February 8, 1964 Order Denying Petition for allowance of a Writ of Certiorari filed

Thomas J. The defendant has filed an Amended Petition for allowance of a Writ of Certiorari. Paragraph 4 of the Petition contains allegations to the effect that there was no evidence presented that official warning signs had been erected and that certain documents certifying the accuracy of radar equipment were not presented in evidence.

Since a Writ of Certiorari brings up before the Court for review nothing but the record and matters of evidence cannot be attacked by a Writ of Certiorari, the Court finds that the Petition contains insufficient evidence to justify the granting of a Writ and accordingly, this 7th day of February 1964, the Petition for allowance of a Writ of Certiorari is hereby denied.

Aug. 25, 1964, By praecipe filed plaintiff's attorney directs the above case be submitted to the Court.
On Divorce List for August, 1964, No. 8.

Sept. 18, 1964 Order filed: Thomas, P.J. And Now, September 17, 1964, the above divorce action is before the Court upon the report of John O'Laughlin, Master. We note the Master was appointed on June 20, 1964 and a hearing fixed for June 24, 1964. The Masters Report indicates that notice of the Masters hearing was waived by the defendant as shown by his signature on a waiver attached to the Report. We find no such waiver attached and the same was either not procured or was erroneously omitted when the Master submitted his report.

Rule 25 C (2) requires at least five (5) days written notice of the time and place of the Master's hearing. Although there is no prohibition in the Rule against a waiver of this five days written notice, this court is of the opinion that "quickie hearings" should not be held in divorce actions and only under the most unusual and compelling circumstances should this procedure be followed.

In view of the foregoing, we are returning the Masters Report and the attached documents to the Master with instructions to attach the original waiver of the defendant, if the same is in existence otherwise to obtain from the defendant a sworn statement that he wishes to waive any rights he had to notice of the hearing and that after a reading of the Masters Report and the testimony he has no objection to re-submission of the same to the court for ultimate determination.

June 29, 1983 Order for Hearing: The Court is presented with a petition to commit the above alleged mentally defective person to Polk Center on a newly filed petition by the Coordinator of the Developmental Disabilities Program. It appears that the patient was previously a long time resident of Polk Center, but was moved from the Center to the community on Aug. 10, 1982, and apparently said removal was considered as a termination of his original commitment at the above term and number.

It further appears the patient has resorted to self-destructive behavior and has become a danger to himself and others, and is temporarily under recommitment to Polk under Section 405 of the Mental Health & Retardation Act. We are now asked to recommit under Section 406.

Accordingly, a hearing is hereby scheduled before the Court on July 5, 1983 at 3:30 P.M. at which time the patient shall be present for said hearing. The Coordinator of the program will arrange for his presence and will also arrange to supply any relevant mental or social history to the attorney for the patient hereafter appointed.

The Court hereby appoints Bruce Barrett as attorney to represent the patient at the hearing.

Mencer, dated October 23, 1964 denying his writ of Habeas Corpus, the Clerk of Courts is hereby directed to forward to Clayton Gibbs copies of the indictment, information and docket entries from the records of his court. August 15, 1966 Order filed: P. Joseph Thomas, J. And now, August 15, 1966 this matter came on to be heard at the time scheduled for hearing and the attorneys for the parties, to-wit Stuart A. Culbertson, representing the petitioners and attorney Paul D. Shafer representing the respondents, advise the following facts:

1. Around the first part of July 1966 the petitioners voluntarily surrendered custody of Carl Miller the child involved in these proceedings, to the respondents, G.W. Richard and Lurlie Richard, his wife, and said respondents presently have custody of this child.

2. That the petitioner and father of said child surrendered the custody of the said child to the respondents on the promise that they immediately file proceedings for the adoption of said child and take whatever steps were necessary to successfully consummate said adoption.

