June 7, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 4, 1982, Defendant having appeared as required, the previous order directing the issuance of a bench warrant is vacated.

The deduction which the Defendant made in the sum of $37.00 from payments due his wife for one-half (½) of the homeowners insurance is disallowed, and the Defendant shall pay forthwith the sum of $37.00.

From the information submitted, we are unable to clearly determine what the Plaintiff's share of the automobile insurance for the policy period beginning June 11, 1982, should be. Defendant shall obtain from Allstate Insurance Company and submit through his counsel to the Court and to his wife's counsel a complete itemized breakdown of the costs of the various coverages as to each of the vehicles covered on or before June 10, 1982. The Court being of the opinion that the defendant should be permitted to use the vehicle without making any decision at the present time as to the ownership thereof, or as to whether it is marital property or not, the plaintiff is ordered to do one of two things at his option within fifteen (15) days of this date:

(a) The plaintiff shall apply for and obtain a current registration and deliver the signed registration card and sticker to the defendant to permit the defendant to use the vehicle and shall obtain insurance thereon at least in the minimum amounts required for current registration in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at his own expense, or

(b) He shall assign the title to the vehicle to the defendant and furnish all necessary documents to effectuate such assignment in which case the defendant shall obtain the insurance, registration and other things necessary to legally operate the vehicle, provided that such assignment of title shall not be deemed to affect the ownership of the vehicle and the fact that the title has been assigned to the defendant shall not be considered as of any evidentiary value in the determination as to the ownership of the vehicle or its status as marital property by the Master.

Mike Worley al vs. Ruth Diane Keeton Worley A.D. 1982-128 (Custody)

Dec. 30, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, December 27, 1983, the Court having received an updated report indicating that the above child is still in the care and custody of the mother, Ruth Diane Worley, in Bakersfield, California, and that there appears to be no further evidence that Mrs. Worley's paramour Edward Del Rio is abusing the child, and the Court noting that the Kern County Children and Youth Services of Bakersfield, California, is now aware of the family problems and would have the requisite background information if a further abuve proceeding was instituted in the state of California, the Court hereby terminates Juvenile Court jurisdiction and Children and Youth Services supervision of the above minor child.

The Court notes that this Order does not affect other minor children of Ruth Diane Worley, namely Jason Worley and Michael Worley, who are subject to a custody order of this Court at No. A.D. 1982-128.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED that

1. Primary custody of Kathleen Marie Rubner shall remain with her mother Julianne Clark, formerly Julianne Rubner.

2. The father shall have the right to visit with his daughter as frequently as is reasonably possible for a period of two weeks. Arrangements for these visitations shall be made between the parties and the child's baby sitter, Mrs. Charlotte Jobes and it is contemplated that the visits shall last approximately one hour, and occur three to five times per week at such times as are practical. After this two week "get acquainted" period is over, the father shall have the right to visit with his daughter every Monday and Tuesday from 10a.m. to 6 p.n. He shall pick up the child at 10 a.m. at the residence of the mother's baby sitter, Mrs Charlotte Jobes, and shall return the child to the mother's residence at 6 p.m. He shall have the sole responsibility of picking up and returning the child to the mother's residence.

7. The parties are free to agree to visitation terms which are different from those specified herein but no such change shall be considered permanent unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

8. It is contemplated that in the course of time the maturation of the child and the probable changes in the circumstances of the parties may make it necessary for the parties to renegotiate the terms of this Order. In furtherance of such negotiations, either party may request further mediation at any time.

9. The Custody Master reports that the parties are agreed to the terms of this Order but either party may request a hearing de novo from its terms within ten days of the date hereof. In the event that no paty so requests, this Order shall be considered a permanent Order.

Jan 14, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 13, 1983, after argument as to all pretrial issues before the Court, the following order is entered:

SUR PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS

The preliminary objections of the plaintiff to the defendant's Answer and New Matter are overruled and the plaintiff is given ten (10) days from this date in which to file a responsive reply.

SUR MOTION TO DISQUALIFY COUNSEL

The motion to Disqualify Counsel will be denied provided all additional defendants understand the potential conflict of interest and personally waive any objection on the record. All additional defendants shall be required to be personally present at the pretrial conference hereinafter set and the Court will conduct a colloquy on the record to determine whether or not they are giving an informed consent and waiver as to their representation by plaintiff's counsel. No continuance will be granted in the event counsel is disqualified and the additional defendants will have to be prepared to go to trial with appropriate counsel.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION

Certain Items have been produced pursuant to the request for production and it has been represented to the Court that these items consist of approximately 20,000 documents. Defendant contends that certain documents have not been produced although the plaintiff asserts that it has produced all documents covered by the request for production that are in its possession. Some documents may be in the possession of the trustee in bankruptsy for certain related corporate entities, or in the possession of the defendant by virtue if its having taken over certain assets and real estate of such related entities. In particular, it is alleged that the plaintiff's tax return for 1980, which plaintiff's expert states he has reviewed, has not been submitted. Plaintiff shall produce all items requested by the defendant that are in its possession or are in the possession of any of the additional defendants within ten (10) days of this date. Any items which are not produced shall not be admissible in evidence at the time of trial. If any documents which have been examined by plaintiff's expert witness are not produced under this order, the expert witness will not be permitted to testify at trial. Plaintiff shall furnish within ten (10) days of this date, a properly executed authorization to permit the defendant to obtain from the Internal Revenue Service and the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue any and all tax returns or other documents which have been filed by the plaintiff at any time either with the Internal Revenue Service or the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue. The president of the plaintiff corporation shall individually file at the same time an affidavit setting forth the effort he has made to obtain any documents for production which are not in fact produced. The Motion to Produce filed by the original defendant is not an appropriate document under the discovery rules and is hereby treated as a motion for sanctions for failure to produce. The Answer to the Motion to Produce and the Motion to Strike the Answer to Produce are so fas as we can ascertain unknown to the procedural law of this Commonwealth and will be treated as surplusage.

All records produced in accordance with the request for production shall be returned to the plaintiff on or before January 24, 1983 or within ten (10) days after their production whichever shall last occur.

MOTION FOR SANCTIONS RELATING TO ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES

Paragraph 3 of the Motion: Plaintiff, its officers in their individual capacity, and the additional defendants are required to list all persons who were authorized to sign checks for any of the companies referred to in the interrogatory to the best of their recollection recognizing that the records of some of these companies are not available to either the corporate officers of Pyramid or the individual additional defendants. Representation was made at the time of argument that the only accounts that any of these companies had were with Pennbank, and therefore, Pennbank should have the information on appropriate signature cards or corporate resolutions. The further answer shall also state specifically whether all accounts of all companies to which the interrogatory refers were with Pennbank and if not, the names of all other banks or financial institutions where accounts were maintained.

Paragraph 4 of the Motion? The request for sanctions for failure to appropriately answer Interrogatory 3 is denied.

Paragraph 5 of the Motion: The ruling relating to the Motion to Produce requiring production of all records, the grant of authorization to obtain records from appropriate taxing bodies and the sanctions to be imposed for failure to comply are incorporated herein as the order under paragraph 5 of the Motion for Sanctions and the order is applicable equally to the plaintiff and the additional defendants.

Paragraph 6 of the Motion: The order relating to production of documents contained under the portion of this Order covering the Motion to Produce is incorporated herein by reference

Paragraph 7 of the Motion: The plaintiff will file a full and complete answer as to Interrogatory 21 insofar as it relates to any jobs which the plaintiff contends were lost as a result of the incident upon which this action is based. Plaintiff will not be permitted to offer evidence relating to any losses that it may have suffered by reason of lost contracts other than those to which a response to Interrogatory 21 has been made. The original defendant will make all records presently in its possession available to the plaintiff, or its agents or counsel, at the office of the defendant's counsel at any time during normal business hours or at any other time mutually agreed upon by counsel for the parties, and the answer herein required shall be filed on or before January 31, 1983.

Paragraph 8 of the Motion: It appears that plaintiff supposedly attached a separate sheet as set forth in response to Interrogatory 22, but such sheet is not in fact attached to the Interrogatories. Said sheet shall be submitted to defendant's counsel and the original attached to the Interrogatories on or before January 21, 1983.

Paragraph 9 of the Motion: By reason of earlier rulings, the objection contained in paragraph 9 of the Motion is moot.

Paragraph 10 of the Motion: The allegedly attached information in response to Interrogatories 24, 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30 was not in fact attached to the Answers. A copy of the asserted attachment shall be furnished to defendant's counsel by January 21, 1983 and the original attached to the Answers to Interrogatories.

SUPPLEMENTAL INTERROGATORIES

Answers to the Supplemental Interrogatories will be filed within twenty (20) days of this date.

FURTHER SCHEDULING

Jury trial in this case will commence on February 14, 1983 in Courtroom No. 2 by the selection of a jury and proceeding to trial . Counsel will not be required to be present at the call of the Civil Trial List. A pretrial conference will be held February 7, 1983 at 2:45 P.M. at which time trial counsel, appropriate officers of the corporate parties and all individual parties shall be present. On or before January 31, 1983, each party shall file and serve on opposing counsel a pretrial narrative substantially in the form required by Rule 21, §3(B) of the Rules of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County. Each party shall at the same time file a memorandum of law in support of their position as to the legal issues set forth in the parties' tretrial narrative. Any party wishing to file a response to an opposing party's pretrial narrative can file a supplemental pretrial narrative on or before February 7, 1983, but any such supplemental narrative shall be limited to a response to the opposing party's pretrial narrative. At the pretrial conference, counsel shall submit any proposed questions to be propounded to the jurors during jury selection. On or before February 14, 1983, each party shall submit tentative points for charge. Those points shall be filed with the Court and will not become a part of the permanent record unless requested by the party submitting them at the normal time for submitting points for charge prior to oral argument , Tentative points for charge may be withdrawn or modified by the party submitting them at the close of the testimony.

Feb. 10, 1983 Partial Pre-Trial Memorandum filed: The issue of disqualification of plaintiff's counsel as representing the additional defendant has been laid to rest by the obtaining of separate counsel. That is no longer a factor in this case.

There has been a request made to bifurcate the case as to liability and damages with a single jury trying both. The Court sees some merit in that proposal but since Mr. Trushel has indicated that it was only sprung on him today he does not want to take a position yet, we will give him a few days to think about it. It is entirely possible that we may order the case bifurcated as to liability since we could then rule on the legal sufficiency of the evidence or lack thereof as to liability, including liability for punitive damages without any great hardship to any party.

We will not permit either counsel to make reference to the existence of other cases in front of the jury, but this does not prevent the discussion of the inter-related or allegedly inter-related corporate entities and individuals. If it becomes essential that some reference be made to other litigation, it will be made by the Court.

Nothing herein set forth shall be deemed to prevent the full development of the relationship of the various companies and their financial condition. The plaintiff has made a statement on the record of the manner in which special damages have been calculated in accordance with his pre-trial narrative. Further sanctions will not be imposed because of the untimeliness of the filing of the pre-trial narrative, but the plaintiff will not be permitted to depart from the statement that he has made of record, which the stenographer is requested to transcribe with copies to all parties.

If the figures are not supported by documentary evidence where such evidence is reasonably available, no party will be permitted to make statements to the jury that those documents were previously presented to some other party. We will avoid references to what has or has not been presented to each of the parties in the pre-trial proceedings except where essential to the jury's understanding of the case.

The Court reserves ruling on the request for leave to amend the Answer to plead the statute of limitations as to the defamation case and as to the request for summary judgment.

Mar. 26, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 26, 1982, after a mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, and upon agreement of the parties, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

1. Neither the mother nor the father shall remove the minor children, Shawn Farley and Ryan James Farley, from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without further Order of this Court.

