Dec. 3, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 2, 1997, the matter is before the Court on a Request for Alimony Pendente Lite, Costs and Expenses. The parties will file as part of the records in this case an inventory and income and expense statement by each party within 20 days of this date. The Court awards alimony pendente lite in the amount of $150 per monty, commencing with the month of Dec 1997, with said sum to be paid on or before the 15th of each and every month, with a time limitation of 6 months on that payment, without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to petition for continuation if the divorce is not finally granted or the matter amicably settled within the 6-month period.

The plaintiff is awarded counsel fees to assist in the prosecution of this divorce action in the amount of $500, with $250 in conusel fees to be paid by Dec 15,1 997 and the balance to be paid on or before Jan 2, 1998.

The husband agrees he will provide a copy of appraisals done on the real estate at his own expense, with said appraisal giving an estimation of fair market value and fair rental value, with said appraisal to be furnished within 30 days of this date.

This Court believes this divorce action should be resolved reasonably promptly in view of the short period of cohabitation time and directed that the parties will file within 20 days income and expense statements and inventories of assets as part of the records in this case.

The parties mutually advise the Court that they will amicably resolve how the requisite $250 for the appointment of a Master will be paid between the parties.

June 12, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, June 11, 1998, this matter is before the Court on a Petition for Contempt by wife, Plaintiff alleging that counsel fees awarded in this Court's Dec. 2, 1997 Order were not paid not paid to the extent that she admits $250 was paid on Dec. 15, 1997 but the second $250 due by the Court's Order on Jan 2, 1998 was not received until late in the month of May. The defense is that the Defendant , husband, contends that he mailed a Providan check 10 days late for the $250 on or about Jan 2, 1998. Apparently, if we accept the husband's contention this check was lost in the mail because it was never received by the Plaintiff, wife, and the Providan checking system does not provide the husband with a copy of checks mailed or the original check.
Both parties now agree the aforesaid $250 has been paid. The next issue is the required appraisal fo the real estate was never received by counsel or Plaintiff, wife, until this date. Our Court Order provided an appraisal of the real estate and estimation of fair rental value accompanying said appraisal to be furnished by Jan 2,1998. The Defendant produces a bank appraisal from Northwest Savings Bank dated dec. 11, 1997 but no copy thereof was received by the wife or her counsel. Further this appraisal by the bank has no estimations of fair rental value of the fair rental value of the property in question.

Accordingly, this Court finds the Defendant did not comply with the appraisal protion of our Dec. 2, 1997 Order and hereby directs that at the husband's expense, he provided a reliable realtor to furnish a written estimation of fair rental value of the real estate here at issue with said to be done within 20 days and a copy delivered to counsel for the Plaintiff, wife. At the time of the filing of the Petition, apparently, it was contended that the alimony payments for March, April, and May had not been paid but the Court is now advised these delinquencies have been made up and the alimony order is current. The Defendant is cautioned he must continue to keep this alimony payment current.
The original Alimony Pendente Lite Order was to run for a period of 6 months and we hereby extend the same for an addotopma; 3 months beyond the original 6 months permitted.
We decline at this time to hold the defendant in willful and deliberate contempt but we do believe that his dilatory tactics and his failure to supply an appraised rental value of the property required us to accord counsel fees in this case.
Accordingly, we hereby direct that the Defendant pay an additional $150 to counsel for the Plaintiff within 10 days of this date.

Mar 10, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, March 4, 1997, this matter comes before the court on a petition for disapproval of private tax claim sale and for hearing filed by the petitioner with regard to a proposed private sale of tax claim land.

The petitioner appears with counsel and the proposed purchaser appears without counsel. Additionally, the Tax Claim Director and the County Solicitor appear, and we find that initially, the proposed sale for $250 is not an adequate selling price and we disapprove the sale.

We set a minimum bid price of $4222.50, and the Tax Claim Bureau Director is directed to conduct an auction in the Courtroom and does so.

The results of that auction are that the property is purchased by Charles J.J. Prall, Jr., for the sum of $1300, and upon payment of that amount to the Tax Claim Bureau, a deed shall be issued to Charles J. Prall, Jr., and Alberta A. Prall, his wife.

The Tax CClaim Bureau Director shall refund the sum of $250 to James H. Anders forthwith.

Aug. 29, 1997 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for a review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because nothing has been corrected with regard to our July 2, 1997, Order which indicated that there was no written indication of record that both parties agreed to the incorporation of a marital settlement agreement into the decree.
That agreement either needs to be incorporated resolving the outstanding issues or else certain counts of the divorce action need to be withdrawn. Specifically, there is an unresolved count regarding equitable distribution and regarding child support. The outstanding request for spousal support would be resolved and in the way spousal support has been pled, we take it not to mean a request for permanent alimony.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

Mar 19, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, this 18th day of March, 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1) Legal custody of the subject child, Angelena Rose Sheckler, born on May 9, 1992 shall be exclusively with the mother/

2) The father's visitation privileges with this child shall be in accordance with the provisions appearing in this Court's Protection from Abuse Order filed at A.D. 1996-911, dated Dec 2, 1996, as those provisions require that the father not communicate, in any way, with the mother and that he must advise the paternal grandmother or sister, Aunt Kate, of the times when he would like to visit with the child. These intermodiaries, in turn, shall communicate with the mother in an effort to arrive at a period of time when the father will be permitted to visit with his daughter.

3) The Court notes that the father was held in contempt of the Dec 2, 1996 Protection from Abuse Order and was sentenced on March 11, 1997 to undergo a prison term of 45 days. For that reason, the father was not able to attend the mediation conference which was previously scheduled and was held on March 13, 1997.

4) In view of the above, either party may secure further mediation by communicating directly with the Child Custody Mediator, John f. Spataro, Esq., 283 Walnut St., Meadville, PA 16335 (814) 336-2191 and advising him of an interest in scheduling a second mediation conference upon the father's release from the Crawford County Jail.

5) All of the conditions and provisions appearing in the previously entered Protection from Abuse Orders shall apply.

6) The costs and fees of this mediation which are set at $210.00 ($60.00/hr. x 3.5 hrs.) and the $9.00 Court Order filing fee are to be paid by Crawford County, for the reason that the mother is an unemployed homemaker and the father is an incarcerated disability recipient.

&) Either party may move the Court for a hearing ee novo within ten (10) days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be cosnidred permanent. Gordon r. Miller, P.J.

