Order: And Now, November 10, 1970, a memorial service in memory of John H. Bozic, Sr. is hereby set for the family, members of the Bar and friends in Courtroom No. 1, Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania, on December 4, 1970, at 1:30 o'clock P.M.

William F. Gorman, Chairman, Fred C. Gilbert, Jr. and Robert L. Walker are hereby designated as a Memorial Committee to prepare an appropriate resolution on behalf of the Crawford County Bar Association.

Per Curiam:

C. Richard Thomas, P.J.

J. Joseph Thomas, J.

December 7, 1970 Report of Committee filed. To the Honorable Judges of Said Court: Your committee, appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a Memorial on the death of the late John H. Bozic, Sr., respectfully submits the following:

John H. Bozic, Sr. was born at Braddock, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, on February 3, 1901, the son of Charles and Frances Scholamon Bozic. He was graduated from Jeannette High School in the class of 1919, from Allegheny College in the class of 1923, and from the University of Pittsburgh Law School in the class of 1926.

Mr. Bozic began the practice of his profession in Miami, Florida, and was active in that area from 1926 to 1929, at which time he joined the legal department of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company. He remained with this Company working out of their Pittsburgh and New York offices until the fall of 1932, when he decided to move to Meadville and open a law office in this community. He was admitted to practice before the Crawford County Bar on November 7, 1932, and opened his office for the general practice of law on November 11, 1932. Mr. Bozic took and passed the Bar examinations for the States of New York, Florida and Pennsylvania, and was admitted to practice before the Appellate Court of these states. He was also a member of the Crawford County and American Bar Associations. He enjoyed an extensive and rewarding law practice for almost forty-five years, thirty-eight of which were spent in Crawford County. In 1956, he formed the partnership of Bozic and Bozic with his son, John H. Bozic, Jr., as partner, and at the time of his death, he was the senior member of the Law Firm of Bozic, Bozic, Thomas and Truax with offices at 908 Diamond Park.

Mr. Bozic's activities were broad and varied. He was the Attorney for the incorporation of the Y.M.C.A. in 1937, and served as a director of this organization for many years. This was probably his pet project, but he was also very interested and active in the Community Chest, United Fund, and American Cancer Society, and could always be relied upon to take part as a leader or worker

July 6, 1971, Testimony and Report of Master filed.

August 6, 1971, upon praecipe of plaintiff's attorney the above case is submitted to the Court.

Sept. 3, 1971 Memorandum Opinion filed. The parties to this divorce action were married July 11, 1970 and separated November 29, 1970. Under our prior rulings we would normally require this case to be argued before the Court en banc because of the short period of time during which the parties lived together. However, we are granting the divorce because of the advanced ages of the parties. The plaintiff is seventy-one (71) years of age and the defendant is seventy-eight (78) years of age. Therefore, it is to be expected that the conduct of the defendant would have a greater impact upon the plaintiff than it might on a younger person. A separate Decree will be entered in accordance with this opinion.
By the Court, J. Joseph Thomas, Judge.

J. Joseph Thomas, J.

January 15, 1971, Report of Committee and Order filed. Report: To the Honorable Judges of said Court: Your Committee, appointed for the purpose of preparing and presenting a memorial on the death of the late E. Lowry Humes, Esq., respectfully submits the following:

E. Lowry Humes was born at Meadville, Pennsylvania, on July 25, 1878, a son of Homer J. and Delia Lowry Humes. He attended Allegheny College and read law in the office of his father, who was long an attorney in Crawford County. He was admitted to the Bar of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on December 10, 1900, and at the time of his death was its oldest member.

In 1904 he married Mary P. Eisele, there was one daughter born of the marriage, Jane Humes Kort, he is also survived by a granddaughter, Mary Carol Kort. Mrs. Humes pre-deceased her husband, having died on June 18, 1958.

In 1912 Mr. Humes was elected to the State Legislature, where he served as Democratic floor leader in the Lower House during the session of 1913. He devoted much effort in the Assembly to the enactment of the Statewide Primary Election Law which gave Rank and file Pennsylvanians a voice in the selection of candidates for public office.

He practiced law in Crawford County until 1913 when he went to Pittsburgh to serve as United States Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania. In that capacity he prosecuted organized liquor interests of the State for violations of the Federal Corrupt Practices Act.

Mr. Humes was a member of the Pennsylvania National Guard from 1911 until 1917 and served on the Mexican Border with the National Guard in 1916. When the United States entered the First World War, Mr. Humes resigned as United States Attorney and entered the United States Military Service and was commissioned a Major in the Judge Advocate division of the Army. Following his induction, he was assigned by the Secretary of War to the judiciary committee of the United States Senate to take charge of an investigation of German propoganda and Bolshevism. In that capacity, Mr. Humes prosecuted offenders in various cities of the United States.

After the war and his discharge from the Military Service, Major Humes was re-appointed United States Attorney and served until the Spring of 1920 when he was appointed Special Assistant to the

Alfred A. Gill,
Sheriff of Crawford County, Pa.

