Of No. 380, September Term, 1931.
Amicable Action of Scire Facias to revive and continue the lien for the term of five years of judgment.

It is agreed by the parties that the above action be entered with the same effect as if a writ of Scire Facias had been regularly issued, served personally on defendant and so returned. It is further agreed that the Prothonotary of Bradford County enter the above Amicable Action upon the records of the Court of Common Pleas in the County aforesaid, and that a judgment be entered thereon against the defendants S. b. Morrow, Mrs. S. C. Morrow and G. N. McClelland, and in favor of the plaintiff above named, and that the judgment aforesaid be revived according to Act of Assembly, with costs, etc, attorneys commission of five per cent for collection; and waiving exemption, inquisition, and stay of execution.

Sums to be liquidated by Prothonotary, as per statement on back hereof.

All of said defendants reserve any legal right they may have to offset any claim or claims against the Jamestown Banking Co. for money on checking or savings account therein.

Summons in Trespass, Returnable to the First Monday of December next.

Nov. 4, 1936. Statement of claim filed.

And now, Nov. 4, 1936, Leland J. Culbertson, Esq., appears for defendant in the above entitled action, waives the issuance of a Summons therein, and accepts service, with the same force and effect as though the writ had been duly and regularly issued by the Prothonotary of Crawford County, and the writ duly and regularly served upon him by the proper authority. (See praecipe)

Nov. 23, 1936. Motion by agreement of Counsel for amended praecipe and Statement of Claim filed.

Order: After consideration of the within, the above amendment is granted and the case of Joseph Forese, by his next friend and father, Nick Forese versus Jack Holt at Number 92 November Term, 1936 is changed to the title of Joseph Forese, by his next friend and father, Nick Forese, and Nick Forese in his own right versus Jack Holt at Number 92 November Term, 1936, and the Prothonotary is directed to note the same upon the records. Per Curiam.

Nov. 23, 1936. Motion for Judgment by Agreement filed.

Order: After careful consideration of the within and finding that there is a mutual desire of plaintiffs and defendant to have a judgment entered in the above matter, the Prothonotary is directed to enter a judgment against the defendant, Jack Holt, and in favor of the plaintiff, Joseph Forese, in the sum of $275.00, and in favor of the plaintiff, Nick Forese, in his own right, in the sum of $25.00 and against the defendant, Jack Holt, both judgments to be entered directly without the verdict of a jury and with the same force and effect as if such a judgment were upon a verdict, from which verdict for Joseph Forese shall be deducted the sum of $75.00 for attorney's services rendered to plaintiffs, Joseph Forese and Nick Forese, and the said sum to be payable to a guardian appointed by your Honorable Court. Per Curiam.
