Feb. 2,1998 MOTION TO STAY CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS ON BEHALF OF CHRISTINE CRYSTALOSKI AND ORDER FILED. AND NOW, THIS 2nd day of Feb. 1998, upon learning of a pending custody proceeding in Cuyahoga Co., Ohio that was filed as part of a divorce action on April 12, 1997, the custody proceedings in this Court are stayed so that the Court may have the opportunity to communicate with the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga Co., Ohio to determine the most appropriate forum for deciding this custody case.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, J.

Feb. 2, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Feb. 2, 1998 pursuant to the motion of Christine Crytaloski to stay the custody proceedings and to communicate with the Court of Common Please of Cuyahoga Co,O, Domestic Relations Div. the Court reports and orders as follows:

1. It appears that in a divorce action in the case of Christine Crytaloski V David Crytaloski filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga Co, O, Domestic Realtions Div. at Case No. D-255891 custody of the parties'minor child David Lee Crytaloski, Jr. has been raised.
2. There appear to be simultaneous proceedings in Ohio and PA regarding the custody of the child.
3. Pursuant to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, and more particularly 23 Pa. C.S.A. 5347(c), this Court has communicated with the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga Co., O, Domestic Relations Div. and specifically with Magistrate Beverly Moffett to home the Ohio case has been assigned.
4. Based upon the discussion held between the undersigned Judge and Magistrate Moffet on Feb. 2, 1998 it appears that the child has resided in PA since the fall of 1996.
5. It appears that PA is the "home state" for jurisdictional purposes and that Ohio may not have any jurisdictional basis to hear a custody action involving this child.
6. That PA is the appropriate forum and that Ohio shall end the custody issues that are now being litigated in Ohio.
7. This custody action shall proceed in due course in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford Co, PA in accordance with all applicable rules and laws until further order of court.
8. The Order of stay entered this date is hereby vacated.
9. The custody mediator shall reschedule the mediation and place of said mediation conference because there is currently a pretrial conference scheduled before Magistrate Moffet on Feb. 18, 1998 in Cleveland.
10. That the issue of jurisdiction may be raised by any party to this litigation. Any party believing that PA does not have jurisdiction, or that Ohio does have jurisdiction and /or is a more convenient forum may raise the jurisdictional issue in accordance with applicable laws and rules. If there is a jurisdictional challenge this Court will revisit the issue at that time.
11. For the record Magistrate Beverly Moffet may be contacted at the Cuyahoga C. Domestic Relations Div., 1 Lakeside Ave. Cleveland, Oh 44113, telephone 216-443-8839.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Jan. 12, 1998 Petition For Emergency Relief In Custody filed.

Jan. 12, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, January 9, 1998, upon emergency presentation of a Petition by Mark Perry, the alleged father of a minor child Cody Perry, born NOvember 21, 1997, this Court schedules an emergency hearing to receive a factual background.

The child is currently in the custody of Ernie Keeton, the father of the child's mother Donna Keeton, andhis wife Judy Keeton, who is the stepmother of Donna Keeton and wife of Ernie Keeton. It seems that on January 7, 1998, the motehr of the child Donna Keeton was arrested for use and possession of crack cocaine and is already under supervision of the Adult Probation Department. The Court is advised that there is a detainer lodged against her in the Crawford County Jail for probation violation at criminal numbers 1995 - 210 and 1995 - 196.

It appears that Donna Keeton will not be immediately released because she is a parole violator and a detainer has been lodged against her.

The emergency of the situationis that Mark Perry, the father, apparently has been in Florida working temporary employment, and upon being advised of the arrest of Donna Keeton is reputed to be on his way from Florida, with the intention to pick up minor child Cody, born November 21, 1997, of whomhe apparentlly admits he is the father

This Court is reluction at this time to permit Mark Perry to take custody of the child and return the child to Florida with him or place the child with any superivisng party he chooses.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following Order:

Minor child Cody Perry shall remain in the temporary custody of Ernie and Judy Keeton in Linesville, Pennsylvania, and Children and Youth Services is directed to make an investigation to ascertain whether the Keetons wishe to care for the child on a relatively permanent basis.

Mark Perry may not remove the child form the custody of the Keetons for any purpose, but has the right to visit the child if the Keetons will admit him to their home.

A hearing is scheduled for January 13, 1998 9:00 am in Courtroom No. 3 or such other available meeting room as the Court directs, with said heairng to be held before the undersigned. The issue at the hearing will be the best interest of the minor child Cody and to ascertain whether the father would be granted permission to take the child to Florida with him or make arrangements for temporary care of the child in Crawford County.

The child Cody Perry is placed under temporary custody and supervision of Children and Youth Services,subject to the terms and conditions of this Order. The Court requests Childre and Youth Servicies's attendance at the aforesaid hearing.

The Court requests a representativie from the Probation Department attend the hearing.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

JANUARY 15, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, January 13, 1998, this matter is thoroughly reviewed in an informal fashion before the Court, Counsel and the parties. The decision of the court is as follows:

Custody of the minor child, Cody Perry, born Nov. 21, 1997,is established as follows:

1. The child shall remain in the custody of Mr. & Mrs. Ernie Keeton, 206 Conneaut St., Linesville, PA, until further order of the Court. The Court notes the mother is currently incarcerated for violation and the father resides in the State of Florida.

