Sept. 30, 1996 Motion for Entry of Temporary Custody Order and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 30 day of September, 1996, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Motion, said motion is GRANTED.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED that Plaintiffs shall have physical and legal custody of the minor child Tiffany J.M. Tabaka, pending further Order of this Court.

Plaintiffs may enroll the minor child in the PENNCREST School District at Cambridge Springs High School.

This order is not intended to affect the ultimate decision of the mediator or the Court but is only intended to maintain the status quo pending mediation.

Nov. 8, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 6, 1996, the parties appeared in Motions Court with the Defendant filing a Petition for Special Relief, Preliminary Objections, and Brief in support of the Preliminary Objections.

The Court will not decide this custody matter in Motions Court. We think that this case should proceed in the formal course through a mediation with the right of dissatisfied parties to filed for a hearing de novo before one of the judges. We will not shortcut that process.

The parties did reach a temporary agreement to abide the final determination in this case. Based on said agreement it is ordered as follows:

1. The Petition for Special Relief is granted in part and denied in part. We will not change physical custody at this point for the reasons set forth above.

2. The Petition for Special Relief and Preliminary Objections shall be heard first by the mediator and then by the Court if there is a hearing De Novo since one of the basis for the Preliminary Objections is lack of standing of grandparents to seek custody. We believe that an evidentiary hearing is required to dissolve this matter since apparently the first custody complaint does not evidence lack of standing. Rather than have a separate hearing before the Court on the Preliminary Objections, we believe that should be heard by the custody mediator. The custody mediator must first resolve the standing issue.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM LICENSE SUSPENSION

AND NOW, this 19th day of September, upon consideration of the within Petition, it is ordered that a supersedeas order be entered with reference to the suspension of Petitioners driving privileges in Pennsylvania and a hearing be held on the Petition. RULE RETURNABLE for hearing and argument 17th day of December, 1996 in Courtroom No. 2 at 10:00 a.m. in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

In Error ~~Oct 9, 1996Petition For Permanent~~ Alimony and Request for ~~Counsel Fees,~~ Costs and ~~Expenses Under~~ Section 3104, Section 3323 ~~and Section~~ 3702 of the ~~Delvorce~~ Code, filed.

Dec 23, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, December 17, 1996, this matter is before the Court on the Defendant's petition for appeal from license suspension. The Defendant by letter in the file of Oct 18, 1996, requested a continuance of this hearing due to the fact he had taken a recent teaching position in the State of New Jersey and apparently feels he cannot appear on any day except f Monday. He notes it is a 7 hour drive from his current residence in New Jersey to Meadville.

Apparently, the Defendant's petition for appeal of his license suspension imposed by the Pa. Dept. of Transportation arose by virtue of a District Justice in Crawford County on July 16, 1996 for violation of section 1543(a) of the VEhicle Code (driving during suspension). This Court notes that no appeal from the District Justice conviction was filed by the Defendant in the Clerk of Courts Office of Crawford County. Apparently the Defendant acting pro se believes that on the present appeal of his suspension imposed by the Dept of Transportation will take into consideration his guilt or innocence of driving during a period of suspension found in a hearing before the District Justice of the summary violation of Sectiion 1543(a).

Since the Defendant did not appeal this summary conviction by the District Justice of the Peace, counsel for the Commonwealth argues that this matter of contesting the finding of guilt by the District Justice cannot be heard on his present appeal from the suspension imposed by the Dept of Transportation because of said conviction. Had the Defendant wished to dispute his conviction by the District Justice, he should have filed an appeal from said conviction. Haaving failed to do so, this Court cannot retry the validity of the District Justice conviction in the appeal form the action of the Dept of Trans. in imposing the suspension which is now before the Court.

In summary on the state of the present record, this Court seemingly would have no alternative baut to dismiss his appeal for the foregoing reasons.

We will accord the Defendant an opportunity for a hearign on his petition for appeal from license suspension imposed by the Dept. of Trans. but as noted aforesaid there appears to be no legal basis to entertain said appeal and cunsel for the Department will undoubtedly move to dismiss the appeal when a new hearing is set.

We will continue this case until Jan 28, 1997 at 9:30 a.m. If the Defendant, Robert Harmer, wishes to appear, he must do so on that date as we cannot accommodate his request to schedule this hearing on a Monday.

If the Defendant desires to appear, he may do so; but in view of the aforesaid history of thsi case, there appears to be no justification for the Defendant's attack on the suspension imposed as a result of the District Justice conviction.

If the Defendant does not wish to appear, we request he advise the Court Administrator of Crawford County in weiting that he does not wish to appear and he is withdrawing his appeal from the suspension imposed by the Department.

WE direct a copy of this Notice to be sent to Robert Harmer at 805 Raritan Raod, No. 3b, Clark, New Jersey 07066, telephone (908) 574-3679. P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

10/6/99 faxed Halliday & Schetroma

October 6, 1999 Pre-Trial Order filed. And Now, October 6, 1999 after a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the Court enters the following order:
1. Discovery i nearly completed. The depositions of Thomas and Marilyn Hilburn will be taken shortly. All parties are ready for trail. The trial shall take place during the two week period from October 11, 1999 to October 22, 1999. The exact date of the trial is unknown at this moment. The parties shall appear at the second Call of the Trial List in Courtroom 2 at 9 am on October 11, 1999. It is anticipated that this case will take one to two days to try.
2. Description of the Case. This is a claim by the plaintiff against his former employer, Laser Tool, for compensation allegedly earned prior to and after his termination in August of 1992.
The plaintiff claims that he was hired as a commissioned sales person in 1987. The partis entered into an agreement whereby he would be paid a commission on sales generated of 5% up to $600.000.00 of sales per year. The percentage of the commission would decrease at certain dollar sales increments above $600,000.00. He was terminated in august of 1992.and seeks recovery of compensation allegedly due as follows.
1. Five % of the sales produced up to $600,000.00 less the $20,000.00 he already received plus the appropriate percent of commissions on sales produced above $600,000.00.
2. Teh amount of $5753.00 representing commissions due on AT & T contracts that were completed prior to August of 1992.
3. Commission on sales in 1992 and 1993 which he was responsible for acquiring and generating but which were not completed, invoiced or sold until after August 1992.
The defendants claim that the plaintiff was paid a salary of $30,000. plus incentives on sales over $600,000.00. They claim therefore that the plaintiff was only paid $20,000 in 1992 because that is all he earned by way of salary.
Defendants further claim that the oral agreement and the practice of the parties was that the plaintiff wuld earn a commission upon the date the particular order was invoiced to a customer. The AT& T sales were not invoiced until after Aug 1992 therefore no commissions were earned In fact AT & T never issued a purchase order until after August of 1992.
Finally, the defendants claim that there was no oral or written agreement to pay the plaintiff any commissions on work that came in after Aug 1992.
3. Factual issues. The fatual issues center around a determination of teh terms of teh agreement between the plaintiff and the defendants and the dates upon which commissions were earned, if anyh.
4. Legal issues. A. Whether Exhibit A can be admitted into evidence for it is a photocopy of notes that Marilyn Hilburn made during early discussion with the plaintiff at or about the time the plaintiff was hired.
b. Whether or not the plaintiff is entitled to post termination commissions on sales not invoiced as of the date of his termination.
c. Whether or not the plaintiff was a commissined salesman or a salaried employee.
d. Whether the employer of a commissined sales person is entitled to ofset against post

7 Dec. 4, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 25, 1996 this matter comes before the Court onthe Defendant's preliminary objections to this mechanic's lien claim. The Defendants, through counsel, at the time they filed the preliminary objection, attached a short brief which doe snot include any specific case law support for their preliminary objections. This argument was scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and it is now approximately 10:43 AM, and counsel for the defendants has not appeared and we have heard nothing as to why he is not here this day.

We can only assume that he no longer wishes to purse these preliminary objections and insofar as counsel forthe Plaintiff and the Plaintiff are present, we at this time dismiss the Defendant's Preliminary Objections.

15 June 16, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 9, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's motion for sanctions pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 4019.

Essentially counsel for the Defendants; Michael Hahalyak, who is also one of the Defendants, failed to appear at a deposition scheduled for him on June 2, 1997, and also failed to appear at the time the Plaintiff's deposition was to be taken at the request of Mr. Hahalyak.

He apparently called Plaintiff's counsel's voice mail and left a message that he had some sort of a heart problem and therefore was unable to attend the deposition, but he has shown a pattern of failing to appear in this case.

Accordingly, we will schedule a hearing to determine whether the Plaintiff's motion for sanctions should be granted.

Said hearing is set for July 7, 1997, at 11:15 a.m. in Courtroom No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse before the undersigned.

