Memorial, reported by the Committee of the Crawford County Bar Association and read in Open Court on Monday, December 6, 1937.

To the Honorable C Clare Kent, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County.

The versatile career of Wesley B. Best, lawyer, student, soldier, public servent Christian gentleman, came to an end at four o'clock P.M. November 4, 1937.

He was born January 12, 1862, of distinguished parentage, was graduated from Allegheny College in 1883, at the age of twenty-one years entered the office of W.R. Bole as a law student, and was admitted to the Bar on May 11, 1886, from which time until within a few days of his death he was busily engaged continuously in the practice of his profession.

In 1890, he was elected District Attorney, serving one term. Later he was appointed to serve the unexpired term of Willis Vance. He was successful as District Attorney, as he was in all his endeavors. He served as City Attorney, and during the last six years of his life was County Solicitor.

For the last forty-one years he was a member of the Board of Directors of Meadville City Hospital, acting as President during the campaign for raising funds for and during the construction of the new building. During this period he gave unstintedly of his time and skill to this institution.

For the last forty years of his life he was a Trustee of Allegheny College giving to his Alma Mater the same faithful service that he devoted to every enterprise with which he became connected.

He became interested in military affairs while a member of the Cadet Corps at Allegheny College, and later entisted in Company B of the Infantry Regiment stationed here, rising to the rank of Captain before retiring.

He was an ardent Republican, serving his party as County Chairman, as a member of the Executive Committee, and was always ready to give his time and counsel to the party, and always responded to any call for his services to it.

He was a loyal member of the Methodist Church, never failing to serve it whenever and wherever possible.

He enjoyed social intercourse, as is evidenced by his membership in so many social and fraternal groups - Masonic, Taylor Hose, Round Table, Kiwanis, Iroquois Boating and Fishing Club, and others.

For all his attainments, professional and otherwise, for all his acts of public service, he is worthy of respect and honor, but Captain Best will be remembered and members of our Bar, sunshine into the hearts of many every day. To greet him mourned not so much for these, high as they are, as for the sincere friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He was one of the most loved made one always feel "There is a friend, truthful, sincere, happy."

And Captain Best was happy, in his work, in his service, in his family life. It was a joy to see Mr. and Mrs. Best together, and with them the daughter when she was at home.

We feel that no more need be said. Wesley lived a long, happy, useful life; his body was worn out, but his spirit was undaunted. He has gone to a sure reward where he will have the opportunity to continue such service, and for this we rejoice for him while we mourn his empty place.
