Jan. 7, 1975 Exhibits Filed.

Jan. 15, 1975 Order filed. And Now, January 7, 1975, this procedurally confused matter was this date called before the Court for hearing. The posture of the Petitioner, speaking through his Counsel was that he had filed an appeal from suspension of operator's privileges in Crawford County but had been notified by a representative of the Deputy Attorney General's Office that the appeal was filed in the wrong jurisdiction. In view of the fact the Petitioner is a resident of Mercer County Counsel for the Petitioner advised the representative of the Deputy Attorney General's Office that he would promptly refile said case in Mercer County.

On the meantime, in response to the supersedeas granted by the Crawford County Court under Order of November 21, 1974, the Petitioner received an official notification of restoration of motor vehicle privileges dated November 21, 1974. Counsel for the Petitioner believes that this official restoration of motor vehicle privileges was issued after further investigation by the secretary as provided for in Section 1406 (c) of the Vehicle Code.

The Court notes at this time that the Petitioner brought suit against one Richard E. Smith for damages resulting from this automobile accident and that on April 2, 1974 the Petitioner Louis S. De Marco was awarded a judgment by District Magistrate Harry E. Landall, District (30-3-02)

The Court further notes that Richard E. Smith, Defendant

May 23, 1975 Memorandum filed. We are granting the divorce in this case but not on the ground of the husband's refusal of sexual intercourse. While we agree with counsel that the law should be changed, we are nevertheless bound by the law as it presently exists under principles of stare decisis.

However, in this case there was other evidence which satisfies the Court that settled indifference, neglect and estrangement existed constituting indignities to the plaintiff.

Returnable and for hearing on the 10 day of Jan. 1975 at 9:30 o'clock, in Court Room at the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

Notice of this hearing is to be served on the Respondent, Marguerite Edna Mealy, by Certified Mail, Deliver to Addressee Only, Return Receipt Requested, at her last known address, to-wit: R.D. #1, Geneva, Ohio.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Dec. 20, 1974 Copy of Order given to E. Max Weiss, Esq.

Jan. 15, 1975 Order filed. And Now, January 10, 1975, at the time scheduled for hearing on a petition to confirm custody of minor children of the father, Thad Basil Taylor, it appears that the certified mail service may not have been accomplished.

With the testimony taken, the Court is satisfied that, for the immediate future, the best interest of the children will be served by permitting them to remain with their father.

The Court also notes that Crawford County Child Welfare Services has been active in the case at the request of Ohio Child Welfare Services; and accordingly, the Court places the four (4) minor children under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court and directs that Crawford County Child Welfare Services continue an active interest in this case; and if they believe the father has not provided adequate care and supervision, they will petition the Juvenile Court for further hearing. In the meantime, the father will not remove the children from the jurisdiction of this Court without the consent of Child Welfare Services.

In view of the fact that service may not have been perfected, the Court directs that the mother not remove the children from the custody of the father; but if she wishes custody of the children, she may petition the Court for hearing under the title and caption of this case rather than filing the usual child custody habeas corpus action.

Counsel for the Plaintiff shall make effort to serve by certified mail or by personal service if the same can be accomplished, a copy of this Court Order.

By Order of the Court.
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Whereas, the petition for rule to show cause filed in the above entitled case on January 16, 1975, is procedurally irregular in view of the fact that the plaintiff does not require authority to file a Writ of Replevin but only judicial authority before the goods may be seized; and.

Whereas, in spite of the foregoing, the plaintiff now has tendered for filing a praecipe for a Writ of Replevin with bond, and the defendant has no objection to the filing of said praecipe with bond and no objection to the Sheriff taking possession of the goods during the requisite period of time; and;

In the Matter of Objections to Petition

Order: Whereas, the attached letter and exhibits were hand delivered to the Judge's Chambers on March 21, 1975, and purport to be objections to the petition for a referendum on the question of granting liquor licenses in the Borough of Saegertown; and

Whereas, the law provides that petitions for local referendums "shall be deemed valid, unless, within seven days after the last day for filing (said) nomination petition or paper, a petition is presented to the court of common pleas . . . specifically setting forth the objections thereto, and praying that the said petition or paper be set aside;" and

Whereas, the last day for filing the petition setting forth said objections was March 18, 1975; and

Whereas, notwithstanding the apparent late feling and the informal manner in which objections have been raised, the Court feels that a hearing should be held to give all parties an opportunity to be heard:

Now, therefore, this twenty-fourth day of March, 1975, it is hereby Ordered and Directed:

1. A hearing is fixed for April 4, 1975 at 1:30 o'clock P.M. to more fully hear and consider the questions involved.

2. All parties should be prepared to argue the legal points involved and to present evidence if legally required or permitted to do so.