2. The father is excused from paying any support to the mother in accordance with the present support order for a period from February 12, 1982 until March 24, 1982.

3. Legal custody of Shawn Farley and Ryan James Farley shall be shared between the mother, Beverly J. Swope and the father, Raymond A. Farley.

4. Physical custody of Shawn Farley and Ryan James Farley, shall be with the mother, Beverly J. Swope, subject to the following conditions:

A. Physical custody of the two minor children shall be with the mother for a continuous period of seven days, beginning March 24, 1982.

B. The father shall be able to visit and take the two minor children into his physical custody three days every week from and after March 31, 1982. The father shall give the mother at least thirty-six (36) hours notice of the days he intends to exercise visitation. The hours of pick-up shall be 9:30 A.M. on the first day of such three day period and the father shall return the children to the mother no later than 6:00 P.M. on the third day of such three day visitation period. If the father does not intend to exercise visitation for such three day period in any week, he shall notify the mother at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of his intention not to exercise any such period of temporary physical custody.

C. In addition to the aforementioned visitation, father shall have the right to take his minor children into his custody for two non-consecutive two week periods during the summer vacation period, during which time he shall be relieved of his support obligation. By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

July 14, 1982, Copies of Order to William T. Jorden, Esq., and William L. Walker, Esq.

July 23, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 22, 1982, the Court reviews the peculiar legal circumstances of this case at a pretrial conference and notes that many of the facts surrounding this lawsuit will be stipulated to by the parties.

It appears that the Defendant is contending that legal abstracts of his property having been traced back to the 1850's do not disclose how the railroad acquired a right-of-way covering this particular parcel of land in Conneaut Township or how the railroad acquired any of its ostensible right-of-way between Jamestown, Pennsylvania and Albion, Pennsylvania.

It further appears that this railroad land apparently came under control of the Penn Central Corporation through some legal proceedings unclear from the pleadings, and that the Penn Central Corporation is now selling ties, tracks, ballast, and the balance of said right-of-way to various persons or businesses in Crawford County.

It is the thrust of the Defendant's posture in this case that the railroad's original owner cannot substantiate ownership by any written deed, agreement or condemnation proceeding, and that accordingly, when said land was abandoned, it became the property of the adjoining landowners, and that any contracts purporting to sell the aforesaid ballast, et cetera, are of no legal effect and represents a misappropriation of the adjoining property owners' lands.

The possibility of joinder of the Penn Central Corporation as an additional party to this a ction has been discussed. The Court is advised that the Penn Central Corporation has been uncooperative regarding inquiries of Corporate records that would establish by deed, agreement or condemnation their right of fee ownership in this right-of-way.

Accordingly, this case is continued generally, and while said case normally when ripe for trial would be referred to a Board of Arbitrators, the Court believes that it contains such unique legal questions that it should be heard by the Court.

Accordingly, when the pleadings are completed, any discovery completed and the matter is ripe for trial, the Court will set a trial date on motion of any party.

ORDER: AND NOW, this 16 day of April 1984 hearing is set on the foregoing Petition for Psychological/Psychiatric Evaluation for the 24 day of April, 1984, at 3:30 P.M. Apr. 25, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, April 24, 1984, the Plaintiff having petitioned the Court to require a psychological and/or psychiatric evaluation of the defendant in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. 1915.8 and plaintiff's counsel having advised the Court that the plaintiff has arranged for psychological evaluations of the children, both parties are directed to make appointments at the Mental Health Center for psychological evaluation, and in the event it is recommended by the Psychologist for psychiatric evaluation, with reports of such evaluations and the evaluations of the children to be forwarded to the Court as promptly as possible. The cost of such psychological and/or psychiatric evaluations shall in each case be borne by the party having the examination to the extent that it is not covered by insurance, medical assistance or such other source of payment as may be available to the party.

It appears that the defendant has not been afforded any visitation privileges with his children since the most recent separation and has requested some temporary arrangement regarding visitation pending a meeting with the Custody Mediator. We reserve a decision on that issue until the psychological and/or psychiatric reports of all parties are available to the Court, at which time, with a further opportunity to be heard, the Court will make such a determination.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

Nov. 1, 1983 Re: Master's Petition to set Security for Additional Costs and Master's Fees and Order filed:
Order: It appears the parties are anxious that the master proceed with this divorce matter and an amended complaint raises indignities as an additional grounds of divorce. The Court notes that apparently the matter is not ripe for disposition of the divorce on a no-fault basis under 201(c) of the Divorce Code, as the Affidavit of Consent filed by the wife was not filed within thirty (30) days of the date on said Affidavit as required by Divorce Rule 1920.42. Seemingly, the divorce could proceed on a 201(c) basis without the necessity of lengthy testimony of indignities on fault grounds, if the wife were to file a new timely Affidavit of Consent.

In view of the fact we have permitted the defendant wife to proceed as an indigent, by order dated October 26, 1983, and on the assumption that the wife will file a timely new 201 (c) affidavit, the remaining issues are an equitable division of a limited amount of marital property and the question of permanent alimony, ACCORDINGLY, WE DIRECT the plaintiff to post an additional $200 to cover costs and master fees within ten (10) days of the filing of this order without prejudice to the right of the master to make such disposition of costs and attorney fees between the parties as he deems equitable, or to petition for additional fees in the event a protracted litigation.

June 10, 1983 Defendant's Petition to Dismiss Complaint and Order filed: AND NOW, this 10 day of June, 1983, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition a Rule is hereby granted on the Plaintiff to show cause, if any she has, why this action should not be dismissed in its entirely or in the alternative why the plaintiff should not execute a Consent to the divorce or in the alternative permit the Master to resolve the divorce issue by acting upon the fault divorce.

Returnable and for hearing and/or argument on the 1 day of July, 1983 at 10:00 o'clock A.M. or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

June 10, 1983 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Esq. and R. Charles Thomas, Esq.

July 8, 1983 Memorandum filed: The matter is before the Court on defendant's petition to dismiss the Complaint on the theory that plaintiff has indicated she will not file an affidavit under Section 201(c) of the Divorce Code at this time and the defendant's counsel is apprehensive about the further participation in the extensive hearings required by this contested matter. The defense posture, disputed by the plaintiff's attorney, is that what the plaintiff's goal seems to address is to proceed with a full hearing regarding equitable division, permanent alimony, et cetera, and review the Master's recommendation and then determine whether or not to file the affidavit required by Section 201(c) of the Divorce Code, thus according the plaintiff the opportunity to decline to proceed with her divorce action if the recommendations of the Master to not meet with her satisfaction and thus put her in an advantageous barganing position.

The plaintiff contends this is not the intent and that there are numerous further hearings needed in order to complete the record and that she is fearful that if the affidavit is filed now, the defendant will ask for bifurcation of the divorce action and if the Court grants the same before all of the ancillary matters, particularly, equitable distribution, are resolved and if the defendant were to die, it would seriously jeopardize the plaintiff's economic interest in obtaining an adequate division of property.

The defendant responds that he is not interested in bifurcation, only some assurance that at the time the matter is ultimately submitted to the Court by the Master, that all issues, including the 201(c) divorce, will be resolved by the final court decree. Plaintiff's counsel advises the Court that is exactly their goal, and accordingly, the parties acting through their counsel have reached the following disposition and agreement regarding the aforesaid petition to dismiss:

The plaintiff consents through her counsel that when the Master appointed in this case declares the record complete to the Master's satisfaction, that the plaintiff will forthwith file an affidavit required by Section 201(c) and Rule 1920.42 so that all matters raised by the pleadings in this contested divorce action can be resolved by the Master at the time he submits his report and on Court review of the Master's report.

In view of the foregoing, defense counsel advises that it is not his intention to ask for bifurcation of the divorce action when said affidavit is filed.

In view of the foregoing agreement, defendant's petition to dismiss the Complaint, or in the alternative direct the plaintiff to file an affidavit forthwith is dismissed.

Apr. 16, 1984, Master's Petition to Set Additional Security for Costs and Masters fees filed.

Apr. 19, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, April 16, 1984, the issue of whether the Master should conduct and preside at a deposition hearing in Pittsburgh, which will elicit the testimony of a pension plan administrator administering the plac of the Defendant is again before the Court,

It is the contention of the Plaintiff that the matter would be substantially expedited if the Master were to attend the hearing in Pittsburgh. The Master advises the Court he has no particular desire to preside at the deposition taking in Pittsburgh, and after review of the situation with the parties, the Court feels the matter is not substantially different than the taking of a deposition of a witness in any other case. Accordingly, the Court declines to order the Master to preside at the deposition taking of the plan administrator in Pittsburgh when the same is scheduled.

The Master this date also advises the Court that he has conducted two hearings and anticipates further substantial Master fees in this case and petitions the Court this date for additional Master fees. The Court notes that on March 28, 1983, when the Master was appointed, the Court ordered each party to pay $300.00 It appears the Defendant has not paid this $300.00 and is directed to do so on or before May 1, 1984.

In anticipation of the cost of a court reporter and ancillary expenses for the deposition taking and the expense of further hearings before the Master, the Court believes additional compensation should be awarded at this time. The Court declines at this time to schedule a hearing to re-explore the income of the parties, but directs that each party post an additional $400.00 with the Prothonotary on or before June 1, 1984, and the Court directs that the Master may re-allocate and award costs and attorney fees between the parties in a recommended final decree that apportioned said costs in a different manner than the Court by this and previous Order has previously established.

May 7, 1986 Petition for Payment of Master's Fees filed.

May 7, 1986 Re: Petition for Payment of Master's Fees and Order filed: The Master presented a Petition to the Court for payment of Master's fees in this prolonged divorce action, notion that he had spent 33.8 hours in fulfilling his duties.

We fixed Master's fees in this case in the amount of $1,690.00 and note the following: the Master's Report recommended that the Defendant be ordered to pay costs and Master's fees in this case. There some confusion regarding a paragraph in the Master's Petition whereby he seemingly ordered each party to pay further deposits to the Prothonotary to pay Master's fees and costs. We personally contacted the Master and he advised that this sentence in the Petition was an oversight and that he intended, as his Order on Page 18 of the Master's Report indicated, that the Defendant should bear the responsibility for court reporting fees and Master's fees incureed in this divorce.

Accordingly, we note that we previously ordered each party to deposit the sum of $700.00 in this prolonged divorce action and from this initial joint deposit of $1,400.00 the Prothonotary, at the direction of the Master, has paid out for court reporting services the sum of $853.97, thus leaving a balance in the Prothonotary's account of $546.03.

We note that while Exceptions have been filed to the Master's Report that await ultimate court disposition neither party excepted to the Master's recommendation and direction that the Defendant husband pay the total cost of court reporter services and the Master's fees. Thus, we direct that the Defendant husband reimburse the wife Plaintiff in the amount of $700.00, representing her court ordered deposit, and pay the same to her counsel within twenty (20) days of this date.

We direct the Prothonotary to forward forthwith the remaining balance in said account in the amount of $546.03 to the Master, William Jorden, and after subtracting said payment from the Master's fees of $1,690.00, we direct that the defendant pay directly to the Master within twenty (20) dasy of this date the balance of $1,143.97.

The Defendant is cautioned that if he fails to comport with these payment schedules the Court will entertain a Motion from counsel for the Plaintiff and the Master for a contempt citation.

Nov 21, 1988 Upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's Attorney, this case is placed on the argument list.

Nov 21, 1988 Certificate of Service of Exceptions filed.

Dec. 22, 1988, ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 19, 1988, at the time set for argument, counsel for the defendant advises the court that they are withdrawing all exceptions filed to the master's report.

