Accordingly, should any substantial change of circumstances occur in the living situations of either of the parties or of the children, the parties shall have the right to have this matter reconsidered.

Apr. 30, 1986 Answer To Petition For Civil Contempt. filed.

May 1, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, April 30, 1986, after hearing, although the Court is of the opinnion that both aprties have to some degree violated the present visitation ORder, we decline to hold the Defendant in contempt of Court, but we will expect the Order to be com plied with in the future, or we will not hesitate to make such a finding. The Court has expressed its interpretation of the Order, that the visitation, when the Defendant has to furnish transportation from Crawford County to Jersey Shore, do not terminate until 7:00 o'clock P.M., and we decline to modify that, absent some request and evidentiary hearing establishing the need to do so.
The next visitation will begin on Friday, May 2, 1986 and is the visitation upon which the defendant is to furnish transportation for the return trip.

In the event the first visitation in each month does not occur, that shall not be deemed automatically for the Defendant to transfer the furnishing of transportation to some other weekend, her obligation being limited to the first weekend visit in any particular month.

The Plaintiff had indicated that during the school year, when he as to furnish transportation both directions, it is extremely to that visitation. However, since he has expressed his thought that he probably would not exercise that visitation, rather than being required to notify the Defendant of his decision not to exercise, it, we will require that he give the Defendant twenty-four (24) hours notice in the event he intends to exercise it, which he shall have the right to do. And, if such notice is not given, the Defendant may assume that the visit will not be exercised.

If the Plaintiff intends not to exercise any other visit, except as herein above provided, he shall give notice to the Defendant twenty-four (24) hours notice of his decision not to exercise that visit.

A weekend falls in a given month if the Friday upon which the weekend visit begins falls in that month.

Jan 25, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, January 23, 1985, the matter is before the Court on a petition under the abuse act and the parties are represented by counsel. The defendant, without admission of the allegations in the petition, consents to the entry of a protection from abuse order, and, accordingly, the defendant is precluded from contacting his wife in any fashion, threatening her, annoying her or enlisting the aid of family or friends to contact his wife. In this regard, the Court notes the wife this date has advised the Court and the defendant that the marriage is over and she no longer has any interest or romantic feelings toward the defendant.

Accordingly, the Court puts the burden on the wife to initiate any further contact between the parties or to see him for any purpose, she agrees that she will send a message to him by mail and will keep a carbon copy thereof for herself. Accordingly, the defendant is precluded from initiating any contact with his wife.

This Order shall be in effect for a period of one (1) year from this date and the Court notes that at this time the defendant is on parole and he is cautioned that any physical assault or threats toward his wife, directly or indirectly, would not only be in contempt of this court order but might possibly be grounds for revoking parole.

The defendant is directed to pay Sheriff's costs in this case in the amount of $26.24, to be paid within thirty (30) days of this date.

The defendant inquires of the Court if under this Order he may sent written communication to his wife. She wife's posture is he can write her and send her any cummunications he wants but she is not going to read them. Accordingly, if the defendant communicates in writing with his wife, the Court will not consider this a violation of this order unless said correspondence contains threats to her life and safety.

May 23, 1985 Sur Plaintiffs' Motion For Summary Judgment Order filed. This case involves the construction of Paragraph 4 of an Agreement for Sale of Real Estate between the plaintiff sellers, Richard and Sally Smith and the defendant buyers, Robert and Linda Calvert, Plaintiffs allege that the defendants failed to comply with sub-paragraph 4(e) of the Agreement of Sale by not making a completed application for mortgage financing to a responsible lending institution within ten days of plaintiffs' approval of the agreement. The agreement was entered into at the office of the realtor with whom the sellers had listed their property for sale. The buyers, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert, one of the sellers, Mr. Smith, and the realtor were present at this meeting. The buyers contend that, at this meeting, they informed Mr. Smith and the realtor that they could not attempt financing the purchase of the property until their Pennsylvania state lottery check in the amount of $115,000 was received. Buyers further contend that they never understood that they were suuposed to made a "Completed application" for mortgage financing and that an issue of fact exists as to the mutual understanding of the parties regarding the meaning and effect of Paragraph 4 of the agreement of sale. Paragraph 4 provides that if the buyers do not made a completed mortgage application within ten (10) days, it is the sellers' option to treat the agreement as if it was still in full force and effect and not contingent upon any financing. We note also that two critical blank spaces in the "Mortgage Contingency" clause were intentionally or unintentionally not filled in (4(c) and 4(d)) and the intent of the parties regarding these two sub-paragraphs may be subject to oral clarification
After review of the pleadings, affidavits and arguments of counsel, we find that there are sufficient factual disputes, some of which may be subject to the rules of evidence regarding admissibility at the time of trial, to raise a doubt in the mid of the court that summary judgment is appropriate at this time. of the court that summary judgment is appropriate at this time.
We deny the Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment.

Jan. 24, 1985, Appearance of Culbertson, Weiss, Schetroma and Schug, attorneys (by Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq.) for defendant filed.

Jan. 30, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, January 29, 1985, at the time set for hearing, the defendant and his counsel advise the Court they are willing to consent to a protective Order without the admission of liability, and accordingly, the defendant is precluded from contacting, harassing, annoying or threatening his wife in any fashion or goin to her place of residence for any purpose.

The parties mutually agree that defendant husband may go to the residence of the wife on Saturday, February 2, 1985 at 11:00 a.m. for the purpose of picking up his clothing, Christmas gifts and toiletries, and after picking up the same, he will leave promtly.

The defendant makes no request for visitation with the three children at this time for the reason he lacks the facilities to take them for proper visitations, but when the situation corrects itself, counsel for the parties will meet and arrange a mutually satisfactory visitation schedule.

This Order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one (1) year from this date.

The wife agrees that the defendant may contact the children at reasonable times at her residence so long as he does not attempt to threaten, annoy or harass the mother as part of the conversation on the telephone with his children

Feb. 14, 1985, copies of order to Attys. Edith Benson and M. Kirkpatrick.

Feb. 15, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, February 13, 1985, this abuse matter is back before the Court as the defendant was incarcerated on order of District Justice Estelle Reisner for the fracas that occurred at the home of the wife on the night of February 9-10, 1985. The defendant has been charged with aggravated assault, burglary, recklessly endargering and criminal attempt as a result of this fracas which apparently involved a third party, one William Johnson.

The defendant's attorney has declined to allow the defendant to testify in view of the pending charges, and the facts are established in an informal manner by questioning of the plaintiff in this action by the Court and counsel ofr the parties.

The Court is satisfied beyond a reasonalbe doubt that the defendant is in wilful and deliberate violation of the Court order of January 29, 1985, and accordingly, he is found in contempt of Court and senteced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of one (1) month and a maximum term of four (4) months.

In view of the fact the defendant is a seven year employee of Avtex and family survival depends on his income, the Work Release Director is directed to accord him work release privileges so that he may continue his employment. The Court notes the Work Release Director is present Court at the time the matter is reviewed, and the Court directs him to establish rules for the defendant's release on work release that would absolutely preclude him from violating any terms of the January 29, 1985 court order.

If further appears that bond in the amount of $5,000.00 has been set by District Justice Estelle Reisner, and this bond is reduced to nominal bond, co-signed by the Sheriff. The Court also notes a Preliminary Hearing is scheduled for February 21, 1985. If the case is bound over, the Court will grant the District Attorney's office the right to petition the Court for re-establishment of the original $5,000.00 bond if they believe the same advisable prior to his release from this contempt sentence.

Aug. 2, 1985, Motion for Hearing to Set Fees and Costs (of Master) and Order filed. ORDER: 8/2/85, Hearing Aug. 27, 1985 at 2:30 P.M., C. R. No. 1.

Aug. 5, 1985, copies of order to Attys. M. Kirkpatrick and S. Hall.

Aug. 27, 1985 Master's Order filed.

Aug. 27, 1985 Amended Inventory and Appraisement of Plaintiff filed.

Ang. 30, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, August 27, 1985, the matter is before the Court on motion of the Master to set additional fees and costs in order to continue processing of this divorce.
It appears that the Defendant has not filed a 201(c) Affidavit consenting to the divorce, and accordingly, the only way the matter may be resolved will be to have the Master proceed with the hearing on the basis of cruel and barbarous treatment as alleged in the Divorce Complaint.
The property of the parties is minimal and an Amended Inventoary by the Plaintiff is ready for filing, and the Defendant has filed no objections to the original Inventory, and if he objects to the Amended Inventory or wishes to file a Counter Inventory and Appraisement, he may do so within ten (10) days of the filing of the Amended Inventory of the Plaintiff.
The Defendant this date advises the Court he wants a divorce, and accordingly, he is given until September 10, 1985 to file an Affidavit of Consent under Section 201(c) of the Divorce Code, In the event he neglects to do so, he shall deposit an additional $250.00 toweard Master fees and expenses by September 15, 1985 and after September 15th, the Master is DIRECTED to schedule a hearing and hear the matter of divorce on the basis of cruel and barbarous treatment and made such appropriate equitable distribution of property as he deems appropriate. The Master is DIRECTED if the costs and fees posted are inadequate, to direct the selling of either or both parties' prperty to pay the additional fees incurred in this Divorce action.
It appears the Master has ordered the Defendant to pay an appraisal fee of $100.00 in an attempt to expedite the valuation of property and save each party money; his order is rescinded and the Defendant, if he fails to file his Affidavit of Consent, will still be required to pay the sum of $250.00. Ther Order is rescinded without prejudice to the right of the Master in his discretion to order an appraiser at such fees as he deems appropriate and see that the same are paid ultimately in this divorce action, either by further payments of the parties or by sale of property allocated to each. The Defendant acknowledged service on February 9, 1985 by accepting delivery on that date as evidenced by the attached signed return receipt. Thomas D. O'Shea

Mar. 20, 1985 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 20, 1985, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

I. Legal custody of Christopher Daniel Alexander Dearborn, shall be with his father, James E. Getsinger.

II. Physical custody of Christopher Daniel Alexander Dearborn shall be with his father, James E. Getsinger subject to the following conditions:

A. The child's aunt, Gloria D. Barco, shall be entitled to visit and take the child with her every other weekend, beginning Friday, March 22, 1985, from 5:00 P.M. on Friday afternoon to 3:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon, both prevailing local times. The father shall be responsible for delivering the child on Friday afternoon to the home of Gloria D. Barco, and Gloria D. Barco shall be responsible for returning the child to the home of the father on Sunday Afternoon.

B. Holidays are defined and custody on such holidays shall be divided as follows: Holidays shall be Easter, Thanksgiving and Christman. The father sha have custody of the child on Easter Sunday of 1985, and on Christmas Day of 1985. Gloria D. Barco shall have custody of the child on Thanksgiving Day of 1985. In 1986, Gloria D. Barco shall have custody of the child onEaster Sunday and Christmas Day, and the father shall have custody of the child on Thanksgiving Day. The parties shall continue to alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner if this order has not been previously changed. On holidays when the father has custody, Gloria D. Barco shall have the right to take the child with her on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. prevailing local times, and on holidays when the Gloria D. Barco has custody, the father shall have the right to take the child with im on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M., prevailing local times. Holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend visitations. The father and Gloria D. Barco shall also alternate having the child in their custody on the child's birthday beginning in 1986. In 1986, the father shall have custody of the child on his birthday, and in 1987, Gloria D. Barco shall have custody of the child on his birthday. Thereafter, custody of the child on his birthday shall be alternated from year to year.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right of the mother to provide proof in the future from her physician and others, that she can provide a safe environment for the child on weekends, and that, therefore, she should be entitled to have custody ofthe child on alternate weekends, holidays, etc., rather than having custody on such weekends, holidays, etc. be with Gloria D. Barco. In the meantime, it is anticipated that while the child is in the custody of Gloria D. Barco that the mother shall be able to visit the child in the Barco home but it is ordered that she shall not be entitled to remove the child from that home.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $120.00 shall be divided so that the father shall pay one-half thereof and Crawford County shall pay the remaining one-half.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days from the date hereof.

P. Richard Thomas,
Judge

April 13, 1987, copies of order to Attys. JOhn Bozic and Bruce Smith,Esq.

Apr. 28, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, April 27, 1987, after hearing, the Court determines alimony pendente lite is appropriate in this divorce case. After review of the earned income and earning capacity of the parties, the Court determines that alimony pendente lite award in the sum of $95.00 per week is appropriate.

The parties mutually agree that this Order should date from approximately mid January, when the last voluntary payment was made. Accordingly, effective this date, the Defendant will commence paying the sum of $95.00 per week commencing with the week of april 26, 1987 plus and additional $110.00 per week to apply on the accommulated arrears of approximately $1,330.00, which should have been paid between mid January and this date, thus the total payment will amount to $205.00.

After the review ofthe delay in processing this divorce case, the relationship between the parties, the voluntary payments that were made previous tothe entry of a formal order, the Court believes this matter of alimony pendente lite should not extend beyond July 15, 1987. Accordingly, This Order shall remain in effect until July 15, 1987 and all arrears as noted aforesaid shall be paid by that date. The Court reserves the right on petition of either party to extend the matter by further Court Order and hearing.

