July 15, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, July 11, 1983, the Court having been presented with evidence that the defendants received notice of the hearing by service of the Sheriff's Department of Crawford County on July 7, 1983, at 3:50 P.M., at the time of the hearing, the defendants failed to appear. ACCORDINGLY, counsel for the plaintiff asks the Court for an Order and notes that Paragraphs 13 and 14 of the Complaint have not been denied and asserts that unless physical possession and the right to move the mobile home to a location of the plaintiff's choice is granted, it will be impossible for the plaintiffs to protect their interests. ACCORDINGLY, the defendants are given until Thursday, July 14, 1983, at 5:00 p.m. to move their personal effects from the mobile home here at issue and after said date, the plaintiff is authorized to take physical possession of the mobile home and remove it from its location to any storage area of their choice and take such further action as they deem appropriate to protect their interest and recover a judgment for the unpaid sums due and owing the plaintiff.

Any agent of the plaintiff presenting to the owners of the real estate a copy of this order shall have sufficient authority to trespass upon the real estate

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, COUNSEL FEES, COSTS, EXPENSES & EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION

1 copy (atty)

July 12, 1983 Motion to set hearing on Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Expenses and Order filed AND NOW, July 12, 1983, hearing set for August 8, 1983 at 1:30 P.M., in Courtroom 1 or 2. P. Richard Thomas July 12, 1983 Copies of order to Ann Hansen Gamble and Joseph H. Phillips.

July 21, 1983 Affidavit of Mailing Complaint Under Pa. R.C.P. No. 1124(b) filed: ANN HANSEN GAMBLE, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is an Attorney at Law, duly authorized to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and that on July 15, 1983, she sent a copy of the Complaint in Divorce to the Defendant by certified mail, restricted delivery, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to Joseph H. Phillips, R.D.1, Box 252, Centerville, Pennsylvania 16404, the Defendant's last known address. The said receipt being attached hereto.
Ann Hansen Gamble,

Aug. 3, 1983 Petition For Relief and Order filed. AND NOW, this 3rd day of August, 1983 upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a hearing thereon is scheduled for August 8, 1983, at 1:30 P.M., in Court Room 1 or 2 Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT,
1983 Robert L. Walker,
Aug. 3 Copies of order to Bruce M. Johnson and Ann Hansen Gamble.

Aug. 8, 1983 Defendant's Income and Expense Statement filed.

Aug. 9, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 8, 1983, after informal hearing, argument and brief testimony, the Court concludes the Defendant's income is sufficient to require the payment of alimony pendente lite during the pendency of the divorce action, and accordingly, commencing with the month of August, 1983, the Defendant will pay the sum of $300.00 per month on or before the 15th and 30th of each and every month in two installments of $150.00 each, with the first payment commencing with the month of August, 1983.

In view of the fact the Court believes this divorce should progress rapidly through the courts, alimony is limited for a period of August, September and October, and may not be extendedbeyond Nov. 1,1983 without further Order of Court.

As far as counsel fees is concerned, the Court awards the sum of $500.00 without prejudice to the right of the Master or the Court to increase such counsel fees as the matter progresses, with said sum to be paid on or before the 20th of each month as follows: $150.00 in the month of August, $150.00 in the month of September, and $200.00 in the month of October.

Re: Petition for Relief:

At the same time as the above matter is heard, the Court considers the Defendant's petition for relief to secure the return of an automobile and all or a portion of joint savings accounts taken by the Plaintiff at the time of the separation. After due consideration, the Court believes both parties are in need of transportation, and accordingly, declines the prayer to require the Plaintiff/wife to return the 1979 Chevrolet automobile, but notes that as insurance becomes due and payable in the future, it shall be the obligation of the plaintiff to pay the same.

Regarding the joint accounts, the Court hears an accounting of those funds, and is satisfied that the savings accounts have been justifiably spent on the wife's needs, and that she has not misappropriated or secreted any funds, and there remains a balance of approximately $2300. In view of the fact the husband is in need of transportation, the Court directs that within three (3) days of this date, the sum of $1,000 of the joint savings accounts shall be returned by the wife to the Defendant/husband.

This Order is made without prejudice to the right of the Master or ultimately the Court to take this payment into consideration when ultimately the equitable division of the joint accounts is made in the final divorce action.
BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 30, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, May 29, 1986, at the time this matter is back before the Courts on a petition to declare a constructive trust, because of various matters occurring during the divorce action and subsequant thereto, the parties advise the Court that the matter has been amciably resolved along the following lines:

1. The certificate of deposit and reflected on the Master's Report Schedule III has apparently ended up in the name of the Defendant and his sister. The approximate present value of said certificate of deposit is $4,669.33, and the Defendant agrees that on or before June 6, 1986, he and the co-owner of said certificate will take the necessary steps to transfer or have said certificate re-issued to the Plaintiff in her own individual name.

2. The parties agree that a cash award of $4,661 made by the Master and made part of the final Divorce Decree has not been paid nor has the reimbursement due the Plaintiff for Master's fees in the amount of $810.00 been paid; accordingly, the parties mutually agree that the sum of $5,471.00 will be paid as follows:

The sum of $1,500.00 will be paid by the Defendant's attorney to Plaintiff's attorney on or before June 30, 1986. The remaining balance of $3,971.00 will be paid on monthly installments of $150.00 , which said sum includes interest on the unpaid balance at nine percent (9%) simple interest, with the first $150.00 installment due on July 18, 1986 and on the 18th of each and every month thereafter until paid in full.

Any claim for legal fees in bringing this petition to the attention of the Court are waived and no award is made for attorney fees in this particular action.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, EQUITABLE DIVISION OF PROPERTY, PERMANENT ALIMONY, COUNSEL FEES, AND ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE

1 copy (atty)

Feb. 17, 1984, Inventory and Appraisement of Plaintiff filed.

Feb. 17, 1984, Plaintiff's Income and Expense Statement filed.

Feb. 17, 1984, Motion To Set Hearing in regard to Alimony Pendente Lite, and counsel fees, and order filed. ORDER OF COURT: And now, February 17, 1984, Hearing in this matter is scheduled for the 6th day of March, 1984, at 1:30 o'clock P.M.

Robert L. Walker, J.

Feb. 17, 1984, copy of order to Atty. R. Chas. Thomas.

Mar. 6, 1984, Budget Information (Domestic Relations) of Defendant filed.

Mar. 9, 1984, Order filed: AND NOW, March 6, 1984, after informal hearing and review of the facts by counsel and the parties, the Court finds that the wife now has a net income of approximately $750.00 per month but that for the past two (2) months her earnings were substantially less because of her inability to work at her second job. The Court finds the husband has approximately $1,028.00 per month income. It appears that the separation of the parties occurred with some acrimony and it appears at this time to be no chance of reconciliation.

The wife has two (2) children by a former marriage but secures $80.00 support for one (1) of the children but nothing for the other. The Court does not consider these support payments to be any obligation of her present husband. Accordingly, the court finds that the wife upon return to her second job will marginally have enough money to maintain herself but probably not in the same style she enjoyed while residing with her husband. Accordingly, commencing with the month of March, 1984, the husband shall pay the sum of $100.00 per month in Alimony Pendente Lite with $50.00 due on the 10th and 20th of each month, with this Alimony to run for the months of March, April and May and not to be continued without further Order of Court.

In addition, the Court believes the earnings and assets of the husband require him to pay a portion of the wife's attorney fees, and, accordingly, the Court awards partial attorney fees in the amount of $200.00 payable $100.00 on March 20, 1984 and $100.00 on April 20, 1984. This Order on counsel fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Court or a Master in divorce to divide counsel fees of the parties equitably between each other as the facts warrant.

Oct. 16, 1984 Re: Nonjury Trial Quiet Title Action, Opinion and Order filed:
The plaintiffs, Ben and Mary Elaine Skelton, have filed this quiet title action to determine the ownership of approximately eighteen (18) acres of land in Summit Township, Crawford County. Plaintiffs claim that the subject parcel is part of a larger tract conveyed to them by Deen from June L. Ferraro in 1976. The defendants, Norman and Naomi Sickles, are June Ferraro's immediate predecessors in title to the tract that June Ferraro convey to the Skeltons. The Sickles claim that the land they conveyed to James and June Ferraro did not include the eighteen acres in dispute and that the Sickles retained title to this triangular parcel. (For Balance of Opinion, see paper filed.)
Judgment: AND NOW, October 16, 1984, we find the plaintiffs have failed to carry their burden of proof and find that title to the 17.943 acre parcel described herein and paragraph 7B of plaintiffs' amended complaint to be the lawful property of defendants' Norman W. Sickles and Naomi W. Sickles, his wife. Judgment in favor of defendants.

Jan. 25, 1984 Exhibit filed. (with papers)

Jan. 26, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 25, 1984, it appears the parties are separated and the wife is moving for some period of time to the State of Kansas, because of the illness of her mother and has come to the household and taken certain items of furniture on a list submitted to the Court and to be made part of the record in this case. The list is reviewed with the parties and the Court makes the following determination in that regard: The Court finds the black and white television set and the colored set are the property of the children, and are not marital property. All other items may be marital property, but may be removed by the wife to the State of Kansas, but not disposed of without the consent of her husband. The Court makes not ruling as to whether these items should or should not be included as marital property in a division of the personal property of the parties in the pending divorce.

