BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

August 9, 1985, Order Filed. AND NOW, August 9, 1985, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, and upon agreement of the parties, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

I. That legal custody of Earl W. Featsent, IV, shall be shared between the mother and father, that is, each shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records, and other important records, and each shall be entitled to participate fully in decisions affecting the health, education and religious instruction of the child.

II. Physical custody of Earl W. Featsent, IV, shall be with his mother, Mary Ellen Featsent, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the child with him every other weekend, beginning August 9, 1985, from 6:30 P.M. Friday evening until 6:30 P.M. Sunday evening. The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of the mother.

B. On such weekend visitations, the father shall be required to see that the child is taken to mass at a Roman Catholic church at some time during the weekend visitation.

C. Beginning with the summer of 1986, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his custody for two weeks during the child's vacation from school. These two weeks need not be consecutive. The father shall give the mother at least Thirty (30) days notice of each week that he intends to have the child in his custody.

D. The holiday visitation schedule shall be as follows: (1) the child shall be in the home of the father on Thanksgiving Day of 1985 and in the home of the mother on Christmas Day of 1985. In 1986, the child shall be in the home of the father on Easter Sunday and Christmas Day and in the home of the mother on Thanksgiving Day. In subsequent years, the parties shall continue to alternate the holidays in the same fashion. On holidays when the child is in the home of the mother, the child shall be in the home of the father on the evening preceding the holiday from 6:00 P.M. until 10:00 P.M. On holidays when the child is in the home of the father, the child shall be in the home of the mother on the evening preceding the holiday from 6:00 P.M. until 10:00 P.M. Holidays shall take precedence over weekend visitations. Additionally, the child shall be in the home of the mother on Mother's Day and in the home of the father on Father's Day.

E. Neither parent shall say or do anything to turn the child against the other parent, but on the other hand, shall do everything in the power of each to foster a loving attitude on the part of the child towards both parents.

F. Neither parent shall take the child to a place that is inappropriate for a child of such age, nor expose the child to any situation or circumstance that would be harmful to the child's health and welfare.

G. Each parent shall notify the other of any illness or emergency involving the child at the earliest possible time.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days from the date hereof.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $120.00 shall be divided with the father paying one-half thereof and Crawford County paying the remaining one-half.

Oct. 17, 1985, Preliminary Objection of defendant filed.

Oct. 24, 1985, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney the above preliminary objections placed on next argument list.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR NOVEMBER 1985

Feb. 15, 1989 Opinion and Order filed. AND NOW, February 15, 1989, defendant's Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer to plaintiff's claim for attorneys fees and accountant's fees is sustained. Plaintiff's motion to strike the final paragraph of the complaint and the demand for jury trial is sustained. Since the plaintiff's complaint clearly pleads liquiated damages, the final prayer of the complaint should adequately reflect that fact, and since it would appear that the remaining damages claimed by the plaintiff are within arbitration limits, the demand for a jury trial at this stage of the proceeding is premature. The plaintiff is granted twenty (20) days from this date to file an amended complaint reflecting the provisions of this Order.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR JANUARY 1986

Jan. 30, 1986 RE: Certiorari From District Justice Court Order filed. This matter was argued over procedural irregularities allegedly arising when this case was disposed of in the District Justice Court. Since the matter comes before the Court on certiorari, we are limited to legal arguments addressing the record of the District Justice Court.The District Justice record clearly reflects that judgment for Plaintiff Stang was entered at the end of the hearing held before a visiting District Justice on May 14, 1985. While defense counsel argues such is not the case, we cannot go outside the record to establish this fact. Accordingly, on the status of the record we have no alternative but to deny the Writ of Certiorari and allow the judgment rendered in the District Court at the Conclusion of the hearing to stand.

July 29, 1985, Affidavit filed. Mariann E. Mariann E. Luksik Esq.
Attorney for Petitioner

July 30, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, July 29, 1985, after informal hearing and upon the defendant's admission to most of the items specified in the petition for relief, the Court hereby directs that the defendant, Anthony Petergal, not annoy, assault or harass his wife in any fashion or procure others to do so on his behalf.

He shall not go to her place of employment or to her residence for any purpose.

The parties mutually agree that the father should have visitation rights with the minor two-year old child, Dominique, and in this regard, the father will contact the mother by phone at her place of employment to arragge mutually satisfactory visitations between father and child and when said arrangements are made the child will be left by the mother at the residence of Tony Petergal, the father's son, and the father shall pick up and teturn the child to his son's residence.

The Court notes that the mother has living with her a fifteen year old daughter of the defendant, Shelly Petergal but said daughter is not at this time d desirous of having visitations with her father.

In view of the limited income of the mother of $114.00 per week and the unemployment compensation of the father at $284.00 per week, the Court hereby enters a temporary support order requiring the defendant, Anthony Petergal, to pay his wife the sum of $50.00 per week being $25.00 for each child to defray a portion of their maintenance costs and to assist the mother in supporting the said two (2) children.

The defendant is cautioned that a violation of this order would be a contempt of court and that he can be punished by confinement in jail if he is found to have willfully and deliberately violated the terms and conditions of this Order.

The defendant is directed to pay the sheriff's costs on this case upon a receipt of a bill therefore.

This order shall remain in full force for a period of one (1) year from this date.

Oct. 1, 1985 Copy to Joan Mason

Nov. 8, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 6, 1985, after informal hearing involving the parties and their counsel, the Court observes the family situation is utter chaos. It appears, in spite of the substantial income of the husband in this case, a marginal farming operation is draining substantial assets of the family. The husband contends that at times he makes money on the family operation but in recent years it has been losing money. He has incurred substantial debts to keep the farming operation going.

The Court finds that at this present time, based on the defendant's pay stubs for the first ten months of 1985, the defendant has a net take-home pay of approximately twenty-four hundred dollars. However, the Court notes that he has money withdrawn and put into a monthly savings account to pay real estate taxes and he has an IRA account he has established for purposes of future retirement. The Court, in computing his net take-home pay, will allow him credit against the aforesaid net take-home pay of one-half of the amounts he periodically contributes to this savings account and IRA account, and, accordingly, the Court finds the defendant has a net take-home pay of approximately $2,284.00 under this formula.

The Court establishes a support obligation of $140.00 per week for wife and child support, and accordingly, directs the defendant to pay through the Dom. Rel. office the sum of $100.00 per week for the support of his two (2) minor children and $40.00 per week for the support of his wife, with said order to be effective the week of Nov. 3, 1985.

The court notes that in arriving at the allocation of the support obligation between wife and children, it does not intend to commit itself to an appropriate support forder for the two children once the parties are divorced in this case and in all likekihood an increase in child support should occur.

The Court finds the mother has a net take-home pay of approximately $654.00 per month, and this factor is taken into account in entering this support order.

In the divorce action, counsel fees are requested and the Court directs the defendant to pay $150.00 to counsel for the wife on Dec. 1, 1985, and a further sum of $150.00 on Jan. 1, 1986. This order for counsel fees is made without prejudice to the court or the Master to set additional fees as the matter progresses toward an ultimate divorce and property settlement.

In lieu of the support order aforesaid entered for the wife, the Court declines to enter an order for Alimony Pendente Lite.

The Court ascertains there is a $95.00 arrears on the Hearing Officers original order due for spousal support, and, accordingly, on Nov. 22, 1985, the defendant will pay an additional $45.00 to be added to the aforesaid order to pay a portion of this arrears. On Dec. 6, 1985, the defendant will pay an additional sum of $50.00 to wipe out the arrearages.

The Court notes but does not resolve the issue of who is to claim dependency for these two children. It appears at this time that the husband has reduced his dependency claim for paychick purposes to one dependent and the wife is uncertain as to how much deductions she is claiming. The court leaves the resolution of this to the parties and will not interfere in determination of which party will claim which child at this time.

Inthe event the husband received a refund on his 1985 income tax return, he shall report the smae to the Dom Rel Section, show them the check and he is directed not to expend said refund until the parties reach an agreement as to whether or not the wife is to receive a portion of said refund. In the event the parties cannot agree, the matter will be referred back to the court.

The court declines the request for special relief to monitor the farming operation requested in the divorce action.

Uninsured medical, dental prescriptions and optometric expenses shall be the responsibility of the parties with father paying 67% and the mother 33%, with said sums to be paid directly to the supplier.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 30, 1985 Petition For Additional Remedies filed (Equitable Distribution and Alimony, Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees, Court Costs and Related Expenses)

Sept. 27, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, September 24, 1985, after hearing, the Court resolves the multiplicity of issues involved in this case as follows:

1. The prayer of the motion to amend the complaint by adding the plaintiff's name to the caption of this case so the case will become known as Donald R. Granger a/k/a as Ronald V. Corso.

2. The Court notes that a support order was entered September 20, 1985, requiring the plaintiff to pay support in the amount of $75.00 a week computed September 2, 1985. The Court is advised this date that exceptions to said report will be filed but there may be an appeal from this Order.

3. The Court finds after hearing that while the plaintiff is temporarily out of work at this time and has some complicated family problems regarding the illnes of his mother, that he has a substantial earning capacity as a carpet layer. the Court accepts his statement that he is diligently trying to find work at this time and the court cannot find as a fact that the plaintiff willfully and deliberately was not accepting work in his field. Accordingly, the Court directs that the effective date of the support order herein before referred to shall be amended and will make payments commencing the week of October 13, 1985.

The Court this date orders Alimony Pendente Lite in the amount of $75.00 per week the same as the support order and notes in addition thereto with the effective date for Alimony Pendente Lite to commence the week of October 13, 1985.

The Court belives that this right to Alimony Pendente Lite should exist for only a period of three (3) months as the assets of the parties are minimal and it is obvious the disagreement between the parties cannot be reconciled and that a Divorce should be granted ultimately.

4. Infsofar as counsel fees are concerned, the plaintiff will pay as counsel fees the sum of $50.00 on or before November 1, 1985; $50.00 on or before November 20, 1985 and $50.00 on or beforeDDecember 10, 1985. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of counsel for the defendant to secure additional counsel fees by court order or otherwise and is not intended as a restriction on the total amount of counsel fees to be ultimately awarded in this case.

5. The parties are in agreement that certain assets in the possession of each shall be mutually exchanged on Saturday, September 28, 1985, at 10:00 a.m., at the present residence of the wife and each party is directed that they will not have consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of eight (8) hours before said exchange. The husband may arrive at the premises with a male companion to assist

Oct. 4, 1985, Order filed. AND NOW, October 1, 1985, after informal review of the parties' finances, the Court awards alimony pendente lite to the defendant/wife in the amount of $40.00 per week commencing with the week of September 29, 1985, with said alimony to be terminated with the last payment for the week of December 15, 1985. The Court visualizes this divorce should not be unduly protracted and the Court would not extend alimony pendente lite unless a further hearing determined that any delay in the divorce action was attributable to the plaintiff and not the defendant.

The Court awards total counsel fees in the amount of $250.00, with $100.00 to be paid on October 15, 1985; $100.00 to be paid November 1, 1985; and an additional $50.00 on November 15, 1985.

All payments of alimony pendente lite will be paid direct from plaintiff to defendant and all payments on counsel fees will be paid by the plaintiff to his counsel and forwarded to counsel for the defendant.

The Court recognizes a joint financial obligation at Pennbank and during the pendency of the alimony pendente lite payments, the plaintiff will be totally responsible for payment of the installments on that loan.

Sept. 5, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, September 3, 1985, the matter is before the Court for hearing and counsel through their parties agree that an order will be entered after the defendant admitted that he disciplined his eighteen year old dependent stepdaughter by striking her with a belt but denies he struck her the number of times alleged in the petition.

It appears the child in question is in special learning classes and at times has difficulty performing the nomimal household tasks assigned to her. Accordingly, the mother and father in this case mutually agree that the father may move back into the common household but that all physical discipline of this child and all other children residing in the household shall be the sole responsibility of the mother and that the father will not strike, spank or abuse the children in any fashion.

In view of the special needs of child Virginia and the physical problems of the father, the parties mutually agree that they will commence family counseling at the Mental Health Center in order to review the techniques of child rearing and discipline, particularly as they apply to the child Virginia so that there may be some seblance of order and assignment of household tasks to the children, and the family will attempt through counsel to live more cooperatively and constructively in the common household.

This order shall be in effect for a period of nine (9) months from this date.

AND NOW, February 18, 1986, the Court is advised that the State Police delivered the Defendant to the Crawford County Jail on an allegation by the wife that he had against abused one of the children in the home. The Court is unable to ascertain the details of the current Complaint, nut notes that the previous Order did not provide for incarceration upon violation of the Order, Accordingly, the Court has instructed the State Police to take the Defendant to him so he could pick up enough of his belongings to live elsewhere and the Defendant is precluded from returning to the home.

An emergency hearing is scheduled for February 19th, at 1:00 P.M. before the undersigned.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Feb. 19, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 19, 1986, after emergency hearing at which both parties are represented by counsel, the matter is explored informally and represents a chaotic family situation in which it has become impossible for husband and wife to survive in the same household, and accordingly, both are in agreement that in the interest or harmony and to save the stress and strain on the children and their parents that a separation is in order.

ACCORDINGLY, the defendant/husband already having been ordered out of the house by Order of February 18, 1986, said Order is continued and the defendant/husband shall not go to the home where his wife and children reside and shall not annoy or harass them in any fashion. The one exception shall be that on February 20, 1986, between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. the defendant may go to the residence of the wife at Route #2, Box 393-A, Linesville, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of removing his clothing from the premises.

The husband has requested the right to remove some horses, horse equipment, feed, gas cans and two transmissions from the premises, and said request, is denied without prejudice to the right of either party in some future proceeding to argue over equitable division of these assets.

At the same time the defendant goes on February 20, 1986 to pick up his clothing, he may also take a Chevy 75 half-ton pickup truck now on the premises; and in the meantime, neither the wife nor the children will do any damage to the truck, tamper with it in any fasion or damage it directly or indicrectly. This Order likewise is entered without prejudice to the right of either party to make claim for the truck in some ancillary proceeding.

Once the parties are separated, the defendant/husband may not go to the premises for any purpose; and if he desires specific visitation rights with the children, he must file the necessary custody or visitation proceeding and have that matter separately litigated.

