Feb. 5, 1996 Petition to Intervene filed.

Feb. 5, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW,February 5, 1996, after receipt and review of a Petition to Intervene filed by Charlotte J.Molrine which the Court believes is filed under 53 P.S. 11004-A and Pa.R.C.P.2326 et al. it is ordered as follows:

1. Since it does not appear that Charlotte J.Molrine is a municipality or owner or tenant of property directly involved but is rather the owner of property in the vicinity of the property at issue she must file a properly verified petition under Pa.R.C.P.2328 and not merely a notice of intervention under 53 P.S. 11004-A.

2. We will accept said petition provided that Ms. Molrine within five (5) days from the date of this Order files an appropriate verification with the Prothonotary. She is obligated to comply with all statutes and rules governing these matters and is not exempted simply because she represents herself.

3. Pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 2329 a rule to show causse is hereby entered and directed to the parties to show cause, if any they have, why Ms.Molrine's petition to intervene should not be granted. Said rule is returnable for hearing and or argument on the 4th day of March, 1996 at 1:30 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No.1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

Aug. 20, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 15, 1997, at the time set for a hearing on the Plaintiff's petition for bifurcation, the Plaintiff appears with her counsel and neither the Defendant nor his counsel appear.
Plaintiff's counsel indicates that he has had a discussion with defense counsel about consenting to this petition and that the Court could contact defense counsel's office to confirm that there is consent. We do so and counsel's paralegal indicates that the Defendant does, in fact, consent to the bifurcation.
Accordingly, the divorce action in this matter is bifurcated from the remaining ancillary issues. Upon praecipe for review by either party when all appropriate documents have been filed, we will review and thereafter grant the divorce if everything is in order and we will reserve jurisdiction over the remaining ancillary issues before the Court.

Order:
And Now, this 5 day of January, 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children children named in the Petition.
2. Special Conditions: Pending further order of court the planitiff shallhave sole possession or residence at RD #3 Box 281B Linesville, PA and sole custody of minor children.
3. This Order may be enforced without a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.
4. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police departments in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides and to County Control. PSP Meadville
5. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.
6. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court. Liability for payment or fees and costs will be determined by final court order.
7. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine up to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.
8. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

Hearing is hereby set for January 15, 1996, at 3 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse. The defendant is advised he may retain a lawyer to represent him at said hearing if he so desires but he is not required to do so.

April 26, 1996, Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt forViolation of Protection From Abuse Order filed.

May 17, 1996 PFA - INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT Order of May 9, 1996, filed. 1. The Defendant shall undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum ter of 15 days and a maximum term of 45 days. He may be paroled at the expiration of his minimum sentence provided his jail conduct is perfect. Upon parole, there need be no further proceedings with respect to the parole. The Warden has a right to automatically parole him at the expiration of his minimum sentence if his jail conduct has been perfect. If his jail conduct has not been perfect, then he shall remain in the Crawford County Jail and will only be paroled after he files a motion with the Court and the Defendant files a parole motion with the Court and the Court determines whether or not the Defendant should be paroled.

2. The order of Januaryl5, 1996 is modified in the following respects. There does not appear to be a custody agreement or a custody order involving the children. The Court had envisioned on January 15, 1996 that there would be such an order or such an agreement and that the order or the agreement would provide the method of picking up and returning the children, that apparently hasn't taken place. If the Defendant has any visitation or custody rights, the parties shall work out the exchange of custody an the transportation. However under no circumstances, may the Defendant get out of his car when picking up the children or returning the children and under no circumstances shall he go upon the porch or into the home of the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff shall not invite the Defendant to get out of his car or to come into her home.

3. The parties may not amend this order. They may file a motion or petition with the Court for the Court to modify or amend this order. Therefore, if the Plaintiff invites the Defendant to do anything that would be a violation of this order, the Defendant shall resist because the Plaintiff does not have the right to change this order on her own. She has a right to approach the Court on proper motion or petition and the Court will change the order if that is appropriate; therefore, even if the Plaintiff invites the Defendant to violate this order, any law enforcement officer investigating this matter will have the right to assume that the Defendant has violated the Court order if he has disobeyed or violated or deviated from any of the expressed language of this order or the order of January 15, 1996. No police officer and no court will give the Defendant any credit if he claims that he violated an order because he was asked to do so or permitted to do so by the Plaintiff.

4. The Defendant shall pay $150 toward the Plaintiff's attorney's fees within 45 days from this date by making a payment to Dana Watson, Esq., at his office address.

June 26, 1997 Decision of Arbitrators: And now, the 26th day of June, 1997, we the undersigned chosen in this case, after having been duly sworn and having heard the evidence and allegations of the parties find: Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant in the amount of $8,156.25 with interest from September 15, 1995 at the legal rate.
Judgment in favor of Defendant and against the Plaintiff, in the amount of $1,234.40.
The Arbitrators find Defendant breached the Covenant Not to Compete by failing to pay the last requireed payment. Plaintiff did not breach the Employment Agreement or Covenant Not to Compete. We determine that the restraints provided for in the Covent Not to Compete are too broad as to both are a and as to activity by attempting to define an end user or retail seller as "customer".

PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY INTERVENTION BY EMERGENCY COURT ORDER

Jan. 12, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, January 12, 1996, upon consideration of the foregoing petition and after informal hearing, it is hereby ordered that Active Aging Inc. shall provide the following protective services to Alice J. Stout and such services shall be provided without her consent:

1. She shall be transported to the Meadville Medical Center forthwith for an evaluation and any appropriate treatment either with her permission or without her permission.
2. It is ordered and directed that she receive a psychiatric or at least a psychological evaluation at the Meadville Medical Center.
3. In the event it is determined that she needs treatment for physical problems and/or psychiatric or psychological problems after those initial evalutions, she shall be kept at the Meadville Medical Center if that is appropriate or if not she shall be placed in an appropriate facility such as a nursing home.
4. In the event it becomes necessary as a last resort either in her transportation to the Meadville Medical Center or during her evalution and/or treatment, she may be restrained as necessary without further order of court.
5. The state or local police accompanied by a representative of Active Aging Inc. are hereby authorized to forcibly enter the premises of the aforesaid older adult to enforce the terms of this order.
6. The terms of this order shall expire at 9:20 a.m. on January 15, 1996.
7. The Court hereby sets January 16, 1996 at 3:30 p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 at the Crawford County Courthouse for a review hearing in the event of the need for an additional emergency court order or continued court and protective services involvement or both. The Court hereby appoints William Walker, Esquire to represent the aforesaid older adult in any proceeding with regard to this matter.
8. Unless it is deemed by medical personnel to be detrimental to the health of the older adult to have her appear at th time of the hearing, she shall be required to do so.
9. The Court enters this emergency order for involuntary intervention because we find that there is clear and convincing evidence that if protective services are not provided the order adult is at eminent fear of death or servious physical harm.

Aug. 14, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 5, 1996 this matter is before the Court on a complaint for indirect contempt by the Plaintiff to prevent the Defendant from threatening, grabbing or yelling at her at her home or any other place. The Defendant denies the allegations.

After informal hearing, the parties mutually agreee that they will not contact or see each other in any fashion or threaten, annoy, or harass each other.

Specifically, the Defendant, as an amendment to the original petition in this case, is directed not to telephone, write, or attempt to contact the Plaintiff in any fashion. In this regard, he will not be within 500 yards of her dwelling house for any purpose.

Additionally, if he sees her in public, or in any private home, or other establishment, he shall immediately leave the premises without any comment to her and not go back or attempt to see her at the location from which he left.

In regard to this, the Court is let to believe that neither party wants to contact the other for any purpose, health reasons or otherwise, and accordingly, both parties are directed

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 2/26/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Mar. 25, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 22, 1996, after proper notice and hearing held with all parties present and in person with counsel, the Court is satisfied that the Plaintiff has established the probable validity of its claim and is entitled to a Writ of Seizure pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1075.1; and accordingly,it is ordered as follows:

1. A Writ of Seizure hereby issued and directed to the Sheriff of Crawford County and to Pennwest Farm Credit ACA to seize all head of cows in the possession of the Defendants.
2. This order is conditioned upon the Plaintiff filing a bond inthe form approved by the Prothonotary of Crawford County in the amount of $515,400.
4. The Court does not now make a determination whether or not these cows are perishable and therefore will not order immediate possession; however, the Defendants have a right to give immediate possession if they wish,orif they desire to keep the cows for the 72 hours provided for in the rules, the Defendants shall keep the cows in the same good order in which they are presently kept and shall attend to them as they have been up until now and feed them as they have up until now. In the 72 hours provided for by the rules, the Plaintiff shall have the right to send representatives of its choosing to the Wagnercrest Farms upon appropriate telephone notice so that the representatives of the Plaintiff may view the cows and determine their condition and to determine whether or not they are in immediate danger or perishment in which case the Plaintiffs may come back to court and ask that the 72 hours be cut short.

Feb. 7, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 30, 1996,this matter is before the Court for a hearing with regard to the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act. The plaintiff appears with her attorney and the defendant having been served on January 22, 1996,while in the Crawford County Jail, does not appear at this time andhas previously been released on bond from the Crawford County Jail.

ACCORDINGLY, the Order entered as a temporary Protection From Abuse Order on January 22, 1996 by SEnior Judge P.Richard Thomas is continued in full force and effect pending hearing in this matter. In addition, that Order is modified to include a condition that the defendant shall have no contact whatsoever with the minor child, either at the plaintiff's residence or at any other location pending further Order of Court.

A Bench Warrant is issued for the apprehension of the defendant,and when he is apprehended, he shall not be bondable without further Order of Court. The jail shall notify the Court Administrator when the defendant is in the Crawford County Jail so that a hearing may be set promptly.

A copy of this Order shall be sent to Crawford County Control and to the appropriate police agency.

In so far as this matter is continued generally, if either party would like a hearing at some time in the future, they may request a hearing.

Feb 7, 1996 PFA Order: AND NOW, January 30,1996, after formal hearing with regard to the Plaintiff's Petition for relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act, we find that there was abuse within the meaning of the Act.

ACCORDINGLY. the following Order is entered:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the plaintiff at nay time or any place.
2. The trailer currently located at R.D. #4, Box 783, Centerville, Pennsylvania, shall be in the sole possession of the plaitniff pending further Order of Court in this proceeding or any other appropriate proceeding that may indicate that the mobile home is not titled in the name of the plaintiff or some other party, but is, in fact, only titled in the name of the defendant.
3. The defendant may not go to that residence without further Order of court in this proceeding or any other proceeding and he is specifically directed not to go to that residence, even if he is invited to that residence, because any police agency will presume that he is in violation of this Order if he is at that residence. If the parties wish for him to be able to go to the residence at some time in the future, they should seek a modification of this Order prior to him doing so.
4. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Pennsylvania State Police, Corry Barracks, Crawford County Control, and the Prothonotary shall send a copy by regular mail to the unrepresente plaintiff at R. D. #4, Centerville, Pennsylvania, The Prothonotary shall also supply a copy to counsel for the defendant.

Jan. 13, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, January 9, 1997, at a contempt hearing, we find the defendant in contempt for failure to pay the costs as requried.

He is currently in the Crawford County Jail on Work Release and claims that he can pay the balance off in two months.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall pay all costs in this case in the amount of $93.50 no later than March 7, 1997. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the Work Release Director and to the Adult Probation Department by the Prothonotary. Those persons shall see to the payment out of the defendant's earnings while he is on Work Release. Hoepfully, the defendant will pay an installment payment out of each paycheck, withthe installment payment to be in an amount that will pay off the total within 2 months fromthis date.

2. The defendant is advised that if he fails to pay these costs within 2 months form this date, we may hold additional contempt proceedings and punish him, including a fine up to $1,000 and incarceration up to 6 months.

Aug. 26, 1997 Waiver of Notice of Intention to Request Entry of a Divorce Decree Under §3301(c) of the Divorce code by Paula J. Addams, Defendant, filed.

Aug. 29,1 997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 28, 1997, after a hearing, it is Ordered and Directed that the Plaintiff Randall Addams shall have exclusive possession of the marital residence at 13081 State Highway 18, Conneaut Lake, Pennsylvania, subject to the following conditions:

1. He shall within thirty (3) days from this date, file a 3301(c) Affidavit of Consent; and Inventory as required by Pa.R.Civ.P.1920.75, and an Income and Expense Statement and Related Documents as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.31(a)(1).

2. Pending further litigation in this matter, no party shall in anyway dispose of any marital, personal or real property in any manner nor destroy or cause any such property to be diminished in value. The plaintiff shall cuase the marital home to be maintained in every respect and shall continue to pay the taxes and insurance with regard to that home.

3. This Order shall not preclude the defendant from sending someone to the marital residennce for the purpose of appraising the real property and/or personal property and the plaintiff shall cooperate, though counsel, with defendant through counsel, to arrange any such appraisals.

4. Pending any further order of court, each party shall cooperate with the other party in signing any documents necessary for title or registration with regard to marital vehicles in their possession so that each party may continue to have a vehicle availabe to them.

5. In the event the defendant does not believe that the plaintiff is making reasonable efforts to move this divorce action forward, any time after six (6) months from this date, she may petition the court to conduct a further hearing to determine whether the exclusive possession Order we have entered this day shall be rescinded or modified.

6. This Order is not intended to give guidance to the master or ultimately to the Court in any manner with regard to the equitable distribution of the marital property or any of the related issues but only an interim order while this litigation is pending.

We have entered this Order after consideration of the equitable factors in light of the fact the plaintiff has been in possession of the marital residence since the time of separation almost 2 years ago and the defendant has indicated that she really does not have reason to go to that residence although she may wish to have some personal property from that residence. This Order is without prejudice to her to negotiate to obtain such property pending the outcome of the divorce action or to petition the court for relief with regard to such property.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant will not contact Plaintiff or child for any purpose. Def may not go to residence of Pl for any purpose.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is 9/26/61 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for Feb. 2, 1996 , at3:30 p. m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Jan. 29, 1996 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED William E. Slage, II, by deputizing the Sheriff of Erie County, PA. Per telephone call on January 29, 1996, from Erie County Sheriff's Office, Defendant served on January 26, 1996 at 6:20 PM. Affidavit of Service forthcoming.
So answers, Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Feb 13, 1996 RETURN: Deputy Brian Copley of Erie County, Pennsylvania, who being duly sworn according to law, says, the within PFA/COURT CRDER was served upon Slagle, William E. II defendant, at 1820:00 hours, on the 26th day of January 1996 at Corry Police Department, Corry, PA 16407, Erie County, Pennsylvania, by handing to William E. Slagel, II a true and attested copy of the PFA/COURT ORDER and at the same tiem directing his attention to the contents thereof. So answers:
Robert N. Michel, Sheriff
Brian S. Copley, Deputy Sheriff

Feb 14, 1996 PFA Order: AND NOW, February 2, 1996, the matter is befor ethe Court on an Abuse Petition and the Court ascertains the primary thrust of this Petition is the issue over visitations with the minor child of the parties. The Court notes there is a companion custody issue at 1995 - 1261 in the Courts of Crawford County, but apparently because of a change of address, there has been difficulty in serving athe defendant. This date, the Court serves upon the defendant a copy fo the entire file in the custody action and advises Custody Mediator John Spataro to set a mediation conference between the parties since the Court has now perfected service on the defendant.

The Court is not satisfied that an Abuse Order is appropriate in this case, and generally continues the abuse hearing.

In the abuse action, the plaintiff contends serious threats were made against her and the defendant denies the same. The case is continued on the basis that the defendant will not contact the plaintiff, go to her residence of make any threats of any kind against her.

In the custody action, the parties have reached a tentative agreement regarding visitations with the minor child pending the outcome of the Custody Mediator Conference.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court directs that the father shall have visits with the minor child William every other weekend commencing Feb. 2, 1996, between the hours of Friday at 6 p.m. until Sunday at 5 p.m. Due to the friction between the parties, they mutually agree that the child will b epicked up for each visit and returned after said visit to the home of the grandmother, Katherine Winans, 611 South Center Stree, Corry, Pa. For all visits except the first, the mother shall make certain that the child is prepared for the weekend visits by sending appropriate clothes and personal effects with him.

Mar. 11, 1996 ORDER filed. This divorce matterhas beenreferred to the Court for reveiw and decree. The Court has reviewed the record andis returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will notbe entered atthis time because:

x AS to a 3301(d) divorce:

x There is no indication that the 3301(d) affidavit was properly served on the responding party.

x There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d)(1) in the form required by 1920.73 has been given to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit.

Plaintiff seeks a 3301(D) divorce but has not complied with Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42(d)(1) and 1920.73(b). 1920.42(e) does not apply.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Jan. 26, 1996 Order filed. Hearing set for Jan. 30, 1996 @ 11:30 a.m.
BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Feb.7, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 30, 1996, this matter is before the Court for a hearing pursuant to our Order of January 26, 1996, this matter coming to the Court under the Older Adults Protective Services Act.

At the time of this hearing, the subject of theproceeding is present, together with his counsel,and upon agreement of the parties, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the older adult shall remain at the Peaceful Rest Nursing Home in their personal care home for a period of up to 30 days, which period shall end at the expiration of 30 days, or before that, if the subject's son Hary Pletcher,Jr. has been released from the Veterans' Administration Hospital and is himself in a position to return to his home and care for Harry Pletcher.

Additionally, it is noted that the older adult subject of these proceedings has appointments at the VA Hospital in Pittsburgh on February 5, 1996,andFebruary 7, 1996, and he shallbe permitted to attend those appointments and, in fact,remain in Pittsburgh with his family during the day intervening between those appointments, to be returned to the Peaceful Rest Nursing Home shortly after completing the second appointment.

