So answers, E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

PER CURIAM

Aug. 10, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 6, 1981, at the time set for hearing, it appears that a support order in the amount of Thirty-Five ($35.00) Dollars per week has been previously entered to which exceptions have been filed, which is currently scheduled for hearing August 27, 1981. However, counsel for the Defendant advises that she will be out of town on vacation and there will be a motion to continue said hearing. In view of the fact that a support order is in existence, the Court declines at this time to award alimony pendente lite or counsel fees until the exceptions are disposed of and an ultimate support order entered. We reserve to the Plaintiff, however, the right even after the final entry of the support order to petition for rehearing on the issue of alimony pendente lite.

As far as counsel fees are concerned, the Court believes that the Defendant should pay counsel fees in the amount of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars with said sum to be paid on or before September 10, 1981. In entering the amount of counsel fees the Court reserves the right to entertain petitions for additional counsel fees and reserves the right to either require the parties themselves to pay additional counsel fees in proportionate amounts, or reserves the right to instruct the Master to pay counsel fees from the marital property upon an ultimate recommendation from the Master on the property settlement and resolution of the permanent alimony issue.

July 22, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 22, 1981, after a mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, and upon agreement of the parties, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

1. Custody of Shaun Michael McKinsey and Douglas Keith McKinsey shall be with their mother, Cherylin A. Moyer, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the children with him for a period of three hours Friday evening, July 17, 1981, from 6:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M.

B. The father shall be able to visit and take the children with him from 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Sunday, August 2, 1981; Sunday, August 9, 1981; Sunday, August 23, 1981, and Sunday August 30, 1981.

C. The father shall have a right to take the children in his custody every other weekend beginning with Friday, September 11, 1981, from 7:00 P.M., Friday evening to 7:00 P.M. D. Holidays, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows: Holidays shall be Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving and Christmas. The father shall have custody of the children on Thanksgiving Day of 1981 and Easter Sunday of 1982 and the mother shall have custody of the children on Christmas Day of 1981 and July 4th of 1982. In 1982, if this order has not been previously changed, the mother shall have custody of the children on Thanksgiving Day of 1982 and the father shall have custody of the children on Christmas Day of 1982.

E. The parties shall continue to alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner if this order has not been previously changed.

If the birthday falls on a day when the father is working, then the father shall have custody of the children on their respective birthdays from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. on such birthdays.

I. On the birthdays on which the father is entitled to custody, the mother shall have the children in her custody on the evening before from 4:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. prevailing times.

M. May 30, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, May 28, 1986, at the time the Juveniles David Dooley and Michael Dooley are back before the Juvenile Court on Theft charges, the Court notes that it is reported that Richard W. Dooley, has left the jurisdiction of this Court and now resides in the State of Virginia but has had no contact with the two children involved in this custody action.

In November of 1985, a Court order was entered awarding shared custody to the two children to the mother and the father but is now appears that said order is in need of change.

Accordingly, in view of the lack of interest of the father in the children and the fact that he contributes no support for the children any custodial rights accorded to Richard W. Dooley under prior orders is hereby rescinded and canceled and the Court hereby directs that the father may not take custody of the or remove them from the jurisdiction of this court without further order of the Court permitting him to do so.

July 28, 1981, Affidavit re: Service of Complaint filed. Personally appeared before me, a notary public in and for said State and County, at Titusville, Pa., Anthony B. Marceca, a duly qualified Constable in and for the State of Pennsylvania, who, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he served a true and attested copy of the Complaint in Divorce (same having been certified by James F. Simmons, Prothonotary, as such) on Robert K. Lewis, Defendant, personally at 5:56 P.M., on July 9, 1981, at his place of residence, Water Street, Hydetown, Crawford County Pa., by reading the same to him and making known the contents of same and leaving said true and attested copy with him. Anthony B. Marceca.

Oct. 9, 1981, RE: Motion For Appointment of Master, and Order filed. ORDER: A Complaint was filed in this case June 19, 1981. The Grounds for Divorce are indignities and irretrievably broken marriage under 201(c) of the Divorce Code. No affidavits have been filed by either party required by 201(c). Neither party has filed income and expense statements in accord with Divorce Rule 1920.31.

In view of the foregoing, we consider the appointment of a Master premature at this time and decline to appoint a Master. The Court further observes that the issue of alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs must be resolved and the Court believes this matter can be more expeditiously handled by requesting a hearing before a judge than referring to a Master. Accordingly, upon the filing of income and expense statements by both parties within twenty (20) days of this date, the Court will entertain a motion to set a hearing to consider alimony pendente lite and counsel fees.

Upon the filing of income and expense statements and the appropriate affidavits, the Court will reconsider a motion requesting the appointment of a Master to determine the award of permanent alimony.

Date: October 8, 1981.

Jan. 4, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, December 29, 1981, after hearing, the defendant is ordered to file his required income and expense statement on or before January 8, 1981.

The defendant is directed to pay Alimony Pendente Lite in the amount of $100.00 per month for the months of January, February and March of 1982 only, payable or or before the 15th day of each month, provided, however, that if the defendant's income and expense statement is not filed timely in accordance with this order, the period of Alimony Pendente Lite shall be extended to April 1982 in addition to the months herein provided, or until a final decree is entered whichever shall first occur.

The defendant is directed to pay the sum of $150.00 towards counsel fees for the plaintiff, reserving to the Court the right to modify the order reqarding counsel fees at the end of the litigation. Counsel fees shall be paid at the rate of not less than $50.00 per month.

Immediately upon the filing of the income and expense statement of the defeddant, either party may move for the appointment of a master to determine the factual issues that appear from the pleadings.

This order is made without prejudice to the right of either party to contest the exixtence of a common law marriage between the parties and the fact that a temporary order for Alimony Pendente Lite and counsel fees is entered should not be contrued as a final determination by the Court that such a marriage exists but such award is to afford the plaintiff an opportunity to litigate this issue.

C. Beginning with the summer of 1982, the father shall be able to take the minor child into his custody for one month each summer, provided that the father shall give the mother at least thirty days notice of such one-month period.

D. The father shall promptly make an appointment with Dr. Kay Anderson to have the child tested and evaluated at the father's expense and the father shall furnish the mother with a copy of the report, and results of the test and evaluation.

Nov. 13, 1981 Order Filed. And Now, November 11, 1981, the matter having been referred to the Court to grant a divorce under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code and the Court noting that a Petition for Special Relief was filed by the defendant on November 6, 1981, upon which petition Judge Robert L. Walker, set a hearing for November 23, 1981, the Court finds this matter is not in a posture at this time to consider the plaintiff's request to grant a divorce.
Accordingly, the matter is returned to the Prothonotary's Office without prejudice to the right of eigher party to praecipe for Court review in future.
By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 1, 1981, Exhibits filed.

Dec. 1, 1981, Order filed. AND NOW, Nov. 30, 1981, after hearing, the defendant is awarded alimony pendente lite in the sum of $90.00 per month and temporary counsel fees in the amount of $200.00. Alimony pendente lite shall be payable on or before the 7th day of each month and the counsel fees required hereunder shall be payable on or before December 31, 1981. The Court reserves the right to make further adjustment of counsel fees at a later date.
While the Court normally does not hear divorce actions directly but refers them to a Master, an exception is made in this case because of the legal problems involved and the Court's familiarity with the case. A hearing is scheduled before the Court on all remaining issues on January 7, 1982 at 9:30 o'clock A.M. in Courtroom No. 2, Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.
The defendant shall file a trial brief on the issue of her right to equitable distribution, particularly in light of the agreements that were under consideration in an earlier case in this Court at No. 1 February Term, 1979 In Equity and the decision of the Court therein; said brief to be filed on or before Dec. 15, 1981. The plaintiff shall file a reply brief on the same issue on or before December 29, 1981.
While we recognize the right of the Court to bifurcate the issues in divorce proceedings, we deem it a discretionary right and will decline to exercise that discretion in this case.
It would appear that neither party has filed income and expense statements under Pa. R.C.P. 1920.31, or inventory and appraisements under Pa. R.C.P. 1920.33. Such statements were due and should have been filed thirty days and sixty days respectively after August 21, 1981. Each party is, therefore, directed to file such statements on or before December 7, 1981 and any answer to either statement which the other party wishes to file shall be filed on or before Jan. 6, 1982.

Dec. 2, 1981, Copies of Order to Atty. Henry E. Rea, and John Pepicelli.

Dec. 3, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 25, 1981, at the time a petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, counsel fees and other ancillary matters is scheduled for hearing, the parties acting through their counsel amicably resolved the issues raised therein as follows:

1. The defendant will pay directly to the plaintiff temporary Alimony Pendente Lite in the amount of $250.00 per week commencing with the week of Nov. 29, 1981, with said payments to continue until the plaintiff removes herself permanently from the present residence of the parties.
2. The defendant will continue to pay the usual bills accrued in maintenance of the residence dwelling.
3. The parties mutually agree that the plaintiff will report the aforesaid temporary alimony as income for state and federal income tax purposes and the defendant may claim said payments as a deduction. However, the parties agree that the defendant will reimburse the plaintiff in an amount equal to her tax liability within ten (10) days to receipt of a copy of the wife's state and federal income tax returns.
4. The plaintiff agrees she will remove herself from the residence on or before January 7, 1982.
5. Commencing the date the plaintiff removes herself permanently from the residence, the defendant will pay her the sum of $2,750.00 as a monthly payment of temporary Alimony Pendente Lite and he will continue to pay said sum on the monthly anniversary date of her moving or a pro rata share thereof until April 1, 1982, at which time no further payments are due with the parties anticipating that their differences will be resolved by said date.
In regard to the aforesaid monthly payment of $2,750.00, the same arragement regarding income tax reporting and payment as noted in paragraph #3 above will apply.
6. In the event the matters are not resolved this order is entered without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to move the Court for hearing on the original petition filed Oct. 28, 1981 or file a new petition for additional Alimony Pendente Lite.
7. The parties mutually agree that upon the wife leaving the household to establish residence elsewhere, she may take with her such household furniture as she determines will be needed to establish comfortable living arrangements in a new residence. The parties mutually agree that furniture and other items will not be removed by the plaintiff solely for the purpose of sale at a profit.
8. The billing for attorney fees attached to the aforesaid petition will be paid within seven (7) days and said fees shall cover all counsel fees incurred by the plaintiff up to and including Oct. 21, 1981. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to submit a request for additional counsel fees for work done after the aforesaid date.
9. In regard to the request for accountant fees, no action is taken at this time by agreement of the parties but the plaintiff reserves the right to petition the Court for a decision of this item after any such expenses have been incurred.
10. The parties agree they will mutually try to resolve the ultimate property division by further conferences between themselves and counsel, but if this matter cannot be amicably resolved, the matter may be referred back to the Court for such action as may be necessary or for ultimate disposition of issues framed by further pleadings but said motion or petition to the Court may not be filed until after March 1, 1982.