It further appears these items are now loaded on a truck at the residence, but with Court permission, the husband has precluded the leaving of said truck. The wife advises she has no more items from the house to place on the truck, and accordingly, she may not put any further items on the truck from the household for removal to the state of Kansas after this hearing.

Husband shall not interfere in any fashion with the leaving of the truck nor shall he remove any items from the truck.

The wife shall keep her counsel advised of her address in Witchita, Kansas, and if she changes the same, will notify him within forty-eight (48) hours of any change of address.

Once the wife and loaded truck leave for the State of Kansas, the husband may move into the premises and occupy the same, but may not dispose of any marital personal property in the home without the consent of the wife.

It further appears that the wife has a jointly owned 1979 truck in the State of Kansas, and she is precluded from disposing of this without consent of her husband.

Sept. 19, 1984 Copies to Douglas Ferguson and Joan Mason

Sept. 27, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 25, 1984, the matter is back before the Court because the plaintiff has returned in mid-summer from th e State of Kansas to this area in order to assist her husband in liquidating a debt due the Internal Revenue Department and the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue. Apparently sufficient assets were sold to pay these two urgent liens and the wife/plaintiff is going to return to the State of Kansas. The parties are in disagreement about the listing for sale of a piece of real estate in joint names and the Court makes no Order regarding the real estate.

The matter is back before the Court on a petition for alimony pendente as the former Order expired December 31, 1983.In the meantime, the parties agree that the husband has made some contributions to his wife, has paid certain bills she has incurred, but the parties are desirous of reducing the husband's alimony obligation to definitive terms so both parties know their status. ACCORDINGLY, commencing with the week of Sept. 23, 1984, the defendant is directed to pay through the Domestic Relations Section of Crawford County the sum of $75.00 per week. This Order will continue for a period of thirteen (13) weeks, and after that time, unless the parties can mutually, agree, the matter will be referred back to the Court for review based on the earnings of the parties, the status of the divorce and a determination to whether either or both of the parties are employing tactics to delay the ultimate disposition of the divorce action.

The wife/plaintiff will report employment and monthly gross and net earnings to the Domestic Relations Section with copies thereof to counsel for the defendant/husband.

By Opinion and Order filed April 26, 1985, we granted summary judgment in this case in favor of North East Insurance Company. The plaintiff now petitions for reconsideration alleging newly discovered evidence. We have heard argument on the same and find that the newly discovered efidence confirms a business relationship between Insurance Innovators and Jack D. Grossmen, a factor already known and considered when reaching our previous decision.
We find no grounds to reverse our prior decision in this matter, and ACCORDINGLY, the Motion for Reconsideration and to Vacate the Summary Judgment previously entered is denied.

Feb. 20, 1984 Order filed: Plaintiff filed this divorce action August 5, 1983, claiming an unretrievably broken marriage and indignities. The complaint was served by certified mail August 9, 1983. An Amended Complaint was filed February 15, 1984, requesting equitable distribution of property, child custody, support, counsel fees and expenses. Apparently, this Amended Complaint in Divorce was never served. The parties now file the appropriate affidavits to procure a 201(c) divorce. Presumptively, the parties have resolved all of the issues raised in the unserved Amended Complaint, but we are reluctant to grant a divorce until the record reflects some disposition of the issues raised in the Amended Complaint. If indeed the parties have resolved all of such issues, a simple motion to withdraw the Amended Complaint would resolve the problem. As the record stands now, we are reluctant to grant this No-Fault Divorce with an unserved Amended Complaint raising collateral issues outstanding. Upon withdrawal of the Amended Complaint we will entertain a new Praecipe to grant the divorce.

Sept. 21, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, September 20th 1984, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED:

I. That legal custody of Jacob Lee Seeley and Jessica Marie Seeley, shall be shared between the mother and the father, that is, each shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records and other important records, and each shall be entitled to participate fully in decisions affecting the health, education and religious instructions of the children.

II. Physical custody of Jacob Lee Seeley and Jessica Marie Seeley shall be with their father, Warren W. Seeley, subject to the following conditions:

A. Beginning with summer of 1985, the mother shall be able to take the children into her custody for a period of approximately Three (3) months, to correspond with the older child's vacation from school, it being anticipated that this period would be approximately Three (3) months, from June 1 to September 1 of each year.

In the event the mother exercises such Christmas vacation visitation in Crawford County, the father of the children shall be entitled to have the children in his custody on Christmas Eve from 4:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M.

D. It is understood that this order is entered at a time when the mother is attending school in Rhode Island and this order is entered without prejudice to the right of the mother or father to request a further hearing or mediation conference when the mother has completed her schooling.

E. It is specifically directed that the full responsibility for rearing the two minor children be the responsibility of the father during the time that the children are in his custody and it is specifically ordered that the responsibility for raising the children not be shifted to the paternal grandparents.

F. Both the maternal grandparents and the paternal grandparents are entitled to have regular visitation with the children as agreed upon between the parties, and in the event the parties are unable to arrive at an agreement then it is provided that each set of grandparents shall be entitled to have the children in their custody for a minimun of one 24 hour period each month.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

Costs of the mediation conference shall be paid by Crawford County.

The Prothonotary is directed to pay the same.

But the court is advised that this complex divorce matter was resolved by agreement of the parties and as part of the agreement the parties agree to share equally the Master Fees and court reporting expenses which amount to a total of $1,105.00. The Court also notes that the records indicate the Defendant has already paid $500.00 to the Prothonotary's Office to defray Master Fees and court reporting expenses. Sept. 8, 1983 Temporary Order filed. AND NOW, Sept. 8, 1983, after mediation in the above captioned case and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Master, it is hereby ordered and decreed that:

1. The parties shall share legal custody of the minor child, Katherine Rose Banks.

2. The mother shall have primary physical custody.

3. The father shall have the right of visitation with said child on alternate weekends, beginning with the weekend of Sept. 17, 1983, from Saturday at 9:00 A.M. through Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

4. The father has indicated to the Child Custody Master that he intends to move to Florida to take advantage of an offer of improved employment. It is anticipated that when his plans become final, different provisions will have to be made with respect to physical custody and accordingly, in this event, either party may seek further mediation.

5. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other that love and respect which is due a parent from his children. Neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child. Each party shall take care not to expose said child to situations which would be physically dangerous or morally improper for her, given her age and understanding.

6. Either party may move for a hearing de novo for a period of thirty days from the date hereof. In the event that neither party so moves, this order shall be considered permanent except for the provision for further mediation set out above.

7. The Master has noted for the court that the Petitioner has some income but the mother is presently without support except for what she receives from the Crawford County Board of Assistance. Accordingly, the costs and fees of this mediation, which are fixed at $75.80 are split equally between the parties. The share of the father is assessed to him as costs and the share of the mother is assessed to Crawford County. Payment shall be made to the Prothonotary of Crawford County.

Jan. 20, 1984, Copies of order to Attys. T. Watts, James Toohey, and George Barco.

Jan 26, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, January 25, 1984, before the commencement of a hearing on this license revocation, the Court hears argument on the petition of Mary E. Terregino, a creditor-secured party to intervene. The Court grants intervention on the assertion of the intervenor that they have a substantial financial interest in the case, but are requesting intervention only for the purpose of assuring that all of the pertinent facts and applicable law regarding the background of the reasons for revocation of the license are brought before the court, and that they are not asserting that their financial interest in the license is a justifiable ground for intervention; accordingly, we will permit them to proceed in producing what evidence they deem appropriate regarding the substantive facts of the case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 26, 1984 Copies of order to T. Watts, J. Toohey and G. Barco, Esqs.

Jan 26, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, January 26, 1984, at the time set for hearing, the Court is presented with a motion to quash, the same having been filed January 20, 1984. The thrust of the motion to quash is that the original citation of the Board is too broad and vague for them to have prepared an appropriate defense at the Board hearing. The Court dismiss this contention as apprently there is a lengthy transcript of the Board hearing, and even though counsel may not have been absolutely certain of the specific alligations set forth in a rather broadly worded citation, they attended the hearing, apparently made no objection to the lack of specificity in the citation, heard the witnesses and are now aware of the basis of the Board's decision. Accordingly. we reject the belated attack on the vagueness of the citation.

The motion to quash or remand also addresses the fact that the Findings of Fact made by the Board in its Opinion and Order of August 22, 1983 is too broad, covers a multiplicity of alleged possible offenses, and represents only a general Finding of Fact without specificity as to the person or persons involved, the nature of the controlled substance, and the conditions under which the alleged controlled substances were trafficked or sold and by whom on the premises.

The Court finds merit to this contention, in view of the fact that the Court must conduct a de novo hearing and determine whether the facts in the case substantiate the decision of the Board. Having no knowledge of the detailed facts, which the Board found other than the broad general statement in Paragraph 2 of the Opinion, the Court remands this case to the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the purpose of filing an amended Opinion within thirty (30) days of the receipt of a copy of this Order, wherein the amended Opinion delineates with specificity the Finding of Fact that the Board found as a justification for the revocation order....

A copy of the amended Opinion will be sent to counsel for the defendant, counsel for the Intervenor and counsel for the Plaintiff at the addresses noted hereafter.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

June 5, 1984 RE: Motion To Quash; Order filed. Plaintiff, filed a motion to Quash based on the dilatory filing of an amended opinion by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. ACCORDINGLY, we dismiss the Motion to Quash and set a hearing on the merits for June 15, 1984, at 1:30 P.M., in Courtroom No. 1.