Insofar as counsel fees are concerned, the Defendant is DIRECTED to pay direct to counsel for the wife as counsel fees of sum of $500.00 on or before May 20, 1987, and a similar $500.00 sum on or before June 24, 1987.

This Order is made without a specific allocation of total reasonable counsel fees, which should be paid to counsel for the P laintiff, and in the final divorce action, the Master or the Court may make an equitable award or adjustment of counsel fees between the parties as the circumstances demand.

Costs in this case to date in an unknown amount shall be the responsibility of the Defendant and will be paid on or before July 15, 1987 to counsel for the Plaintiff. Any further costs incurred in this case will be subject to allocation between the parties inthe final Decree.

PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF CUSTODY ORDER

April 16, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, April 11, 1985, at the time set for hearing and review of this juvenile case, the parents of the childred are unable to come to any amicable agreement and the mother categorically denies the pertinent allegations made by the children regarding her conduct. The mother is adament that the best interest of the children would be served by returning them to her custody, and likewise, Tony Books is equally adament in contending the welfare of the childrend woul be best served in continuing them in his custody.

The father has filed a separate custody action seeking custody of both children from their natural mother, and counsel for the parties, solicitor for Children & Youth Services and the Court appointed Guardian Ad Litem agree with the Court's suggestion that in view of the posture of the parties, the matter must be more fully explored in a more detailed hearing than the Court has time for this date.

Accordingly, these cases, with consent of counsel are consolidated and a hearing is set May 1, 1985 at 10:00 o'clock a.m, in courtroom I, at which ctime both hearings will be held and the court will ultimately make a decision in each case.

In the meantime, custody of the children remains with Tony Brooks and his wife and the weekly visitations with the mother prescribed by former orders will be continued.

(Original filed with C of C)

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

April 17, 1985 Copies of order to John Fuller, Mariann Luksik, Dennis Kuftic and Karen Johnson, Esqs.

Jan. 10, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, January 8, 1986, the Court has received a report that the living arrangements of the children in this juvenile case have stabilized with their father, and the children are receiving some type of ongoing counseling. It also appears that visitation arrangements with the mother have been mutually agreed upon, and no further counseling or supervisiory services are required by Crawford County Children and Youth Department.

The Court finds no need to hold further hearings to make an adjudication regarding the the minor chilren and accordingly, insofar as Juvenile Court jurisdiction is concerned, the Court terminates the same and relieves Children and Youth of the responsibility of servicing these two juvenile cases.

There remains outstanding the child custody case involving the same two children, and the Court directs that the children remain in the custody of Tony Brooks pending final determination of the custody dispute with the visitation schedule with the mother as it presently exists to continue until final adjudication. Either party may move the Court to set a date for final disposition of the custody dispute, but if the Court receives no such request within sixty (60) days of this date, the Court will consider that the matter has been amicably resolved between the parents and the custody action will be considered terminated without further Order of Court.

Feb. 20, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 19, 1986, in response to the Court's Order of January 8, 1986, counsel for Tony Brooks has requested a full custody hearing involving Melissa Swabik and Tina Brooks and accordingly said hearing is set for April 3, 1986, at 9:30 A.M., in Courtroom No. 1.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 20, 1986 Copies of order to Dennis Kuftic and Crawford County Legal Services

Apr. 8, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, April 3, 1986, after the Court and discussed custody and visitation with the minor children Tina and Melissa and after parties and their cousnel have explored the possibility of reaching an amicably arrangement regarding custody and visitation, the Court, with the consent of the parties, enter the following order:

1. Presently established Saturday visits between the mother and both children at the mother's residence will continue and it shall continue to be the responsibility of the mother to pick up the children and return them and unless the parties agree otherwise, the visits shall be between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and & 7:00 P.M.p.m.

2. Commencing with the third weekend in April (19th), minor child Tina will stay overnight Saturday night in the residence of her mother and it shall be the responsibility of the mother to return Tina to the home of her father not later than 9:00 a.m. Sunday.

On the weekends when Tina remains overnight, Melissa will be returned to the custody of her father and it shall be the responsibility of the father or someone on his behalf to pick up Melissa Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

3. Commencing with the third weekend in June, both Tina and Melissa will spend overnight Saturday with their mother and the mother shall return them at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday morning to the fther.

The mother shall have the right to have both children in her custody for a continuous five-day period during the month of July 1986, and every July thereafter and the Court urges the parnets to specify the five-day period to be the third Monday of July commencing at 10:00 a.m. until the following Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

The Court urges the parnets not to duscuss past events and not make derogatory remarks about the other.

The Court has called the mother's attention to the fact that her consumption of alcoholic beverages in any degree seems offensive to the children and suggests that it would be wise not to consume alcoholic beveragesduring the time the children are in her custody

The Court enters this order with a desire to expand the visits of the mother with her chidlren and is hopeful that the parents can ultimately agree to a future visitation schedule that would accord the mother linger weekend visits or perhaps longs visits with the children in her custody during the traditional holiday periods. the Court believes that it the mother can improve her parneting skills in the passage of time will make the children more amenable to spending extended visits with their mother and as noted, urges the parents to try to work out arrangements to accomplish this end.

While it is the Court's desire that the parents attempt diligently through their counsel or in dealing directly with each other to work out a meaningful visitation schedule, if the same cannot be accomplished, the Court will entertain a motion for review of this case after september 1, 1986 .

The father shall make satisfactory arrangements for the children to spend a meaningful period of time with the mother on the traditional holiday seasons of Thanksgiving, Easter, Christmas, and the chidlren's birthdays and if it is not possible for visits on the exact holiday, arrangments will be made so that the children will share the holiday season on either the day before or the day after said holidays and birthdays with their mother. The Court leaves to the good discretion of the parents whether the holdiay date itself can be meaningfully divided between the parties.

In accordance with the foregoing, the custody of the two children is awarded to the fahter, Tony Brooks, subject to the aforesaid order and until further order in this case. However, both parents shall consult with each other regarding the raising of the children and particularly as it relates to decisions regarding their health, schoolings, and religious training and the father will endeavor to keep the mtoher advised of the chidlren's development in school and any particular problems they may be having.

Feb. 13, 1989, Petition for Contempt and Order filed. AND NOW, this 13 day of Feb. 1989, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that a Rule to Show Cause, is hereby entered upon Respondent, Tony Brooks, to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court.

No hearing set ---- if exceptions filed to mediator reports, this matter will be decided at the de novo hearing.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Feb. 13, 1989, copies of order to Attys. Dennis Kuftic, B. Lindsay, & Wm. Pineo.

Feb 14, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, February 13, 1989, the matter is before the Court in a rather confused state. The mother petitioned to modify a 1986 custody order and the matter was set before Mediator William Pineo, whom the Court is advised had scheduled a hearing for this date at 2:00 p.m.

The father, Tony Brooks, then petitioned the Court to dismiss the mother's petition to modify the Court Order contending that in view of the fact he had primary custody, Erie County would be the appropriate venue, and implying that the Court should transfer this case to Erie County.

On February 13, 1989, the motehr counters with a petition for contempt, citing in Paragraph 5 thereof a wilful and deliberate violation of the custody Order of 1986.

Counsel for the parties seemingly admit the matter has become more confused, because it appears that minor child, Melissa, is alleged to have sexually molested another child of the father, and apparently Mental Health, Rape Crisis, and Juvenile Probation in Erie County become involved to some extent. The precise outcome of these allegations is not clear.

The primary thrust of the father's argument is that since the children primarily reside in Erie County, it would be more appropriate to hold the requisite hearings in that county in ascertaining whether the father should continue having custody or there should be modifications in the Court Order allowing more extensive visits with the mother.

Thus, the thrust of the request to transfer to Erie County apparently hinges on convenience to witnesses rather than the legal proper venue issue.

The ruling of the court is as follows:

1. The motion to dismiss the petition to modify the present custody Order filed by the father is denied without prejudice in the future to again raise the issue of proper jurisdiction and venue for the continuance of this case.

2. The father and children are DIRECTED to appear for the hearing before the custody mediator.

3. The custody mediator shall review the mother's contempt petition and advise the Court in his report whether he finds substance thereto..

4. The Court DIRECTS the custody mediator to recommend a temporary Order.

5. The Court requests the father and his counsel to sign the necessary releases with any Erie County agencies involved in this case to the end that the Court may receive pertinent reports from these agencies in order for the Court to ascertain whether continued jurisdiction in Crawford County is appropriate or whether continued jurisdiction in Crawford County is appropriate or whether custody and visitation issue should be transferred to Erie County.

Sept 27, 1985 Affidavit of Consent of Defendant filed.

Sept. 30, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985, this Abuse Action is before the Court alleging incidents of abuse that occureed in December of 1984 and January of 1985. After hearing, the Court finds the real purpose of the Petition for Relief and Protection from Abuse is bacause of the recent threats made by the husband to move back into the former household in order to force the wife to accept his terms of a Divorce Action.. Likewaise, it is contended by the defendant that the wife is being so unreasonable in resolving the marital property issues in the Divorce Action, that some drastic action has to be taken by him to convince her to be more reasonable in arriving at an amicable settlement.

The Court does not believe that the Protection from Abuse act should be used to force either party into a settlement of a Divorce Action. Accordingly, we are not in a position at this timm to enter any Order against the Defendant, because we find that the isolated incidents some time ago are not the real thrust of this Petition.

However, the Court is well aware that the Court is granted broad equitable powers under the Divorce Act, ahd that either party may petition the Court for Special Relief. Accordingly, the Court will treat this petition with the same force and effect as if either party had petitioned the Court for special relief regarding occupancy of the mutually owned residence. In view of the fact the wife and the children reside therein, common sense and equity dictate that they should remain in the househod pending negotiations during the divorce action.

Accordingly, the Court will enter this Order and DIRECT ITS filing at the Divorce Action, which is AD 1985-120. The wife shall have occupancy of the dwelling house for the next two (2) months from this date.

In the event the Divorce Action is not amicably resolved or in the hands of a Master by that date, the Court will entertain a motion by either party seeking further adjustment of this Order and a further determination as to who should have the equitable right during a protracted negotiation or contest of a Divorce Action to occupy the residence.

Petition for Relief under the Abuse Act is dismissed, but this order is DIRECTED to be filed and shall govern the parties as with the same force and effect as if it had been filed in the Divorce Action.

Mar 20, 1985 Temporary Order of Court filed: AND NOW, this 20th day of March 1985, after Mediation, and upon Recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is hereby Ordered and Decreed that:

1. The natural parents shall share legal custody of the child, Shannon Lee Jackson, age 7, born March 11, 1977, The said joint legal custody being shared shall entitle both of the parents to equal access to any records relating to the child held by a third party, including, but not limited to, school and medical records.

2. The parents shall have shared physical custody of the child, as follows:

(a) the mother shall have general physical custody of the child, except during periods of time allocated to the father, and the father shall not interfere with the mother's custodial periods.

(b) the father shall have physical custody of the child on alternating weekends, beginning with the weekend of Friday, March 15, 1985, through a portion of Monday, March 18, 1985. For the purpose of this Order, "weekends" shall be defined as Friday after school during the xchool year, through the time when the child must leave for school on Monday Morning, and during the summer period when school is not in session, from 3:30 Friday afternoon through 9:00 o'clock Monday morning.

(c)At some time during the months of June, July and August of each year, the father shall have the right to have uninterrupted physical custody of the child for a period of two consecutive weeks, upon thirty days prior notice to the mother of the dates of said uninterrupted exclusive custody.

(d) Each week the father shall be entitled to make phone calls to the child at her mother's residence between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 o'clock P.M. prevailing time, unless and until he shall have reached the child and talked to her on two occasions in any given week. Thereafter he shall not call again until the following callendar week.

(e) For the purpose of this Order, holidays have precedence over the alternating weekend schedule otherwise in effect. Holidays in this Order shall be meant to mean the winter holidays of Christmas, Easter and Thanksgiving, and the summer holidays of Memorial Day, the 4th of July and Labor day. During the winter holidays the child shall be with the mother on that holiday until 3:00 o'clock P.M., and thereafter shall be with the father from 3:00 o'clock P.M. on the holiday until 6:00 o'clock P.M. the following day. During the summer holidays there shall be an alternating system, with the father having the child on Memorial day of 1985. On those summer holidays when the father does not have a right to temporary physical custody of the child, he shall have the opportunity, on seven days prior notice to the mother, to have the child either the day before or the day after said holidays.

(f) Each party shall notify the other party at least 24 hours in advance if there is any change in the prearranged transfers of physical custody or visitation schedules, and the only reasonable excuse for modification, other than the mutual accomodation of the parents, shall be the illness of the child undar a doctor's care. It shall be permitted for both parents who are being directed by this Court order to use stepparents and/or grandparents to pick up and/or deliver the child to the appropriate place at the appropriate time. Unless other arrangements are made, the child shall be picked up by the father at the mother's home and shall be made available for pickup for return to the mother at the father's home.