Mar 28, 1984 Plaintiff's Answer to Defendant's Affidavit Under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code filed.

Apr. 10, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 5, 1984, after conference with counsel in chambers and exploration of the legal and factual issues with the Court, counsel are in agreement that the Court dispose of the motions before the Court this date without the necessity of a hearing. ACCORDINGLY, in regard to the petition by the defendant for exclusive possession of the marital household now occupied by the defendant, the Court is advised that there are no legal compelling reasons why the plaintiff should have access to the marital household now occupied by the defendant, and in view of the original agreement between the parties, which possession was surrendered by agreement to the defendant and the other ancillary Orders entered by the Court in this case, the Court deems it equitable and just to grant the prayer of the petition, and accordingly, the plaintiff Eleanor A. Petruso is precluded from occupation of the marital premises in which the defendant Sandy B. Petruso resides unless she is specifically invited to come to said premises by the defendant.

In regard to the petition to compel the filing of an affidavit of consent under Section 201(c) of the Code, counsel for theplaintiff assures the Court that in view of the alimony and other rights accorded to her client, there is no intention to pursue the matter toward ultimate conclusion and equitable division and then decline to file said affidavit. HOWEVER, the Court feels in all fairness to the defendant and defense counsel as they proceed to explore the possibitities of amicable settlement of the matter and to propare for an ultimate Master's hearing that the issues should be clearly and precisely clarified so that there is no possibility that the plaintiff will decline to proceed. ACCORDINGLY, the Court grants the prayer of the petition and directs that within twenty (20) days, the appropriate affidavit of consent required by Section 201(c) will be filed in this case.

Another issue raised in the proceedings is a request for the Court to establish the exact date of separation of the parties at the request of the defendant and in view of the Court's Order requiring the filing of the aforesaid affidavit, counsel for the defendant advises that this renders their request moot and the request for the Court to make a determination of the exact date of separation between the parties is not necessary. The Order determining the issue of the date of separation is moot insofar as it relates to the procedural aspects of a divorce on the grounds of compatibility, but the Court declines to act on the same without prejudice to the right of either party to raise subsequently before the Master or the Cour an issue of fact as to the exact date of separation as it may relate to individual or joint property rights of the parties.

The Court's attention is directed to the fact that the plaintiff desires permission to enter the marital residence for the purpose of removing personal clothing, sewing items, ceramic items and items originally belonging to her father which are apparently stored in the attic. The Court directs counsel for the parties to set a date and time within the next ten (10) days for the accomplishment of this task.

Irwin as Master to decide the issues of a201(c) divorce, equitable distribution permanent alimony, allocation of counsel fees and costs.

In view of the assets in this case, the Court will not require either party to file a deposit guaranteeing payment of Master fees and costs but grants to the appointed Master the right to allocate said costs between the parties in such manner as he deems appropriate in making his report to the Court. In the meantime, however, the Master may periodically petition the Court to enter an order against either or both parties to pay expenses incurred by the Master such as Court reporter expenses, appraisal expenses, experts employed by the Master expenses and other expenses which must be paid before ultimate resolution of this case. In the event the matter becomes protracted, the Master may also petition the Court for periodic payments for services performed. Dec. 5, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, December 3, 1984, at the time set for argument on other matters, the Court's attention is directed to the fact that the Plaintiff/Wife in 1981 consulted with another member of the Master's firm regarding the possibility of divorce and was referred by Attorney Charles Swick to outside counsel specializing in domestic relations matters in the City of Pittsburgh. The Master has called this contract with another member of his firm three years ago to the attention of both counsel and counsel for the Plaintiff has no objection to the continued service of the Master Irwin. The Court DIRECTS counsel for the Defendant to again consult with his client now that the contact with the firm three years ago has been fully explored and see if there is any objection to the present appointed Master serving. Counsel for the Defendant will notify the Court in writing by December 10, 1984 whether or not they oppose the continued service of Master James Irwin in this case.

RE: MOTION TO CONTINUE ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE

AND NOW, December 3, 1984, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the parties felt the matter would be resolved by argument, but it appears that further testimony may be needed and neither the Plaintiff, who appeared, brought the necessary financial figures to testify accurately, and the Defendant, believing it was inly legal argument, did not appear. Accordingly, the alimony Order previously entered is continued indefinitely in the future without prejudice to the right of either party to petition the Court for reduction or termination or increase if it appears that equity, justice or delaying tacties by either party comes into focus in this case.

RE: PETITION FOR DISCOVERY

AND NOW, December 3, 1984, at the time of argument on the above matter, the Court is presented with a petition for discovery, the gist of which is the Plaintiff is requesting would give approximate or accurate evaluations of presently owned corporate or individual real estate and major fixtures and appliances. Ir appears that accounting records from Arthur Anderson Company have been furnished by the Defendant to the Plaintiff, but that said figures reflect an original cost basis of the major assests.

While the Court recognizes that obtaining present valuations of said corporate assets would reflect a more meaningful financial picture than a cost basis, and while the Court recognizes that the Defendant may not have a complete accurate current value replacement cost for these items, the Court believes there may be documents in the Defendant's or his corporate files that would assist the Plaintiff or her accountants or real estate appraisers to establish a reasonable valuation for the Defendant's assets.

Accordingly, within ten (10) days, the Defendant is required to furnish to the Plaintiff's counsel copies of any current insurance policies showing the amount of insurance currently carries on various parcels of real estate, fixtures and the content thereof. In addition, if there reposes in the Defendant's possession or in possession of his corporation any current evaluations or appraisals of corporate assets completed since January 1, 1981, they must furnish copies of these evaluations or appraisals to counsel for the Plaintiff

The Court notes that in granting this discovery request that a variety of other factors must be taken into consideration by the Master, and the Court in ultimately determining the Defendants assets, and this Order is not entered with the intention of the Court to fix the values of the assets at their current appraisal for insurance purposes or otherwise, and the Court recognizes that other tax, accounting, profit and loss, and intangible factors must be dealt with in reaching a true evaluation of assets. P Richard Thomas,P.J.

May 14, 1985 Plaintiff's Citations Regarding Property Acquired "After Separation". filed.

June 7, 1985, RE: PETITION TO ESTABLISH DATE OF SEPARATION FOR PURPOSE OF ESTABLISHING VALUE OF MARITAL PROPERTY - ORDER filed.

We are called upon to determine the date of separation of the parties in this divorce action so that appraisers may know precisely the date when property acquired during the marriage (i.e., "marital Property" under 401(e) of the Divorce Code) is to be valued.

The problem arises because of the nature and variety of the assets of the defendant and the various encumbrances against the same.

The Defendant seemingly would benefit by a finding that the separation occurred "early" when the parties' marriage started falling apart and the wife plaintiff would seemingly benefit by a later separation date that would reflect an enhancement of asset value and reduced encumbrances against assets.

There is no doubt that in 1979 this troubled marriage started falling apart and while the parties shared the same household, decencyand communication between them declined and ultimately groung to a halt. Each grew into a custom of "coming and going" as they pleased, rarely ate meals together except with children present on holidays, occupied separate bedrooms and virtually stopped speaking to each other.

We have reviewed the briefs of counsel for both parties, studied the cases cited and can find reason to conclude that the Legislature intended that "separation of the parties" generally meant a physical removal of one of the parties from the common shared domicile. Rare and unusual circumstances in particular cases may arise that requires factual interpretation that "separation" can legally occur when the parties continually or on occasion share the common domicile, but we cannot find such rare and unusual facts in this case.

While the relations become increasingly strained and communication inter se ceased entirely, each continued to "come and go" as they pleased and each individually used the common domicile facilities until the plaintiff wife physically removed herself from the home and took up separate apartment residence on December 1, 1981. ACCORDINGLY, we find the date of separation of the parties for the purpose of ascertaining marital asset values to be December 1, 1981.

July 31, 1985 Copies of order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick and Theodore Wasss and James Irwin, Esqs.

August 6, 1985, Order filed. AND NOW, August 5, 1985, the matter is back before the Court on a Plaintiff's petition for sanctions contending the Defendant has been uncooperative in failing to provide real estate appraisals of non-corporation properties individually owned. There is some confusion regarding an interpretation of Paragraph 2 of the Master's Order, which seemingly put a burden on the Plaintiff to obtain certain appraisals, whereas counsel are uncertain whether the Master intended the Plaintiff should have said burden or the burden should be on the Defendant to provide said appraisals. Under any circumstances, counsel for the Defendant has this date advised he is aware of the cost of said appraisals and will assume the responsibility of providing appraisals on the after-described real estate plus any additional real estate not designated by deed book and page owned by the Defendant in his own individual capacity or in joint name.

The deed book and pages on which the Defendant agrees to provide appraisals, with said appraisals to be the valuation on August 1, 1985

Defendant shall produce said appraisals in writing and deliver the same to counsel for the Plaintiff on or before 5:00 P.M., August 20, 1985.

Counsel for the parties mutually agree that the Plaintiff has an appraisal of the residence property at 1141 Carmont Drive. It appears that the aforesaid appraisal of the parties' property at 1141 Carmont Drive includes three (3) unspecified lots, and counsel are unclear at this time whether any of those lots are the lots acquired by deed book and pages noted above.

