Complaint in Divorce
1 copy attested

June 24, 1976 Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs and Order filed: And Now, this 23rd day of June, 1976, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and on Motion of Ballard F. Smith, Jr., Esquire, Attorney for the Petitioner, a Rule was granted on the Defendant to show cause why he should not pay the plaintiff alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs.

Returnable, to the Crawford County Courthouse on the 22nd day of July, 1976, at 11:30 o'clock A.M. The Defendant must appear on this date in person with or without counsel.

P. Richard Thomas

July 19, 1976 Sheriff's Return filed: Served And Made Known to Gerald R. Shaffer personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Complaint in Divorce and Petition, No 143 September Term, 1976 to him, on June 28, 1976 at 2:15 P.M. at Box 62 E. Titusville, in the County of Crawford, State of Penna.

So answers, George Danielson, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

July 22, 1976 Order filed: And Now, July 22, 1976, after hearing, it appears that through some informal arrangement, the defendant is making bi-weekly contributions of support to his wife for her use and that of the children and the Court suggests that this agreement be reduced to consent form and filed as a Domestic Relations Consent Order, with payments being made direct to the spouse.

In view of this the Court refuses to enter an Order for Alimony, particularly in view of the fact the defendant is paying mortgage loans and other household bills.

The Court finds the defendant has a total obligation to pay costs and counsel fees in the divorce action in the amount of $300.00, with said sum being paid at the rate of $50.00 per month commencing with the month of August, 1976, and said sums to be paid to counsel for the plaintiff.

Sept 1, 1976 Order filed: And Now, August 27, 1976 it appearing that the wife is earning $450.00 per month take-home pay, the Court is of the opinion that she is of sufficient ability to pay her own counsel fees and costs, and the Petetioner is denied, therefore, so far as the request for counsel fees and costs are concerned.
However, in view of the fact that the petetioner has three (3) children, and that the defendant is earning approximately $750.00, more or less, take home pay, the Court will enter an Order by way of alimony pendente lite for the support of the children until such time as the support of the children becomes effective by an Order of the Domestic Relations Court.
The parties have agreed and it is ordered and directed that the defendant pay for the support of the three (3) minor children the sum of $225.00 per month, and this agreement shall also be made a Court Order in the Domestic Relations Office.

November 3, 1976 Order filed: And Now, October 26, 1976, after hearing, the Court is unwilling at this time to enter an Order correcting the death certificate in view of testimony taken this day which indicates a valid existing marriage prior to 1953.

The Court directs counsel for the Petitioner to make a further search of the records in appropriate counties to ascertain whether there was a valid marriage to Helen Warnyke, and if such was a fact, whether there is any evidence of a divorce in the possible counties of jurisdiction prior to 1953.

The Court also requires the submission of a certified copy of the application for a marriage license from Fayette County indicating the marriage of Edward Schoeppner and Irene Sapolski in 1953.

Upon procurement of additional documentation or certificates of the inability to produce the same because they are non-existant in the records, the court will entertain a motion for further hearing in this matter.

And Now April 20, 1977 after further hearing, the Court hereby Orders the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Vital Statistics to correct the Death Record of Edward John Schoeppner, Sr., who died on October 7, 1973, in Warren County, Pennsylvania, as follows: That the spouse of the deceased shall be changed from Helen Rose Warnyke to Irene Sapolski.

The Court scheduled two hearings in this matter and received numerous exhibits and testimony. The Court is satisfied by the full weight of the evidence that at the time of the death of Edward John Schoeppner, Sr. he was the husband of Irene Sapolski and therefore directs the Department of Vital Statistics to prepare a corrected Death Certificate.

Feb 1, 1978 Re: Motion to Compel Defendant to Answer and Motion for Sanctions and Order filed: And Now, January 31, 1978 having read depositions taken and heard arguments on Defendant, Heng Yu Chen's Motion to Compel Answers and Imposition of Sanctions, directed to Defendant, General Motors Corporation, we find the Plaintiff's cause of action is based primarily on the allegedly defective brake system on the 1974 Pontiac Le Mans automobile involved. Discovery by Defendant, Heng Yu Chen, is accordingly limited thereto until such time additional discovery would be relevant. Pursuant to the following, our ruling on the Defendant's Motion to Compel Answers and Imposition of Sanctions is deferred.

The Defendant, Heng Yu Chen, is hereby given thirty (30) days in which to serve Amended written Interrogatories on the Defendant, General Motors Corporation.

