In the event there is a conflict among the parents overe the seven day period in question, then the fahter shall have the requested period in odd numbered years and the mother shall have the reqeusted period in even numbered years. For 1998, the father shall be entitled to take the children into his exclusive care and custody from July 8, 1998 through July 13, 1998.

b. Thanksgiving; The Thanksgiving holiday shall be defined as beginning at 10 AM on Thanksgiving Day and concluding at 8 PM. For 1998 and all even numbered years thereafter the mother shall have the Thanksgiving period, while the fahter shall enjoy this same period of time with the children during odd numbered years.

c. Christmas: the mother shall be entitled to take the children into her care and custody every Christmas Day from 1 PM until 8 PM.

d. The children shall seprd Father's Day with their father from 10 AM to 6 PM and Mother's day with their mother during the same hours.

f. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this order relating to custody.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this order or as previously arranged the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the partie s shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties, the mother shall be responsible for transportation of the children. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of PA.

7. Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8. Neither parent shall use illegal drugs at any time when that parent has the care and custody of the subject minor children.

9. Neither party shall do or say anythirg to blacken the character of the other in the estimation of the children, Eaed party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful matter when in the presence of the children and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise.

10. The parties are free to make additonal or alternative arrangements respecting the custocia l and visitation periods and are encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11. Each paretn shall inform the other parent immediately of any serious illness or injury regardign the children and both parents shall furnish the other with a current address and telephone number. If the children sustaining minor injury or illness, it is sufficient that the parent notif the other parent of the same when there is no exchange of custody of the children.

12. Neither parent shall expose the children to any person or situation which may be harmful to the health, safety or well-being of the children.

13. Eitehr party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

14. The parties are reminded of their obligation to complete the seminar for separating parents as required by Crawford County Civil Rule 1930, if they have not already done so. In the event the parties have not completed the course within 30 days of the date of this Order, they shall be subject to snactions permitted by the foregoing rule, which sanctions may include a finding of contempt fines and possible incarceration

15. Costs and fees of this Mediation which are fixed at $180.00 ($60.00/hr x 3 hrs and the $9.00 Court order filing fee are to be paid by the father. The dpeosit paid by the father shall apply to the cost and fees of this case, with the balance of $11.00 be refunded to him.

16. Either party may move the Court for a hearing denovo within 20 days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves this Order shall be considered permanent.

April 4, 1997, ORDER filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

Properly completed 3301(c) consents have not been filed of record. Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42. Defendant has not filed Affidavit of Consent.

Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42(d) 1 no notice of intention to request entry of a divorce decree under 3301(c) as required effective Jan. 1, 1996, has been filed and there has not been a waiver of that notice pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42(e).

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

BY THE COURT,
Dated: April 3, 1997 Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

April 4, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW April 4, 1997, we note that on April 3, 1997, after review of this matter, we declined to enter a divorce decree because the record presented to us did not show an Affidavit of Consent having been filed by the defendant nor did it show the Required Notice of Intention to REquest a Divorce Decree.

We have now been supplied with facsimile copies of an Affidavit of Consent signed by the defendant on January 26, 1997 and accepted in the Prothonotary's Office for filing on Feb. 10, 1997, and likewise we have received a facsimile copy of a Waiver of Notice of Intention to Request Entry of a Divorce Decree with similar dating and filing date.

The Prothonotary is directed to make the facsimile copies a copy of the record, together with this Order, and we will enter a Divorce Decree this day.

DIVORCE DECREE FILED

April 26, 1999, 1. Divorce: Upon consideration of the pleadings and affidavits filed in the above captioned case, this Court hereby grants an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony to the above named parties, on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken and ninety (90) days have elapsed from the date of the filing of the Complaint and an affidavit has been filed by each of the parties evidencing that each of the parties consents to the divorce, pursuant to 3301(c) of the Divorce Code of Pa.

2. Equitable Property Determination and Distribution

This Decree provides that the marital property of the above named parties shall be divided in accordance with a Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated April 20, 1998, executed by the parties and filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford Co., PA., at the above number and term.

Further, the division of marital owned personal property shall be made in accordance with paragraphs 12, 14, 15 and 18 of the aforesaid Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated April 20, 1998.

3. Child Custody

This Decree provides that custody of the children shall be shared legally with Wife having primary physical custody of the children. Husband is entitled to liberal visitation, as a minimum, of every other weekend. More specifically, the parties' agreement to child custody and visitation is set forth in the Stipulation to Entry of Custody Order executed between the parties and filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford Co., PA., at the above term and number.

4. A copy of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement of the parties, dated April 20, 1998, which sets out in further detail the agreement of the parties concerning the matters herein, shall be filed with this Decree in the Prothonotary's Office at the above term and number.

5. No other matters or causes of action provided under the PA. Divorce code are reserved by either of the parties.

This Order shall be effective as of this 23 day of April, 1999.

May 17, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 15, 1996, at the time scheduled for hearing on this abuse matter, both parties are represented by counsel. The parties advise the Court that the matter has been amicably resolved without admission of the allegations by the Defendant as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. Possession of the residence located at 333 Lincoln Avenue shall be granted to the Plaintiff with the Plaintiff making ongoing mortgage payments and paying the taxes for the residence.

3. This order shall remain in force and effect for a period of 6 months.

4. In view of the fact both parties are receiving limited income on SSI, the county is directed to pay the costs in this case.

5. The Defendant shall be permitted to return to the 333 Lincoln Avenue residence for the purpose of retaining his personal effects. The Defendant shall give 24 hours notice to the Plaintiff for that purpose.

6. Any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe that the safety and welfare of the Plaintiff or her children is jeopardized and that the terms of this order have been violated may apprehend the Defendant without warrant and request and immediate contempt hearing.

AND NOW, this 8th day of May , 1996, a complaint in divorce being filed herewith which avers that there are children of the marriage under the age of 18 years it is ORDERED and DECREED that the parties shall comply with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930 and shall attend and complete the Seminar for Saparating Parents. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc., 996 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335; the Office of the Prothonotary in the Crawford County Courthouse; the Court Administrator's Office in the Crawford County Courthouse. Application must be made by the plaintiff within fifteen (15) days after he/she filed the complaint in this action; and application must be made by the defendant within fifteen (15) days after he she was served with the complaint.

Each party is required to complete the seminar within forty-five (45) days after he she makes application.

Failure to complete the seminar WILL BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE COURT and MAY RESULT IN THE FINDING OF CONTEMPT, A DISMISSAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS, A DELAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS OR OTHER SANCTIONS. If either party has any questions concerning this seminar that party should consult an attorney; the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court, copies of which may be obtained in the Prothonotary's Office or the Crawford County Law Library located in the Crawford County Courthouse; or the Center for Family Services, Inc., 966 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335.

May 21, 1996 Affidavit of Service: And Now, May 16, 1996, comes Constance L. Deitman being duly sworn according to law, deposes and sets forth as follows:

1. That she is the legal secretary of Attorney for Lisa Diane Peters McGowan, Plaintiff in the above-captioned matter.
2. That on information furnished her by the Plaintiff, she caused a certified copy of the Complaint in Divorce to be forwarded by Certified Mail, P 535 872 548; postmarked May 10, 1996, to the last known address of the Defendant, James Paul McGowan, Powell Sanitation, 998 Cussawago Rd., Meadville, PA 16335.
3. That the Defendant, James Paul McGowan, on May 11, 1996, personally signed the return receipt card which was affixed to the Complaint in the above-matter and which is attached hereto.
4. Service of the Complaint against Defendant is therefore effected in accordance with Pa. Rules of Civil Procedure.

June 10, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 7, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the Plaintiff appeared, but the Defendant did not. The Sheriff's Office reports that it has not been able to serve him. The Plaintiff indicates that she believes the Defendant has left the area and is living in another state. She has also filed criminal charges against him and those have not been served. Apparently, he was to surrender himself and he did not do that.

Accordingly, it is order as follows:

1. This matter is continued to July 11, 1996 at 1:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

2. The Plaintiff shall contact the Sheriff from time to time if she knows about his whereabouts and the Sheriff shall make a good-faith effort to serve the Defendant.

3. The Sheriff shall serve the Defendant with the original petition, Notice to Defend and Temporary Protection From Abuse Order, all filed May 13, 1996, a copy of the May 17, 1996 order and a true and correct copy of this order on the Defendant so that he knows when he is to appear.

4. In the meantime, the Temporary Protection From Abuse Order entered May 13, 1996 shall remain in full force until further order of court.

5. A true and correct copy of this order shall be delivered by the Prothonotary to the Pennsylvania State Police at Corry, to County Control, and to the Plaintiff at the address she has given on the Petition.

AND NOW, this 14th day of May , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff in any way. He shall not go to her residence or place or work. Visitations with the Daughter are suspended until further order of court.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 174-40-3579 and date of birth is 1107047 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for May 23, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The Court is satisfied based on the evidence presented at this hearing that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Protection from Abuse Order. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or minor child named in the petition.

2. The Defendant shall not contact the Plaintiff in any way. He shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence or her place of work. He shall not be within 100 yards of those places. He may contact the Plaintiff through third persons such as attorneys or other persons because these parties have ongoing matters involving the child. The Contacts between third persons acting on behalf of the Defendant and the Plaintiff shall not be abusive, harassing, or threatening. Obviously, the Defendant's counsel may not contact the Plaintiff directly because the Plaintiff is also represented by counsel. This order does not sanction any improper contacts between the Defendant, counsel, and the Plaintiff.

ORDER AND NOTICE

AND NOW, this 15th day of May , 199 , a complaint in divorce being filed herewith which avers that there are children of the marriage under the age of 18 years, it is ORDERED and DECREED that the parties shall comply with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930 and shall attend and complete the Seminar for Separating Parents. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc., 213 Center St., Meadville, PA., 16335, the Office of the Prothonotary or the Court Administrator's Office in the Crawford County Courthouse.

Application must be made by the Plaintiff within fifteen (15) days after he/she filed the Complaint in this action; and application must be made by the Defendant within fifteen (15) days after he/she was served with the Complaint.

Each party is required to complete the seminar within forty-five (45) days after he/she makes application.

Failure to complete the seminar WILL BE BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE COURT and MAY RESULT IN THE FINDING OF CONTEMPT, A DISMISSAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS, A DELAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS or OTHER SANCTIONS. If either party has any questions concerning this seminar, that party should consult an attorney, the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court, the Crawford County Law Library located in the Crawford County Courthouse or the Center for Family Services, Inc., 213 Center Street, Meadville, PA., 16335.

Dec. 19, 1996 Affidavit of Consent by Plaintiff filed.

Dec. 19, 1996 Waiver of Notice by Plaintiff filed.

Dec 23, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, December 17, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the Plaintiff insofar as the Defendant has not taken a seminar for separating parents despite the fact that he received a notice dated May 15, 1996 which was served upon him with the divorce complaint on Aug 12, 1996.

The Defendant indicates at this time that due to child support obligations for a child of this marriage as well as another child, he cannot afford to take the seminar, and we explain to him that he can take the seminar without cost if in fact he truly is unaable to afford it.

The Plaintiff also indicates that the Defendant has previously told her he just didn't intend to take the seminar and he indicates that in the past when he was involved in another proceeding, the seminar was not required and that he felt what it would cover was covered at a mediation conference.

We find that the Defendant is in contempt and for his contempt, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 30 days and a maximum term or 6 months, with work release privileges.

His sentence of incarceration is suspended so that he may purge himself of contempt. He may do so as follows:

1. He shall register for and take the next available seminar for separating parents. He may ask to be allowed to do so without cost and that shall be at the discretion of the Court if that application is appropriately made.

2. He shall pay the sum of $30.00 to counsel for the Plaintiff for fees and costs on Jan 15, 1997 and a like amount each month thereafter for a total of $150.

If he does each of those items, he shall have purged himself of contempt and the sentence of incarceration shall automatically be lifted. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

MARCH 5, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW FEB. 18, 1998 this matter comes before the court on a Petition for Contempt filed by the Plaintiff with regard to outstanding attorney's fees owed as a result of the Order of Court of Dec. 17, 1996.

The Defendant was served with a copy of this Petition and notice of this hearing by the Sheriff's Office in Crawford County on Feb. 11,1998 but he fails to appear.

Based on that, we proceed with an informal hearing and the Defendant is adjudicated in Contempt of Court.

For his Contempt, he shall pay the outstanding counsel fees in the amount of $150.00 together with $89 for fees and costs incurred int he filing of this Petition as well as any other record costs that may be due all within 15 days of the date of service of this Order upon him.

Insofar as his address is now unknown, he may be served by certified mail return receipt requested and by regular mail and if the regular mail does not return it shall be assumed he was served on the date of the mailing of that regular mail.

If he has not paid the amount due within 15 days from the date of that service, counsel for the Plaintiff may request a bench warrant for him to be appprehended and placed in the Crawford County Correctional Facility where he shall remain for a period of not more than 6 months or until he purges himself of Contempt whichever occurs sooner.

He may purge himself of contempt if he is incarcerated by paying all outstanding amounts indicated above as well as any costs that were incurred for the issuance and implementation of a bench warrant.

June 3, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 28, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act. The plaintiff appears with counsel and the defendant appears without an attorney, is advised of his right to an attorney and indicates that he will proceed representing himself. Plaintiff's counsel and the defendant have discussed this matter and the following Order is entered, with admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the defendant:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the plaintiff at any time or any place.

2. At this time, the defendant will have no contact with the plaintiff, including telephone contact or written contact. That may only be changed through fruther Order of Court or if through any discussions between the defendant and plaintiff's counselor, Cindy Kightlinger, or plaintiff's legal counsel, that is amended.

3. The plaintiff shall have sole possession of the marital residence and the defendant shall not go to that residence even if he is invited because any law enforcement officer will presume that he is in violation of this Order if he at that residence. If the parties in the future wish for the defendant to be able to go to plaintiff's residence, they should seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.

4. The defendant will continue to pay normal wages to the plaintiff through Tool-Ex Systems, Inc., even though she will not be returning to work at this time. These payments will be made in lieu of or to reduce any spousal support that is ultimately determined by the Court.

5. With respect to the minor child, the defendant shall have liberal visitation, and therefore, since the oldest children are able to drive, that visitation will be provided by the children coming to the defendant at their request at any time. The defendant may call the plaintiff's residence specifically to talk to the children, but may not talk to the plaintiff during those conversations.

6. The defendant, until further of Court or agreement of the parties, shall continue to undergo counseling with Anthony Pedone.

✓ June 11, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 9, 1997, the Court has received and reviewed the plaintiff's "Motion for Discovery."
This is not a proper filing at this point. The plaintiff may avail himself of the discovery methods permitted by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, primarily Rule 4000 et seq. If a party fails to comply with the discovery rules the plaintiff may seek sanctions or further relief from the Court. It does not appear that he has, as of yet, availed himself of the discovery permitted by the Rules.
Furthermore, it appears that he may be seeking a court order to obtain discovery from a nonparty to-wit: the Department of Corrections. Likewise, that is not a proper request at this point. We will not order the Department of Corrections to produce the documents referred to because the request is so broad.
We do expect the defendant to comply with any proper discover requests that fall within the discovery rules of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

The plaintiff did not comply with Crwaford County Civil Rule L206 governing the filing of motions and petitions. He indicates that he served notice by first class mail upon the defendants, but he doe snot indicate when that was. Additionally, he is now incorrectly utilizing Rule 4014 with regard to requests for admission and seems to be intermingling other discovery rules in a manner that is contrary to the intention of the rules.

1. The notice ofpresentation fo the motion does not indicate the date the motion would be presented therefore, opposing party does nt know when to appear in court.
2. the plff avers that on Sept. 21, 1998 he served formal request for ptoduction of documents requesting specific documents. that requiest is not filed of record (and discovery is not normally filed of record) and is not attached to themotion to compel. 1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: The Plaintiff shall have exclusive possession of 561 Dunham Rd., Apt. B-4 Meadville pending further order of court. The Defendant may not go within 100 yards of that residence.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is 5/24/72 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for May 30, 1996 , at 3:30 pm., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

May 21, 1996 SHERIFF'S RETURN: Served, David L. Patton on May 20, 1996 at 7:30 PM at Distruct Justice Zilhavers office in Cambridge Springs, Pa.
So answers, Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

June 3, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act filed by the Plaintiff. Both parties appear without counsel although the Defendant has had counsel in a related contempt proceeding and has been advised of the manner in which he can proceed in this case by that attorney.

The Defendant agrees to the entry of an order without admission of the allegations of the petition; and accordingly, the following order is entered:

1. The Defendant may not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff at any time or any place.

2. The Plaintiff shall have exclusive possession of 561 Dunham Road, Apartment B4 in Meadville; and the Defendant may not go within 100 yards of that residence at any time. Additionally, the Defendant may not go to the Plaintiff's work place nor may he go to her parents home.

3. Additionally, the Defendant may not telephone the Plaintiff at her residence, at her parents' home, nor may he telephone her at her place of employment. Additionally, he may not contact the Plaintiff by United States mail or in any other manner. He shall not have anyone else contact the Plaintiff or her parents at any time or any place.

4. The Defendant is cautioned that he should not go to the Plaintiff's residence even if he is invited to that residence insofar as any law enforcement officer will presume he is in violation of this order. If the parties at any time in the future wish for the Defendant to be able to go to the Plaintiff's residence, the should seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.

5. The Defendant's mother may go to the hallway outside the Plaintiff's residence no later than 8:00 p.m. on Sunday June 2, 1996 to obtain any items at that location that have been left that belong to the Defendant. The Defendant maintains that there are other items that are his property and that will have to be resolved in a separate law suit.

6. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction in which the Plaintiff resides as well as to the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and to county control. A copy shall also be sent by regular mail to the unrepresented defendant at 1231 South Main Street in Meadville and to the unrepresented Plaintiff at P.O. Box 832 Meadville.

7. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

Dec. 23, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 19, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a complaint for indirect criminal contempt for a violation of a protection from abuse order. This complaint was filed by Trooper Lawrence Feeney, Jr. and upon his affidavit of probable cause. The trooper does not appear for this hearing nor does the Plaintiff, but her counsel who was appointed previously to represent her through the IADTA Program when the original order was entered in May of 1996 does appear because he realized this appeared on the court schedule with his name as counsel for the Plaintiff.

He has had no contact from the trooper nor from the Plaintiff and it appears that there is no one here really to prosecute this matter which was filed on December 7, 1996.

Accordingly, this complaint for indirect criminal contempt is dismissed.

June 19, 1996 Petition To Waive Plaintiff's Attendance at Children Coping With Divorce Seminar and ORDER filed. AND NOW, to-wit, this 19th day of June, 1996, in consideration of the foregoing Petition, it is hereby ORDERED, that the Plaintiffs required attendance at the Children Coping with Divorce Program is hereby waived.

Gordon R. Miller, Judge

June 19, 1996 Order FAXED Atty. Koehler.

Sept. 10, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, September 10, 1996 after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS ORDERED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS, TO-WIT:

I. Legal custody of Phillip J. Denman shall be share between the mother and the father, the plaintiff and defendant herein, that is, each parent shall be entitled to full access to school record, medical records and other important records and that each parent shall be entitled to take part fully in important decisions affecting the child such as the education, medical treatment and religious instruction of the subject child.

II. Physical custody of Phillip J. Denman shallbe with his father, subject to the following conditions: A. The mother shall be entitled to visit and take the child into her custody at mother's home in Texas one weekend each month from Friday evening to Sunday afternoon, beginning in October, 1996. The weekend shall be arranged by telephone call from mother to father and shall depend on mother's work schedule as an airline stewardess. Mother shall be flexible as possible taking into account her son's school activities and extra-curricular activities, but such activities shall not prevent regular visits.

B. Mother shall be entitled to custody of her son for three (3) days during the Christmas vacation from school each year and shall make arrangements with the father by telephone regarding the specific three day period, which shall not include Christmas Day.

Cost of the mediation conference will be divided as follows: One-half (½) mother; one-half (½) father. The Prothonotary of Crawford County is hereby directed to refund a portion of the deposit paid in advance by the Plaintiff, less the cost of the custody order.

Faxed PSP

AND NOW, this 29th day of May , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall move out. Sole possession of 436 Rogers Ferry Road shall belong to Plantiff. Defendant shall not contact Plantiff in any way.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 187-50-1301 and date of birth is 5/4/66 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for May 29, 1996 , at 11:30 am., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

June 5, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 29, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a Protection from Abuse Hearing based on the Plaintiff's petition.

The Plaintiff appears without counsel but only because her attorney is in another hearing in Courtroom No. 1. Due to the fact that the Defendant has not been served in this matter and we will be continuing this hearing, we have not waited for Mr. Hatheway to appear in this courtroom.

Based on the fact the Defendant has not been served, it is ordered and directed that this hearing is continued generally with the order entered by Judge Miller on May 29, 1996 as a temporary order to remain in full force and effect pending that hearing.

The Plaintiff through her counsel is directed to arrange service of the petition and temporary order as well as a copy of this order upon the Defendant as soon as possible.

Once service has been achieved, counsel for the Plaintiff shall notify the Court Administrator so that further hearing may be scheduled in this matter.

A copy of this order shall be provided to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides as well as the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and County Control.

June 13,1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 11, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Protection Under the Protection From Abuse Act.

Both parties appear with counsel and they indicate they have worked out an agreement for entry of an Order without admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the defendant.

Accordingly, the following Order is entered:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff.

2. Except as hereinafter set forth, pending any further Order of Court in this proceeding or any appropriate proceeding, the jointly held residence shall be in the sole possession of the plaintiff during the time of this Order. The defendant may not go to that residence except she shall be permitted to go today at 5 p.m. with other parties present for the purpose of moving out any movable personal

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
1 copy Plaintiff
Faxed Vernon PD

AND NOW, this 23 day of May , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: The Plaintiff shall exclusive possession of 58 Williams St., Meadville, PA pending further order of court. The Defendant may not go to that residence. The plaintiff shall also have sole custody of both minor children pending further order of court.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 205-62-0801 and date of birth is 11-29-71 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for June 3, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

May 31, 1996 Sheriff's Return filed. NOT FOUND as to David Joliet, Sr., at address given of 58 Williams St., Meadville, Crawford Co., PA. He left to go camping in the Tionesta area. We made three attempts to the residence. Current resident then indicated that he does not live there anymore.
So answers,

Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

June 7, 1996 Motion to Vacate Protection from Abuse Order and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 4 day of June, 1996 upon receipt and review of the plaintiff's motion to vacate and terminate the Protection from Abuse Order is hereby vacated and terminated.

A true and correct copy of this Order shall be delivered by the Prothonotary to Vernon Twp. Police and to County Control.

Any provisions of the Protection from Abuse Order of 5/24/96 assessing court costs shall remain in full force and effect without change or modification and the party or parties against whom costs were assessed shall remain obligated to pay the costs.

BY ORDER OF COURT
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

June 7, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 3, 1996 at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the Plaintiff appeared. The Defendant did not appear, because he had not been served. The Plaintiff has not received any advice as to how to proceed on these matters. The Plaintiff desires to drop this action. The Court is somewhat reluctant to do that, because there's an allegation of child abuse. The Plaintiff maintains that the Defendant will get marriage counseling or some other type of counseling to deal with the problems that have caused all this, and she is willing to pay the court costs. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Plaintiff shall go to the Prothonotary's Office and sign a settlement and discontinuance of this action.

