December 17, 1973 Complaint Reinstated.

January 25, 1974 Affidavit in Compliance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1124 filed. E. Max Weiss, Esquire, being duly deposed and sworn respectfully sets forth as follows:

1. That he is the Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above captioned matter.

2. That the last known residence of the Defendant, William E. Bailly, was The Veterans Hospital, Butler, Pennsylvania, and that the present residence and address of the Defendant is unknown.

3. That the Complaint in Divorce was filed on November 12, 1973, and that the Office of the Sheriff of the County of Crawford reported that the Defendant was no longer in the Veterans Hospital in Butler.

4. That the Plaintiff received information indicating that the Defendant was seen frequenting a local tavern. Pursuant to this information, Plaintiff counsel reinstated the Complaint on December 17, 1973, and instructed the Office of the Sheriff of the County of Crawford to attempt service at the tavern.

5. Following repeated attempts by the Sheriff to obtain service upon the Defendant and in the absence of any further information regarding the whereabouts of the Defendant, the Sheriff duly filed his Return marked "not found as of January 17, 1974."

6. That the Plaintiff and her Attorney have made all reasonable efforts to ascertain the present residence and whereabouts of the Defendant, but have been unable to do so;

a. Defendant for a time lived with his mother, Mrs. Mary Bailly, Shaakleyville Road, Cochranton, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Bailly has been contacted several times since the filing of the Complaint in Divorce and has informed the Plaintiff that Defendant visits this residence quite infrequently.

b. At the time of the filing of the Complaint, Defendant was believed to be a patient at the Veterans Hospital in Butler, Pennsylvania. Service was attempted there to no avail and it was learned that Defendant had been discharged from the Hospital to an unknown destination.

c. Defendant was reported to be an occasional patron of a taproom in Meadville and the Office of the Sheriff of Crawford County was so advised. That Office made extensive efforts to effect service and the Complaint was reinstated to afford an additional 30 days to locate Defendant.

Witness my hand and seal this 25th day of January, 1974.

Order: And Now, December 3, 1974, after hearing, it appears that the defendant will be incarcerated in Crawford County Jail until December 12, 1973, for nonpayment of fines and costs in the justice of the peace office. The Court is not satisfied after hearing that the defendant should be committed at this time to the Mental Health Center, particularly in view of the fact that he has voluntarily agreed to go to the Center for any scheduled outpatient consultations.

The defendant believes he needs counseling and someone to discuss personal problems with and accordingly, the Center is directed to schedule an outpatient appointment immediately after December 12, 1973 for consultation with the defendant.

The Court refuses to commit under Section 406 of the Mental Health Act at this time.

This case will remain open in the event the staff at the Center requests involuntary commitment or further court order in regard to this defendant any time in the immediate future.

January 23, 1974 Affidavit in Compliance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1124 filed.
E. Max Weiss, Esquire, being duly deposed, [Oath] sets forth and sworn, respectfully as follows:

1. That he is the Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above captioned matter.

2. That the last known residence of the Defendant was Box 32, Harmonsburg, Pennsylvania, which was the marital domicile of the parties prior to their separation.

3. That the present address of the Defendant, John Robert Clements, is thought to be Gulfport, Florida.

4. That a copy of a Complaint in Divorce filed in the above captioned matter, was forwarded to the Defendant at Gulfport, Florida, 33737, by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested No. 349328.

5. That said certified letter was returned to Plaintiff's counsel for the reason that the addressee was unknown, as is evidenced by the attached envelope which was forwarded to the Defendant and which contained a certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce filed at the above number in the above captioned action.

6. That the Plaintiff and her attorney have made all reasonable efforts and investigation to ascertain the present residence and whereabouts of the Defendant but have been unable to do so:

(a) Plaintiff contacted Defendant's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Clements, 114 Jefferson Street, Jeannette, Pennsylvania, who indicated she did not know Defendant's address in Florida and that she had not heard from her son since November, 1973.

