Sept 12, 1978 Order filed: The above case is hereby returned to the Master, E. Max Weiss, Esquire, for further hearing and report. The testimony indicates that the plaintiff left his wife on May 1, 1978 but never changed his address, 851½ Water Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania. There is some indication that after the plaintiff left, he returned for his personal effects and found that his wife had moved to the Jameson Hotel. Ten days later the plaintiff filed this divorce action in which he alleged that the then present whereabouts of his wife was unknown. The Sheriff's Return indicates that a few days later the defendant was served "at her place of residence at 249½ North Street, Meadville". Obviously someone must have been able to advise the Sheriff of the then whereabouts of the wife defendant.

The Notice of the Master's Hearing, however, was mailed to 851½ Water Street which was, in fact, the plaintiff's address and supposedly not the defendant's at the time the notice was mailed. The signature on the return receipt was identified by the plaintiff as that of his wife. We are of the opinion that the entire circumstances surrounding the separation of the parties, the whereabouts of the wife defendant following the separation, and at the time of allegedly receiving the notice of the Master's Hearing, cries out for some further explanation.

There is no corroboration of the testimony of the plaintiff. While there is no doubt that a divorce may be granted on the uncorroborated testimony of the plaintiff. we believe that there should be some reasonable explanation of the lack of corroboration. This is particularly true where, as in the instant case, at least on the face of the record, such corroboration would appear to be readily available.

Upon the filing of the amended or supplemental Master's Report, the thirty (30) days waiting period required by the Rules of Court of Crawford County is waived.

Therefore, accordingly, it is hereby ordered and directed that custody of the minor children, Melanie Shawn Gill and John Eric Gill is hereby given to Robert K. Hutton and Naoma B. It further appears that there is no objection to reasonable visits by the father with the children under appropriate circumstances and counsel for the petitioner advises that he is discussing appropriate visitation arrangements with counsel for the father.

The natural mother and father are hereby advised of their right to petition for a change of custody if they believe the circumstances so warrant.

May 26, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, May 24, 1978, after lengthy hearing, the Court is satisfied in this case that both parents have ability to raise the child and while both are employed, satisfactory arrangements can be made for custody of the child during their work periods.

Accordingly, this matter is referred back to counsel with directions to seek a mutually satisfactory agreement between the two parents that would roughly divide the full time custody of the child equally between the parents in each calendar year with corresponding visitation rights back to the non-possessory parents.

In the event the parties cannot mutually agree, the Court will entertain a further motion and will set said custody period without further hearing on the matter.

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: We welcome you all here on this very important day. We apologize that there are not seats for everyone.

At this time we would recognize Mr. George Barco, Chairman of the Bar Association Committee honoring Judge F. Joseph Thomas on this day.

MR. BARCO: May it please the Court.

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: Mr. Barco.

MR. BARCO: On behalf of the Crawford County Bar Association, we wish to express our deep gratitude to this Court for holding this session of Court so that we can formally present to Judge F. Joseph Thomas on his reaching compulsory Senior status as a token of our respect and appreciation of him as a Judge, a large portrait, which we will ask President Judge P. Richard Thomas, to be ordered to be hanged in this Courtroom in which Judge Thomas has presided with such distinctive service for the past twelve years.

Known of his great love for and dedication to his judicial duties, we know he cannot but be somewhat sad that the rule of law must prevail, and that hereafter he can serve the people of this County and our Commonwealth only as a

Senior member of the Judiciary.

But he and all of us are fortunate that we will be hearing from his peers of their appraisal of his many talented careers as a successful trial lawyer and more recently as a dedicated, hard working Judge, as he was always trying to find the truth and the best way to serve justice.

Unfortunately, all too often such appraisals are not uttered until after one's death. So we rejoice at the pleasure of our jointly celebrating with him today some of the highlights of his professional career.

In performing my duties as Chairman of this general arrangement committee, I want to say that I have never been associated with a more enthusiastic and cooperative group of fellow attorneys. I especially want to acknowledge the tremendous assistance that our committee has received on so many matters from our Vice President, John H. Bozic, Jr.

With the Court's permission at this time, I would ask that the members of this committee stand as I call their names: President Robert Dornhaffer; Vice President John H. Bozic, Jr.; James Jack; Robert L. Walker. Unfortunately, George T. Forssell, who is the other member of our committee, is ill in bed and cannot be with us today. All of these men are to be congratulated and highly commended for their many efforts in providing the affair that we are having here this afternoon and later this evening at the formal dinner of the Bar Association for Judge F. Joseph Thomas. Thank you, Gentlemen.

Now, with the Court's permission at this time, I will ask Attorney Robert L. Walker to read into the record a short resume history of Judge Thomas' professional career.

Mr. Walker.

MR. WALKER: May it please the Court.

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: This will be the first time you have ever had a chance to turn your back on the Commonwealth Court.

(Laughter)

MR. WALKER: Members of this most illustrious blue ribbon panel of jurors, members of the Bar and friends:

(See Pages 3 and 4 of the attached History of Honorable F. Joseph Thomas prepared by Robert L. Walker, Esquire, which was read into the record)

* * * *

MR. BARCO: Thank you, Mr. Walker.

With the Court's permission at this time, we will call on Robert Dornhaffer, the President of the Crawford County Bar Association to formally present the portrait to the Court here of Judge F. Joseph Thomas. Mr. Dornhaffer will be assisted by Mr. John Bozic.

MR. DORNHAFFER: Your Honors. May the Court please, distinguished guests, relatives and friends of Judge F. Joseph Thomas:

All of you have been in Courtroom I, and have observed the several portraits of the judges which line the walls of that Courtroom, but how many of you have let your imagination roam for a moment when you are in that Courtroom and think of the countless numbers of lives down through the decades that have perhaps been affected by the decisions of those judges.

Today we are honoring a judge whose term is ending by retirement and I couldn't help but think as I sat here of the lives that have been affected or touched in some manner by this Judge's career.

However, there is a difference between him and his predecessors whose portraits appear in Courtroom I. His predecessors were continuing a tradition and he is starting a tradition, a tradition for Courtroom II which we hope will be carried on by those who follow.

This Judge will be recalled by those of us who know him personally but perhaps more importantly by those whose lives have been touched or in some manner affected by his decisions as Judge; decisions that were undoubtedly tough but fair; decisions that were understanding but firm.

On this day of Honor for this Judge, I present this portrait to the citizens of Crawford County on behalf of the members of the Crawford County Bar Association.

We trust that this portrait will serve as a reminder to those who follow of his unselfish service to the citizens of Crawford County and of the qualities displayed by this Judge, qualities as a Judge, as a counselor, and I think most importantly, as a warm friend.

This is our Judge, Judge F. Joseph Thomas.

At this time I'm going to ask our Vice President, John Bozic, to assist me in the unveiling of the portrait.

(Whereupon, Mr. Dornhaffer and Mr. Bozic unveiled the portrait of Judge F. Joseph Thomas)

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: Thank you, Mr. Dornhaffer and Mr. Bozic.

On behalf of the County officials, all the citizens, and with sincere thanks to the Bar Association, we accept this picture of our beloved friend to hang here in Courtroom II in perpetuity.

It has a particular significance since it is the first portrait of a past but yet still present Senior Judge to hang in this Courtroom.

Our thanks again to the Bar Association for adding this very visible page to our County's rich judicial history.

Thank you very much.

Judge F. Joseph.

HONORABLE F. JOSEPH THOMAS: I have to keep this on the light side. It is sort of like laughing on the outside so that my emotions will not surface. So let me start out by saying that I never realized that I would enjoy being hung so much.

(Laughter)

HONORABLE F. JOSEPH THOMAS: I know there are some people who would have liked to have seen me hung a long time ago, either in this courtroom or almost anyplace.

(Laughter)

HONORABLE F. JOSEPH THOMAS: Hereafter, when I serve in Crawford County, it will be by special assignment of the Supreme Court. I have already received such an assignment for May and probably will receive another assignment for June because I doubt if my successor will be appointed before July 1st at the earliest.

I have agreed to serve without compensation, and the Legislature, as you know and as I told most of the Court House employees yesterday, has passed a law which will permit me to serve without being paid, and I told them I'm going to do the same thing for them if I can.

