JOHN DOOLEY, JR.

vs.

SARA DOOLEY

Filed Jan. 23, 1980

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS, AFFIDAVIT OF POVERTY, NOTICE, AND COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE filed.

Re: Motion For Leave To Proceed In Forma Pauperis-ORDER filed. Plaintiff presents a petition asking leave to proceed in a divorce action against his wife on the grounds that being incarcerated in the State Correctional Institution on a sentence of 22 to 45 years, he is without sufficient funds to process a divorce action against his wife.

The plaintiff attaches to his Motion for Leave To Proceed in Forma Pauperis a complaint in divorce which he apparently desires to have filed along with his motion.

The plaintiff's theory and grounds for divorce are based on desertion, with the plaintiff contending that because of his sentence mposed January 17, 1978, which imprisoned him for a period of 22 to 45 years, his wife has refused to live with him or have anything to do with him, which conduct has continued for a period of more than two years. The plaintiff, therefore, contends that he is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of desertion.

The plaintiff cannot secure a divorce on the grounds of desertion unless he is an injured and innocent spouse and since he himself has been sentenced for a term in excess of two years, he is certainly not an injured and innocent spouse in the eyes of the divorce law. While his theory of divorce is novel, we cannot conceive that a convicted criminal sentenced to a term in excess of two years in the state prison system can "boot strap" a divorce action by contending that since he is incarcerated, his wife has deserted him.

The plaintiff has alleged no legal grounds for divorce in his divorce complaint and accordingly, we see no reason to permit him to file his divorce action or proceed in forma pauperis. Accordingly, the Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis is denied and the Prothonotary is directed to file the motion and the attached complaint together with a copy of this order and forward a copy of the same to the plaintiff.

Date: January 22, 1980.

✓May 30, 1980 Status Conference Order: This is a Complaint in Assumpsit arising out of a note given by the defendants to the plaintiff. The defendant, Christine Grill, has not as yet been served. The defendant, John L. Grill, has been served and has filed an Answer and New Matter in which he alleges that by reason of a Separation Agreement between himself and his former wife, the wife has assumed the obligation to the plaintiff covered by this action. It would appear, however, that that would not necessarily be a defense to an action by the plaintiff against the defendant, John L. Grill,

Emil M. Spadafore, presently counsel for the defendant, has been made aware of the fact that he at sometine has represented Christine Grill, the defendant, in connection with certain marital problems between herself and her husband and is, therefore, withdrawing his appearance for the plaintiff and will refer the file to other counsel.

Plaintiff's counsel will arrange to withdraw his appearance and have an appearance entered by other counsel on or before June 9, 1980. Plaintiff will reinstate the Complaint and arrange for service on Christine Grill promptly. The defendant, John L. Grill, has indicated that he will be filing a Motion to amend the complaint to add to his new matter a joinder of Christine Grill as the person liable over to John L. Grill under the terms of the separation agreement. The motion for leave to amend will be filed on or before June 20, 1980. The amount involved is within the arbitration limits and in the event the case gets to trial it will be submitted to a board of arbitrators.

May 14, 1980 Sheriff's Return filed: NOT FOUND, as to the within named defendant, James W. Brooks, as of May 13, 1980.
So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

May 28, 1980, Affidavit Relative to Service Upon the Defendant in Accordance with Rule 1124 of the Rules of Civil Procedure as Amended, filed. Linda May Brooks, being duly sworn according to Law, deposes and says that she is the Plaintiff above named and that she has not seen the Defendant since January 2, 1978, when the plaintiff left the defendant because her condition was unbearable and intolerable, that she has reason to believe that the Defendant's residence is somewhere in Youngstown, Ohio, but she has no address nor does she know of any one that has his address. Since the filing of this action, your affiant, through her attorney, Joseph F. Kulwicki, Esquire has forwarded a copy of the complaint in divorce to the Defendant, by mailing, via Certified Mail at his last known address Youngstown, Ohio. Prior to the return of the unclaimed registered mail item sent to the defendant, your affiant has placed two telephone calls, one to the defendant's sister, Marie Madurski and one to Manning Freeman, a friend of the defendant. She also had face to face conversations with three people, Fred Karns, brother of the plaintiff; Mrs. Mary Karns, mother of the plaintiff and Donna Krans, sister of the plaintiff whom your affiant believed may have had information concerning the whereabouts of the defendant. None of the above parties had any information regarding the defendant. Your affiant also contacted the defendant's father and the defendant's brother, Paul by letter dated April 9, 1980, and to this date, neither have supplied her with information of the defendant's whereabouts. Your affiant knows of no other method by which to ascertain the present whereabouts of the Defendant and believes any further attempts would be futile. Linda M. Brooks.

May 28, 1980, Affidavit of Mailing filed. Debra A. Calvin, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says that she is a secretary for Joseph F. Kulwicki, Esq., and as such place in the United States Mail on May 20, 1980, a certified letter, return receipt requested addressed to the following: James W. Brooks, Youngstown, Ohio, which said letter consisted of a copy of the complaint in divorce in the above matter; that said letter was returned to the sender on May 27, 1980, marked as follows: "Undeliverable as addressed, unable to forward" Said receipt for certified mail item and the returned envelope are marked "Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof.