The Court entered no Support Order as part of this proceeding in view of the fact that apparently the mother is receiving Social Security, DPW and perhaps SSI Benefits totalling over one thousand dollars a month, while the husband gets his own separate Social Security Disability benefits in an amount in excess of seven hundred dollars a month. The defendant is cautioned that the Department of Welfare may require the wife to file a support action against him and that he will have the opportunity to meet with a Support Hearing Officer for the purpose or determining whether or not he should be required to contribute a portion of his Social Security toward support of the children.

The County is directed to pay costs in this case.

In accordance with the statute, this Order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of one year from this date.

In the event the husband harasses, annoys or assaults his wife or violates this Order by going to the premises without her express invitation for any purpose, any Police Officer is authorized after reasonalbe investigation discloses a violation of this Order to apprehend the defendant and lodge him in the County Jail and requsst the Court to grant an immediate emergency hearing.

Dec. 30, 1986 ORder Setting Hearing filed. AND NOW, December 29, 1986, the court having been advised that the Defendant has violated the terms of the Court's ORder of February 19, 1986, hearing is hereby set for December 30, 1986, at 3:00 P.M., in Courtroom 1.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 30, 1986 Copies of order to Margaret Eglinton and Brian Lindsay

Dec. 31, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, December 30, 1986, the matter is back before the Court for review on the allegation that the Defendant threatened and struck his wife on or about December 26, 1986. The factual situation is reviewed with the parties and their attorneys and it appears that since the original order was entered February 19, 1986, the parties have reconciled and separated numerous times in the State of Pennsylvania and the State of Ohio. Each party blames the other for the reconciliations and subsequent separations with the husband accusing the wife of being an alcoholic and the wife accusing the husband of constantly abusing her and children, following her, attempting to annoy and harass her, and threatening her in all types and fashion.

The Court finds that the Defendant apparently violated the intent of the original order but since the parties have reconciled many times and separated many times since the orignal order was entered in February, the Court deems it inappropriate to adjudge the Defendant in contempt and incarcerate him further because of the alleged minor assault committed in this case.

The parties advise the Court that they now are going to finally separate with the husband returning to live in the State of Ohio on his own and the mother continuing to reside in the Borough of Linesville with her children and one grandchild.

Accordingly, the previous order is, in effect, recinded but continued under new conditions until March 1, 1987, and subject to the following conditions:

1. The Defendant will not annoy, harass, or contact his wife in any manner.
2. He will not go to her residence for any purpose, even though he is invited.
3. He will not directly or indirectly threaten her, annoy her, follow her, spy on her, or loiter about her premises for any purpose.
4. Custody of the children is conditionally awarded to the mother but if either parent desires to secure a more formal order, either party may petition the Court for a further custody of visitation hearing.

5. The Defendant will not harass, annoy, threaten, or assault any visitors to the home of the mother.

In view of the frequent reconciliations and separations of these parties, in the event of an alleged breach of this agreement, the Court will only authorize the immediate arrest of the Defendant for a violation of this agreement if the police officer involved secures special permission from the Court personally to apprehend and incarcerate the Defendant. The Sheriff is authorized to release the Defendant from confinement forthwith.

Jan 21, 1987 Motion for Reconsideration filed.

Jan 21, 1987 Re: Motion for Reconsideration, Supplemental Order filed: The Township of Woodcock filed with the court a Motion for Reconsideration on January 16, 1987. This motion requested a modification of the Order previously entered in this case on January 5, 1987. The trust of Woodcock's request deals with the court's recital on page two of the aforesaid Opinion, wherein the court noted that the "The surveys show that more than half of the treatment plant itself rests in the Borough and in reliance on a legislative intent evidenced in 72 P.S. 5453.610, the Authority had opted to choose the Borough as its 'place of residence'." Woodcock Township contends there was no basis for the court determining that more than half the treatment plant rests in the Borough or that the Sewer Authority had officially opted to choose the Borough as its place of residence. With this we agree. Apparently at the time of hearing we proceeded on the erroneous assumption that the Authority had taken some kind of official action to designate their official residence in view of the fact that surveys apparently disclosed that the boundary line between the Borough of Saegertown and Woodcock ran approximately through the center of the sewage treatment plant itself.

Since the sole issue before the court was the determination of the boundry line itself, this court admits it had no authority to ascertain exactly which part of the plant this boundry line bisected and, more importantly, this court erroneously found as a fact that there had been official Authority action designating the Authority's place of business.

We were called upon this action to determine only the Borough/Township boundry line, and the precise sewage plant location and the Authority's legal "residence" were not issues for resolution in this case.

We see no reason to schedule further argument or hearing on this error made by the court and, accordingly, we modify our former Opinion, date January 5, 1987, to the end that the aforesaid quoted sentence is stricken from our Opinion.

Feb. 23, 1987 Motion To appoint Commissioners Pursuant to 53 P.S. §65302 Et. Seq. filed.

Feb. 23, 1987 Order Appointment of Commissioners: filed. AND NOW, February 20, 1987, upon request to appoint commissioners to ascertain the southern boundary line of Saegertown Borough and the northern boundary line of Woodcock Township, the court hereby appoints Attonrey william L. Walker, Chairman, Attorney sTephen E. Hall, and Registered Surbeyor, Richard A. Deiss, R.D. 1, Meadville, Pennsylvania, as commissioners tohold hearings and report to the court as required in 53 P.S. 65303.

The court denies the request of the Borough to require the posting of a bond, but advises the parties that under Section 65306, compensation and expenses of the commissioners will ultimately be paid in accord with SEction 65306.

The court advises the commissioners that this court, in a procedding on an assessment appeal in re: Township of Woodcock, Borugh of Saegertown, at 1985-758, has already established the western boundary line between the municipalities and that the commissioners shall direct their attentiononly to the appropriate boundary line lying east of the boundary line established in the aforesaid Opinion and Order, dated January 5, 1987.

Jan. 16, 1991 Motion For Status Conference filed.

Jan. 16, 1991 Order filed. AND NOW, January 11, 1991, after a status conference held with counsel for the parties and the Master it appears that the remaining issue that has kept this case from proceeding or being settled is the defendant's pension plan with his former employer, Dayton Malleable Iron, Co. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows

1. Counsel for the plaintiff shall review the pension materials she now has possession of and shall determine, by January 31, 1991, if that information, together with any information shw now has or may receive in the meantime, will enable her to consummate the settlement that the parties had been discussing. If counsel for the plaintiff is satisfied that she has sufficient information to proceed to consummate the settlement she shall notify the Master and counsel for the defendant and the parites shall arrive at a final settlement and reduce the same to writing no later than February 28, 1991. Failing a complete settlement by that time the Master shall schedule a hearing to be held no later than March 1, 1991.
2. In the event that counsel for the plaintiff needs additional information regarding the defendant's pension she shall file a petition withthe Court asking the Court to grant appropriate reliefe to allow the plaintiff to obtain reasonably appropriate and necessary information regarding the defendant's pension. Said petition shall set forth the relevant facts including, but not limited to, the information the plaintiff desires and why that information is necessary for settlement or trial purposes. That petition shall be filed with the Court no later than February 11, 1991. May 2, 1990 Order filed: AND NOW, April 30, 1990, the matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's request for sanctions against the Defendant for inadequate Answers. The Court denies any sanctions at this time, subject to the following:

With regard to question 5, the Defendant will make a full and complete answer to question 5. The Court deems the present answer claiming further investigation was necessary is meaningless and the question must be answered.

In regard to question 8(c), this question must be answered with greater specificity. It is obvious the Plaintiff is not looking for a written list of changes, but wants to know all of the design changes made on Model 5100L.

In regard to question 9(c), the defendant must answer with great specificity and given the names of all people involved in the 5100L machine in question and generally listing the type of work they performed on said machine. If the names, addresses and telephone numbers of said employees are presently known to the Defendant, Mr. Zimmerman, he must supply the same.

In regard to question 10(b), the Defendant must provide a direct answer specifically specifying whether other 5000 models had of did not have an automatic shut-off switch thereon.

Defendant Zimmerman will mor completely answer question 17 and specifically advise the plaintiff as to wheterh any other models of th is type of device manufactured by his company at or about the time the model 5100L was manufactured with automatic shut-off devices. If so, give the model number of other similar devices having an automatic shut-off switch thereon.

Defendant will have thirty (30) days to answer in accordance with the Court's ruling.

When the Court referred to the question 5 in requiring answer, it refers to request for admissions and not to interrogatories.

P. Richard Thomas, PJ.

Sept. 10, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Sept. 9, 1987, it appears to the Court that this matter should have been concluded and it further appears that on Oct. 1, 1986, a Master was appointed, but apparently, no Master's hearings have as yet been held. By agreement of the parties, the plaintiff is directed to execute the two authorization and consent forms relating to his military pension and other economic matters that are attached to the petition filed Aug. 10, 1987. The plaintiff is not required to execute an authorization relating to matters of health.

It appears that the marital domicle is not at the present time in danger of sale for taxes since the 1985 taxes have, in fact, been paid. If this matter is not concluded on or before Dec. 31, 1987, the plaintiff will be required to escrow one-third of his current income from his military pension in an interest-bearing account so that it wil be available in the event it is necessary for equity distribution.

The Master heretofore appointed is DIRECTED to held a Master's Hearing on or before Nov. 15, 1987, and file a report on or before Dec. 15, 1987.

Feb. 22, 1988, Plaintiff's Exceptions to Master's Report filed.

Mar 7, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, March 4, 1988, at the time fixed for de novo hearing in connection with a non-support proceeding, it appearing that the Master's Report in the divorce action has now been filed, that cross exceptions have been filed to the Master's Report and that although no transcript of the Master's has been prepared, the exceptions are otherwise ripe for decision, the Prothonotary is DIRECTED to list the exceptions to the Master's Report in the divorce action for argument on March 28, 1988 at 2:45 P.M.

The plaintiff shall file a brief on any legal issues raised by the exceptions on or before March 18, 1988, and the defendant shall respond on or before March 24, 1988.

The hearing in the non-support case is continued, to be rescheduled, if necessary, with payments to be made in accordance with the Temporary Order of January 19, 1988 based upon the conference summary and recommendations of January 14, 1988, with the understanding that any ultimate modification of the Temporary Order can be made retroactive to the date of the Temporary Order and the with the further understanding that the Court will consider arguments on March 28, 1988 if either of the parties feel that extraordinary relief should be granted pending such hearing.

It is obvious to the Court and to all parties that a complete transcript of the Master;s Hearing would be extremely expensive given the length of the hearing, and therefore, after arguments on the exceptions, the Court will confer with counsel for each party as to what, if any, portion of the transcript should be prepared as being necessary to an intelligent disposition of the exceptions.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF CRAWFORD COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

CIVIL ACTION - LAW.

WILLIAM J. AUELL :

: A.D. 1985 - 823

BERNIECE M. AUELL :

AMENDED DECREE

At the request of the parties and for the purposes of clarification, paragraph III A. 1. of the Decree dated October 19, 1988 is amended by deleting in its entirety, said paragraph III A.1. and substituting therefore, the following:

A. Award of Marital Property:

1. RETIRED OR RETAINER PAY PAYABLE TO WILLIAM J. AUELL, MEMBER, FROM THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA PURSUANT TO THE GENERAL MILITARY LAW SUBTITLE A. There is awarded to Berniece M. Auell, former spouse, from the gross retainer pay payable to William J. Auell under the general military law Subtitle A, 47½% of such gross retired or retainer pay calculated without deduction for any purpose including taxes, insurance or otherwise, to become effective for the calendar month next following the month that this decree becomes final. Each of the parties will be responsible for the payment of taxes, state, federal or local, that is imposed upon that party's share of the retired or retainer pay. Any additional payroll deductions elected by the Plaintiff shall be chargeable to his share of the retired or retainer pay. It is recognized that the United States of America may require payroll deductions for such items as taxes, insurance premiums and the like. It is intended by this Decree that the Defendant shall receive 47½% of the retired or retainer pay calculated on the gross retired or retainer pay, and that the Defendant shall pay her own taxes on that income. It is also intended that the cost of any increase in the survivor benefits that may ultimately be effected shall be paid by the Defendant. It will be the Plaintiff's responsibility to pay his own taxes, the cost of the currently existing survivor benefits and the cost of the government insurance. To the extent that any of these items are deducted from one party or the other by payroll deductions, appropriate adjustments shall be made between the parties inter se to give effect to the intent of this Decree.

Counsel for the Defendant will be responsible to promptly serve any notice required to give legal effect to this award. Plaintiff shall execute and deliver any documents and perform any acts necessary to give effect to the award of a share of retired or retainer pay to the Defendant.

At the election of the defendant, the Plaintiff shall perform any and all acts and shall execute and deliver any documents or instruments which may be required to increase benefits available to Berniece M. Auell, former spouse, under the survivor benefit plan provided in the general military law Subtitle A to the maximum benefit, which is 55% of the total retired or retainer pay, if the same is permitted by law. Whether or not Plaintiff or his counsel believe that a modification of an existing survivor benefit election is permitted by law, the Plaintiff shall, nevertheless, make a written application to modify benefits as provided, upon appropriate documents completed in reasonable form and the Plaintiff or his counsel shall provide to the Defendant or her counsel copies of all correspondence to and from the United States military concerning modification of the survivor benefit election. The existence of a prohibition against increasing survivor benefits shall not result in any other change in the division and distribution of marital property. In the event that at any future date the United States Government shall offer the Plaintiff an opportunity to increase survivor benefits, he shall promptly notify the Defendant and at her election shall apply for such increase in survivor benefits as set forth in this paragraph. The cost of the currently existing survivor benefits shall be paid by the Plaintiff, but the cost of any increase in survivor benefits elected by the Defendant shall be borne by the Defendant.

Plaintiff, or his counsel, shall provide to the Defendant, or her counsel, copies of all correspondence to and from the United States military concerning any modifications of the retired or retainer pay payable to the Plaintiff.

Except as modified by the foregoing paragraph III A. 1., the Decree of October 19, 1988 is reaffirmed.

Mt. Vernon St., Titusville, Crawford Cp., Pa.
So answers, Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Sept. 27, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, September 24, 1985, upon admission of the defendant that he made threats against his wife on or about September 11, 1985, the Court hereby directs that the defendant cease and desist any conduct in the future which involves an assault against his wife.

By agreement of the parties, the wife and two (2) small children will continue to occupy the marital home.

By agreement of the parties, the wife shall continue to have possession of a 1978 Ford Mustang for her use in transporting herself and the children.

By agreement of the parties, the husband shall have the right to appear at his wife's home every Saturday at 8:00 a.m., to take possession of the children and return them to the home Sunday, at 8:00 p.m.