(b) Friends of the Plaintiff in Florida observed Defendant working at a gas station in Gulfport and relayed this information to Plaintiff. At Plaintiff's direction, one Tony Meyers, 6030 150 Avenue N., Clearwater, Florida, went to the gas station and learned that Defendant no longer worked there and left no forwarding address, but was believed to be in Gulfport.

January 31, 1974 Report of Committee Filed.

To the Honorable, The Judges of the said Court:

Your committee appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a memorial on the death of the late John M. O'Laughlin, Esquire, respectfully submits the following:

On the morning of Dec. 18, 1973 we were all shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of John M. O'Laughlin at his office on Monday Evening, Dec. 17th. Jack was born in Meadville, Pa. on May 9, 1920 a son of Thomas and Arlene O'Laughlin. He graduated from Meadville High School in 1938 and it was a sign of Jack's popularity, even as a teenager, that he was elected President of his High School class in both his junior and senior years. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Allegheny College in 1943 and a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1947. Jack worked his way through college primarily as a men's clothing salesman for Cash Smith, an experience that later stood him in good stead when he was the trustee in bankruptcy for a local tailor. He also interrupted his college education for a year to take over his father's claim agency in Meadville following his father's death.

He was registered as a law student with the late Herbert A. Monk and served a clerkship in his office following his graduation from Pitt during the last few months that Judge Monk practiced law prior to his elevation to the bench. Although he was unable to immediately commence practice, he continued his interest in the law and served in a number of August 9, 1977 Testimony and Report of Master filed.

Sept. 8, 1977, upon praecipe of plaintiff's attorney, this case is submitted to the Court.

Oct. 11, 1977 Order filed. And now, this fifth day of October, 1977, the Prothonotary is directed to list the above entitled cases for argument at the next regular Argument List, October 31, 1977, at 1:30 o'clock P.M., or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had.

Counsel are advised that these cases are listed for argument because it appears to the Court that jurisdiction is lacking in the Dodey case and that the evidence in the other two cases does not meet the proof required to sustain the actions.

By Order of the Court,
T. Joseph Thomas, Judge

Oct. 11, 1977 Copies of Order given to Theodore H. Watts, Esq. and David L. Hotchkiss, Esq.

Nov 9, 1977, Memorandum Opinion filed: Both of the above-entitled divorce cases are borderline cases in that the evidence presented barely sustains the allegations of indignities to the person. Unquestionably, if the divorces were contested, the Court would refuse to grand a decree on such evidence and we are in fact reluctant to grand a decree even though said divorces are not contested. because there are other valid grounds for divorce.

However, we are granting decrees in these cases with a caution to counsel that in the future, we will refuse to grand divorces on the ground of indignities where such allegations are not sustained by the evidence and other grounds exist.

We feel compelled to be bound by the statutory and case law rather than to grand divorces for the convenience of the parties.

1. That he is the Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above captioned matter.

2. That a Complaint in Divorce was filed and a copy attested on April 5, 1974.

3. That the last known residence as of the date of filing was General Delivery, Linesville, Pennsylvania.

4. That a Complaint in Divorce, filed at the above captioned number and term, was delivered to the Office of the Sheriff of the County of Crawford, and the Sheriff duly filed his return marked "Not Found as of May 5, 1974".

5. That a copy of the Complaint in Divorce was sent to the Defendant at the above address on June 28, 1974 by Certified Mail No. 800293, and was returned undelivered as is evidenced by the attached envelope.

6. That the Plaintiff and his attorney have made all reasonable efforts to ascertain the present residence and whereabouts of the Defendant, but have been unable to do so, said efforts consisting of the following:

(a) The Plaintiff contacted the mother of the defendant, Victoria Owens, 411½ West DeBoise Street, DeBoise, Pennsylvania, three or four times during the period from April 1 through May 30, 1974. Mrs. Owens indicated to the Plaintiff that she had had absolutely no contact with the Defendant and that she would be willing to relay the Defendant's whereabouts to the Plaintiff should same be ascertained. Mrs. Owens has not yet been able to forward this information to the Plaintiff.

