Sheriff of Crawford Co.

July 29, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, July 28, 1980, at the time set for hearing, the parties through their counsel advise the Court the parties have amicably adjusted their problems and request the court to enter the following in the way of a consent decree,

The defendant will inflict no physical abuse or make any threats toward the plaintiff. The defendant will agree to exclude himself from the home located at R.D.#2, Conneautville, Pennsylvania, Box 215, and will only appear at the home for the visitation arrangements hereafter set forth.

Custody of the oldest son James will be with the father and he shall take up residence with the father. Custody of the remaining four (4) children will remain with the mother at her home.

As far as visitation is concerned, the father shall have the right to visit the children at the home of the mother each and every Sunday, between 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. During said visits, the mother will remain relatively out of the scene and will occupy herself with household duties and not interfere in any way with the visits between the father and the four (4) children. The father shall consume no alcoholic beverages during the visit nor will he have consumed any alcoholic beverages for a period of four (4) hours prior to the visit.

Regarding the mother visit with son James, he will accompany his father to the home on the Sunday visits and will spend part of the time with his mother.

The parties mutually agreed that none of the children will be removed from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvaniafor the sake of avoiding this consent decree. This does not preclude father or mother taking the children briefly from the state of Pennsylvania for a short outing or for a vacation. At any time when the children are to be removed from the state for visits or for a vacation period which will last longer than three (3) days, the opposite spouse will be notified.

Sallie M. Fleming shall assume the responsiblity of paying and caring for the household and assume the obligation to pay the normal utility bills and taxes to maintain the household.

Arlen C. Fleming is to take possession of the car and the same shall be his exclusive property and responsibility.

No order of support is entered at this time but it appears to the Court that the father's earnings are of sufficient magnitude that he would be expected to contribute support which would be forwarded to the Department of Welfare as reimbursement.

Sallie M. Fleming is directed to file within seven (7) days a Petition for support with the Domestic Relations Division of this county and by agreement of the parties this support petition can be served on one William Moore as counsel for the defendant and the defendant this date authorizes Mr. Moore to accept service. After service, the matter will be proceeded through the Domestic Relations Division in accordance with their rules.

The defendant is directed to pay costs in this case within thirty (30) days.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 31, 1980, Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Arlen C. ORDER:

AND NOW, this 28th day of July, 1980, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition, hearing is scheduled on the 3rd day of Sept., 1980, in Court Room No. 1 or 2, Crawford County Court House at 10 o'clock A.M.

Robert L. Walker,

July 28, 1980, Copy of Order to Joan Mason, Esq.

Aug. 13, 1980 Affidavit of Service filed: I, Joan Mason, Esquire, Attorney for the Petitioner, in the above entitled case, and being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that I did on July 30, 1980, mail to the above Respondent, Sheldon Simon by Certified Mail No. 2234752, Return Receipt Requested, Deliver to Addressee Only, a Petition for Custody in the above captioned action. Said notice was received by Sheldon Simon on August 4, 1980, as indicated by the Return Receipt Card which was returned to the office of the Petitioner's attorney and is attached hereto.

Joan D. Mason, Attorney for Petitioner

Aug. 13, 1980 Petition for a Home Study and order filed: AND NOW, this 13 day of Aug., 1980, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition, a Home Study is ordered to be done by the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County, Cost of same to be determined & assessed against the parties by further order.

Per Curiam,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Aug. 13, 1980 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Esq., John Fuller, Esq. and Child Welfare Services (Park Ave.)

Sept. 3, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, September 3, 1980, after hearing, the Court finds the residence of the minor child SHON MICHAEL SIMON is Crawford County, Pennsylvania and that said child has continuously resided in Crawford County since his adoption by the mother ELAINE M. FRANCISCO and her former husband, Sheldon Simon,

The Court finds after hearing that a mutually satisfactory visitation arrangement was made between mother, father and child to commence on or about June 28, 1980, with the child to be returned on or about July 15, 1980. That contrary to said arrangements, the father of said child has refused to return said child and has commenced an action in the State of Michigan, County of Calhoun (File No. 80-824 DC) to secure custody.

This Court is advised by counsel for the plaintiff and a personal telephone call from Mr. William Camden, counsel for the father, that the appropriate court in Calhoun County entered an Order declining to assume jurisdiction of this child custody action but reserving under the Michigan Court jurisdiction of the case until receipt of an Order from the Pennsylvania Court.

ACCORDINGLY, this Court finds as a fact that under the terms, policies and philosophy of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act, that Crawford County, Pennsylvania has prime jurisdiction to hear a child custody action between the mother and father regarding the minor child SHON MICHAEL SIMON. Following the almost unflexible practice of this Court, we direct that the father of said child return the custody of this child to the mother on or before 5:00 p.m., September 8, 1980.

The Court sets hearing on the merits of this case for October 2, 1980 at 1:30 p.m. before the undersigned.

The Court previously having ordered a home study at the request of counsel for the mother and said study not having yet been completed, the Court cancels the home study reserving the right, however, to direct Child Welfare Services to make said study if deemed necessary in view of any testimony presented at the hearing scheduled for October 2, 1980.

The Court directs counsel for the plaintiff to forward a copy of this Order to Judge Paul Nicolich in the Circuit Court of Calhoun County and a copy of this Order to counsel for the father and to Crawford County Child Welfare Services.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 3, 1980 Four (4) Copies of Order to Joan Mason, Esq.

Oct. 2, 1980, Affidavit filed. I, Elaine M. Francisco, Petitioner in the above matter, being duly sworn according to law, dpose and say that I did on Sept. 3, 1980, have opportunity to see and study the return receipt for certified mail #2234752, and that the signature appearing on line 4 of said receipt for certified mail # 2234752 is that of my former husband, Sheldon Simon, and that I have no doubt in my mind that this is his signature.

Sept. 23, 1980 Order filed: And now, September 22, 1980, at the time set for hearing on the issue of alimony pendente lite and counsel fees, after informal discussion, it appears that the matter is bitterly contested and will require at least a half a day hearing to resolve this narrow issue. ACCORDINLY, the case is continued until October 29, 1980 at 1:30 P.M. In the meantime, the Court notes that a recommended support Order was entered September 9, 1980, and the time for filing exceptions to said Order has not at this time expired. Insofar as a temporary Order for alimony pendente lite is concerned, the Court adopts the figures set forth in the recommended support Order of $25.00 per week for the support of the wife as temporary alimony pending final hearing in this matter.

The Court reserves the right to make any final alimony pendente lite Order retroactive to this date in view of the fact that counsel for the plaintiff was ready and able to continue with a hearing at this time, but court time was not available for a full hearing.

Dec. 8, 1980, Motion for Appointment of Master filed.

Dec. 12, 1980, Re: Motion To Court For Appointment of Master in Divorce and ORDER filed. We are presented with a Motion to Appoint a Master in the above divorce action wherein plaintiff is seeking a divorce on the grounds of indignities and equitable division of marital property and permanent alimony and seemingly counsel fees and costs.

The Motion to Appoint a Master is premature. Divorce Rule 1920.31 requires each party to file within thirty days of service, an income and expense statement when iter alia, alimony, counsel fees and costs are claimed. Further, Divorce Rule 1920.33 likewise requires within sixty days of service that each party file an inventory and appraisement of all property owned at the time the divorce action was commenced and all property transferred within the preceding three years. This rule also permits the filing of answers to said inventory and appraisement within thirty days of the filing thereof, apparently with the goal of narrowing the legal or factual issues indispute.

We see no reason to appoint Masters in Divorce until such time as the issues to be resolved are clearly delineated, all Rule mandated procedures have been fully complied with and the Court has some documentation upon which to establish the amount and responsibility of depositing an initial Master's fee.

Accordingly, the Court declines to appoint a Master at this time without prejudice to reapply when all issues are ripe for hearing and idsposition by a Master.

Sept. 25, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, September 24, 1980, at the time scheduled for hearing on the petition for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees and costs, the defendant having been properly served, fails to appear.

In addition thereto, the defendant will pay counsel fees and court costs in the amount of $500.00 as follows: $250.00 on or before October 1, 1980, and the balance on or before October 31, 1980.

The Court reserves the right to order additional counsel fees or to direct the same be paid out of the marital property of the parties depending upon the amount of time counsel for the plaintiff spends on the divorce action and on the property settlement between the parties.

The Court enters this Order noting that the support is for alimony pendente lite for the wife alone and that a support action for support of the minor child will be filed forthwith with the Domestic Relations Division.

Dec. 1, 1988 Order filed. (2 copies atty.) Order. AND NOW, November 30, 1988, at the time a hearing is set for special relief under the Divorce Code requesting that the wife and children be permitted to exclusively occupy the marital residence in Espyville, the defendant fails to appear. The Court notes that an affidavit of service was filed showing the defendant was personally served at 7:20 a.m.on November 22, 1988 and the wife advises the Court that he tore up the notice and advised that he would not appear.

The Court notes that a 1988 amendment to the Divorce Code in Section 401(h) permits the Court during the pendency of the divorce action to have one of the parties exclusively occupy the marital residence.

Under the evidence received this date, the Court believes that the circumstances require that the parties separate and the wife be permitted to reside with the children in the marital residence. ACCORDINGLY, the prayer of the petition is granted and exclusive use of the residence for the wife and children is awarded and the defendant is directed to remove himself from the residen ce and secure living arrangements elsewhere on the first Saturday occuring after service of a copy of this Order.

