To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County:

The committee named by the Crawford County Bar Association to prepare a Memorial for William B. Griffen respectfully submits to your Honorable Court the following Minute in his Memory: William B. Griffen was born at Franklin, Venango County, Pennsylvania, on the 24th day of May, 1871, and he departed this life on the first day of April, 1946, at St. Petersburg, Florida. He is survived by his wife, Laura Hulin Griffen. For a number of years prior to his death, Mr. Griffen and his wife resided at Hydetown, near Titusville, and spent their winters in the South. He was graduated from Allegheny College with the Class of 1891 and later read law in the offices of Lee and Criswell in Franklin, Pennsylvania, and was admitted to the practice of law in the Courts of Venango County on November 27, 1893 and in the Courts of Crawford County on September 19, 1905. He was also a member of the Superior and Supreme Courts of Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Court. About one year prior to his death, he together with several other attorneys, were guests of honor at a banquet given in Franklin by the Venango County Bar Association, upon their completion of 50 years as practicing attorneys.

While in Franklin he was in partnership with the late John L. McBride practicing under the firm name of Griffen and McBride. At one time, he was city solicitor of the City of Franklin and among his many activities in the field of law, he became interested in Orphans Court Law and the law of Trusts. He was the incorporating solicitor for the Titusville Trust Company which opened for business on March 17, 1918 and during the latter part of the year 1919, he terminated his law practice in Franklin and came to Titusville, where organized the Trust Department of the of the Titusville Trust Company and served as Trust Officer for a time, following which he became counsel for the Titusville Trust Company, which position he held at the time of his death.

From his early school days, his nickname was "Barney" which he enjoyed being called by every one, even though he was a large man who carried himself with considerable dignity and poise. He was a master of the "well turned phrase" and his epigrams are often quoted.

He was known and recognized for many years as a leading attorney in Venango County and later in Crawford County. He had a keen and active mind and was well-grounded in the basic principles of the law; he was reserved in his manner and his advice and counsel were well considered at all times showing the influence of a reasonable and logical mind. He was a thorough and conscientious practioner of the law, believing implicitly in the law and upholding the recognized ethics of the profession. He was always courteous and respectful to the Court and to other attorneys and, in fact, to everyone

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, President Judge of the said Court: Your committee, appointed to present a memorial on the death of Donald Chester Thompson, respectfully reports as follows: Donald Chester Thompson was born on October 1, 1891, in Meadville, Pennsylvania, the son of Almond Wilson Thompson and Elizabeth Eyeington Thompson. He was educated in the Meadville Public Schools, graduating from Meadville High School in 1908, and at Allegheny College, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1912. In 1924, he was awarded the degree of Master of Arts at the same college. He served his professional clerkship in the Office of Otto Koller, and was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County on May 26, 1913, and continued his active practice in the law at Meadville, except while absent in military service, from that date until shortly before his death which occurred at the United States Veterans' Hospital, Aspinwall, Pennsylvania, on May 15, 1943.

Mr. Thompson was admitted to practice before the appellate courts of Pennsylvania and the Federal Courts, including the United States Supreme Court. He was a member of the American Bar Association.

He was Alderman for the Third Ward of Meadville from 1913 to 1919, and acted as City Solicitor for the City of Titusville for several years.

Mr. Thompson saw service in the first World War, first with Company B of the 214th U. S. Engineers Regiment, and later with the Army's intelligence service. Thereafter, he continued to take a deep interest in things military, and, in a manner characteristic of him, made an exhaustive study of and kept currently informed on matters of armament and defense. At the conclusion of the last war, he became a reserve officer, starting with the rank of second lieutenant with a tank corps outfit, later being promoted to first lieutenant, then to captain. He held a brevet as a major for about seven years.

During the many years of service as a reserve officer, Mr. Thompson was attached to the National Guard of Pennsylvania, often attending annual encampments with B Company. He assisted the Company officers as an adviser on points of military law. When the local platoon of the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps succeeded B Company in occupying the local armory, Captain Thompson continued to give his expert professional assistance to the officers of that unit. He served for several years as a member of the local Armory Board, and was twice chosen president of the Crawford County Reserve Officers Association.

