Oct. 23, 1970, Order filed. The defendants operating privileges were suspended effective June 23, 1970 for failing to pass a specially set operator's examination held May 6, 1970. An appeal was filed July 22, 1970, at which time we refused to make the appeal a supersedeas. A motion is now made to quash the appeal as not being timely filed. We believe extenuating circumstances require us to dismiss this motion to quash and accordingly, do so in this order. In spite of the fact that our order of July 22, 1970 directed that the defendants license remain in the custody of the Bureau of Traffic Safety and specifically set forth that the appeal did not act as a supersedeas, the Bureau apparently ignored the special provisions of this appeal order and returned the defendants operator's license on August 5, 1970. Accordingly, this 22nd day of October, 1970, this case is continued generally and the Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, is hereby directed to schedule George R. Gilliland, Operators Card No. 94-575-416 of 736 Washington St. Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, for re-examination within thirty (30)

On Practipe, Trial List, 1972, No. 9.
On Argt. List for Jan. 7, 1972 No. 2.

Jan. 13, 1972 Order Filed And Now, this thirteenth day of January, 1972, the preliminary objection raising questions of jurisdiction and venue filed on behalf of the defendant, Merlin Hawley, Executor of the Estate of Alvin S. Hawley, Deceased, is dismissed for the following reasons: (1) Since one of the defendants, Donald Farquharson, could be and was served in Crawford County, venue was properly in Crawford County under Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1006(c) made applicable to trespass actions by Rule 1041 (2) Jurisdiction was properly acquired under Rule 1009(c) made applicable to trespass actions by Rule 1041 and Rule 1043. It is noted, and defendants' counsel argued, that Rule 1043 omits the specific reference to an action "brought against two or more defendants under Rule 1006(c)" which is contained in Rule 1009(c). However, Rule 1043 does authorize deputized service where an action is commenced "in any County authorized by law." Rule of Construction 76 of the Rules of Civil Procedure contains the following definition of the words "as provided by law." "as provided by law" a reference to the Act of Assembly and rules in force at the particular time when the rule containing the phrase is applied." The words "authorized by law" in Rule 1043 in our opinion should be given the same meaning. Since Rules of Civil Procedure 1006(c), 1041 and 1042 were in force and permitted the action to be brought in Crawford County, Rule 1043 would clearly authorize deputized service.

(Cont on Margin)

In accordance with the foregoing, Counsel for the defendant, Merlin Hawley, Executor of the Estate of Alvin S. Hawley, deceased, is directed to file within twenty (20) days from the date hereof such answer as he deems necessary or required by law.

By Order of the Court,
J. Joseph Thomas, Judge

March 22, 1972 Petition for Change of Venue + Order Filed. And Now March 22, 1972, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and upon Motion of Vincent J. Pepicelli Attorney for the Defendant Merlin Hawley, Executor of the Estate of Alvin S. Hawley, deceased, a Rule is hereby granted upon the Plaintiff to show cause why this action should not be transferred to the Court of Common Pleas of Erie County, Pennsylvania, pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 1006 (d). F. Joseph Thomas, J.

March 27, 1972 Memorandum + Order Re Petition for Change of Venue filed. Order: The petition filed in this case and the facts stipulated by counsel enable the Court to make disposition without hearing.

After careful consideration we have concluded that the "weighty reasons" which would justify depriving the plaintiff of its choice of forum (Gulf Oil Corporation v. Gilbert, 330 U.S. 501, 67 S.Ct. 839; Walker v. Ohio River Company, 416 Pa. 149, 205 A.2d 43; Pavel v. Golob, 51 D+C 2d 115) are not present in this case. The distance between Crawford and Erie Counties is not so great as to make it inconvenient for parties and witnesses to appear in either jurisdiction.

Consolidation of actions to avoid a multiplicity of suits may be desirable but that determination has not been made by the Court of either forum and will depend upon considerations which are not yet a matter of record.

Accordingly, we enter the following Order. And Now, this twenty-seventh day of March, 1972, the rule granted March 22, 1972 to show cause why this action should not be transferred to Erie County, Pennsylvania, is discharged and the change of venue refused.

March 28, 1972 Order filed on Motion for Continuance. And now, March 27, 1972, the motion for a continuance of the above-entitled case to the October, 1972 Sessions of Court is granted. No further continuance of this case will be granted on the ground that the consolidation of actions has not been completed or that one of the cases pending in Erie County is not yet ready for trial.