3. Each party shall notify the other when the child is away from the custodial home for a period of more than 72 hours, for whatever reason, and such notice shall include the period during which the child shall be away, and a phone number, if possible, where the child may be reached. Contact with the child by the noncustodial parent during these periods shall be for emergency purposes only.

4. The parent having custody of the child at the time shall notify the other parent as soon as possible in the event of illness or injury requiring medical treatment.

5. Neither of the parents shall take the child into any environment which would be commonly thought of as detrimental to the development of her character, or which would be commonly thought of as dangerous to her physical person.

6. The parents are encouraged to discuss arrangements for the physical custody of their child, and, if the parties mutually agree to an alternate arrangement to accommodate themselves, or the child's schedule, they may adjust the physical custody arrangements accordingly, and are encouraged to do so by mutual consent and agreement.

7. Each parent shall teach the child to give to the other parent that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her child, and neither parent shall do anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child.

8. This Order shall not prejudice the right of either party to request a Mediation Conference if there is a changed circumstance.

9. The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County shall retain jurisdiction of this matter so long as either parent or the child reside in the Court's jurisdiction.

10. The fee for the Custody Mediator shall be paid as follows: ½ of the fee shall be paid by the father and the other ½ of the fee shall be borne by the County of Crawford, due to the fact that the Defendant-Mother is a cash grant recipient from the Department of Public Welfare.

BY THE COURT,

Apr. 17, 1985 Copies to R. Allen Thomas & Joseph Kulwicki

May 6, 1985, Income and Expense Statement of defendant, Jeanette E. Hart, filed.

May 29, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, May 23, 1985, the matter is before the Court in the divorce action requesting Alimony Pendente Lite, child support and attorney's fees. It appears this matter was previously processed through the Domestic Relations Division at 1985-129, but in view of the fact the defendant was unemployed, no formal orders were entered.

It now appears that as of May 9, 1985, the defendant secured employment with Universal Well Services and is now working approximately forty hours per week at the rate of $4.50 per hour. The defendant contends that he is paying his father rent in the amount of $100.00 per month, plus approximately $150.00 for food and incidental expenses, and in addition, pays one-half of the utility bills. In addition, he has made arrangements to enroll wife and child in a contributory health care plan through his employer which costs him as a paid deduction approximately $30.00 every two weeks.

In view of recent employment, the Court is unable to ascertain the average number of hours that will be worked or a definitive take-home pay from this employment. Accordingly, we will enter a temporary order for support and refer the matter back to the Domestic Relations Section for review later on when the earning picture becomes crystalized.

Accordinly, we enter this order: Commencing with the week of May 19, 1985, the defendant will pay for wife and child support a total of $30.00 per week, with said payments to be made on a weekly basis.

The defendant, in addition, will pay $50.00 on June 15th and $100.00 on July 15th toward attorney fees in this case without prejudice to the right of the Master to allocate attorney's fees between the parties as equity requires in the final recommended decree for divorce.

The matter is referred back to the Domestic Relations Section for review before Hearing Officer Hotchkiss, to be scheduled sometime between July 22nd and August 9th. At the time set for review hearing, the defendant will produce for the Hearing Officer a statement from his employer listing gross and net pay received to date to the date of the hearing, and the Court accords the Hearing Officer the right to establish a greater or lesser sum for the support that set forth in this order, taking into accout all of the surrounding circumstances.

The Court enters no order at this time for divorce costs in this case but directs that the Master in the ultimate divorce action divide costs between the parties as equity requires.

1. DIVORCE: Upon consideration of the pleadings and affidavits filed in the above-captioned case, this Court hereby grants an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony to the above-named parties, on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken and ninety days (90) have elapsed from the date of filing of the Complaint, and an Affidavit has been filed by each of the parties, evidencing that each of the parties consents to the divorce pursuant to Section 201(c) of the Pennsylvania Divorce Code.

2. CUSTODY AND VISITATION: Primary physical and legal custody of Stacy Renee Edwards, born March 27, 1983, shall be with the Plaintiff, Michelle E. Edwards,

a. Defendant Daniel C. Edwards shall have visitation rights as follows:

1. One month during each summer, with written notice of not less that thirty (30) days in advance, to be addressed to the mother, indicating the date and time he wishes to receive custody of Stacy. Said one months visitation shall be at times and between dates agreed upon mutually between the parties, and mother shall not unreasonably withhold her consent.

2. During the aben-numbered years, the Defendant shall be entitled to have Stacy for Thanksgiving vacation, from as early as Wednesday evening the day before Thanksgiving until as late as Sunday evening following Thanksgiving.

3. During the odd-numbered years, Defendant shall be entitled to have Stacy for a period of five days during Christmas vacation, beginning December 26, at the earliest. If Defendant prefers, he may instead elect to have the child with him for a five day period shortly in advance of Christmas, as long as she is returned to the Plaintiff by December 24, and as long as this does not interfere with school. Defendant shall give Plaintiff at least thirty days (30) days written notice in advance of the first day he wishes to have Stacy, for said December visitation.

4. Transportation for the child during any visitation, shall be at the Defendant's expense.

(a) Primary custody of the two minor children, Lori Koehler, age Nine(9) and Douglas Eric Koehler, Jr., age six (6), shall be with their mother, Debra L. Koehler.

(11) Each parent shall notify the other immediately of any change in residential address, residential telephone number, and change of work. Each parent shall also notify the other immediately in the event of any serious illness or accident involving either child.
(12) On either the day before or the day after a child's birthday, the father may have both children for a four hour period, with times to be mutually decided by the parties.

April 11, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, This 11 day of April, 1986, we overrule Defendant's Preliminary Objections.
Plaintiff and Defendant had allegedly entered into an oral contract which Defendant allegedly breached. Defendant, in his Preliminary Objections, raised the defense of the Statute of Frauds, 13 Pa. C.S.A. §2201. The Statute of Frauds is an affirmative defense and as such can only be raised in new matter, Pa. R.C.P 1030, after admitting or denying the existence of the oral contract.
However, even if we were to overlook the procedural defect and consider the Statute of Frauds defense properly raised, we are convinced that the Statute of Frauds defense would fail as the Plaintiff had sent a writeen confirmation of the oral contract within a reasonable time, pursuant to 13 Pa. C.S.A. §2201.
For these reasons, the Defendant's Preliminary Objections are overruled. Defendant given twenty days to file an Answer.

May 28, 1987 Copies of order to Joseph Kulwicki and Emil Spadafore

July 7, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, July 7, 1987, at the time this matter comes before the Court for hearing, the Court notes that Judge Robert L. Walker previously conducted a hearing but that neither the natural father, who is accused of child abuse, appeared at the hearing nor did his counsel. Counsel for the father advises the Court that it was an administrative oversight that he neglected to put the same on his calender and notify his client.

It appears that the father either will make a complete denial of said allegations or perhaps in addition, provide alibi witnesses showing he had no opportunity to commit the offense.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court and counsel believe that if the matter is to be reheard, giving the father the opportunity to hear the testimony, that a transcript should be ordered and that Jude Walker should be the Judge conducting the further hearing in this case.

ACCORDINGLY, we direct the Court Reporter who took the juvenile hearing on May 4, 1987 to transcribe one copy thereof and lodge if with the Clerk of Courts Office, where it will be available for guardian and counsel for all parties.

Hearing on this matter is set before Judge Robert L. Walker on July 29, 1987, at 9:00 a.m.

Children & Youth Services are directed to forward the file to the Court and the Court will review the same in light of Ritchie versus Ritchie and disclose the contents to defense counsel except for the names of any protected confidential informants in accordance with the standards set down in the aforesaid case.

The Court grants father's counsel the opportunity to informally question the child while in the custody of the Caseworker from Children & Youth Services and the child's guardian so counsel can gain a general feeling of the intelligence and relevant materiality or accuracy of the child's grasp of the facts with said interview, however, not to take place until after the transcipt has been filed and at a meeting room at Children & Youth Services.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Walker for disposition and set a hearing, it was discovered that Judge Walker will not be able to hear the matter on that date.

AND NOW, July 8, 1987, hearing in the matter matters is hereby reset for August 7, 1987, at 9:00 A.M. in Courtroom 2.

BY ORDER OF COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 9, 1987 copies of order to Joseph Kulwicki, Brian LindsaY, Bettie Peterson-Muth and John Fuller.

August 7, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 7, 1987, after further hearing in this matter, supervised visits between the father and Chrystal Sampson shall Continue during Aug. and Sept. on at least a weekly basis as established by Children & Youth Services. At or about the end of Sept. 1987, we request that the Caseworker at Children & Youth Services furnish a report to the Court, copies of which wil be made available to both counsel and the Guardian ad Litem so that the Court can consider less restrictive visitation if the visits have gone appropriately.

Neither party shall remove the child from the territorial limits of Crawford Co.,PA. without approval of the Court in writing.

The mother shall keep the father advised as to her residence; and if she should change her residence, shall notify the father within seventy-two (72) hours of any change of residence.

Dec. 6, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, December 5, 1985, the matter is back before the Court on a petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and the matter is handled by informal questinging of the parties and presentation of the parties' position by their respective counsel.

The Court notes that both parties are contributing to the support of two (2) children, one of whom is in college and that award for spousal support in the amount of $86.00 per month has been made in a Domestic Relations Action.

The Court believes modest Alimony Pendente Lite is indicated for a short period of time under all of the circumstances of this case, and, accordingly, the Court awards Alimony Pendente Lite in addition to the spousal support at the Domestic Relations Action in the amound of $100.00 a month, payable on or before the 15th of each and every month in the months of December, January and February, No further Alimony Pendente Lite will be due without further hearing before this Court, as the Court believes that the limited issued and valuations that are germane to resolution of this issue should be clarified and resolved within a three month period of this date.

Additionally as a condition to receiving the aforesaid Alimony Pendente Lite and as an indication that she intends to proceed promptly toward the disposition of this divorce action, the plaintiff will be required to file a 201-C affidavit on or before the 15th of December, 1985.

At the same time the defendant husband petitions for reasonable counsel fees, costs and expenses and the same is dismissed without prejudice to the right of the Master and ultimately to the Court to award counsel fees, costs and expenses of both parties equity between the parties as justice requires.

PETITION FOR CUSTODY

1 copy (atty)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 25 day of March, 1985, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition and of the special facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, hearing is scheduled for the 24th day of April 1985, at 9:30 A.M. in Court Room No. 1, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pa.

Copy of this Petition and Order shall be served upon the Defendant, by certified mail, restricted delivery, return receipt requested, at least 15 days prior to hearing.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker,
Judge

Apr. 24, 1985, Affidavit of Service of Petition for Custody filed. Bruce M. Johnson, Esq. being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that on Mar. 28, 1985, he sent a true and correct copy of the Petition for Custody filed in the above action to the Defendant, Viola M. Hartfelder, by Cert. Mail No. P 446 364 161, postage prepaid, restricted delivery, return receipt requested; said Petition for Custody was mailed to the Defendant at Box 3501, Amarillo, Texas 79116, Defendant's last known address; further that there is attached hereto a duly executed return receipt card showing date of delivery as of April 2, 1985. Bruce M. Johnson, Esq.

Apr. 26, 1985 Custody Order: AND NOW, April 24, 1985, at the time set for hearing on this custody action, the defendant/aunt, Viola M. Hartfelder, fails to appear although the Court notes an affidavit of service showing that a copy of the petition and notice of hearing was receipted for by her husband on April 2, 1985, at Amarillo, Texas.

The Court informally questions counsel, plaintiff William S. Mattock, Sr., and child Genne Young, and it appears that the absence of Mrs. Hartfelder was intentional and that she did not intend to appear at this hearing.

Although the Juvenile Probation Department has requested copies of a reputed Order entered in the Potter County, Texas Court at No. 18153, by which order Mrs. Hartfelder was appointed as guardian of the estate and/or person of the child Genne Young, said documents have not been forwarded.

It appears at this time the minor Genne Young is residing in the home of William S. Mattocks, Sr., together with his twenty-one-year-old daughter Robin Mattocks and is a junior in high school.

Her desires are that she continue to reside in the Mattocks' home, but that she be permitted to change schools for her senior year. William S. Mattocks, Sr requests custody of the child.

ACCORDINGLY, under the present circumstances, the Court believes the best interest of the child will be served by awarding custody to William S. Mattock, Sr., and hereby makes such award.

Apparently, the child receives Social Security benefits, which payments are made to William S. Mattocks, Sr by Viola Hartfelder, and in addition, the child receives directly from Mrs. Hartfelder monies accruing to her benefit as an heir of her father's estate. It appears that the estate of the father is not yet settled and there is some uncertainty about the ultimate distribution that will accrue to the benefit of Genne Young.