2. The Plaintiff shall pay all record court costs in full no later than July 3, 1996. She shall make payment of the court costs to the Prothonotary's Office on the first floor of the Courthouse.

3. This action is dismissed upon the Plaintiff's voluntary settlement and discontinuance.

4. A true and correct copy of this order shall be sent by the Prothonotary to the Defendant at 58 Williams Street, Meadville. A copy shall also be sent by the Prothonotary to County Control and to the Meadville City Police Department.

May 23, 1996 Petition To Proceed In Forma Pauperis In A Divorce Action Pursuant To Pa. R.C.P. 1920.62 and Order filed. AND NOW, May 20, 1996, upon consideration of the petition filed by the Plaintiff in this action, and supported by an affidavit attached thereto, all being pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.62 the Plaintiff is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis at this time.

The Plaintiff is directed to inform the Prothonotary's office or theCourt of any improvement in her financial circumstances that would permit her to pay the costs incurred in this aciton and shall be responsible fopr doing so upon an improvement of her financial condition.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

May 23, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, May 22, 1996, the Court has reviewed the plaintiff's divorce complaint and petition to proceed informa pauperis and affidavit in support of said petition.

The complaint does not conform to the Crawford County Local Rules regarding Seminar for Separating Parents.

However, since the plantiff is incarcerated at a state correctional facility this Court waives the requirements of Rule L1920 in this case and exempts both parties from attending this seminar reserving under theCourt, however, the right to require the parties to attend the Seminar for Separating Parents if there are any future proceedings in this case which take place after the defendant is released from incarceration.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 5/31/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Dec 23, 1996 ORDER ANDNOW, Dec 16, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a Petitiion for contempt filed by the Prothonotary's Office for the Defendan's failure to pay outstanding costs in a PFA action in the amount of $93.50.

The Defendant, apparently, has had some legal problems which resulted in him being incarcerated and now on Electronic Monitoring House Arrest, but he indicates that he has been receiving a check in the amount of %31 on a monthly basis as a result of an accident in which he was injured.

He has made no effort to pay the $93.50 due since June of 1996, and accordingly, we find he is in contempt of court.

For his contempt, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of thirty (30) days. That Sentence is suspended to allow himself to purge himself of contempt by paying the full $93.50 on or before Dec 23, 1996 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County.

If the Defendant fails to pay the full amount by the close of business on that day, the suspension of the jail sentence is automatically lifted, and he shall report to the Crawford County Jail at 9:00 a.m. on Dec 24, 1996 to begin service of his Sentence. If he fails to pay the total amount by close of business on Dec 23, 1996 and he fails to appear at the Crawford County Jail on Dec 24, 1996 to serve his sentence, a bench warrant shall automatically be issued for him without further Order of Court.

Bernadette M. DeVore Esq. Atty for Plaintiff

June 11, 1999 Order filed. And Now, this 9 day of June 1999 after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject mionr child, Cassandra Lynn Slattery, born on March 19, 1995.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all informaton which each may have regarding the health, education and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential informatin which they may have regarding the subject mionr child.

3. The mother shall rerain primary physical custody of the child, subject to the partial custody rights of the father as follows:

a. The provisions of this Court's Order of October 8, 1996 shall continue until July 1, 1999 at which time the father shall be entitled to have the child on the first, second, and fourth weekends of each month beginning on Fridays at 5 pm and continuing until Sunday at 5 pm but not including the months of June, July & August during which months father's partial custody shall be on the 2nd and 4th weekends.

B. FAther shall be entitled to take the child into his care and custody every Wednesday from 5 pm until 8:30 pm. On such eccassions father shall be exclusively responsible for transporting the child.

c. For the months of Jan and feb of each year, fahter shall be entitled to have the child in his care and custody from 8 am until 5 pm each weekday, provided that:

i.Father is not employed in any capacity; and

ii. Father take responsibility for the child's regular and timely attendance at whatever daycare, preschool or kindergarten calsses which the child may be enrolled in, with the udnerstanding that mother shall cooperate with father in the selection of suitable daycare or preschool institutions. It is the intent of this provision that father have the child during the period of time when he is laid off from his regular employment as a roofer in much the same manner that mother would otherwise have the child if she were not employed during this two month period.

iii. During the motnhs of jan and Feb father's weekend custody periods shall become the 2nd and 4th weekends rather than the lst, 2nd & 4th weekends.
d. When the child is not otherwise in the custody of a parent the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to speak with the child by telephone between the hours of 5 pm and 8 pm.
4. Holiday and Vacation visitastions shall be arranged as follows:
The parties are encouraged to agree among themselves how best to share time with the child during the holiday seasons. In the event the aprties are unable to reach agreement tehn in the event the following provisions shall govern:
a. Christmas. The Christmas holiday shall be divided into two segments, with the first segment beginning at Noon on Christmas Eve and continuing until Noon on Christmas Day. The second segment shall begin at noon on Christmas Day and continue until noon on Jan 1. Mother shall have the first segment and father shall have the second segment.
b. Thanksgiving. The Thanksgiving holiday shall begin at 10 am on Thanksgiving day and continue until 7 pm on Thanksgivin Day. For 1999 and each odd numbered year hereafter the father shall have the child for the Thanksgiving holiday. For the year 2000 and each even numbered year thereafter, the mother shall have the child during the Thanksgving holiday.
c. Either party shall be entitled to have the child for a two week period of continuous partial custody provided that they give to the other party not less than 30 days advanced notice and taht said visitation period falls during the summer months.
d. The child shall spend Father's day with her fahter form 9 am to 7 pm and MOther's Day with her mother during the same hours.
e. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this order relating to custody.
5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitataions as set out in this order or as previously arranged, teh party seeking cancellaiton or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellaiton or modification be necessary the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.
6. The parties shall share responsibility from transprotation with teh party receiving the child in the exercise of his or her rights picking up the child at the home of the other. Any person transporting the child shall make sure that the seat belts or othe restraints are used in accordance with the laws of PA.
7. Each party shall teach said child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.
8. neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. The parties are caustioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported or in the bedroom of the child.
9. Neither party sahll do or say anything to blacken the character of teh other in the child's estimation
10. The parties are free to make additonal or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods an are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of whcih this order shall govern.
11. Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.
12. Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $240.00 ($60.00 hr x 4 hrs) and the $13.50 Court Order filing fee are to be shared equally between the partis. The father has paid the $200.00 necessary for the appointment of the child custody mediator. The entirety of said sum shall apply to the cost and fees of this case. Within thirty days of the date of this Order, mother shall pay to the Prothonotary the sum of $53.50 and to the father the sum of $73.25, representing her share of the costs and fees.
13. Eitehr party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within 10 days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 5/31/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

AND NOW, this 3 day of June , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: pending further order of court the Plaintiff shall have sole custody of Joshua & Christina

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is 4-3-72 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for June 10, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

June 18, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 10, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the Court had a formal hearing where evidence of physical abuse at the hands of the mother largely based upon the marks (which don't seem too significant to the Court) and the child's hearsay statement in Exhibit A to medical personnel. The Court also sees a great deal of doubt about this and has concluded that the Plaintiff has not carried his burden of proof of showing that the mother attempted to cause or intentionally, knowingly, or the mother attempted to cause or intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly caused bodily injury under the Protection from Abuse Act and accordingly, finds in favor of the Defendant and dismisses the petition with the costs to be paid by Crawford County.

Since this matter may become the subject of a custody action and since this matter may become the subject of a CYS Dependency Action, we would hope that the matter would be reviewed from the beginning in its entirety in a future hearing and that this holding does not dispose of any future matter arising out of the same set of facts or circumstances.

For instance, at this hearing, no medical personnel testified in person, a possible witness for the mother was denied the opportunity to testify because of this Court's dress code.

June 18, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 13, 1996, this matter is before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act.

Each party appears without counsel and the Court notes that the defendant has not been formally served, but was notified this date of the hearing by the plaintiff, and he appears.

He is advised of his right to have an attorney and indicates that he will proceed with a formal hearing without an attorney, and we do so.

After formal hearing at which both parties testified and the plaintiff produces a medical report from the day that the alleged abuse occurred, we are satisfied that there has been abuse within the meaning of the Act.

The parties apparently have been back together, at least for the last couple of nights, but the plaintiff still appears to be seeking protetion so that there is no physical abuse. This Order shall remain in full force and effect through June 12, 1997.

The defendant shall pay costs in this proceeding in the amount of $127.50 within 60 days of the date of this Order to be paid to the Prothonotary.

DIVORCE DECREE FILED

June 25, 1998 AND NOW, this 23 day of June, 1998, it is hereby ORDERED, DIRECTED AND DECREED that:

The bonds of marriage between Plaintiff, MARY KAYE WHITE and Defendant, DAVID ALLEN WHITE, are dissolved because the marriage is irretrievably broken. Plaintiff and Defendant are divorced from the bonds of matrimony.

This Honorable Court shall retain jurisdiction of any claims raised by the parties to this action for which a final order has not yet been entered.

By the Court:
Gordon R. Miller, J.

June 29, 1998 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 24, 1998, this case came before the Court for the entry of a decree in divorce. Upon review of the file we have determined that the Defendant has not complied with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930 in that he has not filed of record a certification that he attended the Seminar for Separating Parents.

Accordingly the Court enters a rule upon the Defendant to show cause why, if any he has, he should not be held in contempt of court and punichsed accordingly.

The contempt hearing is hereby set for the 28th day of July, 1998 at 8:45 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The Defendant may avoid this hearing and avoid further contempt proceedings and possible punishment by completing the Seminar requirement by making application to attend the Seminar and by completing the Seminar prior to the hearing. He may make application at the Center for Family Services, Inc. at 996 South Main St., Meadville, PA 16335.

The Prothonotary shall send a true and correct copy of this Order to the Defendant's last known address of record.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 7/10/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

June 20, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the Defendant does not have an attorney, but apparently, has talked to an attorney and will be representing himself at this time.

He agrees to the entry of an Order without admission of the allegations of the Petition.

Accordingly, the following order is entered:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. The marital residence at 277 Walker Drive in Meadville shall be in the sole possession of the Plaintiff pending any further Order of Court. The Defendant may not go to that residence at any time. The Defendant is cautioned that he should not go to that residence even if he is invited by the Plaintiff, insofar as, any law enforcement agency will presume he is in violation of this Order if he is at that residence. If in the future the parties want the Defendant to be able to go to the Plaintiff's residence, they must seek a modification of this Order before he goes to that residence.

3. Custody of the minor child, Donald Allen, shall remain with the Plaintiff pending any further Order of Court in this proceeding or any other appropriate proceeding. The parties have three other children who are in foster care and the CYS Caseworker who is present and the Plaintiff agree that when the Defendant is visiting those children for supervised visits at CYS the minor child, Donald, will be brought to CYS at the same time so that the Defendant may visit with that child during the visit with the children in foster care.

A copy of this order shall be delivered to the police department in the Plaintiff's jurisdicion where the Plaintiff resides, to the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and to County Control. A coopy shall also be sent by regular mail to the unrepresented Defendant at R.D. #1 Box 192, Guys Mills, Pennsylvania.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect through June 16, 1997.

June 21, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1996 at the time fixed for a hearing on the temporary protection from abuse order, both parties appeared incourt without counsel and entered into an agreement to resolve this matter. By doing so, the Defendant does not admit that he engaged in the conduct alleged in the petition.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's home or place of work.

3. The Defendant may contact the Plaintiff in writing or by phone for the purpose of discussing child care and child care and child related matters, provided that the Defendant does not use these opportunities to engage in any abusive, harassing, or threatening language or behavior.

4. Furthermore, the parties shall not argue in the presence of the child. The child shall not witness any bitterness between these folks.

5. Primary physical custody of the child is awarded to the Plaintiff, with the Defendant having the right to take his child into his custody every other weekend from Friday evening at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m. The first weekend visitation for the father shall be Friday, June 21, 1996 at 6:00 p.m.

Transportation for these visitations shall be provided by the Plaintiff. She shall deliver the child to the father's residence on time and she shall pick up the child from the father's residence on time.

Defendant to pay court costs in the amount of $93.50 to the Prothonotary no later than Wednesday, July 17, 1996.

Order in full force and effect for one year from this date unless modified or terminated by further order of Court.

Dec. 2, 1996 Order filed. This is an appeal from an order denying appellant's pre-trial petition for writ of habeas corpus, said petition alleging that the Commonwealth failed to establish a prima facie case at the preliminary hearing. Because an order denying a pre-trial petition for habeas corpus relief on this basis is interlocutory and not immediately appealable, the instant appeal is QUASHED. See Commonwealth V Hess, appealable 489 Pa. 580, 414 A. 2d 1043 (1980); Commonwealth V Taylor, 408 Pa. Supre. 121, 596 A.2d 222 (1991), allocatur denied, 529 Pa. 648, 602 A.2d 859 (1992).

9/27/99 Dist by Court

October 6, 1999 Pre-Trial Order filed. And NOW, October 4, 1999 after a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the Court enters the following order:
1. All discovery is completed, all parties are ready for trial. The trial is scheduled to take place during the second and third week ofOctober 1999 with the exact date unknown at the present time. The parties shall appear at a second Call of the Trial List at 9 am on October 11, 1999 in Courtroom 2 It is anticipated that this case will take one to two days to try.
2. Description of the case. This case involves an alleged slip and fall incident that occured on June 8, 1994 at Wal-Mart stor in Vernon Township. The plaintiff alleges that at approximately 7:10 pm he and his wife walked down a large aisle close to the automobile and sporting sections whereupon he slipped, but did not fall, on what appeared to be windshield wiper fluid that had been dripped for about twenty feet.
The defendant claims that the area at issue had been inspected by Frank Rocco, the Assistant Manager at 7 pm and found no fluid or foreign object on the floor. After the accident happened the defendant maintains that it could not find a container which would have been the source. It appears that fluid may have come from a bottle that was being carried by a customer down the same aisle.
The plaintiff maintains that he suffered a bulge at L3,L4, a herniation at L4-L5 and a recurring herniation in the lumbo-sacral area.
3. Factual/Legal issues.
a. Whether or not the defendant had notice of the alleged foreign object on the floor.
b. The causal negligence of teh plaintiff.
c. The causal negligence of the defendant.
d. Allocation of causal negligence of the parties, if any, under the comparative negligence statute.
e. The defendant disputes the allegation that there was an aggravation of pre-existing injury because that was not pled. The defendant disputes liability as well as injuries and damages. The defendant claims that the plaintiff has suffered additional injuries and accidents to his back, both before the accident in question and after the addicent in question.
4. The plaintiff claims the following damages:
a. Pain and suffering, past, present, and future.
b. Medical bills through 1996.
c. Possible wage loss and diminution of future earning capacity.
5. The plaintiff's case in chief: The plaintiff did not file a pre-trial narrative.
a. Witnesses. The plaintiff intends to call Albert Thom, Dr. Ordinario and possibly Dr. Concillus.
b. Bills. The plaintiff intends to introduce a list of bills totaling $5143.83. Counsel for the defendant has just received those bills and shall have until 4:30 pm Wednesday October 6, 1999 to indicate to counsel for the plaintiff whether or not she will stipulate that the bills may be introduced into evidence without any admission as to liability.
c. Exhibits. The plaintiff intends to introduce a list of bills a his only exhibit.
6. The Defendant's case in chief.
A. Witnesses. a. Witnesses. The defendant intends to call Frank Rocco and Ben Stover as witnesses.

Sept. 30, 1996 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, this 30 day of September, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Richard Shane Brandt.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3a. The mother shall have primary physical custody of the subject minor child. The father shall have visitation as provided by the Order entered June 17, 1996 at Docket # AD 1996-591, which provided for visitation on alternate weekends from 6 P.M. Friday through 6 P.M. Sunday, the first weekend having been that of June 21, 1996. The father shall also have the right of visitation and temporary physical custody for a period of up to two weeks provided that this period coincides with his vacation from work and provided that he notifies the mother by May 31st of the period he wishes to select. The mother shall have the right to designate a period of time up to two weeks during which no visitation need be given to the father provided that the time coincides with her vacation from work and provided that she gives the father notice of which two week period she wishes to select by May 31st of each year. If a conflict develops between the Summer visitation period so defined, the parties shall attempt to compromise or a change in their vacation schedules. If no compromise can be reached, then each party shall be awarded one-half of the time during which the vacations conflict.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $125.00, are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

June 14, 1996, Upon praecipe of Christopher D. Ferry, of Watts and Pepicelli, appearance entered for pliantiff, filed.

June 20, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 14, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears with counsel and the Defendant does not appear having been served on June 7, 1996 at 4:30 p.m. by a Venango county Deputy Sheriff.

In light of the fact that the Defendant is not present, the following order will be entered after informal hearing:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff or minor child named in the petition.

2. Pending further Order of Court, the minor child shall be in the custody of the Plaintiff and the Defendant shall have no temporary physical custody or visitation with Alicia but shall have visitation in the presence of a third party from time to time with John to be arranged at the discretion of the Plaintiff. This Order is without prejudice to either party to seek appropriate custody through this Court or any other appropriate court.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Registry, and County Control. Additionally, the Prothonotary shall send a copy by regular mail to the unrepresented Defendant at R.D. #1, Knox, Pennsylvania 16232.

4. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

The Defendant shall pay costs of $117.70 within 30 days of the date of this order.

10. This Order shall remain in force and effect through June 13, 1997.

Oct. 31, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 30 day of October, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Joseph A. Covell, who was born on January 11, 1983 and Andrew J. Covell, who was born July 17, 1985.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3) The children shall remain in the primary physical care and custody of the mother, subject to the partial custody rights of the father as follows:

a. The father shall be entitled to take the children into his care and custody on the first, third and fourth full weekends of each month, with a weekend being defined as including a Friday.

These visitations shall begin on Friday evening, commencing at 5:00 p.m. and will conclude with the father taking the children to school on the following Monday. For these weekend visitations, the father shall be required to drive to the home of the mother to secure custody of the children and he shall deliver the children directly to school the following Monday morning.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $240.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

Since the father has already paid the $150.00 to secure the appointment of a child custody mediator, it is hereby ordered as follows:

a. The mother shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order pay to the father the sum of $25.50, representing reimbursement to the father of her share of the costs of the mediation.

b. The Mother shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $99.00, representing the balance due of her share of the costs of said mediation.

June 17, 1996 Appearance of Watts and Pepicelli by Christopher D. Ferry, Esq. for Andrea M. Hannold, filed.

June 20, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 19, 1996, the parties appeared with counsel and entered into an agreement to resolve this matter. In doing so, the defendant does not admit that he engaged in the conduct alleged in the Petition.

Based upon the agreement of the parties, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff.

2. Primary physical custody of the parties child Colton shall be with the plaintiff. The defendant shall have visitations and periods of custody with his son as agreed upon between the parties. We make no provisions with respect to visitations, transportation and other related visitation issues because that will be resolved by the parties amicably or they may bring a custody or visitation action in court to resolve those matters.

3. The defendant may contact the plaintiff by any method he wishes, and if invited, may go to the plaintiff's residence, provided that he complies with Paragraph 1 and absolutely refrains from any assaults, abuse, harassment, or threats.

4. This Order shall remain in full force and effect for one year from this date unless modified or terminated by further Order of Court.

May 16, 1997 Upon Praecipe to Transmit by Plaintiff Attorney, this case moved to Court.

May 23, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 21, 1997, this divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time.
On Jnauary 24, 1997, we entered an Orde rin which we declined to grant a divorce for two reasons, including the fact that the original complaint has not Notice To Defend. The palintiff again submitted this divorce actionfor review and on May 2, 1997, we entered an Order in which we againstnoted that there was not Notice To Defend attached to the original complaint. The plaintiffhas now cimply filed a Notice To Defend on May 16, 1997, and once against asks for us to grant this divorce. The problem with thisis that athe purpose of the Notice To Defend is to advise the defendantof certain rights that he may have and of his right to counsel and his right to respond to the complaint within twenty (20) days. Therefore, hemust be served with a copy of the complaint withthat notice attached and be givenall other opportunities which are presented in the rules, once a complaint has been filed before the divorce can be granted or else there must be something on the record indicating that he now understands that he had the right to have that notice attached to the divorce complaint and that he is verifying or swaring that he wises to waive any rights that were lost as a rresult of that notice not being attached and allow the divorce actionto proceed.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer this matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree. BY THE COURT, Anthony J. Vardaro, 5/23/97 mailed Hill & deft.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 8/23/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

July 1, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 28, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing inthis matter, both parties were represented by counsel. The defendant refused to come into the courtroom and apparently she is intellectually low functioning. Since she is represented by counsel, although there may be some difficulty with counsel's ability to communicate with her, she is present and we are proceeding in her absence, but with counsel present.

The Court finds as a fact that the plaintiff has proven the allegations of the Petition by the fair weight of the evidence, and accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the minor child Joseph William Wiley, born May 11, 1996.

2. Primary physical custody of the child is awarded to the father. The mother shall have the right to visit her child for one hour every two weeks at the CYS Office on Park Avenue in Meadville, Pennsylvania, at a time to be set up and established by CYS. The mother's paretns, that is, the maternal grandparents, shall have the right to visit the child once a week for two hours at a time to be amicably agreed upon between teh father and the maternal grandparents.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police at Meadville and to County Control.

4. This Order shall remain in effect for 6 months from this date unless modified or terminated by further Order of Court. The parties do not have the right to change this Order. The Order may only be changed if one or both of the parties approaches the Court and the Court enters a Court Order amending this Order. As is provided by the Protection from Abuse Act, this Order is always subject to modification or change in a custody or visitation proceeding by a Court of competent jurisdiction or in a lawful proceeding.

June 27, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 25, 1996, the parties appeared in court. The plaintiff had counsel, the defendant appeared without counsel. The defendant was advised as to the nature of the proceeding and he understood it. the parties have agreed to a settlement. In doing so, the defendant does not admit that he engaged in the conduct alleged in the Petition.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. the defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff.

2. The defendant shall not contact the plaintiff in any way and he shall not go to her residence or place of work.

3. The plaintiff shall not encourage the defendant to violate this Order and she shall not invite him to have contact with her. If the parties appear at a public place at the same time, they shall conduct their business at that public place and leave.

4. If the palintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this Order, this Order is still in effect until further Order of Court.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, DETERMINATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY

June 19, 1996 Complaint in Divorce and Order and Notice filed. AND NOW, this 24 day of June, 1996, a complaint in divorce being filed herewith which avers that there are children of the marriage under the age of 18 years it is ORDERED AND DECREED that the parties shall comply with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930 and shall attend and complete the Seminar for Separating Parents.

BY THE COURT

Oct. 23, 1996 Petition for Special Relief filed.

Oct. 24, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, OCtober 23, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed by the defendant.

Counsel for the plaintiff and counsel for the defendant appear in Motion court and essentially agree to resolve this matter, with one minor dispute, which the Court will resolve.

ACCORDINGLY, It is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the plaintiff make available the marital home to the defendant at a time we will indicate later in this Order for the defendant to remove the marital property set forthin Subparagraphs 3(a) through 3(s) in her peittion.