Sept. 5, 1980, Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, September 4, 1980, after hearing on the ex parte issuance of a writ of seizure, the Court finds as a fact that the plaintiff has failed to establish a probable right to possession and has further failed to establish the probable validity of any grounds for the ex parte issuance of the writ of seizure. The writ of seizure heretofore issued is vacated and the Sheriff of Crawford County is directed to return the personal property taken under the writ of seizure to the defendant Kathleen Piercy, pending the outcome of a trial in this matter.

The costs of execution of the writ of seizure and of the return of the property to the defendant by the Sheriff shall be taxed separately and paid by the plaintiff and shall not be recovered by the Plaintiff as a part of the costs in this case in the event the plaintiff ultimately succeeds in the litigation.

Upon satisfactory evidence being presented to the Court that the personal property has been returned to the defendant undamaged, an order will be entered discharging the replevin bond and the liabliity of both the plaintiff and surety on said bond.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, CLAIM FOR ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, REASONABLE COUNSEL FEES, COSTS AND EXPENSES, REQUEST FOR EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION, AND CLAIM FOR ALIMONY

Sept. 16, 1980, Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Donald L. Collins personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Complaint in Divorce No. A.D. 1980-696 to him, on September 8, 1980, at 3:06 P.M., at the Sheriff's Office, Room 101, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville in the Coun ty of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.
So answers,
Catherine Castile, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Dec. 15, 1980, Motion For Hearing On Claim For Alimony Pendente Lite, Reasonable Counsel Fees, Costs and Expenses, filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 15th day of December, A.D. 1980, the Motion of the Plaintiff is granted and a Rule is hereby entered on the Defendant, Donald L. Collins, to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be required to pay to the Plaintiff, Margaret Collins, alimony, pendente lite, reasonable counsel fees, costs, and expenses incident to the divorce at the above term and number.

A hearing on said Rule is hereby set for Jan. 7, 1981, A.D., at 10:30 A.M. in Court Room 2.

BY THE COURT:
P. Richard Thomas, J.

(2 copies attested - atty)

Dec. 15, 1980, Copy of Order to D. Fickenscher, Esq.

Jan 12, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, January 7, 1981, at the time set for hearing the Court informally reviews the factual background with counsel and the parties. It appears that while the parties have been separated for two (2) years, the plaintiff has had adequate funds to maintain herself but at somewhat of a lower standard of living than she enjoyed when the parties lived together. Accordingly, we do not feel that an order in an excessive amount of Alimony Pendente Lite is appropriate and the order hereafter entered is not reflective of the Court's opinion regarding her entitlement to or the amount of permanent alimony.

It further appears the defendant does not wish to contest the divorce and the matter is not right for reference to a Master.

It further appears the parties are in bitter disagreement regarding permanent alimony and equitable division of marital property.

Accordingly, the defendant is hereby directed to pay Alimony Pendente Lite in the amount of $100.00 per month commencing December 15, 1980 and to run for a period of four (4) months with the last payment due March 15, 1981, The limitation is placed on Alimony Pendente Lite as the Court at this time is of the opinion that the matter should and could be resolved between the parties by said date. In addition thereto, in view of the difference in assets between the parties, the Court awards to the plaintiff the sum of $400.00 to cover counsel fees, costs and expenses without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff in the future to request of the Master of the Court additional fees as they may arise in the bitter dispute between the parties involving permanent alimony and equitable division of marital property. The $400.00 counsel fees is to be paid $200.00 on or before January 15, 1981 and the balance by February 16,1981.

May 28, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 26, 1981, after hearing, the Court finds that the parties have lived separate and apart for a period of at least three (3) years and that the marriage is irretrievably broken.

Having so found, the Court is advised by counsel for the Plaintiff that he will file a praecipe with the Court to bifurcate the issues in this divorce action and said praecipe would request the Court to immediately grant a divorce under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code, and reserve all unresolved issues to be submitted to a Master for hearing and recommendation to the Court. To save counsel the necessity of filing such praecipe, the Court will consider the same filed, and this date issues a rule to show cause as to why the Court should not grant a divorce in accord with Section 201(d), reserving in said decree all unresolved issues, and schedules further argument on said issue for June 15, 1981 at 2:30 P.M.

The Court notes at this time counsel has inquired if the aforesaid argument and decision must await the filing of a motion for appointment of a Master and the decision of the Court is that counsel for the Plaintiff may file a motion requesting appointment of a Master, and the Court will act promptly on the same.

Dec. 3, 1980,/Praecipe for review under Section 201(d) of Divorce Code, this case is moved to Court.

Dec. 15, 1980 Order filed: The Complaint in this divorce was filed September 16, 1980, alleging that the marriage was irretrievably broken under Section 201 (d) of the Divorce Code. The Complaint was served Septemver 16, 1980. The Affidavit of the Plaintiff, required by Section 201(d), was not filed until December3, 1980, and the matter was submitted to the Court for granting of a divorce the same date.

Oct. 9, 1980, Copy of Order to Stephen Toole, Esq

Oct. 27, 1980, Order filed. AND NOW, October 23, 1980, after informal hearing and the Court noting the matter was previously before the Court at least one previous time at No. 51 September Term, 1978, the Court ascertains that the parties have divergent personalities and the marriage is complicated by allegations of infidelity, excessive use of alcohol and over-devotion to religion. The Court finds no solution to this problem and believes the petition for abuse is not the proper remedy to reconcile this obviously broken marriage and the bitterness that exists between the parties in this case. The petition is DISMISSED. County to pay the costs.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar. 17, 1981, Custody and Visitation Agreement and Order filed. MADE, this 30 day of December 1980, by and between RICHARD A. GARDINER, party of the first part, hereinafter, called, FATHER, and KAREN A. GARDINER, party of the second part, hereinafter called, MOTHER.

WHEREAS, MOTHER and FATHER are parents of two(2) minor children, JACQUELINE MARIE GARDINER, and KRISTY LYNN GARDINER,

WHEREAS, FATHER and MOTHER wish to settle any dispute which may exist regarding the right of the FATHER to take the children into his custody for periods of visitation.

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH THAT: -

In consideration of the differences, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows;

1. The MOTHER shall have the primary custody of the two children, JACQUELINE MARIE GARDINER and KRISTY LYNN GARDINER.

2. The FATHER shall have the right to take these two (2) minor children or either of them into his temporary custody for the purposes of visitation on any one day per week which he shall choose. It is agreed that theFATHER will usually choose a week-end day for visitation, but if the MOTHER or children prefer, the FATHER agrees to select a week-day for his visit, except that the FATHER cannot be required to select a week day for visitation more often than once per month. A week end day shall consist of a twenty-four (24) hour period beginning at any time after 5:00 on Friday evening and concluding no later than 9:00 on Sunday evening. In the event that the FATHER takes the child or children into his custody for less than a twenty-four (24) hour period, whatever time period he takes shall constitute a day within the meaning of this Agreement. The FATHER shall give the MOTHER forty-eight hours notice of the period of time which he will elect for visitation with the child or children. The FATHER agrees that he will not elect to begin the visitation at a time in which the children would normally be asleep. In the event that the FATHER'S visitation is selected for a week day, the visitation may begin at any time after 3:00 in the afternoon of the day selected and will end at 9:00 in the evening of that day.

3. It is further agreed that the parent not having custody on the holiday shall be entitled to take the child or children into his custody for an extra day of visitation on the day immediately preceeding or following the holiday. It is agreed that the children will spend Christmas morning in the home of the MOTHER. The FATHER shall be entitled to take the children into his custody for Chiistmas Eve or for the afternoon of Christmas day between the hours of 2:00 P.M. and 9:00 P.M., and he agrees to notify MOTHER at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance which time he will take the children into his custody for Christmas visitation.

4. It is further agreed that the FATHER may take the child or children into his custody for two (2) weeks during the children's summer vacation which the FATHER may arrange to coincide with his vacation from his employment. The FATHER agrees to give the MOTHER thirty (30) days notice of the time which he will be taking each summer. The FATHER agrees that the MOTHER may take the children on trips which may extend for as long as two (2) weeks and the MOTHER need not return the children for the FATHER to exercise his weekly visitation, but it is agreed that the MOTHER will give the FATHER adequate notice of the time which she intends to take the children on a trip and agrees that the FATHER may be granted extra days of visitation to make up for the period of time that the children are on a trip away from their usual residence.

5. When in the temporary custody of the FATHER, he will see that the children fulfill their obligations as Roman Catholics to attend Mass on Sundays and on all Holy Days of Obligation.

6. The parties hereto agree that this agreement may be entered as an Order of Court in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County or in the Court of Common Pleas of any County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or in any Court of like jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have hereunto placed their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, COUNSEL FEES AND COSTS, ALIMONY, DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY, CHILD CUSTODY AND SUPPORT

Oct. 15, 1980, RULE filed. AND NOW, this 15th day of October, 1980, upon review and consideration of the plaintiff's complaint and more specifically, of the Second Count thereof, a rule is entered upon the defendant to personally appear before this Court, and to show cause why he should not pay alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and court costs to the plaintiff for pursuit of this action in divorce and the matters related thereto.

Returnable for hearing on the 4th day of Dec., 1980, in Court Room No. 1 or 2, at 9:30 o'clock A.M. in the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT,

Oct. 16, 1980, Copy of Rule to Atty. Fabian.