Anthony J. Vardaro, J.
July 8, 1998 Faxed J. Johnston (Quinn) & Hutzelman (Erie)

Aug. 7, 1998 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 4, 1998, this matter is before the Court allegedly on an appeal by Bonnie L. Ball from a decision of District Justice Zilhaver finding and entering judgment in favor of Debra Bolger. This Court notes that Bonnie L. Ball has had several counsel representing her in this protracted appeal proceeding, but at the time set for hearing on the Motion to Strike a Judgment, neither Bonnie L. Ball nor counsel representing her appear on her behalf.

The thrust of the defendant's position this date is that the attempted appeal by Bonnie L. Ball was defective in that there was no notice to defend filed as part of the appeal in accordance with Rule of Civil Procedure 1037(b).

Appearing this date on the Motion to Strike Judgment filed by the defendant Deborah Bolger is counsel Jennifer L. Johnston.

This Court reviews with Atty. Johnston the procedural history of this case and in view of the fact that neither plaintiff nor counsel for the plaintiff appeared, we grant the Motion to Strike Judgment filed by defendant's counsel.

ACCORDINGLY, the default judgment previously entered in favor of the plaintiff in the amount of $10,550 is stricken.

The Court notes for the enlightenment of the parties and counsel that there seem to be two judgments entered in favor of the plaintiff in this case, one in an unspecified amount and the other in the aforesaid amount of $10,550. It is this Court's intention in granting the Motion to Strike to strike both judgments.

Apr. 8, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 8, 1997, the sole issue before the Court is a Petition for Exclusive Right of the wife in this divorce action to return to the marital residence with the two children. The Court hears input from both sides as to the advantages and disadvantages to each party if this request is granted. After listening to input from both sides and their counsel, this Court believes, under the present circumstances, that the marital home should be occupied by the wife who has custody of the two minor children, age 6 and 2.

ACCORDINGLY, effective at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 20, 1997, the defendant is ordered to vacate the premises and permit the wife and two children to reoccupy the same. The wife at her discretion may change the utility bills to a listing in her independent name and be responsible for the paying of the utility bills.

The parties mutually agree that either on the 20th of April or at such other time as the husband requests, he may remove from the premises a double bed, bedroom television set and another single bed.

Upon occupancy of the marital home, the wife will be expected to make the monthly payments thereson.

The Court directs that of the next mortgage payment in the amount of $256, the defendant husband shall be responsible for $190 of the same and will make said payment to the wife and she will be responsible for paying the next mortgage payment in the amount of $256.

The Court at this time realized that the defendant husband may need household supplies such as linens, towels, a few cooking utensils, silverware, et cetera, and encourage the parties to try to allocate available household wares between the parties between the parties to accommodate the husband's change of residence without putting him to the expense of buying basic necessities to set up a new living arrangement.

of RECORD

December 15, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, December 1, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on two issues. First of all, the Defendant has field a petition requesting the Court to hold the Plaintiff in contempt for failure to comply with our July 15, 1997 order regarding alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, and costs. The Plaintiff has filed a motion to terminate alimony pendente lite.

The Plaintiff initially complied with our order of July 15, 1997, by paying alimony pendente, lite, although after the first month, he did not make a payment for the September, October, or November of 1997 alimony pendente lite which was due. This day, he has presneted a check to he Defendant for the total amount due which would bring him to date for alimony pendente lite.

He also paid the counsel fees that were required but he did not pay $250 toward the cost of a real estate appraisal. Apparently he had some confusion with regard to whether that payment was due because in the meantime, the house in question was refinanced in the name of the Plaintiff only and he had an appraisal done at that time for the purposes of refinancing. Nonetheless, since the parties have not agreed to a value of the real estate, he is required to make the $250 payment contemplated by our July 15, 1997 order.

The Plaintiff argues that alimony pendente lite should be terminated because the Defendant has done nothing to move this case forward and has not responded to settlement offers proposed by the Plaintiff. However, the record reflects and the Plaintiff admits through counsel he has not filed an inventory nor has he filed an income and expense statement so that this matter may be moved forward to a Master's Hearing. Clearly the Plaintiff does not wish to have a Master's Hearing but wants to settle this matter, and that is certainly appropriate if the parties can do so.

Under all the circumstances, we find that for his failure to make the timely alimony pendente lite payments, the Plaintiff is in contempt of our order of July 15, 1997. We will not impose a sanction at this time with regard to incarceration, but will give the Plaintiff an opportunity to purge himself of contempt. He may do so as follows:

1. He shall hereafter make the required alimony pendente lite payments in a timely manner no later than the last day of the month in which they are due. If he fails to do so , he shall pay a penalty of $25 for each and every day for which a payment is late.

2. He shall pay the $250 contemplated by our July 15, 1997, order with regard to the real estate appraisal to the Defendant within 15 days from the date of this order.

3. He shall pay the sum of $200 to Defendant's counsel for the requirement necessity of having this hearing with the same to be paid no later than January 15, 1998.

4. If the Plaintiff files his income and expense statement and his inventory, and petitions for a Master, alimony pendente lite shall terminate, unless there is further order of Court, 120 days after a Master is appointed in this matter.

5. This order is without prejudice to the Defendant to seek an extension of alimony pendente lite if the facts are appropriate and is also not with prejudice to the plaintiff to come forward to terminate alimony pendente lite earlier if a Master's hearing is held prior to that date or if this matter is somehow resolved prior to that date.

Mar. 24, 1997 Motion to Dismiss Complaint in Action to Enjoin Further Administration of Decendent's (Sean Hayes) Estate filed.

Mar 26, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, March 24, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Motion by the Plaintiff to Dismiss the Action which was in the nature of an Action to Enjoin Further Administration of a Decedent's Estate.

Essentially, hearing was set in this matter with regard to continuing a preliminary injunction issued, and that issue has now become moot due to the fact that the plaintiff has found an executed will signed by the decedent, and through other proceedings, we have allowed that to be probated.

It appears appropriate to allow this action to be dismissed, but the only remaining issue before we can do that is that the plaintiff posted a $500 cash bond and the defendant is present in Motion Court and indicates she may have some expenses to claim against that bond.

ACCORDINGLY, we will defer action on dismissing these proceedings until April 8, 1997 at 1:30 p.m., at which time, we willhold a hearing in this Courtroom at the Crawford County Courthouse for the purpose fo determining what, if any, amount of the $500 bond shall be forfeited in this action.

The parties should come prepared to address that issue only at the hearing on April 8, 1997. Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

FOR THE COURT:
Ann A. Walker, Court Administrator

Sept. 25, 1997 Order FAXED Attys. Altomare and Irwin.

