The Court directs counsel and the parents to meet and attempt to work out a reasonable visitation schedule so that Bethany has adequate time and as close a relationship as possible with her mother. The Court suggests expanding visits during the summer months so that Bethany will spend a considerable amount of time with her mother and if possible spend the mother's vacation period with her The Court desires that the parents both share the child in their respective vacation period.

In addition, during the spring school break, an expanded visit should be arranged with the mother and at Christmastime a period of time should be arranged with the mother so that she has the child in her custody for a period of not less than three or four days, with arrangements to be made for one of the days to be either the day before or the day immediately after Christmas but Christmas should be spent in the home of the father.

If counsel are unable to arrange and reduce to writing a satisfactory visitation schedule between the parties, the matter may be referred back to the Court and the Court will set the visitation schedule without further hearing.

BY THE COURT,

Jan. 7, 1981, Copies of Order to Joseph Kulwicki, Esq. and John Fuller, Esq.

Jan 21, 1981 Affidavit filed: JOSEPH F. KULWICKI, Esquire, attorney for the plaintiff, hereby deposes and says that on January 8, 1981, he placed a true and correct copy of the above captioned divorce complaint in the United States Mail, being certified number 800953, return receipt requested, deliver to addressee only, deliverable to the defendant Robert Carl Staudt, at his last known address as follows: c/o Mrs. Margaret Staudt
197 North Franklin Street
Cochranton, Pennsylvania 16314

Said return receipt card has been returned to your deponent bearing the signature of the defendant, having been received by the defendant on January 9, 1981. Said receipt for certified mail and the signature card for certified mail number 800953 are attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Joseph F. Kulwicki,

Jan 30, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, January 28, 1981, after informal hearing at which time counsel for both parties were present and a brief review of the assets of the parties, Court hereby awards the sum of $350.00 in counsel fees for the processing of this divorce including past pork of counsel and completion of the divorce, whether contested or uncontested and on whatever grounds. The Court awards the Plaintiff the sum of $350.00 in connsel fees with the sum to be paid one-half by February 27, 1981 and the balance by March 20, 1981. By agreement of counsel, the fees due by the Defendant for counsel fees will be paid to his counsel and held in escrow pending final grant of the divorce, this provision being entered on the basis that Defendant and his counsel this date state they will enter no contest to a divorce under 201c or indignities.

The Court notes at this time that this counsel fee award does not intend to represent any counsel fees that may be due either party in the event of protracted litigation involving property division in this divorce action.

The Court notes at this time that the parties are aware that marriage counseling is available when a divorce is filed alleging an irretrievably broken marriage, and that a list of marriage counselors is available for their use.

In view of the fact there will be no contest of this action, the Court deems it inadvisable to make any award for alimony pendent lite,at this time. However, in the event through any actions in contesting the divorce by the Defendant the matter is protracted, the Court will reconsider this part of the Order.

Feb. 27, 1981 Petition for Counseling Pursuant to Section 202 of the Divorce Code filed.

Feb. 27, 1981 Order filed: Plaintiff brought a divorce action based on indignities and an irretrievably broken marriage under section 201(d) (three years separation) of the Divorce Code. Defendant filed an answer denying the marriage is irretrievably broken or that he had offered indignties. He counterclaims for equitable distribution of property and alimony pendente lite and permanent.

Defendant now petitions, under Section 202 of the Divorce Code, for mandatory marriage counseling. Indignties having been alleged as grounds, we are empowered under section 202(a) to require up to a maximum of three counseling sessions where either party requests it.

In the case of an irretrievably broken marriage and three years separation 201(d) we can schedule a hearing to determine if in fact the parties have lived separate and apart for three years and whether the marriage is irretrievably broken (201(d)(1)(ii). If there appears a reasonable prospect of reconciliation, the Court can then continue the matter and require counseling under Section 202.

Whether plaintiff intends to proceed to divorce on an indignities theory or on a three year separation theory remain to be seen.

At the time of presentation of the petition, counsel for the plaintiff appeared and advised the Court that plaintiff is not interested in counseling or sharing the expense therefore.

If indeed the marriage is irretrievably broken, the expense of counseling is not warranted--particularly when defendant's counsel intimated to the Court on presentation of the petition that since his client lacked the wherewithal to pay for counseling, they expected the uninterested plaintiff to pay for the same.