For many years, Captain Thompson was interested in the citizens military training corps, and was responsible for enlistments in this district. Several times he attended C. M. T. C. camps at Fort Meade as a company commander.

In 1942, a few months after the United States declared war upon the Axis powers, Captain Thompson was appointed the first county on the death of Terrence E. Hennetta, a former member of said Bar.

Resolved that the Bar of Crawford County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, now meeting to express its deep and sincere sorrow for the death of Terrence E. Hennetta, and does now submit this minute to his memory to the end that the same may be adopted and entered at length upon the records of the Courts of this Coun

Terrence E. Hennetta was born in Summerhill Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on April 22, 1869. He attended the country schools in that Township and later attended the State Teachers College at Edinboro, Pennsylvania, then known as Edinboro Normal School. In 1890 he entered the mercantile business in Rankin, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, where he was employed until 1891. Thereafter he returned to Meadville and entered on the study of law in the office of the partnership consisting of the Honorable Homer G. Hunter and the Honorable Frank J. Thomas and read law there until he was admitted to practice in the Courts of Crawford County on September 10, 1894.

He was married to Amelia Tritt about 1903 and shortly thereafter they erected their home on Randolph Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania, where they resided during their entire married life and where both Mr. and Mrs. Hennetta died. No children were born of the marriage and Mrs. Hennetta died in 1932.

While Mr. Hennetta continued to reside in his home on Randolph Street after the death of his wife, he spent all of his winters in Florida as he and his wife had done a great many years prior to her death.

Terrence E. Hennetta died on October 17, 1943.

After Mr. Hennetta's admission to the Bar, he opened his office for the practice of law in the Best Block on Park Avenue, Meadville, Pennsylvania, where he continued practice until the last few years of his life when the Best Block was taken over by mercantile establishments and he moved his office to his home on Randolph Street where he was actively engaged in practice until the time of his death.

Mr. Hennetta's practice was almost entirely of the office type as he seemed not to care for trial work. He largely handled real estate matters, decedents estates and business advice to his clients at his office. His whole life was modest and self-effacing but he enjoyed the highest reputation among his colleagues and his clients for being an ethical practitioner, honest and sincere, and no sharp practice was ever charged to him nor could it be said that he would further his clients' cause by "hook or by crook". He handled all matters in his hands in what he determined in his opinion was the proper legal manner and advised his clients as to what in his opinion was proper from a legal standpoint although it might not be the advice they desired nor to their advantage.

John Earle Reynolds, a Member of the Bar of Crawford County
Entered June 2, 1947

Memoir

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, President Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial District

This Committee appointed by the President of the Crawford County Bar Association to prepare a memorial tribute to John Earle Reynolds makes the following report:

John E. Reynolds, son of William and Julia Eliza Thorp Reynolds, was born February 25, 1864, in Meadville, Pennsylvania, and died here Sunday, May 4, 1947, leaving to survive him his widow Katherine Reynolds.

He was admitted to the practice of law in the Crawford County Courts in 1890 and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 1898.

Mr. Reynolds had always lived in Meadville but never engaged in the active practice of law.

His education was that of the Meadville public schools and Phillips Exeter Academy where he was graduated in the class of 1884 and in 1888 he was graduated from Harvard University. In 1934 he received an honorary A. M. degree from Allegheny College.

His relation to the cultural and social life of this community is so marked and continuous that we are tempted to accept the fact without elaboration. Among these positions and activities we find him Treasurer of the Meadville Gas + Water Company, Secretary and Treasurer of the Meadville Furniture Company, Secretary and Treasurer of the Meadville, Conneaut Lake and Linesville Railroad Company, a director of the Merchants National Bank and Trust Company for the past fifty years, and its President since 1916.