3. A copy of this Order shall be served by the Sheriff on the County Board of Elections, on Leo C. Cramer, 422 McGill Street, Saegertown, Pa. 16433, on Carl J. Maurana, Saegertown, Pennsylvania, 16433, and by certified mail on Dale E. Boyer, R.D.#1, 159 Rural Valley, Pa. 16249.

And Now, May 9, 1975, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that both parents have a genuine interest in the children and are capable of caring for and giving love and attention to the children. In view of the tender ages of the children, however, the Court feels at this time their best interest lies in confirming custody in the mother; and, accordingly, the custody of the minor children, Joseph and Gina, is awarded to their mother.

The Court notes at this time that through agreement of the parties, the father has been accorded extensive visits and the Court believes the maturity and wisdom of the parties in this action will enable them to work out meaningful, frequent and satisfactory visitations for the father either in the home of the mother or at the home of the father.

The Court is also desirous that the children spend an extensive period of time with their father during his vacation periods in the summer months and is satisfied the parties can work out arrangements in this regard.

With regard to holidays, the children will be in the home of the mother on Christmas Day but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children in the Order: And now, to-wit this 16 day of April, 1975, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing petition, the Court hereby fixes May 23, 1975 at 10 o'clock P.m., local prevailing time, or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had for hearing upon said Petition, notice of said hearing to be given by the County of Crawford by publishing a notice in The Meadville Tribune and The Titusville Herald once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks.

May 23, 1975, Affidavit of Proof of Publication filed.
May 23, 1975, Order filed. And Now, this 23rd day of May 1975, following a hearing held in open Court on Friday, May 23, 1975, and upon consideration of the testimony taken at said hearing and the petition filed, this Court is of the opinion that: 1. The County of Crawford in its operation of the County Home and Hospital does not need all of the water in and under the tract of land owned by the County of Crawford in the Borough of Saegertown. 2. The water rights agreement does not include any conveyance by the County of Crawford of any oil, gas, coal, stone, timber or other mineral or forest products of commercial value other than the use of water as specified in said agreement. 4. The Covenant of the Borough of Saegertown as contained in the proposed water rights agreement to provide the County of Crawford with a supply of water at no expense in the event the County's present source of water should for any reason be depleted is a good and valuable consideration for the County entering into said proposed agreement. 5. The County of Crawford has complied with the statutory requirements of notice and procedure in this proposed water rights agreement.

Now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered that the Commissioners of Crawford County duly execute and deliver unto the Borough of Saegertown the proposed water rights agreement as more fully described in the Petition.

Berry but also for the benefit of the children involved: and Whereas, the Court is not satisfied that the preliminary examination at the Mental Health Center was of such a duration as to determine whether or not care at a facility is required: and Whereas, the Court does not believe that Roberta L. Berry requires commitment as an in-patient for any period of time to have said evaluation made:
Now, therefore, this 30th day of April, 1975, it is hereby Ordered and directed as follows:

should be made to accommodate the long estranged father but because of the long estrangement between father and children, the visits should be limited as to time with the possibility of expanding visits as parent and children become re-acquainted. Accordingly, the Court enters the following Order:

The father shall have the right to visit the children and have them in his custody in Meadville and the general surrounding area on Saturday, June 21 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Likewise, similar visits will be accorded the father on Saturday, July 5, Saturday, July 19 and Saturday, August 2, 1975.

It shall be a condition of these visits that the father will work in cooperation with the Child Welfare Caseworker and will be guided by their counsel and directions regarding his approach to the children, the places he will take them and where they will be picked up and returned.

The father will be accorded four (4) days of continuous visitation with the children at an appropriate place in Uniontown, Pennsylvania where he resides, with the four (4) days to occur between August 15 and August 30. He shall give the foster mother of said children two (2) weeks notice of his selection of the four (4) days, and it shall be a specific condition of this visit that the Fayette County Child Welfare Services will be advised of the days of the visit, the location where the children will be and will personally visit the proposed residence of the children to assure the Crawford County Child Welfare Services that the same are appropriate to accommodate the children.

