June 14, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, June 10, 1999, the parties appeared in Court on a contempt matter pursuant to a petition filed by Raymond E. Wilson in a custody case at 1998-488.
Kathleen Denman had just filed a petition for contempt in a PFA case at 1999-493. That was not served on Mr. Wilson, and since it could result in incarceration, he is entitled to counsel and a hearing. He was unwilling to hear that petition now, and accordingly, we set August 2nd at 1:00 p.m. for the hearing on the petition filed by Mrs. Denman on June 8th
We note of record that since both parties were present, they each were given a copy of the Order setting the hearing for Aug 2, 1999, and therefore, the Prothonotary ned not send copies of the Order to the parties. Service has been made in person in Court. Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

July 28, 1999 Order filed:

ORDER: AND NOW, Juky 28, 1999 the petition for exclusive possession of the marital residence is before the Court. Plaintiff wilfe appears with counsel and the Defendant appears prose. It is obvious to the Court that the separation has caused considerable friction between the parties, but to the parties credit, they apparently have worked out amicably a visitation and partial custody agreement regarding the two minor children in this case.

Accordingly, after informal input, the Defendant agrees that he has no objection to the wife having exclusive possession of the maritial residence except that the Defendant husband and father may go to the residence to pick up and return the children under any agreement between husband and wife for visitation and custody of the children.

Accordingly, we enter the following Order:

The prayer of the petition for exclusive possession for ther marital residence is granted and the Defendant father/husband is excluded from the marital residence but the partis mutually agree and the Court authorizes him to go to the marital residence occupied by the wife for the purpose of picking up or returning the children for mutually arranged visits agreed to by the parents of the children.

The court cautions the Defendant that during the pick-up period he should not make any threats or remove any other property from the residence without the express consent of the spouse in view of the divorce action now pending between the parties. P. Richard Thomas S.J.

✓ July 14, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, July 2, 1999, this matter comes before the Court in Motion's Court on a Petition for Temporary Custody filed by the Plaintiff.

The parties are here represented by counsel and mediation isscheduled in this matter for Aug 13, 1999 but it is obvious thatthe parties cannot even come to some temporary agreement pending that mediation.

In light of the fact the child is 8 years old and it is summer and we do not believe that either parent will be a problem with regard to having the child with that parent from what we are able to determine at this point, it is ordered and directed that the Defendant shall have temporary physical custody of the child until 6:00 p.m. on July 4, 1999 at which time temporary physical custody of the child shall then go to the Plaintiff until the following Sundlay at 6:00 p.m. and the parties shall thereafter exchange custody of the child for one week periods at 6:00 p.m. on every Sunday until mediation.

The party who is receiving custody of the child shall provide transportation with regard to these exchanges of the chidl and the child shall be picked up at the other party's address.

July 29, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, July 28, 1999, this abuse matter is before the Court with both parties present without counsel. It appears that there have been former abuse actions filed in Crawford and Mercer County totalling in numbers four to six over a period of years. Apparently, Plaintiff wife has been diagnosed as having a paranoid schizophrenic personality, suffers from depression and anxiety and is subject to mood swings. The Defendant husband seemingly has been counseled for a drug and alcohol problem and seemingly admits to abusive temper tantrums at times. Apparently, the previous abuse orders have expired and the present action brought in Crawford County by the wife is an attempt to make her lif eeasier and for the safety of the children because of occasional temper outbursts sometime sinduced by drug and alcohol on the part of the husband.

To each parties credit they seemingly admit some fault for the clash of personalities between them and seemingly prior abuse orders have not resolved the problem on a long-term basis. This case is continued for a period of six months, after which period of time wife

MAY MOVE THE Court order a rehearing and abuse order. In the event the husband threatens, assaults or attempts to injure, in any fashion, the wife, this Court will entertain a motiion within the next six months to conduct a full and complete hearing on the allegations alleged in the current petition and the allegations of abuse alleged in the motion to set a further hearing.

Court urges both parties to attempt to treat each other civilly for the sake of saving their marriage, which both seem anzious to do, but more importantly for the sake of the two minor children residing in the household.