BY ORDER OF THE COUT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

6-17-97 DISTRIBUTED Irwin & MAILED Hahalyak

16 July 14, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 7, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions Pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of civil Procedure 4019. We scheduled this matter for hearing this day after that motion was filed in Motion Court.

Attorney Michael Hahalyak is one of the defendants in this case and he is also representing the remaining defendants. A deposition was scheduled with regard to Mr. Hahalyak on June 2, 1997, and on that same day, he was to take the deposition of the plaintiff. He failed to appear and he left a message on the voice mail of plaintiff's counsel on June 3, 1997 at 9 a.m. in a manner that would indicate that he believed that the depositions were scheduled on that day.

Mr. Hahalyak indicates that he has had some problems with his heart and was recovering at the time of the scheduled deposition and may have therefore forgotten the correct date. He also indicates that he did not have clerical staff at that time or may have had a temporary clerical person.

We note that previously in this case, the defendants filed Preliminary Objections and did not appear for argument.

Based on all of this, we will only impose at this time sanctions sufficient to reimburse the plaintiff for out-of-pocket expenses in this matter and we will require the depositions to occur.

Specifically, the defendants and counsel for the defendants Michale Hahalyak shall pay to plaintiff through his counsel the sum of $75 for reimbursement for the Court Reporter appearing on June 2, 1997, and the sum of $125 to reimburse plaintiff for one hour of his counsel's time. This total of $200 shall be paid within 30 days from this date.

Additionally, due to this problem occurring, the discovery deadline is extended until August 30, 1997. The defendant Michael Hahalyak shall appear for a deposition and shall be prepared to take the deposition of the plaintiff at 1 p.m. on August 11, 1997, or at 1 p.m. on August 13, 1997, whichever date he shall choose. He shall advise plaintiff's counsel no later than Noon on July 14, 1997 which day it will be, or it will be presumed that this matter is scheduled for those depositions on August 11, 1997 at 1 p.m., and the defendant Michael Hahalyak shall appear at the offices of Shafer, Swick, Bailey, Irwin, Stack & Millen at that time.

In the event the defendant Michael Hahalyak does not appear as required for his deposition and to take the deposition of the plaintiff and does not provide the court with written proof from a physician that he was physically unable to do so for some reason, the defendants will not be permitted to introduce any evidence to support their Answers to Plaintiff's Complaint or to support their setoffs and/or counterclaim and new matter averments.

27 Oct. 1, 1998 Notice of Appeal from The Superior Court of PA. returned for defects: The use of et al or any abbreviation is not permitted. The caption must appear as it was when the original complaint or indictment paper was filed in the trial court., filed.

Eleanor R. Valecko,
Deputy Prothonotary
Superior Court of Pennsylvania

29 Oct. 22, 1998 Opinion filed. The defendants filed a Notice of Appeal in this case on September 27, 1998, and on September 30, 1998, we issued, purusant to Pa.R.A.P. 1925(b), an Order requiring the appellant to file a Statement of Matters Complained of On Appeal and to serve a copy of that on us. That has never been filed and we are not exactly sure what issues the defendants intend to raise on appeal.

At the time set for trial in this case, neither the defendants, nor their counsel appeared, and judgment was ultimately entered in favor of the plaintiff. Defense counsel thereafter filed a peittion asking the court to set aside the judgment and allow him to proceed on depositions and exhibits submitted or alternatively grant a new nonjury trial.

For the reasons stated in our Memorandum and accompanying Order of August 27, 1998, we denied his request andin light of the fact we do not known tne nature of the defendants' appeal, we respectfully direct the Superior Court to that Memorandum and Order of August 27, 1998, and to the rest of the record in this case.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

EX1999-16

10-23-98 distributed Irwin and set Hahalyak

30 July 1, 1999 Order filed. And Now, June 30, 1999 upon consdieration of the defendants' Motion to Vacate Judgment and to Set Aside Sheriff's Sale Proceeding said Motion is denied.

The defendants filed a Notice of Appeal to the Superior Court in the fall of 1998 and that mere filing of an appeal acts to perfect an appeal. See Pa.r.A.P. 902, Explanatory NOte; Larocca v W.C.A.B. 592 A.2d 757(pa.Comwlth 1991)(notice of appeal is sufficient to perfect an appeal). Moreover, a defective notice of appeal if timely filed will not render an appeal invalid. DOT v Florek 455 A.2d 1263 (1983).

Therefore since the defendants' appeal was timely filed and perfected the Superior Court now has jurisdiction in this case. The defect in the caption of the case which precipitated the return of the notice only resulted in the case not being docketed. It did not result in the dismissal of the appeal. As such, with an appeal taken, this Court is without jurisiction to act in a manner the defednant has requested, Pa.R.A.P. 1701: Corabi v Curtis Publishing Co 262 A.2d 665 (Pa.1970) Essentially if we understand the defendant correctly, he is asking us to change the decision we have made, even thought he has already filed an appeal, and if we find in his favor, therefore the appeal would not be necessary. This cannot now be done since the matter is already on appeal even though the appeal is not yet docketed.

This Order is without prejudice to any other remedy that the defendants May have.

37 Aug. 27, 1999, ORDER CERTIFIED FROM THE SUPERIOR COURT OF PA. filed. ORDER: The court hereby grants the motion to sismiss.

July 15, 1999 per curiam.

35 Aug 24, 1999 Opinion filed. We write this opinion pursuant to PA rule of Appellate Procedure 1925(a).

The defendants filed a Notice of Appeal throught the Superior Court on July 23, 1999. We directed counsel for the defendants to file a statement of matters complained of on appeal pursuant to PA Rule of Appellate Procedure 1925(b) and to serve a copy of the smae on the undersigned which was done.

We note that teh defendant sraised two issues for consideration by the Superior Court but we will not specifically address those issues because we believe it is clear that the appeal has not been appropriately filed.

Specifically the defendants originally filed a timely notice of appeal in this case on Sept 28, 1998 but on July 15, 1999 That appeal was dismissed upon motion of the plaintiff.

Therefore the defendants are not in a proper position to file an appeal at this time since they are clearly raising issues regarding what the Court did which were appealed by the defendant in their originial appeal.

Accordingly we will respectfully refer the Superior Cour to the record we have outlined in this matter.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 10/7/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, to to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

BY THE COURT,

Oct. 10, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, October 8, 1996 after lengthy hearing and the presentation of considerable testimony, this Court is satisfied that at the present time the best interest of the children will be served by awarding primary physical custody to the father. The mother shall have partial custody and liberal visitations. The Court recognizes that a divorce soon to be presented to the Court fo rfinal decree may impact on the mother's planning for her future living arrangements.

The prior order dated December 19, 1996 regarding partial custody and visitation for mother shall continue. The Court urges and directs that the parties explore said partial custody and visitation schedule to the end that duing the summer months, additional custodial time for the mtoher can be agreed upon.

The Court at this time notes that under certain circumstances of the present shared custody and visitation order between the aprties, there may be times when a three week period elapses between mother's visits. The Court asks the parent to attempt to amicably resolve the visitation and partial custody arrangements for the mtoher so that she has adequate visitations and period of partial custody at holiday, birth day and school vacation periods, and so that no period of time in excess of 17 days without the children occurs unless agreed to by the parties.

In the vent the parties are able to amicalby resolve the partial custody and visitations with ther mother, said agreement will be reducted to writing and filed as an addendum to this order, If the parties cannot agree upon a modification ofthe December 19, 1996 order within 30 days, either party may move the Court to enter a revised aprtial custody and visitation schedule for the mother.

Dec. 6, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 26, 1996 at the time this abuse matter is before the Court, the Court listens to a litany of accusations by each party with the same being denied by the other party. The Defendant advises he is now incarcerated in the Crawford County Jail on a 6 to 12 month sentence, but he apparently has some arrangement for parole if he enters into a Veteran's Administration alcohol and drug rehabilitation program.

The Defendant agrees he will not contact the Plaintiff Kim Rader in any fashion, in person, in writing, or by telephone, nor procure others to do so on his behalf. The Defendant shall not call the Plaintiff for any purpose or procure others to do so on his behalf. The Defendant shall not call the Plaintiff for any purpose or procure others to do so, or procure others to go to her home or contact her on his behalf, nor may he go within 100 years of her residence for any purpose.

This order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of one year.

Any police officer having reasonable grounds to believe the Defendant has violated the terms and conditions of this order and that the welfare of the Plaintiff is in danger may apprehend the Defendant without a warrant, incarcerate him in the Crawford County Jail, and request an immediate contempt hearing.

Cost in this case are to be paid by the County.

Jan 21, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, Jan 8, 1997, this matter come sbefore the Court on a petition for contempt with respect to this custody proceeding. Essentially, the Plaintiff maintains that beginning in mid-April 1996 he was denied periods of temporary physical custody every other weekend. The Defendant disputes the factual allegations made by the Plaintiff and maintains that he did not appear in a timely manner for the April 19, 1996 visit and did not appear at all for May 3, 1996 or May 17,1996.