Sept. 26, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 22, 1983, both parties having appeared, it appearing that the defendant needs an opportunity to consult counsel, this case is continued until October 21, 1983, at 9:30 A.M. Courtroom I or II, Court House, Meadville, Pa., and pending such hearing, the temporary order of September 20, 1983 is continued in full force and effect.

The defendant is advised to obtain legal counsel, and further the Court has been advised that the parties have been engaged in marital counseling and are encouraged to continue said counseling with a view toward resolving their problems.

The plaintiff has indicated that she has no objection to the defendant exercising reasonable visitation rights with the children provided that there is no harassment or confrontation. Therefore, the Court will permit the parties to work out the visitation matter amicably between themselves but if such cannot be done then we will schedule an earlier hearing on this petition for the purpose of resolving the issue ofvisitation.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Sept. 28, 1983, copies of order to Emil Spadafore and Defendant.

Oct. 21, 1983, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 21, 1983, Plaintiff appears with counsel and Defendant appears without counsel and requests we proceed without his counsel being present. The Court informally reviews the situation with the parties and enters the following Order under the Abuse Act:

The defendant shall not go to the premises of the Plaintiff at R. D. #3, Box 440, Meadville, Pa. for any purpose unless he is specifically requested to come to the premises by his wife.

The wife is accorded temporary custody of the jointly owned domicile, and shall continue to occupy the same with her children. By mutual agreement, the husband may go to the residence of the wife for the purpose of removing a water bed, and by agreement, he shall appear at 1:00 P.M. Saturday, October 22, 1983, and during said visit, there shall be no arguments, threats, or innuendos between the parties. He shall be permitted to enter the home, take the necessary steps to disassemble the bed and remove it from the premises.

It appears the parties have reached a mutually satisfactory arrangement whereby the mother delivers the children to the father on weekends for visits and picks them up and returns therm. At times the visits are at the apartment of the father, and at other times at the Defendant's mother's home. The parties advise the Court that due to the uncertain working schedules of the father, that it is best to leave the arrangements for the visitation times and the length up to the discretion of the mother and father of the children.

Other than as noted, the Defendant will not go upon the premises of the wife and will not call, harass or annoy her or procure others to do so. The parties agree that the father should have telephone conversations with the children, and accordingly, three (3) nights per week, between the hours of 5:00 and 8:00, the father may call the residence for the purpose of having reasonable conversations with his children.

Costs in this case shall be paid by the Defendant within ten (10) days of the receipt of a bill from Plaintiffs counsel.

This order shall remain in full force and effect for a period of six (6) months from this date unless the parties by written agreement modify the conditions hereof.

Said notice was received by Edward Nyilyk on September 29, 1983 as indicated by the return receipt card which was returned to the office of the Plaintiff's attorney and is attached hereto.

Joan D. Mason.

Oct. 7, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, October 4, 1983, the Court finds no need to enter a special Order for special relief as the defendant has disclosed and his wife already knows, he is leaving the area to seek employment elsewhere and any benefits with the company have already been accounted for the the knowledge of his wife and the sums that are left will be inconsequential in regard to ultimate equitable distribution of property.
In regard to counsel fees and alimony, the Court knows that the defendant has an obligation of $400.00 per month for the support of his children, and accordingly a large amount for alimony pendente lite is not in order. Commencing with the month of October, 1983, the defendant will pay on or before the 20th of the month the sum of the sum of $100.00 as alimony pendente lite and the Court limits said payments to a period of three(3) monthly payments without further review and Order of Court.
As far as counsel fees are concerned, counsel fees are awarded at this time in the sum of $400.00, with $200.00 to be paid November 1, 1983, and $200.00 to be paid December 1, 1983.
The Court notes the parties are negotiating toward an equitable distribution of property and the Court advises the defendant that it would be in his best interest to secure counsel to represent his interest in the equitable distribution issue of this divorce action.

June 4, 1984 Affidavit RE: Service of Complaint filed. Personally appeared before me, a Notary Public, in and for said State and County at Titusville, Pennsylvania, RICHARD E. LYDICK, a constable in and for Oil Creek Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, who, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he served a true and attested copy of Complaint in Divorce (same having been certified by the Prothonotary of Crawford County as such) on Polly A. Hunter, Defendant, personally at 519 Jones, Street, City of Titusville Pennsylvania, on the 3rd day of October, 1983, at 6:14 P.M., local prevailing time, by reading the same to her and making known the contents of the same and leaving said true and attested copy with her. June 4, 1984 Upon praecipe of attorney for Plaintiff for review under 201 (c) of the Divorce Code, this case moved to court.

June 12, 1984, ORDER filed. The matter is before the Court on praecipe to grant a 201(c) divorce. We find that in spite of the consent nature of the divorce, the mandates of Divorce Rule 1920.42(a) (2) have not been complied with.

This Rule requires that mandated Affidavits of Consent to the divorce must have been signed ninety (90) days after the filing of the divorce complaint and within thirty (30) days of the date the affidavit was filed. The complaint was filed Sept. 30, 1983, and the required affidavits were executed more than ninety (90) days thereafter. However, the plaintiff's affidavit dated Jan. 3, 1984 and the defendant's affidavit dated Jan. 5, 1984 were not filed until June 4, 1984. Obviously, these affidavits were not filed within thirty (30) days of their execution.

While the parties obviously consent and desire a divorce, we construe the intent of the aforesaid rule to require a prompt filing of the consent affidavits once they are executed. We conjecture that the Rules Committee felt that the consents once given should promptly be made a matter of recrod and not repose in the attorney's filed.

In accord with the foregoing, we return this divorce to the Prothonotary's office and when timely new affidavits are filed it may be resubmitted for consideration of a new praecipe.

Nov 9, 1983 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, Nov. 7, 1983, after mediation in the above captioned case and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Master,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Custody of the minor child, Steven Starcher, shall be with his mother the defendant.

2. The father shall have the right of visitation with his son on alternate Saturdays, beginning with Saturday, November 19, 1983, from 1:00 until 3:00 p.m.

Prather, who passed away September 30, 1983, the Court hereby sets Monday, November 7, 1983, at 4:00 P.M., for a memorial service to honor the memory of Attorney Gerald D. Prather.

The Court appoints the following committee to prepare an appropriate resolution for presentation to the Court at said service:

Fred C. Kiebort, Jr., Chairman
Paul E. Allen
John Fuller
R. Charles Thomas

Date: October 13, 1983.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 14, 1983, copies to members of the Bar, and offices, by Judge's Secretary.

Nov. 7, 1983 Report Of Committe filed. TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF SAID COURT: Your Committee, appointed for the purposes of preparing and presenting a memorial on the death of the late Gerald D. Prather, Esquire, respectfully submits the following:

Gerald D. Prather was born August 17, 1902, a son of Thomas J. and Margaret Kramer Prather. He graduated from Meadville High School in 1919 and received a bachelor arts degree from Allegheny College in 1923, and a law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1928.

Mr. Prather was admitted to practice law in Pittsburgh from 1928 to 1935, returning to Meadville as a full-time resident and opening a law office here in 1935.

He was honored by the Crawford County Bar Association in 1978 in recognition of his 50 years of active service in the legal profession.

On March 2, 1935, he married Narcisse Snyder, who survives him. He alson survived by two brothers, Thomas J. of Basking Ridge, N.J., and William K. of R D #3, of Cochranton, and a sister, Mrs. James (Marion) Charlton of Meadville. He was preceded in death by three brothers and one sister

Gerald D. Prather was very active in civic affairs. He served as a member of the board of directors of Meadville City Hospital. He was a member of the board of directors and former president of the Meadville Community Hotal, Inc. He was Chairman of the Meadville Zoning Appeal Board for many years, and a member of the Meadville Parking Authority. He was past president of the Americian Red Cross and a member of the board of directors of the Crawford County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

In 1959 he was named Chairman of a Comprehensive Community Counsil of seven cummunity residents named to serve as a citizens "hub" committee on the Comprehensive General Plan's 15-year overhaul of metropolitan Meadville facilities.

He was devoted to his alma mater, Allegheny College. He previously served as a member and later as Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Allegheny College, where he also was a psst president of the Allegheny College Alumni Association, and Chairman of Allegheny's Annual Fund in 1964-65, and was active in the College's sesquicentennial fund drive.

In 1967 he received the College's coveted Alumni Medal at an annual Allegheny College alumni luncheon, where he was cited a "a man to whom the college and communtiy turn where there is something to be done."

Gerald D. Prather also served as chairman of a community-wide campaign to raise funds for construction of the David Mead Inn, and was vice chairman of the American Red Cross fund drive in 1957. He was Repulican State Committeeman from this county for six years.

Mr. Prather was a thorough, careful and painstaking lawyer, with an earnest and conscientious desire to see that justice was done in all instances. He has great respect for the law and jurisprudence in general. An illustration of this was his interest and intent in carring out the terms of the Will of the late Dexter Bulen, who left a bequest for the construction of a bandstand or gazebo in Diamond Park.

