Dec 20, 1977, Order filed: AND NOW, this sixteenth day of December, 1977, by agreement of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that the primary custody of Douglas W. Lindsey, minor child of the parties hereto, born March 17, 1971 shall be in the mother, subject to the visitation privileges of the father and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

1. The father shall have the right to take the child into his custody every other weekend beginning with December 17, 1977, from 9:00 o'clock a.m., Saturday to 7:00 o'clock p.m., Sunday, both prevailing local times. The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child.

In addition, the father shall have the right to take said minor child into his custody from 5:00 o'clock p.m. to 8:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local time, on the Thursday immediately following the weekend visitation of the father.

2. Holidays, special days and birthdays shall be as follows:

A. The parties shall alternate custody of the child on holidays so that, for example, the mother will have the child on Christmas Day, 1977 and the father will have the child on the day before Christmas from 12:00 o'clock Noon to 9:00 o'clock p.m. The father shall have the child on Christmas Day, 1978 and the mother shall have the child the preceeding day.

Other holidays and the eve of Holidays shall be alternated from year to year in the same manner; provided, however, that holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend or weekly privileges.

Holidays shall be Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

B. The parties shall also alternate having the child in their custody on the child's birthday beginning in 1978 when the mother shall have custody on the birthday itself. In 1979, the father shall have custody on said birthday. And thereafter, the custody of the child on birthdays shall be alternated from year to year.

On the birthdays in which the mother is entitled to custody, the father, of course, shall have the child in his custody the evening before from 4:00 o'clock p.m. to 9:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local times.

C. The father shall have the child in his custody on Father's Day and the mother on Mother's Day, which will take precedence over regular weekend visitation privileges.

3. The father shall also have the right to take the child into his custody for two (2) weeks during the summer vacation period from Sunday Noon to the second Sunday Noon following, which two-week period shall be during the father's vacation from his employment, notice of which period of time shall be given to the mother not less than thirty (30) days preceding the beginning of the father's vacation period.

4. If the father for any reason is not able or does not wish to exercise any of the visitation privileges herein accorded, he shall notify the mother not later than 5:00 o'clock p.m. the day preceding the day that the visitation is to commence.

5. The mother shall notify the father of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

6. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent but on the contrary shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

7. Neither party shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

8. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

The parties should understand that this Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating

Jan 6, 1978, Copies of Order given to Paul D. Shafer, Esq. and David Truax.

Jan. 9, 1978 Exhibits filed with papers.

Jan. 16, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, this 11th day of January, 1978, primary custody of Heath Kirk Stevens, minor child of the parties hereto, born July 31, 1968, having previously been placed with the father, by agreement of the parties hereto the following visitation privileges are established in the mother subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

1. The mother shall have the right to take the child into her custody every other weekend beginning Friday, January 20, 1978, from 4:30 P.M. on that date to Sunday, January 22, 1978, at 8:00 P.M., both prevailing local times. The mother shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child.

In addition the mother shall have the right to take the minor child into her custody from 4:30 P.M. to 8:00 P.M., prevailing local time, on each Tuesday of every month immediately following any weekend in which the mother does not have a weekend visitation with the minor child.

2. Visitation for holidays, special days and birthdays shall be as follows:

a) Holidays shall be considered to be Easter, Father's Day, Mother's Day, July 4th, the birthday of the minor child, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

b) During the calendar year 1978 the minor child shall be inthe custody of the mother on the following holidays: Mother's Day, July 4th, the minor child's birthday, and Christmas Day.

c) During the calendar year 1978 the minor child shall be in the custody of the father on the following holidays: Easter, Fathers Day, Thanksgiving and New Year's Day, 1979.

d) The custody of the minor child shall be alternated on each of the above holidays so that during the calendar year 1979 the mother and father shall have the opposite holidays as stated above, with the mother having the child in her custody on New Year's Day, 1980, except Father's Day and Mother's Day shall not be alternated.

e) The eve of holidays as hereinabove defined shall be spent with the parent not having custody of the minor child on the holiday itself and the transfer of custody from the parent having the minor child on the eve of the holiday shall be made to the other parent at 8:00 P.M. on that holiday eve. The eves of holidays shall be alternated in the same manner as holidays themselves.

f) Holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend or weekly visitation privileges.

3. The mother shall have the right to take the child into her custody during the month of August of each year and during the school vacation period with due consideration for the minor child's participation in organized sports activities.

School vacation periods during Easter and Christmas of each year shall be divided between the parties in the manner following:

Continues on next page

The party entitled to custody on the eve of Easter and Christmas of each year shall also be entitled to custody for the period of school vacation up until that eve and the other party will have custody of the child for the remainder of the school vacation period.

4. If the mother for any reason is not able or does not wish exercise any of the visitation privileges herin accorded, she shall notify the father no later than 5:00 P.M. the day preceding the day that the visitation is to commence.

5. The mother and father shall notify the other parent of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

6. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but, on the contrary, shall do every thing in their power to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

7. Neither party shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

8. This Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

The parties should understand that the Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said agreement.

9. Neither party shall remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court, except for week-end visitations, other limited periods of time or provided visitationsoor summer vacation periods, without securing leave to do soounder conditions to be specified by the Court, it being the intent of this provision to prevent the interference with the custodial rights of either party.

If this portion of the Order is violated the rights accorded the violating party shall cease and subject said party to severe penalties.

10. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open Court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communication shall be addressed to the Judge by or on behalf of either of the parties. If there are any violations of this Court Order or complaints concerning the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to communicate with the violating party or his or her counsel in an efford to correct the situation or, in the alternative, to properly bring the matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible penalties.

