Dec. 22, 1982, Motion for Appointment of Master filed.

Dec. 28, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 27, 1982, a Motion for Appointment of Master having been filed in the above case and the Court being of the opinion that said motion is totally premature, we deny the request for the appointment of a master.

Complaint in this case was filed on June 24, 1982, requesting equitable distribution of property, permanent alimony and alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs. The time for filing of income and expense statements and inventory and appraisements has long since past. No master will be appointed at least until the moving party has filed those documents.

Although the Motion for Appointment of Master lists the name of an atty. for the Defendant, there is not appearance of record.

No. master will be appointed until the moving party has complied with the rules regarding the filing of the above documents. If the defendant fails to file an inventory and appraisemtn or an income and expense statement within twenty (20) days after the filing of such documents by the plaintiff, defendant will be precluded from offering any testimony or evidence concerning the matters that would have been contained in such documents at the master's hearing.

Aug. 13, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 12, 1982, at the time set for hearing, it appears that the parties are again residing together in the common household, but not on an amicable basis. There appears to be a support action pending and the Court is advised that on or about August 16, 1982, a divorce will be filed accompanied by a petition for alimony and counsel fees so that with the goal of securing living expenses for the wife to remove hereself from the common household and set up separate living arrangements while the support and divorce matters are being contested.

The parties through their counsel advise the Court that no hearing is necessary this date and defendant has agreed to pay any record costs involved in this action, ACCORDINGLY, hearing is this case is continued indefinitely on the condition that neither party physically assault the other in any fashion and that record costs be paid this date.

The Court advises the parties it will entertain no telephone calls of inquiry or complainti in regard to this case and that since both parties are represented by counsel, they must contact the Courts of this county through their attorneys.

At this time, the Court notes presentation of a bill for legal services on behalf of the plaintiff which the Court at this time denies on the basis that there is not statutory or precedential authority for the award of attorney fees in an abuse petition.

Sept. 28, 1983 Exhibits filed with papers.

Sept. 30, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, September 28, 1983, the Court believes the best interest of the minor children, Jacob and Mindy, will be served by continuing their custody with their father, Thomas J. Rauscher, in Crawford County. Accordingly, principal custody is awarded to Thomas J. Rauscher. The Court finds the mother to be a fit and suitable person to have extensive custody and visitation with the children, and accordingly, each year, commencing with 1984, the children shall be in the custody of their mother for a period of time commencing one (1) week after school is out in May or June and ending one (1) week before school commences in late August of September.
It shall be the receiving parent's obligation to arrange for transportation of the children at such times as they are entitled to receive the children.
During the time the children are in the custody of the father, the Court believes visits with the mother to be in the best interest of the children. Accordingly not more often that once every month while in the father's custody, the mother may come to the State of Pennsylvania and have the children in her custody for a period of not less than one (1) week, providing said custody does not interfere with their preschool or schooling plans. She shall give the father at least three (3) weeks notice of her plans for said visit with the children.
In regard to the Christmas vacation period, in the event the mother comes to Crawford County for visits during the Christmas vacation period, December 24 and December 25 will be equally shared between the parties so that the children spend a portion of each day with each parent, and on the days immediately before and after Christmas, the mother shall have the opportunity for extensive visitation and custody with the children.
In the event the father wishes to have visitation with the children in the State of Wyoming during the summer months when they are in the custody of the mother, he may have the opportunity during the months of June, July or August each year to have visits not to exceed five (5) days each month. On these visits, the children may be in his sole end exclusive custody; provided, however, he advises the mother three (3) weeks in advance of the dates he propeses to visit, and further providing that the visits do not interfere with the regularly scheduled vacation plans of the mother from her employment.
During the time the children are in the custody of both parents, they will make the children available for telephone conversations with the opposite parent and in the event written communications are forwarded to the children, they will be disclosed and read to the children.
In the event either parent changes their residence or in the event either child is injured or is undergoing serious illness, the opposite parent will be promptly notified.
In view of the distance traveled by the mother to attend this hearing, the Court believed it was desirable to issue an immediate custody order from the bench, and the Court notifies counsel for both parties that they have ten (10) days for the parties to file spacific exceptions to the Court's findings.
By agreement of parties and their counsel, in view of the fact that minor child Mindy is not in the custody of the mother in Wyoming, and the father not desiring to immediatley disrupt her living arrangements, agrees that the child Mindy shall remain in the custody of the mother until on or about January 1, 1984, at which time the child will be returned to the father in accordance with this decree, and at the expense of the father.

JAN 2, 1990 Exhibits filed with papers.

Jan. 10, 1990 ORDER FILED. AND NOW Jan. 4, 1990, this matter is back before the court for review in a petition brought by the mother requesting a change of custody primarily because of pending criminal charges against the father, and , secondarily, because of apparent regression in school conduct and scholastic achievement fy the older child, Jacob. The court hears extensive testimony and input from both parents and the attorneys in chambers outside the Under all of the circumstances, the court does not believe the present situation warrants a change of custody and a transfer of more or less full-time custody to the mother in the State of Wyoming. The court cannot predict the outcome of the father's legal problems and if the mother believes the ultimate resolution of the charges against the father jeopardize the welfare of the children to the extent that the court should reconsider awarding her custody, she may repetition the court.

Apr 3, 1990 Application for Leave to Intervene filed.

Apr 4, 1990 Re: Motion for Continuance and Motion for Leave to Intervene, Order filed: AND NOW, April 3, 1990, at the request of the Court, counsel for all parties met in chambers and the matter was extensively discussed. There is some confusion as to whether the father of the children is to be sentenced as previously scheduled on April 24, 1990, or whether the sentencing date has been continued. Under all circumstances of this case, the Court believes it unwise to hold a further factual hearing to determine custody until the father is sentenced.

The motion of the grandparents to intervene is granted, with the Court noting that by granting the intervention motion it makes no commitment regarding the ultimate decision involving primary custody of the children.

All counsel seem to be in agreement that if the Court were to change custody after a factual hearing, it would be impractical to take the children out of their present school and transfer them to another school, in view of the fact there is only approximately two months left of the present school term.

Once the fatehr is sentenced, counsel for the mother will file a further motion to set a definitive date for a h earing. If the sentencing of the father is unduly protracted, the Court will entertain a motion from any party after June 10, 1990, to set a further hearing.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

July 11 1990, copies to Attys. Ferguson, Irwin and K. Nelson.

July 17, 1990, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1990, the matter is back before the court under rather peculiar circumstances. It appears that minor child Jacob on two separate occasions when he was scheduled to return by airline to his mother, ran off and would not take the airline flight. It also appears that the daughter returned, but through oversight, the mother misplaced or accidentally discarded the ticket for Jacob.

The Court cannot find the father responsible for this mixup in return of Jacob to his mother, and accordingly, refuses to adjudicate him in contempt of our previous Order.

The court directs the minor child Jacob be returned to the care and custody of hi mother and directs counsel for the mother to investigate airline fares that would fly him back to the mother on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, the 13th 14th or 15th of July.

Jacob is concerned about missing football practice and the court is advised that it is not absolutely necessary for him to return when football practive starts on the 15 of Aug. The court is advised that the coach tells his aunt that if he is back by the 22nd of August, he will not have to comply with a four-game suspension penalty as a disciplinary measure for the team under the peculiar circumstances of this case. Accordingly, the court directs that the mother, instead of having him back one week before school starts on the 29th, shall MAKE ARRANGEMENTS to have the person who is picking him up and transporting him back, make the necessary arrangements so that Jacob returns to his aunt, Mrs. Sutliff, not later that 4:00 p.m. on the 21st of August.

Applying equitable principles, the court directs that once the airline tickets are procured, the same will be paid for by Thomas J. Rauscher, and Deborah K. Orgaard shall be responsible for reimbursing Thomas Rauscher one-half of the cost of said one-way ticket within sixty (60) days of this date.

In order to eliminate confusion in the return of both children back to Crawford County, the normal return date for Mindy would be the 22nd of Aug. and the court amends any former Orders to require her return onthe 21st day of August.

Both children shall remain inthe custody of mrs. Sutliff unless the parties agree otherwise or until further court order.

Nov. 19, 1990 Answer to Counterclaim for Custody Filed by George J. Rauscher and Carol Ann Rauscher filed.

Nov 21, 1990 Order filed: AND NOW, November 19, 1990, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that the best interest of the minor children Jacob and Mindy will be served by awarding them to the custody of their mother, Mrs. Deborah K. Orgaard in Gillette, Wyoming.

The Court at this time does not decree an exact departure date for the children, but intends that it be done within five (5) days.

The Court DIRECTS that the stepmother shall see that the clothing, personal belongings and other items of the children are surrendered to them so they may take the same with them to Wyoming and if there are major items that must be shipped, arrangments will be made for shipping the same.

It is the Court's decision that extensive summer visits between the children, the grandparents and the stepmother will be arranged and the Court DIRECTS the parties to try to draw up a satisfactory summer visitation schedule commencing in 1991 and thereafter.

Additionally, if financially practical and school schedules will not be drastically interrupted, the Court believes another one(1)week visit to grandparents or stepmother would be appropriate in addition to the extensive summer visits.

The Court DIRECTS that the mother make arrangements for incoming and reasonable outgoing telephone calls between the children, their stepmither, grandparents and if possible their father who is incarcerated.

Absent agreement among the parties, the Court will have to schedule another meeting with counsel and if a hearing is necessary, another hearing.

Jurisdiction of this case will be maintained by this Court until further Order of this Court.

In view of the impact of the move on the children and the traumatic impact on the children of the father's incarceration the Court DIRECTS the mother to arrange counseling sessions with her children as soon as possible after their return with her to Wyoming.

The parties mutually agree that the children may be in the custody of the grandparents and the stepmother for a visit to the father on Thanksgiving Day with possession being between the hours of 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.

Until the mother leaves Pittsburgh Airport with the children and except for the visit on Thanksgiving Day, the children

Nov 27, 1990 Copies of order put in Attys. Irwin, Kirkpatrick and Ferguson's boxes

Nov 21, 1990 Order filed: AND NOW, November 21, 1990, this custody matter is back before the Court again on allegations that the Juvenile has not obeyed his aunt and his mother since the hearing held November 19, 1990 and has left the aunt's home without permission, has attempted to borrow money from his grandparents, and has not returned home as required by his mother and his aunt and this Court is fearful that from his conduct, from his statments at the time of the custody hearing, that he will not accompany his mother, Deborah K. Orgaard, the State of Wyoming as required by this Court's order when she goes to the Pittsburgh Airport on Saturday, November 24, 1990. The Court finds this Juvenile to be in wilful and deliberate violation of the letter and spirit of the custody Order, and accordingly, finds him in contempt of Court. We, therefore, adjudicate him temporarily delinquent, commit him to the care and custody of Juvenile Probation Department for placement in George Junior Republic in a detention capacity.

The prior Order requiring the Juvenile to accompany his mother to the State of Wyoming is continued in full force and effect and George Junior Republic is authorized to surrender the child tot he custody of the mother, Deborah K. Orgaard, and other family members on or about 4:30 a.m., November 24, 1990. Once surrender is made to the mother, any further responsibilities of George Junior Republic will be terminated.

Dec. 19, 1990, copies to J. Irwin, M. Kirkpatrick, D. Ferguson, J. Mason.

Feb 14, 1991 Custody and Visitation Order filed: In an attempt to finalize custody, visitation, transportation costs and other related matters, the Court met with counsel for the respective parties February 6, 1991 and received informal input on the position of each of the parties. The Court enters the following as a custody and visitation Order in this case for the guidance of the parties in the future:

1. Primary custody of minor children Jacob and Mindy shall remain with their mother Deborah Orgaard in Riverton,, Wyoming. An extensive summer vacation shall take place with the children residing at the residence of their grandparents, George and Carol Rauscher in Linesville, Pennsylvania. In this regard, the Court designates the grandfather George Rauscher as the primary custodial parent of both children to the end that he shall control their hours, activities, companiions and compliance with this Order. The summer visitation period shall commence one week after the last day of the children's school in June and last until one week before the commencement of the children's school in June and last until one week before the commencement of the children's school in August or September, except as noted in the following paragraph:

Subsection 1 A -- The Court is desirous that the Orgaard family be able to plan summer vacation activities including Jacob and Mindy. ACCORDINGLY, the mother of the children is granted the option each year to delay the start of the above visitation period with grandparents or advance the return of the children from grandparents to her custody for a period of one additional week to accommodate a family vacation. It shall be the obligation of the mother to notify the grandparents on or before April 1st of each year whether she intends to delay the start of the summer visit of the children for a period of two weeks after school ends or wishes to receive the children back from the grandparents two weeks before the fall term of school commences.

2. The children have developed a close association with their stepmother Joyce Rauscher and the Court is desirous that during the summer visitation period with the grandparents that the children under the supervision of the grandfather have occasional visits with the stepmother. The grandfather may additionally accor4d the stepmother three overnight weekend visits during the summer stay, where the children would be in the exclusive control of the stepmother Joyce and reside at her premises from Friday noon until Sunday at 9:00 P.M.

3. In view of the father's location in the state of West Virginia or his possible transfer to another location, the Court also accords stepmother Joyce Rauscher the opportunity to have the children in her exclusive possession for a period of one week in order that they may take a vacation period in the location of the father's residence for the one week period. Stepmother and grandfather may jointly agree on the one week period.

4. In view of the great distance between the families, transporting of the children to accomplish the summer visits presents a problem. The court directs that in 1991 it shall be the responsibility of the father , intervening grandparents and stepmother to assume the responsibility and cost of picking up and returning the children from the summer visits in accord with the above schedule. In 1992 and yearly thereafter, it shall be the responsibility of the father, grandparents Rauscher or stepmother to pick up the children in Wyoming for the summer visits with the grandparents and it shall be the responsibility of the mother to return the children to her custody at the end of the summer visit. The parties may mutually agree to reverse the pick-up and return responsibilies.

5. Grandparents and stepmother are desirous of Christmas visits with the children during the school Christmas vacation period. The Court grants the grandparents the right to have an approximate one week visit with their children either by going to Wyoming and having the children in their custody for said visit or having them brought to Pennsylvania for a visit in their household. Said Christmas visits shall commence at 9:00 A.M. December 24th and terminate the day before the end of the school vacation in th e.

odd years commencing in 1991. In even years the vacation shall commence at approximately 9:00 a.m., December 26th and terminate one day before school commences. The ultimate goal is to have the children in the home of the mother on Christmas day in even year and in the custody or home of the grandparents in odd years. If the grandparents wish to exercise this visitation option, they shall be solely responsible for the cost of picking up and returning the children for the Christmas visit. The grandparents shall give the mother at least 6 weeks notice if they intend to exercise the Christmas visit.

6. Telephone calss between father and the children are complicated by time zones and the working and school schedules of the Orgaard family. The father shall be entitled to make one collect call to the children each Sunday with the call to be made by the father at approximately 10:00 a.m., eastern time, which would be 8:00 a.m., Wyoming mountain time. Following the present practice, intervenor Joyce Rauscher shall reimburse the mother for the cost of these collect calls.

7. Additionally, stepmother Joyce may call the children at her expense at 10:00 p.m., eastern time, each Wednesday (8:00 mountain time) and have meaningful conversations with both children. If Orgaard family plans make these calls inappropriate to the end that Orgaard family plans would have to be drastically changed, the mother has the responsibility of notifying Joyce that the Wednesday call is not convenient and specify another precise time for her call.

8. On all scheduled visits, the releasing parent or grandparents will see that all appropriate clothing and personal effects of the children are sent with them or returned with them for the visits.

9. Mother shall be responsible for forwarding to the grandparents and the father school schedules involving the two children as soon as they become available. In the event she has not already forwarded the school schedule existing for the calendar year 1991, she shall do so immediately. As soon as school schedule for calendar years Fall 1991 through Spring 1992 is available, the mother will see that father and grandparents receive a copy of the same as soon as available.

10. In a prior order, the court contemplated counseling for the children, but no one is sure at this time whether any ongoing counseling is being accorded the children in Wyoming. If such is the case or if counseling becomes necessary in the future, the mother will see that the results and reports received of any counseling accorded the two children are forwarded to the father and the grandparents.

11. It shall be the responsibility of the mother to forward to the father and grandparents copies of the children's report cards within one week after they are periodically issued.

12. Mother, grandparents and stepmother shall keep the other parties enlightened as to any illnesses, serious injuries or unusual circumstances involving the children while they are in their respective custody.

April 8, 1992 Petition to Set Schedule for Summer Visitation and Order filed: AND NOW, April 8, 1992, hearing on Petition to Schedule Summer Visitation is set for May 5, 1992, at 1:30 p.m. o'clock in courtroom number 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pa.

By the Court,
Gordon R. Miller, J.

April 14, 1992 Copies of order put in Atty. Kirkpatrick, Irwin, Mason and Ferguson's boxes.

May 7, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 5, 1992 the matter is before the Court on a petition to schedule summer visitattions fo the two minor children involved in this proceeding. Summer visits involving minor child Jacob are now moot as he lhas apparently come under lthe jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court in the State of Wyoming and is now in some type of a juvenile institution and will not be making a summer visit with his grandparents.

Minor child Mindy, age 12, is scheduled for an extended summer visit in Crawford County commencing on or about May 27, 1992. There appears to be a continuation of the on-going dispute between the maternal and paternal grandparents and the associated relatives of each as to how to share minor child Mindy's time over an extended summer visit. Complicating the matter is the fact that the father is incarcerated in a Federal Correctional Institution near Morgantown, West Virginia and in addition to the one week visit accorded in a prior order for the children and their father, stepmother now advises that it was their practice and they hope to continue the practice, of having frequent weekend visits with the maternal grandparents are not technically parties to this litigation, the maternal grandparents and other aunts of child Mindy on the maternal side are also interested in having something more than casual visits with child Mindy over the summer.

It is obvious to the Court that the maternal and paternal grandparents and the associated relatives cannot amicably resolve the visitation problem, and each side accuses the other of poisoning the child's mind.

This Court sets a hearing for June 2, 1992 before the undersigned at 9:00 a.m., at which time we will have the oportunity to receive input from the 12 year-old child.

The Court appoints Attorney Bettie Peterson-Muth to represent the child' s interest at this hearing and suggests that she contact her in Wyoming at least once before her arrival in Pennsylvania for the purpose of getting acquainted with the child, but leave a detailed exporation of the child's feelings regarding her relatives and her desires to an in persona visit to take place sometime between her arrival on the 27th of May and the hearing on June2.

The Court requests Attorney Muth review the file in this case, which contains a 1990 summary impressions by Kathy Berkey, therapist, and other documents relating to the history of the case.

It is obvious that the maternal grandparents have interest in this case and upon oral motion to allow them to intervene filed on behalf of Attorney Kirkpatrick, The Court grants the oral motion and considers that the maternal grandparents are intervenors in this case for the purpose of securing visitation.

P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

June 2, 1992 Agreement between the parties concerning visitation, filed.

June 4, 1992 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 2, 1992, at the time set for rehearing on this matter by this Court's Order of May 5, 1992, some of the parties and all counsel agree that the matter has been amicably resolved along the following lines as evidenced by a written agreement between the mother and JoyceRauscher:

Regarding the summer visits of minor child Mindy for the summer of 1992, the parties mutually agree as follows:

Preimary custody will remain for the summer visits with the Rauscher grandparents, but for six (6) Wednesdays during the summer visit,minor child Mindy will be in the physical custody of her maternal grandfather, Jack Sindlinger. The Wednesday visits are designated as follows between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. - June 10 and 24; July 1, 15, and 29; and August 5, 1992.

During the summer visitation period, there will be an extended five-day visit Monday, July 20 at 10:00 a.m. through July 24 at 8:00 p.m, with minor child Mindy residing in the residence of grandfather, Jack Sindlinger. During this period of time the child will be under the exclusive control of grandfather Sindlinger and he may arrange for such other family visits at his discretion.
Any other maternal relatives wishing to visit over the summer vacation period with minor child Mindy should make arrangements for said visits through paternal grandfather, Jack Sindlinger.

All parties mutually agree that this current arrangement augments and to some minor extent may replace the terms and conditions of this Court's custody and visitation Order entered February 13, 1991 and that said original Court Or der shall remain in full force and effect.

The Court notes it appointed Attorney Muth to act as counsel for the child, but through Court oversight, she was not so notified until June 1, 1992 and has not had the opportunity to see or counsel with the minor child. She advises the Court she did review the files in this case and the Court's notes in this case, and accordingly, the Court now rescinds her appointment and directs her to present the Court with a bill for her servies.

The parties mutually agree that custody of the child now reposing with the materal grandfather shall be returned to the custody of theRauscher grandparents on June 3, 1992, at 5:00 p.m.

July 20, 1993 Affidavit of Clarification in Regard to Jacob Rauscher's Status filed. And Now, July 19, 1993, comes Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq., counsel for Deborah Orgaard, mother of Jacob Rauscher, and files this Affidavit of Clarification in Regard to Jacob Rauscher's Status stating as follows:

1. Attorney Kirkpatrick received a telephone call on July 15, 1992 from the director of the Juvenile Probation Office for Campbell County, Wyoming, Nancy Roberts (telephone (307) 682-0746.
2. Ms. Roberts adavised that Jacob Rauscher's custody has beendetermined by the State of Wyoming which has continuing jurisdiction until he reaches age 21.
3. Ms. Roberts advised that Jacob is currently in placement at the Wyoming State Boys' School in the custody of the Wyoming Department of h.S.
4. Ms. Roberts advised that Jacob Rauscher's review hearing by by the Court of Competent Jurisdiction in Wyoming is scheduled for August 24, 1993. The deputy prosecuting attorney in charge of Jacob's case is Denise Urbin, Esq., (telephine (307) 68204310).
5. The Campbell County Juvenile Probation Office is considering the possibility of recommending that the court transfer jurisdiction to Crawford County, Pennsylvania under the Interstate Compact.
6. The transfer to Crawford County depends upon a variety of circumstances including an as-yet uncompleted home-study of father's home and provisions by Jacob for restitution of the more than $4,600.00 of damage he caused.
7. The Crawford County probation officer coordinating the local home study and possible transfer under the Interstate Compact is Steven Bridger.
8. Because Wyoming has proper jurisdiction under the Juvenile Act as enacted in both Wyoming and Pennsylvania, it is reasonably believed bythe Campbell County, Wyoming Juvenile Probation Office and by counsel for mother that there is no role for the Crawford County Court of Common Pleas regarding Jacob's custody in the instant child custody action.

Mary Ann Kirkpatrick

Aug. 11, 1993 Exhibits filed.

Aug 11, 1993 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 9, 1993, after further review hearing, this Court is convinced there should be a change of custody for minor child Jacob, who is now confined in a juvenile institution in the State of Wyoming.

Upon release and with the approval of the Juvenile Court Judge in the State of Wyoming, this Court removes the child from the care and custody of the mother, Deborah K. Orgaard, in the State of Wyoming at such time as he is released fron confinement by the Juvenile Court and places his custody with his father, Thomas A. Rauscher, in Linesville, Pa. as a primary custodial parent.

As far as minor child Mindy is concerned, the evidence produced today fails to convince this Court that the best interest of the child would be a change of custody from mother to father.

