Dec. 26, 1975 Appearance of Paul E. Allen, Attorney for Defendants filed.

May 28, 1976 Preliminary Objections filed.

Dec. 1, 1977, Order filed: And Now, November 30, 1977, at the time of argument, it appears that the defendants have no interest in recovering or possessing the twelve (12) die sets in the possession of the plaintiff and which sets are the subject of a fraudulent debtors attachment. Accordingly, the defendants agree to file a statement of relinquishment of ownership or deliver a bill of sale to the plaintiff within twenty (20) days of this date, and upon receipt of the same, plaintiff shall be entitled to lawful ownership of said die sets and shall credit against the amount allegedly due by the defendants the sum of $3,600.00.

Insofar as the preliminary objection regarding individual defendant Robert C. Van Lew, the Court is of the opinion that the Complaint as presently standing does not aver sufficient allegations establishing the individual responsibility of Robert C. Van Lew for the corporate debt allegedly due the plaintiff. The Court will therefore sustain the preliminary objection regarding Robert C. Van Lew and will strike his name as a party unless within twenty (20) days the plaintiff files an amended complaint with specific averments setting forth the facts which they contend impose upon the said Robert C. Van Lew an individual responsibility

Certification of Copy of Decree of Divorce in the District Court of Johnson County, Kansas
(Case No. 49413 - Division V)

Decree of Divorce: Now, this 25th day of August, 1976, the matter comes on for hearing before the Honorable Phillip L. Woodworth Judge of Division Five of said Court. Plaintiff appears in person and by Thad E. Nugent, her attorney of record. The defendant appears not, but defaults. Thereupon, the plaintiff presents her testimony and rests. The Court being fully advised in the premises and having considered the pleadings and papers in the file, the testimony and evidence introduced and the statements of counsel finds:

1. That this Court has jurisdiction of the parties to and the subject matter of this action and that venue is properly laid in this Court; that the Court has an in personam jurisdiction over the defendant by virtue of his Entry of Appearance and Waiver of Notice filed July 14, 1971.

2. That the plaintiff has been an actual resident of the State of Kansas for more than six months next preceding the filing of her Petition herein.

3. That the parties were lawfully married to each other in Washington, D.C. on January 9, 1965, and that since that time they have been and are now husband and wife.

4. That two children have been born as issue of the marriage:

Louis G. Skufe, Jr., born August 7, 1965;
Marisa Skufe, born January 16, 1968.

5. The Court finds generally in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant on the plaintiff's Petition and that the plaintiff has substantially proved the material allegations of her Petition of Divorce, and is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of incompatibility of the parties.

6. The Court finds that the parties have entered into a certain agreement in writing which is marked as an exhibit and introduced into evidence settling and disposing of the questions of alimony, support and maintenance of the plaintiff and the children of the marriage, and the division and disposition of the property of the parties. The Court has examined the said Property Settlement Agreement and finds it to be fair, just and equitable with respect to the parties hereto and finds that the same ought to be approved and confirmed.

June 9, 1976 Order filed: And Now, May 27, 1976, after hearing, the Court believes the welfare of the three (3) children, Carol, Amy, and Tony, will best be served at this time by allowing them to remain in the custody of their father, David Chiconsky with the provision that counsel for the parties and the parties meet at a mutually satisfactory time to accord liberal visitation privileges for the mother and arrangements be made to have the children spend reasonable periods of time in her care and custody at her residence for weekend visits and for extended periods of time during the Summer School vacation. In the event the parties are unable to reach satisfactory arrangements in this regard the Court will entertain a motion to set visitation periods among the parents.

In the event the father of the children intends to remove his residence with the children outside of Crawford Co. he shall be required to notify the mother of the children at least three (3) weeks in advance of his intentions in that regard

Feb. 5, 1980, Copies of Order to Attys. R. Charles Thomas, Joan Mason and Paul Allen.

Feb. 8, 1980, Motion To Extend Time in which to File Exceptions filed.

Feb. 8, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 8,1980, a motion for extension of time in which to file exceptions to the Master's report was left at the Judge's Chambers on the afternoon of February 4, 1980 with a request that the Court sign the same. The Court, under the assumption there was no opposition, signed the Order, but on February 6, 1980, counsel for the Plaintiff appeared at regularly scheduled motion court advising the Court that he had received telephone notice that a motion would be presented for time to extend, and he advised the Defendant's attorney's office that he wished to oppose the same. On February 6, 1980, at regularly scheduled motion court counsel for the Plaintiff appeared advising the Court that he wished to oppose the extension of time for filing exceptions to the Master's Report, and the Court promptly scheduled the matter to be heard at 9:30 A.M., February 8, 1980 for argument.

After argument, the Court finds that counsel for the Defendant has presented inadequate arguments to the Court as to why there was not adequate time to file exceptions to the five Findings of Fact and one Conclusion of Law contained in the Master's report. Accordingly, the Court advised counsel for the Defendant that the motion to extend time for filing exceptions would be granted, conditioned, however, that if ultimately by decision of the lower court or on appeal the Master's report was affirmed, that additional costs would be imposed upon the Defendant by the requirement for paying reasonable counsel fees arising from this date forward.