The Defendant does admit that she did not notify the Plaintiff on two occasions with respect to her moving to different locations although on the first instance she believes he should have known where she was.

Essentially, from the period from april 19, 1996 through either October or November of 1996, the Plaintiff was denied any periods of temporary physical custody whether it be through his own actiions of thsoe of the Defendant and the Defendant concedes that she is willing to provide some extra periods of temporary physical custody to the Plaintiff in light of the periods of time that have been missed.

BY THE COURT,

Dec. 17, 1996 Request for Leave to Withdraw and Order filed. AND NOW on 12 day of December, 1996, in consideration of the attached motion Request for Leave to Withdraw filed by the plaintiff's/defendant's attorney the Court grants the stated motion.

Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

Dec. 17, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 12, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for contempt and on a petition by the Defendant to amend or modify a protection from abuse order, specifically to allow him to pick up certain belongings later than the order indicated.

After informal hearing, we decline to hold the Defendant in contempt insofar as he supplies a satisfactory explanation for the payment made to the Plaintiff's counsel rather than directly to her, and we do not consider what has been described as a violation of Paragraph No. 7. It is clear that the Defendant did violate Paragraph No. 9 in that he did not pick up his belongings on the date indicated, but he maintains that he told Plaintiff's counsel that he could not do that, and rather than to find him in contempt and fine him even the minimal fine required by law, we would rather see the money go the debt the Defendant owes to the Plaintiff, which is substantial.

With respect to this matter, Paragraph 9 of Judge Thomas's order of November 6, 1996 with regard to the Defendant picking up certain belongings at the Plaintiff's residence is modified to allow him to do so on December 22, 1996 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m., and the list which was attached to the original order of November 6, 1996 shall be the list followed.

If the Defendant believes he is entitled to any other belonging or belongings not on that list, it shall be up to him to file an appropriate civil action against the Plaintiff.

In the event the Defendant does not remove some or all of his property on December 22, 1996, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m., he shall make arrangements with the Plaintiff to have those items removed by an independent service at Defendant's expense no later than January 10, 1997, or the Plaintiff shall be free to dispose of those items at her discretion.

The Defendant agrees that beginning with the December 1996 payment required by Paragraph 10 of Judge Thomas' order of November 6, 1996, the Defendant will make all such payments directly by mail to the Plaintiff and he agrees that he know her current address.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

January 16, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, January 14, 1998 the plaintiff's petition for civil contempt for violation of a protection from abuse order is denied without hearing or further proceeding.

The relevant order was entered on November 6, 1996. The petition alleges that violations of the order occurred between December 21, 1997 and December 31, 1997. Those times are outside of the one year period that the order was effective. See 23 Pa.C.S.A. 6108 (d) for the provision that the duration of a protection from abuse order may not exceed one year.

Oct. 31, 1996 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, October 30, 1996, we note that we entered a Protection From Abuse Order in this matter on October 25, 1996, but it has not been transcribed due to the fact that the court reporter in Court that day is currently out of the courthouse due to surgery.

At the request of the Pennsylvania State Police, Corry Barracks, we are entering a Temporary Order with regard to issues that have arisen which is based on our October 25, 1996 Order and shall remain in effect until that Order is transcribed and signed.

Specifically, it is ordered that the defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the plaintiff. It is further ordered that the plaintiff shall have sole possession of the residence at R.D. 1, Lot 12B, Foots Trailer Court, Titusville, PA 16354 and the defendant shall not go to that residence. The defendant apparently works at the same trailer court and he may do so, but he shall not go to the plaintiff's residence nor shall he do anything to bother her or harass her while he is working in the trailer court.

A copy of this Order shall be faxed to County Control, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, the Pennsylvania State Police at the Corry Barracks.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following Order:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the plaintiff.

2. The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of R.D. #1 Lot 12-B, foots Trailer Court in Titusville, Pennsylvania, ant the defendant shall not go to that residence.

There is no indication that the 3301(d) affidavit was properly served on the responding party.

There is no showing tht the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) in the form provided by 1920.73 to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party was properly mailed or delivered; and/or a copy of said notice is not attached to the praecipe to refer or submit. Dec. 20, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 18, 1996, the parties have filed a Stipulated Petition For Custody in which they ask the court to sign a consent order based on their agreement. The record reflects that the plaintiff has attended the Seminar for Separating Parents but the defendant was scheduled to attend on Dec. 17, 1996, and did not do so.

ACCORDINGLY, we will not sign the Consent Order until such time as a certificate is filed with the Prothonotary's Office evidencing that the defendant has, in fact, taken the seminar.

We will therefore return this matter to the Prothonotary's Office without prejudice to the parties to again petition the court to sign the consent decree once the defendant has complied with that requirement.

Apr. 8, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 7, 1997 this matter has come before the Court on a praecipe to transmit the record for a final divorce decree.

We will not grant a final divorce decree because the costs in a companion custody case at 1990-149 remain unpaid.

Once those costs are paid the parties may refer the matter back to the court for further consideration.

If the plaintiff has paid all of her costs in the custody action and wants further relief in the event that the defendant does not pay his share of the costs in the custody action and wants further relief in the event that the defendant does not pay his share of the costs in the custody action she may file an appropriate contempt petition in the custody case for the imposition of sanctions on the defendant. This order is not intended to make the plaintiff pay the defendant's costs in the custody action.

Sept. 4, 1997 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

__X__ The defendant was not served with process within thirty days after the date of the filing of the complaint or reinstated complaint. Pa.R.C.P. 401(a); Lauterbach v. Lauterbach, 202 Pa. Super. 260, 195 A.2d 159 (1963); Fox v. Thompson, 327 Pa. Super. 39, 546 A.2d 1146 (1988).

__X__ Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pleadings or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation. *

__*__ Other There is no indication as to how the agreement of the parties of 7/21/97 is to be treated. If it is to become a part of the divorce decree then it should say so. Since we do not know how to treat the agreement we believe that there are outstanding economic issues which have not been finally resolved or withdrawn. See 23 Pa.C.S.A. 3105.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Aug. 21, 1997 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, this 20 day of August, 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Order of December 30, 1996 is affirmed in all respects.

2. The Parties special attention is called to Paragraph 7 and 9 of that Order.

3. The Mediator notes for the Court that the Parties find it difficult to discuss the children's welfare and that this has produced an estrangement between the oldest child, who lives with the father, and the remaining children, and in addition has made it difficult to make the shared custody arrangement work. The Mediator has recommended strongly to the Parties that they put aside their personal differences and resentments and instead concentrate exclusively on the welfare of their children and that they seek counseling to help them accomplish this. The Court does not compel counseling by this Order but does join in the Mediator's recommendation.

4. Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $212.00, are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

5. The deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the mother. The deposit shall first be applied against the costs and fees and the remainder, if any, shall be remitted to the mother. If the deposit is insufficient to cover the cost of the Mediation, then the father shall pay the difference to the Prothonotary of Crawford County within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. The Parties shall settle up between themselves within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order.

6. Either party may mvoe the court for a hearing de novo within ten days from the date thereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Mar 19, 1998 PRETRIAL ORDER FILED. AND NOW, March 18, 1998 after a Pretrial Conference with both counsel present, the Court enteres the following Order:
1. All discovery is completed, the parties are ready for a nonjury trial and trial will commence May 7, 1998 in CT Room 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. It is anticipated that this case will take 2 days to try.
2. The plaintiff applied for a teaching position in the Counneaut School dist. which was given to another candidate. This lawsuit arose because the plaintiff maintains that pursuant to 51 Pa.C.S.A. Section 7104(a) he should have been given the position because he had a veteran's preference.
The defendants make two arguments. First of all they maintain that because the plaintiff applied for a position and then resigned in 1994 he has used his veteran's preference and is not ent itled to another for the current position. The parties will file trial briefs with respect to that issue. Secondly, the defendants maintain that they were entitled to establish local qualifications for the posi6tion and did so but in response to that the plaintiff maintains that those local qualifications were not listed with the job posting and therefore were not effective.

Feb. 3, 1998 Answer and New Matter on behalf of Defendant, Erie Insurance Exchange,filed.

Feb. 3, 1998 Answer and New Matter on behalf of Defendant, Zinchiak Manufacturing Co.,filed.

Feb. 13, 1998 PRE-TRIAL ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Feb. 13, 1998, after a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the Court enters the following order:

1. All discovery is completed, all parties are ready for trial, this casae shall take one day to try, with the nonjury trial to be scheduled by the Court Administrator before Judge Vardaro sometime after late May 1998.