Mr. Reynolds at the time of his death was a director of the Meadville City Hospital and of the Meadville Library and of the Art and Historical Association. He served two terms on the Meadville Board of Health and as a final tribute, he is a repository and custodian of ancient, historical and traditional Meadville, much of which is collected and preserved in his commendable book "In French Creek Valley".

The public estimation of Mr. Reynolds may be gauged by the fact that he was elected two terms to the common Council and three times Mayor of Meadville.

On May 20, 1911, he married Katherine A. Shryock, daughter of D. George and Anna Dick Shryock. Their home was in the old homestead of William Reynolds, often styled the Mount Vernon of Meadville. This house his birthplace and life long residence, was built by Judge Henry Baldwin in 1841.

His ancestors were of the prominent pioneer settlers of Meadville and like himself, his father and grandfather were members of the Bar of Pennsylvania. His grandfather, John Reynolds, was admitted to the Bar in 1812, and his father, William Reynolds, was admitted in 1841.

It is a solemn reflection that his going closes the book of this pioneer family in Crawford County.

In the fullness of life, still in possession of his virile mind, John Reynolds went down "like a lordly cedar green with boughs".

To the Honorable O. Clare Kent, Judge of the said Court:

The undersigned committee, appointed by the President of the Crawford County Bar Association to prepare a memorial for the above deceased member, respectfully reports:

John C. Spencer, a native of Cussewago Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, was born July 17, 1866, and died December 8, 1946, after a short illness as a result of a fall downstairs in his home. He was buried in Roselawn Cemetery.

He received his preliminary education in the Elementary Schools of Hayfield Township and graduated from Allegheny College in 1892, completing a four year course in two years. He was registered as a student at law on November 23, 1894, in the office of William W. Henderson. He was admitted to practice law in the several Courts of Crawford County on November 27, 1908.

He had taught twelve terms of school up to the time he was registered as a student at law and continued to teach school thereafter until the Spring of 1910. He specialized in teaching English, but also taught Latin, French, Greek and German. During his career as a teacher, he was principal of the following schools; Waterford, DuBois, Kane, Brocton, New York and Warren, resigning from the last named school in 1910 to take up the practice of law.

He was married to Ida L. Curry on January 4, 1912, who survived him.

He studied law in the office of William W. Henderson and in the office of Homer J. Humes.

He studied law during vacation periods while he was teaching school. He began the practice of law in 1910, in an office in the First National Bank of Meadville. In about two years thereafter, he accepted a position as Claim Agent for the Erie Railroad Company, which position he held for thirteen years. Resigning from this position in 1925, he took up the practice of law in Meadville and followed it until the time of his death.

On May 1, 1945, he assumed the position as Librarian of the Crawford County Law Library, and devoted a great deal of time to putting the Library in excellant condition with indices convenient for the use of the members. He was the most efficient person ever in charge of the Library up to the time of his death.

John C. Spencer was of a very reserved nature. He was not a person who cared very much to mingle with people. He received most of his enjoyment out of reading and devoted most of his spare time to that past-time. He was of a kind and sympathetic nature and friendly in all of his relationships with other members of the Bar Association. It is doubtful if anyone ever heard him say or speak an unkind word of any. In religion, he was of the Protestant Faith, a member of the Methodist Stone Church. In Politics, while generally affiliated with the Republican Party, he exercised his right of suffrage very independently. Kent, P.J. — Whereas a partial hearing in the above entitled case was held before the Court on the day fixed therefor, to-wit, July 14, 1947, at which hearing testimony on the part of the respondents was taken without answer or contradiction and the child not being present established the want of jurisdiction of the Court to proceed with the hearing, it being testified that the child was and had been for some considerable time with the natural father in New York State, which clearly established the want jurisdiction in this Court to proceed in the premises, and

Whereas upon application of the parties in interest hearing was continued until to-day, Monday, July 21, 1947, the respondents again appeared for hearing the child not being present at this time and the Court being advised by the attorney for said respondents that the attorney and the petitioner would not be present for a hearing at this time. Under these circumstances we are clearly of the opinion that this court has absolutely no jurisdiction to proceed in the premises and, accordingly enters the following