(Laughter)

HONORABLE F. JOSEPH THOMAS: Seriously, I would prefer to remain an elected Judge because it would enable me to continue presiding in my own County rather than being assigned to other Counties if and when funds become available.

However, I do appreciate any opportunity to remain active which I expect to do by assignment for at least nine or ten months of each year.

Today marks another milestone in my life and I am highly appreciative of your presence here to help me mark the occasion. I do not want to treat it as a sad occasion. I insist upon treating it otherwise.

Many of you here today were present on other milestones in my life, my admission to the Bar, my entry into the Marine Corps, my election as a Judge, my retention as a Judge by highly flattering popular vote, my son's admission to the Bar, and now this.

No man is an island, and of course, I have had lots of help along the way. A gentle mother, a quiet but stern father. And not many people know that my father was well known in this community.

In 1941, February 27, 1941, shortly after his death, the Meadville Tribune printed an editorial about him, and very few people will remember this and I thought it would at this time be appropriate to refer to it.

That editorial said that Charles Thomas, a veteran local merchant who died Tuesday, had the force of character and the ability to avail himself of the opportunities which America offers its citizens who come here from foreign lands.

A native of Syria--by the way that was a mistake, it should have been Lebanon--came to Meaville fifty-four years ago. That would have been in 1887. When he died, he had been in business as an individual merchant longer than any other citizen in the history of Meadville prior to that time.

As a peddler, vending his wares from house to house throughout the County, he laid the foundations of an ever expanding business, enterprise. Courage, frugality and integrity combined to make his venture successful.

Within a short time, he opened a notions shop on Market Street, later moving it to Water Street at the foot of Arch Street, very close to where the present City Building now is.

What a challenge and inspiration his life must be to others who have come here from abroad. How effectively he has proved the worth of the American way of life.

Charles Thomas reared a family of nine children to whom he was devoted and of whom he was rightfully proud.

With Mrs. Thomas, he established a home from which eminated many fine contributions to the Meadville community.

I think at this time it would be appropriate for me now to introduce the members of my family: I am the only son remaining and two of my sisters are here and it is a pleasure for me to introduce them. If you'll just stand briefly and be recognized.

First of all, Mrs. Henretta, my sister, who with Gertrude has borne most of the trials and tribulations of the family outside of the field of law. My sister Gertrude, who many people still claim was the real lawyer and who people still insist is the real Judge.

(Laughter)

Mayor Ruhlman yesterday said, that it's a good thing I wasn't accused of nepotism because if one of us had to go it would have been me.

(Laughter)

Next I'm taking it in order not in age but in order of seating, my daughter, Mary Thomas, who graduated from the University of Salzburg in Austria; my daughter Susan, who graduated from the University of Pittsburgh; my son, Mark, who graduated from the University of Michigan and Pitt Law School, and his wife, Marie who is with him; my oldest daughter, Marilyn and her husband, Walter Lewis Bollenbacher; my oldest son, James, and my youngest daughter, thank God, Carol Lynn Thomas.

(Laughter)

I wouldn't want to go through the project of rearing teen-agers again but they have been a joy and a help to me and they have taught me humility because at home I can say anything I want to because nobody pays any attention to me.

(Laughter)

A reception was held yesterday for my sister and myself by the Court House employees and I already have expressed my appreciation to all of the Court House employees and particularly to those who were most closely involved in court matters, such as my very efficient court attendants, the tipstaffs and court crymm the offices and personnel of the Clerk of Courts, the Prothonotary, the County Commissioners.

By the way, yesterday the County Commissioners presented to my sister and myself a Certificate of Appreciation and I purposely deferred extending my thanks and appreciation until today because I thought not only should the Court House employees know it but that the public at large should know of this Certificate of Appreciation, and I thank you very much.

I only have one complaint, Gentlemen, that I want to voice at this time. I have some things that are left undone and one of them is getting out of the parking lot without hitting more than one car.

(Laughter)

So if you could just widen that space a little bit because my insurance company is starting to complain.

I also want to remember, of course, the Office of the County Treasurer, the Adult and Juvenile Probation Offices, the Domestic Relations Office and all the personnel in all of these offices, Mr. Reed, the law librarian, the personnel in the Register and Recorder's Office, the District Attorneys, the Deputies, the Sheriff's Deputies and the jail personnel, the keeper of the keys, all of whom have been extremely helpful, and without their efficient and dedicated service of all these people, it would have been impossible for me to properly perform the duties of my office.

Since I will be here in May and possibly in June, all of my friends I thank for their support and ask for their continued support, and please on Monday, don't say, "Good heavens, are you still here?"

(Laughter)

I am happy to have volunteered to continue serving until my successor has been appointed because, if you will recall, when I was elected Judge, I said to the people of Crawford County that we would have a united Court, and we have had.

My Colleague and I--and I'm going to brag a little bit--made what I consider an excellent team. We have kept Crawford County current and I thought it would be ashame for the current schedule to become behind because of the fact that the appointment of my successor had not been made with due dispatch, and I think it most appropriate at this time for me to say to my Colleague that I appreciate the cooperation that he and his efficient secretary have given to me during the years. I have enjoyed it very much and Dick loves to have statistics and graphs and I just like to be presiding and I'm glad I lost the toss when we tossed coins to see who would be the President Judge because I think he lost with all of the details a President Judge has to go through these days, I'm glad I'm not the President Judge.

Without the cooperation that he has given me and without the cooperation and team work of both of us we never would have been able to keep Crawford County current as we are now.

And on an occasion such as this, I would be remiss if I did not recognize and express my gratitude for the fair and frequently complimentary coverage of the court news during my term as an elected Judge.

My door was always open to representatives of the news media and that open door policy has never been abused.

I am reserving for tonight my appreciation to the Bar Association. At this time, I merely want to say that I have never held or even thought of holding any of them in contempt of court. Oh, maybe once.

(Laughter)

16

In the case of the Commonwealth versus Robert Kerr, when Don Lewis was trying to get incompetant evidence in. He said, "Well, I guess nobody wants to hear this". I said, "Mr. Lewis, if you persist in those remarks, I'm going to hold you in contempt and fine you a hundred dollars." And the next day he came in and borrowed five dollars from me for lunch money.

(Laughter)

I have some other remarks tonight because this is only one phase of the Bar Association's sponsorship of the program this afternoon and this evening.

It has often been said that the law is a jealous mistress, but very few, including myself, knew who first said it. So I had one of my tipstaffs, Estelle Reisner, who would be here but is now renewing her education for District Justice, and she researched it and discovered that it was first said in 1829 by Justice Story, a Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and I know of no better way to sum up my own impression of the law after forty-six years as its servant than to quote Justice Story in full: He said, and I quote: "I will not say with Lord Hale that the law will admit of no rival but I will say that it is a jealous mistress, and requires a long and constant courtship. It is not to be won by trifling favors but by lavish homage."

How true that is and how true I have discovered it to be over the years.

For those of you who are not participating in this evening's program, I would like to greet you as you leave at the close of this program.

And after some introductions by my Colleague, I will exercise my last official act as an elected Judge of the 30th Judicial District.

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: Thank you, Judge F. Joseph.

At the Bar Association's special dinner this evening, there will be in attendance eleven Judges that the Bar Association has asked from our neighboring districts to attend.

A few of them could break away from busy court schedules and be with us this afternoon and at this time I would like you to know the distinguished colleagues that sit in the jury box as jurors.

First, from the Commonwealth Court, Glenn Mencer. From the Erie County Courts, Judge Carney, Judge Pfadt. The Bankruptcy Judge, also from Erie, Judge Washabaugh, and from Clarion County, Judge Filson. Thank you, Gentlemen, we are honored to have you here this afternoon.

There were many, many Judges who wanted to come but because of the limited seating arrangements at the dinner, Chairman Barco simply had to invite those in our immediate area and one or two Appellate Court Judges.

Now, Judge F. Joseph is asking to do the official closing but there is one more small matter that comes before the Court.

When wedding bells rang at North Richmond Church on February 14, 1970, little did one Katie Shoop and her betrothed, Harold Shoop realize that their deeds that day would come into focus before this Court on this memorable day. Would that F. Joseph Thomas could sit here today and render as his final official act a monumental, earth shattering decision, such as a learned opinion, holding the County code unconstitutional as it relates to salary boards--

(Laughter)

--or perhaps a monumental decision granting Titusville the right to secede to Venango County.