2. The mother is currently incarcerated in the Crawford County Jail for a detairer of probation violation allegedly involving the use of crack cocaine. The father is currently employed in Florida, but advises the Court that pending the final outcome of living arrangements for this child, he may quit his employment in Florida and take up residence in Crawford County at 13214 St Hwy. 198, Guys Mills, PA.

3. If the father remains in Crawford County, he shall have the right to have the child in his care and custody on two separate days each week for a period not in excess of seven hours. Arrangements will be made for the time of these visits between the father and the grandmother and the father may go to the grandmother's house to pick up the child and return the child to the premises.

4. It is anticipated that the status of the mohter will be determined in due course by Judge Anthony J. Vardaro, as she is currently incarcerated on an alleged probation violation of a sentence of Judge Anthony J. Vardaro.

5. The grandparents may take the child fro visits with the mother at least once per week, so long as she is incarcerated in the Crawford County Correctional Institution.

6. Upon recess of this hearing, the mother shall be accorded a fifteen minute period to be alone with the child with such other visitors plus the sheriff, as she deems appropriate. After said time, the child will be surrendered to the custody of the father who may have the child for a visit for the rest of this date until 8:00PM, when he shall return the child to the custody of the grandmother.

7. This order is made without prejudice to the right of either party to request rehearing after the criminal probation violation charges against the mother are disposed of by Judge Anthony J. Vardaro.

8. This Court considers this case, at this state of the proceedings , as a custody issue and not a dependency issue, and the Counsel and the parties may proceed with future requests at this term and number.

July 29, 1998 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

Aug. 13, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, August 11, 1998, the Court has reviewed this case upon a praecipe to refer for a final divorce decree. We will not grant a final divorce for two reasons.
First of all, there is no showing tha tthe defendant was served with the original complaint. Although there as been no objection to service, service of process is a mechanism by which a court obtains jurisdiction of a defendant and therefore the ruels containing service of process must be strictly followed. Without valid service a court lacks personal jurisdiction of the Defendant and is powerless to enter a judgment against him or her. Cintas Corporation v. Lee's Cleaning Services, Pa , 700 A.2d 915 (1997)
Service of the amended complaint doe snot cure any lack of service inthe original complaint. Mooney v. Commonwealth, 134 Pa. Cmwlth. 557, 578 A.2d 1384 (1990).
Secondly, the complaint does not conform to local rule 1920.12 for there are no allegations with respect to the Seminar for Separating Parents. Furthermore, neither of the parties have complied with local civil rule 1920 at least insofar as the record is concerned. There is no certificate indicating that either of the parties attended the Seminar for Separating Parents.
Once these matters are satisified the Court will review the matter upon another praecipe to refer.
BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

8/13/98 Faxed Watson

Sept. 2, 1998 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, with plff's certification of completion of Seminar attached, to transmit the record, this case is moved to cout.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Nov. 12, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, November 9, 1998, the Court has reviewed this file and entered a final divorce however there is no evidence that the defendant has attended the Seminar for Separating Parents as required by Crawford County Civil Rule L1930. Accordingly a rule is entered and directed tothe Defendant to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be held in contempt of court for failing to comply with said rule. The Defendant is required to attend said hearing. A true and ocrrect copy of this order shall be sent to the Defendant at his last known address of record by certified mail, return reciept requested.

August 30, 1998 MEMORANDUM FILED. AND NOW, July 31, 1998 the Court has just signed an order requireing the Plaintiff to produce requested documents within 30 days. We did so because both parties agreed.
The undersigned Judge will continue to sign matters where the parties are in total agreement. However, in the event that any matter comes before the Court that is contested, required a decision by a Judge or involves the discretion of a Judge we will at that point recuse ourselves and sek the appointment of a Judge by the Supreme Court to hear this case form tht point on.
We do that because the Defendant is a tipstaff in Crawford County and we would clearly have a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict in interest, if we engaged in any matte other than the matter that is toatlly agreed upon by the parties.
The parties are advised that if we seek the appontment of an outside Judge it will take some time for a judge to be appointed and to be available to decide contested matters.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Feb. 4, 1998 Amending Order filed. AND NOW, February 3, 1998 it is ordered as follows. 1. On February 2, 1998 each s pouse obtained a temporary Protection from Abuse order against the other. At the time of the ex parte hearig with the husband, the husband represented to the Court that he needed the residential real estate because his business was located there. As a result we ordered the wife to vacate the premises and gave sole possession of the residential real estate to the husband. On reflection this was in error.

It appears that the marital residence is owned solely by the wife. Both parties represented that to be so. Under those circumstances the Court cannot grant possession to the husband to the exclusion of the wife.

We may grant possession of a residence real estate to a plantiff "when the residence or household is jointly owned or leased by the parties, is owned or leased by the entireties or is owned or leased solely by the planitiff." 23 Pa.C.S.A 6108(a)(2).

Therefore in order to correct this mistake the Court enteres the following amending order in both cases.

1. That portion of the husband's order granting him excluisve possession to the marital residence and evicting the wife from the marital residence is vacated.