1 copy attested (sheriff)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 11th day of April, 1980, after consideration of the within Petition and motion of counsel, it is hereby ORDERED AND DIRECTED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Respondent, Robert Elton Newcomer, shall not abuse, harass, threaten or annoy the Petitioner or any other person with whom she resides.

2. The Respondent shall not contact the Petitioner in any manner whatsoever.

3. Should the Respondent post bond and be released from the Crawford County jail he shall not return to the premises located at R. D. #2, Reed Avenue, without first securing permission from Petitioner's counsel or from this court.

4. A hearing on this matter is set for the 16th day of April, 1980, at 4 o'clock P.M., in courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville Pennsylvania.

5. In light of the Petitioner's alleged indigency, this Petition and Order shall be filed and served without payment of costs; however, the court reserves the right to assess costs at the conclusion of these proceedings.

6. This Order shall be served by the sheriff of Crawford County upon the Respondent in the Crawford County jail as soon as possible.

TO THE RESPONDENT, ROBERT ELTON NEWCOMER: You are hereby notified that your failure to attend the hearing or your failure to abide by any term of this court order may have serious legal consequences and shall be dealt with severely.

By Order of the Court,

April 14, 1980, Copy of Order to Atty. Hofmann.

April 14, 1980, Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Robert Elton Newcomer personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Emergency Relief from Abuse No. A.D. 1980-285 to him, on April 11, 1980 at 3:33 P.M., at his place of visitation, the Crawford County Jail, Center Street, Meadville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.
So answers,
Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Apr. 22, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, April 16, 1980, after informal hearing, the Court enteres the following order in response to the petitioner's claim for relief:

1. The defendant shall not abuse, harass, threaten or annoy his former wife Christine P. Newcomer nor will he attempt to seize from her or remove from her household any of her property.

2. The defendant shall not go to her property or attempt to gain entrance thereto unless he is specifically invited or permitted to do so by Christine P. Newcomer. In this regard, the Courts notes the petition has this date offered to bring any clothing and other personal effects to the defendant since he is personally lodged in the Crawford County Jail but the defendant has denied such an offer and advises the Court and his former wife that she may retain or destroy any of his personal effects as all of them are valueless.

3. It appears that there are problems concerning National Fuel Gas regarding billings and the name in which the gas account at R.D.#2 Reed Avenue is to be carried. The defendant advises the Court he has no objection to the account being re-established in the name of Christine P. Newcomer and relinquishes all interest in said account.

The Court also notes that the petitioner Christine P. Newcomer has agreed to pay any past due charges on said account upon the re-registration of the account in her name. Accordingly, the Gas Company is authorized and directed to re-register the account accordingly.

4. The Court notes at this time that there is an order awarding custody of the children to Christine P. Newcomer by a Court Order in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, dated January 9, 1978, (Case #D85245). This Order is confirmed by this court.

5. Insofar as visitation is concerned, the Court enteres no visitation order at this time in view of the defendant's current confinement in the Crawford County Jail because of lack of bail. Further, the defendant advises the Court that he intends to seek an appropriate visitation order or a modification of the custody order in the appropriate court in the state of Ohio. Accordingly, the Court makes no order regarding visitation of the children but does not preclude the defendant from applying to this Court or to the Cuyahoga County Ohio Court for appropvisitation rights and the Court will rule upon the same after hearing thereon.

There appears to be a dispute about a car recently purchased from a welfare check and the defendant is claiming ownership thereof. The parties mutually agree this date that if the petitioner in this action pays the defendant the sum of $86.00 for his interest in the automobile, that he will consider the automobile originally purchased in the name of the petitioner and has no objection to titling the same in her name. Upon payment of said sum, the defendant releases any and all interest or claim he may have in said automobile and will take no action to procure possession of the same or harass or annoy the operator of the same.

The County is directed to pay costs in this case as the Court has found the parties to be indigent.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

1 copy attested (sheriff)

April 15, 1980, SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Albert J. Ferraro personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Complaint in Divorce No. A.D. 1980-288 to him, on April 15, 1980 at 1:14 P.M., at the Sheriff's Office, Room 101, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, State of Pennsylvania.
So answers, Catherine Castile, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

June 16, 1980 Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Expenses and order filed: AND NOW, this 16th day of June, 1980, upon consideration of the within matter a rule is hereby issued on the Defendant to show cause, if any he has, why the prayer of the within Petition should not be granted. Returnable for argument and/or hearing on the 2nd day of July, 1980, at 9:30 o'clock A.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker,

June 16, 1980 Copy of order given to Theodore Watts, Esq.

June 17, 1980 Joseph F. Kulwicki, Esq. is appointed Master.
P. Richard Thomas, J.

July 1, 1980, Rule Entered Upon Plaintiff to File Bill of Particulars Issued.

July 7, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, July 2, 1980, at the time set for hearing, through some misunderstanding, counsel for the defendant assumed a hearing would be continued. ACCORDINGLY, this hearing is CONTINUED until July 10, 1980, at 3:00 p.m., at which time the matter of Alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and expenses will be decided.