ACCORDINGLY, the child Mindy shall remain in the present care and custody of her natural mother and stepfather in Gillette, Wyoming.

As far as holiday and school vacation visitations are concerned, the parties and their counsel mutually agree that existing Court Orders already cover the situation, and unless the parties mutually agree in writing to a modification thereof, will remain the same.

PETITION FOR SPECIAL, EXPARTE
RELIEF REGARDING CUSTODY

1 copy (atty)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 9th day of July, 1982, upon consideration of the Petition for Special, Exparte Relief, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED, that temporary care and custody of the said four children be given to their mother, Petitioner Edith A. Kinnear, until a hearing be held and a permanent order entered.

It is ordered that defendant David L. Kinnear return physical custody of the children IMMEDIATELY.

A hearing will be held on 13 day of July, 1982, at 9:30 A.M. o'clock in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pa. limited to the issue of temporary custody.

This petition should be filed and served without payment of costs; the Court shall determine at the hearing whether or not defendant shall be required to pay the costs.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

July 12, 1982, Copy of order to Atty. Collazo.

July 12, 1982, Motion to continue and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, July 12, 1982, the above matter is continued to Friday, July 16, 1982, at 10:30 A.M. in Courtroom No. 1, or 2, Courthouse, Meadville, PA.

Robert L. Walker, J.

July 14, 1982, Copies of Order to Atty Collazo.

July 16, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 16, 1982, at the time set for hearing, it appears the parties in this case enjoyed a common law marriage but that a bitter recent dispute has arisen between the parties, and on the weekend of July 4, 1982, the Defendant, David L. Kinnear removed all four (4) children from the mother's residence on the grounds that the mother had gone to a wedding, had not returned, and the thirteen year old baby sitter accompanied by a possible seventeen year old baby sitter were intoxicated to the point they had passed out, and the children were in jeopardy. It further appears that the mother had gone to a wedding, decided to stay away all night and had not notified neighbors or baby sitters of the fact she would not be home.

The mother resides at 309 Wadsworth Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania, and the Defendant, common law husband contends that she is now carrying on an illicit relationship with a seventeen year old young man by the name of Barry Dilley, residing at 306 Poplar Street, and this relationship jeopardizes her ability to take care of the children.

The Defendant resides at 114 Linden Court, Titusville, Pennsylvania with his aunt and uncle, who are temporarily taking care of the four children, and contends that the aunt and uncle, Martha and Harry Nason of 114 Linden Court, Titusville, are willing and able to take temporary custody of the children until the matter can be resolved.

The Court notes that the Defendant David L. Kinnear is apparently on probation at this time by virtue of an assault charge in Warren County, having no relationship to this case.

The Defendant admits that he has been recently a mental patient at the Oil City Hospital for a period of approximately thirty (30) days as a result of depression resulting from the break up of this common law marriage.

The Defendant, however, contends that Edith A. Kinnear, his wife, is in need of psychiatric care because of her dramatic change in conduct since the separation.

The children shall temporarily remain at the home of Martha and Harry Nason, 114 Linden Court, Titusville, Pennsylvania, but the mother shall have the right to visit the children and take the children from the home for a period of not less than three (3) hours two (2) days a week, which the Court designates as Wednesday and Saturday, until further Order of this Court.

The Court hereby DIRECTS Child Welfare Services of Crawford County to become involved in this case and make an immediate investigation of the adequacy of the residence at 114 Linden Court to take temporary care of these children.

The Court also DIRECTS an investigation be made of the possible living arrengements of the father of the children, and to investigate living arrangements and conduct of the mother in caring for the children since her separation in May from her common law husband.

This matter is referred to William Pineo, Custody Mediator, for a hearing to be set at some date between two and three weeks from this date, and at said hearing, he should schedule time to hear other witnesses and particularly the Child Welfare Services caseworker investigating this case and be receptive to any recommendations they may make.

The Mediator is DIRECTED to enter a temporary custody Order with appropriate visitation to the non-custodial parent, and either party may then have the opportunity to file exceptions and have a full hearing before the Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 16, 1982, Copies of Order to Louis J. Stack, Esq. Gladys Collazo, Esq William Pineo, Esq., and Child Welfare Services.

Notice of the three weeks in which the father intends to exercise such summer vacation period shall be given to the mother at least thirty (30) days in advance of the intended three week period. The father shall be entitled to a longer summer vacation visitation period with the children provided that this is agreeable to the mother or in the event no agreement can be reached between the parties, upon further order of court.

C. Holidays, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows: Holidays shall be Easter, July Fourth, Thanksgiving and Christmas. The father shall have custody of the children on Thanksgiving Day of 1982 and Easter Sunday of 1983, and the mother shall have custody of the children on Christmas Day of 1982 and July Fourth of 1983. In 1983, if this order has not been previously changed, the mother shall have custody of the children on Thanksgiving and the father shall have custody of the children on Christmas Day.

D. The parties shall continue to alternate holidays from year to year in the same manner if this order has not been previously changed. On holidays when the mother has custody, the father shall have the right to take the children with him on the eve of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M., local times, and on holidays when the father has custody, the mother shall have the right to take the children with her on the eve of of said holidays from 4:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M., prevailing local time.

E. Holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend, weekly and vacation visitations.

F. The parties shall also alternate having the children in their custody on the children's birthdays, beginning in 1982. In addition, the father shall have the children in his custody on Father's Day and the mother on Mother's Day, which shall take precedence over regular weekend visitation privileges.

G. It is specifically ordered that the mother have relationship or contact with Barry Dilley, nor any romantic relationship with any other male under the age of Eighteen (18) years. Neither the father nor the mother shall engage in any illegal use of drugs, nor shall they abuse the use of alcohol, or permit drugs or alcohol to be available to the children or to baby-sitters when the children are in their custody.

H. Both the mother and the father will cooperate with Child Welfare Services and permit the Child Welfare Services to make visits from time to time in both the mother's home and father's home and will participate in any counseling deemed necessary or appropriate by Child Welfare Services and inasmuch as the mother has agreed to take part in "Families in Change", she is ordered to do so.

I. Neither party shall remove the children from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania unless and until further of Court.

J. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the children at the earliest possible time.

K. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the children against the other parent, but, on the contrary, shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the children toward the other parent.

L. Neither parent shall expose the children to any situation or person, which would adversely affect the health, welfare or wellbeing of the children and shall not take the children to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of their age.

PETITION FOR CUSTODY

1 copy (atty)

ORDER:
AND NOW, this 12th day of July, 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition for Custody, a hearing is hereby set for the 16 day of July, 1982, at 1:30 o'clock in Court Room # 1 or 2.
Until such time as a hearing can be held in this matter, temporary custody shall be with Carol Ann Brocklehurst, and Def. shall return custody to Plaintiff upon service until further order of court.
P. Richard Thomas,
J.
July 13, 1982, Copy of order to Atty. Barrett.

July 15, 1982, Appearance of Northwestern Legal Services by Judith E. Wilson, Esq., for defendant Herman Edward Brocklehurst filed.

July 21, 1982 Order filed: Now, July 16, 1982, the Court reviews the matter informally with counsel and the parties, and the Court finding there is no reason to deny custody to the mother who is unemployed, and there being no evidence presented that the mother is not a capable parent, custody of the minor child, Beth Ann Brocklehurst, is hereby awarded to the mother, Carol Ann Brocklehurst, subject however, to liveral visitations for the father.
In view of the father's irregular working schedule he shall be entitled to have the child from 10:00 a.m. Friday through Friday night and return the child at 11:00 A.M. Saturday morning to the custody of the mother. In addition, he may have the child in his possession one other weekday before he goes to work between the hours of 9:00 and 11:30 a.m. He shall give the mother twenty-four hours notice of the day he will pick up the child and in the event the parties cannot agree to such a day, the Court sets the day of Tuesday for this visit.

In view of the young age of the child, namely three weeks, the Court visualizes that as the child becomes older and her present precarious physical condition stabilizes, the father should be accorded additional visitation periods and if the parties cannot agree on additional visitation periods after two months from this date, the Court will entertain a petition to establish by further order additional visitations for the father.
The Court having reviewed with the parties the reason for their separation believes there is no serious problem between the parties and that marriage counseling entered into in the proper spirit by both of the parties would not only benefit both parties and their child but might work toward a resolution of their marital difficulties and affect a reconciliation. Accordingly, the Court urges the parties to explore the possibility of marriage counseling.

Oct 4, 1982, Certificate of Acceptance of Service of Petition For Contempt on behalf of Edith Benson, Northwestern Legal Services, filed.

Oct. 5, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, October 4, 1982, at the time set for hearing on the petition for contempt, the Court finds the Defendant's conduct is not in compliance with the Court Order originally entered, but it appears that both the mother and father of this minor child are so immature they are incapable of communicating in any fashion for the best interest of the child.
Accordingly, adjudication of contempt is withheld, but the defendant is cautioned that he may not contact his wife or go to the home where she is residing except in compliance with the following terms and conditions:
1. At the suggestion of Child Welfare Services, who are attending this conference at the request of the Court, this case is referred to the Center for Families in Change with the request there be an immediate appointment with both parents.

The goal of this referral is not necessarily for the reconciliation of these parties, as in all probability there is little hope for success of this immature marriage. The purpose of this referral is so that both parents can better fulfill their obligation to the child and avoid recriminatory remarks, confusion and threatened assaults at the time the child is picked up or returned for the visitations by the father.

2. At least for the immediate future, the Court will not permit the father to pick up and return the child at home of the Harpers, because of the potential explosive situation, and the Court requests that any exchange of the child for visits be handled at the Center for Families in Change.

It is obvious the husband is now unemployed, but is contemplating in some type of vocational rehabilitation type training through the Johntown Rehabilitation Center. Accordingly, the visits prescribed in our previous Order of July 16, 1982 are unworkable and unpracticable.

Accordingly, all visitations now are cancelled, and the Center for Families in Change is authorized to arrange for at least two (2) visits per week for the father for such length of time as they deem appropriate with the exchange of the child to be carried out at the Center.

The Court requests the Center to take into consideration the school hours of the mother, who is now a senior in high school and possibly the school hours, which may necessitate the attendance of the father at some vocational training program.

The Court leaves to the discretion of the Center the length of said visits and authorizes them for the next month to establish visits for such length of time as they deem appropriate.

On or before November 15, 1982, the Court requests the Center to consult with Child Welfare Services and the court regarding progress made in this case and a projection for a satisfactory visitation schedule so that the child will have a meaningful period of time with both parents.

3. Child Welfare Services having requested some psychological or psychiatric evaluations of both parents, the Court suggests the counselor at the Center keep this suggestion in mind and in the event the counselor at the Center believes such is necessary, they can suggest to the parties that arrangements be made for psychological and psychiatric evaluation to aid the counselor in instilling parenting skills in these parents.

In the event neither party is cooperative, this matter shall be referred to the Court, but neither party is required to undergo such examination without further Order of Court.

Nov. 23, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, November 22, 1982, the Court having received a report from Child Welfare Services and the Center for Families in Change copy of which is attached hereto, Court hereby directs directs that the parties and their attorneys meet within the next ten days (10) to explore the possibility of a consent decree within the parameters of the recommendations set forth in the report for the Center for Families in Change.

In the event a consent order can be accomplished the parties may reduce the same to writing and submit the same to the Court for approval.

In the event there is no agreement possible either party may petition the Court for further hearing to set an appropriate order.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J

Sept. 19 1983, Copies of order to Bruce Barrett, Joseph Kulwicki and Edith Benson.

Oct. 7, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, October 4, 1983, the matter is back before the Court again on a petition to deny visitation to the father or impose stricter conditions thereon. Apparently, recent crisis arises because the father of the child Herman Brocklehurst is no longer welcome to live with his mother and stepfather and the mother's contention is that part of the reason for them evicting him from their residence was alleged mistreatment of the child here in question. This fact is denied by the father and proof of this fact would be controversial, dependent on hearsay evidence and and extensive hearing thereon would probably be inconclusive.

It further appears the father has no employment and no income whatsoever, but at the time of this hearing, he produces his sister Dora McGrath, 409 Penn Street, Linesville, Pennsylvania, Apartment #3 (No Phone), who contends she has adequate facilities at her apartment where she resides with her husband and one and a half year old child to accommodate comtemplated visits between Herman Brocklehurst and his minor fifteen-month-old child.

The Court is aware of the past involvement of Child Welfare Services and the Families in Change in an effort to rationalize meaningful parental relationships in this case and accomplish a meaningful visitation schedule. Apparently, the consent visitation agreement filed May 27, 1983 has fallen apart for various and sundry reasons.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court again asks the assistance of Crawford County Children and Youth Services in the following respect:

1. Make an investigation of the Dora McGrath hom, review the consent agreement filed in this case and make a recommendation to the Court as to whether the sister's residence offers a suitable place for the father to have visits with and have short periods of custody with the minor child and to ascertain whether the visits previously agreed to in the consent agreement are feasible in the McGrath residence.

2. The Court requests a written report, with a copy thereof to he forwarded to Herman Brocklehurst at his sister's residence, and to Attorney Kulwicki, representing the plaintiff in this case. Upon receipt of this report, the Court will enter a tentative Order without further hearing permitting either side to take exceptions thereto within twenty days and ask for a full hearing.

In the meantime, the father shall be permitted to have the child in his care and custody at his sister's residence on Saturday of each week commencing at 11:00 a.m. and terminating at 7:00 p.m. until further Order of this Court. It shall be a condition of these visits that the child will spend said visits exclusively in the home of the sister until Order in this case.

Because the child will be receiving a baby shot on the weekend of October 14-15, the visit scheduled under this order for October 15 is changed to October 16. All other visits until further Order will be on Saturday.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 12, 1983 Copies of order to Jos. Kulwicki, Esq., Bruce Barrett, Esq. and Edith Bensen, Esq.

Dec. 8, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, December 8, 1983, upon receipt of the attached report from Children and Youth Services, it appears that the original plans for a home study visit has been frustrated by a number of moves by the McGrath family. The Court urges the parties to agree upon a satisfactory location for a visit between the father and child at the hours set forth in the Court's order October 4, 1983.

If the parties are unable to agree on a satisfactory location for the visit, either side may petition the Court for a hearing on this matter.

Aug. 28, 1985 Copies of order to Joseph Kulwicki, Bruce Barrett and James Irwin.

September 4, 1985, Verification Filed. I, JAMES R. IRWIN, Esquire, do hereby verify that I am the attorney of record for Plaintiff and that as such, I am authorized to execute this Verification; that I did, on the 28th day of August, 1985 send by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, Addressee Only, to HERMAN E. BROCKLEHURST a true and correct copy of the Petition to Deny or Restrict Visitation and a copy of the Order of Judge Thomas, setting hearing on said matter, dated August 28, 1985 filed at the above term and number at his last known address of RD #2 Box 2152, Hadley, PA-16130, as evidenced by the attached sender's receipt No. Po42054388 and that on the 2nd day of September 1985 I did receive the duly executed return receipt dated the 30th day of August, 1985.

James R. Irwin, Esquire

Sept. 25, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, September 20, 1985, after hearing, the Court is not satisfied that the fair weight of the evidence indicates that the best interest of the child would be harmed by requiring supervised visits because of the alleged misconduct of the father.

ACCORDINGLY, the visitation arrangement between the parties is modified and custody continued with the mother, with the following visitation schedule:

1. On Saturday, September 28, 1985, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Commencing with the month of October, the father may have the child in his custody on the first and third weekends of every month from Friday at 7:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

2. In addition, at the Christmas holiday season, the child will be in the home of the mother on Christmas Day, but the father shall have a 48-hour visitation either immediately before December 25th in order that the child may, in effect, spend a Christmas period with each parent.

3. During the months of June, July and August, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody for two non-consecutive one-week periods and it shall be the responsibility of the father to advise the mother thirty (30) days in advance of his choice of week during these months.

4. The Court notes that the extreme bitterness between the parents evidenced at prior hearings has apparently ameliorated and as the child continues to develop and progress, the Court urges the parties to discuss the possible expansion of visits between father and child which would serve the best interest of the father and child.

APPEAL FROM MOTOR VEHICLE LICENSE SUSPENSION

1 copy (atty)

July 19, 1982 Order filed: The Commonwealth is ruled to Show Cause, if any there may be, why the above captione appeal from the suspension of operator's privileges should not be sustained and the driving privileges of the appellant restored.
This appeal should act as a supersedeas until a final order from this court has been issued.
A hearing in this matter is scheduled for the 9th day of Sept., 1982, at 9:30 A.M.

Sept. 8, 1982, Motion for Continuance and Order filed. AND NOW, this 8 day of September, 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing motion for continuance, the hearing scheduled for September 9, 1982, at 9:30 A.M. is continued at the urging of the Commonwealth until the 30 day of Nov., 1982, at 9:30 o'clock, in Courtroom 1 or 2.

Because this continuance solely at the request of, and a courtesy to the Commonwealth, Commonwealth further agrees to assert no prejudice or claim for relief predicated upon this delay or upon any other delay in the above captioned action.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 8, 1982, Copies of Order to Melvin Caplan, Esq., and Harry Faber White II, Esq.

Dec. 10, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, November 30, 1982, at the time set for hearing counsel for the Commonwealth and Commonwealth witnesses failed to appear. Defense counsel, defendant and three witnesses appeared on behalf of the defendant ready to go to trial. It appears that this action was previously scheduled for hearing September 9, 1982 but was continued at the request of the Commonwealth to November 30, 1982. It further appears that copies of said Order of continuance were mailed to counsel for the Commonwealth and counsel for the defendant and counsel for the defendant advises the Court that he also mailed a copy of said order to counsel for the Commonwealth.

At the time of hearing counsel for the defendant moves for a granting of the appeal for the reason that the defendant and his witnesses have appeared and are ready for hearing and that some or all of the witnesses have been required to lay off employment to appear.

The Court has received no notice or request for continuance by the Commonwealth and no explanation has been given to the Court for failure on behalf of counsel and witnesses for the Commonwealth to appear for the hearing de novo.

Accordingly, the oral motion of the defendant to sustain his appeal and cancel the suspension is granted and the Department of Transportation is hereby directed to rescind the suspension of Brian Keith Arthur (Operator #780112-01) which suspension was entered by virtue of notice dated June 8, 1982 and made effective July 13, 1982.

Accordingly, the Court directs the Department of cancel this suspension but notes that the defendant was sentenced October 22, 1982 by this Court on a charge of DUI and appropriate suspension was appropriate for that conviction.

The master has now filed with the court a petition for payment of his master fees, noting he de-voted approzimately twenty-three hours of time to this matter extending over a period of approximately a year and a half. From a brief analysis of the master's report it appears that equitable allocation of the fees between the parties will be a problem. ACCORDINGLY, before granting this divorce, the court wishes to take reasonable steps to assure that the master's fees in an appropriate amount will be paid in this case. We therefore, withhold final decision on this divorce decree and hereby set a hearing for January 28, 1985 at 1:30 p.m., to review with counsel and the parties an appropriate order for the payment of master fees to assure that the master's time and effort that led to the resolution of this complex matter are adequately compensated.

July 20, 1982 Copies of order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq.

July 23, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 22, 1982, after hearing and in formal discussion with the mother and the children, the Court withholds any adjudication of contempt, but cautions the mother that she must comply strictly with previous custody and visitation Orders entered in the counties of Warren and Venango. Upon her assurance this date she will comply with said Orders, no contempt ruling or punishment for contempt will be made, but in the event this matter returns to the court in the future, and the court finds that the mother is directly or indirectly failing to comply with said custody and visitation orders or encouraging the children not to comply with the same, this Court will have no hesitancy in holding her in contempt of court and punishing her not only by fine but the possibility of imprisinment or removal of the children from her custody.

By mutual agreement of the parites, the father will pick the children up at 8:00 A.M. at the home of the mother on July 25, 1982, and will be permitted to take them to the State of Florida in accordance with the previous Court orders for a period of one month, and the father this date advises the Court the children and the mother that he intends to return them by air transportation to the Pittsburgh, Airport on August 22, 1982.

The mother assures the Court this date that in sending the children, she will pack adequate clothing for the children for all foreseeable occasions during their one month stay, and that the Court notes that nay additional clothing purchased by the father can be kept by the children and returned with them upon their return to the mother.

At the request of counsel for the Defendant, and the Court being satisfied that this hearing was required because of the conduct of the mother and her posture that the mandatory visit with the father required by previous court order would not be held, the Court hereby Directs that the mother pay as partial reimbursement for travel expenses and the attorney fees the sum of $200.00 to the Defendant, with the Court noting that in the event the matter comes back to the Court in the future, and the Court finds that further hearings are necessary because of the refusal of the mother to comply with this Order, the court will impose the full cost in additon to any punishment for contempt.

At the request of the mother, rather than have her pay the sum directly to the father of the children, the sum of $200.00 will be entered as a credit against the Court Order for support in this case at No. 76 of 1978, Domestic

April 3, 1986 Copies of order to James Irwin and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esqs.

April 4, 1986 Memorandum and Order filed: AND NOW, April 4, 1986, the following order is entered:

1. The Court declines to adjudicate the plaintiff in contempt of court by reason of the failure to conclude the Christmas 1985 visit, but the plaintiff is ordered to pay the record costs in this proceeding incured between Christmas 1985 and the present time including the costs of service of the petition.

2. The parties shall have joint legal custody of the children and both shall be entitled to participate in any major decisions affecting the children, their education, their health, their religious upbringing and the like. 3. The mother shall have physical custody of the children except during the period of visitation hereinafter designated.

4. The father shall have the right to a four week visitation period during the summer vacation and shall furnish transportation from Pennsylvania to Florida for such visitation periods, provided that in the event the father furnishes such transportation on any type of public transportation, the mother shall furnish transportation to and from any airport, railroad station, bus station or similar terminal at which the public transportation is to begin, provided said public transportation is within a radius of 125 miles of the City of Titusville. The father shall furnish transportation from the public transportation terminal in Florida to his home.

5. In determining the four week period when such visit will occur, primary consideration shall be given to the wishes of the children, and each parent shall make every effort to accommodate his or her schedule to the children's wishes. In the event no agreement is reached on or before May 20th of any year as to when the visitation shall take place, counsel may request an informal conference with the Court so that such a determination can be made. The mother shall furnish tranportation for the summer visits from the Florida area to Pennsylvania. The father shall advise the mother and the children of the arrangements for such Christmas visitation on or before December 10th of each year.

