On or about the 1st of June, 1948, one George Mattern, a resident of Sadsbury Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, called upon the Court, in chambers, and advised that a fraud was being perpetrated on the Court by the witnesses in this case. It was alleged by Mr. Mattern that contrary to the testimony of the libellant, he spent the winter of 1947 and 1948 living with his wife at 7725 Florry Way, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, whereas the libellant testified he had not cohabited with his wife since 1941.

Mr. Mattern further reported that he is the father of Violet Haines a witness for the libellant, and that the libellant and Violet have been keeping company for some time and the libellant is now trying to get the divorce in order to marry the said Violet Haines.

It is the opinion of the Court that these matters should be investigated by the master and it is, therefore, returned to him to subpoena the said George Mattern and make inquiry into the truth of his allegations.

did not appear in person or by counsel. The next day, however, the respondent, by her attorney filed a motion for leave to discharge the rule on libellant for alimony, counsel fees and costs. We granted this motion, but upon our own subsequent examination of the record we do not find that any petition for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees was ever filed.

On the same day the libellant's counsel filed a motion to withdraw his appearance.

Thus the proceedings were quite irregular up to this point and not in accordance with the rules of Court, although perhaps the withdrawal of his appearance by libellant's counsel cured these irregularities.

However, we think the Master should have full knowledge of all these facts before him at the time of the hearing in order to make a full investigation of the case. It is his duty to ascertain whether there was any collusion between the parties and he should, therefore, make inquiry as to whether or not the libellant's withdrawal from the case was occasioned by any agreement between the parties and if so, what was this agreement.

Therefore, in order that the Court may have full knowledge of all the material facts we, herewith, refer this case back to Robert F. Kent, Esq., Master, for further inquiry into these matters. Dated this 27th day of October, 1948.