It shall also be a further condition of this visit and all visits that the foster mother, Mrs. Alyce M. Warner, will encourage the children to participate in these visits and will do nothing to discourage them or attempt to influence them against their father.

In the month of September, the father shall have similar one-day Saturday visits on the 6th and 20th of September and monthly thereafter, with said visits to be in the City of Meadville, Pennsylvania. After October 1, 1975, the father shall have the right by simple motion filed by his attorney or by himself to request a review of this case for the purpose of extending parental visits or requesting permanent custody of the children.

It appears the father's income is limited at this time, but he has a net take-home pay of approximately $200.00 per month. In view of the expense incurred by Crawford County in caring for these children, the father shall pay through the Domestic Relations Office of Crawford County, for payment to Crawford County the sum of $70.00 per month to help defray a portion of the expense in caring for these children, with said payments to commence with the month of June, 1975.

During all visits, the father will make no derogatory remarks about

Dec. 22, 1975 Order filed. And Now, Dec 18, 1975, after hearing and further review of the exhibits and consideration of the law and arguments of counsel, it is ordered and directed that the appeal of Vernon Township be and is hereby sustained and the surcharge imposed is rendered null and void for the following reasons:

1. That taking into consideration the skill, experience, and ability to render services of the Roadmaster, Charles E. Metzler, the sum of $7.00 per hour, which the supervisors agreed to pay to him, was reasonable and did not exceed wages paid in the locality for services which could have been rendered by one or more persons for similar services.

2. The surcharge was in reality based upon the opinion of one auditor at a meeting attended only by two auditors, and of which the third auditor, Charles Rice, was not present, and of which by the Court finds he was not notified.

3. There was not only no evedence that the Township suffered a loss because of the hiring of the aforesaid Charles Metzler, but in fact, evidence of a considerable savings to the Township by reason of said hiring.

4. The Court also finds that there was not a bona fide attempt to settle the matter prior to an imposition of the surcharge, and therefore, the counsel for the auditors shall be paid by the auditors and shall not be paid by the Township; and no part thereof shall be paid by the Township.

5. The Township shall immediately pay the auditors for their services as follows, to-wit: to Francis Kuban and Louise Hamilton for the number of hours submitted by them, and to Charles Rice for the number of hours personally submitted by him.

By Order of the Court,

TERM, 1975

Mary A. Piccolini
vs.
Lance Piccolini

No. 85 May Term 1975

The Court reviewed the joint issues of the parties, and during the hearing, it was disclosed that the wife is now employed at the Abbey Road Clothing Shoppe, Meadville Mall, but her present earnings are unknown. It was also ascertained that the wife now has an automobile, both of which facts were not disclosed or in existence at the time the original petition was filed.

The husband contends he is willing to pay divorce costs in this case, but in view of the fact that the wife is seeking the divorce, that he should not be required to pay counsel fees although he does not intend to contest the divorce. The defendant also disclosed there is a jointly-owned piece of real estate in Mercer County which he estimates has an approximate value of $14,000.00 and that the current mortgage against the same is something in excess of $9,000.00. He further estimated that if the real estate could be sold at his estimation of value, he had offered to divide the net profits with his wife and set up her share in a permanent trust fund for the benefits of the children.

The Court believes before deciding this issue, we should hear further testimony regarding the assets and earnings of the wife and at the same time grant a Rule to Show Cause on the wife as to why the petition for payment of costs should not be amended to require the payment of all or a portion of counsel fees in view of the assets of the defendant and the jointly-held assets of the parties.

The matter is returnable for hearing and argument on May 29, 1975 at 10:00 o'clock a.m. All proceedings are stayed in the meantime.

July 2, 1975 Re: Petition for Payment of Costs - Opinion and Order filed.

Order: The Court finds as a fact that the joint income and assets of the parties is of sufficient magnitude that the wife plaintiff cannot be allowed to proceed as an indigent and that the county is not required to waive the usual costs and fees.

The previous Order of March 10, 1975, granting the wife plaintiff the right to proceed forma pauperis is rescended nunc pro tunc.