It appears there is also an old Support Order and it is the contention of the plaintiff that defendant is not complying with said support Order and this matter will be reviewed at that time to ascertain why previously-entered consent Order should not be complied with.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 7, 1980 Copy of order to Atty. Watts and Atty. Kelleher.

July 15, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, July 10, 1980, after partial hearing, it is obvious to the Court that another hearing will have to be held to resolve the complex alimony, counsel fees, visitation and support arrangements in this case. ACCORDINGLY, the next hearing is scheduled for July 25, 1980, at 9:30 a.m.

In the meantime, the defendant Albert J. Ferraro has voluntarily agreed to pay this date the sum of $520.00 to his wife, $400.00 of which will be considered as support for her without prejudice. $120.00 is for the support of the child Julia in the custody of the mother. He will also pay an additional sum of $120.00 support for the child, with said sum to be paid on July 17th and a similar sum on July 24th.

In addition, there is some dispute about a car which Julia Ferraro claims was a gift to her which has mysteriously disappeared and the defendant contends that while the car was registered in her name, that he was responsible for the payments, The defendant has volunteered to furnish his wife with suitable transportation until the next hearing scheduled for July 25th, providing, however, the wife must make arrangements to pick up the car at a place designated by Mr. Ferraro in Erie, Pennsylvania where the car will be delivered for her use. She will be responsible for all gasoline used in the car.

The father desires visitation with his daughter, and accordingly, he is accorded visitation rights as follows: Saturday, July 12, from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00; Wednesday, July 16, from 12:00 O'Clock noon until 8:00 p.m.; Sunday, July 20, from 1:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

The parties mutually agree that the child Julia will be delivered to the home of the mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Caretti, at the time for thes visits where the father will pick her up and she will likewise be returned to the parents' home at the hours designated.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 15, 1980 Copies of order to Theodore Watts, Esq. and Robert J. Kelleher, Esq.

July 28, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, July 25, 1980, at the time set for conclusion of the hearing on this case, the parties and their counsel advise the Court and present to the Court a signed written agreement purporting to resolve the majority of issures between the parties. As the Court understands it, this agreement resolves the issue before the Court, namely, alimony and counsel fees in the present divorce and also provides for certain property divisions. There remains unresolved Julia L. Ferraro's right to possession of a 1957 Thunderbird automobile, which right in the absence of a further agreement between the parties and others claiming an interest therein will have to be resolved by separate lawsuit.

ACCORDINGLY, the petition for alimony and counsel fees is DISMISSED.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

P. Richard Thomas,

June 19, 1980, Copies to Attys. Caplan, and Paul Shafer.

July 24, 1980, Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, July 21, 1980, the matter is before the Court on the appeal from suspension of driver's license of the defendant apparently arising out of an incident in Clearfield County occurring June 6, 1979 according to the defendant, but occurring June 17, 1979 according to the records available. It appears that on this date the defendant was apparently stopped for speeding and operating her motor vehicle during a period of license suspension.

It is the defendant's contention that she was unjustifiably convicted of the suspension offense because only a partial hearing was held in order to accord the District Justice Wesley J. Read the opportunity to gather further information and that without further notice to her, he found her guilty on or about October 24, 1979. The defendant alleges that her notice from Wesley J. Read, dated December 4, 1979 indicates that the finding of guilt was made September 24, 1979 rather than October 24. The defendant further contends she did not receive adequate notice of the conviction in time to accord her the opportunity to take an appeal.

Court and counsel for the Commonwealth in this suspension appeal are of the opinion the key issue in this case is whether or not the defendant was under suspension at the time of her arrest on June 6, or June 17, 1979.

This matter becoming then a matter of correct procedure, counsel for the Commonwealth recommends to this Court and the and the Court accepts the recommendation that the matter be contunued for a period of sixty (60) days to accord the defendant an opportunity to petition the Court of Clearfield County for permission to appeal nunc pro tunc from her conviction of operating during a period of suspension which allegedly occurred sometime in June, 1979.

The Court recommends tb the Court of Clearfield County that under the circumstances as related to this Court an allowance of appeal nunc pro tunc would greatly clarify the appeal from suspension of her operating privileges.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 24, 1980, Copies of Order to Attys. Paul Shafer, and Melvin Caplan,(2).

Nov. 5, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, NOV. 5, 1980, the Court is advised by counsel for the defendant that the status of her operating privilege was resolved by a proceeding in Clearfield County and moves the Court for leave to withdraw the appeal. Motion granted and the appeal from suspension of drivers license is withdrawn.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

PETITION FOR COMMITMENT

DAVID LEROY MOORE

June 2, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, June 2, 1987 , after informal hearing, review of reports, input from family, counsel for the patient, Mental Retardation Specialist, and Psychiatrist, the Court finds that DAVIDLeROY MOORE continues to be mentally retarded, and accordingly, that said DAVID LeROY MOORE be committed tp Polk Center for inpatient care under the Mental Retardation Act of 1966.