So answers, Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff Jan 11, 1978 Preliminary Objections filed. Jan. 26, 1978, Response to Preliminary Objections filed. ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR FEBRUARY 27, 1978; No. 9. Feb 3, 1978, Interrogatories to the Plaintiffs filed. Mar 10, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, March 8, 1978, defendant's Preliminary Objection in the nature of a demurrer is denied in part and granted in part. The Complaint fails to establish a cause of action on behalf of the eight plaintiffs (Lawrence S. Hopper, Clarence J. Lynn, Edward J. Fries, Edward J. Freeauf, Jr., Andrew Kosturick, William Knapp, Samuel Simonette and Roy Brant) and defendant's demurrer is sustained as to said eight plaintiffs. Defendant's demurrer as to the individual plaintiff, Richard J. Ruhlman, as a member of the Executive Board of the Crawford County Democratic Committee is sustained as the Court has this day, by ruling in the companion case of Ruhlman v. White, ordered the plaintiff to consolidate the plaintiff's action as a member of the Democratic Executive Board with the companion action as an individual at No. 79 February Term, 1978. The defendant's allegations in paragraphs 5 through 13 are moot in view of our sustaining of defendant's demurrer as to all plaintiffs except Richard J. Ruhlman, and in light of our order in the companion case of Ruhlman v. White at No. 79 February Term, 1978. Had our ruling been otherwise, defendant's allegations would have been dealt with similar to those in the companion case of Ruhlman v. White. BY ORDER OF THE COURT, P. Richard Thomas P.J. Mar 10, 1978 Copies of Order given to R. Allen Thomas and John Petruso, Attys. Mar. 9, 1979, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, the plaintiff, Richard J. Ruhlman, withdraws his suit, having found satisfaction for his complaint in Defendant's, John White's recent public confession to, and subsequent sentencing by this court on a serious criminal charge. The effect of Defendant's confession to said crime has been in Plaintiff's view, that the public, now fully aware of Defendant's methods and base purposes has in it's collective mind dismissed as spurious Defendant's public attack on the character and good name of the Plaintiff. May 1, 1979, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, statement of withdrawal dated March 9, 1979 is stricken and in its place the following: The Plaintiff, Richard J. Ruhlman, withdraws his suit having found satisfaction. (see Paper filed at 79 May Term 1978)

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Feb 21, 1979 Copies of Order to Attys Mason (Joan), Swick & defendant.

Apr 20, 1979 Motion for refraining from entering order filed.

Apr 20, 1979 Order filed: This divorce action was filed December 20, 1977, and the defendant was served December 22, 1977. A Master was appointed May 3, 1978. On February 20, 1979, the Court entered an order noting the inactivity in this action and and intention to terminate the matter in accordance with Rule of Judicial Administration No. 1901 unless a request was presented postponing said termination.

On March 20, 1979, counsel for the Plaintiff presented a motion requesting the Court not to terminate the matter as the plaintiff is still in the process of collecting additional information in support of her divorce action, which it is claimed is actively contested by the defendant, We note no answer filed to the divorce complaint and no evidence of contest among the papers filed.

It seems to the Court that one year and three months is sufficient time to gather the necessary evidence to present a case of divorce based on Indignities to the Person.

Accordingly, we will extend the time for terminating this divorce action to May 15, 1979, and unless the Court received notice by said date that a Master's hearing has been set, the matter will be terminated in accordance with the aforesaid Rule 1901.

Date: April 19, 1979.

Feb 16, 1978 Opinion and Order - Sur Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed: AND NOW, this sixteenth day of February, 1978, in accordance with the foregoing opinion, IT IS ORDERED and DIRECTED as follows:

I. The primary custody of Pamela Strugis shall remain in the mother subject to the visitation privileges of the father hereinafter set forth.

II. The primary custody of Brenda Sturgis and Teresa Sturgis shall temporarily until further Order of Court be in the father subject to the visitation privileges of the mother and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

_____TERM

CONTINUED No. 142 February Term, 1978

1. Unless the parties agree otherwise by writing filed of record in this case the father shall have the children in his custody from the end of the school term, and for a period thereafter of one-half the number of days between the last day of the school term and the Sunday preceding the first day of the next school term.

2. The mother shall have custody of said children for the remainder of the summer vacation until noon on the Sunday preceding the first day of the next school term.

3. Weekend visitations shall be suspended during the summer vacation period.

D. Pamela shall visit with her father on weekends, holidays, special days and during summer vacations when the other two children are with the father so that all three children will be together on visitations with each parent.

III. Neither parent shall give the children any unusual gifts or sums of money in order to curry favor with said children.

Violation of any provision of this Order but particularly this provision will result in a removal of custody from the parent violating said Order and severely restricting visitation privileges if a rehearing is requested under the provisions of Paragraph X of this Order.

IV. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the children at the earliest possible time.

V. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the children against the other parent but on the contrary shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the children towards the other parent.

VI. Neither party shall expose the children to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health welfare or well-being of the children and shall not take the children to any place of business which is not appropriate for children of their ages.

VII. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or admendment to this Order to be filed of record.

VIII. The parties should understand that this Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said Order.

IX. Neither party shall remove the children from the jurisdiction of this Court, except for a weekend or limited summer vacation periods, without securing leave to do so under conditions to be specified by the Court.

If this portion of the Order is violated the rights accorded the violating party shall immediately cease and subject said party to severe penalties.

X. This Order shall continue in full force and effect as to the temporary custody of Brenda and Teresa until August 1, 1978, after which either parent may request a rehearing and modification thereof. If no such hearing and modification are requested the Order shall continue in full force and effect until further Order of Court.

XI. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open Court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communications shall be addressed to the judge. If there are any violations of this Order or complaints concering the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to warn the other party or to properly bring the matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible penalties.

It is further ORDERED AND DIRECTED that in light of the Petitioner's alleged indigency, she is permitted to proceed in forma pauperis initially, however, the Court reserves the right to assess costs at the conclusion of the proceedings.

BY ORDER OF COURT,
F. Joseph Thomas, J.

Jan. 25, 1978, copy of Order given to Legal Services.