Legal Services is required to notify this Court within ten days of the filing of this Order if they will continue representation of the plaintiff on the following conditions:

1. Filing of an amended petition requesting Court determination of plaintiff and defendant responsibility for payment of costs and counsel fees.

2. If counsel fees are ordered, Legal Services shall receive the same in accord with Court Order and forward the same to the Crawford County Bar Association for the use designated in this Opinion.

took an appeal from said decision in the suit of De Marco versus Smith, in the Court of Common Pleas at No. 180 May Term, 1974, and in compliance with Rules of Procedure the Petitioner De Marco promptly filed a complaint in trespass and the matter now awaits adjudication by a Board of Arbitrators in Crawford County.

The Court and Counsel are uncertain whether the official notification of restoration of motor vehicle privileges dated November 21, 1974 is intended by the secretary to be a final adjudication of the suspension of Louis S. De Marco or whether it was only a restoration pending the ultimate outcome of the Civil Action now awaiting adjudication by a Board of Arbitrators in Crawford County.

In order to protect the procedural rights of the Commonwealth and the Petitioner, the Court directs the Prothonotary to make a xerox copy of the petition for appeal and the two exhibits this day admitted into evidence, certify the same to be a true and correct copy and deliver the same to the Petitioner for filing in the Court of Common Pleas of Mercer County.

This Order is made without prejudice to the right of the Commonwealth or the Petitioner to make any motions or raise any objections in the event the matter is ultimately called for hearing before the Court of Common Pleas in Mercer County.

Apr 6, 1976 Order filed; And Now, Mar. 24, 1976, it appearing that the father, Gary Mead, has taken a new employment in Kansas, but requests that visitation be allowed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Mead, the Court allows the intervention of Cyril and Betty Mead as parties defendant in this action with the same force and effect as if a separate Petition had been filed asking that they be allowed to intervene and become parties defendant for the purpose of visitation rights with the child.
The Court believes that due to the close association between the child and the grandparents it is for the best interest of the child to continue to have occasional visits with the grandparents, but not to the same extent as visits were accorded to the father.
Accordingly, the grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Cyril Mead, shall have the right to have the child in their custody on the fourth weekend of March, between 7:00 o'clock p.m., Friday, and 7:00 o'clock p.m., Sunday; and on the third weekend of every month thereafter. In addition thereto, the grandparents may have the child in their custody for one (1) week mother of the child at least thirty (30) days in advance which week they wish to have the child in their custody. In the event the parties cannot reach a mutually satisfactory agreement regarding this week, said week shall begin the second Sunday of July at 9:00 o'Clock a.m. and terminating the following Sunday at 9:00 p.m.

In view of the fact the father of the child, Gary Mead, may wish to spend weekends with his parents while on business trips, or on vacation, we will accord him visitation rights with the minor child Heather for a period not in excess of seventy-two (72) hours. He may have the child in his possession or he may take the child to the home of his parents providing he is visiting in his parents home. Gary Mead must advise the mother of the child at least seventy-two (72) hours in advance of his plans to be in the area and dates when he wishes to exercise his visitational rights.

In addition to the one (1) week summer visitation period accorded the grandparents, the father of the child, Gary Mead, shall have the right to have the child in his custody for vacation periods for a period not to exceed two (2) weeks. This may be exercised as two (2) separate one-week periods or one (1) continuous two-week period. The burden shall be on Gary Mead to advise the mother of the child where the child will be and when he wishes to have the child with him during his normal employment vacation periods, and he shall provide her with three (3) weeks notice of these dates.

As far as Christmas is concerned the child shall be in the home of the mother on Christmas Day, but satisfactory arrangements will be made for the child to spend a period of not less than ten (10) hours with the grandparents, either the day before or the day after Christmas. In the event the father of said is visiting at the home of his parents or is in the community and wishes to have the child on Christmas Day the aforesaid visit will be modified and the child will be with the mother until 2:00 o'Clock p.m. on Christmas Day and the father may pick up the child at the hour and keep the child in his possession at the home of his parents or elsewhere until 9:00 o'clock p.m. on Christmas day.

Oct 15, 1976 Order filed. And now, Oct. 14, 1976, after hearing held on Oct. 8, 1976, the Court refuses to adjudge Elonne Mead in contempt of court.