7. The mother shall keep the father advised at all times of her proper mailing address, the location of her residence with detailed instructions as to how to find the residence, and her telephone number, if any, whether or not the same is unlisted. May 1, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, April 25, 1984, after the plaintiff had concluded presentation of their evidence and the Defendant was in the process of presenting evidence to the Court, the parties through their counsel jointly advise the Court that an amicable resolution of the boundary line dispute has been reached and will be ultimately consumated by a redrawing of a boundary line in dispute and the mutual exchange of deeds in accordance with the following general agreement:

This particular dimension will result in a conveyance to the Defendants of a rectangular piece of property having road frontage on Legislative piece of property having road frontage on Legislative Route 20005 of thirty-five feet. From that beginning point, a straight line will be established in a westerly direction with the north line of land of Burke, formerly DeWalt, north eight-five degrees, nineteen minutes, forty seconds west, a distance of three hundred feet more or less to the existing west property line of the Plaintiffs' land. From there, the line will run in a norther direction north zero one degrees, thirty-seven minutes east, a distance sufficient to reach the northwest corner of the property claimed by the Plaintiffs during the course of this litigation. The line will then turn in an easterly direction and proceed south eight-three degrees, six minutes, fifty seconds east, a distance of three hundred two and eighty-seven hundredths feet to

3. Except for visits with the children and to remove his possessions, he will not to on the premises of the wife for any purpose unless he is specifically invited to do so by the wife.

4. The parties are anxious that satisfactory arrangements be made for visitation of the children, and have agreed that the father may have the two children every Saturday commencing July 31, 1982 between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M. when he will pick up and return the children, and they will generally be at the residence of his brother-in-law, Jerry Karns. Aug. 30, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, August 30, 1982, at the time set for hearing, it appears the Defendant is currently confined in jail in default of $20,000.00 bond on the charge of defrauding crditors. He appears before the Court on this Protection from Abuse with the Court noting that he has apparently been recently committed two or three times for mental disorders and was recently released on August 26, 1982 from Meadville City Hospital Mental Health Center and is currently on medication. The Court's concern is that he have a place to live upon his release from confinement either on reduced bail or nominal bond, and the Court DIRECTS the Sheriff's Department to explore the possibility of his living with a brother, Roland Butterfield in North East, Pennsylvania.
In the meantime, the Defendant is enjoined and prohibited from going to the residence of his wife for any purpose. He is also prohibited from directly or indirectly contacting her by phone or otherwise without her express invitation to do so. He will not assault, harass or annoy her in any fashion nor procure others to do it on his behalf.
The Defendant contends he has personal clothing remaining at the residence to his wife, and the wife agrees she will collect the same in a suitcase and deliver it to the Sheriff of Crawford County. In the meantime, the Defendant is returned to the custody of the Sheriff in default of bail on the pending criminal charge.

Jan 3, 1983, Order filed: AND NOW, December 28, 1983, the matter is before the Court on a petition for counsel fees, costs and expenses in this divorce action. The Court is advised this date that the plaintiff husband intends to present a motion on December 29th 1982 for applintment of a master and with consent of the parties the Court will dispose of this matter in thie order.

The Court believes equity requires the plaintiff husband to pay attorney fees to counsel for the defendant wife pending the outcome of this case, and, accordingly, the plaintiff is directed to pay counsel fees in the amount of $250.00 to counsel for the defendant within twenty (20) days of this date. This order is made without prejudice to the right of the master to reallocate these attorney fees and any future fees approved between the parties in such manner as equity and justice require.

Gordon R. Miller is hereby appointed master in this case and the Court sets the master fees and costs initially at a total sum of $300.00, to be divided equally between the parties and to be paid within twenty(20) days of this date, $100.00 of said amount is to be paid to the master and the remaining $200.00 is in anticipation of costs for the court reporters and hearings. This order is made without prejudice to the right of the master to reallocate these costs and any future costs and master fees approved in such manner between the parties as equity and justice require.

ON APRIL 1984 CIVIL TRIAL LIST: No. 9

Apr. 5, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 4, 1984, it appears that both counsel agree there is an issue of comparative negligence to be presented to the jury in this unusual accident case whrerin the plaintiff on his motorcycle hit a road grader owned by the township which was placed to block a washout in the road. It is the plaintiff's contention that there were no "Road Closed" signs on the road and that a "Road Closed" barrier approximately 150 feet from the road grader was parallel to the road rather than vertical to the road at the time of the accident. It appears that there also was a smaller barricade sign with a flasher on it and the plaintiff's posture is that if he saw this marker he was not aware that it indicated a road washout but only some condition at the roadside.
The posture of the township is that the proper "Road Closed" signs were entered about three-quarters of a mile before the washout and were in place at the time in question and up to a point of approximately two and a half hours befoer the accident an additional road barrier sign was in proper position across the road and that further the plaintiff himself a few days before had been to the scene of the washout and was aware of its existence.
Further, it is the defendant's contention that the plaintiff was not licensed to operate

COMPLAINT

3 copies (atty)

Nov. 8, 1982, Preliminary Objections filed.

Jan. 18, 1983, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, above preliminary objections of defendant listed for argument.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR FEBRUARY 28, 1983; No. 2.

Feb. 25, 1983, Preliminary Objections to Defendants Preliminary Objections filed.

Mar. 3, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 28, 1983, at the time set for argument, it appears jurisdiction of the Common Pleas Court in Pennsylvania is the issued. After informal argument, counsel for the plaintiff agrees that for the sake of procedural clarity and jurisdiction, the Complaint should be amended to spell out such facts as would bring the Plaintiff within the purview of 42 Purdon 5322 in order to show a prima facie factual situation according jurisdiction to this Court.

Accordingly, by agreement of counsel for the Plaintiff, the Complaint will be amended in accordance with the foregoing within twenty (20) days of this date spelling out with some preciseness and specificity the reasons why the Plaintiff incontending this Court has jurisdiction over the Defendant.

If the Defendants are still not satisfied that said Complaint accords this Court jurisdiction, they may file new preliminary objections contesting the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the event said preliminary objections are filed, it is readily apparent to Court and counsel that depositions might have to be taken in order to establish certain facts upon which the Court ultimately could base its decision. If the Defendant, after filing his preliminary objections, deems it appropriate to secure depositions, the burden will be on the Defendant to secure all of the necessary depositions for the Court to accurately ascertain the factual situation and after said depositions are completed, either party may replace the matter on the next argument list.

Counsel for the Plaintiff advises the Court that Ohio Tool Sales Company may be a corporation, and accordingly, in the event he ascertains such is the fact, the amended Complaint may spell out a cause of action against the named individual Defendants and Ohio Tool Sales Company as a corporation without the requirement that the Plaintiff petition the Court formally for allowance of an amendment of the parties name.

Jan 27, 1983 Appearance of Ian Murray, Esq. for Plaintiff filed.

Jan 31, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 27, 1983, the matter is before the Court on exceptions to the custody mediator's recommendations and at the time counsel for the plaintiff advises the only objection is to subparagraph D of the recommended order of December 9, 1982, which precludes male visitors from remaining in the home of the mother after 10:00 p.m. The matter is informally discussed and by agreement of the parties said paragraph is stricken and in substitution therefore, the following conditions are prescribed:

1. The mother shall not commit any immoral acts with any other male person in the house occupied by the mother when the children are present, the children in this instance being eleven and two years old. The intent of the parties is that the mother shall be permitted to have occasional male visitors on the premises at such times she deems appropriate but that she cannot conduct herself in such manner as to disturb said children or arouse their suspicions that the mother and male visitors are carrying out immoral or sexually explicit acts.

July 11, 1985 Affidavit of Service of Mary Ann Kirkpatrick filed.

July 15, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1985, at the time set for hearing on the defendant's petition for modification and petition to find the plaintiff in cont in contempt ,it appearing that the plaintiff has removed the children to the state of Texas and is in violation of the existing Order, and it further appearint that the children have at all times until June of 1985 when improperly removed from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvani to the State of Texas by the plaintiff, reside in Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and that this Court has exercised jurisdiction as to custody as evidenced by Order of this Court of December 9, 1982, and January 27, 1985, and that under Uniform Child Custody Act, 42 Pa.C.S. 5431, et seq., this Court clearly has jurisdiction of this proceeding and it would appear that the Courts of Texas would not have jurisdiction at least in the event the Texas statute is substantially similar to the Uniform Child Custody act as adopted in Pennsylvania, and it further appearing that the plaintiff undobtly had notice of this hearing by regular mail, but that such notice under Pa.R.C.P. 1915. 12 does not give authority to the Court to adjudicate her in contempt until after further service, hearing in this matter both as to modification and as to adjudication in contempt is continued to August 27, 1985, at 9:30 o'clock a.m.

A copy of this Order, the original Order and the original petition shall be served upon the plaintiff by personal service and the plaintiff is advised that if she fails to appear at the hearing and produce at the hearing the Children Melissa Rodgers and Erin Rodgers after personal service upon her of notice or the hearing, she may be adjudicated in contempt and the custody Order may be modified without her appearance; and that in the event of any adjudication of contempt, she is subject to sanctions which may include incarceration at least until she purges herself of her contempt in accordance with such Order as the Court may make at this time.

AND NOW, August 27, 1985, at the time fixed for hearing in this matter, it appearing that the plaintiff has been served with a copy of the Order of July 12, 1985, and although she has not appeared at this time for the hearing, she has consulted counsel in Texas, who has, in turn, had a telephone conference with counsel for the defendant and further has telephoned the defendant to tell him that she would not be able to be present at this hearing by reason of a lack of funds for transportation, and it further appearing that the plaintiff both personally and through counsel has agreed that the children would be returned to the defendant on August 31, 1985 provided the defendant furnished necessary air fare for their return from Texas, the plaintiff is adjudicated in contempt for willful violation of the Order of December 9, 1982, in failing to allow for the visitations specified therein, but no sanctions are presently imposed provided the plaintiff complies with her voluntary offer to return the children to the defendant by August 31, 1985 provided the defendant furnishes the necessary air fare.

The Order of December 9, 1982 is modified to provide that primary custody of Melissa Ann Rodgers and Erin Louise Rodgers shall be with the defendant Robert Mark Rodgers, who shall permit liberal contact by the mother Bonnie Darlene Rodgers, now Bonnie Darlene George, by telephone, mail or other means of communication and shall be permitted visitations by physical custody of the children in such manner as the Court may direct in the future upon application of the plaintiff

A copy of this Order shall be served by the defendant upon the plaintiff and her counsel by regular mail.

July 23, 1984 Adjudication and Order filed: AND NOW, July 23, 1984, it is hereby declared that Cyril M. Mead and Betty J. Mead own the following described land situate in Sadsbury Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, in fee simple:

"Beginning at a point in the East Line of the public street commonly known and referred to as Lakeview Avenue, said point being located at the Northwest corner of the parcel herein described and also being located 50 feet East of the Northeast corner of a certain piece or parcel of land acquired by the grantees herein by deed of Sara Wylie, said Deed being dated the 11th day of September, 1972, and recorded in Crawford County Deed Book 468, Page 308; thence North 26 degrees 48 minutes East a distance of 23.87 feet to a point in the West line of land now or formerly of the C.R. Anderson Estate; thence South 22 degrees 5 minutes 45 seconds East along the West line of land now or formerly of the C. R. Anderson Estate a chord distance of 100.81 feet; thence North 76 degrees 38 minutes East along the South line of land of the said C.R. Anderson Estate a distance of 15 feet to a point; thence South 18 degrees 32 minutes East along the West line of land of the C. R. Anderson Estate a distance of 14.20 feet to a point; thence South 13 degrees 12 minutes East along the West line of other land of the said Cyril Mead and Betty Mead, his wife, Grantees herein, a distance of 10 feet to a point; thence South 76 degrees, 38 minutes West a distance of 55.71 feet to a point in the East line of Public street known as Lakeview Avenue; thence North 13 degrees 12 minutes West along the East line of Lakeview Avenue a distance of 123.85 feet to the point and place of beginning. Said parcel of land contains .10313 acres."

BEING parcels B and D on Figure 1.

It is also hereby declared that Gladys L. Wray, Gertrude M. Phillips, and Elizabeth M. Harrison hold the remainder of a 999 year lease in the following described parcel of land situate in Sadsbury Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania:

"Beginning at a point in the easterly line of the public street sometimes known and designated as Lakeview Avenue and sometimes referred to as Second Street, said point being ten feet northerly, measured along the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue from an iron pin set in the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue at the corner of land owned by the Borough of Conneaut Lake; thence North 13 degrees 12 minutes West along the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue, 188.86 feet to a point where the former easterly line of the right of way of the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad intersected with the easterly line of said public street; thence southerly along the formerly easterly line of said Railroad right of way, an arc distance of 179.68 feet to a point in the former easterly line of said right of way; thence North 76 degrees 38 minutes East, 14 feet to a point; thence South 18 degrees 32 minutes East, 14.20 feet to a point; thenceSouth 76 degrees 38 minutes West, 55.71 feet to the place of beginning."

Being parcels D and E on Figure 1.

The above described parcels are overlapping, the overlapping portion being the subject of dispute in this case. The Meads own the fee interest subject to the leasehold interest of the plaintiff trustees in the following described parcelconstituting the overlapping portion:

"All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the Borough of Conneaut Lake, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point in the easterly line of the public street sometimes known and designated as Lakeview Avenue and sometimes referred to as Second Street, said point being ten feet northerly measured along the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue from an iron pin set in the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue at the corner of land owned by the Borough of Conneaut Lake; thence North, 13 degrees 12 minutes West along the easterly line of Lakeview Avenue, a distance of 113.85 feet to a point; thence North 76 degrees 48 minutes East a distance of 23.80 feet to a point formerly in the easterly line of the right of way of the Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad; thence southerly along the former easterly line of said railroad right of way, a chord distance of 100.81 feet; thence North 76 degrees 38 minutes East, 15 feet to a point; thence South 18 degrees 32 minutes East, 14.20 feet to a point; thence South 76 degrees 38 minutes West, 55.71 feet to the place of beginning."

Neither party shall do anything inconsistent with the right or interest of the other in the above parcel.

Although Pa. R.C.P. 1066(b)(1) provides an order be entered barring the assertion of any interest inconsistent with the plaintiffs, unless such action is taken as the court may order within thirty days thereafter, we believe that requiring any further action by any party within thirty days in this situation would be inappropriate. Each party has the right within ten (10) days of this Order to file a motion for post-trial relief in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. 227.1 which amply protects their rights, and to include an additional thirty days in which to take some action would afford the parties no additional rights. The Prothonotary shall, therefore, give notice of this Adjudication and Order in accordance with Pa. R.C.P 1038(c) and all parties will have the rights provided thereafter by the rules.

Sept. 17, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, September 17, 1984, the attention of the Court having been brought to the fact that in paragraph 6 of the Conclusions of Law and Adjudication heretofore filed in this matter, reference is made to one of the plaintiff trustees as Richard M. Phillips, which should in fact make reference to Gertrude M. Phillips, said paragraph is hereby ameded by deleting the words "Richard M. Phillips" and substituting therefore the words "Gertrude M. Oct. 1, 1982, ORDER FILED. AND NOW, September 30, 1982, at the time set for this hearing, counsel for the Plaintiff is engaged in litigation in Courtroom No. 2 and there is inadequate time to hear the alimony pendentellite and costs issue presented before the Court. After review of the situation through counsel the Court is assured by the wife/Plaintiff that she wishes to remove herself from the common domicile and is in the process of establishing a residence elsewhere, but that she has absolutely no income and is in need of money for a down payment on a new apartment and the establishment of adequate living arrangements, and the necessary funds to supply herself with maintenance until hearing can be held on the merits.

Accordingly, the Defendant is DIRECTED to pay the Plaintiff the sum of $1,000.00 on or before October 2, 1982, and within one (1) week of the payment of said sum, the Plaintiff will remove herself from the common household and not return until further Order of this Court or unless there is mutual agreement between the parties for her to return to the common household.

This matter is set for hearing on the merits October 27, 1982, at 1:30 P.M. and the Court notes that it enters this Order without prejuduce and in the even it is ultimately determined that the Plaintiff was not entitled to alimony pendente lite in this proceeding, the Court will order a refund of said sum.

In order that each party may be accurately apprised of the income and expenses of the other party and the total assets of either party, the Court directs that each party review their budget sheets and income and expense statements now filed so that at the hearing on October 27th the Court will have all that is required by Rule or Statute in way of disclosure of income, assets and expenses by each party.

The Court suggests each side check their statements to make certain they comply with all the requirements appropriately listed on the Domestic Relations forms.

Oct. Oct. 21, 1983 Order filed AND NOW, October 21, 1983, after informal review of the posture of the parties, the Court declines to amend its previous Order requiring each party to deposit $250.00. In view of the fact the Defendant has not depostted said sum, he is hereby ordered to ppy said sum to the Prothonotary on or before November 10, 1983
The Defendant contends that while he has measurable income, the incmme varies because of the poverty of the tenants and that he has other ongoing medical and tax expenses. Accordingly, since the Defendant has advised the Court that he wishes to vigorously contest this divorce for the purpose of continuing to receive medical benefits under his wife's insurance policy, the Court authorizes the Master from time to time to sell such joint assets as assets of the Defendant or the Plaintiff as he deems appropriate to pay ongoing fees, except Master fees. In the event of final decree by a Master, the Master will recommend appropriate amounts of attorney fees and a division thereof, andin the event hhere is insufficient cash to pay said fees, the Master will recommend the sale of prpperty to see that his fees are paid.

Bruce A. Barrett, Attorney for Plaintiff

Oct. 4, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, September 30, 1983, at the time set for hearing the Court's time is limited and the Court is unable to have a complete hearing.

The posture of the parties expressed through counsel is that the court's Order attempting to establish a limited distinct relationship between the father and the children entered October 6, 1982 have not been complied with. The mother generally admits the Order has not been complied with but states that the sixteen year old child and the fourteen year old child express no desire for contact with their father.

The court desires the opportunity to discuss the situation privately with the children in chambers, and accordingly, this hearing is continued until 10:30 A.M., October 3, 1983, at which time the Court will meet privately in chambers with the children and with their counsel and with counsel for the parties if they intend to be present. After discussion, the Court will explore the possibitity of using the facilities of the Mental Health Center and onw of their counselers to meet with the children in an attempt to secure their cooperation in having some minimal contact with their father. The Court deems this approach inadvisable. The Court will either at that time enter an appropriate order or schedule further hearing or explore all of the surrounding facts of the case before a decision is made.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, J

Oct. 6, 1983 Copies of order to Bruce A. Barrett, and Ann Hansen Gamble.

Oct. 4, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, October 3, 1983, after further review and consultation with the children and their father, and the family difficulties that arose in the past and ultimately culminated in a criminal charge and sentence thereon by the father. However, the father believes that the father's conduct has changed, he has been released from probation and is currently under medication from the Mental Health Center, and that he should be accorded the minimal contract with the children that was specified in the Court's Order of October 26, 1982.

Accordingly, the Court re-establishes Paragraghs 1,2 and 3 of said Order as the minimal contact between father and children that the Court will order at this time. In addition, in regard to clause 3, if the mother and father cannot arrange a suitable time for a five minute telephone conversation once a month for each child, the Court DIRECTS the conversation be held Sunday evening between 8:00 and 9:00 P.M. on the second Sunday of each month.

The Court cautions the mother that she has an obligation to diligently comply with this Order and to see that the children, who are under her custodial jurisdiction comply with the Court Orders. The Court advises the children that they must comply with this Order as any other citizen must do in complying with Court Orders, and in the event they refuse to comply with these minimal requirements of contact with their father, the Court has the power to punish them appropriately.

April 26,1984 Order Filed: AND NOW, April 24, 1984, the Court heard preliminary argument as to whether or not the issue of the trust established by the grandmother of the children and originally naming Aundra S. Zack, Trustee, should be considered and litigated as part of the divorce action. The Defendant's posture is that Victor R. Zack, Jr. was substituted as trustee by a document in writing and that he has been denied the right to control of the assets, supervision thereof and a proper accounting for income and distribution made under the terms of the trust. The Court believes that this matter should be separately litigated and not be a factor for the Court in determining the remaining issues raised in the petition for special relief.

Accordingly, the Court rules that this matter may be resolved in future litigation either by stipulation of facts presented to the Court, by a separate equity action or by a request to bifurcate this issue and resolve the same on the pleadings now before the Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

April 30, 1984 Copies of Order given to John D. Petruso, Esq. and John H . Bozic, Jr., Esq.

April 26, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, April 24, 1984, in regard to Count Two of the Petition for Special Relief (stock certificates and dividends receiced thereon), when the Defendant's stock certificates were in the possession of the Plaintiff/Wife, she received approximately $10,392.11 of dividends, which she contend were retained with the implied consent of the Defendant and were deposited in one or two joint checking accounts and used to meet routine maintenance and support expenses in view of her contention that the Defendant/Husband would soon be sending for wife and children to move to the Philadelphia area.

As the situation progressed, it appeared the temporary separation ripened into a permanent separation, and the Defendant now demands as a special relief under the Divorce Rules that he be reimbursed for the allegedly misappropriated $10,392.00 in divends.

There appears to be little dispute about the amount, but the contention of the wife is that her husband was not paying support and said sums were used for that purpose and to maintain the household and the childre, and that he is now estopped from belatedly demanding reimbursement for said sums when timely demand on his part in 1982, as he discovered he was not receiving the dividends would perhaps have changed this situation. These contentions, however, are vigorously denied by the Defendant, and this whole complicated demand for dividends withheld, balanced against the Defendant's obligation to contribute support and help maintain children and household, is a complex matter that the Court believes should not be resolved by the grant of an Order for special relief under Rule 1920.43. Accordingly, the Court declines to grant any Order for special relief regarding the aforesaid dividents, but leaves to the Master in divorce, when ultimately appointed, the opportunity to hear both sides of the contention regarding this issue and to resolve the same along with the distribution of all other marital assets and the potential of alimony award.

The Court notes it is the contention of the Plaintiff that the prayer for special relief only demanded the return of the stock certificates, themselves, which the Court has already granted, and that the prayer only demanded an accounting from the Plaintiff as to how she used the aforesaid sum. The Defendant's posture, on the other hand, is that by implication, the demand was for return of the exact amount of sums allegedly wrongfully withheld.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Apr. 30, 1984 Copies of order given to John D. Petruso, Esq. and John H. Bozic, Jr. Esq.

April 26, 1984 Order Filed: AND NOW, April 24, 1984, the issue of whether the Plaintiff should be required to deliver physical possession of stock owned by the Defendant Victor R. Zack, Jr. titled in his name as evidenced by Exhibit A, attached to the petition for special relief is discussed and argued by counsel. It appears that sometime in the early 1970's,apparently as a Federal Estate Tax planning device, the stocks listed on Exhibit A were Transferred from Wife to husband. It is the contention of Wife/Plaintiff that this transfer did not vest complete title of the stocks in Defendant/Husband since it was only done as an estate tax saving device, and that, therefore, the wife retains some semblance of ownership as marital property under the definitions of the 1980 Divorce Code.

It is the posture of the Defendant that the stocks were transferred into his individual ownership and were registered in his name, and that since he is entitled to the income therefrom, he should have physical possession thereof in order that he may control said assets and the sale thereof, ao that he may enhance or modify his income structure as represented by these stocks to his best advantage.

The Court rejects the posture of the Plaintiff that a conditional gift of said stocks were made that would entitle her to retain possession thereof and DIRECTS that the Plaintiff/Wife within ten (10) days transfer physical possession of said shares to the Defendant or his counsel.

In the event there are other stock certificates overlooked in compiling Exhibit A in the possession of the wife that are registered in the name of the husband, said stocks will be encompassed within this Order.