Counsel for the Defendant then advised the Court that they wished to withdraw their request for an extension of time to file exceptions to the Master's report on the basis that they believed that exceptions could be filed at any time up to the time the Court makes a decision on the Master's report. Accordingly, there is nothing at this time before the Court, and the Court enters no Order on the original motion presented at the Judge's Chambers on the afternoon of February 4, 1980.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

The Court estimates at this time that the net monthly income for 1976 of the husband is approximately $967.00 a month, not counting depreciation. Accordingly, the case is continued generally and a support order is entered on the non support petition in the amount of $175.00 per month. The father is required to pay the sum direct to the wife of $175.00 per month, in semi monthly payments, with the first payment due on or before the fifteenth of each and every month, starting with May, 1976, and the balance due before the last day of each and every month. Defendant is directed to pay costs in the amount of $15.00

In view of the fact that the father has had no close association with these two (2) children since the Summer of 1975, the Court believes it is in the best interest of the children to have a gradual re association with their father through the aforesaid visitation schedule. If after a reasonable period of time the father re-establishes a close relationship with the children, the Court urges the parties to mutually agree to additional visitation periods, providing for overnight weekend visits in the custody of the father. In the event the parties cannot agree, the Court will entertain a further petition to consider this matter.

As far as this Christmas is concerned the children will be in the home of the mother on Christmas, Satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the Children in the custody of the father for an eight hour period, either the day before or the day after Christmas each year.

Feb. 20, 1976 Order filed; Whereas, testimony has been presented to the Court indicating that at least in the opinion of Child Welfare Services of Crawford County the father has made suitable arrangements for the children involved by remodeling the apartment in which he previously lived, and Whereas, in the mind of the Court this is the minimum compliance with the intentions of the Court to provide separate and suitable facilities for the children but not of sufficient deviation from the order of the Court to require taking custody of the children away from the father; and Whereas, the father has indicated some concern because the mother is living with her father who has a prior record involving immorality. The custody of the children involved in this case shall continue with the father, subject to the visitation rights of the mother in the Order of Jan 23, 1976. 2. No 91 May Term, 1976

June 30, 1976 Opinion and Order filed: In this case the appellant's license was suspended under section 619.1-1 + K because of an accumulation of eleven (11) points.

He contends that his license should not be suspended because on the last speeding charge for which he was cited he was "incorrectly advised by the District Justice and the State Trooper that he should plead guilty and pay the fine, for he would be entitled to another hearing before the Bureau of Highway Safety prior to the suspension or revocation of his operator's license.

He argues that if the promised hearing had been permitted he would have shown that the speedometer of the new truck which he was operating was improperly calibrated so as to register a lower speed than it should have.

Unfortunately for the appellant he cannot, under existing law, collaterally attack his conviction on appeal from his license suspension. Comm., Dept of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, Appellant v. Rose, 16 Commonwealth Court 525, 330 A. 2d 302 (1974); Commonwealth, Appellant, v James, 6 Commonwealth Ct. 493, 296 A. 2d 530 (1972).

The record of the convictions reflecting the accumulation of points certified in accordance with Section 1524 of the Vehicle Code, 75 P.S. § 1524, was offered and received in evidence. This was admissible to establish the convictions as well as the point computation. Comm. Dept of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, Appellant, v Ballard, 17 Comm. Ct. 310, 331 A 2d 578 (1975); Comm., Dept of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, Appellant, v. Fenotti, Jr., 9 Comm. Ct. 538, 308 A 2nd 198 (1973).

Accordingly we have no alternative except to enter the following Order: And Now, this twenty-nineth day of June, 1976, the appeal is dismissed and the action of the Secretary is sustained.

However, since this opinion was dictated and typed we have been advised that the Motor Vehicle Code has been amended so as to grant amnesty to operators who have accumulated points in certain cases. If the appellant in this case is entitled to amnesty our opinion should not deny him the benefits of the amended Vehicle Code.

Exception noted for appellant.

No. 238 May Term, 1976

July 9, 1976 Order filed: And Now, July 1, 1976, after hearing, the Court refuses to adjudicate the defendant in contempt for being wilfully in disobedience of the Court Order of May 27, 1976. In this regard, however, the Court notes that the defendant used extremely poor judgment in removing the children to the State of Michigan for an extended period of time without giving advance notice to the mother and without making some arrangements to release them if she requested.

The Court has advised counsel that the factual situation involving the father, the business, the custody and care of the children seemingly has dramatically changed since the hearing on May 27, 1976.

The Court also notes that the father has now secured employment with Trumbull Supply Company, and advises the Court that he has abandoned attempts to secure employment in the State of Michigan and intends to further his employment with Trumbull and continue to care for the children in the apartment over the restaurant in which he now continues a financial interest.

In view of the apprehension of the mother and her statement that she has received threat from the father to remove the children to avoid the terms of the Court Order, (which is denied by the father), the Court modifies the Order of May 27, 1976 as follows:

It appears that the mother has made arrangements for her summer vacation to commence on or about July 2, 1976 and intends to take the children into her custody in the State of Michigan where they are now temporarily residing with the parents of the father on or about Sunday, July 4, 1976, for a two week stay in the State of Michigan which is agreed to by the father.

By agreement, the father agrees to forward to the mother of the children sufficient money to pay their airplane transportation from Michigan to Pittsburgh or Erie, Penna. at the end of her two weeks vacation, with said money to be forwarded prior to July 16, 1976.

Upon return, the mother shall surrender the Children to the custody of the father within twenty four hours of her return.

Custody shall continue with the father but the father is precluded from removing the children for any purpose from the State of Penna. without further Court approval except for periods not in excess of forty-eight hours when he may take them out of the State for vacation or entertainment purposes.

The Court hopes the parties can resolve vacation problems but in the event the parties are unable to agree on vacations, the mother shall have the right to have the Children in her custody for weekend vacations on the first and third weekends of every month commencing with the month of August between the hours of Friday at 6:00 PM and return them Sunday
