It is further Ordered and Decreed that the said Secretary of Revenue of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall reinstate the Certificate of Appointment to Inspect Motor Vehicles, Official Inspection Station No. 5986, and the Certificate of Appointment shall be valid for all purposes until final determination of this Appeal by the Court.

By The Court,

July 12, 1974 Appearance of John J. Kennedy, Jr. attorney for plaintiff filed.

August 13, 1974 Exhibit filed.

August 13, 1974 Order filed. And now, August 5, 1974, after hearing the Court is satisfied by the fair weight of the evidence that the defendant committed a violation of the inspection law by failing to detect several defective items on the vehicle in question. The Court also notes that at the time the arrest was made and again at this de novo hearing, the inspecting State Police Officer, Trooper Martin L. Klock advised the defendant that because of the lack of any prior record and the absence of any oral or written complaints against his inspection station, that he was recommending to the Department that a Departmental Hearing be held but that he felt a cease and desist order was an appropriate penalty. Unfortunately, on the day of the hearing before the Departmental Representative in Pittsburgh, one hundred (100) miles from the defendant's residence, the officer was ill and unable to appear. The Court notes that at the hearing before this Court, the officer affirms that had he not been ill, he would have appeared at said hearing and urged the Department to issue a cease and desist order with the effect that the defendant would be operating under a limited probationary period and that this recommendation would have been made because of the defendant's past good reputation for maintaining a proper inspection station and committing no violations of the Inspection Act. The Court notes at this time that the Bureau of Traffic Safety has imposed a three-month suspension which this Court, in accordance with prior case law, believes it is powerless to overturn and substitute its discretion for that of the Department. The Court finds in favor of the Commonwealth and sustains the suspension. The Court recommends to the Bureau of Traffic Safety that they accept the recommendation of the inspecting State Trooper and reconsider the three-month suspension imposed on June 12, 1974, and enter another appropriate regulatory punishment in accordance with the facts and the recommendation of the arresting Trooper.

F. Joseph Thomas, J.

July 2, 1974 Order filed. And Now, July 1, 1974, at the request of the attorney for the petitioner, hearing in the above captioned matter scheduled for July 1, 1974, is rescheduled for July 15, 1974, at 9:00 A.M.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 2, 1974 Copy of within Order mailed to A. L. Gambatese, Esq. and given to E. Max Weiss, Esq.

July 15, 1974 Exhibits filed.

July 24, 1974 Order filed. And Now, July 15, 1974, after hearing, the Court finds that at this time both parents have the ability to care for the child Nancy. After hearing, the Court had no overwhelming conviction of which parent would best serve the interest of the child but believing that the mother's physical and emotional state has stabilized since her separation from her husband and believing at this tender age it is best for the minor children to be together with one of the parents, the custody of the minor child Nancy, age three (3), is hereby awarded to the mother Judy Armagost, subject, however, to reasonable visitations for the father.

In the event the parties cannot agree upon appropriate visitations for the minor child, said visitations will be established as the first and third weekends of every month commencing at 5:00 P.M. Friday and terminating at 7:00 P.M. Sunday.

The child will be in the home of the mother on Christmas day but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child spend a period of not less than eight (8) hours the day before or the day after Christmas with the father.

During the father's summer vacation period and at a time that will not interfere with the mother's vacation schedule, the child Nancy will be in the custody of the father for two (2) non-consecutive one-week periods. It shall be the obligation of the father to request the scheduled visits by giving his wife at least three (3) weeks notice.

In addition to the aforesaid visits, the father may have the child Nancy in his custody two other (2) days during any calander month, not on Saturday or Sunday, however,

July 12, 1974 Appearance of John J. Kennedy, Jr. attorney for Plaintiff filed.

Sept. 5, 1974 Exhibits filed.

Sept. 5, 1974 Sur Appeal from Suspension (Inspection Station) Order filed. And Now, this thirtieth day of August, 1974, we find that the appellant failed to keep books and records in accordance with the requirements of the Vehicle Code and the regulations promulgated under the authority thereof and that the Secretary did not abuse his discretion in suspending his privilege to inspect motor vehicles for a period of three (3) months.

The appeal is therefore dismissed and the action of the Secretary is affirmed.

The evidence shows that the appellant's certificate was suspended for about one month prior to the supersedeas Order and it is, therefore, ordered and directed that he surrender his certificate of appointment and all related papers for the balance of the suspension period.

We note, however, that appellant had a good prior record as an inspection station and that some of the violations were because of mistake rather than deliberate and recommend that the Secretary reduce the period of suspension by at least one (1) month or more in his discretion.