Oct 6, 1997 Certificate of Srvice: I do hereby certify that on the 2nd day of October,1997 a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's First Set of Interrogatories to Defendant in the above-captioned case was sent by first class mail, postage prepaid to teh following: James R. Irwin, Esquire, Shafer, Swick, Bailey, Irwin, Stack & Millin, 360 Chestnut Street, Meadville, PA 16335.

November 13, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, November 6, 1997, this matter comes before the Court for a scheduled hearing in the nature of a denovo hearing with regard to child support. Specifically, after a conference in front of the Hearing Officer on September 11, 1997, an Order was entered by President Judge Gordon R. Miller on September 25,1997. At the time set for this hearing, the parties agree that the Court shall hear alimony pendente lite claim as well as counsel fees and costs claim at the divorce number.

After testimony has been completed, the parties have reached a resolution of this matter, and accordingly, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED AS follows:

1. For the months of January, February and March, 1997, Brian Tray will pay the sum of $3000 through the Domestic Relations Section, with $1254.70 to be allocated to child support and $1745.30 to be allocated to alimony pendente lite.

2. Commencing in April 1997, and continuing monthly thereafter, through April 30, 1998, Brian Tray will pay the sum of $4000.00 each month, with $1254.70 allocated to child support and $2745.30 allocated to alimony pendente lite.

3. The parties agree that the arrearages which have accumulated from January 1997 through November 1997 will be deferred for collection by Carol Tray until after April 30, 1998. Those arrearages, however, will be established at this time by the Domestic Relations Section, with the appropriate credit given to Brian Tray as hereinafter indicated and there will be no dispute as to the amount of those arrearages at any future hearing.

4. Commencing in December of 1997, Brian Tray will actually begin paying a $4000 a month payment and continue for each month thereafter through April 30, 1998 as aforesaid. That payment will also be allocated as we have indicated with regard to the child support and alimony pendente lite.

5. The parties acknowledge that Brian Tray has made certain payments toward child support and alimony pendente lite commencing in January of 1997, and continuing through October of 1997, which amount totals $13,973.99, and he shall be given credit toward arrearages with regard to that amount. Additionally, he indicates that he has made a November 1997 payment of $1400, which shall be credited toward arrearages once that is received at the Domestic Relations Section.

6. Brian Tray shall pay to James Irwin, Esquire, Counsel for Carol Tray, within 60 days from this date, the sum of $3000, which shall be attributed to counsel fees and expert fees in the divorce litigation. That payment is without prejudice to the Master to make any appropriate determination at the time of a Master's Hearing and ultimately to the Court to make such determination with regard to what may be appropriate fees and costs with regard to the litigation.

7. The parties acknowledge that Brian Tray's father has paid the sum of $5000. to Carol Tray, which is in the nature of a loan. In the event at some time in the future Brian Tray pays all or part of that amount, he shall be given credit upon appropriate receipt acknowledging that repayment against the arrears in the child support and alimony pendente lite matters.

8. The Court in entering this Order acknowledges that the current gross montyly income for brian Tray is $16,666.66 and the current gross monthly income for Carol Tray is $2042. per month. The Court further acknowledges that the parties have agreed to entry of this Order in the manner in which it is entered so that the tax consequences are allocated appropriately to the satisfaction of both parties.

9. In any respect in which this order is not inconsistent with the Order entered as a result of the conference of September 11, 1997, that Order shall remain in full force and effect

June 21, 1999 Order Filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the Court for review and decree. The court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because.

A proper return of proof of service has not been filed.

Economic and other issues or counts have been raised in the pleadings or by petition which are not being disposed of by stipulation, withdrawal or hearing. To grant a divorce decree without a resolution of those other issues would be tantamount to an improper bifurcation.

There is no evidence in the file that either party has taken the seminar for Separating Parents.

Eitehr party may file a praecipe to refer the matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree.

June 6, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 3, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Defendant's motion to dismiss the custody complaint in which it is alleged that jurisdiction in this matter has been properly undertaken by the State of Oklahoma.

As required by the Act, we have spoken with Judge Doug Haught of the District Court for the Country of Beckham in the State of Oklahoma and he is of the opinion that Oklahoma has subject matter jurisdiction and personal jurisdiction over the Defendant in this case, specifically because the Plaintiff did not raise the issue of jurisdiction within a time period allowable after he was served with the Oklahoma proceedings.

The action in Oklahoma was filed in February of 1997 and the initial order for custody was entered on March 12, 1997. The action in Pennsylvania was not filed until March 11, 1997.

Under all of these circumstances and after discussion with Judge Haught, we are of the opinion that jurisdiction is proper in Oklahoma and accordingly, the Defendant's motion to to dismiss this proceeding is granted with prejudice.

PROTECTION FROM ABUSE CASE

Mar 17, 1997 Complaint For Indirect Criminal Contempt For Violaltion Of Protection From Abuse Order and Order to Appear: Legal proceedings have been brought against you alleging that you have wilfully disobeyed an Order of Court under the Protection From Abuse Act.

If you wish to defend against the claim set forth in the followsing pages you may but are not required to file in writing with the Court your defenses or objections.

Whether or not you file in writing with the Court your defenses or objections you must appear in person in Court on the 24th day of March, 1997 at 11:30 a.m. in Courtroom No. 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

IF YOU DO NOT APPEAR IN PERSON THE COURT MAY ISSUE A WARRANT FOR YOUR ARREST. Lincoln S. Zilhaver, D.J.

March 26, 1997 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 24, 1997, this matter comes before the on a Complaint for Indirect Criminal Complaint for Violation of a Protection From Abuse Order which is brought by the defendant against the plaintiff.

The Order which the defendant seeks to enforce was entered in Lawrence Co. and within the provisions of that Order, the following language appears: "Petitioner agrees not to contact respondent unless necessary with respect to the implementation of the respondent's partial custody of the subject child."

We do not know whether that is intended to be an Order or just an agreement, but in any event, we do not believe the Protection From Abuse Act allows for there to be contempt proceedings brough against the plaintiff in such an action since these Orders are intended only to provide for certain conduct of the defendant.

ACCORDINGLY, we will not make a factual determination in this matter, but will dismiss this proceeding with the County to pay costs.

We note that there are outstanding costs of $64.50 which were incurred because this Lawrence Co. proceeding was filed in Lawrence Co. in order to allow for this indirect criminal contempt proceeding to be filed, and insofar as the defendant advises that he was told to do this by Lawrence Co. officials, we will require the Co. to pay costs in this proceeding.

