So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

August 11, 1977 Affidavit of Investigation filed: MARY ANN KIRKPATRICK, being duly sworn according to law deposes and says:

1. That she is employed as an attorney by Legal Services for Northwestern Pa., 231 Chestnut St., Meadville, Pa. 16335.

2. That on June 3, 1977, she filed a Complaint in Divorce at the above number and term in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County.

3. That on July 18, 1977, the Sheriff of Crawford County returned an Affidavit of "Not Found" as to the Defendant, James W. Deems.

4. That the Plaintiff has not seen the Defendant since April, 1970. In 1973, Plaintiff received a letter from the Defendant stating that he was in prison in Florida. Said letter is no longer in the possession of the Plaintiff, and therefore, no address in known for the Defendant.

5. That the following attempts have been made to determine the whereabouts of the Defendant, James W. Deems:

a. Counsel for the Plaintiff, Barbara J. Deems, wrote to the Florida Department of Motor Vehicles, Division of Drivers Licenses to find out if the Defendant was a licensed driver in Florida. A response from the Department informed counsel that they were unable to make the record search unless the Florida driver license number was submitted (See Exhibit A). The Plaintiff does not know the Defendants Florida driver license number.

b. Your deponent mailed a copy of the Complaint in Divorce in this action to James W, Deems at his last-known address in 1970, E. 55th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44101. Said mailing was returned marked "insufficient address". (See Affidavit of Service filed in this action.)

c. Your deponent called directory assistance in Cleveland, Ohio for a telephone number for James W. Deems. There was no listing for the said James W. Deems.

6. That the Plaintiff does not know of any relatives of the defendant whom counsel could contact. Plaintiff does recall the name and state of the Defendants mother, but such information is not sufficient for the mailing of a letter of inquiry.

7. That this Affidavit is made pursuant to the requirements of Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1124-b.

8. That the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of your deponent's knowledge, information and belief.

June 30, 1977 Appearance of Max B. Maloney for respondent filed.

July 5, 1977, Order filed: AND NOW, June 30, 1977, after partial hearing and it appearing that the father seeks only visitation privileges at this time, the custody of the minor child, SHAUN ALCORN, is awarded to the mother, subject, however, to the visitation privileges of the father and to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth; to-wit:

1. Beginning July 8, 1977, the father shall have the right to take the aforesaid child into his custody every other weekend on Saturday from 9:00 o'clock a.m. to the following Sunday until 5:00 o'clock p.m., provided however, that until a closer relationship has been restored between the father and the child, the father shall not, for the first three (3) weekend visits to which he is entitled to custody, keep the child overnight.

In the event that the mother feels that sufficient rapport has not yet been established, the matter shall be referred to the Court for disposition at least one (1) week prior to the fourth weekend to which the father is entitled to custody.

It shall be the duty of the father to pick the child up at the appropriate time and to return the child at the time stated.

The parties hereto shall alternate the custody of the child on holidays, so that for example, the mother will have the child Christmas Day of 1977 and the father will have the child Christmas Eve from 4:00 o'clock p.m. until 8:00 o'clock p.m. and on Easter, the father shall have the child on Easter Sunday and the mother shall have the child on the preceding day. Holidays shall be so alternated from year to year in the same manner, provided, however, that holiday visitations shall take precedence over weekend visitations.

For the year 1977, the mother shall have the child on Thanksgiving Day and also on the birthday of the child; so that for the year, 1978, the father will have the child on Thanksgiving Day and the father on the child's birthday.

2. The child shall be with the father on Fathers' Day and the mother on Mothers' Day.

3. During the time that the father has custody of the child, he shall not have the child in the presence of any person or situation which would interfere with the health, education or welfare, and to the same extent, the mother shall not expose the child to any person, situation or anything which would adversely affect the child's health, education or welfare.

Neither parent will by word or act attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but on the contrary, will teach the child love and respect for the parent.

4. Both parents shall immediately notify the other parent if the child becomes ill or in any danger serious enough to warrant the calling of a physician or dentist to seek outside help.

5. That beginning with the summer of 1978, the father shall have the right to take said child into his custody for a period of two (2) weeks, which, unless the parents agree other wise, shall be between August 1 and August 31, provided, however, that he shall notify the mother at least two (2) weeks in advance which of the two (2) weeks in August he intends to exercise his custody rights.

6. If at any time the father does not elect to exercise any of the visitation or custody privileges set forth in this Order, he shall notify the mother at least, by telephone or in some other appropriate manner, twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time that his custody or visitation privilege is to begin.

7. In the event that the father is denied custody of his child on the grounds of illness or other physical difficulty, the mother shall advise him the nature of the difficulty, the name of the treating physician or dentist and thereafter make arrangements to make up the time to which the father would otherwise be entitled to.

In the event of any dispute about the matter, the matter may be referred to the Court for disposition.