2. Description of the case. This is a declaratory judgment action. The plaintiff is the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Meadville (Authority). It entered into a written lease agreement with Zinchiak Mfg. Co (Zinchiak) on Jan. 16, 1991. Zinchiak had certain purchase orders from PPG which provided for inter alia, Zinchiak storing glass for PPG on the premises that was the subject of the lease between the Authority and Zinchiak.

PPG claims that there was damage to the glass that was stored on the premises owned by the Authority. Apparently PPG alleges that the glass was damaged as a result of water leaking through the roof at the facility.

It is alleged that the glass was damaged prior to and after July 1, 1993. For the period of time prior to July 1, 1993 the Authority owned the premises and leased the facility to Zinchiak. After July 1, 1993 the premises was leased directly by the Authority to PPG. PPG has filed a separate lawsuit against the Authority and Zinchiak to recover for the damage to its glass during both periods of time.

The lease between the Authority and Zinchiak contained a paragraph 12 which was an indemnification clause. Zinchaik obtained insurance coverage through the other defendant Erie Inurance Co.

The Authority believes that it was a named insured under Zinchaik's policy with Erie Insurance Co. and seeks a declaration that Zinchaik and Erie are obligated to indemnify and defend the Authority with respect to PPG's claims together with damages for costs, expenses and legal fees that the Authority has incurred in these actions.

The defendants allege that the Authority had an affirmative contractual duty to maintain the roof, that it was the Authority that breached its obligation to maintainthe roof and therefore the Authority is soley liable to PPG for its losses. The defendants claim that they are under no duty to idemnify and defend the Authority against claims based on its own negligence or breach.

3. Legal Issues.

a. Application and interaction of various clauses in the Authority-ZMC lease, the Authority-ZMC lease, the Authority-PPG lease documents, the PPG-ZMC contract documents including the aforesaid addendum.

b. Application of the indemnity language in the Authority-ZMC lease under which Authority seeks to impose upon ZMC an obligation of indemnity and defense for claims arising not out of conduct of ZMC, but rather due to material breaches of Authority's contractual duties.

c. Application of insurance policy and related insurance documents between Erie and AMC as they affect Authority.

d. Whether the declaratory judgment action should be decided prior to resolution of the underlying PPG litigation.

4. Disposition of pre-trial motions.

There do not appear to be any pretrial motions now pending before the Court.

5. The plaintiff's case in chief:

a. Witnesses. i. Victor Leap; ii Deanna Burte; iii. Ted Watts; iv. Edward Steele.

b. Exhibits. The plaintiff intends to use the exhibits listed on its pretrial narrative.

6. The defendants' case in chief.

a. Witnesses. i. Kenneth Zinchiak; ii. Edward Steele

ORDER: AND NOW, this 21st day of Nov. 1996 upon presentation and consideration of the Petitioner's Petition to Appeal his driver's license Suspension Appeal and to Grant Stay of Execution of his driving privileges:

11/21/96 copy to Atty. Hatheway

Dec. 3, 1996 Affidavit of Service filed. I, Edward J. Hatheway, Esq., after being duly sworn according to law, do hereby certify that I did on November 22, 1996, send to the Respondent, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation, by Certified Mail, Receipt No. P 535 873 925, Return Receipt Requested, a true and correct certified copy of the Petitioner's Petition to Appeal Driver's License Suspension and for Stay of Execution of Driving Privileges; and that I did receive a duly-executed return dated November 22, 1996. Edward J. Hatheway

Feb. 24, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 28, 1997, after hearing, the Court finds the Department of Transportation has failed to meet its burden of proof in this case, and the Court believes that there is strong evidence that the Defendant was in such a physical condition in the emergency room as a result of an accident that he did not make a knowing and intelligent refusal. Accordingly, the appeal from the license suspension is sustained and the Department is directed to reinstate the driving privileges of Charles C. Boyer, which arose from tthis accident occurring on or about September 16, 1996.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.
2-24-97 MAILED Kuhar & DISTRIBUTED Hatheway

Mar. 18, 1997 Transcript of Proceedings Taken at Time of Hearing on License Suspension Appeal filed.

March 17, 1997 Commonwealth of PA., Dept. of Transportation Notice of Appeal, filed.

March 20, 1997 MEMORANDUM FOR APPEAL filed. Defendant in this case was involved in a severe automobile accident on Sept. 16, 1996. He was injured in the nose and mouth and was taken to the hospital for examination and treatment. While at the hospital, the police asked him to submit to a breathalyzer test and he refulsed. From this refusal, his license was suspended and we heard the appeal from the suspension January 28, 1997. We sustained his appeal, finding that his physical condition, while at the hospital and in the custody of the investigating police officers, was such that he did not make a knowing and intelligent decision when he refused the test. We found the refusal was made while he was in the hospital emergency room and that his injuries and the serious impact occurring in the accident could well have prevented him from fully realizing what was going on at the hospital and the requests the police were making of him.

Our Order at the conclusion of the hearing on Jan. 28, 1997 found that there was sufficient evidence that the Defendant was in such a physical condition in the emergency room at the hospital because of the accident that he was incapable of making a knowing and intelligent refusal of the request of the police officers to submit to a blood test to determine the percentage of alcohol in his system.

From this Order, Commonwealth has taken an appeal. We note that as of this date the underlying driving under the influence case has not yet been processed through the Court system of Crawford County.

We have re-read the entire transcript of the suspension hearing, giving particular attention to the Defendant's testimony as to why the Defendant was incapable of making a rational, intelligent decision regarding the request to submit to a blood test at the hospital.

The reasons for the Court decision can be found on page 50 and 51 of the transcript of the hearing. At the time of the suspension hearing we had doubt about the Defendant's ability to make a knowing and intelligent refusal of a request to submit toa blood test, and on re-reading of the entire 51 page transcript, we believe our decision is sustained by the record.

Mar. 18, 1997 Objection by Brian Scott Williams filed.

Mar. 18, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, March 5, 1997, Brian Scott Williams appears in Motions Court with an objection for motion of continuance regarding a continuance that was granted previously rescheduling a hearing for February 25, 1997 to another dated.

That issue is not moot but we enter this order because of the fact Brian Scott Williams asks that his license suspension be dropped without a hearing and that motion is denied.

Brian Scott Williams is anxious to have this matter resolved as quickly as possible and we note that the Court administrator has now scheduled this matter for apparently 1:00 p.m. on March 25, 1997 in front of Senior Judge P. Richard Thomas. Mr. Williams indicates to the Court he has discussed this matter with Judge Thomas when he was on jury duty and therefore Judge Thomas cannot hear this appeal.

In light of the fact Mr. Williams is anxious to have this matter resolved, the Court Administrator is directed to reschedule this hearing for 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday march 25, 197 in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Apr. 8, 1997 Income and Expense Statement of Kevin William Bennett filed.

Apr. 17, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 17, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and Special Relief. Both counsel agree that it is primarily a Petition For Special Relief since the parties' net monthly incomes are exactly the same and alimony pendente lite probably would not be appropriate looking at the support guidelines.

Essentially, the plaintiff is living in the marital home and has one of the parties' two vehicles. The vehicle the plaintiff has a loan payment and the vehicle the defendant has, does not.

Essentially, the plaintiff is looking for some assistance in making the mortgage and vehicle payment or in the alternative is willing to trade vehicles so that he has the vehicle without a payment and the defendant can make the payment on the vehicle with the monthly payment.

After an informal hearing and considering presentation of the parties at that hearing, and after reviewing the respective income and expenses of the parties, we decline to grant the relief requested.

Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pleadings or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Oct. 2, 1997 Motion for Continuance by Defendant filed.

Oct. 2, 1997 Order field. AND NOW, October 1,1 997, the motion of the Meadville Medical Center to continue the trail is denied.
This is another example of one rule violation after another.
Apparently the plaintiffs placed the case on the trial list by filing a certificate of readiness and apparently did not follow local rule local rule L302A as to the representations and contents of that certificate of readiness.
Next, defense counsel never objected to to this case being on the trial list. The case was called for trial. A representative from consel's firm indicated that while he did not know anything about the case he presumed that defense counsel would be ready.
Finally, the motion that is now presented is not in keeping with local Rule 206B as to the notice requirement to opposing counsel. We have no idea whether plaintiff's counsel will consent or object to this motion. It is not for the court to find that out.
All counsel are required to follow all applicable rules.

ON TRIAL LIST FOR April 1997

Apr. 11, 1997 Pretrial Order filed. AND NOW, April 9, 1997, after a Pretrial Conference with both counsel present, the Court enters the following Order:

1. All discovery is completed, all parties are ready for trial and non-jury trial shall commence on Thursday, April 17, 1997, at 9:00 o'clock A.M., in Courtroom No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. It is anticipated that this case will take less than half a day.