Under any circumstances, counsel for Plaintiff is concerned about the value of the lot and a building known as the Gazebo, and another lot which contains a garage and substantial other improvements. The appraisals requested should specify with certainty whether or not any of these sums are included in the appraisal of 1141 Carmont Drive now in the possession of the Defendant.

The issue of antique automobiles was at one time an issue and the Plaintiff notes she has now received an appraisal from Jack Lang of two (2) antique automobiles in possession of the Defendant.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

August 6, 1985, Order filed. AND NOW, August 5, 1985, at the time of thehearing scheduled for sanctions in which attorney fees were requested as a sanction, the Court resolves the sanction issue by an Order entered this same date and declines to award counsel fees that would penalize the Defendant over the mix-up in whose responsibility it was to secure appraisals in accord with the Master's direction.

However, counsel for the Plaintiff at this time advises that she wishes to present a bill for counsel fees incurred in this case and requests the Court in view of the delay in this case and the prospective delay in the future to award her counsel fees ad seriatim at this time.

In view of the fact this matter was presented to the Court in this fashion without formal petition, specifically requesting counsel fees for services rendered generally even though the language of Paragraph 13 may be so interpreted, the Court believes counsel for the Defendant should have the opportunity to examine the bills submitted and present any objections to the Court in writing. Accordingly, counsel shall have until August 23, 1985 to present any objections to the bills for counsel fees submitted by the Plaintiff. If objections are made, the Court will schedule an informal argument between counsel before resolving the issue; if objections are not presented, the Court will review the matter and act on the Plaintiff's request in such manner as the Court believes is equitable under all circumstances.

May 28, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 27, 1986, at the time a contempt hearing is scheduled for failure to timely file an appraisal of corporate assets long overdue, counsel for the defendant advises the court the appraisal is prepared and ready for appropriate signature in Pittsburgh, Pa., and will be delivered promptly but today's deadline cannot be met. Argument from Plaintiff's counsel is heard to the effect that the matter has been unduly delayed and that sanctions are appropriate.

Accordingly, we will take Defendant's counsel and his client's word and on the assumption that the appraisal and report is complete and ready for delivery, the same will be in the hands of counsel for the Plaintiff by 5:00 p.m., May 28, 1986. In default of receipt in that timely fashion, commencing at midnight, May 28, 1986, the Court will impose a penalty sanction of $1,000.00 per day against the defendant for every day's delay in receiving the appraisal report.

Aug. 27, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 25, 1986, the matter is before the court on a petition by the Plaintiff wife to secure expenses beleived necessary to employ an independent appraiser to evaluate the appraisal work done by Mark Wolk and Associates for the Plaintiff and to ascertain the appropriateness of the values and methods used in arriving at the Wolk report.

Defendant objects to an advance in the amount requested in view of the vagueness of a letter from the Plaintiff's proposed appraiser dated June 23, 1986, which has been viewed by counsel and the Court this date.

Under all the circumstances of this complex case, the Court believes the plaintiff is entitled to employ her own appraiser to evaluate the Wolk report and to ascertain whether thy approve of the evaluations arrived at and the methods of arriving at the same in the Wolk report.

Additionally, there is some contention that there may be a disposition of the Sanray Corporate assets which further detailed accounting examination would disclose.

The court is reluctant to grant the initial request of $13,000.00 to cover this work but directs, however, thatthe sum of $5,000.00 be advanced by the Defendant within ten (10) days to act as a retainer to the plaintiff's appraiser in order that the work may commence and the court will entertain a motion for further installment payments as the evaluation progresses with said requests not coming oftener than every thirty (30) days and substantiated either by testimony or by detailed written reports of additional reports necessary to complete or pursue unclear avenues in evaluating the Wolk report.

In the event further disbursements are requested through written explanations of the need therefore, the court will consider a request by defendant's attorney to substantiate said requests by oral testimony if they believe the same is necessary in exploration of the written requests.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Dec. 22, 1986 Defendant's Motion For Protective ORder Regarding Plaintiff's Request For Production of Documents and Things filed.

Dec. 23, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, December 19, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a petition for interim costs and expenses and the Plaintiff's contention that the request for production of documents filed October 6, 1986, which request was granted by the Court, has not been faithfully complied with.

Insofar as the requested production is concerned, Court rules as follows:

Paragraph 1, it appears that the Plaintiff has received corporate tax returns for the years 1978 to 1981, but contends that the work papers used by the accountant in preparing said returns have not been received, accordingly, the Court DIRECTS that the work papers be forwarded to Plaintiff's counsel on or before Janurary 5, 1987.

In regard to Paragraph 2, involving adjusted financial statements, the apparent contention of the Defendant is that there are no accounting records showing operating costs, income or expense or gross or net profits for each of the corporation's individual businesses, as they are all lumped together by a division and only division reports covering these areas are kept. Court finds it inconceivable that there are not documentary records or accounting records of some sort that show whether the various individual enterprises owned by the corporation operate at a profit or loss and income and expense attributable to each of these various individual enterprises. Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS that individual business enterprises be produced to counsel for the plaintiff on or before January 5, 1987.

In the alternative if such records do not indeed exist, this paragraph may be answered to that effect and signed and verified by an officer of the corporation. In the event of that happening, and if counsel for the Plaintiff believes discovery is appropriate to further attempt to secure the information on each individual restaurant, the Court will subsequently consider a request to assess the cost of producing this information by discovery against the Defendant plus any further consideration for contempt for failing to produce.

It appears there is an admission that divisional records exist, and these records, likewise, shall be furnished to counsel for the Plaintiff.

In regard to Paragraph 3, it apparently is admitted that real estate appraisals for certain individual businesses have been received as requested, but there are a series of individual businesses, which the Defendant contends are "rented" and therefor, appraisals of that property would not be material in determining the marital value of the real estate itself. Accordingly, on or before January 5, 1987, if the Defendant is contending that these "rented" properties are not owned by the corporation, they will submit a list to counsel for the Plaintiff of the individual enterprises that are non-corporation owned, give the name of the owner, and will specify whether land and/or building is "rented".

Paragraphs 4 and 5 in the request for production are procedural matters that need not be addressed at this time by the Court.

Insofar as the petition for additional interim costs and expenses in the amount of $5,000.00 is concerned, the Court grants said request and directs the Defendant to forward to counsel for the Plaintiff an additional sum of $5,000.00 requested by Iwanyshyn, Kesich and Company, with said sum to be paid on or before January 15, 1987.

This award is made without prejudice to the right of the Master and ultimately the Court to allocate the total expert expenses incurred by the parties between the parties in such an equitable manner as may be deemed appropriate.

Mar. 1, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW,February 26, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a request by Plaintiff/Wife for an Order directing final payment of appraisal fees by Iwanyshyn and Associates, Inc. These appraisers were retained by the wife and we previously ordered in August and December of 1986 total payments of $10,000.00 toward the ultimate estimated cost of approximately $13,000.00. It now appears that the costs were higher than anticipated and amount to some $17.300.00.

Counsel for the Defendant advises the Court that the dispute between the parties' appraisers apparently ended up in some type of an ethical malpractice charge heard before the American Society of Appraisers or in Federal Court. The concern of Defendant's counsel is that the most recent bill in the amount of $7,302.50 might represent some of the expenses incurred in the ethical litigation between the accounting firms. The fill dated April 15, 1987, submitted to the Court this date cannot be interpreted as including any expenses incurred in the ethic al dispute. Accordingly, we direct that the Husband/Defendant pay within ten (10) days the sum of $7,302.50 to counsel for the Plaintiff.

As with prior Orders, this Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Master or ultimately the Court to divide both parties' appraisal fees in an equitable manner.

The Court enters this Order with the understanding that there will be no further billings by the Iwanyshyn firm for appraisal work done but with the Court also noting that the cost of producing the appraisers for testimony before the Master is unknown at this time and is a matter for the Master to address in the future.

Sept. 14, 1981, Copy of Order to Attys. Truax and Bruce Barrett.

Oct. 2, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 30, 1981, after informal hearing it is ascertained that the plaintiff is now receiving public assistance and will soon be attending full-time schooling to learn a useful vocational trade; and the parties reached an amicable agreement for child support; and the defendant is paying joint obligation bills to Beneficial Finance and Montgomery Ward in the amount of approximately $188.00 per month.

In the event of an award of Alimony Pendente Lite, the present payments from the Department of Public Welfare to the plaintiff would be reduced by the amount received as Alimony Pendente Lite. The matter does not appear to be one that will require further protracted litigation.

Accordingly, the Court denies the award of Alimony Pendente Lite on the condition that the defendant continue to make the required payments on the aforesaid monthly joint obligations.

If after three months the matter has not been resolved by the granting of a final decree in divorce, the Court will entertain a motion to reconsider the Alimony Pendente Lite issue.

The Court awards the plaintiff's attorney fees and costs in the total amount of $300.00, $100.00 to be paid by October 15, 1981, $100.00 by November 1, 1981 and the balance by November 15, 1981.

Jan 24, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 24, 1983, upon request of the defendant to bifurcate this action and dissolve the marriage prior to resolution of the related problems, the request is denied at this time. We note that this divorce action was filed on July 29, 1981, almost a year and a half ago and there is no reason that if the parties acted promptly to move the case that it should not have been resolved by this date. The defendant filed no answer until October 5, 1982, and as of now, has not filed an inventory and appraisement nor an income and expense statement. Because of the legal problems that could arise by way of a bifurcation, particularly in the event of the death of any party, we feel it would not be in the interest of the parties to dissolve the marriage at this point.

This order is made without prejudice to the right of the defendant to again request dissolution of the marriage and bifurcate proceedings on or after June 1, 1983 if the matter has not been concluded by that date.

The request for counsel fees and expenses is reserved until further Order of Court. Mar. 18, 1985 DIVORCE DECREE FILED:

AND NOW, March 18, 1985, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the marriage heretofore existing between is hereby dissolved and the parties are hereby divorced and all legal duties, rights and claims of either of the parties to the other in pursuance of said marriage are hereby terminated except as provided in this decree. Insofar as the other issues raised by the pleadings, they are disposed of as follows:

1. The pistols and rifles currently in the possession of either party shall remain the property of the party in whose possession those items now are.