It is further ordered that the plaintiff may remove the remainder of the property at the marital residence, and in both cases, the parties will not dispose of, alienate or in any way sell or cause any problem to leave their possession utnil this marital matter is finally resolved. Additionally, each party, through their counsel, will notify the other party as to where the items of marital property are located, and if there are any storage costs involved, the party who has possession of the items will pay those sotarge costs.

Each party will make available the property in his or her possession to the other person or their representatives for the purpose of any approaisals that may be necessary.

This Order is not intended as any guidance to a Master or to the Court ultimately with regard to equitable distirbution of the property concerned in this petitionor with respect to this Ordr, nor is it intended to generally affect equitable distribution at all, but is only intended to allow the proeprty to be in someone's possesison pending the outcome of this divorce action since the marital home will be sold shortly.

The Defendant may go to the marital home on October 26, 1996, at 1 p.m. to remove this proeprty and the plaintiff will be available to open the property which is apparently locked andwhich the defendant does not currently have keys for the smae and the defendant will prompltly remove the property that sheis entitled to remove.

If the time of 1 o'clcok p.m. on October 26, 1996 is not convenient for the plaintiff, the parties will reasonably try to arrive at a time for the removal of the property either on October 26, 1996 or October 27, 1995 and if that cannot be done, the property will be removed on October 26, 1996 at 1 p.m.

TEMPORARY PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ORDER: (see paper filed for complete order) And now, this 19 day of June, the court enters the following:

Special conditions: The plaintiff shall have exclusive possession of the marital home until further order of court. the defendant may not go to that residence.

Hearing is set for July 1, 1996 at 3:30 p.m.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. vardaro, J.

June 20, 1996 SHERIFF'S RETURN: SERVED Myrle R. Knickerbocker. Defendant served personally by Plaintiff Kimberly A. Knickerbocker on June 19, 1996 at 4:00 PM at the residence, 15594 LeBouf Trail, Townville, Crawford County, PA.
So answers, Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

July 8, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 1, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a petition from abuse under the Protection from abuse under the Protection from Abuse Act filed by the Plaintiff. The parties appear with the Plaintiff without counsel and the Defendant with counsel.

After some discussions, the Defendant agrees to the entry of an order without admission of the allegations of the petition; and accordingly, the following order is entered:

1. The Defendant sahll not assautl, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff at any time or any place.

2. The Plaintiff shall have exclusive possession of the marital home unless otherwise modified. This shall continue through the order but after 90 days the Defendant shall have a right to petition the court for hearing to be held to determine whether or not that exclusive possession of the marital home shall cease. If during the period prior to or within the 90 days, the parties wish that this provision be removed, they may do so thorough A Consent Order. Otherwise, the Order does not allow the Defendant to move back into the marital residence until there has been a hearing and there has been a determination by the Court as to whether that is appropriate.

3. The Defendant is cautioned that while this Exclusive Possession Order is in effect, he should not go to the marital home even if he is invited because any police agency will presume that he is in violation of this Order. If the parties wish to have this Order modified for the Defendant to go to the marital residence, they should do so prior to him doing so.

(FOR REMAINDER OF ORDER, PLEASE SEE FILE FOLDER)

The Defendant will pay costs in this proceeding in the amount of $80.50 within 30 days of the date of this ORDER.

Nov. 26, 1996 Order filed. This Divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

__X__ A proper return or proof of service has not been filed.

__X__ Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pleadings or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation.

__X__ Other There is no indication that the parties have complied with Crawford County Rule L1930 or excused from doing so.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

*September 23, 1998 Defendant Meadville Medical Center's Amended Motion for Continuance of Case from October 1998 Trial Term Filed.

September 29, 1998 Notice of Intent to Appear Directed to Susan Leguard, R.N. Filed.

September 29, 1998 Order filed. And Now, September 23, 1998 after consideration of the Defendant, Meadville Medical Center's amended motion for a continuance and after argument in Motion's Court we decline to continue this matter to the February 1998 Term of Civil Court but we will direct that it be listed fro trial during the second week of the October Trial Term which begins on October 19, 1998.
Insofar as the reason for the continuance is that the Defendant Meadville Medical Center is obtaining an expert report, the Defendant is granted an extension to provide that report to counsel for the Plaintiff on October 12, 1998 at teh lastest or immediately upon receipt of the same if it is received prior to that date, but sometime after the date of the Call of the List.

October 1, 1998 Notice of Video-Taped Conference Deposition of Ralph E. Duncan, MC for use at Trial Filed.

October 6, 1998 Pretrial Order filed. And Now, October 6, 1998 after a Pretrial Conference will all counsel present, the court enters the following Order:
1. All discovery is completed, all parties are ready for trial and trial shall commence on Monday, October 19, 1998 at 9 AM in Ct Room 2 of teh Crawford County Courthouse. It is anticipated that this case will take 5 days to try. The parties are advised that the court has 5 days set aside for this case and if night court becomes necessary in order to complete this case within that deadline, they should be prepared to proceed with night court.
2. The plaintiffs will be taking a deposition of Dr. Ralph E. Duncan III for use at trial on October 15, 1998. Plaintiffs' counsel should provide a hard copy of that deposition to the court as soon as possible so that we may rule on any objecitons raised in that deposition.
3. Factually, the husband-plaintiff underwent a radical retropubic prostatectomy on Feb. 27, 1995 for prostate carcinoma. During the course of that procedure, the Defendant Moakeh caused a rectal tear which he primarily repaired during that procedure without a surgical consult.
After surgery, a rectal tube was inserted and the doctor ordered rectal tubes to be used on different days at different intervals post surgery. The allegations that remain for decision by the jury are:(1) Was Dr. Moakeh negligent for ordering the use of arectal tube when such use was contraindicated under these circumstances by Meadville Medical Centery Policy? Was the nurse who inserted a rectal tube, allegedly causing damage to the plaintiff-husband's urethro-rectal fistul negligen and therefore the Meadville Medical Center vicariously liable because the nurse followed Dr. Moakeh's instruction for the insertion of a arectal tube without questioning those instructions knowing that it was contrary to Meadvill Medical center policy to use a rectal tube? (3) At the time the original surgery was being performed and the rectal tear was caused, was Dr. Moakeh negligent for not obtaining a general surgery consult? (4) Was the Meadville Medical Center negligent under a theory of corporate negligence?
4. We have before us 3 pretrial motions. one was made orally by the defendant Moakeh at the time of the Pretrial Conference. he requests the court to permit the plaintiffs to only calling one urologist expert. While it appears that in fact, the palintiffs may only choose to call one of their experts, after due consideration of this matter we will not limit them to doing so especially in light of the fact taht defendant Moakeh will be calling an expert urologist himself, as well as giving his own testimony as a board certified urologist.
5. Next, the Meadville Medical Center moves to exclude any claim based upon the improper insertion of the rectal tube by the registered nurse who did so on March 6, 1995, and the palintiffs agree that they will not be pursuing such a course of action and with their consent, that motion is granted.
6. Finally, we have before us a motion filed by the Meadville Medical Center to exclude irrelevant evidence related to nursing care and we will defer a decision on that motion until later in the week once we have had adequate opportunity to research that issue.
7. The husband-plaintiff seeks damages which one would expect in this type of litigation and wife-plaintiff seeks ls loss of consortium damages. The plaintiffs have submitted medical bills in the amount of $62,152.47 and the parties agree that any bills for services rendered up to March 7, 1995, shall be deleted. Otherwise, the defendants stipulate to the authenticity of the bills, but they do not stipulate that the expenses were necessary and reasonable, nor did they stipulate that they were in anyway caused by the defendants.

8. The husband -plaintiff also claims loss wages in the amount of $46,280 which are not stipulated to by the defendants.
9. In their case in chief, plaintiffs at this time intend to call both plaintiffs, Dr. John C. Reilly, a surgeon, Dr Robert Symons, a treating physiciain, Dr. Ralph E. Duncan, III an expert urologist, Patricia Gallagher, an expert nurse and possibly Dr. Richard S. Allen, another expert urologist.
10. In his case in chief, Dr. Moakeh intends to testify and to call as his expert urologist, Dr. Ronald A. Hrebinko. He may call other witnesses also, but is unsure at this time.
11. Finally, the Meadville Medical Center intends to call a nursing expert whose report must be supplied to other counsel no later than October 12, 1998, as well as nurse Susan Leguard, Nurse Tammy Peters and nurse David Shaffer.
12. Any party wishing to supplement any expert report must do so no later than October 12, 1998 unless further extension is granted by the court at the time of jury selection with good cause shown.
13. Jury selection in this case will commence at 9 AM on October 12, 1998 in Ct room No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse or as soon thereafter as the jury panel becomes available. On the morning the jury arrives they will be given the confidential Juror Information Questionnaire which is now standard in CRawford County so that copies may be provided to counsel at the time of jury selection. Counsel for the Meadville Medical Center has objected to the question with regard to relationship to the insurance industry and that objection is overruled and that question will remain in the questionnaire. Additionally, supplemental background questions will be asked by the court consistent with requests made by the plaintiffs and all counsel shall have an opportunity to follow-up as necessary with individual jurors and could possibly ask additonal questions not covered by the court with permission of the court.
14. The initial panel of jurors called with total 24 and the plaintiff will have 6 peremptory challenges and the defendants will share 6 peremptory challenges.
In addition, 6 jurors will be called for possible alternates adn the plaitniffs will have 2 peremptory challenges from that group and the defendants will have 2 peremptory challenges to share form that group.
15. There does not appear to be much of a dispute with regard to exhibits. The plaintiffs may use an anatomical chart and will have a rectal tube as an exhibit and the defendant, Meadville Medical Center intends to also have a rectal tube The parties have agreed that they can stipulate to the authenticity of medical records so that a record's custodian will not be needed (with the possible exception of the St Vincent's records with regard to the Meadville Medical Center) but all parties will reserve any objections they may have with regard to the contents of those records if there is an effort to intorudce any of them into evidence.
16. Depending on how the trial schedule works out, it may be necessary to take the Defendant Meadville Medical Center's nursing expert witness first sometime on Wednesday, October 21, 1998 and then Dr. Moekeh's expert, Dr. Hrebinko on Thursday October 22, 1998.
17. All counsel shall submit requested points for Charge as soon as practicabele but in no event later than the close of presentation of all evidence.
18. Any counsel desiring to submit a proposed Verdict slip, shall do so prior to the commencement of final arguments.

June 26, 1996 complaint for Indirect Criminal contempt for Violation of Protection from Aubse Order filed.

July 8, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 2, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on a complaint for indirect criminal contempt for violation of a protection from abuse order which has been filed by the Plaintiff through the Pennsylvania State Police.

The parties have stipulated to the facts in this case, and based on those facts, we decline to find the Defendant in contempt, and accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed.

July 8, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 2, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for protection under the Protection from Abuse Act. Both parties appear represented by counsel, and prior to the hearing, they have entered into and signed a stipulation and statement to the Court that essentially includes various provisions that would be includled in a protection from abuse order.

Accordingly, we enter an order without admission of the allegations of the petition on the Defendant, which order shall incorporate the stipulation and statement to the Court presented by the parties and shall be attached to this order which will include the remaining provisions not contained in that stipulation and statement to the Court.

Those remaining provisions are:

1. Insofar as the Defendant will not be permitted to go to the marital home during the term of this order, he is cautioned that he should not go to that residence even if he is invited. Any law enforcement officer will presume that he is in violation of the order if he is at the marital residence and in the event the parties wish for the Defendant to be able to go to the marital residence during the term of this order, they should seek a modification of the order prior to him doing so.

2. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Police Department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and to Crawford County Control

July 10, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 2, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing, the Plaintiff apparently appeared, but left the courthouse before the hearing commenced. The court waited approximately 25 minutes and the Plaintiff did not appear; and accordingly, it is ordered as follows:
1. The petition is dismissed.
2. The temporary Protection from Abuse Order of June 25, 1996 is hereby vacated.
3. A copy of this Order shall be sent by the Prothonotary to the Plaintiff at 162 Walker Drive, Meadville, PA 16335 to the Defendant at 109 Morgan village, Meadville, PA 16335, to the Meadville City Police Department, and to County Control.
4. While we would normally impose costs on the Plaintiff for failing to appear, it appears that she receives Public Assistance and may be in fact indigent; therefore, the costs in this case should be paid by Crawford County.

June 25, 1996 Petition for Entry of Agreement and Consent Custody Order filed. AND NOW, to-wit, this 25 day of June, 1996, upon Stipulation and Consent by the parties, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. The natural mother, Regina Hazen and the adult brother, Jonathan Rosen shall have joint physical and legal custody of the minor child Seth Ian Rosen.
2. Debra Rosen shall have no custody rights, either legal or physical.
3. The natural mother and Jonathan Rosen will share physical custody on holidays. Holiday custodial periods shall be by mutual agreement and within the best interests and welfare of the child.
4. The minor child shall be enrolled in the Avon Old Farms School in Connecticut.
5. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may hereafter obtain or be entitled to regarding the health, education and major events in the life of the minor child. Current and future health care, school personnel and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the minor child.
6. In the event that in the future it is determined that the minor child shall no longer attend the Avon Old Farms School, they shall consult and mutually agree upon another boarding school, or, should it be determined that the child's best interests are not served by attendance at a boarding school, the mother and brother shall continue to have shared and joint legal and physical custody but the child shall reside with the mother.
7. The parties agree that in the event the child shall need either psychological or psychiatric therapy that neither Dr. Norman Hoffman, nor Dr. albert Scott shall act as therapists.
8. Both parties acknowledge that it is in the child's best interests that they create and maintain a sence of mutual respect and considerationof and for each other, and shall at all times act in accordance with and in furtherance of this concept.
9. The parties shall between themselves make additional or alternative arrangements concerning custodial and visitation periods, taking into consideration their schedules as well as the schedule of the minor child. Such arrangements shall be by mutual consent, in the absence of which this Order shall govern.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall move out. Sole possession of the residence is awarded to Planitiff. Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff in any way. He shall not go to her house. Custody of the children is awarded to Plaintiff.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is 10-22-68 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to Jul 8, 1996AND NOW, July 2, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

Neither party has counsel, and the Defendant is explained of his right to couonsel, and indicates that he will proceed without an attorney.

He agrees to the entry of an order without admission of the allegations of the petition and accordingly, the following order is entered.

1. The Defendant shll not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff or any minor child named in the petition.

2. The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of the marital residence and the Defendant shall not go to that residence, nor shall he contact the Plaintiff in any way. He shall not go to the residence even if he is invited insofar as any police agency will presume that he is in violation of this order if he does so.

3. If the parties at any time in the future wish for the Defendant to be able to go back to the marital residence, they must seek modification of this order prior to him doing so.

4. The Plaintiff shall have sole custody of the minor children without prejudice to either party to file an appropriate custody action.

5. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the Police Department in which the Plaintiff resides and the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and to County Control.

6. A copy shall be sent by regular mail to the unrepresented Plaintiff at 422 Willow Street, Meadville, PA and to the unrepresented Defendant c/o the Crawford County Jail.

7. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

8. The Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject him to arrest for contempt of court orders. He is also reminded that this is an order of court and violation of this order may be punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months.

9. The Defendant's SSN is 238-19-1296 and his date of birth is 10/22/65.

10. If the Plaintiff and Defendant decide to live together contrary to this order, this order is still in effect until further order of court.

July 10, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 8, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. Both parties appear with counsel and after some negotiations, the parties agree to the entry of an order without the admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the Defendant. Accordingly, the following order is entered:

1. The Defendant shall not abuse, threaten to abuse, harass, or talk to the Plaintiff at any time or any place.

2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence at 11168 Lawrence Loop in Meadville at any time during the term of this order. The Defendant is cautioned that he should not go to the Plaintiff's even if he is invited because any law enforcement officer will presume that he is in violation of this order if he is at the Plaintiff's residence. If in the future the parties wish for the Defendant to go to the Plaintiff's residence, he should not do so without the parties previously seeking a modification of this order.

3. Pending further Order of Court, the Plaintiff will have temporary physical custody of the minor child, Amanda Nicole Lee, without prejudice to either party to file an appropriate custody action.

Jul 9, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, July 8, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Petition of the Plaintiff for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears but the Defendant does not appear and has not been served.

The Plaintiff indicates that the Defendant is in the State of Ohio but apparently will be returning to Jamestown, Pennsylvania within the next couple days to pick up a check at the First National Bank. He receives those checks through Public Assistance twice a month.

In light of the fact the Defendant has not been served, this matter is continued generally to be reset upon motion of either party with the temporary order entered by President Judge Gordon R. Miller on June 28, 1996 to remain in full force and effect pending any further Order of Court.

A copy of this order shall be sent to the proper police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and to County Control.

A copy shall also be sent by regular mail to the Plaintiff at Lot 19 Crystal Lake, Hartstown, Pennsylvania and to the unrepresented Defendant at his last known address at 166 Wise Road, Jamestown, Pennsylvania.

July 9, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 9, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on and the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection from Abuse Act to the Prothonotary. A final The Defendant appears with counsel and the Plaintiff indicated on July 8, 1996, that she wished to withdraw this Petition, but she did not want to pay the court costs.

She was advised at the time the Temporary Order was issued that if she wished to withdraw the Petition, she would have to withdraw it prior to the time of the hearing (and (pay the court costs or else appear at the time of the hearing to convince the Court that she cannot afford the court costs, and therefore, the Petition should be withdrawn without the payment of costs.

She has done neither, and accordingly, this Petition is DISMISSED insofar as the plaintiff is no here to pursue it, and insofar as she is not here to convince the Court she cannot afford to pay the court costs, she shall pay costs in the amount of $103.50 within 30 days of the date of this Order or she may be held in contempt of court.

A copy of this Order shall be sent by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, by the Prothonotary to the plaintiff at her address at P.O. Box 127, Hartstown, Pennsylvania, 16131. A copy shall also be provided to Crawford County Control, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and to the Police Department in the jurisdiction where the plaintiff resides.

AND NOW, this 3 day of July , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions:

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is unknown and date of birth is 5-31-60 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for July 12, 1996 , at 11:30 am., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

July 16, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection from Abuse Act. The defendant appears without counsel and the plaintiff does not appear, but she called the Judge's Chambers on July 11, 1996, to indicate that she was in an automobile accident and wished to withdraw this PFA action and would be filing a motion to do so and paying the court costs.

It appears that the plaintiff as a result of the automobile accident will be hospitalized for several months.

No one appears today to indicate to the Court that the plaintiff wishes to have a continuance of this matter or to keep the Order in effect, and based on her comments to the Judge's Chambers on July 11, 1996, we have every reason to believe that she, therefore, does not wish to have this Order continued in effect.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the Order which was entered as a Temporary Order of July 3, 1996 shall terminate immediately without further action by any party. The County shall pay costs.

A copy of this Order shall be sent to the Police Department in the jurisdiction where the plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry and County Control. A copy shall also be sent by Regular Mail to the plaintiff's home address at 757 Rockwood Drive, Apartment #303 in Titusville, Pennsylvania and to the defendant at 517 West Central Avenue, Titusville, Pennsylvania.

PETITION FOR DISAPPROVAL OF PRIVATE TAX CLAIM SALE AND FOR HEARING
1 copy atty.

AND NOW, this 3rd day of July , 1996, upon consideration of the within petition for Disapproval of Private Tax Claim Sale and For Hearing, the proposed private tax claim sale of the above described real estate to Rober E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons is hereby stayed and a hearing on the same is set for the 15th day of August, 1996, in Court Room No. 1 or 2 at 9:15 a.m. in the Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania; all proceedings to be stayed pending said hearing.

Counsel for Petitioner is directed to firthwith serve a copy of the within Petitio nand Order upon Frederic Wagner, Director of the Crawford County Tax Claim Bureau and upon Roger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons, the current bidders, at their last known address and upon Towne Development, the last assessed owner, at its last known address, both by regular mail and file an Affidavit of Service thereon.

By the Court:
Gordon R. Miller, J

July 26, 1996 Affidavit of Service filed. Before me, a Notary Public, appeared Kemp C. Scales, Esquire, who, after being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says:

1. That he is counsel for the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Titusville, Pennsylvania, who filed a Petition for Disapproval of Private Tax Claim Sale in the above-captioned case and as such makes this affidavit on behalf of said Petitioner.

2. thaton July 3, 1996, this Court entered an Order in said case setting a hearing date for August 15, 1996, and directing that service of the said Petition and Order be made by regular mail on Frederic Wagner, Director of the Crwaford County Tax Claim Bureau, upon Roger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons, the current bidders, and upon Towne Development, the last assessed owner, at tis last-known address;

3. that service of the Petition and Order was made on the said Frederic Wagner, Roger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons by regular mail on July 8, 1996; and

4. that a copy of the Petition and Order was sent by rregualr mail to Towne Development at its last-known address on July 8, 1996, and agian on July 12, 1996 to a slightly different address, but in both cases the mail was returned as undeliverable, as shown by the attached evelopes.

Kemp C. Scales

Aug. 22, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 15, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing on the petition of the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Titusville to disapprove the proposed private sale of land from the Crawford County Claim Bureau to Rodger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons, all parties were present in person.

The Redevelopment Authority of the City of Titusville is willing to bid $750 and higher to purchase the property that is subject to these proceedings.

Accordingly, the proposed private sale of the land to Rodger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons is disapproved. The Tax Claim Bureau is ordered and directed to conduct and auction sale bid of the property among the parties to the proceedings. The price below which the property shall not be sold is $750 plus the costs incurred by the Tax Claim Bureau in advertising the sale of $162.14. Therefore, the premium price set by the Court is $912.14.

The Director of the Crawford County Tax Claim Bureau shall conduct an auction sale bid between the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Titusville and Rodger E. Parsons and Lois J. Parsons forthwith.

The Successful bidder shall pay the full cost of the successful bid in cash or cash equivalent no later than 4:30 p.m. on this day.

2. Speical Conditions: Pending further order of court Wren Dugan shall be soley in Deborah Lehman's custody. The Defendant may not go within 100 yards of Wren nor may he contact her in anyway.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 173-26-9138 and date of birth is 10/25/33 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for July 16, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

July 26, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 16, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on a petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The parties appear without consel and the Defendnat is advised of his right to counsel and indicates that he will not have an attorney present at these proceedings. The parties have apparently discussed this matter with the Defendant speaking to an attorney on behalf of the Plaintiff, and the Defendant agrees to the entry of an order without admission of the allegation of the petition. Therefore, the following order is entered:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff, Wren Dugan, at any time or any place.

2. Pending further order of Court, Wren Dugan shall be solely in Deborah Lehman's custody and the Defendant may not go within 100 yards of Wren Dugan, except when it is at a joint counseling session as herinafter described.

3. The Defendant agrees that he will participate in counseling with the Plaintiff Wren Dugan, with that counseling to be arranged through Joan Mason, Esq., and to take place with Audrey Smith. The purpose of that counseling will be to re-establish the relationship between Plaintiff/daughter and Defendant/father. The Defendant will pay for the cost of all such counseling.

3. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and to County Countrol. A copy shall also be sent by the Prothonotary by regular mail to Deborah Lehman at 678 Russell Avenue in Meadville and to the Defendant at 982 Grove Street in Meadville.