Oct. 15, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW this 15th day of October, 1980, upon review and consideration of the plaintiff's complaint, and more specifically of the Fifth Count thereof with relation to custody and visitation of the children of the marriage, it is ordered and directed that after service of the divorce complaint the matter is hereby referred to John Fuller, Child Custody Mediator, to schedule a conference, and ascertain if the matter can be amicably resolved without formal court hearing.

By the Court,
Robert L. Walker,

Oct. 16, 1980, Copy of Order to Atty. Fabian.

Nov. 12, 1980, Affidavit of Service filed. Gary A. Fabian, Esquire, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that: 1. He is an attorney authorized to practice law within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. 2. He is the attorney for the plaintiff in the above captioned matter. 3. On the 16th day of October, 1980, he deposited in the United States Mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, certified mail no. 179746, as evidenced by certified mail receipt no. 179746 attached hereto and made a part hereof, true and correct copies of a complaint in divorce in the above captioned matter and a rule to show cause why the defendant should not pay alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and court costs in the above captioned matter, addressed to C. Edward Walton, Foreman St. Conneaut Lake, Pa. 16316. 4. Service of the complaint and the rule to show cause was obtained upon the defendant, C. Edward Walton, on November 3, 1980, as evidenced by return receipt for certified mail no. 179746 attached hereto and made a part hereof, said receipt being signed by C. Edward Walton.

Nov. 26, 1980, Appearance of Bozic, Thomas & Johnson, by R. Charles Thomas, attorneys for defendant filed.

Dec. 8, 1980 Inventory and Appraisement of Property Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.33 filed.

Dec. 8, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, December 4, 1980, at the time scheduled for hearing, counsel for the parties state their clients' positions to the Court and it is obvious that at this time it is difficult to grasp a firm financial picture of the Defenant's assets bø the joint marital assets. Counse for the parties indicate a willingness to get this matter amicably settled, and the Court determines that more time is needed to make an accurate inventory of assets and liabilities between the parties before said pøoposed settlement is likely to be accomplished. Accordingly, after review of the facts as presented by counsel, the Court DIRECTS that the Defendant pay counsel fees for the services of the wife/plaintiff from the filing of the original divorce to this date in a total sum of $400.00 plus $27.00 in filing costs with one-half of said amount to be paid on or before December 24, 1980, and the balance to be paid on or before January 9, 1981, with said sums to be paid direct to his counsel and to be forwarded within twenty-four (24) hours to counsel for the wife/plaintiff.

In addition, the Court grants alimon pendente lite to the wife/plaintiff in the amount of $75.00 per week commencing with the week of December 1, 1980 with said sums to be paid weekly with the first payment due December 5, 1980 and to be paid directly to the wife rather than through the Domestic Relations division.

Alimony pendente lite shall run for a period of sixty (60) days from this date and the Court reserves unto itself the right to award additional counsel fees as the case progresses after further exploration of the facts. The Court likewise reserves the right to award continuing alimony pendente lite in an appropriate sum after said date after hearing.

If the matter is not amicably settled between the parites by February 1, 1981, either counsel may petition the Court for further hearing on the issues before the Court and/or the appointment of a master to sesolve the issues.

Oct. 24, 1980, Agreement and Consent Court Order filed. WE, ELAINE ANN MIKALAUSKAS and ANTHONY JOHN MIKALAUSKAS, the parties on the above captioned action, have agreed upon the matters set forth below, and we agree that the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, shall enter an Order in accordance with the terms of this Agreement without the necessity of our being present in Court, and we waive any further notice of the proceedings in connection with the entry of said Order, and do hereby certify that we have each received a copy of this Agreement and have been advised of the right to confer with independent counsel concerning the same:

1. Custody of Benjamin Joseph Milalauskas and Anthony Jobe Mikalauskas shall be with the Plaintiff Elaine Ann Mikalauskas. This provision shall be effective in all states of the United States and every place whatsoever.

2. Visitation between the children and their father Anthony John Mikalauskas shall be arranged between mother and father on a mutually agreeable basis. Transportation costs involved in the transportation of the children for visitation purposes shall be paid by the father. Since the parties at the present time do not know where they will be living, this Agreement is meant to provide a rough guideline for a visitation schedule. While the parties live approximately one hundred (100) miles from each other, visitation shall consist of every other weekend between 6:00 p.m. Friday and 6:00 p.m. Sunday. Any changes made in this visitation schedule are to be by mutual agreement between the parties.

In regards to summer visitation, father shall have the children for two weeks, either consecutive or nonconsecutive, provided he gives mother one months advance notice of the beginning date of any such visitation. In the event that the parties live further apart than one hundred and fifty (150) miles, longer summer visitation may be agreed upon.

In regards to holiday visitation, the parties agree to alternate the following major holidays, beginning with father to have Easter Sunday, 1981: Easter Sunday, Memorial Day, July Fourth, Labor Day, and Thanksgiving Day. The hours of visitation on these holidays shall be 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

In regards to Christmas visitation, father shall have the children between 10:00 a.m. December 26th and 5:00 p.m. December 28th of each year, provided he lives within one hundred fifty (150) miles of mother. If father lives further than one hundred fifty (150) miles from mother, he shall have an extended Christmas which shall include Christmas Day and shall extend for three or four days by agreement between the parties, with this arrangement to continue so that father shall have the children Christmas Day every other year.

3. Father agrees to pay the amount of 25% of his net income towards the support of his two minor children, said payments to be made to the mother for the children's benefit. Father agrees to keep the children and the Plaintiff covered under his medical and hospitalization insurance up until the time of the granting of a divorce between the parties, and to continue to insure the children after the granting of a divorce. Any medical or dental or related expenses that are not covered by the insurance of either party, shall be divided half and half between the parties hereto.

4. Defendant agrees to pay Alimony Pendente Lite and post divorce Alimony to the Plaintiff, said payments to be made in the amount of 10% of his net income based on a 40 hour week until Benjamin Joseph Mikalauskas enters school September of 1983. Said payments are to be made directly to the Plaintiff.

5. In regards to said support payments, both for the children and for the wife for Alimony and Alimony Pendente Lite, such payments shall commence the week following the date upon which the parties separate. Said percentages set forth for both child support and Alimony or Alimony Pendente Lite shall apply not only to regular earnings at one or more jobs Defendant may have, but also to any Unemployment benefits, sick leave benefits, and any other payments whatsoever on account of his work.

6. Defendant and Plaintiff agree to share equally the cost of any future divorce action between them. However, this Agreement is not meant in any way to encourage the prosecution or to discourage the defense of any divorce action. It is anticipated by the parties that said costs shall be no more than $550.00 including court costs and attorney fees.

7. The parties hereto jointly own real estate located at R.D.#2, Springboro, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, together with Defendant's mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lang. It is agreed between the parties that their interest in said property shall be sold, and the net proceeds of said property, (after payment of their share of the balance of the mortgage on said property, [their share of said balance being approximately $4100.00], to Prather and Mehalko, aldo any sellers' closing costs and any real estate commission) shall be as follows: Each party shall receive one-half of the net proceeds and out of his share, Defendant agrees to pay to Plaintiff the following:

(a) $750.00 representing his share of the $1500.00 debt owed to one of her relatives who provided money towards the down payment on said real estate.

(b) One-half of the fair market value of the parties' jointly owned 1977 Dodge Aspen automobile.

8. The parties hereto agree to mutually divide their personal property located in the trailer and any related personal property such as tractors, lawn mowers and so forth.

COMPLAINT IN CUSTODY

ORDER:

AND NOW, October 20, 1980, a Complaint for custody having been filed in the above entitled matter together with a request for referral to a custody mediator, and defendant's counsel having appeared at the time of the presentation of the request in motion court and indicated to the Court that mediation would not be appropriate in this case since there is an existing order regarding visitation entered in a Domestic Relations case which the defendant feels the plaintiff is violating;

NOW, THEREFORE, this matter is scheduled for hearing on October 27, 1980 at 3:00 o'clock P.M. in courtroom 1 or 2, Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker,
J.

Oct. 21, 1980, Copies of Order to Jos. Kulwicki and Douglas Ferguson, attys.

Oct. 27, 1980, Answer and New Matter to Plaintiff's Complaint For Custody and Termination of Visitation filed.

May 13, 1982 Rec'd $100.00 Vivian Stalty Bookkeeper

Oct. 30, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 27, 1980, after hearing, the Court notes that the primary issue before the Court is visitation of the minor child with the father. It appears that the parties have previously entered into an agreement for visitations dated in March of 1980 and which was reduced to a Court Order on August 21, 1980.

Recd 40.00 costs Vivian Stalty

After hearing, the Court finds no reason why the child's welfare would be jeopardized by the father continuing to have the visits provided for in said visitation agreement and, accordingly, the Court dismisses the present petition titled Complaint in Custody and adopts as its order today the agreed order formerly entered into between the parties and formalized by Court signature August 21, 1980.

The defendant/husband/father has asked the Court to cite the mother for contempt for willful and deliberate violation of said visitation agreement and it appears that while the mother knew said agreement had been reduced to a formal Court order her new counsel recently entering the case was not aware that said agreement has been reduced to a formal Court order. The Court cautions the mother, however, that any further disregard of this Court Order dated August 21, 1980, and any willful and deliberate refusal to give visitations without a Court order authorizing a change in said agreement will be more than adequate grounds to hold the mother in contempt of Court.

It further appears that because of the mother's action the father has been deprived of one weekend visit and two separate day visits with the child. The court augments the visitation order of August 21, 1980 by permitting the father within the next six weeks to select another weekend of his choice to make up the lsot visits in addition to the visits accorded him by the agreement.

