July 11, 1975 Appearance of Stuart A. Culbertson, Esq. for John J. Kennedy Jr., attorneys for plaintiff filed.

Aug 6, 1975, Order Filed. Whereas, we find that the Commonwealth established by the fair weight and preponderance of the evidence that the appellant had performed a faulty inspection in violation of Section 819(f) of the Vehicle Code; and Whereas the appellant was, therefore, subject to the suspension of his Certificate of Appointment under Section 819(b) of said Code: Now therefore, this Fifth day of August, 1975, the appeal is dismissed and the action of the Secretary is sustained. However, the Court feels that the six (6) months suspension is highly excessive and recommends and strongly urges that this period of suspension be reduced to not more than three (3) months.

Petition for Commitment
Order: And Now, June 6, 1975, after hearing and taking testimony of Eunice Babwinsky and Toni Lee Drachslin, and the Court being advised that the patient could not attend the hearing as he had again resorted to drinking and is currently committed to the security room at the Spencer Hospital, the said John A. Caskey is hereby committed for a period of examination not to exceed ten days, with confinement either to be in Spencer Hospital or City Hospital, after which time further hearing will be scheduled.

The Court is of the opinion that a plan for rehabilitation of the patient must be worked out between the staff at the Mental Health Center and the staff at the Alcoholic Counseling Center and, when said plan is available, the Court will schedule further hearing at which time the patient will have the right to be present.

John A. Caskey is not to be released from hospitalization without further order of court.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

And Now, June 13, 1975, after further hearing and the Court being advised that the ten day examination period will end June 15, 1975, it appears that it would not be for the best interest of the above patient to be released from in patient care at Spencer Hospital without further hearing. Due to Congested court schedules, further hearing could not be scheduled until June 18, 1975, at 4:00 P.M.

Accordingly, Spencer Hospital is directed to detain the said John A. Caskey, under supervision of the counseling center, until further order of this Court and the counseling center is directed to produce the patient before this Court for hearing on the aforesaid date.

Order: And now, this 23rd day of June, A.D., 1975 upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Writ of Habeas Corpus is hereby issued directing that the said Carolyn E. Smith bring forth Mark Raymond Smith before this Court on the 14th day of July, A.D., 1975 at 1:30 P.M. and to show cause, if any she has, why custody of Mark Raymond Smith should not be granted to Thomas P. And further, pending said hearing, Thomas P. Smith shall be entitled to visit said child and take him into custody on alternating weekends commencing on Friday, June 27, 1975, said weekend visitations to begin Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, P.M. and end on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock P.M. unless the mother objects thereto an requests an immediate hearing on the matter.

June 26, 1975 Writ Returned. Service & copy of writ accepted 6/26/75 by Ballard F. Smith, Jr., attorney for defendant.

July 24, 1975 Order filed. And now, July 14, 1975, after presentation of evidence by the Petitioner and partial hearing on behalf of the Defendant, it appears that the mother of the child has quit her present employment and hopes to secure employment in the Philadelphia area and perhaps attend additional beauty school education. It also appears that she has prospects of marriage with her current gentleman friend who is in the process of securing a divorce, and in the event she has this offer, her future plans are somewhat indefinite.

In order to accord the mother the opportunity to explore employment in the Philadelphia area and if possible to make any decisions regarding her future life with her current gentleman friend, the Court believes a continuance is necessary in this case and the Court will award temporary custody of the child for a period of thirty (30) days to the father commencing on July 16, 1975. In the event the mother does not go to Philadelphia or returns from Philadelphia on weekends, the mother shall have the right to have the child in her custody from 12:00 o'clock noon, Saturday until 8:00 p.m., Sunday on each weekend commencing with the weekend of July 26, 1975.

Once the mother's plans regarding her employment in the Philadelphia area are crystalized, the Court will entertain a motion for completion of the hearing on this matter.

The Court notes at this time that this award of temporary custody to the father is no indication of the final decision the Court will make regarding permanent custody of the child.