4. This order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

5. The Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject him to arrest or contempt of court orders.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 7/23/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
Faxed CSPD

AND NOW, this 10th day of July , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Custody and visitations shall occur in the manner provided by the current custody order entered in this court. The parties shall cooperate on health care matters. The child Benjamin shall have an EEG as soon as possible.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is 6-14-66 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for July 19, 1996 , at 3:30 pm., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
Gorodn R. Miller, J

7a. The defendant shall not take the children out of Crwaford County till further order of Court.

Jul 11, 1996 SHERIFF'S RETURN: SERVED Laurie Lee Bradley personally on July 10, 1996 at 3:07 PM by handing her a copy of the Protection from Abuse at her residence, 13044 Carr Road, Conneautville, Crawford County, PA.

So answers,

Shawn E. Ashbaugh, Deputy
Scott D. Young, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

July 19, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 19, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Defendant's Request to Continue a Protection from Abuse Hearing scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on this day. Both parties appear represented by counsel, and there are extensive discussions about the allegations in this case, and after hearing all of the discussions and considering all of the facts, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the hearing scheduled for this day shall be continued, to be held before the undersigned in Courtroom No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse on August 14, 1996, at 1 o'clock p.m.

Pending that hearing, the Temporary Order entered in this case shall remain in full force and effect.

With respect to the current periods of temporary physical custody with the natural father, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that they shall be continued as set forth in the Temporary Order, except that on the weekend which would be the weekend of July 26, 1996, instead of the father having the children commencing on Friday at 6 p.m., he shall have the children commencing on Thursday at 6 p.m. and continue through Sunday at 6 p.m., and the same thing shall occur on the weekend which would normally begin on August 9, 1996, with the father, therefore, having the children from Thursday, August 8, 1996 at 6 p.m. until August 11, Sunday, at 6 p.m.

A copy of this Order shall be sent to Crawford County Control and the proper agency in the jurisdiction where the plaintiff resides.

The child is scheduled for an EEG at Children's Hospital on July 29, 1996. Both parties may be present at that time, but the plaintiff's girlfriend may be at Children's Hospital, but may not be present at the location of the EEG. In the event any medical personnel wish to talk to her, they shall make arrangements to do that if it is necessary for her to describe anything that she has seen with regard to the child, but she shall not be in the immediated area of the EEG or in the waiting room for the EEG.

Dec 18, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, December 18, 1996, the Plaintiff appears in Motions Court with a petition to hold the Defendant in contempt in this custody action. Apparently, the Plaintiff previously appeared in Motions Court on Dec 13, 1996 in front of Judge Miller and did not have all of the paper work correct although both parties were present in the courtroom. Judge Miller would not entertain the petition and instructed the Defendant that he would be receiving a copy of the petition in writing in the mail and the Plaintiff apparently sent that on Dec 13, 1996 by Certified Mail. The Defendant does not appear this day in Motions Court.

We will schedule hearing in this matter for Jan 9, 1997 at 3:30 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Pending further Order of Court, the periods of temporary physical custody or visitations with the Defendant father will be suspended.

Insofar as the father is not present in court thsi day this Order is without prejudice to him to come to Motions Court tohave that part of the Order reviewed provided he gives the required Notice to the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff shall be responsible for providing the Defendant with Notice of the January 9 hearing in the appropriate form.

Jan. 8, 1997 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, January 8, 1997, after Mediation and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is Ordered and Decreed as follows:

The Order of this Court dated August 12, 1996, is hereby reaffirmed in full, with the exception of paragraph nine in regard to costs, and with the following additions:

1. Each parent shall submit to and provide this Court with the results of a psychological evaluation conducted by Kathy S. Berkey, M.A., of Mercatoris and Associates. Said results shall be submitted to the Court within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Order. Each parent shall bear the cost of his or her own evaluation and shall make payment directly to Kathy S. Berkey within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the result of smae.

2. The child, Francesca C. Henry, shall be evaluated by Katherine A. Anderson, PhD, of Village Psychological Services in Saegertown, Pennsylvania. The cost of Dr. Anderson's evaluation of Francesca C. Henry shall be equally divided between the parents, with payment to be made to Dr. Anderson within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the evaluation from her office. The results of Frankie's evaluation shall be submitted to the Court within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Order.

3. costs of the mediation conference shall be borne by Crawford County.

4. Once the results of the psychological evaluations are received by the Court, this matter shall be scheduled for further mediation.

BY THE COURT:
Gordon R. Miller, J.

1-16-97 MAILED Pltf, Deft & Berkey

Feb. 3, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 9, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for civil contempt of a custody order filed pro se by the Defendant. The Defendant appears without counsel and the Plaintiff appears with an attorney, and we proceed informally.

The order that is currently in effect is an order entered as a result of a mediation in August of 1996 and the parties have had addtional mediation on December 19, 1996, which resulted in a temporary order but keeps the August 1996 order in effect but also requires both parties andthe child to be evaulated by a psychologist. Once that occurs, there will be a new recommedaition for an order.

The defendant, who is the Petitioner in this matter, alleges carious violations of the August 1996 order. After listening to this, if there are any violations, they probably are minor and it just sounds like these parties simply cannot communicate in order to allow the most peaceful exchanges of this child, and the most peaceful periods of time in each other's custody.

We decline to hold the Plaintiff in contempt but we will modify the August 1996 temporary order as follows:

1. Prior to periods of temporary physical custody beginning with the father. he shall provide some sort of locking mechanism on the bedrrom utilized by the child Francesca so that she is able to lock her door when she wishes to do so. If that occurs by 5:00 p.m. onFriday, January 10, 1997, then the periods of temporary physical custody will begin again on that day as provided in the order so taht the first period of temporary physical custody will be that day from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 Sunday, January 12, 1997, at 5:00 p.m. If that doe snot occur, then the father shall notify the mother by noon on Janury 10, 1997 that he has not met that requirement and they every other weekend periods of temporary physical custody will then begin on January 17, 1997, and thereafter, provided he does meet that requirement.

If the mother doe snot hear form the father that he has not met that requirement, she shall assume that he has and the temporary physical custody periods shall begin on January 10, 1997.

2. Paragraph 8 of the order of August 1996 shall be modified to include, in addition to the language that is already in place, that any agreed modificaiton by mutual consent shall be in writing and signed by both parties, or this order shall be followed completely as it is written, until there is a new order of Court.

3. Paragraph 4 of the August 1997 order is modified to indicate that not only shall neither parnt use illegal drugs or alcohol at any time when the parent has the care and custody of the subject child, but in addition, father shall have no alcoholic beverages in the household during any period of time that the child is in his custody.

4. This order is not intended to preclude either parent form taking the child to a restaurant which s serves alcoholic beverages, so long as neither parent shall consume alcoholic beverages in that establishment when the child is with the parent.

5. The order of August of 1996 doe snot preclude the father from leaving the child from time to time solely in the custody of his significant other, Ms. Boyer, and it is not our intention to do so at this time; however, the August 1996 order is expanded to require that Ms. Boyer not be consuming alcoholic beverages at any time the child is in her custody during such periods of temporary physical custody with the father.

6. These parties are strongly cautioned to not attempt to influence this child in any way to dislike the other parent, but as the previous order indicated, each parent should do everything possible to try to encourage this child to love the other parent and to create a favorable attitude on the part of the child toward both parents.

7. With respect to numbered paragraph 7 of the August 1996 order, it is the court's intention that the parent in custody of the child doe snot need to immediately notify the other parent of a minor injry that the child has sustained, since the Court recognizes that children playing form time to time sustain bruises andother minor . If there is a serious illness or injury, then notification should be immediate but if there is a minor injury or minor illness, it is sufficient that the parent notify the other parent when there is an exchange of custody of the child.

In all other respects in which this order doe snot modify the language of the August 1996 temporary order, which become an order of Court, it shall remain in full force and effect until there is a new order of Court entered

May 7, 1997 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, May 7, 1997, after Mediation and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is Ordered and Decreed as follows:

1. Legal custody of the subject minor child, Francesca C. Henry, shall be shared by the Father and Mother, the parties to this action, with each parent entitled to full access to any records relating to the child held by a third party including, but not limited to school records and medical records and each parent shall have equal input regarding important decisions affecting the child such as education, religious instruction and medical treatment.

2. Primary physical custody of Francesca C. Henry shall be with her Mother, subject to the following conditions:

a. The Father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his temporary physical custody every other weekend from Friday at 5:00 p.m. until Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

Sept 2, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 22nd, 1997, this matter comes to Motion Court, Petition for Special Relief filed by the defendant in this custody action.
1. The defendant is present with counsel, and plaintiff's counsel is present. And after some discussion, it is agreed and accordingly ordered and directed that the current Custody Order or Orders in effect shall be modified to the extent that rather than the plaintiff having temporary physical custody of the minor child for a full weekend, he shall have such temporary physical custody on the weekends for which he is entitled to have custody on Saturday from 6:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. and on Sunday from 6:30 a.m. until 7 p.m.
2. This Order is intended to be an interim order until there can be further mediation, and the defendant is directed to request such mediation within tem days from this date.
3. If she fails to do so, this Order will be null and void immediately. If she does so, it will remain in effect until the time of mediation and is not intended to guide the mediator in any manner insofar as we have not conducted a full hearing in this matter.

June 2, 1997 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:
1. The defendant has filed a counter affidavit in which he does not oppose the divorce decree but in which he indicated he wished to claim economic relief which may include alimony, division of property, lawyers' fees or expenses or he may wish to claim other important rights.
We believe the Pennsylvania Ruled of Civil Procedure pertaining to divorce allow the defendant to preserve his right to file such claims by so indicating on the counter affidavit.
On the other hand, the plaintiff is entitled to know what claims specifically the defendant intends to raise and those actual claims should be raised either in a "counterclaim" or in a subsequent petition pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.15.

ACCORDINGLY, the defendant is granted thirty (30) days from the date of this Order to file a proper pleading pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.15 so the plaintiff will know what claims the defendant wished to make.

If the defendant does so in a timely manner, either party may then request the appointment of a Master in the manner set forth in the Local Rules.

If the defendant does not file the pleading as required by Rule 1920.15 within 30 days from the date of this Order, he shall have been deemed to waive any claims that he has and upon praecipe of the plaintiff, the divorce will be granted.

DIVORCE DECREE FILED

July 3, 1997 Both parties had agreed to a 3301(c) divorce and had filed their Affidavits of Consent. The defendant, however, also filed a counter-affidavit under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code indicating he wished to claim economic relief which may include, alimony, division of property, lawyers' fees or expenses or other important rights.

On May 30, 1997, we entered an Order directing that the defendant file a proper pleading within thirty (30) days so that the plaintiff would know what issues specifically the defendant wished to raise.

He filed a petition for relief in divorce in a timely manner, but the only issue that he raises in that petition is non-economic, specifically custody.

Since custody is not an economic issue and can be raised in any custody action, we are going to grant the divorce as requested insofar as we are not terminating any rights of the defendant and specifically economic rights that he wishes to pursue.

ACCORDINGLY, we will enter the following Decree:

DIVORCE DECREE

AND NOW, July 3, 1997, it is ordered and directed that DONNA ANDRUSICHEN, Plaintiff, and THOMAS ANDRUSICHEN, Defendant, are divorced from the bonds of matrimony.

The Court retains jurisdiction of any claims raised by the parties to this action for which a final Order has not yet been entered.

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
1 copy Plaintiff
Faxed PSP

AND NOW, this 18th day of July, 1996, upon review of the petition of the Plaintiff, theCourt enteres the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. The Plaintiff is awarded exclusive possession of the marital residence located at 10793 Konneyaut Trial, Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania 16316. The Defendant is not permitted to go to the marital residence. If a Protection FromAbuse Order is eventually entered against the Defendant, the Defendant will be permitted to pick-up his personal belongings at the martial residence after the hearing. The Defendant is permitted to go to the marital residence on the evening after the eventual hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Protection From Aubse in order to pick-up from the marital residence his personal belongings.

3. The Plaintiff is awarded primary physical custody of the parties daughter, Jamie M. Neff until further order of court.

4. The Defendant is not permitted to go to the Plaintiff's place of employment at the Meadville Tribune. The Defendant is not permitted to contact the Plaintiff, unless if he telephones the Planitiff for the sole purpose of discussing the parties two minor daughters.

5. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe it has been violated.

6. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police at the Meadville Barracks, Conneaut Lake Police Department and to County Control.

7. Service of a copy of the Petitioner and this Order shall be made uponthe Defendant by the Plaintiff's attorney serving a copy of it upon him by certified mail.

8. This Temporary Order shall remain in full force and effect unless modified or terminated by further Order of this Court. Liability for payment or fees and costs will be determined by final court order.

9. The Defendant is reminded that this is an Order of Court and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine up to $1,00000 and a jail sentence of up to six (6) months.

10. Additional Provisions:

11. The Court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

Hearing is hereby set for July 29, 1996, at 11:30 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom NO. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. The Defendant is advised he may retain a lawyer to represent him at said hearing if he so desires but he is not required to do so.

BY ORDER OF COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

So answers,
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

July 31, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 29, 1996, after a formal hearing, where the parties appeared without counsel, the Court is satisfied that the plaintiff has carried her burden of proof by the fair weight of the evidence, and accordingly, enters the following Order:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, or threaten the plaintiff.

2. The defendant shall not go to the plaintiff's home or place of business except as hereinafter provided.

3. The defendant may contact the plaintiff for the purpose of discussing matters involving the children, provided any calls are during daylight hours and are not abusive, harassing, or threatening.

4. The Court envisions, at the moment, a bitter custody dispute as it appears that both parties are seeking primary physical custody. We will not hold a custody hearing now, and therefore, we cannot make any permanent Order. However, we are making an Order that is temporary until a final Order is entered.

5. The parties shall have joint legal custody in their children. Britteney appears to be living with her father because her father took her when the parties separated. That arrangement shall continue until further Order of Court. The mother shall have the right to have custody of Britteney on the following dates: On Saturday, August 3, 1996, at 10 o'clock a.m., until Sunday, August 4, 1996, at 5 o'clock p.m.; on Saturday, August 10, 1996 at 10 a.m. until Sunday, August 18, 1996, at 1 p.m. The mother shall have the responsibility of picking the child up when the visitations begin and the father shall have the responsibility of picking the child up when the visitations end. The mother shall have a right to call and talk to her daughter during periods of time when her daughter is not with her on two occasions per week.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 8/14/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Oct. 29, 1996, Affidavit of consent of defendqnt filed.

Oct. 29, 1996, Upon praecipe of plff. attorney, to transmit the record, this case moved to court.

Nov. 8, 1996 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the rrecord and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because: As to a 3301(c) divorce: There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) in the form required by 1920.73 was mailed or delivered to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit; and the parties have not executed and filed with the Prothonotary a waiver of notice substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1920.72(c).

Rule 1920.42(b) has not been complied with. Effective January 1, 1996 the 3301(c) Affidavit must be executed 90 days or more after both filing and service of the complaint.

There is not showing that the parties have complainted the Seminar for Separating Parents local rule L1930.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

AND NOW, this 22nd day of July , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff or children in any way. Defendant shall not go to Plaintiff's residence. Temporary custody is awarded to Plaintiff.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 164-22-6658 and date of birth is 3-17-41 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for August 1, 1996, at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

11. The planitiff shall not do anything to encourage or invite the defendant to violate this Order. In other words, she shall not contact him and ask him to move in with her or to resume some relationship with her. If the plaintiff does something to cause the defendant to violate this Order, the defendant shall resist her efforts. In the event that the plantiff or the parties desire to terminate this Order, there is a process for that by filing a motion or petition with the Court and obtaining a Court Order modifying, terminating or vacating this Order. Until that happens this Order will be effect and any Police Officer has a right to assume this is the final order.

12. The defendant shall not be within 100 yards of the plaintiff's home. If it becomes necessary for him to interview persons who live within 100 yards of the plaintiff's home, he shall attempt to have someone else interview them or he can interview them on the telephone or he can file a petition with the Court for special relief to intereview people, it that is necessary to protect his interest in these cases.

Aug. 2, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, August 1, 1996, the parties appeared in court. The plaintiff was represented by counsel. The defendant had no counsel.

The Court briefly described the PFA process to the defendant and he understood it. The parties have agreed to enter into a Consent Order. In doing so, the defendant doe snot admit to any of the facts alleged in the Petition, andthe parties have agreed that this Order shall have no effect on the children whatsoever, but shall simply be a Protection Order protecting the plaintiff personally from any abuse or threatened abuse by the defendant.

ACCORDING, based upon the agreement of the parties, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff.

2. The defendant shall not go to the plaintiff's residence or any place where she is employed or attending any educational program.

3. The defendant shall not contact the Plaintiff except through third parties. For instance, he may have his attorney contact her attorney because there obviously are ongoing matters involving these parties. This Order simply prohibits the defendant from ahving any personal contact with the plaintiff.

4. We enter no Order protectin the children or providing for custody or visitation with the children. This Order current investigation by CYS. Neither party is willing to enter into any agreement at the moment regarding the children. THEREFORE with respect to the chidlren, the parties are left to other remedies such as through Juvenile Court, Custody Court, et cetera. This Order shallhave absolutely no effect on any matter involving the children.

5. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police at meadville and to County Control. A copy shall be sent to the defendant at his residence at 7097 Leach Road, Conneaut Lake, pennsylvania 16316.

6. This Order shall remain in full force and effect for one year form this date, unless modified or terminated by further Order of Court. Any Court Order entered with respect to the children shall supersede this Ordr insofar as the children are concerned and insofar as any permanent contact between the plaintiff and the defendant are concerned.

7. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

8. The defendant is advised that violations of this Order will subject him to arrest and/or contempt of court proceedings. He is reminded that this is an Order of Court and a violations may be punishable by a fine of form $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to 6 months, or both.

9. Since the defendant has a limitied income and appears to be disabled, costs shall be paid by Craford County.

Otherwise jury selection will take place on October 19, 1998. It is anticipated that this case will take one to one and one-half days to try.
2. Description of the case. Plaintiff is int he business of publishing and selling books and other written materials dealing with automobile repairs, etc. Defendant was an independant contrac tor who sold Planintiff's products in and around Northwestern PA, Western New York an Eastern Ohio. Defendant terminated his relationship with Plaintiff. Plaintiff retrieved from Defendant its materials in Defendant's possession, gave Defendant credit for the materials that wre retrieved, and now brings suit against the Defendant to recovere sums due to Plaintiff in the amount of $11,987.03. Defendant claims he terminated his relationship with the Plaintiff because Plaintiff was beginning a direct sales operation that by-passed him in the area he was srving. He claims that he was to have been the exclusive representative of the Plaintiff in this geographic area in his defense of the suit Defendant claims that the Plaintiff did not give him appropriate credit toward what he owed them.
In addition, the Defendant filed a counter claim against the Plaintiff alleging that the Plaintiff breached its contract of exclusive territory with the Defendant resulting in the Defendant suffering damages in the nature of lost profits.
Defendant believes that this action was so wrong that he is entitled to punitive damages.
There is not much of a dispute as to the items that were returned from the Defendant to the Plaintiff but there is a dispute as to the credit the defednant is entitled to receive, if any, by reason of those return items.
3. Issues. Amonng the number of issues presented in this case are:
a. A determination of the credit, if any, the Defendant is entitled to by reason of the materials that were returned to the Plaintiff.
b. Whether or not there are any outstanding monies due form the defendant to the Plaitniff by reason of materials sold.
c. Whether or not the Defendant and plaintiff had entered into an oral agreement giving the Defendant an exclusive territory and if so whether the Plaintiff breached that agreement.
d. Whether or not any breach by the Plaintiff or other conduct by the Plaintiff entitled the Defendant to punitive damages.
4. The plaintiff claims the following damages; The difference between the charges it made to the Defednat for items the Defendnat acquired and payments and credits the Defendant would be entitled to. Plaintiff seeks money damages in the amount of $11,987.03 plus costs.
5. The Defendant claims the following damages
Lost Subscriptions $9500 Lost Profit 8,000. Punitive damages $
6. The Plaintiff's case in chief.
a. Witnesses Mike Dickson and Richard Laimbeer
b. Bills. none
c. Exhibits. The Defendant's exhibits are not entirely identified at this point other than it intends to use a final inventory and a 20 page sttement that appear as Exhibits A and B to its complaint.
7. The defendant's case in chief: A. witnesses Edward A. Williamson and Cynthia Williamson The Defendant may use additional witnesses. If the Defendant intends to do so he shall give a list of those witnesses, together with their addresses and telephone numbers, to counsel for the Plaintiff in writing no later than 4:30 pm on Wednesdays October 14,1998.
b. Bills. None
c. Exhibits. The Defendant intends to use the exhibits listed on his pretrial narrative statement.
8. Stipulations. THe parties have not entered into any stipulations at this point. However this Court encourages counsel ot work diligently to accomplish a matter we would have accomplished at the pretrial conference had there been enough time. We believe that the parties ought to narrow the issues as much as possible and determine which charges, credits, invoices etc are in dispute and which are not in dispute. We do not expect disputes over matters that are clearly obvious. We believe that this trial should center around the items that are truly in dispute.
9. All counsel shall prepare and exchange written voir dire questions not later than 4:30

AND NOW, this 23rd day of July ,1996 it is ordered and decreed that the parents in this matter shall satisfactorily complete the Seminar for Separating Parents in accordance with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc. at 996 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335; the Prothonotary at the Crawford County Courthouse; or the Court Administrator at the Crawford County Courthouse.

Application for attendance at the seminar must be made by the plaintiff or petitioner within fifteen (15) days after the pleading or petition is filed; and by the defendant or respondent within fifteen (15) days after he or she is served with the pleading or petition.

THE SEMINAR MUST BE COMPLETED WITHIN FORTY-FIVE (45) DAYS AFTER APPLICATION. FAILURE TO ATTEND THE SEMINAR MAY RESULT IN SANCTIONS, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT, A DISMISSAL OF THE ACTION OR A DELAY IN THE PROCEEDINGS UNLESS ATTENDANCE IS WAIVED BY ORDER OF COURT.

If either party has any questions about this seminar he/she should consult an attorney or refer to the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court that are available in the Prothonotary's office and in the Crawford County Law Library or contact the Center for Family Services, Inc.

Apr. 30, 1997 Consent Custody Agreement by Plaintiff and Order filed. AND NOW, this 30 day of April, 1997, upon presentation of the Stipulation and Consent of the parties, attached hereto and after consideration of same, it is hereby ORDERED, DIRECTED AND DECREED that:

1. The parties shall have shared legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Dwight, Aaron and Melanie Fike. Both parents and Judy Davis are entitled to full access to medical records, educational records and other important documents. Further, the parties shall consult with each other when making important decisions affecting the children's health, education and religious instruction.

2. The children will stay in the primary physical custody of their grandmother, JUDY DAVIS, and will visit with their mother and father, JUDY A FIKE, and DWIGHT G. FIKE, as arranged by the parties, with the stipulation that the father's visits must be as approved by Children and Youth Services.

The holiday visitation schedule shall be worked out between the parties.

Should it be necessary for any party to cancel or modify the visitation as set out in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as they know of the necessary which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reason. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternate visits or make alternative arrangements.

The parties to this action agree that this Honorable Court retain jurisdiction of this matter. (SEE PAPERS FILED)

May 8, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 30, 1997, the plaintiff appears through counsel with a Motion to Approve a Custody Order and to Waive the Seminar for Separating Parents for the Defendants who have refused to take the seminar.

