March 13, 1950, Order filed.

Mook, P. J. And Now, March 11, 1950, the above entitled case is referred back to William K. Reid, Master, and said Master is directed to fix another hearing and require the witnesses to testify to specific incidents of improper conduct of the defendant, rather than generalities to furnish dates, at least in some instances of irregular conduct and to give in more detail the causes of separation. The Court should be furnished information as to how the separation took place, that is, did the plaintiff leave by reason of defendant's misconduct or did the defendant leave?

The parties were married six years; it is, therefore, important that the Court have full information as to the times of the alleged misconduct in order to ascertain whether it was continuous or only occasional.

"Statements that the defendant always or continually did certain things are of little value because vague and indefinite." Schafer v. Schafer, 10 Schuylkill Reg. 3; "The Court must be informed what respondent has done, and general statements, which are mere conclusions of witnesses, are of no value, unless accompanied by particulars as to words spoken or things done constituting conduct complained of." Kousz v. Kousz, 29 North. 257; Redmond v. Redmond, 10 Schuylkill Reg. 89; Jarema v. Jarema, 30 North. 40.

1 Copy Attested.

March 25, 1950, Complaint in Annulment Returned:- Served on Paul Edwards, personally, the within named defendant by handing a true and attested copy of the within Complaint in Annulment on March 18, 1950, at No. 360 Center Street, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, at 11:25 o'clock A. M., and making contents of same known to him.

So answers,
J. Floyd Van Winkle, Sheriff

And now, April 17, 1950, the within Motion is allowed, and Yolanda Barco, is hereby appointed Master to take testimony in the above entitled case and make report thereon to the Court.

Per Curiam.

May 19, 1950, Testimony and Report of Master filed.

On Argt. List for May Term, 1950; No. 58.

Order:- Mook P. J.- We agree with the Master in this case that the plaintiff's Exhibit "A" reporting to be a certified copy of a foreign decree of the Circuit Court of Steuben County, State of Indiana is inadmissible in evidence. As pointed out by the Master in her report, a decree of a foreign Court must be properly authenticated under the provisions of the Act of Congress. As we frequently refer to it the decree must be under "the triple seal" of the Court and Clerk. Since the exhibit is inadmissable in evidence we can not consider it and therefore, there is no competent evidence to establish that a previous divorce was set aside in the State of Indiana. Since the case must go back to the Master for the submission of proper evidence we suggest that we have some doubt whether this complaint can be sustained even if the authenticated copy of the record is received. The evidence shows that the plaintiff was divorced in the State of Indiana by a decree entered December 31, 1948. She married the defendant in the present case on March 15, 1949. The Indiana decree was not set aside until February 4, 1950. It thus appears that at the time the plaintiff married the present defendant she had no spouse living unless it can be determined that the divorce she received in Indiana was void ab initio. Therefore, it is suggested that when the case comes before the Court on the next list that the plaintiff furnish us with his authorities on this point.

Per Curiam,
Herbert A. Mook
President Judge

Dated this 10th day of June, 1950.

On Argt. List for Nov. Term, 1950; No. 64

And now December 18, 1950, after due consideration a decree of annulment is hereby entered as prayed for. And the marriage between Elaine Edwards and Paul Edwards is declared to be null and void. Per Curiam.

June 12, 1950. Order filed Mook, P. J. The record in this case shows that the complaint was filed in the office of the Prothonotary on March 28, 1950. The next day, to-wit, March 29, 1950, the Sheriff made a return of non est inventus as to the defendant and on the same day the plaintiff filed a praecipe for service by publication. This procedure is not in compliance with Rules 1124 and 1013 of the Rules of Civil Procedure governing actions at law. As reference to the Rules will reveal, the plaintiff is not entitled to direct service by publication until the Sheriff or Constable has made an affidavit of "not found," and a return or affidavit of "not found" can not be made until the period for service has expired. Thus, in the present case the Sheriff's return of non est inventus could not be made until thirty days after the complaint was filed on April 29, 1950 and not until that time would the plaintiff have a right to direct service by publication. We further express our opinion, but do not decide since it is unnecessary, that the Sheriff's return of non est inventus was invalid under the rule 1124. On the contrary he should file his affidavit that he has made diligent inquiry and search in his

And now, May 5, 1950, Frank D. Prather, Esq., is appointed Master to take testimony in the above entitled case and to make a report thereon to the Court.

Per Curiam.