2. The plaintiff is awarded the furnishings, household goods, dishes and the like currently at the jointly owned dwelling occupied by the plaintiff.

3. The balance of tangible personal property set forth in paragraph 2 of the defendant's answer to amended inventory and appraisement consisting of tools and rifle, and hunting and reloading equipment is awarded to the defendant.

4. Each party is awarded the automobile currently in his or her possession.

5. The portion of the defendant's profit-sharing plan at his former employers that accrued prior to the separation, to-wit: $4,205.06, is found to be marital property and is awarded to the defendant subject to charges hereinafter set forth.

6. The balance of the profit-sharing plan and any pension plan that the defendant is entitled to through his former employer is declared to be the separate property of the defendant.

7. The marital residence located in Vernon Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, as more fully described in Deed Book 412, at page 348, in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Crawford County is awarded in equal undivided one-half shares as tenants in common to the parties, subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth.

17. Each party shall pay his or her own counsel fees.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

8. Plaintiff shall have the right to the exclusive possession of the marital residence notwithstanding defendnat's ownership of an undivided one-half interest therein for a period of ten (10) years from the date of this decree; provided that the plaintiff shall pay all taxes imposed on the real estate, shall reasonably maintain the real estate and shall keep the improvements thereoninsured with a standard homeowner's policy in a sufficient amount to at all times cover the fair market value of the property with the defendant named as an insured, and a copy of such insurance policy and any renewals thereof shall be at all times furnished to the defendant.

9. At the expiration of the ten year exclusive occupancy on behalf of the plaintiff, if the paeties are unable to agree upon a sale or other disposition of the property, either party may request a partition of the property under such statutes and rules of court as may apply to partitions of real property at the time the action is commenced.

10. No permanent alimony is awarded.

11. If there is any balance of alimony pendente lite unpaid by the defendant, he shall immediately pay the same out of the profit-sharing plan herein awarded to him or out of such other funds as may be available to him, and the balance of such alimony pendente lite is specifically made a charge upon the profit-sharing plan awarded to the defendant until paid.

12. Since the question of child support has been addressed in a separate proceeding in the Domestic Relations Division, no further provision is made in this Decree regarding child support.

13. The Master's fees have, by separate order, been fixed at $1,100.00 and there is on deposit with the Prothonotary the sum of $310.50 which can be applied to the Master's fees and the Prothonotary is hereby directed to pay said amount to the Master.

14. The costs in this proceeding, including the balance of the Master's fees and stenographic costs, shall be paid by the defendant. Defendant shall forthwith pay the sum of $789.50 being the balance of the Master's fees, together with any unpaid costs.

15. The payment of Master's fees and costs is hereby made a charge upon the defendant's profit-sharing plan as awarded to him hereunder, and in addition, is made a lien on the defendant's interest in the real property. The Master's fees and costs shall be paid through the Prothonotary's Office so that a record of payment will be made to indicate that the lien has been satisfied, and a redord of the payment having been made to the Prothonotary shall be deemed to satisfy and discharge the lien upon payment.

16. Plaintiff has deposited $100.00 towards Master's fees with the Prothonotary and is, therefore, charged that amount towards the Master's fees and the defendant need not reimburse the plaintiff for her deposit.

Aug. 31, 1981, Notice of Date and Time Fixed for Hearing/Argument filed. Scheduled for Sept. 8, 1981 at 2:30 P.M. For the Court, I.Y.

Aug. 31, 1981, Copies of Order to Legal Services and John Fuller, Esq.

Sept. 10, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, September 8, 1981, after informal hearing in this case, the Court believes this matter should appropriately be in the Juvenile Court and captioned in the matter of Tonja Howett, a dependent child. Accoringly, the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to make copies of all proceedings to date in this case and forward the same for filing in the Clerk of Court's Office and the Clerk of Court's Office is DIRECTED to index it as a juvenile case.

It appears the child is under the jurisdiction of Children's Services in Marion County, Ohio, and that the mother is contending that the Juvenile Court lacked jurisdiction to enter an Order in 1977 committing her as a dependent child to Marion County, Ohio Children's Services Board for placement at Ohio Veterans' Children's Home because of the fact the mother received no notice of said hearing.

Sept. 10, 1981 Copies of all papers given to Clerk of Courts.

It further appears that periodic visits between Mother and child have been arranged through Marion County Children's Services and that on or about July 30, 1981 and juvenile Tonja Howett came to visit her mother and her mother now desires to resecure legal custody of said child.

It further appears that through Interstate Compact, Crawford County Child Welfare Services is making a home study in anticipation of an eventual hearing in the Juvenile Court of Ohio, which would resolve the issue of return of custody of the child to the mother at some foreseeable time in the future.

Sept. 14, 1981 Copies of order to Defendant, M. Kirkpatrick and John Fuller, Esqs.

The Court has also received a requisition dated August 18, 1981 for the return of this alleged runaway juvenile to the jurisdiction of the Marion County Children's Services for replacement in the Children's Home. The Court denies the request for the immediate return of the juvenile, and the Juvenile Court of Crawford County will accept temporary jurisdiction of this case and honor the Ohio adjudication of dependency and DIRECTS the Crawford County Child Welfare Services to complete the home study request under Interstate Compact and to furnish a copy of said study to the Ohio authorieies and to this Court.

The Court reserves the question as to whether or not it will take permanent jurisdiction of this case and schedules a hearing for October 27, 1981 at 9:30 A.M. before the undersigned to resolve the issue of jurisdiction, and in the event this Court decides to assume jurisdiction, to resolve the issues of whether or not the child should be returned to the case and custody of the mother.

Counsel for the mother shall serve a copy of this Order on the natural father in order that he may attend the aforesaid hearing on October 27, 1981.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

PETITION FOR PROTECTION FROM ABUSE

1 copy attested (atty)

TEMPORARY ORDER:

AND NOW, this 8th day of September, 1981, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a hearing thereon is scheduled for the 11 day of Sept. 1981, at 3:30 P.M. o'clock in Court Room No. 1 of the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pa.

The Respondent, William F. Sandy, is directed and prohibited from attempting to cause or intentionally, knowingly or recklessly causing bodily injury to the petitioner, Marjorie Y. Sandy, or in any way harassing or threatening her.

The Respondent is excluded immediately and forthwith from the marital residence located at R. D. #3 Conneaut Lake, Pa., pending the hearing scheduled above.

The Respondent is hereby advised of his right to be represented by counsel, and he is notified that his failure to attend the hearing scheduled above may have serious legal consequences.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
J.

Sept. 9, 1981, Copy of Order to Atty. Dawson.

Sept. 10, 1981, Sheriffs Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO William P. Sandy personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Protection from Abuse with Temporary Order No. A.D. 1981-842 to him, on September 9, 1981, at 4:40 P.M. at his place of residence, R. D. #3 Conneaut Lake, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.
So answers, E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Sept. 15, 1981 AND NOW, September 11, 1981, the parties have agreed that Marjorie Y. Sandy will remove herself from the common residence and take up residence at Gertrude Blair's in Conneaut Lake town.

The defendant shall not contact his wife directly or indirectly until she requests to see him and under no circumstances when he is invited to contact his wife will he have consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of twelve (12) hours before said visit.

The defendant William Sandy will not directly or indirectly assault, annoy or harass his wife in any fashion.

The Court notes the contention of the wife that the defendant has a severe alcoholic problem, and while the defendant does not admit to this problem, it is obvious to the Court that the defendant becomes violent only at times when he is consuming alcoholic beverages. The defendant agrees that the Court enter as part of its Order that he continue association with Alcoholic Anonymous and that he will continue his counseling at the Mental Health Center with Dr. Fox until he is excused from further attendance.

The parties mutually agree that the jointly-owned automobile now in the possession of the wife can be used by her without any interference from the husband.

The Court believes it is powerless in the Order to directly order the defendant to in-patient alcoholic treatment. However, in the event that he again assaults his wife or threatens her in any fashion, the Court recommends the wife file appropriate criminal charges so the power of sanctions vested in the Court are broadened over and above the powers that are contained in the proceeding brought under the Abuse Act.

The defendant is directed to pay any costs in this case.

Apr. 28, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 27, 1982, the parties appear before the Court with their counsel and advise the Court that the question of custody in the above-captioned divorce action has been amicably resolved by the parties and they request the Court enter a Consent Order as follows:

2. On May 8th, 15th, and 22nd, 1982, the father of the said children may come to the home of the mother and pick up the children and have them with him in his custody between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., after which, they shall be returned to the home of the mother at R. D. #2, Maple Avenue, Conneaut Lake, Pa.

3. On Friday, May 28th, the father may pick up the children at the home of the mother for a weekend visitation and take the children to the home of his parents in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and return them on Monday May 31st. The pickup hour will be 6:00 p.m. and the return hour will be 6:00 p.m.

4. June 11-13, the father shall be entitled to another weekend visitation and pick up the children at 6:00 p.m., Friday and return them not later than 9:00 p.m., Sunday.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

Nov. 25, 1987 Copies of order to Joan Mason and Defendant and John Fuller

Dec. 23, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW Dec. 18, 1987, this ongoing custody dispute is again before the court for review on Dft/father's exceptions to a custody mediation report and court order dated Oct. 20, 1987, which severely restricted the visitation between father andchildren.

The matter is reviewed informally and it appears that on the last visit in August of 1987, the children became extremely upsit, but the details and reasons for this upset condition for visiting the father are not material here.

It appears the children are now estranged from the father and have no desire to see him; however, the court is of the opinion that there must be a re-acquaintance period between father and children, so that the children's fear of the father is ameliorated tothe end that ultimately visits in the father's home with the children will be a possibility as was contemplated in prior orders.

Accordingly, custody of the children shall continue with the mother and we will establish restricted visits between the children and father for a period of approximately six (6) months, after which, the burden shall be on the father to petition for rehearing and expansion of visitations wit the children, and the presentation ofa concrete plan therefor.