We believe the matter can be brought to issue most expeditiously by scheduling a hearing under Section 201(d)(1)(ii) to determine if indeed there is a separation of three years and the marriage is so irretrievably broken that counseling wuuld be useless. We enter the following:

Mar. 12, 1981, AND NOW, March 5, 1981, after hearing, the Court finds the testimony clearly shows that the parties have been separated for a period in excess of three years, and after extensive testimony, the Court determines that the marriage is irretrievably broken and counseling would be of no theoretical or practical use in attempting to get the parties back together under the facts of the separation, the conduct of the parties since separation and the present living arrangements of both parties.

ACCORDINGLY, we decline the request for counseling.

Nov 10, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, November 9, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a Motion for Sanctions filed by the defendant, contending that an Order of Judge Robert L. Walker of September 30, 1988 has not been complied with. The Court hears input from both counsel.

The Court notes the Order required plaintiffs to produce within ten days any expert's reports now interprets Judge Walker's Order to the end that it only covered expert reports in written form now in existence. Counsel for the defendant takes a different view.

The Motion for Sanctions is DENIED at this time on the following conditions:

1. In view of the fact this case is now seven years old, the Court believes time is of the essence in requiring the plaintiffs to notify the defendant the basis of their negligence allegation regarding the pipe in question. ACCORDINGLY, the plaintiffs through counsel will furnish written reports delineating the opinion to John C. Frank and any other experts that they will call at the time of trial. Said reports will be in the hands of opposing counsel by 5:00 p.m., November 21, 1988. In the event said reports are not received in accordance with this Order, John C. Frank and any other expert will be precluded from testifying in the trial of the case.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR MARCH 23, 1981; No. 5

Mar. 16, 1981, Answer to Preliminary Objections and Motion to Strike filed.

Mar. 23, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, March 23, 1981, at the time set for argument on preliminary objections raising a two year statute of limitations to a trespass action, counsel for the defendant files an amended answer raising the statute of limitations in the form of new matter, together with summary judgment.

In response to this, plaintiff asks leave of Court to file an amended complaint which changes the form of action from Trespass to assumpsit and proceeds on a breach of contract theory. Counsel may wish to oppose this action contending that in reality the amended complaint is no more than the original complaint raising the same facts but titled in assumpsit rather than trespass and that the two year statute of limitations should apply to the amended complaint regardless of how it is captioned.

Accordingly, in order to resolve the issue we must accord the defendant twenty (20) days to file an answer to the amended complaint and if the defendant still contends that a two year statute of limitations is applicable by law and under the pleadings they may list the matter for argument at the next available argument court.

Feb. 10, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 5, 1981, at the time set for hearing on this abuse petition, counsel for the parties advise the Court that the parties have reached an amicable agreement and no hearing is necessary. ACCORDINGLY, by agreement of the parties, the Court directs as follows:

1. The defendant will vacate the jointly-owned premises immediately and said vacation from the premises shall extend for a period of four (4) months from this date.

2. The defendant agrees he will not directly or indirectly abuse the plaintiff or her children or encourage or procure others to do so on his behalf.

3. The plaintiff and defendant agree there is a mortgage liability against this property to mortgagee Myron Custead in the amount of $200.00 per month and the defendant agrees that for the months of March, April, May and June he will pay directly to mortgagee Custead one-half of said mortgage in the sum of $100.00 on the date due. Plaintiff will pay the balance of the $100.00 for said months. The payment of this mortgage is in lieu of any support demanded by the plaintiff at this time, but is entered into without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to pursue all available procedural remedies accorded under the divorce act when a divorce is filed.

4. The utilities to operate the premises, namely, oil, electric and telephone will be paid exclusively by the plaintiff.

5. By agreement of the parties, the defendant has the right to enter upon the premises and remove his personal belongings, including clothing, limited small tools, an old radio and such other items as the parties or their counsel agree upon. The parties agree the removal will be made by 5:00 P.M. this date.

6. The defendant agrees to pay all costs in this case and the same will be billed to his counsel.

Feb. 9, 1981, Appearance of Northwestern Legal Services, by D. Douglas Keegan, attorneys for defendant filed.

Feb 10, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 6, 1981, the issue before the Court at this time is whether the children should be turned over at this time to the custody of the father pending the hearing scheduled for Feb. 27, 1981. In view of the limited living arrangements of the father at this time, the Court deems it inadvisable to turn over full-time custody to the father pending the outcome of the hearing on February 27th. HOWEVER, father assures the Court that he and the children could reside temporarily on weekends at his sister's house on Pennsylvania Avenue, and accordingly, for the weekends of Saturday, February 7th, 14th and 21st the father shall have the right to pick up the children at the home of the grandparents at Noon on Saturday and have them in his exclusive custody until Noon on the following Monday, at which time, he will return them to the custody of the grandparents until the hearing of Feb. 27th.