2. This case involves an appeal from the decision of the Board of Assessment Appeal in which that Borad refuse to grant tax exempt status to 2 parcels owned by the appellant, one in Hayfield Township and the other in West Mead Township.

3. The parties agree that essentially they will be focusing on two prongs of the five pronged test for deciding whether or not an entity qualifies as a "purely public charity", which test was set forth in Hospital Utilization Project v. Commonwealth, 507 Pa 1, 487 A.2d 1306 (1985). Those two prongs will be whether the land in question is being used to benefit a substantial and indefinite class of persons who are legitimate subjects of charity and whether the use of the land relieves government of some of its burden.

4. The actual assessed value of each property will not be contested.

5. The County will call, Joseph J. Galbo, III, Chief Assessor, for the purpose of producing the assessment card for the parcel in question and then rest.

6. The Appellant intends to call Jonathan Helmreich and will present numerous exhibits. From the listing of exhibits in the appellant's Pretrial Narrative, counsel for the county indicates that there should be no objection to those exhibits, but we will reserve rulings on those exhibits until the time of trial when they are offered.

7. Both Counsel will be given an opportunity after trial to submit briefs to the legal issues in this matter.

dec. 6, 1996 Affidavit filed. On this 4th day of December, 1996, I, Christine B. Allison, after being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that:

1. I am the daughter of the Plaintiffs herein and as such, I have undertaken the responsibility of attempting to investigate into any current informationon the whereabouts of the defendants and, in such capacity, have undertaken the steps outlined herein.

2. In 1991 the Crawford County Real Estate Tax Assessment Office was contacted and avised it had a record of Alice F. Walker residing and owing a home at RD #4 Box 525, Conneaut Lake, PA 16316 in Summit Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, however there are no current records of onwership from that date.

3. I called the United States Post Office in Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania on December 4, 1996 for any present or forwarding address of the defendants and was advised that since the last inquiry of 1991 where the defendants had "moved--left no address" there is no additional information in their records.

4. The 1996 Meadville Telephone book was reviewed and it contained no listing of Robert L. Walker or Alice F. Walker.

5. Directory Assistance for the Meadville, Conneaut Lake and Mercer areas were called and advise that they have no listing for Robert L. Walker andAlice F. Walker.

6. The Crwaford County Treasurer's Office was contacted and advised it hasno record of the address of the defendants.

8. In 1991 the PA Department of Transportation, Bureau of Drivers Licensing, was contacted requesting information on the defendants' driver's licenses. Same was returned by the Department indicating that they could not process the request without a date of birth, which were unknown in 1991 and are still unknown today.

9. In 1991, on the belief that the defendants may have held an Ohio driver's license, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in Columbus, OH was also contacted and this investigation was also returned becuase the request could not be processed without the driver's number, social security or date of birth, which were unknown in 1991 and are still unknown to day.

10. In 1991, on the belief that the defendants may have held an New Yor driver's license, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles was also contacted and this investigation was also returned because the request could not be processed without the dirver's number or date of bith, which were unknown in 1991 and are still unknown today.

11. The Attorney General's Office was called on December 4, 1996 requesting any update from the inquiry made in 1991, revealing no new information.

12. The Crawford County District Attorney's Office was called onDecember 4, 1996 requesting any update from the inquiry made in 1991, revealing no new information.

13. A telephone call was made to PSP Trooper Bey on or about mid-November requesting any update on their investigation at which time, this deponent was advised that the defendants had been in the Mercer County area for a hearing before , the defendants having been picked up in Harrisburg and returned on warrants in Mercer County for a hearing before a District Justice, however, the PSP in Meadville were not advised of the defendants having beenin Mercer until the matter had been settled and the defendants released. Trooper Bey informed your deponent that he believed this occurred about 5 years ago.

Trooper Bey also indicated that there had been reports that the defendatns may have been in the Youngstown area but those reports have been unsubstantiated.

Further, Trooper Bey advises your deponent that the matter is closed.

Apr. 14, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 7, 1997, at the time this abuse action is before the Court, Plaintiff and her counsel appear, but Defendant fails to appear. The Court is advised by counsel for the Plaintiff that the Defendant fails to appear. The Court is advised by counsel for the Plaintiff that the Defendant received notice of the hearing date by mail to his address in the State of Missouri. Notice was also sent to Defendant's counsel, Attorney P. Thomas Loughlin, 1209 Penn Tower Office Center, 3100 Broadway, Kansas City, Missouri 64111.

The Court receives informal input and believes a continuance of the temporary Order is appropriate. Accordingly, the Defendant is DIRECTED not to contact the Plaintiff in any fashion, not contact the Plaintiff in writing or by telephone, but may do so by contacting her counsel, Attorney R. Charles Thomas, 296 Chestnut Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania, with relation to this action. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's home in Pennyslvania or her place of work for any purpose and he may not be within one hundred (100) yards of her residence.

This Order shall remain in effect for a period of one (1) year from this date with leave to petition the Court for further hearing and assurance to the Court that he will appear once a hearing is set.

The court notes that there is a pending custody petition in Jackson County, Missouri at DR 1996 - 013937, which action apparently was commenced by Defendant Jim Payne, Jr. An answer has been filed February 17, 1996 and this Court is unaware if any hearing on the custody issue has been set. In the meantime, insofar as the Abuse Act in Pennsylvania permits, Plaintiff is awarded custody of said minor child and if Defendant/Father wishes visitation or custody, he may do so by requesting a hearing on the pending action in Missouri or filing a separate action in the Common Pleas Court of Crawford County.

Costs in this case in the amount of $132.50 are assessed against the Defendant and the same will be paid within ten (10) days of the receipt of a copy of this Order.

Nov. 12, 1997 Inventory of Jane Feydo Dft filed.

November 13, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, November 12, 1997, the matter is before the Court on a divorce action to which the Wife has filed a cross divorce claim and requested alimony and counsel fees. The matter is handled informally by counsel and counsel seemingly agree that the husband's net income amounts to approximately $3,600 per month and even though wife is not currently employed, she has a net earning capacity of some $972 net per month. Accordingly, guidelines attributing $3,600 net to husband and $1,000 to wife give a current spousal guideline of $1,040 per month.

Accordingly, commencing with the date the motion was filed to set a hearing, namely September 10, 1997, the husband is DIRECTED to pay alimony pendente lite to the wife in a total amount of $1040 per month with the first payment due and payable December 1, 1997 and approximately the first of each and every month thereafter. The Court awards alimony pendente in the amount of $1040 per month payable as aforesaid, plus an additional $150 per month to apply to arrears existing on this Order, because the same is backdated to September 12, 1997.

The parties mutually agree that if the divorce action is amicably resolved or resolved by final Court Order after hearing and there remains arrears due on the alimony obligation, the same shall be paid in full on or before the Court will sign a final Divorce Decree.

With relation to counsel fees, the Court awards the wife counsel fees in the amount of $500 payable $250 on December 1, 1997 and the balance on or before December 20, 1997.

This Order for counsel fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Wife to petition for additional counsel fees pleading adequate grounds therefor.

The wife has had the realty appraised by Price Realty at a cost of $225 and the Husband is Directed to pay one'half of said bill direct to the wife on or before December 1, 1997.

Wife has hired auctioneer Bruce Nichols to make an appraisal of the personal property in the marital home and the parties mutually agree that they will each pay one-half of said appraisal costs with the husband paying his one-half within ten (10) days of the time the wife notifies him by a copy of the bill of the amount thereof.

Wife admits she has certain marital personalty in her home at Sharon, Pennsylvania and has possession of two vehicles in her name at the same location. If the parties cannot mutually agree on a reasonable, accurate appraisal value for the aforesaid items, either side may request an appraisal of the same and the parties will be directed to split the costs thereof.

The obligation to pay alimony pendente lite shall terminate February 1, 1998 unless the parties mutually agree to an extension thereof or either party files a petition with the Court requesting a hearing to extend the alimony obligation beyond said date.

This Order is made without prejudice to the Husband to petition the Court after said date for termination of the obligation to pay alimony pendente lite.

The Wife is currently unemployed and upon obtaining new employment, she must report the same to counsel for the husband within five days after she receives a payment for a full employment period and supply with said notice the gross and net amounts received.

Apr. 21, 1998 AND NOW,April 21, 1998, this matter is before the Court on a petition by Jane Feydo in this counter divorce action to extend a previous award of alimony beyond the termination date of February 1, 1998. The matter is resolved without the taking of formal testimony and it appears that, to date, Richard D. Feydo, Sr. original Plaintiff, has filed no inventory or income and expense statements. We direct that he file the same within five (5) days of this date

The parties mutually agree that Attorney Gregg, acting for husband Richard D. Feydo, Sr., will prepare an authorization signed by Mr. Feydo that will authorize Attorney R. Charles Thomas, counsel for Jane Feydo, to contact Attorney James Ahearn of Ligonier, Pennsylvania, to discuss a Colt Industries class action suit, of which Mr. Feydo is a party seeking to be reimbursed for monies allegedly due from his former employer, Colt Industries. This authorization will be delivered to Attorney R. Charles Thomas within five (5) days.