Mr. Prather was a member of the Iroquois Club, Meadville Round Table, Meadville Literary Union and a member of the board of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He was a member and former board member of Crawford County Historical Society and a member and former officer of the Crawford County Bar Assiciation.

Despite the loss of his natural voice due to cancer, Gerald D. Prather continued to practive law with the same effectiveness that he had shown prior to his operation. He continued to practice his profession right up to his last illness and death. He will long be remembered by this Bar Association, and the community as a whole, as a fine lawyer, a public-spirited citizen and one of the outstanding citizens in our community. His sense of humor made any association with his a pleasure.

We, as an Association, wish to express our sorrow at the passing of Gerald D. Prather, and to extend our sympathy to his surviving family. We ask that this report be spread at length upon the records of this Court, and that a copy thereof be submitted to his family and to the press.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
Fred C. Kiebort, Jr.
Chairman
Paul E. Allen
R. Charles Thomas
John Fuller

ORDER AND NOW, November 7, 1983, the foregoing Memorial, having been read in open Court, it is hereby ordered that it be filed and spread upon the records of the Court and that a copy thereof be furnished to the family of the late Gerald D. Prather, Esq., and a copy furnished to the press. CONTINUED IN MARGIN***

Oct. 28, 1983 Affidavit Of Service filed. I, Joan D. Mason, Esquire, Attorney for the Plaintiff in the above entitled case, and being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that I did on October 21, 1983 mail to the above Defendant, Leslie Ferry by certified mail #247 945, return receipt requested, deliver to addressee only, a Complaint for Custody, Partial Custody and Visitation, and attached Order in the above action. Said notice was received by Leslie Ferry on October 26, 1983 as indicated by the return receipt card which was return to the office of the Plaintiff's attorney and is attached hereto. Joan D. Mason

Nov. 2, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, November 1, 1983, the matter is before the Court on a request by the grandmother to renew visitation arrangements with her grandson, Philip, age ten and a half. After informal discussion between grandmother, mother and counsel for grandmother, the Court believes it would be to the child's advantage to re-establish a relationship with his grandmother, which apparently was terminated in June through some misunderstanding. Accordingly, commencing with the month of November, 1983 and monthly thereafter, the grandmother may have the child the first weekend of every month commencing Friday at 6:00 P.M. until Saturday at 9:00 P.M. and on the third weekend of the month, the grandmother may have the child commencing Saturday at 10:00 A.M. until 9:00 P.M. It shall be the responsibility of the grandmother to pick up and return the child. In setting up the first weekend visit of the month, the Court intends that weekend to be a weekend where both Friday and Saturday fall within that given month.

In view of the fact that the father of the child, Leslie Ferry is incarcerated in the State Regional Correctional Facility at Mercer, but probably will be released in the coming months, the grandmother on one of the two visits per month shall be permitted to take the child Philip to visit his father at the Institution for a period of not more than two (2) hours.

It is anticipated by the Court at least for a meaningful period of time when Leslie Ferry, the father, is released from confinement he will be taking up temporary residence with his mother. Accordingly, no additional visits will be established at this time for the father to have custody of his child, but if the father progresses satisfactorily, abstains from the use of alcoholic beverages, establishes a stable exictence or if he moves from the residence of his mother, the Court might be amenable for according additional visits to the father if it is found they would be in the best interest of the child.

S-186 JUDGMENT OF NON PROS
James F. Simmons
Judgment entered 12-7-83 Prothonotary

Jan. 25, 1984 Petition To Open Judgment filed.

Jan. 25, 1984 RE: Petiton To Open Judgment, Order Setting Argumnnt filed. It appeats that plaintiff secured a judgment at the district magistrate level in the aount of approximately $150.00 against the defendant, and the defendant timely filed an appeal in accord with District Justcie Rule 1002, et seq. The records in this case clearly indicate that the Notice of Appeal and Praecipe to file a Complaint was served by certified mail on the plaintiff at 8100 Wayata Blvd., Minneapolis, Minnesota. No complaint was filed by the plaintiff within twenty (20) days, and on December 7, 1983, defendant praeciped the Prothonotary for a Judgment of Non Pros because of the failure of the plaintiff to file the complaint required under Rule 1004 B. The records in this case show the Prothonotary sent notice of said praecipe to the plaintiff at the above mentioned address, but that said notice was returned, noting that the plaintiff had moved and a forwarding order had expired on the mail.

Plaintiff now petitions the Court asking to open the Judgment of Non Pros for the reason that the notice of the appeal was served on the plaintiff corporation in Minneapolis, Minnesota, but a copy of the Notice of Appeal was not sent to their attorney who appeared at the District Justice hearing.

The plaintiff's attorney now alleges that the plaintiff was a Minnesota corporation and unfamiliar with the practice of law in Pennsylvania and assumed that its attorney had been notified of the appeal and would take the necessary legal steps to filed the complaint. Thus, the prayer is that the Judgment of Non Pros be opened or stricken in order that the plaintiff may belatedly file a complaint.

We note that Rule 1005 requires that the appealing party from a judgment entered by a district justice must serve a copy of his notice appeal upon the opposing party and upon the district justice. Rule 1005 provides if the appellee has an attorney of record named in the complaint filed in the district justice office "service upon the appellee may be made upon the attorney of record instead upon the appellee personally"

Our hasty reading of the Rules indicate compliance therewith and the fact that the defendant chose to serve his Notice of Appeal and Praecipe to File a Complaint upon the plaintiff corporation itself, instead upon their attorney, does not seem to be ample grounds to strike the judgmmnt of non pros.

However, there may be factors involved in this case that would entitle the plaintiff to relief that are outside the record and not known by this court.

ACCORDINGLY, we will grant a legal argument on this issue in accord with the following order:

Nov. 28, 1983, Answer to Complaint for Custody filed.

Dec. 1, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, November 29, 1983, after informal hearing the Court notes that this custody matter has been referred to William Pineo, Custody Mediator, and therefore, the Court and counsel agree that it would be unwise to attempt to enter any type of a permanent custody and visitation Order at this time as the witnesses may not be available and the Court lacks sufficient time. ACCORDINGLY, the Court suggests Mediator Pineo to set a hearing as soon as possible and explore the contentions of the parties and enter some type of an interim recommendation so that either party may file exceptions thereto and Court and Counsel may prepare for a full-blown custody hearing is the same is necessary.

MEANWHILE, in the interim the Court deems it advisable that the children have some meaningful contact with their mother, but believes overnight visits at this time would not be practical or appropriate. Commencing with Saturday, December 3, 1983, the mother shall have the right to have the children in her custody each and every Saturday between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. It shall be the responsibility of the mother to pick up the children at 8:00 a.m. at the father's residence and the father shall return the children to the mother at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday night and the parties agree that this exchange shall take place in the Driftwood Restaurant in Linesville, Pennsylvania. This Order will continue until modified by agreement or a recommendad Order by the Custody Mediator, but in the event the hearing is not completed before the Mediator, the Court intends that a December 24th visit shall be held by the mother and that an additional visit on December 28th will be accorded the mother.

A copy of this Order will be forwarded to the Custody Mediator.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 12, 1983, Appearance of Anthony J. Vardaro, attorney for defendant, filed.

Dec. 27, 1983 Sheriff's Return filed. Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Toby Rigazzi, Deputy Sheriff who being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that on the 2nd day of December 1983, at 2:01 P.M., he served Complaint in Divorce, filed at No. A.D. 952 Term, 1983, Crawford County Pennsylvania, upon defendant Lawrence H. Tenney at his place of residence 407 East Avenue Erie County Erie, Pennsylvania, By making known the contents thereof to Lawrence H. Mar. 20, 1984 Motion to schedule a hearing and order filed. AND NOW, March 20, 1984, hearing is scheduled for April 13, 1984, at 9:30 o'clock, A.M., in Court Room No. 1 or 2, Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania.
P Richard Thomas, J

Mar. 21, 1984 Copies to Victor Kinnunen and Anthony Vardaro.

Apr. 13, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, April 13, 1984, the matter is reviewed informally by the parties, counsel and the Court and it appears the parties seperated and both left a common household in Erie, Pennsylvania in late 1983 and that the husband has taken an apartment in the City of Erie and the wife has now taken up apratment residence in the City of Titusville. The husband's contention is that due to the presence of animals in the house during the marriage and lack of care, the house is in a deplorable condition and probably is not readily marketable. He intends to devote some efforts toward cleaning it up and fixing it up and the parties this date mutually agree it is to their advantage to list it as soon as possible with a reputable realtor for sale. There is some dispute as to whether an appraisal of the property is appropriate before listing, but the Court deems the expense of an appraisal would not be necessary as a reliable realtor could guide the parties in establishing an equitable selling market price.
It appears that the defendant is paying a first and second mortgage on the premises the parties own in Erie in the amount of approximately $223.00 per month, and in addition, pays the utilities on the vacant house.
It further appears that on or about March 2, 1984, a support Order was entered by Judge Dwyer, in Erie, awarding $50.00 per week for the wife and child, but the wife, due to bad weather, was delayed in attending the hearing and was not present. It further appears the Order is not broken down between support for child and support for wife. ACCORDINGLY, the Court deems that $40.00 of said support Order would be for the child and $10.00 would be for the wife and deems that an additional $42.00 alimony pendente lite is appropriate.
ACCORDINGLY, in addition to the support Order aforesaid which paid by wage attachment ~~achment~~, the defendant commencing with the week of April 8, 1984 will pay direct to his wife an additional sum of $42.00 per week alimony pendente lite.
Insofar as counsel fees are concerned, the Court awards interim counsel fees in the amount of $300.00 and directs that the defendant forward to counsel for the wife the sume of $50.00 on April 25, 1984, and the sum of $50.00 on the 10th and 20th of each and every month commencing with the month of May until a total sum of $300.00 is paid.
This Order is made without prejudice to the right of the Master ultimately deciding this case to receive a bill for reasonable attorney fees from counsel for the wife and to order payment of all or a portion fo said fees as the equities of the case may determine.
The Court directs the defendant pay the filing fees in this divorce action, but if the same have already been paid, this matter will be resolved in the final decree recommended by the divorce Master.