Accordingly, in view of the posture taken by the defendant, counsel for the plaintiff now advises the court that the only issues left for court resolution on the exceptions filed to the master's report are the disallowance of attorney fees to the Wife/Plaintiff and the contention that the master failed to give her appropriate credit or consideration for the equitable interest she had in the real estate at Glenwood Avenue, which was later titled as tenants by the entireties. It is the contention of the wife that this situation did not create a gift, but is a factual matter for the court to consider in making a fair and equitable division of marital assets between the parties. The court takes the matter under advisement.

June 13, 1997 Important Notice and Court Order filed. Out court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 4/19/82 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Feb. 23, 1983 Copies of order to James Irwin, M. Kirkpatrick, and J. Mason, Esq.

Mar. 9, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, March 8, 1983, this matter is before the Court on a complex accounting problem regarding valuations of a tool business, the claimed operating loss in the tool business, the prospective sale of the Hair Fair business and the demand by the plaintiff that she needs sums to employ appraisers to appraise and place a value on the tool business and additional counsel to advise on the tax consequences of any amicable or court ordered settlement.

Commencing with the week of March 7, 1983, the plaintiff will pay as Alimony Pendent Lite the sum of $50.00 per week, and in addition thereto, commencing with the week of March 21, 1983, the plaintiff will pay a total sum of $400.00 to be used to start the necessary appraisals, with said sums to be paid at the rate of $50.00 per week in addition to the Alimony Pendente Lite commencing with the week of March 21st.

It appears that the parties have tentatively arranged for the sale of the Hair Fair business which is currently titled in the defendant/wife but which the parties agree is still jointly owned for the purposes of equitable division of the net proceeds received from the sale. The Court is advised by the wife's counsel that they anticipate a net equity of approximately $5,000.00, one-half of which will belong to the husband. The Court authorizes the wife to retain and account for the net equity and anything over and above one-half of said amount may be retained by her to apply toward continuing Alimony Pendente Lite or additional appraisal fees of the Court so orders after further hearing.

Time for filing defendant's inventory previously ordered by the Court Order to be done by March 10, 1983 is extended to April 10, 1983.

May 3, 1982 Affidavit of Service of Complaint in Divorce filed: DAVID P. TRUAX, ESQ., being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that on April 27, 1982 he sent a true and correct copy of the Complaint in Divorce and Notice to Defend and Claim Rights filed in the above action to the Defendant, Richard A. June 1, 1982, Affidavit of Service of Notice of Hearing filed.

June 14, 1982, Income and Expense Statement filed. (of Plaintiff)

June 18, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 18, 1982, after reviewing the complexities of this situation, it appears that the Plaintiff for a number of years has been under the care of the Mental Health facilities, and there are some bills run up as a result of her travel expense, illness, and hospital bills. The parties this date cannot agree on a settlement of a $468.00 hospital bill from City Hospital and an unpaid joint phone bill in the amount of $316.84, and a resolution of the joint phone bill in the amount of $316.84, and a resolution of the joint ownership of a 1977 automobile.

The plaintiff as apparently without sufficient assets to meet these obligations, and the Defendant refuses to pay one-half (½) of the phone bill or her interest in the automobile, because he alleges his Social Security income in the amount of $569.00 is only adequate to maintain his living expenses, plus the support for an eighteen (18) year old son recently graduated from high school.

The Court being unable to resolve these issues, the Court DIRECTS that the County pay all costs in the divorce action.

The Defendant is again advised as counsel for the Plaintiff has advised, that he is in need of the services of an attorney to adequately represent him in this divorce action. He is advised to apply to Legal Services, and if they are unable to accept him, they will refer him to the Services to the Public Committee of the Crawford County Bar Association, who will provide him counsel on such terms as they deem appropriate in view of his income.

The Court at this time denies the request for alimony pendente lite, without prejudice to reconsider the matter when both parties are represented by counsel or when further facts are presented to the Court in a further hearing.

May 25, 1982, Appearance of Northwestern Legal Services, by Gladys O. Collazo, attorneys for defendant filed.

May 28, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, May 28, 1982, after a mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

1. Legal custody of Richard Thomas Castile shall be shared between the mother and the father. By this it is meant that both parents shall have a right to participate in major decisions affecting the best interests of the child, including but not limited to, medical, religious and educational decisions.

2. Physical custody of Richard Thomas Castile shall be with his father, Scott Thomas Swavey, subject to the following conditions:

A. The mother shall be entitled to visit the child and take the child into her custody every Wednesday, from 12:00 Noon to 3:00 P.M. The mother shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of the father.

B. The mother shall have a right to take the child into her custody every other weekend, beginning with Friday, May 28, 1982, from 7:00 P.M. Friday evening to 7:00 P.M., Sunday evening, both prevailing local times. The mother shall be responsible for picking up and return the child to the father.

C. Holidays, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows: Holidays shall be Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas. The father shall have custody of the child on July 4, 1982 and Christmas Day of 1982. The mother shall have custody of the child on Thanksgiving Day of 1982 and Easter Sunday of 1983. Thereafter, if this order has not been previously changed, the parties shall alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner.

D. On holidays when the mother has custody, the father shall have the right to have the child with him on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. and on holidays when the father has custody, the mother shall have the right to have the child with her on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. prevailing local times.

The mother shall have custody of the child on the child's birthday, 1982, and the father shall custody of the child on the child's birthday, 1982 and thereafter the parties shall alternate having custody of the child on birthdays in the same manner, if this order has not been previously changed.

It is understood that the mother shall mainly carry out the weekend visitations with the child at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Castile and neither the father nor the mother shall put the child in a harmful environment or take the child to a place that is unsatisfactory for a child of this age.

G. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

H. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent but on the contrary, shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

I. The mother shall notify the father at least Twenty-four hours in advance of any cancellation of any of the above set forth visitations and in the event the mother is one hour or more late for any visitations, the father may presume such visitation to be cancelled.

J. This order supersedes a prior order of this Court at AD 1981-156.

This order shall be a temporary order, but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed by either party within Sixty (60) days of the date hereof.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $105.00 shall be paid as follows: The father shall pay $75.00 and the mother shall pay $30.00.

June 15, 1982, Appearance of MacDonald,Illig, Jones & Britton, by Roger H. Taft, Esq., for defendant Travelers Insurance Company filed.

May 18, 1983, Petition For Approval Of Settlement Of Claim For NO-Fault Basic Loss Benefits Under 40 P.S. Section 1009.101, Et. Seq. filed.

May 18, 1983, Findings Of Fact filed. AND NOW, this 18th day of May, 1983, pursuant to Section 106(b)(1) of the Pennsylvania No-Fault Vehicle Insurance Act, 40 P.S. 1009.101 et. seq., the Court makes the following findings of fact: 1. Petitioner Karen Marie Irwin, a minor, age 17 years, was severely and permanently injured as the result of an automobile accident which occurred on October 26, 1977. 2. Petitioner LaRayne Irwin is the parent and natural guardian of the said Karen Marie Irwin. 3. At the time of said accident the said minor, Karen Marie Irwin, was not identified by name as an insured, nor was she otherwise covered under any contract of basic restoration insurance under the Pennsylvania No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act. 4. The Travelers Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as "Travelers") is the appropriate servicing carrier under the Pennsylvania Assigned Claims Plan, pursuant to Section 108 of the Pennsylvania No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act. 5. The said minor Karen Marie Irwin, has instituted a Complaint in Assumpsit against Travelers at the above number and term, asserting a claim for work loss benefits, attorneys fees, record costs, and various medical expenses. 6. In order to compromise the aforesaid claim, Travelers has agreed to pay to said minor the sum of $15,000.00, including attorney's fees in the amount of $1,500.00. 7. In order to compromise said claim, the Petitioner has agreed to waive any right which she may have to receive 18 percent interest per annum on the above amount, and further, to waive any right which she may have under the Pennsylvania No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act to receive attorney's fees in excess of said amount hereby paid. 8. In order to compromise said claim, the Petitioner has further agreed to withdraw Count II of her Complaint, with prejudice, with the understanding that she does not waive the right to make due application to Travelers, pursuant to the Pennsylvania Assigned Claims Plan, for payment of any medical bills, personal or vocational rehabilitation bills, or other expenses related to the accident of October 26, 1977, unless such bills have been paid by or will in the future be paid by collateral insurance, governmental sources, or other collateral sources without any obligation upon the minor Petitioner, her parents or natural guardians to reimburse the same following reasonalbe efforts by Petitioner to present those claims to such collateral sources for payment and that she does not waive the right to make due application to Travelers to "double dip" with respect to medical bills and/or personal or vocational rehabilitation bills and expenses incurred after the date of court approval of the Petitioner if a court holds that a claimant is entitled to "double dip" under 40 P.S. 1009.108 (a) (3), subject to limitations of the Pennsylvania No- Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act. 9. The Court has been advised by Roger H. Taft, Esquire, Attorney for Travelers, that if this litigation were to proceed to trial, Travelers would raise various defenses to the claim as set forth in Exhibit B of the Petition. 10. There is a question as to whether Petitioner would be entitled to make a full recovery for all of the amounts claimed in this case in light of the defenses raised by Travelers. 11. Travelers has agreed to pay $15,000.00 including attorneys' fees in the amount of $1,500.00, plus record costs, in full and complete settlement of this case; provided, however, that Petitioner may in the future make due application to Travelers, pursuant to the Pennsylvania Assigned Claims Plan, for payment of any medical bills, personal or vocational rehabilitation bills, or other expenses related to the accident of October 26, 1977, unless such bills have been paid by or will in the future be paid by collateral insurance, governmental sources, or other collateral sources, without any obligation upon the minor Petitioner, her parents or natural guardians to reimburse the same following reasonable efforts by Petitioner to present these claims to such collateral sources for payment, and further provided, however, that Petitoner does not waive the right to seek to "double dip" with respect to medical bill amd/or personal or vocational rehabilitation bills and expenses incurred after the date of court approval of the Petiton if a court holds that a claimant is entitled to "double dip" under 40 P.S. 1009.108(a)(3), subject to limitations of the Pennsylvania No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act. 12, Petitioner understands the terms of the proposed settlement. 13. Counsel for Petitioner has stated in his professional opinion that the proposed settlement is in the best interest of the Petitioner. 14. Petitioner has stated under oath that the settlement is in her best interest. 15. An attorney's fee in the amount of $1,500.00 for services rendered in connection with this litigation

June 28, 1982, Motion For Date To Set Hearing, and Order filed. ORDER OF COURT: And now, June 28, 1982, hearing on the request for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs is set for July 22, 1982, at 9:30 A.M. June 28, 1982, Copies of order to Attys. Stephen Toole and R. Charles Thomas.

July 23, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 22, 1982, after review of the income and expense statement filed by the Defendant and a review of the income and general expenses of the Plaintiff in an informal hearing, the Court reviews the income and expenses generally claimed by the parties and believes that award of alimony pendente lite is appropriate for a limited period of time.

Accordingly, the Plaintiff shall be required to pay to the Defendant the sum of $200.00 per month commencing with the month of July with said sum to be paid on or before July 31, 1982, and for three (3) months thereafter if the divorce action is still in the process of contested litigation.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right to petition for continuance of alimony pendente lite if the matter has not been resolved between the parties.

As far as counsel fees are concerned, the Plaintiff will be required to pay the sum of $300.00 to counsel for the Defendant to cover the initial counsel fees involved in preparing the pleadings, negotiating toward a settlement and generally counseling the Defendant.

In the event of protracted litigation, the Court reserves the right to increase said fees or in the alternatives to permit the master appointed to resolve the matter to make a recommendation for the allocation of attorney fees of both parties. The attorney fees do not include any expenses of appraisals, accountants or expert fees, which amy be set on petition in the event said expenses are necessary, and the Court reserves the right to enter a separate Order covering these particular expenses or to direct the master appointed in the case to pay these expenses from the total assets of the parties allocating these expenses between the parties in such proportion as the master deems appropriate.