Husband is cautioned that he may not threaten, assault, or abuse his spouse in any fashion during his continuance as noted aforesaid and will reserve the right for her to request an immediate hearing in the event she is assaulted, threatened, or grossly bused in any fashion.

Assessment of costs in this case are reserved pending future order. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

July 23, 1999 Order filed.

ORDER: This is an abuse action brought by former wife against former husband naming herself and minor child Ashley, age 8 minor child child Joshua age 6, as victims of abuse.

The alleged above is contained in paragraphs 18 and 19 of the abuse petition. In paragraph 18 former wife and mother of the minor children alleges that on an unspecified date (seemngly either at Christmas time in 1997 or 1998) father choked and whipped minor child Ashley with a belt and threw across a room into a bed where he held her down.

In paragraph 19 Plaintiff former wife alleges abuse by former husband as "verbal abuse" and physical abuse of an unspecified kind at sometime after the now 1994 divorce.

There are no allegations of abuse involving minor 6 year old Joshua even though he was named as a party plaintiff.

Both parties come to the abuse hearing with witnesses(6or7 by father) appearently ready to testify regarding the alleged abuses with the goal being primarily the child custody issue.

The parties already have in existence a mediation custody order ccvering bothe children as part of their November 18, 1994 divorce decree(AD 1994-356).

While we took no testimony in the abuse case because of the lack of time, our impression from ccunsel's comments and general input was that this abuse case is primarily keyed toward some type of a child custody modification. We therefore believe that if mother is seeking a modificiation of the existing custody and visitation order, fairness and common sensedictate that a petition for mcdification of the existing 1994 ci=ustody and visitation order id the more appropriate vehicle to readdress the custody issue. In said hearing we could listen to witnessen(if any) relating to the alleged single 1997 or 1998 Christmas-time alleged assault on child Ashley and address the of whether the existing custody order should be modified.

As for the alleged spousal abuse, we are not interested in hearing of a post-marital verbal abuse of a spouse alleged by wife. If mother and former wife wishes to pursue her own abuse action against the father and former husband wherein in her present petition only general terms of "physical abuse" are alleged, she may amend her abuse petition to spell out with specificity dates and places of physical buse upon forner wife, which necessitates a protective abuse order. We will grant her the right to amend , if indeed she wishes an abuse order protecting her against her former husband. The alleged abuse necessitating a hearing of abuse toward former spouse must specifically allege the time such abuse occurred and describe the above in some detail.

In summary we will not entertwin an amended abuse petition relating to alleged abuses upon one or both children, bur will permit mother to petition under the divorce case at A.D. 1994-356 for modification of child custody and visitationand the reasons therefore.

July 29, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 23, 1999, this abuse matter is before the Court with both parties represented by counsel.
It appears to the Court there is a disagreement about whether husband kicked wife on the alleged date in the abuse petition in a dispute on who should occupy a certain bed in the household.
The marital residence is in joint name and at least one of the parties estiamtes it has a value of approximately $30,000, but the house is already encumbered by two loans and a redevelopment loan, all of which total some $61,500.
The husband expresses a desire not to return to the residence, and accordingly, we direct that without written consent of the wife filed with the proceedings in this case, he will remove himself from his residence and he shall be privileged to take with him any of his personal possessions, clothing, and other ancillary items that are indisputably his.
If either party wishes the matter to be continued after three (3) months, the Court will entertain a motion to that effect. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

BY THE COURT:
Date: 7/13/99 Anthony J. Vardaro, J

July 23, 1999 Hearing on Petition Under Protection from Abuse Act and Order filed:
ORDER: AND NOW, July 23, 1999, at the time set for hearing on this abuse petition filed by wife against husband, wife and counsel appear, but the Defendnat fails to appear. There is no evidence on the record the record that the Defendant was ever served with a copy of this abuse petition and notice of the hearing set this date.

The Court is advised and the abuse petition declares that Defendant apparently is wanted in the State of Missouri on some unknown charges. Also, it appears that the State Police filed some type of charges or honored some type of an out-of-state warrart and confined the Defendant to the Crawford County Coreectional Facility for some reason. It further appears that the Defendant was released from confinement in the Crawford County Correctional Facility July 13, 1999, but the details of the reason for the release are unknown to Plaintiff, her cousel or this Court.