8. The parties may not alter this agreement verbally, but may agree in writing to a modification of this agreement, provided however, that said modification, by agreement, signed by both parties in writing, is made a matter of record so as to constitute a modification to the present Order.

9. By agreement of of the father, it is ORDERED and DIRECTED that he pay towards the support of SHAUN ALCORN, the amount allocated on behalf of said minor child by the Veterans Administration until futher Order of Court.

Nov. 4, 1977, Motion For Leave To File An Amended Answer With New Matter and Counterclaim and Rule to Show Cause Filed: AND NOW, to wit, this 4 day of November, 1977, upon consideration of the foregoing motion, a Rule is hereby entered upon the Plaintiff to show cause why the Defendants should not be permitted to file an Amended Answer With New Matter and Counterclaim.

Rule returnable and for hearing on the 9 day of Nov., 1977 at 10:00 a. m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Nov. 4, 1977 Copy of order mailed to Jack, Kookogey & Felton and copy given to William Saul.

Nov. 10, 1977, Order filed: AND NOW, November 9, 1977, at the time set for argument, it appears the defendants have paid the entire unpaid principal and interest due on the mortgage and the only claim outstanding by the plaintiff is for $40.00 in costs.

The defendant contends that he should be granted leave to file an amended answer which would exonerate him from paying the aforesaid $40.00 costs and a counterclaim for attorney fees which Legal Services of Northwestern Pennsylvania would be entitled to receive on the basis that the notice given to the defendants did not technically comply with the law.

The motion for leave to file an amended answer with new matter and a counterclaim is DENIED.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

DECREE

And now, to-wit: February 17, A. D. 19 78 this cause came to be heard on complaint, subsequent proceedings, and evidence therein, duly taken and filed of record, and it appearing to the Court that the causes set forth in said complaint are true, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed, That the said George E. Miller, be divorced and forever separated from the marital ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between, the said Hrothr R. Miller, the plaintiff, and the said Phyllis E. PER CURIAM.

June 14, 1978 Sentence filed: AND NOW, June 12, 1978, the sentence of the Court is you pay the costs in the amount of $47.00 within ten (10) days of this date. In default of payment of costs, you undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of ten (10) days.

At the time of sentence, defendant advises that she intends to leave for the State of Florida to secure employment as soon as the terms and conditions of this sentence are complied with and it is her understanding that a habeas corpus action involving the custody of her two (2) children brought by her husband George E. Miller has been amicably settled and the father has custody of the children and she no longer wishes to contest this action. ACCORDINGLY, the Clerk of Courts is directed to file a copy of this Order in the Prothonotary's office at No. 112 September Term, 1977.

Service of Rule accepted March 16, 1978 by M. Dan Mason, for Joan Mason, attorneys for plaintiff.

Mar 28, 1978 Order filed: WHEREAS, actions in divorce have been filed by both parties to this case; and

WHEREAS, prior to the hearing this date on this date counsel for the defendant in the above entitled action has withdrawn the petition of his client for Alimony Pendente Lite, counsel fees and costs in her own divorce action at No. 22 May Term, 1978; and

WHEREAS, the defendant in the above entitled case is employed earning approximately $150.00 per week take-home pay and has filed a Domestic Relations Action for support which theCourt is advised will be heard during the May Term of Domestic Relations Court which is scheduled for May 4, 1978; and

WHEREAS, the defendant is the self-employed owner of a bar and bowling alley in or near Linesville, Pennsylvania and the Court estimates that his income without allowance for depreciation is $10,000.00 per year or in excess of said amount;

NOW, THEREFORE, this 23rd day of March, 1978, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED as follows:

1. In view of the earnings of the defendant in the above entitled case and the fact that the obligation of the plaintiff to support her will be adjudicated in May, the petition for Alimony Pendente Lite is denied without prejudice to the right of the defendant to establish the defendant's obligation to support her in Domestic Relations Court.

2. In view of the fact that the defendant will be put to additional expense over and above the ordinary costs of living in contesting this action, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the defendant pay to apply on counsel fees and costs in this action the sum of $450.00 in installments as follows: The sum of $100.00 within fifteen (15) days; andadditional sum of $150.00 within thirty (30) days and the final sum within forty-five (45) days from this date.

Since the Court is convinced that the defendant in fact herself desires a divorce, no further allowance will be awarded for counsel fees in this case without specific further allowance by the Court and then only upon satisfactory explanation of why she has not proceeded with her own divorce action.

3. The payments shall be made directly to the attorney for the defendant in this case to be duly receipted for by him unless made by check appropriately marked.

4. Costs shall follow the final disposition of this case.

August 1, 1977, Order filed: AND NOW, August 1, 1977, after hearing, the custody of the minor child in this case JON HENRI FLEISCHER, JR., born September 16, 1975, is awarded to the mother, subject to the visitation rights of the father and subject to the conditions and privileges hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

1. Beginning with the weekend of August 5, 1977, the father shall have the right to take said child into his custody for the weekend and every other weekend thereafter, provided, however, that he shall not at any time expose the child to any person or situation which would be detrimental to the health, safety or welfare of the child.

