Memorial

To the Honorable P. Richard Thomas, President Judge of said Court:

Your Committee appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a Memorial on the death of the late, the Honorable Herbert A. Nook respectfully submits the following:

Herbert Arthur Nook was born at Saegertown, Pennsylvania, November 22, 1908, a son of Grant and Elizabeth Mc Gill Nook, a lifelong resident of Crawford County Pennsylvania, he was graduated from Saegertown High School in the Class of 1925, of which he was valedictorian. The same year he entered Allegheny College, commuting from Saegertown and later from Cambridge Springs, by railroad and trolley. During his last two years in College he resided at the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity house, serving as the President of the Fraternity his senior year.

At College, he was an outstanding student, receiving many honors, and was a member of many honorary societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Chairman of the Board of Publications, Editor of the College newspaper, member of the College Debating Team, and a participant in many other Campus activities.

He graduated from Allegheny College in 1929, and entered the University of Pennsylvania, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Laws in 1932.

He was admitted to practice before the several Courts of Crawford County, September 6, 1932, and was also admitted to practice before the Supreme and Superior Courts of Pennsylvania and the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

He began practice in association with the late Walter J. Mc Clintock, Esquire, and was also associated with Honorable Raymond P. Shafer, with both of whom he enjoyed a close and cordial personal and professional relationship.

On October 3, 1936 He married Miss Mary Elizabeth Dulin, and their marriage was blessed with two children, Herbert A. Nook, Jr., a student at Harvard Graduate School, and Mary Alice who resides with her mother.

His law practice was very successful from its inception and he was elected District attorney in 1935, serving with distinction in that capacity for two terms.

In 1947 he was elected President Judge of Crawford County and was serving his second term in that high office when his untimely death occurred.

He was a thorough, careful and painstaking lawyer, but it was as Judge that he will be best remembered. He was naturally endowed with the qualities that make a great jurist

2. Preliminary Objection No 2 is sustained with regard to the following:

(a) The statement on Plaintiffs Exhibit "A" of "All miscellaneous items of clothing" lacks the necessary specificity to enable the defendant to file a proper answer relative to said items.

(b) The item listed as "all photographs" lacks specificity as the plaintiff should specifically set forth whether the photographs are framed, unframed, in albums, and insofar as possible, the persons or subjects appearing in said photographs so that the defendant may properly file answer thereto.

(c) The item "all furniture bought by Sally" lacks specificity and said furniture should be set forth in detail.

(d) The items specified "wedding presents" should be spelled out, together with any additional items claimed in addition to those enumerated as "silver, bedding, china, appliances, etc" in view of the fact that the word "etc" is so indefinite and vague as

Sept. 10, 1965 Walker, J. Order - And Now, September 10, 1965, this matter having been called for hearing at 9:30 A.M., the Commonwealth being unable to proceed since they were without witnesses, the case was continued until 1:30 P.M. to give the Commonwealth opportunity to contact their witness or witnesses, and the case having been recalled at two o'clock P.M., the Commonwealth witness being unavailable, and counsel for the Commonwealth having advised the court that upon receiving this file he made contact with L. J. Zoskey, Chief of Police of Cresson Township, Cambria County, Pennsylvania, the only possible witness for the Commonwealth, and advised him of the necessity of being present for this hearing, and being further advised by counsel for the Commonwealth that he made telephone contact on Wednesday of this week with Mr. Zoskey, and was assured he would be present at the time required. And having further contacted Mr. Zoskey's home by three separate telephone calls on this date at 9:30 A.M., 11:00 o'clock A.M. and approximately 1:20 P.M., on which occasion Commonwealth counsel discussed the matter with the witness' wife, and it appears from the conversation reported to the court that the witness did not intend to appear on this date for this hearing, and it further appearing that the defendant has gone to considerable hardship to be present for a hearing on this date; in the absence of such witness or witnesses, there being no evidence presented on behalf of the Commonwealth in support of the suspension ordered by the Secretary of Revenue, the appeal of Robert E. Rowland is hereby sustained and the Secretary of Revenue is directed to reinstate his operating privileges.

Report of Committee.

To The Honorable Judges of the said Court.

Your Committee appointed to present a Memorial on the death of the late Roy L. Peters, Esq. respectfully reports the following:

Roy L. Peters was born in Hayfield Township, Crawford County Pennsylvania on February 18, 1883, a son of the late Preston L. and Margaret Muckinhaupt Peters.

At an early age his family moved to Saegertown; he graduated from its high school in 1902 and he resided there until his death on July 30, 1965. As a youth he decided to become a lawyer even though his family doctor advised him not to undertake the vigorous law school studies because of his impaired eyesight. Undaunted in his determination to become a member of the legal profession he began reading law in the offices of The Honorable C. Lowry Humes, Esq. Born with a natural intelligence, and gifted with a tenacious spirit, he received a perfect score on his examination for admission to the Crawford County Bar -- the highest mark achieved to the time of his admission to the Bar of this County in 1908.