Patrick J. Thomassey, Esq. counsel for the defendants had filed a motion to withdraw his appearance on April 5, 1999, which said motion has not yet been acted upon by the Court Mr. Thomassey alleges that he was essentially "fired" by his clients and that Kathy Mollica picked up the file from Mr. Thomassey's office approximately two weeks ago.

Furthermore, Mr. Thomassey filed an affidavit wherein he states under oath that Kathy Mollica was advised of the pretrial conference on April 7, 1999 at 9 am and that trial is scheduled for April 12, 1999. He also avers that Kathy Mollica's last known address is 307 Jefferson St, Verona, PA 15147.

This Court will not tolerate the defendants' nonappearance or failure to cooperate in this action. It is a burden on the Court and disruptive to the Court's processing of cases for them to do so.

2. This case shall be tried in Courtroom No. 1 of the Crawford county Courthouse on Monday, April 12, 1999 at 9 am The defendants shall appear in person or by counsel.
3. In the event that there is no appearance by the defendants and a lack of satisfactory excuse for failure to appear and be prepared we will grant the plaintiff's motion.

✓June 9, 1997 Order regarding disposition of Preliminary objections of all defendant's without oral argument filed. AND NOW, June 6, 1997, the court notes that three groups of defendants in the above case have filed preliminary objections, but that a praecipe for argument has been filed by only one of the groups of defendants. Since all three sets of preliminary objections are similar in nature, the Court would prefer to dispose of them all at one time, regardless of the procedural details. We also note that because the plaintiff is pro se and is incarcerated in a facility located some distance from Crawford County, we will dispense with oral argument in this case, at least as to these preliminary objections. We therefor enter the following order regarding disposition of all three sets of preliminary objections filed as of this date:

1) Any defendant (or group of defendants) who has not yet filed a brief in support of his/their preliminary objections shall do so on or before June 30, 1997. Any defendant or group of defendants wishing to supplement a brief previously filed shall do so on or before June 30, 1997.

2) The plaintiff shall file any responsive brief in opposition to all preliminary objections of all defendants on or before August 4, 1997.

3) Thereafter, the Court will rule on all preliminary objections which have been raised as of this date by any defendant or group of defendants without hearing oral argument from any party.

BY THE COURT,
Date: 3/19/97 Gordon R. Miller, J

Mar. 31, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, March 21, 1997, the plaintiff/petitioner appears in Motion Court with a Petition For Special Relief in this custody action. The defendant appears with counsel and essentially it appears that the minor child who is 5 years old has been primarily in the custody of the plaintiff and within th elast several months the defendant/father has established a visitation or temporary physical custody pattern with the child.

On or about March 13, 1997, the defendant took the child into his custody with the permission of the plaintiff, but he has refused to return the child alleging neglect and substantial drug use on the part of the plantiff/mother.

The plaintiff/mother through counsel denies drug abuse and maintains that she has adequately taken care of the child.

Under these circumstances, we cannot address factually the issues that have been raised and those must be properly litigated: We cannot condone the father's action however of removing the child and disrupting the status quo without coming to the Court.

ACCORDINGLY, it is Ordered and directed that the parties return to the status quo of prior to March 13, 1997, insofar as the defendant will promptly return the child to the care and custody of the plaintiff. Thereafter, commencing on the weekend of March 28, 1997, the defendant, until further Order of Court, shall have temporary physical custody of the child from Friday at 5:00 P.M., until Sunday at 5:00 P.M., every other weekend. With regard to the weekend of March 28, 1997, however, insofar as it is Easter, the period of temporary phyiscal custody with the father will end on that weekend only on Sunday at noon.

Pending further Order of Court, the defendant will provide all transportation for these periods of temporary physical custody.

It is further Ordered and Directed that no party shall remove the child form the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pending further Order of Court.

It is further Ordered that no party shall use illegal controlled substances while in the presence of the child, nor shallhave they used any such substances within 8 hours of the time the child arrives in that party's custody. Additionally, no party shall, at any time, use prescribed substances beyond the normal amount of the prescription and shal lnot be doing so based on duplicate prescriptions, it being the Court's intention that certainly a aprty may use prescription drugs but not to an amount that would be excessive over the intended use of those prescribing such prescriptions.

Finally, this day, each party shall through their counsel, supply to the other party's counsel an exact address where they are living and an exact location phyiscally where such residence is and a list of anyone living in that residence with the party. It appears that one or both parties have some concerns about that information being disseminated and it will not be disseminated by counsel for the other party to at least known the location of each respective party.

This Order is not intended to in any way influence the decision of the mediator in this matter nor ultimately the decision of the Court, once this matter has been fully litigated.

Apr. 8, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 4, 1997, after a full formal hearing, the Court finds as a fact that the Defendant has engaged in conduct that violates the Protection from Abuse Act and does put the Plaintiff in reasonable fear or harm. Accordingly, we order as follows:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. The Defendant shall not go to the Plaintiff's residence. He shall not contact her in any way. The Defendant shall be permitted to go, during daylight hours, to the address at 1048 Market Street for the sole purpose of picking up mail that is delivered there for him. He shall pick up that mail and leave. He shall not look for the Plaintiff and he shall have no dealings with the Plaintiff.

In view of the fact that the Defendant has a very limited income, he shall only be required to pay 1/2 of the court costs, which amounts to $59.25. He shall make that payment to the Prothonotary's Office on the first floor of the Crawford County courthouse no later than 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 25, 1997. If he fails to make payment, he will subject himself to further contempt proceedings.

Crawford County shall pay the other half of the costs.

May 15, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 9, 1997, after a full and formal hearing, the Court is not satisfied that the Plaintiff has carried her burden of proof in this case. In the vent of an appeal, we will write a more detailed memorandum under the rules of appellate procedure.

We find that the Defendant did abuse the Plaintiff in 1994 when he broke her nose but that is remote. The events that allegedly occurred in March of 1997 were not testified to in detail and the same can be said for the alleged incidents of October 1996 and March or April of 1996. The testimony concerning the paddling of the Plaintiff's son was incomplete. There was no way to tell whether that paddling was appropriate or had reached the level of abuse.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

Aug. 13, 1997 Order filed. This divorce matter has been referred to the court for review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:

Apr 25, 1997 ORDER, AND NOW, April 18, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for relief under the Protection from Abuse Act.

The Plaintiff appears with counsel, and the Defendant does not appear. We note that he resides in Nashville, TN and Plaintiff's counsel indicates that it appears that he did receive notice of this hearing, but that may have been just within the last couple of days, and she does not have a return receipt evidencing the fact that he did receive the mailing.