Mook, P.J. The grounds for divorce alleged in the libel in this case are cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to the person. Upon our independent examination of the testimony, the Court finds no evidence to support the allegation of cruel and barbarous treatment. There is considerable evidence of indignities, which might, if properly presented, support a decree. However, the evidence, as offered, appears to negate the proposition that the conduct of the respondent rendered the life of the libellant burdensome and intolerable. On the contrary, it appears that the libellant was much disturbed when his wife left and made considerable effort to locate her and urge her to come back. The testimony as presented clearly proves a case of desertion but not indignities to the person. Furthermore, the evidence offered, particularly during the time that the parties resided together in

In the Common Pleas
In the matter of
Katherine Margaret Moritz
An alleged inebriate
Filed September 2, 1947

Pro. Slayton 12/26/47 paid $5.00

September 2, 1947 Petition of Mrs. Gordon R. Miller sister of Katherine Margaret Moritz for committment of Katherine Margaret Moritz, 544 Chestnut Street, Meadville, Pa., to the Warren State Hospital with Exhibits A, B. + C annexed presented to Hon. O. Clare Kent P.J. and filed.

And now, to-wit, the 2nd day of Sept. 1947, upon the within petition and certificates let Warrant, issue to bring the alleged inebriate before us for a hearing forthwith on this 2nd day of Sept. 1947.

Per Curiam,
O. Clare Kent
President Judge

Order for Committment

And now, Sept. 2nd 1947, upon consideration of the within petition and the exhibits and certificates thereto attached, and after hearing duly held as required by law, the Court is satisfied that Katherine Margaret Moritz is an inebriate and a proper subject for detention, care and treatment in a hospital or institution for inebriates or for mental diseases.

It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and Decreed that said Katherine Margaret Moritz is an inebriate and that she be and hereby is committed to the Warren State Hospital there to remain for one year unless sooner discharged as provided by law.

Per Curiam,
O. Clare Kent
President Judge

September 3, 1947, Warrant Issued and Returned:— Now, Sept. 2, 1947, as within I am commanded, the within alleged inebriate Katherine Margaret Moritz was found at the residence of Gordon R. Miller, 544 Chestnut Street, City of Meadville, Crawford County, Pa., at or near the hour of 11:00 o'clock P.M., and that the said Katherine Margaret Moritz was in such a state of intoxication and drunkedness that it was impossible to bring her before the Court.

So answers,
J. Floyd Van Winkle
Sheriff

January 29, 1948, Order filed.

Mook, P.J., And now, January 29, 1948, upon further consideration of the above entitled Case and the report of Robert H. Israel, M.D., Superintendent of the Warren State Hospital, received by the Court as follows:

"This is To Certify, That Katherine Margaret Moritz, admitted to the Warren State Hospital under date of September 3, 1947, in accordance with Section 316 of the Mental Health Act of 1923, now appears markedly improved and trial on parole is justifiable.

Therefore, It is suggested the Court that she be removed from the custody of the Hospital with the specific provision that should she resume the use of alcoholic stimulants before the unexpired portion of the year for which she was originally committed, she shall be returned to the Hospital without formality."

It is Hereby Ordered that Katherine Margaret Moritz be, and she is hereby paroled from the Warren State Hospital at Warren, Pennsylvania, for the unexpired portion of the year from which she was originally committed to said institution, upon the condition that she abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages during said parole period and provided further that if she resumes the use of such alcoholic stimulants during said parole period she may be returned to the Hospital without further order.

Petition presented to the Court and filed. Order:- And now, this 5th day of Sept. 1947, the foregoing petition having been presented in open Court, upon due consideration thereof and upon motion of Vincent A. Baldauf and Stuart A. Culbertson, Esquires, the Court fixes Monday, October 6th, 1947, at 9:30 o'clock A.M. E.S.T., or as soon thereafter as may suit the convenience of the Court, for the hearing of the foregoing application and directs that ten days written notice thereof be given to the said Mike Kazalia and that notice by registered mail be given to Mr. Steve Kazalia.