3. That under the circumstances, the completion of said adoption may, and probably will, require a period of six months or more; Now, Therefore, it is hereby ordered and directed as follows: In accordance with the agreement of the parties as this day announced to the Court by the attorneys representing said parties, the custody of Carl Miller is now vested in the respondents, G.W. Richard and Lurlie Richard pending the filing and completion of proceedings for the adoption of said child. The court is advised by the attorney for the respondents that the report of the proposed adoption is now being completed and will be filed within the next few days.

The vesting of the custody of the child with the respondents as of this time and upon the basis of the agreement of the parties that this child is to be adopted by the respondents, and in the event that proceedings for the adoption are not filed and successfully completed, the matter may again be referred to the court for such disposition as may be indicated at that time.

July 8, 1983 Order filed. And Now, July 5, 1983, the matter is back before the Court for review and disposition of a Section 406 commitment under the Mental Retardation Act. It appears that the patient has been a resident of Polk Center for a number of years, having been originally committed August 6, 1964. He was released from Polk Center to a group living arrangement in Crawford County on August 10, 1982. Apparently this group living arrangement was not satisfactory and the group home was not structured to meet the needs of the patient, and the patient's misconduct presented problems and danger to other inmates and staff at the group home. Accordingly, he was removed from the group home placement under an emergency Section 405 commitment and returned to Polk Center June 23, 1983, and a petition was filed by the Mental Health Administrator to return him on a permanent basis to Polk Center. At the hearing, the Court hears testimony of Terry Morris, Coordinator, Disabilities Program, and a Mr. Carlisle, Staff Psychologist at Polk Center; also present at the hearing were Linda Carey, Residential Director for the Association of Retarded Citizens and Maricita Cappal, acting Caseworker at Woodside and Building in Polk Center. After informal testimony and review of the situation with all present including Court appointed counsel Stephen Hall the Court is of the opinion that the needs of this patient can best be met by a recommitment to Polk Center, as the least restrictive environment to meet the patient's needs.

Accordingly, this 5th day of July, 1983, the patient James Mickle is hereby recommitted to Polk Center for an indeterminate period of time, and until further Order of Court or leave of absence granted by the Center and subject to periodic review as the law so provides.

Court appointed Stephen Hall is DIRECTED to submit a bill for his services to the Mental Health Administrator.

Oct 12, 1979 Order filed: And Now, October 11, 1979, Rule 11 of the Crawford County Rules of Court is amended by adding thereto Section 4 as follows:

Section 4- Form & Size of Documents filed

(a) Size & other physical characteristics -- No paper or other document may be filed in the Clerk of Court's Office, the Prothonotary's Office, or the Office of the Register of Wills on any paper other than paper approximately 8½ x 11 inches in size. Any paper or other document filed in any office shall be sufficient as to format & other physical characteristics if it substantially complies with the following requirements:

(1) Prepared on white paper (except for covers, dividers & similar sheets) of good quality with typed or printed matter 6½ x 9½ inches.

(2) The cover sheet shall contain a three inch space from the top of the paper for all court stampings, docketing notices, etc.

(3) Backers shall not be necessary.

Effective October 14, 1979 as to all documents filed in new cases.

Effective generally March 1, 1980 as to all filing.

Comment: This rule is intended to facilitate compliance with Pennsylvania Rule of Appellate Procedure 124, effective October 14, 1979, with a limited grace period until March 1, 1980. It is anticipated that current paper supplies will be exhausted by March 1, 1980, such that it will be reasonable to expect full compliance with this rule by that date. After March 1, 1980, the offices affected will not accept a document in other than 8½ x 11 inch size paper unless exceptional circumstances are shown.

Exhibits introduced in judicial proceedings & wills are exempt from the above rule. It is not anticipated at this time that standard form deeds, agreements, mortgages, right-of-way, etc., recorded in the Recorder of Deeds Office are affected by Supreme Court or Crawford County Rules.

December 9, 1964 Sur Petition To Adjudge in Contempt, and Order filed:- And Now December 3, 1964 the Court refuses to adjudge Sally Bennett Anderson in contempt of court, but in view of additional testimony taken, enters the following Modified Order.