2. In addition during the summer months, in view of the fact that the father has been taking care of the child during the day, he shall have the right to continue taking care of the child during the days on which the mother is working but not on days in which she is excused from her employment other than the weekends hereinafter specifically set aside for the father.

3. On Christmas Day, 1977, the mother shall have the right to have the custody of the child, but the father shall have the child on the day before Christmas from 12:00 o'clock Noon until 7:00 o'clock p.m., prevailing local time. For the year 1978, the father shall have the custody of the child on Christmas Day and the mother the preceding day and the parties shall alternate Christmas from year to year in the same manner.

Other holidays shall also be alternated in the same manner, to-wit; Easter and July 4th. The birthday of the child shall also be alternated in the same manner with the mother having custody of the child on the child's birthday of 1977 and the father on the child's birthday of 1978.

Holiday visitation privileges shall have priority over all other visitation periods.

4. At the beginning of the school term, the father's weekend visitation privileges as hereinbefore set forth shall continue, but in lieu of having the child during the work day of each week, he shall have the child one day a week on the weeks during which he does not have weekend custody which shall be from the time immediately following the end of school until the child's bedtime. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, said visitation shall be on Friday of each week during which the father has no weekend visitation privileges.

5. Neither party shall turn or attempt to turn the child against the other parent, and upon proof that either parent is attempting to do so, the attention of the Court should be called to the matter and the Court will impose severest sanction on the party attempting to turn the child against the parent.

August 2, 1977, Order filed: WHEREAS, this proceeding is brought to establish and make definite the visitation rights of the father and not to seek the custody of the three (3) minor children involved, to-wit: TABATHA WEAVER, age 10; GREGORY WEAVER, age 6; and BRADLEY WEAVER, age 3; and

WHEREAS, the parties have been unable to agree upon the visitation rights of the father:

NOW, THEREFORE, this 1st day of August, 1977, it is ORDERED and DIRECTED as follows:

1. That the custody of the aforesaid three (3) children shall be with the mother, subject to the visitation rights of the father hereinafter set forth.

2. The father shall have the right to take said children into his custody on each of his weekends off from his duties as a Pennsylvania State Police Trooper beginning at 6:30 o'clock p.m. on Friday to the succeeding Sunday at 7:30 o'clock p.m., both prevailing local times, provided however, that the father shall give the mother no less than two (2) weeks notice of the weekend in which he seeks custody of the children.

3. The father shall also have the right to take said minor children into his custody on two (2) other days of the month which shall fall in a week other than the weeks in which he has weekend custody and the hours of which shall be from 9:00 o'clock a.m. to the succeeding day at 7:30 o'clock p.m., provided the father shall notify the mother at least two (2) weeks in advance of the days in which he desires said minor children. These visits shall continue during the summer months until the opening of school in the fall.

It is the purpose and intent of the Court that the father shall have the right to have said children in his custody during the summer months four (4) days each month, two (2) of which shall be on the weekend in which he has off.

4. That in addition to the two (2) days every other week hereinbefore set forth, the father shall have the right to take said children into his custody one (1) afternoon from 12:00 o'clock noon until 7:30 o'clock p.m. of the weeks in which he does not have visitation privileges for two days, again provided that the father gives the mother notice at least two (2) weeks prior to the date of said visitation.

5. Upon the beginning of the fall term of school, 1977, the weekend visitation privileges of the father hereinbefore set forth shall continue, but because of the children's schooling, the two (2) other days of the month shall not continue, and in lie thereof, the father shall have the right to take said children into his custody one (1) day of each week when he does not have weekend privileges from immediately after school until 7:30 o'clock p.m., prevailing local time.

6. At all times the father shall not have the children in the presence of any other female not related to him by blood or marriage, and at all times, the father shall make sure that the health, education, welfare and general well being of the children is guarded and protected.

7. At all times the mother, also, shall not have the children in the presence of any other male not related to the children by blood or marriage, and she, too, will at all times see that the health, education, welfare and well being of the children is guarded and protected.

8. That parties should remember that the welfare of the children is paramount to their own welfare and should be protected regardless of any animosity or hostility existing between the two of them and for that reason, should exert every effort to allow each spouse to have the full benefit of the companionship of said minor children.

9. That the father, during the exercise of the visitation privileges of more than an afternoon shall keep the children either at the home of his parents or other persons related by blood or marriage or not occupied by any other person except one to whom he is legally married or in a separate and independent home established by him.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
P. J.

April 21, 1978, Copies of Order given to Donald A. Fickenscher, Esq., and William Saul, Esq.