Per Curiam,
O. Clare Kent P.J.

October 6, 1947, Notices of Hearing filed.

Decree:— And now, this 6th day of October, 1947, this matter having come on for hearing upon petition of Harry Kazalia, father of the above named weak-minded person, and ten days written notice having been given to the said Mike Kazalia, and notice by registered mail having been given to Steve Kazalia, and the Court having heard the testimony of all the parties in interest and of all the witnesses, and not having required the personal presence in Court of the said Mike Kazalia because of positive testimony by Dr. Robert L. Rose that he cannot be brought into Court at this time with safety to himself, and being clearly satisfied that the said Mike Kazalia is not able owing to weakness of mind, to take care of his property and in consequence thereof is liable to dissipate or lose the same and become the victim of designing persons, the Court hereby appoints First National Bank of Meadville, guardian of the estate of Mike Kazalia, said guardian to furnish bond in sum of Three Thousand ($3000.00) Dollars.

Per Curiem

Pennsylvania ex. rel., Laurel Belle Grinnell and George Karlen Grinnell v. Hazel Irene Hodge and Gerald Hodge, No. 136 May Term, 1947, in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

it is hereby stipulated and agreed between Herbert A. Mook, attorney for Hazel Irene Hodge and Gerald Hodge, and John J. Kent, attorney for George Grinnell, that the Judge of the Court of Common Pleas enter an order in this case wherein the custody of the minor children, Laurel Belle Grinnell and George Karlen Grinnell, shall be given to their mother, Hazel Irene Hodge, subject to the right of their father, George Grinnell, to have the said two children in his custody for two week-ends out of each month and for a further period of one month during the summer months when the school vacation period is in effect, providing said George Grinnell maintains the children in a suitable place and abstains from the use of alcoholic beverages while the said children are in his custody.

Herbert A. Mook
John J. Kent

Kent, P. J. — Now, September 4, 1947, after due and careful consideration of the best interests and future welfare of the children, Laurel Belle Grinnell and George Karlen Grinnell, as well as the agreement of the parties placed upon the record, we can but conclude that custody of the said named children be and is hereby awarded to the mother, Hazel Irene Hodge, subject to the right and privilege of the father, George Grinnell, to visit them at any proper time, to take them into his custody and home for two (2) week-end periods of each month hereafter and for a further period of one month during the summer school vacation term, as the said parties may agree upon, in order that the said father may enjoy their companionship and company; the said father to provide a suitable and comfortable place for the entertainment of said children, within his means and station in life, and with the still further provision that he, the said father, shall abstain from the use of any and all alcoholic beverages during the periods when said children are in his company and custody. At no time while the said children are in the custody and care of either mother or father shall either attempt in any manner whatsoever to poison or lessen the love and affection of said children, or either of them, from the other parent. And, still further, the father is hereby excused from paying the Fifty ($50.00) Dollar per month allowance for support and maintenance of said children during such time as they may reside with him, under his custody and control, this provision to apply only to the month's visitation during the school vacation period, and it is further ordered that the said named children, Laurel Belle and George Karlen Grinnell, or either of them, shall not be removed from the jurisdiction of this Court by any of the parties hereto or mentioned herein without first obtaining leave of Court so commander of the civilian defense corp for Crawford County. Under his direction the county control center was set up and he remained in charge of its activities until ill health compelled him to resign early in 1943. His effective work at the control center elicited the praise of army officers as well as of his fellow civilian defense workers.