The Court is aware that at the initial informal hearing held March 6, 1985, Mrs. Viola Hartfelder was requesting custody of the child under her capacity of the estate and/or person of said child and the Court's understanding was that Mrs. Hartfelder was contemplating the entry of the child into a church-oriented placement and schooling someplace in the State of Arkansas.

Since Mrs. Hartfelder has not been in touch with the Court directly, has not appeared at this hearing, we are uncertain as to her current posture regarding her original request for custody of the child.

After awarding custody to William S, Mattocks, Sr., and with the uncertain financial situation regarding the child, the Court believes that this matter should be again reviewed in approximately six (6) months to ascertain the progress of the child in the home of Mr. Mattocks, the desires of Mrs. Hartfelder regarding the custody and the current status of Social Security benefits and ongoing or ultimate financial benefits from the estate of Harold Young, the child's father. The attorney is directed to mark his calandar for a date six months from now and by formal motion, request a review hearing be set by the Court after said period of time.

In view of this Order, the temporary Juvenile Court jurisdiction established by former Order of March 6, 1985 is hereby terminated.

July 24, 1986 Order filed. This divorce is before the Court on a Praecipe filed pro se by the Plaintiff, requesting a divorce under Section 201(c). The Court notes that originally the Plaintiff's Complaint alleged as grounds Section 201(c), 201(d), and indignities. In Count II, there was also a claim for equitable division of real and personal property.
The Court notes an Affidavit of Consent by the Plaintiff was filed April 3, 1986, and an Affidavit by the Defendant consenting to the divorce was filed June 5, 1986.
In accord with the policy of the Crawford County Courts, we decline to act on this divorce at this time in view of the fact there is still an unresolved claim for equitable division of marital pr operty pending. Until the claim for equitable division is resolved by a recorded agreement or withdrawal of said claim bythe Plaintiff, we decline to act on this divorce.
Accordingly, this divorce is returned to the Prothonotary's Office in accordance with the foregoing.

May 10 1988, copies of order to Attys. M. Kirkpatrick, T. O'Shea, and James Blackwood.

June 23, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a request by Defendant for bifurcation of the divorce, reserving for future disposition the issue of equitable division of marital property. The Court grants the bifurcation by separate Order, noting that the Plaintiff received certified mail notice of the hearing and fails to appear in opposition thereto, and that her previously retained counsel no longer represents her, because no arrangement could be reached.
There remains the equitable division request contained in the Plaintiff's Divorce Complaint fi led April 3, 1985. The court is advised that the parties were former owners of a tavern, which failed financially, and both have been through bankruptcy ending up with virtually no assets.
Accordingly, we enter the following Order:
AND NOW, June 17, 1988, a Rule to Show cause is hereby issued upon the Plaintiff, Jeanne Pfeifer, DIRECTING that within thirty (30) days, she comply with the Rules of Procedure for divorce ases by fling the appropriate inventory and appraisement. A hearing upon equitable division of marital property is hereby set for July 26, 1988 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 for the purpose of the Court holding a hearing and dividing marital property in accord with the Divorce law and procedural rules.
The Plaintiff is advised that if she fails to file the required inventory and appraisement or fails to appear at said hearing on July 26, 1988, the Court, will consider that she has abandoned this claim in her divorce action and will enter an Order dismissing the claim and prohibiting anyfurther litigation regarding marital assets.
Copy of this Order is to be served on the Plaintiff by certified mail.

The factual background is reviewed by counsel for the Defendant, and this Court is of the opinion that bifurcation is appropriate to the end that the Divorce Decree be granted this date, and the equitable distribution matter reserved for future disposition in a separate Order filed this date.

July 26, 1988 Order on Equitable Distribution filed: This matter comes before the Court this date on a rule to show cause directed against the plaintiff by this Court's order of June 17, 1988. The Court notes the plaintiff has failed to file an inventory and appraisement, and fails to appear for the hearing on the bifurcated issue of equitable property division.

The defendant and his counsel appear and the Court is advised that a notice of this hearing was served upon the plaintiff. In fact a discussion of this hearing and the equitable division issue took place July 25, 1988, between the plaintiff and counsel for the defendant, whereby she advised she had no intentions of appearing at this hearing.

The Court is advised, that the parties recently went through a bankruptcy proceeding which was finalized in 1987, there appears to be minimal if any marital assets to divide.

On motion of counsel for the defendant, the Court hereby dismisses the equitable distribution count of the plaintiff's divorce complaint originally filed April 3, 1985. Each party may keep and retain as their own separate property any marital property of any discription in their possession as of this date.

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 8 day of April 1985, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition, a rule is granted upon the Respondents to show cause, if any they have, why they should not be required to return physical possession of Virginia Lillian Martin to her parents, the Petitioners. Said rule shall be returnable for hearing on the 11 day of April, 1985, at 1:30 o'clock P.M. in Court Room No. 2, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania. Notice to C Y S Services.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, Judge.

Apr. 8, 1985, copy of order to Atty. B Johnson.

Apr. 11, 1985, Motion of Defendants to Continue Hearing and order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, April 11, 1985, the above motion allowed. Continued to April 24, 1985, at 11:00 A.M.

Robert L. Walker, Judge

Apr. 11, 1985, copies of order to Attys. B. Johnson and D. Ferguson.

Apr. 26, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, April 24, 1985, at the time the matter is before the Court, it appears to the Court to be a difficult and complex case in view of the allegations by the grandparents of the baby Virginia that the mother and father lack parenting skills. This contention would be strenuously contested by the mother and father, Melissa and Erie and possibly other witnesses It further appears that Melissa has a history of epileptic problems and is occasionally under medical care and medication to control the same, but she advises that she has had no seizures in a considerable period of time. If further appears that the father of the child, Eric, has some type of petit mal seizures, and at times, is on medication and it further appears that he had educational and developmental problems and an unsatisfactory work experience record.

The grandparents contend that since the birth of the child, both parents have lacked the ability or desire to give the proper parenting attention to the child and care for the basic needs of the child, and accordingly, for all intent and purposes, the child's rearing has been left to the grandparents even though the parents resided in the same household. On the other hand, the parents, Eric and Melissa, contend this is not so and they gave the required attention and care to the child but that the grandparents over-assumed their responsiblilities to some extent, depriving them of the opportunity to rear the child as they would desire.

The matter comes currently into focus before the Court because Eric and Melissa are proposing a move to Florida with child Virginia to the home of Eric's parents Mr and Mrs. Larry McCurdy, 920 Ninth Street West, Bradenton, Florida, 33505 (Phone (813) 747-5901). The contemplated plan of the parents, Eric and Melissa, is to move in with Eric's parrents in Bradenton, Florida, together with child Virginia and Eric's father has assured him that job opportunities are available and in all probability, Eric could secure a job at the same cabinet-making company where his father works.

The matter is further complicated because child Virginia appears to the grandparents to be a slowly developing child and preliminary tests by the Intermediate Unit raise some concern that further testing is necessary and there may be some developmental prbblems with the child.

With all of these complexities, the Court lacks the time to hear all of the witnesses today and counsel are not prepared to call or secure further reports from the doctors caring for Eric, Melissa and the child to give meaningful input at this time.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court believes that Children & Youth Services of Crawford County who it is reported, had minimal contact with the family previously should become involved to give guidance and enlightenment to the Court regarding the following.

1. Parenting skills of the parents, Eric and Melissa.
2. Further exploration ofany physical or mental disabilities of the parents which would bear on their parenting skills.
3. Request a home study by the appropriate Florida agency of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry McCurdy. In this regard, the Court requests Children & Youth Services to personally talk on the telephone with Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy in Florida to apprise them of the problems they have become aware of and to father input whether they are willing and able to cope with the inadequacies of both parents and to see that the child Virginia would be properly raised in their home.
4. In this regard, Eric and Milissa advise the Court they are willing to sign any appropriate releases giving Children & Youth Services the opportunity to obt ain input and reports from any doctors or social agencies that have dealt with the parents in the past.

In the meantime, it appears that the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin have custody of the minor child Virginia, but that mother and father, Eric and Melissa are temporarily residing with Melissa's sister, Mrs. Doris Hirt and her husband, at 179 Walker Drive, Meadville, Pennsylvania (No Telephone) and the Court sees no reason at this time why surrender of the child Virginia to the parents would not be appropriate so long as they reside with Mrs. Hirt and her husband, whi this date, indicate a willingness to continue on a temporary basis having Erie, Melissa and the baby reside in their home.

ACCORDINGLY, the grandparents are directed to surrender custody of the child and the child's necessary clothing and other equipment so that the parents may take prpper care of the child in the home of the Hirts.

In view of the love, care and attention the grandparents have given to their grandchild, the Court believes contact with the grandparents shoud continue on a somewhat regular basis, and accordingly, commencing with the weekend of May 3, 1985, and every other weekend thereafter, the mother shall surrender the baby to the grandparents for their care and custody from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 8:00 p.m. The mother shall make arrangements to deliver with the child the necessary clothering and equipment for the grandparents to have the child in their custody every other weekend.

The parents are required to keep all presetly scheduled appointments for themselves and child with various doctors, the Intermediate Unit or other social agencies and to keep all future appointments scheduled.

By agreement between the grandparents and Eric and Melissa, the child will be surrendered forthwith to Eric and Meliss'a custody and in view of the fact the grandparents will be out of town the rest of this date, the parties agree that at 10:00 A.M., April 25, 1985, Eric and Melissa will go to the home of the grandparents to pick up their clothers, their various personal items, Melissa's stereo but there is a dispute about three guns of Eric's which will be left at the premises, but the Martins may not dispose of the same until further Order of Court.

None of the parties to this action may remove the child from the jurisdiction of Crawford County for a period longer than twenty-four hours; and if the parents change their address, they must secure further permission from the Court to move the child to the new address.

Children & Youth Services will see that copies of any reports submitted to the Court are also forwarded to counsel for the parties. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 8, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, July 5, 1985, the court having received extensive reports on Virginia McCurdy, Melissa McCurdy and Eric McCurdy from Dr. Barry Bittman, plus reports from T.W. Morris of the Developmental Disabilities Program, the court believes the matter should be scheduled for review. ACCORDINGLY, a further hearing will be held July 16, 1985, at 2:00 P.M.

Counsel for all parties may review the aforesaid reports and make copies thereof by requesting the same from the Judges Office.
By Order of Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Copies of Order to Bruce M. Johnson, John F. Spataro and C&Y Services.

July 19, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, July 16, 1985, upon receipt of extensive reports regarding each parent and the child after informal input from all concerned parties and their counsek, the Court can find no reason why the minor child Virginia should not be returned to the care and custody of her parents. ACCORDINGLY, the Court directs that minor child Virginia, age eleven months, be returned and placed in the care and custody of her parents Eric McCurdy and Melissa McCurdy.

The Court notes at this time that the parents are residing with another relative in Crawford County but contemplate an eventual move to Mercer County to initially take up residence with Eric McCurdy's father and eventually to live separate and apart on their own.

In view of the close relationship between the grandparents Clarence E. Martin and Carolyn J. Martin and the baby, the Court believes that occasional periodic visits between grandparents and child should be continued. The Court notes, however, that there has been in the past friction between the mother of the child and the parents and the Court is not desirous of arranging visitations with the grandparents if it is doing to incur name-calling and friction between the parents of the child and the grandparents.

Commencing with the month of August, 1985, the parents of the child and the grandparents will made satisfactory arrangements for a one-day visit so that the grandparents may have the child Virginia in their sole and exclusive custody for a period not less than nine (9) hours, but is shall be the responsibility of the grandparents to pick up the child and return the child from the visits. The court leaves to the discretion of the parties the appropriate day in each month for the visit to accommodate the schedules of both parties and if the parties cannot agree, then the Court designates the second (2nd) Saturday of every month for the visits between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. On the visits, the mother will privde the grandparents with the necessary baby food, diapers, clothing, toys and other incidentals that a small child would require on such a visit.

The grandparents acknowledge that certain personal property belonging to Eric McCurdy and/or his father remains in their home, namely, three guns, a bassinet given to their daughter as a gift and a bow and arrow belonging to Eric McCurdy. ACCORDINGLY, the grandparents will deliver these items to the residence of their daughter Doris Hirt at 179 Walker Drive, Gill Village, Meadville, Pennsylvania, on or before July 21, 1985, after which date, the owners of said items can pick the same up from Doris Hirt. The Court notes it asked Children & Youth Services to intervene in this case to make certain investigations, and having performed this task, they are now relieved from further participation and supervision in this case.

Feb 5, 1990 Motion of Defendant, the Rexroth Corporation, to Compel the Deposition of Michael Reddyhoff as a Fact Witness and Order filed: Motion denied.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas J

Feb 9, 1990 Copies of order to all counsel of record.