In the event of an appeal, we will set forth in detail our findings of fact, conclusions of law, and our reasons for the entry of this Order.

Dec. 4, 1974 Order - Our Petition for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis filed. And Now, this fourth day of December, 1974, the petition to proceed in forma pauperis in this case is denied because, in the opinion of the Court, and we find as a fact, that the petitioner is not indigent and unable to afford the relatively minor costs of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) to One Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($125.00) for filing a divorce action and proceedings thereon.

We are preparing our opinion in another action setting forth principles which we believe must be applied before compelling taxpayers to assume the financial burden of paying for a divorce.

However, in the event of an appeal in this case, we will file an opinion setting forth the reasons for the denial of the petition in this case.

Nov. 14, 1974 Order Filed. And now, November 8, 1974, after partial hearing, this hearing is continued until December 3, 1974, at 2:00 o'clock. In the meantime, Custody of the child will be continued in the mother and visitation rights will be accorded the father in the same manner as specified in the agreement attached to the petition which the parties signed in September & October of 1974, with the first weekend visit to commence Saturday at 9:00 a.m. and terminating Sunday at 9:00 a.m., and every other weekend thereafter plus the other visits provided in the agreement.

The Court deems it inadvisable until this matter is ultimately resolved for the minor child to be exposed to other male visitors who are dating or accompanying the mother for social reasons; and, accordingly, the mother is instructed not to have male companions to the residence or take the child to the residence of other male companions and not to be in the company of male companions when she is carrying out the normal mother/child activities.

Dec. 6, 1974 Order filed. And now, December 3, 1974 the Court having been advised that Joseph Edward Birtcil is snowbound in Toledo, Ohio and unable to be present for hearing scheduled this date, hearing is reset for December 20, 1974, at 9:30 A.M.

Dec. 6, 1974. Copy of Order given to Edith Benson, Esq. and John N. Bozic, Esq.

Dec. 23, 1974 Order filed. And now, December 20, 1974, upon consideration of this hearing, the Court is of the opinion at this time that it is for the best interest of the minor child, Joseph Anthony Birtcil, to be awarded to the custody of his father. Before doing so, however, the Court directs the Child Welfare Services to make an investigation of the home (trailer), which the father, as of this date, has said he has arranged to occupy in the event he is awarded custody of the child. The Child Welfare Service will also investigate the husband's allegation that he has made arrangements to engage an appropriate baby-sitter to care for the child during the father's working hours when the child would normally be at home. The burden shall be on the father to request and give details to the Child Welfare Service regarding his plans, and the Child Welfare Service shall make said investigation and report back orally to this Court by Dec. 27, 1974.

In the event of a favorable report from the Child Welfare Service, the Court would anticipate a further Order awarding custody to the father within an effective date on or about Dec. 30, 1974.

Until this matter is finalized, the Court deems it advisable to make arrangements for the custody of the child over the Christmas holidays. The father shall be entitled to take the child into his custody at 5 P.M. Dec. 20 until 7:00 P.M. Dec. 22. The father shall pick up the child at twelve o'clock noon Dec. 25. The father will have custody of the child on Dec. 29 between the hours of twelve noon and 8 P.M.

The Court anticipates entering a final Order on this case prior to Jan. 1, 1975, when custody of the child will not be transferred until said Order is entered.

By Order Of The Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 16, 1974 Order filed. Whereas, the Respondents in this case appeared before the Court and both of said Respondents subjected themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court; and

Whereas, the parents of said child, to-wit, the Respondents, are divorced but the mother agrees that at least at the present time the best interest and welfare of the child would be served by placing said child in the custody of the father; and

Whereas, after hearing, the Court does not believe that the father has been guilty of such misconduct as to warrant taking the custody of said child away from him and is not satisfied that there are other factors which would warrant depriving the father of custody; and

Whereas, the ruling of the Court is no reflection upon the maternal grandparents who have exhibited love, affection, upon the maternal grandparents who have exhibited love, affection and dedication to the child:

Now, Therefore, this 7th day of August, 1974, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. The custody of Dion Patrick Young is awarded to his father at this time and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth.

2. In order to establish a closer relationship between the father and child so there will be no traumatic shock to the child, it is Ordered and Directed that for at least the next four (4) weekends, the father shall take the child into his custody from approximately 3:00 o'clock p.m. on Friday until Sunday at 7:00 o'clock p.m., and thereafter, the complete custody of the child shall be transferred to the father provided he has complied with the other conditions set forth in this Order.

3. The father shall establish a home either with his parents or some other suitable home in which there will be adequate care and custody of the child during the periods of time that the father is working and the transfer of custody shall not take place unless and until he has established a home with his parents or a similar suitable home.