Feb. 17, 1978 Exhibits filed. (With papers)

Feb 24, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, this 22nd day of February, 1978, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that primary custody of Jason Richard Saxton, born November 28, 1976, minor child, shall be in the mother, subject to the visitation privileges of the father and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

I. The fahter shall have the right to take the child into his custody every other weekend beginning with February 25, 1978 from 9:00 o'clock a.m., Saturday to Sunday the next day at 7:00 o'clock p.m., both prevailing local times.

The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child.

II. Holidays, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows:

A. Holidays shall be Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

(1) The father shall have custody of the child on Easter Sunday and Thanksgiving Day and the mother shall have custody of the child on July 4th and Christmas Day of 1978.

In 1979, if this Order has not been previously modified, the mother shall have custody of the child on Easter Sunday and Thanksgiving Day and the father shall have custody on July 4th and Christmas Day.

The parties shall continue to alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner if this Order has not been previously modified.

(2) On the holidays when the mother has custody the father shall have the right to have the child with him on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 o'clock p.m. to 9:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local time.

(3) Holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend, weekly and vacation visitations.

B. The parties shall also alternate having the child in their custody on the child's birthdays, beginning in 1978 when the mother shall have custody on the birthday itself; in 1979 the father shall have custody on said birthday. And thereafter the custody of the child on birthdays shall be alternated from year to year.

On the birthdays in which the mother is entitled to custody, the father shall have the child in his custody on the evening before from 4:00 o'clock p.m. to 9:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local times.

C. The father shall have the child in his custody on Father's Day and the mother on Mother's Day, which will take precedence over regular weekend visitation privileges.

D. The father shall also have the right to take the child into his custody during the summer vacation for a period of two (2) weeks, from Sunday Noon to the Sunday two (2) weeks following at Noon, which shall be during the period of his vacation from employment, notice of which period of time shall be given to the mother not less than thirty (30) days preceding the beginning of the vacation period.

III. If either parent for any reason is not able or does not wish to exercise any of the visitation privileges herein accorded, the other shall be notified not later than 5:00 o'clock p.m., the day preceding the day that the visitation is to commence.

IV. Either parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

V. Neither parent shall say or do anything in attempt to turn the child against the other parent but on the contrary shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

VI. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

VII. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

VIII. The parties should understand that this Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said Order.

IX. Neither party shall remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court, except for a weekend or limited summer vacation period, without securing leave to do so under conditions to be specified by the Court.

If this portion of the Order is violated, the rights accorded the violating party shall immediately cease and subject said party to severe penalties.

X. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communications shall be attempted or addressed to the Court. If there are any violations of the Order or complaints concerning the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to warn the other party or to properly bring the matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible holding of the other party in contempt of court and the infliction of penalties because of said contempt.

Costs of this proceeding shall be the record costs of this proceeding and shall be paid by the respondent.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
F. Joseph Thomas, J.

Feb 24, 1978 Two copies of Order given to Otto F. Hofmann, Esq, and two copies mailed to Ann Hansen Gamble, Esq.

June 16, 1978 Amended Order filed: WHEREAS, counsel for both parties has informed the court that the Petitioner, MARGARET E. DELP, natural mother of Jason Richard Saxton has recently been married and plans to move to the Toledo area.

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to a modification of the prior court order setting out amended visitation privileges.

AND NOW, this sixteenth day of June, 1978, it is hereby ordered and directed that primary custody of JASON RICHARD SAXTON, born November 28, 1976, shall be in the mother, subject to the amended visitation privileges of the father and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

I. The father shall have the right to take the child into his custody for an eight-day period beginning on the second weekend of each month. The first such visit shall commence on September 9, 1978, and continue up to and including September 17, 1978. The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child during all of his visitation periods.

II. The father shall have the additional right to take the child into his custody for two two-week periods during the summer of 1978. The first two-week period shall commence on Saturday, June 17, 1978, and end on or before July 2, 1978. The second two-week period shall commence on August 12, 1978, and end on or before August 26, 1978. The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child during both of these two-week visitation periods.

III. In light of the fact that there will be a considerable distance between the parties, additional visitation periods for holidays, special days, and birthdays will be arranged in the future, however, the mother is instructed to do everything that she can to accommodate any reasonable requests for visitation by the father. Should the parties be unable to agree, counsel shall file an appropriate motion with the court.

IV. If either parent for any reason is not able or does not wish to exercise any of the visitation privileges herein accorded, the other party shall be notified no later than forty-eight hours preceeding the day that the visitation is to commence.

V. Both parents shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

VI. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but on the contrary shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

VII. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or wellbeing of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

VIII. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

IX. The parties should understand that this court order must be obeyed by both parties, and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said order.

X. The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County shall continue to retain jurisdiction of this matter, subject to the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, and neither party shall remove the child permanently from said jurisdiction without securing leave to do so under conditions to be specified by the Court. If this portion of the Order is violated, the rights accorded to the violating party shall immediately cease and subject said party to severe penalties.

XI. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communications shall be attempted or addressed to the Court. If there are any violations of the Order or complaints concerning the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to warn the other party or to properly bring this matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible holding of the other party in contempt of court and the infliction of penalties because of said contempt.

June 18, 1982, Order filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1982, a rule to show cause having been entered on Margaret E. Saxton to show cause why she should not be held in contempt, said rule is discharged by reason of the fact the alleged violation of the Court Order related to an Order which had been supplanted by subsequent Order on June 16, 1978 by agreement of the parties, and further, by reason of the fact that since the entry of the original Order, the parties' marital domestic status has substantially changed a number of times.

The Order of February 22, 1978 relating to custody of Jason Richard Saxto n and visitation privileges in connection therewith is hereby re-instated effective immediately, and all calculations as to alternating holidays and other visitation rights shall be calculated in the same manner as though said Order had been continued in full force and effect from its entry to this date.