(b) The Defendant was working at the Tote Line Plant in Linesville, sometime during the month of March. Plaintiff counsel called a Plant Official, to-wit: Thomas Levenhagen, who indicated that the Defendant was no longer employed by Tote Line and that Tote Line had no forwarding address as of the date of filing of the Complaint.

(c) Sometime in May the defendant was reportedly working for D&C Tool Company. Friends of the Plaintiff and the defendant, George and Lola May, informed the Plaintiff that the Defendant was living with an elderly man named James Waring at an uncertain but possible address at Rochester, Pennsylvania.

July 15, 1974 Sheriff's Return Filed. Served and made Known to Robert A. Shattenberg personally the within named plaintiff by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Change of Custody No. 37 May Term, 1974 to him, on July 8, 1974, at 2:55 P.M. E.D.S.T., at Sheriff's Office, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So Answers, E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Alfred A. Gill, Sheriff

July 24, 1974 Order filed. And Now, July 11, 1974, after hearing at which testimony of the Petitioner was received, the Court is satisfied the Petitioner has not sustained the burden of convincing this Court that the agreement signed February 28, 1974 awarding custody of the minor child Stacie to the father should be altered.

In view of the pending marriage during the week of July 15, 1974 of the mother of the child, the Court will grant her custody of the child at the home of her parents for the period July 13th, 14th, and 15th. Unless the parties mutually agree otherwise, the visit shall commence at 12:00 Noon on July 13th and terminate at 8:00 P.M. on July 15th. It shall be the burden of the mother to go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shattenberg and receive the child into custody and return the child at that time. All of the necessary toys and clothes for the care of the child for the three day period will be voluntarily surrendered by the Thomas Shattenbergs.

Custody in the father is confirmed in accordance with the filed agreement of February 28, 1974 but visitation rights are accorded to the mother as follows:

The mother shall have the right to have the child in her custody on the first and third weekends of every month commencing Friday at 6:00 P.M. and terminating Sunday at 8:00 A.M. On any weekend when she does not intend to have said visitations, she shall notify the persons having custody of the child forty-Eight (48) hours in advance.

In addition, the mother shall have visitation rights with the child on two (2) other days of her choice during any given month provided they do not precede or follow the weekend days accorded her. In this regard, she shall notify the custodians of the child forty-eight (48) hours in advance of her intentions and the time she will pick up and return the child. The visits accorded shall be on the days Monday through Friday.

The father shall keep the mother advised at all times of the location of the child and the persons having custody of the same.

The child shall be with the father on Christmas Day but satisfactory arrangements shall be made to have the child spend not less than eight (8) hours the day before or the day after Christmas.

The Court notes at this time that the mother's existence for the past nine (9) months has been rather unstable and in view of her contemplated marriage, the Court will accord her the opportunity to again petition this Court for custody, with said petition to be filed not sooner than six (6) months from this date.

On weekend visits on which the mother has the child, the child shall be kept at the home of the mother's parents so long as the mother remains unmarried and after such time the child may be in the home with the mother and her husband.

During the month of Sept. 1974, the mother shall have the right to have the child with her one continuous week commencing Sunday Noon and terminating Sunday noon and, unless the parties agree otherwise, it will be the third week in September.

Commencing 1975, the mother shall have the right to have the child with her for two (2) non-consecutive one-week periods in the Summer, providing she notifies the father of the child thirty (30) days in advance which weeks she wishes to have the child and provided further that the weeks do not interfere with the father's normal vacation period.

Dec. 24, 1974 Copy of Order mailed to J. G. McGill, Esq. and given to Ballard F. Smith, Esq.

February 3, 1975 Order Filed: And Now, January 27, 1975, after further hearing, the Court believes the life of the mother has sufficiently stabilized and that the welfare of the child Stacey will best be served by awarding custody to the mother at this time. Accordingly, commencing this date custody of the minor child is hereby awarded the mother Laurie A. Gray, subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. In the event Laurie A. Gray and her present husband separate or if she removes herself from the home of her husband in Crawford County she may not remove the child from the jurisdiction of the Court without Court permission.