The father shall be entitled to a visit with the children in the home of the mother on Dec. 27, 1987, between the hours of 1:00 P.M. and 7:00 P.M. The children must remain in the home during this visit.

Commencing with the fourth Sunday of Jan. and every fourth Sunday of each month thereafter until the completion of the visit in May, the father shall be entitled to come to Crawford County and pick up or visit the children in the home of the mother between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. on the following conditions: A. He will not have consumed any alcoholic beverages for a period of six (6) hours before the visit. B. He may have the visit in the home ofthe mother or at his option may take the children intohis custody and take them to appropriate places within the confines of Crawford or Erie County.

It appears the children are now in counseling with local counselors in Crawford County, and the Court leaves to the discretion of the father as to whether he consults with said counselors or participates in any manner in the counseling involving his children.

If the father requests, the mother will furnish the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the counselors now dealig with the children.

The mother shall keep the father advised of any particular problems with the children of a physical nature or any particular sc hool problems, shall furnish the father copies of the report cards and copies of any reports relating to the academic achievement or discipline problems of the children at the local school.

Mother and Father ea ch shall keep the other advised of any changes of address or telephone numbers.

After June 1, 1988, the defendant may petition the court for more extended custody or visitation rights and present a plan in contemplation thereof. If the parties cannot amicably resolve the issue, either party may request a hearing.

On any occasion when the father does not appear for the prescribed visits by 2:00 p.m., the mother may consider the visits cancelled unless she has received a telephone call the same day from the father advising that he will be late and giving an adequate reason therefor.

Father advises that he will definitely petition the court for reconsideration after June 1, 1988, but in the event the father does not do so, the aforesaid visits will continue as prescribed in this order unless amended by further order of court..

With the consent of the mother, she agrees the father may have telephone contact with the children at least once a week so long as the calls are made at a reasonable time.

This matter came on to be heard on the 27th day of October, 1980, at 11:30 p.m. on the Complaint for divorce filed by Julia R. I. The father shall have the children in his custody on Father's Day and the mother on Mother's Day, which shall take precedence over regular weekend visitation privileges.

J. The father shall also have the right to take the children into his custody for two consecutive weeks during the summer vacation period from June to August beginning with the year 1982, notice of which period of time shall be given to the mother not less than sixty days preceding the beginning of the said vacation period. October 27, 1981 ORDER Filed. AND NOW, October 23, 1981, it appearing that there are cross actions for divorce filed in this action, the husband having filed a divorce action in Erie Co., which was served October 14, on the defendant wife in Crawford Co. and the defendant wife having filed a divorce action in Crawford Co. September 25, which was served on the defendant September 26, 1981, counsel for each party argues that their respective counties are a more appropriate venue and wish to brief and argue this issue further before the Court. ACCORDINGLY, argument on the venue issue is hereby scheduled for Dec. 2, 1981, at 9:30 a.m. and counsel are requested to submit any appropriate citations or case precedence to the Court ten (10) days before argument .

In the meantime, the Court deems it appropriate to enter a temporary Order for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees and with the consent of the parties to enter a temporary child support Order even though the support issue is not before the Court at this time.

The Court having adequate time to review the extensive financial records submitted by the husband and has heard wife's counsel state her income indicating a precarious financial position, accordingly, the Court enters the following temporary Order for alimony pendente lite and child support, which Order, unless modified by further Order of Court, will terminate Feb. 1, 1982: The defendant shall pay for the week of October 25, 1981, the sum of $150.00 to his wife , $100.00 of which is for alimony pendente lite and $50.00 of which is for the support of the minor child. For the months of November, December, and January, the defendant husband will pay the sum of $760.00 per month, with one-half of said sum paid on the first of each month and the other one-half on the 15th of each month, with $660.00 of said sum to be allocated to alimony pendente lite and $100.00 of said sum to be allocated to child support

In addition, the defendant will pay as partial counsel fees the sum of $700.00 in attorney fees, with one-half of said sum to be paid by November 15, 1981, and the balance by December 15, 1981.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of either party to resolve the child support issue within the framework of a Domestic Relations proceeding.

November 10, 1981, Order filed.

AND NOW, November 6,1981, at the time set for hearing, it appears that the Defendant had received certified mail notice of this hearing as evidenced by an affidavit to be filed by counsel for the Plaintiff and in spite of said notice, fails to appear. The Plaintiff advises the Court that she and her husband discussed the matter and he has notice of this hearing and said he would not appear to contest the matter.

It appears we have a division in view of the fact that both husband and wife still reside in the same household with the children, but apparently the parents are sharing separate portions of the residential domicile.

It further appears that after a Domestic Relations hearing it was ascertained that the husband is providing the basic necessity of food for the home and paying the utility bills.

The Court awards alimony pendente lite to the wife in this case in the amount of $40.00 per week with said alimony pendente lite to continue for a period of three (3) months unless a divorce is sooner granted.

In addition thereto, the Court awards counsel fees up to this date in the amount of $500.00, and the Defendant is required to pay the same in the following manner: $250.00 on or before November 20, 1981 and the balance on or before December 4 1981 with said payments to be made directly to Attorney Joseph Kulwicki, counsel for Plaintiff.

This order is made without prejudice to the right of Plaintiff's attorney to request additional counsel fees in the event further complexities are incurred in this contested divorce action.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
P.J.

November 13,, Copies given to Atty. Kulwicki, and to Defendant, Joseph Piatek.

Dec. 7, 1981 Petition to Ajudicate Defendant in Contempt of Court and Order filed: AND NOW, this 7 day of December, upon presentation and consideration of a motion of Joseph F. Kulwicki, Esquire, attorney for the plaintiff, a Rule is issued on the defendant, Joseph Piatek, to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be held in contempt of Court.

RULE RETURNABLE, the 6 day of Jan, 1981, at 10:00 A.M. in Courtroom number one or two of the Crawford County Court house, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

May 13, 1982, ORDER filed. Counsel for the plaintiff requests appointment of a Master to resolve the divorce issues of permanent alimony and equitable apportionment of marital property. We note on reviewing the record in this case that neither party has complied with Divorce Rule 1920.31 and 1920.33 regarding the filing of income and expense statements, and inventory and appraisement reports. Until such time as these matters reflecting the financial status of each of the parties are filed, we see no need to appoint a Master.

So answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Jan 26, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, January 26, 1982, after hearing oral arguments on the defendants' Preliminary Objections, the Court first notes that the plaintiff's Complaint was not captioned as to the type of action commenced. Because the plaintiff is seeking equitable relief, the Court directs the plaintiff to caption the case in equity; the monetary damages sought by the plaintiff may still be awarded in accordance with Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1530.

The Court must also agree with the defendants that the plaintiff's Complaint is too indefinite for the defendants to formulate a responsive answer. The plaintiff avers that she and the defendant, True Davis, III, entered into an oral agreement which was memorialized by a letter signed by Mr. Davis. However, it is not clear exactly what the terms of the contract are or whether all the terms of the contract are set forth in the letter. Therefore, the Court sustains the defendants' Preliminary Objections I and directs the plaintiff to plead the terms of the contract with such specificity as to enable the defendants to formulate a responsive answer.

Finally, the Court notes that the defendants' Preliminary Objections II, in which they raise the Statute of Frauds, was abandoned by the defendants' refusal to discuss this issue at the oral argument.

Upon filing of the amended pleadings in Equity, the Prothonotary shall transfer all papers in this case to a new Equity number.

December 31, 1981, Preliminary Objections filed.

Jan. 8, 1982, Petition For Appeal De Novo filed.

Jan. 8, 1982, Order filed. AND NOW, January 8, 1982, Petition for an appeal de novo having been presented to the Court with a request for hearing thereon, and the Court having been advised that this is a companion petition to a Mandamus Action already filed at the same term and number, and the Court noting that counsel for the Borough has recently been retained and does not have the file, the Court believes it inappropriate to schedule a hearing at this time. Accordingly, a rule to show cause is hereby granted as to why the prayer of this petition should not be granted, and the Court DIRECTS counsel for the parties to meet and clarify the issues. If counsel cannot reach an agreement that a hearing is appropriate on this petition, the Court will entertain a motion from either counsel to set argument or hearing in this matter.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas

Jan. 11, 1982, Copies of Order to Attys. Walker, Thomas and Spadafore.

April 14, 1982 Motion and Order filed. And Now, this 14th day of April, A.D., 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing Motion, the Court grants the following relief:

1. An argument on the Defendants' Preliminary Objections in the above captioned matter is set for April 28, 1982 at 1:30

2. A hearing on the Plaintiff's request for reinstatement with back pay will be held on to be set.

P.R. Thomas, J.

Apr. 15, 1982 Copies of order given to Attys. Walker, Thomas and Spadafore.

Apr. 29, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, April 28, 1982, at the time of argument on the preliminary objections, it appears that two issues must be resolved first; the issue of how many Police Officers were employed at the time of the event here in question by the Borough of Cochranton, and second, whether the plaintiff was within the definition of 53 P.S. 812, "Regular Full-Time Rlice Officer"in the Cochranton Police Department. These issues being the key to any decision the Court would have to make on the Preliminary Objections, the Court hereby postpones any decision on the preliminary objections and directs that the defendant file an answer to the plaintiff's mandamus complaint within twenty (20) days of this date setting forth such responses to the complaint as they may deem appropriate and specifically answering as to the number of Police Officers employed by the Borough at the time in question and the terms of employment of Mr. Haun in any oral or written contract of employment with the Borough.

Once the answer is filed, if the matter cannot be amicably resolved, the Court will entertain a motion by either party to set a hearing to resolve these narrow issues which seem to a large extent to be controlling of the ultimate decision in the case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 15, 1982 Copies of order to William Gregg, R. Charles Thomas, Esq. and William Pineo, Esq.

Jan 26, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, January 25, 1982, at the time set for hearing on the father's petition to reestablish visitations with his children, Taiya and Carly, the Court proceeds with the matter informally and it appears that the father verbalizes to the Court that he has no intention of absconding with the children or in the event he is accorded visitations to refuse to return the children to the custody of the mother.