The plaintiff in this case is directed to pay all costs in this case.

By agreement of the parties and in view of the fact that at time the father changes shifts and the 7:00 P.M. Friday pickup hour under the visitation agreement may not be possible to keep, the father agrees that in the event of a change of shifts making it impossible for him to pick the child up at 7:00 P.M. Friday or shortly thereafter, he will give the mother of the child twenty-four (24) hours notice of this fact and will set another time of his choice Saturday after 8:00 A.M. to pick up the child.

Jan. 12, 1981, Order filed. AND NOW, January 7, 1981, at the time set for hearing on the petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees, the matter is handled by informal discussion between the parties and counsel and the Court determines that the defendant wife is entitled to modest Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fees.

Accordingly, commencing December 17, 1980, the plaintiff shall be required to pay the sum of $75.00 per month directly to his wife as Alimony Pendente Lite, with said payments to terminate after four (4) said monthly payments have been completed on April 17, 1981.

In addition thereto, the plaintiff is directed to pay counsel fees and expenses in the total amount of $300.00 with $150.00 of said sum to be paid on or before January 21, 1981 and the balance on or before February 23, 1981.

This order is entered without taking into consideration or indicative of the Court's opinion as to what an appropriate amount of permanent alimony might be and without prejudice to the right of counsel for the defendant to petition the Court for additional counsel fees as they may relate to the dispute over property division and permanent alimony.

The Court notes at this time that there is also a support order entered into by agreement between the parties in the amount of $20.00 per week which is paid directly tothe defendant.

ON FEBRUARY 1983 TRIAL LIST: No. 8 - Jury

Feb. 8, 1983, Pretrial Conference Memorandum filed. This case involves a dog bite of the minor plaintiff, by a dog owned by Jane Grazier. The dog was a large dog and was either all or part St. Bernard. The plaintiffs' position is that the dog was of vicious propensities and that fact was known to the owner of the dog, and the defendant will dispute this contention. The defendant, Jane Grazier, died sometime after the institution of this action. Interrogatories had been posed to her by the plaintiffs prior to her death. The Defendant will offer to introduce the answers to interrogatories, or at least some of the interrogatories, as a part of the defendant's case. The plaintiffs will object to the admissibility of those answers and the issue of their admissibility will have to be determined at time of trial.

The dog bite caused scarring of the minor plaintiff's thigh and the deposition of Dr. Charles Bales has been taken which will indicate the possibility of scar revision by plastic surgery and the approximate cost thereof.

Depending upon the development of facts, there may be an issue as to comparative negligence and an issue as to the negligence of the minor plaintiff who was nine years old at the time of the incident. In all prob bility, there will have to be instructions to the jury relating to the negligence of children and relating to comparative negligence.

The two objections contained on pages 14 and 15 of Dr. Bales' deposition are overruled.

The case will take a day to a day and a half to try. Jury selection will begin on Feb. 14,1983, and the case will be number one for trial in Courtroom 1 as of now.

RULE RETURNABLE on the 18 day of November, 1982, at 10:00 A.M. in Court Room number one or two of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.

BY THE Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Nov. 4, 1982, Copies of order to Atty. J. Mason and Jos. Kulwicki.

Nov. 23, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, November, 18, 1982, at the time set for hearing, counsel appear and plaintiff, June Carless appears but the Court is advised that Frederick Carless was not advised to appear as his counsel felt it was purely a legal issue. It appears that in order to adequately resolve the issues in dispute between the parties and to act on this Petition, it would be necessary for testimony to be taken as the plaintiff is contending that it would be grossly inequitable for the Court to dismiss her divorce complaint or require her to file an affidavit.

Accordingly, the Court reserves ruling on the petition to dismiss this divorce action establishes the following procedures to bring this unsavory matter to a head between the parties.

1. Defense counsel advises he has in his hand an inventory and appraisement ans has requested his client to upgrade said appraisement as it relates to personal possession, and, accordingly, the defendant's inventory and appraisement will be filed within ten (10) days of this date.

2. The plaintiff claims to have requested in the past an opportunity to prepare an inventory and appraisement and claims they were frustrated in this effort because the defendant controls access to the three properties at issue.

Accordingly, the plaintiff will be authorized to make an inventory and appraisement of the properties listed hereafter or have an appraiser to the same on her behalf, and in this regard, the defendant will fully cooperate in providing keys and access to the hereafter listed properties on twenty-four (24) hours notice and will not in the meantime remove any personal property from said premises.

The plaintiff's appraisal will be made and filed within twenty (20) days of this date. Anyone appraising the property is authorized to take the necessary photographs and measurements in order that an adequate depiction of the property is made in the inventory and appraisement.

The parties mutually agree that the properties here at issue that are the subject matter of an inventory and appraisement are (a) West Springfield Township, Erie County Cottage; (b)a Conneautville, Pennsylvania residence; (c) a Warren County Hunting Camp.

There seems to be some dispute as to whether or not the defeddant has an actual or equitable interest in one or more of these properties but this is a legal issue for resolution by the Court and the defendant's refusal to cooperate in the aforementioned requirement cannot be based on his contention that the said properties are not subject to litigation in this divorce action.

It appears there is an upcoming Domestic Relations hearing on the support

Mar. 3, 1981, STATUS CONFERENCE ORDER filed. And Now, February 26, 1981, counsel for the parties appear and it appears the matter has been amicably resolved to the effect that within ten (10) days the defendants will file a consent agreement to revive the judgment in the amount of $2,199. Counsel for the plaintiff, acting for his client agrees that judgment should be entered in this amount instead of the $4,915.80 set forth in their original praecipe filed November 3, 1980.

With the filing of this agreement, the lien of the plaintiff will be preserved with the same force and effect as if the matter had been fully litigated and effective Nov. 6, 1975, and appropriately renewed Nov. 3, 1980.

In view of this agreement, no further litigation is necessary as in the event of default, under the agreement, the plaintiff agrees his recourse is the issuance of execution.

Accordingly, no further settlement conferences are necessary and there is no need to file a certificate of readiness in this case until such time as the plaintiff takes further action for breach of the consent agreement.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED that :

1. Primary custody of the subject minor child, Marlee Marie Haylett, shall remain with the Plaintiff, her mother, Rickie Lee Haylett.

2. The father, William Edward Haylett, shall have the following visitation rights:

(a) Starting July 12, 1981, the father shall have the right to visit with his daughter from 2p.m. to 5 p.m. every Sunday at the home of the Plaintiff's mother, Edna Sickman. During this visitation, the only persons to be present are the Defendant, the subject minor child, Edna Sickman, and Mrs. Plummer, the Defendant's foster mother. Under no circumstances is the Plaintiff or any other member of her family, to be present.

(b) Starting August 16, 1981, the father shall be permitted to take the subject minor child for visitation from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., every Sunday. During this visitation he may not take the child to the home of his natural parents.

(c) After the Defendant and his daughter have completed six day time only visits as outlined in paragraph 2(b) above, the Defendant shall be permitted to take his daughter for visitation on alternate weekends from Saturday at noon to Sunday at 5p.m. During said visitation he shall not take the subject minor child to the home of his natural parents but this shall be the only specific restriction, it being understood that he shall never take said child to any place which would be unwholesome for children.

(d) Provided that the father has exercised six of the day time only visitations as outlined in paragraph 2(b) above and therefore has the right to start or has started, on his overnight visitations as outlined in paragraph 2(c), he shall have the right to an overnight visitation from noon of one day to 5p.m. on the succeeding day some time during the week following Christmas. The father shall give the mother two weeks notice of which overnight period he wishes to select.

3. If the father cannot appear for any of the visitation periods, he shall give the mother 48 hours notice. In the event that the father has not given the mother any notice but fails to appear for visitation within one-half hour of the time scheduled, said visitation shall be deemed cancelled and the mother may go about her business.

4. If the father should move from the home of his foster mother, Mrs. Plummer, he shall so inform the Plaintiff and all visitation shall be suspended unless the mother shall be satisfied that his new living quarters are suitable for a young child and that her daughter will be adequately cared for during visitation at the father's new quarters.

5. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his child and neither party shall do or say anything whatsoever to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of said child.

6. Either party shall have the right to move the Court for hearing de novo for 15 days from the date hereof. In the event that no party so moves, this order shall become a permanent Order but in the event of changed circumstances, either party may seek further mediation at any time.

7. The mediator has determined that neither party is employed and the father is presently on public assistance. The County will therefore pay the fees and costs of this mediation.

AND NOW, August 16, 1983, the Order of February 3, 1983 is modified as follows: Paragragh 1 (a) of said Order is deleted, and t there is substituted, therefore, the following: The mother, Bonnie S. Cooney shall have temporary custody of the child with her each week from 1:00 o'clock P.M. Friday until 8:00 o'clock P.M. On the weekends when the child is with her, the mother shall arrange for the child to attend religious services on Sunday.

Sept. 19, 1983 Petition for Contempt and Order filed: AND NOW, this 19th day of September 1983, a Rule is hereby entered on the Plaintiff to show cause, if any she has, why she should not be held in Contempt of Court.

Robert L. Walker, Judge

Sept 19, 1983 Copies of order to Bruce Johnson and Emil Spadafore, Esqs.