2. The husband hsall vacte the marital residence within 12 hours after being served with a copy of this order and he shall not return to the marital residence until further order of court. If his business is located on the same real estate he shall have access to that portion of the marital real estate. In that event he shall be permitted freee access to the buisness portion of the real estate but shall not go beyond the buisness portion of the real estate but shall not go beyond the business protion of the real estate and shall have absolutely no contact with the wife and the wife shall have absolutely no contact with the husband.

3. The wife shallhave sole and exclusive possession of the residential portionof the real estate to the exclusion of the husband until further order of court.

4. The Prothonotary shall immediately mail a copy of this order to: a. the husband at the address indicated on his peittion; b. the wife at her place of employment at the Center for Family Services; c. County control; d. The Pennsylvania State Police.

HEARING IS HEREBY SET FOR February 10, 1998, at 3:30 p.m. IN COURTROOM 1 or 2 OF THE CRAWFORD COUNTY COURTHOUSE.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendant at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Feb. 4, 1998 Amending Order filed. AND NOW, February 3, 1998 it is ordered as follows: 1. On February 2, 1998 each spouse obtained a temporary Protection from Abuse order against the other. At the time of the ex parte hearing with the husband, the husband represented to the Court that he needed the residential real estate because his business was located there. As a result we ordered the wife to vacate the premises and gave sole possession of the residential real estate to the husband. On reflection this was in error.

It appears that the marital residence is woned soley by the wife. Both parties represented toat to be so. Under those circumstances the Court cannot grant possession to the husband to the exclusion of the wife.

We may grant possession of a residence real estate to a planitiff "when the residence or household is jointly woned or leased by the parties, is owned or leased by the entireties or is woned or leased solely by the planitiff." 23Pa.C.S.A. 6108(a)(2).

Therefcre in order to correct this mistake the Court enteres the following amending order in both cases:

1. That portion of the husband's order tranting him exclusive possession to the marital residence and evicting the wife from the marital residence is vacated.

2. The husband shall vacate the marital residence within 12 hours after being served with a copy of this order and he shall not return to the marital residence until further order of court. If his business is located on the same real estate he shall have access to that portion of the marital real estate. In that event he shall be permitted freee access to the buisness portion of the real estate but shall not go beyond the business portion of the real estate and shall have absolutely no contact with the wife and the wife shall have absolutuely no contact with the husband.

3. The wife shallhave sole and exclusive possession of the residential portion of the real estate to the exclusion of the husband until further order of court.

4. The Prothonotary shall immediately mail a copy of this order to: a. the husband at the address indicated on his petition; b. the wife at her place of employment at the Center for Family Services; c. County Control; d. The Pennsylvania State POlice.

March 18, 1998 INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT FOR VIOLATION OF PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ORDER FILED.

March 18, 1998 ASSIGNMENT OF HEARING DATE FILED. AND NOW, MARCH 18, 1998 upon receipt of a complaint For Indirect Criminal Contempt filed in the above captioned case at the office of District Justice Michael Rossi, and defendant having been incarcerated in lieu of bond, hearing is set for Thursday, March 26, 1998 at 1:30 PM CR #3 Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, PA.

FOR THE COURT
ANN A. WALKER, CT. ADMINISTRATOR

3/18/98 DISTRIBUTED BY CT. ADMIN.

May 27, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 26, 1998, after informal imput on these two abuse cases, the Court determines as follows: On the action at 1998 - 154, which is an action by his mother-in-law and her 4 year-old child against the Defendant, the Court finds that he violated Paragraph 3 thereof by being within 100 yards of the house contrary to the Order of February 10, 1998.

The Court believes the nine (9) days served in jail is adequate punishment for this srelatively minor violation, but the Defendant is cautioned that he must strictly comply with the terms and conditions of the Court Order dated February 19, 1998 at 1998 - 154 regulating his nearness or presence at the household of his mother-in-law, Linda E. Lilley.

On the case at 1998 - 160 with his wife, Tina Daley, as the Plaintiff, the Court notes that the petition for civil contempt by the wife was filed in which she alleged that an argument at the Donut Shop resulted in the wife taking a taxi home to her residence on Park Avenue and her alleged contempt is that he chased the taxi cab down Park Avenue trying to get to his wife's residence at 748 1/2 Park Avenue, which it is alleged he violated or did intend to violate the condition of the Abuse Order that he stay out of the residence at 748 1/2 Park Avenue and not contact the Plaintiff in any way.

The Defendant has been confined on a warrant for violation of those two orders for a period of approximately nine (9) days and the Court deems that this is sufficient punishment for any contempt of the two orders.

Accordingly, the Defendant is released from confinement and directed that he shall strictly follow the Abuse Orders, both dated February 19, 1998, and the Defendant is cautioned that further violations of these orders will be severely dealt with if the Court finds there was a willful and deliberate intention to violate the letter and spirit of the orders.

The parties mutually agree that the next date for the Defendant to go visit and pick up his children, under the terms of the Order, will be Saturday, April 4, 1998.

The parties mutually agree that upon the first visit with the father when he takes custody of the children on Saturday, April 4, 1998, the wife will have his fishing equipment and birth certificate available for him to pick up at the same time.

Under all the Circumstances in this case, the Court directs the County to pay the costs.