At this time the Court notes the father has not had visits for over two (2) years and parents and the Court agree that the children would not know their father so it is essential that reacquaintance visits be established. The mother is unwilling that in reestablishing these visits the father have the children exclusively in his custody or that an unsupervised visit by the father to the mother's home would be in the best interest of the children.

Accordingly, the Court has enlisted the aid of Child Welfare Services and this date in Court appears Child Welfare Services Supervisor Mary Stone who agrees to assist the the parties in supervising the visitations in accordance with the following schedule. In addition the caseworker recommends that parents counsel with Connie Maine at the center for families in change at the YWCA and both parents agree to accept this auggestion and the Court hereby orders both parents to make an immediate appointment and to carry out consultations with this specialist in attempting to accomplish meaningful visitations between the father and his children. Mr. Chizmar agrees he will furnish this specialist with a copy of this Court's order of January 4, 1980 as partial background on the problem facing the parents in this Court.

Commencing February 1, 1982, the father shall have the right to visit the children at the home of the mother, 767 Whittier Avenue, for a period of four (4) consecutive weeks for a period of not less than one(1) hour commencing at 1:00 p.m. The caseworker will be present during these visits to converse with the parents and make such observations of the relationships between the father and children as may be appropriate. After four (4) consecutive visits at the discretion of the caseworker, future visits between the father and the children may be moved to the Child Welfare Office at such times and with such frequency as the parents and caseworker establish.

After not less than four (4) visits between the father and children at the Child Welfare Headquarters, the caseworker may recommend to the parents that the father be allowed to have visits in his own home or at another appropriate place with his children. If the mother opposes this recommendation, the caseworker will not grant the visit but will refer the matter to the Court for an immediate hearing.

Providing satisfactory progress in reestablishing a relationship between the father and the children is accomplished, the ultimate goal of the Court will be to permit the father to have weekend visits with the children, and if the caseworker recommends the same or the parents agree to the same, they may submit to the Court a proposal to reduce the weekend visits to a definitive scheduled regarding time and location.

The Court notes that this case is currently carried at two numbers and all proceedings at 1981-1115 will hereby be transfered to No. 289 November Term, 1979 and all future proceedings in this case will be indexed at the latter number.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

_____TERM

Continuation of AD 1981 - 1142 (Carpenter vs. Carpenter)

Dec. 21, 1982, Contempt Petition and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, Dec. 21, 1982, a Rule is issued upon Diane Sue Carpenter to show cause if any she has why she should not be held in contempt for violation of the Honorable Court's Order of June 11,. 1982, and why she should not be required to pay the costs of this contempt preceeding.

Rule Returnable and for hearing on the 22 day of Dec. at 11 o'clock A.M, in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pa.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Dec. 21, 1982, Copies of order to Attys. J. Mason, M. Kirkpatrick and James Irwin.

Dec. 30, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, December 22, 1982, the matter is before the Court on a disagreement among the parties as to the correct interpretation of paragraph six of a consent agreement signed by the Court June 11, 1982. The Court interprets paragraph six to mean that the child will be in the custody of the mother on Christmas Day 1982 and that this being an even numbered year the father is entitled to have the child Christmas Eve from December 24, 1982 at 5:30 until Christmas Day at 10:00 a.m.

It appears, however, that the contention between the parties lies in applying paragraph six to the additional twenty-four (24) hours visit accorded under paragraph four. It is the mother's contention that the father of the child is "piggy-backing" his days off and that specifically this year in 1982 he is contending that his day off will be December 24, 1982, and, accordingly, he is entitled to his twenty-four (24) hour visit each week commencing upon three days (3) notice which he gave December 23, 1982 at 5:30 p.m. which would end at 5:30 p.m. on December 24, 1982 at which time his Christmas Eve visit accorded in paragraph six would commence, thus giving him a two(2) day visitation period with the child.

The mother contends he is prone to use this "piggyback" arrangement on other holidays and that was not the intention of the parties. However, the Court feels it is not at liverty to modify the agreement of the parties in the context that there was a unilateral or mutual mistake in drafting and amending the instrument, and accordingly, the Court makes no ruling as to whether or not other than the Christmas vacation the father is entitled on subsequent holidays to pick and choose his non-workday so that it extends his holiday visits an additional day. The Court urges the parties through their counsel to review this matter and unless the matter can be amicably resolved either party may petition the Court for an interpretation of the contract under the formal rules of evidence.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 4, 1983 Copies of order to James Irwin, Esq. and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq.

May 27, 1983, Petition For Modification of Custody and Order filed. And Now, May 27, 1983, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition, custody of Carai Craig Carpenter is temporarily placed with his father, Randy Carpenter, pending further Order of Court, and the mother may petiton the Court immediately upon her release from the Hospictal for a hearing to determine the appropriate custody arrangements for this child.

By The Court:
Robert L. Walker,J

May 7, 1983, Copies sent of Order to James Irwin, Mary Ann Kirkpatrick and Joan Mason.

Nov. 2, 1983 Petition For Visitation By Grandparents filed. (see seperate order PRT)

Nov. 3, 1983, ORDER filed. (For Referral to Custody Mediator)

AND NOW, November 2, 1983, the petition for visitation by grandparents is before the Court and it appears that a similar petition will be forthcoming on behalf of the mother of the children to secure visitation. The Court is advised by counsel for the petitioning grandparents that all efforts to negiotiate an agreement between grandparents and father of the children have met with frustration and futility.

In view of the crowded court schedules, the Court believes the matter could be more expeditiously handled by reference to a custody mediator, and accordingly, this matter is regerred to Attorney John Fuller for the purpose of setting a visitation mediation conference regarding the minor child Craig, age three.

The Prothonotary shall forward a copy of this Order to Attorney Theodore H. Watts, who is believed to represent the mother's interest and upon the filing of a petition for visitation by the mother with the Prothonotary's office at least five days before the mediator schedules the conference will put the parties on notice that the mother's right to visitation will be considered at the same mediation hearing without additional Order of Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Nov. 3, 1983, copies of order to James Irwin, M. Kirkpatrick, Joan Mason, T. Watts, and JOhn Fuller.

Nov. 16, 1983 Plaintiff's Petition to Invervene in Hearing on Petition for Visitation by Grandparents and Plaintiff's Petition for Visitation and Order filed: You, Randy Louis Carpenter, have been sued in Court to obtain visitation rights with Craig Carpenter. You are ordered to appear in person before John Fuller as required, for a conference.

If you fail to appear as provided by this Order, an Order for Visitation may be entered against you or the Court may issue a warrant for your arrest. Continued on Pg. 642C

Dec. 16, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 16, 1983, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED:

I. Legal custody of Craig Carpenter shall be with his father, Randy Louis Carpenter.

II. Physical custody of Craig Carpenter shall be with his father, Randy Louis Carpenter, subject to the following conditions:

A. The maternal grandparents, Eldon L. King and Edythe King shall be entitled to visit and take the child the third week end of every month, beginning Saturday, December 17, 1983, from 10:00 A.M. on Saturday morning to 5:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon, both prevailing local times. The grandparents shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the father.

B. It is expected that during such week end visitations the mother of the child, Diane Sue Carpenter, shall be also present in the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. King, but the child shall be under the complete care and supervision of the grandparents during such week end visits and the grandparents shall have the responsibility of seeing that the child is fully protected from any possible mistreatment or abuse.

III. Neither the father, mother or grandparents, shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent or grandparents, but on the contrary, each person shall do everything in their power to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent and the grandparents.

IV. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well being of the child.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right of any party to these proceedings to ask for a further mediation conference or hearing so that in the event of a marked improvement in the mental or emotional condition of the mother, the visitation rights of the mother and grandparents could be expanded.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by any party within ten (10) days of the date hereof.

Costs of the mediation conference shall be divided as follows: one-third by Crawford County, one-third by the father, Randy Louis Carpenter, and one-third by the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon King.

May 18, 1984, Motion filed. AND NOW, this 18th day of May, 1984, comes the parties and move the Court to enter the attached Consent Custody Order. (Custody Order signed by parties attached)

May 18, 1984, ORDER: AND NOW, May 18, 1984, the parties having reached an agreement regarding the custody of Craig Carpenter, which agreement in the opinion of the Court, would be unenforceable, at least, in some respects, and the parties having requested the Court to enter an order based upon the agreement, the request is denied because the Court believes that the agreement is contrary to the law, but the Prothonotary is directed to file the agreement with the papers in this matter for such effect as it may have.

June 18, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1982, a rule having been granted upon Richard L. Saxton to show cause why he should not be found in contempt of court for violating the Court's Order not to dispose of property, after hearing, the rule is made absolute, and Richard L. Saxton is found in contempt for failure to comply with that Order. He is hereby remanded to the Crawford County Jail until he purges himself of such contempt. Said commitment is suspended, and he may purge himself of contempt, provided that he filed with the Court, and with a copy to his wife's counsel a complete itemized and detailed inventory of all assets, whether his own, his wife's or joint property, and regardless of his position as to whether or not they are marital property that were in his hands on July 10, 1981, the date that he filed this divorce action, together with the present location of each of said assets an if the same have been disposed of in any manner by sale, by gift, by delivery to his wife, by abandonment or in any other manner whatsoever, he shall detail the manner of such disposition, and if disposed of by sale, he shall set forth specifically the amount received from the same and the disposition of those funds, and if disposed of other than by sale, his valuation of said asset as of the date of its disposition. Said report shall be filed on or before July 1, 1982. Said report to be under oath signed by himself.

The Defendant will have ten (10) days from the date of filing such report to file a written Answer thereto under oath if she does not agree with the allegations contained in the report.

Upon the filing of both the report and the Answer and if necessary, the resolution of any disputes concerning it, an Order will be entered requiring that the proceeds of any such disposition be placed in an appropriate escrow arrangement pending final disposition of this case together with such further Order regarding the temporary disposition of marital property as the Court may deem appropriate.