Insofar as Jeremiah Saxton is concerned, he is hereby made a part of the subject matter of this proceeding, having been born to the parties since the original proceeding was commenced. The Defendant may have reasonable visitations with Jeremiah not to exceed three (3) hours in length and may take the child to his home or his mother's home only for such visitation.

Both parties are specifically cautioned that Court Orders are intended to be obeyed, and we will not hesitate to find any party in contempt if these Orders are not complied with.

In addition, Margaret E. Saxton is cautioned not to go to the residence where her husband now resides or harass him in any way.

March 9, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, March 1, 1978, after hearing, the Court believes that under the present factual situation it is best at this time to allow the minor child Frank and the minor child Jeremy to remain in the custody of their mother, Miki Jablonski while at the same time allowing the minor child Allen and the minor child Thomas to remain in the custody of their father, and, accordingly, we award said children respectively to their mother and father.

The father is directed not to over discipline any of the children while they are in his custody or presence.

The mother is directed not to have non-relative male companions in her apartment or dwelling between the hours of 7:00 P.M. and 9:00 A.M.

The mother is also directed not to remove the children from the jurisdiction of this Court at any time without Court consent, except they may take day long or casual vacations to neighboring states or counties, providing there is no permanent change of residence intended.

The Court is convinced that counsel for the parties can work out suitable visitation arrangements for the four (4) children, and accordingly, urges them to do so, and no order is entered at this time.

In the event the parties cannot mutually agree to visitations, the Court on motion or petition from either party will set the visitations for the mother and father.

April 7, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, this sixth day of April, 1978, by aggreement of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that primary custody of MICHAEL WHIPPO, born April 20, 1962, shall be in the mother and the primary custody of PENNY WHIPPO, born September 28, 1964, shall be in the father, subject, however in both cases to the visitation privileges of each parent and to the conditions hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

1. In view of the fact that counsel advise the Court that the parties have no difficulty concerning visitations, we will not entere a separate Order setting forth such visitation periods. But in the event any difficulty arises, the matter should be referred to the Court for disposition.

For the guidance of the parties, we usually permit both children to be with the same parent on alternating weekends and suggest that as a guideline for future visitations, although this shall not interfere with the right of the parties to reach an agreement satisfactory to them concerning visitations.

It is also usually our suggestion that the parents alternate birthdays so that one parent will have both children on the birthdays one year and the other parent will have the children on the birthdays the following year or alternate birthdays in any manner the parties agree upon.

2. Pending the signing of an agreement in the Domestic Relations Office, the parties have agreed that the father shall pay toward the support of Michael Whippo to the mother the sum of $16.00 per week, with the understanding that said agreement shall be made a matter of record in the Domestic Relations Office, signed by the Court and that payments thereafter will be made through the Domestic Relations Office.

The Order for support shall become effective April 7, 1978, and the costs of recording it in the Domestic Relations Office shall be divided between the parties.

3. Both parents shall notify the other immediately of any illness or emergency involving the child in their custody or both children if they have temporary custody of both children at the earliest possible time.

4. Neither party shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the children against the other parent, but on the contrary, shall do any thing in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the childrentoward the other parent.

5. Neither parent shall expose the children to any situation which would adversely affect the health, education, welfare or well-being of the children and shall not take said children to any place of business which is not appropriate for children of their age.

6. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to the Order, to be filed of record.

7. Neither party shall remove the children from the jurisdiction of this Court without the consent of the other except for limited weekend summer vacation periods or other limited periods for purposes of entertainment or relaxation without securing leave to do so under conditions specified by the Court.

8. As has been state earlier in court, the parties should understand that this Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said Order.

9. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communications should be addressed to the judge. If there are any violations of the Order or complaints concerning the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to warn the other partyor to properly bring the matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible penalties when all parties will have a right to a full and complete hearing.

June 1, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, June 1, 1979, after partial hearing and partially by agreement of the parties, the Order of this Court dated April 6, 1978 is vacated. It appears that MICHAEL WHIPPO has joined the military service of the United States and is now emanicipated. PENNY WHIPPO is residing with her mother, Patricia June Darling with the consent of her father, David Whippo, and has so resided since March 11, 1979. Such order shall in its various particulars be retroactive to the date the parties shall agree upon, the hearing office shall determine or if necessary the Court shall determine,

Apr 21, 1978 Motion for Rescheduling of Hearing and Order filed: And now, April 21, 1978 the within hearing is rescheduled for May 19, 1978, at 9:30 A.M.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

Apr 21, 1978 Copy of Order given to Stephen Toole, Esq.

May 24, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, May 19, 1978, at the time this matter is called for hearing on a Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by the father requesting custody of his three (3) minor children, it appears that the mother has now moved from the City of Titusville, Pennsylvania and now lives with her children at 40 95th Street, Court #2, Niagara Falls (no phone).

The parties mutually agree that the matter regarding custody of the children will be continued and that hearing thereon will be rescheduled for September 27, 1978, at 9:30 a.m. in order for the Court to request an investigation by an appropriate child welfare agency regarding the adequacy of the housing arrangements and the family situation in Niagara Falls, New York.

In the meantime, the father shall be accorded visitation and shall have the right to have the children on the first and third weekends of every month commencing with the weekend of May 19-21, with the children to be picked up between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 p.m. and return 6:00 p.m., Sunday. It shall be the father's responsibility to pick up and return the children and he agrees that because of the young ages of the children that he will be accompanied by another adult person in making the trip to pick up and return the children. During said visits, he will have the privilege of removing the children to Crawford County and they will specifically stay at the home of his sister in Diamond, Pennsylvania because of the present inadequate housing arrangements of the father.

To accommodate more lengthy visits with the three (3) children, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody for a two-week period during his vacation period and the parties mutually agree that he may take custody of the children on Saturday, July 1, 1978, on or before Noon and have them in his possession and return them on Saturday, July 15, 1978, by 7:00 p.m.