March 12, 1976 Testimony and Report of Master filed.
April 13, 1976 upon praecipe of plaintiff's attorney this case is submitted to the Court.
May 6, 1976 Memorandum and Order filed. The case on the present evidence is a classic case of desertion rather than of indignities. Of course the alleged association of the defendant with another man and leaving with him, properly proven, would constitute an indignity warranting the granting of a divorce. However, the present record on that point shows only uncorroborated admission of the defendant (Record, Page 9) and plaintiff's statement (Record, Page 10) without explanation of the source of his information.
We recognize that a divorce may be granted on the testimony of the plaintiff alone but when the plaintiff's uncorroborated testimony consists only of the uncorroborated admission of the defendant it is the opinion of the Court that the matter should be referred back to the Master for further testimony on that point.
Accordingly we enter the following Order: And Now, this 6th day of May, 1976, this case is referred back to the Masters for the purpose stated in this opinion.

1. That he is an attorney with Legal Services for Northwestern Penna., 231 Chestnut St., Meadville, Pa. 16335.

2. In that capacity he is presently representing the Plaintiff in the above-captioned action in Divorce, Vickie L. Taylor.

4. The Affiant received the aforesaid mailing back on Apr. 19, 1976, which the Post Office had stamped May 2, 1976 and upon which had been noted that the Defendant had moved and left no address. The envelope, with certified no. 29250 and green return receipt card with the same certified number is attached hereto as an exhibit.

Lindsey Filed July 21, 1975	Petition for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis Order: And now, this sixteenth day of July, 1975, the Petition to Proceed in Forma Pauperis is denied after hearing. The petitioner was employed and sent her got; she has a half interest in real estate which has an equity of over Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00); she owns a Volkswagon automobile which is paid for and which she valued at Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). In addition, her husband owns a 1972 Corolla Toyota, a 1973 Mustang Mark I, and a 1974 Kawaska motorcycle. While the petitioner is receiving public assistance, it is obvious from the testimony that this is merely until the husband begins to make support payments, either voluntarily or by court action. Under these facts, we find that petitioner has not met her burden of proving inability to pay the Ninety-five Dollars ($95.00) to One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($125.00) costs in divorce. Sept. 25, 1975 Order filed. Whereas, the parties have a combined income of $ 250.00 per week of which $150.00 per week constitutes the earnings of the defendant and $100.00 per week constitutes the earnings of the defendant and $100.00 per week constitutes the earnings of the plaintiff; and Whereas, the plaintiff pays $25.00 per week for a baby-sitter during her hours of employment; and Whereas, the approximate costs and counsel fee in a divorce action in Crawford County are approximately $ 450.00 of which based upon their combined income the defendant should pay three-fifths (3/5) and the plaintiff should pay two-fifths (2/5); And therefore, this 17th day of September, 1975, it is Ordered and Directed as follows: 1. That the defendant shall pay to the attorney for the plaintiff to apply on counsel fees and costs the sum of $ 270.00 in the following manner, to-wit: the sum of $ 100.00 within thirty (30) days and the balance within sixty (60) days from this date. 2. In view of the fact that the wife is paying $25.00 per week for a baby-sitter so that she can earn the aforesaid amount, it is Ordered and Directed that the husband pay by way of Alimony Pendente Lite for the support of the minor child the sum of $ 150.00 per month in semi-monthly installments of $ 75.00 each until the final decree in divorce is granted but not longer than January 1, 1976. 3. In view of the fact that the defendant was not served with a copy of the petition in this case until yesterday, September 16, 1975 he may file a petition requesting a hearing. If said petition is filed within ten (10) days after serving a copy upon him. In the event the defendant does not request such a hearing and fails to make the payments directed by this Court, he will be brought before the Court to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of Court.

Sept. 2, 1975 Copy of Order given to Charles A. Beerbach, Esq.

Sept. 2, 1975 Complaint in Divorce filed 1 copy attested.

Dec. 18, 1975 Affidavit of Investigation filed. Charles A. Beerbach, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and states the following:

1. That he is an attorney with Legal Services for Northwestern Pennsylvania, 231 Chestnut St., Crawford County, Pa. 16335.

2. That in that capacity, he is representing the Plaintiff in the above captioned action in divorce.

3. That as representative for Plaintiff, he did, on Sept. 2, 1975, attempt to serve the Defendant herein pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. Rule 1124 (3)(b) a true and correct copy of the Complaint in divorce by sending same certified/registered mail, certified no. 500971 to the Defendants' last known address at 1231 Kansas Street, Memphis, Tenn. Sender's receipt is attached hereto as Plaintiffs' exhibit.