Mr. Thompson kept an active membership in a number of patriotic and fraternal organizations. He was a member of Sergeant Staffon Post of the American Legion and the 40 and 8 unit of the local Post. He was also a member of the Meadville Grange, being a past master of the local Grange. He belonged to Aerie No. 429 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and to Crawford Lodge No. 234 F. & A. M., being especially active in the Masonic orders. He was a past high priest of Solomon Chapter, General issims of the Northwestern Commandery Knights Templar, and a member of the Erie Scottish Rite Consistory and of Jem Jem Temple. The Beta Kappa Fraternity of Allegheny College elected him to honorary membership. He had what might be termed an encyclopedic mind which carried his enthusiastic interest far beyond the limits of his chosen profession and the various patriotic and fraternal organizations in which he took a part. A prodigious reader and tireless student on many subjects, he appeared never to be satisfied until he had exhausted the reliable sources of the particular topic in which he was for the time interested. In this manner he became as well versed in medicine, science in general, music, literature, history and languages, that one had only to converse with him a short while to find out how little one knew about any or all of those subjects.

Yet, with all this depth and breadth of his intellectual interests, Donald Thompson's first devotion was to the practice of the law. While he did at times admit to some of his friends that he possibly had missed his calling and should have been a college professor, this was only a momentary conjecture on his part, for at such times he would invariably and immediately pay tribute to the legal profession as the one which suited him best. He enjoyed, while his health permitted nothing better than to be confronted with an unusually knotty legal problem to work out. He took particular zest in trying a case in civil or criminal court if he thought he represented the "under dog". The height of professional delight for him, however, was to wade through the mazes and meanderings of a difficult title search and emerge therefrom with the mystery of a seemingly impossible title-chain laid bare, and a goodly number of defects and encumbrances, more or less material, exposed for correction. Just a year or so before his death, he said in the presence of some brother attorneys at the Recorder's office, that if his eyesight and general health would permit it, there was nothing he would like better than to devote most of his time to title searching—his favorite legal work.

Although handicapped heavily by the lingering disease which proved fatal, Mr. Thompson exhibited an indomitable spirit in carrying on what professional practice he was able to do and in engaging in other activities, until a short time before his death. He left to survive him his widow, formerly Miss Laura Roberts; five children, Helen, Miriam, Donald, James and Arthur; two sisters, Mrs. George W. Bunce and Edith M. Thompson; and a nephew, William G. Bunce. Mrs. Bunce has since died. To the widow and children and other surviving relatives the sympathy of the Crawford County Bar Association is extended in their bereavement.

Respectfully submitted,

with whom he came in contact. Being naturally quiet and reserved, he never depended upon quick decisions or an over-bearing attitude to win his point, but his opinions and comments were always highly respected by those with whom he came in contact.

His pleasing manner and kindly nature won for him many friends as evidenced by his wide acquaintanceship and his active part in community affairs. He was mayor of Titusville from 1927 to 1931. His administration was well organized and under his leadership, the affairs of the city moved along smoothly and well. He was a loyal member of the Titusville Rotary Club for many years and a strong believer in the principles and ideals of Rotary. He was a member of various Masonic organizations.

He was interested in the Local Bar Association and attended regularly all meetings possible. He believed that the members of the Bar could best serve their clients and each other by becoming better acquainted thus securing a sympathetic understanding of mutual problems and working conditions. He had a clear understanding of human nature and the adversities of life and he saw and appreciated in his profession the opportunity to serve his fellowmen. As a record of our friendship and of the respect with which we held him, the committee respectfully moves your Honorable Court that this Memorial be adopted, that it be ordered spread upon the permanent records of this Court, and that a copy be sent to his widow.