The Plaintiff/Wife requests that upon such transfer that the provisions of Divorce Rule 1920.43 be used by the Court to require the Defendant/Husband to filesecurity of some nature guaranteeing that the transferred assets will not be dissipated or removed from his assets. The Court rejects said request and will not require the filing of security, believing that in the event the husband transfers these assets to third parties, dissipates the same or re-invests them in less valuable securities, that this matter may be fully considered in an equitable manner by the Master or the Court in the ultimate equitable division of property and the award of alimony, if any, in the final decree of divorce.

April 30, 1984 ORDER Filed: RE: TRUST FOR ZACK CHILDREN

AND NOW, April 24, 1984, the Court having resolved other issues in the divorce action in this case and by previous Order this date having declined to resolve the issue of who is the legal trustee of three thrusts established for the benefit of the parties' three children, counsel for the parties now stipulate that the Court resolve this issue indefendent of the divorce action on the pleadings filed and on additional testimony and exhibits.

Accordingly, after hearing and review of the testimony and the exhibits, the Court ascertains that Victor R. Zack, Jr. is the legal trustee of a trust created by Thelma B. Swope in August of 1974 for the three Zack children. It appears that originally Aundra S. Zack was named as trustee, but after examination of the tax consequences created by the trust,which permitted Aundra S. Zack, as trustee, to retain for her own use income of the trust, it was determined, on the advice of counsel, that an alternative solution was needed to avoid the unfavorable income tax consequences thus created in the trust. It was agreed the solution to the tax problem would be to have Aundra S. Zack resign as trustee, whereupon under the terms of the trust, Victor R. Zack, Jr. would become successor trustee. The resignation and acceptance of the trust by the new trustee occurred December 19, 1988, as is evidenced by Petitioner's Exhibit 2.

It appears that there is no ulterior motive for either party to gain control of the trust. Apparently before and after the seppration of the parties Aundra S. Zack continued to act as a silent trustee participating in decisions regarding the children's trusts. Since the separ ation of the parties, she has refueed to surrender the trust assets and income accounts created to receive trust income to her husband and successor trustee.

The Court finds as a matter of fact and law that Victor R. Zack, Jr. is now the legal trustee of this trust, and as such trustee is entitled to have possession of the trust assets of each individual trust account and any related income accounts established to receive trust income.

Accordingly, within fifteen(15) days, Aundra S. Zack is DIRECTED to surrender any securities requested in the name of Victor R. Zack, Jr. as trustee to to Victor R. Zack, Jr., she is also DIRECTED to surrender any other securities forming a part of the trusts for the children that are not now registered in the name of Victor R. Zack, Jr. to Victor R. Zack, Jr. andy income accounts where trust income has been deposited so that he may establish said accounts in his own name as trustee.

In view of the fact Victor R. Zack, Jr. has not had ready access to trust records, which would givehim the necessary information to deal effectively with the assets, Aundra S. Zack shall alsp surrender all of the pertinent accounting records that will enable Victor R Zack, Jr. as trustee, to effectively manage the trust and make the necessary decisions regarding sale or exchange of assets by having knowledge of their original purchase price or previous exchange values.

In view of the concern of both parents regarding the management of funds in the trust accounts and the distribution of the income therefrom, the Court imposes the following conditions on Victor R. Zack, Jr. acting as trustee;

1. He shall forward a copy of all quarterly or annual fiduciary tax returns to Aundra S. Zack within ten (10) days of the filing of said returns.
2. In the event he uses any principal for the benefit of any child or makes any single payment of income to a beneficiary in excess of $200.00, he ashall notify Aundra S. Zack within ten(10) days of this act.
3. On or before January 15th of each calendar year commencing in 1985, he shall forward to Aundra S. Zack a list of the principal sssets in each trust account, sales or new purchases made during the previous calendar year, and give the present balance in the income accounts of each trust beneficiaty.

Oct. 9, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, October 3, 1984, at the time set for argument and hearing on the filing of defendant's amended answers and counter-claim, the Court listens to the posture of counsel for the parties and finds no basis for affirming the filing of said pleadings on September 28, 1984.

The only issue the Court sees of importance is the fact that for the first time the defendant has raised a contention that he is entitled to Alimony Pendente Lite. Counsel for the defendant advises the court he admits at this time the defendant is not entitled to Alimony Pendente Lite but that unforeseen circumstances in the future might dictate that an appropriate Alimony Pendente Lite order was proper if the matter became unduly delayed and the defendant had a dramatic change in financial circumstances during the delay. Accordingly, by agreement of counsel, the Master at the divorce hearing will not consider the request by the defendant for Alimony Pendente Liee but the matter having become a matter of record would permit the Court on future petitions while the divorce is in litigation and in the event of a dramatic change in circumstances to consider the defendant's request for Alimony Pendente Lite.

Accordingly, the Master's hearing previously scheduled for October 22, 1984 shall be held as previously scheduled.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 8, 1985 Copies of order to John Petruso, John Bozic and Mrs. Zack

July 12, 1985 Appearance of John Petruso, Esq., Attorney for Plaintiff, hereby withdrawn upon his praecipe.

July 24, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 23, 1985, at the time set for hearing, the plaintiff appears without counsel. The plaintiff requests a continuance of the case. Accordingly, the hearing is continued until Sept. 6, 1985 at 1:30 P.M.

It appearing the issue to be resolved involves four (4) stocks, one of which is (Temple Inland). It is contended that has been a stock in existence and possession of the plaintiff at the time the divorce was filed and was not listed on her inventory. It appears this tock, on the plaintiff's 1984 tax return is listed as being acquired 8/28/81 and being sold 11/23/84, at a loss of some nine hundred dollars. Three other stocks, PPG, Bristol-Myers and General Electric were listed on the inventory, the number of shares owned on the date the divorce was filed. It now appears these stocks split on a two for one basis in 1983, and the contention of the defendant is that he was without knowledge of this split and that further interrogatories of the plaintiff failed to disclose the stock split, and the fact that the number of shares listed on the inventory had doubled. Whether or not the stock split resulted in a total enhanced value on the shares is beyond the Court's knowledge at this time.

Counsel for the defendant has requested permission to make certain requests a part of this record but not to be part of this Order, and now places said requests on the record. (Not typed as part is this Order)

All requests denied except the request regarding notice of attorney.

Counsel for the plaintiff has agreed to secure counsel to represent her in the upcoming proceeding and will secure additional counsel who shall enter an appearance and serve notice thereon on opposing counsel on or beofre August 15, 1985.

Sept. 6, 1985 Motion to Amend Petition for Relief Under Divorce Code Section 402(c) and Order filed: 9/6/85 Granted.
P. Richard Thomas, J.
Sept. 10, 1985 Copies of order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, John Bozic, Esqs.

Sept 11, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 6, 1985, the matter is before the Court on a petition by defendant Husband in the nature of a petition for relief under Section 403(c), in which the Defendant/Husband contends that false answers to Interrogatory 20 of the Plaintiff's Answers to Interrogatories, dated Feb. 8, sworn to March 16, 1984 are incorrect. The Court notes that the question at issue asked for a complete listing of stocks then in her possession, the dates of acquisition and the values thereof, and that the Answers to said Interrogatory stated "See Inventory and Appraisement filed."

In addition, the petition and amendment thereto this date allowed cover Temple Inland common stock and Lone Star Industries stock, which it was contended was in possession of the Plaintiff/Wife on the date the Divorce Complaint was filed Aug.25, 1982 and was not listed on the Inventory.

The three stocks listed on the Inventory, namely General Electric, Bristol Myers and PPG, by agreement of counsel for the parties all split two for one after the divorce was started, with said split coming in mid 1983. Itis the posture of Defendant/Husband in this proceeding that Plaintiff/Wife gave incorrect Answers to Interrogatory 20 when she did not list the number of shares held after the split on her Answers to Interrogatories.

The Plaintiff/Wife through counsel has filed a Motion to Dismiss the Defendant/Husband's petition for relief under Section 403(c) of the Divorce Code, contending that the Plaintiff/Wife's inventory under said Section must only list the number of shares and the value thereof on the date the Divorce Complaint was filed, and that the thrust of the Defendant/Husband's petition in this action is an attack on the correctness of the Answer to Interrogatory.

Accordingly, this Court rules that it will sustain the motion to dismiss filed by the Plaintiff/Wife as it relates to General Electric, Bristol Myers and PPG Stock. However, since there is a contention in the Defendant's petition that two different stocks in the possession of the Plaintiff/Wife at the time the divorce was filed were not listed on her inventory, we will deny the petition as it relates to Temple Inland stock and Lone Star Industries stock.

Accordingly, this case will proceed in a posture limited to the exploration of the latter issue involving the two aforesaid stocks.

Nov. 5, 1982, Income and Expense Statement of Plaintiff filed.

Nov. 5, 1982, Plaintiff's Inventory and Appraisement filed.

Nov. 12, 1982, Motion for Appointment of Master filed.

Nov. 12, 1982 ORDER filed. The matter comes before the Court for appointment of a Master to decide divorce, equitable distribution and permanent alimony. We return the request for Master's report as not having been timely filed for the following reasons:

1. It appears that there is a claim for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs which under procedures in Crawford County is heard by a judge and not a Master. Unless these matters are withdrawn, we decline to appoint a Master until resolution of these claims contained in Court 2 of the Complaint.

2. Next we note that the plaintiff's income and Expense Statement and Inventory and Appraisement were only filed November 5th. Rule 1920.31 requires the Income and Expense Statement to be filed within 30 days of the Complaint and while there was not a timely filing, we feel that both Income and Expense Statements should be in the hands of the Master before his appointment.

3. We further note that the Inventory and Appraisement were only filed on Nov. 5, 1982, and Rule 1920.33(b) states the defendant has 30 days to file an answer to the plaintiff's Inventory and Appraisement.

4. While the Motion for Master's Appointment suggests that each side make an equal deposit of $500.00 to pay initial Master's fees and transcription fees, we find it difficult to ascertain an initial equitable distribution of required advance fees without either input from counsel for referral to Income and Expense Statements and the Inventory and Appraisement.

Accordingly, we find the request for appointment of a Master to be premature as the pleadings and accompanying documents obviously required to assist the Master at the hearing are at this time incomplete.

Accordingly, Motion for Appointment of a Master is declined at this time without prejudice to the ritht of either party to file a new Motion in line with the foregoing. In this regard, we direct the defendant to file an Income and Expense Statement and either an Inventory and Appraisement of his own or an answer to the plaintiff's Inventory and Appraisement within thirty (30) days of this date.

Jan. 10, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 7, 1983, at the time this matter is scheduled before the court, counsel for Legal Services appears for the Defendant and requests a continuance for the reason that the Defendant has not responded to their correspondence to come to the office so they may adequately prepare for this hearing. Commonwealth opposes said continuance.

The Court notes the hearing was originally set for the 22nd day of Oct., 1982, but was continued at the request of defense counsel to this date.

It further appears that the presence of the Defendant would not be required to resolve the issues in this case, as the Court understands the procedural situation, the Defendant was charged with operating during a period of revocation and and entered a plea of guilty before a District Magistrate on or about May 20, 1982. As a result of said conviction, he was sent the notice here at issue imposing an additional six (6) month revocation. From the Defendant's Petition, it appears that the now wishes nunc pro tunc to attack the validity of his plea before the District Justice contending that he got no notice of the original revocation.

The Court resolved the legal issue against the Defendant with a notation that he has failed to appear, failed to cooperate with his counsel, and the Court believes justice and equity require a dismissal of his appeal. Accordingly, we dismiss the Defendant's appeal and re-instate the revocation imposed by the Department.

Sept. 8, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 7, 1982, the Court declines to issue a writ of seizure as it appears that the Defendant is in possession of a Jeep Automobile which is the property of the plaintiff, with said possession having arisen by virtue of the fact that the police, at the accident ordered the vehicle removed by the Defendant while the owner thereof expressed no objection thereto and was present at the time the vehicle was removed.

There appears to be a dispute as to the amount of storage and towing charges due, and accordingly, the Plaintiff William R. Sturm may secure possession of his vehicle upon posting bond in the amount $1,000.00 or with proper corporate surety, with said bond to serve the purpose of giving the Plaintiff immediate possession of his vehicle and to act as surety for payment of an ultimate decision by a proper legal authority of the amount due in costs, towing charges and storage fees in this case.

In the alternative, the Plaintiff being insured by State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance, said Company may post said bond over the signature of a proper corporate officer, with the same force and effect and under the same terms and conditions.

Upon posting of said bond, the behicle shall be promptly surrendered.

APPEAL FROM SUSPENSION OF INSPECTION STATION PRIVILEGES
(Petition For Writ of Supersedeas)

1 copy (atty)

ORDER:
AND NOW, this third day of September, 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a hearing is set on said appeal for the 26 day of Oct. 1982, at 9:30 A.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and the suspension of Petitioner's official inspection station privilege is herein reinstated until a hearing on this case. Notice hereof to be given to the appropriate representative of the Respondent, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation.

P. Richard Thomas,
Sept. 3, 1982, Copy of order to Atty. Kirvan.

Oct. 27, 1982, STIPULATION filed. AND NOW, October 26, 1982, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the parties agree the following reflects an accurate stipulation of facts arising in this incident:

Sometime in the month of January, 1982, the Petitioner's contract employee, Dan Covell, stole an inspection sticker from the Petitioner's files, placed it on his own automobile, which probably would not have passed inspection, and then wrote the name of Roger Staub on the RTS Form, which lists the names of the owners of vehicles to which inspection stickers have been attached.

It is agreed that Dan Covell was not a direct employee of the Petitioner but specialized in body work and occasionally would contract to do body work in the Petitioner's service station and garage in return for which the Petitioner and Covell would split the profits on Covell's transaction.

It is agreed that Dan Covell had some plans to open his own inspection station, had seen the RTS Forms prepared, was generally familiar with them, and said forms were available to him, and as part of the association between the Petitioner and Covell, he was permitted to fill in the RTS Forms, although he was not authorized by the Petitioner to perform inspections, nor was he a licensed employee authorized to perform inspections in the Petitioner's station.

It appears that sometime in April, 1982, a City of Titusville, Police investigation disclosed this uncompleted inspection sticker on Covell's vehicle and the Petitioner was contacted by a Pennsylvania State Police Trooper who conducted his own investigation, which resulted in an admission by Covell that he had indeed, without knowledge, consent or permission of the Petitioner stolen an inspection sticker, placed it on his own vehicle, and went through the RTS Forms until he found the name of the former customer, Roger Staub, and made appropriate entries on the RTS Form indicating that the Staub vehicle had been inspected and the sticker in question placed on his vehicle.

It is stipulated that the Petitioner did not authorize or condone in any fashion the unlawful removal of this sticker.

A departmental hearing was held July 2, 1982, at the Driver Examination Station, Patricia Drive, Meadville, Pennsylvania, at which time the investigating Trooper, Ronald P. Coleman, and the Petitioner, Jeffrey A. Cox, appeared and recited to the hearing examiner substantially the same facts noted herein. Dan Covell did not appear at said hearing.

It further appears that as a result of a report submitted by the hearing examiner on August 19, 1982, the Petitioner received notice that his inspection station license would be suspended for a period of one (1) year for fraudulent record keeping, On September 3, 1982, Petitioner appealed the suspension, and the matter is before the Court this date for decision on this Stipulation of Fact.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 27, 1982, Copies of Order to Clifford Kirvan, and Nancy Norkus, Attys.

Oct. 27, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 26, 1982, at the time set for hearing, the parties stipulate to a set of facts upon which the Court is to make a decision, and accordingly, no record is necessary. Counsel are given an additional ten (10) days from this date to cite the Court any case they believe pertinent and controlling in addition to those already given to the Court at the conclusion of the hearing. Upon consideration of the cases, a decision will be made in due course. In the meantime, the supersedeas previously entered in continued.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

COMPLAINT IN CUSTODY

Sept. 14, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, September 10, 1982, due to the complexities of this situation and the number of prospective persons that are interested in securing custody of this child, the Court enlists the services of Child Welfare Services to make an immediate investigation and within seven (7) days make a recommendation to the Court for an appropriate temporary custody order and any desirable conditions to be attached thereto. Upon entry of a temporary Order, the Court will then refer the matter to a custody mediator. Counsel for the Petitioners is DIRECTED to discuss discuss personally with an assigned case worker the complexities of this case and furnish Child Welfare Services with a copy of this Complaint and any background information he has.

Oct. 7, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 5, 1982, after partial hearing, this case is continued until November 24, 1982 at 9:30 A.M. In the meantime, the Court Directs counsel for the parties to meet and amicably make arrangements for the minor child Shannon to have reasonable periodic visits with her grandparents and with other appropriate relatives.

In the meantime, the Court notes the juvenile has requested possession of her clothes, personal belongings and other items in the home of her deceased mother, and the Executors of the estate are to act on these requests as soon as is practical.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 7, 1982, Copies of order to Attys. Jos. Kulwicki, T. Gregory Williams, and Child Welfare Service.

Nov. 24, 1982, Exhibit filed. (with papers)

Nov. 30, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, November 24, 1982, after hearing, the Court determines that the best interest of the minor child, Shannon Ralston, will be served by awarding care and custody to the defendant, Aletha Smail. IN making said award, it is not the intention of this Court to exclude her from associations or visits with her natural family relatives and the Court urges Mrs. Smail to make arrangements for occasional visits with family members expressing an interest in said child.

The Court notes that Aletha Smail has filed an intention to adopt in this case and that matter will be now processed through the Court but in making an award of custody the Court does not intend to commit itself to a decision regarding the granting or refusing of adoption as that matter comes before the Court in the future.

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 10 day of September, 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing Conplaint, the Plaintiff Norman W. Eaton, and the Defendant, Kathleen Larkins, are directed to appear before John Fuller, Child Custody Master, with their counsel for pre-adjudication conference at such time and place as the said Master may direct.

Temporary custody of Norman B. Eaton is hereby awarded to the father pending the outcome of the mediation conference.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 13, 1982, Copy of order to E. Spadafore.

Nov. 4, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, November 4, 1982, after a mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED:

I. That legal custody of Norman B. Eaton Shall be shared between the mother and father, that is, each shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records, and other important records, and each shall be entitled to participate fully in decisions affecting the health, education and religious instruction of the child.

II. Physical custody of Norman B. Eaton shall be with his father, Norman W. Eaton, subject to the follwwing conditions:

A. The mother shall be entitled to visit and have the child with her every third weekend beginning November 5, 1982 from 9:30 P.M. on Friday evening to 5:00 P.M., Sunday evening, both prevailing local times. The father shall be responsible for delivering the child to the home of the mother on such weekends, and the mother shall be responsible for returning the child half the distance, to be picked up by the father at a mutually agreeable location.

B. Beginning with the summer of 1983, the mother shall be entitled to have the child in her custody for a period of approximately three (3) months, to coincide with the child's vacation from school. During such three month summer vacation period, the child shall be exclusively with the mother, without the father having any weekend visitations, except for two one-week periods during such summer vacation period. The father shall give the mother at least thirty (30) days advance notice of the two one-week vacations, which need not be consecutive.

C. Holiday, special days and birthdays are defined and custody on such days shall be divided as follows: Holidays shall be Easter, July Fourth, Thanksgiving and Christmas. The child shall be with the mother on Thanksgiving Day, Easter and July Fourth each year. The mother and father shall divide the Christmas vacation period of the child, so that each has the child in their home for one-half of the total Christmas vacation period. In 1982, the child shall be in the father's home at Christmas and in 1983, the child shall be in the mother's home at Christmas. Thereafter, the parties shall alternate Christmas in the same manner if this order has not been previously changed.

D. Holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend, weekly and vacation visitations.

E. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child, at the earliest possible time.

F. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent but on the contrary, shall do everything in the power of each to create a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward the other parent.

G. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or welleeing of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

H. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the court for addition to or amendment to this order to be filed of record.

This order shall be a temporary order, but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within Ninety (90) days of the date of this order. Costs of the mediation conference shall be paid by the father, Norman W. Eaton.

Sept. 20, 1982, Sheriffs Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Earl D. Murphy personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition For Relief Under "Protection from Abuse Act" and Order, No. A.D. 1982-866, to him, on September 20, 1982, at 9:48 A.M., at his place of residence, at R.D. #1, Mitchell Lake Trailer Park, Cambridge Springs, Crawford Co., Pa.
So answers,
Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Sept. 21, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, September 20, 1982, the matter comes before the Court, the defendant strenuously denies the allegations of the abuse and by mutual agreement of the parties, any hearing to determine the validity of the abuse allegations is continued generally and the parties mutually agree as follows:

1. There recently has been a fire on the jointly-owned real estate and the husband is concerned regarding a bulldozer, backhoe, three tractors and two trucks and the security thereof. By agreement of the parties, he can go to the premises by giving the wife two hours telephone notice and can move said jointly-owned property to any safe and secure place of his own choosing, but may not dispose of the jointly-owned assets or damage them in any way.

2. The husband is concerned about the security of the real estate since the fire and requests the Court to allow him to secure the property to protect the joint interest each party has therein and any items remaining in the property. By agreement of the parties, the defendant shall go to the premises on the 21st of September at 10:00 A.M. and take five hours or more to secure the property in a proper fashion, but agrees he will not remove any of the jointly-owned property from the premises. The wife agrees she will not be present during this period of time.

3. The wife agrees shell will cooperate in attempting a speedy disposition of the property once the same has been repaired and restored to livable conditions.

4. The husband consents that the wife occupy a jointly-owned trailer now located on the premises until such time as the house becomes livable, at which time, it will be her choice to either remain in the trailer or move into the home once it is restored to living conditions.

5. It appears there is a bitterly-contested divorce and property settlement pending between the parties and the husband is concerned about a lengthy time period imposed on these conditions. ACCORDINGLY, the condition regarding living in the jointly-owned real estate once it is restored shall be valid for three(3) months from this date unless the parties agree to another date or the time is extended by further Court Order.

6. Without admitting any responsibility for the alleged assault charges in the petition for relief, the defendant agrees he will not annoy, harras, molest or assault his wife in any fashion or procure others to do so for him. He will not make annoying telephone calls and any arrangements for visitation of the children will be carried out withou exchange of bitterness of derogatory words between the parties.

7. Likewise, the wife agrees she will not contact the husband in any fashion except for legitimate legal reasons and will not annoy, harass or bother him in any fashion.

8. The husband is allowed to go on the acreage owned by the parties for the purpose of legitimate hunting during hunting season, but if he uses the premises for such use, he will not annoy or harass the wife in any fashion or go in any dwelling where she is residing for any purpose.

PETITION FOR CUSTODY

AND NOW, this 20th day of September, 1982, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition, a hearing is scheduled for the 29th day of Sept. 1982, at 9:30 A.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Sept. 20, 1982, Copy of order to Atty. Kirkpatrick.

Sept. 29, 1982 Exhibits filed with papers.