(Laughter)

But such is not the case. As in his usual drive and efficiency, he's already disposed of all of the important cases on his list before this day.

But we do have one last official act for our friend to perform.

The Court recognizes at this time, the immediate past president of the Bar Association, Mr. Mark Prather, who now represents one of the disillusioned Shoops, who have silenced those wedding bells of marital bliss and are seeking court approval to return to single status again.

Mr. Mark Prather, step forward.

MR. MARK PRATHER: If it please the Court. Your Honor, it is very important in my client's life that I present this motion this Friday afternoon in the case of Kathie J. Shoop versus Harold W. Shoop, at No. 129 February Term, 1977, for the appointment of a Master in Divorce.

(Laughter)

HONORABLE P. RICHARD THOMAS: Now, Judge F. Joseph, your last official act will be signing the Master's appointment and I have already taken the liberty of filling in the name of present president of the Bar Association, Mr. Robert Dornhaffer. So there is your monumental, last and final official act.

HONORABLE F. JOSEPH THOMAS: All right, I would like to greet those of you who are not going to be at the dinner tonight.

So, now as my last official act as an elected Judge for the 30th Judicial District, I order this Court adjourned until Monday morning, May the 1st, 1978 at 9:30 O'clock A. M., Daylight Savings Time.

Court is adjourned.

MR. GEORGE SMITH (Tipstaff): This Court is adjourned until Monday morning at 9:30 A. M., with Senior Judge F. Joseph Thomas presiding upon assignment from the State Supreme Court.

Brief History of the Honored Guest as a Lawyer and as a Judge

Prepared by Robert L. Walker, Esq.

Tonight we mark a milestone in a brilliant legal career which began in the depths of the great depression and has spiraled ever upwards from its beginning. F. Joseph Thomas was born in Meadville, Pennsylvania on May 1, 1908, one of nine children of Charles and Mary Thomas. He graduated from St. Agatha's High School and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Allegheny College in 1929. He enrolled in the University of Pennsylvania Law School at Philadelphia and graduated in 1932 with a degree of Bachelor of Laws.

It is coincidence indeed that two men who were to rise to such eminence in the judiciary of Crawford County, F. Joseph Thomas and the late Herbert A. Mook, were both admitted as members of the several Courts of Crawford County on September 6, 1932. From then until his election to the bench, with the exception of an interruption by military service during World War II, F. Joseph Thomas' reputation as a trial lawyer grew steadily and his practice increased in step with his well-deserved reputation.

In 1944, Judge Thomas volunteered for service with the United States Marine Corps notwithstanding the fact that the possibility of his conscription was almost non-existent. He served with the Marine Corps with distinction and was discharged following the termination of hostilities in World War II to pick up the threads of his legal practice.

In the years following World War II, it was routine that the civil trial list for each term would list eighty to a hundred cases and F. Joseph Thomas would be listed as counsel in well over half of them. In many of these cases he faced his chief protagonist in the trial arena, Stuart A. Culbertson.

In January 1966, having been elected as a judge of the Common Pleas Court of Crawford County, he ended a long career as an advocate and began a new one requiring even-handed impartiality, in place of advocacy. The skill and quickness demonstrated by Judge Thomas in re-orienting his entire legal philosophy from that of the advocate to that of the impartial arbitrator is testimony to his extraordinary ability. Many who knew him best were amazed at his immediate success in the metamorphosis from advocate to judge.

As a judge, during the past twelve years, his stature as a legal scholar has been recognized by his colleagues and those who practice before him. Not only has he performed his primary duties in the disposition of legal matters brought before him in Crawford County, but he has ranged far and wide giving freely of his time in the training of new judges and in the betterment of judicial administration in the United States. To mention but a few of his extracurricular efforts, he has lectured at the Dickinson Forum; he has acted as a faculty advisor and lecturer at the National College of State Trial Judges; he has lectured at judicial conferences in several neighboring states as a representative of the National College of Trial Judges; he has become an acknowledged expert on post conviction procedures and related matters and has written extensively on such matters. In August of 1974, he was appointed by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to its Civil Procedural Rules Committee where he is now serving with distinction in his second term. Truly he has given much of his mind, his time and his abilities over and above the call of duty.

Judge Thomas has six children, Marilyn Jean Bollenbacher, James F. Thomas, John Mark Thomas, Susan A. Thomas, Mary M. Thomas and Carol Lynne Thomas, and eight grandchildren. He recently had the honor of presiding at the admission of one son to the Crawford County Bar. His wife, Adele, affectionately known to all of her friends as Jinx, died October 19, 1964.

Judge Thomas is an active member of the American Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Crawford County Bar Association of which he is a past president, and of many other professional associations encompassing both judges and lawyers. He has been an active participant in many community services over the years and is a member of several fraternal and veteran's organizations.

But most improtant, he has been a lawyer and a judge of whom the profession may be proud. We live in an age when the legal profession is under attack from within and without; when the adversary system is under fire as a method of arriving at the truth, and when many would hand over judicial administration to the bureaucrats. This man, F. Joseph Thomas, stands out as one whose career is a testimony to the art of advocacy and the ability of the adversary system to ferret out the truth, and whose ability has transformed him into an impartial judge adding great luster to judicial administration as we know it.

Aug. 25, 1978 Order filed. AND NOW, August 22, 1978, after hearing, the Court is satisfied the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of the Order entered June 2, 1978 by harassing and assaulting his wife and the Court is fearful that in view of the violent dispute over religion there will be further bodily injury inflicted upon the wife. ACCORDINGLY, the defendant is adjudged in contempt of court. Punishment for contempt of court, however, will be postponed, subject to the following conditions:

1. On or before August 27, 1978, the defendant shall remove himself from the household and find separate living quarters.
2. In the meantime, he is not to assault in any fashion his wife or any other members of the family nor is he to make any threats against his wife or children.
3. The Court urges the parties to make the separation as amicable as possible. And in this regard, the defendant is permitted to reside in the household under the above conditions until August 27, 1978.

In the event the defendant assaults his wife during this period or after he obtains separate living quarters, the matter may be referred to the Court for the imposition of appropriate penalties for contempt.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM ORDER OF DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SUSPENDING DRIVER'S LICENSE

PRELIMINARY ORDER:

AND NOW, this 24th day of May, 1978, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and on motion of Willis E. Schug, Esquire, Attorney for the Petitioner, a hearing de novo is granted to determine whether the acts of the Department of Transportation in suspending the driver's license of the Petitioner should be set aside.

Hearing is fixed for June 29, 1978, at 10:30 o'clock A.M. Local Prevailing Time, and the Prothonotary shall notify the Department forthwith.

By The Court:
P. Richard Thomas, J.

May 25, 1978, Copy of Order given to Atty. Schug and Certified copy mailed to Sec. of Transportation, Harrisburg, Pa., return receipt requested.

July 3, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 29, 1978, at the time set for hearing, petitioner's counsel agrees that the matter should be considered by the Court on the basis of the notices received by the defendant and a point violation certification statement dated June 8, 1978 presented on behalf of the Commonwealth's attorney. Petitioner does not wish to present any testimony, but bases his appeal solely on the fact that an official notice dated May 15, 1978 which requried the defendant to attend a departmental hearing shows a point accumulation of eight (8), whereas an official notice date May 23, 1978 shows a point accumulation of eleven (11) points, which said notice was the basis of the suspension imposed upon the defendant.

The Court having found that there is no requirement in the Vehicle Code which requires the Department of Transportation to officially notify the defendant when points are assessed against his license and the Court having officially found that the notice of May 15, 1978 is not an assessment of points but a notice to attend a hearing, the Court finds no merit to the defendant's appeal, and accordingly, dismisses the same.

In the event of an appeal to the Commonwealth Court, the Court reserves the right to augment this Order with an Opinion.

The defendant to pay costs.