May 19, 1950, Testimony and Report of Master filed. On Argt. List for May Term, 1950, No. 47

Order:- Mook, P.J. - The evidence in this case standing alone is sufficient in justifying the Court to grant a divorce. However, the testimony of the plaintiff is so utterly inconsistent with the testimony of witnesses called in three other cases appearing on this List, to-wit, Nathan H. Wiley vs. Ann L. Wiley at No. 43 May Term, 1950; Frances M. Richards vs. Robert W. Richards at No. 106 May Term, 1950; Arlene R. Farr vs. Eugene M. Farr at No. 67 May Term, 1950, we can not, in good conscience, grant a decree without some proper explanation by the plaintiff of the conduct attributed to her by the witnesses in each of those cases. The plaintiff, Elizabeth C. Wiley, testified in the present case as follows:

"Q. Did you ever give your husband any excuse or provocation for his abusive treatment?

A. I did not. I treated him with love and affection as much as he would permit, used my money for household necessities, overlooked his conduct for years longer than I should have, kept the house neat and clean, took good care of the children, and did everything in my power to make our marriage a success."

The evidence in the above mentioned cases established that plaintiff was running around with Robert Richards, apparently for some extended period of time and it was established that on one occasion they were followed to the Causeway Inn at Andover where they were found together. This case is therefore referred back to Frank D. Prather, Esq., Master, and he is instructed to examine the testimony in the above mentioned cases and thereafter fix another date for hearing and carefully cross examine the plaintiff in relation to her conduct as alleged by the witnesses in the cases mentioned above and make further report to the Court.

In Memoriam.

Today we are assembled to pay homage to the life and achievements of our fellow-member of the Bar, the late Walter J. McClintock, and to place in the archives of this Court a record of his legal attainments, his high professional and personal character, and his devotion to the many civic, social, and fraternal activities which have contributed so largely to the development, growth, and welfare of this community.

Walter J. McClintock was born in Meadville, Pennsylvania, July 9, 1885 and died at his home 515 Walnut Street, Meadville, Pa., on August 10, 1949. He was a graduate of the Meadville High School and of Allegheny College, and acquired his professional education in the Law School of Dickinson College, from which he was graduated in Law in 1910, and the same year he was admitted to the practice of law in the Courts of this County, and to the Superior and Supreme Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He was later admitted to practice in the Federal Courts. After spending a short period of time in Colorado, where he went to recover his health, he returned, he returned to Meadville and began the practice of law in association with his father, the late John O. McClintock. During his entire practice he closely adhered to the highest ethics of the profession and enjoyed the confidence and respect of the Courts in which he practiced and of the entire community in which he lived. Notwithstanding that he was always busily occupied in the practice of his profession and in the service of his clients, he took an active interest in all of the civic affairs of the community, and in the social and fraternal movements which build for a bigger and better community. He was a great reader, and had an intense interest in history generally, and especially the history of northwestern Pennsylvania, and was always an active participant in the affairs of the Crawford County Historical Association and of the Meadville City Library. He was closely associated with and secretary of the Board of Meadville Theological School when it was located in Meadville, and that interest and association continued after it was moved to Chicago, and during most of his active life he was the secretary of its Board of Trustees and its legal representative. He was a devoted supporter of the Meadville City Hospital, and served as the secretary of its Board of Directors for many years, and at all times engaged actively in its promotion and growth. He was connected professionly with the operation and development of the Children's Aid Society and the Home for the Aged, and always found time to assist every community charity. He served a term as President of the Crawford County Bar Association, and devoted much time to the establishment, growth, and maintenance of the Law Library of the County. He served Crawford County most efficiently for eleven years as its County Solicitor during a period when a multiplicity of new laws relating to county government constantly presented new problems in administrative and municipal law.

in the Commonwealth to imprisonment in any prison or penal institution thereof, whether the same be a state or county penitentiary, prison or penal institution as hereinafter provided."

Since the law gives the parole board the exclusive right to recommit a parolee for a violation of his parole, the court has no power to interfere in a proceeding of this kind if it is shown that there has been a violation of the parole order or parole agreement. The court cannot concern itself with the policy of the board but only with the legality of its orders, therefore, if it is shown there has been a violation of the parole agreement, no matter how small or insignificant the violation may have been, this court cannot say, as a matter of law, that the board has no power to recommit this relator.

The testimony of the relator himself establishes that he failed to obtain permission to move to Pine Street in Meadville from his home, that he failed to obtain permission to move to North Street, that he failed to obtain permission to go to DuBois, that he failed to obtain permission to go to Youngstown, Ohio; that he had unlawful sexual relations with one Barbara Warren as a result of which he was arrested. Therefore, in the face of these admissions, any action on the part of the court discharging him from imprisonment after he has been recommitted by the board would be arbitrary and capricious.

In our opinion we have no alternative, from the record in this case, other than to remand the prisoner to the custody of the Sheriff of Crawford County, there to be dealt with according to law and it is so ordered.

Exception noted for the relator.