Except for picking up and returning the children, the husband will not go to the residence of the wife unless she specifically invites him to come to the residence.

The Court notes the parties are both amenable to counseling to see if the marriage can be saved and are contemplating involvement in marriage counseling.

By agreement of the parties, the husband will pay the sum of $35.00 per week as support for the children but the Court notes that this order is entered without the Court or the parties adequately exploring the total family income and the total expenses and if not mutually modified by the agreement, the matter should be referred to the Domestice Relations Section for a full exploratory hearing for entry of an appropriate support order for the wife and children or for the children alone.

The Court notes that the parties have reached the visitation arrangements in this case as a temporary measure and the Court believes the parties can expand said visits to accommodate family birthdays, holidays, vacation periods and special occasions. In the event they cannot reach a further agreement expanding and clarifying visitations with some specificity, the parties are advised that they may file a custody or visitation complaint and the matter will be handled initially by a custody mediator and if neither party is satisfied, ultimately by one of the judges.

The Defendant is directed to pay filing fees and service costs in this case within thirty (30) days.

1. That the affiant is the Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above captioned Action.
2. That a true and correct copy of the Petition for Relief Under Protection from Abuse Act was sent by registered mail to the Defendant.
3. The registered mail was sent to George L. Neiswonger at Beaver Street, Springboro, PA 16435 on September 20, 1985, The sender's receipt is attached hereto.
4. That the defendant received said registered mail on September 24, 1985. Saidf receipt card number 025 160 681 is attached hereto and signed by George L. Neiswonger.

Sylvia L. Dratler

Sept. 30, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, September 26, 1985, this Abuse Action is before the Court alleging incidents of abuse that occurred in December of 1984 and January of 1985. After hearing, the Court finds the real purpose of the Petition for Relief and Protection from Abuse is because of the threats made by the husband to move back into the former household in order to forse the wife to accept his terms of a Divorce Action.. Likewise, it is contended by the Defendant that the wife is being so unreasonable in resolving the marital property issue in the Divorce Action that some drastic action has to be taken by him to convince her to be more reasonable in arriving at an amicable settlement.

The Court does not believe that the Protection from Abuse Act should be used to force either party into a settlement of a Divorce Action.. Accordingly, we are not in a position at this time to enter any Order against the defendant, because we find that the isolated incidents some time ago are not the real thrust of this Petition.

However, the Court is well aware that the Court is granted broad equitable powers under the Divorce Act, and that either party may petition the Court for Special Relief. Accordingly, the Court will treat this petition with the same force and effect as if either party had petitioned the Court for special relief regarding occupancy of the mutually owned residence. In view of the fact the wife and the children reside therein, common sense and equity dictate that they should remain in the household pending negotiations during the divorce action.

Accordingly, the Court will enter this order and DIRECT its filing at the Divorce Action, which is AD 1985-120. The wife shall have the right together with the children to have exclusive occupancy of the dwelling house for the next two (2) months from this date.

In the event the Divorce Action is not amicably resolved or in the hands of a Master by that date, the Court will entertain a motion by either party seeking further adjustment of this Order and a further determination as to who should have the equitable right during a protracted negotiation or contest of a Divorce Action to occupy the residence.

Petition for Relief under the Abuse Act is dismissed, but this Order is DIRECTED to be filed and shall govern the parties as with the same force and effect as if it had been filed in the Divorce Action.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

And now, June 13, 1988, this Court having discovered onJune 4, 1988, that a Bifurcated Divorce Decree entered June 3, 1988, was issued through procedural oversight and error on the part of the court, on June 4, we promptly contacted counsel for the plai ntiff and so advised hom. The Prothonotary is directed to strike the Divorce decree fromthe records, will note on the records that this order cancelled a Divorce Decree and shall not issue a copy of said divorce Decree to either party.

1 copy (atty)

Oct. 30, 1985, Affidavit of Service filed. I, the undersigned being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that I served a true and correct copy of the divorce complaint filed by the plaintiff and certified by the Prothonotary of Crawford County, Pa. on the above named defendant by cert. mail, addressee only, return receipt requested, dated Oct. 3, 1985. The Defendant acknowledged service on Oct. 7, 1985, by accepting delivery on that date as evidenced by the attached signed ret. receipt.

Thomas D. O'Shea, Esq.

Oct. 30, 1985, Motion to schedule a hearing time on request for alimony Pendente Lite, court costs, counsel fees and related expenses, and order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, 10/30/85, a hearing on plaintiff's request for Alimony Pendente Lite, Court Costs, Counsel Fees and Related Expenses is set for Nov. 26, 1985 at 10:00 A.M. in Courtroom 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard thomas, J.

Nov. 1, 1985, copy of order to T. O'Shea, Esq.

Nov. 15, 1985 Motion to Continue and Order filed. AND NOW this 15 day of Nov., 1985, upon consideration of the foregoing motion, a hearing in the above captioned matter is rescheduled for the 9th day of Dec., 1985 at 3:00 P.M. o'clock

P. Richard Thomas,

Nov. 15, 1985 Copies of order to David Tryee and Thomas O'Shea

Dec. 10, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, December 9, 1985, at the time set for hearing on Alimony Pendente Lite, court costs and counsel fees, the parties through their respective counsel advise the Court they have resolved a portion of the issues amicably with said agreement being as follows:

1. Commencing with the month of December, 1985, the husband will pay anallocated Alimony Pendente Lite to the wife in the amount of $700.00 per month, with payments to be made in two (2) equal installments of $350.00 on the third and eighteenth of ach and every month. The parties acknowledge that $300.00 has been paid for the month of December, 1985, and the balance of $400.00 will be paid on the eighteenth of December.
2. It appears the parties are the holders of a second mortgage on real estate in the State of Ohio. The parties agree that the $100.00 per month payment on said mortgage will be received and retained by the wife as her property.
3. The parties mutually agree that this order regarding Alimony and the mortgage payment shall remain effective through the month of May 1986 or sooner if the parties in this divorce action have rresolved all the issues and the divorce has been granted before said date. In the event the divorce is not granted, either party may petition the court after June 1, 1986 for further appropriate disposition of the Alimony issue and the martgage payments.
4. The parties mutually acknowledge they have a joint money market account with the approximate value of $2,653.00 and that the same will be liquidated with fifty-five (55%) percent of the net proceeds applicable to the wife and the balance to the husband. The parties mutually agree that a division of this single asset in this fashion is not indicative nor binding on a Master or ultimately the Court to divide other marital property by similar precentages.
5. The husband agrees that he will continue to carry his wife and child as dependent coverage under any hospitalization or health insurance program provided by his employers and will not remove said parties without the consent of the wife.
6. The parties acknowledge a temporary grant in the amount of $410.00 more or less was procured by the wife from the Department of Welfare and repayment of said amount shall be the sole rsspnsibility of the wife.
7. The parties agree that the mother currently has custody of the child and that the father has now taken up residence in Long Island, New York and this arrangement shall remain in effect until further agreement of the parties. The parties agree that if the father visits the Meadville community, satisfactory arrangements will be made for visits between father and child.
8. The parties agree to defer any requests for counsel fees and costs at this time without prejudice to the right to raise it in the future or present any claims therefore at the Master's hearing for appropriate division between the parties.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

July 21, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, July 18, 1986, at the time the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation for custody, a request to modify the prior custody agreement and a hearing in the Domestic Relations Section for support, the aprties have reached an amicable agreement regarding custody as follows:

1. Minor child Merric will continue to remain in the custody of the mother; minor child Nels will continue to remain in custody of the father.

8. Insofar as an obligation for support is considered, Court notes there was a motion to reactivate the Domestic Relations case, which was filed June 30, 1986, and the Court takes no action on the support obligation of either parent, in view of the above agreement, regrding temporary custody of the chidlren, with both parents.

In the event there is a substantial change in the previous custodial agreement between the aprties, either party may move the Court to refer the matter to a hearing officer in the Domestic Relations division to establish appropriate support obligations for either or both parents.

I. Legal custody of Kallista Holzerland shall be shared between the mother and the father, that is, each shall be entitled to full access to medical records, school records and other important records, and each shall be entitled to take part in decisions affecting the child's medical treatment, education, religious instruction and other important decisions.

II. Physical custody of Kallista Holzerland shall be with her mother, Kathleen Holzerland, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father, Jeffrey Holzerland, shall be able to visit the child and take the child into his custody every Friday during the month of December, 1985, from 8:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M.

B. Beginning in 1986, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his custody every other weekend, beginning January 3, 1986, from 8:00 A.M. on Friday until 5:00 P.M. on Sunday. The father shall provide transportation for the child to and from the home of the mother.

C. During those weekends when the child is in the custody of the father, the father shall not comsume alcoholic beverages and shall not consume alcoholic beverages at any other time when the child is in his custody.

D. Holidays are defined as Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. E. Beginning with the calendar year 1986, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his custody for a one week period to correspond with the fathers vacation from work. The father shall provide the mother with at least thirty (30) days notice of this one week vacation visitation period.

F. Neither party shall do or say anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but on the other hand, shall do everything in the power of each to foster a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward both parents.

G. Neither party shall expose the child to any person or situation that would have an adverse effect on the child's health, safety and welfare.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days of the date hereof.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $140.00 shall be equally divided between the parties.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, PROPERTY DISTRIBUTION AND CHILD CUSTODY

Nov. 8, 1985, Answer of defendant filed.

July 7, 1987 Inventory And Appraisement Of Robert D. Hill filed.

July 8, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, July 8, 1987, We have received a request from the plaintiff to appoint a Master to determine issues of equitable distribution of marital property. The motion indicates that the pl aintiff has filed both an Income and Expense Statement and an Inventory and Appraisement on July 6, 1987. The Prothonotary's Office indicates that those items have not been filed. It has noted that an Inventory and Appraisement has been filed as of July 7, 1987 on behalf of Robert D. Hill, although it refers to the filing party as being the plaintiff instead of the defendant, an error that undoubtedly could be corrected by amendment. However, since the moving party in Request for the Appointment of a Master has not filed an Inventory and Appraisement, and the only issue to be referred to the Master is equitable distribution, we will decline to appoint a Master until an Inventory and Appraisement is filed. Under the circumstances, we will retain the motion in chambers for ten (10) days from this date, and if no inventory and appraisement is filed, will enter an order denying the appointment.

Nov. 15, 1989 Order filed. And now, November 13, 1989, the Court hereby sets a status conference in the above entitled civil case for December 14, 1989, at 1:30 p.m., in Courtroom No. 1. It appears that Plaintiffs' counsel, Marsha Meadows, has moved her practive to the state of Florida, and her last known address is 1512 Normandy way, Leesburg, Florida, 32748. It attorney Meadows no longer intends to represent the Plaintiffs, she will present a petition to withdraw her appearance at least seven days before the status conference. In the event of withdrawal the Court requires that the Plaintiffs personally appear at the status conference so that the Court may ascertain their intentions in this case regarding procurement of new counsel.
The Court notes for the enlightenment of the parties and counsel that the next civil jury trial terms in Crawford County commence February 12, April 16, June 11, and October 8, 1990.
The Prothonotary is directed to forward a copy of this Order to Plaintiffs' counsel at the above noted address, to Plaintiffs at their last known address and to defense counsel.

Dec. 28, 1989 Praecipe for Rescheduled Status Conference filed.

Jan. 4, 1990 Re: Request to Reschedule Status Conference and Order Filed. Order: And Now, December 29, 1989, the Court is presented with a request by Defendant's counsel to reschedule a previously continued status conference to permit the Plaintiffs to secure new counsel. This Court has contacted proposed new counsel this date who advises the Court that he is attempting to get Mrs. Hawks to come to his office, and he is awaiting receipt of a file from an undisclosed attorney in Erie, Pennsylvania, regarding the case.
Obviously, this case has been too long delayed, but this Court does not believe that the scheduling of a status conference was intended as a procedural tool to force the Plaintiffs to procure counsel to represent them in their case, particularly when suit was instituted more than four years ago.
Accordingly, we direct that an appearance by an attorney be entered for the Plaintiffs on or before February 1, 1990. Upon the failure of the Plaintiffs to do so, this Court will entertain a motion by the Defendant to list the case for trial at the April term of civil court. If said motion is granted, the Court advises the Plaintiffs that it will not grant any continuance for the purpose of procuring new counsel, or to allow newly retained counsel further time for pretrial discovery, or to prepare the Plaintiffs' case.

Nov 4, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, October 31, 1985, after hearing, the Court is satisfied that the conduct of the defendant warrants a Protection Order under the Abuse Act, and accordingly, the defendant Gilbert Bell is directed not to annoy, harass or assault or threaten his wife in any fashion nor her three children from a prior marriage.

It further appears that the wife has arranged to move out of the jointly held residence and take up new residence with her three children by a former marriage and that she has already filed a support complaint with the Domestic Relations Section. The Court lacks adequate time at this hearing to explore in full the full liability of the defendant for support of his wife and the amount of support for the four children and we enter a Temporary Order without further exploration of the finances of both parties and not as an indication of what the final Order should be. The defendant Gilbert Bell will pay the sum of $100.00 per week for thesupport of his wife and four children, with $90.00 allocable to the four children and $10.00 allocable to the wife, with the Support Order to commence the week of October 27, 1985, with payments to be made through the Domestic Relations Section on a weekly basis.

There is a dispute regarding the frequency of the husband's telephone calls to his children and his wife at the new residence. She is fearful that the calls will be of such frequency to indicate theresmay be an intention to harass or annoy by the frequent calls. The defendant is prevented from going to the residence of his wife except to pick up and return the children until further Order of Court, but he is allowed to call the children during reasonable times when the children will be home four times during any calendar week, Sunday through Saturday.

By agreement of the parties, the father may pick up his four children born of this marriage every other weekend commencing the weekend of November 8 through 10, 1985, and he shall pick the children up approximately 5:00 p.m., Friday, and return them 7:00 p.m., Sunday.

The Court urges the parties to enter into a separate agreement regarding visitation on such traditional dates as the children's birthdays, Thanksgiving and Christmas but if the parties fail to reach such an agreement, the Court directs that the father have his children on Thanksgiving Day, 1985 and that the children be in the home of the mother on Christmas Day, 1985, but that the father be given a period of not less than two consecutive days either immediately before or immediately after Christmas to have the children in his custody at reasonable times, and if the parties cannot agree, the hours will be generally 5:00 PM, until 8:00 P.M. The Court anticipates the parties to reach a supplemental agreement that will cover visitations and an extended visitation period during school vacations commencing in 1986.