This Court frants the request of Jane Feydo to recommence the alimony pendente lite award of $1,040.00 per month effective February 1, 1998. The former alimony pendente lite award of $1,040.00 per month, under the November 12, 1997 order, shall continue in the amount of $1,040.00 per month plus an additional amount of $400.00 per month to apply on the arrears of $2,080.00 (February and March) until arrears are paid.

The alimony pendente lite will continue until the case is amicably resolved by the parties, in writing, or until theMaster in Divorce submits his recommendation to the Court.

It appears the parties at one time individually or jointly, had interest in one or more Oppenheimer Funds. Apparently, eachparty is contending there was some agreement reached in the past regarding the division of these Oppenheimer Funds equitably among the parties. The Court directs the parties to deliver, through their consel to the apposing counsel, copies of the most recent status of any Oppenheimer Funds' account in their name.

Either party may request Oppenheimer Funds to disclose any records giveing a history of ownership of the funds, and each party wiaves the right to confientiality regarding Oppenheimer Funds currently or formerly owned in joint or individual names.

August 3, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, July 31, 1998 the matter is before the Court on a petition for civil contempt and imposition of sanctions because the alimony pendente lite award of $1040 per month has not been strictly complied with.

In this regard, the Court's attention is directed to some unclear language in the Aprail 21, 1998 Order. This Court listens to input from counsel and opines and directs that the April 21, 1998 Order included a full payment of alimony pendente lite concerning the month of April.

Counsel mutually agree that arrears on the alimony pendente lite Order amount to $1920 as of July 31, 1998. Accordingly, this Court directs as follows:

The Court denies the request at this time to attach the Defendants wages for payment of alimony pendente lite and rrears all payments of alimony pendente lite will be made on or before 5 PM on the thenth calendar day of each and every month.

Additionally, the prties mutually agree that considering the Court intended to award alimony pendente lite for the full month of April, there exists, on this date, total arrears of $1920 due on the alimony pendente lite. The Court directs that commencing with the month of August 1998 the Defendant will pay, in addition to the $1040 ordered per month, an additional sum of $640 per month to apply toward arrearage of $1920.

This Court notes that counsel for the Plaintiff advises there is some possibility of the filing of a peition to reduce alimony pendente lite because of the recent employment of the wife Defendant. This Court makes no porjection as to its opinion on modification of the Order for this reason, absent the filing of a petition to modify alimony pendente lite filed by the Plaintiff husband on the fact that the Defendant wife now has employment income.
The Plaintiff is cuationed that in default of payment of the aforesaid alimony pendente lite and arrearages, this Court would entertain a motion for contempt and impose such additional sanctions, including incarceration, if the Court finds a willful and deliberate disregard of the payments and the schedules therefore set forth in this order.
There is an oral request for counsel fees requested on behalf of the Defendant wife, and through agreement of counsel, the Court awards counsel fees to Attorney R. Charles Thomas in the amount of $275 to be paid by the Plaintiff on or before Sept. 1, 1998. Accordingly, said counsel fee payment will be forwarded by the plaintiff husband to his counsel in sufficient time for him to forward his attorney's check for the aforesaid amount, which will be received by Atty R.Charles Thomas on or before Sept. 1, 1998.

Jan 8, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Jan 7, 1999 the matter is before the Court on petition of the defendant wife Jane Feydo for civil contempt because plaintiff husband in the divorce action has failed to pay alimony pendente lite in the amount of $1040 per month for the months of November and December. The Court is advised that on or about Jan 6, 1999 the defendant paid the Nov alimony pendente lite leaving unpaid alimony pendente lite for the month of December in the amount of $1040.
The Defendant advises the Corut the same will be paid on or before Jan 8, 1999 at 4 pm.
If teh plaintiff husband in this divorce action, which has now been forwarded by the Master to the Court in the nature of relief from further payment of alimony pnendente lite, he must peition the Corut asking for said relief. In this regard, the Court is advised he intends to file exceptions to the Master's report and the Court understands that under Crawford Co procedures he will likewise have to order a transcript of the Master's Hearing. If the plaintiff husband wishes relief from futhrue payment of alimony pendente lite pending the entry of a final decree, he must petition for the same, with the Court noting that this part of the Order supersedes a previous Order of April 21, 1998 which terminated alimony pendente lite upon submission of the Master's report to the Court.
It is this Court's intention that the alimony pendente lite award in the amount of $1040 per month shall continue after exceptions are filed and the burden would be on the palintiff husband to petition the Court for a reduction of the current amount of alimony pendente lite.
Counsel for the wife orally requests the Court for the award of attorney fees and according the same is granted. We hereby direct that on or before Feb. 15,1999 the defendant will pay directly to Atty R.Charles Thomas the sum of $250.

March 22, 1999 Order FAXED Attys. Gregg and Thomas.

Aprl 6, 1999, Upon praecipe of dft. counsel, Exceptions placed on next argt. list.

ON MAY 1999 ARGUMENT LIST

Apt. 7, 1999 Order filed. AND NOW,April 6, 1999, after a lengthy h earing, the Court finds that the Plaintiff is in contempt for willingly and deliverately failing to pay previously ordered alimony pendente lite. It appears that the sum of $1,040 per month should have been paid in the months of January, February and March leaving an arrears of $3,120.

After listening to considerable testimony and the alleged reduction in income and lack of employment on the part of the Plaintiff husband, the Court deems it appropriate to reduece the amount of alimony pendente lite from $1,040 per month to the sum of $750 per month effective with the month of April 1999.

Accordingly, the Court hereby directs that commencing with April 12, 1999, the Plaintiff will pay to the Defendant wife the sum of $750 per month. In addition, the Court finds the Plantiff to be responsible for arrears in the amount of $3,120 as noted above, and in addition to the monthly payment of $750 the Plaintiff will pay an additional sum of $250 to apply on the aforesaid arrears until the same are paid in full.

Thus effective April 12, 1999, the Plaintiff will pay the sum of $1,000 per month, $750 of whichis alimony pendente lite and $250 of which is the arrearages accumulating on the previous order for the months of January, February and March.

The Court finds the Plaintiff to be in willfull and deliverate contempt of the previous court order to pay alimony pendente lite, but postpones any punishment for contempt so lcng as the aforesaid other is complied with in a timely fashion.

Counsel for defendant wife advises that while the petition noew before the Court imply a request for counsel fees up to this date is withdrawn.

For Counsel's enlightenment, this order dismisses the petition to rescind the award of alimony to the Defendant wife.

CRAWFORD COUNTY TAX CLAIM BUREAU
BY: Frederic Wagner, Director

Mar. 10, 1997 Answer to Petition for Approval of Distribution of Proceeds from 1996 Tax Claim Bureau Sale filed.

Mar. 10, 1997 Decree filed. AND NOW, March 4, 1997, at the time set for the return of the rule to show cause issued in this matter, the Court finds as a fact the following:

1. The petition of the Tax Claim Bureau for Crawford County, seeking approval of the distribution of proceeds from the 1996 Tax Claim Sale, is properly before the Court.

2. It is noted that a revision of records occurred between the date of the original filing of the petition and the date of this Decree with respect to the property located in Conneaut Township, bearing Assessment Number 1909-034-B, in that the recipient of the overage in the amount of $1,010.85 shall go to Russell T. Zingelman, the surviving spouse of the late Margaret Zingleman, formerly Margaret DeBow, who died on February 10, 1994. Said overage to be sent to the said Russell T. Zingelman at his current address of 8 Kim Court, Ormond Beach, FL 32174-4972.

Additionally, the Hochstetlers shall provide notice of that hearing to the Tax Claim Bureau, but the Tax Claim Bureau does not need to participate in that hearing, nor do they need to appear, said notice only being so that they know that they are not to make a distribution after 60 days has expired, until further order of Court.

Oct. 29, 1998 Order filed. AND NOW, October 28, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on a Motion For Appointment of Master in Divorce filed by the plaintiff. In that motion, he requests the issue of divorce be presented to the master, along with various economic issues.

Further attached to the Motion for Apppointment of Master in Divorce is a 3301(d) Affidavit, which was filed on October 22, 1998.

We cannot present the divorce issues to the master for a determination pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.51(a)(2)(ii).