In the event further further intervention become appropriate, the Petitioner may ask for further hearing before the Court.

Faxed Sullivan
Faxed PSP & County Control

AND NOW, this 29 day of Jan, 1996, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a hearing thereon is scheduled for the 6 day of Feb., 1996 at 3:00 P.M. in Courtroom 3 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, PA.

The defendant is directed to refrain from abusing and/or threatening to abuse, or harassing the plaintiff.

The defendant shall not remove or tamper with any of the plantiff's property located at 23533 U.S. Hwy. 322, Cochranton, Pennsylvania.

The Crawford County Sheriff Department is directed to serve a certified copy of this Petition and Order upon the defendant. In the alternative, this Petition and Order may be served by any competent adult or by certified mail.

The Cochranton Police Department and/or the State Police of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and/or any police department with appropriate jurisdiction shall enforce this order.

This Petition and Order shall be filed and served without payment of costs; the Court shall determine at the hearing if the defendant shall be required to pay the costs.

THE DEFENDANT IS HEREBY ADVISED OF HIS RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL, AND HE IS NOTIFIED THAT HIS FAILURE TO ATTEND THE HEARING SCHEDULE ABOVE MAY HAVE SERIOUS LEGAL CONSEQUENCES.

THE DEFENDANT SHOULD TAKE THIS PAPER TO HIS LAWYER AT ONCE. IF HE DOES NOT HAVE A LAWYER OR CANNOT AFFORD ONE, HE SHOULD GO TO OR TELEPHONE THE OFFICE SET FORTH BELOW TO FIND OUT WHERE HE CAN GET LEGAL HELP.

During that period of time, the defendant may not go to the marital residence or on the real estate on which the marital residence is situated without specific Order from this Court or without specific agreement from the plaintiff obtained through counsel of the plaintiff and counsel of the defendant.

The defendant shall return to the plaintiff this date certain stock certificates which were taken from a safe deposit box and any other items that he took from a safe deposit box which are the sole premarital property of the plaintiff.

The plaintiff, through her counsel, shall make available within 5 days from this date to defendant's counsel any tax return copies fro the parties that are in her possession, as well as any canceled checks for 1995, deposit slips for 1995 and an amortization schedule apparently with regard to a piece of property that the parties sold. Those items may remain in the possession of the defendant's counsel for a period of 10 days so that copies may be made of all of those items that defendant wishes to copy, and thereafter, the items shall be returned to the plaintiff.

The counsel for the defendant may generate a reasonable bill for copying those items which will be split between the parties.

The plaintiff will also supply within 5 days, through her counsel to defendant's counsel, all canceled checks for the parties from 1990 through 1994, which may be kept by defendant's counsel for the purpose of the defendant photocopying the same, but all of the photocopying expense with regard to those items shall be at the defendnat's expense insofar as he indicates through counsel tht he wants those in case he gets audited and currently ther is no audit taking place.

The defendant is DIRECTED to return within 10 days to the plaintiff, through his coundel to her counsel, any financial records or other records that eh may have in his possession that are the plaintiff's records and also he is directed to return to her any items that he has in his possession that are her children's items.

No party may destroy, give away or in any way dispose of any marital property or marital records at any time pending the outcome of this divorce action. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 3/5/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Faxed MCPD

AND NOW, this 5th day of February , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff ~~or any of the minor children named in the Petition.~~

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff in any way. Plaintiff shall have the right to have her children on Saturday Feb. 10 1996 from 10 AM to 8 PM

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 163-62-4939 and date of birth is 7-30-63 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for February 15, 1996 at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

COMPLAINT UNDER SECTION 3301(c) or 3301(d) OF THE DIVORCE CODE
1 copy atty.

Feb. 6, 1996 Notice of Intention To Request Entry of Divorce Decree filed.

June 11, 1996 Acceptance of Service: I, JUSTIN E. DOEBERIENER, Defendant herein, do stae that I personally received a true and attest copy of the Complaint Under Sectiion 3301(c) or 3301(d) of The Divorce Code, Notice to Defend and Claim Rights, Notice of Availability of Couseling, and Notice of Intention To Request Divorce Decree, in the above captioned matter.

June 11, 1996 Affidavit of Consent of Defendant, filed.

June 11, 1996 Affidavit of Consent of Plaintiff, filed.

June 11, 1996 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

June 17, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 14, 1996 this divorce matter has been referred to the court for review and decree. The court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered this time because plaintiff has not complied with Pa.R.C.P. 1920.42 (d)(1) and (d)(2).

Specifically, we do not believe it is the intention of that rule to allow notice of intention to request entry of a divorce decree to be filed and served at the same time the divorce complaint is filed, because as that notice is required to be drafted pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1920.73 (a)(1) it specifically refers to a failure to answer a complaint. Secondly, so far as the defendant does not have counsel of record, he must be provided with a form counter affidavit.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer this matter back to the court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree. BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION
1 copy atty.

Feb. 16, 1996 Affidavit of Service filed. And Now, February 16, 1996, comes Carole Walker, secretary to Barbara J. Walton, and avers as follows:
1. A true and correct copy of the Complaint for Divorce under Section 3301(c) was mailed to the Defendant via Certified Mail, return receipt on February 14, 1996.
2. That the Defendant signed the return card on February 15, 1996, and in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. 412, service ofthe Complaint was made as is evidenced by the United States Postal Service Return Receipt (Certified No. P535894531) attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
I VERIFY that the statements made in this Affidavit are true and correct. I understand that false statements herein are made subject to the penalties of 18 Pa. C.S. 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

June 5, 1996 Upon praecipe of plaintiff attorney to transmit record, case moved to Court.

June 14, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 14, 1996, this divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because economic and other issues or corunts have been raised in the pleadings which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawl or hearing. To grant a Divorce Decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation.
We note that the Prothonotary's Divorce Decree makes reference to a property and settlement agreement on March 28, 1996, but it is not part of the record and we do not know whether it allows for the incorporation of merger of its contents in the Divorce Decree. BY THE CORUT:

Feb. 5, 1999 Pre-Trial Order filed. And now, Feb. 5, 1999 after a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the corut enters the following order:
1. All discovery is completed all parties are ready for trial and the trial shall commence on Thursday Feb. 11, 1999 at 9 am. It is anticipated that this case will take two days to try. Jury selection may take place on Feb. 8, 1999 in the morning.
2. Description of the case. Plaintiffs allege that their next door neighbor the Turners entered into a timber agreement with Stampin whereby Stampin purchase cut timber form Turner. Before cutting the timber Stampin and Mr. Turner went on the property to mark the trees. Apparently they went on to the plaintiffs' land and marked trees and cut several trees on the plaintiffs' and did other damage.
Turners claim that they did nothing wrong. They did not mark any trees on the plaintiffs' property. They hired Stampin believing that Stampin knew what he was doing. If anyone is liable it is Stampin. Stampin believes that he acted reasonably was not negligent and did not act in a willful or deliberate manner.

3. Factual issues and legal issues. There are no unusual factual or legal issues.
4. Disposition of pre-trial motions. The plaintiff filed a motion in limine to add another theory of damages to-wit: pure trespass. We granted the motion in limine. We do not believe this was a new cause of action or barred by the statute of limitations. We think the complaint alleged that the defendant crossed over onto the plaintiffs' land. That would be, if true, a pure trespass. The plaintiffs' motion in limine simply was to raise another theory of damages.
5. The plaintiffs claim the following damages:

Damages for the trespass including the value of the trees cut	$3335.00
Trees damaged but not removed	400.00
Stanley Zahora appraiser fee	75.00
Land survey	425.00
Total	$4235.00

6/ The plaintiffs case in chief:
a. Witnesses
The plaintiffs intend to testify themselves and call Christine Stoltz, Stanley Zahora and Robert Hutton
b. Exhibits. The plaintiffs intend to use the exhibits listed on their pre-trial narrative.
7. The Turner case in chief: 1. Witnesses. The Turners intend to call Mr. Turner and Stanley Jacobs as witnesses.
b. Exhibits.
The Turners intend to use the exhibits listed on their pre-trial narrative.
8. The Stampin case in chief: a. Witnesses
Thomas Stampin will be the only witness.
b. Exhibits. Stampin intends to use the exhibits listed on his pre-trial narrative.
9. All counsel shall prepare and exchange written voir dire questions no later than 4:30 pm on Friday Feb. 5, 1999 All objections to proposed voir dire questions shall be brought to the attention of the Court prior to jury selection.
10. Each party shall be entitled to four peremptory challenges.
11. All counsel shall submit requested points for charge as soon as practicable but no later than the close of the presentation of all evidence.
12. Counsel desiring to submit a proposed verdict slip shall do so prior to the commencement of final arguments.
13. If the parties have not already done so they shall pre-number all exhibits and provide true and correct copies of all exhibits as pre-numbered to opposing counsel no later than 4:30 pm on Friday Feb. 5, 1999.

Feb. 20, 1996 Proof of Service filed.

Feb. 20, 1996 Complaint filed.

Mar 1, 1996 Answer Containing New Matter, filed.

Mar 13, 1996 Answers to New Matters filed on behalf of Leslie Tar, M. D.

June 14, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 10, 1996, after receipt and review of the Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendant to Produce Requested Documents and after review of the file, it is ordered as follows:

1. A Rule to Show cause is hereby issued and directed to the defendants to show cause, if any, why the Motion to Compel Production of Documents should not be granted. Said rule is returnable for hearing and/or argument on the 18th day of July 1996 at 3:30 o'clock P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

2. We are assuming that the defendant's objections were filed pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 4009(b) (2). Accordingly, the plaintiff's Motion to Compel is filed pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 4019(a). Since the Request for Production of Documents and the objections are not of record, the court is not in a position, based upon the record, to make a determination as to whether or not the plaintiff's Motion to Compel should now be granted. Accordingly, we have issued the rule to show cause and scheduled a hearing.

3. At the hearing, the parties shall furnish copies of the Request for Production of Documents and the objections to the Court for review.

July 24, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, July 18, 1996, the Court disposes of the Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Defendants to respond to Plaintiff's Request for Production of Documents in the following manner:

1. The defendants shall within 20 days from this date furnish the following documents to the plaintiff to the extent that said documents exist and to the extent that the documents are in the possession of the defendants:

A) The documents referred to in Paragraph 1(a), (b) and (c);

B) the documents referred to in Paragraph 2(a) and (b) to the extent of furnishing a copy of the signed contract or agreement, sales receipt or diagrams designated in the work order, but no other items referred to in Paragraph 2(b);

C) The documents referred to in Paragraph 3(a) of the Planitiff's Request for Production of Documents.

D) Diagrams, sketches and plans that relate to the determinationof the exact position of the southern proerty line of the defendant's residence on Jefferson Street under Paragraph 4.

2. In all other respects, the Plaintiff's Motion to Compel a REsponse is denied.

3. To the extent that is costs the defendants any money to photocopy and furnish any surveys pursuant to this Order, counsel for the defendants shall bill the planitiff and he shall pay for cost of photocopying becuase it appears that counsel for the defendants has already furnished that information to the plaintiff, although he claims he never received it.

June 7, 1996 AND NOW, May 31, 1996 at the time of an evidentiary hearing on the Defendnat's petition to appeal a District Justice decision nunc pro tunc, after testimony begins and based on the testimony of the witness/Defendant Michael Angelo Vega, the Defendants now withdraw this petition with prejudice and the parties agree that the Plaintiff will allow the Defendants 14 days to pay the judgment entered at the District Justice level in the amount of $2356.99, and during those 14 days, there will be no levy commenced on the part of the Plaintiff.

If the judgment has not been paid within that time period, thereafter, the Plaintiff will be free to proceed to levy based upon that judgment and there will be no restrictiions with regard to collection of any accrued interest.

Upon entering this order, the Court is notified that in fact a levy was commenced at the end of 1995 and therefore essentially at the end of 14 days, if this judgment has not been paid, the Plaintiff will be able to proceed with that levy which has been stayed pending these proceedings.

Dec 31, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, Dec 27, 1996, after an informal contempt hearing, the Court finds the following facts. Mother did not comply with a Court Order of May 2, 1996. The parties replacement agreement that would permit the mother to move to Kansas with the two children and to allow the father visittion rights. It appears as of Aug 29, 1996 the parties had agreed on all of the terms and conditions of a modification of the custody to include relocation and substituted visitation rights except for the cost of the transportation expenses for Christmas visitations with the father. The mother left for Kansas with the two children on Aug 30, 1996 without the benefit of a Court Order.

On Aug 30, 1996 counsel for the father sent a letter to counsel for the mother indicating that all negotiations were off and that the father would not permit the relocation. That may have been received by the mother after she already left for Kansas at 5:00 p.m. on Aug 30, although, it appears that transmission was sent at 3:59 p.m.

Under these circumstances, we cannot conclude that the mother willfully violated the Court Order even though she violated the Court Order. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The father's contempt petition is denied.
2. The parties and the mediator must engage in a Plowman/Gruber Analysis to determine whether or not the mother should be permitted to relocate these children to Kansas.
3. This Order has no hearing whatsoever on a Plowman/Gruber Analysis for we have simply disposed of the Contempt Petition.

Jan. 9, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 9th day of January, 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

Mother shall retain primary physical custody of the children with visitation granted father.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $270.00 ($60.00/hr. x 4.5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid by Crawford County.

Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent. (SEE PAPERS FILED)

June 30, 1997 Certificate of Completion of Separating Parents Seminar by Rebecca L. Molnar, Defendant, filed.

October 5, 1997 TEMPORARY ORDER FILED

AND NOW, October 3, 1997, after Mediation and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is Oredered and Decreed as follows:

1. Legal custody of the subject minor child, Christopher P.D. Molnar, shall be shared by the Father and Mother, the parties to this action, with each parent entitled to full access to any records relating to the child held by a third party including, but not limited to school records and each parent shall have equal input regarding important decisions affecting the child such as education, religious instruction and medical treatment.
2. Primary physical custody of Christopher P.D. Molnar shall be with his Mother, subject to the following conditions:
   a. Beginning with the week of September 28, 1997, the Father shall visit with the child in the home of the Mother on Sundays from 3:00 p.m. through 5:00 p.m. and on Wednesdays from 10:30 a.m. through 12:30 p.m.
   b. Beginning with the week of October 12, 1997, the Father shall be entitled to visit with and take the child into his temporary physical custody during the same hours.
   C. Beginning with the week of October 26, 1997, the Father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his temporary physical custody each Wednesday from 2:00 pm. through 7:00 p.m.
   d. The parents shall permit the Father to begin overnight visitations with the child when they believe the child is comfortabel with the Father and ready to begin said overnights. In any event, Father's overnight visitation with the child shall occur no later than the week of November 9, 1997. After the child has begun to spend overninghts with his Father, Father's schedule with the child shall be each Wednesday evening from 2:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and every Saturday from 9:30 A.M. through Sunday at 7:00 p.m.
   e. In the absence of an agreement between the parties to do otherwise, the following holiday schedule shall be observed:
      i. Thanksgiving: There shall be two Thanksgiving holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. and ending on the Friday following Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m., and the second beginning on the Friday following Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. and ending on the Sunday following Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m. In 1997, the Father shall have the first visitation period and the Mother the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate.
      ii. Christmas: There shall be two Christmas holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Christmas Eve at 10:00 a.m. and ending at 12:00 noon. and the second beginning on Christmas Day at 12:00 noon and ending on December 26th at 6:00 p.m. In 1997, the Mother shall have the first period and the Father the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate.
      iii. Easter: There shall be two Easter holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Good Friday at 9:00 a.m. and ending on Holy Saturday at 6:00 p.m., and the second beginning on Holy Saturday at 6:00 p.m. and ending on Easter Sunday at 6:00 p.m. In 1998, the father shall have the first visitation period and the Mother the second and the parents shall thereafter alternate.
      iv. Summer: Beginning with the summer of 1998, the Father shall be entitled to take the child into his temporary physical custody for two weeks during each of the months of June, July, and August. Father shall give Mother notice of the weeks he has selected by May 30th of each year.
      v. The child shall spend Mother's Day with his Mother from 10:00 a.m. through 7:00 p.m. and Father's day with his Father during the same hours.
3. The holiday visitation periods shall take precedence over all other visitation periods.
4. Transportation of the child on weekends, holidays and summer visits shall be shared between the parents with the parent receiving custody of the child to provide transportation. The proper child restraints i.e. car seat, seat belts, shall be worn at all times during the transportation of the child for said visits.
5. Neither parent shall expose the child to any person or situation, which may be harmful to the health, safety or well being of the child.
6. Neither parent shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, nor shall either parent permit others to do so, but rather each parent shall do everything in their power to promote a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the child toward both parents.
7. Neither parent shall smoke cigarettes or permit others to do so in the same room as the child, in an automobile in which the child is being transported or in the child's bedroom.
8. Each parent shall inform the other parent immediately of any serious illness or injury regarding the child and both parents shall furnish the other with a current address and telephone number. If the child sustains a minor injury or illness, it is sufficient that the parent notify the other parent of same when there is an exchange of custody of the child.
9. Neither parent shall use illegal drugs or alcohol at any time when that parent has the care and custody of the subject minor child. This Order Is not intended to preclude either parent from taking the child to a restaurant which serves alcoholic beverages, so long as neither parent shall consume alcoholic beverages in that establishment when the child is with the parent.
10. The parents are encouraged to make additional or alternative arrangements regarding physical custody of the child and may modify the herein custody arrangements if such mofifications are by mutual consent and in writing and signed by both parents only; otherwise, the provisions contained herein shall govern and this order shall be followed completely as it is written.
11. The cost of the mediation conference shall be divided equally between the parents with Father's share to be borne by Crawford County as he was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis by this Honorable Court on February 26, 1996.
12. This Order is a temporary Order but shall become a permanent Order unless either parent files a request for a Hearing De Novo within twenty days of the date hereof.