Feb. 16, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, February 12, 1990, the day before the trial, the Court is asked to view an eight-minute video tape proposed to be shown to the jury by the Plaintiff not for the purpose of showing the operationof the press in question but to orient the jurors as to the type of product Cytemp produces and the variety of the products produced. The video tape has a few seconds of moving pictures of the press here at issue. Counsel for the defnedant has prepared detailed and enlarged photographs of the press at issue for the jury's viewing and argues to the Court that the eight-minute video is largely a public relations tape, has no materiality to the issues hereto be decied. Plaintiff argues that it willhave time by orienting the jury as to the type of manufacturing business of the plaintiff and willgive some examples of the variety of products that are turned out by the compny, some of which may have been produced through the press here at issue.

The ruling of the Court is the video tape will be permitted to be shown to the jury with appropriate cautionary instructions fromthe Court that it is largely a public relations film of a general nature and that further exhibits and testimony will break down and further explain to the jury the functioning of the valve box here in question and further precise manufacturing processess and difficulties incurred. The Court bel ieves that cautionary instructions to the jury will adequately set the groundwork for further testimony on behalf of plaintiff and defendant.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

Feb. 19, 1990 Copies of order handed to Attys. Hosking and Mulloy.

Feb. 20, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, February 15, 1990, before the liability issue of the Plaintiff has been completed and after prior informal discussions between counsel and the Court, the Court advises counsel that it believes this case could be most fairly disposed of by bifurcating the issues of liability and damages for the Jury's consideration. Counsel for Defendant Rexroth objects and the Court hears arguments thereon. We reject the arguments of Rexroth and the case will proceed on the basis that the conclusion of all liability and the cross-claim between Rexroth and the Plaintiff, the Court will send the matter to the Jury with appropriate instructions to decide the issue of liability only.

Once the Jury returns that decision, the case will proceed on the element of damages for further consideration by Jury decision.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 21, 1989 Copies of order handed to Richard Hosking and Warren Mulloy.

Mar. 1, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, February 26, 1990, after conclusion of arguments by counsel, and after the Court advises counsel that a proposed verdict slip with assumptions and questions thereon would be submitted to the jury before their argument, counsel for the Plaintiff takes exceptions to one or more to the questions to be propounded and listed on the verdict slip. The objection was timely made, but we allow counsel at this time to put their reasons therefor on the record. The objection was previsously overruled and the Court reaffirms its ruling believing that the contract and negligence claims are so inextribasbly intertwined that it would lead to confusion to attempt to have the jury consider the contract claim separately from the negligence claim.

Likewise, the Court notes that at the appropriate time at the end of the Plaintiff's case, counsel for Rexroth moved for a directed verdict. In view of the fact the court reporter was not in the courtroom at the time, counsel and the Court moted that the motion was timely made and denied and we reaffirm on the record now the denial of said motion.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar. 2, 1990 Copies of order mailed to Attys. Hosking, Sylvester, Mulloy and Kahana

JURY VERDICT FILED.

a. Assume there was an order and acceptance between Cytemp and Wean to manufacture and deliver a value block. Wean subcontracted the order to Rexroth.
b. Assume there was a written and oral agreement between Wean and Rexroth that resulted in the production of a valve block for Cytemp.
c. Assume the valve block did not meet Cytemp's stroke per minute needs.
1. Was there a breach of the agreement between Wean and Rexroth or was there a breach of any warranty by Rexroth in producing the valve block? yes or no
2. If your answer is no, who is responsible for the damages Cytemp incurred? Cytemp, Wean or Rexroth (designate one or more)
3. If your answer is yes, who is responsible for the damages Cytemp incurred? Cytemp, Wean or Rexroth (designate one or more)
4. Do you find that Rexroth was negligent or breached an express or implied contract with respect to the valve block after its installation in its dealings with cytemp?
yes or no
5. From all of the testimony and dealings between the parties that resulted in any damage to Cytemp, and from your answers to the above questions, who should be responsible for Cytemp's damages and in what proportion?

183- Cytemp 0 %
184- Wean 70 %
Rexroth 30 %

The total of the above three must equal 100%.

Mar. 1, 1990 Molded Verdict filed. AND NOW, February 26, 1990, the jury having returned answers to the five questions on the verdict slip and their verdict having allocated no fault or responsibility to Cytemp, 70 percent responsibility to Wean, and 30 percent responsibility to Rexroth, the Court hereby molds the interrogatory verdict into the following verdict:

The jury finds in favor of the Plaintiff against Defendant Wean and Manesmann Demag Weanin the proportion of 70 percent and agianst the Rexroth Corporation in a percentage of 30 percent. Thus, the liability verdict is proportionately against both defendants and the jury will use the aforesaid percentages allocated to the defendants in dividing the the damage award in favor of the Plaintiff between the two Defendants.

II. Physical custody of Jamie Lee Shartle and Bronson J. Shartle, shall be divided as follows:

A. The children shall be in the custody of their mother from the date of this order until the day after the close of the current school year which is scheduled to close on or about June 6, 1985.

B. May 22, 1985 Copies to R. Charles Thomas and David Pickens and John Fuller, Esqs

E. This order is entered without prejudice to the right of either the mother or the father to request a further mediation conference or hearing after July 15, 1985, without proving a substantial change of circumstances, it being felt that the period from June 6, 1985 to July 15, 1985, is essentially a trial period of the children living with their father.

F. Holidays are defined as Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the children shall be in the home of the father on Thanksgiving day of 1985 and in the home of the mother on Christmas Day of 1985 and in the home of the father on Easter Sunday of 1986. The children shall be in the home of the mother on Thanksgiving Day of 1986 and in the home of the father on Christmas Day of 1986. G. Neither the mother nor the father shall do or say anything in an attempt to turn the children against the other parent, but on the other hand shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the children towards both parents.

This order shall be a temporary order, but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed within thirty (30) days of the date hereof, subject to the provisions above set forth.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $120.00 shall be paid by the father. By the Court, P. Richard Thomas, Judge

The parties agree that if the children are involved in extracurricular activities at their school that require their attendance during the weekends they are with the father, it shall be the father's responsibility to see that they attend such events, and if he is unable for any reason to transport them to said events, he may notify the mother at least twelve (12) hours in advance and she will take the necessary steps to provide the requisite transportation.
4. The parties are desirous of changing the scheduled summer lengthy visit with the father, and accordingly, the father's summer visit will commence at 4:30 p.m. the day follwoing schoolr ecesses and will last until the second Saturday of August each year at 8:00 p.m. During the father's summer custody of the chidlren, the mother shall be entitled to have the children during one weekend in June between the hours of 4:30 Friday and 8:00 onSunday and if the parties cannot mutually agree on this date, the Court rules it shall not interfere with projected hunting trips by the fahter and his sons in the month of June and under any circumstances, if the parties cannot agree, it will be held on the last weekend of June. Additionally, the mother shall be entitled to have two (2) weekend visits during the month of July each yar, with said weekends to be agreed upon by the parents, but if the parents cannot agree, the weekend visits shall be the second and fourth weekends between the same aforesaid hours. Sept 7, 1988 Petition for Modification of Custody filed.

Sept 13, 1988 Order filed: This custody action is again back before the Court on a petition by the father to secure primary custody of the oldest child. The matter has been before the Court numerous times over the last three and one-half years, and the only allegation in the present petition indicates the only reason for change is the wish of the child and the father's contention he is better able to meet the needs of the child.

With the heavy court schedules and trial terms there would be an undue delay in the Court hearing this matter de novo. Accordingly, we refer the matter back to the mediator John Fuller with instructions to hold the usual mediation conference, interview the child, write a report to the Court and evert a suggested modification order if he deems the facts so warrant. After entry of said temporary order either party will have the ususal 30 days to request a de novo hearing.

Date: Sept. 14, 1988.

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 15th day of April, 1985, upon Motion of Bozic, Thomas and Johnson and R. Charles Thomas, Esquire, Attorneys for the Plaintiff, and upon consideration of the within Petition for Relief, the Court is satisfied that there is an immediate and present danger of abuse to the Plaintiff and the following Protection Order is hereby entered:

1. That the Defendant, Charles Clinton Flickinger is directed and prohibited from attempting to cause or intentionally, knowingly or recklessly causing bodily injury or serious bodily injury with or without a deadly weapon to the Plaintiff; said Defendant is prohibited from placing by physical menace the Plaintiff in fear of imminent serious bodily injury.

2. The Defendant, Chalres Clinton Flickinger, is hereby excluded immediately and forthwith from the apartment occupied by the said Deborah J. Flickinger, at Ridgeway Hill in the Borough of Cochranton, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and is further prohibited from making any attempt to contact the said Deborah J. Flickinger when she is outside her home at Ridgeway Hill in the Borough of Cochranton, Crawford County, Pa.

3. This temporary Protection Order shall remain effective only until the date of final hearing on this Petition which is hereby fixed for 9:30 A.M. on the 23rd day of April, 1985 in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of theCrawford County Court House, Meadville, Pa.

7. The Defendant is hereby advised of the right to be represented by counsel and a violation of this Order may subject the violating party to punishment for contempt.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Apr. 15, 1985, copy of order to Atty. Thomas.

Apr. 25, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, April 23, 1985, at the time set for hearing the matter is discussed informally among the parties, the Court and Counsel for the plaintiff. By agreement of the defendant, he is hereby directed not to annoy, threaten, assault, or harass his wife, nor procure others to do so on his behalf, nor is he permitted to do to his place of residence unless she specifinally invites his to do so and sets the prescribed time which he is to appear.

The parties are in agreement that the defendant should have visitations with the three-year old minor son, and the parties mutually agree that so long as the defendant notifies the plaintiff's parents the evening before he wishes to have an extended visit with the child, the child will be made available at the home of his in-laws who live next door to the plaintiff. Absent such notice, there is no requirement that the mother or grandparents accord visitation rights to the defendant. It appears, however, that the mother frequently visits her parents and the child goes next door where the defendant lives for visits, and apparently the mother has no objections to this continued arrangement so long as the defendant acts reasonably and the mother knows where the child is at all times.

The Court notes in this regard, there is a pending support action in the Domestic Relations Section of Crawford County scheduled for hearing April 30, 1985.

The Court further notes that the defendant father advises the Court he intends to seek legal advice and file an appropriate action to secure custody of the minor child. Until said action is filed and an order entered thereon, custody of the minor child will remain with the mother.

By agreement of the parties, the plaintiff will pay the service cists in this case and the defendant will pay the filing fee.

Unless modified or cancelled by the parties, this agreement whall remain in full force and effect one (1) year from this date.

Feb. 11, 1986, ORDER filed. A Divorce Complaint filed in this case on April 22, 1985, contained a count requesting that custody of one minor child be awarded to the Plaintiff. The matter is now praeciped to the Court for a grant of the divorce, but we decline to do so for the following reason. The record does not disclose whether the prayer for custody in the Divorce Complaint has been withdrawn, whether matter has been litigated in anancillary proceeding, or whether the parties have reached an amicable agreement thereto. Accordingly, until the divorce record in this case disposes of the custody count in some manner or we are requested to grant the divorce but reserve ruling on the custody matter, we are not in a posture to act in this divorce action.

We return this matter to the Prothonotary's Office and upon clarification of this issue he matter may be again praeciped to the court for the granting of the divorce.

May 14, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, May 9, 1985, at the time this matter is set for hearing before the Court, the Defendant advises the Court through his counsel that he consents to the entry of an abuse order without the necessity of litigating the issues raised in the petition. Accordingly, the Court enters the following order:

1. The defendant/husband shall refrain from annoying, harassing, assaulting or threatening the Plaintiff/Wife or procuring others to do so on his behalf. He may not go to her place of residence without her express invitation.

2. By agreement of the parties, Defendant/Husband will surrender the premises located at 862 Rockwood Drive, Titusville, to the Plaintiff/Wife and children on June 12, 1985, and consents that even though the property is in joint title Plaintiff/Wife and children may occupy the same without his objection.

3. The Defendant/Husband agrees to make the mortgage payments on the home at the required times in order that the Plaintiff/Wife and children may continue to reside there.

4. The parties mutually agree the father should have reasonable visits with the children and they will reach a mutually aatisfactory visitation schedule; however, the visitation with the children shall not be at the residence of the Plaintiff/wife unless she expressly consents thereto.

5n exercising the father's visitation rights with the children, he shall have the right to go to the home of the Plaintiff/Wife to pick up the children and return them so long as he does not create a disturbance or stay for a period longer than is reasonably necessary to pickup and deliver the children.

5. This Order shall remain in effect until August 15, 1985, provided, however, that either party may move the Court for a hearing requesting that the circumstances require a continuation of this agreement for a period beyond August 15, 1985.

6. The Defendant/Husband will pay the costs in this case within fifteen (15) days.

September 4, 1985, Order filed. AND NOW, August 30, 1985, at the time set for hearing on this matter, counsel for the defendant appears to be ill and advises the Court that he does not believe the defendant received notice of this hearing. It appears further that plaintiff/ wife is contending the order was violated in June when the defendant attempted to run her off the road resulting in recklessly endangering charges in Venango County on or about June 10, 1985.

The order heretofore entered on May 9, 1985 is continued and the visitation schedules accorded to the father in the former order are rescinded until further hearing.