Ittappears that the father is currently on parole under jurisdiction of the State Board of Probation and Parole and is prohibited from leaving the State of Pennsylvania. The Court requests that his parole officer grant him exceptions to this general parole rule in order to accommodate the visitations provided for in this Order and the Court notes it will furnish his parole officer with a copy of this Order.

This hearing has been continued by agreement of the parties on the basis that the Court will request the Crawford County Child Welfare Agency to request an investigation by the appropriate child welfare agency in Niagara Falls, New York, with said investigation to cover the adequacy of housing, the conduct of the mother with the children, employment or schooling undertaken by the mother and the appropriateness of arrangements made for custody of the children when the mother is required to be absent from home. In addition, the Court requests that said Child Welfare Agency make unscheduled visits to the home for the purpose of ascertaining whether the mother is giving adequate care to said children, and in this regard, the mother authorizes child welfare agents in Niagara Falls to make unscheduled visits and to make a full and complete inspection of her home on all visits.

The Court requests on a brief written report from said child welfare agency and any recommendations as to whether or not the mother is an adequate person and has the ability to give appropriate care to the children. A copy of said report upon receipt by the Court will be furnished counsel for both parties.

Neither party will attempt to influence the children against the other parent and when the father arrivess to pick up the children and return them, he shall engage in no uncomplimentary conduct or conversation with the mother and may not enter the home of the mother without her consent.

On any visits scheduled by the father, if he is going to be unable to make the visit or an emergency arises that prevents the visit, he shall promptly notify the mother through the telephone number placed in his hands this date. In any event, on any shceduled visit when he does not arrive to pick up the children within two (2) hours of the time designated, the mother may consider the visit cancelled.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 25, 1978 Copy of Order given to Stephen Toole, Esq. and copy mailed to Ann Gamble, Esq.

Nov 6, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, November 1, 1978, after further hearing, the Court awards custody of the three (3) children, Jon Edward Sampson, Jerime Levi Sampson and Jill-Lyn Elouise Sampson to their mother, Janice L. Sampson.

Visitation rights are accorded the father of the said children and he shall have the right to visit the children on the first weekend ofevery month commencing with the month of November, from Friday at 6:00 P.M., until Sunday at 6:00 P.M., and it shall be the father's responsibility to pick up and return the children. Because of the young ages of the children, he will be accompanied by another adult in making the pick up and return so that proper supervision of the three (3) young children in the car may be had.

The Court notes at this time that the father is unemployed, lacks transportation and that more extensive visits would entail an economic hardship. In the event the father desires more frequent visitations and the Court were requested to grant the same, the Court would be inclined to extend the visitations of the father to the first and third weekends every month plus an additional two (2) week period during the summer months. In theevent the father requests additional visitations along these lines as his economic and transportation problems are solved, the Court urges the mother to accommodate these reasonable requests and, in the event she refuses, the Court will entertain a motion for further hearing in this regard.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

March 30, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, this 28th day of March, 1978, by agreement of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that the primary custody of KARL W. LONGSTRETH, born December 26, 1971, minor child of the parties, shall be in the, mother subject to the visitation privileges of the father and to the conditions hereinafter set forth:

I. The father shall have the right to take the child into his custody every other weekend beginning with Saturday, April 8, 1978 from 10:00 o'clock A.M., to Sunday, April 9, 1978 at 7:oo P.M., both prevailing localAtimes. The father shall have the responsibility for picking up and returning the minor child and it is agreed that the child shall be picked up and delivered at the home of the maternal grandmother, Mary Kircher, R.D.#1 Star Route, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

It is agreed between the parties that on those weekends when the father has custody of said minor child, he shall see that the child attends Sunday School and/or church.

II. Holidays, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows:

It is agreed by the parties that the father shall have the custody of the minor child on Father's Day of each year, commencing with the calendar year 1978, from 10:00 o'clock A.M., to 7:00 o'clock P.M.

It is understood that the mother shall have custody of the minor child on Mother's Day of each year and such holiday shall take precedence over that holiday to the extent the same conflicts with the father's weekend visitation.

Additionally, it is agreed that the father each year commencing with the year 1978 shall have the minor child in his custody for Christmas Eve from 4:00 o'clock P.M., to 9:00 o'clock P.M., and that he shall have custody of the child either the day before or the day after the child's birthday each year as agreed upon between the parties.

The above visitations and holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend visitations.

III. If for any reason the father is not able or does not wish to exercise any of the visitation privileges herein accorded, he shall notify the mother not later than 5:00 o'clock P.M., the day preceding the day that the visitation is to commence. Notification to the maternal grandmother shall be sufficient notice under this provision.

IV. The mother agrees to immediately provide to the father her home telephone number and location for purposes of notifying the mother in case of emergency or other needs.

V. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

VI. Neither parent shall say or doanything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent but on the contrary shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

VII. Neither shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adveresly affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

VIII. So that thereccan be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

It is understood that this Court Order shall supersede all prior agreements regarding custody and specifically the private agreement entered between the parties on May 13, 1975.

IX. The parties should understand that this Court must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said Order.

X. Neither party shall remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court, except for a weekend or other limited vacation period without first securing leave to do so under conditions to be specified by the Court.

SERVED on the within named defendant John Saboleh, by deputizing the Sheriff of Erie County, Pennsylvania, as per his affidavit of service hereto attached.

So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

April 28, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, April 25, 1978, because of a lack of time and the limited amount of testimony heard, the Court deems it advisable to enter only a temporary Order in this case, and accordingly, we will do so and continue this case for further hearing on May 26, 1978, at 1:30 p.m. In the meantime, the minor child Albert shall be surrendered to the custody of the mother and she may not remove the child from the jurisdiction of Erie or Crawford County without further Court Order.

The Court believes it advisable for the father to have reasonable visitation rights with the child but in view of the strained marital exsistence between the parties, said visits should be outside the mother's home currently at 122½ Prospect Street, Cambridge Springs.