2. Visitation privileges will be accorded the father as follows:

It has been brought to the Court's attention that Social Service Agencies in the State of California were dealing with some or all of the members of this family during their stay in California during the year 1972 and 1973 and the Court directs that Counsel for Martin Davis write to the appropriate social agency services requesting copies of their file for the guidance and enlightenment of this Court in making an ultimate decision regarding the awarding of the custody of these children to the mother or to the father. The Court further notes at this time that this request is consented to by both parties and their counsel at the time of this request is consented to by both parties and their counsel at the time of this hearing.

It also appears that the Crawford County Child Welfare Services may have some records helpful to the Court in deciding this case and it is with consent of both parties and their counsel that the Court ask Child Welfare Services to present for the Court and Counsel to review any matters coming to their attention or any investigations made by their Department as would reflect on the ultimate custody decision the Court must make in this case.

Oct. 29, 1974 Order Filed. And now, October 23, 1974, at the close of the Plaintiff's case, the motion of both Defendants for a Compulsory non-suit are granted for the following reasons:

1. The Court is of the opinion that the failure of Donald Farguherson, who, it is claimed, was in the position of an insured to give the notice required by the policy as a condition of defense, there being no notice of the suit or request to defend or refusal on the part of Erie Insurance Exchange to defend bars recovery.

2. Although there is evidence that Erie had notice of the accident and were denying coverage, insurance companies frequently deny liability and assume the defense of a case on a non-waiver or for other reasons and in this case Erie Insurance Exchange may have agreed to defend, even though they were denying coverage, for the purpose of their own protection.

3. That the automobile was not an owned automobile in view of the agreement to purchase by Mr. Farguherson, and if it was, there was a transfer of possession in accordance with the purchase of sale and it was being used by Farguherson in his own business, bore his own business name and telephone number and under the fleet policy was not listed as a vehicle owned by the Superior Bus Sales and Service Company and for the same reason it would not be an owned automobile. These reasons given by the Court for the record are included in the reasons stated by counsel for the Defendants and the motion for a compulsory non-suit is granted by the Court for the reasons mentioned by defense counsel including those mentioned by the Court and the Court does not intend to exclude the other reasons by specific mention of some. Exception is noted for the Plaintiff.

Commencing with the weekend of Feb. 15, 1975, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody on the first and third weekend of every month commencing between the hours of 8:00 P.M. Friday and 8:00 P.M., Sunday unless the parties mutually agree in advance to different hours.

It shall be the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the child to the home of the mother during the first six calendar months of every year, and it shall be the responsibility of the mother to deliver the child to the father and pick up the child for return during the second six calendar months of every year.

3. In addition to the aforesaid visits, the child shall be in the custody of the father during his normal summer vacation period for a period not in excess of two (2) weeks. The Court urges the parties to make advanced arrangements so that the vacation schedules of the father and the husband of the mother do not conflict.

In the event the parties cannot agree when the two-week period starts, the Court decrees the same will commence Saturday at noon until the following second Saturday at noon.

4. With regard to holidays, the child will be in the home of the mother each year on Christmas Day, but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child make a visit to the home of the Father the day before or the day after Christmas for a period of not less than twelve (12) hours.

5. In regard to other holidays, including the child's birthday, it is impossible at this time for the Court to set or the parties to agree on holiday visits; and, accordingly, the father is permitted to have the child in his custody for four (4) holidays in addition to Christmas but including the child's birthday in each calendar year.

It shall be the obligation of the father to notify the mother at least two (2) months in advance of which holidays accomodate his normal work schedule and which of said holidays, including the birthdays, he intends to have the child in his custody for those days.

6. The parties by mutual agreement have agreed the father shall pay direct to the mother commencing with the week of Feb. 2, 1975, the sum of $20.00 per week for the support of the minor child.

7. Upon transfer of custody, the child's clothes and toys will be delivered from the father to the mother.

Service, the Court is of the opinion that the Plaintiffs had accepted the responsibility of Kebert Enterprises, Inc., & furnish such services for the reasons set forth in paragraph 2 of this order.