It appears the parties are now divorced by virtue of a Kansas decree and said decree also awarded custody of the minor child to the father and provided for visitations by the mother upon posting bond in the amount of $3,000.00. The mother of the child contends that the father of the child intends to remove the child from Pennsylvania in reliance of the Kansas decree and in defiance of this Court's custody order.

Until further hearing can be held to ascertain the father's intent regarding compliance with this Court's order, all visitation privileges accorded father and grandparents are cancelled.

In view of the fact the parties are now divorced, it is appropriate to review our former order providing for support for wife and child.

Further hearing in the two above matters is scheduled before the Court on Nov. 5, 1976 at 1:30 P.M., and the father is required to be present at said hearing.

Oct. 18, 1976 Order filed. Whereas, after chamber conference with counsel, it appears to the court that while some of the allegations would require a warning to the mother, if true, would not justify transfer of custody at this time to the father; and

Whereas, the one allegation which would require transfer of custody, if true, is the father's allegation that the children had burn marks on their flesh, which he assumes by at least circumstantial evidence were caused by the mother; and

Whereas, the mother on the other hand, claims that the children were returned to her from the father with burn marks, and therefore, circumstantially, accuses the father of being responsible for said burn marks; and

Whereas, the father has remarried and it is reported to the Court that the mother is regularly dating the same man; and

Whereas, all of the parties have agreed to take a polygraph test prior to the introduction of testimony; and

Whereas, the Court is willing to continue the case for that purpose upon condition that Child Welfare Services will continue to exercise close supervision over the care and custody of the children to prevent any further harm to them;

Now, Therefore, this 7th day of October, 1976, it is hereby Ordered and Decreed as follows:

1. This case is continued for the purpose of the father and his present wife and the mother and the person whom she is regularly dating, Rodney Scannell, to be given a polygraph test by an experienced polygraph operator who shall be named by the attorney for the father, subject, however, to the approval of the attorney for the mother.

Said test shall be administered at the earliest possible time that an independent polygraph expert can be obtained if the State Police polygraph operator will not agree to conduct said test or will conduct said test but not within a reasonable period of time.

The expense of said test shall be determined by the Court after ascertaining the financial status of the parties at the time of the completion of the hearing.

2. The Court reiterates the conditions set forth in our Order of Nov. 26, 1975 that neither party shall say or do anything to turn the children against the other parent and that neither party will expose the children to any person, situation or environment which would be harmful or detrimental to them. All other provisions of the aforesaid Order shall remain in full force and effect.

3. The Child Welfare Services is requested to continue close supervision over the care and maintenance of said children whether they are in the custody of the mother or the father for visitation purposes and at the first indication of any danger to the children, will remove the children from the custody of both parents pending final disposition by the Court.

4. The Court will this day interview the older child Dawn in chambers with a Court Reporter present but in the absence of the parties or their counsel.

5. The Court will expect that at the time of the hearing in this matter that both parties will produce a representative of Child Welfare Services that the place in which each parent is living is suitable for the care or visitation of the children.

6. Both counsel are requested to file a motion for the Court to reschedule a hearing immediately upon completion of the polygraph report and the Court assumes that a copy of said report will be furnished not only to each counsel but to the Court.

Feb. 16, 1977 Order filed. Whereas, the preponderance of the evidence in this case would indicate that the burns were perpetrated while the child, Dawn, was visiting in the father's home, although the Court could not say beyond a reasonable doubt who was guilty of the offense; and Whereas, the children have been under the supervision of Child Welfare Services during the period that they have remained in the custody of the mother; and

Whereas, since it seems at this time inconceivable to the Court that the father perpetrated the offense, although it is a distinct possibility, and the Court feels that the father knows or should be aware of who committed the offense; nevertheless, the Court does not wish to deprive the father entirely of the benefit of the companionship of visitations with his children:

Now, Therefore, this 10th day of February, 1977, it is hereby Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. The custody of Dawn Berry and Dana Berry shall remain with the mother, subject however to the conditions and the visitation privileges hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

2. All parties involved in this case, to-wit; the mother, Roberta Berry; the father, Russell Berry; the stepmother, Delores Berry and any other member of the household of Russell and Delores Berry; and any other member of the household of Roberta Berry; and Rodney Scannell shall consent to take the test referred to by Child Welfare Services Representative, William Ackerman; to-wit, the Acceptance or Rejection Test towards Dawn, and the Court directs Mr. Ackerman to make the necessary arrangements for the taking of said test by all these parties.