Oct. 8, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, Oct. 2, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a petition for the Court to set costs and attorney fees for the plaintiff in this indigent divorce action.
The Court reviews bills submitted by counsel for the plaintiff, listens to argument of both counsel and believes at this juncture and with the collateral issues admittedly all resolved in the divorce action, total fees in the amount of $300.00 to counsel for the plaintiff is appropriate. Accordingly, the defendant is directed to pay the sum of $150.00 on or before Oct. 15, 1986, and a similar amount on Nov. 15, 1986, direct to counsel for the plaintiff.
The Court will award no further fees unless the matter becomes protracted and the Court makes a finding that the delay in processing the divorce was the fault of the husband and not the wife.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Dec. 19, 1985, copies of order to Dale Cable, and H. White, Esqs.

Feb. 28, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 27, 1986, at the time this matter is called for hearing, counsel for the parties agree that the original suspension arose because of the defendatn's failure to pass a special driver's examination test, which failure arose from a confused factual situation. It now appears that the defendant has taken the special driver's examination, passed the dame and has been reissued his Pennsylvania operator's license, which is produced for the Court's inspection this date.

ACCORDINGLY, any administrative oversight on the part of the defendant for failing to pass the special driver's examination has been rectified with the consent of the Department of Transportation.

ACCORDINGLY, his appeal is sustained and any suspension imposed as a result of fa failing to take a special driver's examination is directed to be rescinder by the Department of Transportation

Nov. 8, 1985 Order for Commitment filed: AND NOW, November 6, 1985, after hearing, receipt of reports and input from the attending doctor and caseworkers, the Court finds the patient, Cindy Louise O'Day, to be mentally retarded and that the best efforts of the local retardation program have not been able to control her spontaneous disruptive behavior. Accordingly, the Court directs that Cindy Louise O'Day be committed to Polk Center, effective November 11, 1985, for inpatient care for an indeterminate period of time in an attempt to stabilize her actions so that she will be amenable to less restrictive care. The aforesaid in accord with the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Act.

BY THE COURT

June 27, 1986 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas and Christopher Youngs

July 16, 1986 Income and Expense Statement of Gary L. Johnson filed.

July 17, 1986 ORDER filed, AND NOW, July 16, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a Petition for alimony, pendente lite. It appears the Plaintiff is unemployed and her only income during the summer months is $106.00 per week unemployment insurance, but commencing in September, she returns to full time work for a period of nine (9) months and nets approximately $200.00 per week. The Defendant's income as a truck driver is difficult of calculation, and the figures before the Court only reflect gross receipts from which taxes and other expenses must be paid. Additionally, the Defendant is under a support obligation for two (2) children by a prior marriage, amounting to approximately $190.00 per month. Accordingly, the Court attributes an earning capacity to the Defendant of approximately $1,000.00 per month net at this time.
In view of the foregoing, the Court enters the following Order:
Dating back to the date of the filing of the Petition, June 26, 1986, the Defendant shall pay his wife the sum of $50.00 per month alimony pendente lite for the month of June, 1986; $200.00 per month for the months of July and August; and $150.00 per month for the months of September and October. No further alimony pendente lite will be ordered unless the Court is convinced that this relatively simple divorce action is being delayed by conduct attributable to the Defendant.
The aforesaid sum shall be paid as follows: The June payment of $50.00 shall be paid within thirty (30) days of this date; the July, August and September, Octoberppayments shall be paid on the 15th and 30th of each and every month, with one-half of the monthly award due on said date.
The Court awards counsel fees to the Plaintiff in the amount of $250.00, which said sum to be paid by the Defendant on or before August 15, 1986, and the award of counsel fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Master and ultimately the Court to allocate each party's counsel fees amoung each other as equitable conditions required.

Oct. 9, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW,Oct. 8, 1987, the matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's petition to adjudicate Defendant in contempt for failing to pay an alimony pendente lite Order entered by this Court July 16, 1986. Neither party appears, and counsel for Plaintiff acknowledges that the Plaintiff now works in the State of Texas. Attorney Joan D. Mason appears advising the Court that her only involvement in the case was to have previously submitted to the Court sometime in Oct. of 1986 a petition for modification of the Court's Order for alimony pendente lite, which the Court refused to accept, and in additions, that at the request of the Defendant, she placed her signature on Defendant's Interrogatories. Attorney Mason does not consider herself as being retained by the Defendant, and accordingly, until she enters formal appearance in this case, we will consider the Defendant is acting without counsel in this case.

This hearing is rescheduled for Nov. 6, 1987 at 9:30 a.m,and counsel for the Plaintiff may secure such service of a copy of this Order and notice of hearing upon the Defendant as he deems appropriate under the Rules in view of the fact Attorney Mason is not at this time representing the Defendant.

If any such accounts exist, either party shall immediately notify the other party hereto, within ten days of the date ofthis decree, as to the identity of the loan or account, giving the name and address of the creditor, and account number. 6. RAILROAD DISABILITY PENSION:

a. A railroad disability pension is being received by the Defendant, Melvin C. Bergstrom, presently in the amount of $1,132.20, being the net after deduction of a Medicare premium of approximately $24.00 or $25.00 (which pension is based on his earnings from approximately 1962 until approximately 1974). Tier I benefits consist of approximately $627.00 at the preent time (analogous to Social Security disability payment to the Defendant) and the Tier II amount (the only portion of said payment considered marital property) presently consits of $10.00

Plaintiff relinquishes to defendant any interest she may have in the Tier I and Tier II benefits, (other than as may be automatically payable to her without any further action on her part against the Defendant, through the Social Security system).

b. Melvin C. Bergstrom now receives additionally $502.00, and shall pay from that amount monthly the sum of $400.00 to his daughter, Cheryl MeCrea presently of Hamilton, Ohio, to be used solely and exclusively for the benefit of the parties' adult daughter, Theresa Bergstrom, who suffers from mental retardation. This shall commence with January, 1988. (Theresa bergstrom presently resides with her mother, Mary I. Bergstrom.) $300.00 per month shall be disbursed from said funds to the person or institution having custodial care and physical custody of Theresa Bergstrom.

C. If Theresa Bergstrom lives with another person or in an institution rather than withher mother, payment of said $300.00 shall be made to said custodial person or institution, prorated onthe basis of time during the month that Theresa lives with said person or in said custodial institution. This responsibility shall be the responsibility of Cheryl McCrea. Said payments, and the use of said payments shall be construed in accordance withthe laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. A separate account shall be opened by Cheryl McCrea for the receipt anddisbursement of these monies, and for the receipt and disbursement of anyother monies to be received for the use of Theresa Bergstrom including any Social Security or SSI benefits. Also to be added to said account shall be the proceeds of a trust account of approximately $1,500.00

d. Cheryl McCrea shall utilize said funds for Theresa Bergstrom's individual care, including medical and dental services, medicines, clothing, incidental toiletries, material items for Theresa, minor cosmetic surgeries for Theresa, and such other services and items that Cheryl McCrea shall deem advisable and reasonable for the care of Theresa bergstrom. She shall retain all invoices and bills and bank statements and cancelled check, relating tothese matters, and shall make them available to the defendant at least quarterly each year. In the event of the expenditure of more than $100.00 per any said item or service, she shall notify Melvin C. Bergstrom in advance if at all possible.

e. In the event that Cheryl McCrea is no longer available to serve in the capacity as set forth above, the parties hereto shallmutually select an alternate person or institution for management of said account or if they cannot agree, shall apply to the court for appointment of a suitable trustee.

f. Either Mary I. Bergstrom or Cheryl McCrea shall be responsible for the timely filing of any necessary tax documents on behalf of Theresa Bergstrom, each year, and shall timely pay all taxes incident to the receipt of said $400.00 monthly from Theresa Bergstrom's account. In the event that either Melvin C. Bergstrom individually or Theresa Bergstrom individually is required to pay income taxes on amounts Theresa Bergstrom is entitled to receive under Railroad Disability, said taxes incident thereto shall be paid by the tax payer whom the income is attributed, and reimbursed by the other recipient at a rate of not over $75.00 per month interest free, said reimbursement to begin the first full month following payment of the tax. This also anticipates the possibility that taxes for past monies actually paid to or for Theresa Bergstrom may be assessed against Theresa Bergstrom or either or both parties hereto, either by the IRS or Railroad Retirement regulations, with said payments having been made under the name of Melvin C. Bergstrom. Also, a copy of Theresa Bergstrom's income tax returns shall be furnished to Melvin C. Bergstorm within five days of the date upon which they are filed.

g. In no event will the amounts to be paid to anyone or any institution on behalf of Theresa Bergstrom, invade the basic Tier I and Tier II benefit amount that Melvin C. Bergstrom is or shall be entitled to, including any costs of living increases, which shall be his alone.

h. Mary I. Bergstrom, so long as she has physical custody of Theresa bergstrom, shall have the responsibility of reporting any income received by Theresa Bergstrom, in the event that Theresa is employed and receives income from any source. Any reduction in railroad benefits payable to Melvin C. Bergstrom because of Theresa's employment or other circumstance, shall result in reduction dollar for dollar from the payment owed by Melvin C. Bergstrom for Theresa Bergstrom and payable to Mary I. Bergstrom, or her substitute, or Theresa Bergstrom's trustee if one shall be appointed. It is noted that at present Theresa works to a limited extent through Vallonia Industries, located in Meadville, Pennsylvania and does receive minimal financial compensation for her employment.

i. As long as P laintiff receives cash Railroad Disablility benefits, $400.00 monthly shall be the most due to or for Theresa bergstrom from her father from any and all sources of income he may have, and this monthly figure is not modifiable unless Melvin C. Bergstrom no longer receives cash railroad disability benefits and instead goes to work for wages greater than his current total disability figure (including money recieved for the benefit of Theresa Bergstom). If Melvin c. Bergstrom suffers reduction or elimination or suspension of said Railroad Disability income, below the current dollar amount being paid as set forth above, and for reasons other than disqualification in the event that he is ever deemed no longer disabled from working, and provided that he is indeed working producing as much net income as he currently recieves from Railroad Retirement Disability, his support obligation to Theresa Bergstrom may be reviewed by the court.

j. In the event of the death, marriage, or employment of Theresa Bergstrom, andin the event of any disqualifying event that would keep Theresa Bergstrom from being eligible for Railroad Disability income, Mary I. Bergstorm and Cheryl MeCrea (or substitute person or institution having physical custody of Theresa Bergstrom) shall have the responsiblity of immediately reporting said event and the date of said event to Melvin C. Bergstrom, and all payments under this agreement shall be modified in accordance with the applicable rules and regulations ofthe railroad Retirement Board and the INternal revenue Service.

k. In the event that Melvin C. Bergstrom predeceases Theresa Bergstrom this decree shall in no way be construed to deprive Theresa Bergstorm of Railroad Disability dependent survivor benefits under the railroad Retirement Act.

l. If possilbe,t he $400.00 monthly payment shall be made directly from the Railroad Retirement Board to cheryl McCrea, in accordance with their regulations. If this is not accomplished, said payment shall be made $300.00 as set forth above to Mary I. Bergstrom or substitute person or institution having physical custody of Theresa bergstrom, with the remaining $100.00 to be paid by Melvin C. Bergstrom to Cheryl MceCree and used as set forth above.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

June 2, 1988 Motion to return Master fees Deposited and Order filed. AND NOW, this 2nd dayof June, 1988, the Prothonotary is directed to release to Ann Hansen Gamble, attorney for Plaintiff, Mary I. Bergstrom the sum of $200.00 which had previously been deposited against fees ofthe Master.

P. Richard Thomas

June 8, 1988 Copies of order to Joan Mason, Ann Hansen Gamble and Barbara Smith

June 28, 1996 Amended Agreement and supplemental Decree filed. AND NOW, this 28 day of June, 1996, the Court decrees as follows: 1. Paragraph 6 of the Decree of June 3, 1988, is vacated in its entirety, including subparagraphs (a) through (l), and the following paragraph 6 is substituted:

"6. RAILROAD DISABILITY PENSION: Melfin Bergstrom has suffered a significant reduction in the amount of his Railroad Retirement benefits. Currently, his net Railroad Retirement benefits, after the deduction of Social Security, is in the amount of $1,219.90. Additionally, the Railroad Retirement Board has demanded the return of an overpayment to Melvin Bergstrom which totals $21,804.00. the Railroad Retirement Board indicates that it will further reduce the monthly payments to Melvin Bergstrom by $455.00 per month for 48 months in order to recover the overpayment. This further reduction would leave Melvin Bergstrom with only $764.90 in monthly income.

Because of significant inflation since the original Decree was entered into on June 3, 1988, Melvin Bergstrom is having difficulty living on the net amount of his Railroad Retirement benefits of $1,219.90. In the event he is not successful in convincing the Railroad Retirement Board to waive the repayment of the mistaken overpayments, he will not be able to sustain himself on the sum of $764.90.

The Corut has been informed that Theresa Bergstrom, the disabled daughter of Melvin Bergstrom, is receiving Supplemental social Security in an amount of approximately $445.00 and that these paymens have been made since the Summer of 1995. Theresa Bergstrom also receives income from work performed by her in a sheltered work shop in Meadville, Pennsylvania.

So long as Theresa Bergstrom is receiving Supplemental Social Secuirty, the requriement of Melvin Bergstrom to pay $400.00 per month to Cheryl McCrea for and on behalf of Theresa Bergstrom shall be suspended as of June 1, 1995. should Theresa Bergstrom become ineligible for Supplemental Social Security, the parties amy return to court for an adjustment of the support requirements for Theresa Bergstrom."

2. Except as modified by this Supplemental Decree, the Decree of June 3, 1988, shall remain in full force and effect.

Aug. 25, 1987 Order Filed: AND NOW,August 24. 1987, at the time set for argument on the motion for summary judgment filed by Robert B.McGraw, counsel for the Plaintiff consents that the motion for summary judgment in favor of McGraw should be granted, thus removing McGraw from the case. Accordingly, the motion of Robert B. McGraw for summary judgment is GRANTED, and Robert B. McGraw is removed as a party Defendant in this case.
At the time scheduled for argument, counsel for Sam Magdovitz and Company appears, files an affidavit of Allen Samuels and orally moves for a motion for summary judgment in favor of Sam Magdovitz and Company. Continuation of AD 1985 - 1033 - Kinnear vs. cotton club Bottling, Inc.