Based on that, we will continue this matter until May 5, 1997, at 3:30 P.M. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

In the event that Plaintiff's counsel receives back a return receipt signed, by the Defendant, indicating that he received service of the original petition and hearing date, he may be served with notice of the continued hearig date by regular mail first class, postage prepaid.

If that return receipt is not in the hands of Plaintiff's counsel on or before April 22, 1997, the Defendant shall be served once again with certified mail, return receipt requested, this time including the original petition and original hearing notice, and notice to defend, and also including a copy of this order.

Apr. 11, 1997 Notice of Hearing For Seizure of Property and Order filed. AND NOW, this 9th day of April, 1997, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJDUGED and DECREED that a hearing on plaintiff's Motion for Issuance of Writ of Seizure be nd hereby is scheduled for the 24th day of April, 1997, at 9:30 o'clock A.M., before the Honorable Gordon R. Miller, Courtroom No. 1, Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Crwaford County Court House, 903 Diamond Park, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335.
FOR THE COURT,
Ann A. Walker

Apr. 16, 1997 Appearance of Ferguson & Spataro by Douglas W. Ferguson for Defendants filed.

Apr. 23, 1997 Preliminary Objections filed.

Apr. 24, 1997 Motion To Continue Hearing Filed.

Apr. 25, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, April 24, 1997 the Court sets forth the following background and order:
This is an equity action seeking an injunction against an employee by an employer, and a replevin action.
The Court set a hearing in both actions for this date. There has been no temporary restraining order entered. Counsel for the Plaintiffs wrote the Court a letter acking for a contininuance because his clients were in bankruptcy. It appears that they had been in bankruptcy since November of 1996, but for some reason he did not realize that until after he failed this lawsuit. Writing letters to judges is not appropriate. The Plaintiffs should have filed mtoions or petitions.
One of the problems the Court faces, and most likely counsel face, is the advent of telephones fax machines, and out-of-county practives. This Court's normal style, when it receives a letter, is to write back, returning the letter, indicating that writing letters to judges is not appropriate and no action would be taken on the letter. We didn't have the timeto do that in this case, and so someone from our staff called Plaintiffs' counsel and told him that he had to file a motionin order to get a continuance. He filed that motion, but he did not comply with local motions rules by either getting opposing counsel's consent and filing it as an uncontested motion, or giving two days' notice and filing it as a contested motion. Those were errors.
The Court compounded the error by granting the mtoion to continue without consulting with defense counsel to find out his position. When we signed the continuance order on April 23, we knew that opposing counsel did not have the 48 hours advance notice the local rules require. We assumed that the Bankruptcy Court had jurisdiction, and that we do not have jurisdiction. We also assumed that that should be resolved inthe Bankruptcy Court, and that a continuance made a great deal of sense. On the other hand, we did not consult with the Defendants' counsel to see his position. He appears this date at the hearing with subponeaed witnesses and his clients, expecting a hearing, because the local rules regarding continuances had not been followed,
Next, the Defendant filed preliminary objections late onApril 23. Normally we would set those preliminary objections for argument, and the next argument court would be the end ofMay. However, since this hearing was scheduled for today, we would have had to address thoese preliminary objections at the outset of the hearing. We must decide jurisdiction at the outset; therefore, the preliminary objections, then, of course, we may have continued everything. The Court assmes Plaintiff's counsel would be prepared to argue those preliminary objections since the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court was the basis upon which Plaintiffs filed their motion to continue.
The final complication is that counsel for the Plaintiffs might not be representing the Plaintiffs in this matter, claiming that here may be a conflict of interest, and that he will determine this date whether or not he will be representing the Plaintiff, or whether they will be obtaining new counsel. Therefor, we cannot expect current Plaintiff's counsel to proceed if there is a conflict of interest.
We recognize that all of this is harmful to the Defendants, who are here today, prepared to go forward. Nonetheless, it is ordered as follows:
1. The preliminary objections filed yesterday shall be argued at the May argument Term on Tuesday, May 27, 1997, in Courtroom No. 1, at a time to be determined by the Court Administrator when she completes the schedule and gives ntoice to counsel.
2. The Motion to continue shall remain in effect, even thought it was entered by the Court without proper notice to Defense counsel. It may have been granted even after notice to counsel, nonetheless.
3. Counsel for the Plaintiffs shall make a determination within the next two business days whether or not they will continue to represent the Planitiffs, and if not, the Plaintiffs shall obtain new counsel. We will hold the argument onMay 27, without fail, unless there is a continuance granted by the Court on proper notice to opposing counsel or a continuance granted by theCourt with the consent of all counsel. The Plaintiffs cannot appear at the argument on May 27 claiming that they are not prepared or are still looking for new counsel. They have a month to do that.
4. Counsel for the Defendant, as moving party, shall file his brief in support of his preliminary objections at least 15 day prior to the argument, and the Plantiffs or their counsel shall file their responding brief at least 5 days prior to the argument.
5. The Defendants made an oralmotion, on April 24, seeking counsel fees, costs ad expenses as a result of this lawsuit and as a result of the continuance. The Defendants are ordered and directed to file an appropriate petition setting forth the facts and a prayer for relief. Argument on that petition shall be heard on May 27, at the time set forth above. The briefing schedule with respect to that petitionshall follow the order set forth above. The Defendant shall file that petition within 7 days from this date, and serve a true and correct copy on counsel for the Plaintiffs; that is, counsel of record.

Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Dec. 23, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 22, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for indirect criminal contempt with regard to a PFA Order. The Plaintiff appears without counsel but the Defendant does not appear. It appears from the record that he may not have been served, but nonetheless, the Plaintiff indicates she does not wish to go forward with this any longer.

Essentially, she indicates that the incident that was related in her petition happened when the Defendant had too much to drink, and she wishes to withdraw her petition with the understanding that his counsel will advise him that she just wishes for him to not bother her when he is intoxicated and if he does so, again in the future, she will have to file a new petition.

June 13, 1997 Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt for Violation of Protection from Abuse Order and Notice and Order to Appear filed. Legal Proceedings have been brought against you alleging that you have wilfully disobeyed an Order of Court under the Protection from Abuse Act.

If you wish to defend against the claim set forth in the following pages you may but are not required to file in writing with the Court your defenses or objections.

Whether or not you file in writing with the Court your defenses or objections you must appear in person in Court on the 19 day of June, 1997 at 3:45 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT
Lincoln Zilhaver, D.J.

June 30, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 17, 1997, this contempt matter is before the Court on a petition by Randy Lee Speck alleging that the Defendant, wife, is violating the April 22, 1997 Order by calling him, contacting him, and photographing him on a construction job where he was assisting in putting a new porch on at a residence.