4. That at least once a week the child shall be permitted to see and visit his grandparents at such time and for such periods of time as the father and the maternal grandparents will agree upon; and in the event that they cannot reach an agreement, the matter will be referred to the Court for determination. This right shall exist until further Order of Court.

5. The father shall not expose the child to any person, place or situation which will adversely affect the health, education or welfare of the child.

6. In view of the fact that the mother at the present time believes that the best interest of the child requires that the child be placed in the father's custody, the mother shall have the right to see and visit her minor son at such times as the father and mother may mutually agree upon. Since at the present time there appears to be no hard feelings or friction between the parents even though they are divorced, the Court will leave it to them to work out the times and length of times of such visitations.

On such occasions, the parent having custody of the child shall have said child ready to begin the visitation period and neither party shall on the occasions of picking up or returning the children use any language directed at or toward the other parent except in connection with said visitation privileges.

Jan. 24, 1975 Order filed. And Now, January 17, 1975, after partial hearing, the Court is of the opinion that both parties are seriously in contempt of the Order of July 10, 1974 to which they agreed and, therefore, both parties are adjudged in Contempt of Court and a fine of $100.00 payable to the use of Crawford County is imposed; provided, however, that payment of the fine is suspended to give the parties an opportunity to purge themselves of contempt by literal compliance with the Order of July 10, 1974, which is hereby amended as follows:

1. Paragraph 3 is amended to include as Holidays New Years Day, Easter and the Fourth of July, and to specify that on Mother's Day both children should be with the mother and on Father's Day both children should be with the father. All other portions of Paragraph 3 shall remain the same.

2. Paragraph 4 is amended so that there is added thereto that both parties shall encourage such additional visitations for the welfare and benefit of the children.

3. Paragraph 6 is amended by striking out the entire paragraph and substituting the following: "Unless and until the parties are divorced and have remarried and established a stable and suitable home, neither party shall have the children in the company of any person of the opposite sex not related to the children or the parents by blood or marriage."

4. The Order is also amended by adding Paragraph 9 as follows: Both parties shall completely abstain from the consumption of alcoholic beverages while the children are in their custody.

Unless there is a violation of this Amended Order prior thereto, the Court will upon motion of either party review the situation after an additional trial period of three (3) months, provided, of course, that an accusation of violations prior to that time will be heard at the earliest possible time.

who survives him. Mr. & Mrs. Blystone had one daughter, Katherine G. Blystone, and also a foster daughter, Patricia Quinn. He is also survived by a brother Peter E. Blystone, Esquire, a member of the Crawford County Bar, as well as his mother, Mrs. Rose A. L. Blystone, who resides in Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania.

When he entered into the legal profession in Crawford County his first law partner was William K. Reid, who is now Crawford County Law Librarian. Shortly after Mr. Reid and Mr. Blystone formed their law partnership, they took alternate turns for a short time making trips to Titusville to attend to the office of Rowland B. Mahany, who at that time was engaged with legislative work in Harrisburg. In September of 1949, Chuck moved to Titusville and affiliated with Edward J. McDonald in the practice of law in that city. When Attorney McDonald died in 1952, Chuck then affiliated with his brother, Peter E. Blystone, in the practice of law, Peter operating the office in Meadville, and Chuck operating the Titusville office. Subsequent to this, the firm was joined by Honorable J. Perry Eckels, and later by Charles B. Stegner. Still later, Attorneys John Fuller, Victor J. Finnemen, Bruce L. Smith and Gordon R. Miller became affiliated with the law firm, now known as Eckels, Blystone, Fuller, Finnemen and Smith.

During the time that Chuck Blystone was engaged in the practice of law in Titusville, he also served as Special District Attorney for over ten years, performing outstanding service in that office. Also for many years he was attorney for the Pennsylvania Bank and Trust Co. and pioneered in the work of bank mergers on behalf of his client. As a result of his work in this field, he accomplished four bank mergers for the bank and an additional one is now pending. He also served for many years on the Board of Directors of The Second National Bank of Titusville, Pa., and subsequently on the Advisory Board of Marine Nat'l. Bank.

Chuck was civic minded and had belonged to the Titusville Rotary Club, Titusville Elks Club, and various other civic organizations, including all Masonic bodies and the Shrine. Six years ago he took a very active interest in the United States Senate race. The incumbent United States Senator Clark had taken a stand in favor of gun control legislation and Chuck was strongly opposed. He believed that United States citizens should have the right to protect themselves and their property with the use of firearms, if necessary. He therefore gave unstintingly of his time and resources in the successful effort to unseat the incumbent Senator and elect Senator Schweiker, who had announced his opposition to the gun control legislation then being considered in Washington D.C. When Chuck Blystone went into any campaign or activity, whether it involved the law, politics, golfing, hunting, fishing, cooking, stamp or coin collecting, or any other hobby in which he was interested, he went "all out" in his efforts. He always gave it everything he had and was a perfectionist.