D. #2, Meadville, in the County of Crawford, state of Pennsylvania.

E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

June 12, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 9, 1978, at the time the matter is before the Court on a petition for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs, it appears that the defendant is temporarily unemployed and will be receiving in the future Unemployment Compensation in the amount of approximately $82.00 per week. He relates that his employer, Don Abbott Sandblasting, is in precarious financial conditions and may not be able to continue operations but that he intends to work on call for them to attempt to assist them in continuing the business. Accordingly, his earnings at this time are uncertain.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter a temporary order and direct the defendant to pay temporary alimony pendente lite in the amount of $50.00 for the month of June and $50.00 for the month of July to his wife.

No order regarding payment for the divorce is made at this time.

The Court notes that both parties acknowledge the defendant is paying the sum of $20.00 per week voluntarily for the support of the minor child involved and that the wife has an appointment scheduled for the Domestic Relations Division. The Court recommends that so long as the defendant is complying with his voluntary payment of $20.00 per week that the Domestic Relations Division not schedule an adjudication hearing on this matter pending the outcome of further court hearings regarding alimony and divorce costs.

The matter is rescheduled for review hearing July 24, 1978 at 11:00 a.m. The defendant is directed to procure from his employer a statement of all earnings received during the month of June and the month of July up to July 21 and produce the same at the hearing.

A copy of this Order is to be lodged with the Domestic Relations Division.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 12, 1978 Copies of Order given to Joan Mason, Esq., and Theodore Watts, Esq,, and copy given to Domestic Relations.

July 25, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, July 24, 1978, at the time of review hearing, it appears that the defendant has had earnings from part-time employment from the date of the prior hearing on June 9, 1978 to date in the amount of $188.00. In addition, he is now receiving Unemployment Compensation in the amount of $101.00 per week which would give him total income of approximately $693.00 since the last hearing.

It further appears the defendant made the required $50.00 payment for the month of June but has paid nothing during the month of July. It further appears that in accordance with said Order of June 9, 1978, the defendant was voluntarily paying support in the sum of $20.00 per week for his minor child but has paid no child support since the last hearing and advances therefor the reason that he did not pay support because his wife insisted that while the child was in his custody he not have his girlfriend present.

In accordance with the foregoing, the Court adjudicates the defendant in willful and deliberate contempt of the previous Order of Court entered June 9, 1978, and accordingly, the defendant is hereby sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail until such time as he purges himself of contempt or until he presents a rational plan to the Court to meet his obligations as far as alimony pendente lite are concerned and as far as support for the minor child are concerned. In this regard, the Court notes that the mother has now filed an intra-county support action in Erie County to secure support for the child and is presently receiving Department of Welfare payments in the amount of $169.00.

The defendant is delivered into the custody of the Sheriff.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 25, 1978, Copies of Order given to Joan Mason, Esq. and Theodore H. Watts, Esq. and Certified copy given to Sheriff of Crawford County.

July 27, 1978, Order filed: AND NOW, July 25, 1978, the defendant having been sentenced to undergo imprisonment for contempt and his counsel having advised the Court that the defendant is willing to make certian payments and enter into certain orders for support, the defendant is authorized to be released from confinement upon the payment of $50 as alimony pendente lite to counsel for

June 8, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, June 5, 1978, at the time of presentation of a petition to contest the election and an appeal from the computation by the County Board of Elections, counsel for the petitioner Haskell advises the Court that he belatedly discovered this date from the Clerk of the County Election Board that there was an apparently discovered error in Rome Township and placed on the record a narrative of what was reported to him by said Clerk and at said time filed a motion with the Election Board not to certify the results and to reconvene and reconsider the Rome Township problem. PETITION FOR PRIVATE SALE OF UNUSED AND UNNECESSARY LANDS AND BUILDINGS

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 19th day of June, 1978, upon presentation of the foregoing petition and upon due consideration thereof, the Court fixes the 21st day of July, 1978, at 1:30 o'clock P.M., in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had, as the time and place for a hearing on said petition and the petitioners are directed and ordered to give public notice of said proposed private sale by publication in the Meadville Tribune newspaper and in the Crawford County Legal Journal once a week for three successive weeks before the date fixed for said hearing and sale and by handbills, one or more of which must be posted on the property proposed to be sold, and at least five of which must be posted at conspicuous places within the vicinity of said real estate.

Per Curiam,
F. Joseph Thomas,
Judge

June 19, 1978, Copy of Order given to Atty. Miller.

July 21, 1978 Proof of Publication from The Tribune Publishing Company and Crawford Co. Legal Journal.filed.

July 21, 1978 Affidavit of Posting Hand Bills filed.

July 21, 1978 Final Order filed: AND NOW, to wit: this 21st day of July, 1978, a petition for the private sale of certain real estate situate in West Mead Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, having been presented on June 19, 1978, by the Conneaut School District, Crawford Central School District and Penncrest School District, as well as the Board of School Directors of the Crawford County Area Vocational Technical School, all in Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and the Court having fixed Friday, July 21, 1978, at 1:30 o'clock P.M. as the time for hearing on said petition, an an affidavit having been filed indicating the posting of hand bills, one or more of which was posted on the property proposed to be sold, and at least five of which were posted in conspicuous places within the vicinity of said real estate, as required by law, and it appearing to the Court that proofs of publication of said sale in the Crawford County Legal Journal and Meadville Tribune have been filed indication publication in the Meaville Tribune newspaper three times on June 28, July 5 and 12 in accordance with the law and the prior order of this Court, and indication publication one time only in the Crawford County Legal Journal on June 28, 1978, by reason of an error of the Crawford County Legal Journal, and it further appearing to the Court that no objections have been filed to the proposed sale;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Court is satisfied that proper public notice of the proposed sale and this hearing have been given by publication in the Meadville Tribune newspaper, a newspaper of general circulation and by the posting of hand bills. The Court does believe that the failure to advertise said notice on three occasions, instead of one occasion, in the Crawford County Legal Journal is not the fault of the petitioners and did not deprice the public of adequate notice and therefore the error in publication is excused and accepted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the petitioners, the Conneaut School District, the Crawford Central School District, the Penncrest School District and the Board of School Directors of the Crawford County Area Vocational Technical School, all in Crawford County, Pennsylvania, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to sell at private sale to Willis R. Stanley and Arlene E. Stanley, his wife, for the sum of $38,00.00 the following described parcel of land, to wit:

ALL that certain piece or parcel of land situate in West Mead Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to wit:

BEGINING AT a point in the centerline of Thurston Road, said point being located at the southwest corner of land conveyed by the First National Bank of Pennsylvania, successor to the First National Bank of Meadville, Trustee under the testamentary trust of Herbert W. Fox, deceased, to the Conneaut School District, Crawford Central School District and Penncrest School District by deed Book 463, page 230; thence North 69°37'40" East along the southerly line of land of the Conneaut School District et al, a distance of 266.20 feet, more or less, to a point in the westerly line of land now or formerly of Sara Andre; thence South 15°14' East along the westerly line of land now or formerly of Sara Andre a distance of 77.06 feet, more or less, to a point in the northerly line of land now or formerly of Victor N. Fuller; thence South 32°58' West along land now or formerly of Victor N. Fuller a distance of 265.12 feet, more or less, to a point in the centerline of Thurston Road; thence North 15°45' West along the centerline of Thurston Road a distance of 102.30 feet, more or less, to a point, the place of beginning.

The Court is satisfied that all fo the requirements of Section 707 of the Public School Code of 1949, Act of March 10, 1949, P.L. 30 (24 P.S. 7-707) insofar as the private sale of unused and unnecessary lands and buildings of school districts is concerned, have been satisfied.

The petitioners are ordered and directed to make a return of sale to the Court after the sale has been consumated and the deed executed and delivered.

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff

July 17, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, July 13, 1978, after informal hearing and with the parties represented by counsel and after Court discussion with the children, the Court deems it advisable for the father to re-establish visitation arrangements with the minor child WENDY and accordingly, commencing with the weekend of July 15, 1978, the father shall have the right to have the minor child WENDY in His custody on the first and third weekends of every month. In addition, more extensive visits shall be accorded the father and accordingly, minor child HAZEL shall be in the custody of her father from Sunday, July 16, until Sunday July 23, 1978 with said visitation to commence Sunday at 9:00 a.m. and terminate the following Sunday at 9:00 p.m. In addition, child HAZEL shall spend the weeks of August 6 through 19 with her father commencing August 6, 1978 at 9:00 a.m. and terminating Saturday August 19 at 9:00 pm.