January 13, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 31, 1997, it is ordered as follwos:

1. The temporary Order of Oct. 3, 1997 shall remain in full force and effect without change or modification except as here and after provided.

2. Paragraph 2d of the Order of Oct. 3, 1997 is vacated and the folowing substituted therefore:

The parents shall permit the father to begin overnight visitation with the child when they believe the child is comfortable with the father and ready to begin said overnights. In any event father's overnight visitation with the child shall occur no later than the week of Nov. 9, 1997 commencing with the weekend starting Jan. 2, 1998. The child shall be with the father that weekend and every other weekend thereafter from 6:00 PM on Friday night until 6:00 PM on the following Sunday night. The Wednesday visitations shall apply during the whole year except that if the Mother desires to take two one-week vacations in the summer time, the father shall not have a Wednesday afternoon visits during those two weeks. The mother shall notify the father of the week or weeks that she intends to take a vacation in the summer by June 10th of each year.

3. Paragraph 2e(iv) of the Order of October 3, 1997 is hereby vacated and the following substituted therefore:

Beginning with the Summer of 1998, the Father shall be entitled to take his child into his temporary physical custody for 6 weeks during the months of June, July, and August. for this purpose, a week shall begin at 6:00 PM on Friday and end the following Friday at 6:00 PM. The father shall give the mother notice of the weeks he has selected by May 30th of each year. These weeks shall not be continuous. That means that father shall have one week with the child and before he has another week with the child there shall be an interruption of at least one week. For instance, the father could have the child every other week up to a total of 6 weeks but we do not mandate that this is the way it occurs. Other than to say the father has 6 weeks, one week at a time.

4. If the parties have not paid their costs, they shall do so within 30 days from this date of face Contempt proceedings.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 3/25/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1996 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Barbara J. Reagle, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Mar 19, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, March 13, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a formal Protection from Abuse Hearing upon petition of the Plaintiff. After testimony, the Court finds that there is abuse within the meaning of the act; and accordingly, entered the following order:

1. The Defendant shall not abuse, harass, threaten, or stalk the Plaintiff or minor child named in the petition.

2. The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of the marital residence at R.D.#3 Box 1094, Spartansburg, Pennsylvania except as here and after set forth in this order. The Defendant may not go to that residence; and if he does so, it shall be presumed that eh is in violation of this order. He should not go to that residence even if he is invited by the Plaintiff. If the parties wish for the Defendant to go to the marital residence, they should seek a modification of this order prior to him doing so.

3. Pending any further order of court in a custody proceeding filed by either party or further order of court in this proceeding, the Plaintiff shall have primary physical custody fo both minor children. The minor child Damian shall be in his father's temporary physical custody every other weekend commencing with the weekend of March 15, 1996 from Friday at 4:30 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. During such period of temporary physical custody, the Defendant shall not drink excessively; and he shall not take the child to any establishment primarily existing for the purpose of serving alcoholic beverages not shall he take the child to his hunting camp at Smithport.

4. There shall be no visitations or periods of temporary physical custody with the child, Jonathan, unless the parties agree to such periods of temporary physical custody or visitations or unless there is further order of court.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of this order, the Defendant will be permitted to go to the marital residence at 4:30 p.m. on March 15, 1996 when he goes there for the purpose of picking up the minor child, Damian, to also obtain his clothers, and personal effets as well as the floor model television. During that effort to obtain those items, there shall be no abuse of any kind or harassmetn of any kind on the part of the Defendant.

6. After the March 15,1996 the pick up of Damian, thereafter, for the purposes of exchanges of the child, the Defendnat shall provide all transportation; and he shall appear at teh Plaintiff's residence to pick up the child and remain in the car and honk his horn so that the Plaintiff may send the child out. When he returns the child, he will remain in the car and honk his horn so that the Plaintiff can open the door and the child cna go back into the residence. This is intended to limit any contact between the parties.

7. The Court has made an effort to determine an appropriate amount of child support pending litigation through the Domestic Relations Section. We will set an amount of child support of $85 per week beginningimmediately, and this is not intended to provide any guidance to the mediator or to the Court in determining an amount of child support insofar as the Court has limited information before it in making this determination.

July 16, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1996, after receipt and review of the Petition to Open Judgment in this case and after a formal hearing that was not on the record, the Court is not satisfied that the Defendant has proven all the elements entitling him to relief. Particularly, he has not shown that his faulure to act on the original complaint that was served on him by the Sheriff of Blair county can be reasonably excused. It appears to the Court that even though the Defendant claims he cannot read, he did nothing and ignored that pleading. That is not a reasonable excuse.
Accordingly, the Defendant's Petition to Open Judgment is denied.

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
1 copy Plaintiff
MCPD

AND NOW, this 11th day of March , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant shall move out. Sole possession of the residence on Morgan Street is awarded to Plaintiff. Defendant shall not contact Plaintiff or go to her residence. Custody of the children is awarded to plaintiff.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 271-80-0567 and date of birth is 3-10-68 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for March 21, 1996, at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J

Mar. 26, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 21, 1996 this matter comes before the Court on a petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

The Defendant does not appear and resides in Farmington,Ohio.

The Court has been advised by the Sheriff's Office that notice of this hearing was sent to the Defendant both by regular mail and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to his address in Ohio. Apparently, the regular mail has not been returned but the return receipt card for the certified mail likewise has not been returned.

The Plaintiff appears with her attorney and indicates that shortly after this was filed she heard from the Defendant withregard to questions as to why she had filed this proceeding, indicating that he probably did receive theregular mail service.

Nonetheless, since he has not been served personally or by certified mail, we will not preclude him from being heard.

Accordingly, itis ORDERED and DIRECTED that the temporary protection from abuse order of March 11, 1996 shall be a permanent order effective this date for a period of one year, thereby expiring on March 20, 1997, unless there is further order of Court.

In the event the Defendant returns to Pennsylvania and wishes further hearing in this matter, he may petition the Court to allow that hearing, but pending that hearing, he shall obey the terms and conditions of this order, which was based on Judge Miller's March 11, 1996 temporary order.

TheDefendant shall pay court costs in this proceeding in the amount of $93.50 within 30 days of the date of this order.

A copy of this order shall be sent by the Prothonotary to the Defendant at 6577 Oak Hill Drive, West Farmington, OH 44491 and that mailing shall be both by regular mail and certified mail, return receipt requested.

A copyof this order shall be sent to County Control and the Meadville City Police Department.

June 21, 1996 ORDER filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

__X__ The defendant was not served with process within thirty days after the date of the filing of the complaint or reinstated complaint. Pa.R.C.P. 401(a); Lauterbach v. Lauterbach, 202 Pa. Super. 260, 195 A.2d 159 (1963); Fox v. Thompson, 327 Pa. Super. 39, 546 A.2d 1146 (1988).

__X__ A proper return or proof of service has not been filed.

__X__ As to a 3301(c) divorce:

__X__ There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(d) (1) in the form required by 1920.73 was mailed or delivered to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a represented party; and/or no copy of said notice is attached to the praecipe to refer or submit; and the parties have not executed and filed with the Prothonotary a waiver of notice substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1920.72(c).

__X__ Rule 1920.42(b) has not been complied with. Effective January 1, 1996 the 3301(c) Affidavit must be executed 90 days or more after both filing and service of the complaint.

__X__ Other. There is no 3301(c) consent filed by defendant.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

2. Description of the case. This is a suit by a contractor against land owners arising out of remodeling work performed by the contractor at property owned by defendants at 1039 Park Avenue, Meadville, PA
The Defendant Michael P. Walker (Michael) contacted the Plaintiff about doing certain remodeling work at said premises. The Plaintiff prepared a three page listing of items that hew ould perform with dollar amounts associated with each item

This is the only written document prepared by either of the parties in this case. This document is not signed and does not contain a number of items which would normally be contained in a typical constructin or remodeling contract. For instance, it does not set forth when the work will begin and end, the periodic payments that would be made etc.
The parties agree that Michael said that the bottom line figure of approximately $43,000 was too high. Michael, either on his own or in the presence of the Plaintiff, reworked some of the figures. Some items were deleted and changed. Some items were to be performed by Michael.
At this point the respective positions of the parties diverge. The Plaintiff believes that he was the general contractor. He was to perform carpentry work and was to hire subcontractors for electrical, plumbing, heating and bentilation work. He admits that there was no statement made to that effect, but that he assumed that since the listing of items on the only written document represented carpentry work that the other work would be done by others. Plaintiff maintains that the writing was only an estimate or that he would perform the remodeling work listed on this writing for $28,066 provided Michael would perform work on his own and that there would be subcontractors for the electric, plumbing and ventilation work paid for by the Defendants.
Michael maintains that all of the work was to be done by the Plaintiff for $28,066. He believes that this was a fixed contract for a fixed price. In fact, The Defendants had borrowed $30,000 to cover the remodeling project and Michael Specifically told the Plaintiff that they could not exceed that figure.
The plaintiff ultimately completed the work and, over a course of time, submitted bills totaling $51,049.93 broken down as: Labor $17,528; Materials $23,959.74 and Subcontractors (excluding electrical subcontractor) $9,562.19. The bill from the electrical contractor was $10,173.80. The Defendants did pay that amount directly to the electrical subcontractor.
3. The factual issues are as follows:
a, What was the undertaking or contract that the parties entered into?
b. if the contract was essentially a time and materiald contract, what is the exact amount of the time and materials that the Plaintiff put into the remodeling project?
c. What changes were made in the contract work and the prices or values that should be assigned to those changes?
4, Legal issues.
a. Was the dontract between the parties one for a fixed price or for labor and materials?
b. What changes were made in the contract work and what prices or values should be assigned to those changes/
c. Are the defendants entitled to recover on their counter-claim for the amount of the electric bill that was paid by the Defendants?
d. Whether or not the theory of unjust enrichment applies in this case, and if so, the measure of damages for unjust enrichment.
e. Is any successful party entitled to pre-judgment interest?
5. Disposition of pre-trial motions.
There are no outstanding pre-trial motions for dispositions by the Court.
6. The plaintiff claim the following damages:
$21,049.93 plus interest and costs of suit.
7. The Defendants claim the following damages: The Defendants have filed a counter-claim alleging that they should not be responsible for paying the electrical subcontractor because the arrangement between the plaintiff and Michael was a fixed price contract. They claim damages in the amount of $10,173 together with interest and costs of suit.
8. The Plaintiffs case in chief:
a. Witnesses. Jack H. Wasson, Bonnie Wasson.
b. Bills. None
C. Exhibits. The Plaintiff intends to use some or all of the exhibits listed on his pre-trial narrative statement.
9. The defendant(s) case in chief:
a. Witnesses. Michael F. Walker, Rita D. Walker and David Schreckengost. Those were the witnesses listed at the pre-trial conference that was held on July 30, 1998 and are lsited in the Defendants' pre-trial narrative. At the settlement conference held on Augsut 5, 1998 the Defendants indicatedd that three additional witnesses will be called. We make no ruling on whether or not they can be utilized. We intend to follow the cases involving witness preclusion and to adhere to the Crawford County Civil Rules regarding pretrial narratives and pretrial conferences.
b. Bills. none.
c. Exhibits. The Defendants intend to use some or all of the exhibits listed on their pre-trial narrative statement.
10. Stipualtions. The parties are encouraged to enter into as many stipulations as possible so that the trial proceeds in a menaingful and efficient matter so as to assist the jury in understanding the case and so as to limit the issues the jury must consider as much as possible. Because the plaintiff's main theory of recovery is that he had a time and materials contract and because he must produce evidence of the time and materials he expended and put into this project, he has produced a large set of documents that he intends to use as exhibits. The Defendants are not objecting to the quality of the work or that most of the hours and materisal that the Plaintiff claims went into the job actually did go into the job. There are some exceptions. Therefore, at the pre-trial conference, we ordered the Defendants to review those documents and to state their objections by Wednesday, August 5, 1998. The Defendants have done that. The list of objections is much more extensive than the Defendants had represented at the pre-trial conference or that the Judge expected. In order to make the presentation of those exhibits more meaningful and to allow the Defendants to make appropriate objections at trial, counsel for the Plaitniff shall pre-number all of those exhibits and furnish those exhibits to counsel for the Defendant no later than 12 o'clock noon on Friday August 7, 1998. It is the Court's intention that the items of labor and material that actually did go into the project be given to the jury in a simple fashion and that only those items which the Defendants object to take a more protracted presentation. The Court does not intend to spend a great deal of time on itmes that are not in dispute.
11. If counsel has not already done so, they shall file trial briefs and trial memcrandums on all legal issues that are listed in this pre-trial order as sell as any other legal issues that counsel believe will come up during this trial to the Court no later than 9 AM on Moandy, Aug 10, 1998.
12. Allcounsel shall submit requested points for charge as soon as practicable but no later than the close of the presentation of all evidence.
13. Counsel desiring to submit a proposed verdict slip shall do so prior to the commencement of final arguments.
14. If the parties have not already done so they shall pre-number all exhibits, and provide true and correct copies of all exhibits, as pre-numbered to opposing counsel no later than 4:30 PM on Friday, August 7, 1998.
15. Special jury findings. Counsel shall submit special jury findings as soon as practicable, but no later than the close of presentation of all evidence.
16. Damages in unjust enrichment cases. The court does not now make a final determination on this issue since counsel for the Plaintiff has submitte new cases to the Court which the Court has not reviewed. However, our research up to this point leads us to the conclusion advanced by the Defendants That is the measure of damages in an unjust enrichment case is the value conferred to the owner and not invoices for materials and labor used. IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 6/17/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

June 7, 1996 Order FAXED Attys. Rowden and Kuhar.

Aug. 15, 1996, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 13, 1996 after a hearing with regard to an appeal from lic. susp. imposed by Dept. of Trans, the court affirms the suspension and dismisses the appeal.

In doing so, we note that we find that the only delay that could be imposed upon the Dept. of Trans. would be from Jan. 30, 1996, when it received certification from the Court of Common Pleas of VenANGO COUNTY, UNTIL Mar. 11, 1996, when the notice of Suspension was mailed to the appellant. We cannot find that this is unreasonable delay within the meaning of the current case law.

Apr. 3, 1996 Appearance of Watts and Pepicelli PC by Christopher D.Ferry, Esquire, Attorney for Plaintiff, Vanessa L.Morelli, filed.

Apr 9, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, April 3,1996 this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

The Plaintiff is now represented by counsel and the Defendant does not have counsel, is advised of his right to counsel, and indicates he will represent himself.

The Plaintiff's counsel is quite candid in admitting that it appears the Plaintiff would not be able to prove the elements necessary to obtain relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. This is confirmed by a fair reading of her original petition, in which she states in part, "The Defendant has never physically abused me. He has only mentally and emotionally abused me."

Unfortunately, this matter came before a visiting senior judge for a temporary order and that aorder was granted, although it is questionable as to whether it was an appropriate order under the circumstances.

The Plaintiff indicates through counsel that she wishes to withdraw this action, but is concerned abut court costs, and in light of the fact that it appears that the order never should have been issued in the first place and no court costs would have ensured, it is ORDERED and DIRECTED that upon oral moton of counsel for the Plaintiff, this matter is dismissed, with the County to pay costs.

Apr.10, 1996 Certificate of Completion of Seminar by Valerie Lynne Lippert, Plaintiff, filed.,

May 8, 1996 Certificate of Completion of Separating Parents seminar, filed.

May 9, 1996 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, May 9, 1996, after Mediation and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is Ordered and Decreed as follows:

1. Legal Custody of the subject minor child, Alexis Laine Leehan, shall be shared by the Father and Mother, the parties to this action, with each parent entitled to full access to any records relating to the child held by a third party including, but not limited to school records and medical records and each parent shall have equal input regarding important decisions affecting the child such as education, religious instruction and medical treatment.

2. Primary physical custody of Alexis L. Leehan shall be with her Mother, subject to the following conditions:

a. The Father shall be entitled to take the child into his temporary physical custody every Tuesday evening at 6:00 p.m. until the following Wednesday morning at 6:00 a.m. Father shall begin said visit by picking the child up on Tuesday evening at the home of Mother's babysitter and shall end the visit on Wednesday morning by returning the child to Mother's home.

b. Father shall be entitled to take the child into his temporary physical custody every Thursday from 6:00 p.m. until the following Saturday at 6:00 a.m. It shall be the responsibility of the Mother to take the child to the Edinboro Daycare Center on Thursdays so that the Father may pick the child up at that location to begin his visitation on Thursday evening. At the end of the visitation on Saturday morning, Father shall return the child to the Mother's home.

c. Father shall be permitted to visit and take the child into his temporary physical custody every other Sunday from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.

d. Holiday visitation shall be arranged as follows:

1. Christmas: In 1996 and even years thereafter, the child shall be in the custody of her Mother from 5:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve until 1:00 p.m. on Christmas Day and in the custody of the Father from 1:00 p.m. Christmas Day until 1:00 p.m. on December 26th. In 1997 and in odd years thereafter, the child shall be in the custody of her Father from 5:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve until 1:00 p.m. on Christmas Day and in the custody of her Mother from 1:00 p.m. on Christmas Day until 1:00 p.m. on December 26th.