Mr. Peters began the practice of his profession on Chestnut Street Meadville, (across from the post office building).

In 1912 he moved his office to 915 Belmont Park, Meadville, where he continued his practice until his death. In his practice he was associated first with the late Judge Thomas J. Prather, following his retirement from the bench, and in later years with the Judge's son, Frank L. Prather, Esq. with whom he shared his offices at the time of his death.

From the time of his admission to the Bar, Mr. Peters enjoyed an extensive and rewarding law practice, which consisted in the main of orphans' court, real estate, and general office practice. He was recognized in the legal profession as a careful practitioner. His colleagues knew that they could rely on the competency of his work; and here was a man whose "word was his bond." In his practice, he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all of his clients.

During the latter part of his life, Mr. Peters was seriously handicapped by increasing failing eyesight and hearing, yet he did not permit these afflictions to interfere with his work. To the very last he continued to be known for the excellence of his legal accomplishments and for the meticulous and painstaking manner with which he performed all of his daily duties.

Mr. Peters -- who was a devoted husband and father -- is survived by his widow, the former Helen E. Sherman; a daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Lee, of Saegertown; a son Neil S.

Pepicelli, District Attorney.

September 29, 1965 Sur Petition for Rule to show cause why writ of Habeas Corpus should not issue, Order filed.

Thomas, P.J. Petitioner has filed his most recent petition alleging that the indictments in Warren County Pennsylvania, at Nos 24 and 25 August Sessions, 1964 standing against him have been withdrawn by the filing of a nolle prosequi by the District Attorney of Warren County with court approval on September 9, 1965. Because of the fact that these arrests, indictments and conviction (which conviction was subsequently set aside) caused the revocation of the petitioners parole and subsequent loss of credit for time served on parole in good standing, defendant's status is now that of only a possible technical parole violator whereby credit for time served on parole in good standing would be given against his original sentence in Crawford County. Since the time already served plus the credit for time in good standing would exceed the maximum re-sentence of four years imposed by this court on February 10, 1965, the petitioner is entitled to his release. Accordingly, the request for a rule to show cause why a writ of Habeas corpus should not issue is made absolute and the Respondent, James L. Maroney, Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution at Pittsburgh is ordered to release the defendant from imprisonment.

Notice of this order to be served on the Parole Board of Pennsylvania.

Comm. of Penna. Ex Rel.
Bernard Bryan Southall
by his father and natural guardian Bexford Southall vs
Lois Southall

of No. 31, May Term 1965

Order

And Now, June 3, 1968, Bexford Southall shall have the right to have his child, Bernard Bryan Southall with him on the third Tuesday and the third Saturday of each and every month, commencing with the month of June, 1968. On said days, Lois Southall, or a member of her family, will deliver the child, Bernard Southall, to the home of Mrs. Vergie D. Walker, not later than 8:45 A.M. The father shall pick up said child at nine o'clock A.M. each day. If Bexford Southall does not anticipate picking up said child on any visitational day, he shall notify Lois Southall and Mrs. Walker twenty-four (24) hours in advance. On any day that Bexford Southall does not appear at the residence of Mrs. Walker to take said child into his possession by 9:30 o'clock A.M., all parties hereto shall consider the visit for that day cancelled and the child will be returned to the custody of his mother with no further visitational rights allowed that day.

After picking up said child, the father, Bexford Southall, may have him in his possession until seven o'clock P.M. of the same day, when the child shall be returned to the residence of Mrs. Walker. It shall be the obligation of Lois Southall, or someone acting on her behalf, to pick up said child at the residence of Mrs. Walker. Lois Southall shall exercise her parental authority in preparing Bernard Southall physically and emotionally for the visit with his father and neither parent shall directly or indirectly attempt to influence the child against the other. If Bexford Southall complies faithfully with the requirements of this order, we will give consideration in the future to expanded visitational rights in the nature of overnight or week-end visits between the child and his father.

It appearing that notice of this hearing was served on Lois Southall by certified mail which she refused to accept, thus necessitating the services of a constable in perfecting service, the costs of said service shall be paid by Lois Southall.

All other costs to be paid by Bexford Southall, but no witness fees will be allowed as costs. By separate order this day entered at No. 43 Domestic Relations, 1965 we are modifying the support order heretofore entered involving this child.

Peters of Meyersville; four grandchildren; one great grandchild and two sisters, Mrs. Olive Davis and Mrs. Margaret Smith. In spite of his physical handicaps, Mr. Peters was a very happy man; and the warmth of his genial personality was a real joy to his many friends.

Mr. Peters lived at 546 Main Street, Saegertown, Pennsylvania for 63 years, and he performed many notable civic services for his community throughout his lifetime.

