To the Honorable Herbert A. Woods, President Judge of said Court:

Your Committee appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a memorial on the death of the late, the Honorable O. Clare Kent, respectfully submits the following:

Orville Clare Kent was the son of Dr. John O. and Mary Free Kent. He was born at Espyville, Crawford County, on June 15, 1876. He attended the schools of North Shenango Township and the Linesville High School prior to enrolling at Allegheny College, where he graduated in the Class of 1896.

He studied law with Joshua Douglass, and was admitted to the Bar May 30, 1900. He entered at once upon the practice of his profession in the City of Meadville, and was later admitted to practice in the Appellate Courts of Pennsylvania and the United States Courts. In 1905 he was elected District Attorney of Crawford County, and again in 1908, serving in that capacity for six years. He was the first District Attorney to succeed himself in the County. In November 1927 he was elected Judge of the Several Courts of Crawford County for a term of ten years, and was re-elected in 1937 for an additional term. In 1948 Allegheny College conferred upon him an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws. He was President emeritus of the Crawford County Bar Association.

Judge Kent was prominent in fraternal circles. He was a charter member of the local Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He was active in various Masonic Orders; was Past Exalted Ruler of the Meadville Lodge 219 of B. P. O. Elks; Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks Lodges of Northwestern Pennsylvania; and a member of Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

He was a member of the Methodist Church of Meadville, as a staunch Republican, he was active in politics for many years.

In 1903 the Judge married Marion L. Irvin of Meadville. She died in 1939. At the time of his death on June 22, 1957, he was survived by four children born of this marriage, namely: John O. Kent, Robert F. Kent, Marion A. Fithian and Fay E. Chisholm. He was also survived by his second wife, the former Anna K. Smyers, whom he married in 1950.

After his retirement from the Bench in 1948, he became associated with his sons, John and Robert, in the practice of law with offices on Center Street in Meadville. This association continued until 1961, when he gradually retired because of ill health.

During his tenure of office as District Attorney and thereafter until he went on the Bench in 1928, Judge Kent participated in the trial of many important cases, both criminal and civil. During his two terms as Judge, he was called upon to preside in much

Of No 64 May TERM, 1957

And Now, this 16th day of January 1959, the parties to the present case through their attorneys, stipulate and agree as follows:

1. That a verdict for an accounting from July 1, 1953 up to the present date shall be entered by the jury in favor of the plaintiffs and against the defendant.

2. The defendant agrees to permit accountants employed by the plaintiffs to inspect and audit all of the payroll records of the defendant covering a period of time from July 1, 1953 to the present date, including but not being limited to original employees earnings records, original employees time records, original payrolls and copies of State and Federal payroll tax returns. Defendant will cooperate in making said records available to the accountants for the plaintiffs, and in the event the defendant cannot locate copies of the Federal and State payroll tax returns, the defendant will secure copies of the same from the proper governmental authorities.

3. Defendant agrees to pay to the plaintiffs, in addition to the $2461.60 plus interest from September 3, 1957, for which judgment has already been entered by the Court, the total amount shown to be due by the audit and inspection performed by the accountants for the plaintiffs, reserving to the defendant the right to question the accuracy of any item or items in the account but the plaintiffs agree to furnish to the defendants upon its completion, copy of the audit report, and as to any items not in dispute, the defendant agrees to pay said items within sixty (60) days after receipt of said audit report, said payment to be made without interest. As to items disputed by the defendant, the defendant agrees to furnish to the plaintiffs or their counsel an itemized statement of disputed items within thirty days of receiving said report, and if said disputed items are not resolved within said sixty days period, then interest shall accrue on said disputed items which are finally resolved in favor of the plaintiffs from the date of submission of audit report to the defendant.

The defendant agrees that it is responsible for contributions on all employees within the categories as set forth in the collective bargaining agreement dated March 16, 1955 as follows:

a. From July 1, 1953 to the present time for all employees who were members of any of the Unions who were parties to the collective bargaining agreement.

b. From January 30, 1954 to the present time for all employees who were not members of any Union.

It is understood that the plaintiffs by virtue of this paragraph of the stipulation are waiving any claims to contributions for non-union employees prior to January 30, 1954.

The plaintiffs agree that the defendant will not be required to furnish an accounting pursuant to the verdict for an accounting this day returned by the jury, provided that the defendant shall make available all the above-mentioned books and records for the audit to be made by the plaintiffs upon one week's notice by the plaintiffs of his desire to audit said books. At any time the plaintiffs deem it necessary, they may require the defendants to proceed with the accounting upon thirty (30) days notice.

This stipulation will of course have no effect on the judgment for $2461.60 together with interest from September 3, 1957 as entered by the Court, which said judgment will still stand of record; provided, however, that the plaintiffs agree that no executions process of any nature will be issued on said judgment, nor steps taken for the collection thereof until sixty (60) days after the submission of the audit report of the plaintiffs to the defendant.

This stipulation is entered into by attorneys for the parties involved with the full consent and direction of the parties to the action.

July 19, 1966 Order filed. P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

It appears that in 1957, in the settlement of a wrongful death action, the sum of $1,100.00 was deposited in a savings account at the Farmers National Bank in Conneautville in the name of Mary Patterson and Robert Patterson, grandparents of Laurene Ann Patterson and a similar sum of $1,100.00 deposited in another account for the minor, Jennifer Lee Patterson.

It further appears that over the years the said maternal maternal grandparents have made periodic requests to the court to withdraw sums from the account to purchase clothing and pay incidental expenses for said children, which petitions from time to time have been granted.

It further appears that at the present time there is a balance in each account of $661.85 plus accumulated interest.

It appears to the court that the interests of the minors and the grandparents can best be served by issuing an order authorizing the annual withdrawal of funds from said account for clothing purposes without the inconvenience and expense of presenting annual petitions therefor.

Accordingly we enter the following litigation, and of a necessity was obliged to write many opinions. He was the first Judge of Crawford County Courts to wear a robe. He introduced this practice at the beginning of his second term, and it added much to the dignity of the proceedings before him.

It can truthfully be said Judge Kent that he was a friend of young people. Many a young person who was brought before him for sentencing found a sympathetic and lenient Judge who gave the offender an opportunity to thereafter rehabilitate himself and live within the law. He was helpful to young lawyers who had legal problems. He permitted young boys to engage in athletic events upon his land in the vicinity of his home on Alden Street. His hobby was raising flowers, and he spent much time in maintaining a beautiful flower garden on the grounds of his home.

In addition to the practice of his profession and the performance of his official duties, he always had a keen interest in his community and took an active part in various civic enterprises.

The death of Judge Kent is a distinct loss to our Bar and our community at large, and the Committee wishes to express its deep sorrow and extend its heartfelt sympathy to his widow and children. His distinguished career speaks for itself and is a greater memorial to him than anything the Committee could say.

We respectfully request that this report be filed with the records of the Court, and a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.