While the Motion For Appointment of Master in Divorce indicates that divorce is not contested, the record does not at this tmie indicate whether the defendant denies any of the allegations set forth in the plaintiff's affidavit under section 3301(d) and most importantly whether she denies the marriage is irretrieavably broken

If she does make any denials, the economic issues can only be referred to the mster, if the court, after notice and hearing, makes a determiantion in favor of the plaintiff (See Standard Pa. Practice 2nd, 126:299)

ACCORDINGLY, the plaintiff's Motion For Appointment of Master in Divorce is denied at this time without prejudice to him to request the appointment of a master when this matter is procedurally in an appropriate context to do so.

With respect to the notice requirements, we find that the Defendant is in contempt of the Court's Order of Nov 12, 1993 which Order was actually entered in Warren County by Judge Robert Wolfe.

In light of the offer by the Defendant, as well as some discussions with the parties, it is ordered and directed that for a period of 6 months commencing with January of 1997 rather than having every other weekend of temporary physical custody from Friday at 5:30 p.m. until Sunday at 5:30 p.m. the Plaintiff shall be entitled to periods of temporary physical custody for the last three weekends of each month from 5:30 p.m. on Friday until 5:30 p.m. on Sunday. We note that in January because of the current schedule, those three weeks will not be consecutive but instead the Plaintiff has already had a period of temporary physical custody on the weekend beginning on January 3 and therefore he will have the weekend beginning on Januayr 17, 1997 and January 24,1997 followed then by February 14 and February 21 of 1997.

In lieu of awarding attorney's fees and in light of the fact that the Plaintiff has to travel a considerable period of time to exercise these periods of temporary physical custody for each of the periods of temporary physical custody that are being added for the six month period which would be one per month, the Defendant shall either provide complete transportation both ways or else she shall provide to the Plaintiff the sum of $25 for each such round trip.

If that amount is not paid to the Plaintiff because the Defendant has not provided the transportation, the Defendant may petition the Court in the Domestic Relations Action to Deduct the amount due from outstanding arrears with respect to the Domestic Relations Order.

In all other respects, the Order of November 12, 1993 shall remain in full force and effect until such time as it is modified.

We note that the parties have indicated that a custody mediation is pending in this matter and will probably be held within the next two weeks. The Prothonotary is directed to provide a copy of this Order to John Fuller, Esquire who is the custody mediator and after he has made his decision with regard to the mediation, he shall enter as part of his recommended order a paragraph to accomplish what we have ordered in this order regardless of whatever his order is. Specifically, that the Plaintiff shall regardless os whatever the new order be entitled to 6 periods of temporary physical custody consisting of a Friday from 5:30 p.m. until Sunday at 5:30 p.m. This may only be ignored by the hearing officer if the Plaintiff is awarded primary physical custody as a result of that mediation. Feb 10, 1997 Cutody Order: AND NOW, Feb 7, 1997 after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS ORDERED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS, TO-WIT:

I. The parties shall submit to a custody evaluation by David Glenn who may conduct home visits if he deems such home visits to be necessary or advisable. When completed David Glenn shall submit the results of his custody evaluation to the mediator, John Fuller, Esquire and to the attorneys for the parents, William Burwell (of Franklin, PA) and Gregory A. Keenan. Thereafter, a further mediation conference shall be scheduled unless the parties are able to agree on the terms of a consent order.

II. Pending receipt of the custody evaluation and until further order of court the parties shall abide by the terms of the Order of Judge Anthony J. Vardaro with respect to custody, visitation and transportation.

III. The fees and costs in this case which are set in the amount of $189.00 (3 hrs. x $60.00) and $9.00 court order filing fee are to be paid as follows:

A. The father has deposited with the Prothonotary the requested $150.00 which shall be applied toward the fees and costs.

B. The mother shall within thirty (30) days of the date of this order pay the Prothonotary $39.00 representing her share of the fees and costs.

IV. This order is a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed by either party within twenty (20) days of the date hereof. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

Sept. 10, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, September, 9, 1997 after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS ORDERED AND DECREED AS FOOLLOWS, TO-WIT:

I. Legal custody of David J. Smith shall be shared between the father and the mother, the plaintiff and defendant herein, that is, each parent shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records and other important records and that each parent shall be entitled to take part fully in important decisions affecting the child such as the education, medical treatment and religious instruction of the subject child.

II. Physical custody of David J. Smith shall be with his mother, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his custody every other weekend from 7:00 o'clock p.m. on Friday to 5:00 o'clock p.m. on Sunday, beginning September 5, 1997, subject, however, to the condition that prior to any visits by the child at father's residence, David M. Glenn, shall visit father's home to determine if the furnace has been fixed and other repairs made so that the home will be a warm and healthy place for the child's weekend visits.

The fees ($210.00) and costs ($9.00 court order filing fee and $5.54 certified mailings) in this case are to be paid by Crawford County. The bill of David M. Glenn shall also be paid by Crawford County, except that any bill of David M. Glenn shall also be paid by Crawford County, except that any bill of David M. Feb 11, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, Feb 6, 1997, at the time set for a contempt hearing, the Defendant appears with counsel and the Plaintiff appears without an attorney.

After hearing testimony from the Defendant and testimony on behalf of the Plaintiff, we are not convinced that the Plaintiff is in will ful contempt of the Court's order of Jan 14, 1997. Specifically, the record would indicate, consistent with what he has represented to the Court, that while there was an unsigned copy of the mediator's proposed order available to the parties prior to Jan 18, 1997, it appears that the signed copy of the Jan 14, 1997 order did not actually reach the Plaintiff until after the missed Jan 18, 1997 visit.

We so, at this time, in light of the fact that the order was in effect on Jan 14, 1997, award to the Defendant a makeup period for the missed Jan 18, 1997 visit, which will be on Saturday, Feb 22, 1997, from 9:00 a.m. until noon. That shall be in addition to the normal periods of temporary physical custody afforded to the Defendant with Jonathan in February of 1997.

With respect to the second allegation in the Defendant's contempt petition, we are satisfied that the tardiness on behalf of the Plaintiff was not willf ul but both parties are strongly cautioned that they should make every effort to be exactly on time with respect to all periods of temporary physical custody, both beginning and ending.

The defendants agree that the local qualifications were not listed but maintain that they were established and at the time of interviews were ocnveyed to all candidates, including the plaintiff. The defendants also maintain that the application in use at the time did not request information with regard to a veteran's preference and the plaintiff never brought that to their attention prior to the hiring of the other candidate. In response the plaintiff maintians that defendant should have known from his previous hiring of his veteran's preference.
3. The plaintiff claims damages for back pay at teh rate of pay of the hired candidate and abandoned his claim for attorney's fees at the time of the pretrial conference.The defendants will claim a set off against those damages for any amounts received by the plaintiff for other employment during the relevant time in question. The plaintiff also seeks to be immediately placed in the position for which he had applied.
4. In his case in chief, the plaitniff may call various witnesses. They include himself, as well as, Richard Astor, Randy Deemer, Andrew Puschak, Dr. Robert Bazylak and Dr. Clyde Colwell, all connected to the school dist. INsofar as Dr. Colwell is the former superintendent of the Conneaut School Dist, but is no longer in the area, the parties agree that if they cannot resolve the issues with regard to objections to that deposition they will bring that to the Court's attention as soon as possible so that we can ask Sr. Judge P. Ricahrd Thomas to rule on those objections.
5. The defendants anticipate calling many of the same witnesses that will be called by the palitniff and, in addition, Margaret E. R. Jacobs and Gregory Lehman, who also interviewed for the same position at the same time.
The parties indicate that there appears to be no dispute with regard to exhibits since they will for the most part both wish to use the various exhibits. If any apparent dispute arises, they should notify the Court Prior to the trial so that we may rule on exhibit objections.

Apr. 30, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 24, 1997, at the time fixed for hearing, the parties appeared in court. The Plaintiff had counsel, the Defendant did not have counsel. May 27, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 21 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt filed by the plaintiff against the defendant. This matter has been before the Court before, most recently on April 24, 1997, at which time, Judge Miller entered a lengthy Order and dismissed the contempt proceedings apparently upon the agreement of the parties.
The defendant is represented by counsel and admits the allegations of the contempt complaint to some extent, although he denies other portions. It is clear after an informal hearing, nonetheless that he is in violation of the Court's Order.
ACCORDINGLY, we adjudicate him in contempt and he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 3 months and a maximum term of 6 months and he is fined $100.
The jail sentence is suspended at this time and the defendant will not have to pay the $100 fine, provided he complies with the previous Orders of Court in this proceeding as well as this Order.

May 16, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 13, 1997, after lengthy hearing and receiving considerable input from the parties, the witnesses and counsel, the Court believe that at this time the best interest of the three (3) minor children involved in this relationship that never resulted in a marriage is to have primary legal custody awarded to the father. We recognize the efforts of the mother in meeting problems, which apparently overwhelmed her to the extent that she fled to California hoping to establish a new life there.