So far as alimony pendente lite is concerned, since an Order has been entered concerning support, which although obviously inadequate, is appropriate given the economic status of the parties, no further Order will be made for alimony pendente lite.

The Court reserved the question of counsel fees until some future date, but both parties are cautioned that in awarding counsel fees, we are going to take into consideration the relative intransigence of the parties in relation to all of the domestic problems they have.

June 3, 1982 Order Filed. AND NOW, June 1, 1982, after hearing, the Court notes some minor violations of the visitation Order, but also notes that the main trouble between the parents is their refusal to communicate with each other on a reasonable parental basis. Accordingly, the mother is cautioned that the Court expects strict compliance with the Orders heretofore entered, and if the matter comes back in the future, and the Court finds the mother has willfully, deliberately or by scheme and design tried to thwart the Court's Order, appropriate punishment action will be taken after a contempt finding. Court refuses to adjudge the mother in contempt, but sternly warns her it expects strict compliance with the visitation Order.

AND NOW, this 29th day of August, 1983, a Rule is entered upon the Respondent, after consideration of the within Petition, to show cause, if any she has, why she should not be adjudged in contempt of the previous Orders of Court entered in this case, and subject to such further orders or sanctions as the Court may demm appropriate; in addition, Respondent is to show cause, if any she has, why the visitations between Petitioner and the parties' minor children should not be expanded, particularly during the summer months, and commencing with the calendar year 1984.
The foregoing Rule is returnable for hearing and argument on the 22 day of Sept., 1983, at 10:00 o'clock A.M. in Court Room NO. 1, Crawford County Court House, at Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Oct. 6, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, September 30, 1983, after informal review with counsel and objective statements from both parents and counsel and in-depth interviews with the three children in chambers, the Court believes the best interest of the children lies in a continued visitation arrangement with their father with certain exceptions. Accordingly, the previous Orders are directed to follow with the following modifications:
1. Visits with son Steven shall be reduced for the months of October and November to one (1) weekend per month and the weekend shall be the second weekend of each month, unless the father agrees to change said weekend to accommodate the school or athletic schedules of the son to the best of his ability. The father shall advise the son and the mother at least five (5) days in advance if there is any proposed change in the weekend. In the event the son Steven has athletic events on the weekend, the father has agreed to see that the visit does not prevent him from participating in regularly scheduled athletic or special event activities.

In addition, during the next two (2) months, the father shall be entitled to have visitations with his son on one (1) Sunday per month for a period of not less than six (6) hours. Unless the mother, son and father agree otherwise, this Sunday shall be the fourth Sunday of the month.
2. There seemingly is some reluctance on the part of the mother to disclose her unlisted telephone to the father for fear of annoyance and harassment. The Court directs her to give this number to the father and permits the father to make occasional calles to ascertain the schedules of the children from the mother or the children and the responses to these questions will be truthfully answered. The father shall not call to annoy, harass or harangue the mother in any fashion.
3. The Court explored the possibility of marital counseling for the parents or the children and discussed the same with counsel and informally with both parents and leaves this matter to the discretion of the parents.
4. At this time the court believes the situation is not right for extended visitations with the father over and above those now provided. The Court believes that the father should have additations during the summer month periods so that he will have the children with him for longer periods tham merely weekends and some meaningful plans can be made for family activities and hopes the parties can mutaully agree in the summer of '84 to more extend visits. If not, the Court will have to resolve this matter.

Sept. 16, 1988 ORDER OF COURT filed. AND NOW, this 16th day of Sept.,1988. upon careful consideration of the within Application for Special Relief presented by the Plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED that Arthur A. Nichols is granted temporary physical custody of the minor child, Suetta Kay Nichols, subject to Defendant's reasonable visitation rights which shall be established by mutual agreement of the parties. Nov 23, 1988 Petition to Modify Custody filed.

Nov 29, 1988 Order Appointing Custody Mediator filed: AND NOW, November 28, 1988, this ongoing custody and visitation dispute again comes before the Court with a request by the father seeking primary custody of the two minor children. Record in this case is replete with petitions, contempt citations and order modifications by both judges. The Court believes a custody mediator after review of the file and in the informal atmosphere of a mediation conference can analyse the thrust of present problems, deliniate the position of both parents, receive appropriate informal input from both children and make a recommendation to the Court.

Accordingly, William Pineo is appointed custody mediator, is directed to set a mediation conference as well present the usual report and recommended order to the Court.

In this regard record is somewhat unclear as to whom may be representing the defendant mother in this action and accordingly counsel for the plaintiff will give certified mail notice of the filing the new petition and this Court's order.

Custody mediator will make a recommendation to the Court regarding an appropriate division of mediation fees between the parties.

BY ORDER OF THE Court,

Jan 28, 1983 Copies of order to all counsel of record.

Feb. 4, 1983 Memorandum filed. We have reviewed the record in this matter and the exceptions filed by the defendant and will substantially adopt the Master's Report and Recommendations and the reasons therefor as the Decree of this Court. We make two modifications in the Master's proposed decree.

Apparently the parties agreed upon the disposition of certain real estate and the Master indicates that there was not a full hearing held on that issue. Nonetheless, the Master's proposed decree does contain a paragraph relating to the disposition of the proceeds from the sale of the real estate. This portion of the decree is, by necessity, somewhat contingent. As to the property sold on an article of agreement, there is always the possibility that the purchaser will default, or for some other reason the property will again belong to the parties to this litigation. As to the sale of the marital residence, there is a possibility that it will not be sold, and there is the further possibility that some adjustment must be made in the amount distributed to the defendant if it is sold depending upon whether he returns certain fixtures which he is required to return under the proposed decree. Given this absence of finality, the Court will reserve the right to enter further decrees regarding the ultimate disposition of real estate.

We agree with the Master's recommendation of permanent alimony for a limited period of time. However, we believe that two and one-half years is more than should be necessary for the plaintiff who has college education to become established. We will, therefore, reduce the period during which permanent alimony is to be paid to eighteen (18) months after the entry of the decree. Except as indicated, the decree will follow the proposed decree of the Master.

Feb. 4, 1983 Decree Filed. And Now, this 4th day of February, 1983 after due consideration, a Divorce is decreed as prayed for and the Prothonotary is directed to enter the appropriate Decree.

Custody and visitation rights relating to the parties' two minor children, Heather M. Holcomb and Bethany G. Holcomb, are hereby set in accordance with the terms and conditions of the stipulation entered into between Plaintiff and defendant and attached to this record as Exhibit D.

The division of Personal property made by, and on behalf of, Plaintiff and Defendant, after their separation is hereby deemed to be fair and equitable and is hereby ratified by Order of this Court.

As to marital debts and obligations, the Defendant is hereby ordered to be solely responsible for payment of the balance due on the 1981 International Harvester Scout loan and to be further solely responsible for the balance due for a loan borrowed against his life insurance policy issued by American General Insurance Company.

The Plaintiff is hereby ordered to be solely responsible for payment of the remaining balance due on her student loan from the Northwest Bank and Trust Company of Penna.

All proceeds derived from the sale of the parties' parcel of real estate with mobile home situated thereon which is currently being sold under an Article of Agreement to Mr. Theuret shall be divided equally between the parties after the discharge of any joint liens or obligations encumbering said property. All proceeds from the sale of the parties' parcel of real estate containing the marital home and ten acres of ground shall be divided equally between the Plaintiff and Defendant after the payment of the balance of the mortgage encumbering said property now held by Pennbank, the payment of the balance due on an F.N.B. Cons. Disc. Co. loan for home remodeling, the payment of delinquent 1981 real estate taxes, the payment of the balance due on a fuel oil bill to United Refining Company for oil used in said house in 1981, and finally the payment of the balance now due and owing to FNB Cons. Disc. Co. for furniture used in said home, Any resulting net proceeds after the discharge of these joint obligations shall be divided 50% to the Plaintiff and 50% to the Defendant. The Defendant is hereby ordered to return the kitchen range, dishwasher, closet doors and bedroom light which are properly considered fixtures in said marital home before the sale of the same. If the Defendant chooses not to return those items before the home is sold, his percentage of the net proceeds of the sale shall be decreased by the current fair market value of those fixtures which he currently retains.

The Court reserves the right to make further orders regarding equitable distribution of real estate if such further orders are required by the circumstances.

The Defendant is ordered to pay the sum of $50.00 per week to the Plaintiff as alimony for the next eighteen(18) months after the entry of this Decree in Divorce.

Sept. 10, 1982 Sur Defendant's Preliminary Ofjections II and Order filed:

In the present divorce action, the defendant husband filed three preliminary Objections to the plaintiff wife's Complaint. On January 20, 1982, we dismissed Preliminary Objections I and III, both of which dealt with the issue of venue, However, we reserved decision on Preliminary Objection II until the issue raised in this Objection was decided by the appellate courts in some then pending cases. The issue raised in Preliminary Objection II was whether the equitable distribution provisions of the new Divorce Code are unsonstitutional.

On May 26, 1982, our Supreme Court held that the equitable distribution provisions of the new Divorce Code are not unconstitutional. Bacchetta v. Bacchetta ____Pa.____, 445 A. 2nd 1194(1982). Therefore, we now dismiss Preliminary Objections II.

Date: September 9, 1982.

Nov. 4, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 1, 1982, at the time set for review of this matter and resolution of alimony pendente lite, which terminated Oct. 31, 1982, the Court notes the matter of child support is being litigated in Erie County and a hearing thereon is scheduled for Nov. 5, 1982.

The Following matters are agreed upon by counsel for the parties:

The Court will withhold appointing of a Master until after Nov. 15, 1982, at 5:00 P.M. On motion of either party after that date, the Court will appoint a Master to hold hearings in this case. In this regard, the Court advises counsel that in all probability, it would require the Defendant to initially deposit at the time of appointment of a Master the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to apply on partial Master's fees, court reporter fees and related expenses without prejudice to the right of the Master to request additional fees as the hearing progresses and without prejudice as to the right of the Master to allocate total allowable Master fees and expenses between the parties as he sees fit.