5. Moreover, it appears from the evidence that was no lack of diligence on the part of the officers of Kebert Developers, Inc, Paul V. Kebert, to take continuous steps to secure permission to furnish sewage nor is there any evidence that there was any unusual delay in time between said efforts and the time that the permit was finally granted

6. The Court notes also that the individual Plaintiff testified that he could have exercised the option to purchase an additional thirty (30) acres but decided not to do so and that at that time there was no Breach of Contract on the part of the Defendant and in fact that there was at that time substantial performance

Nov 21, 1977, Order filed: And Now, November 17, 1977, a Petition for Distribution having been scheduled for hearing this date at 9:30 A.M., and no one having appeared and the Court having advised counsel for the two claimants of funds held by the Prothonotary as a result of condemnation that would sign a final order awarding the proceeds of the eminent domain proceeding to Doris Bemus Hancock and Vernon E. Hancock upon presentation of an order, but after said hearing was concluded three claimants appeared at approximately 10:00 A.M.; after conference with said three claimants, namely Mrs. William Conway, Blanche Bennett and Dora Say, the Court advises them that signing of the aforesaid order will be postponed until December 7, 1977, at 9:30 A.M.

It appears that any claims of the above three parties or any other heirs can only be resolved by an attack on a tax sale involving this property and accordingly, the said three claimants this day appearing are hereby notified in person at the time of dictation of this Order that they must file an appropriate legal proceeding on or before December 7, 1977, at 9:30 A.M. or the Court will sign an order of distribution awarding said funds to the aforesaid Doris Bemus Hancock and Vernon Hancock.

By Order Of The Court,

capacities in areas closely related to his legal training. He served for two years as County Detective in Crawford County, an experience which later served as fodder for his vast repertoire of anecdotes. He also continued to operate the claims agency that had previously been owned by his father for some period of time.

He was married on November 21, 1953 to the former Virginia Ann Kress and they have seven children; Terrance, Dennis, Thomas, Nancy Jo, Stephen, Lori and Kelly, ranging in age from nine to eighteen years.

He was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County on Dec. 1, 1958 and immediately commenced a very active and varied practice. He served as one of the law members of the Board of Viewers from 1964 until his untimely death. He was currently serving as township solicitor for seven townships in Western Crawford County: Vernon, Hayfield, Steuben, Union, Pine, Conneaut and West Fallowfield. Some of these he had served since his earliest days at the bar.

He took justifiable pride in his record as a criminal defense attorney. In twenty-eight criminal jury trials he achieved the very enviable record of twenty-three acquittals, four convictions and one hung jury.

He was well-known for his expertise in the field of bankruptcy law and when he served as a trustee he went far beyond the call of duty to insure that everything possible was done to obtain the best possible prices out of the assets of the bankrupt. He was extremely conscientious in all of his work and never treated anything entrusted to his care in a light or cursory manner.

At the time of his death he was a member of the American Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Crawford County Bar Association.

But it was extracurricular activities, both related to the Bar Association and beyond it that were Jack's great pleasures. He loved sports, both as a spectator and as a participant. He was the founder, an active player and the first and only coach of the Crawford County Bar Assoc. basketball team which now boasts a record of eight undefeated seasons, a season consisting of a single game with the Meadville Station of the Pa. State Police. Jack developed this basketball game from nothing to a fairly respectable and most enjoyable charitable enterprise, both for the spectators and the participants. He was the perennial Chairman of the Crawford County Bar Assoc. Golf Tournament, justly renowned for the prize list that it offered, prizes that were financed in part by the budget allocated to the function, in part by informal requisitions on the Xerox Committee funds and in part by Jack's contributions out of his own pocket. This annual event did much to foster fine good fellowship which existed among the members of the Bar and it would not be amiss to henceforth refer to this as the "John M. O'Laughlin Golf Classic."

Probably his greatest sports activity, however, was in encouraging his children to participate in sports and then in enjoying their activities as a spectator. He built a basketball court in his backyard and he and the boys spent many, many happy hours there. He rarely missed watching one of his children participate in a sports event whether it was at the playground level, the grade school level or the high school level. As a devoted father, nothing gave him more pleasure and he liked to recount to his colleagues the tales of the athletic prowess of his sons.