In addition, in 1978 and afterwards, the parents shall make adequate arrangments to have the child HAZEL in father's custody for a period of four (4) weeks and the court leaves to the discretion of the parties as to the allocation of these weeks.

With regard to minor child WENDY, the father shall have the right to have child WENDY every other weekend commencing with the weekend of July 14 and 15 and it is the intention of the parents and the Court that the two (2) girls visit the father the same weekends, namely the first and third weekends.

The parties mutually agree that the children will be picked up between 7:00 and 8:00 p.m. on Friday and returned by 9:00 p.m. on Sunday evening and it shall be the obligation of the father to pick up and return said children.

The Court makes no Order for extended summer visits at this time, but anticipates that once a relationship is extablished between father and daughter WENDY that the parties should mutually work out a more extended summer visit. In the event the same cannot be accomplished by agreement, the Court will establish said visits.

As far as both children are concerned during the Christmas vacation period, they will be in the home of their mother on Christmas Day; however, satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children spend at least three (3) days with the father with one (1) of said days being either the day before or the day after Christmas.

In addition to the foregoing visits, in anticipation of special family events or celebrations, the father of the minor children shall have the right to have the children in his custody for an additional three (3) days at the time of his choice so long as he gives the mother and children forty-eight (48) hours notice.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas

July 17, 1978 Copies of order (2) given to Joan Mason and Donald Fickenscher, Esqs.

June 14, 1979 Petition for Contempt and Rule filed: AND NOW, this 14 day of June, 1979, upon consideration of the within Petition a Rule is hereby entered that the REspondent, Doris Sherred, show cause, if any she has, why she should not be adjudged in contempt of court.

PER CURIAM,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 15, 1979 Copy of Order to Atty J. Mason.

July 10, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, July 3, 1979, after informal hearing and after consultation with the children, Court modifies the order heretofore entered regarding visitation as follows:

The father shall have the right to have the children in his custody for one (1) weekend per month during each year except the months of June, July and August when said weekend visits shall be replaced by one (1) continuous week as herein after set forth. The weekend shall commence the third Friday of every month at 8:00 p.m. until Sunday at 8:00 p.m. It shall be the obligation of the father to pick up and return both of the children. Both children will be with the father on these weekends.

In the event the children have school or personal activities that interfere with the weekend visits, this shall not under any circumstances cancel the weekend visit. The decision to whether the children will continue with their planned activities on his visitation weekend lies entirely with the father, and the mother will not attempt to influence the children to discourage the visit because of these activities.

Court accords the father two (2) additional weekend visits of his choice providing he gives the mother two (2) weeks notice, with the two weekends to be utilized between September 1, 1979 and January 1, 1980. The weekends shall be nonconsecutive.

The father is also accorded two (2) additional weekends of his choice between January 1, 1980 and June 1, 1980 on the same conditions.

The children shall be in the home of their mother on Christmas Day and satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children in the home of their father for two (2) days either the 23rd and 24th of December or the 25th and 27th of December with the choice os said visits to lie in the discretion of the father. In the event the parties cannot agree on appropriate times, the visits will start at 8:00 p.m. and terminate two (2) days later at 8 p.m.

The father shall be accorded one (1) week's continuous visit during each month of June, July and August of each year, in in general these weeks shall be the 4th of the month, but the visit will commence on Friday preceding the 4th Sunday of the month at 8:00 p.m. and will terminate the following Friday at 8:00 p.m.

The Court will review this matter at the request of either party after six (6) months.

The Court finds that the mother is in contempt of court for encourgaging the children not to carry out their obligations and maintain the visits heretofore accorded. Punishment for contempt will be postponed so the Court may ascertain whether she is cooperative in fully complying with this Order.

In view of the fact the Court has accorded the father three (3) - one (1) week visitations during the summer months, upon the father notifying the Domestic Relations Office that he has had both children, the Domestic Relations Office will credit against the support obligation due an appropriate pro-rata sum for the three (3) weeks that the father has the children in his custody.

Nov. 10, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, November 7, 1980, after informal hearing, presentation of the parties' positions by counsel and the Court's personal conference with the children in the presence of counsel for both parties, the Court withholds any adjudication of contempt and finds it necessary to establish firm visitation with weekend visits for the father. Accordingly, the father is accorded weekend visits on November 14, through 16, 1980 commencing at 8:00 P.M. on November 14th and termination at 7:00 P.M. on November 16th. An appropriate weekend visits is likewise accorded for the weekend of December 19 through 21, 1980 and on the third weekend of each month thereafter.

July 13, 1978, Copy of Order given to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq.

July 13, 1978 Order filed: WHEREAS, after hearing and inquiry by the Court, we are satisfied that the petitioner has been subjected to unlawful and excessive abuse by her husband; and

WHEREAS, it appears that this abuse occurs at least mainly when the defendant has been consuming alcoholic beverages; and

WHEREAS, because of the petitioner's age, she is peculiarly susceptible to severe injury by physical contact; and

WHEREAS, the parties, in spite of their past differences, have indicated that they at least for the time being desire to live together upon condition that the defendant behave himself and discontinue the consumption of alcoholic beverages;

NOW, THEREFORE, this 13th day of July, 1978, it is ORDERED and DIRECTED as follows:

1. That the defendant may continue to reside with the plaintiff in the home jointly owned by the parties upon condition that he will not at any time in the future, directly or indirectly, annoy, abuse, physically or otherwise, the plaintiff.

PETITION UNDER THE "PROTECTION FROM ABUSE" ACT

Aug 7, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, August 7, 1978, after informal hearing, the Court is unable to determine whether the relief requested in the petition should be granted, and accordingly, sets a hearing thereon for August 21, 1978 at 9:30 o'clock am.

In the meantime, the defendant is authorized to return and reside in the common household at R.D.#2, Saegertown, Pennsylvania on the following terms and conditions:

1. He will not harass, abuse or assault his wife or her children in any fashion.

2. He will not destroy or remove jointly-owned assets from the property.

The parties are urged to attempt to resolve the matter as it appears to the Court there is a divorce which will be contested and there is a substantial argument over property rights and individual rights to personal property within the household. The Court urges the parties to attempt to reach some amicable agreement that would permit the defendant to remove sufficient items from the household to establish minimal housekeeping elsewhere as it apparently is the desire of the wife that they not live together in the jointly-owned property.

Aug 18, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, August 16, 1978, at the time scheduled for hearing on a petition for custody, it appears that the mother of said child is temporarily hospitalized and counsel for the parties agree that the matter shall be continued to a future date to be set by further motion with said continuance on the following terms and conditions:

1. The mother shall have reasonable visitation rights which rights shall be exercised by giving at least twenty-four (24) hours notice of her intention to exercise her visitation rights.
2. The Child may be in her custody during visitation rights but may not be removed from Crawford County without the consent of the grandparents of said child.
3. In addition to the notification of intention to visit, the mother shall have the right to contact the child by telephone at the grandparents home with said calls not to exceed one (1) per week.

We again call to the attention of counsel that there is no provision under the Rules of Civil Procedure for a "cross-complaint". The proper procedure under Pa. So answers,

Catherine I. Castile, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Sept. 5, 1978 Order filed: And Now, August 28, 1978, after hearing, the Court awards custody of the two (2) minor children, Jeffrey and Jason to their mother, Shirley Rector.

The father shall have the right to have reasonable visitations with the children and unless the parties agree otherwise, the father shall have the right to have the children with him on the first and third weekends of every month commencing with the month of September, 1978. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the visits shall commence at 6:30 p.m. on Friday and terminate at 6:00 P.M. on Sunday.

In addition, the children will be in the home of their mother on Christmas, but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children in the home of their father either the day before or the day after Christmas for a period of not less than eight hours.

The Court believes that extensive summer visits with the father are in order, particularly in view of the fact that the mother and her current husband are both employed, and accordingly, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody for a period of five (5) weeks every summer at such time as the parties designate, which period may be consecutive or non-consecutive.

In the event the parties cannot agree on the five-week summer vacation period, the Court will hereby set the summer vacations as the first three (3) weeks in July commencing the first Sunday of July, and the second two (2) weeks of August commencing the third Sunday of August.