April 21, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, April 19, 1978, after hearing and argument, the Court is satisfied the Defendants are in default under the contract and specifically in default by a willful and deliberate failure to pay one-twelfth (1/12) of the estimated taxes each month in addition to the contracted monthly payments. Defendants are also in default because of the lateness of the April payment which was only tendered to the Plaintiffs at the time of hearing on this matter April 18, 1978.

The Court rejects the Plaintiffs' contention that there has been sufficient physical deterioration or destructionof the real estate to warrant recision of the contract and granting ejectment for that reason.

Subject to further research, the Court believes that an Order for ejectment is theoretically appropriate at this time; however, in order to avoid the harshness of said Order and in order to give the Defendants an opportunity to faithfully and timely comply with the contract entered into with the Plaintiffs and to assure the Plaintiffs that payments contracted for will be timely made, the Court postpones entry of an Order of ejectment, subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. All payments will be paid on or before the third (3rd) day of each and every month. The Plaintiffs shall notify the Defendants on or before April 26, 1978, the manner and place they wish payments made.

2. In addition to the monthly payments now due May 1, 1978, on or before the 17th of May, 1978, the Defendants will pay to the Plaintiffs, in the manner and place above set forth, an additional sum of $127.86 which will be deemed a security payment to be held by the Plaintiff and to be applied to any month when the Defendants fail to make the monthly payments on or before the third of any month. If all payments are made, the aforesaid security payment will be applied to the last payment due the Plaintiffs.

3. The Defendants will commence with the month of May paying one-twelfth (1/12) of the real estate taxes due, which payment shall be added to the monthly contracted payment as set forth in the contract between the parties. On or before July 1, 1978, the Defendants will pay such additional sum as equals one-third (1/3) of the annual taxes which will represent the tax payments not made during the months of January through April, 1978. Tax payments will be computed on the basis of the taxes levied in the prior calendar year. Any excesses paid shall be credited toward the following year payments and any shortages will be paid by the Defendants prior to December 31 each year.

4. The Defendants shall pay nominal attorneys fees to the Plaintiffs in the amount of $150.00 with $75.00 to be paid by June 15, 1978 and the remaining $75.00 by August 1, 1978.

Upon compliance with the aforesaid conditions, the Court will consider the present ejectment action dismissed. Failure of the Defendants to comply with the aforesaid conditions between this date and August 15, 1978 may be brought to the Court's attention by appropriate petition or motion at this term and number.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Plaintiffs to institute a new action in ejectment or any other form after August 15, 1978.

While the Court believes it is not called upon as part of this ejectment action to make resolution of a dispute between the parties involving sale of a stove, refrigerator and freezer, the Court advises the parties that it accepts the Plaintiffs' version of said sale in that the original sale price of the real eatate was $12,000.00, but that by furthernegotiation, the freezer belonging to the plaintiffs was sold to the Defendants for the sum of $200.00 was added to the purchase price of the property and accounts for the contract between the parties showing a sale price of $12,200.00. In addition thereto, as evidenced by a receipt (Plaintiffs' Exhibit No. 10), the parties reached a separate contract on or about the time of the closing in which the Plaintiffs sold to the Defendants a stove and refrigerator for an additional sum of $200.00 as evidenced by the aforesaid receipt.

April 11, 1980, Certificate of Readiness filed.

Sept 24, 1980, Pretrial Conference Order filed. A pretrial and settlement conference was scheduled for September 23, 1980. Rule 21 of the rules of this Court require that trial counsel be present but in this instance, plaintiff's trial counsel was not present. It is our understanding that trial counsel is Thomas W. White of the firm of Baskin and Sears, 10th Floor, Frick Building Pittsburgh, Pa. 15219.

A Certificate of Readiness was filed on April 11, 1980 but it is obvious at the pretrial conference that the case was not ready for trial at that time, that discovery had not been completed, and therefore, the Certificate of Readiness heretofore filed is stricken. Counsel have indicated a desire to complete discovery. All parties are granted until October 24, 1980 to complete any required discovery. The time in which to file a proper Certificate of Readiness is e tended to October 31, 1980 and if no certificate of readiness complying with Rule 21 of this Court is filed by that date, the case will be dismissed.

If an appropriate certificate of readiness is filed, a settlement conference is scheduled for November 5, 1980 at 9:30 AM, before Judge P. Richard Thomas. The attention of all counsel is called to the requirements of Rule 21 regarding demands and offers prior to settlement conference. All parties shall also file the pretrial narratives required by Rule 21 on or before October 31, 1980 .

Since no jury trial was demanded, a non-jury trial is scheduled on December 3, 1980 at 9:30 o'clock A.M. in Courtroom No. 2, Courthouse, Meadville, Pa. At the time of the settlement conference, trial counsel shall be present and shall have his client at court so that a meaningful discussion of settlement with persons necessary to authorize such settlement will be available.

Nov. 23, 1977, Preliminary Objections filed.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR JANUARY 30, 1977; No. 7.