In addition to his family, sports and the Bar, Jack had one other abiding passion and that was for automobiles, preferably of ancient vintage. He was the only member of the Bar who regularly drove a Cadillac hearse. It was traditional on certain golf outings that his foursome rode in that hearse. On more than one occasion he had to use his considerable ability as an advocate on his own behalf to explain what he was doing prowling around in someone's junkyard at midnight. The truth was that Jack would just happen to be driving by and couldn't resist going in and looking at all those old cars.

He had a vast circle of friends far beyond his professional acquaintances. He was known and liked by people from all walks of life and from all over our community. Undoubtedly one of the reasons for his immense popularity was his fine sense of humor. Jack could always see the funny side of every occurrence. He could wring more humor out of a Xerox Committee report than is contained in the acts of many of the professional comedians we see on television.

He was generous to a fault. He would impulsively give anything that struck the fancy of a friend even literally to the proverbial "shirt on his back".

With his kindness, humor and friendliness, he created in our bar an esprit de corps that will be difficult to maintain without Jack's spark.

We have lost a good friend and a fine member of our profession. His family has lost a devoted husband and father but this community can be thankful that it had Jack O'Laughlin for those Fifty-Three years. He left it a little better place to live and the memories that we have of him will always be pleasant.

No. 188 February Term 1974

Nov. 22, 1976 Order Filed; And now, November 22, 1976 the Court believes that the best interest of the minor child, Tonya Lynn Cornell, will be served by a change of custody; and, accordingly, the child is awarded to the custody of her father, Alfred Thomas Cornell, effective this date. The Court notes that after orally making this decision, the mother of said child, Shirley K. Cornell, fled the courtroom with the minor child, Tonya Lynn Cornell, and has left the Court House and her present whereabouts are unknown. Accordingly, this Order shall be sufficient authority for the Sheriff of Crawford County to make search for and apprehend Shirley K. Cornell and to take into custody the minor child Tonya Lynn Cornell. Upon delivery of the minor child to the father or to temporary custody of the Child Welfare Services, the Sheriff shall continue said Shirley K. Cornell in custody until a hearing can be held to determine whether or not she should be adjudicated in contempt of Court for her conduct and her removal of the child from Court jurisdiction after the entry of the above order. No visitation rights are accorded the mother at this time but upon some assurance in the future that the child will not be removed from Court jurisdiction and that Court orders will be complied with, the Court will consider according the mother reasonable visitation privileges.

mother Mary A Steiner at R.D. #1, Hayfield Estates, Saegertown, Pa., provided however, that the mother's boyfriend, one Myron Ransom, removes himself from the premises and does not again take up living in the trailer with the mother.

Insofar as visitation rights are concerned, counsel for the parties advises the Court that this is no problem at the present time and the Court leaves to the parents to work out mutually satisfactory visitation arrangements for Arthur to come and visit the home of his mother and for the two (2) remaining children to visit at the home of the father.

The Court also notes at this time that the parties have expressed a desire to mutually resolve the question of claims for dependents for income tax purposes and leaves this matter to their attorneys to resolve both for the calendar year of 1973 and for future years.

With the consent of the parties the Court at this time resolves a domestic relations support proceeding at No. 275 Domestic Relations Division, 1973, as follows:

1. Effective Dec. 5, 1973, the date of the filing of said petition, the father will be required to pay the mother for the support of the two (2) children in her custody the sum of $15.00 per week commencing with the week of Dec. 3, 1973. In this regard, the Court notes that there exists then the amount of $20.00, representing eight (8) weeks arrears on this order. The defendant this date advises the Court he is prepared to pay said sum to his wife forthwith. Accordingly, commencing with the week of Jan. 27, 1974, the defendant will pay the sum of $5.00 per week thereafter for the support of said two (2) children.

Payments will be made directly to the wife. The defendant will pay costs in the amount of $10.00 on the non-support petition to the Clerk of Courts Office.