The Court explores the matter informally with the parties and there is no doubt there is extreme bitterness between the parties in this case. Apparently, the jointly own a marital residence which the Plaintiff, husband, seemingly occupies but which the wife would like to occupy because she is contending that the husband lives elsewhere. We have advised the parties to resolve this issue by a petition in the divorce action not by further proceedings in the abuse order.

It appears the bitterness between the parties is such that they cannot even speak civilly. Accordingly, the Court stresses that Cynthia D. Speck shall not contact the Plaintiff in any fashion by telephone, in writing, or going to any residence where he may be temporarily visiting of living.

She is represented by consel in the divorce action and any contact regarding marital property and divorce issues should be handled with the assistance of her attorney. The Court notes that the Defendant, husband, apparently is not represented in the divorce action. Under all of the facts in this case, the Court declines to hold Cynthia D. Speck in contempt on the allegation that she contacted her husband by telephone and drove past his place of work and took pictures. This Court cautions Cynthia Speck that if there are further alleged violations of the original Order this Court will deal harshly with her because it is clear that it is in the party's best interest not to be in contact with each other and resolve the divorce action by negotiation through attorneys or in hearings in the divorce action. Any costs accruing on this supplemental hearing are directed to be paid by the County but Cynthia Speck is directed that she has until July 22, 1997 to pay court costs in the amount of $97.50 on the original petition and the Order filed April 22, 1997.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J.

Apr 29, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, April 17, 1997, this matter comes before the Court for a hearing on the Plaintiff's request for Relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. The Plaintiff appears with counsel and the Defendant does not appear and the Court is advised that after he was served with an Emergency Protection from Abuse Order that he left the area and apparently doe snot have a permanent address but drifts around from place to place outside of the Crawford County Area. It is alleged that it will be unlikely that he will be able to be served in any time in the near future.

In light of this and though the record indicates the Defendnat has not been served, we will continue the temporary order entered by Judge Miller on April 15, 1997 in effect modifying it only to include that the Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff or nay minor child named in the petition.

This Order shall not be in effect beyond April 16, 1998 and in the event the Plaintiff learns of the whereabouts of the Defendant, she shall arrange for service of the petition and this Order upon the Defendant and notify the Court Administrator's Office so that a hearing may be scheduled to give the Defendant an opportunity to be heard.

We will make no disposition with regard to costs at this time but in the event the Defendant is not found by April 16, 1998 at that time, the County will pay costs without further Order of Court.

Sept. 24, 1997 Praecipe to Transmit Record for Review by Plaintiff Attorney filed.

Oct. 2, 1997 Memorandum filed. This file had now returned to the Court for the entry of a final divorce decree. We will not enter a final decree because the service rules have not been complied with. This is the second time this file has been returned. We are not pleased with the time that it has taken to review this matter and to write two memorandums to counsel when the rules on service are so clear.

This divorce action was filed on April 18, 1997 so the Domestic Relations Service Rules (Pa.R.C.P. 1930.4) which were adopted May 5, 1997 and effective July 1, 1997 are most likely not applicable.

Returning to the applicable rules in the 400 series of Civil Rules

Personal service cannot be made by a party (Pa.R.C.P. 400(b)) and the person making service shall file a return of service (Pa.R.C.P. 405).

These rules have not been complied with this case.

The file is, once again, returned to the Prothonotary.

The file is, once again, returned to the Prothontary. The matter may be referred back to the Court once the terms of this memorandum have been followed and complied with.

June 13, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 11, 1997, this matter is before the Court in a variety of circumstances involving the divorce action and the dismissal of the wife from employment in the jointly owned moving business. The Court lacks the time to go into a full and complete hearing on the complexities of the plaintiff wife leaving the business and the allegation of the husband that the business is fast deteriorating.

Apparently, by prior agreement, each of the shareholders was receiving from the corporation the sum of $1200 per week.

It is alleged by the husband that because of the conduct of the wife and the wife leaving employment and other unrelated factors, the business is fast declining. It is further postulated with the wife's accounting training, she is readily employable and not in need of support or alimony pendente lite. It is the position of the wife that she was forced out of the company and that it is impossible for her to return to employment there because of the conflict with her husband.

This Court sets further hearing on all of the issues in this complex factual situation for August 19, 1997, commencing at 9 o'clock a.m.

In the meantime, commencing with the week of June 15, 1997, the defendant husband and the corporation are directed to pay the unemployed wife a salary of $550 per week, which payment shall continue, subject to further adjustment after the hearing now scheduled for August 19, 1997. It is the intention of this Court will not entertain a separate hearing on the alimony pendente lite issue pending the further hearing.

The parties are mutually concerned about a proposed sale at public auction of certain assets of the corporation involving largely articles unclaimed by owners or articles repossessed by the corporation because storage bills were not paid. The husband agrees that no marital assets which are the property of the husband and wife will be sold at said sale. Husband agrees that the net proceeds from the auction will become a corporate asset and not his personal property.

The parties mutually agree that the aforesaid payment will be mailed to the wife on the regular company payday occurring on Monday of each week.

The Order dated June 11,1997 shall continue in full force and effect until November 19, 1997 at which time a review hearing will be scheduled in regard to same. It is specifically agreed by and between the parties that Husband shall pay the sum of $827.55 per month for child support for the parties two (2) minor children with arrearages set as established in the Conference Summary and Recommendations of Auigust 12, 1997 and payable in the amount of $50 per month. The parties agree that provided Wife is receiving a salary of $550 per week from the jointly owned corporation, Wife shall waive without prejudice her rights to either Alimony Pendente Lite or spousal support.

Additionally, Wife agrees to provide to the Defendant a list of the steps that she has taken to obtain employment including but not limited to the names, dates and positions for which Wife has made application.

April 8, 1998 WAIVER OF NOTICE OF INTENTION TO REQUEST ENTRY OF A DIVORCE DECREE UNDER §3301 (C) OF THE DIVORCE CODE OF PLTF. FILED.

April 16, 1998 INCOME AND EXPENSE STATEMENT OF HELGA M. MERVINE FILED.