Said Interrogatories shall be limited to information General Motors Corporation has relating to instances of general brake failure in the 1974 model Le Mans automobile, customer complaints regarding complete failure of power brake systems in the 1974 Le Mans, and any reported difficulties encountered in breaking characteristics when said model stalls while being driven.

If, after receipt of General Motors Corporation's Answers to the Amended Interrogatories, Defendant, Heng Yu Chen's counsel believes power brake failures in other model years involving the Le Mans model may establish a pattern, counsel may petition the Court for permission to broaden the discovery in this area.

In responding to the Amended interrogatories, the Defendant, General Motors Corporation, is directed to refrain from raising spurious arguments beyond the limitations of Pa. R.C.P. 4011.

Feb. 28, 1977 Re: Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint and Order filed: After argument held on Defendants Preliminary Objections, the Defendant's attorney and the Plaintiff agree to the following:

1. The Plaintiff agrees that his claim is not based on any action of Defendant George Kelymon as it relates to his conviction of a theft charge at No. 349 of 1976 (Commonwealth vs Ronald George Handan (Alford incident)

2. The Complaint will be amended so the caption of this case includes the City of Meadville as defendant party. The Meadville City Police Department is removed as a party defendant. Robert L Walker, Attorney for Defendant argues that he has or will enter an appearance for the City of Meadville defendant. The Prothonotary is directed to append the caption of the case to add as a party defendant, the City of Meadville.

The Plaintiff contends that his theory of recovery is based on a false imprisonment theory rather than a false arrest theory. His contention is that some action taken by George Kelymon, defendant, was negligent, malicious, wilful and without just or reasonable cause. The Plaintiff will be required to amend his Complaint within twenty days of the filing of this Order by filing a new paper titled "Amended Complaint" in which he details with a reasonable degree of specificity what actions or conduct were taken by George Kelymon that directly or indirectly led to the false imprisonment of the Plaintiff.

The Demurrer by the Defendant is denied.

No 3 November Term, 1976

Feb. 16, 1977 Order filed: Whereas, on October 8, 1976, the Court awarded the custody of the three (3) minor children involved in this case to the father and because he felt that the best interest of the children required that they be taken from the custody of the mother; and

Whereas, the evidence upon which we reached said opinion was that the evidence indicated that the mother had neglected the children by leaving them alone on occasions not providing sufficient food, permitting them to roam the streets of the borough until early hours, sleeping with another man and staying in the apartment of another man until the early morning hours; and

Whereas, the father has now stated to the Court that he wishes to give up custody of the children awarded to him because his circumstances presently do not permit him having custody; and furthermore, that he has no objection to the custody of the children being awarded to the mother; and

Whereas, the Court has no objection to awarding the custody of the children to the mother if and when it is established to the satisfaction of the Court that the mother's style of life has, in fact, changed since October 8, 1976; and

Whereas, the period of time is too short and the evidence inconclusive:

Now, Therefore, this 9th day of February, 1977, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. That the Order of Court awarding the custody of the aforesaid three (3) children to the father of October 8, 1976, is revoked by reason of the aforesaid circumstances.

2. That the custody of the three (3) minor children at this time is awarded to the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County and shall make an investigation into the life style, the home and the welfare of the children and report thereon to the Court at the earliest opportunity.

3. That if a favorable report is received by the Court from Child Welfare Services, the Court will then enter an Order awarding custody to the mother and appropriate visitation rights to the father.

4. Meanwhile, the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County shall take custody of the children and arrange for visitation of children pending their investigation on the part of both parents.

Apr 26, 1977 Order, Defendant's Preliminary Objections and Order filed: And Now this twenty-fifth day of April, 1977, it is Ordered and directed as follows: (1) The defendants' demurrer to Count II of the Complaint insofar as it is based upon the theory of implied warranties is sustained and the Complaint as to that cause of action is demurred.

Reason: In Pennsylvania the doctrine of caveat emptor still appears to apply to sales of real property except to sales of new homes where the vendor is also the builder. Elderkin et ux, Appellants, vs. Gaster, 447 Pa 118, 288 A 2d 771 (1972)

2. The defendants' demurrer to the cause of action against the wife defendant (mistakenly referred to in the demurrer as "wife plaintiff") is overruled.

Reason: Although plaintiffs may be unable to prove that the husband acted as agent for the wife defendant, the averment of agency in the Complaint is a fact that is admitted for purposes of a demurrer, rather than a conclusion of law. to the mother, Sandra Goodenote. Accordingly, the custody of said child is so awarded.