The Court also notes that the above order is based on the defendants' allegations to the court that his net take-home pay from his employment at the General Electric Co. is approximately $140 per week. The Court enters an order somewhat lower than usual due to the fact the father will have custody of the oldest child and will be bearing this expense, and, secondly, that the mother is employed full time.

The defendant will forward to the Domestic Relations Office within ten (10) days a copy of his W-2 Form which reports his earnings from the General Electric Co. from the date of his employment on or about October 15, 1973 to January 1, 1974. If the W-2 Form verifies the take-home pay of approximately $140.00 per week, no change will be made in the order, but the Court reserves the right to amend the order upwards or downwards as the W-2 Form reflects the accurate take-home pay.

June 7, 1974 Order Filed. And Now, May 31, 1974 after further hearing, custody of the minor child, Arthur, is continued with the father. The father has evidenced some desire to change his residence, and if he does so he must keep the mother of the child advised at all times of the change of residence, the address, and of any illnesses or physical incapacities of the child.

The custody of the minor children, Margaret and Nicholas is awarded to the mother, and she likewise will keep the father advised of any change in address, and any illnesses or physical incapacities of the two children.

In view of the working schedules of the parents, the Court finds it almost impossible to set established visiting periods for the parents with the respective children, and urges them to make satisfactory arrangements for reasonable visits of the children in each other's households.

The Court adjudicates Shirley K. Cornell in contempt of Court but withholds at this time any sanction or punishment for contempt

It appears to the Court that the mother is still distraught over the Court's decision and urges counsel to attempt to work out some meaningful visitation arrangements with the mother, preferably on mid-week during the father's working hours. In the event the parties, acting through their counsel, are unable to come up with an agreed visitation program by December 15, 1976, the Court will entertain a motion by either party to set further hearing to determine appropriate visitation rights in the mother.

In addition thereto, the Court is of the opinion that a reading of paragraph 13 of the contract between White, Mervenean Corporation and Kehert Developers, Inc. establishes that Plaintiffs accepted Kehert Enterprises, Inc as the corporation solely responsible for the providing of water and sewer service and said paragraph is supported by the fact that subsequently on July 1, 1969, the Plaintiffs entered into a contract with Kehert Enterprises, Inc., for said service.

No. 42 February Term 1974

It shall be a condition of the visitation Order that the father will arrange for transportation from Pennsylvania to his home and return and the costs of said transportation will be borne by the father.

During said visitation periods, the required Order for support will be suspended.

To assure the return of the children, it shall be a condition of this Order that the father post with the Prothonotary of Crawford County cash or a bank cashier's check in the total amount of $1,500.00 before the mother shall be required to surrender the children to his custody. Upon representation to the Prothonotary by the mother or her attorney that the children have been returned in accordance with this agreement, the Prothonotary shall forward said sum to the father without any deduction for postage or other costs.

The Court notes that the child, Donald, suffers from an asthmatic condition which seems to be currently under control in the State of Pennsylvania but which may be reactivated in the Arizona climate. Accordingly, if said child becomes subject to said attacks, the father shall immediately seek medical advice and care for the child.

The father has also requested the right to visit the children in the State of Pennsylvania and the Court determines that visits with the Children in the home of their mother in this County would be an uncomfortable situation, and accordingly, if the father wishes to come to this community for visitation rights, he shall notify the Court sufficient time in advance; and upon his arrival, this Court will accord an immediate prompt hearing to explore the terms and conditions to be allowed for said visits and to establish some means of assuring the children will not be removed from the jurisdiction of the Court during the visitation periods.

Apr. 1, 1975 Order filed. And Now, March 31, 1975, after argument and informal hearing, it appears that the mother of the children was remarried December 21, 1974 and now lives in Lake City, Pennsylvania. Accordingly, the last paragraph of the Court's Order of April 22, 1974 is rescinded.

There appears to be great difficulty regarding the obligation of the parties to pick up and deliver the children. Accordingly, the Court believes it is advisable to continue the present arrangement of having the mother deliver the children to the home of the paternal grandparents in Townville, Pennsylvania for a weekend and vacation visits and have the father pick up and return them to the same. The weekend visiting hours are changed from 6:00 P.M., Friday and 6:00 P.M., Sunday to 7:00 P.M. Friday and 7:00 P.M. Sunday.