The child is now in West Virginia with the plaintiff, who is the natural grandmother of the child and she is having problems enrolling the child in school. The defendants remain in this jurisdiction and have limited visitation with the child. The parties signed a consent custody agreement which was presented to the Court to be made a Consent Custody Order and we refused to do so by an Order of April 2, 1997 because the defendants have refused to take the seminar for separating parents.

In order to allow this child to be enrolled in school in West Virginia, we have now signed the Consent Custody Agreement without the defendants attending the seminar for separating parents.

HOWEVER, they are still required to do so, and if they have not doe so within 60 days from this date, the Court Administrator is directed to schedule this matter for a hearing before the undersigned to determine whether they are in contempt of court for not doing so.

Aug. 20, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 15, 1997, having been duly served, both Defendants appear for the Court to determine whether they are in contempt of court for not attending the seminar for separating parents.

The Defendants indicate that they did not do so because the Plaintiff is not complying with the current custody Order and arrangement and we have advised the Defendants that they have recourse through a contempt proceeding if that is their position, but they must take the seminar for separating parents and the refusal to do so constitutes a contempt of court.

Accordingly, we adjudicate both Defendants in contempt and at this time we will withhold any punishment provided they complete the seminar for separating parents in Crawford County or an equivalent course in Venango County and provide a certificate to the Prothonotary within sixty (60) days from this date.

If they have not provided such a certificate indicating that both of them have completed the seminar, the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to issue a bench warrant for their apprehension and detention. They will not be bondable but will be subject to release from the Crawford County Jail upon proof of having attended the seminar or an equivalent program.

Aug. 14, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 1, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

The Plaintiff appears without counsel and the Defendant does not appear, having not been served. The Plaintiff indicates that she is not sure where he is currently residing, and accordingly, we will continue this matter generally, with the order entered by Senior Judge P. Richard Thomas on July 25, 1996 to remain in full force and effect.

Once the Defendant is served, the Court Administrator is directed to reschedule this matter for further hearing on the Plaintiff's petition.

A copy of this order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and to County Control.

If this matter has not been before the Court for further hearing within 180 days from the date of this order, the Prothonotary is directed to bring it to the Court's attention so that we may make disposition with regard to court costs.

Nov. 14, 1997 Stipulation and Consent Custody Order filed. AND NOW, this 1st day of Nov., 1997, upon agreement of the parties, each of whom has been represented by legal counsel, it is ordered and decreed by the Court as follows:

1. Legal custody of James A. Claude, Jr.,shall be shared between the mother and father, plaintiff and defendant herein, that is, each parent shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records and other important records. Also, each parent shall be entitled to take part fully in important decisions affecting their son, such as his education, medical treatment, and religious instruction.

2. Physical custody of James A. Claude, Jr shall be shared between the mother and father as follows:

A. Mother shall have primary physical custody.

B. Visitation/partial custody shall be mutually decided upon by the parents. In the event that the parents cannot mutually agree, then the following schedule shall be followed. Father shall give mother 72 hrs advance notice for any such weekend visitation.

C. Father shall be entitled to have James for temporary custody the first and third full weekend of the month (first full weekend to be defined as the first one in which Friday, Saturday, and Sunday all fall in the month), from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 4:00 p.m. In the event that James is involved with hockey during these visitation periods, father shall be responsible to transport him to and from this activity, and father will also be responsible for being sure his son makes his newspaper deliveries.

D. Christmas shall be divided such that the mother shall have custody of James Dec. 24th to Dec. 25th at 9:00 a.m., and fahter shall have custody from Dec. 25th at 9:00 a.m. until Dec. 26th at 8:00 P.m.

E. Thanksgiving shall be divided such that mother shall have custody on Thanksgiving Day and father shall have custody on the day after Thanksgiving from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

F. Summer vacation shall be divided such that mother shall have James one week and fahter shall have him the following. Weeks shall be alternated in this manner throughout the summer until the school year starts.

G. Transportation shall be shared such that the parent receiving the child is responsible for picking the child up.

H. Additional visitation shall be provided the father in the event it is mutually agreed upon between the parties.

Nov. 14, 1997, TEMPORARY ORDER. AND NOW, this 13th day of Nov. 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Mediator informs the Court that this matter has been settled but that the Mediator has incurred costs which reflect the time of the Mediator's staff in setting up the Mediation and so forth. The Mediator advises that those costs come to $20.00. These costs are therefore divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

2. The deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the father. The deposit shall first be applied against the father's share of costs and remainder, if any, remitted to him. Within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, the parties shall settle with each other such that each will have paid his or her one-half share.

AND NOW, July 29, 1996, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition a hearing on said Petition is hereby set for Tuesday, July 30, 1996 at 4:00 PM Courtroom NO. 1, Crawford County Courthouse Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335. Agency shall personally serve a true and correct copy of the foregoing Petition and Order upo nthe respondent, Arlene Siverling.

FOR THE COURT
Ann A. Lwaker, J

Aug. 1, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, July 30, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, Arlene Siverling appeared, believing that Jeffrey K. Millin, Esquire, was going to represent her. It turns out that he also represents Mrs. Siverling's attorney in fact, with whom there are some allegations, and therefore, Mr. Millin may have conflict of interest. Since Mr. Millin cannot represent Mrs. Siverling, the Court is continuing this matter to give Mrs. Siverling one final opportunity to obtain a lawyer.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. This hearing is ocntinued to 4:o'clock p.m. on Tuesday, August 13, 1996, in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.
2. The Court appointed William L. walker, Esquire, to represent Arlene Siverling at her expense. Mr. Walker shall attempt to meet with Mrs. Siverling as soon as possible at the David Mead Residence Inn at 455 Chestnust Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania. When he meets with her, he shall determine whether she has already hired someone else.
3. In the event that Arlene Siverling doe snot want William L. Walker to represent her and wants other representation, she shall contact another attorney within the next 24 hours to hire h him to represent her. If she hires another lawyer, then Mr. Walker will not be representing her.
4. The hearing will be held on August 13, 1996, whether or not Mrs. Siverling has an attorney.
5. If Mrs. Siverling has difficulty getting to the Crwaford County Courthouse at that time, she or her attorney shall contact the Court Administrator no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, August 9, 1996, to indicate that the hearing must be held at the Deavid Mead Residence Incc. If she does that, the Court Adminsitrator will discuss the matter with a representative of the David Mead residence Inn and arrange for a private room where this hearing can be held.

Sept 13, 1996 Certificate of completion of the Seminar for Separating Parents for DIANE MARIE GAGE, filed.

Sept 26, 1996 Certificate of completion of the Seminar for Separating Parents for STEVEN JOHN YANACEK, filed.

Oct. 28, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 25 day of October, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Megan Renee Yanacek, born July 3, 1985; Julia Mae Yanacek, born on Marcy 10, 1989; and Stevie RaeAnn Yanacek, born on January 15, 1992.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3) Mother shall retain primary physical custody of the children, subject to the visitation rights of the father as follows:

a) The father shall have the right to take the children into his care and custody every Thursday, beginning at or about 5:30 p.m. and continuing until 8:00 p.m. The father shall pick the oldest two children up at the day care center located at the First District School in Meadville. He shall pick up the youngest child, Stevie RayAnn before 6:00 p.m. at the Younger Years Day Care Center. The mother shall pick the children up between 8:00 p.m. and 8:15 p.m.

Costs and fee of this Mediation, are fixed at $240.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid by Crawford County, for the reason that the mother was authorized to proceed in forma pauperis and the father's income is modest.

Aug. 23, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 16, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection from Abuse Act. She appears represented by counsel, and the defendant does not have counsel for these proceedings and indicates that he is going to proceed in these proceedings without an attorney. The parties have reached and agreement for the entry of an Order with admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the defendant.

ACCORDINGLY, the following Order is entered:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten or stalk the plaintiff named in the Petition.

2. Primary physical custody of both minor children shall be with the plaintiff, pending further Order of Court in these proceedings or in any other proceeding that are appropriate, this Order being entered without prejudice to either party to file an appropriate custody action. At this time, the children are actually in the physical custody of the defendant's brother and sister-in-law, James and Pamela Terney, and they shall remain in the custody of James and Pamela Terney pending further Order of Court or until the plaintiff obtains other suitable housing, in which case, the children shall automatically be in the primary physical custody of the plaintiff without further Order of Court.

The defendant shall pay court costs in the amount of $93.50 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County on the First Floor of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville within 90 days of the date of this Order.

Apr. 1, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, March 26, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Defendant's petition for contempt with regard to a custody order. After mediation an order was entered by President Judge Gordon R. Miller on September 27, 1996 as a temporary order and neither party requested a De Novo Hearing and therefore it became a permanent order.

On or about February 25, 1997 the Plaintiff settled a pending divorce action with the Defendant and received $7,000 and apparently immediately thereafter moved to the State of Florida to obtain employment without notifying the Defendant that she was doing so. On or about March 3, 1997 she remarried although a Divorce Decree in Crawford County was not final until March 13, 1997 and it appears that the individual who she married was someone who would not have been known to the children for much of a period of time prior to her leaving the jurisdiction.

Ultimately, the Defendant determined where the Plaintiff was located and on or about the time the Defendant filed a petition for the Plaintiff to be held in contempt and a petition to modify the existing order, the Plaintiff finally also filed a petition to modify and obtain a mediator.

All of the Plaintiff's actions in removing the children to the State of Florida clearly are violations of the Court's Order of September 27, 1996 as well as the law of this Commonwealth with regard to relocation.

Accordingly, we find that the Plaintiff is in contempt of the Court's Order of September 27, 1996.

Based on that contempt, we will order the following:

1. Pending mediation in this matter, the legal and physical custody of the two minor children shall be primarily with the Defendant Albert L. Scowden.

2. The Plaintiff shall have supervised visitation with the visitations to be supervised by Charles Anderson every other Saturday from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. pending further Order of Court.

3. the Plaintiff may not remove the children from Crawford County pending further Order of Court whether the visitations are supervised or at some point and time are not supervised.

4. the children may not go to the State of Florida with the Plaintiff if there is a future order until such time as it is determined by the parties that any order entered by this Court will be given full faith and credit in the State of Florida. Apparently, the State of Florida will not recognize a temporary order after mediation that is not appealed to the Court for a De Novo Hearing, they shall have it reduced to an Order rather than a temporary order so that the State of Florida recognizes it and gives it full faith and credit.

5. The Plaintiff shall pay counsel fees to the Defendant in the amount of $750 total with $250 to be paid by the end of April 1997 and a like amount to be paid by the end of May and June of 1997. Those may be apportioned by the Defendant to Pennsylvania counsel or Florida counsel in his discretion.

Dec. 24, 1997, ORDER FILED AND NOW, Dec. 15, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for civil contempt of a custody order filed by the Plaintiff. After informal hearing, it appears that this matter is going back to mediation and rightfully so, since the parties appear to be having numerous disputes.

The record reflects that on March 31, 1997, the Plaintiff deposited $200 for mediation and a mediator was appointed. Apparently a hearing has not been scheduled because the parties were at one point getting along with the visitation plan set forth in our order of March 26, 1997.

At this time, we will continue generally the petition for contempt, pending mediation in this matter.

Pending that mediation, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to exercise her periods of supervised visitation every other Saturday from 1:00 PM until 5:00 PM, commencing with Dec. 20, 1997. She shall appear at teh Defendant's residence at that time, and the visitation shall be supervised by the Defendant, unless the parties can agree to some other person to supervise the visits pending mediation.

The children shall not leave Crawford County , pending further order of Court, when they are visiting with the Plaintiff, unless that occurs with the Defendant specifically present. In other words, if there is anther person agreed upon to supervise, those supervised visitations shall take place in Crawford County.

Additionally, the Plaintiff may call the children at the Defendant's residence at noon on Christmas Day, 1997, and the children shall be made available to answer that phone call.

Also pending mediation, the Plaintiff may call the children each Wednesday evening at 7:00 PM and they shall be made available to take that phone call.

At no time shall any party on either side influence the conversations that the children are having with their mother, and they shall be private conversations.

We remind the parties that our order of March 26, 1997, is still in effect in all respects, and if, after mediation, this matter is not resolved, the Plaintiff may request that the Court set aside time for a formal hearing on this contempt petition. At that time, she shall advise the Court Administrator of how long hearing is expected to take, and when she arrives for that hearing, she shall have the necessary evidence and witnesses available to proceed with the hearing.

In the event the parties modify the terms of this order, they shall do so in writing for it to have any effect. Both shall sign that writing.

With regard to our March 26, 1997 order, counsel for the Defendant notes that there is continuing a dispute as to the payment fo counsel fees required in Paragraph 5, in that the Defendant maintains that those were never paid, and the Plaintiff maintains that the Defendant told her that they didn't have to be paid. In the event this matter comes back before the Court for a hearing in the future, a cross petition may be filed by the Defendant and we will hear that at the same time, or at any time the Defendant wishes to file a petition with regard to that issue, it will be scheduled.

Dec 14, 1998 Order filed. And now, Dec. 11, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on the Defendant's petition for contempt based on the fact that in our Order of Marcy 26, 1997, the Plaintiff was ordered to pay the sum of $750 toward the Defenant's Attorney's fees as a result of her contempt, with the same to be paid in total by the end of June 1997. She did not pay that amount or any part of it because it appears that she was not satisfied with that Order and wanted to see receipts which really didn't have anything to do with the Order.
Accordingly, we find that she is in contempt and for her contempt she is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Correctionsl Facility for a period not to exceed 6 months. That sentence of incarceration is deferred until noon on Dec. 14, 1998. The Plaintiff may purge hereself of contempt and not be required to undergo such incarceration by paying to the Defendant's attorney the sum of $750 by that time, together with an additional $150 necessity of filing this petition for a total of $900.
If she does not pay that amount she shall report for incarceration at the Crawford county Correctional Facility and remain there for a period not to exceed 6 months, until she purges herself fo contmept by paying the total amount due.
The Plaintiff shall be taken in to custody by the Deputies at this time until she provides to the Deputies or the Sheriff her airplane ticket for return to Calif. Which shall be held by them epnding her purging herself from contempt in this matter

Apr. 7, 1997 Income and Expense Statement by Plaintiff filed.

Apr. 7, 1997 Amended Income and Expense Statement by Defendant filed.

Apr. 14, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 7, 1997, this matter is before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief relating to exclusive possession of the marital residence. The parties are separated and originally an amended income and expense statements have been filed by each. It appears that the Plaintiff/Husband retired and his retirement amounts to some $1,611 per month plus Social Security of $208.

The wife claims health conditions prevent her from full time employment and she no longer resides in the marital home. The Court hears informal input from both parties and after giving counsel the opportunity to amicably resolve the matter, the Court with the consent of counsel and the parties, enters the following Order in the cross-divorce actions.

1. The Defendant has agreed to pay alimony pendente lite in the amount of $275 per month direct to the wife with the first payment due April 7th and the last payment due on July 7, 1997.

The parties hope to have the divorce action settled by mutual agreement by said July date and if such is not the case, either party may petition the Court.

2. The parties mutually agree that the husband, Donald S. Burford, will have exclusive possession of the marital home and except on the date noted hereafter, the wife will have no right to go to the home for any purpose.

Nov. 12, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 1, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for special relief in this divorce action.
Both parties appear represented by counsel and after informal hearing, they agree to the entry of an order which prohibits either party from transferring, appropriating, pledging, alienating, selling, or encumbering in any way any of the marital property without the express written permission of the other party or without further order of Court.
The parties further agree and it is ordered that the Plaintiff will remain in possession of the Jeep vehicle and the '89 Chevy pickup truck, and the Defendant will remain in possession of the Firebird, and in fact may take that to the State of Florida when she moves to that area at the end of November 1996.
When the Defendant does leave for Florida, or shortly before she does, she will supply the keys to the marital residence to the Plaintiff so that he may periodically check that residence while its sale is pending and, if he desires, move into that residence, with the understanding that if the Defendant returns to the area and wishes to move into that residence, if it has not been sold by then, arrangements will be made to allow her to do so.
The marital possessions and furniture that are currently located in the residence will be left there with the exception that the Defendant may take out such items as she deems appropriate to take to the State of Florida with her. She shall make a written list of those items so that it is clear as to what items she has taken.
Finally, the court notes that the Plaintiff is in possession of certain marital assets which have been removed from the marital home and in addition to not in any way disposing of those items, he shall make those available for an appraisal by the Defendant's appraiser if she wishes or, in the alternative, if he has them appraised, he shall supply, through his counsel, a copy of that appraisal to the Defendant's counsel.

Sept. 6, 1996 Motion to Continue filed.

Sept. 9, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, September 6, 1996, the defendant in Motion Court, filed a Petition to Modify a Temporary Protection from Abuse Order and we scheduled this hearing so that the plaintiff's position could be heard, recognizing that she has counsel but that she is currently in mental health in-patient treatment.
Her counsel has had an opportunity to speak to her, and by agreement of the parties, the petition is granted to the extent that the defendant may enter the marital residence at which the plaintiff had exclusive possession between this day at 4 p.m. and Noon on September 7, 1996, for the sole purpose of securing the residence.
The defendant may not remove anything from the residence and he shall secure the residence as promptly as possible, and in any event, be out of the residence by Noon on September 7, 1996.
A copy of this Order shall be sent to the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, County Control and the police agency in the jurisdiction in which the plaintiff resides.

When we enter PFA orders protecting the plaintiff she asks to have them modified or vacated. When we tell the plaintiff that we will not consider any more PFA actionsbrought by her, since she has brought so many and vacated them, she continues to seek PFA orders.
The only logical answer is to keep the PFA order of October 24, 1996 in full force and effect until it expires.

1 copy Plaintiff

AND NOW, this 19 day of August , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Special Conditions: Pending further Order of Court the Plaintiff shall have sole custody of both minor children. The Plaintiff may go to marital home to remove some personal (see below)

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 162-60-7018 and date of birth is 1/29/65.

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. Aug. 30, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 27, 1996, after a hearing, the Court finds as follows:

1. It appears that both parties have been physically abusive with each other. It is obvious also that the Plaintiff after having obtained a Protection from Abuse Order either encouraged the Defendant to violate it by reconnecting with him or by staying with him and sleeping with him and is not afraid of him. However, it is not necessary that the Plaintiff be afraid of the Defendant under all of the ways that abuse can occur even though fear is an element to some of those ways.

2. We think that both of these parties have got to realize several things. They must not be physically abusive of each other. They should not bicker or quarrel in front of the children, although, that is not before us since this is an abuse case. The both must honor and respect Court Orders so that when the Plaintiff obtains a Court Order against the Defendant she does not encourage him to violate it. And so when she does get a Court Order against the Defendant, he does not permit her around him because he was ordered to stay away from her.

3. It appears to the Court that the Defendant has engaged in activities that amount to abuse under the Protection from Abuse Act. It also appears that these parties were either in turmoil or immature or indecisive and should have a period of time where they are away from each other in order to sort out their feelings and how they are going to act. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 8/21/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Nov. 6, 1996 Plaintiff's Exceptions to Child Custody Mediator's Recommended Court Order and Request for De Novo Custody Hearing filed.

Nov. 6, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 6th day of November, 1996, upon receipt and consideration of plaintiff's request for hearing de novo of the custody issues raised in the above action, hearing is hereby set for Monday, NOvember 25, 1996, at 9:15 a.m. in Courtroom #3 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, PA 16353.

FOR THE COURT,
Ann A. Walker, C.A.

11-6-96 Distributed by C.A.

Nov. 26, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 25, 1996, the matter is before the Court ostensibly for a de novo hearing. Both parties are represented by competent and experienced counsel and advise the Court at the time of hearing that two (2) issues are of concern to the parties in this case, namely, the smoking issue contained in Paragraph 9 and in view of the fact the father now has a new female friend, the language of Paragraph 5, which would seemingly preclude the father from remaining overnight at his lady friend's house together with the child. The matter is discussed informally by parties and counsel, and the Court resolves the situation as follows:

Paragraph 5 is rescinded completely as it applies to either party.

Paragraph 9 comes into focus that it is contended that the mother of the Defendant, Dawn Nickelson, smokes in the presence or in the same room as the child. The conditions of Paragraph 9 shall be complied with and there shall be added a specific condition that when the child is in the custody of any person, that person may not smoke in any room where the child is sleeping or napping.

Aug. 20, 1998 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 19 day of August, 1998, after further Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Jacquelyn N. Nickelson, born Oct. 9, 1994. The mother, Dawn L. Nickelson, shall retain primary physical custody of the child.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $210.00 ($60.00/hr. x 3.5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

The $200.00 deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was paid by the mother.

The father shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the mother the sum of $90.50, reimbursing her for his share of the costs and fees of this mediation.

The father shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford Co. the sum of $19.00, representing his share of the costs and fees of this mediation.

Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Except as otherwise stated, the provisions of this Order supercede those of all prior Orders. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

Sept. 3, 1998 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 25, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on the plaintiff's petition for contempt in this custody action.

Both parties appear represented by counsel and after an informal hearing, we re convinced that they simply were not communicating with regard to what would happen on the weekend beginning Thursday, July 30, 1998. The end result was that the plaintiff did not get a period of time to which he was entitled to temporary physical custody with the child.

We decline to hold the defendant in contempt. However, for 1998 the plaintiff will have temporary physical custody of the minor child beginning at noon on Thanksgiving Day and continuing through Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

In all other respects, the current custody order in effect will remain in full force and effect and these parties are encouraged to make sure that they are clear in their understandings of any modifications of the custody arrangement they agree to.

March 16, 1999 Order Filed. Adn Now, March 15, 1999 this matter has come before the court on an Amended Praecipe to Transmit the Record in a divorce action.
We previously by our Order of Feb 18,1999 declined to grant a divorce because the aprties were asking that na agreement be incormporated in to the decree, which agreement included equitable distribution provisions, but equitable distribution had never been raised as a count in the divorce.
In response to that the defendant at the same time she filed the Amended Praecipe to Transmit the Record, Filed a Petiton for Additional Remedies which she heads Court III Equitable Distribution.
Unfortunately all that document does is indicate that the parties have resolved their economic issues and requests the court to approve their Marriage Settlement Agreement. Thiat is not equivalent of actually raising an equitable distribution count in the pleadings. Therefore, we must once again decline to gatne this divorce and return the record to the Prothonotary.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree

Sept. 2, 1999 Order filed. And Now, August 31, 1999 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Defendant's petition for Contempt.
Essentially, the issue is whether the palintiff is in contempt for failing to make $200 per month payments toward an obligation of $10,000, pursuant to the marriage settlement agreement entered into by the parties and dated Feb 1, 1999.
The defendant maintains that the plaintiff should have begun making those payments in Feb. pursuant to the language contained in paragraph 14 of that agreement which indicates in the fist line "The effective date of this Agreement shall be the date upon which it is executed."
The plaintiff began making payments on July 4, 1999 and made another payment on Aug 1, 1999 and a third payment on Aug. 30, 1999.
Therefore, it would appear that he has made payments for June, July and August of 1999 and the defendant believes he still owes a payment for February, March, April and May of 1999.
The palintiff argues that also contained in Paragraph 14 if a final decree in divorce shall not have been obtained and entered within two years from the date of the execution of this Agreement, then in that event, this Agreement shall be null and void."
We note that in additionto the language, Para 5(b) which creates the $200-per=month obligation does not indicate a starting date and we can see that the plaintiff could have interpreted all of this together to be somewhat ambiguous and we can understand why he would not begin making payments until after teh divorce decree was entered.
Under those circumstances, we decline to hold him in contmept.
He is, however cautioned that he must make his payments in a timely manner, and from our best interpretation of the language of this agreement, that would seem to be by the last day of the month in which the payment is due.

