the balance of the Arbitrators' fees shall be absorbed and paid by the County. Such fees shall not be taped as costs or be recoverable in any proceeding;

(b) The filing of an affidavit by the party appellant, or his attorney, that the appeal is not for the purpose of delay, but because he believes an injustice has been done;

(c) Payment of all costs that may have accrued in action;

(d) The filing of a recognizance in double the probable amount of costs likely to accrue, with one or more sufficient sureties, conditioned for the payment of all costs that shall accrue in consequence of said appeal. The costs paid by the appellant, except Arbitrators' fees, may be taped in the appellant's bill and recovered of the adverse party, if in the event of the suit the appellant is entitled to recover costs.

All appeals shall be de novo.

Rule 12

Argument and Argument Lists

Rule 12 shall be amended as follows:

Section 1. Argument Docket; Equity Cases, The shall keep an argument docket wherein shall be set down all causes or matters requiring argument, special examination by the Court and the taking of testimony, except trials by jury and other matters specifically regulated by Acts of Assembly.

All Equity Cases for argument shall be placed on the regular Common Pleas Argument Docket.

Note 1. This rule includes habeas corpus proceedings for custody of minor children when not otherwise disposed of.

Note 2. This rule dispenses with the Old Equity Watch Book. As to Equity Trials, see Rule 56, section 8.

Section 2. Order of Argument. On hearing of rules and motions, the counsel of the party obtaining the rule or making the motion shall begin and conclude the argument, except in cases of rules to show cause of action, to dissolve foreign attachments, when the plaintiffs attorney shall have the conclusion, and no arguments in such cases shall exceed thirty (30) minutes, except by special permission.

Section 3. Argument Court. Argument Court shall be held beginning at 9.30 o'clock a. m. on the Tuesday following the fourth Monday of each term and shall continue until the lists have been disposed of. The court shall hear cases on the Common Pleas List in the order in which they are placed by the prothonotary at the conclusion of which, cases in the Orphans Court and Quarter Sessions Court shall be heard.

Section 4. Setting Down; Argument List. All causes intended for argument at any regular term, excepted uncontested divorce cases, shall be set down by either party at least thirty (30) days prior to the said convening date for said Argument Court in a book to be kept by the prothonotary for that purpose, noting the date and the party by whom they are so entered, from which the prothonotary shall make out an Argument List for the use of the Court giving the number and term of the cases and the date and character of the issues and questions presented; on which list shall also be placed by the prothonotary all rules made returnable, assigned, or adjourned for hearing at that term or meeting of the court by special order.

The prothonotary shall forthwith mail a copy of said list to each attorney who has appeared for any party in any case contained on said list and shall likewise cause the list to be posted on the bulletin board in his office.

Note: As to uncontested divorce cases, see Rule 25, section 10.

Section 5. Briefs. At least ten (10) days prior to the convening date for argument court, counsel for the moving party shall file typewritten briefs containing the authorities relied upon with the prothonotary and at the same time shall deliver or mail to opposing counsel a copy of the same. At the time of the argument counsel for the opposing party or parties shall file with the court their typewritten briefs and deliver to opposing counsel a copy.

of the same.

Supplemental briefs may be filed subsequent to oral argument upon special allowance by the court. Provided, however, that said supplemental brief or briefs so allowed must be filed within ten(10) days after the argument and a copy thereof served upon opposing counsel within said period. Upon failure of either counsel to file such supplemental brief, if allowed, the court shall proceed to determination of the matter.

Section 6. Default of Brief; Absence of Counsel. Any counsel who has not complied with the above rule shall not be heard at the time of the argument. If counsel for the affirmative has not complied with section 5 when the case is reached, the court shall thereupon dismiss the rule or motion with notation for the reason of such dismissal, or make such other order as shall be deemed right and proper under the circumstance. If counsel for the affirmative has complied with section 5 but is absent when the case has reached the court, such absence not being accounted for, shall proceed to hear the case ex parte if adverse counsel is present and so requests. If counsel for the affirmative has complied with the aforesaid rule and is present and desires to proceed when the case is reached the court may hear and dispose of the case without regard to the absence of any adverse counsel.

Section 7. Emergency Arguments. On cause shown and on reasonable notice to the parties or their attorneys, the court may order any cause to be argued before the date set for the opening of regular argument court.

Section 8. Court List. The prothonotary shall prepare a numbered list of all cases listed for argument which shall at all times through Argument Court be deposited on clerk's desk in court for the convenience of attorneys, and each case shall be checked off by the proper officer as argued, continued or dismissed.

Rule 43

Pleadings

Section 1. Form of Pleadings.

Section 1 of rule 43 shall be amended to read as follows:

In all actions the averments and the form of pleadings shall conform to the requirements of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure governing actions at law and amendments thereto, and to all acts of Assembly which have not been suspended by said Rules.

Section 1 B. The Ad Damnum Clause in any pleading in trespass shall merely state:

(a) That the damages claimed are $1,000 or less, or
(b) That the damages claimed are excess of $1,000 but not more than $5,000, or
(c) That the damages claimed are in excess of $5,000.
Note: This section contemplates not only actions in trespass but also ejectment, libel, slander, attachments, et cetera.

August 5, 1957 Motion and Order filed:

And Now August 5, 1957, comes the undersigned Rules Committee of the Crawford County Bar Association, and moves the Court to make the following ammendments of two rules relating to Arbitration and Pleadings by reason of the recently effective Act of Assembly No. 66, 1957 Pamphlet Law (enlarging the jurisdiction for arbitration from $1,000 to $2,000) in the following manner, to-wit:

To amend Rule 11 (Arbitration), Section 7, Paragraph 1, by deleting the figure $1,000 from Lines 2, 7, and 12 thereof and substituting therefore, in Lines 2, 7, and 12, thereof, the figure $2,000,

To amend Rule 43 (Pleadings) Section 1B, so that it shall read as follows:

"Section 1B. The Ad Damnum Clause in any pleading in trespass shall merely state:
(a) That the damages claimed are $2,000 or less, or
(b) That the damages claimed are in excess of $2,000 but not more than $5,000, or
(c) That the damages claimed are in excess of $5,000.
Note: This section contemplates not only actions in trespass but also ejectment, libel, slander, attachments, et cetera."

It is further recommended that said amendments to the Court Rules shall become effective on September 3, 1957 and to apply to all actions instituted on and after September 3, 1957.

Respectfully submitted
Frank D. Prather, Fred C. Kiebort, J. Perry Eckels, Stuart A. Culbertson
Vincent J. Pepicelli.

Order

And Now, August 5th, 1957, the rules of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County are hereby amended as follows effective September 3, 1957 and to apply only to actions instituted on and after September 3, 1957:

Rule 11 Arbitrations and Awards

Section 7, Paragraph 1, is hereby amended by deleting the figures $1,000 from Lines 2, 7, and 12 thereof and substituting therefor in Lines 2, 7, and 12, the figures $2,000,

Rule 43 Pleadings

Section 1B of Rule 43 (Pleadings) is hereby amended so that it shall read as follows: "Section 1B. The Ad Damnum Clause in any pleading in trespass shall merely state:

(a) That the damages claimed are $2,000 or less, or

(b) That the damages claimed are in excess of $2,000 but not more than $5,000, or

(c) That the damages claimed are in excess of $5,000.

Note: This section contemplates not only actions in trespass but also ejectment, libel, slander, attachments, et ceteris."

And it is further hereby ordered that a copy of this order be mailed to each attorney residing in and practicing in the Courts of Crawford County, Pennsylvania.