The Father shall be entitled to additional visitation time with his daughter during the week between Christmas Day and New Year's Day, provided he is not scheduled to work during that week. Said visitation times shall be arrange as agreed upon between the parents.

ii. Other Holidays: Provided that the parents do not agree to another arrangement, the holidays of Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day and Thanksgiving shall be shared between the parents with the child in the custody of her Mother until 2:00 p.m., and in the custody of her Father from 2:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

The parents agree to adhere to the times for the custodial exchange of their daughter as closely as possible; however, the parents agree that their work schedules shall always be taken into consideration in regard to said times for exchange.

iii. The child shall spend Mother's Day with the Mother from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. and Father's Day with the Father during the same hours.

3. With the exception of the visitations described in paragraphs 2a and 2b, the responsibility of the transportation shall be shared between the parents with the parent receiving custody of the hcild to provide transportation.

May 10, 1996 Petition to Waive Attendance and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 10 day of May, 1996, upon consideration of the Petitioners Petition to waive the requirement that the attend the Seminar for Separating Parents, this Court finds it a fact that the Petitioners have been separated for approximately ten (10) years and during that time both Petitioners have maintained a close and stable relationship with the aforesaid children as a result of which said children have matured in a normal manner and their emotional health is excellent and said children have experien a minimum amount of stress as a result of the separation of their parents. This Court further finds that the normal dynamics which ordinarily would dictate attendance at the seminar do no exist in this case.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that the Petitioners in this case are not required to attend the Seminar for Separating Parents and that this divorce may be submitted to the Court for disposition at the appropriate time.

Indigent Filing

COMPLAINT UNDER SECTION 3301(c) OR 3301(d) OF THE DIVORCE CODE

Mar. 27, 1996 Petition By Indigent Party Under Pa. R.C.P. 1920.62 and Order filed. AND NOW, this 26 day of March, 1996, said rule having been heard and considered, and on motion of Lisa Ford, plaintiff, leave is hereby granted Lisa Ford, plaintiff in the above captioned case, to file her complaint in divorce as an indigent party, and to proceed according until the termination of said proceedings without payment of costs therefore. If the Petitioner's financial statement improves she shall notify the court.

July 8, 1996, Certificate of Service filed. On 28 day of June a true and correct copy of acceptance of service served on plff.

July 8, 1996, Acceptance of Servcie filed. I accept service of the complaint, petition by Indigent Party and Affidavit of Indigency. Rodney Ford, Dft.
Date: 6/28/96

July 8, 1996, Affidavit of Consent of defendant filed.

July 8, 1996, Upon praecipe of plaintiff, to transmit the record, this case moved to court.

July 23, 1996 Order ifled. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

1. X The defendant was not served with process within 30 days after the date of the filing of the complanit or reinstated complant. Pa.R.C.P. 401(a); Lauterbach v. Lauterbach, 202 Pa. Super. 260, 195 A.2d 159 (1963); Fox v. Thompson, 327 Pa. Super. 39, 546 A.2d 1146 (1988).

2. X The divorce complanit filed on March27, 1996, did not contain the Order required by Rule L1930(3) directing the defendant to attend the mandatory seminar for separating parents and the record indicates that he did not do so and therefore a divorce cannot be granted pursuant to Rule L1930(12).

3. X Purusant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42(d)1 no notice of intention to request entry of a divorce ecree under 3301(c) as required effective January 1, 1996, has been filed and there has not been a waiver of that notice pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1920.42(e).

We do note in entering this Order tha tthe Praecipe to Transmit Record filed by the plaintiff indicates that the defendant was served in person on March 27, 1996, but here is nothing in the record to certify that and the Acceptance of Service signed by the defendant indicates acceptance date of June 28, 1996, well beyond the 30 days form the date the complaint was filed.

Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are enttield to a final decree.

Aug. 7, 1996 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, this 5th day of August, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Destany Mae Ladner, is awarded to her mother, the defendant herein.

2. The plaintiff grandmother shall have visitation with the subject minor child each Saturday, starting with the second Saturday after the date of this Order, from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 P.M. at the home of the mother. If this would interfere with the child's afternoon nap, the parties are directed to arrange an alternative time on Saturday afternoon. Starting with the first Saturday in August, the plaintiff grandmother shall have visitation with the subject minor child at her home on the first and third Saturdays of each month from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. When the child shall have reacched the age of five years, the visitation on the first Saturday of each month shall be extended to Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. The mother shall have the right to designate a two week period each summer during what would be the child's school vacation, if she were in a public school, during which no visitation need be accorded the plaintiff grandmother.

3. In addition to the above, the grandmother shall have the right to visitation and temporary physical custody from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. each Christmas Eve and from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. each holy Saturday. If this would interfere with the child's nap, the parties are directed to arrange a different time on said days.

4. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set, out in this order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification. Said Modification or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

Oct. 14, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 11, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the Plaintiff in which it allegations that the Defendant has allowed visitation with the minor child as set forth in an Order of August 6, 1996.

The Order setting this hearing was served by the Prothonotary's Office by facsimile on September 17, 1996 upon counsel of record for the Defendant Gerald Sullivan nor the Defendant appears this day and Mr. Sullivan's private office is contacted and his office indicates that he is in Franklin and is apparently not intending to attend this hearing. We note that Mr. Sullivan previously was employed by Northwestern Legal Services and in fact on September 17, 1996 the record reflects that is where notice of this order was sent.

Accordingly, this hearing is rescheduled for October 18, 1996 at 11:00 a.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Apr 12, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, April 8,1996 this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the petitioner's petition for special relief. This hearing was set pursuant to an order of March 29, 1996 entered by Senior Judge George Levin. Counsel for the petitioner produces a return receipt indicting that the Defendant was served with notice of this proceeding and a copy of the order entered by Judge Levin which was received by the respondent on April 1, 1996. There is also a representation that he is aware of this proceeding and apparently is interested in settling other ongoing matters in this divorce action.

Based on all of that, and the fact the Defendant does not appear this day, it si ORDERED and DIRECTED that the order of March 29, 1996 entered by Senior Judge Levin shall remain in full force and effect except that the last paragaraph that begins with, "any police officer" shall be deleted inits entirety.

We note that this petition for special relief does not appear to include a verification by the petitioner, and accordingly, she is directed to file a verification that the contents of the petition for special relief are true and correct within the next 10 days.

2. Speical Conditions:The Plaintiff shall have sole custody of minor child Haley Autin Miller pending further order of court.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 189-56-8365 and date of birth is 6-7-74 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. (X) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to hand deliver to plaintiff
. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for April 4, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 5/8/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

May 21, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 15, 1996, upon review of the defendant's petition to transfer venue it is ordered as follows:

1. The petition shall be filed of record with the Prothonotary of Crawford County.

2. The Court will not enter an order in response to said petition because the petitioner has not complied with Pa.R.C.P. 206.5. Petitioners have given the Court mixed signals by asking for a hearing on the notice required by Crawford County Civil Rule L206 they have also submitted a proposed order granting them relief. We believe the matter should proceed pursuant to the Rules of Civil Procedure governing petitions. We believe a rule to show cause should be issued. The petitioners have not attached a copy of the order required by Pa. R.C.P. 206.5. We have no rule in Crawford County requiring depositions be taken but we do permit depositions in these matters and we also provide evidentiary hearings.

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
1 copy Plaintiff
Faxed MCPD

AND NOW, this 1 day of April , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: Defendant may not contact Plaintiff or go to her residence for any purpose.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to . This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for April 9, 1996 , at 3:30 p.m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Apr 11, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, April 9, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Relief Under the Protection From Abuse Act. Both parties appear without counsel and the Court advises the defendant of his right to counsel and he indicates that he has consulted with an attorney, but that attorney will not be present with him this day.

We now enter an order without admission of the allegations of the Petition on the part of the defendant.

It is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that:

1. The defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the plaintiff. We note that the original petitionrequested protection for the plaintiff's three minor children, but these are not the defendant's children, and therefore, he has no rights with regard to these children and shall not be around them, although their protection is not the subject of this action and cannot be.

2. The defendant shall not go to the plaintiff's residence at 367 Linden Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania. He shall not go to that residence even if he is invited by the plaintiff because any police agency will presume tht he is in violation of this Order if he is at that residence. If the parties wish for the defendant to be able to go to the plaintiff's residence at some tiem in the future, they should seek a modification of this Order prior to him doing so.

3. The defendant may not contact the plaintiff in any manner, including by telephone or by mail, nor shall he procure anyone else to do so unless it is through his attorney.

4. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police Department, the Pa. State Police Registry, Crawford County Control, and to the unrepresented plaintiff at 367 Linden St., in Meadville, Pennsylvania and to the unrepresented defendant at PO Box 5287 Conneaut Lake, Pa. That shall b edone by the Prothonotary.

Nov. 7, 1996 Defendant's Affidavit of Consent and Waiver of Notice filed.

Nov. 8, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 7, 1996, this contested Alimony Pendente Lite Petition and attendant child support and divorce attorney's fees is before the undersigned.

After informal discussion, the Court is advised there is a hearing on a spousal and one child support case scheduled before Hearing Officer Pickens December 2, 1996.

This Court is unclear of the extent and significance of allegations made by the Defendant, husband, which seemingly imply that substantial joint assets from checking or savings accounts were misappropriated by the wife before or shortly after separation in March of 1996. The Court and counsel agree that to litigate this allegation would take extensive time before the Court and have mutually agreed to generally continue the case on the following conditions:

O R D E R

AND NOW, November 7, 1996, upon agreement of the parties, this case is continued generally on the following conditions:

1. The Defendant will pay to the Plaintiff's attorney's fees in the amount of $500 on or before November 30, 1996.

2. In the divorce action, both parties will file their affidavits of consent, inventories, and income and expense statement on or before November 30, 1996

This hearing is therefore continued generally without prejudice to either party to ask for further hearing.

Both counsel understand that if spousal suppor is not awarded by Hearing Officer Pickens, the Plaintiff may re-move the Court for Alimony Pendente Lite.

Sept 5, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, Sept 3, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Emergency Relief filed by the Plaintiff. It is heard in motions court and, essentially, alleges that in an Order entered as a result of mediation, the Defendant/father was to begin having full weekend visitations on the first and third weekend of each month starting in September of 1997. The Plaintiff objects to that, noting that she is still nursifng the child. She presents a letter from her pdiatrician indicating that the child is being nursed three times a day and it is int he best interest of the child to continue with the nursing. The child is over one-year old.

The Plaintiff has requested further mediation and pending that mediation, the Defendant shall visit with the child every Saturday from Noon until 8:00 p.m. in lieu of the full weekend visitation set forth in the February, 1997 Order.

It is ORDERED and DIRECTED, however, that regardless of whether the current Order remains in effect or there is a new Order as a result of further mediation or further litigation, part of that Order shall require that for every two weekends that the Defendant has had this curtailed visitation or temporary physical custody schedule, he shall be entitled to a full makeup weekend from Friday at 5:30 until Sunday at 5:30 p.m. on what would normally not have been one of his full weekends.

All other aspects of the previous Order shall remain in full force and effect pending mediation.

Nov. 13, 1997 TEMPORARY ORDER FILED. AND NOW, this 13th day of Nov., 1997, after Mediation in the above rererenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Riley Walls.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subjectminor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3a. Beginning with the weekend of Nov. 8, 1997 the father will have visitation and temporary physical custody from Sat at 5:30 P.M. until Sunday at 8P.M. The following week he shall have visitation and temporary physical custody from Friday at 5:30 P.M. to Sat at 8P.M. In addition he shall have each week visitation and temporary physical custody on Wednesday evening from 5:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. The foregoing schedjle shall be in effect until Feb. 1, 1998.

b. Starting with Feb. 1, 1998, the father shall thereafter have visitation and temporary physical custody all months of the year except for June, July, and August, on teh first and third full weekends of each month from Friday at 5:30 P.M. until Sunday at 8P.M. A full weekend is defined as one in which Sat and Sun occur within the same month. The father shall also have visitation and temporary physical custody on the Wednesday following the first full weekend and on the Wednesday following the third full weekend from 5:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. During the months of June, July, and August the father shall designate three 1 week periods, one in each of the designated months, and not to run consecutively, in which he shall have temporary custody and visitation with his son. The father shall notify the mother by May 1st of the three 1 week periods he wishes to select.

c. The father shall also have the right of visitation and temporary physical custody for five extra weekends in accordance with the Court's Order of Sept 3, 1997. The weekend visitation hours shall be between Friday at 5:30 P.M. to Sunday at 8 P.M. The makeup weekend visitations shall be taken no more often than one extra weekend per month and all shall be taken within one year of the date of this Order. The father shall notify the Mother one month in advance of his desire to take a makeup weekend visitation.

d. Starting on Sept. 1, 1998, the party not having physical custody of the subject minor child shall have the right to telephone the child at reasonable times and for reasonable lenghts of time and such conversations will not be unreasonably monitored by the parent having physical custody.

4. Beginning Sept. 1, 1997, holiday visitations shall be arranged as follows:

a. Christmas: There shall be two Christmas holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Christmas Eve at Noon and ending on Christmad Day at 1 P.M., and the second beginning on Christmas Day at 1 P.M. and ending on Dec. 26 at 5P.M. For Christmas 1997, the mother shall have the first period and the father the second, and the parties shall thereafter alternate the periods.

b. Thanksgiving: There shall be two Thanksgiving holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving at 5:30 P.M. and ending on Thanksgiving Day at 3:00 P.M. and the second beginning on Thanksgiving Day 3:00 P.M. and ending on the Friday after Thanksgiving at 5:00 P.M. For Thanksgiving, 1997, the father shall have the first period and the mohter, the second, and the parties shall thereafter alternate the periods.

c. The other holidays to be observed are Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, and Labor Day. Holiday visitation shall be between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 8:00 P.M. except for Independence Day when the holiday visitation shall be extended to 11:00 P.M. so that the child may watch the fireworks. In even numbered years, the fahter shall have visitation and temporary physical custody for Memorial Day and Labor Day and the mother on Easter and Independence day. In odd numbered years, the fahter shall have visitation and temporary physical custody for Easter and Independence Day and the Mother on Memorial Day and Labor Day.

d. The child shall spend Father's Day with his father from 9:00 A.M. to 7P.M. and Mother's Day with his mother during the same hours.

e. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this Order relating to the custodial or visitation periods.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitation as set out in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6. The parties shall share equally the responsibility for the transportation of the child. Transportation shall be arranged between the parties in accordance with their respective work schedules. If, however, they cannot agree, the party receiving the child in the exercise of his or her rights shall pick the child at the home of the other. Any person transporting the child shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of PA.

7. Each party shall teach said child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in the same room as the child, in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported, or in the bedroom of the child.

9. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the child's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

10. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be mutual consent only, in the absence of which this Order shall govern.

11. The parties inform the Mediator that the father has insulin dependent diabetes. The mother worries about insulin reactions and so forth which might render the father disabled unexpectedly and leave the child without supervision. The father informsthe Mediator that his parents and brother are available at any time to step in and take charge in this kind of situation and that he has telephone service adequate to enable him to dial his parent's home with a press of a button. The father also indicates that his parents and brother stop in on him once per day. The father also informed the Mediator that his condition was presently carefully controlled. The Court requires the father to maintain adequate comunication and contacts sufficient to cope with any emergencies which may be caused by his condition.

12. Costs and Fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $122.00, are divided equally between the parties with a share of each being assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

13. Deposit required for the appointment of the Custody Mediator was made by the mother. The deposit shall first be applied against all costs in this case. If there is any remainder it shall be remitted to the mother. Within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, the parties shall settle with the Prothonotary and with each other such that each will have paid his or her share.

14. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Aug. 5, 1996 Petition for Special Relief and ORDER filed. And, Now, August 2, 1996, hearing on Plaintiff's Petition fro Special Relief to be heard at the same time as Defendant's Counterclaim is scheduled for September 5th, 1996 at 9:15 o'clock A.M. in courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court of Common Pleas in Meadville, PA.
For/by the Court,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.
8-5-96 FAXED Irwin & Kirkpatrick

Aug. 14, 1996 Notice of Serving Interrogatories to Defendant filed.

Spet. 9. 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 5, 1996, after informal hearing, we now dispose of three request for special relief in the following manner:

1. The Defendnat's request for exclusive possession of the marital residence is granted.
2. The Defendant's request for counsel fees and expenses is denied without prejudice to the Court or the master to award these items in the future if the facts and the law support that. We have concluded that the Plaintiff's monthly available cash approximates $12233 of which $290 a month is spousal support. We do not know her expenses because she did not file and income and expense statement and did not testify about her expenses. We might assume through that that she does have a need for counsel fees based upon that income, but we cannot make that finding in view of the record here. We find that the Plaintiff's monthly ability cash is approximately $1354 and that his expenses do exceed that; and therefore, it appears that he does not now have the availability to pay counsel fees and expenses to the Defendant.
3. The Plaintiff's petition for special relief is granted in part and denied in part.

The Parties shall have all of the personal property and all of the marital property appraised by Sherman Allen as soon as is reasonably possible. Thereafter, the following items shall be delivered to or picked up by the Plaintiff:

Wheelhorse Sickle Bar Mower with turning bar and blade,
Drill Press, Vise, Roll-a-way Tool Chest,

The Plaintiff has requested special relief in the nature of the right to possess the following items: Wheelhorse Rotary Mower, Air Compressor, Welder.