Oct. 6, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, October 5, 1982, after hearing, the Court finds the plaintiff has failed to meet her burden of proof in convincing the Court that the defendant violated the Order of June 11, 1982 by entering their jointly-owned home without permission and wilfully and deliberately destroying approximately #1300.00 worth of her clothing. ACCORDINGLY, the contempt petition which was limited to this sole issue is dismissed and the defendant is found not in contempt of court because of this single act. The photographic exhibits admitted in this case are returned to the custody of the plaintiff, with the understanding that in the event of an appeal from the Court decision in this case, they will either be copies or returned for the purposes of completing the record.

(Sections 304 & 305)

June 24, 1982, Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, June 24, 1982, a Petition requesting examination and outpatient commitment having been presented to the Court, and the Court noting from the Mental Health Administrator that Gerald M. Brooks has recently filed a petition against his wife, Jeanne Brooks, which was dismissed without hearing, and this Court noting that Gerald M. Brooks is a member of the medical profession and it would be unwise for members of the staff at the City Hospital Mental Health Center to conduct such examination, it is hereby ordered and directed that that Mental Health Administrator make arrangements for special examination by a psychiatrist not connected with the local Mental Health Center. In the event no recommendation for treatment or commitment is made by the examining psychiatrist, the matter will be dismissed. In the event a recommendation is made, the matter will be referred to the Mental Health Review Officer.

Brooks at a future time after a hearing on the domestic issues between the parties has been explored in order to accord the Court an opportunity to ascertain if examination is needed.

2. Defendant Nazzaro's suggestion that the case be bifurcated as to liability and damages is DENIED.

3. Plaintiff has subpoenaed certain financial records of the defendant Nazzaro by subpoena duces tecum. All subpoenaed items will be brought to court, with the exception of the defendant Nazzaro's appointment books for October and December of 1980. Those items which are subpoenaed especially for the purpose of determining the amount of punitive damages, if punitive damages are to be awarded will be retained by the defendant, but available at the Courthouse until plaintiff has concluded its case as to liability, at which time, the Court will initially rule on whether the subject of punitive damages is to be submitted to the jury and it it is to be submitted, plaintiff will be given an opportunity to explore these additional records. The Court will rule on the use of those records in such a manner as to permit the necessary facts to get to the jury, but preserve the anonymity of the doctor's patients.

4. No limitation on expert witnesses as they now exist will be placed, but no additional expert witnesses who have not been revealed at this point will be utilized except that the deposition of one Dr. Susann will be taken at a future date.

5. The parties have agreed that Plaintiff's exhibits #1 through #49, with the exception noted below, are admissable without further authentication, reserving the right of any party to object at the time they are offered on the basis of materiality or relevance. The admissibility Exhibit #26, a peritoneal lavage kit and instructions, is reserved until the time of trial and testimony has been heard as to its authenticity in this case. Plaintiff's Exhibits #3, #4, #5, and #6, which as listed on the pre-trial narrative, uses the words"Titusville Hospital x-rays," is amended to make it clear that this reference is to the original x-rays which apparently are not available, but the plaintiff is given the opportunity to subpoena those ex-rays to extablish their unavailability if, in fact, they are not produced. Plaintiff's Exhibits #50 through #59 relate to punitive damages and a ruling on their admissibility will follow the ruling on the submission of punitive damages to the jury. Exhibit #59 is the doctor's appointment book for the month of November, and is not necessarily related to punitive damages, but may be utilized in connection with the general liability case.

6. Trial will commence with the selection of a jury on October 21, 1985, at 9:30 a.m. and will continue until concluded. Every Effort will be made to permit the completion of the testimony of Dr. Levinsohne on the 21st even if it means running a little longer than usual. Court will recess on October 22 somewhat earlier than usual to afford the parties the opportunity to take a videotape deposition of Dr. Susann.

7. It appears that June R. Dahle has remarried since the death of the 1 plaintiff's decedent and is now known as June Dahle Miles. The fact of her remarriage will not be indicated to the jury in any way and she will be referred to throughout the trial by all counsel or any other person having reason to make such reference as Mrs. Dahle.

8. As to peremptory challanges, plaintiff will be permitted four and each defendant permitted four and the request of plaintiff for eight peremptory challenges is DENIED. Two alternates jurors will be selected. Five additional names will be drawn from the panel for that purpose and each party will have a peremptory challenge as to one.

9. Any counsel who intends to ask questions of prospective jurors on voir dire will submit a copy of the intended questions to the Court on or before October 16, 1985.

10. Let the record reflect that defendant's motion for severence was filed directly with the Court and the original will be stamped as filed with the Prothonotary, but that the actual filing was with a letter of enclosure of October 4, 1985, which presumably reached on the 7th.

Dec. 15, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, December 10, 1986, at the time scheduled for a hearing on alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs, after examining the official file and the docket entries, it appears that although the Defendant prepared and signed an answer and counterclaim on or about July 28, 1983, and also apparently served a copy upon the plaintiff since Plaintiff's counsel has a copy in his file, the document was not, in fact, ever filed with the Prothonotary presumably through an oversight.

If we treat the document as filed timely, then almost three and a half years has elapsed without the filing of an inventory and appraisement or an income and expense statement by either party.

It also appears that a previous hearing requesting hearing o na request for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs that was scheduled in August of 1983 was canceled by the Defendant by agreement and the Defendant's counsel has represented that that was done becuase she was then employed and the Plaintiff in fact, paid a portion of counsel fees in accordance with an agreement between then counsel for the parties. The Defendant's circumstances have changed at the t hime in that she has discontinued the employment she had then in order to further her education.

In the opinion of the Court, this case should be moved off dead center and not permitted to gather dust any longer since it was commenced over five years ago and the parties have been separated for six years and the court sees no complexities in the case that should require that period at this time.

Both parties shall file inventory and appraisements and income and expense statements as required by the rules on or before January 10, 1987. If the Plaintiff intends to proceed withthis divorce, he shall also file his affidavit of consent at that time. If the Defendnat is desirous after the filing of those documents to renew her request for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs she may do so but will be required to file an affidavit of consent to the divorce prior to doing so.

It has been indicated that the only two major assets of property to be equitably distributed will be the marital residence and the Plaintiff's pension plan as a professor at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. The Defendant is requesting substantial funds for the employment of an expert to evaluate the pension and the Court doubts that such an expert's opinion is necessary. The Plaintiff's counsel has indicated that he has an evaluation by an accountant that was prepared approximately two years ago and he shallfurnish a copy of that to Plaintiff's counsel forthwith.

If at the time of the Master's Hearing the Plaintiff intends to offer some further expert opinion other than the type of calculation that can be made by counsel through the utilization of appropriate tables, he shallgive notice at least 30 days in advance of the Master's Hearing of that fact and if such expert is to be offered, we will reconsider the question of allowing some expense in connection with an expert evaluation on behalf of the Defendant.

Mar. 11, 1987 Motion for appointment Of Master In Divorce and Memorandum filed. The defendant has filed a motion for appointment of a Master in divorce. From an examination oft he record, it would appear that such an appointment would be inappropriate. The defendant has aked that the dissolution of the marriage and issues as to alimony, distribution of property, counsel fees, costs and expenses be referred tothe Master. The Complaint in Divorce in this action alleges no fault grounds, but assets simply a request for dissolution of the marriage under 201(c) and contains a count for custody and visitation. 201(c) divorces need not be presented to a Master, and custody and visitation cannot be referred to a Master. We note that in an order of December 10, 1986, the Court made reference to the defendant's Answer and Counterclaim that had allegedly been filed. However, the record was clear that no such Answer and Counterclaim had ever been filed although the plaintiff acknowledged a copy of it in his files. It may well be that the other issues which defendant wishes to have referred to the Master are raised in that document, but since the defendant has still not chosen to officially file any answer or counterclaim, the Court cannot take cognizance of it. We also note that althourgh the defendant has filed an Affidavit of Consent, the plaintiff has not, although in the order of December 10, 1986, the plaintiff was advised that if he intended to proceed with the divorce, he should file such affidavi tof consent by January 10, 1987. In any event, before we refer the matter to a Master, there must either be a pleading of fault grounds, or a pleading of a 201(D) divorce which it would appear might be applicable under the fats, or the plaintiff must file his affidavit under 201(c). Further, there must be some pleading to support the other requests of relief. The motion for appointment of a Master is, therefore, denied.

Oct. 23, 1987, Motion to Pay Court Reporter's Fee and To Set Fee of Master filed.

Oct. 23, 1987,RE: MOTION TO PAY COURT REPORTER"S FEE AND TO SET FEE OF MASTER: ORDER: The Master has made a long complex report in this difficult equitable distribution divorce case and the plaintiff has filed exceptions to the Master's Report and recommended final decree. These Exceptions, of course, will have to be argued and ruled upon and either side could then pursue the matter further in the appellate court system. The immediate problem is to set the Master's fee, pay the court reporter hired to attend the hearings and have the court allocate these costs between the parties.

The Master has submitted a bill incurred by thecourt reporter in the amount of $425.00 and files his time record of approximately 36 hours spent on this complex matter and notes that he would normally charge $60.00 per hour, but believes that in view of the peculiar circumstances of the parties in this case that hewould be satisfied with a payment at a $40.00 per hour rate sc ale. We commend the leniency of the Master in this regard and accordingly set the Master's fee at the sum of $1,440.00.

As with too many divorce cases the initial deposit by the parties is far too little to cover court reporter and master's fees, and we see no reason why the MaSTER Should await the eventual outcome ofthe case to secure his fee.

Accordingly, we note the following: court reporter fee and Master's fee of $424.00 and $1,440.00 total $1,864.00. This court believes that in view of the circumstances of this case as reflected in the lengthly Master's report, ea ch party should share these costs equally. Ac cordingly, each party's share if $932.00. The Plaintiff has already advanced $500.00 as his share of this expense and accordingly owes a balance of $432.00. The Defendant was required to advance $100.00 and accordingly owes a balance of $832.00. There is ow on deposit with the Prothonotary, as noted aforesaid, the sum of $600.00.

In reviewing the Master's Report we note the plaintiff is currently earning substantial income while the defendatn wife is earning bare minimum income. This court is not interested in making its Masters suffer through an installment payment plan arranged at theconvenience of both parties. Accordingly, we will direct that the husband plaintiff pay to the Prothonotary his share of these fees $432.00), plus his wife's share ($832.00), for a total of $1,264.00 within twenty (20) days of the filing of this order. It appears obvious tothe court that upon ultimate resolution ofthis issue there will be a substantial cash payment from husband plaintiff to wife defendant. Accordingly, upon ultimate resolution ofthe amount determined to be payable to the wife, there shall be deducted from said payment the sum of $832.00, representing the wife's share of court reporter's and Master's fees which the court this day orders paid by the husband.

With respect to the $600.00 now on deposit with the Prothonotary, the Prothonotary is directed forthwith to pay the bill for court reporting services to Lois Conklin in the amount of $424.00, and the balance of $176.00 shall be paid forthwith to the Master in this case.

ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE

6. On November 2, 1987, counsel for defendant wife requested alimony pendente lite. COUNSEL FEES

7. The Master thoroughly reviewed the request of the defendant wife for counsel fees and, except for sums already received, denied further counsel fees. We adopt the Master's recommendation in this regard, but note that post hearing proceedings and ultimate execution of this Decree have and will entail additional counsel fees onthe part of the defendant.

We award counsel fee's to the defendant in the amount of $1,000.00 in addition to any amounts previously paid bythe Plaintiff. Said sum shall be paid within 30 days ofthe filing of this Final Decree.

May 9, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, May 5, 1983, after hearing, counsel for the defendant, James H. Accordingly, this hearing is continued until May 24, 1983 at 10:00 a.m., for the production of witness Grace Huston.