4. That on Sept. 15, 1975, the aforesaid true and correct copy of the complaint was returned to the affiant indicating that no such address existed and therefore the envelope was undeliverable. The envelope with certified no. 500971 and the return receipt still attached thereto is attached hereto as plaintiffs' exhibit.

5. That the Plaintiff has not seen or known the exact where abouts of the Defendant in several years and she does not know the present address of any of the Defendants' relatives such that inquiry could be made of them as to the Defendants' present location. Because of this lack of information, there is no further investigation possible to find the present whereabouts of the Defendant. The grounds for divorce in this case are desertion.

6. That on Dec. 16, 1975, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. Rule 1124 (3)(4) a copy of the aforesaid complaint in divorce was sent by Certified, registered mail, return receipt requested, certified no. 500994 to the aforesaid last known address of the Defendant, 1231 Kansas St., Memphis, Tenn. That sender's receipt is also attached hereto as an exhibit.

7. That the aforesaid facts are true and correct to the best of the affiant's knowledge and belief. This affidavit is being submitted to comply with Pa. R.C.P. 1124 (b) (2) (3)

Oct 10, 1975 Answer to Petition for Custody and Counter-Petition for Custody filed.

Oct. 17, 1975 Order filed. Whereas, the child in this case will attain the age of thirteen (13) years January 22, 1975 and expresses a strong preference not to return to the home of the mother because of the situation which has existed and apparently still exists between the mother and the step-father; and

Whereas, that situation involves fighting and violence which has on occasion required the child to summon the police; and

Whereas, she states that she is frightened of her stepfather because of the manner in which he treats her mother; and

Whereas, the Court would not place the child in the custody of the father who is presently living with a woman who is not his wife; and

Whereas, the child's preference is not based upon an attempt to secure more freedom or more material benefits:

Now, Therefore, this 10th day of October, 1975, it is Hereby Ordered And Directed as follows:

1. The custody of the child, Stacey Humes, is awarded to her sister, Sharon Lojek until further Order of the Court, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

* Nov. 3, 1975 Order filed (see below)

Dec. 29, 1975 Order filed And now, Dec. 29, 1975 the papers in this case at No. 150 November Term, 1975 need no longer be impounded.

* November 3, 1975, Order filed: And Now, October 28, 1976, the parties agreed that the petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus be amended to include the name of Laurie Pettigrew as one of the persons being illegally detained and said amendment is allowed

By Joseph Thomas, J

However, testimony indicates very clearly that neither Rosalend J. Pettigrew or the daughter Laurie are being illegally held or being held against their will, and the petition is therefor dismissed and the Writ of Habeas Corpus is discharged.

The Court notes that Sharon Susan Pettigrew was not produced since she is not within the custody or control of the defendant or even present physically in this County.

Exception is noted for the petitioner, Howard Pettigrew, Sr.

By order of the Court,
S. Joseph Thomas, J

Nov. 3, 1975, Copies of the within Order of Court mailed to Rex Downie, Jr., Atty for Plaintiff, and to Ann H. Hemble, Atty for defendant.

Allan Savard, Deputy Constable

Dec. 5, 1975 Order filed And now Nov. 25, 1975, after further hearing, the Court determines the wife plaintiff has received $850.00 as her share of a 1975 income tax refund, and accordingly no credit for payment against the order of Sept. 30, shall be given for this amount. The Court also ascertains the wife plaintiff has received the sum of approximately $275.00, withdrawn from a Credit Union account, and the Court will consider this as full satisfaction of the $300.00 payment given for the month of September. The Court is presented with a lengthy list of telephone bills, most of which calls were made by the wife and charged against the husband's account, and accordingly the husband will pay said amounts and the total sum of $150.00 will be credited against the order of Sept. 30, to apply on the October payment thus leaving a balance of $150.00 due for the month of October.

There appears to be a Montgomery Ward account due for purchases made by the wife with the balance being approximately $246.00 and the husband is directed to pay said sum and this amount will be credited against the Sept. 30 order of $150.00 to apply to the October payment due, and $96.00 credit against the November payment due. Defendant will pay his wife, within ten (10) days, the sum of $200.00 for alimony pendente lite for the month of November, 1975, and commencing with the month of December, 1975 the defendant will pay as alimony pendente lite the sum of $250.00 per month until the divorce is completed.