While his interests were many and varied, he particularly loved wood and wood products and personally finished the interior of his residence in Titusville with a fine grade of wood paneling and wood cabinet work that exhibited a marvelous gift of craftsmanship comparable to the best work of skilled carpenters and cabinet makers.

He will probably best be remembered by his many colleagues and friends as an outstanding scholar and brilliant conversationalist, as he liked nothing better than reading and discussion -- and there was scarcely any subject in which he did not have an interest and much information. He and the individual members of your committee had on many occasions discussed a multitude of subjects, but at no time did we ever hear him utter a word of criticism or condemnation against anyone. He was not given to gossip of any kind but was always quick and even resourceful to find some rational explanation as to why a person acted a particular way.

James B. Stevenson, Publisher of the Titusville Herald, and a very close friend of Chuck's for many years, expressed the sentiments of Chuck's colleagues and of this committee when he editorialized as follows:

"Attorney Charles L. Blystone had one of the keenest minds of any lawyer who ever practiced in Titusville, in the memory of those now living, and this city has had several extremely able men.

His range of knowledge was broad and he could put this storehouse of information to work on all kinds of cases. His reasoning was sure and sound.

Aside from his professional talents, as a raconteur he was among the best. Whether he was describing the Owner's manuel of an English-made automobile, or telling of the exploits of some of the odd characters in his native Cambridge Springs, or recalling pranks of college days, it was a pleasure to listen to Chuck.

He was an expert fisherman, but he did not boast about his prowess. He was a modest man.

In addition to catching them, another field in which he was superb was the cooking of fish.

Had he tired of his profession, the best hotels would have bid for his services in the Kitchen.

In short, Charles Blystone was a versatile person. His death at 52 was a personal loss to a great many people."

and until an investigation of the mother's living arrangements can be made by Child Welfare Services.

The hearing on this matter is continued until January 29, 1975, at 11 a.m. The Court requests the McKean County Child Welfare Services, who have previously had contact with the Merton Eugene Simons family, to make an investigation of the mother of said Brenda Simons; namely, Marlyleen Schlopy and her residence and living arrangements at 875½ Leonard Avenue, Bradford, Pennsylvania (Landlord phone 362-1352) and submit a written report to the Court on or before January 20, 1975, to be used by the Court as a guide in ascertaining whether satisfactory living and custodial arrangements can be made in the event the Court transfers custody of the minor child, Brenda, to the mother. Upon receipt of said reports, the Court will furnish a copy to counselor allow counsel to see the original reports prior to hearing.

It appears also that Crawford County Child Welfare Services has had some contact with this family, and the Court directs the appropriate case worker to appear at the hearing on January 29, 1975, and bring with them such reports as they may have for the Court's review.

In the meantime, the mother may be accorded appropriate visitation rights with the minor child, Brenda, in the home of the father at his address of R.D. #2, Saegertown, by mail seventy-two (72) hours in advance of the proposed visit.

The Court and parties are desirous that satisfactory visitation arrangements be made so Brenda may visit with her father and with her brothers preferably in the home of the father. The Court has been assured that the parties will amicably work out such visitation arrangements so as to accord the father some type of visit approximately once per month. The Court urges the parties to work out advance satisfactory arrangements for a visit with the father during the Christmas holiday season each year.

While the issue of custody and visitation of the other children is not before the Court for determination, the Court urges the parties to work out satisfactory visitation arrangements for the mother with the three (3) other children. By mutual agreement of the parties, the custody of the three (3) boys, Merton, Dennis, and David, shall remain in the custody of the father with satisfactory visiting arrangements for the mother to be arranged.

August 1, 1977, Order filed: And Now, July 29, 1977, at the time set for a petition for custody, it appears that service was not obtained on the matter although she had some informal discussion with Legal Services on the matter as they are representing her as a defendant in a divorce action. By agreement, Otto Hofmann of Legal Services agrees to enter his appearance for mother in the custody proceeding now pending before the Court. It appears the custody of the minor child was voluntarily surrendered to the father three or four months ago by the mother. The Court directs that custody remain with the father until final hearing & Order in this matter.

In the meantime, Legal Services is directed to contact their client and if the matter cannot be amicably resolved, to request the Court to set a hearing. June 23, 1975 Stephen Toole being unable to serve as an arbitrator Michael D. Mason, Esq., is hereby appointed in his place and takes the qualifying oath.