The court visualizes a recommitment period of six (6) months, with review after said time. Additionally, the Court notes that Polk Center has agreed to provide training for potential staff supervisors upon the eventual return of the patient to a structured setting in Crawford County, and the Mental Retardation staff advises they will be sending staff to Polk Center to receive WHATEVER TRAINING MIGHT BE NECESSARY TOenable them to appropriately care for and supervise the patien t.

The Court is also advised that there are prospective plans to open a new Waiver Residential Unit on or about January 1, 1988 and that financing for the same has been tentatively assured. Accordingly, the goal would be to stabilize the patient's existence in a structured setting, explore the possibility of upgrading training of the local staff to meet his peculiar needs, and an eventual return to a structured setting in Crawford County in the future.

The patient is released from Mental HeaLTH Facilities at Meadville Medical Center and placed in the care and custody of his family, who have agreed to assume the responsibility of delivering the patient to Polk Center at 10:00 a.m. June 3, 1987.

July 17, 1980, Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, July 16, 1980, after hearing, the Court finds that Plaintiff has failed to sustain the burden of proof contained in allegations 11 through 15, and accordingly, refuses to cancel the visitations as previously set forth in an Order of July 3, 1979.

At the suggestion of the father, however, a cooling off period, in view of the seriousness of the allegations made might be in order. Accordingly, the Court cancels the July visit. Commencing with the month of August, 1980, and regularly thereafter in accordance with the visitation arrangements previously set forth in the Order of July 3, 1979, the father, at his sole option, may exercise renewed visits. In this regard, the father may elect, at his option, to change the August one-week visit to a weekend visit. In addition, the father at his sole option, may opt to have both girls on the same visit or either girl for the said visits.

When the father decides to renew visitations, he shall notify the mother of the children at least one week in advance, and the mother will cooperate fully in carrying out the visitation Order previously entered and as modified by this Order.

The Court notes that it previously found the mother in contempt for encouraging the children not to carry out their visits, has reviewed this finding with her this date, and has received assurance from the mother in the presence of her present husband that she will fully and completely comply with the wishes of the Court and the terms and conditions of the visitation Orders and will do nothing to encourage the children not to carry out the visits or to encourage them to create an undesirable situation which would make it necessary for the father not to want to have them return.

Each party will pay their own costs in this case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 8, 1980, Petition for Contempt and Rule filed. RULE: AND NOW, this 8th day of October, 1980, upon consideration of the within Petition a Rule is hereby entered that the Respondent, Doris Sherred, show cause, if any she has, why she should not be adjudged in contempt of court.

Returnable for hearing on the 7th day of November, 1980 at 9:30 o'clock, A.M., in Court Room No. 1, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

If you fail to appear at this hearing, a Court Order may be entered against you in your absence.

PER CURIAM,

Oct. 14, 1980, Affidavit filed. I, Joan D. Mason, Esq., attorney for Gard Eugene Proper, in the above captioned case, and being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that I did on Oct. 10, 1980, mail to Doris June Sherred, R. D. #1, Venango, Pa., by regular mail a certified copy of the Petition for Contempt filed in the above captioned case, and the court order dated July 16, 1980, in the above captioned case.

Joan D. Mason.

Nov. 10, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, November 7, 1980, after informal hearing, presentation of the parties' positions by counsel and the Court's personal conference with the children in the presence of counsel for both parties, the Court withholds any adjudication of contempt and finds it necessary to establish firm visitation with weekend visits for the father. Accordingly, the father is accorded weekend visits on November 14 through 16, 1980 commencing at 8:00 P.M. on November 14th and terminating at 7:00 P.M. on November 16th. An appropriate weekend visit is likewise accorded for the weekend of December 19 through 21, 1980 and on the third weekend of each month thereafter.

The Court cautions the mother and the children that it expects full and faithful compliance with this Order. It shall be the father's responsibility to go to the home of the children and pick them up and return them on said visits.

If there is a wilful and deliberate refusal to comply with this Court Order, counsel for the father may petition the Court for hearing on the original comtempt citation adding any additional grounds deemed necessary.

DECREE OF ANOTHER COURT

ORDER:
AND NOW, this 20th day of June, 1980, upon consideration of the within Petition and after review of the certified Court Order from Chester County, the Prothonotary is hereby directed to file the within Order, and it shall be enforced in all respects here in Crawford County pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Commonwealth Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

Robert L. Walker,

June 23, 1980, Copy of Order to Otto Hofmann, Esq.

CERTIFIED ORDER FROM CHESTER COUNTY, PA:

And Now, this 30th day of October, 1979, after hearing, it is ORDERED and DECREED as follows:

(a) Carol Reed is granted custody of her daughter, Jessica Reed, subject to liberal visitation and temporary custody rights of R. Kennath Reed, Jr.;

(b) If the parties cannot mutually agree upon the visitation rights of R. Kenneth Reed, Jr., then either party may request a conference so that the Court may establish a schedule of the visitation and temporary custody rights for R. Kenneth Reed, Jr.;

(c) When the child is in the temporary custody of her father and is visiting with her father, R. Kenneth Reed, Jr. shall provide the appropriate medical care and attention if the occasion arises. If the child becomes sick or injured, R. (d) Carol Reed shall take the necessary steps to assure that the child socializes with children of her age.