The wife will charge no more bills to the husband's account with the expectation that he will pay the same.

Aug. 14, 1975 Copies of within Order of Court given to Joseph F. Kulwicki, Attorney for petitioners, and to Joan D. Mason, Attorney for respondent.

Aug. 15, 1975 Order filed. Whereas, this is an action instituted by the mother to regain custody of two minor minor children, to wit Teresa Oswald and Lisa Oswald; and

Whereas, the minors were domiciled in the State of Pennsylvania in January, 1975, when they were removed to the State of Florida without the consent of the mother; and

Whereas, the Florida court assumed jurisdiction and has entered a temporary order placing the children in the custody of the father, pending final determination and a report of the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County as to the home and reputation and suitability of the mother and her husband; and

Whereas, the Court is of the opinion that relevant decisions of the Appellate Court of this Commonwealth require him not to be bound or governed by the proceedings in the Florida court, some of which decisions are: Commonwealth ex rel. Rogers vs. Daven, 298 Pa. 416; Commonwealth ex rel. Thomas vs. Gillard, 203 Pa. Superior Court 95; Irigarry Appeal, 195 Pa. Superior Court, 104; Commonwealth ex rel. Mason vs. Mason, 213 Pa. Superior Court 433; Friedman vs. Friedman, 224 Pa. Superior Court 530; Brocker vs. Brocker, 429 Pa. 513; and Commonwealth ex rel. Spriggs vs. Carson, 229 Pa. Superior Court Page 9; and

Whereas, the children are presently in the custody of the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County, and the Court feels that no disposition should be made until we receive the report of the Florida court relating to the home, reputation, and suitability of the father and his present wife, and, if possible, a statement of facts from the Florida court upon which the Court based its temporary order or any final disposition by the Florida court of the question of custody.

Now, Therefore, this 11th day of August, 1975, it is Ordered and Directed as follows:

1. Pursuant to the motion of Counsel for the father and stepmother the Court defers final decision regarding custody until it has received a copy of the report of the investigation of the homes by the Juvenile Court, have Counselor of the Florida court and if possible until final adjudication by the Florida Court of the question of custody if such adjudication is made within a reasonable period of time.

2. Pending final decision the children involved in this case shall remain in the custody of the Child Welfare Services until further order of the Court with visitations to be governed by the usual rules imposed by the Child Welfare Services which shall apply to both the father and the mother until final disposition of this case.

3. In order to avoid the constant shifting of children back + forth from one state to another, Child Welfare Services shall take all precautions to make sure that neither party, that is neither the father nor the mother, again removes the children from the jurisdiction of this Court and if there are any problems in connection therewith, shall immediately notify the Court who will take the necessary steps to enforce all portions of this order, and particularly this portion.

4. Pending final disposition no person or persons shall attempt to influence the children directly or indirectly against the other parent, and if any evidence is produced to the Court that an attempt is being made, or has been made, to influence the children for or against either parent the Court will take steong measures to make an appropriate disposition or penalty as to the person involved.

Upon receipt of the report of the Florida Court either as to the condition of the home and suitability of the father and stepmother and/or the Florida court making a final adjudication of the question of custody, the Court will sua sponte or upon motion of either Counsel reschedule this matter for entry of a final Order.

An exception is noted for both parties.

for Walter Hollabaugh of 56 votes and a vote for Pete McIver of 54 votes.

2. By agreement of the parties the ballot marked Court Exhibit 1, was correctly counted as a vote for Walter Hollabaugh and is reflected in the 56 vote total as reported by the tabulators.

3. The Court rules that Court Exhibits 2, 3 and 4, should be counted as votes for Pete McIver, thus bringing his total to 57 votes, being the 54 votes counted by the tabulators plus the three votes ruled countable by the Court, making a total of 57 votes.

4. The Court rules that the ballots marked Court Exhibit 5 and Court Exhibit 6 are not marked in accordance with the election code and by agreement of the parties cannot be counted.