Transfer of custody of the children from the mother to the father shall take place on Saturday, June 7, 1997 at 4:00 p.m. with the father picking up the children at the residence of the mother.

In addition to the weekend visit of May 17-18th, the father shall also have a similar weekend visit on May 31-June 1.

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the summer school vacation period shall be divided relatively equally between the parties to the end that each parent shall have alternate two weeks custody commencing on a Saturday and terminating two Saturdays later.

The Court urges the parents to establish a date for the summer vacation periods for the calendar year 1997. In the event the parties cannot reach a mutually satisfactory agreement of share two-week custodies during the summer months, the court will have to arbitrarily set said dates.

After dictating the above, the parties and their counsel advise the Court that tentatively they both agree that the alternate two-week periods with custody in each parent shall commence with a two-week period with the father, which commences June 7th, the mother shall be entitled to a similar two-week period followed by similar alternating two-week periods thereafter until the commencement of the fall school semester. Regardless of scheduling , the Court believes that the summer alternate periods must be modified to the end that regardless of the aforesaid scheduling, the children will be in the father's custody for two (2) days preceding the Commencement of school.

Commencing after the summer visitations, the mother shall be entitled to have the children in her physical custody and care every other weekend commencing after school on Friday and terminating Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

Dec. 12, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 2, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for violation of a Protection from Abuse.

Both parties appear without counsel. The Defendant is advised of his right to an attorney and free attorney through the Public Defender's office if he cannot afford an attorney and he indicates that he does not want counsel.

Essentially, the violations of the PFA Order are admitted by the Defendant in that he did call the Plaintiff's answering machine in the middle of the night and left an obscene messages that were harassing in nature but by agreement of both parties were not threatening.

This is a specific violation of Paragraph 2 of the Order entered on September 17, 1996 by President Judge Gordon R. Miller. Accordingly, the Defendant is adjudicated in contempt of Court.

For his contempt, he shall pay a fine of $150.00 to the Prothonotary of Crawford County on the first floor of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania within 60 days from this date.

Additionally, the Order of September 17, 1996 is hereby modified insofar as it shall no be permissible for the Defendant to call the Plaintiff's residence at any time for any reason unless there is further Order of Court.

Additionally, with respect to any periods of temporary physical custody or visitation which the Defendant is to receive with the minor child. Said period of temporary physical custody or visitation shall be arranged by the child caller her Grandmother or Aunt and then arrangements being made between the paternal grandmother or aunt with the Plaintiff so that the child may be transported and exchanges shall be made between the natural mother, Plaintiff, and the Defendant's sister; the aunt of the child.

It is the court's intention that there be no telephone contact nor direct contact between the parties but that there shall still be a mechanism whereby the Defendant can visit with the child pending any further Order of Court in any custody action.

Mar. 19, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, March 11, 1997, the Plaintiff appeared in Court in support of two petitions for civil contempt. The Defendant appeared with counsel. The Defendant admits that he engaged in the harassing and threatening phone calls alleged in both petitions, but he feels that he was somewhat justified because of the difficult time the Plaintiff is giving him with respect to custody and support.

The Court finds as a fact that the Defendant is in contempt of Court for having committed the acts set forth in both petitions. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. As punishment for contempt, the Defendant shall undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of 45 days and a maximum term of 6 months, with credit for 8 days of presentence incarceration. He shall not be automatically paroled, but shall only be paroled upon motion filed by him with notice to the Plaintiff. The Court may grant his motion if his jail conduct has been perfect or the Court may schedule a hearing.
2. The Defendant shall pay the balance of his fines and costs in full within 60 days after he is released from the Crawford County Jail. That is primarily the contempt fine imposed by Judge Vardaro on December 2, 1996.
3. The abuse orders of September 7, 1996, and December 2, 1996, shall remain in full force and effect for 9 months from this date and are therefore extended for that period of time.
4. A true and correct copy of this order shall be delivered by the Prothonotary to the Pennsylvania State Police in Meadville and County Control.
5. The Defendant shall not possess or have in his control at any time during the life of this order any handgun, concealed weapon, or firearm of any kind.

July 10, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 3, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for civil contempt for violation of a protection from abuse order filed by the Defendant, the Court noting that he has reversed the caption, and a motion to modify a protection from abuse order filed by the Plaintiff under the correct caption.

After informal consideration of the issues, it is ordered and directed that the petition for civil contempt is dismissed provided that the Plaintiff make available to Kathy Blakeslee when contacted by Kathy Blakeslee a desk and chair that belongs to the Defendant. Other property remains in dispute, and we will not attempt to resolve that issue in a protection from abuse action. If the defendant believes that he is entitled to other property, he may file an appropriate lawsuit to attempt to prove that.

With respect to the motion to modify, it is ordered and directed that the Protection from Abuse order in existence in this case is modified to the extent it shall state that the Defendant shall not go within 100 yards of the Palintiff nor within 100 yards of the Plaintiff's residence at any time.

In all other respects, the Protection from Abuse order originally entered as well as how it has been previously modified shall remain in full force and effect.

FOR THE COURT:
Ann A. Walker, Ct. Admin.
12-12-96 FAXED Smitts & Spataro

Jan. 13, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 3, 1997, the matter is before the Court for a De Novo hearing requested by the Plaintiff father in this aciton. The mother is represented by counsel and father is unrepresented but all parties and counsel agree that the matters before the Court should be discussed informally adn that the Court should interview the children privately. After extensive discusssion and exploring the problems of each parent and the recent diagnosis of schizophrenia for minor child Delbert, this Court believes that shared custody is still the best solution in this case. Accordingly, we continue the provision in the previous order that minor child Andrew reside primary withthe mother with occasional visits determined by him and his two parents to be in his best interest with the father.
The shared custuody provisions of the temporary order are modified to the extent that commencing January 1, 1997 the shared visits of four months each between the parents provided in the November 7, 1996 order shall be m odified to the end that the shared visits shall be for a two-month period commencing January 1, 1997. This will result withthe father having primary custody of the children for the first two months of 1997 and the parents alternating primary physical custody for minor children Kenneth and Delbert every two months thereafter.
The weekend visitation shall be modified to provide said visits to the noncustodial parent each Friday after school until Sunday at 8:00 p.m. with a continuation of the provision that on Sundays sthe mother will have the opportunity to take temporary custody of the children for the purpose of attending church services between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. The parties may be agreement modify the rreturn hours on Sunday to accommodate the viewing of sports events this to occur only if both parents agree on the modification.
If the father, Michael Dunlap, secures reliable transportation, the transportation of the children for the weekend visits shall be shared by the parents to the end that the mother will be responsible for delivering the children and the father will be responsible for picking up and returning the children to his household with the exception of the Sunday church period of visitation when the mother shallhave sole responsibility for picking up and returning.
It appears there will be complixities because each parent for different reasons will be receiving Department of Welfare grants for the children. It shall be the responsibility of the parents to explore with their representative caseworker whether an adjustment is said grant due to the exchange of primary custody of the parents every two months can be periodically adjusted by the Department of Welfare so that the primary custodial parent will receive the benefits every two months of having the children in their home for said period. In the event the Department is unable to make adjustments in the grants this often, each parent shall be responsible for delivering to the other parent monies received on behalf of the children while said children are not in their primary custody. The Court notes that the primary residence of the mother has changed and it is now 215 Breed Street, Titusville, PA. And the father's residence remains at 820 Rockwood Drive, Apartment 18, Titusville, PA 16354.
The parties agree that all other conditions of the temporary order shall remain in full force and effect.

Dec. 13, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 5, 1996 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing with regard to the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

The Plaintiff appears without counsel and the Defendant does not appear. We originally entered a temporary order in this matter on October 29, 1996 and hearing was set for November 8, 1996. The Plaintiff appeared before President Judge Gordon r. Miller on that date, but the Defendant had not been served and accordingly, the hearing was continued until November 26, 1996.

On November 20, 1996 somehow this matter got before Judge Miller again, and he wrote a memorandum and entered an order on that date, rescheduling the November 26, 1996 hearing for this date. That order directed the Sheriff to serve a copy of the original petition and his memorandum and order on the Defendant by certified mail, which was done on November 22, 1996.

The Sheriff's office indicates that the Defendant did receive the certified mail and additionally, talked to a deputy so that she is aware that this was schedule this date.

Accordingly, since she does not appear, we may proceed without her and we will enter an order keeping in effect for a period of one year from this date the order that we entered on October 29, 1996.

In addition, the Defendant shall pay court costs in this proceeding in the amount of $93.50 within 30 days from the date of this order.

A copy of this order shall be sent to the Pennsylvania State Police at Meadville, to County Control, and to the unrepresented Plaintiff at 726 Sidler Alley in Meadville, and to the unrepresented Defendant by regular mail at her last know address, 45 11th Street, Jamestown, NY.