June 22, 1988, RE: DEFENDANT MAGDOVITZ'S SECOND MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT - ORDER filed. ORDER: And now, this 21 day of June 1988, in light of the fact defendant Sam Magdovitz and Company and defendant Cotton Club Bottling, Inc. have submitted separate affidavits each supporting the position that the 10-ounce bottle of Schweppes Ginger Ale originated with neither defendant respectively, the Court finds that justice will but be served if at the time of trial each defendant is given the opportunity to question the credibility of the opposing defendant's affiant. We believe that such issues of credibilityshould be left for determination by the jury. Accordingly, we deny defendant Magdovitz's Motion for summary Judgment.

Attorney for Plaintiff

Dec. 17, 1985 Appearance of Petruso & Fabian by Gary A. Fabian for Defendant filed.

July 17, 1986, Affidavit of Consent of plaintiff filed.

July 17, 1986, Affidavit of Consent of defendant filed.

July 17, 1986, STIPULATION agreed to by parties filed. (equitable distribution, spousal support, custody)

July 17, 1986, Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney, for Referral to court, this case moved to court.

July 31, 1986 Petition For additional Remedies filed. (Equitable Distribution Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs and Custody)

Aug. 8, 1986 Order filed. This simple 201(c) one issue divorce case was filed November 22, 1985. The requisite Consent Affidavits were filed by both parties July 17, 1985. At the same time the Consents were filed, there was also filed on July 17, 1986, a Stipulation of the Marital settlement agreement enter into between the parties. This Stipulation provided for a resolution of custody suport equitable distribuiton and counsel fee issues not reaised in the orginal complaint .

The courts of this County in divorce actions have adopted a policy of not dispposing of unplead matters in a divorce action, even though the parties privately agree to resolve these matters. the Courts feel that we are only permitted to enter a divorce decree that resolves the issues reaised in the pleadings and the we lack the power to enter a divorce decree covering multitudes of cllateral matters that are not raised as an issue in the divorce action in the pleadings.

Thus, when the matter was referred to the Court for resolution by Praecipe on July 17, we would normally have declined to enter a Divorce Decree incorporating the Stipulated Agreement of the aprties relating to collateral issues.

However, the matter becomes somewhat more complex because on July 31, 1986, the Defendant filed a "Petition for additional Remedies" in which she raised substantially the same issues covered by the Stipulation. Thus, it would seem that the collateral issues have now been properly plead and could be subject to a divorce decree, not only terminating the marriage but also disposing of collateral matters. The difficulty, however, arises in view of the fact that at least technically the Plaintiff has an additional 20 days to file an Answer To the Defendant's Petition for these additional remedies. Thus, the matter is not ripe for entry of a decree.

We will return this divorce to the Prothonotary as we feel it is not in a procedural posture for the entry of a decree at this time and note that after the passage of 20 days if no responsive plea is filed we will construe the intent of the parties as intending to be bound by the July 17 Stipulation which apparently resolved all of the issues in the July 31, Petition.

After the passage of 20 days, we will entertain a new Praecipe for consid=eration of this divorce and, unless notified to the contrary, the Court will approve and sign the proposed divorce decree already presented to the Court.

Dated: August 5, 1986.

B. On Christmas and other holidays, the mother and the father shall divide physical custody of the children in accordance with their wishes and the wishes of the children.

C. It is understood and agreed that this order and custody and visitation arrangement is to be on a trial basis and is entered without prejudice to the right of either the mother or father at any time after March 1, 1986, to ask for a further hearing or mediation conference for the purpose of revising or changing the custody or visitation arrangements set forth herein.

D. It is specifically ordered that neither the mother nor the father shall say anything about the other parent, in the presence of the children, that would tend to turn the children against the other parent, but, on the other hand, shall at all times speak respectfully of and to the other parent in an attempt to foster a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the children toward both parents.

E. Based upon the mothers agreement, it is specifically ordered that when the children are visiting the mother, Michael Zinz shall not be present in the Mother's apartment, and it is further ordered that while the children are in the custody of the mother, she shall not permit anyone to attempt to indoctrinate the children or influence the children with respect to the Mormon religion.

F. The mother shall provide transportation for the children on visits to and from the home of the father.

G. Neither the mother nor the father shall expose the children to any person or situation that would adversely affect the health, safety and welfare of the children.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $160.00 shall be equally divided between the parties. This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within (30) days of the date of this order.

Oct 24, 1986 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, Oct. 24, 1986, after mediation in the above captioned case and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

4. 7. Transportation of the children in the course of execution of this Order shall be provided by the father.

May 16, 1989 Rule To Show Cause Why Petition To Modify Custody Should Not Be Granted filed. AND NOW, this 16 day of May, 1989, upon consideration of the within petition to modify custody and on motion of C. Barton Jones, Esquire, attorney for petitioner, a hearing is scheduled for the 8 day of June, 1989, at 1:30 o'clock p.m., in Court Room "1" of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania, for respondent to show cause, if any he has why the prayer of the petition to modify custody should not be granted.

Pl aintiff is further directed to produce said minor children at said hearing.

Leave is hereby granted to serve respondent's attorney by certified mail, return receipt requested.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

May 19, 1989 copy mailed to C. Barton Jones and 1 copy put in Douglas Ferguson's box.

June 12, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, June 8, 1989, the matter is before the Court on a petition by the plaintiff to review the custody order in view of some dramatic changes that have occurred in the father 's life.

The Court handles the matter informally, interviews the three (3) children in chambers in the presence of counsel and believes that there is a genuine affection for both parents by a desire to commence again spending time with their father, and seemingly have genuine affection for him and for his parents, with whom their father is now residing.

Accordingly, the Court sees no need to make any dramatic change in the aforesaid Order that was entered October 24, 1986, except as noted below.

Paragraph 2 regarding the six (6) week summer visit of the father is modified as follows: For 1989, the parents agree that that summer visit shall commence Sunday, July 2nd for a period of six (6) seeks. The parties believe it would be best in future years for the father to give notice by May 1st of the six (6) week period in which he desires to exercise these visits as the summer activities of the children and the vacation plans of both parents may dictate a varying schedule for the commencement of the six (6) week period each year.

In the event that in 1989 or in future years the six (6) week period selected by the father interferes with the planned vacation schedule of the mother with her husband and children the mother's vacation period shall take precedence for a period of one (1) week in return for which the father shall be given a one (1) seek make-up period during the summer period to make up for the week loss, because of the mother's vacation schedule.

In regard to Paragraph 5 concerning holiday visits, the parties mutually agree to a modification of that Paragraph to the end that for Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Labor Day, they will make satisfactory independent arrangements to divide or share custody on those holidays without the necessity of a Court Order.

Regarding Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, the parents will continue to alternate those holiday with the father having the Thanksgiving visit in 1989 and the mother having the Christmas visit in 1989, and the parents alternating said holidays in future years. Unless the parents agree to the contrary between themselves, the Thanksgiving visit ahll be from 6:30 p.m. Wednesday until 6:30 p.m. Sunday, and the Christmas visit will be from December 24th at 6:30 p.m. until December 27th at 6:30 p.m. The court notes that the parties are considering an amicable arrangement to share these two periods in a different fashion, but in absence of an agreement, the Court's conditions will control.

Regarding Paragraph 3, it shall remain the same, except the visitation times on alternating weekends shall be Friday at 6:30 p.m. to Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

At the time the original Order was entered, the mother was without available transportation on weekend visits both to deliver and return the children. The Court believes that now that the mother has available transportation, she should share some of the responsibility of transportation in view of the ninety-five (95) mile distance the parents homes. Accordingly, it shall be the father's duty on weekend visits to deliver to the mother and it shall be the responsibility of the mother to return the children to the home of the father. During the six (6) week the same arrangements shall be made, namely the father shall deliver the children back to the mother and the mother shall return them to the father after the weekend visit. During the months of November, December, January and February, on the first weekend visit of those four (4) months, it shall be the father's responsibility to return the children and the mother will be relieved of that responsibility on the first weekend visit of each of those four (4) months.

In the event either parent, because of employment, illness or other valid reasons cannot carry out their transportation responsibilities, another adult person known to the children can be substituted for the parent.

In the past, the fatehr has apparently taken the children with him on business trips, but now advises that his territory has been limited, and his business will not take him out of the State of Pennsylvania. Accordingly, in the event he wishes to take the children with him outside of Pennsylvania or on any overnight business trip in Pennsylvania, he will notify the mother of the address and telephone number of the hotel or motel where the children will be located. The father shall not leave the children unattended on either a vacation or business trip for a period in excess of thirty(30) minutes without providing them responsible adult supervision.

The father's weekend visits shal recommence at 4:00 p.m., June 17th, but in view of the short weekend visit that weekend, the six (6) week summer visit shall commence Friday, June 30th at 6:30 p.m. instead of the above-noted July 2nd.

Oct. 9, 1989, ORDER filed. And now, October 9, 1989, hearing in the above captioned matter heretofore set for Oct. 13, 1989, is hereby reset by the court for Oct. 26, 1989 at 9:30 a.m. in Courtroom No. 1.

FOR THE COURT,
Imogene Yetman Ct. Adm.

Oct. 9, 1989, copies of order put in Atty. Vardaro's box and copy mailed to Atty. Jones.

Nov. 1, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, October 26, 1989, the matter is back before the Court on cross contempt petitions by the parties. After informal and formal hearing, it appears to the Court that in spite of former Court Orders, there is still some confusion regarding the ffather's weekend visits. It appears that prior to the Order, the parties and children had fallen into a practice of excusing the children from certain required visits as a matter of their choice. Both parents recognize the problem in view of the fact that with the increasing ages of the children, school or social activities may occur on father's weekend which the children would desire to attend. The crux of the problem is that both of the compassionate parents are reluctant to make the decision as to whether or not father's visis should take precedence over the children's activities and children's wishes. The Court and parents both agree that the father's visits should not be controlled at the descretion of the children.

Accordingly, the Court DIRECTS that the weekend visits accorded in prior orders to the father will be kept, and the mother shall prepare the children iand instruct the children that they must maintain said visits. It appears that the father has a practive of calling the children one or more days ahead of the proposed visits and the Court leaves to the sole discretion of the father whether he will excuse any child from his required visits on each and every weekend. The Court has every confidence that the father will make sensible decisions regarding the children's requests.

There appears to have been some confusion about the restarting of weekend visits after the six week summer vacation period with the father. Apparently, the father misinterpreted the Order of October 24, 1986 and now agrees that he will have no visitation rights the weekend immediately following the weekend he returns the children from the summer visits

The parties have requested that the previous Orders regarding holiday custody be clarified in view of the fact that the Orders only alternated the Thanksgiving and Christmas visits, and left to the parties an agreement regarding Easter, Memorial Day, July 4th and Labor Day. In order that there be no confusion in the future, the aprties are DIRECTED before the conclusion of this hearing to reduce to writing on a separate piece of paper to be attached to this Order, which parent will have the children for future h oliday visits. The Court notes that as far as Thanksgiving, 1989, visitaiton will be with the father, and visitation for Christmas will be with the mother. The Court DIRECTS the parents to designate the holidays each parent willhave the cihld for the calendar years 1990 and 1991.

In regard to the contempt allegations by both parties, the Court finds that neither parent should be held in contmept an any mix-up regarding a trip to California by father and child was adequately explained to the Court, adn the Court finds insufficient grounds to find either parent in contempt of its Order on the other minor allegations made between the parties.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 18, 1991 Order filed. AND NOW, October 10, 1991, at the time scheduled for hearing on a petition for bifurcation, both parties have appeared with counsel and have agreed there are essentially no assets to be divided and no remaining economic issues to be preserved. In order to properly dispose of this matter, the Plaintiff will promptly file a motion to withdraw Count 2 of his Complaint relating to equitable distribution, which miton will be granted by the Court. The Defendant will file a motion to withdraw that portion of the Answer to Affidavit under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code indicating a desire to litigate economic issues which will leave the case as a simple 201(d) divorce for dissolution of the marriage at which time the case shall be submitted to the Court for entry of a decree in due course.

The Defendant objects to that portion of this Order terminating further decision on economic issues, asserting that she is entitled to some portion of pension benefits in favor of the Plaintiff. However, over a period of six (6) years, she has never filed an Answer to the Complaint nor has she filed any proceeding to further her economic claims.

In the event she fails to file the withdrawal of claims herein above referred to and fails to file an Answer, Counterclaim or petition of some type raising economic issues within twenty (20) days of this date, the Court will proceed to dispose of this case a a 201(d) divorce claiming only dissolution of the marriage. If such Answer or other formal claim is made, the Court will further consider bifurcation of the divorce on motion of any party in interest.

Dec. 31, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, December 27, 1985, after hearing, the Court enteres the following order, which except as herein after provided shall continue in full force and effect for a period of one year after this date:

1. The Defendant shall not threaten, abuse, or harass the Plaintiff at any time or by any means, either in person or by telephone.

2. The Court recognizes that the Courts of Fairfield County, Ohion have taken jurisdiction of matter is custody and visitation and this court has no desire to interfere with the orders of the Fairfield County Court. Howecer, it appears that a modification of the last formal viaitation order has been agreed to by the parties and has been followed by the parties from August at least until early December of 1985 and, therefore, pending further order from the Fairfield County Court, the Defendant shall have the right to take his children with him for visits every other weekend beginning with January 3, 1986, sione at least one visit was interrupted, from Friday at 4:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m. and in addition thereto shall be entitled to take the children with him for visitations every Wednesday from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. If he does not intend to exercise any visitation right, he shall give the Plaintiff at least 24 hours notice of that fack. This Order regarding visitation is intended to be approximately that which the parties have, in fact, been operating on and is believed to be substantially similar to the order that will ultimately be entered in Fairfield County, Ohio, subsequent to this date regarding visitation shall supersede this order.

3. The Defendant shall not go into the Plaintiff's residence when obtaining the children for visitations and the Plaintiff shall arrange to have the children available at the door of the residence at the time set for such visitations.

There is apparently an order for support entered in the Courts of Fairfield County, Ohio, and the Defendant has advised the Court that he has arranged for voluntary wage assignment through the Vereran's Administration of the United States Government for the payment of that support and Court accepts that fact as true and Defendant is directed not to in any way interfere with the payment of support by any voluntary act on his part.