Dec. 10, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, December 8, 1980, at the time scheduled for hearing in this matter, all parties in interest having agreed upon a disposition of the case, the Court makes the following findings:

1. The accident out of which this action arose occurred at a time when Sandra Hinkson Sutliff was single.
2. Following the accident and injuries Sandra Hinkson married Mark Edward Sutliff on January 13, 1978.

7. A settlement has been agreed upon between the Plaintiff and the defendant in the sum of Fifteen Thousand and no/100 ($15.000.00) Dollars representing policy limits in the case.
8. Joseph F. Kulwicki entered an appearance on behalf of the wife Plaintiff on October 17, 1980.

10. The balance of the settlement shall be paid to Sandra Hinkson Sutliff and Joseph F. Kulwicki, her attorney, for distribution in such manner as they may agree upon.

PETITION TO OPEN JUDGMENT

Sept. 6, 1978 Order Filed: And Now, to-wit this 6th day of Sept. 1978, the Respondent, Mary Kolasa, is ordered to show cause why defendant should not be permitted to appeal nunc pro tuno from the judgment in the office of District Justice Leonhart.

Returnable October 6, 1978 at 9:30 A.M. in Courtroom 1 or 2, Court House, Meadville, Pa. A copy of the petition and this order to be served on plaintiff by certified mail.

Robert L. Walker, J.

Oct. 11, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, October 6, 1978, it appears that a procedural oversight in the Justice of the Peace office did not result in counsel for the defendant receiving a promised notice of the entry of judgment in this case. ACCORDINGLY, the judgment is opened on the following conditions:

1. The defendant will within ten(10) days file a proper appeal bond in the amount of $1,500.00 with a confession of judgment therein authorizing the entry of said bond as a judgment in the event he is unsuccessful in his appeal.

2. The Court notes that since it is applying equitable principles in granting this appeal that it reserves the right to award damages for delay in payment in the event of an ultimate verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

3. The defendant is allowed to file an appeal nunc pro tunc.

There is some possibility the plaintiff will secure employment within the next few months. Upon payment of said sum, the Court will consider that his total obligation in this area.

PER CURIAM,

Oct. 11, 1978, Copy of Order given to Attorney Toole.

Nov 6, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, November 1, 1978, at the time scheduled for a hearing, at the Court's suggestion, final determination of the issue raised bythe petition is postponed.

It appears that the contention of the mother is that overnight or extended visits with the father might raise moral problems regarding the children and further that the present living arrangements of the father with his parents provides inadequate sleeping arrangements for the three (3) children.

Accordingly, the parties mutually agree that the visits of the father will be extended short of overnight visits at this time.

The court is advised that the father intends on finding new living arrangements and when those living arrangements are procured, the issue of overnight visits or extended visits in the father's new residence will be resolved by agreement or by further hearing before the court.

Accordingly, by agreement of the parties, the father shall have the right to have the children on the first and third Saturdays of every month commencing with the month of November between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 9:00 P.M. It is the intent that the father have all three (3) children with him at the same time.

Regarding Thanksgiving, the mother agrees the father shall have the children on Thanksgiving Day between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 8:00 P.M.

Regarding Christmas, 1978, it appears the mother is planning a Florida vacation trip with the children and the parties agree that this is in the best interest of the children. In view of the fact that school vacation period and airline schedules are at this point undetermined, the mother agrees to make satisfactory arrangements to give the father an extended day long visit with the children shortly before the planned vacation trip to Florida.

On any visitation that the father does not intend to keep, he shall notify the mother forty-eight (48) hours in advance. On any visitation date that the father does not appear within one (1) hour of the time established by this agreement, the mother may consider the visit cancelled and make other plans for the children.

Upon the father securing new housing, if the parties are unable to agree on extended visits, either party may petition the Court for a full hearing to determine if the father should be accorded overnight and extended visits with the children in his new residence, or elsewhere.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR SEPTEMBER 29, 1980; No. 5.

Sept. 15, 1980, Defendant's Brief in Support of Preliminary Objections filed.

Dec. 16, 1980. Sur Defendant's Preliminary Objections ORDER filed. This Court rules as follows on the respective Preliminary Objections of the Defendant: MOTION TO STRIKE: All objections relating to alleged violations of Rule of Civil Procedure 1022, the failure to properly paragraph and number the Complaints, are denied.

The Objection relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1054, the failure to attach an abstract of title, is denied. While attachment of an abstract is technically required in an ejectment proceeding so that the reader of the pleadings can discover the common source of adverse titles, this action is not a dispute over title but over right to possession. As that rught to possession hinges on an analysis of a lease agreement which is attached to the pleadings, an abstract of title would be superfluous here.

The objections relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1019(f), the failure to specifically plead special damages, is denied.

The objection relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1033, the filing of an Amended Complaint without consent of the defendant or leave of court, is denied. While technically in error, plaintiffs, by their Amended Complaint, did not change their cause of action, introduce an additional cause of action, or otherwise prejudice the defendant in any substantial way. Accordingly, we will let the amendment stand because it served only to clarify the plaintiff's allegations and to better conform them to the available evidence.

The objection relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1024, the failure to have the Amended Complaint verified by one or more of the plaintiffs, is granted. Because the plaitiffs will be required to file a more specific Amended Complaint, as hereinafter described, we direct said Amended Complaint to be accompanied by an affidavit of verification signed not by plaintiffs' attorney but by one or more of the plaintiffs.

The objection relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1019(h), the failure to attach Exhibit A to the Amended Complaint, is granted. Although Exhibit A was attached to the original Complaint, in the interest of clarity, we direct that Exhibit A be attached to the more specific Amended Complaint, which the plaitiffs are today being required to filed.

JOHN ROTKOVECZ

Filed Oct. 16, 1978

PETITION FOR EMERGENCY RELIEF FROM ABUSE

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 16th day of October, 1978 it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Defendant, John Rotkovecz, shall leave the home of the Plaintiff located at RD #2, Valley Road, Meadville, Pa. and shall not return there for any reason until further order of this Court.

2. Defendant, John Rotkovecz, shall not abuse, harass, threaten or annoy the Plaintiff of any other person residing with her.

3. Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff in any manner.

4. A hearing on this matter is set for October 17, 1978, at 11:30 o'clock AM in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pa.

5. This Petition and Order shall be filed and served without payment of costs; the Court shall determine at the hearing whether the Plaintiff or Defendant shall be required to pay the costs.

6. This Order is to be served by the Pennsylvania State Police, Meadville Barracks.

To the Defendant: You are hereby notified that your failure to attend the hearing may have serious legal consequences.

By Order of the Court,

P. Richard Thomas,
President Judge

Oct. 17, 1978, Copy of Order given to Legal Services.

Oct 19, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, October 17, 1978, after informal hearing the Court is satisfied that the defendant's drinking problem, allegations of ill health and prior history coupled with family turmoil makes it necessary that the defendant John Rotkovecz not go to the residence of his wife and children unless he is specifically invited.

Accordingly, the defendant John Rotkovecz is hereby precluded from entering the home in which his wife and children reside and he shall not abuse, harass, threaten or annoy his wife or family in any manner. In the event his wife specifically requests that he pay a visit to the home, he may go to the home providing he has not consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of at least twelve (12) hours.

The Court notes the defendant has previously been in Court on a similar proceeding, has undergone counseling at the Drug and Alcohol Center and is this date scheduled for an appointment at the Mental Health Center. The Court requests the Drug and Alcohol Center to re-enter the case but the Court suggests to the defendant that he commit himself to the Threshhold program and take up active counseling at the Drug and Alcohol Center.

This order shall be in effect for a period of one (1) year unless modified by further order.

The County is directed to pay costs in this petition.

Dec. 15, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, December 8, 1978, after hearing, the Court believes the circumstances warrant award of permanent custody of the three (3) minor children her at issue to the mother, and the Court so orders. Custody in the mother shall be subject to the following visitation in the father, particularly in view of the fact the mother desires that the children maintain and keep a close relationship with their father:

Commencing the month of December, 1978, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody on the first and third weekends of each and every month commencing immediately after school and terminating Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. In addition, the father shall have the right to have the children in his custody on Wednesday of every week during the school year and shall pick up the children at the house of the baby-sitter after school and return them there at 9:30 p.m. During the school Christmas vacation period, arrangements will be made to have the children in the custody of the father for a continuous three (3) day period during said vacation period with said three days not to include Christmas.