The Court, in making this decision, makes no recommendation to the appropriate Court in New York State who will hear in the month of November a New York State custody action involving the minor child Linda.

The Court believes visitation rights should be accorded the father but in view of the distance between parents will direct counsel for the parties to attempt to reach a mutually satisfactory visitation schedule so the minor child Benjamin may have reasonable visitation periods with his father in New York State.

The Court is apprehensive that the father's past conduct is evidence of an intent to again remove the child from Court jurisdiction or from possible return to the mother. Accordingly, if visitation schedules are arranged by which the child is to be released to the father in New York State, the Court recommends that the father be required to post an appropriate cash or certified check bond with the Prothonotary Office of Crawford County before picking up the child for any agreed to visitations, which sum will be promptly refunded to him upon return of the child after each visit.

August 6, 1976 Order Findings of Fact and Conclusions filed and Order filed: And Now, this fourth day of August, 1976, after a full and complete hearing, the patient being represented by counsel, and all witnesses being sworn, we make the following

Findings of Fact

(1) The patient is sixty (60) years of age and suffers from Huntington's Chorea, more correctly known as dementia involving deterioration of the brain.

(2) The disease is incurable and will become progressively worse.

(3) The petition for commitment was filed on May 19, 1976, but treatment in nursing homes was tried before disposition thereof which failed because the patient attacked several employees and residents and became a danger to the staff.

(4) The first of these attacks, insofar as relevant to this proceeding, occured on May 6, 1976, within thirty (30) days of the filing of the petition.

The most recent attack occurred on August 3, 1976, when he attempted to stab a patient with a butcher knife.

(5) The patient is physically strong, cannot control his temper or actions and is becoming increasingly dangerous.

(6) His aggressive and assaultive behavior is becoming more frequent.

From the foregoing we make the following Conclusions:

The patient, Richard B. Hannold, is severely mentally disabled and in need of immediate treatment because he poses a clear and present danger to himself and more particularly to others as clearly established by the foregoing Findings of Fact based upon the evidence.

August 4, 1976 Order filed: And Now, August 3, 1976, the defendant having failed to appear and his counsel, the mother of the child and her counsel having advised the Court that they believe he has intentionally rendered himself absent without leave from the military service, permanent custody of the minor child Tiffany Van Tassel is awarded to the mother, Debra J. Van Tassel. The father shall be accorded visitation privileges on the first and third Saturdays of each month commencing with the month of August, 1976, on the condition that the child will not be removed from the jurisdiction of the Court without further order of the Court. The latter condition is entered in this Order for the reason that the defendant has on one or more occasions threatened to remove the child from the custody of the mother and not return the child.

In the event the father of the child diligently exercises his visitational privileges, the Court would be amenable to granting more extended visitation privileges if the parties cannot amicably work out arrangements for same.

Costs in this proceeding are assessed against the defendant.

a more Specific Complaint is sustained.

The purpose of a complaint in civil practice is to give a defendant information of all material facts on which the plaintiff relies to support his demand. We see no reason why what is basically a simple fact situation should result in a voluminous pleading consisting of over 380 paragraphs comprising a Complaint Amended Complaint and Amendment to the Amended Complaint. Neither the Court nor counsel should have to follow the Plaintiff on a confusing jaunt wherein paragraph upon paragraph are cross-incorporated until we are led so far astray that the trail is lost. We will therefore order a more specific complaint in the following respects:

1. All counts and allegations against each defendant shall be set forth together.
2. The pleading shall be divided into paragraphs. Each paragraph shall contain, as far as practicable, only one material allegation.
3. Each count shall specify whether the cause of action stated therein is in assumpsit or trespass.
4. Counts for wrongful death and survival action shall be labeled as such.
5. The nature of any alleged expressed warranties shall be stated and supporting exhibits attached.
6. The Plaintiff shall comply with Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 2204 and all other applicable Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Plaintiff is given twenty (20) days in which to file a more specific complaint in accord herewith.

April 2, 1980, Answers To Interrogatories to Defendant Wolff's Hardware filed.

April 9, 1980, Answers to Interrogatories to Harley-Davidson Motor Company, Inc. filed.