The Plaintiff's petition for special relief as to these items for special relief as to these items is denied because there is a dispute as to title and the Court believes that should be resolved in equitable distribution rather than in a petition for special relief since it does not appear that these items are absolutely critical for the Plaintiff to maintain his life.

IMPORTANT NOTICE AND COURT ORDER

Our court records show that you are a party in the case listed above, but that nothing has been filed with the court in this case since 4/11/1996 . We are required by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to dismiss cases in which there has been "unreasonable delay". Your case appears to be inactive. Therefore, unless we hear from you in writing on or before Oct. 23, 1998 , we will automatically terminate and dismiss your case without further notice to you or your attorney.

If you do not object to this case being dismissed, you do not have to do anything. The case will be marked "dismissed with prejudice" in our records, and will be over forever.

If you object to the case being dismissed, you must put your objections in writing and follow Crawford County Civil Local Rule L206, LJA 1901E and LJA1901F, explaining why there has been a delay in your case and why it is not unreasonable. These written objections must be filed in the Prothonotary's office on or before Oct. 23, 1998 . You must also give or send a copy of any objections you file to the other party or his or her attorney, and certify that you have done so when you file your objections with the Prothonotary.

You may lose important rights if your case is terminated. You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below to find out where you can get legal help:

Dec. 6, 1996 Certificate of Completion of Separating Parents for Laurel Puglise filed.

Dec. 13, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, this 12 day of December, 1996, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Maria, born on September 19, 1996.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor child. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor child.

3) The mother shall retain primary physical custody of the child, subject to the partial custody rights of the father as follows:

a. The father shall have the right to take the child into his care and custody every Sunday beginning at 6:30 p.m. and continuing until the following Monday at 6:00 p.m.

b. The father shall have the right to take the child into his care and custody every Thursday beginning at 8:00 a.m. and continuing until 6:00 p.m. that evening.

Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $291.00 ($60.00/hr.x 4.85 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are divided equally between the parties. The father has already paid the $150.00 deposit necessary to secure the appointment of the child custody mediator. The mother shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, pay to the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $150.00, representing her share of the fees and costs.

Feb. 21, 1997 Petition to Determine Name of Child by Defendant and Order filed. AND NOW, the 21st day of February, 1997, upon consideration of the attached Petition to Determine Name of Child, hearing is set for the 4th day of March, 1997, at 1:15 o'clock P.M., in Courtroom #2, Crawford County Courthouse, Diamond Park, Meadville, Pennsylvania; Petition to be heard at time previously reserved to also hear De Novo Custody matter.

For the Court,
Ann A. Walker, Ct. Admin
2-24-97 FAXED J. Mason & Irwin

March 10, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 4, 1997, this matter comes before the Court for a de novo custody hearing after the entry of a temporary order following mediation on Dec. 12, 1996.

The parties, both represented by counsel, appear and they have resolved this matter, and accordingly, the following consent order will be entered:

1. The order of Dec. 12, 1996, will remain in full force and effect except as herein after modified.
2. Paragraph 3(b) of that order will be modified to state that the father shall have the right to take the child into his care and custody every Thursday beginning at 8:00 a.m. and continuing until Friday at 8:00 a.m.
3. Numbered paragraph 11 of that order will be modified to indicate that this order is without prejudice to either party to request a full evidentiary hearing in the nature of a de novo custody hearing, which may be directly in front of the Court rather than through a mediator, although this does not preclude a party from requesting further mediation if they deem that appropriate.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.
March 10, 1997 Order distributed to Attys. Irwin and J. Mason.

Mar. 26, 1997 Memorandum and Order filed. AND NOW, March 25, 1997, for the reasons we have set forth in the attached Memorandum, the defendant's Petition to Determine Name of Child is dismissed without prejudice to him to file the appropriate petition to change the name of the child.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

6/17/96 faxed to Irwin and Thomas.

June 17, 1996 Appearance by Thomas, Spadafore, Walker and Keenan by R. Charles Thomas, Esq., for Defendant filed.

June 25, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 24, 1996, after an informal hearing where both parties were represented by counsel, the Court now disposes of the Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief, asking for sole possession of a 1995 Ford Econoline Mark III Van, with Pennsylvania license number and identification that are set forth in Paragraph 7 of the Petition.
The Court finds that given the statutory provisions governing these matters, as well as the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, both parties have a need for a vehicle and there appears to be only one vehicle. But for the facts we will address hereinafter, we would normally split the vehicle up somehow so that they both would have use of the vehicle at the important times they each need it.

Sept. 30, 1996 Stipulation and Consent Order filed. AND NOW, this 30 day of September, 1996, the court orders as follows:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Edward Lee Smith, III and Amy Mae Smith.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either pa rty any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3.a. The father shall have primary physical custody of Edward Lee Smith, III and the mother shall have primary physical custody of Amy Mae Smith.

b. During the school year, the children shall alternate weekends between the homes of each parent, starting with the father's having the children on the first full weekend after the school year begins.

In addition, the mother shall be entitled to have the child Edward in her physical custody on every other Wednesday from between 3:15 to 3:30 (when Edward arrives at his sitter's home) until 8:00 p.m. The father shall be entitled to have the child Amy on alternate Wednesdays from the time that he is free from his employment (which may be as early as he wishes) until 8:00 p.m.

c. Summer visitation shall be arranged as follows: For the summer of 1996, the children shall alternate weekends between the homes of each parent, starting withthe mother's having the children on the first full weekend after the date of this Order. The custodial and vistiation hours shall be from Friday at 5:00 p.m. through Sunday at 5:00 p.m. For the summer visitation of 1997 and thereafter, there shall be two summertime custodial periods, the first beginning at 5:00 p.m. of the second day after both of the children's schools shall have closed for the summer and ending on July 15th at 5:00 p.m. and the second beginning at 5:00 p.m. on July 15th and ending at 5:00 p.m. on the second day previous to the earliest reopening of the children's schools for the fall asesison. For the summer of 1997 the mother shall have the first period, and the father the second and the parties shall thereafter alternate (i.e. father shallhave the first custodial period of the summer, adn mother the second). The party not having physical custody of the subject minor children shall have the right of visitation and temporary physical custody each weekend except for the first full weekend of each month, from Friday at 5:00 p.m. through Sunday at 5:00 p.m. (Full weekends shall be those in which Friday, Saturday and Sunday all fall in the month.) Each party shall have the right to designate a two week period during his or her portion of the summer vacation during which no visitation need be accorded the other party. Each party shall notify the other of the two week period he or she wishes to select by May 15th of each year.

During the summer, the mother shall be entitled to have the children with her on Wednesday, when the children are in the primary physical custody of the father, except for the two week exclusive period to which the father is entitled. During the time that the children are with the mother, the father shall also be entitled to have physical custody of the children on every other Wednesday during the time that the children are in the primary custody of ther mother, except for the two week exclusive period to which the mother is entitled, also including during the hours that the father is normally at his place of employment. The father should notify the mother if he shall elect not to take a particular Wednesday visit, and likewise if mother needs to cancel a Wednesday visit. It shall be acceptable for the childrento be together at the home or place of father's babysitter, even if father is working, in order to allow the children to be together. For Wednesday visits, year-round, the person having the right to have the children shall provide transporation to and from such visits, either personally, or by means of transportation provided by a person known to the other parent.

4.a. Christmas There shall be two Christmas holiday visitation periods, the first beginning on Christmas Eve at noon and ending on Christmas Day at 1:00 p.m. and the second beginning on Christmad Day at 1:00 p.m. and ending onDecember 26th at 5:00 p.m. For Christmas, 1996, the mother shallhave visitationand temporary physical custody of both children, during the first period, andthe father, the second, andthe parties shall thereafter alternate. In addition, in even numbered years, the father shallhave the right of visitation and temporary physical custody of both children from December 26th at 5:00 p.m. through New Year's Day at 5:00 p.m. andin odd numbered years, the mother shall have the right of visitation and temporary physical custody with both children during the same period.

b. Thanksgiving: There shall be two Thanskgiving visitation periods, the first beginning on the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving at 5:00 p.m. and ending on Thanksgiving Day at 2:00 p.m. and the second beginningon Thanksgiving Day at 2:00 p.m. and ending on the Friday following Thanksgiving at 5:00 p.m. For Thanksgiving, 1996, the father shall have the first period and the mother, the second, and the parties shall thereafter alternate.

c. The other holidays to be observed are Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, and Labor Day. In even numbered years, the mother shallhave visitation and temporary custody of both childrenfor Easter and Independence Day and the father for Memorial Day and Labor Day. In odd numbered years the mother shallhave visitation and temporary physical custody of both children for Memorial Day and Labor Day and the father for Easter and Independence Day. Holiday visitations shall be between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. except for Independence Day when the holiday visitation shall be extended to 11:00 p.m. so that the children may watch the fireworks.

d. The children shall spende Father'sDay with their father from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. and Mother 's Day with their mother duringthe same hours.

e. The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this Order relating to the custodial or visitation periods.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitation as set our in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modifications shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6. The parties shall split responsibility for transportation with the party receiving the chidlren in the exercise of his or her rights picking up the childrenat the home of the other (except for Wednesday, as noted above). Any person transporting the chidlren shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are use din accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania.

7. Each party shall teach said childrentogive to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

Dec. 4, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 25, 1996 this matter is once againt before the Court on preliminary objections filed by the Plaintiff's, this time to the Defendant's amended new matter.
We note that the Defendant has not filed a brief nor does the Defendant appear at the time of argument, but counsel for the Plaintiff indicates to the Court that he has received, by facsimile this day, a second amended complaint and new matter which has not been filed properly insofar as the preliminary objections, which are now before the Court, were filed on October 24, 1996, more than 30 days form this date, and the Defendants would hav eonly had 20 days from the date the preliminary objections were filed to file an amended pleading without the consent of the Plaintiffs
We still find that the amended new matter is insufficient and we will once again, based on the preliminary objections filed, direct the Defendant to file a second amended new matter which provides the specific affirmative defenses which are being pled and the reason each affirmative defense is being pled factually in at least a brief manner.
This order doe snot preclude the Defendants form otherwise properly pleading other new matters other than affirmative defenses so long as it is all done within the rules.
The new pleading must be filed within 20 days form the date of this order.
We note that because the second amended pleading was not filed in a timely manner, it does not in and of itself serve to fulfill the requirements of this Rule but we would expect that if an amended pleading is going to be filed, that would be done sometime within the 20 days that begin this date.

CERTIFIED COPY OF ORDER FROM VENANGO COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA OF PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ORDER

AND NOW, April 11, 1996, after hearing, it is ORDERED and DECREED that:

(1) Clarence Smith, respondent, shall refrain from abusing, harassing, or threatening Tracey Smith, petitioner, and the minor children or place them in fear of any abuse at any place.

(2) Clarence Smith shall not enter, attempt to enter, or visit any residence occupied by Tracey Smith. He shall have no contact with her in any way.

(3) Tracey Smtih is awarded sole legal and physical custody of the minor children, Capri Smith and Cameron Atha.

(4) This order shall remain in feffect until April 11, 1997.

95) A copy of this order shall be filed with the Pennsylvania State Police and the Central Registry.

(6) Costs are hereby awarded to the petitioner and assessed against the respondent. The Prothonotary is to send a statement to the respondent for costs]and in the event the respondent does not promptly pay, the Prothonotary is to enter judgment against the respondent for the costs. In the event the respondent does not thereafter pay the costs in a timely fashion, the Prothonotary is to report the nonpayment of costs to the court so that the cour may deal with the matter by contempt proceedings in Compliance Court.

(7) This is an Order of Court. Any violation of this Order shall constitute Contempt of Court and may be punishable by a fine up to $1000 and a jail sentence of up to six months. If this Order excludes you form the residence of the abused and you resume residence in that domicile, you may be in Indirect Criminal Contempt and punished as above. Consent or invitation of the abused Petitioner to the resumption of residence shall not invalidate this Order.

(8) The respondent is further warned that Section 922(g) of Title 18, Untied States Code, makes it illegal for anyone to possess a firearm who is subject to a Protection From abuse Order which:

(a) restrains the respondent form harassing, stalking or threatening an intimate partner or such person or child of such intimate partner of engaging in other conduct which would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child; and

(b) includes a finding that such a person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of such intimate partner, or child; or

(c) by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against such intimate partner or child that would reasonable be expected to cause bodily injury.

June 1, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 26, 1999, after informal input and discussion between the parties and defendant wife's attorney, both parties agree to dispose of some of the issues arising in this divorce action, noting the same and disposing of related matters. Accordingly, with the parties' agreement, we enter the following order:

1. The Plaintiff husband agrees that he will satisfy any unpaid indebtedness due on a jointly held mortgage to the Andover Bank by paying the arrears and any penalties thereon by June 1, 1999 and forward a copy of evidence of payment of the same to Attorney DeVore.

2. With regard to realty taxes, the husband agrees he will pay any unpaid realty taxes, not including the 1999 calendar year taxes, that are unpaid on the marital residence and will do so by June 30, 1999 and forward a copy of said payment to counsel for the wife.

3. Both parties agree that they will forthwith list the marital property (real estate) for sale with Cutter Realty and both parties agree to sign the necessary listing. The property in question is located at 3180 US Highway 6, Linesville, PA 16424.

4. When the property is sold through the aforesaid realtor or otherwise, the net proceeds from the realty sale will be placed in an escrow account pending distribution by agreement of the parties or upon further order of the Court.

5. Neither party will sell marital personal property without consent of the other in writing.

6. The husband agrees he will be responsible for paying future monthly mortgage payments in a timely manner with said payments to be made to Andover Bank.

7. Husband will be responsible for all 1999 and future real estate taxes so long as he is in possession of the marital premises. In the event he no longer resides in the marital premises, he shall be responsible for his pro rata share of taxes for the period of time he occupied the premises.

8. Each party acknowledges they have possession of personal marital property and will not dispose of the same without the written consent of the other party.

9. Husband agrees to be responsible for making timely future monthly mortgage payments for as long as he occupies the premises commencing with the mortgage payment due Andover Bank for the month of June 1999.

10. In the event husband intends to remove himself from the premises he will give the wife 30 days written notice thereof.

11. Wife advanced the sum of $260 to Andover Bank for payment of the March mortgage payment due to forestall a foreclosure proceeding. The parties mutually agree that this sum will be reimbursed to the wife from the net marital proceeds or in the form of a credit or offset in the final asset distribution in the divorce decree.

12. Wife's counsel requests attorney fees and the Court grants the same. Accordingly, attorney fees for this hearing only are awarded in the amount of $250 with said sum to be paid to Attorney Devore, 924 Diamond Park, Meadville, Pa. 16335, on or before June 15, 1999 with said payment to be made by the Plaintiff husband in this case.

June 14, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, June 14, 1999 at the time set for hearing on the petition for contempt filed by the defendant Bobbi J. Myers, the Palintiff fails to appear.
After input from Defendant wife and counsel the Court finds the Plaintiff in contempt of its Order of May 26, 1999 for the following reasons:
1. The Plaintiff failed to make payments to Andover Bank as required in Paragraph 1 of said Court's Order.
2. The Court received credible evidence that the Plaintiff Duane S. Myers is packing his belongings and intends to leave the area and has not given thirty days advance notice of his intention to do so as required by the Court's previous Order.
3. The Plaintiff Duane S. myers has advised the children, who have advised the Defendant mother, that his intentins are to leave the area June 15, 1999 to an unknown destination.
Accordingsly, this Court finds Duane S. Myers in willful and deliberate contempt of this Court's Order of May 26, 1999 and the Prothonotry's Office is directed to deliver a certified copy od this Order to the Sheriff forthwith.
This Order shall consititute sufficient authority for the Sheriff of Crawford Countyor his duly appointed deputies to apprehend the Plaintiff Duane S. Myers forthwith and lodge him in the Crawford County Jail without further order of Court.
Upon lodging in the jail the Sheriff's Office is directed to promptly notify this Court and a contempt hearing will be set forthwith.

June 16, 1999 Warrant returned.

June 18, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, June 17, 1999 fruther hearing is held on the defendant's confinement in this divorce action. Plaintiff husband filed the divorce action, but has not signed a consent and is without counsel. Testimony and allegations by wife indicate there is a good chance plaintiff husband will leave the jurisdiction and either take with him martial assets or refuse to disclose the whereabouts thereof. This Court has spent several hours attempting to amicably resolve the problem of the release of the palintiff husband and the accounting for marital assets.
The plaintiff husband is vague about various aspects of this divorce case, has not signed a consent to the divorce and professes that he wants the marriga or marital assessts to go to the wife as well as his pension plan, but nothing in wirthing has been presented to accomplish this outcome.
The Court, husband and wife's counsel have attempted to amicably resolve various issues to assure that the marital assets are not improperly disposed of and over an hour and one-half of discussions have been unsuccessful in amicably resolving any of the issues It is fearful the plaintiff will leave the jurisdiction and will have no address at which he can be contacted.
This Court is fearful that the plaintiff will depart the jurisdiction and continue to be resistant in attempting to resolve the divorce and marital property issues.
The defendant husband proclaims that all he wishes is that he have title to a truck and his working tools and DJ karaoke equipment but when an attempted agreement to this effect is attempted, it became impossible. Counsel for the wife defendant has agreed to prepare a marital asset consent decree for the plaintiff's signature, but in view of the repeated ongoing bargaining in this case over several sessions of court, counsel for wife is fearful that once time is allocate to prepare a consent agreement, the plaintiff husband will refuse to sign.
The court finds there is a good likelihood that the husband will leave this jurisdiction without affording an address at which he may be contacted. The Court has repeatedly urged husband to employ counsel to see if the matter can be amicably resolved.
Future vacation schedules of counsel for wife defendant and the Court make it impossible to set a hearing in the near future This Court believes that a bond in this case is necessary, requiring the husband to post a bond to assure that marital assets will not be tampered with, destroyed or removed, and accoridngly the defendant will remain in confinement unless unless a cash bond in the amount of $15,000 is posted for his release on the condition that he will not leave the jurisdiction of Crawford County remove any marital assets or damage the marital home or any marital personal proeprty assets. Upon posting a bond, plaintiff will be required to give his present address where he may be located by mail within Crawford County and will not move or change address without consent of defendant's counsel and the court
The Court awards counsel fees in the amount of $250 to defendant wife's counsel by the plaintiff and he will be required to pay that to the wife's counsel within 15 days of this date.
The Court again urges counsel for the palintiff to retain the services of an attorney so for both parties may again attempt to amicably resolve the issues in this divorce case action regarding marital assets.
This Order does not supersede further Orders of this Court requiring plaintiff to pay one-half of the mortgage payment on the marital home.
The Court awards defendant wife the sum of $260 for payment of the April mortgage payemnt, which sum shall be paid within 10 days of the palintiff's release form confinement.