Sept. 19, 1997 Order FAXED Attys. Walton, Irwin, Nelson.

October 13, 1997 TEMPORARY ORDER

And now, October 13, 1997, after Meditation and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is Ordered and Decreed as follows:

1. Legal custody of the subject minor child, Alyssa Marie Camasi, shall be shared by the Father and Mother, the parties to this action, with each parent entitled to full access to any records relating to the child held by a third party including, but not limited to school records and medical records and each parent shall have equal input regarding important decisions affecting the child such as education, religious instruction and medical treatment.

2. Primary physical custody of Alyssa Marie Camasi shall be with their Mother, subject to the following conditions:

a. The Father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his temporary physical custody during the first three weekends of every month from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m., beginning with the weekend of October 3rd through 5th, 1997. A weekend shall be defined as having Friday, Saturday and Sunday contained in the same month.

b. Beginning with the summer of 1998, the Father shall be entitled to take the child into his temporary physical custody beginning at 10:00 a.m. two days after school has dismissed for the year until two days prior to the commencement of the next school year. During the Father's summer custodial period, Mother shall be entitled to take the child into her temporary physical custody during the first three weekends of each month from Friday at 6:00 p.m. In addition, each parent shall be entitled to have the child in his or her custody for a period of fourteen consecutive days without visitation with the other parent. The parent shall provide a written notification to the other of the period each desires, and if the desired periods conflict, the Father shall have his requested period in even years, and the Mother shall have her requested period in odd years.

c. In the absence of an agreement between the parties to do otherwise, the following holiday schedule shall be observed:

i. Thanksgiving: There shall be two Thanksgiving holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. and ending on the Saturday following Thanksgiving at 2:00 p.m., and the second beginning on the Saturday following Thanksgiving at 2:00 p.m. and ending on the Monday following Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. In 1997, the Mother shall have the first visitation period and the Father the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate.

ii. Christmas: There shall be two Christmas holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Christmas Eve at 2:00 p.m. and ending on Christmas Day at 12:00 noon and the second beginning on Christmas Day at 12:00 noon and ending on December 26th at 2:00p.m. In 1997, the Mother shall have the first period and the Father the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate. In addition, Father shall be entitled to take the child into his custody from December 28th at 10:00 a.m. through December 31st at 5:00 p.m. each year.

iii. Easter: There shall be two Easter holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Thursday preceding Easter at 6:00 p.m. and ending on Holy Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and the second beginning on Holy Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and ending on Easter Sunday at 6:00 p.m. In 1998, the Father shall have the first visitation period and the Mother the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate.

iv. The child shall spend Mother's Day with his Mother from 10:00 a.m. through 6:00 p.m. and Father's Day with his Father during the same hours.

v. The holiday visitation periods shall take precedence over all other vivitation periods.

3. Transportation of the child on weekends, holidays and summer visits shall be shared between the parents with the parent receiving custody of the child to provide transportation. The proper child restraints i.e. car seat, seal belts, shall be worn at all times during the transporting of the child for said visits.

4. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person or situation, which may be harmful to the health, safety or well bieng of the child.

5. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, nor shall either parent permit others to do so, but rather each parent shall do everything in their power to promote a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward both parents.

6. Neither parent shall smoke cigarettes or permit others to do so in the same room as the child, in an automobile in which the child is being transported or in the child's bedroom, nor shall they permit others to do so.

7. Each parent shall inform the other parent immediately of any serious illness or injury regarding the child and both parents shall furnish the other with a current address and telephone number. If the child sustains a minor injury or illness, it is sufficient that the parent notify the other parent of same when there is an exchange of custody of the child.

8. Neither parent shall use illegal drugs or alcohol at any time when the parent has the care and custody of the subject minor child. This Order is not intended to preclude either parent from taking the child to a restaurant which serves alcoholic beverages, so long as neither parent shall consume alcoholic beverages in that establishment when the child is with the parent.

9. The parents are encouraged to make additional or alternative arrangements regarding physical custody of the child and may modify the herein custody arrangements if such modifications are by mutual consent and in writing and signed by both parents only; otherwise, the provisions contained herein shall govern and this order shall be followed completely as it is written.

10. The cost of the mediation conference shall be divided equally between the parents. The deposit paid in advance by the Mother shall first be applied to her share of the costs and the remainder refunded to her, less the cost of the Court's Order.

11. This Order is a temporary Order but shall become a permanent Order unless either parent files a request for a Hearing De Novo within twenty days of the date hereof.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

AND NOW, this 27 day of August ,1996 it is ordered and decreed that the parents in this matter shall satisfactorily complete the Seminar for Separating Parents in accordance with Crawford County Civil Rule L1930. Applications for the seminar may be obtained at the Center for Family Services, Inc. at 996 S. Main Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335; the Prothonotary at the Crawford County Courthouse; or the Court Administrator at the Crawford County Courthouse.

Application for attendance at the seminar must be made by the plaintiff or petitioner within fifteen (15) days after the pleading or petition is filed; and by the defendant or respondent within fifteen (15) days after he or she is served with the pleading or petition.

If either party has any questions about this seminar he/she should consult an attorney or refer to the Crawford County Civil Rules of Court that are available in the Prothonotary's office and in the Crawford County Law Library or contact the Center for Family Services, Inc.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Sept. 19, 1996 Affidavit of Service filed. I, the undersigned, being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that I served a true and correct copy of the Complaint in Custody certified by the Prothonotary of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on theabove named Defendant in person on August 30, 1996. The Defendant acknowledged service onAugust 30, 1996, by accepting delivery on that date as evidenced by the attached signed receipt. Guy H. Fultz

Oct. 21, 1996, Appearance of Fuller, kinnunen, Petruso, Gamble Fabian and Hall, by Ann Hansen Gamble, attrys. for dft. filed.

Nov. 6, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 4th day of November, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Timothy J. and Elizabeth R. Fultz.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3a. The children shall continue to reside with their father until November 15, 1996. Starting with November 15, 1996, the children shall reside with their mother for two consecutive weeks and then with their father for two consecutive weeks and the parties shall thereafter alternate biweekly custodial periods. The parties shall arrange to transfer the custody of the children between themselves after school, making reasonable use of the school bus system, while school is in session, and at 5:00 p.m., if school is not in session.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $212.00, are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

The deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the father. The deposit shall first be applied against the father's share of costs and the remainder, if any, shall be remitted to him. The mother shall pay her share of costs and fees to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order.

July 29, 1997 Petition for Contempt, NOTICE AND ORDER TO APPEAR and ORDER filed.
Legal proceedings have been brought against you alleging you have wilfully disobeyed the order of court.
Whether or not you file in writing with the court your defenses or objections, you must appear in person in court on Aug. 25, 1997 at 1:30 o'clock p.m., in Courtroom #1 or #2 of the Crawford Co. Courthouse, Meadville, PA.

BY THE COURT:
Gordon R. Miller, J.

Date: 7-28-97

July 29, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 28, 1997, at the time scheduled for hearing on the above abuse action, the defendant wife appears with interpreter (signer) and with an attorney, but plaintiff Guy H. Fultz fails to appear. The record in this case and the dockets in the Prothonotary's Office seemingly indicate that plaintiff Guy H. Fultz got no notice of this hearing date when the case was continued from June 30, 1997.
Counsel for wife advises the Court that this will be a contested custody matter and that the abuse petition apparently arises from disagreements between the parents over the custody issue.
Counsel for the wife defendant advises the Court that she intends to file immediately following the entry of this Order a Petition for Contempt in the custody action.
ACCORDINGLY, this Court sets a hearing for Aug. 25, 1997, at 1:30 on the wife's Petition for Contempt in the custody action at 1996-858 and will also at the same time hear the husband's abuse action at 1997-625.
Counsel for the wife advises the Court it will take at least a half day to hear the issues in these two cases.
Since wife is deaf, it is necessary for an interpreter (signer) to be procured and interpreter (signer) Bonnie VanNort appears this date and is directed following this hearing to the Court Administrator's Office with instructions that the Judge advised an interpreter (signer) will be needed for the hearing on Aug. 25, 1997.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S. J.

Sept. 2, 1997 Exhibits filed.

Aug. 29, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, Augsut 25, 1997, this custody matter is before the Court combined with an abuse action and a petition for contempt of the custody order plus a recently presented petition to modify the custody order presented by Defendant Connie C. Fultz, the court is advised that Crawford County Rules require the referring of the modification to a custody mediator but in view of the fact that the Court has the parties, the Children, and an interpreter in Court today to assist the Mother who is deaf, we determine to waive the rule requiring referral of the modification request to custody mediator and we will continue with a hearing this date and conclude the hearing on September 2, or 3.

Sept. 1, 1997 Petition to Modify Order for Custody and Order (not signed). Not signed by PRT but hearing held 8/25/97 & 9/2/97 See order. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Sept. 17, 1997 AND NOW, BY ORDER OF THE COURT, September 2nd, 1997, at the time scheduled for the continuation of this complex custody matter, the Court determines, and the parties and their counsel agree, that the best interests of parties will be served by referring this matter back to William Pineo, custody mediator, for further review and recommendation.
To enlighten Mediator Pineo, the Court notes that the original Order was subsequently modified by a written agreement prepared by the parties, dated March 6th, 1997, which we now direct will be included in the records of this case.
Further, this Court had informal discussions and a hearing on the request of the mother to move with the children to the town of Farmington, West Virginia. The Court continued the past hearing regarding the request to move to West Virginia, to September 2nd. At the time the hearing was to recommence this date, mother and her counsel advised the Court that she has changed her mind, and she no longer is requesting Court approval for a move with the two minor children to the State of West Virginia.
The parties mutually agree, shared custody shall be as follows: Commencing September 2nd, after school, and continuing through September 15th, after school, the children will be in the custody of the mother for this period of time. From the 15th of September to the 29th of September, after school, the children will be in the exclusive custody of the father, with this custody arrangement continuing thereafter until modified by custody mediator order.

TEMPORARY ORDER CON't.

4. Holiday visitations shall be arranged as follows:

a. Christmas: There shall be two Christman holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Christmas Eve at Noon and ending on Christmas Day at Noon, and the second beginning on Christmas Day at Noon and ending on December 26th at Noon. For Christmas, 1997, the father shall have the first period, and the mother, the second, and the parties shall thereafter alternate.

b. Thanksgiving: There shall be two Thanksgiving visitation periods, the first beginning on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving after the close of school until Thanksgiving Day at 3p.m., and the second beginning on Thanksgiving Day at 3p.m. and ending on Friday after Thanksgiving at 5P.M. for Thanksgiving, 1997, the mother shall have the first period, and the father, the second, and the parties shall thereafter alternate the periods.

c. The other holidays to be observed are Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day. Holiday visitation shall be between the hours of 9A.M. and 8P.M., except for Independence Day, when the holiday visitation shall be extended to 11p.m. so that the children may watch the fireworks. In even numbered years, the mother shall have visitation and temporary physical custody for Easter and Independence Day, and the father for Memorial Day and Labor Day. In odd numbered years, the father shall have visitation and temporary physical custody for Easter and Independence Day, and the mother for Memorial Day and Labor Day.

d. The children shall spend Father's Day with their father from 9A.M. to 7P.M. and Mother's Day with their mother during the same hours.

e. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this Order relating to the custodial or visitation periods.

5. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this Order shall govern.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitation as set out in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

7. The parties shall split responsibility for transportation with the party receiving the children in the exercise of his or her rights picking up the children at the home of the other. The parties shall arrange to make the maximum practical use of teh school bus system in transporting the children. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania

8. Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

9. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in the same room as the children, in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported, or in the bedroom of the children.

10. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the children's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the children's estimation.

11. Neither party shall remove the children from Crawfrod County, PA, with any attempt to thwart the jurisdiction of this Court. If either party desires to move his or her residence to any other location, said party shall give the other party 30 days notice, in writing, of the intended move.

12. Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at 182.00, are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

13. The Mediator has been informed by the Office of the Prophonotary of Crawford County, that no deposit was made in connection with this Mediation. Both parties shall, therefore, pay his or her share of costs and fees to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order.

14. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

✓Sept. 17, 1996 Notice of Service of Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents served on Defendant attorney Edward J. Hatheway, Esq., of Peters, Lindsay, Lewis & Hatheway filed.

✓Sept. 18, 1996 Praecipe for Appearance by Wayman, Irvin & McAuley by Warren L. Siegfried, Esq. for Angelo Pero, t/d/b/a Pero Electric filed.

✓Sept. 25, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 25th day of September, 1996, upon presentation of Plaintiffs' Motion for Order Allowing Entry on Real Property and after consideration of argument by Plaintiffs' and Defendants' counsel, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Defendants shall allow Plaintiffs' attorney and his retained electrical expert to enter onto the property to photograph, inspect and measure electric wiring, conductors, conduits, appliances and related component parts involved or likely to be involved in the electrocution of the Plaintiff on the 10th day of October, 1996, at 1:00 p.m.

Defendant shall remain enjoined from making any modifications, repairs, changes, additions, subtractions, to the electric wiring, conductors, conduits, appliances and related component parts involved or likely to be involved in the electrocution of the Plaintiff without Court ordered approval until following the inspection. In the event that an emergency situation develops, an attempt to obtain immediate Court approval must be sought and any modifications, repairs, changes, additions, subtractions to the electric wiring, conductors, conduits, appliances and related component parts involved or likely to be involved in the electrocution of the Plaintiff. Must be documented by Defendant for future presentation to this Court. Failure of Defendant to comply with this Order shall result in further sanctions as the Court deems appropriate.

✓Sept. 26, 1996 Appearance by Knox McLaughlin Gornall & Sennett by Mark E. Mioduszewski for Metropolitan Edison Company and Pennsylvania Electric Co. filed.

✓Sept. 27, 1996 Motion to Quash Subpoena and for Protective Order by Angelo Pero, t/d/b/a Pero Electric filed.

✓ Oct. 2, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 27, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a motion by the Defendant Angelo Pero trading and doing business as Pero Electric to squash a subpoena and for a protective order. Insofar as it appears that the subpoena issued does not comply with the rules, it is quashed.

There is also outstanding a request for interrogatories and request for production of documents which includes 136 interrogatories. After some discussion with counsel, for the parties, it is apparent that the Plaintiffs are actually at this point trying to determine whether they have missed any Defendants that should be included prior to the Statute of Limitations running; and accordingly, since a complaint has not been filed, we are not going to request that all of the interrogatories be answered at this point. This Order is without prejudice to the Plaintiffs to once again present those interrogatories to the Defendant if they are indeed relevant as the case progresses.

At this time, it is ordered and directed that based on the oral representations in court of the Plaintiffs that the incident in question involves the installation of a free standing cut off box at a facility at 14458 Conneaut Lake Road in Meadville know as Pat and Pete's Mobile Home Sales Inc. which is alleged to have occurred in or about the Spring of 1994 and based on the further representations by counsel that it will be alleged that the Defendant Angelo Pero trading and doing business as Pero Electric was somehow negligent in the installation of that cut off box or somehow otherwise negligent. It is ordered and directed that within 20 days, the Defendant Angelo Pero trading and doing business as Pero Electric provides to the Plaintiffs any information that they have with in regard to whether they worked on such project at any time within 2 years from October 30, 1994 and whether they are aware of any other persons who worked on that project as well as any suppliers of material for that project as well as any architeccts or designers of the electrical system in question as well as information with regard to what company provided electrical service to that facility at the time in question.

The Defendant Angelo Pero trading and doing business as Pero Electric shall also answer Interrogatories No. 1 but only with respect to that particular defendant.

Nov. 1, 1996 Affidavit of Service of Rule for Complaint by Defendant, Metropolitan Edison filed.

Nov. 7, 1996 Motion for Protective Order Pursuant to 42 Pa. R. Civ. Pro 4012, filed.

Nov. 7, 1996 Motion to Compel Answers to Request For Production of Documents Directed at the Defendant's Peter Simonetta, Sr., Peter J. Simonetta, Jr., Individually and t/d/b/a Dial Rite Construction, Inc. and Metropolitan Edison Company/Pennsylvania Electric Co.,filed.

Nov. 7, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Oct. 25, 1996, in Motion Court, we have before us Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Answers to Request for Production of Documents Directed at the Defendant's Peter Simonetta, Sr., Peter J. Simonetta, Jr., Individually and t/d/b/a Dial Right Construction, Inc. and Metropolitan Edison Co./PA. Electric Co.

We also have before us a Motion for Protective Order filed on behalf of the Simonettas and Dial Rite Construction, Inc.

The parties indicate that with respect to Peter Simonetta, Sr., Peter Simonetta, Jr. Individually and Trading and Doing Business as Dial Rite Construction, Inc., it is agreed that those parties will answer the following Interrogatori on or before Oct. 30, 1996: 1,4,5,6,7,9,10,12,21,22,23,24, 30 through 35 and 128 through 131.

In entering this Order, we note that plaintiff's motion speaks to request for production of documents, but apparently, the discovery which has been forwarded to the Simonettas and Dial Rite Construction, inc. includes interrogatories which is what actually will be answered. We also note that this Order does not resolve the motion with respect to Metropolitan Edison Co./PA. Electric Co., and the parties may proceed in a manner they deem appropriate with regard to that portion of the motion.

Faxed MCPD

AND NOW, this 28 day of August , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Pending further order of Court he Plaintiff shall have sole custody of the children of the parties. When the defendant is served he shall give the license place and keys to the 1988 Celecrity tothe Sheriff so planitiff can drive that vehicle pending further order of court.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 175-54-5359 and date of birth is 3-11-65 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for September 6, 1996 at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

Sept. 9, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 6, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act. The plaintiff appears represented by counsel and the defendant appears without an attorney, is advised of his right to an attorney and indicates that he will proceed without an attorney.

The parties have reached an agreement for the entry of an Order without admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the defendant.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff or any minor children named in the Petition.

2. The defendant may continue to have contact with the plaintiff and the minor children within the parameters of this Order so long as his contact is not assaultive, abusive, harassing, or threatening in any way.

3. The defendant will continue to watch the children while the plaintiff is at work and the plaintiff will give the defendant her work schedule in advance. For those periods of visitation with the defendant, the plaintiff will bring the children to the defendant's residence, which is the former marital residence, and she will then pick them up at the end of the visitation to return them to her current residence.

The parties agree to split the court costs, with each paying $47.75 no later than Sept. 20, 1996 at 4:30 p.m. in the Office of the Prothonotary of Crawford County on the First Floor of the Crawford County Courthouse.

Nov. 12, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, October 31, 1996 this matter comes before the Court as a result of a petition for disallowance of private tax claim sale with regard to a proposed sale to Dominic C. Frisina and Blanche L. Frisina, his wife, for the amount of $50. After hearing the county's position and considering the potential value of the lots vs. the bid, we disallow the sale and we have directed the County Treasurer to conduct a public auction with a minimum bid of $275.

Both the petitioner and the proposed purchasers at the private sale are present in the courtroom, and a public auction is conducted in the courtroom, resulting in a bid of $2500 by Dominic C. IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 10/7/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Sept. 22, 1998 Copies of Order Distributed by Court Administrator.

Nov. 5, 1998, ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 30th day of Oct., 1998, written notice of the Court's intent to terminate the cases listed below having been given to the parties or their counsel of record, and further notice having been given by publication of a "Notice of Intent To Terminate Cases" printed in the Crawford County Legal Journal on Oct. 14, 1998, and no objection thereto having been received by the Court from either party in the cases listed below, all and each of the 84 cases listed below are hereby terminated and dismissed with prejudice. A copy of this order shall be filed at each of the docket numbers listed below, but copies need not be given to or served upon the parties or their attorneys. Cases may be reinstated only in accordance with Crawford County Rule LJA 19011.

Nov 14, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, this 13th day of Nov, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Bradley Daniel Jump, born Sept. 4, 1990.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3) The mother shall have primary physical custody of the child commencing on Thursday, Nov. 28, 1996 at 3:00 p.m. Until such time, this court's previous order granted in connection with the Plaintiff's motion for special relief shall be in effect. The mother's acquisition of primary physical custody of the child shall be subject to the partial custody rights of the Defendants-Maternal Grandparents as follows:

a. Beginning on Friday, Dec. 6, 1996 at 6:00 p.m. and continuing every weekend thereafter until March 31, 1997, the Defendant shall be entitled to take the child into their care and custody from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until the following Sunday at 4:00 p.m.

b. Beginning with the month of April, 1997, the Defendants shall be entitled to take the child into their care and custody on the first, third, and fourth full weekends of each month,m with a weekend being defined as including a Friday. These partial custody periods shall begin on Friday evening commencing at 6:00 p.m. and will conclude on the following Sunday at 4:00 p.m.

On the two Wednesdays following the first weekend of each month beginning in April of 1997, the maternal grandparents shall be entitled to take the child into their care and custody commencing at 4:00 p.m. and concluding at 8:00 p.m.

c. Additionally, the maternal grandparents shall have the right to take the child into their care and custody for a continuous two week period during the summer months upon giving to the mother not less than 45 days advanced notice and further providing that the exercise of this two week period of continuous custody does not conflict with previously arranged plans of the mother which cannot be altered in order to accommodate the maternal grandparents.

12) Cost and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $291.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4.85 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided equally between the parties. The mother has already paid the $150.00 deposit necessary to secure the appointment of the child custody mediator. The Defendants shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $150.00, representing their share of the fees and costs.

July 3, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, this 3rd day of July, 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Bradley Daniel Jump, born September 4, 1990.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3) The mother shall continue to have primary physical custody of the child pursuant to the terms of the Order entered on November 13, 1996 until August 1, 1997. Beginning August 1, 1997, Mother shall continue to have primary physical custody of the child, with the Defendants-Maternal Grandparents having partial custody rights as follows:

a. The Maternal Grandparents shall have the right to take the child into their care and custody for a period of four (4) weeks during the summer school vacation at times mutually agreeable between the parties. In the event the parties are unable to reach agreement, then in that event the Maternal Grandparents shall have the child from June 15 until June 29 and from August 1 until August 14 of each year.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $270.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4.50 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided equally between the parties. The mother has already paid the $200.00 deposit necessary to secure the appointment of the child custody mediator. The Defendants shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $79.00 representing their share of the fees and costs. The Defendants shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $60.50, representing reimbursement to the mother for their share of the costs and fees of this proceeding.

Sept. 4, 1996Notice of Statutory Appeal of License Suspension and ORDER OF COURT filed. AND NOW, this 6th day of September, 1996, upon consideration of the Notice of Appeal in the above captioned action, the Court hereby schedules a hearing on the merits of the Appeal on Tuesday, Dec. 17, 1996 in Courtroom 2 of the Crawford Co. Courthouse, at 9;15 A.M.

FURTHER, this Court hereby acknowledges the Appellant's right to an automatic stay of the suspension of his operators license and directs that such action by the Commonwealth of PA. is STAYED.

Appellant, is DIRECTED to serve notice of this appeal and this ORDER upon Chief Counsel of the Dept. of Transporation, Appellee herein.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.
Sept. 9, 1996 Order FAXED Atty. Rowden.

