Order

Kent, P. J.

And now, May 9, 1945, after hearing had in this case, we find that there is no sufficient evidence before us to warrant the court in holding the defendant guilty of "reckless driving", the reason assigned for the suspension of the defendant's operating license by the Secretary of the Department of Revenue. In accordance with this conclusion, the defendant is hereby discharged, the Department of Revenue to pay the costs, and the Secretary of the Department of Revenue is hereby directed to reinstate defendant's operator's license.

Per Curiam,
O. Clare Kent
President Judge.

Dooker. This case was on the argument list for September 1945 term of court but it has never been before the Court for consideration as the record papers in said case were not presented to the Court on the hearing of the argument list. Service of notice of placing of the above case on the argument list accepted by Edward J. McDonald, Attorney for Respondent.

On Argt. List for Sept. Term, 1945; No. 14,

Now October 10, 1945, after a careful review of the testimony and consideration thereof we are clearly of the opinion that the charge of indignities to the person of libellant rendering his life burdensome and condition intolerable cannot be sustained. The conduct of respondent with a man other than her husband may have been indiscreet and such as to arouse suspicion of libellant and even jealousy, so as to render his condition more or less intolerable and life burdensome but for such a result produced by such a cause the statutes do not confer upon the Courts jurisdiction to grant a divorce; Hexamer v Hexamer 42 Pa. April 6, 1946, Opinion and Decree filed;

After carefully reviewing the pleadings and evidence we are clearly of the opinion that the libel is defective and under the law cannot be sustained. The libel could have been amended but such was not done. The proceedings are irregular and the testimony does not reach the standard establishing cause for divorce. He who alleges a cause for divorce has the burden of establishing it under legal proceedings in accordance with the law. Under the pleadings and the testimony, dismissal should have been recommended, and we so find. Therefore the petition for decree in divorce is refused. Costs to be paid by Libellant. Per Curiam,
O. Clare Kent, P. J.

And now, April 6, 1945, upon presentation of the within petition and upon due and proper consideration thereof, it is hereby ordered and decreed that George J. Barco as Committee Ad Litem for the respondent, Ida Sturrock, in the divorce case hereinbefore mentioned, and it is further ordered and decreed that the said George J. Barco, Esq. be paid the sum of $75.00 for the services rendered by him as Committee Ad Litem for the said respondent, with the right to additional fees as future services may warrant. Per Curiam,