June 23, 1999 Order Filed. And Now, June 22, 1999 after further hearing the previous Order regarding incarceration is suspended and the plaintiff Duane S. Myers in this divorce action is directed to be released fourthwith from confinement on his alleged contempt in prior Orders and on the following conditions:
1. He will take up residence with his father Mr. Fred Myers at 94 Walker Dr Box 634 Linesville, PA and not change residence without notice and consent of the wife's counsel.
2. The plaintiff will not leave Crawofrd County without consent of his wife's counsel and must give her 10 days notice of any requested visits outside Crawford County and secure her approval.
3. The Defendant advises the Court that he does disc jockey work and occasionally will have jobs outside of Crawford Co. If the palintiff is doing his DJ work and is required to be out of county to do said work, he may do so but may not remain out of courny for a period longer than 24 hours doing any one job.
4. There is marital property in the form of a 1993 Ford truck titled in the plaintiff's husband's name and except as noted above for his disk jockey work, he will not remove the truck from Crawford County for any other purpose not may he give or sell the truck without the consent of his wife.
5. Additionally, it shall be a requirement that he may not financially encumber the truck in any fashion over and above any presently exicting encumbrances thereon.
6. As a condition of the plaintiff's release from confinement he shall pay $500 in counsel fees to his wife's attorney by July 6, 1999 at 4:30 pm. In addition wife is claiming $520 is due to her by virtue of the fact that he defaulted in two mortgage payments and to save foreclosure, the wife paid 2 mortgage payments on his behalf. This additional sum of $520 will be paid on or before August 6, 1999 to counsel Bernadette DeVore at her office.
7. The parties mutually agree that there is marital property in the garage and in the marital residence. The parties mutually agree that Duane S. Myers can remove within 2 weeks of this date all personal property from the garage, but must keep a list of same and furnish a copy to the wife as the wife's consent to this Order does not constitute a waiver of

PETITION TO DISAPPROVE SALE OF LAND AND PROPERTY

AND NOW, this 26th day ofApril, 1996, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition to Disapprove Sale by the Crwaford County Tax Claim Bureau, a rule is granted upon the Treasurer of Crawford County and upon John J. Buch and Valeria R. Buch, his wife, of 89 Standish Boulevard, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15228, to show cause, if any they should have, why the tax sale for the property assessed to Robert Adams in the sum of $250.00 should not be set aside.

This rule is returnable for hearing on the 4th day of June, 1996, at 1:00 o'clock P.M. in the Crawford County Courthouse in Court Room # 1 or 2. It is further Ordered and Decreed that if Petitioner's Petition to Disapprove the Sale is granted, all parties appearing at such times shall be prepared to bid on the aforesaid property in an immediate auction to be conducted by Frederic Wagner, Tax Claim Director, with the aforesaid property to sell for not less than the sum to be set by the Court pursuant to 72 P.S. 5960.613(a).

A true and correct copy of this Order shall be served upon the Treasurer of Crawford County, Pennsylvania by regular mail and upon the proposes purchasers of the private tax sale, John J. Buch and Valeria R. Buch, his wife, by certified mail to the address at 89 Standish Boulevard, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15228.

1. That the affiant is the atty. for petitioner.
2. That a true and correct copy of order dated June 7, 1996 and Petition were sent by first dalss mail to Frederic Wagner, Treas. of Crawford County and to proposed purchasers Mr. and Mrs. Buch on June 12, 1996.
3. They received said cert. mail on June 17, 1996. Said ret. Rec. Card Z 441 925 579 is attached hereto. Wm. J. Gregg.

July 3, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 28, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a petition filed by Robert Adams asking the court ot disapprove the sale of certain land in North Shenango Township.

The Treasurer has agreed to sell that property to John J. Boch and Valeria R. Boch for the sum of $250 cash.

Additionally, it is brought to the Court's attention from the counsel for Mr. Adams that he was the prior record owner of this property and we believe that pursuant to 72 P.S. Section 5860.618 therefore he may not re-purchase it at this time.

We do not believe that precludes him from filing a petition for disapproval of the sale and after consideration of that petition, we determine that the land in question is worth more than $250 and we disapprove the sale which is proposed by the Tax Claim bureau.

The County Treasurer is directed to conduct an auction among those present in the courtroom with the exception of Robert Adams; and after said action with the Court setting a minimum bid of $450, the highest bidder is Lori Plawski of 419 Dargan Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15224 and the Tax Claim Bureau Director is directed to issue an appropriate deed to that bidder upon payment of $500 to the Tax claim Bureau.

The Tax Claim Bureau Director is directed to refund any funds paid previously for the purchase of this land by the Bochs forthwith.

May 9, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 6, 1996, this abuse petition is before the Court for a decision. Neither party is represented by counsel and despite repeated requests by the Court for a definitive type of relief requested, the Plaintiff is unable to articulate what she wishes to accomplish by this petition or give the Court any guidance as to what terms and conditions she wishes to be imposed upon the Defendant regarding his conduct toward her or his visitation rights with the children. Accordingly, the Court directs that the Defendant not threaten, harass, annoy, or assault the Plaintiff in any fashion.

Further, the parties are unable to articulate to the Court who is to retain possession of the present rental property.

The Defendant will comply with this order, and we grant the Plaintiff the right to seek counseling and request within the amicably resolve the variety of issues arising from this relationship.

The costs in this case will abide the outcome of a further order of court.

Faxed PSP

AND NOW, this 29 day of April , 1996, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions: The Plaintiff shall have sole possession of RD 8 Box 304 Meadville until further order of court. The defendant may not go to the residence. Pending further order of court the Plaintiff shall have sole custody of the minor children.

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is 178-62-6353 and date of birth is 9/10/69 .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

. This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for May 9, 1996 , at 1:00 pm., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

June 12, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 28th day of May, 1996, after informal hearing, the Court disapproves of the proposed private sale of the subject property for the reason that the Petition, Kathleen A. Pavlik, is prepared to pay more for the property than has been offered. The Court sets the minimum price for the property at $1,000.00. The petitioner, Kathleen Pavlik, has agreed to pay the minimum price set by the Court. The Court directs the Tax Claim Bureau to conduct an auction-style bid of the property among the parties to the proceedings following this hearing. If only one party agrees to pay the minimum price set by this Court, then the Tax Claim Bureau shall sell the property to that party without the necessity of an auction. The auction is opened by Treasurer-Fred Wagner and Kathleen Pavlik being the only bidder, the property is ordered sold to Kathleen Pavlik for her bid of $1,000.00.

Dec 17, 1996 ORDER: AND NOW, December 13, 1996, the Defendant's Petition to Determine the Validity of an Alleged Unwritten Property Settlement Agreement is denied, without prejudice to raise these matters before the Court or the Master at the time of a hearing to determine marital property and equitable distribution of marital property.

The Court does not view this Petition as a petition to determine the validity of a settlement agreement, but rather a petition to determine or to declare whether or not a certain piece of real estate is marital property.

The Court does have the right to appoint a Master to hear some or all of the issues in a dometic relations matter except custody or paternity, 23 Pa. C.S.A. 3321. The Court also has a right to hear these matters on its own. Pa.R.C.P. 1920.51. We do not make a determination as to who will decide these issues or hear the issues initially, but we believe that the issues regarding property, debts, et cetera, should be heard in one forum at one time rather than to piecemeal a Court's determination as to what is marital property and what is not marital property.

July 26, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, July 23, 1996, at th eitme set for hearing on special relief requested by the Defendant spouse, the Court is advised after conversationbetween counsel this date that the subject matter of the petition scheduled for hearing this day has been amicably resolved as follows:

1. Insofar as the Petition for Special relief requesting exclusive possession of the marital residence be accorded to the Defendant, wife, the aprties mutually agree that exclusive possession of the marital porperty is awarded to the Defendant, wife, and she will maintain exclusive possession of the said rresidence until 48 hours before transfer of the property to the ne w buyers under an existing contract for sale. Wtihin the 48 hour periods before transfer to the new buyers of the property, the Plaintiff will have exclusive access to the property for any legal purpose. It is the understanding of counsel and the aprties that the contract for sale provides for closure on or before August 30, 1996 and transfer of physical possession of the marital residence on or before September 30, 1996.

2. With regard to personal property and transfer thereof, the parties mutually agree as follows:

a. The Defendant shall be entitled to receive the following items from the Plaintiff, husband,on a date hereafter set forth: 1. Amrhein welcome mat rug, 2. A round kerosene hearter, 3. A stragiht shaft weed eater, 4. Four lawn chairs, 5. Picnic table, 6. Large Automobile-type battery charger, 7. Sears Craftsman lawn tractor.

b. The Plaintiff, husband, shall receive and be entitled to physical possessionofthe following items in the wife's possession; 1. Couch and matching cloth rocking chair, 2. End tables, 3. Two white dressers and bed, 4. Ketchen table and wooden folding chairs, 5. Coffee table, 6. Piece of furniture designated as an entertainment center, 7. one half of the pots, pans, plates, and silverware.

3. The parties mutually agree that all items will be returned in good working order, and that neither aprty shall intentionally damage, destroy, or injure said items before delivery.

4. The parties mutually agree that this transfer of property under this order shall not in any way prejudice or be controlling of the ultimate deivision of marital property by agreement or by Court Order.

5. The parties mutually agree transfer of the property aforesaid shall occur onMonday, July 29, 1996 at approximately 9:00 a.m. and that each party may have a witness on the premises to observe the transfer with the wife's witness either being Karen George or Joan Beatty and the husband's witness being a constable or d eputy constrable of his choice.

6. For the protion of counsel fees relating to this action has beenwaived by the Defendant, wife, without prejudice tothe award of counsel fees inthe future.

10/21/96 faxed to Kirkpatrick and Irwin

Dec. 12, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, December 2, 1996, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed by the Plaintiff. Both parties are represented by counsel and we proceed informally to determine whether or not there can be a resolution to this matter.

While there is not currently a Petition for Special Relief before the Court filed by the Defendant, it is agreed by the parties and therefore it is ordered as follows:

1. From the Northwest Savings Bank escrow account which is under the joint signature for counsel for both parties an amount shall be paid toward the Crestar Account necessary to pay that off in full and a like amount shall be paid toward the Advanta Credit Card which amount will not pay off the Advanta Card but which will significantly decrease a significant amount of that debt.

2. While it is not agreed and stipulated by the Defendant that the separation balance of the Chase Account which is in the Plaintiff's name alone but which was in existence during the marriage is $1550, it is agreed by the parties that at this time from the escrow account $1550 will be applied to the Chase Account and a like amount will be applied to a City Bank Account which is in the name of the Defendant only and is alleged to have been created by her after separation to consolidate certain marital debt.

3. These payments are being specifically made to reduce possible marital debt that is creating substantial interest and this Order is without guidance to the Master or ultimately to the Court as to what debt is in fact marital nor is it guidance to the Master and ultimately to the Court as to what would be the appropriate percentages with respect to equitable distribution in this matter.

December 31, 1998 Order filed. And now, December 29, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Civil Contempt with regard to a Custody Order filed by the plaintiff.
The plaintiff filed the petition on Nov. 25, 1998 and a hearing was set for this date in an Order by Jduge Grodon R. Miller The Prothonotary's records indicated that a copy of the Order was faxed to Christopher Brode who was attorney of recor for the plaintiff, and to Gregory Keenan, who was attorney of record for the defendant.
Mr. Keenan called earlier today to the offices of the undersigned and indicated he would not be appearing today. In checking with him, his office does not have any indication that they even notified the defednant of this hearing today/
The plaintiff maintains that she notified the defendant's mother by Certified Mail of the hearing date because she does not know the defedant's address, but there is no proof of service filed and there is no proof that service upon the defendant's mother would be adequate to notify the defednant.
Based on all of this this hearing is continued until Jan 21, 1999 at 3:30 pm in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned Insofar as the palintiff is incarcerated and proceeding pro se and does not know the current whereabouts of the Defendant, the Sheriff of Crawford county is directed to attempt to ascertain the whereabouts of the defendant and to serve him personally with a copy of teh Petition for civil Contempt for Disobedience of Custody and/or Visitation Order, together with the Order entered by Jduge Miller on Nov. 7, 1998 and a copy of this Order. Certified copies of all of these shall be provided to the Sheriff by the Prothonotary.
The Costs of service shall be borne by Crawford County.
The plaintiff believes the defendant resides with his mother in the Cochranton area and we also note that his mother works at Crawford County Drug and Alcohol as the Act 152 Coordinator and that may supply the Sheriff with some idea with regard to where the defendant may be served.

Jan 22, 1999 Order filed. And Now, Jan 8, 1999 it's come to the court's attention that since the original filing in this matter in 1996, sometime in 1997, the caption has been reversed indicationg the defendant is the plaintiff and the plaintiff is the defendant.
It is Ordered and Directed taht hereinafter any filing shall indicate that Jeffrey E. Wagner is the plaintiff and Donna Keeton is the Defendant.

Jan. 22, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 21, 1999, the defendant having just been served this day and having requested a continuance so that he could obtain counsel, the hearing on the plaintiff's Petition For Civil Contempt is continued until Wednesday, FEb. 3, 1999, at 2:30 p.m., in Courtroom No. 2, before the undersigned.
The defendant will be given no further continuance to obtain counsel.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

Jan. 25, 1999 MAILED Plff. and Deft.

Feb. 8, 1999 Order filed. ANDNOW, February 3, 1999, thismatter comes before the Court on a Petition for contempt filed by the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff appears without counsel and is currently incarcerated in the Crawford County Correctional Facility. The Defendant appears with counsel, and essentially, it appears that the issues that are being raised really came about because of the Plaintiff's incarceration and inappropraiteness of the Order of September 23, 1997 under those circumstances.
Accordingly, we decline to find that the Defendant is in contempt, but by agreement of both parties, without the necessity of them filing a petition to modify for these minor changes, we will modify the Temporary Order of Setpember 23, 1997 as follows:
1. At this time, while the Plaintiff is incarcerated, the Defendant will have total physical custody of the subject minor child with no visitation to the Plaintiff mother.
2. The Plantiff mother may soon be going to a half=way house setting and when she does that, beginning the first weekend after she arrives at that facility, so long as ti is permissible by the facility, and every weekend thereafter on Saturday, the Plaintiff will be entitled to visitation with the child for the visiting hours at that facility, which apparently would be three hours.
3. Commencing with that first Saturday and every other Saturday thereafter, transporation will be provided by the Defendant. If the Plaintiff is to have visitation with the child on the other weekends where transportation is not provided by the dEfendant, she shall be responsible for having transportation provided for those visits by her parents.
In order that the Defendant will known, on the weekends where transportation will be provided by the Plaintiff's parents, that visitation is going to take place, either the Plaintiff or her parents shall notify the Defendant of that fact no later than the Thursday before the Saturday that the visit is to occur at 5:00 p.m. or else the visit will not occur.
4. Once the Plaintiff is out of the half-way house setting and in her own residence, unless there has been further Order of Court in this matter, the terms of the September 23, 1997 Order will again be totally in effect.

Date Appearance of Bernadette M. DeVore for Gaylord Bradley, Jr. Defendant

Dec. 9, 1996, Plaintiff's Affidavit of Consent filed.

Dec. 10, 1996 Separation and Property Settlement Agreement filed.

Dec. 10, 1996 Waiver of Notice of Intent to Request Entry of Divorce Decree on behalf of Defendant filed.

Dec. 10, 1996 Affidavit of Consent by Defendant filed.

Dec. 10, 1996 Praecipe to Transmit Record filed.

Dec. 20, 1996 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

There are unpaid court costs in a Protection From Abuse Action at No. A.D. 1996-712 concerning these parties which costs were ordered in a Consent Order on September 6, 1996.

Once those costs have been paid, either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the court for entry of a final decree. Insofar as it appears that the parties wish to have a separation and property settlement agreement incorporated into the divorce decree, a proposed decree doing so should be provided to the court.

January 16, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, this 16th day of January, 1998, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Brandon G. Bradley,born on May 28, 1993 and Benjamin Z. Bradley, born on Dec. 31, 1995.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby auathorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3. Primary custdoy of the children will remain with the mother, subject to the parital custody rights of the father set forth as follows:

a. The father shall have the right to take the children into his card and custody for a period of 10 days in teh Spring of each year ; 7 days in the Winter of each year and for a period of 8 weeks during the Summer months of each year. The parties shall agree upon these periods of partial custody. In the event the parties are unable to reach agreement, then the periods of partial custody shall be as follows:

SPRING. The Monday following Easter Sudnay, beginning at 6:00 PM and continuing until 6:00 PM on the second Wed. following.