The children will be in the home of their mother on Christmas Day unless she wishes to make satisfactory arrangements for a short visit with the father on said day. In addition, satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the children with their father either the day before or the day after Christmas for a period of not less than six (6) hours.

During the summer school vacation period, in addition to the weekend visits hereinbefore prescribed, the father shall have the right to have his children in his custody for a continuous one(1) week period during the months of June, July and August providing he gives the mother of said children two (2) weeks notice of the week he selects and provided further that said periods do not interfere with the planned vacation schedules of the mother. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the visits shall commence Saturday Noon and terminate the second following Sunday at 8:00 P.M.

PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM ORDER OF DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SUSPENDING DRIVER'S LICENSE

ORDER: RE: Petition for Appeal From License Suspension -

It appears the crux of this appeal lies in the contention of the defendant that he applied for a continuance of a hearing scheduled for May 30, 1978, on an April 27, 1978, speeding charge and assumed the same was granted. While there is some question as to whether or not said request was acted upon, the matter is referred back to Estelle Reisner, District Justice (District 30-2-01), for hearing de novo on Citation No. L-039660 issued April 27, 1978.

This referral shall act as a supersedeas and the suspension of 55 days imposed upon the defendant September 25, 1978, by the Department of Transportation is set aside pending ultimate decision on the alleged speeding offense occurring on April 27, 1978.

The District Justice is directed to schedule and hold a hearing to determine guilt or innocence regarding Citation No. L-039660.

Dec. 4, 1978, Appearance of Thomas E. Lindquist, Attorney for defendant filed.

August 8, 1980, Petition for Hearing to Determine Property Rights filed.

August 8, 1980, Order filed. ORDER: This divorce alleging indignities was filed October 31, 1978, and served November 3, 1978. Appearance was entered for defendant December 4, 1978. No master has been appointed. Apparently the stumbling block is a property division.

Cousel for plaintiff now requests the Court to schedule a hearing to equitably divide the real and personal property of the parties under Section 401(b) and (d) of the new Divorce Code.

We must decline the petition for the following reasons:

1. Cousel must first petition the Court, with notice to opposing counsel seeking permission to proceed under the new Divorce Act, effective July 1, 1980, in accord with Section 103 thereof so that once Court permission is secured the old complaint may be amended as of course to include a request for property division (see Supreme Court new Divorce Rule 1920.13).

2. After Court allowance of an amendment of the complaint to include a request for a decree of Court making property division under Section 401, each party must then file, within sixty (60) days, an inventory and appraisment of all real and personal property in accord with the mandates of Divorce Rule 1920.33.

3. When the issues regarding property are ready for decision after inventories have been filed and any answers filed to inventories (see Rule 1920.33(b) either party may move the Court to resolve the property issue either by Court hearing or referral to a Court designated Master.

For the foregoing reasons the petition is refused without prejudice.

We make the following disposition of said request:

1. A hearing is set in Courtroom No. 2, June 7, 1982, at 1:30 P.M. for the purpose of determining the eligibility for an amount of alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs.

2. This matter is referred to William Pineo, Child Custody Mediator, for the purpose of scheduling a conference and attempting to reach a resolution of the child custody issue. The Child Custody Mediator may divide cost between the parties in such manner as he deems appropriate.

3. The matter of divorce, determination of equitable property ownership and distribution of real and personal property between the parties and permanent alimony is referred to William Jorden, Attorney at Law, to schedule a hearing within thirty (30) days and proceed promptly to resolve these issues. The plaintiff shall be required to deposit an initial Master's fee of $250.00 and the Court grants the Master the right to petition the Court before final resolution of the matter for additional fees and a recommendation as to who should pay the same and what property shall be sold to pay said fees.

Jan 5, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, January 5, 1979, after informal hearing, the Court is convinced that it is in the best interest of the children to have visits with their father. Because of the distance between their respective residences, the Court believes it advisable that the father have the children in his custody for a period of one (1) month during the summer school vacation period. The Court will not set the precise date for the visits but leaves it to the father and the children to arrange such dates as is mutually satisfactory.

The Court directs the mother to cooperate in this effort and directs that the children comply with this Order.

In the event the father wishes to pay for airline transportation to and from the summer visit, the children and the mother will see that the same is complied with upon the father's payment of the necessary fare.

In addition, the father is accorded periodic visits with his children in the Meadville area, and in the event he wishes weekend visitation privileges, he may have the same at his discretion, but not oftener that once a month, provided, however, he makes satisfactory arrangements for a designated weekend at least two (2) weeks in advance with the children.

It appears the father is paying support in the amount of $250.00 per month, and in view of the one-month visitation accorded the father, he shall be relieved of payment of support formerly agreed to for the one-month period.

Nov. 15, 1984 Order filed. This case has long been delayed and there existed some confusion as to whether or not plaintiff's counsel was still handling the matter. We issued a 1901 Rule as to why the matter should not be dismissed for want of action and plaintiff's counsel responded with a tequest for a hearing on our 1901 Rule. The petition offers some explanation for the delay, but we see no need to require counsel for the parties to appear and argue dismissal under 1901. ACCORDINGLY, we will direct that the Prothonotary place this case on the February 1985 Civil Jury Trial List for trial. Counsel for both sides are advised that the court will not be receptive to motions for continuance for any cause including discovery. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Mar. 28, 1989, Petition for Commitment filed.

Apr. 5, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, April 3, 1989, after hearing and after notification to the Regional Office of Mental Retardation, the Court is satisfied that the patient, Daniel Smith, meets all the qualifications of mental retardation and that local programming and continued residence with the parents is grossly impractical at this time. The local mental retardation staff has attempted placement to meet the patient's peculiar needs without success and the Court is satisfied that there are no local or regional facilities that could meet his needs. Accordingly, in accordance with Section 406 of the Act, the patient Daniel Smith is hereby committed to Polk Center for placement in a behavior modification program to meet his special needs. The ultimate goal will be treatment in such a program and a stabilization of ancillary drug therapy, if found necessary, to the end that a behavioral modification program with or without accompanying medication will enable the patient to be returned either to family or to a local program that can meet his needs.

The Court requests Polk Center to bend every effort to effectuate an immediate admission as the aggressive conduct and the actions ofthe patient make it obvious that such is necessary for the patient and family's safety and well-being at this time. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Aug. 8, 1979 Order filed: And now, August, 8, 1979, after hearing in the above-entitled case, the petition for temporary and permanent injunction is DENIED for the following reasons:

1. This action was brought in accordance with 12 P.S. 1791 and as such is addressed to the law side of the court.

No. 77, November Term, 1978

The objection relating to the alleged violation of Rule of Civil Procedure 1019(h), the failure to state whether the agreement referred to in paragraph 4(a) of the Amended Complaint was oral or written, is denied. Ordinarily, it is only if the claim is based on a writing that Rule 1019(h) places a duty upon the plainiff to make a statement to thet effect. Therefore, the plaintiffs are not required to make any allegations as to whether the agreement is written or oral. Because the plaintiffs did not specify whether this agreement was written or oral, the prevailing weight of authority construes that to be an averment of an oral agreement.

MOTION FOR MORE SPECIFIC PLEADING: The motion for More Specific Pleading is granted as to the following inquiries from the following paragraphs:

Paragraph 4(a)--What is the date, place and form of agreement to pay the rent in advance.

Paragraph 12(a)-- What is the number, size and value of trees removed?

Paragraph 15 -- What is the time, date and place of plaintiffs' addition to the lease and the time, date, place and form of defendant's consent thereto?

The defendant's Motion for More Specific Pleading is denied in all other respects, The plaintiffs are given twenty (20) days to file a more specific complaint answering the inquiries listed above as fully as possible.

DEMURRER: The objection in the nature of a demurrer to the first count and cause of action in the Amended Complaint is dismissed.

PETITION RAISING DEFENSE OF PENDENCY OF PRIOR ACTION: The objection in the nature of lis pendens is dismissed.

The prior action at No. 75 September Term, 1977, cited by the defendant as identical to the first count in the action at issue here, has been discontinued of record as of September 30, 1980.