July 2, 1975, @ 3:12 P.M., Decision of Arbitrators filed in which they find that on December 20, 1973 Traveler's Insurance Co. made an enforceable promise to Weber-Harris Ford to pay the cost of defendant Haberland's renting an automobile for as long as was reasonbly necessary to repair Haberland's car. Weber-Harris Ford and Haberland made a rental contract in reliance on that promise, and Weber-Harris Ford thereupon provided the rental service. However, the Arbitrators also find that had Weber-Harris Ford performed the repairs in a diligent manner, Haberland's car would have been ready on March 25, 1975 rather than April 12, 1975 Therefore the Arbitrators find as follows: Weber-Harris Ford v. Haberland Judgment for the Plaintiff for the sum of $950.00 plus 12% simple interest from date of bill to date of hearing, amounting to a total sum of $1073.50.

Weber-Harris Ford v. Travelers Insurance Company. Judgment for the Plaintiff for the sum of $1073.50 as noted above. Satisfaction of this judgment will discharge the obligation imposed on Defendant Haberland by the Judgment set out above.

Whereas, although it is evident from the testimony that the subject child would prefer to reside with his mother in Pittsburgh, and

Whereas, the Court is not convenced at the present time that the mothers emotional and physical situation has stabilized to such an extent that she can now take the child into her custody; and

Whereas, it is evident that the fathers life style has not stabilized so that he can take said child into his custody; and

Whereas, the child was making excellent progress, apparently emotionally and scholastically when he was residing with his paternal grandparents; and

Whereas, the Court retains jurisdiction of this case and makes an order temporary in nature and only until further order of Court;

Now, Therefore, this 25th day of Sept., 1975, it is Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. That until further order of Court the custody of Dion Patrick Young is awarded to the paternal grandparents, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth;

2. The mother shall have the right to take the child into her custody every other weekend, from Friday night after 4:00 o'clock p. m., returning the child to the custody of the paternal grandparents not later than 8:00 o'clock p. m. on Sunday.

3. The father shall have the right, of course, to spend weekends at the home of his parents on the occasions when Dion is not visiting his mother, as hereinbefore set forth.

4. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person, place, or situation which will adversely affect the health, education, or welfare of the child.

The Court interprets this to mean that the child will not be exposed to any person, of the opposite sex while in the custody of either parent, if that person of the opposite sex is not related to the child or to the parent by blood or marriage.

5. The Court retains jurisdiction of this case and will, upon petition of the father or mother or the paternal grandparents, fix a hearing to review the matter any time after May 1, 1976.

6. The mother shall have the child on Christmas Eve, and the father on Christmas Day of 1975; the father will have the child on Thanksgiving Day, and the mother on the eve preceding Thanksgiving; the mother will have the child on Easter Sunday, and the father on the preceding Saturday. Holidays shall take precedence over weekend visitations.

Oct. 22, 1975 Final Order and Decree Filed. And Now, this 22nd day of October 1975, after due consideration, a dvoirce is decreed as prayed for on the grounds of indignities to the person, and the Prothonotary is directed to enter the appropriate decree. The defendant, Gregory E. Brown is ordered to pay the costs.

By Order of the Court,
F. Joseph Thomas, Judge

Decree: And Now, to-wit: October 22, A.D. 1975, this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said Elizabeth L. Brown, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between, her the said Elizabeth L. Brown, the plaintiff, and the said Gregory E. Brown, the defendant, and that thereupon all and every the duties, rights and claims accruing to either the said plaintiff or the said defendant, at any time heretofore in pursuance of said marriage, shall cease and determine;

And the said plaintiff and defendant shall severally be at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married.

Per Curiam.

Oct. 22, 1975 Memorandum filed. F. Joseph Thomas, J. We have concluded that the evidence in this case does not warrant granting the Decree on the grounds of impotency but that such a Decree is justified on indignities to the person, the other ground alleged in the complaint.

While refusal of sexual relations does not yet constitute indignities in Pennsylvania, such refusal in this case was coupled with lack of affection, settled neglect, indifference, failure to explain and correct the reason for the denial of marital relations so as to render the plaintiff's condition intolerable.

Accordingly we are entering a separate Decree granting the divorce on the ground of indignities to the person.

1. That the father shall have the right to take the child into his custody every other weekend beginning two weeks following the transfer of custody to the mother, which weekends shall be from Friday night at 5:00 o'clock pm. returning the child to the custody of the mother not later than 8:00 o'clock pm. on Sunday, both preceding local times.