It appears she will recite a lengthy list of her personal observations of Betty Jo Chapman using or abusing drugs and that she has reduced her proposed testimony or a substantial porton of it to writing.

In view of the fact that she is coming from the State of Kansas and in order not to require her to return for rebuttal of her testimony by other witnesses, we require counsel for James Chapman to furnish counsel for Betty JonChapman the written report in her hands from witness Huston covering the nature of her testimony in order that any rebutting witnesses may be available on May 24, 1983,

In the meantime, in view of the fact the father is here for this hearing, we will accord the father visits on May 6th and May 7th before he leaves to return to the State of Kansas.

Accordingly, by agreement of the parties, the mother or someone on her behalf will deliver the child to the Police Station at 4:00 p.m. in Conneautville, Pennsylvania on Friday, May 6th and the father or someone on his behalf will up the ahild and return the child to the Police Station promptly at 9:00 on said date. Likewise, the same arrangement will be made for visitation of the child with the father between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 7th.

At the time of pick up and delivery, there will be no words of animosity or unkindness of the parties and no one will do anything to place the child in a position of confusion or disrespect for either parent.

Visitations with grandmother Grace A. Keyser are reserved and will be determined after final hearing.

May 24, 1983, Motion to Dismiss case for lack of jurisdiction and order filed. ORDER OF COURT: And now, 5/24/83, after hearing - motion denied.
P. R. Thomas, J.
May 31, 1983, copies of order to attys. Irwin, Johnson, Gregg & Mellon.

May 31, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, May 24, 1983, after a full review hearing, the Court believes it is in the best interest of the thirty-five month old child Jamie Jo Chapman at this time to award custody of the child to the mother Betty Jo Chapman but extended visitation rights of a lengthy period should be established for the father James H. Chapman who resides in Spearville, Kansas.

In view of the tender age of the child, the Order this date entered will have to be modified as the child enters public schools at age five or six and if the same cannot be modified by agreement of the parties, a further hearing will be necessary .

In the year 1983, the father shall have the child during the month of August and the month of December. In 1984, and yearly thereafter, the father will have the child for a period two consecutive months sometime between February and July, with said months to be at the father's choice. In 1984, the father shall have the child during the month of November. In 1985, and thereafter, the same two-month visits with father between February and July will apply. The father will alternate the months of November and December yearly so that each parent will have the child for the month of December in alternate years.

The father shall give the mother at least six weeks notice of the two months in 1984 and years thereafter that he wishes the child in his custody.

In view of the fact the Court finds that the father wilfully and deliberately violated a Court Order previously entered requiring him to return the child to the mother, before the two-month and one-month visits accorded herein are effective, the father shall post with the Prothonotary of Crawford County a cash bond or corporate surety bond in the sum of $3,000.00 for each said extended visit. The cash sum or surety obligation will be returned or cancelled upon return of the child to the mother by a motion directed to the Court and signed by the mother of the child acknowledging that the child has been returned.

In addition, the father shall be accorded no lengthy or short-term visits with the child unless and until there is produced to the attorney for the mother a certified court record of the discontinuance of a portion of a divorce action dealing with custody filed in Lake County, Indiana, at No. 382-528.

For the August visit of 1983 and the two-month visits in 1984, and thereafter, it shall be the responsibility of the father or a responsible person acting on his behalf to pick up and return the child to the custody of the mother.

For the alternating November and December visits, it shall be the responsibility of the mother or appropriate responsible persons acting on her behalf to deliver the child to the father and make arrangements for the child's return.

During the time the child is in the custody of the father for extended visits in the State of Kansas, the mother shall have the opportunity to visit the child for a period of not less than three days in each calendar month the child is in the father's custody and to have the child in her possession during said visits. She may not remove the child from the State of Kansas during said visits. It shall be the obligation of the mother to advise the father of the three days for each month visit at least one week in advance so the father can make the necessary arrangements for said visits. During the month of December when the father has custody, the mother may not schedule said visits to cover the days of December 24th, 25th or 26th.

Likewise, the father shall have the right to visit the child while the child is in the custody of the mother in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania three days in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania three days in each calendar month and may remove the child from the home of the mother to any suitable place, but may not remove the child from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during said visits and may not schedule said visits on December 24th or 25th. The father shall give the mother at least one week's notice of his intention to exercise the three-day visit. The aforesaid bond requirement shall not be applicable to these three-day visits.

Each party shall furnish their current telephone number to the other and notify each other within twenty-four hours of any change of address or change in telephon number.

While the child is in the custody of each parent, the other parent at their expense may telephone the child not more often than once per week and the custodial parent will cooperate in scheduling the telephone calss so the child will be present. Said calls shall last for a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed twenty minutes.

The Court recognizes that the aforesaid visitation schedule will become impractical when the child attains school age and unless the parties can agree on modification, the matter will have to be reheard by the Court.

It shall be a condition of the award of custody of this child to the mother that the mother will not resort to the use of illegal drugs or substances of any kind during the term of this Order and the Court accepts as a condition of this Order that her admitted proclivity for excessive drug use is a thing of the past and she will not return to the use of illegal drugs. This condition applies whether the child is in her custody or on periodic visitations with the father.

If apparent cannot pick up the child on the first calendar day of the month for the mandated visit, said parent will give one week's notice of the exact date of the pickup and unless the surrendering parent consents to an extension of the stay, the return day will still remain the last calendar day of the month.

The Court believes the child's best interest lies in developing a close association with both sets of grandparents, and accordingly, visits with the grandparents Fish are left to the discretion of the mother. Visits with grandmother

July 28, 1983 Affidavit filed. I, Joan D. Mason, do hereby certify that I have served by regular mail, on Attorney William Gregg, as set forth in the Order of May 24, 1983 in the above captioned matter, a copy of the attached document, being a copy of a court order entered by Judge Danikolas in the Superior Court of Lake County, Indiana, indicating that a related action between the parties hereto has been dismissed. A copy of said Order and of the certification by the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county, has been served by regular mail on Attorney William Gregg, and on Betty Jo Chapamn, placed in the mails July 27, 1983

Joan D. Mason, Attorney for Defendant

July 28, 1983 Affidavit of Service filed. I, Joan D. Mason, do hereby certify that I have on July 27, 1983 sent by regular mail to both Attorney William Gregg and to Betty Jo Chapman, Petitioner in the above captioned matter, a copy of the Petition to Declare Plaintiff in Contempt, and to Modify Custody Order, which was filed with the court July 18, 1983. Additionally, I do certify that by correspondence to Attorney William Gregg dated July 12, 1983, I indicated to him that I would present such a petition or motion to the court on July 18, 1983.

Joan D. Mason, Attorney for Defendant

Aug. 9, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, August 8, 1983, the matter is back before the Court on a contempt petition attempting to assert telephone rights between father and child accorded on Page 3 of the Court's Order of May 24, 1983. It appears that shortly after said hearing, the telephone number furnished by the mother was disconnected through no fault of hers, and that she currently does not have the finances to re-establish telephone service in her home. The father desires weekly telephone contact with his child, and the Court believes said contact is beneficial. It appears that on the third weekend of every month the Court by separate Order accorded visitation rights to paternal grandmother, Grace A. Keyser, and in addition, accorded her an additional five (5) hour visit during the first or second week with the child. The Court believes that these two visits with the grandmother would be appropriate times for the father to have telephone conversations with his child, and accordingly, suggests that the calls be made on the third weekend and on the other day selected by the grandmother for said visits, and urges father and Mrs. Keyser to work out some method by which those dates can be ascertained so that he may place a call during those visits.
The other two telephone calls will be on the second and fourth Sunday to the residence of mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish, 587-6021, and the father may call his child on the second and fourth Sundays of each and every month commencing with the month of August, 1983, between the hours of 1:00 and 2:00 P.M. at the aforesaid number. Child will be made available at said time for telephone calls, and neither grandparent will attempt to argue with the father or prevent a reasonable telephone conversation between father and child.
In the event the mother Betty Jo Chapman re-establishes a telephone in her residence, she shall promptly notify the father and furnish a number.
The Court refuees to adjudicate the mother in contempt, but in the event the Court finds in the future that she has not cooperated fully in attempting to carry out this amended Order regarding telephone visits between father and child, the Court will reconsider the matter.
The Court notes that at any time the child is with the father, telephone calls to the child in accord with the above Order would be moot and is not applicable.

Shared legal custody and physical custody of Andrew Platt and Andrea Platt is awarded to Michael B. Platt and Janie M. Platt. Insofar as physical custody is concerned, in accordance with Section 7 of the Custody and Visitation Act, the parties shall submit to the Court a plan of physical custody to implement this Order. Said plan to be submitted to the Court on or beforeJune 25, 1982. Such plan should provide for maximum contact between each parent and the children during their waking hours and should take into consideration the fact that the older boy will be attending kindergarten, the work schedules of both of the parents and all other relevant matters.

Pending the submission of said plan, the temporary visitation schedule recommended by the custody mediator shall continue in full force and effect and in accordance therewith, and the three (3) days per week during which the father shall have the children shall be Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 10:00 o'clock A.M. to 5:00 P.M. pending the submission of said plan.

AND NOW, August 6, 1982, after further hearing, it appearing that the parties have not agreed upon a shared physical custody plan in accordance with the Court Order of June 7, 1982, they are referred to the Crawford County Mental Health Center for family counseling to attempt to resolve their differences concerning shared physical custody and agree upon a plan for such shared physical custody. Contact shall be made immediately and both parties shall participate fully in such counseling. The cost of such counseling shall be borne equally by the parties.

In the event a custody agreement has not been worked out within thirty (30) days of this date, Court requests that the counselor report to the Court as to the progress being made and the prognosis for further progress.

Pending further order of court, the temporary visitation schedule established by the Order of June 7, 1982 is continued, but amended so that effective Aug. 30, 1982 weekday visits shall commence at 12:00 noon instead of 10:00 A.M.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, Judge

Oct. 6, 1982 Copies of order to Atty. B. Johnson and J. Mason.

Nov. 1, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1982, petition to adjudicate the Respondent in contempt of court is continued at this time, because we are reluctant to adjudicate her in contempt when the Petitioner did not initiate any contact, at least after the first week or ten days following the illness of the children, to attempt to work out ongoing visitation.

The case is continued so that we can, if necessary hold a further hearing and make such an adjudication.

Having received the report of Doctor Joseph Appollo, which would seem to indicate that possiblilty of an ultimate agreement between the parties regarding custody and visitation, at least at this point in time is not likely, we will enter an appropriate Order concerning such matters.

Pending the entry of a permanent Order, the Order of June 7, 1982 as amended by the Order of August 6, 1982, is continued in full force and effect, and we will expect the parties to comply with it to the letter.

This Order is effective at 12:00 o'clock Noon on Friday, October 29, 1982, which would be the first regular visitation afforded, and the first weekend visitation shall be the weekend of October 30 and 31st.

a type of equitable distribution of property to the prejudice of the plaintiff.

The Court notes that a master was originally appointed in this case but petitioned the Court for removal since neither party was willing to sign and file an affidavit of consent acknowledging that the marriage was irretrievably broken. It is obvious from argument of counsel that there has been ongoing negotiations between the parties and the stumbling block is the defendant's insistance on what the plaintiff describes as an inordinate share of her business interest. The Court has concluded that since it is the policy of one or both parties in this particular case not to bifurcate the action and since there is no prospect of either party moving from their present posture, the Court can visualize that this case may die on the vine and the parties may remain married for an indeterminate period of time in the future while they battle over property division.

Accordingly, the Court believes it is unwise at this time to accord one side or the other any advantage in the negotiating process by meeting the request of the defendant contained in this petition.

Accordingly, the petition for special relief is denied in this case.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J

June 22, 1983, Copies of order to Joseph Kulwicki and Samuel Orr and Alan L. Pepicelli.

