October 2, 1967 Order filed. P. Joseph Thomas J. And Now, September 28, 1967, after hearing in the above-entitled matter, the custody of Rodney Allen Henry shall remain in the maternal grandparents, Fred F. Parrell and Elizabeth C. If no such petition is filed, custody shall then remain in the parents, provided, however, upon application to the court the grandparents will be granted the right to see the child at reasonable times and occasions if deputies do not voluntarily agree to such times and occasions.

Nov 24 1967 Order filed. P. Richard Thomas P.J. And Now, October 20, 1967, after hearing, and upon the sworn testimony of Ruby Mc Ferren, that should the Court place the child in the custody of his parents that she will return and give assistance and supervision to the rearing, support and care of this child, the Court this day enters a temporary order awarding custody of the minor child, Lee V. Mc Ferren aged [illegible] months to Virgil Mc Ferren and Gennella A. Mc Ferren. It shall be a condition of this order that said minor child shall not be removed from the jurisdiction of this court except for recreation or temporary visits without permission of the Court.

Further, upon the petition of any party to this proceeding or Ruby Mc Ferren, the Court will review this temporary order within six months from this date, to see if the intent of the Order, that the mother assume the major role in caring for the child is carried out. The Court urges the natural mother and parents and Booker I. Edwards to make mutual satisfactory arrangements so that the child may have periodic visits with the committed putative father. In the absence of any agreement to the contrary Booker I. Edwards shall be entitled to have the child in his care and custody every second week-end from 6 P.M. on Friday until seven P.M. on Sunday and in addition, on the fourth Saturday of each and every month, he is entitled to have the child in his care and custody from ten A.M. until seven P.M. By agreement of the parties, the minor child, Randy Oswald is hereby committed to the custody of his father, Lonnie B. Oswald, subject to the following terms and conditions:

Oct. 3, 1973 Exhibits filed.

October 15, 1973 Order Filed. And Now, October 3, 1973, after hearing, the Court refuses to adjudicate the mother, Karen Henry, an unfit mother but believes it is for the best interest of the child to be returned to the care and custody of the grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Fred P. Parsell, Accordingly, the child is remanded to their custody, subject, however, to liberal visitations rights to be accorded to the mother.

The parties, through their counsel, have assured the Court that they will work out mutually satisfactory visitation arrangements. But in the event the parties are unable to agree, it is the order of this Court that the mother shall have the right to have the child on the first and fourth Saturdays of every month from 9 a.m. until 9 P.M. and on the third weekend of every month from 7 P.M., Friday until 7 P.M., Sunday. The mother of the child shall have the right to visit the child at the home of her parents at any time that is convenient for them.

On the weekend stays at the home of the mother, it shall be a specific condition that the male friend of the mother, one Wayne Unsapher, or any other male companion, will not be in the household after 10:00 P.M. in the evening.

The Court notes at this time that it is the ultimate goal of this Court and the ultimate goal voiced by the grandparents to eventually return this child to the custody of the mother, but the Court is of the opinion that at this time the situation is not right for return to the mother's custody. Accordingly, we will entertain a further petition any time after January 1, 1974 for return of custody

June 12, 1968, Order Filed. By separate Order, the Court has granted a Decree of Divorce in the above entitled case. However, in view of the nature of the testemony relating to the defendant's conduct, we feel impelled to direct the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County to make a complete investigation of the home and physical and mental condition of the defendant to determine whether or not the health and welfare of the Children are jeopardized in any manner. We also feel compelled to point out to the plaintiff that, assuming the testimony relating to the defendant's conduct towards their Children is true, (as we must assume) under the circumstances of this case he should have by this time taken positive action with reference to removing the Children from the custody of the defendant. The Prothonotary shall furnish a copy of this Order to the attorney for the plaintiff, and also to the Director of the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County.