4. Both parties are advised that the law does not permit the withholding of visitation to enforce a support order or conversely, the withholding of support to enforce the visitation order and both parties should make every effort to keep the visitation schedule as expressed herein or an may be subsequently expressed in any order form Fairfield County, Ohio, and should encourage the children to look toward the other parent with love and affection that is due a parent and neither parent shall say or do anything which would adversely affect the relationship of the other parent with the children.

The record costs in this proceeding shall be paid by the Defendant.

Mar 16, 1988 Upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's Attorney for Review Under §201(d) of the Divorce Code, this case is moved to Court.

Apr. 11, 1988, Re: Praecipe to Grant 201(d) Divorce - ORDER: This matter comes before the Court for grant of a 201(d) divorce, we must reject said request. The divorce was started as a section 201(c) diovrce and the mere filing of a supplemental affidavit in accord with section 201(d) will not sufficiently amend the original complaint to permit the court to grant a divorce on grounds not alleged in a complaint or an amended complaint.

On May 18, 1987 this court called to the attention of all counsel to the problems in this area as follows:

"A Superior Court panel ruled in March 1987 that an original 201(c) divorce action does not ripen automatically into a 201(d) action after the passage of 3 years of "separate and apart" living. The filing of a timely 201(d) affidavit will Not be considered as an amendment tothe original complaint so as to impliedly amend a 201(c) divorce into a 201(d) one. See Creach v. Creach, 361 Pa. Super. 482, 522 A.2nd 1133 (March 19, 1987). See also, Momjian article in the May 11, 1987 issue of the Pennsylvania Law Journal-Reporter."

Accordingly, we return this divorce tothe Prothonotary until amended divorce complaint .....alleging 201(d) can be filed and served on the defendant followed by a new 201(d) affidavit.

OCt. 28, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, OCtober 27, 1986, at the time set for hearing on the petition for contempt and for madificationof alimony pendente lite award, counsel for the parties appear, and counsel for the Defnedant notes the Defendant has fialed to appear, but that he is not totally certain that his notice to the Defendant of today's hearing was recieved by the defendant.

Counsel for the Plaintiff advises the Court that the ORder heretofor entered on July 21, 1986 requiring payment in the amount of $240.00 per month has not been complied with as only one payment has been made and advises the Court that the automobile addressed in said ORder has now been reposessed by Pennbank.

It appears the Defnedant is reported to be living in Ripley, New York, and the Court is advised that the wife now is receiving Department of Welfare assistance and food stamps to maintain herself and two minor children, accordingly, the Court finds the defendant wilfully and deliberately in contempt of court for his failure to comply with the aforesaid support Order and DIRECTS the Prothonotary to issue an immediate arrest warrant to the Sheriff of Crawford County, we DIRECT the Sheriff to delay execution of the warrant and set another hearing on this case for NOvember 20, 1986 at 9:30 A.M. If the Defendant fails to appear for such hearing, the Sheriff will forward the warrant to Ripley, New York, for execuiton to take the Defnedant under immediate arrest for contempt.

In the mean time, Defendant is required to continue compliance with the former Order of July 21, 1986, regarding alimony payments, and the Defendant is advised that if he fails to appear on NOvember 20, 1986 and purge himself of contempt, he faces the possibility of incarcerationin the Crawford County Jail.

Counsel for the Defendant is DIRECTED to forward a copy of this ORder to the Defnednat at his last address in Ripley, New YOrk, or through any other contects the attorney knows of, and if there is a wilful and deliberate ignoring of this ORder, the Court intends to deal with the Defendant harshly.

Sept. 24, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, September 19, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a dispute about the Defendant's obligation to pay past due medical bills alluded to in the former Court Orders, which required to reimburse wife for seventy-five percent (75%) thereof.

The parties are in dispute as to whether or not certain medical bills have been incurred, and if so, whether they were necessary for spouse or children.

Court DIRECTS the parties and their counsel to meet immediately after this hearing and review the list of medical bills submitted by the wife and on those that are in dispute as not being due or not being necessary, the Court will take further testimony this afternoon and resolve said issues.

It appears that while there are arrearages on the Court Order, payments have been reasonably consistent since the Order was entered, and in view of the fact there is a required $25.00 payment toward arrearages, which seemingly is being paid and appropriately allocated against arrearages, the Court makes no finding of contempt for failing to pay spousal or child support, but the Defendant is warned the Court expects complete and timely compliance with obligation for spouse and child support.

DIVORCE ACTION

Parties are in bitter dispute about appraisal of the property. It appears that each side has had appraisals done and neither side trusts the other that accurate appraisals of the others have been made. Plaintiff is now requesting that Reimold Brothers, Meadville Metal Company, Oswald Equipment Company and an unnamed vehicle appraiser be allowed to inspect the vehicles, the personal property of the home and the business and all equipment used in the business. The defense bitterly complains that is a complete inconvenience and Court resolves the matter as follows: The Court authorizes the formal appraisals and DIRECTS the Defendant to be cooperative in disclosing all business assets and all personal property and allow free admission to the home for the purpose of formal appraisals. The Court requests Plaintiff to attempt to have these appraisals done by more than one appraisal on a given day, so that the Defendant's equipment and his desire to be present when the appraisals are done would not be a gross inconvenience to the Defendant.

It shall be a conditions of these appraisals that the Plaintiff shall notify her husband by telephone at least five (5) days in advance of when the various appraisal persons will be on the premises, so he may arrange to have the property there and be present if he so desires.

The wife may be present during all appraisals. On the date of appraisals that involve access to the home, the Defendant will either arrange to give his wife keys or have someone on the premises that will open the home and allow the wife to make a personal view of the interior of the premises in picking up special effects. The wife may have any one of her choice accompany her on such appraisals.

It appearing the Master's fee previously ordered deposited early in 1986 has not been complied with, and accordingly, the Defendant is DIRECTED to deposit with the Prothonotary on or before October 1, 1986, the sume of $500.00 previously ordered.

There is a dispute about an authorization requested to disclose all pension plans and secure information thereon from the Defendant. Counsel for the Plaintiff will present an authorization to counsel for the Defendant authorizing the securing of information on any pension plans that the Defendant may be involved with, and said authorization will be signed and returned within five (5) days being submitted.

In regard to the petition for special relief filed September 6, 1986: the Plaintiff has the right to enter the home upon giving the Defendant five (5) days notice and removing personal items remaining therein that belong to her or the children. The Court notes a list was submitted to the Husband, so he has a general idea of what items are requested, and he voiced no objection thereto, except books, and the plaintiff agrees that the only books to be removed will be books belonging to the children or books relating to her professional business.

±The provision allowing her to have a person with her on appraisals likewise applies to entering the premises for the purpose of removing personal items of hers and the children.

Copies of any appraisals sone in the past by the Plaintiff or to be done in the future will be submitted to counsel for the Defendant and likewise, any further appraisals done by the Defendant for which copies have not already been received or will be done in the future are to be submitted to the counsel for the Plaintiff.

Dec. 3, 1986, Petition to Adjudicate Plaintiff in Contempt filed.

Dec. 8, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, Dec. 3, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a petition for contempt and counsel fees filed by the Plaintiff, and a countering petition for contempt filed by the Defendant, a review of the support payments made in accord with prior Court Orders, a review of medical expenses allegedly due and unpaid, and a resolution of said contempt request.

We review the Defendant's payments of his support obligation to wife and child and find the same to have been made on a fairly reasonable basis, and at the present time, the arrears for child support amount to be $110.00 through Dec. 6th and for spousal support $190.00 through Dec. 6th.

The Defendant will continue to pay the required support payments and will see that the support account for wife and child is brought current on or before Dec. 13, 1986.

The Order of Sept. 19, 1986 provided a procedure whereb y certain medical expenses not covered by insurance would be paid and there currently remains according to the wife an outstanding balance to Lakeland Emergicenter of some $534.55, of which $400.87 would be the obligation of the Defendant/Husband under the aforesaid Order.

The problem arises, however, because it appears that while there are two or more insurance companies who may be liable for payment of these expenses at the Emergicenter, the charges of the doctor exceed the insurance deductibles or maximum limits and it is impossible for the Court to ascertain whether or not the policies have been properly processes, so that the Emergicenter receive the maximum allowable under any and all of the polices applicable.

Court places the burden on the Defendant to present undated bill in the amount of $534.55, and any prior billings to ascertain whether or not additional insurance funds can be looked to for payment of the unpaid balance due the Emergicenter. Defendant will have thirty days to clarify this matter with the Emergicenter, and unless he presents to counsel for the Plaintiff with a copy to the Court adequate explanation of why the bill is incorrect, he will be expected to pay the aforesaid requested seventy-five percent (75%) of the same, namely the amount of $400.87 on or before Jan. 17, 1987.

There appears in addition to the present bill presented to the Court from the Emergicenter, other bills totaling $158.38 for prescription drugs and dental services for wife and child. Under the aforesaid seventy-five percent formula, the Defendant would owe $118.78 of this amount. Plaintiff/Wife contends she forwarded these bills to the Defendant, and the Defendant does not argue that he did not receive them, but contends he received such stacks of bills that they may have overlooked his attention, and accordingly, the Court DIRECTS that he research is file for these bills, and will pay his share of the same in the amount of $118.78 before Jan. 1, 1987.

Court returns now to the vigorous dispute between the parties about the various appraisals the the parties have apparently separately made of the assets, and marital property of the parties. First of all, Plaintiff contends the Defendant should be held in contempt because he wilfully and deliberately refused to sign a consent for a disclosure of pension records referred to in our previous Order of Sept. 19th, even though the same was submitted shortly after the hearing.

This matter is resolved as this date the Defendant has signed such authorization to secure pension information and the original is in the hands of counsel for the Plaintiff.

Another dispute between the parties involving a request regarding an appraisal of outdoor signs, under which counsel for the Plaintiff attempted by letter of Oct. 2, 1986 to shortcut the appraisal process and to avoid the requirment to take depositions by presenting to counsel for the Defendant eight 8 specific questions, which if answered, presumptively would have allowed their appraiser to appraise the signs without seeing the same.

This simple request was not answered, and accordingly, the Court presented counsel for the Defendant the opportunity to require the Plaintiff to secure this information by formal deposition at the cost of the Defendant, but the Court believes the matter has now been amicably resolved, and answers to these questions will be furnished within seven (7) days of this date in writing to counsel for the Plaintiff.

If the Defendant fails to comply, Court will adjudge him in contempt of Court without further hearing,and impose appropriate imprisonment for contempt.

To further clarify this Order, both parties agree it is to cover all signs, whether indoor or outdoor.

Counsel has presented a petition and request for $640.00 in attorney fees for bringing this matter to the Court,with the argument that the matter could have been amicably resolved without the taking of excessive time for legal services by counsel for the Plaintiff.

Accordingly, a bill for $640.00 in attorney fees is presented. The Court agrees that this matter should have been amicably resolved without the necessity of of counsel involvement and Court's attention, and accordingly, we DIRECT that the Defendant pay counsel fees to the attorney for his wife in the amount of $300.00 on or before Jan. 10, 1987 as reasonable compensation for the extra work entailed in counsel fees and investigation to bring these matters to the attention of the Court.

Court DIRECTS that this $300.00 shall not be considered in a final allocation by the Court or Master in dividing legal fees and other appraisal and related expert expenses between the parties in the ultimate divorce decree.

Counsel for the Defendant presented this date a petition to hold the Plaintiff in contempt, contending that by Order of Sept. 19, 1986, various appraisals were to be made, and copies were to be submitted to the Defendant.

It is admitted that copies have not been forwarded to the Defendant, but some of the appraisals have not yet been completed. It also is contended that two of the appraisals are this date in the mail, and will be shortly received by defense counsel.

Continuation of AD 1985 - 1098 (Johnson vs. Johnson)

Accordingly, the Court rules as follows: Regarding the Oswald Equipment appraisal and the Meadville Metal appraisal, Counsel for the Plaintiff advises the Court these appraisals are in the mail and will be received in due course by the Defendant.

Regarding the Linsted appraisal, it appears that there are two photographs still necessary to complete the appraisal, and the Defendant will have the two pieces of equipment discussed this date on his premises Friday at 10:00 a.m., and the wife may go to the premises on that date and photograph these two pieces of equipment, and forward them to Mr. Linsted, and Mr. Linsted will complete his appraisal and a copy of the same will be in the hands of defense counsel no later than 5:00 p.m., Dec. 22nd.

In regard to the Reimold Brothers appraisal, same will be completed, and will be in the hands of counsel for the Defendant no later than5:00 p.m., Dec. 15, 1986

If the aforesaid rulings are complied with, the petition to adjudicate the Plaintiff in contempt for these reasons will be dismissed, without further Order.

June 2, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, May 29, 1987, after hearing, the Court finds the Defendant in wilful and deliberate contempt that he paid nothing in accord with the Court's Order of December 3, 1986,accordingly, the Court believes this was a wilful and deliberate attempt to slow up this proceeding and avoid the payment of sums previously ordered by the Court.

Accordingly, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of thirty (30) days.Execution cf the sentence will be postponed on the following conditions:

1. On or before June 12, 1987, the Defendant will pay the sum of $118.78 as alleged in Paragraph 2 of the petition for contempt, and he will pay the sum of $1,228.13 as alleged in Paragraph 4 of the contempt.

The Court notes that the Plaintiff testified there were further medical services and an increase in the amount alleged in Paragraph 5 of said petition, and the correct amount of unpaid services is now $656.46, and theDefendant will pay $492.35 of this amount.

2. In addition, on or before July 10, 1987, the Defendant will pay direct to counsel for the Plaintiff the sum of $250.00 in counsel fees for the expense of bringing this procedure to c ourt.

T he Court notes the Defendant's contention that a portion of these expenses shouldbe covered by the wife's Blue Cross Blue Shield policy, specifically that outpatient doctor expenses are included under the Major Medical portion of said policy.

The Court has heard testimony that the wife does not believe she has such coverage , and has been advised such coverage does not exist. In order to clarify this issue, the wife/Plaintiff will forthwith direct a letter of inquiry to an appropriate person in the Blue Cross/Blue Shield organization attaching whatever bills she has for out patient doctor expenses as examples and ask for a letter in writing as to whether or not outpatient medical expeenses for routine doctor examination and treatment are covered in any fashion under her policy. A copy of all correspondence will be furnished to counsel for the Defendant.

In the event the answer is in the affirmative, with in twenty(20) days of the time the Plaintiff learns she may be entitled to reimbursement for said expenses, she will make application therefor and upon re ceipt of the same, she shall forward it through counsel to counsel for the Defendant, so that the Defendant may be reimbursed for the expenses he is ordered this date to pay.