If any party objects to taking the test the privileges hereinafter extended shall be, upon a motion and proof, revoked by the Court.

Commencing with the weekend of February 18, 1977, the children shall be taken by the mother to the Child Welfare Services Office of Crawford County where they shall be examined before being placed in father with appropriate visitation rights in the mother, and said mother having taken said child to the State of Ohio and refused to return the child in accordance with the Court's Order and the Cadrt having twice scheduled hearings to determine whether the mother, Marguerite Edna Mealy should be held in contempt of Court, and said Marguerite Edna Mealy having failed to appear and her counsel having appeared and advised the Cadrt that she had been discharged by Mrs. Mealy, the Court hereby finds the mother of said children, Marguerite Edna Mealy, in contempt of the Courts Orders dated December 8, 1975 and August 10, 1976 and directs the Prothonotary to issue an appropriate warrent of attachment for her arrest and appearance before the Court for appropriate punishment for contempt.

The Court authorizes the father, Thad Basil Taylor, to appear at any school in the State of Ohio where said child may be present and upon presentation of a copy of this Order to any appropriate schools officials, take said child into his custody and return said child to his residence in the State of Penna in accordance with the custody Order heretofore entered.

The Court previously having granted visitation rights to the mother, Marguerite Edna Mealy, but it now appearing that Marguerite Edna Mealy is in contempt of this Court's Order and in all likelihood, would not return the children to the father, all visitation rights previously vested in the mother are herby recinded until such time as the mother appears for a contempt hearing, purges herself of contempt and gives the Court some assurance that any future visitation Orders will be complied with.

give full faith and credit to the order

The Court has received no assurance either by the Defendant appearance and testimony or through his counsel that the defendant has any intention of complying with this Court's orders regarding custody, visitation and child support. This Court is fearful that should visitation or temporary custody be accorded the father of said child, that he will remove the child from the jurisdiction of the Court in reliance on a Kansas decree.

Accordingly, all visitation rights with the father and the grandparents are hereby cancelled, and the father, Gary Mead is hereby precluded from visiting or having the child in his custody until such time as this Court has some assurance that the child will not be removed from Court jurisdiction.

The Court is willing to modify the aforesaid order upon petition of the father and hearing held at which time some assurance is given to the Court that the custody and visitation orders heretofore entered will be honored.

The matter is also before the Court for review of a Domestic Relations order entered at the above term and number, and after testimony taken, it appears that the Defendant is in arrears $860.00 on the support order entered in this county and that the only payments made in recent months have been a payment of $250.00 on July 15, 1976, prior to the entry of the divorce decree in Kansas, and a further sum of $120.00, received September 14, 1976

It, therefore, appears the Defendant is not only in arrears on the support order as it stands in this county, but is also in arrears on the order for support, entered by the Court in the State of Kansas. The Court hereby directs that a warrent be issued for the arrest of the Defendant, to be executed upon his return to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the Defendant to be incarcerated until appropriate bail is posted to assure his appearance before this Court to purge himself of contempt.

the custody of the father, who shall return said children to the Child Welfare Services Office on Sunday at 5:00 o clock P.M.; at which time, the children shall be examined before being returned to the mother. The mother shall pick the children up at the Child Welfare Services Office at that time.

The parties shall alternate holidays as directed by our Order of November 26, 1975, subject, however, to the conditions hereinbefore set forth; that the children shall be picked up by the father at the Child Welfare Services Office after examenation by a representative of that office and returned by the father to the Child Welfare Services Office to be examined before returning to the mother.

4. For the present, the Court will make no Order for summer vacations, but will upon request and taking into consideration the results of the examinations herein directed and progress of the children, meanwhile, give consideration to a request of the father to have the children in his custody for a week during the summer months or possibly two (2) weeks, but on separate occasions.

5. The children shall be with the father on Father's day and with the mother on Mother's Day, subject to the aforesaid conditions.

6. Neither party will permit the children to call anyone but the natural father their father or daddy and will not permit the children to call anyone but the natural mother their mother or mommy or any similar word indicating parenthood.

7. Neither party shall expose the children to any person or situation detrimental to their health, education or welfare and neither party shall do anything to attempt to turn the children against the other parent.