July 7, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, July 5, 1983, upon the petition to modify the Court Order, the Court reviews the situation and takes sworn testimony from the mother, and accordingly, Paragraph 3 of a previous order entered July 19, 1982 is modified as follows:

1. During the summer six-week vacation periods and at any other time the parents have the children in their custody, they may remove the children from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of visits or vacation or recreational purposes, and insofar as Paragraph 1 of the March 26, 1982 Order is concerned, said paragraph is modified to that extent. Either parent may take the children out of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but only in the event the removal from Pennsylvania is for the purpose of changing their residence or for any purpose outside the Orders heretofore entered by this Court, must they secure the consent of the opposite parent or if said is refused, the Court.

2. The Court visualizes that out-of state visits are appropriate for the above purposes and any time either parent is to take the children out of state for visitation or recreational purposes during their regular visitation periods, they shall notify the opposite party if they are to be out of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for a period of longer than 48 hours.

3. This hearing addresses the specific proposed visit of the mother of the children with her husband in the state of Georgia between the periods of July 15 to August 27 and the mother under oath assures the Court that regardless of the wishes of her husband, she intends to return the children to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on or about August 27th for the purpose of enrolling them in school and that she does not and will not change the residence of the children during the proposed summer visit.

4. The Mother advises the Court the father shall have the right to contact the children in writing or by telephone at such reasonable times as he deems appropriate while they are on their summer visitation schedule and likewise, the mother shall have a similar right to make said contact during the father's six-week vacation period with the children.

5. There is some possibility that during the summer stay in Georgia, the mother's husband's occupation will take him to the State of Texas or elsewhere, and in the event it does and the mother and children move to the State of Texas or elsewhere with her second husband, they shall notify the father of the address and telephone number at which they may be reached in Texas or elsewhere.

Jodi A. O'Laughlin

July 23, 1982 Custody Order filed: This troublesome, hotly contested custody case involving the parties' two minor childrem, aged four and two years, leads this Court to the conslusion that the parties themselves are best able to resolve their dispute once this Court finds that shared custody is in order.

We so find and in so finding do not intent to condone or encourage the mother's indiscretions with other men and any shared custody should, at least for the immediate future, preclude open or secretive rendezvous with members of the opposite sex that would occur in the presence of the children or under circumstances arousing their curiosity.

We are convinced that both parents should share frequest custody and contact with the children and having so found, will accept the invitation of the Legislature contained in Section 7 of the Act (1981 - 115 (23 P.S. 1007)).[1]

1."The court, in its discretion, may require the parents to submit to the court a plan for the implementation of any custody order made pursuant to the provisions of this act. Upon the request of either party or the court, the local domestic Relations Office or other party or agency approved by the court shall assist in the formulation and implementation of the plan."

We refer this matter back to the parties for the reason that these parents, if they act in the best interest of these small children, are for more capable of arranging shared custody and visitations,than this Court. Each knows the others concerns, stringths, weaknesses and goals far better than this Court. While the father's immediate plans seem relatively stabilized in the teaching profession, the mother's living arrangements, permanent residence, occupation and future education plans are uncertain at this time. In all likelihood the best possible shared custody plan at this time will only be temporary in nature as the future plans of the parents change as they recover from the shock of their traumatic separation.

Accordingly, we find it is in the best interests of these children that the parents share their physical custody and accord liberal visitation to the noncustodial parent. (See Section 5, 23 P.S. 1005.)

In accord with the aforesaid Sections 7 of the Act, we will require the parents to submit to the Court a plan for the implementation of this Court's Order for shared custody. In the event the parties fail to agree upon a shared custody plan within a reasonable time the Court will enter such shared custody order as it deems appropriate, considering among other factors, as commanded to do so in Section 4(23 P.S. 1004), "which parent is more likely to encourage, permit and allow frequent and and continuing contact including physical access between the noncustodial parent and the children."

ORDER

AND NOW, July 22, 1982, the Court awards each parent custody of the children on a shared basis and directs the parents, within fifteen days, to submit for Court approval a mutually satisfactory plan for shared custody and visitation.

The parties shall continue compliance with the temporary order entered June 16, 1982, until further order.

July 27, 1982 Exhibits filed with papers.

Aug. 30, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 30, 1982, the Court has scheduled a conference with counsel in an attempt to implement its Order of July 22, 1982. It appears that the communication directed to counsel for the mother was not received by her counsel and that no counter proposal by the mother was forwarded to this Court within the prescribed 15 day period.

It further appears that the minor child is to be enrolled in kindergarten on August 3, and that neither side can agree on a shared custody order. The Court is interested in seeing the oldest child enroll in kendergarten on time and the Court belives a temporary amendment without prejudice to either party is in order. Accordingly, papagraph 1 a, b and c of the Temporary Order entered June 16, 1982, is amended as follows:

The mother shall have custody of the two minor children from Friday at 3:30 P.M. every week until Monday at 7:30 A.M. each week and it shall be the responsibility of the father to deliver the children to the mother and pick them up at 7:30 Monday morning each week.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the rights of the parties to negotiate a further consent order and in the event no consent order can be established, the Court hereby sets a further hearing on this matter for September 30, 1982, at 2:00 P.,M

Apr. 17, 1991 Order filed. AND NOW, April 15, 1991 after hearing at which both parties are represented by experienced and well-qualified counse, the Court is satisfied that there has bee presented to the Court through a chambers conference with both children and the testimony of both parents all of the requisite factual background for the Court to make a decision regarding these two children, ages 13 and 11.

After consideration of all of the evidence, the court believes that there should be joint custody of both children with each parent, but the primary physical custody of minor child Ryan should be with the father and primary physical custody of minor child Meghan should be with the mother. In view of the fact that the children are both in school in Crawford County at this time, the split custody arrangement will not take effect until one week following the last day either of the children are in school.

The Court desires that there be weekend bisits so that both of the children are in the home of the same parent on at least one or more weekends per month. Additionally, the Court velieves both children should be with ea ch parent for extended periods of time during the summer vacation period. Likewise, the major holidalys of Christmas and Easter should be arranged so that each parent shares meaningful time with both children.

The Court lacks the time at the conclusion of this hearing to explore the ramification sof all the aforesaid with the parties and their counsel, and directs that they make an attempt to formaulize a supplemental order patterned largely around the format used in the temporary order originally entered December 18, 1990 so that both chidlren and parents can be accommodated in developing a close relationship and assocation with each parent. I fthe parties cannot amicably resolve these ancillary issues by May 20, 1991 either par ty may request a further hearing on the sharing of h olidays, weekend visits and major periods of exclusive custody of both children during the summer school vacation period.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

July 27, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, July 26, 1982, after hearing, it is obvious that the defendant, KAREN M. COSTANZO, is in contempt of former Court Orders, the first entered June 14, 1982, preventing her from removing the child from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania until final determination of this matter, and the second Order entered July 2, 1982, requiring her to surrender custody of the child to her former husband on July 2, 1982.

After hearing, it is obvious the Defendant has fled the jurisdiction of this Court with the child with the purpose and intent of evading the recommendations of the Custody Mediator and the Orders of this Court. Accordingly, she is found in contempt, and the Court hereby DIRECTS any duly authorized law enforcement officer to take her into custody and hold her for transportation before this Court for a full contempt hearing.

The custody of the minor child is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff, KIM RAY CURTIS, subject to further hearings defining the extent of said custody.

The Court notes that this day counsel for Karen M. Costanzo has filed with the Court a motion to withdraw his appearance for the reason that he does not know the whereabouts of his client and is unwilling to continue representation. The request is granted with the Court noting, however, that the attorney is an officer of the Court and in the event he hears from Karen M. Costanzo or any person speaking on her behalf, he shall reduce the sum and substance of said conversation to writing and forward the original to the Court within twenty-four (24) hours and a copy to counsel for the Plaintiff.

This date the Plaintiff presents an Order to schedule a hearing to determine full custody of the child, and the Court takes this petition under advisement, noting that no hearing can be set until custody is secured of the child or the mother, and accordingly, when the matter is ripe for a hearing, counsel may advise the Court and a full custody hearing will be set.

July 15, 1983 Petition For Reimbursement Of Costs Incurred and Other Remedies and Order filed. AND NOW, this 15 day of July, 1983 upon presentation and consideration of the Petition for Reimbursement of Costs Incurred, a hearing on said matter is set for the 18 day of July, 1983, at 9:30 o'clock A.M., in Courtroom 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania, PER CURIAM,

July 15, 1983 Copies of order to Joan Mason and Lisa Pepicelli Youngs.

July 19, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, July 18, 1983, the matter is before the Court for petition for reimbursement of costs incurred by the father in recovery of the of the child in the State of Nevada. The matter is also before the Court on a petition by the mother to re-establish partial custody and visitation rights. Also before the Court is a matter of Court disposition of a finding of contempt of court by Court Order entered July 26, 1982.
The matter is complicated by the fact that a criminal charge is pending against the mother resulting from her absconding with the child in violation of Court Order, and that matter is scheduled for the September term of court. In this regard, counsel is reluctant to permit the mother to fully answer under oath all questions asked on direct and cross examination, lest it might jeapordize her right to a fair trial in criminal court or require her to incriminate herself with testimony that could be used against her in the criminal charges.
Accordingly, the Court deems it inadvisable at this time to attempt to carry out a full and complete hearing with a full exploration of all of the facts necessary for the Court to make an intelligent dicision on the mother's petition to resecure custody and visitation rights. Accordingly, the petition for partial custody and visitation is continued generally, subject to the hereinafter dictated special order for visitation.
The matters regarding contempt of court and the father's request for reimbursement of costs to resecure the child are continued generally for later disposition by the Court.
The Court having interviewed the child, finds that visitations with the mother on a supervised basis would be appopriate, but procedures must be taken to assure that the child is not again removed from jurisdiction of the Court or custody of the father by the mother, herself, or others acting on her behalf.
Accordingly, the Court accords the following limited visitation schedule without prejudice to the right of the Court to expand the same after ultimate disposition of the criminal charges at the September term of court:
The mother shall be accorded one (1) visit between the 18th and the 29th of July; two (2) visits during the month of August, except on any Saturday or Sunday; and one (1) visit between September 1st and September 9th, which shall not occur on September 3rd, 4th or 5th.
The mother shall give ten (10) days advance notice of her selection of days for visit, and the visit shall be carried our under the following circumstances:
1. The Court solicits the aid of Child Welfare Services in supervising these visits for the following reasons: A. There is pending litigation in which the testimony of the child, both as to custody and in the criminal case may be critical, and the Court does not want the mother or anyone acting on her behalf to attempt to influence, change or color the child's testimony or her recollection of facts. B. The father and the Court are concerned that the mother, having absconding with the child contrary to Court Order in the past, will again do the same, and the Court must have a representative of the Court present to assure the child is not removed from this jurisdiction or the visitation site by the mother. C. The parties are unable to agree on an appropriate visitation site, and the Court is advised that the visitation room at Child Welfare Services has been flooded and is unavailable for use. The Court leaves to the discretion of Child Welfare Services caseworker appointed by the supervisor to supervise visits the choice of an appropriate location and may use such facilities as the caseworker deems appropriate to carry out a mother/daughter visit. D. The visit shall be for a period of two (2) hours on each occasion and at the termination of the visit, the Child Welfare caseworker shall return the child to the custody of the father at such location as has previously been determined. E. Court DIRECTS taht the mother pay for the services of the Child Welfare caseworker at each visit, and the Child Welfare caseworker will be paid at the normal hourly rate at which the caseworker is employed by the County, and upon receipt of the same, by the caseworker, the same shall be surrendered to the County as reimbursement. F. During daid visits, the mother only shall be present and her former husband, Joseph Costanzo, will not be present during the visit. G. Again the Court DIRECTS the mother may not attempt to influence the child regarding what testimony she will give in the upcoming custody case or the criminal case, and the mother specifically DIRECTED not to attempt to remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court or from the meeting place for any purpose.
Mother may contact the child by telephone at a reasonable time at least once per week and may write to the child on a periodic basis, and the letters will be promptly delivered to the child.
Regarding influencing the child, the Court also DIRECTS that the father and stepmother will not influence the child in the upcoming aforesaid cases in this matter.