The Court directs and the Defendant agrees that Sheriff costs previously entered at 1998-160 in the amount of $152.89 and Sheriff costs incurred in 1998-154 in the amount of $217.39, will be paid by June 19,1998.

A.D. 1998 - 160

Mar 27, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 26, 1998, after informal input on these two abuse cases, the Court determines as follows: On the actiona t 1998 - 154, which is an action by his mother-in-law and her 4 year-old child against the Defendant, the Court finds that he violated Paragraph 3 thereof by being within 100 yards of the house contrary to the Order of February 19, 1998.

The Court believes the nine (9) days served in jail is adequate punishment for this relatively minor violation, but the Defendant is cautioned that he must strictly comply with the terms and conditions of the Court Order dated Feb 19, 1998 at 1998 - 154 regulating his nearness or presence at the household of his mother-in-law, Linda E. Lilley.

On the case at 1998 - 160 with his wife, Tina Daley, as the Plaintiff, the Court notes that the petition for civil contempt by teh wife was filed in which she alleged that an argumetn at the Donut Shop resulted in the wife taking a taxi home to her residence on Park Avenue and her alleged contempt is that he chased the taxi cab down Park Avenue trying to get to his wife's residence at 748 1/2 Pzrk Avenue, which it is alleged he violated or did intend to violate the condition of the Abuse Order that he stay out of the residence at 748 1/2 Park Ave and not contact the Plaintif in any way.

The Defendant has been confined on a warrant for violation of those two orders for a period of approximately nine (9) days and the Court deems that this is sufficient punishment for any contempt of the two orders.

Accordingly, the Defendant is released from confinement and directed that he shall staricty follow the Abuse Orders, both dated Feb 19, 1998, and the Defendant is cautioned that further violations of these orders will be severly dealt with if the Court finds there was a willful and deliberate intention to violate the letter and spirit of the orders.

The parties mutually agree that the next date for the Defendant to go visit and pick up his children, under the terms of the Order, will be Saturday, April 4, 1998.

The parties mutually agree that upon the first visit with the father when he takes custody fo the children on Saturday, April 4, 1998, the wife will have his fishing equipment and birth certificate available for him to pick up at the same time.

Under all the circumstances in this case, the Court directs the County to pay the costs.

The Court directs and the Defendant agrees that Sheriff costs previously entered at 1998 - 160 in the amount of $152.89 and Sheriff costs incurred in 1998 - 154 in the amount of $217.39, will be paid by Juen 19, 1998.

June 23, 1998 ORDER filed. And Now June 12 this matter comes before the court on the plff's Pet. for Modification and Civil Contempt for violation of the Protection from abuse order.
Both parties are represented by counsel and they have worked out an agreement.
As part of that agreement, the plff's request for contempt is withdrawn without prejudice to her to refile if there is a new matter that she considers to be contempt of the existing PFA order in the future.
The existing PFA order is modified to indicate that when the dft. picks up the children on Wed. at 5:00 p.m. they will actually be picked up by his sister at the Conn. Lake Sheetz and he will not be present. The plff. will then return the children back a the dft's mother's residence on Thursday morning at 8:00 and again the dft. will not be present.
For weekend periods of temp. physical CUSTODY when the children are picked up at noon on Sat. they will be picked up at the Conneaut Lake Sheetz by the dfts sister and the plff will then pick up the children from the dft's mother's residence the following morning at 8:00 a.m.
Insofar as the dft will be out of town afor a period of which would normally be his temp. physical custody on July 10, and 11, July 11 and 12 of 1998, he will have a period of temp. physical custody on Wed. JUly 8, with the children tob e picked up at 5:00 p.m. by his sister at the Conn. Lake Sheetz which is the normal pick up time but that period of temp. physical custody will be extended through Fri. Morning at 8:00 when the children will be picked up by the plff. at the dft's mother's residence.
It is the parties intention in this modification that he exchanges of the children will occur without the dft. being present.
In all other respects in which this is not inconsistent with the existing PFA order entered on feb. 17, 1998 the same shall be in full force and effect.
A copy of this Order shall be provided to the Pa. St. Police Registry, County control, and to the police agency in the jurisdiction where the plff. resides.

Feb. 25, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Feb. 23, 1999 this matter is before the Court on a Motion for rehearing filed by the plaintiff on Feb. 5, 1999. She indicated that she was not given noticeof the Contempt hearing held on Jan 26, 1999 and therefore did not appear at that hearing.
We entered an order on Feb. 5, 1999 setting this matter for arguemnt on Feb. 23, 1999 at 3:45 PM and it is now that date at 3:51 pm and the Plaintiff has not appeared.
We note that the motion indicates on Feb 9, 1999 a copy of the order was distributed to the plaintiff and to and to the defendant's attorney and once again the defendant's attorney is present but the plaintiff is not.
Accordingly, the plaintiff's request for rehearing is dismissed
If the plaintiff wishes once again to ask for a rehearing based on any issue she will have to provide proof that she was not able to attend this hearing because of illness or some other emergency with any motion that she files and in fact anything that she files should be in the form of a verified petition rather than a motion before the Court will even consider it.