8. This agreement shall not be subject to variation or change in any manner whether by agreement of the parties or otherwise, unless permission of the Court is requested and secured for any such change or modification.

9. As soon as the Court receives a report of the results of the Rejection or Acceptance Test we repeat, that if the responsible person will make known his or her responsibility for the burning of this child, we will take said factor into consideration in imposing any penalty; but if the person is exposed in any other way except by their admission, the Court shall not grant immunity and will not, in fact, extend any sympathy but will direct prosecution not only for child abuse but also for perjury. On the other hand, if the person admits the responsibility, the Court will give serious consideration to granting of immunity.

Sept 26, 1979 Copy of Order to Attys Hofmann and Thomas.

Oct. 22, 1979 Exhibits filed.

Oct 23, 1979 Order filed: This troublesome dispute between grandparents and mother concerning custody and/or visitation of a nine year old child is again before us for consideration.

We find insufficient evidence to change a prior custody order placing the child with the Mother. We find, however, that it will be in the child's best interest to re-establish contact and visitation with the paternal grandparents. As noted in Commonwealth ex rel., Williams V. Miller, 254 Pa. Super. Ct. 227, 385 A. 2nd 992(1978), there must be unique and unusual circumstances to cut a child off entirely from one side of the family and that visits with grandparents often become a precious part of a child's living experience and the child-grandparent relationship may create direct and indirect benefits to the child which cannot derive from any other relationship.

We accept the sworn testimony of the grandparents that they will not remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court nor facilitate in any manner the surrender of the child to any person, particularly the father or anyone acting on his behalf, either for visitation or custody or in an attempted compliance with a Kansas Custody order.

We likewise accept the offer of the grandparents to evidence their good faith compliance with their sworn testimony by posting a bond guaranteeing the safe return of the child after visitation and compliance with this Court Order. Counsel for the grandparents is directed to prepare forthwith such bond in the amount of $5,000 for submission to the Court for approval.

The grandparents shall have custody and visitation with the child on Saturday, November 3, 1979, and on the third Saturday of each and every month thereafter between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 8:00 P.M.

The grandparents shall also have custody and visitation of the child on December 26 of each year between the same hours.

The grandparents shall have custody and visitation of the child for a period of one week each summer and unless the parties agree otherwise, it shall be the week commencing the second Sunday of June at noon and terminating the following Sunday at noon.

For all visits it shall be the obligation of the grandparents or any other adult person acton their behalf (except the father of the child), to pick up and deliver the child at the residence of the mother and in this regard the mother shall allow access to her residential property for said purpose.

Neither mother nor grandparents shall attempt to influence the child against the other by word or deed, nor shall either discuss with the child prior difficulties between the parties. Grandparents may give the usual type of occasional "grandparental gifts" to the child and the mother will allow said child to use and keep said gifts.

be withdrawn and declared a nullity.

Without objection from the defendant the present $2,000.00 bond posted for appearance shall be immediately forwarded by the Clerk of Courts Office to the Domectic Relations Division and will be applied toward arrears.

The defendant shall post with the Clerk of Courts a new $5,000.00 compliance bond at No. 246 Domestic Relations Section, 1975, signed by himselg, it being the intention of the Court that in the event of default or con-compliance with this order this bond could be used upon the ultimate disposition of jointly held real estate in this county.

The defendant advises the Court at this time that his net take-home pay amounts to approximately $1,372.00 per month plus a government disability pension in the amount of approximately $400.00 per month. In view of the net earnings it appears to the Court that the previous order entered many years ago in the amount of $120.00 is inadequate. Effective January 1, 1980, the order of support heretofore entered in the amount of $120.00 per month is increased to the sum of $160.00 per month and the defendant shall be directed to pay an additonal sum of $70.00 per month to apply on the arrearages existing on said order.

The defendant has offered and is directed to forward to the Domestic Relations Office a copy of his 1977 and 1978 income tax returns and he is directed to forward a copy of his W-2 Form from his present employer for calendar year 1979 plus further evidence of verification of the amount of disability pension received months.

Upon receipt of said items, the Domestic Relations caseworker shall make a recommendation to the Court for any appropriate adjustments in support of arrears payments, and the Court reserves the right to modify the support order without the appearance of the defendant before the Court but reserves unto the defendant the right to take exceptions to any future order and appear for hearing or have the same argued before the Court.