The father having an intense interest in the child shall have the right to pick up the child at the aforesaid residence every Sunday at 9:00 a.m. and have the child in his control and custody until 3:00 p.m. for visitation purposes. The father may not remove the child from Erie or Crawford County and under no circumstances is the child to be returned to relatives in the City of Philadelphia or removed back to his native country of Sierra Leon.

The Court requests Child Welfare Services to immediately interview the mother of this child, the living conditions and the care and attention given to the minor child Albert. In view of the prospective birth of another child, Child Welfare Services may be able to lend assistance in temporary care for Albert during hospitalization of the mother.

This Order is entered without any indication from this Court that it intends to award final custody to the mother or the father as further testimony is necessary for the Court to resolve the best interests of this child.

Counsel for the mother is directed by this Court to forward immediately a copy of this order to the Sierra Leon Embassy in Washington, D.C. and the Immigration Service as this Court notes the child is not to be removed from the territorial limits of the United States until ultimate disposition of the custody matter now pending before the Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

May 26, 1978 Motion for Continuance and Order filed: And now, May 26, 1978, Granted. Hearing set 9:30 A.M. June 23, 1978.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 26, 1978 Copy of Order given to William Pineo, Esq. and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq.

July 6, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 23, 1978, the custody of the minor child Albert John Saboleh is hereby awarded to his mother.

The Court has noted for counsel that the complexity of this situation in view of the fact that both parents are residents of Sierra Leone and in view of the fact that the father will soon complete his education at Edinboro State College and perhaps return to his native land or perhaps undergo graduate work in Europe or the United States and that further if the mother intends to complete her education while caring for the children and working with a projected completion of her education in 1982, that the decision in this case was made under great difficulty and the Court accordingly accords counsel for either party the opportunity to petition for reconsideration in view of any dramatic changes in the parties' living situation or schooling or job opportunities.

It further appears that the mother of the child is now largely being supported through donations from organizations and friends and in view of the fact that the Court could direct her to file a support petition to secure support for the children, the Court will entertain a support order as part of this award of custody.

In this regard, the Court notes that it is without sufficient information regarding the assets of the father and that at this time it is not determined whether he will become employed shortly after his graduation from Edinboro College on August 26th, whether he will return to his native country or whether he will attend graduate school in the future.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court directs the father to pay through the Domestic Relations Division of Crawford County the sum of $75.00 per month for the support of his two(2) minor children, Albert John Saboleh, the subject of this petition, and a child born after the filing of this petition, namely, Jeffrey Saboleh, born May 16, 1978, with said payments to commence during the month of June, 1978.

The parties mutually agree to continue the same visitation arrangements previously set forth in the Order of April 25, 1978, except that the visitations will be on Saturday instead of Sunday between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 3:00 P.M., unless the parties mutually agree that the day can be changed.

The Court's requirements that the child not be removed from Erie or Crawford Counties remains in effect, and the child may not be returned to relatives in the City of Philadelphia nor removed back to his native country of Sierra Leone without further order of this Court.

It appears that the mother is nursing the new born child Jeffry; and, accordingly, awarding visits with the father for any appreciable length of time outside the household seems an impossiblity. Accordingly, the Court suggest strongly to the parties that the father have minimal short visits with the child either on the day he picks up the minor child Albert or upon the return of the minor child Albert or on such other days as the parties can mutually agree.

PETITION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS IN DIVORCE

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 22nd day of March, 1978, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and Certification of Counsel, it is hereby ordered and decreed that the Petitioner, Becky A. Mattocks, be permitted to proceed in the above action as an indigent person without the payment of any costs, fees, taxes and the posting of any bonds.

Further, a rule is entered upon the Respondent to show cause why he should not be required to pay the counsel fees and costs of the divorce. Rule returnable and for hearing on the 10th day of April, 1978, at 9:15 A.M. o'clock in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court House in Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335.

The Respondent is notified that his failure to attend the foregoing hearing may result in an Order being entered in his absence.

By the Court,
F. Joseph Thomas,
J.

March 23, 1978, Copy of Order given to Legal Services.

March 22, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, March 22, 1978, for the information of the Judge hearing this case it was my opinion that the petition to proceed In Forma Pauperis should not be granted in cases such as this where the petitioner is a young person in good health who has not worked nor sought employment for a long period of time and lives with her parents.

The only reason the petition was granted was because the respondent is employed and should be required to pay all costs and counsel fees.

This case was referred by Legal Services to private counsel on the theory that the respondent was able to pay such costs and counsel fees but for some reason not apparent to the Court private counsel did not agree and referred the matter back to Legal Services.

So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Feb 9, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, February 9, 1979, the defendant is before the Court on an arrest warrant issued because of his failure to comply with a previous Order of Court to pay costs and counsel fees in the amount of $400.00.

In regard to the divorce action, the Court is advised by the master that an initial hearing was held but the master was of the opinion there had been inadequate service of the Divorce Complaint upon the co-respondent named in the adultery action, and further that there had been inadequate notice of the master's hearing on the Defendant; accordingly, the master's hearing was not completed.

The Court amends the foregoing Order entered by Judge F. Joseph Thomas on April 10, 1978 and the Defendant is DIRECTED to pay through counsel for his wife the sum of $132.33 in this divorce action with said sums to be paid at the rate of $50.00 per month and the first payment is due on the 15th of February, 1979 and on the 15th of March and April until said costs are paid in full.

The Court notes also the Defendant appears before the Court on the issuance of a bench warrant and upon ascertaining the additional costs in that matter, he is to pay such amount of additional costs direct to the Prothonotary as the Prothonotary directs in a notice by regular mail at his present address, R.D.#8, Lot 9, Meadville, PA.

Further payment on any counsel fees is waived, but it is the intent of this Order that the Defendant pay all costs in the manner aforesaid.