May 29, 1998 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, MAY 27, 1998 at the time set for hearing and argument on a motion to consolidate the above two cases for trial purposes, the court is advised by counsel for both parties that there is no objection to consolidation and accordingly, the Court directs that these two cases be consolidated for a non-jury trial before one of the Crawford County judges.
The Court and counsel agree that an advantageous time for hearing on the merits would be during the month of September Additionally, the undersigned, whether he is the trial judge or not, believes a veiw of the premises is essential to making a final decision in this case.
At this time, counsel for BFC Hardwoods indicates he would have two witnesses for trial and counsel for the Board of Assessment Appeals indicates thare will be one witness testifying on their behalf.
Neither counsel has objection to a view of the premises by the trial judge, but counsel are advised that the veiw should take place after some court testimony setting the background and covering the technical details of the kiln operations, rather than addressing the same in any detail at the view.
The Court Administrator is advised that counsel believe a full day will be required for testimony and view.
The Court directs and counsel agrees that a pretrial narrative from each side would be appropriate and accordingly, on or before Sept. 1, 1998 each counsel will file a brief narrative, a statement of their position in this matter, appropriate statutory references and any appropriate or analogous cases. PETITION FOR ADOPTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF DIVORCE DECREE
1 copy atty

ORDER: And, Now, March 11, 1998, hearing on Plaintiff's Petition For Adoption and Enforcement of Divorce Decree is scheduled for Thurs., April 9, 1998, at 4:00 P.M. in courtaroom 2 of the Crawford County Court of Common Please in Meadville, PA Ann A. Walker, C.A.
Mar 12, 1998 Faxed Kirkpatrick

Mar. 26, 1998 Petition Reinstated.

April 9, 1998 Exhibits filed.

Apr 9, 1998 Affidavit of Service: R.E. McCormack, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and sets forth as follows:
1. That he is a competent adult.
2. That on information furnished him, he personally served:
a. a certifed copy of the Reinstated Petition For Adoption and Enforcement of Divorce Decree.
b. a copy of the order scheduling hearing on Petition For Adoption and Enforcement of Divorce Decree for Thursday, April 9, 1998 at 4:00 p.m. in the above-matter upon Raymond F. Junkins, III at 1830 o'clock, 4-6-98, at 18899 Watson Rd., Conneautville, PA.

April 14, 1998 ORDER FILED AND NOW, April 9, 1998 this petition for enforcement of a divorce decree is before the Court. There does not seem to be any dispute that the Defendant is in arrears on a child support obligation in the Domestic Relations Section of the West VA Courts and that he has not paid the requisite $9000 required in the final decree of divorce filed June 27, 1996 in the Circuit Court of Wirt County, W. VA.

Seemingly, the Defendant admits the arrearages on the Domestic Relations Order and both parties agree that the original order was subsequently reduced to the sum of $280.25 per month. The Plaintiff seeks the sum of $9000 which the divorce decree provided fro her as a lump sum payment, and the Defendant admits he has not paid the same and postulates that his income from business has been reduced and he is unable to pay the same.

We find the Defendant owes the arrearages on the support obligation and we find that the Defendant owes the Plaintiff the sum of $9000. We direct counsel for the Plaintiff to prepar e an appropriate decree for the Court's signature.

BY ORDER OF TEH COURT

1. The parties' West Virginia Divorce Decree filed of record at this caption is adopted pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S.A.3705.
2. Defendant has acknowledged that and this court finds that he is in violation of the terms and contidtions of the divorce decree.

b. $100.00 paid to process server to locate and serve Petition upon Defendant.

March 3, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, March 2, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on cross Petitions for Special Relief in this custody action, with both parties represented by counsel.

There are numerous allegations made in this case and they cannot be resolved in Motion Court and it is not our intention to do that. This matter is to be scheduled for mediation soon and the matters can be heard factually at that time.

Based on our understanding of this matter and what is now before us, we are going to direct that custody of the minor child shall be with the defendant father pending mediation. The plaintiff mother shall have temporary physical custody every weekend commencing on Friday at 6:00 PM and ending on Sunday at 6 PM.

In entering this Order, we sepcifically note that we do not condone the actions of the father in unilaterally keeping this child based on his concerns, but it appears at least on the surface that there may be some legitimate concerns that allow us to enter an Order which has effectively changed the status quo from what it was prior to Feb. 22, 1998.

This case needs to be heard factually and it is not our intention by entering this Order to give any guidance to the Mediator nor ultimately to the Court with regard to a disposition in this matter.

BY THE COURT,

Mar 19, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 5, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on cross petitions for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The husband filed his petition first and that petition was sereved by the Sheriff on the wife and the wife filed her petition more recently and that has not been served. April 14, 1999 Order filed. and now April 12, 1999 after and informal hearing on the Plaintiff's petition for contempt we find as a fact that the Defendant violated the Court Order which prohibited him from going to her plce o employment. He maintains that he was invited by her to deliver some rings to her by a letter of Feb. 21, 1999 which is in evidence in this case. That is true that he was invited to return the rings but he was not invited to g to her place of work or do anything that would violate the Protection From Abuse Order of March 5, 1998. In fact the Protection from abuse Order of March 5, 1998 specifically provides tht the parties cannot change this Order without obtaining a Corut Order.
However, We find this vioaltion to be somewhat minimal and accordingly it is ordered as follows:
1. As punishment for contempt, the Defendant hsall pay a civil fine of $100. to the Prothonotry within 30 days from this date and shall pay $100 to the Plaintiff to apply on her attorney's fees involved in this contempt proceeding within 30 days from this date.
2. The Plaintiffs request to continue the PFA Order for an additional year is denied.