In addition to his active interest in civic activities in his community, he had a keen interest in current political events of his state and nation. During all of his life he was vitally interested in politics in general, and especially in the affairs of the Democratic Party to which he belonged. Early in his professional career, he was selected by his Party to be its candidate for the office of District attorney of Crawford County.

In 1957 he was awarded a Certificate of Merit by the Saegertown Council for 24 years of faithful service as Burgess, in 1963 he was signally honored by a testimonial dinner for 24 years service as Borough Solicitor, and in 1964 Mr. Peters was one of four members of the Crawford County Bar Association who were specially honored for having completed 50 years of practice with honor and distinction.

Mr. Peters was a member of the Saegertown Methodist Church; a charter member of the Saegertown Lions Club; a Member of the French Creek Valley Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.; a member of French Creek Lodge No. 476. I.O.O.F.; and a member of Olympus Encampment #2 I.O.O.F.

Mr. Peters will always be remembered by his family and many friends as a devoted husband and father, as an outstanding citizen, and as a fine Christian gentleman; and in addition to these fine qualities, he will also be remembered by the members of the Crawford County Bar Association as an able, dedicated and honorable practitioner.

We wish, as an Association, to express our sorrow at the passing of Roy S. Peters Esq., and to extend our sympathy to his widow and family.

in the above entitled case having been brought before the Court upon an attachment for contempt and having been given an opportunity to purge herself therefrom by testimony under oath, it is the opinion of this Court that the Defendant failed to purge herself of contempt and that she was and remains in contempt of Court by reason of her failure to appear as required before the Court on June 28, 1965. The punishment for contempt is deferred until a hearing upon the Custody petition originally filed is disposed of and for that purpose a hearing is hereunto set for 1:30 o'clock P.M., eastern daylight saving time, on August 27, 1968. Pending said hearing, the three children, Scott Charles, Lee and Steven, are delivered into the custody of their paternal grandparents, Charles Damico, Sr. and Mary A. Damico, by them to be produced at the time of this hearing on August 27, 1968 at 1:30 o'clock P.M. In the meantime, the respondent is released on bond conditioned for her appearance on the date of hearing and the said bond is set in the sum of one ($1.00) dollar with the Sheriff of Crawford County as surety conditioned for her appearance at that time and further conditioned that she will not interfere with or molest the custody of the children in the home of the grandparents from this time until final hearing. In the event of any such interference or molestation, the bond will be cancelled and she will be committed to the Crawford County jail to await said hearing.

In Memorial - Hon Herbert A. Nook

Patient, kind, studious, courteous, and honorable, he impressed all who appeared before him, lawyers and litigants alike, with his earnest and conscientious desire to administer the duties of his high office to the very best of his ability. Even those who were disappointed by adverse decisions knew instinctively that his decisions were just, insofar as it was humanly possible for him to make them so.

He possessed a rare and delightful sense of humor and he frequently stated that one of the penalties of being Judge was missing the close association with his brethren of the Bar as they gathered in the Recorder's Office and elsewhere to perform the customary humdrum duties of their profession.

Although he was heavily burdened by excessive labors occasioned by the great influx of automobile accident cases and other litigation, and he was compelled to endure great physical pain during his latter years on the bench, he bore his burdens unconplainingly and the public little knew of the difficulty and suffering he underwent in performing the duties of his office.

All during his years as lawyer and Judge, he devoted great energy and unlimited time to public and community service. He served as President of the Community Chest of Crawford County, and throughout his career labored incessantly in its behalf. The success of its projects was largely due to his individual efforts. He was a Director of the Washington Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, member of Meadville Round Table, and of the Meadville Literary Union, a member of the Board of Trustees of Allegheny College, Chairman of the Pennsylvania Council of Juvenile Judges, and a lifelong Republican. He was a former member of the Republican State Committee for Crawford County.

He was particularly interested in young people and sympathetic with them when they were beset by troubles. He greatly enlarged the scope and services of the Juvenile Court and steadfastly believed in the obligation of the courts to rehabilitate youthful offenders whenever possible rather than punish them. He instituted the usuage of withholding the names of juveniles before the Court from publication.

He was a member of Lodge No. 408, F. & A. M. the Scottish Rite Consistory of Erie, and the Old State Church of Meadville. His was a deeply religious nature and he was tireless in his efforts to support and strengthen his church.

Although his death was untimely and we could have wished for him many more years to serve and to enjoy, his life again illustrates the time old adage that it is not how long a person lives, but what he or she does with the allotted time that is the true measure of its value.

He will long be missed by this Bar and the community as a whole, and his name will be perpetuated in the annals of Crawford County as a great man, a fine lawyer and jurist, a loving husband and father, a public spirited citizen and one of the outstanding figures of all time in our community.

We respectfully request that this report be filed among the records of the Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.

Respectfully submitted,