In regard to the Domestic Relations matter at No. 299 Dom. Rel. Div., 1977, between the parties involving support of one (1) minor child, the Court is advised that the Defendant is $500.00 in arrears on this support Order; accordingly, he is adjudicated in contempt of Court and he is hereby DIRECTED to immediately commence with the support Order of $10.00 per week for the minor child and will pay in addition thereto $5.00 per week to apply on the arrearages until the same are paid in full.

The Court notes at this time the Defendant is contending that because of lack of care or inadequate housing arrangements, he and his mother frequently have the child for extended periods of time; the Defendant is advised that in the event any custody of the child is to be with him for a period of one week (1) or longer, he should petition the Court for modification of the support Order.

The Sheriff is AUTHORIZED to release the Defendant forthwith.

May 11, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, May 10, 1978, after hearing, the Court finds insufficient evidence to award counsel fees and alimony pendente lite to the wife in this case.

With the consent of the Defendant and in lieu of filing a separate divorce action by the mother for the two children, the Court enteres a support Order for the support of the Defendants two minor children, MELISSA and AMY, as follows: The defendant will pay the sum of $125.00 per month in semi-monthly installments through the Domestic Relations Office commencing with the month of May, 1978. In view of the fact the mother is now receiving aid to dependent children from the Department of Welfare, said sum shall be forwarded to the Department of Welfare as reimbursement. In the event she is no longer receiving support for the children from the Department of Welfare, payments will be made direct to the wife.

The Court urges the parties to arrange for satisfactory visitations of the father with the children and in the event the same cannot be mutually agreed upon, the Court will entertain a motion to set further hearing in this matter.

ORDER:

AND NOW, April 13, 1978, it appears that certain escrow funds have accumulated in the hands of District Justice Office 2-1 and District Justice Office 3-6, which funds represent costs or fees paid in advance, collection of restitution and other miscellaneous collections. Sharon Prenatt, current administrative head of District Justice Office 2-1, and District Justice Ronald Cole of District 3-6 are hereby directed to forward to the County Treasurer the amounts standing in the aforesaid escrow accounts.

In the event claims are made against said accounts in the future, the Court reserves the right to direct County of Crawford to refund to individuals such sums as the Court may direct upon proof to the Court that they have rightful claim to any sums included in the aforesaid inactive escrow accounts.

Apr. 28, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, April 24, 1978, at the time scheduled for hearing, the defendant advises the Court that he has no objection to an Order barring him from entering the trailer set forth in the petition since the same is in the name of the wife petitioner and that he has no objection to an Order precluding him from molesting, assaulting or harassing his wife.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following

ORDER

The defendant Kermit B. Peterson shall not re-occupy the trailer owned by his wife, Patricia A. Peterson, nor will he annoy, threaten, assault or harass her in any fashion.

The Assistant District Attorney will make satisfactory arrangements between the parties for a time for removal of the husband's clothing since it is his contention that none of the other personal property contained in the trailer belongs to him nor does he have any claim to the same.

County directed to pay the costs on this petition.

P. Richard Thomas

June 12, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 9, 1978, the parties and their counsel are before the Court for a hearing on a rule to show cause why defendant should not be required to pay divorce costs and alimony pendente lite. The parties mutually agree that the defendant will pay total costs in the amount of $125.00 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within thirty (30) days of this date and no divorce will be granted until said costs are paid.

The parties mutually agree that the question of child support should be resolved at this time without the necessity of filing a formal support petition with the Domestic Relations Division. It appears the parties have four (4) children, and currently, two (2) of the children are in the custody of each parent. It further appears that the defendant's average take home pay is approximately $260.00 per week, but his work is sporadic and he may suffer a reduction in earnings by virtue of removal from night shift work.

The parties mutually agree thatthe father will pay throughthe Domestic Relations Division support in the amount of $40.00 per week commencing with the week of June 4th for thesupport of the two (2) minor children in the custody of the mother; namely, Jeremy and Frank.

The parties mutally agree that so long as the mother is receiving Department of Welfare Assistance, said sum will be paid to the Department as reimbursement.

The parties also mutually agree that due to the sporadic work schedule of the father, said support Order will continue during the short periods of unemployment, but in the event theffather isunemployed for three (3) consecutive weeks, he may request the Domestic Relations Division to temporarily modify said Order until he returns to regularly-scheduled employment.

The partiesumutually agree that this Order regarding support for the children shall have the same force and effect as if a regular petition for support in the Domestic Relations Division had been filed and a Court Order entered thereon and a copy of this Order will be lodged with the Clerk of Courts' Office and given a Domestic Relations number.

In view of the fact there will be no contest of theddivorce and the matter of support for the wife will no longer be an issue upon granting of the divorce, the Court refuses to award alimony pendente lite in this action. The defendant is directed to pay forthwith $15.00 costs for filing a copy of this action in the Domestic Relations Division.

Oct. 7, 1981, Deposition of William R. McWhirter, M. D. filed.

Oct. 8, 1981 Pretrial Conference Order filed: This is an action in assumpsit for breach of contract of employment. Plaintiff was an employee of the defendant. Employees of the defendant were normally given a copy of a policy manual and a benefit manual at the time of their employment which outlined the policies of the company regarding emOloyment and the benefits available to employees. It is the plaintiff's position that he was wrongfully discharged from employment under the terms of the manuals which he claims were a part of the contract of employment between himself and the defendant. Plaintiff asserts that as a result of such wrongful discharge, he was deprived of various disability benefits which would have been available to him as an employee of the company and that therefore he is entitled to damages because presently disabled measured by the loss of disability benefits to which he would have been entitled as an employee.

Defendant contends that plaintiff's employment was a contract of employment at will, that it had the right to discharge the Plaintiff and did discharge him properly, and that, therefore, no benefits accrued after his discharge.