Oct. 26, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, October 26, 1983, although it appears there have been some violations of the previous order, we will not find the Plaintiff in contempt at this time. The previous order, however, is amended by adding thereto the following:
1. At no time when the child Rhonda is in the custody of the mother shall she be permitted to ride on a motorcycle, and Douglas Caldwell shall not participate in any physical discipline of the child while she is in the custody of the mother.
2. The plaintiff by her own voluntary agreement assured the Court in August that she would see to it that the child attended church on each Sunday while she was in the mother's custody. It appears that voluntary commitment, which was reduced to an Order, has not been entirely complied with. The Plaintiff is cautioned that any failure to comply with that phase of the Order will result in a modification to permit the Defendant to have the child on Sundays.
Except as herein modified, the Order of September 22, 1982 as previously amended by various Orders shall continue in full force and effect.

The Court notes but does not act upon at this time an allegation that the defendant in violation of the spirit of this Court's order of December 8, 1980 on two different occasions went to the premises of his wife and allegedly removed property of the wife and destroyed property of the wife, if a criminal offense has been committed leaves to the discretion of the wife whether to file appropriate criminal charges.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN MEMORY OF FRANK D. PRATHER

ORDER:

AND NOW, December 5, 1980, the Court hereby established the date of January 9, 1981, at 2:00 P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 as the time and location for a memorial service to honor the memory of Frank D. Prather.

The Court hereby appoints Max B. Maloney, Chairman, George J. Barco and Fred C. Kiebort, Jr. as a resolutions committee to draft the traditional resolution for presentation to the Court at said time.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
P.J.

Dec. 8, 1980, Copies mailed to committee by Judge Thomas' office.

April 7, 1981,

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

Your Committee, appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a memorial on the death of the late Frank D. Prather, Esq., respectfully submits the following:

Frank D. Prather was born at Meadville, Pennsylvania, on April 7, 1907, a son of Judge Thomas Jefferson Prather and Margaret Kramer Prather. He attended and graduated in 1924 from the local public schools; graduated in June of 1929 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio; graduated in June of 1931 with a master's degree in science from Pennsylvania State University; and received his law degree from University of Pittsburgh Law School in 1934. He was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on August 6, 1934.

In the Spring of 1939, he married June Zeitler. He is survived by his wife; three sons, Mark D., of Leslie Road, Meadville, Thomas M., of Wilmington, NC, and F. Lee, of Raleigh, NC; three daughters, Mrs. William (Patricia) Pineo, of R. D. #3, Conneaut Lake, PA, Mrs. Georgios (Sally) Prather-Kyvernitis, of Meadville, and Mary Sue Prather, of Lisbon, Portugal. He is also survived by nine grandchildren.

In 1934, or thereabout, he joined Roy Peters in legal practice and formed the firm of Peters and Prather. Upon the death of Roy Peters in 1965, he joined in legal practice with his son Mark and son-in-law William Pineo, forming the firm of Prather, Prather and Pineo. He remained active in legal practice until the first part of September, 1980, when he became ill.

Frank was a member of Stone United Methodist Church and president of the Men's Bible Class at the church for over 40 years. In fact he was on his way to church the morning he was stricken. He served over 20 years as a member of Crawford Central School Board, following in the footsteps of his mother who was on the Meadville School Board for many years. He was president of the Board for a time and was instrumental in launching plans for the County Vocational-Technical School in 1968. He was a member of Meadville Lions Club, Round Table, Meadville Grange, Cussewago Lodge of Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and served on Meadville Public Library's Board of Directors.

In his free time Frank enjoyed chess, bridge and tennis. He once achieved a draw in chess playing former world chess champion Samuel Reschevsky at an Erie Tournament. Frank was a great bridge player. He played with the Meadville Bridge Club every Thursday night and was their tournament director. In fact this was like a religion with him. We note this because he didn't let Bar Association meetings conflict with bridge. Another hobby with Frank was tennis. He was a former City tennis champion. Every Sunday he played tennis with his regular group. In fact this group played tennis for years and they were excellent players for men of their age. It has been rumored that he played tennis earlier on the day he became ill.

Frank Prather was an avid adversary, and although he did not try a lot of civil and criminal cases in court, he had a burning desire to win, and usually came out on top of the heap in the end. He had a keen understanding of the law and was able to use this knowledge as an efficient tool in a very productive way for his clients. He was born and raised in a legal atmosphere, and after he drew his first breath, had plenty of opportunity to argue his contentions with his parents as well as with his brothers and sisters. Two of his brothers, John B. Prather and Gerald D. Prather, also followed his Judge father's footsteps in the practice of law, and are still practicing law.

Frank will long be remembered by his fellow attorneys and the people in the area surrounding the City of Meadville because he was such a strong individual. He was a home-loving husband and father, as well as a public spirited citizen. As a practitioner he was very concise, cut out everything he considered red-tape, and was the only lawyer who completed full title search notes on one page of paper and had room to spare. Much of his practice was related to real estate, estates and taxes.

We wish as an Association to express our sadness at the passing of our colleague, Frank D. Prather, and to extend our sincere sympathy to his widow June, and all of his family. We know that his family will continue to follow much of his philosophy because Frank taught them all through his examples, both at home and at work, to live as strong individuals, be self-reliant, and not to be dependent on other people. This ability has been so instilled in his surviving family that they are well able to carry on even though he has passed away.

We request that this report be spread at length upon the records of this Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.

Respectfully submitted,

Max B. Maloney, Chairman

F. C. Kiebort, Jr.

George J. Barco

ORDER

AND NOW, January 9, 1981, upon presentation of the foregoing Report in Open Court by Max B. Maloney, Esq., Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Court, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED that the Memorial Report be spread at length upon the records of the Court and that a duplicate copy of the Report be delivered by the Prothonotary to the family as follows:

DECREE

And now, to-wit: July 28 A. D. 1981, this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said Suzan Ann Wagner, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between, the said Suzan Ann Wagner, the plaintiff,

Oct. 9, 1981 Order filed. AND NOW, October 8, 1981, ath the time for hearing, the position of the parties is expressed through their counsel and in conference between the Court and counsel. It appears that since the entry of the temporary custody and visitation Order on April 13, 1981, the parties' respective situations and living arrangements have changed. It appears the father has been unemployed for a considerable period of time, is behind on his rent and is unsure of future employment.

It further appears the mother is contemplating marriage by mid-December and has currently moved to the State of Texas in anticipation of said marriage and in anticipation of her prospective spouse entering the military service in the Air Force on or about October 22, 1981 for a four-year enlistment.

Future military service location of the mother after her marriage is uncertain at this time; accordingly, the visitation arrangements set forth by the hearing mediator in the April 13, 1981 Order are impractical, and the Court enters the following custody and visitation Order:

Oct. 8, 1981, PRETRIAL CONFERENCE ORDER filed. This is a personal injury case in which the defendant allegedly struck the plaintiff, Eric M. Campbell, with a motorcycle. The case was originally filed as an intentional tort case subsequently amended to plead only negligence. The defendants carrier originally agreed to provide a defense but subsequently withdrew that defense and its appearance on the theory that the case was based upon intentional tort. After amendment, counsel employed by the insurance carrier once again entered an appearance. During the period that the defendant was not represented by counsel, plaintiff filed requests for admissions and after the re-entry of an appearance, answers were filed thereto. By separate order we will permit the filing of those answers nunc pro tunc as though the same had been filed timely.

There may be an issue as to whether the jury should be instructed in any way regarding the possibility of the injuries in this case arising out of an intentional tort in which case the carrier would deny liability on its part based on the coverage issue. The plaintiff has indicated that the claim for loss of consortium filed by Pamela J. Campbell, the wife of Eric M. Campbell, is being withdrawn, and therefore, the issue of loss of consortium will not be submitted to the jury.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

April 9, 1981, Copies of Order to Robert Felton, Esq., Thomas Lindquist, Esq., and Wm. Peiffer, Esq.

ON OCTOBER TRIAL LIST 1981; No. 1.

Oct. 8 Pretrial Conference Order filed. This is a suit for building materials brought by the plaintiff against the defendants, Leach, as owners of the property, and the defendant, Miller, as an alleged general contractor. The most substantial dispute between the parties is whether Miller was an agent of the Leaches, or whether he was in fact a general contractor purchasing material for his own account.

There are a number of invoices for materials that will presented by the plaintiff and the defendants, Leach, admit that some of them are not disputed but that some may be. In order to resolve this matter, the plaintiff will label all exhibits to be offered in evidence and submit a copy to each defendant on or before October 13, 1981 and the defendants shall submit to the Court a list in writing on or before October 16, 1981 of the exhibits they intend to object to, and the exhibits they intend to agree to the admission of.

The defendant, Miller, shall file a pretrial narrative on or before October 13, 1981 furnishing copies to all other counsel.

It is Miller's position that the construction loan contract is only a partial agreement and there was an oral contract beyond the construction loan contract, and that, therefore, there is no integrated contract for the construction job.

The jury will be selected on October 19, 1981 and the case will probably go to trial that day or shortly thereafter.

The Court notes that a previous deposit of $300.00 was paid by the Plaintiff and $175.00 of said sum was used to pay court reporter fees, leaving a balance of $125.00 available for master's fees. Accordingly, there remains to be paid for master's fees the sum of $325.00 by the parites, and the Court directs that said sum be paid $100.00 by E. Muriel Gumino and $225.00 be paid by Anthony C. May 12, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 8, 1981, at the time of argument, the court believes bifurcation is appropriate under the facts in this case, and as argued, and the Court will in due course enter a decree of divorce under Section 201(d). The request for attorney fees, the Court finds to have been belatedly filed and would require further extensive hearings in order for the Court to make an intelligent decision; with this in mind, counsel for the Defendant advises the court that he chooses to withdraw the request for attorney fees and accordingly, the same having been requested to be withdrawn, the request for additional attorney fees at this point is denied.