Johnson vs. Johnson A.D. 1985 - 1098 DIVORCE

Sept. 10, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, September 4, 1987, this matter is before the court on a variety of issues, all of which are reviewed and argued informally by the Court. The Court this date will enter a final divorce decree reserving issues unresolved by the parties.

Insofare as the Domestic Relations Order in this case is concerned, there remains two issues: One, the husband's contention that once the minor daughter reached the age eighteen (18) on May 14, 1987, that in spite of an admitted parental obligation and an agreement to pay for college expenses, that the obligation to cintribute support for an emancipated child, who will be attending college terminated on June 6, 1987, the date of her graduation from high school.

The mother's posture is that in addition to the requirement to pay college tuition, the father should be required to continue contributing support for the college cound adult for the period from June 6, 1987 until entry in college, approximately August 30, 1987.

The Court takes this issue under advisement and will resolve the same by subsequent Order at D.R. 1985 - 661.

In regard to unpaid alimony pendente lite issues before the Court this date, the parties mutually agree through their counsel and personally that alimony pendente lite should have expired August 3, 1987. The court is advised by the Domestic Relations Section that using said date, the amount of unpaid alimony pendente lite is $475.00, and the same will be paid by agreement of the husband on or before October 1, 1987 through the Domestic Relations Section.

The Court has entered previous Orders requiring reinbursement for a variety of medical expenses, and generally imposing an obligation upon the husband to pay certain amounts. The aprties mutually agree that while this matter was intertwined with the divorce action, that any future resolution of this issue will be through the domestice Relations case.

It is the husband's contention that he paid certain amounts in medical expenses and that the Court required the mother to explore the possibility of reimbursement through her health plan, to secure reimbursement for certain medical expenses for herself and minor children. To some extent, the wife has belatedly filed medical claims, but it appears there was some confusion as to whether on prescription expenses the wife was aware of a one hundred dollar ($100.00) deductible as it related to prescription drugs. The wife this date surrenders to the husband a stack of medical claims, evidence of receipts and payments made.

The Court is unable and unwilling at this time to do the necessary accounting to ascertain whether there has been an underpayment or overpayment by the husband, taking into consideration the Orders of Court, the net bills due and the allocation of the net costs, 75%/25% between the parties under prior Orders. Accordingly, the wife to the best of her ability will attempt to recalcutate the bills, reimbursements and payments made by each of the aprties and attempt to ascertain the amount of overpayment to the husband, either because of Court ordered payments or cirect payments or whether there remains an under-payment under Court Orders.

Likewise, the husband this date receives a copy of all of the billing and correspondence as noted aforesaid, and he may make a calculation and made a determination of whether he believes he overpaid or underpaid taking into account reimbursement payments already made by wife to husband in the amount of $212.80, $113.93, $40.79 and $2.73.

When both parties have attmepted to accurately calculate the amount of obligation due by either party and they adjust the accounts reflect any overpayment or underpayment, they shall atempt to resolve the issue and amciably resolve the same and settle the account between themselves. If said resolution is not possible within thirty (30) days of this date, either party may petition the Court under the Domestic Relations number for resolution. The Court advises the parties that it has neither the time nor the inclination to make the detailed calculations required, and it will promptly appoint a health care specialist or an accountant to resolve the issues make a recommendation to the Court. the costs of said expert will be equally divided between the parties.

Mar. 13, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, March 7, 1986, after informal discussion and hearing, it appears that minor child Wendy has now attained the age of eighteen (18) and is residing with her mother. ACCORDINGLY, the parties all agree that the Court jurisdiction to order visitation or custody arrangements for said child is not an issue at this time. As fas as minor child William is concerned, the Court met informally with the child and together with the mother and child and there was a mutual agreement that he would recommence visitation with his mother and as a to said visitation return, the mother and child agree that for the next four (4) Sundays, commencing March 9, between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m., the child will have a visit with his mother at her home. The parties agree the father shall be responsible for taking him to the home of ther mother and the mother will be responsible for returning him to the home of his father. The parties have mutually agreed they will discuss family prblems and attempt to reconcile their differences and resume a compatible mother and sum relationship.

The Court broadches the subject of a family counselor assisting in the process, but son William believes he is capable of handling the situation without the necessity of such counseling and aske that he be given a four=week chance to try to do so. ACCORDINGLY, the Court declines at this time to order any formal family counseling, but if the mother and son agree in the future that the same may be desirable, mother and father will discuss an appropriate counselor and the necessary arrangments will be made.

Both parents are cautioned not to make derrogatory remarks about the other and not to attempt to encourage the child to have disrespect for either parent.

While the Court notes that it has no jurisdiction over the visitation arrangements of child Wendy, the Court encourages her to attempt to resume a compatible relationship with her father to the extent that she visit his home on occasions and re-establishes a firm father/child relationship even though she is no longer living in his household.

The Court suggets that on at least the first visit daughter Wendy will not be present and in order to get the visitation shcedule started on a firm bases the parteis agree that Michael Zintz will not be present on any of the initial vistis.

Nov 9, 1990 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, this 6 day of November, 1990, after mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and the major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3a. Primary physical custody of the subject minor children is hereby awarded to their mother, the defendant. The father shall have temporary physical custody and visitation with his children each summer for a period of three weeks to be taken during the period beginning July 1 and ending August 15. The father shall notify the mother by May 30 of the three week period he wishes to select.

b. The subject minor children shall have the right to telephone the parent not having physical custody each Monday evening. When the children reside with their mother, the call shall be placed at 10:00 p.m., prevailing local time, and when the children reside with their father, at 7:00 p.m., local prevailing time. Said conversations shall not be unreasonably monitored by the parent having physical custody.

4. The father shall be responsible for arranging and paying for the transportation necessary in the exercise of his custodial and visitation rights, until the summer 1992, after which the parties shall split the transportation costs.

5. Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

6. The parties shall arrange for the children and the parents to receive counseling through Meadville Medical Center. The mediator informs the Court that the children have been counseled by Karen Petrowski, who has agreed to continue the counseling. The father's consultations with Ms. Petrowski shall be by telephone, both privately and through conference call involving the mother and the father's wife, as recommended by the counselor. The counselor shall be authorized to divulge to the mediator any and all confidential information which the mediator may request.

7. The mediator has noted for the Court that an estrangement appears to have developed between the subject minor children and their father through no apparent fault of either the children or their father and that the mediator believes that it is in the best interest of the children if the relationship could be repaired and strengthened. It is therefore the aim of the counseling to attempt to help the parties understand their duties with respect to the parental relationships which the children have with the other party, to cope with their situation so that they may develop and maintain a close and loving relationship with each of their parents.

8. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. The parties are cautioned that recent medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the children are being transported or in the bedroom of the children.

9. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the law of Pennsylvania.

10. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the children's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the children's estimation.

11. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this Order shall govern.

12. Either party may request a review of this order one year from date hereof to make any adjustments. The mediator has noted for the Court that the father hopes that the relationship between him and his daughters may be strengthened so that they would feel comfortable in making visits for the entire summer to be his household and that it is hoped that through counseling and communication between the parties and the children, that this may be done.

13. Costs and fees of this mediation, which are fixed at $182.00 are divided equally between the parties. The mediator notes for the court that the mother is receiving public assistance and is indigent and therefore her share shall be paid by Crawford County.

14. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo for thirty (30) days from date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Sept. 26, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, September 24, 1986, at the time set for hearing on a petition contending there was a violation of the Court's Order of July 18, 1986, it appears that the required visit of August 22 to 24 with child Merrick was not accomplished and the reasons therefor are that the child did not want to visit the fther, became emotionally upset, the mother did not pack his bags and the father did not physically remove the child under his emotional state from the custody of the mother but permitted the child to return with the mother. The Court reserves any ruling on contempt becuase of any neglect to comply with the July 18, 1986, Order.

It appears that the mother verbalizes the child Merrick becomes upset and highly emotional as upcoming visits with father approach and it is the mother's posture that he verbalizes a fear that once he is returned to the custody of the father for visits, he will not be able to return to the custody of the mother. The father postulates that under a prior agreement he was to have custody of both children and that the circumstances have not substantially changed that should deprive him of the agreement reached by the aprties, that the best interest of the child Merrick lies in the custody of the father. It appears further that over a two-week summer vacation period, the child Merrick was reluctant to go on the visit with his father, but apparently after arriving at the father's home, acted in a normal fashion, thouroughly enjoyed the vacation period and expressed his emjoyment of the same to his mother.

The father desires to have the hcild evaluated by a child psychologist in Erie, but in view of the fact thechild now resides with the mother in Cleveland and the evaluator does not have Saturday hours, he recognizes the frustration and inconvience of taking the child out of school and the lengthy transportation arrangements necessary for an evaluation in Erie. The mother has offered to sumit the child to a Dr. Faber for consultation and evaluation inthe Cleveland area and the fahter reluctantly consents to the dame, and accordingly, if the mtoehr wishes to arrange for said evaluation, she may do so and the costs thereof will be allocated between the parties as equity and justice requires in a final hearing.

In the meantime, the child will have the following weekend visits with the father between approximately 7:00 p.m. Firday and 7:00 p.m. Sunday with the parties mutually agreeing to pick up and return the child midway between Meadville and Cleveland at Cortland, Ohio:

Weekend of October 3 - 5;
Weekend of October 17 - 19;
Weekend of October 31 - November 1.

The mother shall see that the child is ready for these visits, send the necessary clothing with him and fully understands that even though the child may not want to make said visits, she is under an obligation to deliver him prepared for visits at the times above specified. The father is directed that regardless of the child's wishes or any desires of the father, the child will be returned on a strict schedule in accordance with the foregoing visits.

Final hearing on cusody of child Merrick will be held on NOvember 6, 1986, at 1:30 p.m. before the undersigned. Any written reports received by the mother as a result of Dr. Faber's examination will be duplicated and copies of the same will be forwarded to the father and to the Court. While no examination of the child arranged by the father is anticipated at this time, if indeed there arises any occasion, emergency or otherwise, for said evaluation or medical treatment while the child is in the custodyof the father, any reports emanating from these events will likewise be forwarded to the mother and to the Court,

A.D. 1985 - 961

Feb. 27, 1992 SHERIFF'S RETURN filed. SERVED Troy Unger personally on Feb. 25, 1992 at 2:18 PM by handing copy of Letter-Notice to him at the Sheriff's Office, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa. 16335.
So answers, Diane Severo, Deputy Sheriff
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Feb. 27, 1992 Petitionto Modify Custody, filed.

Feb. 27, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 26, 1992, both parties appear unrepresented in Motion Court due to a letter by the Defendant which has been properly served upon the Plaintiff by the Sheriff of Crawford County on Feb. 25, 1992 which letter the Court takes to be a petitionto modify custody onbehalf of the Defendant.

The Court discusses the matter in chambers with the parties and is advised by the Plaintiff that he will be represented by Atty. James Irwin but has not had an appointment with Mr. Krwin and will not be able to do so until next week.

It appears that the last order entered in this matter was entered on Dec. 6, 1985 after a mediation conference in front of mediator John Fuller.

Apparently, about one year ago due to various circumstances the minor child, Jennifer Unger, went to live with her father by agreement of both parties and contrary to the order of Dec. 6, 1985.

The Court refers this matter back to John Fuller, Esq., to conduct a mediation conference as soon as it may be scheduled by him and pending that mediation conference physical custody of Jennifer Unger shall continue with her father with weekend custody to be with her mother each weekend beginning Friday at 5:30 P.M. and ending on Sunday at 6:00 P.M. Father shall be responsible for all transportation.

These arrangements shall be in effect until further order of Court in an effort to maintain matters as closely as possible to how they have been for the last year and to assure both parties time with the child and the Court specifically notes that it is not the Court's intention to indicate to the mediator any opinion as to what to recommended custody arrangement shall be and it is only the Court's intention to maintain some reasonable arrangement pending a mediation conference.

After dictation of this order, the Court is advised by both parties that visitation with mother may not be in the best interest of Jennifer pending the mediation conference and accordingly, the parties agree the aforesaid visitation with mother pending the mediation conference will not be exercised unless mother shall call father either at his home or place of employment on or before Thursday at 5:00 P.M. on any weekend in which she wishes to exercise the aforesaid visitation and, if mother does so, father shall allow said visitation. This arrangement will be made each and every time mother wishes to visit.

The Court finally notes that apparently upon the recommendation of Judge Miller the Defendant served the Plaintiff witha copy of her motion through the Sheriff of Crawford County resulting in Sheriff's costs of $25. The Defendant is currently on public assistance and as part of his mediation order, the mediator should determine how those Sheriff's costs shallb epaid.

July 21, 1989 Petition for Contempt of Court and Order filed: AND NOW, this 21 day of July 1989, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition it is hereby ordered and Decreed that a rule to show cause is placed on the Defendant, Grady D. Carney, to show cause if any he should have why he should not be held in contempt of court of the Court's Decree of June 21, 1988. Returnable for hearing Aug. 4, 1989 2:00 P.M.. Service of this Petition shall be made upon the Defendant's Attorney, Joan Mason, Esq., by forwarding this copy of the same to her at her address on Liberty Street, Meadville, Pennsylvania. Attorney Mason is directed to contact the Defendant, Grady D. Carney, to insure his presence at this hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, Judge

July 21, 1989 Copies of order put in Atty. Mason and Ferguson's boxes.

Aug. 4, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, August 4, 1989, at the time set for hearing on the Plaintiff's petition to adjudicate the Defendant in contempt for nonpayment of certain amounts due under the divorce decree, the Defendant hasnot appeared and his counsel has advised us that she has made every effort since she became aware of this hearing to reach him but that she has been unable to do so. We find that Mrs. Carney delivered the child of the parties to the Defendant on July 22, 1989, at Westbury, New York, to begin a four-week visit with his father. At that time, the mother was given no information as to what the father's plans for that vacation might be but he apparently cannot be contacted at the present time in any normal way. This hearing is therefore continued to August 21, 1989, at 3:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2, Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

The child is due to be returned to the mother in Meadville on August 19, 1989. Plaintiff's counsel shall furnish her with an additional copy of this Order, which should be given to the Defendant at the time the child is returned so that he may contact his counsel and make such arrangements as are appropriate.