Of
No. 234 September Term, 1970

Dec. 16, 1970 Order Filed. And Now December 14, 1970, after further hearing, the Court finds as a fact that at this time there is insufficient stability in the mother's marriage to warrant a change of custody by permitting the child to move to the State of Colorado with the mother. The Court notes as a matter of record, that the father is not contending that the mother does not have the ability or love to give proper care and attention to the child, but that this action in securing custody of the child was motivated because of the unstable marital situation and the frequent moving of the child in the past. Accordingly, the custody of the minor child, Donald A. Meola, is continued in the custody of his father, Michael J. Meola, subject, however, to the following: 1. That reasonable visitation rights be accorded the mother of said child at her convenience. 2. During the visitations with said child, the mother shall not remove the child from the State of Pennsylvania without further consent of this Court. 3. This present order is made without prejudice to the right of the mother to request a further hearing on this matter to convince the Court that her present marriage, living arrangements and physical and financial situation would lend itself to a proper upbringing of the child. The Court, however, will not entertain such a rehearing request, in absence of a dramatic change of circumstances, prior to July 15, 1971.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Nov. 12, 1971 Motion for Rehearing filed. And Now November 12, 1971 upon presentation and consideration of the within motion it is ordered and decreed that a hearing is set for the 7th day of Dec. 1971 at 10:30 o'clock A.M., in the Crawford County Courthouse, in Court Room No. 1. A copy of this Motion and Order to be served on Paul D. Shafer, attorney for the respondent.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 8, 1971 Order filed. And Now, December 7, 1971, by agreement of the parties, further hearing in this matter is not necessary, and the parties agree to the following changes in the Order heretofore entered December 14, 1970.
1. The child, Donald, shall continue in the custody of the father, Michael J. Meola, for the balance of the 1971-72 school year, which will terminate sometime in June but what exact termination is unknown at this time because of a school strike. Within fifteen (15) days after the termination of the school year, the parties, acting through their counsel, will make satisfactory arrangements for the transfer of custody to the mother. In the event the parties are unable to agree in this regard, the Court will entertain a motion of either party for further hearing. The transfer to the mother will be conditioned on a stable residence and a residence within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

2. Between now and the transfer of custody to the mother, Ruth P. Meyers, the parties agree to extend additional vacation rights to the mother. The parties, having mutually agreed to visits of the child in the home of the mother every other weekend commencing with the weekend of December 11, 1970, it is hereby agreed that the child will be picked up by the mother at the residence of the father on Friday at 6:00 P.M. and returned Sunday at 8:00 P.M.

In regard to the Christmas weekend, the child shall remain in the home of the father until 9:00 P.M. December 25, and then shall spend a vacation period with the mother until 9:00 P.M. December 29.

During the visits with the mother, the child shall not be removed from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it being the express intent of the Court and the parties that in the event the residence of the mother changes temporarily or permanently, the child will not be taken with her to any new residence. In the event the child is accorded a Spring vacation period, the vacation will be divided approximately equally between the parties by mutual agreement.

December 10, 1970 Order filed. Order: And now, December 1, 1970, at the time scheduled for a hearing on this matter regarding the custody of the four minor children, the parties, by mutual agreement, have consented that the Court enter the following order:

1. The minor boys, Walter and Scott, shall remain in the custody of their father, Walter G. Abbott.

2. By agreement of the parties, the two girls, Sheila and Tammy, will be placed in the foster care and custody of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Abbott, R.D. #3, Saegertown.

3. Carol Abbott, mother of said children, shall have the right to visit the two daughters in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Abbott every Sunday between the hours of 1:00 P.M. and 5:00 P.M., and at the time of said visit, the father, Walter Abbott, shall make arrangements for the two boys to visit their mother in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Abbott at the same time.

In the event that Carol Abbott is unable to keep the arrangement for her Sunday visits, she shall give the Lester Abbotts at least twenty four (24) hours notice, and on any day that she does not arrive at the premises on or before 2:30 P.M., Lester Abbotts may consider that the visit has been cancelled and make other appropriate plans.

4. On any occasion when the mother visits the children, she shall not have consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of at least eight (8) hours prior to the time she visits said children.

5. Neither parent will do anything to influence the children against the other parent, and do everything possible to nurture in the children a proper respect for their parents.

6. It is the agreement of the parties that this agreement and custodial arrangement of placing the children in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Abbott is not to be construed as a subterfuge or indirect way to place the children in the custody of their father, Walter G. Abbott. Said children who are permitted to visit their father shall not take up living in the home of the father or stay overnight in the home of the father without the express consent of their mother, Carol Abbott.