Sept. 29, 1982 Affidavit of Service of Custody Petition and Order filed: Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esquire, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and sets forth as follows:

1. That she is the Attorney for the Petitioner in the above captioned action.

2. That on information furnished to her by the Petitioner, she caused a certified copy of the Petition and Order entered September 20, 1982, to be forwarded by Certified Mail Nos. P354183 454,P 354183 453, P354183 451, and P354183 452, postmarked September 21, 1982, September 20, 1982, September 20, 1982, and September 20, 1982, to the last known address of Respondent, at the Crawford County Jail, Meadville, Pennsylvania, 16335; Mr. Robert Denmark, at R.D.#1, Box 70, Westford, Pennsylvania, 16134; Beverly Beth Denmark, at 339 Hernando Street, Fort Pierce, Florida, 33450; and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ryan at 1574 Warren Road, Lakewood, Ohio, 44107, respectively.

3. As indicated on the attached Return Receipt cards, the above named persons personally signed acknowledging receipt of service of the Petition and Order setting Hearing.

Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esquire

Sept. 30, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 29, 1982, after brief hearing, the Court finds that this Court has appropriate jurisdiction to entertain a child custody proceeding in view of the fact thay the father is a resident of this county and has been since 1969 and that the mother at one time was a resident of this county but has recently been incarcerated in the State of Texas and is now incarcerated in the Crawford County Jail and will shortly be scheduled for a contempt hearing before Judge Robert L. Walker for alleged probation violation.

It appears thare is an Order in the Probate Court Division of the Common Pleas Court of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, entered March 23, 1982 naming Gerald J. Ryan and Helen A. Ryan co-guardians of Vicki Ann Ryan, also known as Vicki Ann Veskosky, which was procured for the apparent purpose of establishing them as proper persons to supervise the child and enroll the child in local schools.

The Court is further advised that there are some type of legal proceedings in St. Lucie County, Florida according a guardianship to a non-relative, Beverly Denmark. It appears that the child was in the custody of its grandparents in Cuyahoga County, Ohio but without grandparents' permission flew to to the State of Florida in the month of September, 1982 to take up a living ter arrangement with Beverly Denmark and her minor daughter Fawn.

The Court has viewed pictures of the father's residence where he resides with his second wife in Crawford County and the home appears to be adequate for the care and custody of the minor child. The Court is advised that the child does not desire to live with her father even though she visited him frequently this summer and any allegations of mistreatment are strenuously denied by the father.

The mother appears at this hearing without counsel and advises the Court she recognizes that she is not in a position at this time being incarcerated to care for her daughter and prefers that the most suitable place for her residence would be with her sixty-five-year-old parents in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. She is acquainted with Mrs. Denmark and believes she has the capacity to adequately supervise her daughter, but her preference would be with the grandparents.

The Court is reluctant to issue a custody order in view of the fact the child is not before the Court at this time and the Court believes that at her age, she could give insight into the contention by the father that she has not been properly supervised and that she has had a hit-and-miss residence arrangement in the past several years and would be able to verbalize the reasons why she does not desire to live with her father.

ACCORDINGLY, this hearing is continued generally in view of the fact that this Court is advised that the father has retained counsel in the State of Florida in an attempt to rescind or modify the custody order entered in Florida according guardianship to Mrs. Denmark on the basis that the father got not notice of said hearing in the State of Florida and that the child was not dependent and the father was ready, willing and able to support the child. The Court requests a review of this matter in the appropriate court in the State of Florida and a report and recommendation from the appropriate child welfare agency as to suitablity of the present living arrangements of the child. Upon receipt of such report, the Court will schedule a further hearing in this matter.

Sept 12, 1983 Informal Ruling filed: AND NOW, September 6, 1983, there are certain preliminary objections pending in this action, and although the Court had hoped to file a formal opinion by today, we did not succeed, and in order to give counsel some guidance, we will informally indicate the disposition of the multitude of issues raised by the preliminary objections.

The argument that the proceeding before the trustee in bankruptcy is res judicata or collateral estoppel will be denied. The argument that Plaintiff does not have a tort action is also denied.

Court Two will not be stricken. Court Three will be stricken as not setting forth a separate cause of action. Counts Four, Five and Six, the demurrers are denied, although several of these counts raise an issue concerning the commercially reasonable disposition of the real estate, and as we have already expressed today, we question how much of that will properly be an issue in this proceeding, since there has apparantly been a deficiency judgment proceeding and other proceedings relating to the Sheriff's sale of the real estate.

Count Seven will be stricken as a misjoined equity action and besides which it probably is moot by this time as to any allegations or prayer for relief.

Insofar as punitive damages are concerned, it will not be stricken at this point, reserving the right to the Court to decide whether it will be submitted to the jury at some future time, and we will probably delay this in the same way, as was done in the Manno case, and not get into the assets of Pennbank as to the punitive damage issue until we decide if we are going to submit that to the jury.

The motion to strike Counts Five and Six as scandalous or impertinent will be denied.

The action brought by the individual Plaintiffs will dismissed, because we do not think there is any separate cause of action in the individuals.

Ruling is reserved on Plaintiff's request for sanctions.

TERM

Oct. 17, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, October 17, 1983, a pretrial conference having been held and pretrial narratives submitted by the parties, the following rulings are entered;

In relation to the issues in the case, discussion between counsel and the Court has been framed in the context of the legal issues set forth under II of defendant's pretrial narrative beginning at page 9 and running through 16 paragraphs. To the extent necessary for this order the issues as set forth therein are incorporated herein by reference.

1. The parties agree that items 1 through 6 are in fact issues that will properly be litigated in this case.

2. As to paragraph 7, we hold that the prior order of the Bankruptcy Court in the case of Ridgeway Steel Fabrications, Inc., and Mohawk Industrial Designs Enterprises, Inc., in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania at #80-00409 has made a final determination of certain of the issues as follows:

(a)A default existed as to the two companies which are the subject matter of the Order of November 3, 1980.

(b) The bankrupts had no equity in the individual assets which had been repossessed by the defendant in this proceeding.

3. The parties may still present evidence as to the factual issues contained within paragraph 7 of the defendant's pretrial narrative.

(a) Did the default justify the takeover in the manner in which it was accomplished?

(b) Was there default of the other plaintiffs in this proceeding, and if so did that default justify the takeover in the manner in which it was accomplished?

(c) Were any of the plaintiff companies viable concerns on October 26, 1980 capable of continuing in business at a profit or for the benefit of their respective stockholders.

(d) What were the corporate entities, who are the plaintiffs in this action worth, in excess of their obligations, as going concerns over and above the equities that existed or did not exist in the individual assets of those corporate entities.

4. Paragraph 8 was the defendant justified in exercising its rights in the manner in which it did is an issue in this proceeding.

5. As to paragraph 9, the Court rules that the trustee in bankruptcy does have standing to pursue this action as to the issues raised under both sub-paragraph (a) and (b) thereof and therefore that will not be an issue in the jury trial.

6. As to paragraph 10, the Court rules that the trustee is not estopped from seeking such damages and that will not be an issue in this litigation.

7. Paragraph 11, the Court rules that the sale of the real property by foreclosure proceedings in Elk County and subsequent proceedings in accordance with the Deficiency Judgment Act precludes the plaintiff raising the property or reasonableness of the sale of the real property but does not preclude raising the issue of value insofar as it is inter-related with the overall issue of the value of the businesses as going concerns.

8. As to paragraph 12, the Court rules that the Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code does not apply to sales or dispostion of real estate. The question is essentially moot in this proceeding.

9. As to paragraph 13, the Court rules that the Uniform Commercial Code applies to this proceeding, although we believe it unnecessary to rule on the precise question posed by paragraph 13. Since the defendant availed itself of the protection of various provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code relating to secured transactions, it is also subject to the requirements of the Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code regarding enforcement of the security agreements and disposition of assets.

10. Paragraph 14 will not be an issue in the case since the manner of disposition has been excluded as a factor.

11. Paragraph 15, is issuance of writs of execution in Elk County does not render moot the issues that we have this day ruled are available for litigation in this case.

12, Paragraph 16, while the Uniform Commercial Code may not provide an independant cause of action as such in this proceeding, it will be a factor in the issue of whether the defendant took over the assets of the plaintiff in some tortious manner or otherwise by a breach of any contract between the parties, expressed or implied.

13. The defendant has agreed to make William Roemer available at approximately 2:30 p.m., on Monday, October 17, 1983, at which time he will be called as a witness as soon as reasonably possible by the plaintiff.

14. The defendant has presented a motion in Limine regarding evidence concerning the takeover of Pyramid Builders, Inc., which was the subject matter of separate litigation which has been settled. The plaintiff will not be permitted to offer evidence regarding the events which occured at Pyramid Builders, Inc., on October 27, 1980 or any other matters directly connected therewith, except insofar as they may be inextricably intertwined with testimony which is otherwise admissible.

15. The defendant has filed a motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum in part which subpoena was served on Peter J. Toldi, an officer of the defendant corporation. To the extent that the subpoena duces tecum requests the production of any document or other thing which was not ordered to be furnished in the process of discovery, it is quashed. To the extent that it requests the production of any documents which were ordered to be furnished during discovery sanction proceedings, it remains in full force and effect.

16. The defendant's objection to Exhibit P-37 and P-38 listed in plaintiff's pretrial narrative is sustained.

17. The defendant's objection to Exhibit P-8 is overruled without prejudice to the right of the defendant to renew the objection as to its relevancy at the time of trial.

18. One of the plaintiff's exhibits is a video tape of various facilities of the plaintiff companies. The tape will be made available on Monday, together with the necessary equipment for playing it and it will be run in chambers or some other place out of the vision of the jury before it is shown to them at a time convenient to the court and counsel.

19. Defendant's objection to Exhibit P-21 is sustained because we do not believe it is relevant to the issues in this case, although it may be relevant in some other proceedings in determining whether a deficiency exists.

20. As to the defendant's objection to Exhibit P-26, we reserve ruling, although we confess it would appear to be somewhat remote in time. We will wait until we have examined the report if it is offered in order to make a ruling on its admissibility.

21. As to Exhibit P-30, the Exhibit will be refused on the same ground as that of Exhibit P-21.

22. Objection to Exhibit P-33 is overruled.

23. Exhibit P-34 and Exhibit P-35 will not be ruled on until a decision is made concerning punitive damages.

24. A claim has been made for punitive damages on which the Court has not yet ruled. The plaintiffs will be required to present all evidence in their case with the exception of damages which might be payable in the event punitive damages were imposed. At that point, they should advise the Court that they have concluded the case with the exceptions of evidence as to punitive damages. The Court will rule on whether the issue of punitive damages is to be submitted to the jury at that point.

25. It appears that the defendant has filed a counterclaim for damages against the trustee in bankruptcy. An issue appears to present itself as to whether a counterclaim under these circumstances is barred by the automatic stay rules in the Bankruptcy Act, and if so, is the stay only to the extent that it exceeds a set-off against the plaintiffs' claim. Ruling will be reserved on that issue until time of trial.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Oct 18, 1983 Copies of order to all counsel of record.

Oct 17, 1983 Motion to Quash Subpoena Duces Tecum filed.

Oct. 17, 1983 Motion in Limine Re: Evidence Regarding Pyramid Builders, Inc. filed.

Oct. 17, 1983 Motion in Limine Re: Evidence of the Arrest of Peter J. Toldi filed.

Oct 17, 1983 Request for Clarification and Extension of Time to Comply with Discovery Order filed.

Oct. 17, 1983 Stipulation filed: AND NOW, October 17, 1983, at the time scheduled for trial, the parties report that they have agreed upon a settlement of this litigation together with other litigation pending in both this county and in Elk County, Pennsylvania, and with the principal parties present together with their respective counsel, the parties have placed certain matter of record, which we will attempt to summarize as follows:

1. The captioned case will be settled by payment by the Defendant to the Trustee in Bankruptcy of the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollar ($50,000.00), and the release by the Defendant of all claims against the bankrupt companies, whether filed as a counterclaim in this action or filed as claims in the bankruptcy proceedings, including their claims both as secured and as general creditors to the extent they have not already collected thereon, this settlement being subject to the approval of the bankruptcy judge, which the parties advise has been at least informally obtained.

2. A case captioned Bruno Manno, et ux versus Pennbank in the Court of Common Pleas of Elk County, Pennsylvania, at No. 1982-159, shall be settled upon the following basis:

A. Plaintiffs shall deliver a release and a certificate of discontinuance to the Defendant.

B. Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiffs the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

C. Defendant shall deliver to the Plaintiff the inventory of a company known as Hydroheat Division of Ridgway Steel Fabricators, and will deliver any and all tools of any of the bankrupt companies including Ridgway Steel Fabricators and its subsidiaries, which have not heretofore been liquidated by the Defendant.

In connection therewith, one Eric Johnson, an employee of Pennbank shall be the contact person through whom the delivery of the tangible personal property shall be arranged.

D. Pennbank will convey to the Plaintiffs real property known as the Pennsylvania Conveyor property. Pennbank has agreed to sell a portion of said property to one Frederick G. Lenze, Sr. and such conveyance to the Plaintiffs shall be made subject to any right, title or interest, which the said Frederick G. Lenze, Sr. may have acquired under the terms of that contract, but nothing herein or in the deed shall be deemed to be an admission or denial of the rights of Frederick G. Lenze, Sr. under the term of said contract, and the grantee, by acceptance of said deed is not admitting the validity of the contract, and shall be free to test that validity in such action as they may deem appropriate.

In the event the contract is ultimately executed and the purchase price paid thereunder, the purchase price shall be the property of the grantee, and the Defendant/grantor shall also deliver to the grantee any hand money that may have been paid on account of said contract. In the event the contract is not ultimately executed, the grantor will be responsible for returning the hand money to the purcheser under the terms of that contract.

E. Defendant shall convey to the Plaintiffs properties known as Number Twenty-seven and Twenty-eight of Ridgway Steel Fabricators, consisting of approximately three and one-half (3½) acres of land in the Borough of Ridgway, Elk County, Pennsylvania, together with any improvements thereon, as roughly described by counsel as follows: Bounded by the railroad tracks and right of way, the Clarion River, Bark Street and Tannery Street, which property shall be deemed not to include the office building on North Broad Street.

As to the foregoing conveyances, the affidavit of value will be executed by the grantees and shall not exceed a total of Three Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($390,000.00) for all property conveyed, and each of the parties shall pay one-half (½) of the transfer tax due thereon.

As to the conveyances covered by sub-paragraphs D. and E. such conveyances shall be made free and clear of any lien or encumbrance of any nature on said properties to Pennbank and the improvements located on said property will be conveyed as is.

F. Defendant will assign to the Plaintiffs all uncollected accounts receivable of all of the bankrupt companies, showing thereon the name and address of the debtor, the original amount of the account, the amount collected by Pennbank and the balance due.

G. Pennbank will release all personal guarantees of all individuals who have guaranteed the loans of any of the bankrupt companies and will satisfy of record any judgments entered in this Commonwealth or elsewhere on any of such guarantees.

3. In the case of Bruno Manno versus Pennbank in the Court of Common Pleas of Elk County, Pennsylvania, at No. 1982-791, settlement shall be on the basis of a credit of Sixty-five Hundred Dollars ($6,500.00), on a personal mortgage of Bruno Manno, et ux, to Pennbank, which amount shall be credited to the principal of the mortgage, and upon such credit being applied, the monthly amortization payment shall be recalculated at the same interest rate and with the ultimate due date, thus reducing the monthly payments to whatever amount will pay the principal and interest of the reduced balance of the mortgage by the original final payment date.

4. Judith Stager, who is a daughter of Bruno Manno and related to various of the other parties to this litigation has agreed that although she is a stockholder in Pennbank, she will not institute any stockholder's actions of any nature arising out of the dealings between the bankrupt companies and Pennbank or arising out of the incidents of October 27, 1980 or arising out of any of the litigation, which has followed those incidents, and further, that she will not directly or indirectly communicate with any regulatory agencies, State or Federal engaged in the regulation of the banking business or of the Defendant bank, concerning these incidents or make any complaint to such agencies concerning any of the foregoing matters.

5. As to any individuals who have guaranteed loans to the Small Business Administration of the United States, Pennbank will hold such individuals harmless as to any claim that may be asserted against them by the Small Business Administration.

6. It is the intention of the parties to completely and totally settle all litigation between them arising out of the dealings between the various Plaintiff companies and Pennbank and out of the incidents of October 27, 1980 or any subsequent matters related to those incidents, and no party to this litigation or to any of the litigation being resolved herein shall institute any further cases against any other party arising out of those matters.

7. It is the intention of the parties that this settlement be concluded as promptly as possible, and all parties shall diligently take such action as is required on their part to conclude the settlement and contemporaneously with the conclusion of the settlement, the plaintiffs in each case shall furnish a written release and shall mark the respective cases settled and discontinued of record with prejudice, and deliver a certificate of discontinuance to the Defendant.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, Judge.

Oct. 22, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 19, 1982, at the time set for hearing, Court advises the parties it does not have time in the schedule today to have a full and complete hearing on this matter, and accordingly, counsel for the parties advise the Court they have agreed upon a consent Order as follows:

1. Husband has prepared a list of personal property which he contends is in the jointly owned garage or the home owned by the wife, and the wife agrees that she will gather the same together and deliver them to the residence of the husband on October 20, 1982 at 10:00 A.M.

Included in the list are four certain firearms the parties agree shall be delivered:

Parties have mutually arranged for visitation of the children, and the Court DIRECTS that on weekends when the husband is to have the children, t the wife will deliver the children at the appropriate agreed time to the husband, and at the end of the visit, at the required time, will pick up and return the children to her residence.

4. The Defendant/Husbabd will not drive up and down the roads of the allotment for the purpose of annoying, harassing, spying on or checking on the wife; but this provision does not preclude the husband from using the roads to make bonafide visits to the residence of his friends in the allotment, but in making said visits, he is precluded from going to the residence of the wife or to their jointly owned garage on the property next door.

It is understood between the parties that the provision to go visit friends is premised on facts the friends make specific requeste of the Defendant to come and visit their premises.

ORDER: AND NOW, April 18, 1983, a rule is entered upon all parties to show cause why this action should not be bifurcated and a dissolution of the marriage granted, and further, to determine whether plaintiff's counsel should be permitted to withdraw his appearance, said rule to be returnable for argument on April 28, 1983, at 2:00 o'clock P.M., in Courtroom 2 Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania. BY ORDER OF THE COURT, Robert L Walker, J. Apr. 19, 1983, copies of Memorandum and Order to Attys. J. Kulwicki, James Irwin, and copy to Plaintiff. Apr. 29, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, April, 28, 1983, the matter is reviewed againg with counsel for the plaintiff and counsel for the defendant. It appears that counsel for the plaintiff was under the impression that the filing of a praecipe for a 201(d) divorce would automatically bring the issue of the divorce alone before the Court for adjudication, leaving for future resolution the ancillary matter pled in the defendant's Answer because of the defendant's admission that she wished to have the divorce granted. The Court believes this area is somewhat confusing, but under any circumstances, the policy of this Court is not to grant bifurcation of divorce actions without giving the opposition party the opportunity to be heard and then using good Court discretion to whether bifurcation is proper under all the facts and circumstances of each individual case. ACCORDINGLY, the Court could not act and as a matter of policy did not act on the praecipe for the granting of a 201(d) divorce forthwith and the bifurcation of the remaining collateral issues. It appears the parties have heen separated for a number of years but the big dispute appears to be a quarrel over the equitable division of marital property and perhaps child support. Counsel having previously requested withdrawal of his appearance and having this date produced a letter dated April 11, 1983, addressed to his client advising of his intention to withdraw, the request is now granted and counsel Joseph F. Kulwicki is hereby permitted to withdraw as counsel for the plaintiff in this case. The Plaintiff is hereby advised that if wishes to pursue the issue of a 201(d) divorce and bifurcate the remaining issues, he or his counsel may petition the Continued on next page

Court for Bifurcation in accordance with Divorce Rule 1920.16, requesting the Court to resolve the issue. Upon notice to opposing counsel, if the matter is not objected to, the Court will accomodate the plaintiff and grant the divorce, reserving, however, the unresolved issue of equitable distribution of property and support.

In the event the request for bifurcation and resolution of the divorce only is contested by the defendant, the Court will grant a rule and set an argument on the matter and resolve the issue within the parameters of the divorce rules and the Divorce Act.

The Prothonotary will forward a copy of this Order to the Plaintiff at his last known address.

By the Court,
Robert L. Walker, J

Aug. 17, 1983 Copies of order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick and Glenn Peelman.

Sept. 16, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, September 7, 1983, after hearing, the Court finds that Paragraph 4 of the agreement to some extent has not been complied with by either party in that the property has not been offered for sale or rental as anticipated upon the original signing of the agreement.

Both parties testified before the Court that they are now willing to list the property for sale with a realter or to sell the same at public auction.

The Court interprets the defendant's testimony to the effect that he believes his former wife should be responsible for one-half of the mortgage payments due to his parents as mortgagor. The Court rejects this interpretation of the agreement and finds that the husband is completely and totally responsible for this principle and interest and any delinquent payments on the mortgage. ACCORDINGLY, the Court postpones any adjudication of contempt on the following conditions:

1. The parties will select a mutually satisfactory realtor to list the property for sale at a mutually agreed price and if the same cannot be agreed upon, the Court accepts the testimony of the wife that she previously had it appraised at a figure of $35,000.00 and the property will be listed at this price. In the alternative, the parties may mutually agree to sell the property in an "asis" condition at a public auction. These agreements between the parties will be consummated within ten (10) days.

2. The defendant shall be responsible to pay to his parents within forty (40) days of this date the entire unpaid balance of principle and interest that is due on the mortgage unless he presents to counsel for the plaintiff a statement signed by the parent mortgagors that they will defer any collection action on a past due or present due mortgage payments until the real estate is sold.

3. The husband contemplates certain improvements or repairs to the property in anticipation of sale and the Court makes no Order regarding his proposal to enhance the value of the property by self-repair on a garage and other improvements. The Court will not adjudicate this matter and leaves this matter entirely to the discretion of the parties to be done by agreement within the parameters of the above agreement.

4. Upon the defendant's failure to comply with any part of this agreement, the court will entertain a further motion for a contempt citation.

Dec. 7, 1982, Petition For Temporary Custody filed. 1 copy (atty)

Dec. 7, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, December 7, 1982, the Court noting that a Petition for Custody was originally filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County on October 27, 1982, but that the mother is alleged to have fled the jurisdiction with the minor child to the State of Florida. The Court is advised by the plaintiff that he has received reports from various persons of the neglect and mistreatment of the child in the State of Florida. It appears now the mother has left the State of Florida with the child and is currently living in Seville, Medina County, Ohio, and that the father is fearful that once the mother is served with notice of a hearing set before this Court to determine custody on January 6, 1982m that she will flee the jurisdiction of the Medina County Court.

The Court is reluctant at this time to authorize the father to take physical custody of the child because of the upsetting effect it may have on the child but the Court is fearful that the mother of said child, knowing that a hearing has been set to determine custody, will flee the jurisdiction of the Medina County Court.

Accordingly, the plaintiff is authorized to use such legal process as is necessary to secure service of the original petition upon the mother requiring her attendance before the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County on January 6, 1982 at 9:30 A.M. The mother is directed to appear at said hearing and is further directed not to remove the child from the jurisdiction of Medina County without further order of this Court.