Dec 17, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, December 17, 1996, at the time scheduled to hear the appeal of a license suspension imposed on Daniel R. Morgan, the Court is advised that Plaintiff's attorney has not appeared and his office staff advises the Court that the Plaintiff desires to withdraw his appeal and his attorney has no intention to appear this date or pursue the appeal.

Accordingly, the Defendant's appeal of his license suspension is dismissed and the original suspension shall remain in force and effect. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Jan. 29, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 28, 1997, the Defendant's Motion to Reschedule the Statutory License Suspension Appeal Hearing is denied. The Court has not reconsidered this matter. The Court simply entered a Rule to Show Cause in order to hear the attorneys on the issue before we did anything. Unfortunately, this Court lost jurisdiction 31 days after the Order of Jude P. Richard Thomas was entered on December 17, 1996.

This Court does not have authority or power to grant reconsideration how to hold a hearing now or to do anything further now.

Father argues that he has had virtually exclusive custody of the child for the last 14 months, except for possibly seven to eight weeks of consensual somewhat disputes this, and gives the Court a litany of dates over the last 15 to 16 months where the mother had consensual visitation periods and custody of the child for a longer period of time than the father's estimate.
Legal discussion and argument is heard over on interpretation of an order Crawford County Judge Gordon R. Miller entered on or about September 13, 1996 preserving the status quo. This Court does not consider Judge Miller's order as being an order that establishes any semblance of permanent custody in either party.

Oct. 24, 1996 Certificate of completion of Separating Parents Seminar by VANESSA M. WRIGHT filed.

Nov. 8, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 7th day of November, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal any physical custody of the subject minor children, Raymond Erik Wright and Roy Evan Wright.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children. If a medical emergency with either of the children occurs, the party having knowledge of the emergency shall communicate it immediately to the other party.

3. The parties have indicated to the Mediator that they will be able to work out the times of sharing the legal and physical custody of the subject minor children. Accordingly no schedule is presently imposed. Should difficulties arise, either party may seek further mediation in this matter.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $77.00 are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

The deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the father. The deposit shall first be applied against the father's share of costs and the remainder, if any, shall be remitted to him. The mother shall pay her share of costs and fees to the Prothonotary of Crawford county within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order.

Nov 1, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, this 1st day of November, 1996, having been directed by the Court to set the above indirect Criminal Contempt for hearing, the same is hereby set for Friday, November 8, 1996, at 2:00 p.m., in Courtroom #3, Crawford CountyCourthouse, Meadville, PA.
Ann A. Walker, Crt. Adm.
Nov 1, 1996 Dist. by Court

Nov. 13, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 8, 1996, this matter is before the Court on a contempt of an abuse order entered by this Court August 29, 1996. It appears after informal hearing the Defendant is a recovering alcoholic and the petition for contempt was entered with some reluctance by the Plaintiff but only after the Defendant continued to try to renew the relationship between them by constant contact with the Plaintiff contrary to the terms and conditions of the prior abuse order.

After receiving input from both parties, it is emanately clear to the Court that the Plaintiff feels the romance is over and does not want to have any contact whatsoever with the Defendant. The Defendant advises the Court that he is in remission from his alcoholic habits and that he fully understands the romance between the two parties is over and that he will not in any fashion contact the Plaintiff in writing, by phone, or through an intermediary.

In view of the time served in the Crawford County Jail for violation of this Order, the court will impose no additional sanctions but strongly warns the Defendant that if there are further violations of the abuse order in his case entered August 29, 1996, this Court would have no reluctance in imposing a substantial jail term of up to 6 months and a fine of $1,000 as the abuse act permits.

Costs in the amount of $93.50 were not paid in accordance with this Court's Order of August 29, 1996, and the Court is advised the Defendant will pay $50 this date to the Prothonotary's Office and the balance of $43.50 will be paid on or before December 10, 1996.

The Defendant shall be released from incarceration forthwith.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Jan. 14, 1997 Motion to Amend or Modify a Protection from Abuse Order and Order filed. AND NOW, this 9th day of January, 1997, upon receipt and review of the within motion to amend the Protection from Abuse Order of 8-27-96, the amendments(s) and modification(s) se forth in said motion are hereby approved and made a Court Order.

A true and correct copy of this Order shall be delivered by the Prothonotary to Original Police and to County Control.

Any paragraphs of the original Order assessing costs on either party shall remain in full force and effect without change or modification.

Gordon R. Miller, J.
1-14-97 FAXED Corry SPD & Co. Control & DISTRIBUTED Brode & MAILED Deft.

Feb. 6, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, February 3, 1997, this matter is before the Court once again on two contempt petitions filed by the plaintiff.

We find as a fact that the defendant has violated the August 29, 1996 Order by making frequent calls to the plaintiff, especially at night. He was held in contempt of court on November 8, 1996.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The original Order of August 29, 1996 shall be extended for one year from this date.

2. As punishment for contempt, the defendant shall pay a fine of $100 and he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 6 months, to be computed from January 31, 1997. He shall not automatically be entitled to parole at the end of 3 months, but he must file a motion for parole and the Court will hold a parole hearing. He has a right to counsel of his own choice and he has a right to the services of the Public Defender at no cost to him if he is unable to pay for an attorney to file his motion for parole.

3. The Court will consider early release to a 24-hour 7-day-a-week in-patient secure drug and alcohol facility or mental health facility. We make no promises on that. In order to be furloughed to such a program, the defendant must have served at least 2 months of his sentence and his jail conduct must be perfect. If the defendant files a petition for furlough to such a program, the petition shall set forth in detail where the program is, who will be providing the services and who will be paying the cost of the program. We believe that the defendant should serve at least 3 months in jail on this for his third contempt. We understand he has drug and alcohol problems and possibly mental health problems that should be addressed for his own good and for the good of the plaintiff in this case.

May 12, 1997 Motion for Parole by Todd Green, Defendant, filed.

May 12, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 7, 1997, the court has received a letter signed by Margaret L. Green that the defendant is permitted to live with her at 313 N. Martin Street, Titusville, Pa. 16354. A copy of said letter shall be attached hereto and made a part of hereof. The defendant is paroled effective this date for the balance of his maximum sentence under the following terms and conditions:

1. He shall fully and completely abide by the current PFA order that is now in effect.
2. He shall reside with his mother at 313 N. Martin Street, Titusville, Pa. 16354.
3. He shall enroll in an Act 152 Drug and Alcohol Treatment Program as soon as possible. He shall complete said program satisfactorily. He shall not leave said program before the program has been completed. He shall continue with any drug and alcohol aftercare, treatment, counseling and therapy that is recommended by the facility that he is enrolled in.
4. He shall be on non-reporting supervision through the Adult Probation Department since he is already on supervision for the next six months on two criminal cases.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.
5-13-97 Mailed Pltf & Deft & DISTRIBUTED Jail & AP

May 12, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 6, 1997, after an informal hearing on the Defendant's Motion for parole, the Court will grant the Defendant parole when he sends to the Court a letter signed by his father or his mother or his brother or another adult relative indicating that he has a place to live with them. We will not release the Defendant until he has an actual place to live. That letter may be sent to the Judges Chambers in care of the undersigned judge. At that point, we will then enter a parole order paroling the Defendant. One of the conditions of parole will be that he enroll in an Act 152 drug and alcohol treatment program as soon as that may occur.

Aug. 14, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 11, 1997, the Court finds as a fact that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of parole. He enrolled in Act 152 drug and alcohol treatment program, but left after two weeks.

He maintains that he now works for Madison Lumber Complany, earning minimum wage, but claims he has been promised a higher-paying job. He claims he has been going to Alcoholic Anonymous on a regular basis and has remained sober for 7 months.

We believe the defendant is in flagrant violation of our May 7, 1997 Order and that he is trying to pull the wool over our eyes.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall receive no credit for street time and his maximum sentence date is recalculated, giving him credit only for the time he spen in jail. He shall receive no credit for the time he spent a Cove Forge.

2. the defendant shall participate, without fail and without excuse, in a drug and alcohol treatment program that is recommended by the Adult Probation Department and the Crawford County Drug and Alcohol Commission on an out-patient basis.

3. The defendant shall furnish information to his Probation Officer to support his claim that he has been going to AA for the laslt several weeks. someone from AA should contact Mr. Wimer or Mr. Wimer should contact someone from AA to verify the defendant's participation as he represents.

We note of record that we gave the defendant an opportunity to work on his drug and alcohol problem and an in-patient program. In the event that he violates any of the terms and conditions of this Order, we will incarcerate him for the balance of his term.

The fact that the defendant had an opportunity to participate at Cove Forge and the fact that he elected to leave is the last chance he has with this Court to go to an in-patient facility. In the future, we will treat him not as one with a drug and alcohol problem, but we will treat him for his criminal misconduct.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Aug. 18, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 15, 1997, pursuant to the plaintiff's Motion to Amend or Modify a Protection from Abuse Order which essentially seeks to amend all paragraphs it is ordered as follows:

1. The Protection from Abuse Order entered February 3, 1997 is vacated except as hereinafter provided.

2. The order of August 11, 1997 shall remain in full force and effect. That is a parole violation order which the Court will not vacate.

3. A true and correct copy of this order shall be delivered to County Control, the Titusville Police Department, Adult Probation Department and the parties.

Sept. 22, 1999 ORDER filed, AND NOW, Sept. 22, 1999, at this hearing held to attempt to ascertain whether a distribution of U.S. Government Bonds in the former husband's name was made in accordance with the marital settlement agreement dated April 29, 1998, itis admitted that husband has two bonds which the husband believes are in fifty dollar denominations and it is admitted that former wife has twelve bonds in one hundred dollar denominations.

Former husband, Edward Papsun, has signed an authorization authorizing counsel for former wife to contact the National Bond and Trust Co. regarding the bonds that were issued. The purpose of the inquiry will be to ascertain the number of U.S. Savings Bonds now outstanding bearing the owner's name as Edward Papsun, also known as Edward Dale Papsun.

Upon receipt of said report of outstanding bonds in Edward Papsun's name, a copy of that report will be sent to Attorney Ferguson, representing Edward Papsun.

After receipt of said report, if counsel cannot amicably resolve the right to ownership of said bonds or the proceeds therefrom, then either side can petition this Court for another hearing to modify the final divorce decree to account for distribution of outstanding Government Bonds or the cash equivalent thereon between the parties.

We interpret that Paragraph of the Consent Custody Order to mean that it would not allow the defednant to unreasonably withold periods of temporary physical custody from the plaintiff. Likewise, we believe that if she felt the plaintiff was not fit to have the child in his custody, rather than unilaterally denying temporary physical custody, she should have sought relief from the Court.

For all of this, we find that she is in contempt.

Likewise, it is clear that the defednant has been making unilateral changes specifically in the child's medical treatment in changing doctors and in his eduction in changing schools. Additionally, she has changed churches all of this without consulting the plaintiff. For this we also find she is in contempt.

For her contempt at this time we are not going to impose significant sanctions to give her an opportunity to comply with this interim Order and ultimately any Order that is entered as a result of a mediation on Jan 6, 1999. Seh is strongly cautioned that if she continues to be unreasonable and not follow Court Orders, that we will impose further sanctions.

At this time, it is ordered and directed that she shall pay atorney's fees to plaintiff's counsel in the amount of $250 in installments beginning with $100 on Jan 15, 1999; $100 on Feb. 15, 1998; and the balance of $50 on or before March 15,1 999

Additionally, in light of the defendant's contempt and the fact that there has been very limited contact with the father and this child, we will enter an interim temporary physical custody Order until the mediation of Jan 6, 1999.

In doing so, we now recognize that the plaintiff is in another relationship and within the last two weeks is currently living with the woman with whom he is involved. Under those circumstances, we do not believe overnight visitation, only that this matter should be explored in the above manner at teh time of mediation.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that the plaintiff shall have temporary physical custody of the child on Dec. 25,1998 beginning at Noon and continuing until 9 pm on that day. For this interim Order the plaintiff shall provide all transportation but this is not intended to be guidance to the Mediator or ultimately the Court with what should be the transportation arrangements in the future.

Teh plaintiff shall also have temporary physical custody of the child for one day on the weekend commencing Jan 1, 1999 with that weekend to include Uan 1, 1999, Jan 2, 1999 and Jan 3, 1999. It shall be the plaintiff's responsibility to notify the defendant when he picks the child up at noon on Dec. 25, 1998 whether he wants the child on Jan 1, 1999, Jan 2, 1999 or Jan. 3, 1999. If he designates either Jan 1 or Jan 2, 1999, he shall have the child from Noon until 9 pm and if he designates jan 3,3 1999 he will have the child from Noon till 7 pm. It will be the Court's assumption that on Dec. 25, 1998, the plaintiff has ntoified the defendant of one of those dates since he will have one of those dates off and we will not accept an argument from the defendant that she was not notified of one of those dates.

WE are not entering any further Order at this tiem since mediation will be held on Jan 6, 1999. The Mediator is specifically ordered and directed at the conclusion of that mediation to advise the parties of an Order that will thereafter provide for temporary physical custody of the child withthe plaintiff. The parties shall follow that oral instruction from the Mediator even if they do not have a written Order in their hands.

It is the Court's specific intention that nwo that the child has begun to visit with his father again, that there not be a disruption in that, unless specifically, the Mediator would findd that there was something harmful in the relationship between the chid and his father which we do not have evidence of at the time fo this hearing.

Pending the entry of a new Order as a result of mediation the aprties shall follow the Nov. 25, 1996 Order in all respects in which it has not been modified by the court at this time.

So that it is clear it is brougth to the Court's intention by plaitniff's counsel that the defendant also resides in a relationship with a Michael Frisina who is the father of her current child and it is not the corut's intention in either case to indicate in any way to the Mediator that we think that there is an inappropriate relationship by either parent. We have simply indicated we will not grant the fahter overnight temporary physical custody at this time because of the newness of his relationship and the fact that we think that all of this with regard to the relationship of both parties need to be explored at mediation and if necessary, ultimately at a denovo hearing before the court.

It is not our intention, therefore, to provide any guidance to the Mediator in any way other than to temporarily provide the plaintiff with some temporary physical custody and to specifically direct the Mediator to tellthese parties what the interim Order is going to be when they are before him on Jan.6, 1999 so that there can be some contininuity with regard to the relationship he has with the child.

B. The mother shall also have the right to telephone the children at reasonable times and for reasonable lenghts of time and such conversations shall not be unreasonably monitored by father.
4. Holiday visitations shall be arranged as follows;
a. For the holidays of Christmas Thanksgiving and Easter the mother shall have visitation and temporary physical custody from 2 PM until 9 PM.
b. The other holidays to be observed are Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day. Holiday visitations shall be between the hours of 9AM and 8PM except for Independence Day when the holiday visitation shall be extended to 11Pm so that the children may watch the fireworks. Also the mother shall have visitation and temporary physical custody for Memorial Day 1998 and the parties shall thereafter alternate the holiday periods.
c. The children shall spend Father's Day with their father from 9AM to 7PM unless the father has to work and Mother's Day with their mother during the same hours.
d. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this Order relating to the custodial or visitation periods.
5. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this Order shall govern.
6. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitation asset out in this Order or as previously arranged the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed excepty for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.
7. The mother shall provide transportation and shall pick up and deliver the children to the home of their father. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of PA
8. Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from the his or her children.
9. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. The parties are cuationed that medical reesearch has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in the same room as the children, in a closed automobile in which the children are being transported or in the bedroom of the children. Neither party shall take the children to any establishment whose primary business is serving alcoholic beverages.
10. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the children's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the children's estimation.
11. The Mediator has noted for the Court that the mother has a domestic partner and that this relationship appears to be disturbing to the children For a period of 90 days following the date of this Order the mother shall not expose the children to the company of her domestic partner and shall instead concentrate on activities which involve herself and them.
12. It is to be hoped that the relationship between the mother and her children will improve over a course of time and therefore, either party may request a review of this Order one year from the date hereof to make any adjustments.
13. Costs and fees of this mediation which are fixed at 242.00 dollars are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.
14. Deposit required for the appointment of the custody mediator was made by the mother. Deposit shall first be applied toward the costs of this case and the remainder if any shall be remitted to her. The parties shall settle up with each other and with the Prothonotary of Crawford County within 30 days of the date of this Order.
15. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within 10 days form the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Dec. 29, 1998 Order filed. And Now, Dec. 22, 1998 after an informal denovo custody hearing with the parties and also talking to the two oldest children, the Court enters the following Order, which will follow the Order entered on March 13, 1998 after mediation, entered by Judge Gordon R. Miller. To the extent that it is modified we will so indicate.
Paragraphs 1 and 2 of that Order shall remain in full force and effect.
Paragraph 3(a) shall be modified to indicate that the fahter shall have primary physical custody of the subject minor children. The mother shall have temporary physical custody with all three children each Saturday from 9 am until 8 pm. In addition to the every Saturday period of temporary physical custody, mother shall have Stephen in her custody every other weekend starting Jan 9, 1999 from 9am on Saturday until Sunday at 4 pm. It is therefore the Court's intention that she continue to visit with all three children on Saturdays, but on every other weekend, Stephen shall remain in her custody when the other children return home Saturday at 8 pm.
Mother shall promptly pick up the children each Saturday morning at 9 am and father shall pick up the children from mother each Saturday evening at 8 pm. When Stephen is to stay with his mother until Sunday at 4 pm Mother shall be responsible for returning Stephen to his father at 4 pm on Sunday.
If mother goes to the father's residence on Saturday morning at 9 am and one or more children do not go with her, then it shall be fahter's responsibility the next day on Sunday to deliver all three children to the mother at 9 am to remaiin in mother's temporary physical custody from 9 am until 4 pm on Sunday, at which time she shall return all three children to father's custody. That provision is included because it is our specific intentinon that father shall have the ovligation of making sure that mother shall have all three children in her custody on saturdays and mother shall have the obligation of making sure that she appears at 9 o'clock on Saturday to do so , and if she does and does not get the children, it shall be fatehr's responsibility to have that makeup visitation or temporary physical custody on the next day.
3(b) The provisions of Paragraph 3(b) with regard to telephoning the children shall remain in full force and effect, but it is sepceifically ordered that the mother shall not appear unilaterally for visits with the children at father's residence during the course of teh week. Her right to temporary physical custody is spelled out specifically in this Order and that is her only right unless the parties agree to other times from time to time. We do not expect her to show up and disrupt the father's household and upset the children with unannounced visits or even if she would call and say that she intends to visit. She is limited to visitation and tmeporary physical custody included in this Order and any hereinafter agreed to by both parties.

4(a) Paragraph 4(a) shall remain as indicated in the previous Order except that Christmas shall be modified to allow the children to be with mother from Noon on Christmas Day until 9 pm on Christmas evening.
Paragraph 4(b) and Paragraph 4(c) shall remain the same as in the March 13, 1998 Order.
Paragraph 4 (d) shall become Paragraph 4(e) and Paragraph 4(d) of this Order is that the children shall be in the mother's temporary physical custody each New Years'Day from Noon until 6 pm.
4(f): For any periods of temporary physical custody with mother on holidays, the children shall be picked up by the mother for the beginning of the period of temporary physical custody and father shall then go to mother's residence and pick them up at the end of that period of temporary physical custody.
Paragraph 5 of the current Order and Paragraph 6 of the current Order shall remain in full force and effect and Paragraph 7 is deleted except the protion shall remain indicating any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seatbelts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of the Comm of PA.
Paragraph 8 of the previous Crder shall remain in full force and effect as shall Paragraph 10. The Court does not expect theses parents to speak badly about the other parent and we have every indication that each has done so. This must stop and stop immediately.
Paragraph 9 shall remain in full force and effect except it ismodified to indicate that no party shll smoke or allow anyone else to smoke cigarettes cigars pipes or any type of smoking instrument in that party's household wehn the children are there or when the children are going to be arriving there. All smoking shall cease at least 3 hours prior to the children arriving. Any party who wishes to smoke shall do so outside the home and shall remain outside the home long enough for th smoke to dissipate from their clothing as much as possible.
Paragraph 11 of the current Order is deleted except that no domestic partner of either party shall physically discipline any child and it shall remain to be the order and direction of this Court that each party make an effort to concentrate on activities with the children and involving the children, whether those activities also involve that party's domestic partner or not.
Paragraphs 12,13,14 and 15 of the current Order are deleted.
It is ordered and directed that each party shall call the guidance counselor responsible for each of the children at their schoolor schools and ask that the gudiance counselor speak with the children concerning their feelings about the current situation with regard to the separation of their parents. In the event the gudiance counselors believe that a further evaluation would be appropriate for one or more children, the parties shall arrange for that evaluation with someone agreemable to both of them and split the cost of taht equally. Likewise, if after that evaluation, it appears that counseling would be appropriate for one or more children, that shall be accopmplished as long as necessary and the parties shall split the cost of that counseling.

Jan 4, 1999 Order filed. And now, Dec. 22, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt filed by the plaintiff in which he alleges that the defednant has denied him periods of temporary physical custody and/or visitation with the subject child. He also alleges that there have been vaiioous violations of the first paragraph of the Consent Custody Order of Nov 25, 1996 in which it was required that the parties involve one another in important decisions regarding the child's education, medical treatment and religious instruction.
The plaintiff went through a period of time in 1997 around July or August kwhere he was having some mental health problems due to another relationship and apparently that relationship ultimately broke up and is involved in a current relationship ultimately borke up and is involved in a current divorcedproceeding. During a period of time, he did not because of the problem she was having seeking temporary physical custody with the child, but ultimately there is no evidence that wehn he started to seek temporary physical custody again in March of 1998 that he was continuing to have any problems that would require him not have the language of Paragraph 3 of that consent Order that any periods of temporary physical custody with the plaintiff father would have to be by mutual agreement, the defendant continued to deny him any contact with the child..

II. Physical custody of Breanna N. Bayer shall be with her mother, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his custody every other weekend from 9:00 o'clock a.m. on Saturday to 7:00 o'clock p.m. on Sunday, beginning May 17, 1997.

B. Holidays, which shall take precedence over weekend visitation schedule, shall be defined as May 6th, Easter, July 4th and Labor Day. Custody of the child shall be shared on the aforesaid holidays and in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the child shall be in the custody of the father on the aforesaid holidays from 9:00 o'clock a.m. to 3:00 o'clock p.m. and thereafter in the custody of the mother.

This order is a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed by either party within twenty (20) days of the date hereof.

The fees in this case which are set in the amount of $210.00 and $9.00 court order filing fee are to be paid as follows:

The Father has deposited with the Prothonotary the requested $150.00 which shall be applied toward the fees and costs.

The mother shall within thirty (30) days of the date of this order pay the Prothonotary $69.00 representing her share of the fees and costs. Gordon R. Miller, J.

Dec. 23, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 16, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for contempt filed by the Prothonotary's Office by the Defendant's failure to pay $93.50 in costs resulting from a Protection from Abuse Order.

These costs were due in June 1996 and the Defendant has been incarcerated since September 5, 1996. He indicates that he believed he had paid these costs by giving the money to a girl friend who was supposed to have paid this money to the Prothonotary's Office, but apparently, if he did so, that money never did find it's way to the Prothonotary's Office.

The Defendant indicates that he is currently eligible for Work Release privileges and/or Electronic Monitoring as a result of the sentence for which he is incarcerated.