The Titusville Police Department is authorized to help enforce this order in the event they have reasonable grounds to believe that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of the order of May 9, 1985.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.
Dec. 19, 1985, copies of order to Dale Cable and Harry White

Feb. 28, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 27, 1986, at the time this appeal is to be heard, counsel for the defendant and counsel for the Commonwealth agree that the matter revolves around a bureaucratic mixup in the State of Colorado where the defendant was initially suspended on a DUI count in 1982 but because he left the State of Colorado and moved to Arizona, New Mexico and ultimately Pennsy lvania, he did not realize that he had to technically apply for reinstatement of his operating privileges in Colorado at the end of his one-year suspension. It appears further that the requirement of the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation require that he show eligibilty for reinstatement in Colorado before Pennsylvania will permit his operation on the highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Counsel for the defendant, working through his insurance company, and after numerous consultations with the Colorado Department of Transportation, has assured the Court that the requisite SR-22 Form will be promptly delivered by the defendant's new insurance carrier to the State of Colorado and the proceedings will be instituted to show that he is validly reinstated as a driver in the State of Colorado even throgh he has not resided there since 1982. Counse for the parties agree that equity and justice require that this appeal be sustained once there is evidence in the records of this case that he has technically become a reinstated driver in the State of Colorado.
ACCORDINGLY, with the consent of counsel, this case is continued generally for a period of sixty (60) days and that supersedeas shall remain in effect. Upon production of the requisite documentary proof of his re instatement in the State of Colorado being filed with the records in this case, counsel agree the Court may enter an Order in favor of the defendant sustaining his appeal and directing that his driving privileges be restored without the necessity of further hearing. In the absence of such documentary proof, either side may request a further hearing.
BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.
Mar. 3, 1986 Copies of order to Harry White and Dale Cable.

Mar. 15, 1989 Licensee's Petition For Final Order and Order filed. AND NOW, this 15 day of March, 1989, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition for Final Order, and being satisfied that the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation has,in fact, received the requested SR-22 document, it is hereby ordered and decreed that the Petitioner's license appeal is sustained, his dirving privileges are restored and the Department of Transportation is directed to mark the official records of the Petitioner in such a way as to reflect that he is eligible for a Pennsylvania Driver's License. July 11, 1989 Amended Answers to Plaintiff's Request for Admissions of Fact (First Set) filed.

Aug. 1, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, July 31, 1989, at the time set for argument, the parties amicably resolve the issues surrounding Interrogatory Number 7 as follows: Between 1961 and October 27, 1977, Clair Manufacturing Company was a wholly owned subsidiary company of Chromalloy American Corporation, a Delaware Corporation.

Question Number 16: The Plaintiffs withdraw any objection to the answer in Interrogatory 16.

Question Number 23: In regard to Paragraph 23, the defendants now admit the allegation in Question 23.

Question Number 37: It appears that due to the age of this case, insurance company records are no longer available giving a detailed breakdown of medical expenses. The records in the case contain a letter with attachments from Insurance Company of North America with a notation thereon that medical totals paid to the Plaintiff in this case by the insurance carrier total $13,217.71. Since the company records establishing this total amount are no longer available to anyone, the court directs that this figure be permitted to be shown to the jury, if relevant, or to be used as a valid figure in any subrogation issues in this case.

Questions Number 38 and 39: These paragraphs cover more current medical expenses of the Plaintiff and this date copies of the specific bills enumberated in Questions 38 and 39 have been presented to counsel for the Defendants. Accordingly, any objections to these questions by the Defendants is now withdrawn.

Question Number 67: An amended answer has been filed and this question is no longer at issue.

Question Number 68: Plaintiff agrees that the question should address the period of one hundred thrity-one (131) weeks, not one hundred thrity-three (133) weeks. The objection to Question 68 is amicably resolved as the defendants will admit that the Plaintiff is contending that he lost one hundred thirty-one (131) weeks with a wage loss of $14,373.31, but they will need and demand proof at trial of the causal relationship between the injury and the one hundred thirty-one (131) weeks that he was allegedly unable to work and that this must be established by independent testimony at trial.

Question Number 69: The Defendants' amended answer is satisfactory and this issue is moot.

Question Number 9 through 13: The issue here is the Plaintiff requesting an admission of certain total and net assets during the years at issue. Counsel agree that there could probably be obtained a statement from an appropriate corporate officer that gave the net worth and ability to pay any judgment against the corporation for the years at issue but counsel for the Defendants and counsel for the Plaintiffs agree that the language of these five paragraphs be amended to the end that the questions and answers reflect that Chromalloy American Corporation, during th etime stated in these questions, had sufficient assets to pay any judgment that would have been recovered by the Plaintiffs.

Questions Number 40: Plaintiff's objection to the answer is withdrawn. The answer will stand.

Question Number 41: The Plaintiff has withdrawn objection to this question. No answer is required.

Question Number 45 and 66: This matter is argued extensively and the Court rules as follows: The Defendants admit the Plaintiff was transferred to Hamot Hospital and remained there for a period of approximately September 24, 1974, to October 7, 1974. During this period of time, a Mr. Mir provided extensive surgery and related procedures admittedly in connection with th eindustrial injry sustained.

The thrust of the Defendants' concern is that becuase Dr. Mir's reports have been received, that at the time of trial, counsel for the Plaintiff or the Court may interpret said reports, which were not objected to, as being admissible into evidence. This is not the intention of the parties. The Defendants admit that Dr. Mir performed certain procedures but are unwilling to admit the causation therefor or the details of the same believing that this type of expert testimony can best be covered by answers to interrogatories, depositions, or production of the expert at trial. Accordingly, in conformance with the above, no further answers are requested to Question 45 through 66 by the Defendants.

Questions Number 70: The Defendants filed an amended answer and this issue is resolved.

Question 71 through 77: This issue involves treatment by other physicians, which treatment is not denied by defendants, but is resolved as above by requiring further interrogatories, depositions, or presence of the physician at trial and the Court does not expect the Defendants to admit the causation factor or all of the detailed surgery elecited in separation and independent doctor's reports. All remaining questions regarding medical treatment will be handled as aforesaid in disposing of Questions 45,70, and others.

One other objection is raised by the Plaintiff in the issue under Rule 4014(b), who should be the proper party signing the answers to questions for admissions. It is stipulated by counsel that the record will show all answers will have the same force and effect as if signed by the individual Defendants or their duly authorized representatives.

July 30, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, July 30, 1985, the matter is before the Court on a petition for relief wherein the plaintiff requests an Order allowing her to remove a jointly owned mobile home from its semi-permanent location on the farm of her in-laws. After review of the entire situation and with both parties claiming right to physical possession of the jointly owned mobile home, the Court believes that maintaining the status quo is best under all the circumstances, so that each party may litigate their equitable rights in the jointly owned mobile home as part of the divorce action. The Court notes in this regard that apparently the mobile home is included in a mortgage covering the entire farm property, and that the Defendant/Husband has been paying on this loan to Federal Land Bank from his sole earnings.

The Court is also aware of a support Order entered by Judge Robert L. Walker regarding this matter at D.R. 1984-477.

Accordingly, the Court enteres the following Order:

1. Prayer of the petition id denied, and the Plaintiff is denied the right to remove the mobile home from its present location.

2. The Plaintiff will physically vacate the home and take with her any of her personal possessions, including personal furniture purchased before marriage and vacate the premises on or before August 16, 1985 at 5:00 P.M. In the meantime, the Defendant husband will accord aer a peaceful occupancy of said premises until such date and will take no action to shut off utilities or hamper her occupancy in any fashion.

3. The Court is advise that there will be a further hearing on the nonsupport case scheduled for the month of August, and accordingly, a copy of this order will be forwarded to the Domestic Relations Section.

Mar. 24, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, March 23, 1987, the matter is before the Court on defendant Symons and Hospital's request for sanctions because of failure of the plaintiff to name experts and supply expert reports. The Court ntoes an undue delay between the happening of the accident and the commencing of this action and the Court believes there is no valid or logical reason why the plaintiff could not have by this date been examined by an appropriate expert who would give a written report of his findings.

ACCORDINGLY, on or before May 11, 1987, the plaintiff will answer all Interrogatories relating to the expert witnesses theyintend to call at the time of trial and furnishe a copy of the results of their examination of the plaintiff to counsel for all defendants. In the event the same are not named and reports received by May 11, 1987, the Court will grant a sanction to the effect that at the time of trial, the plaintiff may not call an ecpert or submit any expert reports in presenting her case to the jury.

If the father may choose the weekends which include Memorial Day and Labor Day, in which case his viaitation may be extended until Monday at 6:00 p.m. He may also choose any two consecutive days within said three-day weekends. He may, however, not choose more that one of said three-day weekends in one calendar year.

3. During the Thanksgiving period which is defined to start on the Wednesday preceeding Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. and end on the Sunday after Thanksgiving at 7:00 p.m., the father may choose any two-day period provided that he has given the mother two weeks notice of the period he wishes to select. Said periods may not include Thanksgiving day in any two consecutive years. The Christmas visitation period shall be defined as beginning on Christmas Eve at 12:00 noon and ending on New Year's day at 6:00 p.m. The father may select any two-day interval within said period, provided that he gives the mother two-weeks notice of the interval he selects. Nov. 26, 1985 Emergency Visitation Order filed. AND NOW, November 26, 1985, counsel for the father and counsel for the grandparents meet in emergency session with the Court and advise the Court that the mother, Karen A. McKay took her own life on or about November 22, 1985, and there is disagreement between the grandparents with whom the mother and child lived and the father about temporary and permanent custody.

It appears that a petition will be forthcoming from the father requesting custody, but the immediate problem arises by virtue of the fact the father wishes to take the children with him when he returns to Carlisle, Pennsylvania, this date.

Accordingly, the Court directs that the grandparents surrender custody to the fa father for a temporary visit over the Thanksgiving holiday period and on the specific condition that the father must surrender the children back to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Granda, by 8 p.m., Sunday, December 1. The children shall then remain in the custody of the grandparents until further temporary or permanent order.

This matter is immediately referred back to Custody Mediator William Pineo to schedule a hearing as soon as practicable for a review of the situation in view of the death of the natural mother.

Neither the grandparents nor the father shall attempt to thwart this Order in any fashion, and neither will secret or withold the children to avoid compliance with his Order.

Jan. 24, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, January 22, 1986, the matter comes before the Court from the custody mediator, with a notation that the mediator is not ready at this time to make a final determination of custody and visitation between the children and seemingly, is awaiting further input before making such decision.

The father of the children has separately requested visitations with his children in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for more than the occasional weekend visit temporarily recommended by the mediator. Accordingly, the matter is continued under the jurisdiction of the custody mediator, but the Court grants the following visitations by the father regarding both of his minor children:

The father may have the children between the dates of January 25th and february 4th. It shall be the responsibility of the father to pick up and return the children on this visit and all subsequent visits noted hereafter.

McKay vs. McKay Custody A.D. 1985 - 436

The father may have the children between the dates of February 23rd and March 2nd 2nd, and again between the dates of March 24th and March 31st.

The Court is aware of the difficult working schedules of the father, and in the event it is impossible for the father to pick up and return the children on these precise dates, the parties are DIRECTED and AUTHORIZED to alter these dates by a day or two to accommodate the father's working schedule, so long as the approximate length of the stays is not materially altered.

Neither the father nor his new wife nor the grandparents shall attempt to encourage the children to make a decision as to whether they should live with grandparents or the father, and neither will make derogatory remarks about the other in the children's presence.

The matter is referred back to the custody mediator for such further requirements or interviews or consultations with Doctor Hagamen or some other social agency in order for the mediator to make a recommendation to the Court.

Dec. 21, 1987 Petition For settlement Of a Wrongful Death and Survival Action filed.

Dec. 21, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, this 18 day of Dec., 1987, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition of Ida Jane Schaffner, individually and as Administratrix of the Estate of Bernard P. Schaffner, III, and on behalf of all persons entitled to damages, it is hereby Ordered as follows:

1. The Petitioner shall forthwith execute a release of all claims against all Defendants in this action and on behalf of all Plaintiffs in this action.

2. The defendants shall in return forthwith and in satisfaction of the wrongful death claim pay the sum of $20,625.00 to Ida Jane Schaffner and the su mof $13,750.00 to Anthony J. Vardaro, attonrey for the P laintiffs.

Additionally, the Defendants shall forthwith and in further satisfaction of the Wrongful Death Claim, pay the sum of $20,625.00 to Idi Jane Schaffner, as the natural parent of Kelly Schaffner and the said Ida Jane Schaffner is authorized to receive payment of the said minor's share at this time. The said natural parent, Ida Jane Schaffner is authorized and directed to invest the finds belinging to said minor, Kelly Schaffner, in a concervative manner as previously discussed with representatives of Parker-Hunter in Meadville, Pennsylvania, so long as all records of all investments shall be marked to show that no withdrawal of any kind shall be made from any investment without further order of Court. Ida Jane Schaffner, may, however, conservatively reinvest any invested funds without further order of Court until the minor child reached the age of eighteen years so long as any investments are made in such a manner that the records show that no withdrawal shall take place without further order of Court, it being the intention of the Court to allow the natural parent, Ida Jane Schaffner, to make whatever conservative investment she sees fit over the years on behalf of Kelly Schaffner but not to allow the natural parent to remove any funds of the minor child from said investments for any purpose whatsoever without further order of Court.