The Crawford County Sheriff Department is directed to serve a certified copy of this Petition and it's Order upon the defendant.

The State Police of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are directed to enforce this Order and to prevent the return of the defendant to the aforesaid premises by any appropriate means, including incarceration, if necessary.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Dec. 9, 1983 Order filed. AND NOW, December 7, 1983, the matter is explored informally with the parties, with the plaintiff contending that the defendant committed certain assaults and that she is primarily interested in protection from further physical abuse. The defendant's posture is that he did not commit such offenses and that each party has a quick temper and that any injuries the plaintiff sustained were not at his hands or were as a result of his effort to keep himself from being assaulted. The Court makes no attempt to adjudicate whether of not the assault was made as the parties have agreed that this case will be continued without adjudication of abuse for a period of two (2) months from this date on the following conditions:

1. The defendant agrees that he will not annoy or harass the plaintiff and will not physically assault her, push, shove or nolest her in any fashion.
2. This order is entered with the understanding that the parties are not living in separate residences and that they will make independent arrangements regarding the ancillary problems, child visitation, support and contact between the parties in the interest of the children and for the purpose of scheduling appropriate visits.
3.. In the event the parties fail to reach an agreement regarding the upcoming Christmas holidays, the Court Orders that the children spend a period of not less than five (5) hours with the father at a place of his choice on Christmas Day, the remainder of the time to be spent with the mother.
4. The Court believes this marriage can be saved and urges both parties to re-examine their posture toward each other and to re-commence counseling services that they attempted from a prior separation.
5. The County is directed to pay the costs to date in this case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR APRIL 30, 1984; No. 6

May 3, 1984 Re: Preliminary Objections and Order filed: AND NOW, April 30, 1984, after argument the Demurrer and Motion to Strike on behalf of Defendant Highland Mutual Insurance Company addressing the claim for attorney fees contained in Paragraph 17 of Plaintiff's Complaint are dismissed.

The matter of collecting attorney fees and pleading practices in regard thereto is open to some question when interpreting the language of 42 Pa. C.S.A. 2503 and future case law will probably clarify the issue of whether the request for attorney fees must be specifically pled or whether, after trial, a petition is directed to the Court to trigger the Court's decision to award attorney fees under any one or more of the ten (10) circumstances outlined in the aforesaid Section.

We cannot at this time, in advance of hearing any testimony, decide whether attorney fees could legally be awarded the plaintiff in this matter. However, we will not strike a claim for attorney fees believed to be due and owing under one of the provisions of Section 2503 simply because the defendant believes the proper method to recover the same is a post verdict petition.

ACCORDINGLY, we will allow the claim for attorney fees to stand until we ascertain whether the facts produced at trial justify submitting the issue to the jury or a court finding that as a matter of law, attorney fees should be taxed as additional costs.

Preliminary Objections are overruled.

Oct. 16, 1985 Motion To Vacate Order For Reinstatement Of Custody Action and Contempt Citation and Order filed. AND NOW, this 16 day of Oct., 1985, the Motion To Vacate Order for Reinstatement of Custody Action and Contempt Citation is hereby scheduled for argument Nov. 8, 1985 10:00 A.M. Court Room 1.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J

Oct. 18, 1985 Copies of order to Mariann Luksik and Peter Bailey

Nov. 12, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, November 8, 1985, at the time set for hearing, counsel for Terry Chiaramonte advises the Court by telephone that they are not in opposition to the Court's refusal to reinstate the custody action filed by the mother in this case, which originated in Allegheny County and was transferred to Crawford County but was dismissed under Rule 1901 for inaction.

Accordingly, the Court refuses to reinstate the custody action in the case of Kathy Chiaramonte versus Terry Chiaramonte, at A.D. 1983 - 1016.

To further complicate the matter, it appears that the father filed a corss custody action August 9, 1985, at the above term and number of A.D. 1983 - 1016, but said action has lain dormant and has not been referred to the Court or a custody mediator for resolution.

The Court is further advised by counsel for Kathy Chiaramonte that the parties apparently have reached an amicable arrangement regardint custody and visitation and that the mother now lives in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and the husband father now lives in Cambridge Springs, Crawford County.

Since the parties have apparently resolved this issue amicably, the Court refuses to resurrect either of the old cases and advises the parties and their counsel that if in the future a custody or visitation dispute arises, either parent may file an appropriate custody action in the proper jurisdiction and the Court stresses that it will not attempt to resolve custody or visitation issues under any of the pleadings now on file at this term and number in Crawford County.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

(g) the mother shall have custody of the child on Mother's Day and the father shall have custody of the child on Father's Day.

(h) The father shall have visitation from 6:00 o'clock P.M. until 9:00 o'clock P.M. every Wednesday during the school year, except as set forth in Paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) above. Because it is envisioned that during certain times, because of the father's working schedule, he may not be able to exercise these visitation rights from a distance of 35 miles, on any Wednesday on which he does not intend to visit with the child, he shall notify the mother by phone of his intention not to visit at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled visitation, if at all possible.

(i) Each party agrees to notify the other party at least 24 hours in advance if there is any change in the prearranged custody or visitation schedules.

3. The father shall be responsible for transporting the child to the mother's residence, and the mother shall be responsible for transporting the child to the father's residence.

4. Each party shall notify the other when the child will be away from the custodial home for more than 24 hours. Such notice shall include the period during which he will be away, and the address and phone humber at which he may be reached. Contact with the child during periods such as this shall be for emergency purposes only and not for the purposes of simple telephone visitation.

5. Within 30 days of the date of this Order, the mother shall have installed in her principal residence a telephone, and she shall supply the number of that telephone to the father. Additionally, during the school year the mother shall send mechanically reproduced copies of the child's entire report card to the father within 5 days of the time that is is received by her in her home, in order that he may make such efforts to visit teachers and receive counseling and make comments as are deemed necessary by him.

6. Neither the defendant mother's boyfriend and husband, if he becomes her husband, nor plaintiff-father's girlfriend, or wife if he takes one, shall be in any way involved in the transfer of custody or other matters having to do directly or indirectly with the other parent of the child.

7, The parties are encouraged to discuss arrangements for the physical custody of their child, and, if the parties mutually agree to an alternate arrangement, they may adjust the physical custody arrangement accordingly.

8. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her child, and neither party shall do anything to blacken the character of the other in any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child.

9. This Order shall not prejudice the right of either party to request a Mediation Conference if there is a changed circumstance, including but not limited to, receipt of poor grades by the child from his new school in Jefferson, Ohio.

10. The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County shall retain jurisdiction of this matter so long as either party resides in the Court's jurisdiction.

11. This Order supersedes the Order of April 4, 1984, and an Amendment thereto dated April 26, 1984. Fee for the Custody Mediator shall be paid as follows: ½ of the fee shall be paid by the father, and the other ½ of the fee shall be borne by the County, due to the limited ability of the parties to pay.

12. This Order shall be a Temporary Order, but shall become a Permanent Order unless Exceptions are filed by either party within ten (10) days of the date of this Temporary Order.

Brian Lindsay, Attorney for Defendant

Dec. 18, 1986 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, this 12 day of December, 1986, after mediation in the above captioned case and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Stosh D. Coulter. Because this is a joint legal custody arrangement, each party shall share with the other all information which he or she may have concerning the child's health, education and major events in the child's life. Health care and school authorities are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all information that they have concerning the subject minor child.

2. Stosh D. Coulter will reside with his mother from one week before the opening of his school session at the end of the summer through the second day after the closing of the school session for the summer vacation. He shall reside with his father from the second day after the closing of the school session for the summer vacation until one week previous to the reopening of school for the following fall session.

3. The party not having physical custody shall have the right of visitation with Stosh on the first full weekend of each month from Friday evening from 9:00 p.m. through Sunday at 4:00 p.m. In addition, the non-custodial party shall have the right to telephone Stosh once each week for a period not to exceed on hour. Said party shall notify the custodial parent at least twenty-four hours in advance of placing said telephone call and the custodial parent shall have Stosh ready to receive said call.

4. Holiday visit shall be arranged as follows:

(a) For Christmas 1986 the father shall have the right of visitation with Stosh from 9:00 a.m. of the day following Christmas through 6:00 p.m. of the day previous to the mother's projected move to Indiana or 6:00 p.m. of the day preceeding the first day of school following Christmas vacation, whichever comes first.

(b) For 1987 and in alternate years thereafter the father shall have the right of visitation from the day after school suspends for the Christmas vacation through the day before school resumes.