In the event the Plaintiff receives any cummunication by mail, telephone, or otherwise fro the Defendant during the period from this date to August 19, 1989, and determines his whereabouts, she shall immediately communicate that information to her own counsel, sho shall contact Defendant's counsel and furnish that information. It that communication is by telephone, the Plaintiff shall also at that time orally notify the Defendant of the time and place fixed for the hearing in this matter so that he will have an opportunity to contact his counsel.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J

Aug. 7, 1989 Copies of order put in Douglas Ferguson and Joan Mason's box.

Aug 22, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, August 21, 1989, at the time set for a rescheduled hearing, it is apparent that the Court will not have sufficient time to enter into a full-blown hearing on this date. The defendant has made an offer to the plaintiff which would encompass a transfer to her of some portion of his pension rights, but that offer having only been made within the last few days, the plaintiff has had no opportunity to analyze the offer or to determine its value. Under these circumstances, this hearing is CONTINUED to October 6, 1989 at 1:30 p.m., at which time, the parties shall either resolve the matter by settlement or be prepared to go forward with a complete hearing. Pending said further hearing, the defendant shall pay a $400.00 monthly payment on the funds due on or before September 7, 1989.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, Judge

March 3, 1988 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 29, 1988, at the time the matter is set for argument, counsel for defendants advise the Court that they have delivered this date x-rays that apparently previously had not been produced which will show x-rays taken on or about Dec. 14, 1983 and Jan. 18, 1984, which were the focus of the argument scheduled for this date.

It appears now that it will be possible for counsel for the plaintiff to secure an expert evaluation of the case now that the x-ray files are complete. By agreement of counsel, defense counsel will receive a copy of said report.

ACCORDINGLY, by agreement, counsel for the plaintiff is given until June 1, 1988 to deliver to counsel for defendants the name and address of the medical expert or experts that will testity in the case, together with copies of their report and evaluation addressed to counsel for the plaintiff.

In view of the age of this case, both counsel appear anxious to have the matter litigated as expeditiously as possible, and accordingly, they agree this date that counsel Quinn, representing three of the defendants, will go to the Prothonotary's Office and place the same on the Trial List for the October 10, 1988.

Counsel agree that if there are to be any experts called at the time of trial by defendants in addition to the party defendants themselves, that notice of the names and address of said experts, together with copies of their report, will be furnished to counsel for the plaintiff by August. 1, 1988.

Counsel for the parties mutually agree that barring rare and unforeseen circumstances, if the aforesaid expert reports are not filed by the date specified, the defaulting party may not call any experts at the time of trial.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Feb. 18, 1986 Copies of order to Harry White and Paul Allen, Esq.

Feb. 20, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, February 18, 1986, the matter is before the Court on appeal from a Mediator's decision in a custody matter and on a request for examination of the defendant/father. It appears the temporary Order entered by the Mediator January 17, 1986 has been interpreted differently by each parent to some extent and that the visits accorded therein have not worked out satisfactorily.

It is the position of the mother that the father lacks the parenting skills necessary to look after the nine-month-old child and that the visits should be in her place of residence for a considerable period of time so that he can gradually acquire the necessary parenting skills to take care of the child. The father's posture is that he should not be required to have his visits in the home of his wife where she is residing with her mother as the parties are incapable of having an amicable relationship during said visits The court notes the parties have had a rather traumatic separation and have some bitterness remaining toward each other, but the Court cannot find that visits with the child and the father are not appropriate at this time. ACCORDINGLY, the Mediator's temporary Order approved by the Court is continued in force and effect with the following Modifications:

1. For the visits of February 23, 1986, and March 2, 1986, the visits between 1:00 and 5:30 p.m. between father and child will be carried out at the residence of the mother. During this visit, the mother and father shall attempt to amicably discuss the child care techniques, feeding, changing and clothing that are customarily accorded the child at this time. Commencing with the visit of March 9, 1986, the father shall have the right to have a visits with his child each and every Sunday between 1:00 P.M. and 5:30 P.M. and he may take the child to his home or any other suitable place for said visitation. The mother shall see that when the child leaves the premises, the child has adequate diapers, clothing and the necessary car seat for transporting the child and that any special needs of the child regarding medications or special feeding will be conveyed to the father. The father shall arrange for a suitable bed in his home for the safe sleeping of the child once visits to his home commence.

2. Both parents shall equally share in making decisions regarding the medical care of the child and each will cooperate in attempting to assure that the visits between father and child are compatible and that he acquires a bonding relationship with his minor child.

3. Before the time the father is to have visitation with the child, he may not consume alcoholic beverages for a period of twelve (12) hours before said visit and during said visits and at the special request of the mother he will not take the child to any licensed establishments that serve alcoholic beverages during visitation period.

4. While the father voices satisfaction with the temporary Order previously entered, the mother desires a full de novo hearing to ascertain whether the father should be accorded the more extensive visits commencing in late spring and for the holidays that are set forth in the temporary Order This matter is set for further hearing before the undersigned April 4, 1986, at 1:30 p.m.

5. The father shall have an Easter Sunday visit March 30, 1986 with the child at the time noted in the temporary Order between 1:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

6. The Court instructs both parents that at the time of pickup and return of the child and during the two visits in the home of the mother, that they will refrain from any acrimonious remarks against each other and will attempt to cooperate in assuring that the father acquires the necessary parenting skills to have the aforesaid temporary visits with the child when the child is away from the mother.

7. The Court denies a request for examination of the father to ascertain if he is a is a capable parent at this time, reserving the right to so rule after a de novo hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Feb. 21, 1986 Copies of order to Paul Allen and Harry White

Apr. 4, 1986 Exhibit filed.

April 10, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, April 4, 1986, after hearing, the Court is satisfied the best interests of the child at this time is to have custody awarded primarily to the mother with weekend custodial visitations with the father on an ongoing frequency. Accordingly, the mother is granted primary custody of the child, but both parents shall be consulted regarding the health, upbringing, and education of the child.

Commencing with the month of April 1986, the father shall have the child during April on the first Saturday of April and the second, third, and fourth Sundays of April between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. The father may pick up the child at the home of the mother and must advise the mother tothe best of his ability whether he intends to take the child outside of Crawford County during said visits and if so, to what location.

Commencing with the first weekend in May, the father will have the right to have custody of the child on the first and third weekends of each and every monty, commencing May of 1986, and the father shall pick the child up by 10:00 a.m. on Saturday morning and will return the child by 7:00 p.m. Sunday evening. Advising of any intent to take the child anyplace outside Crawford County on weekend visits will be a requirement as in the preceding paragraph.

The Court believes extended visits between father and child would be appropriate and, accordingly, for a one-week period in the month of July and another one-week period during the month of August, the child will be in the custody of the father for a one-week period. It is contemplated the father plans a visit to New York City to take the child to visit his mother and he is specifically authorized to take the child for this visit. In the event either or both of the one-week periods the father spends the entire time in Crawford County, arrangements will be made for a visit between child and mother for a period of at least four hours during the father's one-week period.

The Court leaves to the discretion of the parents to make an amicable arrangement regarding which weeks shall be designated for visit and by a week, the Court means seven continuous days in the father's possession.

If the parties cannot amicably agree on what these designated weeks shall be, the Court specifies that the weeks shall be the week of July 13, through 19 and August 10 through 16 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. on the beginning day and 8:00 p.m. on the last day.

The Court notes an apprehension, whether justified or not, by the mother that the father's drinking patterns may not be in the best interest of the child and, accordingly, during the time the child is in the father's custody for visits, he shall not consume alcoholic beverages during said visits or for a period of 12 hours before said visit commences.

Regarding the following holidays, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and the child's birthday, the parties shall alternate having the child in their exclusive custody for those days and the child shall be in the custody of the father on Thanksgiving Day in 1986, the father on Easter 1987, and the mother on the child's birthday with said visits to alternate so that each parent shares a different holiday annually thereafter. Arrangements also will be made so that on said holidays, either the day before or the day after, the other parent will have the opportunity to have the child in his or her possession for a period of not less than eight hours.

The mother shall keep the father advised of any dietary changes or special feeding schedules and programs necessary for the child and will see that the child's medications are dlivered to the father if it would be necessary for the medications to be administered during the time the child is in the father's custody and shall be helpful in guiding the father in explaining the necessity for the special foods or medications so the father may continue any program of dieting, special foods, or medications.

In the event the father intends to take the child to any special place other than casual visits with friends, he shall advise the mother of any special activities that he intends to engage the child in so that when the child begins to speak, when the child returns to the custody of the mother, she will be able to understand the explanations the child is giving where they have been.

Starting with the month of May when the father is accorde first and third weekend visits, he shall also have the right to have the child on the fourth Saturday of said month between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. The other weekend the child will remain in the exclusive custody of the mother.

The Court denies the request of the mother to order an examination to determine if the father has a serious alcohol problem.

Nov .21, 1985 Petition To Modify The Temporary Custody Order filed.

Nov. 21, 1985 Motion to approve defendant's motion for psychological evaluations filed.

Nov. 21, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, November 20, 1985, it appearing that the temporary Order of October 18, 1985 entered upon the recommendation of the custody mediator provided for obtaining a psychological evaluation of the children and the parents to be paidfor by the father with further mediation conference to be provided following receipt of such evaluation, and it further appearing that the children are presently undergoing psychiatric and/or psychological care in the Ripley , New York area where they reside with the father, and it further appearing that the mother has been unable to exercise the visitation privileges provided in the Orderof October 18, 1985, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the father shall arrange for psychiligical and/or psychiatric evaluation of himself and the two children through a professional of his choosing at or near his hom at the expense of the father, and the mother shall arrange for psychological evaluation of herself at the Mental Health Center with reports of all such psychological and/or psychiatric testing to be furnished to the Court and to opposing counsel. Following the completion of such evalations and the receipt of such reports, the parties shall contact the custody mediator for a further mediation conference.

Pending further Orderof Court, the mother shall be entitled to the visiting privileges provided in the Order of October 18, 1985 without fail, and any assertion that the children do not wish to visit will not be considered an appropriate excuse for the failure to permit such visitations.

In reinstituting the visiting privileges, we note that the original order required that the children visit the mother on Thanksgiving Day of 1985 and, further, that had the schedule been adhered to, the weekend of November 29th would have been a weekend of visitation with the mother. Accordingly, the father is directed to deliver the children to the mother's home on or before 7:30 P.M. on November 27, 1985 and the will be returned to him on or before 7:30 P.M. on November 30, 1985, and thereafter the alternate weekend visits by the mother will begin with the weekend of December 13, 1985.

Nov. 23, 1987, Appearance of Ferguson, Spataro and O'Shea, by JOhn F. Spataro, attorneys for defendant filed.

Nov. 24, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, November 20, 1987, the matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's motion for special relief and sanctions in this divorce action. It appears the Defendant has not had counsel, although he opines he is going to retain Attorney John Spataro, who will enter an appearance on November 23, 1987.

In spite of repeated demands of the Defendant to file income and expense statements, inventories and appraisals, nothing has been done and it is the posture of the Plaintiff that the Defendant is deliberately secreting assets and b eing totally unresponsive inthe divorce aciton. A master has been appointed, but obviously cannot proceed with his duties until the requisite prehearing matters are filed. Accordingly, we enter the following Order:

The Defendant will not make any transfer of assets in his possession or the assets of Saint Electric without consent of the Plaintiff or her counsel. Excepted from this Order would be materials uned in the normal course of business in completing contracts of Saint Exectric Company.

The Defendant will, on or before December 11, 1987, file an income and expense statement and an inventory and appraisal in accordance with the forms prescribed in the Divorce Act.

The P laintiff has repeatedly attempted to arrange for real estate and personal property appraisals to be made by appropiate appraisers and have been thwarded in this effort by the Defendant. Accordingly, the Defendant is directed permit appraisals of the property at the marital home and also personal property and Saint Electric property allegedly stored in a trailer at R.D. 1, Cochranton.

In this regard, the Plaintiff will notify the defendant by writing at P.O. box 1000, Meadville1, Pa., on or before December 2, 1987, of the date and time of their proposed appraisal of the individual and marital assets as well as the assets of Saint Electric and the Defendant will be present, will expose the house ofr inspection, and will expose all the property in the trailer for inspection and will cooperate fully with the appraisers in their attempt to make an appraisal of the property.

The Court awards attorney fees occasioned by delay and procrastination on behalf of the Defendant in the amount of $150.00 with said sum to be paid on or before December 15, 1987, directly to counsel for the Plaintiff.

This Order for attorney fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Master or ultimately the Court to allocate total attorney fees between the parties in an equitable manner. BY ORDER OF THE COURT, Dec. 5, 1988 Plaintiff's Petition for Rule and Adjudication of Civil Contempt and Order filed (5 copies (Plff).

And Now, this 5th day of Dec. 1988, upon consideration of Plaintiff-Petitioner's Petition for Rule and Adjudication of Civil Contempt, a Rule is hereby entered upon Respondents, Michelle A. Barr, and RespondentMother, Billie Rickrode, to show cause why Plaintiff's petition should not be granted.

Rule Returnable the 22nd day of Dec.. 1988, at 9:00 a.m. in Court Room 2. Petitioner is directed to serve this Rule on Respondent and Respondent's Mother by both certified and ordinary mail.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Robert L. Walker, J.

Dec. 22, 1988 Memorandum and Order filed. Order: AND NOW, December 22, 1988, the request to adjudicate the defendant in contempt is DENIED. The defendant and her mother shall strictly comply with the visitation arrangements contained in the existing Court Orders. The informal request to restrict visitation to supervised visits is DENIED; provided, however, that the plaintiff's present companion, whom at least he refers to as his common-law wife, shall be present at the home during all visits.

The plaintiff shall not in any way enter into any verbal or physical altercations with the defendant or her mother at any time that contact between them is required in order to carry out the provisions for visitation.

Transportation for all visits shall be furnished by the party receiving the child.

This Order shall continue in full force and effect until properly modified in the event of any request for modification or until it is superseded in the event of any juvenile proceeding.

Neither party shall take the subject children outside of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for any period to exceed forty-eight (48) hours without further Order of Court.

In the event the plaintiff has notified the defendant or the defendant's mother of an intention to visit under the terms of the Order, he shall specify a time at which he intends to pick the children up and if he has not arrived within one hour of that time, the defendant or the defendant's mother can consider the visit canceled.

While the existing Order does not specify as to holidays beyond 1986 and 1987, the Court construes the present Order as requiring alternating holidays so that 1988 will be the same as 1986, and all even years thereafter unless further modified, and 1989 and all odd years shall be the same as 1987.