APRIL 15, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, March 19, 1998 this combined divorce and domestic relations dispute at the above numbers, is before the Court with counsel and both parties present. The parties and their counsel have different versions of the present status of the case, established by the Court Order of Oct. 28, 1997 filed at the above two numbers.
One of the issues seems to be how long the wife, Plaintiff in the divorce action, will be continued as an employee of the company without seeking alimony pendente lite and without performing services for the company. Also at issue is entitlement of Charles Mervine to a support credit of $2483. for a period of time from April 23, 1997 through July 14, 1997.
After extensive discussion with the Court and Between counsel and their clients, the matter in both actions is amicably resolved as follows:
1. The Domestic Relations Section is directed to credit child support arrears in the amount of $2483.00 effective this date.
2. Counsel for Charles Mervine shall file a Motion for the appointment of a Master in the divorce case no later than May 1, 1998.
3. Subject to serious unforeseen and unpredictable circumstances, the parties mutually agree that the employment of Helga Mervine, as an employee of Meadville Moving and Storage will continue at the rate of $550.00 per week until the divorce action is granted, but not later than Oct. 15, 1998 unless extended by agreement of counsel for good cause or by Order of Court after hearing. Continued payment of the $550.00 per week is subject to the conditions of Paragraph 7.
4. In the divorce action, both paraties will file Income and Expense Sttements, Inventory and Consents within 30 days of this date.
5. Child support in the amount of $827.55 per month shall continue to be paid by Charles Mervine through the Domestic Relations Section, plus arrears in the amount of $50.00 per month and 60 percent of uninsured medical and dental expenses of the children.
6. Charles Mervine occupies the marital residence and is the prime operator of the Meadville Moving and Storage Company. He agrees that representatives or attorneys for Helga Mervine will be given access to the marital home for the purpose of valuing the contents and establishing a fair market value of the marital home. Additionally, representatives of the wife will have reasonable access to the corporate records of the coproration for the purpose of establishing such matters as inventory, business expenses and gross and net profits.
The aforesaid inspection of the business will permit representatives of Helga Mervine to make an inventory of tangible and intangible assets, inspect the books of the business, and have access to such records as would enable them to establish reasonable expected income and gross assets and valuation of the business.
7. Helga mervine agrees she will kepp her husband fully advised of all attempts to secure employment and the expected earnirgs she would receive from said employment and provide written documentation of same to husband on a monthly basis.
Additionally, in the event Helga Mervine secures full or part-time employment the matter of the continuance of the payment of $550.00 per week employee salary at Meadville Moving & Storage may be reviewed on petition for modification.
8. The parties mutually agree that if there is a dramatic change in the gross or net income of meadville Moving & Storage, Inc. that this Order does not preclude a petition for modification of the child support obligation because of increased or decreased earnings from the business
9. This Court and counsel agree that the terms and conditions of this Order are not binding on the master in the divorce action when recommmending division of marital assets and award of alimony.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to

May 1, 1997 SHERIFF'S RETURN: SERVED Sean M. Pride personally on April 30, 1997 AM by handing him a copy of the Protection from Abuse at his residence, 448 Walnut Street, Apt. #3, Meadville, Crawford County, PA.

So answers,

Dale A. Collins, Chief Deputy
Scott D. Young, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

May 16, 1997: AND NOW, May 6, 1997, this abuse case is before the Court for a hearing and the Plaintiff/petitioner fails to show. The facts are explored and apparently the Plaintiff resides at 10608 South Watson Run Road, Meadville, PA and the Defendant shares an apartment with Chad Boyer at 448 Walnut Street, Meadville, PA Apartment 3. The Court listens to the Defendant's version and cannot find that a protection from abuse order should be entered in this case. Apparently due to a confrontation between the parties in this case, the Vernon township Police have filed a harassment charge against the Defendant. Apparently bail is set by District Justice Amy L. Nichols acting for District Justice Michael Rossi with bail in the amount of $378.50.

The Defendant has been in the Navy since January of 1996 but he has apparently been discharged at his request. THe Defendant contends he's no longer in the military service and does not have to report back to his base in California. He contends he hhas what is known as as an entry level separation from the Navy and apparently the Navy is not expecting him back.

Due to the failure of the Plaintiff to appear, the abuse petition is dismissed. The Plaintiff is directed to pay costs when the Prothonotary forwards her a bill at the aforesaid address.

In regard to the harassment charge, this Court reduces bond to nominal bond, signed by the Defendant, with the condition that he not contact Lisa J. Roydes for any reason.

The District Justice shall notify the Defendant of the date for the hearing on the harassment charge. The Defendant is ordered and directed released forthwith.

The Defendant will appear at the office of the District Justice Rossi on Tuesday, May 13, before 12:00 noon to sign nominal bond.

Aug 13, 1997 Stipulation and Consent, filed.

Aug 13, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, August 12, 1997, the Court has reviewed the Stipulation and Consent of the paraties with respect to custody in this Protection from Abuse action. We will not sign the consent custody order.

This is a Protection from Abuse action. In connection with the protectiion from abuse order the Court can award temporary custody or establish temporary visitation rights with regard to minor children. 23 Pa.C.S.A. 6108(a)(4).

The Protection from Abuse action was never intended to be a substitute for a custody action. The Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and the Crawford County Civil Rules set forth special provisions with respect to custody actions. Those provisions would be circumvented by permitting permanent custody orders to be entered in PFA actions.

may use any of these long guns for the purpose of hunting legitimate game but they must be picked up from the custody at Mr. Rust's residence for use and the Defendant may use said firearms foar the purpose of legitimate huntign for game so long as he is accompanied by Mr. Rust. Upon completion of the hunting, the firearm used will be re-lodged with Mr. Rust.

Under no circumstances will the Defendant with a firearm in his possession or in a vehicle in which he is traveling and go within 200 yards of the former marital residence including the 10 cres of surrounding property.

The ancillary issue to be addressed is the request of the Defendant to cut firewood from the entirety's property and to use a tractor in a shed near the marital home to do the same. The Court grants this request noting that he must stay at least 100 feet from the marital residence except for picking up and returning a small tractor used to haul the firewood and on the further condition that he must give his wife 25 hour's notice of the time he will arrive and the approximate time he will leave from cutting firewood which will be delivered or use d by his parents. The Defendant agrees that he will not go on the premises to cut firewood oftener than twice every 7 days. P. Richard Thomas

Aug. 1, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 25, 1997, this abuse matter is before the court involving mother and a 29 year old mentally retarded son. It appears and is admitted that Timothy A. Pusbach is mentally retarded and is receiving Social Security Benefits in the amount of $700 per month which check is handled by his mother.

The abuse in this case comes before the Court because of an abuse petition filed by the mother and a violation of that order when the Defendant, son, in an intoxicated condition came to the mother's residence and created a disturbance.

The mother appears in court and pleads for assistance in caring for this alcoholic retarded son who is unable to control his drinking and becomes uncontrollable while under the influence.