There remains the sole issue on whether the Master erred in finding the Defendant entitled to alimony, and secondly, the amount of such alimony if she is entitled thereto. Counsel for the Defendant submits the Court a brief this date after argument on that issue, and the Court grants counsel for the Plaintiff until June 1, 1981 to submit a brief on the matter, and upon receipt of said brief, the Court will take the amtter under advisement and issue an order regarding entitlement to alimony and/or amount of alimony in due course without further argument.

Aug. 21, 1981 Order filed: The matter comes before us again on an application for wage assignment instituted by the Domestic Relations Division because of the defendant's alleged arrearages on alimony awarded in the divorce case but processed for collection through the Domestic Relations Division. At the same time the defendant petitions the Court under the Divorce number alleging that his earnings are substantially less than the Court anticipated in entering the alimony order and requesting a reduction in alimony more mommensurate with his present earning capacity.

Due to a heavy Court schedule, the Court believes the matter can be most advantageeously explored by referring the matter to a Domestic Relations hearing officer to explore the present posture of the parties and make meaningful recommendations to the Court. In the event these recommendations are not satisfactory to either party, exceptions could be taken and a de novo hearing could be scheduled before the Court. Accordingly, we enter the following:

O R D E R

AND NOW, August 20, 1981, the Petition for Relief and Application for Wage Assignment are taken under advisement and the Domestic Relations Division is directed to schedule this matter before a hearing officer forthwith, which hearing shall result in recommendations to the Court for appropriate action on both petitions.

In the meantime, Anthony C. Gumino will make every effort to comply with the requirements of the existing order.

Oct. 7, 1981 Order Filed. And Now, October 5, 1981, at the time set for review of the visitation Order for the three-year-old child Robert, the matter is handled informally with counsel present and at the suggestion of the Court, the following visitation schedule is agreed upon:

Commencing with the month of October, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his care and custody the first Sunday of every month between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.. On any date he does not arrive to pick up the child by 10:00 a.m., the mother may consider the visit cancelled and make other arrangements for the child.

On the third weekend of every month, the father shall have the right to have custody of the child between the hours of Friday at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday at 8:00 p.m. On any Friday the father does not arrive by 9:00 p.m., the visit will be considered cancelled unless he has previously notified the mother and made special arrangements to pick up the child at another time that weekend.

Commencing with the month of February, 1982, unless a petition is filed indicating that said arrangements would not be in the best interest of the child, the first Sunday visit will be extended to a weekend visit so that the father will have the child in his custody on the first and third weekends of each month between the hours of Friday at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday at 8:00 p.m.

In addition, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody during the Christman Holiday season for a period of forty-eight (48) hours either immediately before Christmas Day or immediately after Christmas Day. The child will be in the home of the mother on Christmas Day.

In addition, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody for two separate one-week periods during the months of June, July or August, with said weekends to be picked at the discretion of the father, but so as not to interfere with any planned vacation from work schedules the mother has.

In the event the parties cannot agree on the separate one-week schedules, the Court directs that these weeks be the second week of June from Sunday at 8:00 p.m. to the following Sunday at 8:00 p.m. and the first week of August between similar periods.

Apr. 10, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 8, 1981, after hearing, the Court finds the Defendant in contempt of court for his wilful and deliberate violation of this Court's Order entered December 17, 1980 in that he did abuse and assault his wife in Williams' Cafe on or about seven P.M., February 25, 1981.

The Court notes the Defendant has already served twelve (12) days in jail. The parties have agreed by previous consent agreement that certain personal property can be removed and the Court has arranged between the parties this date that on April 9, 1981, at 10:00 A.M., the Defendant will appear at the residence of his wife and will be able to remove the items set forth in the agreement except for a 1969 Dodge Van, which the wife agrees she has traded for another car. The Court requests, and the Sheriff is required to be present at the time to keep peace between the parties.

The Defendant will report to the Crawford County Jail at 10:00 A.M. on Friday, April 10, 1981 and will serve an additional twelve (12) days in jail for being in wilful and deliberate contempt of court. The Court sentences the Defendant to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of six (6) months, but credits against the six (6) months the twenty-four (24) days he will have served in the Crawford County Jail. In addition, the Defendant is assessed a fine of $1,000.00. Except for the twenty-four (24) days of jail time, twelve (12) of which have been previously served the remainder of the sentence is suspended and payment of the fine is suspended upon the following conditions:

1. The Defendant will not assault, harass, abuse, molest or contact directly or indirectly his wife in this case.

In the event he does so, he is liable for serving the full sentence in this case.

The parties have presented to the Court a proposed Order for visitation to which the Defendant only partially agrees. The Court adopts said proposed Order and DIRECTS it be filed with this Order with the following modifications:

1. It appears the child is suffering from tonsilitis and is under medication; and accordingly, the father sequests that the weekend visits accorded by the Order commence June 20, 1981 at 10:00 A.M. when the child will picked up at 1117 Race Street.

After said visit, the same procedure will be followed; the following visit will be on Sunday and then alternating Saturdays and Sundays thereafter.

2. The father has requested in view of the travel distance that the one day visits be expanded into weekend visits and the Court denies said request, but believes the father should have a chance to become fully re-aqquainted with his son, and accordingly, sets the visitation issue for review on September 1, 1981 at 1:30 P.M. for the purpose of ascertaining whether his request for expanded visitation into weekend visits is feasible.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR SEPTEMBER 28, 1981; NO. 3.

November 4, 1981, RE: MARITAL DIVISION AND PERMANENT ALIMONY - ORDER filed. The parties were divorced, after 31 years of marriage, under Section 201 (d) of the Divorce Code on September 3, 1980, leaving unresolved the equitable division of marital property and permanent alimony. Bruce L. Smith, Esquire, was appointed Master and filed his report and recommendations February 13, 1981. Exceptions were filed to the Master's Report on February 23, 1981, by both parties but no argument requested on the Exceptions until June 18, 1981, Argument was then scheduled for September 28, 1981. We have reviewed the Master's Report and argument briefs, read the transcript and, with minor adjustments believe that the Master's recommendations are as fair and equitable as could be devised from a difficult situation. Accordingly, the recommendations of the Master contained on Page 4 of the Master's Report are hereby adopted by the Court with the following modifications:

Paragraph 1 -- The Court will grant the parties four months from the date of the filing of this Order to amicably sell the real estate and divide the proceeds as recommended. In the event the property is not sold in said time period, the Court will entertain a motion to reappoint the Master to sell the same at either public or private sale at the best possible price.

Paragraph 4 -- Both Plaintiff and Defendant shall have the right to petition for modification based on a showing of substantial and continuing change.

We are advised Master's fees in the amount of $525.00 have been paid by agreement between the parties .

A.D. 1980 - 505

Action 1980- 505, the Court is called upon torule whether the division of personal and real property should take place under the Equity Partition Action or under the Divorce Action as amended. The ruling of the Court is that the Court having allowed an amendment of the Divorce Action in order that the Defendant Kathryn Howles could file an Answer and Counterclaim to her husband's Divorce Action, and said Counterclaim having been filed, and said Counterclaim having raised, under the new Divorce Act effective July 1, 1980, the Defendant's right to permanent alimony, custody and division of personal and real property, the Court believes it appropriate to resolve all of the issues between the parties within the parameters of the Divorce Action at 1980- 505, accordingly, this date so rules.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 5, 1980, Copies of Order to Joseph Kulwicki, Esq., and Stephen Toole, Esq.

It appears this account is in issue as the Defendant Kathryn Howles contends she has a marital property interest in this account.

Pennsylvania Bank checking account 050078-12, opened June 1, 1977 in the name of Howles Farm Sales; signature card, James W. Howles. This account closed October 19, 1978.

Dec. 5, 1980, Copies of Order to Joseph Kulwicki, Esq., and Stephen Toole, Esq.

✓Dec. 11, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, December 2, 1980, after hearing, the Court denies alimony pendente liet, particularly in view of the fact that by agreement of the parties, the Court will be granting this divorce action brought under Section 201D forthwith.

Insofar as counsel fees are concerned, the defendant is awarded the sum of $500.00, with $250.00 of said sum to be paid on or before the 15th of December and the balance on or before the 15th of January, 1981.

The Court notes that the counsel fees awarded are for counsel fees for counseling the client in the divorce action and cover the period up to the date of the granting of the divorce but do not include any future counsel fees accruing as a result of protracted litigation involving division of property.

V IVS I T A T I O N

The parties are in agreement that custody of the children should be awarded to the mother and the Court so orders.

The father is desirous of re-establishing visitation rights with his two children even though he has not exercised those rights or been accorded those rights for the last three years. The Court is of the opinion, however, that weekend visits or extensive stays with the father after such a long separation between parent and child is inadvisable at this time. ACCORDINGLY, the Court will establish a schedule of Saturday visits for a period of five (5) months, after which time, there will be weekend visits and a one-week visitation in the summer time with the privilege of either party to petition the Court for modification of said Order if the visitation arrangements are not satisfactory. ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following order:

The father shall have the right to have his children on Saturday, December 13, 1980, between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.. and similarly on the second Saturday of every month for the months of January. February and March. On any occasion when the father does not arrive by the hour of 11:00 a.m. to pick up the children, the mother may consider the visit cancelled and need not surrender the children.