The Court requests that the appropriate court or child welfare agency in Medina County, upon probable cause shown, take emergency action if necessary to restore custody of the child to the father pending the hearing currently scheduled January 6, 1983 in Crawford County.

At the hearing January 6, 1983, the mother is directed to produce the child at said hearing and the Court advises that failure to do so will result in a contempt action against the mother.

1. By Order dated October 26, 1984 a Hearing was scheduled for December 13, 1984 at 9:30 o'clock A.M. to determine whether the action should be dismissed for failure of the Plaintiff to prosecute her action. Plaintiff was ordered to be present in person for the hearing or suffer dismissal of her action.

2. Plaintiff arrived in Meadville early in November and was deposed on November 2, 1984 and Plaintiff counsel now appears to be able to contact and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the prosecution of her action.

3. Defendants' Interrogatories to Plaintiff filed on June 12, 1984 remain unanswered, but it now appears that Plaintiff Counsel will be able to obtain the necessary information from his client and file Answers to the Interrogatories in the reasonably near future.

Accordingly, Hearing on Defendants' Motion for Sanctions and Dismissal is continued generally. The Motion will be withdrawn by the Defendant upon the filing of Answers to Interrogatories or, in the alternative, further Hearing will scheduled on Motion of Defense Counsel in the event that the filing of Answers to Interrogatories cannot be amicably accomplished.

The signature of Harry White, Attorney for the Plaintiff, is affixed hereto in confirmation of the facts as represented by Defense Counsel.

Nov. 15, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, November 10, 1983, after informal hearing and input from counsel, it appears that the plaintiff wife voluntarily quit part-time employment at minimum wage when she was offered full-time employment but at the same minimum wage, and therefore, is currently unemployed and looking for new employment.

The Court notes that the jointly owned real estate has been sold and there remains in excrow approzimately $2,900.00 for ultimate division between the parties upon settlement or Court decision in this case. The only other substaintial asset is the husband's equity in a pension plan arising through thirty (30) years of employment with his employer.

The Court believes the award of Alimony Pendente Lite should be no more than usual under the circumstances of this case, whereby plaintiff voluntarily quit her employment. Accordingly, the Court hereby establishes Alimony Pendente Lite at the sum of $200.00 per month commencing with the month of November, 1983 and to be paid on or beofre the 20th day of each month for a period not to exceed six (6) months from this date.

In addition, the defendant will pay attorney fees in the amount of $500.00 to counsel for the plaintiff with $250.00 to be paid on or before December 10th and another $250.00 on or beofre January 10th, 1984. The award of attorney fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Master or this Court to ultimately allocate attorney fees between the parties as the equities of the situation demand.

Nov. 30, 1983 Motion For Appointment Of Master and Order filed. AND NOW, November 28, 1983, the Plaintiff petitions the Court for Appointment of a Master The Court notes that an irretrievably broken marriage is alleged along with indignities as the grounds for divorce. Since no affidavits have been filed the matter must proceed on the basis of indignitees.

ACCORDINGLY, Bruce L. Smith is hereby appointed Master to decide the issues of divorce, alimony and equitable division of marital property and to allocate attorneys fees, costs and expenses between the parties on an equitable basis. The Court will not require either party to advance fees for the Master and costs in view of the fact that the Court is aware the parties have sold their jointly owned real estate and there is currently an escrow account in the approximate aount of $2,900.00 representing the net proceeds to be ultimately divided between the parties. The Court orders that this sum be subject to the payment of Master fees, costs and expenses as the Master determines equitable and recomments to the Court in his report.

AND NOW, this 20th day of March, 1984, the Master's Report in the above case having been duly approved, the Court, by virtue of the authority vested in it by law, decrees that

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.1 et seq. and Act 26-1980, 23 P.S. § §1 et seq., "The Divorce Code," that the terms, provisions and conditions of a certain property settlement agreement between the parties dated February 22, 1984, and attached to the report of the Master, is hereby incorporated into this Decree and Order by reference as fully as though the same were set forth herein at length. July 6, 1983, Re: Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment and Order filed: AND NOW, July 6, 1983, after hearing oral argument, it becomes quite clear that there are no issues of fact to be resolved in this case. All parties agree that Defendant Call Tool & Manufacturing, Inc., is in default on its loans and has not been making regular installment payments in accordance with either the original security agreement or the subsequent extension agreement. We therefore enter Summary Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff.

Added to this amount shall be any amounts of interest which have accrued from June 25, 1983 to the date of this Order. Any payments made by the Defendant subsequent to May 5, 1983, shall be deducted from the judgment amount. Plaintiff's attorney's fees in the amount of $1275 shall be added to the amount of the judgment.

We note that in the event of judicial sale of the Defendant's property, the federal tax liens shall be divested and the federal government shall receive the priorty in distribution required by law.

Bruce A. Barrett, Atty. for Plff.

Nov. 16, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, November 12, 1982, after hearing, the Court believes the best interest of the child, Tammy, will be served at this time by awarding her custody to her father.

In making the award of custody to the father, Walter G. Abbott, the Court believes it is in the best interests of both parents and the child that Tammy have frequest visits with her mother and her family, accordingly, unless the parties agree otherwise. Tammy shall have one weekend visit per month with her mother, which weekend will commence Friday at 7:00 p.m. and terminate Sunday at 8:00 p.m. Unless the parents agree other wise, this visit shall be on the third weekend of each month commencing with the month of December, 1982.

In addition, the child will be in the home of the father on Christmas Day but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child in the home of the mother for a consecutive period of three days either immediately before Christmas or after Christmas so that she may spend part of the holiday season with her mother. In addition, during the spring school vacation period, she shall have a similar three day visit in the home of her mother. During the months of June, July and August each summer, arrangements will be made for two nonconsecutive two week periods for the child to be in the custody of her mother. The Court requests these periods be made so as to not to interfere with respective summer vacation plans of either parent and so that the chold may accompany mother and father on any vacation plans they may have. In this regard, the mother shall notify the father on or before May 15th each year which two weeks she prefers so that these selected periods shall not interfere with vacation plans of the father.

The Court establishes thase quidelines as the minimum guidelines and request the parents at appropriate times to make other arrangements for short visits between mother and daughter.

As far as transportation is concerned, it shall be the father or someone acting on his behalf to transport the child to and from the mother's home on the weekend visits hereinbefore established and it hsall be the mother's obligation to pick up and return the child for the Christmas, spring and summer vacation periods.

The Court believes that Rule of Civil Procedure 4003.3 is applicable and that the reports of one or more privately retained investigators are not insulated from discovery. The only matters not discoverable and which are not required to be disclosed to counsel for the plaintiff would be the investigator's mental impression, his conclusion or opinion regarding the value or merit of the claims or the value or merit of any proposed defense or strategy or tactics recommended to be followed at pretrial and at trial. With this exclusion, counsel for the defendant is directed to disclose the reports either making copies thereof and excluding therefrom the above exceptions noted by the Court or arranging the reports in such fashion as to exclude the above and permitting counsel for the defendant to make copies thereof.

July 25, 1983 Amended Answer to Amended Complaint in Trespass and Counterclaim filed.

July 26, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, July 20, 1983, five matters raised by Preliminary Objections, Objections or Motions are before the Court and the ruling of the Court is as follows:

DEFENDANT HUSTEAD'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

1. The issue here is the Plaintiff's request in the Complaint, paragraphs 11-F and 18-E, for the award of exemplary or punitive damages. At the time of argument, Plaintiffs agree that exemplary damages under the No-Fault Act are not allowable, and, accordingly, all Defendants and future defendants may ignore this claim with the same force and effect as if the Plaintiffs had officially withdrawn said claim or the Court had stricken said paragraphs from the present Complaint or any future amended Complaint.

DEFENDANT HUSTEAD'S OBJECTION TO CERTAIN INTERROGATORIES DEALING WITH NET WORTH OF DEFENDANT HUSTEAD

2. This objection is keyed to number one above and the Plaintiff's agree that interrogatories attempting to discover the net worth of Defendant Hustead are inappropriate in view of the fact they may not claim exemplary damages, and, accordingly, Defendant Hustead is not required to answer interrogatories addressed to this issue.

DEFENDANT HUSTEAD'S MOTION TO ALLOW WIFE BERTHA HUSTEAD TO INTERVENE AS A PARTY IN THE ACTION

3. The issue here is that the Counter Claim of Hustead versus Farkus, et al is a claim by Defendant William Hustead to recover his damages against Farkus, et al, and wife Bertha Hustead wishes to intervene so she may be adequately compensated for her allowable damages in this action. Obviously, Bertha Hustead could bring a separate lawsuit which would be consolidated with the present suit at the time of trial, and, accordingly, the Court grants her motion to intervene as a party in this action against any other parties now of record or to be joined hereafter. The Court rules that Bertha Hustead may intervene in this action and will be designated as Intervener, Third Party Plaintiff.

DEFENDANT HUSTEAD'S MOTION TO FILE AN AMENDED ANSWER AND A NEW COUNTER CLAIM TO THE AMENDED COMPLAINT

4. It appears an amended Complaint has been filed and Defendant Hustead wishes to file an amended answer to said Complaint and establish a Counter Claim against Farkus, et al, for his damages occasioned by the accident. The Court grants this motion and Defendant Hustead may file the same within twenty days of this date.

PLAINTIFF FARKUS'S PETITION TO PERMIT THE GIVING OF NOTICE NUNC PRO TUNC TO GOVERNMENTAL UNITS, COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND SADSBURY TOWNSHIP

5. It appears that the Plaintiffs' contention is that the notice to municipalities required by 42 PCSA 5522, has not been given in the required six (6) months period but plaintiffs argue that they were not aware that the Defendant was contending as a defense that a traffic light was malfunctioning until said issue became somewhat crystallized in the discovery process. After listening to arguments by all counsel, the Court finds there are sufficient facts to excuse the giving of timely notice and that notice to Sadsbury Township and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania would be superfluous as they are already in the case as additional Defendants and have already learned that the alleged defective traffic signal may be an issue in the determining of liability among Defendants. Accordingly, Plaintiffs are excused on equitable common sense grounds from providing said Governmental agencies notice under the aforesaid statute.

Oct. 12, 1984, ORDER filed. The matter is presented to the Court by praecipe to grant a 201(c) divorce. While the affidavits of both parties have been timely filed, the record in this case does not disclose that the defendant has withdrawn her Answer and Counterclaim raising issues of marital property division, permanent alimony and the prayer for a counterclaim divorce on the ground of indignities. The Courts of this county have been consistently ruled that Affidavits of Consents signed by the parties does not constitute an automatic withdrawal of ancillary issues raised in the pleadings. Accordingly, we assume the parties have amicably resolved the aforesaid issues but before acting on this diovrce, the defendant must move to amend her pleadings by withdrawing said claims, Upon the filing of an appropriate motion we will entertain a new praecipe to act on the divorce. Accordingly, this matter is returned to the Prothonotary pending remedy of the procedural shortcomings now existing in this case. Date: Oct. 1, 1984

Nov. 24, 1982, Supplemental Order filed. AND NOW, November 22, 1982, the Court having this date signed an order authorizing settlement and counsel for the father, George Hood, having appeared and advised the Court that his client has no objection to the proposed settlement which would substantially pay all death benefits to the mother but objects to the second portion of Paragraph Ten contending that he failed, neglected, and refused to pay support for the deceased child, the Court hereby notes that this or-er was signed and approved with the notation that the father relinquishes any claim to the proceeds but vigorously denies that he failed, neglected or refused to pay any support for the child or any of the other defendant children born of said marriage.

With this conditional notation, the Court reapproves the findings of fact in the Court order entered this same date.

July 1, 1983 Copies of order to Joan Mason and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick.

Aug. 8, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, August 5, 1983, after informal and formal hearings, consultation with the Mental Health Caseworker, interview of the child in chambers and private conversations with counsel, the Court makes the following rulings on the three Petitions before the Court: PETITION for Contempt: The Court finds there is no need to adjudicate Herman K. Blumenstein in contempt as any failure to comply with the Court's visitation Order of April 26, 1983 was triggered initially by the plaintiff mother in this case by virtue of the fact that on the date of the previous hearing or shortly thereafter she advised the father that she was disappointed with the Order and it was impossible for her to comply with the same and that visits should be above and beyond the Court Order and mutually arranged by agreement of the parties. Obviously the parties could not agree on visitation orders and the previous Order fell into total disarray. Peition for Contempt dismissed. Petition for Examination: This Petiton requests a Court Order directing the father to cooperate with the Mental Health Center by delivering the child for scheduled appointments on the basis that Mental Health evaluations and counseling with the child will encouage a better mother/child relationship. The Court finds no need for this as this time, having interviewed the child and found the child to be normal in most respects but torn by the dissention between his parents. The request for evaluation of the defendant Herman K. Blumenstein is denied. Petition dismissed.
Petition for Modification: It appears that for various and sundry reasons, the Court's previously entered Order of April 26, 1983 has not been complied with and each party contends it is the fault of the other. The Court find partial fault on both parties but the majority of the fault to lie with the plaintiff in this matter. It now appears that the mother has partial employment, and accordingly, the visitation schedule previously devised by the Court with meticulous care is no longer practical. The Court believes that visitations between mother and child are appropriate in thes case at this time and hereby grants that the child spend two separate visits with the mother comprising two consecutive overnight stays. In addition, the Court believes there should be at least one other visit between mother and child of at least four hours over and above the overnight visits. Counsel for the parties and the parties are directed to consult and reduce to writing the method by which these visits will be carried out so that there is a clear and definitive understanding as to the obligation of each party. It is anticipated that the mother's work schedule will not be known a great period in advance byt she is to dive as much advance notice as possible of the time she will be requesting the two overnight visits during the month. Unless the parties agree otherwise, it shall be the obligation of the mother to pick up the child at the time and place agreed for the overnight visits and it shall be the obligation of the father to receive the child on termination of the visits. Regarding the other four-hour visit, it shall be the same obligation of the mother to pick up and the father to return the child. The Court having interviewed the child is aware that the child is caught in the middle of bitter feelings between the parties and their respective families and the Court cautions the parties that they must be extremely carefuleand encourage love and affection of the child for poth parents and they shall not make derrogatory remarks or insinuations about the other parent. The Court notes that it will no longer require onvernight supervision during the visits of the mother and the child.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Mar 16, 1983 Copy of order to Bruce Smith, Esq.

Mar. 18, 1983, Affidavit filed: BRUCE L. SMITH, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is counsel for the Plaintiff in the above captioned action, and that as said counsel he served a certified copy of the Complaint and Notice to Defend and Claim Rights, along with the Plaintiff's affidabit required under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code on the Defendant by Certified mail on November 24, 1982, which certified mail was received by the Defendand November 26, 1982, as evidenced by the return receipt signed by the Defendant as indicated in Plaintiff's counsel's affidavit notarized November 30, 1982. Thereafter, due to a misinterpretation of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Rules, Plaintiff's counsel again, by certified mail, attempted to serva a separate Plaintiff's affidavit under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code, which was not required by the Rules, and which was defectively served in that the return receipt was not signed by the Defendant and that counsel for the Plaintiff now believes, pursuant to Memorandum of the Court dated March 14, 1983, that the second certified mailing being not required should be treated as a nullity and that the court is free to proceed with consideration of the Divorce action pursuant to Affidavit of Plaintiff's counsel first filed, that being the Affidavit notarized November 30, 1982.

Further deponent saith not.

Bruce L. Smith

Dec. 1, 1982, Copy of order to John Spataro, Esq.
	Filed Nov. 29, 1982 Tax & entry pd 11/30/82 $30.50

Dec. 10, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, December 3, 1982, Elizabeth G. Ferry, appears personally without counsel and after informal discussion, the parties mutually agree that the grandmother is not seeking shared custody of the child but merely visitation. Grandmother wishes custody of the child also for the purpose of transporting the child to the State Correctional Institution at Mercer for a visit with the father.

The Court deems at this time it would be inadvisable under all of the circumstances of this case and the reasons surrounding the incarceration of the father to have visits between father and child, but with no objections from the mother, the Court sees no reason why occasional visits with the grandmother would not be beneficial to the child.

ACCORDINGLY, on December 11 and 26, the grandmother, Elizabeth G. Ferry shall have the right to pick up the child at the home of the mother between the hours of 9:30 and 10:00 o'clock a.m. and have the child in her custody at her home or other suitable places and return the child by 6:00 p.m. on said date.

Commencing with the month of January, 1982, the visits shall be on the second and fourth Saturdays of every month unless the mother and grandmother mutually agree to another date for visitations.

The grandmother Elizabeth G. Ferry agrees and the Court directs that while the minor child Tanya is in her custody, that she will not or have others transport the child to the State Correctional Institution at Mercer for visits with the father.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the father upon release from confinement to attempt to arrange appropriate visits with the child; and if the same cannot be arranged, to petition the Court for reconsideration of his visitation rights once he leaves incarceration.

Feb. 11, 1986, ORDER filed. The above divorce action has been praeciped to the Court for review under Section 204(d) of the Divorce Code. We note that the original divorce action filed Dec. 1, 1982, requests an equitable division of marital property and adjustment of debts. A master was appointed March 1, 1983, to recommend a divorce decree and make equitable distribution, and each party was required to advance a sum to pay the Master. The Plaintiff filed a requisite Affidavit under Section 201(d) on Dec. 10, 1985, and the matter was praeciped to the Court for entry of a No-fault Decree on Jan. 16, 1986.

We return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office as there remains outstanding the Plaintiff's Claim for equitable division of marital property which we cannot resolve on the status of the record now before us. Additionally, we note a Master was appointed and we have no indication whether the Master had incurred any expenses or whether the parties advanced the required sums.

Upon resolution of these matters, the Court will entertain a new praecipe for review.

The Court hereby fixes Master fees at the sum of $519 and the Court notes the Defendant was originally required to deposit the sum of $250, but was relieved of said responsibility and allowed to proceed without payment of the same, subject however to further Cpurt review. The Court believes both parties should share equally the Master's fee, and ACCORDINGLY, the Defendant is directed to pay the sum of $259 within ten (10) days of the filing of this Order. The Plaintiff already having deposited $250 is directed to pay an additional $10 within ten (10) days of the filing of this order.
In view of the fact there may be court reporter fees due, in the event bills for the same are presented, the Prothonotary is directed to divide the said bills equally between the parties and upon receipt of a notice of the sum due, each party shall within ten (10) days thereafter pay one-half (½) of the amount due for court reporters fees.The Court accepts the recommendation of the Master and hereby denies the request of the Defendant that the Plaintiff be required to pay all or a portion of his attorney fees. The Court noted Exceptions to the Master's Report have been filed by the Defendant and the Court will set argument thereon on motion of either party.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR NOVEMBER 30, 1983; No. 3.

Jan. 17, SUR DEFENDANT"S EXCEPTIONS TO THE MASTER'S REPORT, OPINION, ORDER AND FINAL DIVORCE DECREE FILED:

The Defendant George L. Wallace, has excepted to certain findings and recommendations of the Master's Report filed in this divorce action brought by the Plaintiff, Elizabeth M. Wallace. First, Defendant contends that the Master erred in finding that approximately $30,000 was not a gift to both (he) and Mrs. Wallace that would therefore qualify as marital property. Second, Defendant contends that he should get more than one-half of the proceeds from the forced sale of the tangible marital assets. Defendant also contends the Master erred in ordering the properties to be auctioned instead of dividing these marital assets equally between the parties. The final contention of the Defendant is that the Master erred in not requiring Mrs. Wallace to provide a supplemental income and expense statement showing her interest in a retirement account.

Upon review of the record and consideration of the arguments, we find that the Master's designation of marital and non-marital property regarding the $30,000 is correctly predicated on the inventory and appraisement filed by each party and on the testimony produced at the June 13, 1983 Master's Hearing. The Master's Report traces the history of the passbook account number 104625 and the money market certificate number 13705. The source of the funds in these accounts are the proceeds from the sale of the residence of Agnes Zanetti (Plaintiff's mother) in 1980/ It is Defendant's posture that Mrs. Zanetti made a gift to both Defendant and Plaintiff of the funds in these two accounts. In support of this position, Defendant points out that he was one of the named persons on each account with the power to withdraw and use the monies from each account. Plaintiff's position is that her mother entrusted these funds to Plaintiff to manage for the sole benefit of Mrs. Zanetti.

The Master has determined that the principal and interest from these accounts are the sole and exclusive property of Mrs. Zanetti. The Master's determination was based on the testimony of the parties at the Master's Hearing and especially upon the testimony of the alleged donor, Mrs. Zanetti, who stated that she never intended to make a gift of these proceedsfrom the sale of her house. We affirm the Master's determination on the basis that, "in determining issues of credibility,the Master's findings must be given the greatest weight because it is he who heard and observed the witnesses." Mott v.Mott, 453 A.2d 1038, __Pa. Superior Ct.__(1982). This court has no doubt that the parties in whose names these accounts are recorded hold them impressed with a trust for the benefit of Mrs. Zanetti and the entire proceeds of these accounts are at Mrs. Zanetti's disposal upon her request, or in the event of her need or emergency.

The Master's recommendations that the tangible marital property be subject to public auction with the proceeds to be equally divided will not be disturbed since the parties cannot agree upon any other disposition of this property and counsel has offered no alternatives. Further, the equal division of the proceeds by auction is equitable where each party receives comparable annual incomes and Defendant retains possession of the marital automobile.

Finally, as regards the retirement account of Mrs. Wallace which was listed only by the Defendant, the Master heard no testimony concerning its existence and did not consider it. There was also no request made of the Master to continue the hearing pending thee production of records showing whether these retirement benefits existed. Since the Defendant produced no documentation on this matter at the Master's Hearing the Master had no factual basis for its consideration.

ORDER AND FINAL DECREE

And Now, January 13, 1984, the Court dismisses the exceptions to the Master's Report and hereby enters a decree divorcing Elizabeth M. Wallace and George L. Wallace on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken.

The Court hereby directs distribution of marital and non-marital in accord with the recommendation of the Master.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 20, 1982, Answer of respondent filed.

Dec. 30, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, December, 22, 1982, at the time set for hearing, the defendant vigorously denied any of the alligations contained in the abuse petition and requests that the petition be dismissed and he be permitted to move back in his home with his wife and children. It appears to the Court the bitterness between the parties is too great to risk the dismissal without a full and complete hearing. Accordingly, this case is continued generally until Thursday, January 6, 1983, at 1:30 p.m., and in the meantime the defendant is precluded from going to the residence of his wife or contacting her in any fashion or procuring others to do so on his behalf. In this regard, the wife shall be entitled to have exclusive possession of the residence and exclusive custody of the children.

In view of the bitterness between the parties and in view of the fact that Child Welfare Services was asked to intervene informally in this matter, the Court directs caseworker Melinda Coleman to act as visitation intermediary and commencing with the week of December 27, 1982, shall make arrangements between the mother and father for the father to visit the child two (2) times during the week of December 27, 1982 and once between January 3rd and January 6th not to exceed one and a half hours in length.

It appears the defendant is confined at the Mental Health Center and this date the Court is without any official or unofficial reports regarding the diagnosis of the defeddant for the prospective stay of the defendant at the Center. The Court requests the defendant to produce testimony at the hearing on January 6, 1983, that will enlighten the Court as to the diagnosis and prognosis of the defendant's mental condition if any.