(c) For 1988 and in alternate years thereafter the father shall have the right of visitation with Stosh from December 26, through the day previous to the resumption of school.

(d) The father shall have the right of visitation during Stosh's spring vacation from school except those years in which said vacation would be for two days or less. The spring vacation visitation period shall begin as soon as is practicable after the dismissal of school and Stosh shall be returned to his mother the evening previous to the reopening of school.

(e) For 1987 and in alternate years thereafter, the father shall have the right of visitation from the Wednesday preceeding Thanksgiving through the Sunday following Thanksgiving.

(f) The provisions of this paragraph shall take precedence over the other provisions of this order relating to custody and visitation periods.

5. Transportation shall be split by the parties and shall be arranged as convenient to them. The parties have noted to the Custody Mediator that it would be most convenient if each party would drive half way to a central meeting point and deliver Stosh there. There parties will, therefore, select such a central point for picking up and delivering Stosh in the course of carrying out his order.

6. Each party shall get a telephone. If any circumstance develops which makes it impossible to carry out the provisions of this order or of any agreement of the parties made pursuant hereto, the party to whom the circumstance occurred shall telephone the other party as soon as he or she can so that alternative arrangements can be discussed. If necessary, the parties are to leave messages for each other at the central pick up and delivery point referred to above.

7. The court notes that the petition to modify custody which was brought by the defendant mother was necessitated by her projected move to Connersville, Indiana. Should the mother not move as projected, the previous consent custody agreement and order of court which was entered August 27, 1984, shall continue in effect except for the provisions regarding the father's visitation for Christmas 1986.

8. Each party shall teach Stosh to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her child and neither shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in Stosh's estimation.

9. The parties are free to make alternative and/or additional arrangements respecting Stosh's custody and visitation, but no provision shall be binding unless agreed to by both parties. In the absence of an agreement, this Order shall govern.

10. In addition to the visitation provisions made above, the father shall have the right of telephone visitation on Stosh's birthday, Mother's Day, and Father's Day for a period of one hour. The father shall give the mother twenty-four hours notice of the time that he is going to place the call and the mother shall have Stosh ready to receive the call.

11. Costs and fees of this mediation, which are fixed at $100.88, are divided equally between the parties. The father's share shall be paid by his as costs in th is case. Payment shall be made to the Prothonotary of Crawford County. The mother's share shall be paid by Crawford County, the mother having noted for the mediator that she is indigent and that she is represented by Crawford Coounty Legal Service.

12. Either party may move the court for a hearing de novo for a period of thirty days from date hereof. Should neither party so move, this order shall be considered permanent.

Since the said Stosh Coulter has resided in Fayette County, Indiana for several years, the INdiana Court is deemed to be the more appropriate tribunal to consider any modifications of the existing order. this Court, therefore, relinquishes jurisdiction for future modifications to the circuit Court of Fayette County, Indiana for further proceedings and the transfer of jurisdiction to take place at the time that the Fayette countyCourt actually exercises jurisdiciton by entering any order of modification. Coulter vs. Coulter A.D. 1983 - 1001

July 20, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, July 18, 1989, the matter is before the Court on a contempt ciation for alleged violations of prior Orders. The Court is this date in receipt of a copy of an Order form the Fayette County Circuit Court, INdiana, noting that that court assumed jurisdiction of the case, referred the same to the Family Youth Institute for evaluation, but continued in effect existing custody Orders.

The key issue for the Court to resolve is a contempt citation against the mother for allegedly violating a prior Court Order or an agreement between the parents of the child that the child would be surrendered to the father on July 5, 1989 after a two day visit with the mother, when, in fact, the mother did not return the child, contending that she was somehow entitled to a two-week summer visit with the child.

This Court has already ruled on the motion of the mother's counsel that this Court lacks jurisdiction to hear any phase of this case in view of the July 7, 1989 Order of the Indiana court. We reject said argument and find this Court has jurisdiction to adjudicate whether or not Orders prior to July 7, 1989 of this Court were violated or whether the agreement reached between the parties was violated as it may impact on the best interest of the child.

ACCORDINGLY, this court believes that it has jurisdiction to decide these issues and to determine whether of not Order of this Court have been violated in view of the fact that the Indiana court specifically provided that current Crawford County Orders shall remain in force and effect until the Indiana Court enters a new Order.

This matter is scheduled for hearing on the contempt issue for 10:30 a.m. July 21, 1989.

Dec. 12, 1991 Petition For Modification of Custody and Order filed. This ongoing child custody dispute again comes before the Court on a Petition for Modification of Custody file dby the mother, Penny Adams, requesting that she regain primary custody of minor child Stosh Coulter, age 15, to the end that the child take up residence with her in Fayette County, Indiana. This matter has been contested over the years and has been before the custody court in both states and on appeal in the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. The Court's files are extensive and represent an ongoing effort by the mother to re-secure primary custody of the minor child primarily on the basis that it is the child's desire to live with the mother and implying that it is not in the best interest of the child to continue primary custody with the father.

Attached to the Petition for Modification of Custody received by this Court on or about December 6, 1991, is an "Affidavit of Stosh Coulter" which purports to be a signed and sworn affidavit of the child expressing a desire to return to the custody of his mother. the affidavit was sworn to July 25, 1990, and apparently a copy thereof, was served on one Attorney Kevin Ault in the state of Indiana who allegedly at sometime was an attorney for Douglas Coulter who has always lived in Pennsylvania. The affidavit was prepared by Attorney Stephen L. Hunyadi of Richmond, INdiana, apparently representing the mtoher.

First of all, we note again the staleness of this affidavit which apparently was prepared at the time the child was in the temporary custody of the mother in July of 1990 in the state of Indiana. We also note that in correspondence and in prior hearings before the custody court in Crawford County, it was always the mother's contention that the child desired to live with her and that his living arrangements with the father were not in his best interests. Apparently the Crawford County Courts felt otherwise.

We are willing to accord the mother a further hearing to determine whether the best interests of the child dictate a change of custody or whether there has been such a dramatic change in the relationship between father and child to warrant a change. however, before doing so, we believe child at age 15 should have the benefit of counsel so that his wishes are properly considered by the Court.

ACCORDINGLY, we hereby appoint Attorney Joseph W. Tinko as counsel for minor child, Stoch D. Coulter, and direct him to interview the child, review records in this case and present the posture of the child to the Court in a brief written Memorandum. Counsel for the child may also review the Court's personal files on this case by requesting a review of the same with the Court Administrator.

Upon receipt of said report, the Court will give further consideration to the Petition For Modification.

DATED: December 12, 1991.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. richard Thomas, S.J.

Dec. 12, 1991 Copies of order mailed to Plaintiff and defendant and put in Atty. Tinko's box.

Feb. 12, 1992 ORDER SETTING HEARING filed. AND NOW, Feb. 12, 1992, a Review Hearing to determine whether primary custody of the minor child should be changed is scheduled before Judge Vardaro on Apr. 2, 1992, at 9:00 a.m., in Courtroom No.2.

The Court Administrator has been advised that former local attorneys representing both parties are no longer involved in active representation in this case. Each party is advised that if they wish to retain coundel for the hearing, they may do so, but that regardfless of whether the parties retain counsel or not, the trial Judge expects both parties to be present at the time of the Review Hearing.

The Court Administrator notes that the Court previously appointed counsel to represent the child and directs that counsel for the child be present at the hearing.

FOR THE COURT,
Imogene Yetman, Court Administrator

Feb. 13, 1992 IN RE: PETITION TO REVIEW CUSTODY filed. This ongoning child custody dispute has been before the Court of Crawford County, the Fayette County Circuit Court in the state of Indiana and the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

A lack of meaningful communication between the parents has been ongoing and frequent requests by the mother for a review custody hearing because of her contention that the 15 year old son desires to live with her in the state of Indiana. We considered the mother's request to the Court Administrator received July 26, 1991 as a petition for a review of the present custody and visitation order. Feeling that the child should have some input in this custody dispute, by order of Dec. 12, 1991, the Court appointed Joseph W. Tinko to act as counsel for the minor child, Stosh Coulter, and directed counsel to review the records in the case including the Court's files, to interview the child, and submit a written memorandum of his findings and received from the attorney with attachments thereto of correspondence written by child Stosh to Attorney Tinko.

Both Senior Judge Thomas and Senior Judge Walker have handled this case in the past butthis Senior Judge now believes the matter should be assigned to one of the two full-time Judges serving Crawford County.

Accordingly, we direct that the request of the mother be considered as a request for a review hearing to explore the present situation of both parents, to receive input from the minor child, and to ascertain whether a change in primary custody is appropriate.

The Court Administrator is directed to schedule a hearing for review of this case and assign said case to one of the active Judges for hearing. The memorandum of Attorney Tinko shall remain part of the Judge's file in this case and the undersigned Senior Judge leaves to the discretion of the hearing Judge whether the contents of the same should be disclosed or reviewed with either parent.

Date: Feb. 12, 1992

BY THE COURT:
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Feb. 13, 1992 copies given to Atty Tinko and also mailed to parties.

March 10, 1992 ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF COUNSEL FEES filed. This Court by prior Order appointed Joseph W. Tinko to represent minor child Stosh Coulter in this ongoing custody dispute between divorced parents. This appointement was necessitated by the inability of the parents to communicate with each other in the best interests of the child. In anticipaton of an upcoming Custody Review Hearing requested by the mother, we felt that in fairness to the hearing judge and the juvenile, he should be represented by counsel. Accordingly, we appointed Joseph W. Tinko and we note the matter is scheduled for a custody hearing before Judge Anthony J. Vardaro April 2, 1992.

