Sept. 4, 1973 Report of Committee and Order filed.

To The Honorable Judges of Said Court:

Your Committee, appointed to present a Memorial on the death of the late Fred C. Kiebort, Sr., Esq., respectfully reports the following:

On Tuesday evening, June 26, 1973, Fred C. Kiebort, Sr., the then oldest living member of the Crawford County Bar Association - both in age and in period of practice - died at San Rosario Nursing Home in Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania, after an illness of two and one-half years. At his death, Mr. Kiebart was 85 years of age and had practiced law for over 60 years.

Mr. Kiebart was born in Meadville, Pa., on January 27, 1888, the son of Peter and Charlotte Augusta Schonlieber Kiebort. Following Mr. Kiebart's graduation from Meadville High School in 1906, he attended Cornell University.

Recognized as a fine athlete, Mr. Kiebart participated in high school baseball, basketball and football and earned his monogram in baseball at Cornell. Being well known by the nickname of "Rosey," following his return to Meadville, Mr. Kiebart played baseball for a number of years as a member of the outstanding semi-professional Spirella and Erie National Baseball Teams, and the Americus Basketball Team. His versatility in sports was further demonstrated by his coaching of the Meadville High School Football Team in 1912.

Mr. Kiebart studied law in the law offices of Haskins and McClintock in Meadville and was admitted to practice on January 10, 1910, starting a career as a legal practitioner that was long and rewarding. In 1922, he formed a partnership with Albert L. Thomas, Esq. which continued for 20 years.

August 29, 1973 Order filed. And Now, August 21, 1973, after hearing, and upon agreement of the parties, the wife waived her right to Alimony Pendente Lite on the husband's offer to continue to make payments on four (4) joint obligations owed by the parties to Mason's, Penneys, Household Finance and Pennsylvania Bank totaling approximately $975.00.

In view of the fact both parties are working and in view of the husband's offer to continue to make these payments, the Court requires the husband to pay an additional sum of $100.00 as within two (2) weeks of this date toward the total cost of the divorce as it relates to counsel fees and costs. This sum shall be paid directly to counsel for the wife.

In regard to support of the minor child, the parties have this date agreed to enter into a voluntary Court Order directing that the father pay for the support of the minor child the sum of $15.00 per week and the Court directs said Order be entered without payment of costs.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 20, 1973 Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs and Order filed. Order: And Now, this 20th day of July, 1973, upon consideration of the within petition, a Rule is hereby entered upon the Defendant, Clarence H. Lawson, to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be able to pay alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs incident to the divorce at the above number and term.

Returnable and for hearing August 9, 1973 at 9:30 A.M. The defendant is ordered and directed to appear at the appointed time for the hearing, or an order may be entered in his absence.

August 1, 1973 Sheriff's Return filed. Served And made Known To Clarence H. Lawson personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Complaint in Divorce & Petition No. 170 September Term, 1973 to him, on July 23, 1973, at 2:10 P.M., E.D.S.T., at his residence, 1102 South Cottage Street, Meadville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So answers,

V.G. Eckert, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Alfred A. Grill, Sheriff

August 14, 1973 Order filed. And Now, August 9, 1973, in view of the fact a support order is currently in existence, the plaintiff has withdrawn any request for Alimony Pendente Lite.

Insofar as counsel fees and costs are concerned, the Court believes equity would require the parties to equally divide the costs of this divorce, and accordingly, the defendant is Directed to pay to his wife's attorney the sum of $20.00 per month beginning with the month of August, 1973, until he has paid a total sum of $200.00 to apply on counsel fees and costs in this divorce action.

The Court notes at this time that a support order is entered at No. 72 Domestic Relations Division, 1972, and the parties are Directed at the conclusion of this hearing to go to the Non-Support Office and work out satisfactory arrangements to adjust the arrearages and take into account the emancipation of the minor child, Patricia, who is entered on the order and the Court authorizes the Domestic Relations Office to make an adjustment in the Court order and the arrearages without further order of this Court and upon agreement of the parties.