May 11, 1971 Order filed. And Now, March the 8th, 1971 the Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus is dismissed for the following reasons: 1. The Court originally granted the Petition based on the basis of the averments, it was felt that there was a pressing necessity for permitting the petitioner to have the benefit of the writ to establish that a crime had been committed and that he had committed the same at least prima facie. The Court overlooked the fact that the factual averments upon which a hearing were granted on the Petition were not supported by oath of the petitioner, but rather, by oath of the attorney, who would have no way of knowing the truth or falsity of the factual averments. 2. Both at Common Law and the Pennsylvania Statute, the Act of 1785, require averments under oath or affirmation, which, to the mind of the Court, means oath or affirmation of a person who has knowledge of the facts and is able to swear to their truth or falsity. We wish to make it clear that we are not here ruling so far as the Commonwealth is concerned that reasons may exist why this Petition may not be heard at this time because of the Commonwealth's allegations of delay on the part of the defendant, and we are not here ruling so far as the defendant is concerned that he might not present evidence to substantiate his position in the event that the Commonwealth is able at the hearing in this case to show that a prima facie case exists. We are also not ruling that in this proceeding that if facts are alleged by the Commonwealth and supported by evidence or by the record that the action of the defendant made the presentation of evidence at least at this time impossible to obtain or inconvenient to obtain that the matter may not be referred to the term next for the non-jury trial. We make no determination of those issues at this time.

By Order of the Court,

Mar. 12, 1971 Order Filed. And Now, March the 12, 1971, the Motion of the Commonwealth to continue the case for the reasons set forth in full on record is granted for the following reasons: 1. A large part of the reason why the defendant has not yet been tried in this case is due to his own fault in that he indicated on at least two (2) occasions that he wished to plead guilty: and in fact, did enter a plea of guilty before Judge J. Richard Thomas, which he was permitted to withdraw. By reason of these actions, the Commonwealth represents to the Court that it discontinued its efforts to prepare the trial for the regular February Sessions of Criminal Court. 2. The District Attorney represents, and defendant's counsel does not deny that while the hearing was originally set for March 1st, a trial before the Judge without a jury is scheduled for March 29th. Bond has been set in the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars, and the defendant has not alleged any reason or prejudice which would result from his confinement between the present time and March 29th. 3. That the absence of the investigating officer and the alleged victims appear to the Court to be bona fide and not intended to delay the trial of the defendant's cause. 4. No further continuances will be granted beyond the March 29th, 1971 date and the District Attorney has stated in Open Court that he will not request such continuance and will consent to a release of the defendant if the Commonwealth is not prepared to proceed at that time. The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

In the Matter of a Memorial Service for E. Lowry Hemes

Attorney General of the United States and assigned to the problem of breaking up the outlawed railroad strike which was hampering railroad transportation in the country and eliminate the profiteering in the prices of coal.

Major Hemes retired from public office in 1921 and opened an office in Pittsburgh for the general practice of law and at one time former Judge Thomas J. Prather was associated with him there. Gerald Prather at one time was also associated with him in that office.

Major Hemes was always interested in agricultural affairs, especially in the dairy industry and he served as counsel for the Dairymens' Cooperative Sales Association for over twenty-five years and was instrumental in writing the Milk Control Law of 1933. He was particularly interested in the County Extension Branch of Penn State College and in 1947 was elected a Trustee of that College.

In 1942 Mr. Hemes returned to Crawford County and entered into a partnership with Fred C. Kiebort, Sr. and Fred C. Kiebort, Jr. which partnership continued until April 1, 1966, when Mr. Hemes retired from active practice and resided at his home on the East Side of Conneaut Lake until his death.

In his early practice in Meadville, he was attorney and secretary of the Meadville School District and served in that capacity for ten years. He was a member of the Iroquois Club, the Crawford County Historical Society, the American Legion, the Elks Club of Meadville, of which he, at the time of his death, was the oldest living Past Exalted Ruler, and he was also a Director of the Northwest Pennsylvania Bank and Trust Company.

Mr. Hemes was a thorough, careful and painstaking lawyer, with an earnest and conscientious desire to see that justice was done in all instances. He had great respect for the law and jurisprudence in general. He was primarily responsible for forming a Citizens' Committee to build the present Crawford County Court House and spent many hours working on this project and this fine building stands as a memorial to his labor and services in that capacity.

He was a life long Democrat and was very proud of the fact and liked to be referred to as a Jeffersonian Democrat. He was very patriotic and was particularly insistent on having the American Flag and the Flag of the Commonwealth displayed at any public functions and in the Court Room. Mr. Hemes also served on the Alien Enemy Registration Board in World War II.

Mr. Hemes was always considerate of other people and sympathetic with them when they were beset by trouble. He aided many people without any fanfare or publicity.

He will long be remembered by this Bar Association and the County as a whole. His name will be perpetuated in the annals of Crawford County as a great man, a fine lawyer, a loving husband and father, a public spirited citizen and one of the outstanding fegures of all time in our community.