At the request of this Court, Attorney Tinko submitted the attached bills for his services to-date. As with prior similar cases we consider this type of court appointment to be partially pro bono, as Court budgets do not permit the payment of the usual attorney fees in this type of case.

ACCORDINGLY, we direct the County of Crawford to pay to Attorney Tinko, the sum of $500 for his services, to-date, in counseling the juvenile and his report to the Court.

Charge: Special Counsel - Misc. --01-0460-010490.

We request Attorney Tinko to represent the juvenile at the upcoming custody conference or hearing and further attorney fees and ongoing representation are left to the sound discretion of the hearing judge.

DATED: March 9, 1992.

Mar. 27, 1992, Appearance of Barbara J. Walton, attorney for plaintiff filed.

April 29, 1992 ORDER filed. On Dec. 12, 1991, Senior Judge P. Richard Thomas appointed Attorney Joseph W. Tinko to act as counsel for the minor child with respect to this custody action and Attorney Tinko did so, interviewing the child, reviewing the records in this case and presenting the posture of the child to the Court in a written Memorandum as well as appearing at the time of the hearing in front of the Court.

It has come to the Court's attention that contrary to the wishes of the father, Attorney Tinko represented the child in a Juvenile Court matter and the Court notes that the undersigned does not believe it was the intention of Senior Judge Thomas that Mr. Tinko represent the juvenile beyond his interest in the current cudoty action.

The appointment of Joseph W. Tinko is continued in the event the results of this action are appealed and there is continuing litigation. Otherwise, his services as provided in the order of Dec. 12, 1991 are terminated and he may submit a final bill to the Court.

The Court noes that while it was not anticipated that Attorney Tinko represent the juvenile at the juvenile hearing pursuant to the Court's appointment of Dec. 12, 1991, the juvenile would be entitled to have Attorney Tinko represent him if other arrangements had been made or if Attorney Tinko was doing so pro se.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

May 7, 1992 Copy of Order to Attys. Barbara Walton, Joseph Tinko; copy mailed to Defendant.

April 29, 1992 Memorandum And Custody Order and ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 28, 1992, it is hereby ordered and decreed that:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor child, Stosh D. Coulter. Because this is a joint custody arrangement, each party shall share with the other all information which he or she may have concerning the child's health, education and major events in the child's life. Health care and school authorities are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all information they have concerning the subject minor child.

2. For 1992, Stosh, D. Coulter will reside with his father until Aug. 1, 1992 at which time mother shall be entitled to pick him up and transport him to Indiana. He shall remain in the physical custody of his mother, subject to the visitation set forth in this order, until one week after the closing of the school session for summer vacation in 1993. He shall then be picked up by his fatehr and transported to PA. where he shall remain in the physical custody of his father until one week prior to the re-opening of school for the fall session of 1993.

Thereafter, subject to the visitation hereinafter set forth, Stosh shall be with his mother during teh school year and shall be with his father beginning one week after the close of the school session for summer vacation until one week previous to the re-opening of school for the following fall session.

Holiday visitation shall be arranged as follows:

a. For Christmas 1992, and alternate Christmases, the father shall have the right of visitation from the day after school suspends for Christmas vacation at 9:00 A.M. through the day before school resumes at 5:00 P.M.

b. For Thanksgiving 1993 and alternate Thanksgivings father shall have the child from Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. the day before Thanksgiving through the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

c. The father shall have the right of visitation during Stosh's spring vacation from school from 6:00 p.. on the day school is dismissed until 6:00 p.m. on the evening before school begins. If said vacation is two days or less, the spring vacation visitation will only apply if it is conducted in the state where mother resides.

d. If the party not in physical custody of the child wishes, he or she may have weekend visitation with the child in the state of the parent having physical custody from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. so long as they notify the parent in custody of the intention to exercise such visitation at least by the Saturday before the visitation is to take place.

e. During visitations requiring transportation, the party who will be obtaining physical custody of the child shall be responsible for providing transportation and the expense thereof. For example, on Aug. 1, 1992, mother will be responsible for transportation and then at the end of the school year in 1993 when the child goes to father's custody, he shall be responsible for the transportation and costs thereof. Likewise,for instance, for Christmas 1992, father will be responsible for transporting the child to begin his visit and mother will be responsible for picking up the child.

3. Both parents shall always maintain a telephone at their place of residence and shall keep the other informed of the telephone number. Additionally, they shall always inform the other of their current residence address.

The party not having physical custody of the child shall be permitted to call the child at least once each week and shall be permitted to talk to the child for at least one hour. The child shall have privacy for those telephone conversations. It is noted that it is not the Court's intention that the party calling should call and talk for a few minutes each day in a manner that might disrupt the relationship of the child with the parent having physical custody but it is rather the Court's intention that the parent not in custody call and have a lengthy and meaningful conversation with the child each week if that parent wishes to do so. The parent in custody shall make every effort to make sure that the child does have that contact with the other parent and shall not do anything that would hinder that contact.

4. Neither party shall speak ill of the other party in the child's presence nor speak of any issues surrounding these proceedings in the child's presence nor allow others to the extent possible to do the same in the child's presence. Neither party shall say anything negative to the child with regard to his desires to be in the physical custody of his mother.

5. The Court notes that the last order of March 20, 1990 in Indiana included certain provisions that would be considered beyong the realm of a custody order in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and this order is not intended to modify any matters pertaining to support insofar as the Indiana Court continued to maintain jurisdiction with regard to the same. The change in custody may,however, necessitate further action with regard to said support provisions independent of this custody action.

6. In addition to the visitation provisions provided above, the parties are free to make alternative and/or additional arrangements respecting Stosh's custody and visitation, but no provision shall be binding unless agreed upon by both parties. In the absence of an agreement, this order shall govern.

BY THE COURT:

May 7, 1992 Copy of Order to Attys. Barbara Walton, Joseph W. Tinko; copy mailed to Penny S. Coulter Adams.

May 12, 1992 Order For Payment of Counsel Fees filed. AND NOW, May 11, 1992, the Court has received an attached invoice for further services rendered by Joseph W. Tinko, esquire, on behalf of the minor child, Stosh Coulter, with regard to preparation and representation ofthe minor child at a custody review hearing held on April 2, 1992.

Accordingly, we direct the Court of Crawford to pay to Attorney Tinko the sum of $250 for his further services.

Dec. 17, 1992 Request for Modification filed.

Dec. 17, 1992 Order filed. AND NOW, December 14, 1992, this matter is before the Court on a letter received from the Defendnt requesting a modification of a certain portitons of the Court's order of April 29, 1992. The request is handwritten and apparently a copy has been sent to the Plaintiff

Accordingly, we will schedule a hearing in this matter for February 4, 1993 at 10:30 a.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

We note that athe request includes a request for modification with respect to Christmas 1992 and since this hearing will not be held until after that date the parties will have to abide by the original order with respect to that visitationunless they can agree otherwise.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Dec. 17, 1992 All copies circulated by Judge Vardaro's secretary

Feb. 19, 1993 Order filed. AND NOW, February 4, 1993, we have before us the parties in this custody matter with regard to some issues raised by the Defendant as a result of out order of April 28, 1992.

Accordingly, that order is modified to the extent that this order makes such modificatio and otherwise it is affirmed in its entirety.

1. From henceforth until further order of Court, all exchanges of custody unless the parties otherwise agree form time to time will occur at a McDonald's restaurant at Exit 134 on I-71 approximately 10 miles north of Columbus, Ohio and in each instance they will occur at 1:00 p.m. on the designated day.

2. With respect to the summer visitation since the Defendant would like to have an extended period of time for vacation with the minor child, the summer visitation will be changed so that athe father will rceive custody of the minor child at 1:00 p.m. on the day after school is out of session for each year and will keep custody of the child until 1:00 p.m. two weeks and one day before school starts for the next year.

3. With respect to Christmas and Thanksgiving visitation, the Plaintiff father has agreed to forfeit any Thanksgiving visitation and in return beginning with Christmas 1993 and for every Christmas thereafter he shall have physical custody of the minor child from 1:00 p.m. on December 26th through 1:00 p.m. on the day before school begins at the end of the Christmas/New Years holiday.

4. With respect to father's temporary custody of the minor child during spring vacations, such visitations shall now begin at 1:00 p.m on the day after school is dismissed until 1:00 p.m. on the day before school begins. If said vacation is two days or less, the spring vacation visitation will only apply if it is conducted in the state where the mother resides.

5. Insofar as all exchanges of custody will be at the McDonald's on I-71 at Exit 134, the parties shall communicate either directly or through Stosh to coordinate those exchanges with the understanding that if that communication cannot take place the exchanges shall always take place at that location and at the time designated in this amended order.

6. As required by the order of April 28, 1992, the Defendant mother shall keep the Plaintiff father informed of all matters concerning the minor child's health, education and major events in his life. Additionally, the mother Defendant has agreed that she will talk to the school officials in Indiana to advise them that the Court order of April 28, 1992 requires them to provide directly to father Plaintiff any and all information they have concerning the subject minor child and that is what shared custody is intended to mean.