Under any circumstances, a copy of this petition for protection from abuse has never been served on the Defendant and the wife ccnjectures that upon his release from the Crawford County Correctional Facility, he probably has left the jurisdiction.

Accordingly, hearing on this protection from abuse petition is continued generally, and is if plaintiff or her counsel can procure service upon the Defendant of a copy of the abuse petition and see that the same is served, this Court will entertain a motion to set a hearing on abuse issue.

This case is continued generally on the conditions set forth in the temporary order.

July 28, 1999 Hearing n Protection From Abuse Petition and Order filed.
ORDER: AND NOW, July 26, 1999 although this case is extremely close on the facts, it centers around the intention of the defendant and the effect of her conduct on the plaintiff vis-a-vis 23 Pa. C.S.A. 6102(a)(1)(2)(5). We are satisfied that the defendant did drive the vheicle toward the plaintiff on one occasion but did so in anger in an attempt to leave. We find that she did the vehicle away on another occasion with the plaintiff leaning inside the vehicle, but we find as a fact that she warned him she was going to leave and we believe her when she said she did not do that to hurt him, but did that to get him out of her vehicle because he woukld not get out and she wanted to leave.

We find that the planitiff has not carried his burden of proof, and according, it is ordered as follows:

1. This action is dismissed.
2. The Temporary Protection From Abuse Order entered July 15, 1999 is vacated.
3. A true and correct copy of this Order shall be sent to the Pennsykvania State Police and County Control.

Aug 27, 1999 Certificate of complyetion of the Seminar for Separating Parents for Marisue Meaes, filed.

Sept. 8, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 8th day of September, 1999, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) This action was filed by the maternal grandmother, Marisue Mears. After mediation it appears that the Plaintiff is not seeking from the court a formal order, establish a set visitation schedule between herself and the three minor children who are the subject of this action, those children being Jocelyn Marie Stadtmiller, born Oct. 2, 1989; Alissa Nichole Davis, born March 12, 1995 and Mariah Lynn Davis, born Aug. 14, 1997.

2) The Court will not, at this time, order formal visitation between the maternal grandmother and the children for the reason that the maternal grandmother does not appear to actually want a formalized visitation schedule with the children, but rather is seeking to restore her relationship with the mother of the children in such a way that the mother will allow the maternal grandmother access to the children on a more liberal basis. Given the fact that the grandmother would like the court to order something which the court cannot realistically order in conformity with the provision of 23 Pa. C.S.A. 5312, the court will not issue an order establishing a formal visitation schedule between the maternal grandmother and the parents.

3) The maternal grandmother has taken and completed the Seminar for Separating Parents. The parents, Preston Davis and Jennifer Davis, shall register for and complete the Seminar for Separating Parents within 45 days of the date of this order or be subject to the sanctins permitted by rule and law, including contempt, fines and possible incarcaration.

5) Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $174.00 ($60.00/hr. x 2.90 hrs.) and the $13.50 Court Order filing fee are to be paid by Crawford County for the reason that the maternal grandmother proceeded informa pauperis and the parents, under these circumstances, should not be assessed court costs.

6) Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within twenty (20) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Aug 4, 1999 AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE: I, Shawn E. Ashbaugh, Deputy the undersigned, hereby state that I served a copy of the Petition and Temporary Order in the above-captioned action upon the Defendant by handing the papers to Clayton E. Weaver at the following address: Was served in the Sheriff's Office. on the 2nd day of August, 1999 at approximately 2:15 PM.