Until further hearing, the exclusive use of the Ford Pinto car is vested in the mother of the children.

The mother shall not remove or dispose of any property of the father located in the residence or that of his relatives until further hearing in this case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 3, 1983 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Esq. and Curtis Blystone, Esq.

Jan 7, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 6, 1983, it appears that hearing will be extended due to the bitterness of the parties and their absolute refusal to reconcile or arbitrate any of their disputes. ACCORDINGLY, the hearing is continued until January 27, 1983 at 1:30 P.M. before the undersigned. In the meantime, the previous Order entered December 22, 1982 shall remain in full force and effect and Child Welfare Service will continue to make arrangements for visits two times per week between the father and his children. The Court directs the father not to make derrogatory remarks about the mother, her living habits or other persons living in the home, and encourages the father to conduct the visits so that the children will continue to have a love and respect for their father as well as their mother.

The mother shall continue to have exclusive use of the family car but shall be responsible until further Order of Court for monthly payments due on the car.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 7, 1983 Copies of order to Curtis Blystone, Esq. and Joan Mason, Esq.

Jan 31, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 27, 1983, after long hearing, the Court is satisfied that the evidence indicates there has been some abuse of the spouse and probably some abuse to the children, but the Court notes the parties are young, over-emotional and family stress has caused them both to be some-

Oct. 27, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, October 26, 1983, in this divorce action the defendant contends he was never served with the original papers but it is clearly evident that he was and he contends that he wishes to consent to a divorce but still declines to sign the necessary affidavit of consent under the divorce code. It is obvious to the Court that the defendant has ignored prior court orders and, accordingly, if the defendant wishes to consent to a divorce decree and sign the necessary affidavit of consent within ten (10) days of this date, the wife agrees that she will relinquish any past due Alimony, Pendente Lite. In the event said consent is not signed, the obligation to pay Alimony Pendente Lite will continue.
It further appears the defendant has paid about $75.00 toward the original attorneys' fees of $300.00 and additional attorney's fees have been accrued. Accordingly, in addition to the sums already paid for attorney's fees, additional attorney's fees are awarded in the amount of $600.00, making a total attorney's fee obligation of the defendant of $675.00, which sum shall be paid at the rate of $50.00 per week until the same is paid in full. In the event the defendant declines to sign the aforesaid affidavit of consent, the Court reserves the right to award additional attorney's fees in the event of a protracted litigation of this divorce action.
All costs in this case will be paid by the defendant.

Jan 25, 1983 Affidavit of Consent of Defendant filed.

Mar. 7, 1983 Upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's Attorney for Review Under 201(c) of the Divorce Code, this case is moved to court.

Mar. 11, 1983 Order filed: The matter is before the Court on praecipe for review of this 201(c) divorce action. Regrettably, we must return the same to the Prothonotary's Office until proper affidavits of consent under Rule 1920.42 are filed.

This Rule provides that under an201(c) divorce, the affidavits of consent must have been executed(signed):

"(i) Ninety Days or more after the filing of the complaint, and

"(ii) within thirty days of the date the affidavit was filed." (emphasis added)

The affidavits of both parties in this case are dated October 29, 1982, but unfortunately, were not filed until January25, 1983 -- two months and 27 days after signing. Thus, the affidavits, under the mandate of the Rule are stale and we cannot grant the divorce both parties obviously desire until corrected affidavits are filed.

The reasons for the time frame above described are not explained in the rules and we can only conjecture that the rules makers wanted a consent to the divorce filed promptly so that if there was a change of mind or the party felt he or she had been misled, a court proceeding would be necessary to revoke the affidavit and the person could be accorded their day in court, with an opportunity to withdraw their consent. We note that the upcoming amendments to the divorce rules, effective July 1, 1983, contain the exact same provisions so the strict time frame between execution and filing has been retained.

Upon filing of new affidavits and an appropriate praecipe, the Court will reconsider the matter in the future.

Aug. 4, 1987, Motion for Appointment of a Master filed. (to be appointed after hearing in Sept.)

Sept. 8, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, September 4, 1987, after informal discussion and argument regarding the Plaintiff's petition for contempt and in opposition of the appointment of a Master, the Court treats the same as a petition for sanctions in relation to the Answers to Interrogatories. After reviewing the record, it appears that the inventory and appraisement and income and expense statements of Defendant was acknowledged as proper by consent of the parties on December 16, 1983, although it was not in fact filed until August of 1987, we feel bound bythe previous Court Order entered by consent of the parties, even though the Plaintiff may feel that her then counsel was in error in agreeing to such matter. We will not, therefor, require a further inventory and appraisement and income and expense statements, but that does not preclude the Plaintiff from exploring the matter at the Master's Hearing as to other assets.

We do not believe that the supplemental Answers to Interrogaoties filed by the defendant on January 27, 1987 are adequate, since much of the financial interest regarding the closed corporations has not been furnished in accordance with Paragraph 1 (d) of the supplemental Answers To Interrogatories. Defendant has advised the court that notwithstanding the fact that he is a stockholder and director of certain closely held corporations, he is not a majority stockholder, and that directors of Multi Plastics, INc. and Multi Tool, Inc. have adopted over his negative vote resolutions regusing to furnishe him with that information. We find it difficult to believe that the Defendant as a stockholder and director and officer does not have most of that information available tohimin any event. We recgnize the concern of the corporate entities as to the information being disseminated beyond the absolute necessities of this case, but we believe that in order to evaluate closely held corporate stock, the information must be provided to the Defendna tunder some appropriate safeguards as to its dessemination. The Defendant is ORDERED to meet with the stockholders of the corporate entities and advise them of the court's position in this matter, and if they continue to refuse to furnish the information, he is DIRECTED to file within twenty (20) days of this date a stockholder's suit against the corporations to obtain that information in which case the corporate entities will be before the Court and an Order can be made to appropriately protect the confidentiality of the information sought. Defendant is DIRECTED to file supplemental Answers in accordance with this Order to the Interrogatories of the Plaintiff within thirty (30) days of this date or in the event such litigation as has been referred to is necessary, within thirty (30) days of any final Order of Court directing the information be furnished.

THe Plaintiff shall file an income and expense statement within thity (30) days of this date, and an inventory and appraisement within thirty (30) days of the supplemental Answers being filed to the INterrogatories.

The motion for appointment of a Master is reserved at this time until the filing of the supplemental information required in this Order.

Likewise, in consideration of the terms of this decree and faithful performance of said terms by the Defendant, Plaintiff further relinquishes her right to accounting for business profits, income and expenses, and documents she is by court order entitled to, to response to Interrogatories addressed to the Defendant, and Request for Production of Documents, to be furnished by the Defendant and businesses in which he has interest. Likewise, if Defendant faithfully complies with the terms of this decree, Plaintiff relinquishes her right to require sharing of profits earning by the marital portions of all businesses, and by businesses acquired with marital assets.

K. Defendant hereby represents to the Plaintiff, that he has no other pension and/or profit-sharing plans in existence, other than those he has through Multi-Tool, Inc., and Multi-Plastics, Inc., which he is dividing equally with the Plaintiff as of values on January 31, 1985, plus interest and growth thereon.

L. Each party hereby relinquishes any right, title or claim he or she may otherwise have, to assets owned by the other party, acquired at whatever time, either during the marriage, before the marriage, or since their separation and divorce.

Mason, Esquire. In any event, said reasonable counsel fees shall not exceed the sum of $9,250.00. Defendant agrees to pay the sum of $450.00 in counsel fees now due and owing to Attorney Donald W. 6. Each party hereto waives any filing or amendment of inventory and appraisement forms, or income and expense statements, as otherwise required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. Each party represents to the court, that he or she may not be absolutely exactly aware of the interest the other party has in various businesses or other assets, or of the other party's exact debt situation, at the present time, but that he or she is fully satisfied with this decree regardless of the assets owned or debts owed by the other party hereto, and each hereby indicates to the court that he or she wishes no further revelation of said matters, as same would be irrelevant to the end result reached by this agreement, and would not change the mind of either party in regard to entry into agreement which is embodied in this decree. Each party represents to the court that he or she is represented by independent legal counsel, and has carefully considered the terms of this decree, and is satisfied with the terms. There are no verbal agreements apart from the terms herein, and no additional promises have been made to induce either party to enter into this decree.

7. The court retains the right to clarify and enforce the terms of this decree, and impose any remedies deemed appropriate by the court, including counsel fees, in the event of Defendant's breach of decree.

WHAt unrealistic about the present situation. Accordingly, the Defendant is precluded from contacting his wife directly or indirectly unless she specifically requests said contact or said contact is made in the presence of their counsel. He is precluded from going to the jointly owned residence for any purpose.

The Court believes the father is entitled to have the children in his custody and the present arrangement of having the visit supervised at the Child Welfare Office is impractical. Accordingly, on Saturday January 28th, the Defendand may have the children with him from 10:00 A.M. until 7:00 P.M. He will go to the residence, blow the horm of his car, stay outside the residence, and the mother will see that the children are delivered to the car. During the change there will be no animosity, bitterness or harsh words between the parents. When the father is ready to return the children, he will bring the children to the residence, take them to the door, but will not go inside. During the week of January 31, 1983, the Child Welfare Caseworker assigned to this case will make an investigation of the trailer, and in the event she believes overnight visits could be adequately accommodated, and that the sanitary and heating facilities are safe and adequate, ahe can approve on her own without further Court Order a weekend visit on Saturday, February 5, 1983 with an overnight stay, and with the children to be picked up and to be returned at 11 A.M. on Sunday morning.

If the facilities are adequate, he may have the same visitation rights on February 19th and 20th and every weekend thereafter until further Order of Court.

In this regard, the Court notes there is a request under the Divorce Action to refer this matter to a custody mediator. The Court appoints William Pineo as Custody mediator, and Mr. Pineo is privileged to read the Court's rough notes of these lengthy hearings in preparation for the mediation conference, with the Court noting it takes incomplete notes, and that the position of the parties can probably be more accurately elicited by their attorneys.

The Court notes the Defendant is not paying any money for the support of the children, but there is a support proceeding filed in the Domestic Relations Section. Accordingly, on Friday, January 28th and on Friday every week thereafter until the matter results in a temporary order in the Domestic Relations Section, the Defendant will pay to the Domestic Relations Section the sum of $20.00 for the support of the three (3) minor children.

The Court notes that it has not made a detailed evaluation of the gross and net incomes and expenses of the parties in entering this temporary order, and this order should serve as no guidence to the Domestic Relations Hearing Officer in making an appropriate support order in this case.

The Defendant is DIRECTED to pay costs in this case.

Nov. 15, 1983 RE: THE DEFENDANT"S PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS TO SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT AND ORDER filed.

We dismiss the Defendant's Preliminary Objections and will require an answers to the Amended Complaint. Whether the Pennsylvania or Federal Minimum Wage Acts are applicable in this case may depend on the Plaintiff's status as an employee of the Defendant. The Defendant has pled that the Plaintiff's employment under a written contract was orally or circumstantially modified by conduct of the parties whereby he changed from a management employee to a part-time managemnnt employee and a part-time regular employee Until certain potentially conflicting, factual situations are clarified by a fact finder, the approporiate applications of the federal and state wage laws regarding over-time pay cannot be ascertained.

We note that while the employment contract calls for madatory arbitration in paragraph 11, the Supreme Court of the United States in Barrentine vs. Arkansoll Best Freight System, Inc., 101 Supreme Court 1437, 67 LED 2nd 641 (1981), has held that employee rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act cannot be bargained away. Again, a definitive determination of the facts surrounding this dispute would first have to be established in order to ascertain whether the Barrentine decision would be applicable.

Under all of the circumstances, we feel this matter should not be resolved at the pleading stage and ACCORDINGLY, enter the following ORDER:

AND NOW, November 10, 1983, the Defendant's Preliminary Objections to the Second Amended Complaint are dismissed and the Defendant is accorded twnety (20) days from the filing of this order to file appropriate, responsive answers to the Second Amended Complaint.

a motorcycle at the time in question and the Court rules that this fact may be shown to the jury as it may relate to the plaintiff's ability to safely operate a motorcycle.

Various highway department regulations may come in to focus and the position of the plaintiff is that these regulations were not complied with by the township.in notifying the travelling public that the road was closed. The posture of the defense is that it was an emergency situation and that the regulations are not conclusive as there are indications throughout the regulations that in emergency situations strict compliance with the regulations is replaced by common sense and reasonable care. The Court will review the regulations and attempt to enlighten counsel of its posture on this issue shortly before trial.

It appears the plaintiff was involved in subsequent motorcycle accidents after the date here in question and the Court rules that these accidents may not be shown as relating to his skill and ability as a motorcycle operator. Both counsel agree that while the plaintiff admits to have been consuming alcoholic beverages before the accident, this fact may not be aubmitted to the jury but the fact that his original leaving point before the accident was a licensed tavern may be shown to the jury but not the fact the plaintiff was consuming alcoholic beverages therein.

Counsel for the defendant advises he has received no written demand and this date the plaintif makes a demand of $50,000.00 for full and complete settlement of the case. Defense counsel at this time offers $12,500.00 Counsel estimates three days for trial and as of this time the jury will be picked and the case tentatively scheduled to start Monday, April 16, 1984, at 9:30 a.m.

July 18, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, July 12, 1984, at the time set for hearing the matter is discussed informally between the parties and their counsel and the court. The parties are unable to reach a precise agreement regarding visitation with the children but have agreed that the Court could enter a decision on the facts presented in an informal manner to the Court this date allowing thirty (30) days to file exceptions. Accordingly, the Court enters the following visitation decree:

1. In each year for the months of July, August, and September, the father shall have the right to have all five (5) ohildren in his custody on the first and third Sundays of every month between 9:00 a.m. and 0:00 p.m.

2. For the months of October, November and December each year the following visitation schedule of the father is established. The first Sunday, children Tammy and Katie will be with the father between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. On the second Sunday, child Bobby will be in the custody of the father for the same hours On the Third Sunday, Children Rebecca and Regina will be in the custody of the father for the same hours. On the fourth Sunday, all five (5) children will be in the custody of the father for the same hours.

3. For the months of January, February and March each year, the schedule will revert to visitations of all five (5) children on the first and third Sundays as aforesaid.

4. For the months of April, May and June, each year, the visitation schedule regarding separage children on four Sundays will be in effect.

5. Regarding Thanksgiving and Christmas, all five (5) children will be in the custody of the father on Thanksgiving day in the even years between 11:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., and on Christmas Day between the same hours on the odd years.

6. The father may have telephone contact with the children a minimum of two (2) time per week and the times scheduled are Tuesday and Thursday evenings when he may talk to any oncall of the children for a period of not less than thirty (30) minutes. By agreement of the parties, the father will make said calls to the children on Tuesday and Thursday at 6:00 p.m., so plans may be made to have the children expecting the call and the remainder of the evening plans can be finalized by the mother. The mother is directed to allow the children to contact the father by telephone at their request any other times.

7. The father's present address is R.D.#2, Pine Point Road, Linesville. His telephone number is 683-5258,and any change in his residence or telephone number will be reported to the mother within forty-eight hours (48).

8. It shall be the father's obligation to pick up and return the children from the residence of the mother for said visits. Anytime the circumstances prevent him from picking up the children, he shall give the mother at least twenty-four (24) hours advance notice. On any prescribed visit where he does not appear to pick up the children within one (1) hour after the prescribed time, the mother may consider the visit cancelled and the father shall lose his visitation rights for said period.

ISSUE OF INSURANCE COVERAGE

It appears that the defendant had agreed to make a one (1) year payment on a home owners policy as part of the divorce settlement. For reasons not exactly clear to the Court this payment has not been made but the parties mutually agree that within seven (7) days of this date, the plaintiff, Kathy Leach, now Kathy Hoover, will advise the defendant of the company she wishes to take a home owners policy with, the amount required to pay one (1) hear premium thereon and the defendant will within thirty (30) days of that notification will pay directly to his former wife the full amount of said premium which will cover a policy issued in her name. One the insurance polisy is procured, a xerox copy of the face sheets showing the precise insured will be forwarded to the defendant as proof that his money has been appropriately applied.

The parties mutually agree that the divorce settlement provided for one (1) year coverage only and after the defendant satisfies the above requirement for a one (1) year period shall have no further obligation to provide home owners insurance.

This decisinn having been made after informal discussion, each party is accorded the right to file exceptions thereto within thirty (30) days of this date and request a full and complete hearing on the issues raised tn exceptions.

payment of all Court Reporter's fees. The Court hereby directs that the Prothonotary pay this sum to M. Dan Mason, Esq. as partial payment toward his total Court Ordered Master's Fees.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard THomas, P.J.

Feb. 12, 1985, copies of order to Attys. W. Gregg, Bruce Johnson and M. Dan Mason.

Feb. 14, 1985 Upon praecipe of PLaintiff Attorney For Review Under Section 201(d) of Divorce Code, this case moved to court.

Feb. 15, 1985 DIVORCE DECREE AND ORDER FILED:

AND NOW, this 14th day of February, 1985, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion, it is hereby Decreed and Ordered as follows:

1. Divorce: Upon consideration of the pleadings and affidavits filed in the above-captioned case, this Court hereby grants an abelute divorce from the bonds of matrimony to the above-named parties on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken and the parties have lived separately and apart for a period of at least three (3) years pursuant to Section 201(d) of the Pennsylvania Divorce Code.

2. The Defendant to this action has filed an answer to Plaintiff's Complaint in Divorce, in which she raises claims for alimony and claims for alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and court costs. By Order of Court dated April 23, 1983, M. DAN MASON ESQUIRE is appointed Master with respect to the issues of alimony and alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and court costs. The Master's Hearing was held on March 26, 1984, and the decision of the Master was filed with the Prothonotary on December 17, 1984. The Court notes that no exceptions to any of the recommendations of the Master have been filed by either party, and accordingly the said recommendations stand as a final order of this Court. The recommendations of the Master which are hereby incorporated by reference in this Decree and Order are as follows:

a. The Defendant has established by a fair preponderance of the evidence that she is entitled to alimony, alimony pendente lite, (or spousal support), counsel fees and court costs;

b. It is therefore Ordered that the Defendant receive the sum of Seventy-Five ($75.00) Dollars per month from the Plaintiff for a period of three (3) years from the date of the first award of such sum, being October 15, 1982:

With respect to this Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollar per month payment, it is Ordered that this sum shall be considered spousal support and/or alimony pendente lite for the period of October 15, 1982 through the date of this dDecree, and hereafter shall be considered as rehabilitative alimony up to and including the October, 1985 payment:

c. It is further Ordered that the Plaintiff shall pay to the Defendant the sum of Forty ($40,00) Dollars per month beginning November, 1985 and to continue until the date that the Defendant shall reach the age of Sixty-two(62). It is noted that this figure is based upon approximately ten (10) percent of the Plaintiff's pension of approximately Four Hundred One ($401.00) Dollar per month:

d. It is ordered that the Plaintiff be responsible for payment of Defendant's counsel fees in the amount of Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars and it is directed that Plaintiff satisfy this obligation in such manner as he is able to arrange directly with the Defendant's attorney.

e. Master's fees for M. DAN MASON, ESQUIRE are set in the amount of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, out of which the Plaintiff shall be responsible for the sum of Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars and the Defendant shall be responsible for the sum of Four Hundred ($400.00) Dollars.

f. Insofar as Court Reporter's fees are concerned, it is determined that the sum of One Hundred Thirty-three and 20/100 ($133.20) Dollars has been paid by the Master, representing the total fees at Master's Hearings scheduled for December 12, 1983 and March 26, 1984. It is Ordered that the sum of Forty-three and 20/100 ($43.20) Dollars representing the appearance fee for the Court Reporter for the first Master's Hearing scheduled on December 12, 1984 shall be the sole responsibility of the Defendant. With respect to the Ninety ($90.00) Dollars paid to the Court Reporter for the appearance fee at the March 26, 1984 Master's Hearing, it is Ordered that that sum shall be shared equally between the parties to this proceeding. Accordingly, the Plaintiff shall be responsible for a total payment of Six Hundred Forty-five ($645.00) Dollars representing his share of the Master's fees and Court Reporter's fees, which sums shall be due and owing in full on or before February 15, 1985.

Donald J. Lowery

vs.

Elizabeth R. Lowery

Additionally, it is noted that the Plaintiff has heretofore deposited the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars with the Prothonotary for which he shall be given a direct credit toward payment of the Six Hundred Forty-five ($645.00) Dollars total Master;s fees and Court Reporter's fees. Consequently, the Plaintiff shall have a remaining balance due and owing of Four Hundred Forty-five ($445.00) Dollars as of the date of this Decree. One the basis of the above, the total obligation of the Defendant for Court Reporter's and Master's fees shall be Four Hundred Eighty-eight and 20/100 ($488.20) Dollars, which sum shall be paid in full on or before March 1, 1985.

g. In the event that the Defendant has not made payment in full of all sums due and owing herein by March 1, 1985, that the above referred to Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollar and Forty ($40.00) Dollar per month payments by Plaintiff are to be sent directly to the Master, M. DAN MASON, ESQUIRE to be applied toward Defendant's share of the Master's fees, and Plaintiff shall continue to make remaining monthly payments in this manner until the Defendant's obligation shall be fully satisfied.

h. It is noted that there is a sum remaining in the Prothonotary's Office of Sixty-six and 80/100 ($66.80) Dollars representing the balance of Plaintiff's Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollar deposit after payment of all Court Reporter's fees. The Court hereby directs that the Prothonotary pay this sum to M. DAN MASON, ESQUIRE, as partial payment towards his total Court Ordered Master's fees.

BY THE COURT

Jan. 3, 1986 Defendant's Petition To Adjudge The Plaintiff in Contempt Of Court and Order filed. AND NOW, this 3rd day of January, 1986, upon presentation and consideration of the foregoing Petition, this Order is entered and the Plaintiff, Donald J. Lowery, is ordered to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court. This Order shall be returnable for hearing on the 28th day of January, 1986 at 10 o'clock A.M., in Court Room No. 1 or 2, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J
Jan. 3, 1986 Copies of order to William Gregg and Bruce Johnson

Jan. 31, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Jan. 28, 1986, after protracted hearing and listening to the contention of the defendant that he is not in arrears on his support order, the Court has reviewed with counsel and with the Dom Rel Section all of the payments for support or alimony pendente lite in accord with the final divorce decree since Oct. 15. 1982. It appears further that the divorce decree authorized the Dom Rel Sectio to forward alimony pendente lite and permanent alimony payments to Master Dan Mason to pay the unpaid balance allocated against Mrs. Lowery for master fees in accordance with the divorce decree. Calculations at this time indicate that through payments from Dom Rel and direct payments to Mr. Mason from Mr. Lowery that the account due and owing by Mrs. Lowery to Mr. Mason is now paid in full and any future payments made to Dan Mason, Master, by Mr. Lowery will be allocated against the balance due by Mr. Lowery for master fees.