Sept. 29, 1983 Exhibits filed with papers.

Oct. 6, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, September 29, 1983, the Court finds after hearing that the defendant, Karen Curtis, also known as Karen Costanzo, was in willful and deliberate violation of an Order of this Court which required her not to remove the child from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pending final determination in a child custody action and that she is in further contempt of Court because she knew of the recommendations that the mediation officer was going to make and willfully and deliberately removed the child from the jurisdiction of the Court to thwart such a recommended Order or a Court Order resulting therefrom.

The Court declines at this time to incarcerate as punishment or to enter a substantial fine view of the meager income of the defendant but will enter a subsequent Order directing that she reimburse the father of the child for reasonable expenses incurred in returning the child to the custody of the father and litigating this matter.

In addition, the Court will enter a subsequent Order according the mother limited visitation rights on the condition that she post a $2000.00 bond for each visit, to be returned at the end of said visit and with the provision that after approximately three (3) months, the matter will be reviewed toward the possibility of extending visits to the mother. Oct. 6, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, September 29, 1983, after hearing, the petition for contempt filed August 19, 1983 requesting the defendant be adjudged in contempt of Court because she spoke to the child attempting to persuade her to return to the mother is dismissed as the Court is not satisfied that the weight of credible evidence indicates a willful and deliberate attempt by the mother during the visits with the child to change the child's mind or persuade her to plea for return to the mother. Oct. 11, 1983 copies of order to Attys. Joan Mason, Pepicelli, Alan and Lisa Youngs.

Oct. 12, 1983 Supplemental Order filed: AND NOW, October 3, 1983, the Court having previously held the defendant, Karen M. Curtis, in contempt for her willful and deliberate act in removing the child from the jurisdiction of the Court contrary to Court order, the Court hereby amplifies said Order as follows:

The Court finds the father Kim Ray Curtis entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in pursuing his former wife and child to the State of Nevada and taking the necessary legal steps to return them to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to pursue the matter in court leading to a contempt finding against the mother. Accordingly, we award the father the following expenses:

Attorney's fees	$1,400.00
Airline expenses	1,545.00

We find that the wife's travel expenses while not being absolutely essential to the return of the child are a justifiable expense under the peculiar circumstances of the case, but instead of awarding full fare for the wife of $821.00, we have allowed one-half of the wife's airline flight fare in establishing the above amount.

Registration of Pennsylvania Decree in Nevada	$ 66.00
Car Rental - Nevada	63.77
Mileage - Meadville to Cleveland and return	40.00
Telephon expense	78.00
Net loss of father's wages	550.00
Total	$3,742.77

The aforesaid sum shall be paid to father's attorney as follows: One-third thereof on or before November 1, 1983; another third on or before December 1, 1983 and the balance on or before January 1, 1984.

Custody Order

The Court having previously awarded custody of the minor child, Carrie, to the father, hereby reconfirms said Order, but will allow visitation with the mother on a limited scale for the immediate future.

Visitation Order

In the month of October, November and December, the mother shall have the right to visit with the child and have the child in her custody for a period of not less than six (6) hours with the days to be arranged by the father and mother of said child so as not to interfere with the child's regular school hours. Additionally, in the month of December, the mother shall have the right to have the child in her custody for a similar six hour period either December 24 or December 26, with the date to be selected by the father.

This Court, being apprehensive that the mother may again abscond with the child, establishes as a condition of the mother's visits that at the time she picks up the child she must leave with the father or his wife, the sum of $2,000.00 in cash, or a bank money order, or cashiers' check payable to cash, which money or check will be returned to the mother at the time she returns the child.

As a further condition of the visitation, the mother may not remove the child from Crawford County during said visits, nor may she be accompanied by Mr. Costanzo during said visits.

The matter regarding payment of the sums due and the visitation schedule will be reviewed by the Court January 6, 1984, at 1:30 P.M. to ascertain what progress has been made in re-establishing a mother-daughter relationship and whether additional visitation or brief custodial visits are appropriate under all the circumstances.

Oct. 19, 1983 Motion For Reconsideration and Order filed. AND NOW, this 19 day of October, 1983, pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Appellate Procedure 1701 (b) (3), the Motion of Karen M. Costanzo a/k/a Karen M. Curtis for reconsideration of the Order of September 29, and October 3, 1983 is hereby granted. Argument on said Motion will be heard on Oct. 28, 1983, at 3:30 o'clock P.M., in Courtroom No. 1, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, PA. BY THE COURT,

Oct. 31, 1983 Transcript Of Proceedings Taken At Time Of Contempt Hearing filed.

Nov. 1, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1983, argument is held on the motion for reconsideration. It is the defendants's theory that the Court erred in making a final custody award of the minor child as part of the contempt proceeding. On reconsideration, the Court agrees that a final custody Order should probably not have been made at the time in view of the fact that the thrust of the most recent contempt hearing dealt largely with the contempt issue and did not cover with the specificity required by the Appellate Court an in-depth analysis of the living conditions, parenting skills, et cetera, of the respective parents. ACCORDINGLY, the Order heretofore ented on October 3, 1983, supplementing the Order of September 29, 1983 shall be amended so that the custody award to the father shall be classified as a temporary custody Order and either party may move the Court for a further hearing to determine full or shared custody of the child. Upon receipt of said motion, a further hearing will be scheduled.

With regard to the visitation Order, the Court clarified that for the months of October and November, the total visitation period was for a total of six hours and left it to the parents of the child to arrange said visits so as not to interfere with the child's regular school hours. In view of the fact the Court did not know the working hours of the mother, it acticipated said visits would be on Saturday or Sunday and if the parties cannot mutually agree, the visits for the month of November shall be on the first and third Sunday for three hours each between the hours of 12:00 Noon and 3:00 P.M., unless the parties mutually agree on other hours.

For futher clarification, it was the Court's intent that there be two six-hour visitation periods in the month of December with one of said six-hour periods either to occur December 24th or December 26th so the child would have the opportunity to be in the custody of the mother for a period of six hours at least the day before or the day after Christmas, but that she would spend Christmas with her father.

The matter of attorney fees is argued and the Court declines thechange its award.

So far as the security of $2,000.00 required for each visitation, the Order is amended so that the mother may present a bank money order or bank cashiers check payable either to cash or to the Prothonotary of Crawford County to the Curtises at the time she picks up the child.

All other requests for reconsideration are denied.

Nov. 15,1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, November 14,1983, the review hearing in the above captioned matter heretofore set for January 6, 1984, is hereby reset for January 13, 1984, at 3:00 P.M.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Nov. 15,1983, Copies of order to Attys. Joan Mason, and A. Pepicelli.

Jan 13, 1984 Notice of Change of Hearing/Argument date filed. Scheduled for January, 17, 1984 at 1:30 P.M. Tuesday.

Jan. 19, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, January 17, 1984, at the time set for review hearing, the plaintiff appears but the defendant fails to appear. Counsel advised the Court that he mailed her a notice of the changed date for the review hearing with said mailing on or about January 12, 9984, but he has received no response from his client. At this time the Court requests him to call his client and counsel for the defendant advises the Court he attempted to lacate her at work and was advised she was working but was on a break and was not available.

It further appears that the mother has failed to take advantage of the visitation orders accorded her by previous orders and has not paid the required reimbursement to the attorney for the plaintiff. It appears the only visit was a postponed visit agreed upon by the parents to be hild November 12, 1983 but when the mother arrived to pick up the child she stayed in the car contending she did not wish to get her boots muddy by walking to the house. The child, Carrie, became upset and words were exchanged betwwen the parents as a result of which the mother left the scene after a few minutes and has failed to keep any other visits since said date accorded to her by the Court order.

The Court is advised that the conduct of the mother has had an adverse affect on the child and while testimony was not heard this it is postulated by the father that the child has become increasingly disillusioned with her mother and that further visits between the mother and child would have an upsetting affect on the child.

The Court believes that before further visits, it should be established the burden should be on the mother to petition this Court for a renewal of visitiation privileges with her child and to give the Court a satisfactory explanation for failing to take advantage of the visitations accorded by previous orders.

Accordingly, the Court declines to accord the mother any further visits and unless the mother petitione the Court by March 1, 1984 requesting further visits and giving a satisfactory explanation as to why she failed to avail herself of the visits accorded by the prior orders, the Court will assume that she has abandoned her interest in sucuring periodic visits and/or partial custody of the child.

In view of the difficulty in locating the mother in the past, the Court requests that the mother advise the Court and counsel for the father of any change of address within forty-eight (48) hours of said change. In this regard, the Court, is not certain of the mother's current address in the Jamestown, New York area and in view of the fact this address was elicited in prior hearings the Court does not consider it privileged and directs counsel for the defendant to supply counsel for the plaintiff the address at which he corresponds with his client in Jamestown, New York.

The Court directs a copy of this order be served by Certified Mail upon the defendant by her counsel.

Sept. 15, 1982, Motion For Sanctions and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 14 day of Sept. 1982, after hearing in open court Defendant's request to have the Plaintiff, above named, held in contempt of court is hereby granted and the following relief is ordered: hearing Sept. 23, 1982 at 4:00 P.M. before undersigned. Visits cancelled until after hearing.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 15, 1982, Copies of Order to William L. Walker, and James M. Herb, Esq.

Sept. 27, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, September 23, 1982, at the time set for hearing, defendant and Plaintiff parents advise the Court they are anxious to work out the matter amicably and have made some tentative arrangements to secure counseling under the supervision of social worker Cheryl Ross known to both parties in Pittsburgh. The parties agree that the child at this time for reasons undetermined by judicial finding has an unwillingness to visit with the father and both parents are anxious to get the child into such counseling and social services as will further a normal parent/child relationship between the father and the child. ACCORDINGLY, the parties agree that for a least six (6) sessions with Cheryl Ross or another appropriate caseworker to be held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, father and child will meet under the guidance of the social worker and take such instructions and such advise as the caseworker deems appropriate to restore a friendly father/child relationship between father and child. The mother will cooperate and may attend such sessions or if requested by the caseworker, will remove herself from such sessions.

Very broad discretion is accorded the Court to the social workers handling this case to shorten or extend the times of the visitation that father and child are together with the ultimate goal of the parties and the Court that there may be re-established visitations between father and daughter Roberta so that the father may pick up the child for weekend visits without the child creating a tantrum or a fuss because of the distance that must be traveled between Pittsburgh and the child's home for said visits.

Unless the parties agree otherwise, consultations with the caseworker should commence the week of September 26th and should be held approximately every two weeks, with the Court seeing an immediate goal of about six consulting periods to evaluate the situation and ascertain whether there should be inhome visits between father and child on a limited basis and then the possibility of further expansion into overnight visits.

The mother agrees to cooperate in getting the child to Pittsburgh and the Court leaves to the parties an appropriate date and time for the scheduling of said meetings with the social worker.

At the end of the six-week period, if the parties cannot agree to a course of conduct to follow after the six sessions with the social worker, either party may petition the Court for further hearing and each party waives any confidentiality and agrees that the reports of the social workers may be submitted to the Court for study and evaluation in the event of further hearing.