Jan 8, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, December 31, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on the plaintiff's petition for attorney's fees and costs in this divorce action.

The plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the defendant is specially represented this day by counsel with the understanding of both counsel and the defendant that the defendant should be seeking new counsel and is, in fact, doing so.

We proceed with a formal hearing but without a record, and it is apparent that these parties have numerous bills from the term of their marriage and that there just isn't a lot of money to go around. This would seem to be a divorce case that should be settled in some manner, and we note that about the only obvious cash available will be going to the plaintiff at some point from a reitrement Thrift Investment board distribution of $8,380.47 less any appropriate witholding tax.

The plaintiff is living on only spousal support provided by the defendant, and it does appear that the defendant has some minimal amount of disposable income after paying the parties' bills, as well as his current bills.

While we recognize that the plaintiff will be receiving that lump sum of money which should help her with her litigation, at this time she does not have the funds to move the litigation forward, and we do believe that the defendant can make some small contribution so that this litigation can move forward.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that commencing Jan 15, 1999 and for five consective months the defendant shall pay to plaintiff's counsel the sum of $100 for a total of $500.

This order is without prejudice to the Master to appropriately allocate attorney's fees and is not intended as guidance to the final distribution with regard to the property or with regard to any attorneys' fees and costs. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

HEARING IS HEREBY SET FOR March 30, 1998, at 1:30 p.m. IN COURTROOM 1 or 2 OF THE CRAWFORD COUNTY COURTHOUSE.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendant at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Mar 31, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 30, 1998, at the time scheduled for hearing on this abuse petition, the Court is advised that the defendant, who is on parole under the Crawford County Probation Department on either numbers 1996-655 or 1996-778, fails to appear.

The plaintiff advises the Court she believes his current address is 306 Walker Drive, Meadville, Pennsylvaia, in care of Jennifer Haas.

The Court reviews the factual background of this petition with the plaintiff and it appears that there is a difficult relationship between the plaintiff and the defendant. It appears that the plaintiff's main complaint is that on March 13, 1998, that he harassed and annoyed her at Weaver's Bar on North Street, Meadville, PA, and that the plaintiff ended up in a fight with the drfendant's sister in the bar, which fight the plaintiff contends was caused by the defendant.

Further facts are reviewed on these alleged complaints regarding abuse, one of which allegedly occurred 3 years ago.

Without a full hearing, it is impossible to ascertain the exact thrust of the plaintiff's position, but under any circumstances, it is obvious that the plaintiff and her defendant boyfriend, who is the father of her three children, do not get along and trouble starts when they are in each other's presence.

The Court notes that the defendant is now on parole at one or both of the aforesaid numbers and this Court suggests that rather await service on the defendant and have a further abuse hearing, that the abuse hearing, that the Probation Department of Crawford County contact the defendant and advise him that he should not go to the premises of the plaintiff for any purpose and if he and she appear at the same public place, that it is his reponsibility to immediately leave the area. It should be a further condition that he should not go to the plaintiff's residence for any purpose as apparently the parties have worked out an arrangement for him to see his children at his mother's home.

ACCORDINGLY, we dismiss this abuse petition, direct the County to pay the costs and the defendant is warned that if he threatens, abuses or harasses the plaintiff in any fashion, that the Court will entertain a new abuse petition based on the conduct of the defendant.

Apr 1, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, March 30,1998, this abuse action comes befor the Court in an essential dispute over the right of occupancy of a double-wide trailer located on land in Steuben Township, jointly owned by both of the parties. December 16, 1998 Order filed. And Now, December 10, 1998 this matter comes before the Corut for a hearing on the Prothonotary's Petition for contempt against the Defendant for his failure to pay outstanding Court costs. The total amount due, including certified mailings, is $103.50.
The Defendant was required, pursuant to our Order of March 30, 1998 to pay the original amount of $97.50 within ninety days from March 30, 1998 which would have been around June 30, 1998.
He was sentenced to incarceration beginning on June 11, 1998 and indicates he intended to pay the amount due, but did not do so because he needed the money while he was incarcerated.
In any event, while this amount probably should have been paid, he was incarcerated at least for part of the period of time during which it would have become due.
Based on all of this, we decline to hold him in contempt, but is ordered and directed that the Defendant shall pay this amount of $103.50 to the Prothonotary wihtin 90 days from the date of his parole or the expiration of his maximum sentence whichever occurs first.

Teh defednant shall appear at the office of the Prothonotary within 48 hours from his release, either on parole or at the expiration of his maximum sentence to advise the Prothonotary of his release so that the ninety days may begin to run.
If he does not pay the full amount within that time period, this matter may be brought before the Court once again by th Prohtonotary upon filing of a motion to reschedule the contempt hearing.