By Order of the Court, P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

A wife acquires the domicile of her husband and can only acquire new domicile after her separation. This case indicates that the parties were domiciled in New York at the time defendant entered the military service and that the wife started her divorce in Pennsylvania only a few months after her return to this Commonwealth from her husband's base in Virginia.
If these facts are correct jurisdiction of the subject matter is lacking and a divorce would be a nullity.

1. The custody of Jennifer Louise Jones is awarded to the mother, subject to the visitation privileges to be set forth by separate order to be filed after the Court has had an opportunity to give fulled consideratexi to the extent and frequency of such privileges.

2. Neither party shall by word or act attempt to turn the child against the other parent and any evidence of such attempt will result in depriving the guilty parent from custody or visitation to the extent that the Court may deem appropriate.

3. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person, condition or situation which will adversely affect the health, education or welfare of said child.

4. While the Court is aware that perhaps not all of the evidence was produced relating to the cause of the separation, nevertheless, it is the feeling of the Court that the parties should seriously consider reconciliation and for that purpose should seek the assistance of a marriage counselor in addition to the cooperation of their respective counsel.

arrangements can be made. Otherwise, Child Welfare Services shall make other arrangements for the recommended therapy that Dr. Brian stated were necessary.

It appears now that the mother has secured her own apartment at L.D. #1, Conneaut Lake, and Child Welfare Services, the grandparents and the mother are to work out mutually satisfactory arrangements for the child to be with the mother two (2) weekends per month for an equivalent of two and one-half (2½) days, providing the mother's work schedule allows her to have weekends off. In the event the mother's work schedule does not allow her to have weekends off, arrangements will be made for her to have the minor child on her days off at her apartment for such period as Child Welfare Services deems appropriate.

In addition to the weekends herein described, the Court believes the mother should have reasonable visitations with the child either in the home of the grandparents or in her own home at least one day per week when she is not working.

During the time the mother has the child in her custody for overnight visits, she is not to have any other male companions staying in the apartment. In the event male companions come to visit the mother, they must be out of the house by 10:30 in the evening.

The Court accepts the mother's testimony that she wishes to change her past pattern of living, establish a steady life style and secure custody of this child, and accordingly, we will schedule this case for review in six (6) months from this date upon the request of either party or Child Welfare Services.

in this case is indignities to the person, not desertion. A literal interpretation of Section 10(d) of the Divorce Law (23 P.S.S 10(d)) would bar this divorce because as set forth in Freedman Law of Marriage and Divorce, Volume 1, Section 243:

" there cannot be 'absence from the habitation of the injured and innocent spouse', which the statute requires, whenever the wrongdoer remains at the place of matrimonial cohabitation."

However, the modern view apparently permits the granting of a divorce on the ground of constructive desertion where the innocent and injured spouse is in effect "turned out of doors" as was the wife in this case by the defendants continued and persistent refusal to live with her or to permit her to live with him: Cammann, Appellant, v. Cammann, 217 Pa. Superior Ct. 376, 272 A 2d 241 (1970).

For that reason and that reason alone we are entering a separate Decree divorcing the parties in this case but point out that we disapprove the use of constructive desertion as a ground for divorce where definite and more appropriate grounds exist.

Cont'd No 132 Sept TERM, 1973

In the matter of a Memorial Service for Fred C Kiebart, Jr	Continued from Page 132 No. 132 Sept Term 1973

Following the death of Mr. Thomas, Mr. Kiebart became associated as a partner with E. Lowry Humes, Esq., and Mr. Kiebart's son - F. C. Kiebart, Jr., Esq. -- this partnership continuing until 1966 when Mr. Humes retired. Thereafter, the partnership continued with his son until Mr. Kiebart's death.

During all of his career, Mr. Kiebart enjoyed a reputation throughout Crawford County and Northwest Pennsylvania as an able general practitioner, with special expertness in Orphan's Court, trial and railroad work.

In 1928, he was appointed by Judge A. Clare Kent as Chairman of the Board of Road Views, being the only professional member, and he established a procedure for the opening and closing of roads in Crawford County. He continued to serve in this capacity throughout the two terms of Judge Kent and during the succeeding tenure of Judge Herbert A. Mook. In addition, he also served for many years as Chairman of the Board of Viewers of Crawford County.