The Court having been advised that the father of the children has faithfully kept all visits and the Court being of the opinion that summer visits should be expanded, the aforesaid two (2) consecutive week visits in the month of July shall remain and, in addition thereto, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody for one (1) continuous additional seven (7) day period sometime between June 15th and September 15th. It shall be the obligation of the father to notify the mother of several alternate dates for this additional visit and it shall not be taken during any period of time when the mother's present husband is scheduled for his vacation period.

It shall be the obligation of the father to advise the mother of the children by May 15th of several choices for the additional week visit and the mother shall give prompt response within (7) seven days so adequate planning can be made so that the children will be in the company of each of the parents during the time they are taking off from work.

at the call of the Civil List it appears that the above captioned case and a companion case at No. 119 November Term 1972 should be consolidated for trial and no objection thereto has been raised.

It further appears that a motion for judgment on the pleadings has been filed to which an answer is pending, and by agreement of counsel, the above case must be argued before trial. case to the jury so that in the event of an appeal the matter would not have to be retried no matter which way the appellate Court rules. However because we are firmly convinced for the reasons hereinafter set forth that the Plaintiffs have not established a Breach of Contract, we feel it would be an imposition on the defendant to require it to proceed to a defense, and in addition thereto, we would be hard pressed to instruct the jury in a meaningful way in view of our opinion that a Breach of Contract has not been established

Accordingly, we enter the following Order: And Now, June 22, 1978, the Defendant's motion for a compulsory non suit is granted for the following reasons

1. As to the allegations of the Plaintiffs that the Defendant failed to maintain the roads, the Court is of the opinion that there is not a scintilla of evidence that the failure to sell lots was due to the condition of the roads, and in addition thereto, the Plaintiffs' evidence established that there was no lack of due diligence on the part of the Defendant through its Corporate Officer, Paul V. Kebert, to secure a take over of the roads by the municipal authorities father but is aware that it is for the best interest of these parties and for the children that the visits not occur by the father in the home of the mother.

6. It further appears that the father's employment at this time is rather indefinite and most desirable hours for visitation are also indefinite.

7. As a minimum visitational Order, the father shall have the right to have the children with him on the first and third Sundays of the month commencing with Sunday, May 18, 1975, between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

8. If the visits go well, it is the intention of the Court to expand these visits in the future and accord the father initially after the month of July, 1975 the opportunity to have his children with him for at least one (1) week-end per month in addition to the other visits.

9. In view of the fact the father's employment and working hours are indefinite at this time, the Court urges the parties to work out an appropriate additional week-end visit. If the father makes said visits without creating a disturbance, the Court will be amenable to expanding visitations in the future in accordance with the father's working schedule and accessibility to the children.

10. Upon the securing of employment by the father, Martin Davis, he shall immediately commence compliance with former Court Order entered requiring support for these children. In the event his earnings are less that at the time the Order was entered, he shall make reasonable contributions and schedule a conference with the Domestic Relations Office to determine an appropriate amount of support commensurate with his earnings.

By The Court, Irma J. Gardner, Dep. Pro.

May 25, 1977 Order filed: And Now, May 23, 1977, after pre-trial conference, review of the Opinion of the Superior Court and discussion with counsel, the Court deems it impractical to require additional amendment to the pleadings, depositions or affidavits to establish a record for resubmission of the issue to the Court for determination of summary judgment is appropriate.

The Court believes the most expeditious way of reaching the ultimate issues, both legal and factual in this case, is to list the case for trial at the October term of Court and, accordingly, the Prothonotary is directed to place the same on the trial list for October term of Court.

In the meantime, counsel for the Plaintiff is given until July 1, 1977, to file such appropriate amendments or new pleadings as he deems to accurately reflect the issues. Particularly in light of the Superior Court Opinion. Counsel for the Defendant is given until August 1, 1977,
