O. Victor Johnson a Member of the Bar of Crawford County Entered Nov. 27, 1933

And now, November 27, 1933, Report of the Committe of the Bar Association as a memorial upon the death of O. Victor Johnson, Esq., was presented and read in open Court, and addresses made by several members of the Bar, whereupon it was ordered that the same be marked filed, and be spread at length upon the record, and a copy thereof furnished to the family of the deceased.

Signed O. Clare Kent, P. J.

Report.

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, Judge of the several Courts of Crawford County, Pennsylvania:

Death, even when expected, comes as a severe shock, and while it was well known that the Honorable O. Victor Johnson was in a very serious physical condition, his friends hoped that his passing might be delayed for a number of years.

He was in his office at the time the final summons came, was taken to the hospital, where died on the 29th day of August, 1933 about the hour of 10 o'clock A. M.

Mr. Johnson was born in Woodcock Borough Crawford County, and lived there with his parents until he was about 13 years of age when they removed to Venango Borough. He was born on February 14, 1873, received his education at the Borough School, afterwards attending Allegheny College.

After leaving college he studied law in the office of Thomas Roddy, at that time one of the leading lawyers of the Crawford County Bar. He was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County on the 30th day of May, 1900, and subsequently to the Supreme and Superior Courts of the State.

He was married in 1901, to Miss Anna M. Spaulding of Woodcock Township, Crawford County; one daughter Charlotte Gertrude, now Mrs. J. M. Kimmmen, was born to them, who with the wife now survives him.

From the time of his admission to the Bar, Mr. Johnson's life was a busy and colorful one; even before he was of age, he evinced a great interest in politics, was an ardent Republican and worked hard in the interests of the party.

In 1902, he was elected District Attorney of Crawford County. In 1908, he was elected to the State Assembly, and in 1910, was re-elected for another term of two years. He also served at different times as Chairman of the Republican County Committee, and also held the position of State Committeeman for about four years.

For a number of years he was on the Board of Spencer Hospital. He was a member of the Masonic Fraternity and at times of different social organizations of the City and County.

He with his wife were members of the Presbyterian Church of this City.

Mr. Johnson was a man of great energy and determination, a sound lawyer who always prepared his cases; In the trial of a cause he was always aggressive and fought hard for the interest of his clients. Those of us who practiced with him knew that he was a worthy antagonist and a forceful helper if he was with you. He had a high sense of honor in dealing with his fellow workers at the Bar, and if his word was once given, there was never any retraction.

He was possessed of a magnetic and compelling personality, and made many warm and lasting friendships; He was loyal to his friends, and a friendship once made was seldom broken.

While acting as District Attorney and as a member of the State Legislature his work was well and energetically carried on, with all the force which was characteristic of the man.

He served as County Solicitor during the year, 1931, in which year he was elected Register and Recorder of the County. While in ill health during a period of about one and one half years that he filled this office, he gave the same attention to the business of the office that he had given to the other offices which he had filled, giving attention to his duties until almost the last hour of his life.

To his wife and daughter and the other relatives of the family, we, the members of the Crawford County Bar Association, extend our tenderest sympathy, with the consolation, that relieved of his physical pains and sufferings, he now peacefully sleeps.

August Delp was born January 1, 1891, at Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, to John P. Delp and Eva Katherine Delp. With the exception of about two years spent in the American Army during the last war, he has always lived in Meadville, Pa. He was educated in the Meadville Public Schools, graduating from the Meadville High School. He then entered Allegheny College where he received his A.B. degree. After graduating from Allegheny College, he entered the office of Otto Kohler, Esq., as a law student, and was admitted to the practice of law in Crawford County, Pa., on June 4, 1917, as well as the Superior and Supreme Courts of Pennsylvania.

In August, 1917, he enlisted in the United States Army and saw active service in France and Germany until he was mustered from the service in June, 1919. His war record is one of envy, he having taken part in most of the large engagements of the United States Army in France.

Upon his return from service in the A.E.F., he was elected District Attorney of Crawford County, Pa., for a period of four years, in November, 1919, and again in 1923, he was elected District Attorney for another four year term, making a total of eight years that he capably and efficiently served the people of Crawford County, Pa., as their District Attorney. He was always a staunch and influential member of the Republican Party. After his service as District Attorney, he was actively engaged in the practice of law, up until a short time prior to his death.

He was a member of the American Legion in Meadville, Pa.; a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, The Eagles, and The Moose. Mr. Delp has always been a member of the Zion Evangelical Church and Sunday School.

Over

About two years previous to his death, Mr. Delp was forced to give up his law practice on account of illness, and he died at the Spencer Hospital in Meadville, Pa., on October 3, 1933, and was buried in Greendale cemetery.

Mr. Delp was possessed with a charming personality, and had the friendship, respect and esteem of all those with whom he came into contact, both socially and professionally. He enjoyed a large clientele, and, had he lived and recovered his health, he would have continued his growth professionally and in public life. His untimely death was and continues to be felt as a distinct loss to the Bar and to his many friends; and it is with deep regret that this committee undertakes the sad duty of presenting this memorial.

Respectfully submitted