Aug 12, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, Aug 12, 1999, after informal input, it seems obvious to this Court and to the parties that it is not likely the parties will reconcile as the Defendant admits he has developed a romantic interest with a third party and plans on living with her and removing himself from the marital domicile.
This case is continued until Nov 1, 1999 without an official adjudication of abuse but on the condition that the Defendant husband remove himself fromliving at the residence and not return to the residence unless directly requested by the wife. He shall not threaten, harass, or annoy the wife in any fashion nor threaten her with physical abuse for any reason.
It appears that the husband's clothing and other personal items were destroyed by the wife in her anager over discovering his unfaithfulness, and therefore, the Defendant has no personal property left at the marital residence and there is no need for him to go there under any circumstances.
The parties mutually agree that each has a vehicle titled in their own name and they will keep possession of the same.
The Defendant Clayton E. Weaver agrees he will not harass or annoy the Plaintiff in any fashion or go to the residence noted aforesaid where she lives without her expressed written invitation to do so.
If there are no petitions filed for violation of this Abuse Order between now and Nov 1, 1999, this Order will terminat without further Order of Court.
The Defendant is directed to pay costs in this case in the amount of $143.50. The Defendant will pay the costs at the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County by 4:30 p.m. on Monday August 16, 1999. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Sept 30, 1999 Order filed. And Now, September 27, 1999 this matter comes before the Court on a Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for Violation of the Protection from Abuse Order, which was filed by the PA State Police. That complaint was sworn to on Sept 18, 1999 and filed in the Porthonotary's Office on Sept 21, 1999. Apparently, it was done without the request of the plaintiff and on Sept 20, 1999 the plaintiff filed a Motion to Vacate the Protection from Abuse Order and Judge Miller signed that on Sept 20, 1999.
Teh contempt proceeding would survive the vacation of the Protection From Abuse Order but the plaintiff appears and indicates she has no interest in pursuing this.
The record indicates that the notice of the hearing was distributed but we are not sure whether it was actually distributed, but we are not sure whether it wa actually distributed to Trooper Fetzner of teh PA State Police and it does not appear hat it was.
Based on teh plaintiff's wishes and the curren state of the record, this Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt will be dismissed at this time, without prejudice to Trooper Fetzner to request a further hearing if he does so within 14 days of this date if he does wish to pursue it.
The prothonotary is specifically directed to provide a copy of this order not only to the parties, but to the PA State Police, to the attention of Trooper Michael J. Fetzner.

Oct 1, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, Sept 28, 1999, after a full formal hearing on the original Petition for Protection From Abuse, as well as, the Complaint for Violation of the Protection from Abuse Order, we find and order as follows:

1. The Plaintiff has failed to carry her burden of proof by proving that the Protection from Abuse Act was violated and accordingly, the Petition for Protection from Abuse is dismissed and the temporary order entered July 30, 1999 is vacated.

2. We find as a fact tht the Defendant violated the terms and conditions of the temporary order not with respect to any of the personal belongings but with respect tot he dog. As to the personal belongings, the Plaintiff obtained some of her personal belongings July 30 after the temporary order was entered. We accept the testimony of the Defendant's mother that therest of the belongings wer delivered to the Plaintiff at the Plaintiff's mother's residence after Judge Vardaro's Order of Aug 9, 1999. Although, we feel leaving the belongings at a curb was wrong, the mother testified that when they returned to the site where the items wer left off, they had been taken presumably by the Plaintiff.

However, we find as a fact that the Defendant violated the terms and conditions of the temporary order with respect to the dog. The Plaintiff testified that when she returned to the residence on July 30, the dog was present and we accept her testimony. She left late afternoon shortly before the Defendant was served. Therefore, based upon circumstantial evidence, we conclude that the dog was present on the premise on July 30 and had not been disposed of or sold or given away by the Defendant prior to that. We accept the Plaintiff's testimony on that. We reject the Defendant's testimony. The Defendant's testimony that he got rid of the dog to a person whose name he does not recall under circumstances that are most vague defies common sense and credibility.

3. As punishment for contempt, the Defendant is ordered to pay the following:

a. Record court costs in these proceedings of $183.70 within 30 days from today.

b. The sum of $250 to the Plaintiff for compensation or partial compensation for the loss of the dog. Said sum shall be paid to the Plaintiff within 60 days from this date. Compensation of the Plaintiff is being ordered in lieu of a fine.

4. A true and correct copy of this Court Order shall b edelivered to the Pa. State Police and to County Control.

Aug 3, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, August 2, 1999, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on a Petition for Civil Contempt for Violation of a Protection From Abuse Order filed by the plaintiff.

