Report of Committee.

To The Honorable Herbert A. Mook, President Judge of The Said Court:

Your Committee, appointed to present a Memorial on the death of the late A. Dickson Andrews, Esq. respectfully reports the following

Your Honorable Court, continuing a highly regarded custom of the Crawford County Bar Association, appointed this Committee to prepare its report on the passing of a member of our Bar, the late A. Dickson Andrews, in order that there may be perpetuated in the minutes of this Court a report on his life and achievements.

Your Committee was appointed shortly after the death of our late brother and it decided that this memorial service should be held in our new courtroom in order that it might be in keeping with the dignity of the man whom we are honoring. This accounts for the service being held at this date.

On July 24, 1953 A. Dickson Andrews, an able, long, active, respected, and loyal member of the Crawford County Bar, died suddenly after a very short illness. He left to survive him his widow, the former Lena Mae Brown; his daughter, Carolyn Andrews Richmond, and three (3) sisters, Miss Florence Andrews, Mrs. Nellie A. Lord, and Miss Ethel Andrews.

Dick, as he was well and familiarly known to his countless friends throughout our city and county, was born in Meadville on June 21, 1887. He attended the Meadville Public Schools and graduated from Allegheny College in 1908. In 1915 Dick graduated from the Harvard Law School, and he was admitted to the general practice of law in the various courts of Crawford County, on August 16, of that same year. He continued to practice law as an active member of the local Bar, until his death, with the exception of the period in which he served in the United States Armed Service during World War I and in 1919 when he was located in Apollo, Pennsylvania. In addition to his practicing before the various Crawford County Courts, he practiced before the Superior and Supreme Courts of this Commonwealth.

The man whose memory we are honoring today was one of Crawford County's outstanding lawyers. Born with a natural intelligence, possessed of a very pleasing and warm personality, gifted with an unusual amount of good judgment, fully cognizant of his deep responsibility to his profession and his community, his career was characterized by his sincere and helpful service in all of his endeavors. His greatest joy was that he could be of service to his fellowman. Generally acknowledged as being a lawyer's lawyer, he was also recognized throughout Pennsylvania as a leading authority on municipal laws.

At the time of his death he was Solicitor for the City of Meadville and for various townships and school districts in this county. He became city clerk for the City of Meadville in 1919, and he served in that capacity until 1928. He was elected City Solicitor in 1924 and served continuously in that capacity for twenty-nine (29) years until his death. His service as a City Solicitor was always marked by wise and judicious counsel which benefited the general welfare of our community.

His excellent scholastic ability was early recognized when he was elected a member of the Phi Beta Kappa National Honorary Scholastic Fraternity at Allegheny College. His deep religious convictions were well known to all who knew him. This was something that he acquired early in his life for his last year in college he wrote in his diary:

> "I am determined that the love of anything earthly shall not deter me from the course that I have planned for myself. I am convinced that the love of Christ will never hinder me or my plans."

This splendid religious philosophy stood him in good stead throughout his life, and it is easy to understand why he was during his lifetime an active member of the Grace Methodist Church and a life official Board and in addition he also successfully taught a Sunday School class of boys of high school age for many years. There were in his class several present members of our Bar whose success in our profession was a source of real satisfaction to him.

His love of his fellowman and his full understanding of human frailties easily enabled him to have a very kind, considerate, understanding and tolerant treatment of every individual with whom he associated. Despite his modest and unassuming manner, he was always a worthy opponent in all of his professional activities, and he never failed to be respectful and courteous to the Court, to the attorneys and to everyone with whom he came in contact. He enjoyed the respect and good will of everyone. His loyalty and deep sense of responsibility, coupled with his natural dignity resulted in his enjoying a close and warm relationship with all of his clients and associates, who all cherished his sincere friendship.

He was active as a member of the Cussewago Lodge of the Odd Fellows, the Charles J. Stafford Post of the American Legion, the Meadville Christian Business Men's Committee, and of the Meadville Round Table. No member of the Round Table was more faithful in attendance, and certainly no member ever received greater mental stimulation from the many presentations and discussions than Dick.

This Committee would be remiss in presenting this report were mention not made of Dick's great interest in sports. Through his great interest in the Cleveland baseball team and Allegheny's athletic program, many members of the Bar spent many many pleasant hours with him discussing the merits of various contests and players. His discourses on sporting events and athletics of previous days were a source of great enjoyment and pleasure to all of us who had the opportunity to join in these discussions with him. During these informal discourses Dick often skillfully put across his point by quoting some apt verse of poetry which was always a source of great delight to those of us who remember his delivery.

We believe it is also worthy of note to mention how conscientiously Dick assumed his assignments of defending various indigents who found themselves, unfortunately, in criminal court without representation. Despite the fact that Dick personally did not care for criminal work as such, yet his appearance at the defense table on these assignments assured the poor unfortunate victim that his rights would be fully and vigorously protected, and Dick's flair for courtroom dramatics in these cases always provided much enjoyment to the fellow members of the Bar. Those of us who had the privilege of observing him defending the late Charlie Douglas will always have fond recollections of Dick's very skillful and tactful handling of this particular assignment which was given to him by the Court.

Characteristicly, Dick was a great lover of the American government and a keen student of its political makeup. A conservative Republican by political affiliation yet above all he was a true American who was ever jealously watchful of any inroad against the fundamental concepts of our forefathers which he so ardently loved and cherished. Because of his Party regularity, although he often rose above partisan politics, his counsel was respected and eagerly sought in Republican Party matters, and he served on many committees. He idolized Abraham Lincoln and sincerely followed much of his philosophy. One of the real joys of his life was to furnish a handsome portrait of Lincoln to the Republican Party for their annual Republican Lincoln Day Dinner.

Of Dick it can be said that he was a leader and stalwart member of our Bar, a valuable and useful citizen, and a splendid Christian gentleman. His death represents a distinct loss to the Crawford County Bar and to our community. His warm kind and sincere treatment of everyone, the energy of his will and the activity of his mind the love of heart that he put into all of his labors, and his deep and abiding religious convictions made his life a successful one which greatly enriched the lives of all who had the good fortune to come in contact with him. As an outstanding member and former Vice President of the Crawford County Bar Association, his memory will long remain warm and unforgettable with the members of our Bar. He will always be to those of us who knew him, a constant challenge and an inspiration!

Your Committee, on behalf of the Crawford County Bar Association, wishes to express our deep sorrow upon the loss of A. Dickson Andrews, and to extend our heartfelt sympathy to his widow and to all the members of his family, hoping that their grief may be somewhat assuaged with the thought that he leaves behind the memories of a life well lived.

We ask that this report be spread at length upon the records of the Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to the family and to the press.

Respectfully submitted,