We wish, as an Association, to express our sorrow at the passing of E. Lowry Humes, and to extend our sympathy to His surviving family. We ask that this report be spread at length upon the records of this Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.

April 23, 1971, Order Filed. And Now, April 22, 1971, after further hearing and the Court having ascertained that the said Frank Rappa had resumed his drinking due to a family stress situation, the Court refuses to commit the said Frank Rappa to the Warren State Hospital and releases him from custody of the Sheriff of the Crawford County Jail subject to the following terms and conditions: 1. He continue close association with A.A. 2. Continue counseling at the Alcoholic Clinic at Spencer Hospital and keep all appointments scheduled in this regard. 3. He shall not consume alcoholic beverages of any kind. 4. He shall continue his efforts to secure gainful employment.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 7, 1971, Order for Commitment filed. This matter originally came before the Court on March 9, 1971, upon a petition signed by a member of the family requesting the defendant be committed as a person addicted to alcohol. The petition contained the certificates of two physicians, recommending commitment to Warren State Hospital because of alcoholism. After extensive hearing the Court refused commitment but continued the case until March 25, 1971 on the condition the defendant continue close association with AA and continue attending counseling sessions at the Alcoholic Clinic at Spencer Hospital. The hearing scheduled for March 25, 1971 was continued generally, subject to the condition that the defendant continue his rehabilitative efforts. On or about April 21, 1971, the defendant resorted to his alcoholic habits and created a disturbance requiring his incarceration in the Crawford County Jail to await a hearing. On April 22, 1971, after further hearing, the Court refused to commit the defendant to the Warren State Hospital but released him from confinement on the condition he continue his association with AA and counseling with the Alcoholic Clinic and refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages. On or about May 5, 1971 the defendant again resorted to his alcoholic habits and entered a state of depression which required his hospitalization at Spencer Hospital for his own safety. Defendant has requested the Alcoholic Clinic at Spencer Hospital to commit him to the Warren State Hospital. Accordingly the Court enters this Order for Commitment. And now, this 6th day of May, 1971, upon consideration of the physicians' statements and after several hearings and at the request of the defendant, the Court finds Frank Rappa to be mentally ill because of excessive use of alcohol and directs that the said Frank Rappa be committed to the Warren State Hospital for inpatient care pursuant to the provisions of Section 406 of the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Act. The staff at the hospital may accord such leave, ground and visiting privileges as they desire without further order of this Court.

In addition thereto, the grandmother shall have the right to take the child into her custody one weekend each month, which, unless the parties agree otherwise, shall be the fourth weekend of each month beginning after school on Friday until Sunday evening not later than 7:00 o'clock P.M.

3. Both of the parties shall attempt to turn the child against the other, and each of the parties shall conduct themselves in such a manner that the education, health, morals and welfare of the child shall not be adversely affected.

4. We will not enter an order specifically referring to other holidays at this time and would hope that the parties would agree upon having the custody of the child over the holiday periods, but in the event that they do not agree, the Court will on motion of either counsel, specifically fix holiday visitations. Each party shall pay his or her own costs.

in the drives which these organizations annually hold. He was a past director of the Meadville Kiwanis Club and a member of many social clubs and organizations, among them the Meadville Taylor Hose and Meadville Country Club. Mr. Bozic was on the Board of Trustees of the Stone United Methodist Church and was on the Official Board and Secretary of the Stone Church Foundation. He was a past Master of Meadville Masonic Lodge 405 and a member of the Masonic Consistory at Erie and the Zem Zem Shrine Temple.

In addition to his interest in civic activities in the community he was very interested in politics in general, and especially in the affairs of the Republican Party, to which he belonged. He also took an active part in the activities of the Crawford County Bar Association and rarely missed one of our meetings. He served as Vice President of our organization in 1962, and as President in 1963, and was always available to help in promoting the activities of our Association.

He served for many years as Clerk of the Jury Commissioners, and was for many years a director and solicitor for the Home Building and Loan Association of Meadville, which recently merged with the Marquette Building and Loan Association of Erie, Pennsylvania.

On the twenty-ninth day of September, 1925, Mr. Bozic was married to the former Gertrude Ruth Curry, by whom he had one son, John H. Bozic, Jr. In addition to his widow and son, he is survived by five grandchildren.

He liked sports in general and especially enjoyed being on the Meadville Country Club golf links with his friends or just hitting golf balls on the field adjoining the club. His activities in these areas had been curtailed by doctor's orders in the past year due to his illness, but he was always looking forward to the time when he could enjoy his golf even if on a limited basis.

Mr. Bozic will always be remembered by his family and friends as a devoted husband and father, as a citizen who gave freely of his time and talents for the betterment of the community, and he will be remembered by the members of the Crawford County Bar as an able and dedicated practitioner, and the Committee wishes to express its sorrow and to extend its sincere sympathy to his widow and son.

We respectfully request that this report be filed with the records of the court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family, and to the press.