The allegations involve the dates of May 7, 1999; June 3, 1999; and, June 7, 1999, but we note that the allegation of May 7, 1999 was prior to service of the Order on the defendant and we are not convinced that there is sufficient evidence with regard to a violation on Juen 7, 1999.

We ar convinced that there is sufficient evidence of a violation on June 3, 1999, and according, we find that the defendant is in contempt.

For his contempt, he is sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Correctional Facility for a minimum term of 10 days and a maximum term of 6 months, with work release privileges if work release can be arranged.

Upon his good conduct in the Crawford County Correctional Facility, he is automatically paroled at the expiration of his minimum sentence, subject to supervision by the Adult Probation-Parole Dept. under the following terms and conditions:

1. He shall comply with the general rules, regulations and conditions governing probation and parole in Crawford County
2. He shall pay an Offender Supervision Fee of $10 for each and every month that he is supervised by tht Department.
3. The defendant shall strictly comply with the terms and conditions of the final PFA Order of May 28, 1999.

If the former Plaintiff wife wishes a full hearing on alleged abuses to herself, she may file an amended abuse petition at the same number and term spelling out with some degree of specificity the exact time, location and nature of such abuses that would require the issuance of a protective order on her behalf against her former husband.

If custody of the child Ashley and visitation are desired to be chalnged for whatever reason, this procedure will be made by petition at the divorce number referencning the custody order of September 23, 1994 forming part of the record in the divorce case with allegations of why ther existing 1994 custody and visitation order is inadequate, unfair or not in one or both best interest.

If plaintiff former wife wishes to pursue an abuse action against former husband as noted above, she has 20 days to file an amended abuse petition at the same number and term spelling out with specificity the misconduct of former husband that endangers her health,safety and welfare and is of such a serious nature as to require a protection from abuse order.

This Court's 30 day oral continuance of this case is rescinded and further proceedings to address complaints of abuse to the child may be raised by the aforesaid method of modification of the existing custody order in the divorce case at A.D.1994-356.

This order supersedes the temporary order of July 16, 1999 entered by Judge Anthony Vardaro.

July 14, 1999 ORDER, AND NOW, July 2, 1999, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the complaint for indirect criminal contempt for a violation of a protection from abuse order filed by the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff is not represented by counsel and the Defendant is represented by counsel and we proceed informally.

We determine that essentially, the Plaintiff had gone to a former residence to take personal property out of that residence and apparently the Defendant happened upon that residence and they got into an argument over certain personal property. There were no threats made but the Defendant is clearly in violation of the order for having contact with the Plaintiff and should have left that area particularly that residence when the Plaintiff was there.

In light of the fact htat he has already served approximately 10 days in the Crawford County Correctional Facility, for his contempt, he is sentenced to pay a $100 fine and any court costs.

I tis ordered and directed that he shall be released from custody this day. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J.

August 11, 1999 Order filed. And Now, August 6, 1999 at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the Defendant did not appear. There is no evidence he was personally served with notice of the hearing, Counsel for the Palintiff advises that he sent a true and correct ocpy of the petition with the order setting the hearing to the Defendant's address at 1119 South Cottage St, Meadville, PA which is the address taht counsel believed the Defednant was living at. Counsel called the phone number at that address and talked to Janice Jenkins and asked if James Jenkins II lived there and she said yes based upon that, that notice was sent tot hat address. We are not inclined to hold the Defendant in contempt unless we are satisfied he has had actual notice of the hearing this day. It is difficult with Pro Se litigations since the counsel for the Plaintiff does not know exactly where James Jenkins II is and James Jenkins has filed nothing of record to change his address to put anyone on notice where he lives.
Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:
1. The hearing in this case is continued to Friday Augsut 20, 1999 at 9 am in Courtroom no. 1.
2. Service of the petition for contempt as well as this order scheduling the hearing shall be made upon the Defendant personally by the Sheriff of Crawford county. The Cost of service may be assessed to the defendant.
3. A copy of the Petition for Contempt for a Violation of the PFA Order and the Original order setting this hearing, shall be plaed of record as it appears that said petition was missing from the record.