As far as visitations with the child are concerned the father may visit the child at the residence of his parents by Order of the Court dated October 23, 1979, at No. 215 May Term, 1975.

The Court is advised at this time that the defendant intends to petition the Court as some time in the future to reestablish visitation privileges on his own with his daughter and upon receipt of said petiton the Court will schedule the matter for appropriate hearing.

The Court's attention is directed to the fact that Texas may not have enacted the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act or the appropriate Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act and the defendant on advice of counsel hereby waives any right to raise any objection to a Texas Court assuming jurisdiction and agrees that any Texas Court could consider the support and custody order entered in this state with the same force and effect as if the aforesaid two acts were in force at the time in the State of Texas.

The Court directs a copy of this order to be filed and captioned at Common Pleas No. 215 May Term, 1975 as the custody and support matters involved are interrelated.

November 2, 1981 Petition to Modify Visitation Order filed. 1 copy attested (Atty.) ORDER: AND NOW, this 2 day of Nov., 1981, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a Rule is granted upon Elonne Mead to show cause, if any she has, why the Order heretofore entered by the Court on the 27th day of December, 1979 should not be modified so as to expand the visitation rights of Gary Mead with his minor daughter Heather Mead as requested in the within Petition. Returnable and for hearing on the 20 day of November, 1981 at 10:00 o'clock A.M..

BY THE COURT,

Nov. 2, 1981 Copies of Order to Attys., R. Charles Thomas, D. Ferguson & Legal Services.

Nov. 23, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, November 20, 1981, after review hearing, the Court believes that the father is entitled ao additional visits with his child in order to stimulate a new parent/child relationship. The Court finds, however, that a Christmas visit in 1981 is not in the best interest of the mother or the child, and accordingly, we enter the following Order:

In 1982, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his custody in the State of Texas for a period of one (1) week over a period of time when the child has a spring school break, with the Court recognizing that the child will, perhaps, have to miss a few days of school.

In addition, the father shall have the right to have custody of his child, Heather, for a period of one (1) week during the summer of 1982, and yearly thereafter; providing, however, he gives the mother thirty (30) days notice of the week that he will have the child in his custody, and said week may not immediately follow the one (1) week visitation accorded to the grandparents by our Court Order of October 23, 1979.

On this and other visits to Texas, it shall be the responsibility of the mother or her designee to deliver the child to the airport in Pittsburgh or Cleveland for the flight and to pick up the child after the flight.

Commencing with Christmas, 1981, the father shall have the right to have the child with him during a one (1) week period during the Christmas school vacation period. The Court urges the parties to work out a mutually satisfactory one (1) week period, but in the event the parents cannot mutually agree on an appropriate week, the Court hereby designates the week to be December 20,th to December 27th.

In view of the Christmas visit accorded the father in 1982 and thereafter, the December 26th visit with the grandparents accorded by previous Order is hereby cancelled.

The father shall continue to have the right to visit the children in the home of his parents in Crawford County at the time the child is in the Custody of her grandparents, as designated in our Order of December 17, 1979.

In addition, in the event the father wishes to come to Crawford County, he may have a visit of three days (3) with the child when the child is in his custody, providing he gives the mother two (2) weeks notice and provided that said visit is not exercised more often that once every two (2) months.

On all occasions that the child will be visiting the father in the State of Texas, he shall arrange through his counsel to post the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) in cash or in a money order payable to the Prothonotary of Crawford County, to guarantee the safe return of the child, and the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to return said sum to the father upon safe delivery after each visit.

The father consents that he will not attempt to keep the child in his custody in the State of Texas in an attempt to thwart the Order previously entered by this Court according the mother permanent custody of the child. He, accordingly, waives any procedural rights he may have under the law of Texas as to bring a child custody action in that State, and agrees that any appropriate official in the State of Texas may recover the child on Order from this Court that there has been a violation of this Order.

This Order is entered with the intention of the Court being that while there is some reluctance on the part of the child, that the father has faithfully complied with recent Orders, has faithfully paid support for the child, and there should be attempt to re-establish a meaningful relationship between parent and child. As the child matures, the Court will give consideration to the possibility of expanded visits, if the parents and child cannot mutually work out additional arrangements.