Being particularly skilled in procedure and practice matters, Mr. Kiebart served for many years as Chairman of the Crawford County Common Pleas Rules Committee. With Attorneys J. Campbell Brandon and Carmen V. Marmara of Butler, Mr. Kiebart developed the arbitration rules of procedure for the trial of small cases in our County, shortly after the adoption of this new practice by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. At the request of Judge Kent, Mr. Kiebart developed a procedure for the settlement of minors' claims, and, later, he made a special study of the procedure in our County for the processing of wrongful death and survival actions. Both of these projects were completed before the publication of Goodrich-Amram Standard Pennsylvania Practice.

As attorney for the Meadville Housing Corporation, when it was formed to undertake the Hillcrest Housing project, he developed the procedure and documents for the First Federal Housing Administration mortgage in the County, completing this assignment with approval even before the office of the agency was established.

In the course of his successful and varied practice, Mr. Kiebart handled many unusual and interesting cases with ultimately successful decisions in the appellate court.

Illustrative was the case of Mars vs Meadville Telephone Company which involved a car backing and knocking loose a telephone pole guy wire, causing the pole to break and fall on the Plaintiff Mars who later died from the injuries. Mr. Kiebart, representing the Defendant Telephone Co., was successful in securing a substantial reduction of the jury verdict on appeal.

Again in Jones vs Monroe Electric Co. - in which a barn was struck by lightning, resulting in the complete destruction of the barn with the cattle and equipment inside -- the case was of special interest because it involved electrical wiring put in by an independent Contractor for the Rural Electric Association with lightning contributing to the destruction. After a battle of electrical engineering experts, Mr. Kiebart was eventually successful in obtaining a verdict of $22,000.00 for the farmer, which was affirmed on appeal.

Still another case of special interest in the area concerned a bequest in the Will of the late L. J. Williamson in which the legatee was set forth as Meadville Firemen's Association. Both the paid firemen's association and the volunteer firemen's association claimed the bequest. Mr. Kiebart ultimately secured a favorable ruling by the appellate court on behalf of his client, the Volunteer Association.

A member of the Crawford County, Pa., and American Bar Associations, Mr. Kiebart served as President of the County Association in 1947, and for many years was Chairman of the Court's Law Library Committee. Possessing a congenial and gracious personality, Mr. Kiebart was held in warm regard by his fellow practitioners, and he was respected as a man of integrity whose "word was his bond."

A civic and community leader, Mr. Kiebart was Meadville City Clerk from 1910 to 1918, and Mayor of the City of Meadville from 1934 to 1938. A charter member of the Meadville Lions Club, Mr. Kiebart was also a long term member of Meadville Elk's Lodge No. 219, Taylor Hose Co., and Iroquois Boating and Fishing Club.

Mr. Kiebart and his wife, Adeline Kane Kiebart, who predeceased him in death on Aug. 26, 1937, were the parents of four children; F. C. Kiebart, Jr., Mary Jane Kiebart Bates, Margaret K. Kiebart Lightner, and Nancy Kiebart Meehan, all of whom survive him. He is also survived by his wife Lucile Breffitt Kiebart, whom he married on Sept. 8, 1956. Surviving also are his sister, Mrs. Hazel Kiebart Lawrence, 16 Grandchildren and 16 Great grandchildren.

Mr. Kiebart will always be remembered by all who knew him as a devoted husband and father and as an outstanding Meadville citizen. To the members of the Bar of Crawford County and Northwest Pennsylvania, he will be especially remembered as an able, dedicated and a most honorable and distinguished legal practitioner. Certainly, of him it can truly be said "he carried the torch of his profession proudly & well."

We wish -- as an association -- to Express our Sorrow at the passing of our Colleague, Fred C. Kiebart, Sr. Esq. And to extend our sympathy to the members of his family.

We ask that this memorial be spread at length upon the Record of the Court, and that a copy be furnished to the Family and to the Press.