By agreement of the father, it shall be his obligation to pick up the children and return them to the place where the mother resides; and in the event he is unable to do so, the mother agrees that any of this three mature sons may pick up the children and return them.

Commencing with the month of April, 1981 and monthly thereafter, the visitations will be expanded and the father shall have the right to have his children from 7:00 p.m., Friday until 7:00 p.m., Sunday on the second weekend of each month under the same terms and conditions as established for the previous Saturday visits.

During the months of July or August, 1981, the father shall have the right to have the children in his possession for one continuous week; providing, however, he gives the mother at least three weeks advance notice of the week that he selects with the week commencing Munday at 10:00 a.m. and ending the following Sunday at 8:00 p.m.

The Court enteres this Order after advising the parties that if the father succeeds in establishing a meaningful relationship with his children, the Court would urge an expansion of the visits and urges the parties to agree to the same. In the event they cannot agree to the same at any time after September, 1981, the father may petition this Court under this Order for expanded visitation rights.

AND NOW, this 23 day of Jan. 1981 upon presentation and consideration of the within petition and pursuant to the Order of December 2, 1981, it is hereby, directed and decreed, that a Rule be issued requiring the plaintiff to appeal before this Honorable Court on the 5 day of Feb., 1981, in Courtroom number one or two, at 10:00 A.M. to show cause, if any he may have, why he should not be held in contempt of the Court Order entered the 2nd day of December, 1980, and further why he should not be required to pay additional counsel fees. Feb. 10, 1981 Order filed. AND NOW, February 5, 1981, at the time set to adjudicate plaintiff in contempt for failure to pay additional counsel fees, and after hearing, the Court finds the plaintiff is in wilful and deliberate contempt of this Court's Order of December 2nd requiring the payment of counsel fees. While the plaintiff contends he has had limited income from wood cutting during said period of time, the Court believes he is wilfully and deliberately not applying any of the proceeds from his income to payment on this Order. ACCORDINGLY, the defendant is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of six (6) months.

The sentence of imprisonment is suspended on the following conditions:

1. He will this date have his attorney prepare and the defendant will execute an assignment of his rights to receive payment from the Department of Welfare for wood cutting for welfare recipients. Said assignment shall have the money paid to his counsel and his counsel will promptly forward the same to the attorney for his wife.

2. In addition to the counsel fees awarded on December 2nd, 1980 and in view of the Court's finding that the plaintiff is wilfully, deliberately and with malice attempting to circumvent the Court's Order, the Court directs additional counsel fees in the amount of $150.00 and loss of wages for the defendant for taking this date off work to appear at the hearing in the amount of $42.00, being a total of $192.00 to be added to the Order of $500.00 previously entered December 2nd, 1980.

3. The entire amount of said Order will be paid within thirty (30) days of this date and the plaintiff is cautioned that he must sell assets in order to pay the same in the event his reimbursement from the Department of Welfare, which he contends is in an amount of approximately $800.00 is not received or in the event said amount does not meet the total of the amount ordered herein.

4. The Court by its memorandum opinion ordered the plaintiff to file a statement of income and expenses in accordance with the mandates of the Divorce Law and the same has not been filed. Any punishment for contempt of this direction is postponed and the plaintiff is directed to file the same within ten(10) days.

Apr. 10, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, April 10, 1981, after informal hearing, the Court hereby establishes additional Master's fees in the amount of $400.00 and additional Court Reporter fees in the amount of $200.00, totaling $600.00, and requires each of the parties to contribute one half of said amount before these proceedings may continue. The Court notes that it anticipates the issues raised can be resolved by the Master without the necessity of ordering a full transcript of what he currently estimates to be a two-day hearing. In the event a transcript is required, the cost of the same will be advanced by the parties in such amount as the Master recommends to the Court. The Court notes that the Court Reporter fees therefore are set for appearance only and do not cover in toto the cost of a transcript. The deposits herein shall be made within thirty days.

Oct. 30, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1980, it appearing that after lengthy litigation the child was voluntarily surrendered to the custody of the mother on or about October 12 when the child walked into the home of the mother by persons unknown to the mother but presumably by the father.

ACCORDINGLY, the petition for custody is GRANTED to Elaine M. Francisco and the minor child, SHON MICHAEL SIMON, is hereby awarded to the care and custody of his mother, Elaine M. Francisco.

This Court is concerned about the conduct of the father inremoving the child in the past from the mother's custody and the dilatory litigation instituted to postpone the return and the Court makes no Order at this time regarding visitation except to permit the father telephone communication with his son at the mother's home provided he does not intend to adversely influence the child or encourage conduct contrary to the letter and intent of this Order.

In the event the father wishes to establish visitation arrangements with the child, he may petition this Court requesting a hearing on his right to visitation so that the Court may ascertain his intentions and provide for necessary security arrangements to prevent another removal of the child from the jurisdiction of this Court.

The Court being authorized to place court costs and attorney fees on the offending party, directs that counsel for the mother file a petition setting forthin detail costs and attorney fees incurred in securing the recustody of her child and this Court by subsequent Order with give consideration to imposing all or a portion of said expenses upon the father.

DECREE

And now, to-wit: November 19, 1981 A. D. 19..., this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said Cynthia Orr, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony, heretofore contracted between the said Cynthia Orr, the plaintiff, and the said William Charles Orr, Sr., the defendant, and that thereupon all and every the duties, rights and claims accruing to either the said plaintiff or the said defendant, at any time heretofore in pursuance of said marriage, shall cease and determine;

Oct: 31, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 29, 1980, after extensive hearing, the Court recognizes both parties are in a financial dilemma at this time occasioned by the separation, indefiniteness of the husband's employment and the pressing demands of creditors. However, under all the circumstances, the Court believes the defendant has available the means to secure funds to pay a portion of the wife's attorney fees and alimony pendente lite for a reasonable period of time. ACCORDINGLY, the defendant is directed to pay the sum of $50.00 per week retroactive to September 22 as alimony pendente lite in addition to the support order already entered in the amount of $25.00 for the wife and $55.00 for the children. This money will be paid direct to the wife.

The amount of $200.00, which will roughly pay one month of alimony shall be paid within ten (10) days of this date.

The Court believes that this matter is ready for decision in view of the fact that Mr. Baiera in not contesting the divorce and the sole issue between the parties is the property division. It appears the parties have been unsuccessful acting through their counsel in reaching an amicable settlement of the property division, and accordingly, the matter is ripe for petitioning the Court for an appointment of a Master to hear the divorce action and make property division; the matter of custody and child support already having been resolved in other proceedings.

The defendant will pay within thirty (30) days the sum of $500.00 attorney fees as his share of the wife's attorney fees and it is the intention of this Court that his obligation for attorney fees shall be this $500.00, which will be all his obligation up to the time the matter is submitted to a Master for the divorce hearing and division of property. Attorney fees will obviously be incurred in the presentation of the case to the Master and in hearing necessary on property division. ACCORDINGLY, the wife may be entitled to a share of her attorney fees accumulating after the date the matter is submitted to a Master. The Court authorizes the Master to award additional attorney fees if the situation warrants and if the Master refuses to act, the Court will entertain a further motion to set additional attorney fees after the matter is concluded before the Master.

It is the intention of this Court that barring unforeseen circumstances, alimony pendente lite should not continue for an indefinite period and accordingly, after sixty (60) days from this date, the defendant's obligation to continuepaying alimony pendente lite shall cease unless good cause is shown to the Court for continuing the same.

Primary custody of the two (2) minor children shall be with the mother, subject to the following:

1. In view of the prospective immediate return to Texas as the parties mutually agree, the father may pick up the children from the mother at Twelve O'oclock Noon, October 8, 1981 and return them not later than 9:00 P.M. In view of this agreement, Court ORDERS said visitation.

2. Each parent shall keep the other parent advised of their present address and any changes thereof by notifying the other parent within forty-eight (48) hours of an address change.

3. In view of the great distance between the parties, weekend visits are impractical, but the Court believes and the parties tentatively agree that a one-month visit twice a year would be appropriate under the present situation. Accordingly, for the first six months of 1982, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody for a period of four (4) consecutive weeks; and, likewise, for the second six months of 1982, and annually thereafter, the father shall be entitled to another four week visit, meaning a total in each calendar year of two (2) separate one-month visits. The Court leaves to the parents to attempt to find a satisfactory four-week period with the lease inconvenience to the children and each of the parents, but if the parties cannot agree, the Court sets the visitation period to be a four-week period commencing with the first Sunday of March and the first Sunday of September each calendar year.

4. In view of the fact that the mother's prospective husband will be in the military service and be able to obtain reduced or free transportation, the cost of delivery and return of the children from the mother to father shall be borne by the mother.

5. The father agrees that while the children are in his custody, they will be lodged with his parents at their home during said stay, and the Court acknowledges at this time that the parents reside in Clearfield County.

6. Anytime the mother visits in this area and the children accompany her, she shall give at least one(1) week notice to the father and satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children visit with their father for a meaningful period of time during the mother's stay in Crawford County.

The Court notes that a support Order has been entered in the Domestic Relations Section against the father and it is contended that no monies have been paid on that for over nine (9) months, and the Court admonishes the father to make diligent efforts to make payments on said support Order.

In view of the possible changes of residence and conditions, either party is granted permissionsto petition the Court to modify this Order in view of major changed circumstances of either of the parents.

Feb. 3, 1993 Plaintiff's Answer with New Matter and Counter-Claims filed.