Apparently, the Defendant, Timothy, has had been alcohol problems before, is uncontrollable, and presents a threat or problem to the community at large and his mother in particular in his frequent bouts with alcoholism.

This Court believes that with the low intelligence of the Defendant further incidents are likely to occur particularly when he apparently losses all self control on consuming alcoholic beverages.

The Defendant attended ninth grade still functioning at a first grade level and is in dire need of alcoholic rehabilitation and supervised living arrangements other than his mother. His mother appears in court and advises she is "at the end of her patience" and she cannot physically or emotionally control or tolerate her son's alcoholic behavior.

For violation of the permanent abuse order, the Defendant is sentenced to undergo additional confinement in the Crawford County Jail for a period of 30 days from this date.

This case is referred immediately to the Crawford County Drug & Alcohol for emergency intervention and a recommendation within 10 days of this date of Drug & Alcohol. Upon receipt of said recommendation this Court will give consideration to altering the 30 day sentence and entering an additional order requiring rehabilitative services as Drug & Alcohol recommend.

Apr 29, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, April 17, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Petition for Relief under the Protection from Abuse Act. She appears with counsel and the Defendant does not appear. He was served on March 11, 1997 by teh Sheriff and there have been two subsequesnt continuances in this case. Those were due to the fact the Plaintiff was ill. Counsel for the Plaintiff indicates that after the last continuance on March 27, 1997 she acquired the most recent address for the Defendant and sent him notice of a continued hearing date by regular first class mail postage prepaid.

It appears that eh would know that this hearing was taking place and the Plaintiff indicates that she has heard nothing from the Defendant nor has he tried to bother her in any way.

Under all of these circumstances, we will enter an Order in his absence without making a determination of whether he committed the acts set forth in the Petition. Accordingly, we enter the followign Order:

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten the Plaintiff.

2. Pending any further Order of Court, the Plaintiff shall have sole possession of 726 Sidler Alley in Meadville and the Defendnat may not go to that residence nor within 100 yards of that residence.

5. The Defendant's Social Security Number is 211-54-3551 and his date of birth is March 3, 1961.

8. The Defendant shall pay court costs in this proceeding in the amount of $93.50 within 15 days of the date of this Order.

May 9, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 6, 1997, the Defendant's petition to dismiss this action for lace of jurisdiction is granted. In the event of an appeal, the Court will write a more detailed memorandum.

We find as a fact that the child lived in Kansas from March of 1996 through September of 1996. The Defendant moved to Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, on October 6, 1996, temporarily, to assist her mother, who was going through a divorce. While the Defendant was here in Crawford County, her husband was seeking employment back in Kansas, with the intent to return to Kansas. The Defendant's personal belongings were left in Kansas in storage. This is a further indication that the relocation to Crawford County, Pennsylvania, was temporary.

The Defendant's husband obtained employment in Fort Riley, Kansas and returned to their former home in Junction City, Kansas around March 4, 1997. The Defendant returned to live with her husband around April 8, 1997.

It appears that the child lived in Kansas for a year and a half, up until October of 1996. She lived in Meadville from October 6, 1996, through April 8, 1997, which was barely over six months. She returned to Kansas on April 8, 1996, where she now resides.

Physical presence alone in Pennsylvania does not confer jurisdiction on a Court of this Commonwealth [23 Pa.C.S.A. 5344 (b)]. It is true that physical presence is desirable, but not a prerequisite to jurisdiction. We find as a fact, and conclude as a matter of law that the home state of this child is not Pennsylvania, but is Kansas.

The Plaintiff is advised that he has a right to take an appeal to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania within 30 days from this determination. If he fails to do so, this matter shall become final.

June 9, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW,June 4, 1997, after a formal hearing on the father's contempt petition, we are not satisvied that the mother willfully violated the Court Order. While it is strange it appears that the mother was not involved at all in the transportation or the placing of the child that night. She claims she was having a migraine headache. There is no evidence to show she was not. The maternal grandfather, who picked up the child and usually does pick up the child, testified under oath that the father agareed to an overnight visitation at the grandfather's house. That may seem strange because ther was a fresh Court Order preventing that, however, we believe the maternal grandfather especially because the father testified that he does not recall any conversation with the grandfather.

Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The contempt petition is dismissed.

2. Judge Vardaro's Order of May 2, 1997 and all applicable current Court Orders shall remain in full force and effect with one change from this moment on. There shall be no overnight visitations at the maternal grandmother's home. This Court will not accept any verbal statement that the father agreed to an overnight visitation at the maternal grandmother's home. If the mother wants to claim that the father agreed to an overnight visitation at the maternal grandmother's home contrary to this Court Order, that agreement of the father must be in writing signed by him with one witness to that signature and the witness shall not be any member of the mother's family.

May 2, 1997 CUSTODY ORDER: AND NOW, April 25, 1997, this custody and visitation case is before the Court with both parties represented by counsel. Without taking formal testimony and with the cooperation of the parties, the matter has been amicably resolved as follows regarding the custody of minor child Ashley, now aged ten months.

The child is currently in the custody of the mother and will be surrendered to the father at 5:00 p.m. April 25th for return to the father's residence in Glendale, New YOrk. The mother, in compliance with the present Order, will pick up the child to return to her home on the 30th of April, 1997 at 12:00 noon.

Commencing with the month of May and monthly thereafter, except for the month of December each year, the father shall be entitled to custody of the child from the second Saturday of each month at 12:00 noon to the fourth Saturday of each month at 12:00 noon. This arrangement shall continue for the year 1997, 1998 and 1999.

In the month of December, 1997, the father shall have the child from the second Saturday of the month to the fourth Saturday of the month.

In December, 1998, the Plaintiff/Father shall have the child from 12:00 noon December 12th to 12:00 noon Decembr 23rd.

In calendar year 1999, the father shall have the child from the 11th of December at 12:00 noon until the 28th of December at 12:00 noon.

The Court makes no extension of this Order into the year 2000 and beyond and assumes that the parties will continue visitations on the aforesaid schedule and if disagreement arises and it cannot be resolved by the parties, either party may petition the Court for reconsideration of this consetn Order.

The parties mutually agree that the parents required to deliver and pick up the child may substitute another responsible party to do so.

The parties mutually agree that the following paragraphs contained in the Order of Judge Gordon Miller dated March 3, 1997 are incorporated into this Order by reference,namely Paragraphs 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

The Court determines the effect of this Order is to vest in the mother physical custody of the child but reserving extensive visits to the father.