By agreement of counsel for the Plaintiff, the fault count in the divorce (Indignities) will be withdrawn, and accordingly, the Answers to the Bill of Particulars will be couched in language and facts relevant to the award of permanent alimony and will not address themselves primarily to fault.

The Court continued alimony at the amount set by Judge Walker's Order of $450.00 per month, recommencing with the month of November, 1982, which alimony pendente lite will terminate Feb. 1, 1983, unless extended further by agreement or on good cause shown.

2. Real estate consisting of a house and lots 17 and 18 of the Cromdale Allotment, North Shenango Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, is hereby declared to be the sole and absolute property of the Plaintiff and not subject to marital distribution.

3. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the following marital property:

4. The defendant is hereby awarded the following marital property:

A. Bank accounts, either checking or savings, in the Bonita Springs Bank, Bonita Springs, Florida;

7. In addition to the $400.00 already paid, the defendant is ordered to pay an additional $300.00 in Master's fees, making a total payment of Master's fees in the amount of $700.00 in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Pennbank shall deposit from the funds in said account with the Prothonotary the sum of $1,200.00 to be held as security for the payment of the permanent alimony herein awarded which amount shall be deposited by the Prothonotary in an interest bearing account and held subject to further Order of Court in the event of non-payment of alimony. Said amount or any balance thereof after any payments made pursuant to court order, together with accrued interest, shall be returned to the defendant at the expiration of two (2) years from the date of entry of this Decree. Insofar as the balance of the account at Pennbank is concerned, it is released from further restriction insofar as this proceeding is concerned, upon compliance with this Order; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to dissolve any restrictions placed on said account in any other proceeding.

May 4, 1992 PETITION FOR CUSTODY CONTEMPT/MODIFICATION and ORDER FILED. ORDER; AND NOW, April 30, 1992 this matter is before the Court on the petition of the Plaintiff Barbara E. Parker asking that the Court hold the Defendant in contempt with regard to a custody order, and also that the Court modify that order.

The hearing proceeds informally and the child is interviewed in chambers with both counsel present.

The Court does not believe that the Defendant is in willful contempt of the order; however, it is apparent that he is having some problems controlling this 15 year-old girl.

The Court declines to change the custody arrangements currently between the parties as entered after a mediation conference by Order of December 20, 1991.

Accordingly, that order will remain in effect with Plaintiff mother's next visitation weekend being this coming weekend of May 1, 1992 and then every other weekend thereafter as set forth in that order.

The Defendant father, however, is cautioned that if he does not comply with certain aspects of the order, the Court will entertain a further motion to review this matter toward the possible end of a change of custody or other appropriate disposition.

The matters he shall particularly pay attention to are:

1. He shall make sure that the child has visitations with her mother pursuant to the order of December 20, 1991 and shall not allow the child to miss any visitation with respect to that order.

2. He shall see to it that the child attends school each and every day and shall not allow her to miss school unless she shall be under a doctor's care.

3. He shall forthwith cease from purchasing cigarettes for her at any time and shall not allow her, with his permission, to smoke cigarettes. If because of an addiction to cigarettes she has a problem quitting, he shall make arrangements with her to receive appropriate counseling to overcome that addiction.

4. He shall make arrangements immediately for her to resume counseling with Karen Petrosky or such other person as the Mental Health Center shall designate, and both parents shall participate in the counseling if recommended by the counselor. That counseling shall continue on a regular basis unless and until the personnel at the Mental Health Center indicate that it shall cease.

Dec. 3, 1981, Copies of Order to David P. Truax, Esq., Richard Roeder, Esq., and John Fuller, Esq.

Dec. 22, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Dec. 18, 1981, after hearing, the Court notes the problem in this case arises because of the father's association with another female companion and the mother's insistance that she will not consent to a divorce, thus leaving the children in a difficult position. The mother insists that any visits with the father must be on such conditions that no other female companion will associate with the father or the children; with this philosophy the Court disagrees; accordingly, the Court finds that the Order entered October 20, 1981 provides for adequate visitational arrangements for the father, and the Order in general will be followed as to the visitation schedules and conditions as prescribed in Paragraphs A. Through N. with the Court making the following additions:

O. On weekend visits or holiday visits when the children are spending overnights with the father, until further Order of the Court, the father and a female companion may not sleep in the same apartment overnight when the children are there. Satisfactory arrangements will be made by the father so that there will be no indication to the children that father and friend are sleeping together with the children under the same roof.

P. Mother objects strenuously of the presence of another female companion on the visits, and the Court rejects her position in this matter and authorizes the father to have a female companion with him at reasonable times and under reasonable circumstances when he has the children in his possession. However, the Court cautions that until the children become better acquainted with the father's friend, that the start of the visits for the next several visits, the female companion should not be present at all times the children are visiting.

Q. The mother is DIRECTED not to encourage the children to have a dislike for the father's friends, male or female, or for their grandparents. In this regard, the mother is absolutely precluded from setting conditions for visits or weekend visitations, the condition that she will release the children only on the promise of the father that he will have no female companions with him.

R. The children must keep the visits herein prescribed and they may not set down conditions that they will go with the father only if he has no other female companions with him during a portion of the visits.

The father's request for full custody is denied.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 13, 1991 Copies of order put in Attys. Barrett and Lindsay's boxes.

June 7, 1991 Order filed: AND NOW, May 30, 1991, after formal hearing in this matter, the court believes that, at the moment, it is in the best interest of the child, Jason Todd Braddick, that primary physical custody be changed for the summer. ACCORDINGLY, it is ordered as follows:

1. Primary physical custody of Jason Todd Braddick shall be with his mother commencing at 10:00 o'clock a.m. on Saturday, June 1, 1991, until further order of court.

2. The plaintiff shall have the right to visit with his child during the following periods of time:

A) Every other weekend from 5:00 o'clock p.m. on Firday evening until 8:00 o'clock p.m. the following Sunday, starting Friday, June 7, 1991. The father shall have the responsibility of picking up and returning the child to the mother's home.

B) For a two-week summer vacation period, unless the parties agree to a shorter period of time, from July 19, 1991 at 5:00 o'clock p.m. until August 4, 1991 at 8:00 o'clock a.m. The type of reason why the parties might agree to a shorter period for the father's summer vacation would be if the child is involved in some regular activity, such as Little League, et cetera, but the father is not obligated to agree to a shorter period of time.

3. This matter will be reviewed by the Court and we now schedule a hearing for Wednesday, August 21, 1991, at 9:00 o'clock a.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courts for the purpose of determining whether this Order should continue after school begins or whether primary physical custody of the child should be returned to the father when school begins.

4. While the child is in the custody of either party, he shall be given reasonable opportunity to contact the other by telephone.

5. We do not make any provision with respect to holidays or special days in view of the fact that this is a summer Order only.

6. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time and shall cooperate with each other.

April 11, 1983 Motion for Production of Documents filed.

April 14, 1983 Re: Motion for Production of Documents and Order filed: The Additional Defendant, Employers Reinsurance Corporation, has filed the present Motion for Production of Documents, requesting that the Plaintiff produce several documents for inspection and copying pursuant to Rule 4009 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. Accompanying the Motion is an order for the Court to sign requiring the Plaintiff to produce the documents requested. However, it would be premature for the Court to sign such an order. We note that the the present Motion was the Additional Defendant's first request for production of documents for inspection. Under Rule 4009(b)(2), the plaintiff has thirty days after such a request is served upon it to either serve a written response or objections thereto.

Perhaps the Additional Defendant is confusing prior Rule 4009 with the present rule. Under prior Rule 4009, a request for the right of inspection was to be initiated by motion to the Court, However, under the present Rule 4009, which became effective in 1979, a request is to be made without leave of Court.

If the Additional Defendant wishes to proceed with its request for production of documents for inspection, it shall serve its request upon the Plaintiff and the Plaintiff shall then have thirty days to respond to the request or file objections thereto.

May 8, 1986 Order filed: This Court received on May 7, 1986 a motion from the plaintiff which the Court interprets as a request to bifurcate this pending divorce action so that the divorce could be granted and the remaining matters regarding equitable distribution would be reserved for future court resolution. The Court inquired of counsel for the defendant whether his client was consenting to a bifurcation order and was advised that future conferences would be necessary to ascertain the intention of Pamela J. Nichols in this regard.
Accordingly, the court declines to act on said motion and advises counsel that if the parties are in agreement that there would be a bifurcation in this this case, the Court requests a new motion from the plaintiff with the consent of defendant's counsel signed thereon.

The plaintiff is directed to deposit an additional $250.00 with the Prothonotary toward payment of Master's fees and costs and the defendant is directed to deposit the addiotnal sum of $750.00 toward such costs on or before February 19, 1985.

The defendant is permitted to remove the sum of $750.00 from any savings account or other type of deposit he has available to him for payment hereunder, notwithstanding any prior Order that forbade the parties from disposing of any assets.

Mar. 26, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, March 25, 1987, the fees of Gary A. Fabian, Master, are fixed at $3,500.00 of which $1,111.90 has been paid, leaving a balance due of $2,388.10. Each of the parties shall deposit the sum of $1,194.05 with the Prothonotary within Fifteen (15) days of this date, and the Prothonotary is authorized and directed to make payment to the Master upon receipt of the money without further ORder of Court.

The Master's Report in this case was filed June 24, 1985. The record, together with the Master Report and Exceptions filed thereto, was not submitted to the Court until March 1987 because of an appeal to the Superior Court as to one of the issues the Court had ruled on during the proceedings. This is a lapse of some 21 months. Under those circumstances, there may have been charnges that the Court should be aware of before entering a final decree. We are, therefore, scheduling an informal meeting between counsel andthe Court on April 16, 1987 at 1:30 P.M. so that the Court may be updated as to any facts that may be essential tothe entry of a final decree. This informal meeting is not considered a time to further argue the exceptions argument as to which hwas been waived, and will not be an evidentiary haring, but will simply be an apportunity for both counsel to update the cour ton such tings as who currently has possession of the marital residence; who if anyone is collecting rents; who if anyone has paid such things as insurance and taxes. It will not be necessary for the parties to be personally present at that time.
