P.J.

Feb. 4, 1970 Order Filed. Whereas, this proceeding comes before the Court upon a petition for the Commitment of the above named patient to the Warren State Hospital on the grounds that he is mentally ill: and Whereas, two doctors have checked the certificates that he is in the opinion of said doctors, mentally ill: and Whereas, the patient, Thomas Edward Powers, has presently been accused of a probable charge in connection with an alleged sexual assault upon his eleven year old step-daughter, and Whereas, after hearing, the Court is uncertain as to whether this criminal act took place because of mental illness or otherwise:

March 17, 1970, Order filed. And Now, this 10th day of March, 1970, after hearing, it appears that the defendant, John E. Garner, is completing practical teaching and will be eligible for employment as a teacher, or in other fields, after May 15, 1970. It further appears that the divorce was filed February 6, 1970 in this matter, and the Court finds no urgency in ruling on the matter of counsel fees and alimony pendente lite. Accordingly, this matter is continued until the June Session of Non-Support Court, reserving unto both parties their full rights at that time.

No. 29 February Term, 1970.

Oct. 29, 1970, Robert B. Bornhaffer having withdrawn as an arbitrator in this case John D. Petruzzi, Esq., is substituted as an arbitrator and takes the qualifying oath.

Dec. 16, 1970 Writ Habeas Corpus ad Testificandum Opinion & Order filed. Opinion and Order: The above defendant has petitioned the court for a Writ of Habeas Corpus ad Testificandum to return to Crawford County to testify in the above civil action involving an automobile accident which occurred August 31, 1968, in Meadville, Pennsylvania. The plaintiff's claim is for $306.74, but in reality it is a subrogation claim brought by his collision carrier in which they seek to recover $206.74.

The defendant is presently incarcerated in the State Correctional Institution at Huntington and naturally would enjoy a brief vacation from said institution to return to Crawford County to testify in this civil case which has been filed against him.

Upon checking with the records officer at the institution, we were advised that the defendant is serving a sentence as a convicted parole violater, the maximum of which will expire April 11, 1971. However a detainer from Huntington County has been lodged against him and upon completion of his first sentence he will be subject to a further sentence, the minimum of which is one year and ten months and a maximum of which is five years.

While we have no definite proof, we can probably safely assume that the defendant is judgment proof. We conclude that the County of Crawford has no obligation to pay the necessary expense to proceed to the State Correctional Institution at Huntington and return the defendant to this county for an arbitration hearing to accommodate the plaintiff's collision carrier and to accord the defendant a brief respite from the rigors of institutional living.

Accordingly we refuse the defendant's petition for writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum and continue this case until such time as the defendant has completed his sentences of incarceration and can appear at his own expense in defense of this civil action.