Feb 9, 1978 Preliminary Objection - Demurrer and Order filed: In this action the Plaintiff seeks to recover property of her deceased friend in an Action of Replevin brought against the deceased's former landlords.

The basis of the action is an alleged "expressed desire made on numerous occasions" by the deceased that he wished the Plaintiff to receive his personal possessions after death.

The Defendants' demurrer contends the Plaintiff is attempting to create a nuncupative (oral) will which is invalid under the Decedents, Estates and Fiduciaries Code (20 P.S. 2502). The 1974 Amendment to the above Code completely repealed Sections 2503 and 2504 of the Code which previously allowed nuncupative wills under limited conditions.

Plaintiff counsel argues that the only known heir, a sister, has disavowed interest in her brother's meager personal possessions and therefore, as between Plaintiff, who was housekeeper and companion, and his landlords, equitable principles should be applied in favor of companion -- particularly so when it brings fulfillment to the deceased's wishes.

Even assuming this theory is uncontestedly accurate[1] we cannot, through application of equitable principles in a replevin action, distribute a deceased's assets in contravention of the Intestate Laws of this Commonwealth.

We sustain the demurrer.

Date: February 1, 1978.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas P.J.

1. We gained the impression at argument that the Defendants are not solicitous towards the Plaintiff's claim for the property.

3. The parties shall alternate custody on the holidays of Easter, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmans and the child's birthday, so that the father will have the child on Thanksgiving Day this year and the mother Christmas Day this year, and alternating holidays, so that the father will have the child on Christmas Day next year and the mother on Thanksgiving Day next year.

Each holiday shall be so alternated, and the parent not having custody on the holiday, itself, shall have the right to have custody of the child on the eve preceding said holiday.

Holidays shall take precedence over weekend visitations, and the parent who does not have the children on the holiday, itself, shall be entitled to take custody of the children on the afternoon preceding said holiday.

6. The mother shall also have the right to take the children into her custody for at least two (2) weeks during the summer vacation period, which shall be the two (2) weeks of her choice, provided however, that she shall give the father at least sixty (60) days notice prior to the beginning of said two (2) week period, and in addition, she shall have the children in her custody for an additional two (2) weeks if the children express a desire to her and to the father to spend an additional two (2) weeks with the mother.

7. The holidays between school sessions shall be divided equally between the parties; the first half thereof to be with the mother and the last half with the father.

8. Neither party shall say or do anything to turn the children against the other parent, but each party shall exert every reasonable effort to foster a feeling of affection between themselves and the children and the other parent.

9. Neither party shall expose the children to any person, place or situation which would adversely affect their health, education or welfare.

10. In the event of a disagreement with the parties with respect to visitations not specifically provided herein, the parties shall attempt to resolve the dispute through counsel and if unsuccessful, by meeting in the Domestic Relations Office of Crawford County, failing which, the matter may be referred to the Court for adjudication.

11. In order to avoid any dispute between the parties, which frequently occur when oral testimony is presented, this agreement may be modified on an indefinite basis only in writing, signed by the parties and filed of record.

12. All matters of policy involving the children, particularly such matters as may affect their health, education and welfare, shall be discussed between the parties for the purpose of agreeing upon and adopting a harmonious policy calculated to serve the best interests of the children.

Oct. 11, 1977 Petition for Alimony Pendente lite, counsel fees and expenses and Order filed.
Order: AND NOW, this 11 day of October, 1977, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and on Motion of Bruce M. Johnson, Esquire, Attorney for the Plaintiff a Rule is granted upon the Defendant to show cause why the Petitioner should not be awarded alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and expenses in the above entitled action.
Returnable and for hearing on the 26th day of October, 1977, at 9:15 o'clock, A.M., in Court Room No. 1 or 2 at the Court House at Meadville, Penna.

BY THE COURT,

So answers,

Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff
Louise E. Miller, Deputy Sheriff

Oct. 31, 1977 Order filed: AND NOW, October 26, 1977, after hearing at which the defendant was served notice of but failed to appear, the Court directs the defendant pay as his share of total divorce costs and attorney fee the sum of $350.00, with said sum to be paid on or before December 1, 1977.
Insofar as Alimony Pendente Lite for the support of the wife is concerned, the defendant will pay the sum of $75.00 per month commencing with the month of November for the support of Cynthia A. Bahurinsky, with said payments to be made on or before the 10th of each and every month until the divorce is final.
The Court believes it is without power to enter an order for the support of the child in this proceeding but notes that a support proceeding has been filed in the Domestic Relations Division and is advised that the defendant has been at times contributing $50.00 for support of the child every two (2) weeks. The Court recommends that the defendant continue making these support payments and if he fails to do so the Court directs the Domestic Relations Office to provide an amicable order that support for the child be post-dated to the date of filing the non-support petition.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas

Oct. 31, 1977 Copies (2) of order given to Bruce Johnson. (1 for defendant.)