SUMMER. Beginning at 6:00 PM on June 15 until 6:00 PM on August 14.

B. In addition to the above, the mother shall endeavor to make the children available for periods of visitation whenever the father is in Crawford County.

c. The fahter shall be entitled to place a telephone call to speak with his children every Monday and Friday between the hours of 7:00 PM and 8:00PM. The mother shall make the children available during those periods of time.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this order or as previously arranged, teh party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6. The parties shall share in the cost of the transportation of the children for the Summer partial custody period. For the Spring and Winter custody periods, the father shall be responsible for 75% of the transportation costs and the mother shall be responsable for 25% of the transportation costs in connection with the children only. The transportation costs of the parents shall not be shared or apportioned.

7. Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8. Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. The parties are caustioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the children are being transported or in the bedroom of the children.

9. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the children's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the children's estimation.

10. The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11. Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

12. Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $240.00 ($60.00 hr x 4.0 hrs) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid as follows:

The father has paid the $200.00 fee for the appointment of the child custody mediator. The entirety of said amount shall be applied to the mediation costs and fees in this case. The mother shall, within thirty days of the date of this Order pay the Prothonotary of Crawford County the sum of $49.00, representing her share of the costs and fees of this case. Teh court notes that the apportionment of the fees and costs reflect the fact that the fahter's move to Florida is what has prompted the need for further mediation.

13. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten days from the date hereof. If netiher party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

14. The provisions of thsi Order pr-empt all previous custody orders.

June 23, 1998 MOTION OF DEFENDANT TO CONTINUE HEARING FILED.

June 23, 1998 OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE FILED.

June 23, 1998 ORDER FILED. THE Defendant has filed a Pro Se Motion to Continue a hearing set fro July 20, 1998 and the Plaintiff through counsel has filed opposition to that Motion but is apparently willing to agreeto it if an Amendment is made to the Current Custody Order allowing telephone contact between the Plaintiff-mother and the children while they are in the Defendant-father's custody in Fla over the summer. Insofar as we do not have the parties infront of us, nor do we have any sort of a stipulationby which the parties agree to, the resolution proposed by Plaintiff's counsel or any other possible resolution, the Motion to Continue is denied and the Motion to Amend the curretn Custody Order is denied. If the parties can reach an agreement which will answer for the Court what specifically, if anything, will be amended in the current Order and will address the issue as to if the case is going to be continued if it is to a date certain and what timeframe that is to be or if it is to be continued generally we will then consider entering an Order based on that agreement.

July 23, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, July 20, 1998 this matter comes before the Court for a de novo custody hearing at the request of the Plaintiff. The Defendant is not present and does not have counsel present, but we note that he had filed a motion to continue this hearing, which was denied by the Court. in an Order of June 23, 1998.
After an informal de novo custody hearing we will modify the order of January 16, 1998 as follows:
1. The Plaintiff shall hereafter, until further Order of Court, have legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Brandon G. Bradley and Benjamin Z. Bradley.
2. The only visitation or primary physical custody that the Defendant shall have shall be that which is agreed upon from time to time by the Plaintiff when requested by the Defendant. In the event the Defendant is in Crawford County the Plaintiff shall make every effort to agree to allow the children to see their father.
In any manner in which the Order of January 16, 1998 is inconsistent with this Order, this order shall take precedence.

June 16, 1997 Memorandum and Exhibits in Support of Defendants' Petition for Change of Venue filed.

July 3, 1997 Order filed. The Court has not disposed of the discovery issues that were argued in February because we were awaiting a determination on the change of venue motion and need further information to determine whether or not the defendant's motion to compel has merit.

It is necessary for the Court to review the documents, or some of the documents, that have already been submitted by the plaintiffs to the defendants to determine whether or not the plaintiffs have in fact complied with the discovery rules or whether we should compel additional discovery.

In order for the Court to review these documents we are setting a hearing and argument for Monday, July 28, 1997 at 2:30 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

At that time the parties shall bring all of the documents that support their respective positions. The parties should attempt to address this matter in an efficient manner so that all of the information can be given to the Court by the end of the court day.

If either party believes that two hours is not sufficient that party should file a motion with the Court Administrator within the next ten (10) days seeking additional time.

Nov. 19, 1996 Order filed. AND NOW, November 8, 1996 after an informal contempt hearing, the Court finds that the Defendant is in contempt of theAugust 6, 1996 order. She has not complied with that order by fialing to provide visitation rights to the Plaintiff as required by that order. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The defendant shall fully and ocmpletely comply with the order of August 6, 1996 in all respects as modified by this order. If she fully and completely complies with these orders for the next 9 months, without any further infractions, there will be no further punishment. On the other hand, it there is another violation of these orders by the Defendant, the Court has the right to impose further sanctions, including fining her up to $1,000 and placing her in jail for up to six months.

2. Because the visitations have not taken place and because the break=in period has not taken place, the court orders that the Plaintiff shall go to the mother's home at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 12, 1996 and 3:00 p.m. on Friday, NOvember 15, 1996 for one hour each, to become reacquainted with her grandchild.

3. As punishment for the Defendant's contempt and to recompense the Plaintiff for the missed vistiations, the Plaintiff shall have a right to take the child into her custody for six Tuesdays from 12:00 noon until 6:00 p.m. Those six Tuesdays are as follows: November 19 and 26; December 3, 10, 17, and 24, 1996.

As to the December 24, 1996 vistiation, that does happen to coincide with the Plaintiff's Christmas Eve visitation.

4. The Plaintiff's reguarly scheduled two Saturday visits each month shall occur on the First and third Saturdays of each month, but shall be form 12:00 noon until 6:00 p.m.

5. The reference to "holy Saturday" in Paragraph 3 of the order of August 6, 1996 shall mean the Saturday before Easter, and no other Saturday.

6. The Plaintiff's rrequest for attorney's fees is denied.

7. The Saturday visitation schedule shall take priority over any holiday vistiation schedule, except if Christmas falls on a Saturday, the Plaintiff shall forfeit that Saturday visitiation and no substituted time shall be given therefor.

However, before the parties separated, there were two vehicles being used by this family. The defendant maintains that there was a Chevrolet pickup truck that was given to him and is not marital property. We make no determination as to whether or not that Chevrolet was marital property, but we are aware of the fact that it was used by the parties so they had two vehicles for two drivers. The defendant gave that vehicle to his father apparently for no consideration or payment. He has a right to do that if it truly was non-marital property, but in doing so, he caused two drivers to only have access to one vehicle and they are separated and not living under the same roof. We scrutinize his reason for giving the vehicle back to his father. He claims that the vehicle was too expensive to operate and we find that defies logic. The only expenses the defendant was able to attribute to that vehicle were insurance premiums and ordinary oil changes. Under the equities of the situation, we believe the vehicle should now be in the possession of the plaintiff, who has no vehicle at her disposal and has four children living with her.

ACCORDINGLY, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. The defendant shall within 5 days from this date return to the plaintiff the 1995 Ford Econoline Mark III Van in the same condition as it was on April 17, 1996.

2. From and after the delivery of the van to her, the plaintiff shall be responsible for maintaining said van in the same condition it was on the date she received it, less normal and usual wear and tear.

3. From and after delivery of the van to her, the plaintiff shall bear the sole and full responsibility for maintaining said vehicle, which shall include, but is not limited to, payment of insurance premiums, payment of all licenses and registrations, payment for all maintenance, upkeep and repairs and payment for all fuel.

4. The plaintiff's request for attorney's fees is denied.

5. This is not an equitable distribution of marital property nor a determination as to whether or not the Chevrolet is or is not marital property. The Court is entering special relief on an interim basis that should not prejudice either party nor shall this Order bind the Master or the Court with respect to the ultimate equitable distribution of marital property.

6. This Order is without prejudice to the defendant to seek special relief involving the same vehicle if the facts and law support that request.

Feb. 7, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, February 5, 1997, this matter has come before the Court for a denovo custody hearing at the request of the defendant after a medication conference resulting in an Order dated October 7, 1996. This action involves four children, ages 8 through 13.

After we have commenced this hearing by talking to the two 13-year-olds in chambers, the parties have agreed to a continuance of this hearing until May 8, 1997 at 1 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Pending that continuance, the following revisions will be made to the October 7, 1997 Order.

Specifically, the period of temporary physical custody will be made to the October 7, 1996 Order.

Specifically, the period of temporary physical custody with all children with the Defendant father shall be as follows until the time of the next hearing:

1. The defendant shall have custody of all children from 6 p.m. on February 9, 1997 through 6 p.m. on February 16, 1997.

2. The defendant shall have custody of all children commencing February 28, 1997 at 6 p.m. through March 2, 1997, at 6 p.m.

3. The defendant shall have custody of all children commencing March 9, 1997 at 6 p.m. through March 16, 1997 at 6 p.m

May 13, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 12, 1997, the Court have inadvertently double scheduled matters for May 8, 1997, the above continued DeNovo Custody hearing is rescheduled for July 16, 1997, at 9:14 A.M., in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Pending that hearing the following revisions will be made to the October 7, 1996, Order.

Specifically, the period of temporary physical custody with all children with the defendant father shall be as follows until the time of the next hearing:

1. The defendant will have custody of all children from 6:00 P.M., on May 11, 1997, until 6:00 P.M., on May 18, 1997.

2. The defendant shall have custody of all children commencing May 30, 1997, at 6:00 P.M., through June 1, 1997, at 6:00 P.M.

3. The defendant shall have custody of all children from June 15, 1997, at 6:00 P.M., until June 22, 1997, at 6:00 P.M.

4. The defendant shall have custody of all children from July 4, 1997, at 6:00 P.M., until July 6, 1997, at 6:00 P.M.

5. The defendant shall have custody of all children from July 13, 1997, at 6:00 P.M. until July 20, 1997, at 6:00 P.M.

Any other provisions of our February 5, 1997, Order that have not been rendered moot shall remain in effect and the provisions of the October 7, 1996, Order which have not been rendered moot which are not inconsistent with the February 5, 1997, Order or this Order shall remain in effect, including the provisions of the Order allowing the Defendant-Father to have the children in his custody for a period of two weeks each of the tree summer months with proper notice as provided for in the Order.

We note, however, those weeks must be exercised in a manner that takes into account that in each of those months under the normal visitation schedule, the defendant currently has one week already in each month and it is the court's intention that that week be expanded to be two weeks and that in each of those months the two week period may be moved around somewhat from what we have indicated above so long as there is proper notice.

May 4, 1999 Summary of Pre-Hearing Conference and Scheduling Order Filed

May 6, 1999 Notice of Scheduled Master's Hearing filed.

June 11, 1999 Order filed. And NOw, June 9, 1999 this matter comes before the Court on a petition for special relief which has been filed by the Defendant. Both parties are represented by cousnel and we proceed informally with the Defendant noting three issues.
The first issue is that apparently in the Winter of 1998 the Plaintiff, who was in possession of the marital home and has received approximately $8432. The Defendant maintains that was without his permission and there is no written document indicating that he signed providing his permission for the removal of that timber, and apparently has held on to the funds or used some of them for living expenses.
In any event any timber that has been sold will have to be accounted for with regard to the equitable distribution matter which will be coming before the Master soon. it was improper under those circumstances without a written consent from the Defendant for the Plaintiff to sell this timber and it is ordered and directed that she shall not sell any further timber pending further order of court, nor shall she in any way spoil the property in any other fashion.
With regard to the funds she has received, we will not order her to provide those funds into an ecrow account in light of the fact that we believe there are sufficient assets in this case that the Defendant will be made whole financially for his share of those funds received by the Plaintiff from the sale of the timber.
The next issue raised by the Defendant is that it is maintained that the Plaintiff's paramour is resdieing at the marital residence and may be conducting business as a carpenter at that residence. The plaintiff adamantly denies that through counsel, and in order to help resolve that issue, basically because the Corut would have concerns if the fact the plaintffi's paramour is living at the residence and conducting businesses in any way harming the property, it is ordered and directed that within 10 days Defendant's counsel and the Defendant may go to the marital residence to inspect it for the purpose of determining that everything is in order and that it is not being damaged or spoiled in any manner. Arrangements fro that visit shall be made through plaintiff's counsel and the visit shall only occur if Defendant's counsel is present with him throughout that visit.
In the event, after that inspection, Defendant's counsel still believes that there is an issue with regard to the marital residence and any misuse of the residence that is harming it, he may request fruther Order of Court and we will set a hearing to determine whether relief should be granted
Finally, the Defendant requests that he now have exclusive possession of the marital home, and unless it is determined that there is some significant spoliation gcing on at the marital residence, we will not change possession of the marital home whn it appears that the issues that the parties are litigating will ultimately be decided very shortly insofar as there is a Master's Hearing scheduled at the end of July 1999.

December 10, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 5, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt filed by the defendant, as well as a Petition for Special Relief. The Petition for Contempt regards the fact that as of Nov. 7, 1997, when the Petition was filed, the plaintiff had not filed his income and expense statemtent nor had he field his inventory as directed by the Court in our Order of Aug. 18, 1997. He filed both of those and they bear a time stamp in the Prothonotary's Office of Dec. 4, 1997, just one day prior to this hearing. In fact, they may have been actually filed a few days ago, but in any event, they were filed some time this week.

The Petition for Special Relief regards the defendant's request to accompany an appraiser into the marital residence for the purpose of a real estate appraisal only.

After an informal hearing, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that the plaintiff within 10 days from this date provide to defendant's counsel, the pay record and income tax record and income tax record items that should have been attached to the income and expense statement pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedurd 1920.31 (a) (1).

It is also ORDERED AND DIRECTED that within 30 days, an appraisal occur of the marital residence with John Pritchard being accompanied by the defendant and a law enforcement officer, either a constable or some other appropriate officer, as well as the plaintiff. The expense of the law enforcement officer shall be borne by the defendant. During the period of that appraisal, each party may calmly point out anything they wish to to the appraiser, but they shall not bicker between themselves or cause any type of a problem that nature, it being the Courts's intention that they both be there to provide information to the appraiser which may be confilcting information. It shall then be the appraiser's determination as to what he thinks the appropriate appraisal is obviously.

The parties shall cooperate fully in providing discovery necessary to move this matter forward and the plaintiff shall praecipe for the appointment of a master within 60 days from this date unless one party or the other has requested an extension to complete discovery beyond that date.

For his contempt in not filing his income and expense statement and inventory in a timely manner, the Court, recognizing that the plaintiff did have medical problems and we are taking that into account, nonetheless, he shall pay ocunsel fees to the defendant in the amount of $100, which are reduced counsel fees because we have taken into account the problems that the plaintiff was having. We do, however believe that if the plaintiff needed more time to comply with our Order, there should have been an effort to request the Court's permission to do so.

August 11, 1998 ORDER FILED AND NOW, August 7, 1998 this matter is once again before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the Defendant. This matter seems to be headed for a Master's Hearing in October of 1998 and there needs to be some final matters taken care of before that can occur.
Specifically, the Defendant wishes to have alleged marital property located at the Plaintiff's residence which was the marital residence, appraised. The Plaintiff, through counsel, takes the position that any personal property at that residence is now his, insofar as that he argues that the parties made an agreement to split their personal property at the time of spearation. That is disputed by the Defendant.
We will leave that issue to be resolved by the Master, but we will order and direct that the Plaintiff allow Bruce Nichols to enter the former marital residence and therein conduct an appraisal of all the personal property. Mr. Nichols shall contact the Plaintiff directly as soon as possible and the Plaintiff indicates that he is not working and will be able to accommodate Mr. Nichols. He shall make every effort to do so and if there has not been a date arranged by August 17, 1998 the Defendant may come to Motion Court with dates that are available for Mr. Nichols and we will direct specifically a date wehn Mr Nichols will appear and the Plaintiff will make the residence available. We note that if that becomes necessary, we will further direct that Mr. Nichols may bring law enforcement and break forcibly into the residence to do that appraisal.
Pending the Master's Hearing in this case, neither party may dispose of any property, either personal or real, which was in the possession of one or both parties at the time fo the separation on November 26, 1995.
The Plaintiff has sold property taht was at the marital home under the theory that it was hhis property and not therefore subject to our order of August 18, 1997. Specifically he indicates he sold a kitchen table and chairs for $75. and various other items for $175 at a garage sale.
If the Master concludes that in fact the personal property at the marital residence remainded marital property, the Plaintiff will have to account specifically for all property sold and provide any evidence available as to what he sold that property for to the satisfaction of the Master. It may be necessary for the Master to continue the hearing for that to occur and if the Plaintiff does not provide that evidence the Master may set an amount that he believes is appropriate for that property which has been disposed of.
The Defendant agrees that any marital property that she has at her residence will be availab;e for Mr. Nichols to also appraise at the expense of the Palintiff and again, arrangements shall be made for that to occur within the next ten days.

May 15, 1996 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED Thomas A. Moore, May 14, 1996, by deputizing Venango County Sheriff, affidavit of service forthcoming.
So Answers,
Rombert M. Stevens, Sheriff

May 17, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 16, 1996, the matter was set for hearing and the plaintif did not appear. Her attorney appeared. He indicated that she wanted to withdraw this case, but he also heard rumors that she was not doing this of her own free will or rumors that might cast doubt upon her desire to drop this matter.