BY THE COURT,
Robert S. Gawthrop, III

(also copy of previous order after argument of May 27, 1980 attached)

Oct. 29, 1980, Petition to Establish Jurisdiction Under the Commonwealth Child Custody Jurisdiction Act and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 29th day of October, 1980, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a Rule is entered upon the Defendant to show cause if he has any why the prayer of this Petition should not be granted. A hearing is scheduled to determine the matters raised in this Petition for the 7th day of November, 1980 at 9:30 o'clock in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Oct. 30, 1980, Copies of Order to Otto Hofmann, Esq.

Nov. 10, 1980, Order filed. AND NOW, November 7, 1980, at the time the petition to establish jurisdiction under the Commonwealth Child Custody Act is scheduled, the Court reviews tha prior orders entered in Chester County in this case and notes after taking of testimony that mother and child have been continuous residents of Crawford County since November 1, 1979 and that the mother's present and future employment will be located in this area. The Court also notes that in accordance with the aforesaid Act, a copy of the Chester County Custody Decree was recorded in Crawford County on or about July 20, 1980.

While the Court declines the thrust of the petition presented, whereby seemingly this Court would preclude the Court in Chester County from hearing the matter scheduled presently for November 25, 1980, this Court notes that it appears the purpose of the Commonwealth Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (S.S.P.S. 2401 A. 2d) would vest jurisdiction in Crawford County under the purposes and construction of said Act (Section 2402).

Accordingly, the Court directs the transcription of this testimony at County expense and directs counsel for the Plaintiff to forward a certified copy of the Order entered this day plus a transcript to the appropriate judge or prothonotary in Chester County for their use in making an ultimate decision on the petition for reconsideration now pending before that Court.

ON OCTOBER 1981 TRIAL LIST; NO. 16

Oct. 7, 1981 Pretrial Conference Order filed: This matter involves ahe boundry line dispute with one party contending the boundary line is on the west edge of a 75 foot wide tree lot and the opposite party contending it is on the east side of said lot. No value is established on the two acres parcel here at issue and the sole issue is the personal believ of each party that they own the 75 foot disputed strip.

The plaintiff has employed a professional surveyor and by the time of trial will produce a survey substantiating their position. The defendant relies partially on deed description for ownership of the land but primarily on adverse possession. The parties, acting through their counsel, advise the Court there is no hope for settlement of this matter as it has become a personal dispute between the parties and any attempt to compromise by dividing the disputed acreage in hald has been explored and rejected.
There is no alternative but a trial in this matter and the Court estimates a day and one-half to two days to try this issue.

Counsel for the plaintiff has bffered to schedule a conference with this survey expert and allow questions by defense counsel to the surveyor which would justify his opinion that the land in question by surveyed metes and bounds belongs to the plaintiff.

The case will undoubtedly start as casse ahead settle on or about October 14 or 15.

Date:October 6, 1981.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Oct. 16, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 15, 1981, at the conclusion of the Defendant's case, Plaintiff moves for a directed verdict insofar as claim of title by adverse possession is concerned. The Court rules that the Defendant has failed to prove all the requisites of adverse possession and accordingly, the Plaintiff's motion is sustained, and the issue of adverse possession is removed from jury consideration, and the case will go to the jury strictly on the issue of which side has record title to the disputed area herein question.

Dec. 11, 1980, Inventory of Property Submitted by James X Pegan filed.

Dec. 16, 1980, Order filed. AND NOW, December 10, 1980, after hearing, the Court finds that the terms and conditions of an Article of Agreement entered June 3, 1967 between Merrill E. Sheehan and Alice E. Sheehan, his wife, and James Pegan have been violated by virtue of the fact that a deed was prepared, which vested title in James Pegan and Constance Pegan, his wife, and while said deed in dated September 6, 1977, it was not recorded until January 9, 1980 (Deed Book 528, page 420), the Court rejects the contention of Constance E. Pegan that title was vested in her in the joint ownership of this property by virtue of a knowing and intelligent and intentional gift on the part of her husband. Accordingly, Constance E. Pegan is hereby DIRECTED within ten (10) days of this date to prepare a deed for said property to her husband, James Pegan, which would vest title in his name alone and deliver the same to his counsel.

This Order is made without prejudice to the right of Constance E. Pegan to continue her claim that said real estate is marital property and that she has an undetermined equitable interest therein under the Divorce Act of Pennsylvania.

July 12, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, July 9, 1982, at the time set for argument on the class action, counsel for the Plaintiff moves the Court for leave to amend the Complaint to include in said Complaint a count in Assumpsit keyed to a third party beneficiary theory; said motion is GRANTED and an appropriate second amended Complaint will be filed on or before August 9, 1982, unless counsel for the parties can stipulate that said theory may be pursued at the time of trial without specific amendment to the Complaint.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 12, 1982 Copies of order to all counsel of record.

July 13, 1982 ORDER FILED: AND NOW, July 9, 1982, after lengthy informal discussion between counsel, the advantages and disadvantages of a class action suit or in the alternative limiting the issues by stipulation is explored. The Court rules that it will not certify the matter as a class action suit, because it is stipulated by counsel for all parties that at the time of trial, items of damage claimed, whether under an action of trespass or assumpsit(yet to be pled in an amended Complaint) will be limited to:

1. Damages to all roadways except that portion of Lake Drive, which is a public road and which is not at issue in this litigation, and the expenses necessary to restore the roadways to a useable consition in the same manner as they existed before the sewer system was installed.