CHRIS GILLINGHAM, DEPUTY
ROBERT M. STEVENS, SHERIFF

Apr 3, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW April 2, 1998, this abuse petition is before the Court and the Court discusses the matter informally in open court between the parties. It is obvious to this Court that the plaintiff cannot distinctly elaborate on any recent incidents wherein her life was threatened or she was threatened with serious bodily harm by the defendant. It appears the parties lived together for some periods of time in the past and both parties agree that they should no longer live together and the defendant specifically atrees he will not go to the residence of the plaintiff for any prupose. Likewise, the plaintiff agrees the romance is over and she will not contact the defendant in any mannner.

The Court declines to enter an official Order in this case, believing that this factual situation is not covered by the Abuse Act and merely is a clash of personalities between former romantic companions.

ACCORDINGLY, we dismiss the Petition, and direct the County to pay the costs in this case.

HOWEVER, in the event the defendant makes further threats of physical assault or further threats to harm the plaintiff in any fashion, she may file a criminal charge of terroristic threats against him rather than bring the matter back before the Court in an Abuse Petition.

The Court notes the defendant agrees he has no longer a romantic interest in the plaintiff and that he will not go to her place of residence for any purpose or contact her in any manner.

Feb 19, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, Feb 17, 1999, the Court received and considered in Motions Court a motion by the Defendant requesting an Order compelling that arbitration proceed as scheduled. One of the issues is whether or not the Plaintiff should be permitted to file an amended complaint and attached to the motion requesting that arbitration proceed as scheduled was a copy of the Plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint. As a practical matter and in a efficient way of processing this case, it is ordered as follows:

Apr 17, 1998 Praecipe for Rule to File Complaint, filed.

April 23, 1998 ORDER ENTERED IN MOTIONS COURT ORDER FILED.
AND NOW, APRIL 22, 1998 upon receipt and review of the Defendant's Motion for protective Order counsel for the plaintiff Reichert Gen. Contractors Inc. initially objects to the appearance of R. Charles Thomas for the defendant claiming that Mr. Thomas represents Frank Reichert in one or more related matters. Mr. Thomas believes there is no conflict of interest because, inter alia, the plaintiff in this case is a corporation not Frank Reichert individually. The Court cannot resolve this matter in Motions Court and accordingly it is Ordered as follows:
1. The Motion for Protective Order is granted and the deposition scheduled for April 24, 1998 is continued generally pending further Order of Court.
2. The Rule upon the plaintiff to file a Complaint within 20 days is also suspended until further order of Court.
3. An evidentiary hearing will be held on Tuesday, MAY 5, 1998 at 11:30 AM in Courtroom 1 of the Crawford County Court house to resolve the issue of whether or not Mr. Thomas has a conflict of interest. Once that is resolved, the matter of the taking of the deposition and the matter of the plaintiff filing a Complaint shall also be resolved.
4. At the hearing on May 5, 1998, counsel shall be as efficient as possible in order to make certain that the hearing is as brief as possible and counsel are ordered and directed to present at the time any legal memorandums or citations of authority governing the conflict of interest issue.

April 3, 1998 SHERIFF'S RETURN FILED. Served Jeffrey McCartney, personally on April 2, 1998 at 10:20 AM in the Crawford County Jail.
So answers,

CHRIS D. GILLINGHAM, DEPUTY
ROBERT M. STEVENS, SHERIFF

April 17, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, April 8, 1998 this abuse matter is before the Court in an action by a mother against a 22 year old son. Background of the Defendant's past seems to indicated a mental disability of some sort, apparently, diagnosed as an attention deficit disorder and a hyperactivity conduct that leads to uncontrolled anger that makes him a menace to his family.

Apparently, the outburst leading to the filing of this petition involved a dispute over paying off some old bac check charges and speeding charges against the Defendant totaling some $800. Apparently, the mother on advise of the State Police has filed terrorist threats and robbery charges involving this abuse incident and bond in those cases is presently set at $5000. The Defendant postulates that a former female friend may post bond for him.

Accordingly, this Court finds that the conduct of the defendant is a menace to his parents when he resides with them and accordingly we enter fhe following order:

1. The Defendant may not take up residence with his parentes without their expressed written consent. He may not go to their residence for any purpose unless he is specifically invited to do so by the parents. In the event the Defendent finds living arrangements upon his release from jail, the parents will make arrangements to see that any of his personal possessions and clothing are delivered to him at a location outside of the home.

2. It is the desire of teh parents that they maintain some contact with their son whom they acknowledge had an ongoing problem with control of his anger and an attention deficit disorder condition. The parents consent that their son may write them at their residence or call them on the telephone at reasonable times but he may not harass annoy or threaten them and under no circumstances will be within 100 yards of the parents home.

3. This Order shall remain in effect for a period of 1 year.

4. Costs in this case in the amount of $97.50 will be paid by the defendant within 60 days to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County.