We remember the plaintiff because she has been to court twice and she obviously may not understan these proceeding and may be low functioning mentally. Her attorney has made an oral motion to continue this matter.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED as follows:

1. This case is continued until Wednesday, May 29, 1996, at 1 o'clock p.m.
2. In the meantime, all prior PFA Orders shall remain in full force and effect.
3. If the plaintiff desires to settle and discontinue this case, she may do so by a signed Settlement and Discontinuance, provided, however, that she signs it in the presence of her attorney, who can advise her as to what her rights are and who can protect her interests and make certain that the Discontinuance is appropriate. If that happens, it will not be necessary for her to come to the hearing. It will not be necessary for her to pay the costs of the Discontinuance because under those circumstances, all costs should be absorbed by Crawford County.
4. The defendant, Mr. Moore, is advised that the PFA Order is still in full force and effect and he must abide by it or he can be arrested and punished further.

July 15, 1996 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1996, this matter comes before the Court for a de novo custody hearing. After an informal hearing, the parties have reached an agreement which will modify the May 6, 1996 Order to some extent, and to the extent this Order does not modify the May 6, 1996 Order, it shall remain in full force and effect.

The following modifications will therefore be made:

The father, commencing with September 8, 1996, and every other Sunday thereafter, shall have both children in his temporary physical custody from 1 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.

Commencing on September 12, 1996, and for every other weekend thereafter, during the school year, the father shall have temporary physical custody of both children from Thursday at 6 p.m. until Sunday at 6:30 p.m., and during the summer time for those alternating weekends, the period of temporary physical custody with the father shall be extended through Monday at 6:30 p.m.

For the summer of 1996, the following schedule will be in effect to take this matter through September 8, 1996, when the above schedule takes place. Specifically, the father shall have custody of both children, commencing on July 14, 1996, at 1 p.m., and continuing until July 25, 1996, at 6:30 p.m. He shall also have temporary physical custody of both children, commencing August 1, 1996, at 6 p.m. and continuing through August 5, 1996, at 6:30 p.m.

For the rest of August, the children shall be in the custody of the mother until August 29, 1996, at 6 p.m. through September 1, 1996, at 6:30 p.m.

Apr. 3, 1996 Plaintiffs Answer to Petition for Contempt filed.

Apr. 18, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 8, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Defendant's petition for contempt with regard to periods of temporary physical custody with the minor children. Essentially the Defendant had been picking the children up for the most part, with the possible exception of Christmas at the Plaintiff's residence. The Plaintiff, because of a class schedule, requested that the Defendant pick the children up at her parents', approximately two blocks away from the normal location. Apparently, the Defendant, although it would seem that would be somewhat reasonable, did not agree to that, and the Plaintiff just did that unilaterally.

While the July 12, 1996 order we entered does not specifically say that the Defendant should pick up the children at the Plaintiff's residence, it appears that that's what the parties were doing and since these parties cannot seem to come to reasonable agreements, the Plaintiff should have come to Motions Court or somehow before the Court to allow the slight change that she made in the arrangements.

Based on her actions, we will not hold her in contempt at this time, but we will allow the Defendant some additional time with the children to make up for the time lost because these parties could not come to some reasonable agreement with regard to this matter.

It appears that there were four times that the Defendant would have lost two hours with the children because he would not pick them up at Plaintiff's parents' residence, for a total of eight hours.

Because we believe the Plaintiff should have handled this differently, but we also believe the Defendant could have been more cooperative in this matter, we will award him four extra hours with the children, or on half of what he missed.

Accordingly, for the next four periods of temporary physical custody, the Defendant will pick the children up on Thursday at 5:30 p.m. and he will return them on Sunday at 7:00 p.m. Thereafter, the schedule will return to that set forth in the July 12, 1996 order unless it is modified by future court proceedings, since it is the Court's understanding that this matter will be coming back before the Court for modification.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.
4-18-97 DISTRIBUTED Gamble & Kirkpatrick

Apr. 18, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 8, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition to continue alimony pendente lite.

The parties have now requested a Master and a Master has been appointed and has set a prehearing conference. It appears that at least at that level, this divorce action should be coming to a conclusion.

The Defendant has been laid off from his employment and is receiving unemployment compensation in the amount of $302 per week. We note that when the child support and spousal support matter was originally before the conference officer, there was a calculation for child support based on unemployment compensation of exactly that amount. That obviously occurred before the spousal support was converted to alimony pendente lite by agreement of the parties.

Under these circumstances, assuming that the Defendant continues to receive unemployment compensation, we will require that he pay alimony pendente lite to the Plaintiff commencing with April 1997 in the amount of $103.51 per month.

In the event, during the term of this order, the Plaintiff obtains other employment or the Defendant returns to employment, either party may petition the Court to modify this order.

This order will continue in effect, without a deadline, but if the Defendant believes that the Plaintiff is causing this divorce to linger on unnecessarily, he may petition the Court to terminate the alimony pendente lite.

It appears at this time that the Plaintiff is paying for medical insurance for herself, and the children are receiving medication insurance without cost. The Defendant is paying for medical insurance for himself and not through a COBRA plan. Based on all of this, we will require both parties to continue to pay their own medical insurance; however, the Defendant will continue to contribute toward uninsured medical expenses at the 80 percent rate and the Plaintiff will continue at the 20 percent rate.

Each party shall notify the other party, through counsel, of any change of employment, within 72 hours of that change of employment.

By the Court
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

12/7/98 Faxed Kirkpatrick & Gamble

December 21, 1998 Memorandum and Order filed. And now, December 18, 1998 after a Denovo custody Hearing, it is hereby Ordered and decreed that:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Rosalie Alberta Barbish, born May 3, 1992 and Colin Douglas Barbish born August 19, 1993.

2. The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education and major events in the lives of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to each party any and all confiedntial information which they may have regarding the subjet minor chidren.

3. The mother shall retain primary physical custody of the children into his care and custody of the children subject to the children being in teh temporary physical custody of the fahter as follows:

A. The father shall have the right to take the children into his care and custody every other weekend commencing on Friday December 18, 1998 The mother shall bring the children to father's custody at 6:30 pm on Friday and the father shall return the children to the mother at 6:30 PM on Sunday.

4. Summer, Holiday and Vacation temporary physical custody:

A. Summer: the fahter shall have tem porary physical custody of the minor children commencing on the second Sunday of Une at 6:30 PM and ending two Sundays after that at 6:30 PM. So we are clear for 1999 that would mean that the father would take temporary physical custody of the children on June 13, 1999 at 6:30 PM and they would be returned to the mother on June 27, 1999 at 6:30 PM

Likewise, the father shall have temporary physical custody of the children commencing on the second Sunday of August at 6:30 PM and continuing until two Sundays after that date at 6:30 PM. Again to be claer for 1999 the father would take custody of the children on August 15, 1999 at 6:30 PM and return them on Augsut 29, 1999 at 6:30 PM

For both of those excahnges, the mother shall bring the children to the father's residence on the appropriate Friday and the fahter shall return the children to the mother's residence on teh appropriate Sudnay.

B Mother's vacation: Except for the periods of time we have designated in the subparagraph avove which shall be the father's two extended time periods with the children during the summer, the mother may designate to the father no later than May 30 of the year in which he wishes to take the same, a period of vacation in June, July or Augsut for a period of two jconsecutive weeks during which time so long as the Plaitniff and the children are, in fact on vacation at a location at least 100 miles from Spartansaburg, the husband will not be entitled to a period of weekend temporary physical custody if he normally would have been entitled to the same. Likewise during the designated two week period the fathe shall not be entitled to his normal telephone calling privileges as hereinafter set forth, but will be entitled to call the children to speak to them once during each of those two weeks with the mother to supply the telephone number for him to do so also no later than May 30 of the year in which the vacation will be taken.

C. Father's Vacation: The father may designate by May 30th of the year in which hewishes to take a vacation one of the time periods we have set forth above fro June or Augsut as a vacation period and provided he does take the children to a location at least 100 miles from his home, the mother shall not be entitled to the normal telephone privileges but will be entitled to call the children once during each of those two vacation weeks with the father to supply the telephone numbers of where they will be no later than May 30th of the year in which the vacation will be taken.

D. Weekends alternate: Once the weekends begin alternating on December 18, 1998 they shall continue to alternate despite any other vacation, holiday or summer temkporary physical custody language of this Order which shall always supersede the normal weekends. For example while the weekend beginning january 1, 1999 would be the father's normal weekend in the rotation and that weekend may well be from time to time affected by the Christmas vacation designation in this Order, the fahter's next weekend in the alternation would be that beginning on January 15, 1999 despite what effect Christmas holiday designation may have on what normally would have been his weekend.

However, if at any time due to the vacation, holiday or summer temporary physical custody language of this Order the father misses a period of weekend temporary physical custody which would normally be his in the alternating rotation he shall receive temporary physical custody which would normally be his in the alternating rotation, he shall receiv temporary physical custody for consecutive weekends.

Additionally, when the mother has her two weeks of vacation in the summer with the children, the first weekend after the vacation has been completed will be a weekend of temporary physical custody for the father from Friday at 6:30PM until Sunday at 6:30 PM even if ti would not be his normal weekend and again even if it results in him having the children for consecutive weekends based on the normal rotation.

3. Memorial Day weekend: Whether or not it is the fahter's normal weekend based on the alternating provisions of this Order, he shall have temporary physical custody of the children form the Friday before Memorail Day at 6:30 PM until Memorial Day evening at 6:30 PM. It being the Court's intention that if it is his nomral weekend for temkporary physical custody and if it is not his normal weekend, he would still have his weekend privious to and following Memorial Day so tht in fact he may end up with as many as three consecutive weekends in a row.

F.Labor Day Weekend: The father shall have temporary physical custody of the children beginning on the Friday before Labor Day at 6:30 pm and continuing until Sudnay at noon. This in intended to accommodate the fahter's family reunion on the Saturday before labor day and to allow the mother to have the children in her custody for the Spartansburg Fair. The children shall remain in the custody of the moher for the week after LABOR Day including the following weekend even if that would normally be the fahter's weekend under the alternating provisions of this Order.

However, if the alternating schedule would work out such that teh weekend after Labor Day normally would have been th father's under the alternating provisions of this Order, he shall have temporary physical custody of the childeren the weekend following the weekend which follows Labor Day from Friday at 6:30 PM until Sunday at 6:30 PM even if that results in him having the children fro consecutive weekends under the alternating provisions of this Order. The purpose of this provision is to be sure that there is not a situation where because of the way in which the weekends fall, the fahter would not see the children for a period of almost kthre weeks.

G. Christmas: The Christmas holiday shall be divided into two segments with the first segment commencing at 6:30 PM on the last day of school for the children prior to Christmas vacation and ending at 3 PM on Christmas day and the second segment beginning at 3 PM on Christmas day and ending on January 1st at 3 PM. For 1998 the mother shall have the first segemnt and the father shall have the second segment and thereafter, the segments shall be alternated. If as wouldhappen for the transititon between 1998 and 1999 the fahter's period of temporary physical custody for Christmas ending on January 1 at 3 pm would result in mother having the children for less than 24 consecutive hours before father would again have the childre (fro instance, this year father's Christmas vacation would be done at 3 pm on January 1st and his weekend of temporary physical custody would begin at 6:30 PM) the father shall keep the children in his custody until 6:30 PM on the Sunday following New Year's day or 6:30 PM on New Year's Day if it is a Sunday.

H. Thanksgiving: The Thanksgiving holiday shall be defined as beginning on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving holiday shall be de defined as beginning on the Wednesday before Thanksgivingat ¢:30 PM and continuing until the following Sunday at 6:30 PM. For 1999 and each odd numbered year thereafter the mother shall havae the Thjanksgiving holiday and for the year 2000 and each even numbered year thereafter, teh father shall have Thanksgiving holiday. In the event father would, through the alternating provisions of this Order, have the weekend following Thanksgiving Day as his normal weekend this will just result in a time extension of that weekend, but if because of the Thanksgiving holiday going to mother, father will lose what will normally be his weekend after Thanksgiving due to the alternating provisions of this Order, he shall have temporary physical custody of the children on the weekend following the weekend after Thanksgiving from Friday at 6:30PM until Sunday at 6:30 PM even if that results in him having consecutive weekends.

I. Easter: The Easter holiday shall be defined as beginning at 6:30 PM on Friday before Easter Sunday and concluding at 6:30 PM on Easter Sunday. For 1999 and each odd numbered year thereafter the fahter shall have the Easter Holiday. The mohter shall have the Easter holiday during even numbered years. If as a result of mother having the Easter weekend father loses what would normally be his weekend due to the alternating provisions of this Order, father sahll be entitled to the nexte weekend after Easter from Friday at 6:30 PM until Sunday at 6:30 PM even if that results in him having the children for consecutive weekends.

J. Mohter's Day and Fahter's Day: If the Children happen not to be in father's custody on Father's Day, if he gives mother written notice delivered to her at the time of the last custody exchange prior to Fahter's Day, he maytravel to Spartansburg and take the children into his temporary physical custody from noon on Father's Day until 6:30 PM on Father's Day.

If the children happen not to be in mother's custody on the weekend of mOther's Day upon mother giving father a written notice at the last custody exchangebefore Mother's Day, rather than delivering the children to mother at 6:30 PM on Mother's Day father shall deliver the children to her at noon on Mother's Day.

5. While the provisions of this Paragraph regarding summers, holidays and other vacations shall take precedence over the normal alternating weekends, they shall do so in a manner consistent with the specific provisions we have included in this Order. Likewise it is the Court's intention that for each custody exchange, the mother bring the children to father and the father return the children to mother.

6. Telephone Contact: Except when the children are on vacation with father or mother wherein the parent not on vacation shall have the right to call teh children once each vacation week at the number provided by the other parent prior to May 30th during normal periods of time with the ohter parent, the parent not in custody of the children shall havae the right to call teh children Tuesday evening at 7 PM and Thursday evening at 7 PM and the other parent shall make every effort to have the children available for those phone calls and in no way interrupt those phone calls.

All telephone calls regardless of when they are allowed under this Order shall be for a period not to exceed 15 minutes. If a child is not available to take a phone call when the other parent makes it (which should be an exception and not the norm) the parent shall make sure the children call the parent who has missed the designeated phone call because of the unavailability of the children within 24 hours of the time when the children were supposed to have been available.

7. Should it be necessary for eitehr party to cancel or modify a period of temporary physical custody as set out in this Order or as previously arranged independently by the parties, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as the canceling party knows of the necessity which compels the cancellaiton or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good cause. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

8. Any person transporting the children shall make sure that the seatbelts or other restraints are used in accordance with Pennsyhlvania Law.

9. Each party sahll teach the children to give to the other party that love and respect whic is due a parent from that parent's child.

10. No parties shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when that party has the care and custody of the subject minor chidlren. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit other parties to do so ina colosed automobile in which the children are being transported or in the bedroom of the children.

11. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other party in the children's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in the childrens' presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the childrens' estiamtion.

12. The parties are free to make additional alternative arrantements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient We note that these parties do not seem to ever agree on what has happened when describing an incident so that may be difficult because of the mistrust they have for one another. In the absence of any arrangements made by mutual consent this Order shall govenr.

13. Special Provisions. A. There will, from time to time, be occasions when eitehr party will ask the other to make temporary modifications of this Order in order to accommodate special or unusual situations. The parties should make every effort to work with each other on those occasions The failure of either party to act reasonably in working with the other party will consitiute grounds for the filing of a contempt petition. If teh court finds in a contmept hearing that a paty has acted unreasonably that party may be subject to various sanctions and penalties including but not limited to the payment of the other party's attorney's fees, fines and possible incarceration.

B. The parties shall without any hesitation provide to the other party the name, address and telephone number of any persons or organizations such as babysitters or preschools having temporary physical custody of the children while the custodial parent is at that party's place of employment or otherwise unable to be with the children.

14. Each party sahll immediately inform of the other of all occasions when they secure medical treatment for any of the children. It is intended that the party securing medical treatment will take affirmative steps to notify the other of the fact that such treatment was secured The parent shall also notify the other of the results from the examination of the child and the treatment which was recommended by the medical care provider.

15. While this Order has much detail, the Corut will presume that each party has read it carefully and understands each provision and any provision which is unclear will be discussed with counsel.

16. The provisions of this Order shall supersede all previous Orders.

d. Summer visitation. The father shall have the right to take his son, Cody, into his partial care and custody for the following periods of time: June 10 through to and including June 17 and August 1 through to and including August 7.

f. The provisions of this order relating to custody.

5) Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6) The parties shall share responsibility for transportation with the party receiving the child in the exercise of his or her rights picking up the child at the home of the other. Any person transporting the child shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania.

7) Each part shall teach said child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

8) Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor child. The parties are cautioned that medical research has indicated that tobacco smoke is injurious to the health of growing children. Therefore, neither party shall smoke tobacco or permit others to do so in a closed automobile in which the child is being transported or in the bedroom of the child.

9) Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the child's estimation. Each party shall treat the other in a polite and respectful manner when in a child's presence and each party shall instruct his or her relatives and friends to do likewise and also not to disparage the other party in the child's estimation.

10) The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

11) Either party may request a review of this order upon any material change in circumstances.

12) Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $300.00 ($60.00/hr. x 5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid as follows:

a. The father has already paid the deposit for the appointment of the child custody mediator. The entirety of said sum shall be applied to the costs and fees of this mediation.

b. The remaining $159.00 of the costs and fees of this mediation are to be paid by Crawford County for the reason that the mother is recovering from injuries she sustained in an automobile accident and has not been able to resume full-time employment.

13) Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.