Respectfully Submitted,
J. Perry Eckels

May 13, 1974 Order filed. And Now, May 8, 1974, this matter again being scheduled for hearing to require the defendant to pay costs in this indigent divorce and the present whereabouts of the defendant being unknown and the Court being familiar with the family and having determined that it would be useless to attempt further collection, the defendant is hereby exonerated in paying any costs in this divorce action.

Accordingly, the County of Crawford is directed to reimburse Attorney R. Charles Thomas for costs in the amount of $41.57, of which $20.50 represents Prothonotary costs and $21.07 represents Sheriff's costs.

July 24, 1974 Order Filed. And Now, July 16, 1974, after hearing, the Court refuses to hold the mother in contempt believing that a lack of communication between the parties and a different reading of the Court Order is responsible for the mixup in notice and in the two-week visitation period with the mother accorded for the children.

By agreement of the parties this date, the next two-week summer visitation period will be for the two-week period commencing Aug. 18th and terminating Sept. 1st.

In order to avoid similar difficulties and in view of the parties inability to communicate, the Order of December 27, 1973 is amended as follows:

1. On or before May 1, 1975 and annually thereafter so long as this Order is in effect, the mother shall give to the father written notice of the two (2) non-consecutive two-week periods she wishes to have the children with her during the months of June, July or August. Upon receipt of this notice for both visitations periods, the father will thereby arrange his vacation period accordingly so that he may spend a portion of his vacation time with the children and not be in conflict with the vacation period of the mother.

December 14, 1973 Motion for Hearing Date and Order filed: Order: And now, 12/14/1973 Hearing set Dec. 27, 1973 2 P.M.

P. Richard Thomas

January 2, 1974 Order filed. And now, December 27, 1973, after further hearing, the Court finds both parents eminently qualified to give parental love, care and attention to these children; however, under all of the circumstances now existing, the Court believes it would not serve the best interest of the two (2) children to change the present custody reposing with the father. Accordingly, custody is continued with the father under the terms and conditions of the Order entered June 29, 1973, with the following modifications:

Insofar as Paragraph 1 of said Order provides for weekday visits on Wednesday between the hours of 3:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m., the Court notes it was not the intention that these visits had to be carried out in the home of the father of the children, and the mother will be permitted to take the children on said days after her working hours or after school hours and return them not later than 9:00 p.m. This does not forbid visits in the home of the father if the mother so desires, however.

The Court is desirous of expanding summer visits with the mother, and accordingly, arrangements will be made to have the children with their mother for two (2) non-consecutive two-week periods during the summer school vacation period. The mother shall give at least one (1) month notice to the father of the date she intends to have the children, and the Court urges the parties to arrange their vacation schedules so that the children may spend appropriate vacations with each parent. In the event the parties cannot agree otherwise, the two-week periods shall commence Friday at 6:00 p.m. and terminate two (2) weeks later on Friday at 6:00 p.m.

Insofar as Christmas visits are concerned, the Court grants the mother's request to have the children in her custody on December 24th between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

1. The mother shall have the right to take the children into her custody every other weekend beginning with June 16, 1973 from 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning until 7:00 o'clock the following Sunday evening; and on the weeks in which she does not have weekend custody, she shall have the right to take said children into her custody on Saturday afternoon of one week beginning June 22, 1973 from 2:00 o'clock P.M. to 5:00 o'clock P.M., and the following week in which she does not have custody she will have the right to take the children into her custody on Sunday afternoon from 2:00 o'clock P.M., to 5:00 o'clock P.M.

3. The parties shall alternate the custody of the children on holidays so that for the balance of 1973 the mother shall have custody of the children on the Fourth of July and Christmas Day and the father shall have the children on Thanksgiving Day and on Christmas Eve. For the year 1974, the parties shall alternate holidays beginning with the father having custody of the children on Easter and so on from holiday to holiday and from year to year. In each case the parent who does not have the children on the holiday, shall have the right to have the custody of the children on the day preceding the holiday to the extent that it will not interfere with the children's schooling.