This order shall supersede and replace the order of April 28, 1992 in all respects it is inconsistent with that order and in all other respects sthe order of April 28, 1992 is affirmed.

Mar. 16, 1993 Order filed. AND NOW, March 15, 1993, the Defendant calls into the Judges Chambers with respect to our order of Febraury 4, 1993 advising us that there is no Exit 134 on I-71 which is the designated exchange place in numbered Paragraph 1 of our order of February 4, 1993.

She apparently indicates that it is in fact Exit 131 and accordingly, our order of February 4, 1993 is modified so that numbered Paragraph 1 says.

from henceforth until further order of Court, all exchanges of custody unless the parties otherwise agree from time to time will occur at a McDonald's restaurant at Exit 134 on I-71 approximately 10 miles north of Columbus, Ohio and each instance they will occur at 1:00 P.M. on the designated day. If we are in error and the McDonald's restaurant is in fact at Exit 131 on I-71 and there is not an Exit 134, then such exchanges shall take place at Exit 131 on I-71.

In all other respects as not modified by this order, the order of February 4, 1993 shall remain in full force and effect.

July 14, 1993, Motion filed.

July 14, 1993, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 7, 1993, the defendant appears in Motion Court with a motion which essentially just indicates that the plff allegedly is not complying with the current custody order.

We orally explore this matter with the dft. and it appears that there are some ongoing problems betweenthe parties with the implementation of our most recent custody order.

When she appears, the dft. has traveled from the state of Indiana all night to appear in Motion Court but indicates that she has not advised the p lff pursuant to our local reles that she would be appearing. Due to her length of travel and her confusion about what what was required, we are going to set a hearing and we have advised her that in the future if she intends to proceed pro se she should comply with ten Local Rules requiring notice to the plff. before appearing in Motion Court.

Aug. 12, 1993 ORDER filed. AND NOW, August 10, 1993, this matter is before the Court pursuant to Court Order of July 7, 1993, set to review the matter and make any modifications that may be necessary. Essentially this came about due to the appearance of the Defendant in motion Court maintaining that the Plaintiff was not complying with the order.

We explored the matter informally with both parties present without counsel and we are of the conclusion that these parties will never be able to comply with the Court Orders that have been entered in this matter without some disagreements. They continue not to be cooperative with one another and it appears that this will continue until the minor child, Stosh, reaches age 18 in November of 1994.

Accordingly, the previous orders now in effect shall remain in full force and effect with the only modification being as follows:

1. Since the Plaintiff apparently has not had success in receiving school records from the State of Indiana, the Defendant is ordered to forward a true and correct copy of each report card she receives from the school with respect to Stosh to the Plaintiff by regular mail within twenty-four hours of receiving the same. She shall likewise forward a true and correct copy of any papers she receives from the school for any reason at any time within twenty-four hours of reeiving the same to the Plaintiff, again by regular mail.

2. The Plaintiff shall have temporary custody of Stosh this day from 2:15 p.m. until 4:15 p.m. and shall have Stosh available for the Defendant to take into her custody in the parking lot of the Ponderosa restaurant on Route 322 in Meadville at 4:15 p.m.

Sept. 6, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, August 31, 1990, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation because minor child Evan, age 12, voiced a desire to remain in the custody of his father and attend school at the Conneatville schools. The mother's posture is that since the children have been with the father for most of the summer, she has had no opportunity to discuss this dramatic change directly with her son Evan. Accordingly, custody of the minor child Evan shall be surrendered this date to th emother who can take him with her to Sarver, Pennsylvania, for the weekend together with appropriate clothing and equipment. The child shall spend the weekend visit with the mothe rin the mother's home and be returned by the Mother to the father by 9:00 p.m. Labor Day night, September 3, 1990. The Court schedules this case for further review September 6, 1990 at 1:30 p.m. Counsel are advised tha tin the event there can ab eno amicable resolution of this issue, the Court lacks the time to hld a full custody hearing and will refer the matter to a custody mediator and enter an appropriate temporary Order.

The Parties mutually agree that in spite of the fact this is a weekend designated visit for the father, the children may remain in the custody of the mother.

The father will be accorded another appropriate weekend, but in view of the mother's family plan for the weekend of Saturday, September 8th, both parents agree the father's make up weekend shall not be the weekend of September 8, 1990.

Without intending th condone the conduct of the father, the Court finds insufficient evidence to hold the fath erin contempt and punish him for contempt. Accordingly, we temporarily dismiss the contempt request.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Sept. 11, 1990 Copy of order mailed Marion Laffey-Ferry and copy put in Mary Ann Kirkpatrick's box.

Sept. 7, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, September 6, 1990, the matter is before the Court on a specially held hearing resulting from a contempt petition previosuly informally heard by the Court with relation to minor child Evan's desire to live primarily with his father. The Court accorded the mother a visitation with the child and the matter is back befor ethe Court at this time, with counsel and their parties advising the court they have reached an amicable resolution of the issue involving minor child Evan and wish a de novo Order relating to all three children.

ACCORDINGLY, by agreement of the parties, custody of the chidlren shall be mutually shared by the parents, with the father having primary physical custody of minor child Evan and the mother having primary physical custody of minor children Joshue and Shannon.

The parties shal lmake mutually satisfactory arrangements so that all three children will be in the custody of the mother per calendar month, with the designated weekends to be mutually arranged by future agreements.

Each parent agrees to be liberal in according visits when practicaly between the parents and children, providing said notice and arrangements are accomplished forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the proposed visits.

Holiday visits and other special occasion visits will be mutually agreed upon by the parents and a fair and equitable exchange of the chidlren for said special holidays will be arranged.

Summer visitation schedules between the parents and the children when the children are out of school will be mutually agreed upon, and the parties mututally agree that by May 15th of each calendar year, they will agree upon an exchange schedule for the children for the summer months so that the children may spend meaningful time with each paren.

This matter originally having come befor ethe Court on a contempt citation and the parties having mutually resolved the matter, the court considers the petition for contempt withdrawn.

OF RECORD

A.D. 1983 - 619

Accordingly, the Court finds him in comtempt of this order. Punishment for contempt will be postponed in view of the fact the defendant has been confined in jail but the Court reserves the right in the future to impose any additional penalty if any further infraction or annoyance of the wife occurs in violation of the previous order.

The parties are in bitter dispute regarding visitation of the child, both parties agreeing each parent is an adequate, protective and loving parent but that any meeting between the parties for exchange of the child or otherwise produces such animosity that it worked toward the disinterest of the welfare of the child.

Accordingly, the Court sees no alternative except to explore the matter further and ascertain an appropriate custody order and visitation order under the Court's conditions as it is obvious that the aggrement between the parties as evidenced by a previous order of August 9, 1983 is not a workable solution for custody and visitation.

The Court having previously set a hearing on modification of custody and visitation for December 13, 1983 at 2:30 P.M. under A.D. 1983-170 (divorce action), the court will re-explore the matter in to looking toward a resolution of this bitterly contested matter.

In the meantime, on Sunday, November 27, 1983, the mother shall deliver the child to the paternal grandparents' home at 1:00 p.m. and the father shall pick up the child at 1:30 p.m. and not sooner. The father will return the child to the paternal grandparents' home at 6:30 p.m. on said date and the mother will pick up the child at 7:00 p.m., and not sooner. On Friday, December 2, 1983, the mother shall deliver the child to the paternal grandparents' home at 4:00 p.m. and the father shall pick up the child at 4:30 p.m. and may have the child in his continuous care and custody until the father returns the child to the paternal grandparents' home on Sunday, December 4, 1983 at 6:30 p.m. and the mother shall pick the child up at 7:00 p.m.

The same arrangement and the same time schedule shall be applicable to the weekend of December 9th, 10th, and 11th.

Neither party shall harass, annoy, make derogatory remarkes about or to either party.

The Court notes a pending harassment or criminal mischief charge which the wife intends to file against the husband for allegedly smashing the windshield of her car and the Court is powerless to resolve this issue at this time but leaves it to the good discration of the appropriate magistrate.

There appears to be an active Domestic Relations case regarding support for the child only and the mother's complaint is that payments were suspended on this order and the defendant's explanation is that he was advised by Domestic Relations since he nor Domestic Relations did not know the whereabouts of the mother that payments could be suspended. The defendant sdvises the Court, however, that he has saved these payments, and accordingly, the Court would expect that on or before November 29, 1983 any arrears under the Court Order for support will be paid in full.

It appears the defendant is likewise under probationary supervision on an adjudication emminating from Justice Bennett's Office, the Court takes no action on this matter at this time but in the event the Probation Department would find that the defendant violates any of their orders, it will be referred back to Justice Bennett for appropriate disposition.

The Sheriff is authorized to release the defendant from confinement forthwith.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, PJ

Nov. 30, 1983 Copies of order to Ruthanne Beighley, Richard Peterson and Sheriff's Office.

Dec. 19, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, December 13, 1983, the Court makes disposition of custody and property division in the divorce action at AD 1983-170 and counsel for the parties advise the Court that they wish the abuse action at this number terminated, and accordingly, any Orders entered in connection with a petition for a Protective Order are discontinued and this case is TERMINATED AND DISMISSED with the consent of both parties without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to file a new action on the basis of any alleged abuse occuring after this date.