April 10, 1980, Pretrial Order filed. A pretrial conference was held in the above entitled case on April 8, 1980 and as a result thereof the following matters are ordered:

1. Notwithstanding the caption of the case, there are seven separate defendants who will be known during the trial as follows:

(a) Harley-Davidson, the alleged manufacturer of the motorcycle represented by E. Max Weiss;

(b) Gary L. Gamble, doing business as Gary's Harley-Davidson Sales, the alleged retail seller of the motorcycle, represented by Peter E. Blystone;

(c) Roper Corporation, the alleged manufacturer of the helmet, represented by Arnold V. Plum;

(d) American Recreation Groups, Inc., an alleged distributor of the helmet who is being afforded a defende by Roper Corporation and will be represented by Arnold V. Plum;

(e) World Famous Sales , an alleged distributor of the helmet, which defendant is being afforded a defense by Roper Corporation and will be represented by Arnold V. Plum;

(f) Wolff's Hardware, the alleged retailer of the helmet, represented by Theodore Padden;

(g) General Electric Corporation, the manufacturer and supplier of a product known as "Lexan" which allegedly was used in the manufacture of the helmet, represented by John McLaughlin.

2. It is agreed by all parties that the issues in this case are limited to a product liability claim under Restatement §402A and a failure to warn under Restatement §402B. No claims of negligence or breach of warranty have been made and no evidence will be received relating to such claims and no issues will be submitted to the jury regarding such a claim.

3. The plaintiff's position breaks down into two separate claims:

(a) That the motorcycle was defective by reason of defective brakes which in turn is alleged to have been the result, at least in part, of defective brake fluid;

(b) that the helmet was defective and it is the plaintiff's position that there was a design defect in the manufacture of the helmet and, in addition, that the material itself was defective.

4. Insofar as possible, the case will be presented to the jury as to the alleged defective motorcycle and as to the alleged defective helmet separately and in a cohesive manner with the plaintiff presenting all witnesses as to the defective motorcycle first and all witnesses as to the defective helmet second. However, because of a scheduling problem the witness, Richard Zalonka, who will be testifying primarily in regard to the helmet will be permitted to testify at such time as he is called regardless of the general order.

5. The Plaintiff will submit all evidence on the issues of liability followed by the defendants who are connected with the manufacture or sale of the allegedly defective motorcycle who will in turn be followed by the defendants who are connected with the manufacture and sale of the allegedly defective helmet and with General Electric Corporation, the manufacturer of the basic material, following the defendants who are directly involved in the manufacture or sale of the helmet. The case willthen be submitted to the jury on the issues of liability. In the event of a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and against one or more defendants, plaintiff will them submit to the same jury evidence relating to damages and a second verdict will be taken from the jury on the on the damage issue.

6. None of defense counsel have indicated a desire to exercise their option to open to the jury immediately following the plaintiff's opening. Therefore, in the interests of cohesiveness, opening arguments will be made as follows:

The plaintiff will open to the jury and then present all evidence on the issues of liability. Following the plaintiff;s case, Weiss will open to the jury and Blystone will open to the jury and then all evidence from the defense regarding the allegedly defective motorcycle shall be presented. Following that evidence, Plum will opem to the jury, Padden will open to the jury and McLaughlin will open to the jury, and then all evidence from the defendants relating to the allegedly defective helmet will be offered in the same order as tht openings.

7. Closing arguments shall be made inthe following order: McLaughlin, Padden, Plum, Blystone, Weiss, Schroek, Limitations on the time of closing arguments will be decided upon prior to closing arguments.

8. In the selection of the jury, thirty=six (36) jurors shall be called and exch counsel shall have four preemptory challenges whether or not they represent multiple defendants.

9. Plaintiff has indicated that she intends to call the following witnesses: Larry Damaio, Dr. Tarantine, Dr. Palladino, Dr. Challener, Coroner, Trooper Marshall, Pennsylvania State Police, Mrs. Joyce A. Butterfield, William Wilson, Arden Taylor, Alex Sletxoff, Brian Butterfield, Eric Butterfield, Thomas Jackson

Plaintiff has agreed that he will not call Alex Podgers and he will not be permitted to call him as a witness in his case in chief. Insofar as Dr. Palladino is concerned, since it appears that he would be an expert witness relating to the cause of death that has been listed in no answers to interrogatories, he will not be permitted to testify unless plaintiff's counsel delivers to all defense counsel on or before 5:00 P.M., April 10, 1980, a report from Dr. Palladino relating to his opinions and the nature of his testimony signed by Dr. Palladino. No expert witness will be permitted to testify as to matters which have not been fairly disclosed in answers to proper interrogatories if permitting such testimony would be manifestly unfair in light of the answers to proper interrogatories if permitting such testimony would be manifestly unfair in light of the answers to the interrogatories.