Entered March 6, 1947	Record Continued from Page 194 Of No. 39 May Term, 1947. the county, once a week for three successive weeks, March 8, 15 and 22nd, 1947, in accordance to Act of Assembly 1931 P.L. 123, as per proof of publication hereto attached. So answers, May 5, 1947. J. Floyd Van Winkle, Sheriff. May 5, 1947, Motion and Final Decree Filed Decree:— And now, to-wit, May 5, 1947, the Sheriff of Crawford County having made return of service of the Petition and rule to show cause and the notice in connection therewith upon the Estate of Davis W. Glass through Warren O. MacLean, the Executor thereof, said service being by Deputizing the Sheriff of Allegheny County to make personal service thereof and also by registered mail notice, and also by public advertising; and no appearance having been entered or answer filed by the Respondent or any other interested party; and the Court being satisfied of the truth of the facts set forth in said Petition, the Petitioner's motion is hereby granted and it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the prayer of said Petition be granted and that satisfaction shall be entered by the Recorder of Deeds of Crawford County on the record of the mortgage given by Bertha M. Andrews and Howard R. Andrews, her husband, now deceased, to Davis W. Glass dated December 11, 1929 and recorded December 13, 1929 in Crawford County mortgage Book 148, Page 115 securing the payment of $1000.00, said mortgage being on all that certain piece or parcel of land situate on the east side of the Susquehanna and Waterford Pike in Cambridge Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on the center line of said Pike, five hundred fourteen (514) feet southwardly from the south side of a highway concrete culvert on said Pike, the said culvert is thirty-six hundred and two (3602) feet, measured on the center line of the payment northwardly from the point of intersection of the center line of Miller Road, just north of Cambridge Springs, with the center line of said Pike; thence from the point of beginning, south seventy (70) degrees, forty (40) minutes east, one hundred ninety (190) feet to a stake; thence by a line, south nineteen (19) degrees, twenty (20) minutes west, seventy-five (75) feet to a stake; thence by a line north seventy (70) degrees, forty (40) minutes west, one hundred ninety (190) feet to the center line of said Pike, and thence by said center line, north nineteen (19) degrees, twenty (20) minutes east, seventy five (75) feet to the place of beginning. Being the same land conveyed to the said Howard R. Andrews, now deceased, and said Bertha M. Andrews, your Petitioner, by deed dated December 11, 1929, and recorded in the Recorder's office of Crawford County in Deed Book 264, Page 280. Said satisfaction of said mortgage by the Recorder of Deeds of Crawford County to be completed upon the payment of any costs due relative to the entry of said mortgage or any proceedings thereon, which said satisfaction, so entered, shall forever thereafter defeat, release, and discharge said mortgage, as to the land above described, and shall likewise bar all actions brought or to be brought thereon as fully and effectively to all intents and purposes as if the satisfaction had been entered by the legal holder or holders thereof.

Decree:— And now, to-wit: March 21, A.D. 1947, this cause came on to be heard on libel, subpoena, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said libel are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said Wallace G. Sturrock, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between him the said Wallace G. Sturrock, the libellant, and the said Ida Tom Sturrock, the respondent; and that thereupon all and every the duties, rights and claims accruing to either the said libellant or the said respondent, at any time heretofore in pursuance of said marriage, shall cease and determine; And the said libellant and respondent shall severally be at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married. It is further ordered and decreed that libellant, Wallace G. Sturrock, pay the Warren State Hospital or such other person or corporation as may have the custody of Ida Tom Sturrock, the sum of $25.00 each month for her support, during her natural lifetime, so long as she remains insane or in need of treatment for mental troubles. Bond in the amount of $500.00 with one sufficient surety to be approved by the court, shall be posted in the premises, conditioned upon libellant's faithful compliance with this order for the term thereof. Per Curiam.

December 12, 1949, Petition for Release of Lien of Support Decree filed.

Order:- Now, December 12, 1949, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition in open Court and upon due consideration thereof, it appearing to the Court that ten (10) days' notice of the presentation of this Petition was given to Ida Tom Sturrock and the Warren State Hospital at North Warren, Pennsylvania, and it appearing that they have entered no appearance in Court or made any objection in Court to the granting of this Petition; and it further appearing to the Court that the releasing of said parcel of land as prayed in said Petition would be to the benefit of the interests of Ida Tom Sturrock and the Warren State Hospital by having the net proceeds of said sale applied to the senior or first mortgage upon said land; it is therefore hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the lien of the support decree entered at the above term and number on March 21, 1947 is hereby forever released from all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in Vernon Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: On the north nine hundred seventy (970) feet, more or less, by the Hayfield Township Line, separating the land hereinafter described from land of Lee D.