2. Reditching at the side of the road where the sewer system was installed so as to restore an adequate drainage system for the roads and adjoining yards to accommodate road and yard surface drainage into the ditches in the same manner as it existed immediately before sewer construction. Said ditching areas are generally reflected by the red lines on a map submitted to the Court this day dated June 20, 1982 and purporting to be a map of the Hickory Grove Allotment Beach Club, which map is now in possession of counsel for the Plaintiffs.

3. The costs of relocation and installing two (2) roadside survey stakes for each lot, which were damaged or removed during sewer construction and replacement of any key basic survey monuments removed or destroyed in said construction process.

Upon acceptance of this stipulation, the named parties Plaintiff in this action will not claim in this or in any future action any further damages for realty or personal damage, loss or inconvenience of any nature.

Counsel for all parties will have until July 21, 1982 at 5:00 o'clock P.M. to advise the Court that their client will not consent to said stipulation, and in such event, this stipulation as to all parties will become null and void, and the Plaintiff may move for further hearing, argument or disposition on his class action petition.

A hearing on this matter shall be held immediately prior to the commencement of trial on this 30th day of Nov. 1982, and in the event that the Court shall not grant the defendants' Motion, the parties shall be prepared to immediately commence trial.

P. Richard Thomas, J.

Nov. 30, 1982, Copies of order to Attys. Bruce Barrett and William Jorden.

Dec. 10, 1982 Order filed. And Now, November 30, 1982, at the time set for hearing counsel for the defendant presents a motion for summary judgment regarding the action and by stipulation of counsel said summary judgment is granted as to all allegations of the complaint except that relating to a collection line shown on defendant's exhibit A, dated October 4, 1980, said map showing a collection line 2-7/8 inches in diameter extending in an east and west direction on the easterly 560.5 feet of the plaintiff's property.

Sustaining of the motion for summary judgment regarding all other claims except the alleged intrusion of this collection line upon the Miller property is without prejudice to the right of the plaintiffs to continue to pursue damage claims for other alleged damages in a separate suit between the parties at No. 129 September Term, 1979.

By stipulation of the parties the remaining issue for the Court to resolve in this ejectment action is to whether the intrusion of the defendant's collection line upon the property of the plaintiffs is permissible under the terms of the lease attached to the pleadings as an exhibit for the plaintiffs' property and subject to an order of ejectment.

By stipulation of counsel, testimony will be taken in this narrow area to further enlighten the Court as to the factual situation necessary for the Court to reach a decision in this case.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

No. AD 1980 - 414

Jan. 12, 1981 Final Order and Decree filed.
Order: And Now, January 8, 1981, the Court hereby grants a divorce divorcing William R. Uplinger from Sandra J. Uplinger on the grounds of Desertion.
All Collateral matters raised by either party are reserved for decision and either party may move the Court to appoint the original Master, an new Master or for the Court to hold a hearing and decide the unresolved collateral issues between the parties.
By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 12, 1981, Copies of Order to Attys, R. Charles Thomas, Joan Mason and William Peters.

DECREE

And now, to wit: January 8, A. D. 1981, this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said William R. And the said plaintiff and defendant shall severally be at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married.

PER CURIAM.

Aug. 3, 1981, Inventory of Sandra J. Uplinger filed.

Aug. 4, 1981, Petition For Resolution of Remaining issues filed.

Aug. 4, 1981, ORDER filed. A divorce was previously granted in this action reserving, however, the custody and property settlement issues. The matter of custody has been resolved and there remains for final resolution only the property settlement. Apparently, this matter is not too complex as the property consists of jointly owned real estate which the plaintiff is currently occupying. Negotiations to reach an amicable settlement of the property issue have failed and the defendant now petitions the Court requesting that the Court bypass the Master system and resolve the matter promptly as the defendant wishes to leave the state to take employment in the State of Nevada.
The motion to bypass the Master system is refused and the Court re-appoints William Peters, the original Master in this case, to resolve the sole issue of property settlement between the parties. In this regard, each party will post within ten (10) days of the date of this Order, $100.00 toward the Master's fees and the Court reserves unto the Master, the right to allocate final Master's fees against the parties as he deems appropriate and the additional right to petition for additional Master's fees as the need arises.
The Master shall schedule an initial exploratory hearing within fifteen (15) days of the date of this Order. After the initial exploratory hearing, the Master is authorized to engage the services of a reliable appraiser as the Master's expert and to allocate the fees of said appraiser between the parties at the Master's discretion. Either party, of course, may engage the services of their own real estate expert in establishing a fair and reasonable value for the property.
Dated August 3, 1981.

Dec. 18, 1981, Upon praecipe of defendant attorney, all three Counts of Defendant's Counter-Claim, discontinued in the above action.