10. In addition to the above witnesses who will be called as liability witnesses, plaintiff will call as damage witnesses, Professor Wright, an economist, the parentsof the decedent, and perhaps other non=expert witnesses. In relation to Professor Wright, since he was not listed as an expert witness in answer to interrogatories, he will not be permitted to testify unless his report is in the hands of all counsel for the defense by 12:00 o'clock Noon, on Monday, April 14, 1980.

11. Harley-Davidson intends to call Raymond Maynard as an expert witness and may call chamists, depending upon any supplemental reports from Mr. Demaio, and Thomas Jackson and Eric Butterfield if they are not called by the plaintiff.

12. Gary's Harley-Davidson Sales will call Gary Gamble as a witness and Eric Butterfield and Thomas Jackson if they are not called by any other party.

13. Roper Corporation will call Dr. James A. Newman as an expert relating to helmets and Dr. Sanford Egbert as an expert as to the cause of death. In addition, they may call one or more officers or or management employees of Roper Corporation itself.

14. Wolff's Hardware may call Wally Westfall and /or Ronald Wolff.

15. General Electric Corporation intends to call Dr. Robert Challener if he is not called by any other parties.

16. Any questions which any party wishes to ask on voir dire during the selection of the jury over and above the usual and routine questions shall be submitted to the court by 5:00 o'clock P.M., April 10, 1980.

17. The defendants intend to offer evidence that the plaintiff's decedent had a blood alcohol content of .09% following the accident and testimony to establish that this blood alcohol content would have affected his ability to operate the motorcycle. Plaintiff has made an oral motion in limine to preclude any such evidence. All parties are directed to file any memorandum of law which they may desire to offer to the Court by 9:30 A.M., April 14, 1980 and the Court will rule on the motion in limine prior to the start of the trial.

18. Any special interrogatories which any party desires to have submitted to the jury for answer should be submitted to the Court on Monday, April 14, 1980.

19. In the examination and cross-examination of witnesses, the following order shall be followed:

In order to expedite disposition of this case which has been delayed inordinately, the original appointment of Willis Schug, Esquire, as Master, is vacated and William F. Peters, Esquire, is appointed Master to hold hearings on all remaining issues and make report thereon to the Court.

The request to hold a pretrial conference is granted and a pretrial conference is scheduled for Jan. 6, 1982 at 2:00 o'clock P.M. before the undersigned at which time the Master will also be present and an effort will be made to narrow the issues to be litigated in the hearing before the Master. At the time of the pretrial conference, an order will be entered relating to the deposit of Master's Fees and expenses prior to hearing.

Jan. 7, 1982, Pretrial Conference Order filed. The parties have agreed that the issues to be determined by the Master will be equitable distribution of marital property and allocation of counsel fees, costs and expenses. Issues relating to permanent alimony and alimony pendente lite, if pled, are withdrawn by agreement of the parties.

The initial issue to be determined will be what assets are to be included in marital property. In order to simplify the hearing, the parties have agreed that that issue be bifurcated from the ultimate issue of equitable distribution. A hearing will be held by the Master for the sole purpose of determining what assets are to be included as marital property for ultimate distribution and testimony will be confined to that issue. The Master will file a report making his recommendation as to that issue and either party may take exceptions in the normal manner to that report and the Court will then hear argument on that issue and make a determination. After determination of that issue, either by the Master if no exceptions are filed , or by the Court if exceptions are filed, the Master will hold an additional hearing for the purpose of determining the equitable distribution of the assets which are to be distributed. Since there may be some relevance to the valuation of property which has been determined to be non-marital assets, either for the purpose of determining the relative financial condition of the parties, or for the purpose of ultimate disposition in the event of appeal, evidence as to valuation of both marital and non-marital assets shall be admissible at the second Master's hearing.

Following the second hearing, the Master will file a report which either or both of the parties may except to if they deem appropriate and final determination will be made by the Court. Such final decree which will include the equitable distribution of the assets and the disposition of any unresolved issues as to counsel fees, costs and expenses shall then be the final decree which may be appealed by either or both of the parties.

The parties have agreed that the Master's hearing has been scheduled for February 1, 1982, to be held at the Courthouse, Meadville, Pa in Courtroom No. 3, and the Master will forthwith send the required notice of the Master's hearing.

The Plaintiff is ordered to deposit $200.00 toward Master's fees and expenses and the defendant is ordered to deposit $800.00 toward Master's fees and expenses with ultimate disposition of those costs to be determined at the close of the litigation.

Upon joint application of the parties, the Court will bifurcate the issue of dissolution of the marriage and grant a decree reserving the unresolved issues that have been submitted to the Master.