1. The provisions of Paragraph 1 of the Order entered May 22, 1964 shall be continued and the child Wendy Lou April Bennett, shall visit in the home of her grandparents, Milton P. and Ruth D. Coughlin on the second weekend of each month, commencing at 10:00 o'clock A.M. Saturday and ending 7:00 o'clock P.M. Sunday evening.

2. In addition, Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin shall have the right to have the child in their custody or at their home on the third Wednesday of every month between the hours of 1:00 o'clock P.M. and 7:00 o'clock P.M. Provision for Wednesday visits shall be discontinued when the child commences attending school.

In view of the fact that the working hours of Milton P. 5. It shall be a further condition of this Order that neither Milton P. Coughlin nor Ruth D. Coughlin nor Sally Bennett Anderson nor George James Anderson shall, while the child Wendy Lou April Bennett is in their custody, either directly or indirectly make any derogatory remarks against the other parties in this action nor shall they encourage said child to have any disrespect, disloyalty, or animosity against any of the parties mentioned and shall not, by act, word or deed, attempt to influence said child to violate the spirit of this and the previously entered Order wherein the court expressed a desire that the child continued to have a close relationship and affection for the grandparents as well as her mother and new husband.

for their grandmother Lillian Markley, the Court encourages Lois Daugherty and her spouse to arrange for frequent visits of the children to the home of Lillian Markley and specifically orders that both children be delivered to the home of their grandmother for one week end visit per month, which shall be the first week end of each month, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties; said visit to last from 7:00 o'clock P.M. Friday evening until 7:00 o'clock P.M. Sunday evening. In addition, the said Lois Daugherty shall arrange for the two children to spend two separate one week periods during the childrens summer vacation at the residence of their grandmother, Lillian Markley; said visits to commence Monday at 10:00 o'clock A.M. and terminate on Sunday at 8:00 o'clock P.M.

4. The said Lois Daugherty shall further see that the said children make a visit to the home of their grandmother during the Christmas and Easter seasons and unless otherwise agreed, said visits, if not practicable on Christmas day or Easter day will be made the day before or the day after.

5. In view of the fact that the children have resided with their paternal grandmother for a period of approximately eight years and that there may be difficulty in adjusting to a changed family situation the Court by copy of this Order, requests the Erie County Institution District, 409 State Street, Erie Pennsylvania, to make an investigation of the school and home conditions of these children and report to this Court their findings, said report to be submitted on or before December 1, 1964. A copy of said report shall also be forwarded to A. L. Gambatese, Attorney at Law 500 Masonic Building, Erie, Pennsylvania

6. The said Lois Daugherty is hereby directed to make arrangements for her children to continue the close association with the Protestant church which they have developed by regular attendance at Sunday School or church.

7. Neither party to this proceeding, shall do anything to alienate the affections of said children toward the other party and shall make every effort to encourage the children, while they are in or out of their custody, to develop a natural love and affection for the parent and grandparent.

8. Custody of the children together with all of their toys clothing, and personal effects, will be surrendered to Lois Daugherty at the residence of Lillian Markley on Saturday August 22, 1964 before 12:00 o'clock noon, unless other arrangements are made by mutual agreement of the parties.

9. The costs in this case due to be paid by the Relator.

On Arg. List for Nov. Term, 1964 No. 4.

July 7, 1965 Sur Preliminary Objections to Action in Foreign attachment filed. Order: Thomas, P.J. And Now, July 7, 1965, the Court's ruling on Preliminary Objections filed by the defendant, Whitehall-Rand, Inc., Nos 1 and 2 is hereby deferred until such time as the Court has before it sufficient evidence in the form of testimony and exhibits upon which to make a ruling on the objections raised by said Preliminary Objections. Questions raised by the Preliminary Objections and argued in briefs cannot be decided until the parties by stipulation or by an amended sheriff's return of the writ specify which articles enumerated in the writ were actually found and attached by the Sheriff.