In regard to the minor son Michael who, in reality, is not a subject of the original petition filed in this case, the parties mutually agree that when the mother takes the daughter Roberta to Pittsburgh, she will also bring Michael and Michael may stay overnight with his father for a visit of one to three days and the father shall have the responsibility of returning Michael to his home at the time the mother designates.

In regard to the motion for sanctions, it is now the desire of the father to withdraw said motion in that he is not requesting the Court to punish the mother in any fashion for the reluctance of the daughter Roberta, to be delivered into his custody in accordance with the previous Court Order entered September 1, 1982. ACCORDINGLY, the motion for sanctions is considered dismissed, but the Court warns both parties that he expects full cooperation in the agreement that they have made informally between themselves today which is evidenced by this Court Order.

The defendant is now represented by special-appointed counsel by the Crawford County Bar Association, Mr. Alan Pepicelli, and also by Legal Services of Crawford County represented by Gladys Collazo.

The Court anticipates there probably will be no need for further serious litigation in this matter and relieves Mr. Pepicelli from serving as counsel but requests Legal Services to make themselves available in the event it is necessary for the Court to hold a hearing on disputed matters in this case.

By agreement of the parties, the father may have the child in his custody the weekend commencing Friday, September 24, 1982 from 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. In view of the aforesaid agreement that it would be more convenient for the mother to bring Michael with her to Pittsburgh for periodic visits, the Court believes future visits with Michael should be carried out on these agreed dates rather than specifying a specific time for visits with his minor child, but they should be approximately every two weeks.

Oct. 6, 1982, ORDER - RE: PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF, COUNSEL FEES AND EXPENSES - filed. AND NOW, October 4, 1982, at the time set for hearing, the Court reviews the issue presented through counsel and no testimony is taken. It appears the thrust of the Defendant/Wife's request is that they have offered to stipulate to the value of personal property constituting marital property by haning an agreed appraiser place a valuation thereon.

The Defendant's contention is that if this procedure is not followed, it will take an inordinate amount of the Master's time and transcription of testimony for the Master to reach his valuation of the marital personal property.

The Plaintiff/Husband refuses to stipulate, contending that he will "sink or swim" with his vaulations as being accurate and fair, and with this posture, defense counsel request the Court order the Plaintiff to pay the sum of $320.00 as the estimated cost of proving valuations at the Master's hearing.

The Court rejects this request, noting that the Master in his final recommendation can allocate Master's fees and court costs, including transcript fees, in such manner as is equitable, and that in the event the posture taken by the plaintiff in refusing to establish valuations by a cheaper method was unreasonable under all the circumstances, the Master could accordingly allocate a higher percentage of Master's fees and hearing costs to the recalcitrant party.

Accordingly, the petition for special relief along these lines is denied for the reasons noted above, without prejudice to the right of counsel for the defendant to call this Order to the attention of the Master at the appropriate time.

RE: CONTEMPT PETITION

In regard to the contempt petition, the Court notes a previous Order by another Judge awarding fees in the amount of $250.00 in two (2) payments, and it is agreed that one-half of said sum is paid, by the Plaintiff's next pay day is not until Oct. 6th, and accordingly, with Plaintiff's offer to pay the additional $125.00 on or before 5:00 P.M. Oct. 7, 1982, the Court refuses to hold the Plaintiff in contempt for failing to comply with the previous Order for counsel fees.

AD 1982 - 483

April 18, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 17, 1985, a Petition requesting an adjudication that the defendant is in contempt for failure to comply with the existing Order relating to custody and visitation having been filed and a hearing date set for this time and the parents being in court and it appearing that further, the defendant has filed a petition on Feb. 5, 1985 to modify the existing custody and visitation Order and that petition was referred to William Pineo as Custody Mediator and a custody mediation meeting has been held but the Mediator has indicated that he would await the outcome of the contempt hearing before filing his recommendations, and it further appearing that in all probability, the Custody Mediator's recommendation may result in a request for a further hearing de novo before the Court, and it would be best to hear these matters together, the hearing on the petition to adjudicate the defendant in contempt is continued, to be rescheduled either at the time of any hearing de novo that may be fixed following the custody Mediator's recommendation or separately if no request for hearing de novo is filed following the filing of the Custody Mediator's recommendation and it is further ordered that upon the Custody Mediator's recommendation being filed, the Court will sign the temporary Order with the understanding that it will remain suspended for a period of thirty (30) days and if a request for hearing de novo is made, will remain suspended until hearing and final order on the request for modification. Both parties are cautioned that they must strictly and absolutely comply with each and every provision of the existing Order, that there is a provision in the law that that parent should be favored in custody matters who is most likely to make the children available to the other parent and to encourage contact between the children and the other parent and the Court will take that matter into consideration and will certainly take into consideration any continued violation of the current Order.

Custody of the children shall be returned to the plaintiff by the defendant not later than 5:00 p.m. this date, and thereafter, the existing Order relating to custody and visitation shall be in full force and effect.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Mar 21, 1989 Copies of order to Attys. Pickens and White and Pineo.

May 23, 1989 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, this 23rd day of May, 1989, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

The weekend and alternate holiday visitations schedule set out in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4, of the Order of August 9, 19888 shall continue until the close of the children's school session in the summer of 1989. Following the close of the school session, the father shall be entitled to a two-week visitation period with both of his children. Accordingly, the mother shall inform the father of the exact date of the intended move as soon as she knows, and the children shall return to their father's residence onthe day preceding the move. 8. The mother will investigate the school and neighborhood situation at her new place of residence and introduce the children to her environment during their visits with her.

2. The mother shall have physical custody of said children except for the provisions which are set out below.

3. The father shall have the right of visitation with his daughter, Lesley every Sunday. The first Sunday visitation shall begin at 10 A.M. and end at 8:30 P.M. and visitation for the second Sunday shall begin at 12:30 P.M. and end at 8:30 P.M. The beginning times for the following visitations shall alternate each Sunday. Transportation shall be provided by the father and the mother shall have Lesley ready for visitation at the stated times so that the contact between the parties may be minimized.

4. Starting with the weekend of March 12th, the father shall have the right of visitation with his daughter, Lesley, every weekend, except for the first weekend of each month, from Saturday at 10 A.M. through Sunday at 8:30 P.M. He shall be responsible for picking up and delivering Lesley at her mother's house.

5. The father shall have the right of visitation with his daughter, Diana for two Sunday Afternoons each month as he shall select except that no visitation will occur before February 27th and the Sundays shall not be consecutive. He shall give his daughter one week's notice of his intent to visit her and she shall hve the right to bring along a friend if she chooses. All visitation shall be exercised in a public place. The father shall be responsible for picking up and delivering Diana at her mother's place of residence.

6. The father and Diana shall make provision to undergo counseling by the Mental Health Center or by other suitable counselors as they shall choose, with a view toward developing an understanding of each others' feelings in this matter. All parties shall cooperate as the counselors may recommend.

7. The Master has noted for the Court that the daughters have been brought up in the Protestant Christian faith and both parties are directed to see that the daughters are provided with the opportunity to practice the tenets and participate in the celebrations of their faith.

8. The Master has noted for the Court that the depth of feeling particularly between the oldest daughter, Diana, and her father run deep and that accounts for the somewhat unusual visitation schedules set out in this Order. The Court hopes and anticipates as a result of counseling and of the earnest desire of all concerned that the situation will improve and that more extensive visitations between Diana and her father will be in order, and that a review of these arrangements may be necessary before the end of the school year. If that is the case, either party may request further mediation directly of the Custody Master.

9. Each party shall encourage Diana and Lesley to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a partent from his or her children and each party shall take care not to do or say anything which would tend to blacken the other in the estimation of the daughters.

10. The Master has noted for the Court that the father enjoys a reasonable income and the mother is presently on Public Assistance. Costs and fees of this mediation, which are allowed in the sum of $155.14 are therefore assessed to the father as costs in this case.

Mar. 8, 1983, Reply to Plaintiff's Petition for Custody filed.

Mar. 28, 1983 Exceptions to Child Custody Mediator's Temporary Order and Order filed: AND NOW, this 28 day of March, 1983, upon consideration of the request for hearing by the Court entered in the above captioned case, a custody hearing is schedules in Courtroom 1 or 2 on the 21st day of April, 1983 at 9:30 o'clock A.M.

Robert L. Walker, J.

Mar. 28, 1983 Copies of order to Harry White, Esq. and John Spataro, Esq.

Apr. 22, 1983 AND NOW, April 21, 1983, at the time this matter is set for review and exceptions to the temporary Order entered by this Court February 14, 1983, the Court explores the posture of the parties with the parties themselves and counsel for both sides, and has an extended conference in chambers with oldest daughter Diana. It is the opinion of the Court that the temporary order is the best that can be divised at this time, with the Court noting that the proposed counseling with a professional family counselor involving father and daughter Diana has not materialized.

Accordingly, the Court directs the father to contact the Mental Health Center, particularly Doctor Anderson, and attempt to set definitive dates for counseling individually and together between father and daughter in an attempt to heal the obvious bitterness that daughter feels towards father. In the event the counselor requests cooperation from the mother, she will give full cooperation from the mother, she will give full cooperation and attend any counseling sessions or give any information requested by the counselor regarding the relationship between parent and children.

The arrangements for two Sunday visits per month with father will continue, and the Court directs daughter Diana to be fully cooperative in carrying out these visits under the terms and conditions of the temporary order.

The Court notes this date it has advised the parties that over the summer months when the younger child Leslie is not in school, that additional visitation time with the father would probably be in order and requests the parents to work cooperatively toward this end.

It is the hope of the Court that counseling would ameliorate the bitterness felt by the daughter Diana toward her father, and if this matter can be brought under control, the Court urges the parents to explore the possibility of further extended visits over the summer months between father and daughter Diana.

By agreement of the parties, the transportation arrangements previously prescribed for daughter Diana in Paragraph Three are modified to the effect that father will advise the mother where he wishes to meet with his daughter Diana, and she will arrange to produce the daughter at the location at the time requested, and the father shall be responsible for returning the daughter to her home.

Apr. 26, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 25, 1983, Plaintiff's request for postponement of the hearing before the Master is denied. The Master has full authority to continue or adjourn hearings if the interests of justice require and in the event at the close of the plaintiff's case at the Master's Hearing, the Master determines that it is essential to adjourn the hearing to a later date to permit additional witnesses to be called on behalf of the defendant, the Master has the full authority to take such action.

May 2, 1983 Notice of Continuance of Master's Hearing filed.

May 10, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, May 6, 19833 the matter is reviewed informally by counsel and presents a complex and difficult financial situation complicated by the fact that the $5,000.00 equity anticipated from sale of the Hair-Fair business noted in the Order of March 8, 1983, did not materialize and the wife is not receiving any spendable money from the sale of the property.

The Court notes since the last hearing, there has been a Court Order of support entered in the amount of $150.00 through the Domestic Relations Section which the wife is receiving, which was not in existence at the date of March 8th Order.

The Court believes the matter should be brought to finalization as rapidly as possible, and accordingly, alimony pendente lite in the amount of $50.00 per week previously ordered shall be continued for the months of May, June, July and August and thereafter, terminated unless extended by further Order of Court.

The Master appointed in this case is directed to schedule a Master's hearing within sixty (60) days of this date.

The Court approves and directs the payment of additional appraisal fees to counsel for the defendant in the amount of $400.00 and additional counsel fees to defendant's counsel of $100.00.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Master to allocate total reasonable appraisal fees and attorney fees among the parties as the Master deems appropriate in her final recommendation to the Court.

The Court notes this day that there is produced by the husband in court an income tax refund check in the amount of $770.00, which the husband this date endorses and passes to the wife and with the consent of the parties, there will be credited against the aforesaid $400.00 appraisal fees due the sum of $385.00 representing the husband's share of the refund check.

There remains then the sum of $15.00 due on appraisal fees and $100.00 due on counsel fees.