Plaintiff has deposed a Dr. Aye who did not begin treating the plaintiff until after his alleged discharge or termination of his employment with the defendant. Defendant takes the position that this testimony is not relevant and should not be admitted. Ruling on the evidentiary question will be reserved until the time of trial.

The threshold legal question will be whether the plaintiff either voluntarily terminated his employment with the defendant or was properly discharged by the defendant thereby terminating all benefits which would have accrued to him had he continued as an employee and become disabled. If it is determined ultimately that there was a breach of the contract of employment by the defendant, the question of damages will arise, and among those questions will be the proper computation of the plaintiff's loss and whether the measure of damages would be the benefits that would have been paid by the third party insurance carrier to the plaintiff had he been an employee and covered by the policy at the time he became disabled.

On or before October 15, 1981, each party shall submit a memorandum of law covering the issue of the nature of the employment contract between the parties and whether it has been breached by the defendant. Either party may also address the evidentiary question regarding the testimony of Dr. Aye in the brief and any legal principles that may relate to the proper measure of damages.

On or before October 15, 1981, the defendant will file a supplementary pretrial narrative listing any additional witnesses that the defendant expects to call as outlined at the pretrial conference.

As an attachment to the memorandum of law, each party shall append the reference to all sections of the policy manual and/or benefits manual that they believe will be relevant showing in the briefest manner the matters covered by the section. In addition thereto, each party shall attach to the memorandum of law proposed points for charge on the assumption that the testimony will develop in the manner presently anticipated. Each party may withdraw, amend or otherwise modify the request for charge at the close of the evidence at trial.

No. 100 May Term, 1978

June 5, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 2, 1978, at the time scheduled for hearing on this child custody action brought by the father of said three (3) minor children, it appears that the parties separated on or about January 9, 1978 with the father moving to Pike County, Pennsylvania at Route 1, Box 230, Dingman Ferry, Pennsylvania, 18328, telephone (717) 828-2168 and the mother of said children has moved to 242 Walker Drive, William Gill Village, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335, telephone (814) 333-8032.

The father of said children is handicapped as he is unprepared to give any testimony regarding the conduct of the mother and the care and attention which she has given the children since the separation and could only rely on her conduct prior to separation by which it is the father's contention that during their marriage, the mother of said children would frequently leave the home early in the evening and not return until the early morning hours and had been consuming alcoholic beverages. He does not, however, contend the children were left alone, but that he was required to care for them and is fearful that said conduct on the part of the mother is continuing to the jeopardy of the children.

The mother of said children contends that she does no more than social drinking, treats the children properly and never leaves them unattended.

The parties have mutually agreed to continue this case until August 14, 1978 at 9:30 a.m. on the condition that the Court ask the Crawford County Child Welfare Services to make an investigation of the home conditions and conduct of the mother of said children at the Meadville address, and the mother specifically authorizes Child Welfare Service to make occasional unannounced visits to ascertain if the children are being properly cared for, the conditions are suitablefor the rearing of the children and the mother has the capability and qualifications to render competent motherly services to the three (3) minor children. The Court DIRECTS Crawford County Child Welfare Services to make said investigation with the first visit to be within two (2) weeks from this date, and to submit to the Court, with a copy to counsel for the parties, and to submit to the Court, with a copy to counsel for the parties, a brief synopsis of the results of their investigation to guide the Court and the father in the custody hearing now set for August 14, 1978.

In the meantime, in view of the fact that the father lives in Pike County, some 360 miles from Meadville, he requests only limited visitation rights and is granted the same. The father shall have the right to come and visit the children on July 15, 1978; provided, however, the parties mutually agree that if the children are enrolled in the Peer Program, there is some possiblity that a weekend trip will occur on that weekend and in said event, the father's visit will be continued to another suitable weekend when the children will be present for visitation purposes.

The father shall contact the mother by July 10th to re-affirm the availability of the July 15th date.

In view of the fact the father must visit the County by public transportation, no future visitation dates are set, but he is accorded, with the consent of the mother, additional visitation dates; provided, however, that he gives her three (3) days notice of the time he will be arriving for periodic visits with the children provided he can have no more than one (1) visit per week.

Neither party shall attempt to influence the children against the other and while the visits are made, the parents will have no arguments or harsh words with each other. During the visits to Meadville, the father may not remove the children from Crawford County. The mother may not move her residence outside Crawford County without further Court hearing and in the event of change of address within Crawford County, she will notify the father of said three(3) Children within forty-eight (48) hours of any change of address.

Aug 14, 1978 Copy of Order given to Robert Bailey and Otto Hofmann, Esqs.

Sept. 29, 1978, Exhibits filed. (with papers)

Oct 4, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, September 29, 1978, after hearing the Court believes the best welfare of the children at this time is residence with their mother, and accordingly, the custody of the three (3) minor children, Barbara, David and William, is hereby awarded to the custody of their mother, Margaret Heimbrook.

In view of the emotional problems of the mother in the past, the Court will continuedjurisdiction of this case for a period of six (6) months from this date, and/the event the mother's conduct deteriorates, the emotional problems arise or thereis evidence the children are being improperly cared for or mistreated, the Court will entertain a further motion under the caption of this case for reconsideration.

The parties are mutally in agreement that the father should have occasional visits with the children, but in view of the fact he lives in Pike County, said visits will be scheduled by the father given adequate seventy-two (72) hour notice of when he will arrive to take the children in his custody for reasonable visitation periods.

In addition thereto, the father may occasionally call the children for a fatherly discussion, but will not carry out any conversation intending to turn the children against their mother or influence them to come with the father.

The parties are mutually agreed that an extensive summer visit should be arranged so that the children may be with their father at his place of residence in Dingmans Ferry, Pennsylvania so long as the father takes the children to a residence with adequate housing to care for the children during the visit. The Court leaves to the parties the length of said visits to suit their apporpriate schedules, but in the event the parties cannot agree as to the length of summer visit, the same shall be for a period of two (2) continuous weeks.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.