After detailed calculations of support made through the Dom Rel Sect. and payments made directly to Dan Mason, the Court concludes there is due and owing a balance of arrears for alimony pendente lite and permanent alimony in the amount of $1,288.20. For the sake of accuracy in bookkeeping and because there is perhaps some adjustments needed for other reasons, the Court arbitrarily reduces this arrearage to the sum of $1,000.00.

The Court reviews the income and expenses of the defendant and finds that he is unable to pay the arrearages at this time, and accordingly, we enter the following Order to comport his permanent alimony obligations with the divorce decree entered Feb. 14, 1985, which ordered permanent alimony until Elizabeth R. Lowery attained the age of sixty-two (62), which will occur Feb. 14, 1988.

ACCORDINGLY, the defendant will pay in cash this date the sum of $80.00 to the Dom Rel Section, which will meet his alimony obligation for Jan. 15, 1986, and Feb. 15, 1986. The defendant will continue to pay through the Dom Rel Section the sum of $40.00 per month on or before the 15 of March and every month thereafter unti his wife attains the age of sixty-two (62). The defendant is directed that he may not make direct payments on this Court Order by check, services or any type of credit claimed in any fashion and that all payments must be made through the Dom Rel Section as he will receive no credit for any direct or other credit payments allegedly made.

In view of the limited resources and the living expenses of the defendant, no action to collect arrears on the previous Orders for alimony, pendente lite and permanent alimony shall be commenced by the Dom Rel Section or by Elizabeth R. Lowery until after she has attained the age of sixty-two (62).

Donald Lowery contends that on or about Jan. 1, he wrote an $80.00 alimony check direct to his wife, but a check of his bank records this date discloses said check has not cleared. The wife contends she never received the check, or if she did receive it, it was unsigned. ACCORDINGLY, if the wife now has possession of said check or received possession of said check in the future, she may not cash the same and is directed to return it directly to her former spouse by Cert. Mail.

The matter of unpaid counsel fees due and owing by Donald Lowery to Bruce Johnson, counsel for Elizabeth R. Lowery, in the amount of $600.00 remains unresolved. Donald Lowery shall meet this date with Mr. Johnson and reach a satisfactury installment payment arrangement commencing not later that Mar 15, 1986, under which he will see that the Court Order requiring payments of this amount is completed by the regular payment of installment payments. In the event the defendant fails in this regard, counsel may petition the Court asking for a contempt citation against the plaintiff. BY ORDER OF THE COURT, P. Richard Thomas, J. Feb. 3, 1986, copies of Attys. B. Johnson, Wm. Gregg, M. Dan Mason.

ticket at less cost than two one-way tickets, then the defendant shall pay one-half of the cost of the round-trip ticket. The paternal grandparents shall furnish transportation from the Cleveland airport to the child's home on the return flight.

If because of the holiday crowding of the airlines, the plaintiff is unable to obtain a return trip ticket for Dec.30, 1985, he shall obtain a return trip ticket complying with this order for a date earlier than Dec. 30, 1985 so that in any event, the child is returned by that date.

This Order is made without prejudice to the right of either party to petition the court for further clarification of the visitation order.

May 5, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, May 2, 1986, after further hearing the existing Orders are clarified and/or modified as follows:

1. Although the defendant's recollection seems to be that Christmas visits were only to take place in Pennsylvania, we that the Christmas visitation was a part of the temporary Order recommended by the Custody Mediator in Paragraph 3 thereof and the Court did not change that in its Order of December 19, 1984, and for the purposes of clarification irrespective of what may have been anyone's recollection of what was said, Christmas visitaions are to take place at such location as the plaintiff desires.
2. The Plaintiff shall furnish all transportation expense for the Christmas visitation, including transportation to and from the child's home to the airport which shall be done through a responsible adult member of the plaintiff's family, with either the paternal grandparents or another adult member of the family.
3. The return trip after the summer visitation shall continue to be the expense of the defendant but it is inteded that all ground transportation to and from the airport for all trips shall be the responsibity of the plaintiff.
4. The summer vacation shall begin on the third day following the close of school rather than on the date following the close of school.
5. Paragraph 5 of the original temporary Order is stricken except as herein modified expressly or by necessary implication the prior Orders are continued in full force and effect.

1. The parties shall share legal custody of Dustin Eaton, which means that all decisions regarding education, religious training, medical matters and the like, shall be made jointly by the parties and each party shall keep the other fully advised concerning such matters.

In order to ease the transportation burden, since the father will be leaving his present station in North Carolina on or about February 22, 1985 and will be stationed thereafter in the vicinity of Las Vegas, Nevada, the custodial period of the mother that would normally terminate on April 1, 1985 shall terminatethree (3) days prior to the father's departure for Las Vegas, and custody shall return to the father with transportation from Crawford County to North Carolina to be furnished by the father.

Dec. 16, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Dec. 16, 1985, after further hearing, it appearing that the defendant and her counsel were under the impression that at the time of the last hearing during a colloquy which was apparently not recorded, the Court indicated that Christman vacations would only be in conjunction with the plaintiff's furloughs in Crawford County, but the Order as entered appears to the Court to require Christmas visitations whether or not the same may or may not be in a period of plaintiff's furlough and it further appearing that the plaintiff has arranged transportation by air from the Cleveland airport to Las Vegas on Dec. 19, 1985, in the afternoon on a flight which does not require the child to change planes, although there is one stop en route and which will permit the child to arrive in Las Vegas at or about 5:30 p.m. Las Vegas time, which would be approximately 8:30 P.M. E. S. T. and it further appearing that the paternal grandparents have agreed to transport the child to Cleveland airport, the Court does not believe that such arrangements are unreasonable and that they come essentially within the parameters of the Order as entered. The defendant is therefore ordered to permit the paternal grandparents to transport the child to Cleveland airport on Dec. 19, 1985, in time to catch the flight arranged for by the plaintiff.

The plaintiff shall see that the child is returned to Cleveland airport on or before Dec. 30, 1985. The plaintiff shall obtain a ticket for the return flight, be be scheduled on a flight that will not require changing planes and the defendant shall pay for such ticket. If the plaintiff obtains a round-trip

Aug. 6, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, August 5, 1985, at the time set for argument and informal hearing on this complex divorce matter, the Court listens to argument for both parties regarding the appropriate disposition of rents, the obligations for said rentals, unpaid mortgage payments and taxes.

In view of the fact the Court will not have the time to address itself to these issues at least until the month of September, the Court enters the following temporary order:

All rents collected after June 26, 1985 should be the property of Mary Ann Mehalko, and all rents paid after said date to Mr. Mehalko and now in his possession will be surrendered to the Prothonotary. In the event tenants pay future rents to Mr. Mehalko, he should surrender it to his wife, and the wife may direct all tenants in thede properties awarded to her shall pay rents directly to her.

There is a dispute regarding security deposits supposedly paid by some tenants, som of which apparently has been applied toward the last month's rent. Vincent Mehalko shall account for all security deposits on any of the properties and supply a list of tenants and the amount of security deposits paid, and if the same was used for any purpose, the purpose for which it was used, from and after June 26, 1985.

Vincent Mehalko may not sell, remove of dispose of or encumber in any fashion any personal property located in the premises that were awarded to the wife.

Counsel will submit to the Court a list of unpaid taxes when the same were due and payable, unpaid water bills and current 1985 taxes, and the Court will attempt to allocate rentals and liabilities against the parties to effectuate the recommendation of the Master, which was subsequenuly affirmed by the Court in awarding the divorce decree.

Oct. 9, 1985, Petitions For Contempt and Special Post Divorce Relief = OPINION AND ORDER filed. ORDER: AND NOW, October 8, 1985, the parties are directed to meet with their counsel on or before October 25, 1985, for the mutual execution and exchange of deeds, transferring title to real estate in accord with the final divorce decree, at which time Vincent M. Mehalko shall pay in cash or certified check the sum of Three Thousand, Two Hundred Fifty-Two Dollars and Seventy Seven Cents ($3,252.77) to Mary Ann Mehalko, in accord with the foregoing. Upon the Defendants failure to so do, Mary Ann Mehalko will not be required to execute a deed transferring her interest in the real estate, awarded to her husband at 606 Washington Street, Conneautville, Pa., and the Court will entertain a Motion to hold the Defendant in contempt for failure to make said payment.

In regard to final payment of the master fees, the Court reimposes its previous Order of June 26, 1985, and directs that on or before October 17, 1985, the Defendant, Vincent M. Mehalko shall pay the sum of One Thousand, Two Hundred Sixty Four Dollars and Seventy Cents ($1,264.70) to the Prothonotary of Crawford County and in default thereof, he will, on the same date, surrender his 1980 Thunderbird automobile and the title thereof and all keys thereto to the Sheriff of Crawford County.

Oct. 28, 1985, Petition for Reconsideration and Order filed. AND NOW, this 28 day of October, 1985, upon consideration of the attached Petition, a hearing is hereby set for the 8 day of November at 11:00 in courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court House.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 29, 1985, Copies of Order to Atty's R. Charles Thomas, Emil Spadafore, James Irwin.

Nov. 12, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, November 8, 1985, in regard to the petition for reconsideration, the Court has reviewed with counsel and the parties rents and security deposits paid or utilized to pay rent on three (3) properties: 412 Center; 1007 Washington and 806 Washington. Accordingly, in the letter of R. Charles Thomas attached to the Court's opinion and order filed October 9th, the figure on page 4 of said Thomas letter indicating that $902.50 is due by Mr. Mehalko to Mrs. Mehalko is now redueed on agreed facts to a figure of $507.00, and, accordingly, the Court's opinion of sums due will be modified to this extent. The net result is that the figure of $3,252.77 on page 3 of the Court's opinion as due by Mr. Mehalko to Mrs. Mehalko is now reduced to the sum of $2,857.27. However, all parties agree that this figure must be further modified because Mr. Mehalko during the time of his ownership defaulted in mortgage payments in the amount of $868.00 due on the mortgage. Accordingly, adding said figure to the aforesaid figure gives a net result that Mr. Mehalko now owes Mrs. Mehalko $3,725.27, and the Court directs that said sum be paid on or before November 19, 1985.

It further appears that late charges, added interest and other penalties have been added to the mortgage due at Marguette by virtue of the default payments of the aforesaid mortgage payments and Mrs. Mehalko is now obligated to pay these penalty charges in assuming the mortgage on the property. Counsel and the Court are unable this date to ascertain the exact amount and counsel for the plaintiff will request Marquette Savings and Loan Association to ascertain and reduce to writing the amount of penalties incurred by Mrs. Mehalko because of delayed or defaulted payments due on or before June 26, 1985. Once this figure is reduced to writing and presented to counsel for the defendant, the defendant will have an additonal ten (10) days to pay these penalty figures due Mrs. Mehalko.

1) The Parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Kristen K. Schenberg, born July 7, 1982.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3) The mother shall retain primary physical custody of the child, subject to the following:

a. The father shall have temporary physical custody of the child every other weekend commencing on Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. While father has temporary physical custody of the child, he shall make arrangements for the child's timely attendance at all scheduled educational, swimming or religious activities in which the child participates. Additionally, should the child inform the father that she has a social or nonscheduled activity on a Friday night during a weekend in which father has temporary physical custody and she expresses a desire to attend such activities, then the father shall have the discretion to either allow her to attend such activities or, in the alternative, insist upon his scheduled time with the child. In the event the father allows the child to attend a discretionary Friday evening activity, then in that event the child will return to the home of her mother on Friday evening and the parties will make suitable arrangements for the father to resume his time with the child on Saturday at a time to be mutually determined by the parties. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon such a time, then father shall take custody of the child at 9:00 a.m. on Saturdy morning.

Two of the four weeks shall occur in such a manner as to conclude at 6:00 p.m. on the third day prior to the resumption of the school year. For example, if the school year begins on Wednedday, August 30, then the conclusion of father's two week period with the child will occur at 6:00 p.m. on August 27.

The remaining two weeks of partial custody which the father shall enjoy is to be established by mutual agreement by and between the parties, with such agreement to be made on or before May 15 of each year. AND NOW, September 30, 1985, at the time set for argument, it appears that notice to the plaintiff at his last known address, 105-A Berkshire Drive (Timbercrest Apartments) Meadville, was returned as the plaintiff left no forwarding address and the Court notin noting that plaintiff's counsel withdrew sometime ago, the Court believes the defendant's motion to dismoss objections and direct that interrogatories be answered should be sustained.

Accordingly, the objections filed by the plaintiff to interrogatories are dismissed and the plaintiff is directed to answer the interrogatories objected to and is directed to give the authorization specifically requested in interrogatory #26.

In view of the fact that the plaintiff's present whereabouts are unknown, the Prothonotary is directed to forward a copy of this order by regular mail to the plaintiff at the four listed addresses noted by his former attorney when he withdrew from the case and the last address listed on any pleading or response by the plaintiff in his filings in this case.

Feb. 7, 1985, Motion in Limine of additional defendant City of Meadville, filed.

Feb. 7, 1985, RE: MOTIONS IN LIMINE ORDER filed. The Parking Authority of the City of Meadville and the City of Meadville at the pretrial conference of this case held Feb. 5, 1985. In view of the fact this case may be called for trial within the next week or ten days before Judge Robert L. Walker this court in ruling on the motions lacks the time to write a formal opinion on its ruling, but rules as follows on said motions:

PARKING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF MEADVILLE:

The plaintiff will be precluded at trial from presenting evidence of emotional distress and trauma to her will being and shock to her system arising from seeing a garage building lying in destruction which previously had housed personal property. This court rules that Penna. Law does not recognize a cause of action for emotional distress or physical problems or trauma allegedly arising from the shock or realization that a building, formerly housing personal property, has been destroyed, particularly so when the plaintiff did not view the destruction of the building but came upon the scene after its destruction.

The Motion in Limine filed by the Parking Authority of the City of Meadville is accordingly granted.

CITY OF MEADVILLE:

City of Meadville Motion in Limine No. 1 regarding a cashier's check payable to plaintiff's mother, which allegedly was lodged among the contents in the building destroyed is denied as the court believes the existence and location of said check is a question of credibility and the plaintiff's responsibility for safe keeping of said check is a question of fact and agency and ACCORDINGLY, the Motion to Exclude Testimony regarding this check is denied without prejudice to the right of the defendant to demurrer to said claim at an appropriate time during trial.

City of Meadville's contention in paragraphs 3 and 5 of the Motion that plaintiff may not recover for emotional distress or physical trauma upon realization that her personal property had been destroyed was discussed and ruled on above in the Parking Authority's Motion and said ruling is reaffirmed regarding the City of Meadville.

The motion regarding exclusion of evidence regarding physical or emotional trauma, particularly a bleeding rectum arising by virtue of the fact that the plaintiff realized her claim against defendants would not be voluntarily settled but had to be tried, is not an appropriate measure of damages under Pennsylvania Law and evidence of the same may not be admitted at trial.

Paragraph 6 of the motion requesting exclusion of testimony regarding the nature and value of personal property stored in the building is a question of credibility for the trial judge to determine from all of the evidence and the Motion in Limine to preclude the plaintiff from testifying on these matters is denied.

Mar. 27, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 25, 1992, at the time fixed for the de novo hearing, both parties appeared with counsel, and the minor child, Angela Winkler, was also present. The parties agreed to a resolution of this matter. Based upon that agreement, the following Order is hereby entered:

1. Legal and physical custody of the minor child, Angela, shall remain with the plaintiff, Donald E. Winkler, subject to the defendant's visitation rights as hereinafter set forth.
2. The defendant shall have the right to see and visit Angela on March 28, April 4 and April 11, 1992, between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. at the home and residence of Donald E. Winkler. She shall not leave the home during these visits with Angela unless the plaintiff, defendant and Angela all mutually agree.
3. The defendant shall have the right to visit with Angela and take Angela into her temporary custody on April 25, May 2 and May 9, 1992, from 9:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. She shall be permitted to take Angela out of the Plaintiff's home, but she shall not take Angela outside of Crawford County, Pennsylvania during those visits unless agreed to by the plaintiff, defendant and Angela.
4. If Angela and the plaintiff are satisfied that the defendant's residence is suitable for longer visits and overnight visits for Angela, a teenage woman, then the defendant shall have the right to take Angela into her custody every other weekend commencing with Friday, June 5, 1992 at 6:00 p.m., and returning her to the plaintiff's home no later than the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m. During those visitations, the defendant shall not take Angela outside of Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, except as required to transport her from Crawford County to Armstrong County unless agareed to by the plaintiff and Angela.
5. The defendant shall have the right to take Angela into her custody on Saturday, May 23, 1992, between the hours of 9?00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., and at that time, take Angela to her home in Armstrong County so that Angela may see the home and become familiar with it so that she may report to the plaintiff as to whether or not she believes that home is suitable so that the visitation is suitable so that Angela and the plaintiff can determine whether that place is suitable for weekend visitations that will commence as hereinabove provided on June 5, 1992.
6. All of the costs of transporting the child to and from the plaintiff's home and the defendant's home for these visitations shall be borne by the defendant. If the defendant does not appear at the plaintiff's home on time or within one (1) hour of the time of a scheduled visitation, the plaintiff and Angela may assume that visitation is cancelled and make other arrangements for Angela for the remainder of that visitation period. There shall be no visitation period substituted for a missed visitation.
7. The plaintiff and defendant may, by mutual agreement, provide for other terms and conditions of custody and visitation and contacts between Angela and the defendant. To that extent, this Order can be modified by the parties. In the absence of any such agreement or agreements, then the parties must faithfully, fully and strictly comply with this Order until it is modified by another Court Order.
8. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other party in Angela's eyes. Neither party shall do anything while Angela is in his or her custody to adversely affect Angela's health, safety, morals and welfare. Neither party shall become intoxicated in Angela's presence. Neither party shall use or possess illegal drugs or controlled substances while Angela is in his or her custody.
9. In the event tht the plaintiff and/or Angela is or are not satisfied that the defendant's home is suitable for Angela's overnight visitation, then upon petition or motion of the defendant, the Court will schedule a hearing to determine whether or not tht residence is suitable, at which hearing, the Court will receive and consider any evidence produced by the parties that is relevant to that issue. In the event tht happens, then the overnight weekend visitations shall not commence and shall be held in abeyance until the Court is able to determine suitability. Furthermore, should that occur, the defendant would still be entitled to Saturday visitations between the h ours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. similar to the visitations which this Court has accorded her for April 25, May 2 and May 9, 1992 and under the same terms and conditions as this Court has provided with respect to those dates.
10. The plaintiff shall have the right to visit the defendant's home upon giving at least seventy-two (72) hours advance notice so that he may be satisfied as to its suitability. The parties are ORDERED and DIRECTED that if the plaintiff elects to exercise that right, the parties shall treat each other civilly and not violate any laws with respect to that observation trip.

✓ May 31, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1985, a motion for sanctions having been filed on April 29th and an Order entered requiring the answering of written Interrogatories not laker than May 29, 1985, and the Answers to Interrogatories having not been filed, but counsel for the Defendant has represented to the Court that they are available for filing this date, no sanctions are imposed, provided said Answers to Interrogatories are filed by 5:00 o'clock P.M. this date.

The Order of April 1, 1985 postponing the Master's hearing to a period not more than thirty (30) days after answering of Interrogatories, it is amended to provide that the hearing shall be fixed not more than fifty (50) days after this date, which is the date the Answers to Interrogatories are being filed.

The Petition to require the Defendant to file a proper inventory and appraisement is denied, it being the Court's opinion that if the inventory and appraisement filed is not proper, it should be attached by way of answer or the person who will suffer from the impropriety of it would be the Defendant who filed it, and that present petition is not a pleading recognized by the law.

The Plaintiff's petition for special relief relating to the management of Silver Shores Restaurant is denied. It is the Court's opinion that while the parties apparently are able to communicate well enough that the parties apparently are able to communicate well enough that the Plaintiff does act as an employee of the restaurant, at least during the summer summer months, that any attempt to impose joint management upon them would only create further problems.

This Order is being entered with the understanding that the Defendant has agreed that all books, records, materials from the accountant and other matters relating to the managements of the business will be supplied upon request to the Defendant, and any assertions of mismanagement must be made at the time of a Master's hearing in determining whether the Defendant has mismanaged a marital asset and the relevant accounting that would occur at that time.

The petition for additional remedies in the nature of alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and oost are denied at this time without prejudice to the right of the Plaintiff to renew that request on or after August 15, 1985, if this matter has not been finalized by that time, wheh she will be better able to apprise the Court of her future employment.

This Order is being entered upon condition that the sum of $250.00 per week presently being paid by the Defendant or Silver Shores Restaurent to the Plaintiff, whatever it may be denominated, as support, alimony pendente lite, profits of the business or whatever, will continue until final resolution ofthis matter.

The petition to determine the scope of the Master's hearing is denied, be because the Court feels that it is not this Court province to interfere with the Master's hearing in a determination of what evidence is relevant and that evidence is not relevant on a preliminary basis. Decisions as to the relevance of evidence are best left to the trier of fact at the time that the hearing is in progress, and errors or abuses of discretion will have to be corrected on exceptions to the Master's report if appropriate We recognize that this may or could result in additional expesses to either or both of the parties, but we feel it would be impractical for this Court at this time in advance of the hearing to attempt to lay down rules as to the admission of evidence. It would appear that since by everyone's admission that Silver Shores Restaurant is a marital asset, matter matters relating to its management during the period of separation would be be appropriate, becuase the Master would find it difficult to determine how to allocate the income that that asset may have generated during that period of time without such evidence, however, the rulings on evidence are to be made in the first instance by the Master at the time of hearing.

By agreement of all parties, it appears that the only Defendant who was made a party to this suit prior to the running of the statute of limitations is the original Defendant, Longwood Furnace Company, and therefore a partial summary judgment is entered to the effect that unless liability is imposed on Longwood Furnace Company, the Plaintiffs will be unable to recover from any additional defendants.

Insofar as the other issues raised, while we have expressed out opinion that they could not be resolved pre-trial, we will give the additional Defendants Ewing and Longwood the opportunity to file a motion for summary judgment so that those issue can be mare fully argued. If any further motions b y any parties for any partial summary judgment are to be filed, they shall be filed on or before October 30, 1986, and argued on November 24, 1986. Briefs of all parties as to any summary judgments shall be filed by November 17, 1986.

Those parties who have not filed pre-trial narratives shall file the same on or before November 24, 1986, and included in the Plaintiff's pre-trial narrative will be an expert's report to support his theories of liability. In the event any party wishes to file a supplemental pre-trial narratives, it shall be filed on or before January 15, 1987.

Plaintiff has this date made an initial demand concerning settlement and he shall within ten days of this date formalize the demand in writing with any supporting informaition relating to damages that he may wish to submit.

Apr. 16, 1987 Memorandum and Order filed. While in an earlier part of this pre-trial memorandum we indicated that the fact of the release would not be brought up before the jury, counsel have suggested that since Orlo Ewing will be a plaintiff's except witness, the fact of the release might be of some probative value indetermining his credibility, We will, therefore, not close the door totally at this time to the use of the release ofr that limited purpose, but we would suggest that counsel include in the pre-trial memorandum of law that has been required any argument and/or authority they might wish to propose on that issue. The issue of the existence ofthe release will not be brought up by any counsel before the jury until after an in camera decision has been made concerning its use on the question of the credibility of the witness.