And Now, November 11, 1977, Willis Schug, Esq., is hereby appointed Master in Divorce.

PETITION FOR CUSTODY OF MINOR CHILD

1 copy attested (sheriff)

ORDER: AND NOW, October 11, 1977, after presentation of a Petition for Custody and an informal hearing and consultation with the Mental Health Center, the Court deems it advisable to schedule an emergency hearing regarding custody of the child and hereby sets a hearing for October 12, 1977, at 1:30 P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 or Courtroom No. 2.

In the meantime, the Sheriff is directed to make immediate service of this order and the Court hereby directs that custody of the minor child, Linda Ellen Sohl, shall be delivered to the father, John W. Sohl, who shall appear at the aforesaid hearing with the child.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Oct. 11, 1977 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Margaret A. So answers,

Edgar Householder, Dep. Sheriff

Oct. 13, 1977, Order filed: AND NOW, October 12, 1977, at the time set for emergency hearing on this custody matter, the Court notes that service was made upon the Defendant, Margaret A. Sohl, on October 11, 1977, at 12:51 P.M. at Room 171, Holiday Inn, Meadville, but that she has failed to appear.

The Court further notes that counsel for the Petitioner, John W. Sohl, advises the Court that he was in telephone contact with the Defendant, Margaret A. Sohl, this date and that she apparently has returned to Erie County and advised that she apparently has returned to Erie County and advised that she intended to seek help at the Hamot Hospital Mental Health Center.

The Court further notes that counsel for the Petitioner represents that on this same date, he secured a temporary custody Order in Erie County awarding custody of the minor child, Linda Sohl, to the father, John W. Sohl, and that further proceedings are scheduled in Erie County.

ACCORDINGLY, this case is continued generally without adjudication and the Court reserves the right to hold further hearing upon request of either party to this action.

Aug. 21, 1980 Sur Defendant's Preliminary Objections-Order filed:

DEMURRER

1. Cause of action for wrongful collection and retention of taxes.

By alleging the wrongful assessment, collection and retention of tax revenues by the Defendant from the residents of French Creek Township, Mercer County, in 1974-75 and 1975-76, the plaintiffs have established a prima facie cause of action for the return of those revenues pursuant to 72 P.S., §5566(b) and (c).

Accordingly, the Defendant's demurrer to the cause of action for the return of these disputed revenues is dismissed.

2. Cause of Action for punitive damages

By alleging that the Defendant's wrongful assessment of taxes in 1974 and its subsequent refusal to correct the same was willful, wanton and a gross abuse of discretion, the Plaintiffs have established a prima facie cause of action for punitive damages in Count 1 of their Complaint.

However, Count 2, relating to 1975's assessment contains no such allegations of willful, wanton and abusive conduct on behalf of the Defendant and therefore, cannot sustain a cause of action for punitive damages.

Accordingly, the demurrer to the claim for punitive damages in Count 1 is dismissed and the demurrer to the claim for punitive damages in Count 2 will be sustained unless the Plaintiffs amend their Complaint to comply with this Order within 20 days of the filing of this Order.

MOTION TO STRIKE

1. Class Action

Although this Court recognizes that the existence of issues of law common to all potential class members makes this action a prime candidate for a class action Pa. R.C.P. 1701 prohibits us from certifying it as a class action at this pmeedural stage. Furthermore, the Plaintiffs have substantially disregarded the class action pleading requirements of Pa. R.C.P. 1704.

Because Rule 1704's "Class Action Allegations" ultimately become the subject matter of the Certification Hearing mandated by Pa. R.C.P. 1707, we find it necessary that the Plaintiffs amend their Complaint to comply with Pa. R.C.P. 1704.

Accordingly, the Motion to Strike the class action aspects of this suit will be sustained if the Plaintiffs fail to amend their Complaint to comply with Pa. R.C.P. 1704 within twenty (20) days of the filing of this Order.

2. Individual Refund and Claims

Because the individual refund claims are in the possession and exclusive control of the Defendant, this Court finds that the Defendant will suffer no real prejudice if those claims are not attached to the Complaint pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1019(h).

Likewise, the Complaint need not detail the amount and date of taxes paid by each distinct class member, nor must it include the amount and date of each claimed refund as all such information is within the control of the defendant.

Accordingly, the Motion to Strike based on the Plaintiffs' failure to attach each individual refund claim and to enumerate individual taxes paid and refunds

Filed November 9, 1977

ADOPTION OF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE ADMINISTRATIVE RULE L-207

ORDER: AND NOW, November 3, 1977, the following Justice of the Peace Administrative Rule L-207 is hereby adopted.

Rule L-207 Assessment of Constable Costs

In criminal cases when an arrest warrant has been issued to a constable for service and the defendant thereafter voluntarily appears at the justice of the peace office, warrant and mileage costs will be assessed against the defendant if his appearance is in response to written notice served by the constable on the defendant or left at the defendant's place of residence.

