In Memoriam
Report of Committee

To the Honorable Herbert A. Mook, President Judge of the Courts of Crawford County:

This Committee appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a Memorial recording the life and achievements of our late brother, Jefferson E. Bossard, respectfully submit the following:

Jefferson E. Bossard was born in Woodcock Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on March 14, 1889, the son of Samuel A. Bossard and Carolyn Metzenbacher Bossard. He attended Elementary School in Woodcock Township and later graduated from the Blooming Valley High School and also the Edinboro Normal School which is now Edinboro State Teachers College. He taught school for several years in Pennsylvania and also at Riverside Heights, New Jersey. For sometime he had cherished the idea of becoming a lawyer and kept this goal in sight during his teaching experience. He was offered the school principleship at Ashland, North Carolina and thereupon decided that the time had come to make his choice between continuing in the teaching profession or entering upon a legal career. To help him obtain the facts necessary to arrive at a determination of this momentous decision, he sought the advice of Harlan Fiske Stone, who was later to become the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. After this conference, Mr. Bossard decided in favor of the Law and on June 10, 1912, upon recommendation of the Board of Law Examiners of Crawford County, he was registered as a student at the office of the late Honorable Frank J. Thomas and was admitted to the Crawford County Bar on June 1, 1915. He was later admitted to practice before the Supreme and Superior Courts of Pennsylvania and the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

After his admission to the Bar, he actively engaged in the practice of his chosen profession in the City of Meadville continuously to the time of his death on October 30, 1952.

He was married to Margaret E. Carey on June 28, 1917 and was survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Park.

His high ideals and devotion to the Court and to his clients have been and will continue to be an inspiration to his brother members of the Bar. He established an enviable reputation for integrity and ability. He firmly believed that anything that was worth doing at all was worth doing right and he would never consider any task completed that was not done well. He was known to the Bar and to the public alike for the thorough and conscientious manner in which he performed his every duty. He would never permit himself to be hurried into doing slipshod work and insisted upon completing everything that he did with meticulous care. While he

Petition for Writ of Coram Nobis
September 18, 1953 Motion To Dismiss Petition For Writ of Error Coram Nobis filed.
September 18, 1953 Sur Petition For Writ of Coram Nobis filed.
Opinion: Mook, P.J. And Now, September 18, 1953, the petition for Writ of Coram Nobis is dismissed for the following reasons:
1. The writ of coram nobis does not lie in the Court of Common Pleas to correct an alleged error in the Court of Quarter Sessions.
2. Even if the petition had been filed in the proper court, nothing is contained therein that would afford the court any basis for granting the writ.
The ancient writ of coram nobis is an extraordinary remedy rarely invoked although it still exists in this Commonwealth. However, as at common law the remedy of coram nobis is used to correct errors of fact unknown at the time of trial to both the party seeking relief and to the court. Under the writ in an appropriate case a judgment can be set aside by the court that entered it, for material errors of fact, but not of law, affecting its validity and unknown to the court when entered. Com. v. Brewer, 170 Pa. Super Ct. 251; Com. v. Geisel, 170 Pa. Super Ct. 636; Com. ex rel Baugh v. Claudy, 171 Pa. Super Ct. 183; Com. v. Harris, 351 Pa. 325. The petitioner entered a plea of guilty to the charge of Larceny of a Motor Vehicle in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Crawford County at No. 9 May Sessions 1951. The court sentenced him to undergo imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for a minimum term of one and one-half (1-½) years and a maximum term of five (5) years to be computed from February 19, 1951. However, the defendant at this time was on parole on a previous charge and he was, therefore, recommitted to the penitentiary to serve the remainder of the former sentence and thereafter to serve the sentence entered at No. 9 May Sessions, 1951. This the Parole Board had a right to do, as has been recently held by the Superior Court in the case of Kunkle v. Claudy, 171 Pa. Super Ct. 557.
The sentence entered by this Court did not state that the sentence was to run concurrently with the unexpired term of any previous sentence as contended by the petitioner. Our sentence did specify that the sentence was to be computed from the 19th day of February 1951. However, in the Kunkle case, supra, the Superior Court said at page 561:

> The designation of the effective date of the sentence imposed for the crime committed while on parole does not mean that such sentence is to be served concurrently with the unexpired portion of his original sentence, that is, the remainder of the term originally imposed; the effective date of such sentence is supplied merely to compensate for the time spent in confinement from the date of arrest in conformity with section 1, of the Act of May 28, 1937, P.L. 1036, 19 P.S. section 894.

ex rel Herman v. Burke, Pa. Superior 547, 91 A. 2d 385
There is therefore nothing averred in this petition according the petitioner right to a writ of coram nobis. We will and here, save the expense of further proceedings, that it would be futile for the petitioner to file a Writ of Habeas Corpus for reason that under the authority of the above case, the petitioner is not entitled to be released from custody until he has served the remainder of the unexpired term of a previous sentence as well as the sentence imposed by us in case at No. 9 May Sessions,

Petition for Writ of Coram Nobis

September 18, 1953, Sur Petition For Writ of Coram Nobis filed.

Opinion:- Mook, P.J. And Now, September 18, 1953, the petition for Writ of Coram Nobis is dismissed for the following reasons:

1. The writ of coram nobis does not lie in the Court of Common Pleas to correct an alleged error in the Court of Quarter Sessions.

2. Even if the petition had been filed in the proper court, nothing is contained therein that would afford the court any basis for granting the writ.

The ancient writ of coram nobis is an extraordinary remedy rarely invoked, although it still exists in this Commonwealth. However, as at common law the remedy of coram nobis is used to correct errors of fact unknown at the time of trial to both the party seeking relief and to the court. Under the writ in an appropriate case a judgment can be set aside by the court that entered it, for material errors of fact, but not of law, affecting its validity and unknown to the court when entered. Com. v. Brewer, 170 Pa. Super Ct. 251; Com. v. Geisel, 170 Pa. Super Ct. 636; Com. ex rel Baugh v. Claudy, 171 Pa. Super Ct. 183; Com. v. Harris, 351 Pa 325.

The petition shows that the defendant was arrested on May 31, 1944 and charged with the crime of larceny of motor vehicles in three separate cases, to wit: No 9, No. 10 and No 11 September Session in the Quarter Sessions Court of Crawford County, Pennsylvania. Pleas of guilty were entered by the defendant whereupon he was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for a minimum term of six (6) years and a maximum term of fifteen (15) years to be computed from May 31, 1944.

First, it is averred that the court erred in accepting the plea of guilty and entering sentence as the defendant did not sign the plea of guilty and, secondly, it is alleged that the court erred in denying the petitioner a full hearing before sentences were entered and erred in denying him the assistance of counsel to advise the court of these errors committed by the District Attorney.

It is not necessary that the petitioner sign his plea of guilty to the indictment, although we concede that it is better practice to have each prisoner do so to avoid the kind of case we have here. However in each indictment, the President Judge, Honorable O. Clare Kent endorsed thereon the following:

"And Now, June 6, 1944, the defendant in open court pleads guilty to the charges preferred in the within indictment, waives presentation thereof to the Grand Jury and consents to the pronunciation of sentence forthwith. O. Clare Kent, President Judge"

There was no error in this proceeding and it was unnecessary for the court to appoint counsel for the defendant to advise him of the errors of the District Attorney as there were none. Furthermore, we know that Judge Kent never denied anyone the right to counsel and on every occasion before sentencing entered into a full examination of the facts of the case.

There is nothing whatsoever set forth in this petition to afford the court a reason or right to grant the writ of coram nobis sought by the petitioner.

It was universally known and understood that any conveyance or land title which had passed through his hands could be relied upon with absolute confidence.

No commentary upon the life of Jeff Boszard could be complete without reference to his happy disposition and his keen sense of humor. He enjoyed life and possessed an unusual ability to discern humorous situations. His was a kindly humor and his attitude toward his fellow man was always sympathic. While he himself possessed the highest and most rigid moral standards, he could nevertheless make allowances for the frailties of human nature in others. He was never known to make caustic or unkind remarks concerning anyone.

He was deeply religious and was a member of the Grace Methodist Church of Meadville for many years, serving as a trustee and member of it's Official Board and as teacher and superintendant of it's Sunday School. He was interested in all worthwhile community projects and was a member of the Round Table and the Meadville Historical Society. He was a member of Lodge 234 F & A M and was Vice-President of the Crawford County Bar Association.

He was a loving husband and father, a fine lawyer and a true Christian gentleman.