Dec. 18, 1981, Order filed. The matter is before the Court on praecipe to grant a divorce on the Amended Complaint alleging an irretrievably broken marriage under Section 201(c) of the Divorce Code. On August 25, 1980, the defendant filed an answer and counterclaim to the original Complaint raising the usual ancillary claims for alimony, temporary and permanent, counsel fees and equitable division of property. While it might be assumed that when the defendant filed the Affidavit of Consent on Dec. 3, 1981, that she was abandoning her previous claims for ancillary relief the Affidavit does not indicate. The language in the Affidavit of Consent is mandated by Divorce Rule 1920. 72(b). However, it should be noted that the language in Paragraph 4 of said Affidavit notes that "if a claim for alimony, etc.... has not been filed..before the entry of a final decree in divorce, the right to claim any of them will be lost."

In this case, such a claim has been filed and we cannot construe the language in the Affidavit, as worded, as a waiver of any right to continue further pursuit of those ancillary claims.

Accordingly, this divorce is returned to the Prothonotary until such time as the defendant files a discontinuance of her claim for ancillary relief or until both parties certify that the ancillary matters raised in the defendant's answer and counterclaim filed Aug. 25, 1980, have been amicably resolved between the parties.

So ordered
Dated December 18, 1981.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 21, 1981, Copies of Order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick and David Grieshober.

Dec. 21, 1981, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, For Review Under 201(c) of the Divorce Code, of plaintiff attorney, this case moved to court.

Dec. 22, 1981 Final Order and Decree Filed. And Now, December 22, 1981, after due consideration, a divorce is decreed as prayed for and the Prothonotary is directed to enter the appropriate decree. The defendant is ordered to pay the costs.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

DECREE

And now, to-wit: December 22, A. D. 19 81 this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said James X. Pegan, be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between, the said James X. Pegan, the plaintiff, and the said Constance E. Pegan, the defendant, and that thereupon all and every the duties, rights and claims existing between the said plaintiff or the said defendant, at any time heretofore in pursuance of said marriage, shall cease and determine;

And the said plaintiff and defendant shall severally be at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married.

May 30, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 29, 1980, at the time of Status Conference, counsel for Stanford appears -- R. Charles Thomas, Shifflet, --David Hotchkiss, Standard Trialer and Bowersox -- James McDonald did not appear, Home Insurance Company -- Mark Mioduszewski, Robinson-Conner -- Andrew Conner did not appear.

The Court notes that possibly through oversight all counsel were not advised of the scheduling of this Status Conference.

It appears this is an action for damage done to a mobile home of the Plaintiff which was hauled by Defendant Shifflet. All pleadings appear to be final except Home Insurance reserves the right to file additional pleadings pending the outcome of a Court ruling on their Preliminary Objections.

The Court directs the Prothonotary to place this case on the June 30, 1980, Argument list for the purpose of arguing Home Insurance Preliminary Objections. Counsel for Defendant Shifflet also advised the Court that they are preparing Interrogatories to be served upon the Plaintiff and said Interrogatories shall be served within ten (10) days of this date.

All parties are in agreement that once Preliminary Objections are resolved and Pleadings finalized, that this an Arbitration case and it will be referred to arbitrators.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR JUNE 30, 1980; No. 13

July 8, 1980 Sur Additional Defendant Home Insurance Company's Preliminary Objections and order filed: AND NOW, July 3, 1980, while recognizing that the scope of permissible joinder under Rule of Civil Procedure 2252(a), as amended, has not yet been galvinized by appellate review, this Court cannot conceive that the aforesaid rule now permits an allegedly negligent defendant in a simple vehicle negligence action to join his insurance carrier. Accordingly, the Additional Defendant Home Insurance Company's Motion to Strike off the Complaint of the Defendant William Shifflet is granted.

As to the Additional Defendant Home Insurance Company's claim that it is not contractually liable for the losses sustained by the Defendant William Shifflet, this Court finds that claim to be premature and must be resolved by the parties involved in a more appropriate proceeding. Accordingly, the Additional Defendant Home Insurance Company's Demurrer relating to the substance of its insurance coverage is denied.

Dec. 31, 1981, Deposition of: Norman L. Houk, E. William Mantzell, James Mallory, James Mallory, Jr., Edward W. Hosick, Harry James Hosick, and Catherine Hosick filed.

Jan 5, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, December 22, 1981, the matter is before the Court on a motion for sanctions because of the alleged refusal of defendant Ford Motor Company to answer certain interrogatories directed to said defendant by the plaintiffs by interrogatories filed June 25, 1981. At the time set for argument, counsel for the parties point with particularity to certain, numberdd interrogatories requiring court ruling and the Court rules as follows:

1(b): The Court believes the sales and service agreement between Weber-Harris Ford and Ford Motor Company may have some relevance as it relates to Weber-Harris's repair or replacement of a power steering unit, and accordingly, and is the man who defendant will produce when requested and scheduled by the plaintiff for deposition.

Defendant Ford is directed to supply counsel for the plaintiff with a copy of said agreement. All other requests of materials outlined in 1(b) are denied in view of this ruling.

