In Memorium

Report of Committee

To the Honorable, the President Judge of the Courts of Crawford County:

It becomes our solemn duty to record in the archives of this Court an account of the life and achievements of that distinguished lawyer and jurist, Thomas Jefferson Prather, who passed this life on January 10, 1949, and to pay our humble homage to his memory.

Judge Prather was born in Troy Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, November 28, 1866, the son of John M. and Sarah Strawbridge Prather.

His boyhood was spent on the farm, where he attended rural schools of Troy Township. He secured his education at the Edinboro State Normal School, from which he graduated in 1890, and at Allegheny College, where he received the Degree of B.A. Intermittently he taught school to finance his education.

During his College career he found his greatest relaxation and diversion from an intensive application to his studies in Allegheny Literary Society, where he developed great skill in debating and public speaking, and in college atheletics. He captained Allegheny's first football team, which he was largely responsible for organizing, and managed its baseball team.

He registered as a law student in the office of Humes and Thomas February 23, 1893. He was admitted to the Crawford County Bar on June 2, 1896, and was subsequently admitted to practice in the Appelate Courts of the State, and in the Federal Courts. Following his admission, he entered into practice in partnership with Homer J. Humes. In 1900 this partnership was dissolved, and he continued his practice individually. In 1899 Judge Prather was a candidate for District Attorney on the Democratic Ticket, and in a strenuous political contest in which Will R. Vance, who had just returned from the Spanish War was the Republican Candidate, he was defeated by 5 votes.

In 1907 he was elected President Judge of the Courts of Crawford County where he served with distinction for twenty years, being the first Judge of the County to be reelected for a second term. His second election occurred in 1917, under the then existing Non-partisan Judiciary Election Law, and against a large field of candidates on an Non-partisan Ballot. He received more than 51% of the votes in the primary, and was therefore the only candidate whose name appeared on the election ballot.

Upon his retirement from the bench in January 1928, he moved to Pittsburgh, where he was associated with the Chairman of this Committee in August 18, 1949 Answer of Defendants filed.

On Fall Trial List, 1949, No. 82.

October 12, 1949, Stipulation of Counsel filed.

Whereas, the certification relative to the elections to fill the offices of School Director, for the year 1943, which said certification declared three vacancies in the office of School Director for six year terms existed; And whereas, the certification should have declared vacancies for two six year terms and one four year term existed;

And whereas, as a result of such erroneous certification, three vacancies will exist in the offices of School Directors, on the first Monday of December, 1949, two of which will be filled for a six year term at the General Election November, 1949, and the third vacancy to be filled by appointment, pursuant to the provisions of the School Code.

And whereas, all parties agree to the correctness of the above facts in the existance of an error in the certification of the 1943 certification to the Board of Elections and therefore no good purpose could be served by this proceeding.

Now Therefore, it is agreed that the quo warranto action, above captioned be and is hereby discontinued, by agreement of counsel for the parties.

On Argt. List for May Term, 1950; No. 34.
June 12, 1950, Order - Mook P. J. - This case is not properly before the Court for the reason that the Master was appointed before the case was at issue contrary to the provisions of Rule 1133 of the Rules of Procedure. The record shows that the complaint was filed on September 16, 1949, was reinstated on November 26, 1949 and a return of "not found" was made by the Sheriff on January 16, 1950. The complaint was reinstated again on January 24, 1950 and service was obtained by registered mail on January 27, 1950. The Master was appointed, however, on February 8, 1950 which was less than twenty (20) days from the date of service. Plaintiff's counsel evidently realized that the procedure was not in order because he brought the defendant to the office of the Prothonotary where the defendant wrote the following on the margin of the docket: "And now, Feb. 24, 1950, I, James M. Huston enter my appearance in the above entitled case, and waive my right to hearing on the Complaint 20 days from this date. James M. Huston, Defendant."
This appearance apparently purports to be a waiver of the defendant's right to file an answer within twenty days after service, but instead of doing that he only waives notice of a hearing. We doubt very much if this purported waiver is sufficient but it is immaterial to the disposition of this case as we have already pointed out that the appointment of a Master is wholly invalid because it was made before the case was at issue. We regret that it is necessary to reach this determination as we recall having had some conversation with plaintiff's attorney about the matter. However, we do not think the Court knew that a Master had already been appointed. It is our recollection that the Court explained to plaintiff's counsel that the case could be at issue if the defendant appeared and filed an answer under the provisions of Rule 1133.

Since the case is not properly at issue it must be referred back for further proceedings.

the practice of law. In 1932 he retired from the practice of law, and returned to Crawford County to devote himself to the service of the many civic and social activities in which he always had an active interest.

For many years Judge Prather served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Edinboro State Normal School and as a Trustee of Allegheny College. He was an active member of the Rotarian International, the Masonic Order, and the Methodist Church. He was a leader in the Boy Scout movement in Crawford County. He rendered years of service on the Board of Directors of the Meadville City Hospital, and was one of the incorporators of "The Young Men's Christian Association of the City of Meadville."

Always a lover of nature, Judge Prather after his retirement from practice devoted much of his time to the trees, flowers, and a garden, an indefatigable worker when there was work to be done; public spirited when civic movements presented themselves, possessing those humane and charitable qualities which attracted his interest and attention to all the social problems confronting the community;

Therefore, let it be recorded that Crawford County sustained a severe loss when he passed this life, and the legal profession lost a distinguished exponent of the traditional ethical standards of the profession; Thomas Jefferson Prather will long be missed in the social, civic, and professional circles of Crawford County.