Nor does the prior action at No. 178 September Term, 1976, cited by the defendant as identical to the third count in the action at issue here, constitute a lis pendens defense. Although both actions were spawned by the same set of facts, No. 178 September Term, 1976, is an assumpsit claim and the action at issue here is an ejectment proceeding, Thus, No. 178 September Term 1976, cannot be considered an identical "prior action" pending so as to abate this ejectment action.

No. 77, November Term, 1978

Jan. 31, 1983 Order filed. And Now, January 31, 1983, this long delayed matter is before the Court because the Court granted a Rule under Rules of Judicial Administration, 1901, as to why the matter should not be discontinued because of inaction on the part of Plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs requested a hearing on said Rule, and appear before the Court this date without counsel requesting to represent themselves and advising the Court that they wish this matter litigated. On December 15, 1980, the Court ruled on Defendant's preliminary objections and required an amended Complaint. Said amended Complaint was apparently filed by counsel for the Plaintiff, Attorney William B. Moore, and captioned Second Amended Complaint, and having been filed January 5, 1981. Mr. Moore has withdrawn his appearance in this case. Said Complaint required no notice to plead, and accordingly, the Defendant has filed no Answer or response thereto. At this time counsel for the Defendant advises the Court that they are willing to ignore this defect in pleading, and file an Answer to said amended Complaint within Twenty (20) days, and the Court Directs them to do so.

Plaintiffs are advised that the complexities of this matter require that counsel should be representing them, and Plaintiffs advise that Attorney Paul Shafer will be entering an appearance on their behalf in this litigation. The Court notes that some of the matters alluded to in this case may have been resolved by a jury verdict in the case at No. 178 September Term, 1976. It appears the Plaintiffs' contention is that the Defendants are occupying five (5) acres of land, which were not sold to them, and have done extensive damage on said property. The Plaintiffs mistakenly believe also that many other wrongs allegedly vested upon them by the Defendant or others on their behalf, both of a civil and criminal nature can be resolved in this litigation; accordingly, the Court enters the following Order:

Defendant is DIRECTED to file an Answer to the Second Amended Complaint within twenty (20) days of this date. The Plaintiffs in person or through their counsel will file a request to set a hearing a date in this case on or before March 15, 1983. Upon receiving said motion, the Court will set a date for a hearing. In the event the Plaintiffs fail to request a hearing date, the Court will discontinue this matter without further notice to the Plaintiffs in accordance with Rule 1901.

By Order of the Court,
P.Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 1, 1983, Copies of order to plaintiff, and Peter C. Acker, Esq.

Feb. 7, 1983, Answer and New Matter filed.

Feb. 7, 1983, Notice of Service of Interrogatories upon Plaintiffs filed.

Feb. 7, 1983, Request for Production of Documents filed.

Mar. 23, 1983 Re: Termination of Inactive Case and Order filed: The plaintiffs originally filed a Complaint in this case on October 11, 1978. Preliminary Objections were filed and the defendant was required to file an Amended Complaint. An Amended Complaint was filed on January 5, 1981 and was reinstated on April 13, 1981, and captioned as Second Amended Complaint. It was served on the defendant on April 27, 1981. Meanwhile, the plaintiffs' attorney withdrew his appearance in this case. Said Complaint required no notice to plead and accordingly, the defendant filed no answer or response thereto. The case remained inactive until November 29, 1982, when the Court entered an Order under Rule of Judicial Administration No. 1901, notifying the parties that the case would be terminated unless either party requested a hearing on such proposed termination within thirty (30) days. The plaintiffs requested such a hearing, which was held on January 31, 1983. The plaintiffs appeared without counsel and advised the Court that they still wished to litigate the matter.

At the January 31, 1983, hearing, the defendant agreed to ignore the defects in the plaintiffs' pleading and agreed to file an answer to said Second Amended Complaint. The Court directed the defendant to file said answer within twenty (20) days. The Court also orders the plaintiffs, in person or through their counsel, to file a request to set a hearing date in this case on or before March 15, 1983. The Court warned the plaintiffs that if they failed to request a hearing date, the Court would discontinue the matter without further notice in accordance with Rule 1901.

Pursuant to the January 31, 1983, Order, the defendant filed an Answer and New Matter to the Second AmendedComplaint on February 7, 1983. On the same date, the defendant also filed a Request for Production of Documents. The plaintiff failed to respond to either document within the prescribed time limit. More importantly, however, the plaintiffs have also failed to file a request for a hearing date, even though one week had past since the March 15, 1983 deadline.

Because the plaintiffs failed to file a request for a hearing date and failed to proceed with this case in any way whatsoever, we hereby terminate the present case and dismiss the plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint with prejudice in accordance with Rule 1901.

Aug. 3, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 31, 1981, the defendant Rathburn, having agreed to resolve the above litigation by the appointment of three independent arbitrators and having agreed to pay one-half of the cost of said arbitrators' fees and said arbitrators having filed their decision on July 30, 1980, and the defendant Rathburn having failed to pay his share of fees in the amount of $375.00, a rule to show cause is hereby entered requiring said Harold E. Rathburn to show cause why he should not be judged in contempt of court for his wilful and deliberate failure to pay the arbitrators' fees agreed to. This matter is set for hearing and argument on August 17, 1981 at 9:30 A.M.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 3, 1981, Copies of Order to James Irwin, Esq., and Theodore H. Watts, Esq.

Aug. 17, 1981, Order filed. AND NOW, August 17, 1981, at the time set for hearing on a rule to show cause as to why the Defendant should not be adjudged in contempt of Court, the Defendant does not appear in person, but counsel for the Defendant appears, and the Court notes that a copy of said Order was also forwarded to Christopher T. Kline, Esquire, his counsel in Columbus, Ohio, by letter dated August 3, 1981.

The amount of $375.00, being the Defendant's share of arbitration costs, which he agreed to pay remains unpaid and accordingly, the Defendant is adjudged in contempt of Court for his wilful and deliberate failure to pay said sum or to make any reasonable installment payments thereon commensurate with his income and earnings. The Court notes that at this time correspondence has indicated the Defendant has fallen upon hard financial times, but the Court lacks any sworn testimony to said effect.

Accordingly, the Defendant is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for sixty (60) days or until said sum is paid in full. Exucution of the Sentance is postponed until September 10, 1981, and if by that date the Defendant has paid one-half (½) of said sum due, further execution of the Sentence will be postpones until the 10th day of October, 1981 for payment of the balance of said sum due.

If the Defendant fails to comply with this Order, the Court will issue a subsequent Order authorizing the arrest of the Defendant in the State of Ohio for service of this Sentence.

Rathburn, through counsel having forwarded to the Court the sum of $375.00 the order heretofore entered August 17th, 1981, holding him in contempt of Court is rescinded and all obligations concerning the payment of said sum are satisfied.

The Prothonotary is directed to forward a check in said amount to the Chairman of the Board of Arbitrators, Kenneth Beers, 209 Grandview Avenue, Meadville, who will be responsible for seeing to the division of said sum among all three arbitrators.

Order: AND NOW, July 25, 1978, at No. 87 September Term, 1978, Petitioner H. H. Haskell's Petition to Contest the Republican Primary of May 16, 1978, for the office of Representative from the Sixth Assembly District, having been dismissed, Petitioner's bond in the amount of $150 is forfeited to the county.

Although we found no fraud or gross irregularities in the conduct and computation of votes in the Republican Primary race for Representative from the Sixth District, due to the closeness of the race and in the interest of fairness and equity, we deem it appropriate to refund to Petitioner Haskell all sums deposited with the Prothonotary at Nos. 89 and 90 September Term, 1978, except the amount of $300 representing the cost to the county of the specially appointed court tabulators.

Accordingly, at No. 89 September Term, 1978, the Prothonotary is directed to refund to Petitioner Haskell $700. At No. 90 September Term, 1978, the Prothonotary is directed to refund to Petitioner Haskell $150.

Aug 28, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, August 23, 1978, the Court finds and upon the Defendant's admission that he is in contempt of the Court Order entered July 18, 1978 by repeatedly attempting to contact and call his wife and by his own admission has made threats against her and has entered her home without permission. Accordingly, he is found in contempt of court, but in view of his promise that he will abide by future Court Orders, any Sentence for contempt is suspended.