6: The attorneys have amicably resolved the issues raised in Question 6 in that Ford Motor Company has identified the Engineer whom they will produce, said Engineer being Fred Vollmerhausen, as being the Engineer knowledgable about this power steering unit

6IV: It appears the theory of the plaintiff is that an original C-II power steering pump failed on the car approximately two months after purchase and that Weber-Harris Ford installed a replacement pump. The plaintiff theorizes and alleges that this pump that failed could have deposited metal fillings or debris into the oil system which ultimately caused the alleged malfunction of the power steering system. ACCORDINGLY, they seek to know if Ford Motor Company has run durability acceptance tests on the kind of power steering pump used on this vehicle in order to determine an approximate life expectancy under use of such part. The court rules this may be material evidentiary matter and if Ford Motor Company has the results of durability acceptance tests on a C-II power steering pump of the kind used on this car, the results of said test will be furnished.

10 (e): It appears the plaintiff is desirous of knowing whether a list of changes specified by Ford Motor Company to the C-II power steering pump were made as a result of the durability acceptance tests or evoluntionary changes and counsel for Ford notes that at the end of the list is a notation that Ford Motor Company is unable to ascertain whether any changes made in the C-II power steering pump were the result of testing, the result of engineering skill or normal evolutionary changes. ACCORDINGLY, Ford shall not be required to answer this interrogatory any further.

15(b): Plaintiff seeks to know by this interrogatory whether any of the changes elicited in response to Question 10 resulted because Ford discovered defects in the design or functioning of the C-II power steering pump. We believe the request is reasonable, and in answer to this question 15(b), Ford Motor Company will designate which of the changes on the list furnished in response to Question 10, if any, resulted from a design change mandated because of a design defect of the model C-II which was discovered after the time it was installed in the model here in question.

16(b) and (c): The Court believes this request immaterial and unduly burdensome and Ford Motor Company need not answer.

19(a) and (b): The Court rules that Ford Motor Company must inform the plaintiff as to all lawsuits in which they werenamed as a party defendant wherein it was contended that the model C-II power steering pump and/or the power assist rack andpinion steering system malfunctioned because foreign object, particularly metal particles or grindings caused a failure of said power steering system. The Court believes the requirement that Ford answer as to all such lawsuits in which one of its franchised dealers was named a party is unduly burdensom and they are not required to answer this portion of the question.

26: The parties advise the Court that there was previously a dispute regarding the answer to this interrogatory, but it has been amicably resolved, and accordingly, no Court ruling is necessary.

27: In view of the length of time before trial of this case, we will not require Ford Motor Company to ascertain with precisemess at this time the exact witnesses they will call. However, they will furnish to the plaintiffs' counsel a list of all lay witnesses they know that have knowledge regarding the material aspects of this case and within ten(10) days of trial will notify the plaintiff exactly which of said witnesses they intend to produce at trial.

28: It appears that counsel for the parties have an extensive list of diagrams and pictures, but in order to make the trial flow more smoothly, we require counsel for Ford to advise the plaintiffs' counsel ten (10) days before trial which of the diagrams, plans, models, charts or specifications will actually be used as exhibits in their defense in the courtroom at time of trial.

29: Counsel for the parties advise the Court that objection to Question 29 has been resolved and certain material will be furnished to counsel for the plaintiffs and if he feels it lacks in specificity, he will be in touch with counsel for Ford Motor Company and if the matter cannot be amicably resolved, we will entertain a further motion for ruling in this question.

30 and 33: Counsel for the parties advise the Court that any objections to Questions 30 and 33 have been amicably resolved.

41: The objection to interrogatory 41 is sustained and the Ford Motor Company need not answer.

43 (b): The Court believes production of the sales and service agreement as required in interrogatory number one will sufficiently answer this question and if the answers are not contained therein, the objection of Ford Motor Company to this interrogatory is sustained and need not be answered.

47: Objection to Question 47 is sustained and Ford Motor Company need not answer.

48: We will sustain the objection to this interrogatory as being irrelevant and need not be answered.

E. William Mantzell Adm. etc.

vs.

Harry Hosick, Etc.

49: Objection to the interrogatory is sustained and need not be answered.

50: Objection is overruled and Ford Motor Company shall furnish the plaintiffs' attorney names of the service representative between Ford Motor Company and Weber-Harris Ford for the calendar years 1978 and 1979.

51: The Court believes the answer is adequate and Ford Motor Company need make no further response to this interrogatory.

53: Any objection to Ford Motor Company response is withdrawn by the plaintiff so no further answer is necessary.

62: It appears that in filing the answer to the complaint, Ford Motor Company pleadings indicated there was no magnet, screen or similar device for the purpose of filtering metal particles from the power steering system, whereas, the answer to Question 62 of the interrogatories with the answer "yes" indicated there was such a device. If the Ford Motor Company counsel ascertains that the answer to the complaint is correct, an appropriate corrective answer will be made to this interrogatory. If the no answer in the answer to the complaint is incorrect, he will amend Ford Motor Company's answer to the Complaint.

63 and 64: Counsel for Ford Motor Company agrees that if his answer to Question 62 has to be changed from "yes" to "no" indicating there was such device on the C-II power steering mechanism, then he agrees that he will make appropriate response to Questions 63 and 64.