4. During the weekends when the mother has custody of the children she shall personally be present with them and not leave their care and custody to a babysitter.

5. In the event of any dispute or disagreement concerning this order, the matter shall be referred to the Court by counsel and this agreement shall not be changed by the parents unless they agree in writing to said changes, which agreement shall be filed of record and the Court Order modified in accordance with said agreement.

6. As is always customary in custody cases, this custody order is to be considered as indefinite but not permanent and subject to change if at any time proof is given to the Court the best interest and welfare of the children requires a change or modification.

the Respondent will sign a bond in the sum of $1,500.00, payable to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to assure the return of these children; and in addition, he and his present wife will sign a $1,500.00 judgment note payable to Goldie McClymonds, the mother, conditioned however on the return of the children and to become absolutely null and void upon the return of the children.

3. The costs of transporting the children to and from California shall be borne by the father Milton McClymonds.

4. After the return of the children to their mother after August 6, 1973, the Court directs the Crawford County Child Welfare Services to make an immediate investigation of the living conditions and custody of the children during the mother's working hours. After the children commence school, the Child Welfare Services will secure a report on the condition and of the progress of the children in school. The Crawford County Child Welfare Services are directed to make periodic reports to the Court between September 1, 1973 and December 1, 1973 regarding the results of their investigation and whether the mother is giving proper care and custody to the needs of these children.

5. In the event the mother changes jobs during the summer months and removes herself from the jurisdiction of this Court, the Court reserves the right to ask the Child Welfare Services in the County of her residence to perform the same investigative procedures for the Court.

6. During the time the children are in the custody of the father, the obligation of the father to contribute for their support will be temporarily suspended.

7. The mother of the children is directed to transfer to the father the personal affects and clothing of the children, and except for normal wear and tear, the same clothing and personal affects will be returned when the children are returned from the visit with their father.

8. This Order is made without prejudice to the rights of the father to request further hearing regarding custody if evidence is produced that the best interests of the children would be served by transfer of custody. However, it is not the intent of this Court that that hearing be requested before then return on August 6, 1973, and accordingly, no further request for hearing in this matter, except on the Court's own motion, will be held until at least after October 15, 1973.

The Court re-establishes the previous visitation Orders, subject, however, to the condition that when the children spend overnight at the residence of their mother, the mother will neither occupy the same bed or same bedroom with the gentleman friend who now shares the apartment.

It appears that the mother is complaining about the need for glasses for the oldest daughter, Cynthia, and the father admits that she is in need of new glasses. The father will give some written evidence to the Court within thirty (30) days of this date that he has made some arrangements to secure necessary glasses for the child, Cynthia.

By agreement of the parties, the weekend visits with the mother are changed from the second and fourth weekends to every other weekend, with the first weekend visit to commence the weekend of November 28-30, 1975.

In Re: Custody of Phillip Glenn Ferry

No. 55 November Term 1973

May 25, 1978 Answer with New Matter filed.

May 26, 1978 Order filed Whereas, this is a petition filed by the father requesting the Court to transfer custody to him contrary to the Order of October 19, 1973, as amended by our Order of March 3, 1977; and

Whereas, the evidence seems to indicate that the child is a happy, normal, well balanced child of five (5) years of age who gets along well with adults, is well liked and has no health or mental problems; and

Whereas, the mother continues to live with one Ray MacPherson to whom she is not married, although she has been divorced and available to marry since February of 1978; and

Whereas, the cases of the appellate courts of Pennsylvania seems to indicate that such mechanical relationship no longer per se requires transfer of custody with which this Court has always disagreed but must recognize as the law:

Now, therefore, this 25th day of May, 1978, it is Ordered and Decreed as follows:

1. The primary custody of Phillip Glenn Ferry shall remain in the mother in accordance with the Order entered October 19, 1973, as amended by our Order of March 3, 1977 and as further amended hereinafter;

2. The visitation rights of the father shall be increased so that he shall have the right to take said child into his

Ordered, Adjudged And Decreed, that a Writ of Habeas Corpus be issued and directed to the Respondent, Sandra J. Ferry, and a Hearing shall be held on the said Rule on the 17 day of May, 1978, at 9:30 o'clock, A.M. in the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania, and the said minor child shall be present in Court on the occasion of that hearing.