Based on all of this, we find that the Defendant is in contempt of court for his failure to make the required payment of costs.

For his contempt, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of thirty (30) days of the day he begins to work as a result of his Work Release privileges.

2. If he is granted Electronic Monitoring rather than Work Release, he shall pay this sum de within thirty (30) days from the date he is placed on the Electronic Monitoring House Arrest Program.

3. If he receives Work Release privileges but does not obtain employment, he may perform Community Service with the permission of the Community Service Coordinator to the extent allowable by law for the purpose of working off these costs.

Nov. 13, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by both parties accusing the other of violation of the Protection From Abuse Order. The parties amicably resolve the matter as follows:

On the petition filed by Plaintiff/Denise Thompson, Defendant is found in contempt even though he does not admit the allegations in the petition. By agreement of the parties, any punishment for contempt will be postponed reserving, however, unto the Court, the right in the event of future similar incidents to punish the Defendant for his contempt in this case as well as any new additional contempt petition.

The primary thrust of the problem between the parties involves four (4) children presently in the custody of the mother. After conference and upon advice of counsel, the parties have mutually resolved the custody issue as follows:

There shall be shared legal custody of the children with the mother having primary physical custody of the children. The father shall have the children every other weekend between the hours of 9:00 a.m. Saturday and 7:00 p.m. Sunday beginning November 3, 1996. Likewise, for the years 1996, the father may have the children the following weekend commencing November 10th and the alternate weekends will begin thereafter and run for a period of twelve (12) months.

The father shall be entitled to one (1) seven-day exclusive custody period to have the four (4) children in his custody in the month of July every year, which period of time will be at his selection and will include the July 4th holiday. In this regard, he will give the mother two (2) weeks advance notice of the dates of the dates of the seven-day visitation period he will be taking.

On the original petition, costs were divided between the parties. Defendant has paid his share and there remains some $28 on Plaintiff's share, and she will pay the same by November 1, 1996 at 4:30 p.m.

Dec. 5, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Oct. 28, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by both parties accusing the other of violation of the Protection From Abuse Order. The parties amicably resolve the matter as follows:

Defendant is found in contempt even though he does not admit the allegations in the petition. Custody of children to be shared.

On the original petition, costs were divided between the parties. Defendant has paid his share and there remains some $28 on Plaintiff's share, and she will pay the same by November 1, 1996 at 4:30 p.m. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

Mar. 26, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, March 20, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for Violation of a Protection From Abuse Order, as well as a Request for Modification and Attorney's Fees.

Plaintiff's counsel appears and indicates that the plaintiff has been hospitalized at the Meadville Medical Center for approximately 8 days and has not yet been released. He requests a continuance.

No one appears on behalf of the defendant and the defendant does not appear, although Gregory A. Keenan, Esquire, is still counsel of record.

The plaintiff's counsel indicates that he has spoken with Mr. Keenan and that Mr. Keenan has been unable to get a response from his client with regard to this matter. Plaintiff's counsel also reports that the defendant has told his client that he does not intend to appear.

Based on these circumstances, the Sheriff of Crawford County is directed to serve a copy of the Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt originally filed in this matter, together with this Order, upon the defendant at a place to be indicated by the plaintiff or such other place as the defendant may be found.

Insofar as the plaintiff is proceeding informa pauperis, she shall not be charged for that service, but the Sheriff shall provide to the Prothonotary the cost of such service so that it may be assessed against the defendant in the event he is found to be in contempt.

We not that if Mr. Keenan is no longer going to be representing the defendant, he shall move to withdraw his appearance as required by the Rules of Court.

This hearing is continued until April 8, 197, at 3 p.m., in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Dec. 11, 1996, Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim to Plaintiff's Petition for Special RElief filed.

Dec. 17, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 10, 1996 this matter comes before the Court ona petition for special relief filed on behalf of the Plaintiff, as well as a peittion for special relief filed on behalf of the Defendant. The Defendant has halso filed a counterclaim with her answer to the Plaintiff's peittion for special relief.

We have considered these issues informally this day withthe parties, and must notably there was apparently a five-page proposal for settlement of various issues which was rpepared by Plaintiff's counsel andhe believed sent to the Defendant's counsel, but we find out this day the Defendant's counsel did not receive that letter indicated on or about November 19, 1996.

While the parties themselves are not in agreement about many issues at this time, their consel belive that discussions may prove fruitful in resolving some or all of the issues.

Therefore, in order to give them an opportunity to do so, we will continue this hearing generally, to be reset upon motion of either parjty, as we will enter the following orde,r which will remain in effect until such time as there is either a further order agreed to by the parties or further hearing before the Court.

Accordingly, it is ordered and directed that exclusive possession of the marital home shall remain withthe Defendant. Each party shall remain in possession of the property that they currently have, but our previous orders requiring that no party in any way dispose or any marital property or create any debt that may cause liability to the other party shall remain in full force and effect.

The Defendant shall, within 48 hours, repay the sum of $10,000 to theMellon Home Equity Loan and beginning with the December 20, 1996 payment on that loan, the parties shall share said payment with each paying one half.

The Plaintiff shall remain in possession of the 1996 Ford Pickup Truck, but he shall return, within 48 hours, the trailer that is in his possession to the Defendant.

The Plaintiff shall, within 48 hours, provide to the Defendant a shotgun and,270 rifle, as well as he shall provide to the Defendant one rifle and one shotgun for each son, unless one or buth sons verifies to the Defendant that in fact that son already has in his possession one or more of those guns that has been allocated to him.

Counsel for theDefendant shall advise counsel for the Plaintiff as to when an appraiser wishes to appraise any potentially marital property in the possession of the Plaintiff and the Plaintiff shallmake such property available so that the appraiser may perform an appraisal with respect to that property.

This order is not intended as any guidance to the Master or ultimately to the Court in determining what are marital assets, and the ultimate allocation of those assets.

January 27, 1998 PLAINTIFF'S REPLY TO DEFENDANT'S ANSWER TO PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF FILED.

Feb. 6, 1998 ORDER. AND NOW, Jan. 29, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed by the Plaitniff. Prior to hearing on this matter, the parties have agreed to resolve some of the issues and we will enter an Order with regard to the issues they have resolved.

Specifically, it is agreed and therefore ordered and directed that the Mellon Bank Accounts in the names of Robert Wright, Jr; Debra Wright; and Randy Wright and also in the name of the Defendant shall be closed and the money in those accounts shall be placed into three bank checks in the name representative child and Robert W. Wright. Those checks shall be provided to Defendant's Counsel who shall provide them to Plaintiff's counsel so that they may be deposited by the Plaintiff into Mellon Bank Accounts that are currently in the name of the children and the Plaintiff, fahter.

The State Farm Insurance balanced Fund Inc. account in the name of each child and in the name of the Defendant shall be closed and those funds shall be transferredd to an account in the name of the children and the Plaintiff. That transfer shall take place in the same manner as aforesaid for the Mellon Bank accounts in the name of the children.

The parties agree and therefore it is ordered and directed that the following accounts shall be immediately frozen insofar as no party may make a withdraw from those accounts without further Order of Court by t any party may make deposits into those accounts and any dividend reinvestment may take place with regard to those accounts. Those accounts are specifically a Draffus Mutual Fund Acct. No. 728800019246, a Draffus Mutual Fund Account No. 450600003552, a State Farm Growth Fund Inc. Account No. 1010459 WRI a State Farm Balanced Fund Inc. Account No. 2-31412 WRI, and a State Farm PA Fed. Credit Union Acct. No. 113151 116.

The parties further agree and it is ordered that with regard to State Farm Balanced Fund Acct. No. 2028440 WRI, said account shall immediately be frozen in a like manner except that when the parties have agreed to an amount that is in that account, that blongs to their children, that amt. and that amount only may be withdrawn by them signing a dcument indicating they agree upon that amount and presenting that to State Farm so that those funds may be withdrawn. Those funds will then be placed into an account in the name of the Plaintiff and children in a manner like that aforesaid.

Further, the parties agree and therefore it is ordered and directed that royalty checks in the amount of $1526.32 from Lomak Petroleum, Inc. shall be endorsed by both parties and that amount shall be given to Robert Wright, Jr. the parties' son. Any further Lomak Petroleum Inc. checks will be endorsed by both parties and will be deposited into the State Farm Balanced Fund Acct. No. 2028440 WRI.

Finally, it is agreed and therefore ordered and directed that on Jan. 31, 1998 at noon, the parties children may appear at the marital residence now occupied by the Defendant for the purpose of taking possession of a 1993 Katana Motor cycle, Robert Wright, Jr.'s stereo, Robert Wright, Jr's television, Robert Wright, Jr's golf clubs, a portable basketball hoop, a trampoline, and a black snow toboggan.

All other issues which have been raised in teh Petition will be dealt with in some manner by the Court through hearing.

Feb. 9, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Jan. 29, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief with respect to issues that have not been resolved by the parties in that petition and on his petition for contempt.

After informal hearing with regard to the Special Relief Petition which is in the nature of Exclusive Possession and after formal hearing with regard to the Petition to hold the Defendant in contempt it is Ordered and directed as follows:

2. The Plaintiff shall have exclusive possession of the cottage at 181898 French Creek Dr in Saegertown.
3. With respect to the Contempt Petition, we find that the only contempt on the part of the defendant was with respect to her withoulding the 1996 truck remote and if there is contempt with regard to disposal of proeprty with regard to items that were disposed that is diminimus insofar as it sounds like essentially the Defendant was disposing of trash itmes or if there was anything of value every effort was made to try to save that for the Plaintiff.
4. The Defendant with regard to her contempt for withoulding the remote to the Plaintiff's truck, she may purge herself of contempt by providin that remote to him within 7 days or if she does not do so, she shall pay a fine of $25.00 BY ORDER OF THE COURT, ANTHONY J. VARDARO, J.

Oct. 12, 1998 ORDER filed. This matter comes before the Court on a Motion For Appointment of a Divorce Master filed by the plaintiff. In that motion, he requests the issue of divorce be presented to the master along with various economic issues.

He further alleges that only the plaintiff has filed a 3301(c) Affidavit of Consent and that on Sept. 28, 1998, the plaintiff filed a 3301(d) Affidavit.

We do not see that affidavit in the record, but even assuming it was filed, we cannot present the divorce issues to the master for a determination pursuant to Pa. R. Civ.P. 1920.51(a)(2)(ii).

There must be a determination as to whether the defendant denies any of the allegations set forth in the plaintiff's affidavit under 3301(d) and most importantly whether she denies the marriage is irretrievably broken. If she does make any denials, the economic issues can only be referred to the master if the court, after notice and hearing, makes a determination in favor of the plaintiff. (see Standard Pa. Practice Second 126:299).

ACCORDINGLY, the plaintiff's Petition For Appointment of a Master at this time without prejudice to him to request the appointment of a master when this matter is procedurally an appropriate context to do so.

Oct. 22, 1998 Transcript of Proceedings At The Time of Hearing filed.

Oct. 26, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, October 23, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on cross petitions for contempt, essentially with issues arising out of the contents of our Order ofJanuary 29, 1998.

In that Order in Paragraph 3 on the first page, we make reference to State Farm Insurance Balanced Fund, Inc. accounts in the name of each ofthe party's children andin thename of the Defendant and indicate that the funds in those accounts were to be transferred to the name of each child and the Plaintiff so that they may be placed in a MellonBank account in the name of the children. It is further indicated that the procedure set forthin Paragraph 2 on that same page was to be followed, which essentially was that the accounts were to be closed and checks issued to the Defendant's attorney and then to the Plaintiff's attorney so that they could be deposted into the Mellon Bank account.

The Defendant under the mistaken belief that that portion of the Order, takenin conjunction withthe first full paragraph on Page 2, allowed her to determine which funds in those accounts belonged to the children, and which she believed belonged to Debbie and Randy (by the time she did so, the other child had reached the majority) and a deposit occured of most of those funds into thejoint State Farm Balanced Fund account of the parties and checks were issued to each child for what the Defendant believed they were entitled to.

First of all, as we have indicated, we believe that is contrary to the Order and secondly, even if the Order is read as the Defendant says it should be, it is absolutely clear that no funds were to be withdrawn from any account with regard to the children without both parties agreeing in writing to do so.

The Defendant is therefore in contempt of the Court's Order of January 29, 1998.

In fashioning a remedy for that contempt, the Plaintiff argues that because of that transfer, there were tax consequences that should be reinbursed by the Defendant. It appears that during the course of the several months since out Order of January 29, 1998 indicated that the funds should be transferred essentially fromthe State Farm Insurance Balanced Fund account in each child's name and the Defendant's name to theMellon Bank account in each child's name and the Plaintiff's name, apparently the Plaintiff discovered that such a transfer would create tax consequences under the Unifiorm Gift to Minors Act. Because of that discovery, there were efforts made by him, through his attorney, to try to get the Defendant to agree to essentially change the custodian with regard to those accounts so there would be no tax consequences. The Plaintiff therefore argues the becuase the Defendant did not do that, the tax consequences that have resulted form any thansfer should be born by the Defendant.

The Plaintiff's accountant at the time of this hearing has testified that if the transfer of the funds took place as we contemplated in Paragraph 3 of out January 29, 1998 Order, there would have been the same tax consequences becuase of the redemption, and therefore, even though the Defendant is in contempt, we cannot access to her any of the consequences of that transfer that would have occurred and would have resulted in the same tax consequences. We will, however, not preclude the Plaintiff from raising that issue at the time of the Mster's hearing in the context that he did make an effort to try to change the manner in which the transfer was to take place to just a change of custodiane, for the Master to determine whether there shoudl be an assessment of the tax consequences to the Defendant within that context rather than within a contmept context.

Accordingly, based onthe defendant's contempt and under all ot those circumstance, it si ordered and directed that the Defendant shall take a copy of this Order to the State Farm Balanced Fund and it is ordered and directed that that fund issue a check, specifically with regard to Account No. 2028440 WRI, in the amount of $43,452.06 to the Order of Debra Wright and Robert W. Wright so that that amount may be deposited in the Mellon bank account as originally contempleted by the Court. And likewise, that the SIate FArm Balanced Fund account, through Account NO. 2028440 WRI, shall isuue a check in the aount of $38,933.76 to Randy Wright and Robert W. Wright so that that amount may be likewise deposited in the Mellon Bank account as contempted by our Order of January 29, 1998.

In addition for her contempt, theDefendant shall pay attorney's fees to the Plaintiff's attorney in the amount of $250 within thirty (30) days from the date of this Order.

We have made reference to theState Farm Balanced Account No. 2028440 and we are advised by Defendant's counsel that the new Account NO. for the account is 60076734, and accordingly, all provisions of out Order as set forth above which have indicated they apply to Account NO. 2028440 shall apply to Account No. 60076734.

This Court believes that under the informal facts heard in this case, that the County of Erie in New York is the most appropriate forum to litigate custody and visitation. In this regard, this Court notes that there apparently is a paternity action pending in the Family Court of Erie County, which is essentially uncontested by the father. After talking with Judge Sharon S. Townsend's law clerk, this Court was led to believe that through appropriate petition or motion, the paternity action can be augmented to include a custody and visitation action by the father, Robert S. McElhinny. In the event this is not procedurally possible or would not be the most appropriate way to have the custody and visitation matter litigated between the parties, Mr. McElhinny may bring whatever action he deems appropriate in the Erie County, New York Court to have the ultimate custody and visitation issue resolved by appropriate Court Order.

In the meantime, the father shall continue to have custody of the minor child until the 25th of October 1996 at which time this Court and counsel are under the understanding that a hearing is to be held on the paternity issue in the Family Court of Erie County, New York.

In the event it is impractical or impossible for the custody hearing to be held at the time the paternity decision is made in the Family court establish a custody and visitation schedule so that each party has approximately equal time with the child until the ultimate custody and visitation schedule can be established by appropriate court order.

Absent a New York visitation schedule, this Court retains jurisdiction of the case for the sole purpose of directing that the parties, after October 25, 1996 shall have equal temporary custody of the child by alternating two week periods with each parent until the matter is ultimately resolved by the New York Family Court.

Unless changed by New York State Court, each party shall bear the responsibility of transportation of the child for their visits.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 5/21/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Sept. 13, 1996 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, this 11th day of September, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The legal and physical custody of MarQuann Maurice Brown, subject minor child, is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff mother, Martina Marie Ann Banks.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3. The father shall have visitation and temporary physical custody at such times as may be arranged between the parties. During the times of visitation and temporary physical custody, the father shall not remove the child from Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

4. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $182.00, are assessed to Crawford County. The mediator notes for the Court that the mother is indigent and is proceeding as a poor person. The Court allows the mother to continue to so proceed. The mediator also notes for the Court that the father appears to be presently unemployed and therefore, none of the costs are assessed to him.

July 19, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 15, 1996, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, the plaintiff appeared with counsel. The defendant appeared with counsel. The Court explained the nature of this action to the defendant and he understood it. The parties agreed to a settlement of this matter. In doing so, the defendant does not admit he engaged in the conduct set forth in the Petition.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the plaintiff or the minor children.
2. The defendant shall not go to the plaintiff's residence or place of employment.
3. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the two minor children David and Gaige, with primary physical custody with the mother. The father shall have a right to see David and take David into his custody every Friday from 6 o'clock p.m. to the following Sunday at 6 o'clock p.m. The father shall have a right to take Gaige into his custody ever Saturday and Sunday from 8:30 o'clock a.m. to 3:30 o'clock p.m. each day. There shall be no overnight visits with Gaige.
4. The mother shall provide transportation for these visits and shall be on time as shall the father be on time. The parties may agree to such other visitations from time to time. The father shall have a right to telephone the mother to talk about matters involving the children during daylight hours provided that the phone calls are not abusive, harassing, or threatening.
5. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police, the Meadville City Police, to County Control, and to the defendant at 354 Pine Street, Meadville, in care of July Norr.
6. This Order shall remain in full force and effect for one year unless modified or terminated by further Order of Court.
7. This Order may be enforced without a Warrant of Arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.
8. The defendant is advised that violation of this Order will subject him to arrest and contempt of court proceedings and he may be fined from $100 to $1,000 and imprisoned for up to 6 months.
9. In view of the fact that the defendant is not employed, costs shall be paid by Crawford County.
10. The defendant's Social Security Number is 206-62-0801 and his date of birth is November 29,1 971.
11. The plaintiff shall not invite the defendant to violate this Order. If the plaintiff invites the defendant to her house or to do something contrary to this Order, the defendant shall resist that because if the police find that he has violated this Order, they have a right to arrest him.

June 9, 1997 June 9, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 6, 1997, this matter comes before the Court in Motions Court on a petition to intervene and for special relief filed on behalf of Linda L. Johnson and Arnold E. Johnson III, as petitioners. Linda L. Johnson is the natural aunt of the child who is the subject of the custody proceeding.

On August 6, 1996, President Judge Gordon R. Miller signed a temporary order, after mediation, which awarded custody of the minor child to the Plaintiff, Cheryl A. Warner. By a document signed on April 22, 1997, apparently custody of the minor child was placed with Linda L. Johnson by Cheryl A. Warner.

At this time, Linda L. Johnson and Arnold E. Johnson III wish to intervene in this action, based on the fact that the child has been in their custody since that time, and apparently the natural mother wishes to have the child back in her custody per the order of August 6th, 1996. The petitioners aver that there has been a CYS investigation in this matter which has been founded for abuse on the part of the natural mother.

Based upon the current state of the record, we will allow the petitioners to intervene at this time, since they are in the custody of the minor child.

We do this pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1915.6(a) (1).

The intervenors may file counterclaim asserting a right to custody, partial custody, or visitation pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1915 (a) (3).

The hearing is set for June 10, 1997, at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford county Courthouse.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 5/21/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

June 3, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1996, this matter is before the Court on two Complaints for indirect criminal contempt for violation of a protection from abuse order. And the first complaint maintains that the Defendant violated this court's order of May 20, 1996 by being at the Plaintiffs residence and hiding in the basement. It appears that the Defendant, if he did so, did so prior to being served with a copy of that order; insofar as, he was actually served at the District Justice Office apparently after being arrested for the contempt on May 20, 1996 at 7:30 p.m. as the record indicates. Based on all of this, the Plaintiff has withdrawn that complaint.

The Plaintiff appears unrepresented by counsel, and she has attempted to represent herself with regard to the complaint for indirect criminal contempt with regard to the May 23, 1996 alleged incident. After listening to the testimony of the Plaintiff, it appears that she is unable to actually identify the Defendant as the person she believes she saw on May 23, 1996. Her only identification regards generally clothing and she admits that she did not see his face. She indicates further that there may have been other witnesses but has not brought those witnesses to court this day.

Based on all of this and a motion by the Defendant, this complaint for indirect criminal contempt is dismissed.

July 1, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 1, 1997, the parties appeared in court. Neither had a lawyer and they may not have been fully prepared to proceed in a formal fashion.
We held an informal hearing where we listened to both parties to make a determination as to whether or not the father should be held in contempt.
The mother claims that the child had been spending the weekends with her up until sometime in February. She did not see the child again until May the 26th and from that time only sporadically during the daytime and never overnight. She wants the Order enforced.
The father claims that the child may have engaged in improper touching with a Katlyn Beck who is about three or four years old. He claims that happened at the end of January and that the mother knows about this. He claims that they agreed to stop the overnight visitations until the child had undergone counseling to make sure that the child's welfare was taken care of and that no one else became a victim. The mother admits that she agreed to that.
Unfortunately, the counseling really hasn't taken place in approximately six months. In the meantime, the father is unable to show that the conditions at the mother's home either cause the son to act the way he did or are detrimental to his health, safety, morals and welfare. He gives us no choice. He does not have a lawful excuse for violating the custody Order other than the fact that the mother agreed to suspend visitations until counseling had taken place.
We are concerned about this young child and we are also concerned about the parties following Court Orders. Since father has had ample time to have the child evaluated and treated, we do not think he now has a lawful excuse to violate the Court Order.
Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:
1. We hold the father in contempt of court for wilful violation of the October 3, 1996 Order. We will not impose any punishment or sanctions at this point to give him an opportunity to comply with this Order.
2. Effective immediately, the Court Order of October 3, 1996 shall be carried out by both of the parties without fail.
3. We advise the father, since he does not have counsel, that he has a right to seek modification of a custody Order and to take other action if there has been a change in circumstances or if the mother does anything that is detrimental to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the child. If he is unable to prove those sorts of things, then he must comply with the Order.

Apr. 15, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 9, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for indirect criminal contempt for violation of a protection from abuse order.

Both parties appear represented by counsel, and they agree to the following settlement with regard to this matter:

1. The Plaintiff withdraws her complaint for indirect criminal contempt at this time, with prejudice.

2. The original protection from abuse order entered on September 6, 1996, is modified by agreement of the parties, as follows:

A. The Defendant shall not call or contact the Plaintiff at her place of employment unless there is an emergency.

B. The Defendant must pick up the minor children within 1 hour of the scheduled time for pickup, or he will forfeit that period of temporary custody.

C. The Plaintiff will provide her telephone number to the Defendant, but he may only contact her if there is an emergency regarding the children or if there is a non-emergency reason to call, but the call is related to the children.

3. In all respects in which the September 6, 1996 original order is not modified, it shall remain in full force and effect.

4. A copy of this order shall be provided to the Police Department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and to County Control.