Preliminary Objections Nos 3 and 4 are overruled.

For the guidance of the parties in this action and the companion action filed at No 148 September Term, 1964, the Court by this ruling holds that the plaintiff by service of the writ of foreign attachment and a copy of the Complaint upon John N. Pericelli, the admitted Secretary of the defendant corporation, has obtained personal service and jurisdiction of the defendant corporation and has obtained personal service upon John N. Pericelli and William J. Bainbridge as garnishees.

In view of the fact that the Preliminary Objections raise questions of fact which the Court cannot determine without the benefit of sworn testimony, the Court is of the opinion that the parties may proceed as follows:

(a) The defendant may petition the court, under Rule 1028 (c) to set a time and place for taking the testimony, or may proceed by the taking of depositions under said rule.

(b) The defendant may defer any action in this regard until such time as the Plaintiff may obtain a judgment against the defendant and again re-institute Preliminary Objections by asking for a hearing to determine the right of ownership of the of the property in the hands of the garnishee which was actually attached by the Sheriff and the right of the plaintiff to attach the same.

(c.) The plaintiff may not at this time of its own motion enter into a contest with the garnishee (see Standard Pa. Practice, paragraph 1266(a)-3) but upon successfully obtaining judgment may proceed by interrogatories under Pa. Rule of Civil Procedure No 1274 to frame the issues and have a hearing, if necessary, to determine whether any judgment obtained may be collected from the property properly attached in the hands of the garnishee.

In the meantime the garnishee may not dispose of any of the property enumerated in the plaintiff's writ of foreign attachment without leave of court.

The defendant, Whitehall-Rand Inc., is given thirty (30) days from the date of this Order to file an answer to the plaintiff's Complaint.

November 5 1934 when he was appointed Mayor. He served as Mayor of the City of Titusville from November 5 1934 until January 1. 1936.

Mr Stegner was one of the key men in the establishment and expansion of Drake Well Park, served for many years as Chairman of the Drake Well Advisory Board and he was active in the securing of an extension of Bloss Street to the Park.

He took a leading part in the raising of funds for the American Legion Hall and for the Titusville Recreation Fund, and was chairman of a committee that brought about the rehabilitation of the old Mansion House near the Colonel Drake Hotel of which he was a director.

He was closely associated with the creation of Scheidle Park in downtown Titusville.

Mr Stegner was an ardent golfer and became acquainted with this sport at the Titusville Country Club. As a caddy he carried the clubs of many of the well known personalities of the old days and from this contact he formed many lasting friendships. He was the author of "Trolley Car Days", a booklet concerning Titusville's development in the early 1900s which was published in the Oil Centennial year.

One of the achievements for which Mr Stegner will long be remembered is his part in the Diamond Jubilee of Oil the oil industries 75th birthday celebration held in Titusville in 1934. He was responsible for naming the event and contributed much to its success.

Mr. Stegner was known and recognized for many years as a leading attorney in the City of Titusville and in Crawford County. He had a keen and active mind and was well grounded in the basic principles of the law.

He was interested in the local bar association and attended meetings regularly as long as his health permitted. He frequently went to Pennsylvania and American Bar Association Conventions and attended meetings of the Lawyers' Club at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor Michigan.

He believed that the members of the Bar could best serve their clients, and each other by becoming better acquainted, thus securing a sympathetic understanding of their mutual problems.

He was prompt and responding to requests from other members of the Bar and was considerate of the problems of other lawyers.

Charles B. Stegner was proud to be a lawyer, he had a strong sense of loyalty and respect for the ethics of the profession, and he saw and appreciated in his profession the opportunity to serve his fellowmen.

As a result of our friendship and of the respect with which we held him, the committee respectfully moves your Honorable Court that this Memorial be adopted, that it be ordered spread upon the permanent records of this Court, and that a copy be sent to his widow.