A Certified Copy of this Petition and Order shall be served upon the Respondent, Sandra J. Ferry, as provided for by law not less than 5 days prior to the date of said Hearing.

into his custody every other weekend from Friday until Sunday night beginning June 2, 1978. The father shall have the right to pick the child up on Friday at 5:00 o'clock and return the child the following Sunday at 5:00 o'clock pm., both prevailing local times.

3. In addition, the father shall have the right to take said child into his custody for two (2) weeks during the summer period; one week of which shall be from Noon, July 9 to Noon July 16 and the other week to be from Noon, August 6 until Noon, August 13.

4. Neither party shall expose the child to any person, place or situation which will be adverse to the health, education or welfare of said child.

5. Since the mother and the man with whom she is living, Mr. MacPherson, have not yet made a final decision as to when if at all, to marry, the Court feels that this case should be reviewed by the judge presently presiding or by one of the other judges then presiding in Crawford County in approximately six (6) months from this date.

6. Neither party shall remove the child from the jurisdiction of this Court except for brief and casual visits in connection with vacation purposes and in the event that a move is contemplated, a petition shall be filed with the Court advising the Court of said intention so that a hearing can be had and Order issued down before said move is permitted.

Nov. 30, 1982, Contempt of Court Petition filed.

Nov. 30, 1982, Re Petition for Contempt of Court - ORDER filed. This matter comes before the Court on Leslie Ferry's petition to hold his former wife, Sandra J. Ferry, in contempt of court because she is apparently failing to carry out a visitation order last entered and filed May 26, 1978, by the late Judge F. Joseph Thomas. The mother of said child was a former wife of the petitioner and the child Phillip, is now nearly ten years of age.

A support order was entered sometime in 1977 requiring the father to pay approximately $70 per month for support of this child who remained in the custody of its mother and the Domestic Relations Section advises this Court that the last payments made on this order were two small payments in November, 1979, and April of 1981, totalling $13. The existing arrears due to the mother and the Department of Welfare amount to approximately $2,000.

The petitioning father has had a checkered career in the criminal courts of this county and is currently undergoing a six to 18 month sentence at the State Regional Correctional Facility at Mercer imposed on an Aggravated Assault and Criminal Trespass charge by this Court October 22, 1982.

He now wishes us to hold his former wife in contempt of court because she is refusing to carry out a visitation order entered in May of 1978, which accorded him weekend visitations every other weekend and a two-week visitation during the summer months. The thrust of his petition is apparently directed toward a requirement that the mother turn the child over to Elizabeth G. Ferry, mother of Leslie I. Ferry, so that the grandmother could transport the child to the penal institution for weekend visits with the father. The petition contains no history of the association between father and child since the visitation order was entered in 1978 and we know nothing of the desires of the child to visit his father, particularly in a prison setting.

Rather than reject this petition outright, which we are prone to do, we will take the matter under advisement, with a direction that the mother, Sandra J. Ferry, call the father's attorney and make an appointment with him in order that the attorney may ascertain her attitude regarding an occasional visit between father and son during the father's incarceration period. In the event the mother is opposed to any minimal contact between father and son, it then would become important for the Court to ascertain whether said visits would be in the best interest of the child.

Accordingly, we initially deny the petition for contempt but keep the same under advisement and after a meeting between counsel and the natural mother, we would entertain a petition for visitation if counsel believes the best interest of the child would be served. If said petition is presented, we would forthwith refer the matter to a custody mediator to hold a mediation conference between mother, child and grandmother and enter whatever recommended order the custody mediator felt was appropriate under all the circumstances.

Counsel for the petitioner shall serve a copy of this order on Sandra J. Ferry at her last known address by certified mail.

Date: Nov. 29, 1982 P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 2, 1982, 2 copies of order to John Spataro, and 1 copy mailed to Sandra J. Ferry.