Apr. 8, 1993 Order filed. AND NOW, March 31, 1993, both parties appeared in open court with counsel and agreed to proceed informally without a record and without the taking of testimony. Each attorney outlined in detail the facts and chronology which he and she believed they could prove through competent admissible evidence.
Based on this, the court finds that the plaintiff initially complied withthe Custody Order of October 8, 1981, by making a reasonable attempt to keep the defendant advised of her whereabouts and current address sthrough June of 1982. FURTHERMORE, she apparently complid with the Domestic Relations Support Order obligating her to timely notify the Domestic Relations Sectionof a change of address for most, if not all, periods of time since 1981. HOWEVER, it appears that the Domestic Relations Section will not divulge those addresses to the other parent without a Court Order or the consent of the plaintiff.
The defendant maintains that he attempted to get her address and whereabouts from the Domestic Relations Section. He does not say that he was denied that information because of confidentiality but he simpsly alleged that they did not know where she was, although that is contrary to the facts spresented by the Domestic Relations Section.
The plaintiff did move several times and made no attempt to notify the defendant as is clearly required by Paragraph 2 of the October 8, 1981 Custody Order. During those periods of time, the defendant resided in Meadville, Pennsylvania, and had his name and phone number listed in current telephone directories.
FURTHERMORE, it appears that, in keeping with Paragraph 5 ofthe October 8, 1981 Order, his parents continued to reside in Clearfield County, where they have resided for a long time. Since the plaintiff made no attempt to locate the whereabouts of the defendant or to let him know her address, and since the slightest degree of effort would have uncovered him and his address, the Court finds that she did not keep him advised of her current address and has no lawful excuse for failing to do the same.
The Court finds that the defendant did not attempt to contact her and probably could have use dmore reasonable efforts to do so, but he is reasonably excused from having done so when he did not known where she was.
This is a technical violation. She shall purge herself from contempt by paying $350 to James R. Irwin, Esquire, no later that June 1, 1993. When she does that, the contempt action and finding shall be terminated without any further proceedings.

June 7, 1982 Memorandum, Decision and Proposed Final Decree filed:

MEMORANDUM

The parties to this litigation have been separated for many years and the litigation itself has been on going and bitterly contested. The matter was referred to a Master who has held extensive hearings and has now filed a report and recommendation. No exceptions were filed by either side to the recommendations of the Master. However, we are required to independently review the case and reach a final conclusion whether exceptions to the Master's Report are filed or not. Some of the Master's recommendations are really suggestions of aims to be accomplished and do not specify precisely how the Court should accomplish those ends through a decree.

No proposed decree was attached to the Master's Report as required by Pa. R.C.P. 1920.53(b)(3). This creates somewhat of a procedural dilemma because neither party knows what the proposed decree is and might have filed exceptions had they been presented with a precise decree as opposed to the general recommendations of the Master. Pa., R.C.P. 1920.55(b) provides that if no exceptions are filed, the Court shall review the report and if approved, shall enter a final decree. Subsection (c) of that rule prohibits the filing of exceptions to the final decree. Thus, if we frame our own decree, it would become final without either party having had an opportunity to except to it.

We are, however, reluctant to refer this matter back to the Master for further proceedings in order to obtain a proposed decree becasue the case has been delayed long enough. We are, therefore, filing a proposed Final Decree which we will treat as a decision under Rule 1920.52 in a case heard by the Court without the intervention of a master in which case the parties have the right afforded by Rule 1038 to except to the decision. We realize that this is not the total conformity with the Rules of Civil Procedure but given the situation that we find ourselves in, we believe that it will accomplish substantial justice and afford both parties all of the rights intended by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Decision and Proposed Final Decree

AND NOW, June 4, 1982, the marriage between the parties having been dissolved by earlier Decree of this Court, the following Decision and Proposed Final Decree is entered:

Permanent Alimony

1. The plaintiff shall pay to the defendant as permanent alimony the sum of $100.00 per month effective July 1, 1982 and continuing for a period of seven (7) years thereafter.

2. The payment of alimony shall terminate upon the remarriage of the defendant, the death of the defendant, or the cohabitation of the defendant with a person of the opposite sex in violation of Section 507 of the Divorce Code.

3. The payment of alimony shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth under Equitabe Distribution for a charge or lien upon the plaintiff's property and the death of the plaintiff shall terminate the requirements of the payment of alimony, but shall not terminate the obligation set forth in this decree under Equitable Distribution.

4. The Court reserves the right to modify this decree relating to alimony for cause shown upon the application of any party in interest.

5. This order for alimony is entered for the reasons that plaintiff's income exceeds that of the defendant and the defendant will, in the opinion of the Court, not be able to substantially increase her earning capacity because of her age, physical condition and language barrier. The period of seven years was chosen at that time the defendant will be at or near the age at which she can draw full social security benefits provided no substantial changes are made in the social security laws in the interim.

Equitable Distribution

1/ The defendant is hereby awarded all that certain piece or parcel of land

2. The plaintiff is awarded all that certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Third Ward of the City of Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

On the North by land formerly of Jerome C. Faivre and Gerald J. Faivre (brothers) now of Walter Hager et ux; on the East by land now or formerly owned by Martin Faivre, now of George X. BEING the same lond conveyed to the parties hereto by deed of Clovis F. DeBisceglia subject to the charge or lien hereinafter set forth.

3. In accordance with Section 401(g) of the Divorce Code, a lien is imposed upon the property described in paragraph 2 hereof in the sum of $8,400.00 to secure the payment of permanent alimony as established by this decree; the total amount of said lien to be reduced by the sum of $100.00 each month upon payment of the permanet alimony order. This lien may be enforced by the defendant by appropriate execution proceedings at any time that alimony payments become in arrears in excess of thirty (30) days and all alimony payments for the balance of the period for which they have been ordered shall be accelerated and shall be due and payable forthwith in the event of such execution. In the event of the death of the plaintiff prior to the payment of all alimony payments as required by this Decree or in the event of the sale by the plaintiff of the property distributed to him, the balance of the lien then existing shall be immediately due and payable and shall be in lieu of any ongoing or continuing requirements for the payment of permanent alimony, and upon payment of this lien at any time by the plaintiff, without reduction to present worth, such payment shall terminate the requirement for the payment of permanent alimony.

Counsel Fees

1. Except as otherwise heretofore ordered, no additional counsel fees are awarded and each party shall pay their own counsel.

The Prothonotary shall give notice of this Decision and Proposed Final Decree to each party in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. 1038 relating to trials without jury and each party shall have the rights established in that rule to file exceptions. If no exceptions are filed, the Prothonotary may upon praecipe enter final judgment in accordance with Pa. R.C.P 1038(e); provided, however, that final judgment shall not be entered until the Master's fees established by separate order have been paid in accordance with that order. Plaintiff's connsel having withdrawn, notice shall be given to the plaintiff individually at two addresses, to-wit: 425 Pine Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335, and 461 West 18th Street, Erie, Pennsylvania.

However, any flexibility shall be with the mutual consent of both parties, and both parties are cautioned that in the event of future hearings in regard to this matter, the law of Pennsylvania requires that the Court consider which parent is more likely to encourage, permit and allow frequent continuing contact between the non-custodial parent and the children.

AND NOW, this 16 day of February, 1996, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition For Special Relief, a RULE is issued upon Defendant to show cause if any he has why said Petition For Special Relief should not be granted.

SAID RULE is returnable on the 5th day of March, 1996, at 1:30 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford Co. Courthouse, Meadville, PA.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

Feb. 20, 1996 Order FAXED Atty. Lindsay.

Mar. 8, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 5, 1996, at the time set for hearing on the petition for special relief Plaintiff and her counsel appear but the Defendant fails to appear. The Defendant refuses to accept any mail forwarded to him by Plaintiff's counsel but was orally advised by the Plaintiff on March 4 of a divorce was filed in 1980, the parties reconciled but again separated in October of 1994. The thrust of the Plaitniff's request is that in order to proceed with the original divorce action it is necessary she secure an appraisal of the real estate and personal property in the Defendant's residence at R.D.#1 Box 13, Linesville (Linesville-Hartstown Road). Accordingly, we hereby direct that the Defendant be present at the residence March 23, 1996 at 10:00 a.m so that Plaintiff and the aprraiser may enter the household to appraise personal property and also establish a value for the real estate and the marital residence located thereon.

The Defendant is advised that if he fails to be present or fails to provide the Plaintiff with a key to the residence, this Court will enteretain a motion for contempt of this order. Additionally, the Defendant is precluded from destroying, damaging, or selling any personal property located in the marital residence.

In view of the fact the Defendant refuses to open mail forwarded by Plaintiff's counsel, the Court directs that service of a copy of this order be made upon the Defendant by a Deputy Sheriff or Constable and that upon receipt of notice of the costs of service from Plaintiff's counsel shall pay the service costs within 10 days of notice of the amount thereof.

The Defendant is advised and urged to procure counsel to represent him in this divorce action.

In addition, because of the Defendant's failure to knowingly appear at this hearing after notice thereof and the lack of cooperation in procurring the needed appraisal, the Court here by directs that attorney fees for services rendered to the Plaintiff in preparation for and attendance at the hearing to be paid by the Defendant. In this regard, counsel must submit the bill for services to the Deputy Sheriff or Constable for service upon the Defendant at the same time a copy of this order is served and the Defendant shall pay said bill direct to Plaintiff's counsel within 5 days of receipt of a bill for the same.