July 27, 1998 ORDER FILED. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and Decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary.
A final decree will not be entered at this time because
The parties are asking that an agreement be incorporated into the decree yet:
b. The agreement disposes of economic or other issues not raised by the pleadings or petition.
The Court does not have jurisdiction over matters not properly raised in the proceedings to date.
23 Pa. R.C.P. 1920.11, 1920.13 (child support)
Properly completed 3301(c) consents have not been filed of record. Pa.R.C.P.1920.42.
We do not find 3301(c) affidavits in the file, but they are referred to in the Praecipe to Transmit Record as having been executed on July 13, 1998. If that is the case, service in this matter did not take place until April 17, 1998, which would mean the Affidavits of Consent could not be exected that soon.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Apr 19, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, April 8, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt field by the Plaintiff. Essentially, the Defendant entered into a separation and property settlement agreement on Juen 22, 1998 which became a Court Order at the time of the party's divorce on Sept 11, 1998.
Paragraph 17 of that agreement indicates that the Defendant will pay child support in the amount of $400 per month to the Plaintiff. Since the time of that agreement based on the payments the Defendant has made, he is in arrears $2,460 already.
He notes that he has been trying to make payments through his business and was incarcerated for a period of 25 days but his agreement does not give him relief for incarceration time.
We find that he is in contempt and for his contempt it is ordered and directed that he does the following to purge himself of contempt: (see paper filed) Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

It appears that the Defendant/Husband has recently left for New Your State to visit his parents, and has not received either directly or by official service a notice of this hearing.
The Wife/Plaintiff appears at the hearing and advises she wishes substantial modifications to the original Order, the bottom line of which is that she wishes to reconcile with her husband, but under the conditions of the present Order, this reconciliation cannot be accomplished.
The wife advises the Court she wishes to withdraw her original abuse action and her motion to amend in the hopes that she and her husband can effectuate a reconciliation without the constraints of the terms and conditions of an Abuse Order.
Accordingly, the original Order entered April 24, 1998 is dismissed and the Court at the request of the wife, declines to act on her requested modification of said Order. The wife advises the Court she and her husband are hoping to reconcile and share the same residence.
We enter the following Order: This abuse case is discontinued the petition to modify filed by the wife is now moot and the wife agrees that she will pay to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford county the sum of $92.50 in court costs in this case with the first payment to be made in the amount of $20.00 on or before June 10, 1998 and an equal amount every 30 days thereafter until the entire balanace of the costs of $92.50 are paid in full.
This Court suggests to the Plaintiff that if there are further physical abuses imposed upon her by the Defendant, that she should file a criminal assault charge against the Defendant rather than attempting to govern the husband's conduct through an abuse Petition.

July 30, 1998 MOTION FOR NOMINAL BOND AND ORDER FILED. AND NOW, July 29, 1998 after consideration of this Motion, a hearing on said motion is set for August 7, 1998 at 11:15AM in CtRoom No. 1.

BY THE COURT
GORDON R. MILLER,J.

August 13, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, August 7, 1998 at the time fixed for hearing in this contempt matter, the plaintiff did not appear. We believe she knew about the hearing because the Prothonotary's records show that on July 27, 1998 the Prothonotary mailed a copy of the Order setting the hearing for today to the plaintiff at 904 Forest Green Dr, Meadville, PA 16335. Since there was evicence that she was given notice of the date time and place of the hearing and since she did not appear, the Petition for Civil Contempt is hereby dismissed and the defendant is released from incarceration in this case.

Teh Prothonotary shall send a true and correct copy of this Order to the plaintiff at 904 Forest Green Dr, meadville, pA 16335 and to the defendant tat his address at 724 Liberty St, Meadville, PA 16335

The allegations in the last tow petitions for civil contempt are serious. We do not know why the plaintiff is not appearing. We wish to state of record that if she files another Petionion for Civil Contempt she must appear and if she does not appear we will send a law enfcroement officer after her so that we can have a full hearing and figure out what is going on. Indirect criminal contepmt is not only an affront to the victim but is also an affront to the Court and therefore the Court has an interest in making certain that its Orders are carried out. We will not let her non-appearance for the third time, if such a third petition is filed, terminate these proceedings.

May 13, 1998 DEFENDANT'S ANSWER TO PETITIONS FOR CONTEMPT AND COUNTERCLAIM FOR CONTEMPT FILED.

May 15, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, MAY 13, 1998 this matter is before the Court on a Petition for Contempt filed by wife Cheryl E. Swartwood, alleging the defendant's unlawful removal of her property from the marital residence when the parties separated and his re-entry into the marital property contrary to Court Order.
The Court advises counsel that it was not inclined to decide appropriate ownership of a lengthy list of furniture and tangible property occupying the marital residence or a portion of the residence used by the defendant husband for his cabinet-making business.
After listenting to considerable input the Court urges counsel for the parties to reach an interim satisfactory resoulultion of certain personal property items here in dispute.
ACCORDINGLY, counsel and the parties advise the Court that the immediate contempt issue is resolved by finding the defendant in contempt for removal of certain items from the property, but the matter has been amicably resolved as follows:
On Saturday May 16, 1998 by 5 PM the defendant will return the following items to the marital residence adn he will give 12 hours telephone notice to the plaintiff wife of the approximate time that his brother-in-law acting on behalf of the defendant will deliver the following list of items to the plaintiff's residence:
Rainbow vacuum, white lawn tractor, weed cutter, VCR , 4 bags of water softener salt, six to eight sets of silverware belonging to the wife, some marked with a letter B and others marked with a simple rectangular pattern, green crock pot, Toastmaster black toaster oven 10 to 12 pictures of the plaintiff's children, Montgomery Ward washer and dryer.