In the event that no Court ordered withdrawals are made prior to Kelly Schaffner attaining the age of eighteen years, the natural parent is authorized and directed to pay over all funds held for the minor child, Kelly Schaffner, to the minor child, Kelly Schaffner when she attains the age of eighteen years without further order of this Court.

3. The defendants shall forthwith execute and release of all counterclaims against the Plaintiffs in this action.

5. Petitioner is directed forthwith to cause the above captioned action to be marked settled and discontinued of record in regard to both the Survival Action and the Wrongful Death Action instituted at this number and term. Defendants are directed forthwith to cause the above captioned action to be marked settled and discontinued of record in regard to any counterclaims against the Plaintiffs.

July 11, 1985 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, July 11, 1985, after mediation in the above captioned case and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal custody of their child, Wendy Rose Miller.

2. The child shall generally reside with her mother, the plaintiff. The father shall have the right of visitation every Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The mother shall provide the father with the proper food and clothing for Wendy and shall tell him any special instruction regarding medical care, medicines that Wendy should take, and so forth.

3. Beginning July 1, 1986, the father shall have the right of visitation and temporary custody of his child every weekend, except for the last weekend of each calendar month from Friday at 6:00 p.m. through Sunday at 6:00 p.m. The father shall be expected to provide the child's food but the mother shall provide adequate clothing and continue to give the father any special instructions regarding medicines and so forth.

4. Each party shall disclose to the other all matters related to the child's health, education and welfare, including names and telephone numbers of pediatricians, medicines which are to be taken, and special instructions regarding health care.

5. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children and neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of said child.

6. It is contemplated that as Wendy matures, further provisions will be necessary for custody and visitation and accordingly, the parties shall have the right to renegotiate the terms of this order after December 1, 1986, or upon a substantial change in circumstances at any time. If the matters cannot be negotiated as aforesaid, the matter may be reheard.

7. Costs and fees of this mediation, which are fixed at $80.80, are assessed to Crawford County because the mediator has noted for the court that the mother is on Public Assistance and the father is apparently unemployed and presently has no income. Costs of action are also assessed to Crawford County for the same reasons.

8. Either party may move the court for a hearing de novo for a period of 30 days from the date hereof. Should neither party so moves, this order shall be considered permanent.

CUSTODY, TEMPORARY CUSTODY AND VISITATION

June 5, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1985, the the matter is before the Court for review of Continued placement of the children, and a request by the aunt Theresa Mogami to have either permanent custody or more extended visitations with the children. In addition, the Court is presented this date with an unfiled custody petition by the grandparents seeking custody or extended vistis. The matter is thoroughly reviewed and the Court received input from counsel for the parties, the Court appointed guardian for the children, the children and all persons present. It is the opinion of the Court that the best interest of the children at this time would be continued placement in the Shingler foster home but that there be renewed visits with the aunt Theresa Mogami.

Accordingly, the childre are continued in placement in the Shingler foster home but on the second weekend of every month, commencing with the month of June, 1985 the children will be in the custody of their aunt Theresa from 5:30 p.m., on Friday until 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, except during the summer months when the children are not attending school, the Friday pickup will be at noon instead of 5:30 p.m.

In addition, the aunt may call once a week between 5:30 and 6:00 o'clock on a day of her choosing and the Shinglers will make arrangements for the children to be available to talk in person on the telephone with their aunt.

Insofar as Christmas is concerned, aunt Theresa may have the children in her custody on December 24th each year from noon until 8:00 p.m.

On all visits by Theresa, it shall be her responsibility to pick up and return the children.

The Court denies the petition of the grandparents for custody or extended visitations but has no objection to the grandparents visiting in the home of aunt Theresa or the children visiting in the home of the grandparents even for an overnight stay on the second weekend of every month when they are in the custody of aunt Theresa. The petition is returned to counsel for the grandparents for filing in the Prothonotary Office and a copy of this juvenile order will be filed in the Prothonotary Office as disposition of that petition.

The Court notes the confusion in the children's mind because of the present incarceration of their mother and the mother hopes that when released on parole she will secure immediate custody of the children. The Court has advised all parties and the children that there is no guarantee they will return to the custody of their mother upon her release from confinement and that the Court will require a stable period of living on behalf of the mother before it will even consider a request from her to resecure custody of her children. In this regard, the foster family, aunt Theresa and the grandparents are all cautioned that the children must comply and all parties must comply with the order this day entered and none of the parties are to attempt to influence the children in an effort to get the order changed.

Nov. 4, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1985, at the time set to argue preliminary objections, counsel for the parties appear, and the Court generally continues this argument, because of the confused state of this lawsuit, some of which we note below:

1. The original preliminary objections were filed to the original Complaint and after the filing of said preliminary objections, an Amended Complaint was filed on or about August 27, 1985, The Court and counsel for the Defendant are uncertain as to which of the preliminary objections to the original Complaint are now germane for resolution as ot relates to the Amended Complaint.

2.The issue of venue in the Crawford County Courts appears to be at issue of the fact that counsel for the Defendant Attorney contends that since the thrust of the Amended Complaint is negligent legal advice, which presumptively was given in Erie County, that proper venue should be Erie County.

On the other hand, counsel for Marie Ingram contends that the thrust of this lawsuit, involves the drilling of three gas wells in Crawford County, and since the bad advice arose in connection woth these three wells, that Crawford County should have jurisdiction.

3. It now further appears at argument that counsel for Marie Ingram advises the Court and opposing counsel that Marie Ingram and Ingram Enterprises, Inc. are in bankruptcy and that this suit was brought at the direction or at least the sugg0 estion of the bankruptcy trustee.

The issue then arises as to whether the suit should have been brought in the name of the trustee or at least the trustee should be named as a Party Plaintiff in this lawsuit.

With all of this confusion, counsel for the Defendant has requested a general continuance of any argument until depositions can be taken of Marie Ingram to assist in clarifying objections to the Amended Complaint are in order.

Counsel for the Defendant proposes very limited depositions to these issues, and there appears to be no objection to this proceeding by counsel for Marie Ingram.

However, counsel for Marie Ingram advises that she has now become a permanent reisdent of Naples, Florida, and that if she is to come here for the purpose of taking depositions, that they should be bifurcated with a separate set of depso-itions addressing venue, proper parties, and the basis of her complaint of neg-ligence against the attorney. After a separate set of depositions on these issues, counsel for the Defendant then suggests that further general depositions that may be applicable the same time to eliminate the inconvenience and expense of a second trip from Florida. Counsel for Defendant has no objection to proceeding in this fashion.

Accordingly, we enter the following Order:

AND NOW, October 28, 1985, the Court authorizes taking depositions as agreed by the parties, generally continues this argument and DIRECTS that if after the taking of depositions preliminary objections are appropriate to the Amended Complaint, the same will be filed. In the event other motions are appropriate in the view of Defendant's counsel, the same will be filed. When there is an arguable issue again raised by new pleadings after the depositions are taken, either party may petition to have the same put on the next argument list or be listed for special argument before the Court.

The Court in its descussion and Order did not intend that any requisite deposlitons to clarify the issues are limited to Marie Ingram, and either party ma may take depositions of any other person. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

2. The Defendant has expressed concern to the Court regarding taking the Child into establishments licensed for the sale of alcoholic beverages, and we essentially agree that the is not the proper environment for a child of this age, but find that it would be difficult to frame an Order that would permit having a meal in a restaurant that happens to be licensed for the sale of alcoholic beverages, and forvi forbid taking the child into bars. We, therefor, caution the Plaintiff that the Court will take a dim view of taking the child into establishments that are primarily bars as opposed to restaurants, and in the event the freedom allowed by the present Order is abused, we will permit the Defendant to request a modification limited to this issue.

Jan. 30, 1990 AND NOW, Jan. 29, 1990, the original Order of May 10, 1985 as amended by previous Orders is continued in full force and effect with the following modifications:

Mar. 4, 1991 Contempt Petition and Order filed. And Now, March 4, 1991, hearing on Plaintiff's Contempt Petition is scheduled for April 3, 1991, at 11:00 a.m. o'clock in Courtroom number 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania.

By the Court,

Mar. 6, 1991 Copies of order put in Emil Spadafore, Mary Ann Kirkpatrick and Terry Toomey's box.

April 5, 1991 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 4, 1991 the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation wherein the Plaintiff is contending that in the final amicable divorce decree, she was impliedly awarded ownership of two crypts at Roselawn Memorial Gardens. The Plaintiff presents to the Court a list purportedly listing numerous personal possessions which she apparently claims belonged to her and were not marital property. Apparently, some or all of these items had been removed as part of the amicable resolution of the divorce by a consent final decree signed July 25, 1990. Plaintiff is contending that under paragraph 4 thereof and in accord with her personal list of personal property, it was intended that the two crypts be included as personal property awarded to the Plaintiff as part of the final decree.

On the other hand, the Defendant and his counsel contend that they never saw the Plaintiff's list of personal property which contained a listing of the two crypts with a total valuation of $1,286.19, and that her inventory and appraisement filed as part of the records in this case contains an item titled "Miscellaneous Household Goods and other Personalties in the possession of Betty I. Wagner" totalling $2,270.69. It is the position of the Defendant that the aforesaid crypt does not constitute miscellaneous household goods and other personalties within the intention of the parties at the time they entered into the final decree.

The thrust of the Plaintiff's contempt is, it was her intent and the Defendant's intent that she have possession and ownership of the two crypts, regardless of the record in the case. It is the Defendant's contention that the crypts were not an item listed in the official record of the case, that he knew that he did not intend to have the same disposed of under Paragraph 4 of the Consent Final Decree or any other paragraph of the final decree, and that accordingly, the two crypts, which he alleges he paid for, remain as undistributed marital property.

The Plaintiff contends that there may be testimony produced at the master's hearing, which has never been transcribed because of the settlement, that would clarify that issue.

Accordingly, the Court declines to hold the Defendant in contempt, continues the case generally, and if the Plaintiff wishes to pursue the matter by way of full hearing, she must first produce (if available) that portion of the master's hearing testimony which would further enlighten the Court, counsel, and the parties as to whether or not the final decree intended to award the two crypts to the wife.

Either party may petition the Court for further hearing.

Sept. 4, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, September 3, 1986, after further hearing in conneciton with the petition to hold the Defendant in contempt, the Defendant is adjudicated in willful and flagrant contempt of the order of this court datedjune 19, 1986, requiring him to pay Master's and stenographic expenses and to begin making payments on his wife's counsel fees. Oct. 4, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, October 3, 1985, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that the Defendant violated the terms and conditions of a prior Order by annoying, harassing and chasing his wife to the extent that it ended up in criminal charges of recklessly endangering filed in Venango County. Wife is not seeking incarceration as a punishment and even though the Court cancelled child visitation, the wife voluntarily made arrangements for the fathe to see the children.

Accordingly, the Court postpones any punishment for being in wilful contempt of a prior Court Order, but cautions the Defendant that any further violations will result in a jail sentence.

The parties mutually agree that the father may have the children every other weekend from Friday at 3:30 P.M. until Sunday at 8:00 P.M., providing he takes the children to the home of his mother as their primary location. He shall made arrangements for some other person to pick up and return the children, as the wife is fearful that his presence on or near her premises will lead to arguments and further threats. If after a period of three months the Defeddants conduct has been exemplary, and there has been no threats, annoyment or harassment of the wife, the Court will consider his request to allow him to personally pick up the children and return them to the residence of the mother.

Visitation shall become effective every other weekend commencing with the weekend of October 4, 1985.

Mar. 13, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, March 7, 1986, at the time set for hearing on alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, expenses and other matters raided orally, the parties mutually agree without the necessity of a hearing and in order to facilitate the divorce to be expedited as follows:

Commencing with the month of March, 1986, the defendant will pay directly to his wife on or before the 15th of each and every month the sum of #200.00 as alimony pendente lite. The husband will continue to pay the utilities, insurance, real estate tazed and telephone bill on the family home now occupied by the wife and she may continue to occupy the same unless agreed otherwise by the parties or until ultimate divorce decision in this case. Husband will pay the automobile insurance on the car driven by the wife and he agrees that he will not take steps to terminate health coverage insurance carried through his present company. The parties discuss the failure of the husband to comply with an Order of March 7, 1985 regarding accounting for saleand any expenses involved in the sale of horses and related equipment, and the husband this date agrees that within seven days of this date, he will make a complete accounting of all sales to date encompassed by Judge Walker's Order of March 7, 1985. The husband agrees to pay through his wife and then directly to counsel for the plaintiff the sum of $500.00 in counsel fees within ninety (90) days of this date, with this order being made without pejudigce to the right of the Master and ultimately the Court to allocate counsel fees of both parties between each other in an equitable manner.