5. The Court finds the final result of the vote for supervisor on the Republican Party of Troy Township at the Primary Election held on the 20th day of May, 1975, was 57 votes for Pete McIver and 56 votes for Walter Hollabaugh; and, accordingly, declares that Pete McIver is the duly nominated Republican candidate for Troy Township Supervisor.

6. It appearing that no fraud or substantial error was committed in the computation of the votes cast on the ballots, the $50.00 deposit paid by Walter Hollabaugh to the Prothonotary is ordered to be paid by the Prothonotary to the County Treasurer in accordance with the requirements of the election code.

The parties agree they will mutually attempt to arrange other satisfactory times for visitation with the children taking into consideration such factors as working schedules of the two parents.

The Court notes at this time that there is no contest regarding the return of custody of the children to the father as the same occured voluntarily on the part of the mother serving in the best interest of the children prior to the time the writ of habeas corpus was filed in this case.

No. 113 September Term, 1975

Apr. 8 1976 Order filed;

Whereas, this matter is again before the Court for final disposition after reference to the present Judge by Judge P. Richard Thomas, and

Whereas, the mother resides in Philadelphia and acknowledges the fact that in her opinion it is not a suitable place to rear a child in this day and age; and

Whereas, the mother's present living conditions, according to her own admission, would not be suitable for rearing said child; and

Whereas, because of the foregoing reasons and without admitting that she is in any way unfit or incapable of caring for said child, the mother had agreed that the main custody should be given to the father of said child; and

Whereas, the parties have agreed upon the terms of said custody arrangements and the visitation rights of the mother.

Now, Therefore, this 5th day of Apr., 1976, pursuant to the agreement of the parties, it is ordered and decreed, as follows:

1. That subject to the visitation privileges and conditions hereinafter set forth, the custody of Mark Raymond Smith is awarded to and continued in the father.

2. The mother shall have the right to take said child in her custody every other weekend that she is able to do so, upon at least one (1) weeks notice to the father, from Friday at 5:00 o'clock p.m. to Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local times.

3. The parties shall alternate holiday visitation periods in such manner as they may agree upon so that the parent who has the child on the holiday itself shall permit the other parent to have the child on the eve of said holiday. The rest of the vacation period shall be divided as the parties may agree, and in any instance of disagreement, the matter will be referred to the Court for resolution.

4. The mother shall also have the right to take the child into her custody for one (1) month during the summer vacation period, which for the year 1976 shall be the calendar month of July, and thereafter, during such month as the parties may agree upon during the summer vacation period, and again, in the event of any dispute, the matter shall be referred to the court for disposition.

5. Neither party shall say or do anything to turn or attempt to turn the child against the other parent and neither parent will expose the child to any person, situation or environment which would be detrimental to the health, education or welfare of said child.

6. In view of the fact that the mother is presently residing and may continue to reside outside of Crawford Co. it is understood and agreed that the father may assume that the mother does not intend to exercise any of her visitation privileges unless she gives him at least one weeks notice prior

Feb. 16, 1977 Order filed. And now, February 11, 1977, until investigation has been made by Child Welfare Services and the Court is satisfied that the life style of the mother warrants placing the child in her custody for an indefinite period of time, it is Ordered and Directed that the custody of the child be awarded to the Child Welfare Services of Crawford County, and the initial placement of the child be in the home of the maternal grandmother Rowena Marr; with full authority, if the health of Mrs. Marr or other conditions require to make a different foster home placement until further Order of Court.

The investigation of Child Welfare Services shall continue and the Court will reconsider this case at such time as a divorce has been obtained or one or the other of the parties proceeds to procure a divorce, and the mother of Tonya and Mr. Hughes marry or some other circumstances indicating a change in life style of Jackie Parker are presented to the Court.

The Child Welfare Services is Directed to arrange visitations of the child, Tonya, with the father at such time as he is released from confinement and able to engage in such visitations; but the father is Directed not to constitute himself a discipline problem or to cause Child Welfare Services any disturbances or annoyance or molestation and will agree to be governed by the arrangement they make for visitations outside of the home of the maternal grandmother.

It is further Ordered and Directed that the mother undergo an evaluation at the Drug & Alcohol Abuse Center and agree that a report thereof be furnished to Child Welfare Services and thereafter to the Court, and that the mother will sign a consent for Child Welfare Services to procure all medical information from attending physicians.