COMMENT: When a defendant voluntarily appears at the J.P. office to answer a charge, the J.P. office staff should ascertain if additional costs are due. This Rule is intended to cover situations where a constable has attempted to effect personal service but the defendant hides, refuses to answer the door, or otherwise purposely avoids the constable and the constable has not effected service but has left his card with a notice to the defendant to report to the appropriate justice office. In these circumstances, appropriate constable costs for warrant and mileage are due and payable.

July 20, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, July 18, 1978, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., the time scheduled for hearing on this matter, counsel for the petitioner advises the Court that he was advised that service of this petition for contempt was served upon the defendant on July 15, 1978 at approximately 10:00 a.m. at 3203 Galloway Drive, Orlando, Florida (Orange County Control No. 30494).

At the time scheduled for this hearing, the respondent fails to appear, and accordingly, he is adjudged in contempt of court for his willful and deliberate violation of a custody Order entered upon agreement and reduced to the form of a Court Order in the County of Common Pleas of Crawford County. Jan. 12, 1981, Order filed. AND NOW, January 6, 1981, it appears the parents of the child are in disagreement about certain items and the Court has informally reviewed with them and with their counsel the incident in April of 1980 and the incident in October of 1980 wherein the father requests the Court to adjudge the mother in contempt. After review of the facts, the Court refuses to adjudge the mother in wilful and deliberate contempt of the former visitation order and amends the latest order between the parties as follows:

By previous agreement of the parties, on the weeks where the father does not have the child on weekends, he shall have the child on Thursday from immediately after school until 8:00 P.M.

On any Thursday where the mother's business plans or out of town travel plans make Thursday visitations undesirable, she shall give the father of the child one (1) week notice that Thursday is not a convenient date and the father may pick any other date within the next seven (7) days of Thursday for said visit or if the child is to be out of the city and unavailable a day or two after said Thursday at any within seven (7) days after the child is returned to the mother's custody.

The parties are in disagreement about the nature and frequency of telephone contact between the father and child, and, accordingly, the parties having been unable to agree on the method by which said communication is to be held or the times, the Court hereby directs that the previous order be amended and that every week on Monday between 5:00 and &:00 P.M., the father will call the child and the mother will have said child available and encourage said child to carry on a meaningful telephone conversation with the father. On any week that the mother finds she will be unavailable on Monday between those hours, she shall give the father at least twenty-four (24) hours notice of the unavailability of said child and tha father will have his choice of another date between the same times for said telephone call.

There seems to be some slight problem regarding communications between the parties regarding medication for the child. The mother is directed to advise the father when he picks the child up for the prescribed visits of any medication that the child should have or has recently had administered so the father may be cognizant of the needs of the child and any precautions or observations to be made in regard to said medication.

Oct. 10, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, October 4, 1979, after hearing, the Court believes at this time the best interest of the three minor children will be served by allowing them to remain in the custody of their mother Mona Bucklew and so orders, subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. The mother may not move her residence from Crawford County without further hearing before the Court.

2. The Court requests Child Welfare Service who made an investigation for the Court in this case and had been concerned with a least one of the minor children in the past to remain in the case and the mother will consent that Child Welfare Service may visit her home unannounced at any time to check on living conditions and the condition of the children. In this regard, the Court requests that Child Welfare Service Caseworker involved in this case to make at least one unannounced visit each month during the next four months. In the event there are any matters concerning the welfare of the children or changed or unusual living arrangements that the welfare worker believes should be called to the attention of the Court, they will be presented to the Court in writing and the Court will see that counsel for both parties receive a copy of the report.

3. The Court believes the best interest of the children will be served by granting liberal visits to the father and his new wife. In this regard, the Court refers the matter back to counsel for the parties to try to arrange mutually satisfactory visitation arrangements for the father taking into consideration his working schedule and the working schedule of his new wife. Also to take into consideration that during school vacation periods and during the summer vacation periods, the father should be accorded more that weekend visitation rights with the children.

James W. Howles

problems occuring in June of 1977 and that he has two (2) weekly appointments with a chiropractor. His attorney suggests he would like to schedule him for an appointment with an orthopedic surgeon to determine if there is only partial or permanent disability.

It further appears the defendant contends his only income is rental of his real estate at $375.00 per year. It further appears that he owns approximately nine-six (96) acres of land in two separate parcels and has an inventory from a non-operating farm equipment business somewhere in the neighborhood of $20,000.00 but refuses to sell the same in the hopes that he may go back into the farm machinery business and farming business.

This Court is of the opinion that the defendant is deliberately attempting to create an insolvent condition to avoid payment of a support order entered for the support of his two (2) Children at No. 77 September Term, 1977 (divorce). ACCORDINGLY , we adjudge the defendant in contempt of Court for willful and deliberate failure to pay the support order for his two(2) children, but sentence for contempt will be postponed for a period of sixty (60) days at the request of his attorney in order that further medical examination may be made by an orthopedic physician and the possiblity of liquidating assets be explored for the purpose of paying this support Order and the arrearages thereon.