The parties mutually agree that Ed Kaufman will be employed to appraise the real estate involved in this divorce action and Bruce Nicols will be employed to appraise the personal property involved. The husband has agreed to pay these appraisal expenses. The parties mutually agree to be bound by the aforesaid appraisers, but if each party believes the appraisal is entirely out of line, they may have the privilege of procuring an additional appraiser at their own expense only if the Court allows and the Court finds as a fact that said additional appraisal is needed and is not requested for the purposes of delay.

There appears to be a %5,000.00 repayment of a loan check in possession of the husband and the parties mutually agree that the wife will endorse the check within seven (7) days, and in return for which, she will get $3,000.00 of the net proceeds. It appears there is another interest check connected with this loan and the parties mutually agree that the husband may keep said interest check and she will endorse the same if necessary, but will receive a photocopy of the same.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW MASTER:

It appears the Master Gary Fabian has disclosed that his associate previously consulted with one of the parties and questioned whether the parties desired that he continue to serve as master. The defendant requests the Court to appoint a new Master, and accordingly, Master Gary Fabian is removed from responsibility to serve in this case and in his place, Gordon R. Miller is hereby appointed. In the event Master Fabian incurred any expenses, he will forward a bill for the for the same to New Master, Gordon R. BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

June 26, 1985, copies of order to Attys. J. Bozic, and M. Kirkpatrick.

June 28, 1985, Affidavit of Consent of defendant filed.

July 24, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, July 23, 1985, the matter is before the Court on Alimony Pendente Lite petition plys ancillary counsel fees and expenses The matter is handled informally and it appears that net take-home pay of the defendant is approximately $2,500.00 per month at his employment in the state of Michigan. The only income attributable to the wife is a $700.00 monthly payment which she receives on property owned by the husband in Michigan but which he voluntarily allows her to receive

The thrust of the defendant's posture is that he is willing to procure appraisals in undertaken that the plaintiff wife will continue to fail to file an affidavit of consent so the divorce can move forward to conclusion. The wife and her counsel assure the Court that once appraisals are made and valuation of property at issue are ascertained, there will be no delay in filing the consent.

Accordingly, commencing with the month of July, 1985, the defendant will pay Alimony Pendente Lite in the amount of $300.00 per month to his wife for the months of July, August and September. No further payment will be made without the consent of the Court.

In addition, the defendant husband agrees he will continue to permit the wife to receive the aforesaid $700.00 payment on the Article of Agreement covering the Michigan property.

It is impossible for the Court at this time to estimate past and furture attorney's fees but on or before September 1, 1985, the defendant will pay to counsel for the plaintiff the sum of $200.00, this amount without prejudice to the right of the Court to order further attorney's fees if the matter is undly delayed or to allocate between the parties equitable attorney's fees at the time the divorce is granted.

The husband agrees to assume the responsibility of getting appraisals for the Michigan property and an extensive farm property in Crawford County. The parties mutually agree that appraiser Ed Kaufman will be obtained to do the appraisal and if he is unavailable, counsel forthe parties will agree on another appraiser for the Crawford County properties. The wife has no preference for an appraiser in the state of Michigan in view of the fact it is impossible at this time to ascertain which party may end up with ownership of the Michigan property. The Court directs the defendant to procure a reputable appraiser to appraise the Michigan property. All appraisals will be completed on or before September 1, 1 1985 and copies of the appraisals will be given both parties.

Once the appraisals are completed, the Court anticipates an affidavit of consent will be promptly filed as both parties have evidenced a desire to expedite this through the courts. The Court would not be receptive to delaying tacties by either, party for the purpose of cancelling Alimony Pendente Lite or continuing the same.

The issue of child support cannot be resolved at this time and the parties apparently having raised the custody issue in the divorce action are attempting to negotiate a resolution of visitation or custody and the Court urges the parties to resolve the accompanying child support issue as well.

It appears there is some machinery and equipment located on the Crawford County premises claimed by the husband. The husband will arrange for an appropriate appraiser to appraise said property and the wife will accord the appraiser access to all said property and not interfere with said appraisals. A copy of the appraisals will be furnished to the opposite party.

To meet treasury regulations, it is stipulated by the parties, in the event of the death of the wife, the alimony shall be cancelled as of the date of death.

Oct 24, 1991 Order filed: AND NOW, October 23, 1991, the visitation Order previously entered is modified so that weekend visits will run from 12:00 o'clock noon on Saturdays until 8:00 o'clock p.,. on Sundays.

Since that weekends have been shortened, we will expect the parties to agree on at least one (1) school night per week dependent upon the the child's social activities for that night, the father's working schedule and the like, but we would encourage both parties to work those out on relatively short notice.

This case will be reviewed by the Court at the request of any party in interest sometime shortly after January 1, 1992.

Feb. 10, 1995 Motion for Hearing De Novo and ORDER OF COURT filed. AND NOW, February 22, 1995, a hearing de novo is scheduled for March 8, 1995 at 9:15 A.M. in courtroom 1 or 2.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J.Vardaro, J.

March 13, 1995 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 8, 1995, at the time scheduled for de novo hearing on the custody issue, counsel and the Court review the extensive past history of the case and the various periods of time when the child was with natural father and mother. The Court reviews the matter with the Juvenile in chambers with counsel and notes that she is now in counseling and, apparently, with the consent of both parents, she will continue such counseling.

The Order previously entered January 30, 1995, is continued in general force and effect, but with the following modifications:

1. The One (1) weekend visit per month with the father shall continue the first weekend of every month commencing with the month of April, 1995.

2. In the month of March, the Juvenile will have a visit with her father on Sunday, March 12th, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m., and the Court leaves to the discretion of the father place and conditions of said visits primarily awarded to accord some time when father and daughter may enjoy each other's company in private.

The Sunday visits between father and child except for the month of March as noted aforesaid shall continue on a monthly basis, and unless changed by amicable agreement between mother and father, shall occur on the third Sunday of every month.

Commencing with the month of April, 1995, weekend visits beteen 7:00 p.m. Friday and 7:00 p.m. Sunday shall commence April 7 - 9, 1995, and monthly thereafter.

3. In addition, the father is accorded one (1) complete summer week with the child commencing at Sunday Noon and terminating the following Sunday at Noon.

In an effort to accommodate the father's vacation time, and the mother's vacation time, the father shall be required to notify the mother on or before June 15th of each year the precise week that he will exercise visitational custody of the minor child.

4. The Court notes that the child has had some expensive dental work in the form of braces on her teeth for some period of time and, apparently, the parents at one time agreed on the division of the cost thereof, but the father fell behind in his financial responsibilities. The father now advises he has made an arrangement to make regular monthly payments on said bill.

The parents are uncertain as to whether the current braces should continue in place or should be removed, and it shall be the responsibility of the mother to arrange for an examination or consultation with the dentist to make certain the braces are removed in a timely fashion.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 4, 1986, copies of order to Attys. John Bozic, and M. Kirkpatrick.

Feb. 26, 1986, Answer to Counterclaim, filed.

Feb. 26, 1986, Motion to Continue and Order of Continuance filed. ORDER OF CONTINUANCE: Both parties to this combined divorce and support problem now are residents of other states but resolving the support, custody and divorce problems remain the obligation of the Crawford County Courts.

In the support action the hearing officer awarded child support for their one child in the amount of $295.00 per month, plus $100.00 per month on arrears, but denied spousal support. After the hearing officer's decision, the Defendant Husband filed exceptions contending that the mother of the child was concealing the child's whereabouts, that the shared custody and visitation rights accorded in the divorce action were not being complied with, that wife's earning capacty was not considered by the hearing officer and that the husband has incurred considerable legal expense in enforcing his custody rights, which should be deducted from support payments.

A hearing was originally set for February 3, 1986, but on motion of the wife was continued until March 3, 1986, with the admonishment that the mother must strictly comply with all conditions of the Custody Order. It now appears that counsel for plaintiff wife will not be available March 3 due to hospital admission for surgery. Accordingly, motions have been filed by the wife to continue the hearing set for March 3, which would have disposed of both the custody and visitation issue and the husband's exceptions filed in the child support case.

The hearing set for March 3, 1986 is continued to April 1,1986, at 2:00 P.M. with the Court noting the following:

1. All support orders heretofore entered shall be strictly complied with.
2. The custody and visitaion orders heretofore entered shall be strictly complied with.
3. The mother shall immediately notify the father of her present address and telephone number and keep the father advised of any changes therein.
4. The court advises counsel that there will be no further continuances of this case by reason of unavailability of counsel as the Court believes other members of respective counsel firms could be substituted if present counsel become unavailable for the April 1 hearing date.

Dated: Feb. 26, 1986

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 27, 1986, copies of order to Attys. John Bozic, and M. Kirkpatrick.

April 3, 1986, Order filed: AND NOW, April 1, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a de novo hearing on the support, plus an attack on the jurisdiction over the Defendant in the support action. The matter is also before the court on a contempt in the divorce action relating to visitation order entered.

After informal input from the parties and their counsel, the Court is advised that the parties and their counsel, after conference, have agreed to resolve all of the issues in these categories before the Court as follows:

In regard to the support order, the same shall be modified to the extent that the support obligation of the father for his minor son is modified to the sum of $270.00 per month effective September 1, 1985. Accordingly, the Domestic Relations Section is directed to re-compute the support obligation based on this modified agreement. The parties agree that upon re-computation, there will be arrearages due and commencing with the month of April 1986, the Defendant will pay the aforesaid support Order in the amount of $270.00 per month plus additional $75.00 to apply on the arrears until the arrears are brought current. Said payments will be made on or before the 5th of April, 1986, and every month thereafter until further Court Order or emancipation of the minor.

The defendant agrees that the Court, in entereing this order, does so on the basis that he has waived any right to attack the venue or jurisdiction of this court to rule on the Domestic Relations action this date or regarding any further proceedings on the support order in the future.

Insofar as the visitation and custody contempt citation is concerned, the parties agree the father shall withdraw the contempt citation and abandon any contention that the mother should be held in contempt because of a mixup over the Christmas visitation for the 12 year old child.

The parties mutually agree to modify the visitation order previously entered to the effect that Paragraph 7 thereof regarding the division of costs of transportation for the minor child on the visitation will be stricken from the agreement and substituted therefore will be a condition that on all visits between the father and the child requiring transportation of the child, the father will underwrite the transportation expenses both ways and the mother will bear the responsibility of the costs of getting the child to the airport or other transportation facility to accommodate the visit.

June 13, 1986, RE: MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY AND SANCTIONS - MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 12 day of June 1986, the Court sustains objections to Defendant's requests for the accountant work papers of Lake Shore, Inc., Lynn Summers and Clairmont Summers.

The Court sustains objections to Defendant's request for the individual state and federal income tax returns of Lynn Summers and Clairmont Summers because of the availability of other documents and alternate discovery procedures.

The Court finds that at the time of oral argument on March 31, 1986, the parties resolved all other discovery requests and objections thereto.

We direct the parties to make mutually convenient arrangements for the Defendant to inspect the minute books, compensation records and financial information of Lake Shore at Plaintiff's counsel's offices in Erie, Pa. If after inspecting said documents Defendant feels a need to do so, the Court will entertain a motion to allow an expert to inspect said documents to opine as to the documents' authenticity.

Plaintiffs have indicated that they have or will send Defendant a copy of Lake Shore's 1984 State Tax return.

Plaintiffs have indicated that they will redraft responses to Defendant's request No. 6 to Lake Shore, Defendant's request No. 9 to Lynn Summers and Defendants' request No. 9 to Clairmont Summers regarding documents relating to Lake Shore and Utility Constructors, Inc.

Oct.19, 1988, RE: PRAECIPE FOR GRANTING OF A §201(c) DIVORCE - ORDER filed. And Now, Oct. 18, 1988, the matter is before the court for granting of a divorce. It appears this bitterly contested three and one-half year old divorce has finally been resolved by agreement between the parties, and the only issue remaining for court resolution is the grant of a §201(c) divorce. The custody count in the original complaint was resolved through a custody mediator and is no longer an issue.

We are advised by the Prothonotary's Office that there still remains due the sum of $60.40 by the defendant as his share of mediaton costs. The file in the divorce action contains a notice to this effect dated July 27, 1987 which was mailed to Monty S. Cancilla, R. D. 1, Russett Drive, Meadville, Pa., but was returned to the Courthouse as there was no forwarding address left by the defendant. We assume had this notice reac hed the defendant this sum would have been paid.

Accordingly, following the crawford County practive of not granting divorces when unpaid costs remain outstanding, we will delay the granting of this divorce until the aforesaid sum of $60.40 is paid to the Prothonotary's Office by the defendant. Upon payment of the same the Prothonotary will return this divorce file tothe court and no new praecipe requesting the grant of a divorce will be required by either party.