It further appears that a new petition at No. 133 Domestic Relations Division has been filed which claims support for the two(2) minor children which are already covered by the Order at No. 77 September Term, 1977 and counsel for the wife advises the Court this was an oversight as the petition was intended to be a petition requesting support for the wife in view of the fact that an Order filed April 3, 1978 at No. 77 September Term, 1977 vacated payment of alimony pendent lite in the divorce action. Said amendment is allowed and the petition at No. 133 Domestic Relations Division, 1978 is amended by striking the names of the children therefrom and inserting therein the request for support for the wife only.

Adjudication on the petition for support of the wife is posponed pending further proceedings in this matter on the aforesaid contempt order. Costs to awaint final disposition.

July 19, 1978 Copies of Order given to Joseph Kulwicki, Esq. and Stephen Toole, Esq.

Nov. 2, 1978 Order filed: The Court having committed the defendant to the Crawford County Jail for contempt of court for failing to comply with support orders at the above numbers on October 26, 1977, and the defendant, on October 27, 1978, having proposed a payment of $1,000.00 on arrearages, the sheriff is hereby authorized to release the defendant from confinement upon payment to the Domestic Relations Office of the sum of $1,000 to apply on arrearages.

Upon payment of such sum, the defendant will be released and the Order for support of children, heretofore entered, is hereby reduced to the sum of $15 per week, commencing with the week of October 22, 1978, through the week of December 24, 1978. The defendant shall be required to pay said sums weekly on this reduced Court Order.

The defendant is currently scheduled for further physical examination December 5, 1978, and it shall be his obligation to keep the Domestic Relations Office fully advised of the examination and any projected surgical operations.

After January 1, 1979, the Domestic Relations Office shall review this case and make a report and recommendation to the Court.

In the meantime, all support payments shall be deemed paid under No. 77 September Term, 1977, for the children. No order for wife support is entered at this time.

The Court reserves the right to further modify the arrearages existing or to require further payments thereon, depending on the recommendation of the Domestic Relations office.

April 10, 1980, Deposition of Dorothy Loucks filed.

Apr. 25, 1980 Pretrial Conference Memorandum, Contentions of the Parties and Summary filed: As to all defendants, there will be an issue concerning the plaintiff's compliance with policy terms and/or the No-Fault Insurance Act relating to notice, proofs of loss, etc. It is conceded by the plaintiffs that no formal proofs of loss were filed within the time periods required, but it will be asserted by the plaintiffs that either such formal notices and proofs of loss were waived by the conduct of the insurance carriers and/orthat such formal notices and proofs of loss were no required because all of the defendants were on notice of the claim by other means, or that the filing of such formal notices and proofs of loss should be excused by the Court.

In addition to this general issue raised by all defendants, State Automobile Insurance Company asserts an issue of cancellation and an issue of the Statute of Limitations as to the fifth cause of action. Aetna and Kemper raise and additional issue as to whether or not the plaintiff was a member of the household of his father and whether he came within the definition of an insured under those policies. All defendants subsequent to State Auto Insurance Company assert a defense that there is one or more insurance carriers who are senior to them in the list of responsible insurers under the No-Fault Insurance Act.

State Automobile Insurance Company takes the position that the suit by the plaintiff against should be treated as one on one lawsuit and that counsel for the other defendants should not be permitted to participate in that litigation. The co-defendants take the position that since they have a vital interest in a finding that State Automobile Insurance Company was the primary insurer, they should be permitted to participate. Since the judge holding the pretrial conference in this case is disqualified from trying it, that matter will ruled upon by Judge P. Richard Thomas after argument on April 25, 1980 at 11:15 A.M.

WHEREAS, THE Court is assured that as of the first of the year the father will have Saturdays and Sundays off ans will not engage in sports activities on week-ends during which he has visitation privileges; and

WHEREAS, the Court does not feel that any particular harm has yet occured because of violation of the Court Order;

NOW, THEREFORE, this 20th day of December, 1977, IT IS ORDERED AND DIRECTED as follows;

1. That the petition to modify the Court Order as of this time is dismissed without prejudice to the right of the mother to refile a petition in the event that the father does not in the future fully exercise the visitation privileges accorded to him.

2. Since this Order was entered by agreement of the parties, we see no reason why bothe parties should not place the welfare of the child ahead of their own feelings towards each other and hereafter seek to develop in the child love and affection for each parent.

3. Since justice is a two-way street, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that in the event of any violations of this Order, the parties shall not communicate with the Court directly because the Court is prohibited by law from paying attention to correspondence or other communications or from taking any other action unless all litigants are present in court with their counsel.