The children shall be sleeping and spending the majority of their time at the home of the father's sister.

The grandparents agree that they will pack the necessary clothes and a few toys for the children to make their stay with their father as convenient as possible. The father expresses apprehension about the possibility of threats to his safety when he appears to pick up the children and the grandparents this date assured the Court that there will be no refusal to surrender the children, no threats made at the time of the surrender, no loud words, no profanity and no indirect or direct harassment of the father in his attempt to carry out this Court Order.

The Court notes at this time that the presence of the children will not be required at the hearing on Feb. 27th and the grandparents are authorized to place them in the custody of some other person during the hearing of this case.

PER CURIAM,
P. Richard Thomas, J
Feb. 16, 1989 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas, Douglas Ferguson and Anthony Vardaro

Feb. 15, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW,February 14, 1989, this long, drawn-out divorce action of which a bifurcated divorce has already been granted, is back before the Court on the plaintiff's request for counsel fees and alimony pendente lite. Neither party brings with them the necessary gross and net income information for the Court to enter any kind of an intelligent alimony order.
The Court also notes that the parties have split custody of two (2) children, and there is a support Order in the Domestice Relations Division requiring support by the Defendant/Father.
The husband occupies and has occupies the marital residence, but contends that the original financer has now advised that the mortgage thereon will be foreclosed, because the parties were required within a certain period of time after the initial outlay by the mortgagee to refinance with anyother company.
Due to crowed court schedules, it is impossible for the Court to reschedule this matter and require the parties to produce sufficient evidence to allow the Court to enter a rational alimony pendente lite Order if it is found to be appropriate.
Accordingly, this case is referred to Domestic Relations Hearing Officer Bruce L. Smith, as a special case, and he is DIRECTED to hold a hearing on this case on or before March 1, 1989 at the Domestic Relations Section.
AT THE HEARING before Hearing Officer Smith, the wife will produce copies of her 1987 Tax Return and all evidence of earnings in 1988, both gross and net, and all W-2 Forms received from her employment.
The husband will produce copies of his 1986 and 1987 Income Tax Returns and records indicating his gross and net income as projected for 1988.
The Court notes that the child support Order generally requires payment of $120.00 per month by the father to the wife for support of the minor child, but when his employment is slack, the Order apparently has some arrangements for reduction contained within the Order.
As fas as counsel fees are concerned, the Defendant/Husband is DIRECTED to pay $100.00 on or before March 1, 1989 as counsel fees to R. Charles Thomas, counsel for the wife. In this regard, the Court requests Hearing Officer Smith to make a recommendation to the Court for entry of a further appropriate counsel fee Order, in view of the financial status of the parites, and if either party disagrees with said recommendation, they may request a de novo hearing before the Court on this issue.

This Order is entered with the same force and effect as if the Domestic Relations Ruels were in effect, and each party is advised they will have ten (10) days to file a request for a de novo hearing from the entry of a temporary Order by the Domestic Relations Hearing Officer.

This Order is DIRECTED to Hearing Officer Smith without prejudice to the right of the Hearing Officer to find that alimony pendente lite may not be appropriate in this case.

Hearing Officer Smith will submit a bill forhis services to the Domestic Relations Section with the same force and effect as if this case originated as a regular Domestic Relations case.

The Master recommends fees be divided 75% to the Defendant and 25% to the Plaintiff.

The Defendant has already paid $350.00 towards said fees. Accordingly, we direct that the Defendant pay an additional sum of $1,157.00 and the Plaintiff pay an additional sum of $502.00 to the Prothonotary's Office on or before september 1, 1989. The Prothonotary shall immediately disburse the $350.00 on deposit to James I. And now, August 2, 1989, it is ordered and decreed that Christine A. Schrock, plaintiff, and Monroe A. Shrock, defendant, are divorced from the bonds of matrimony.

Sept. 11, 1989 Order For Contempt Hearing filed. And now, September 9, 1989, this Court by Order dated August 2, 1989, and filed August 7, 1989, ordered the parties in this divorce action to deposit additional sums in the Prothonotary's Office to pay Master's fees and court reporter fees in the above entitled action by September 1, 1989. The Prothonotary reports said fees were not deposited.

Accordingly, the Court hereby sets a hearing for September 15, 1989, at 4:00 p.m., to ascertain why said parties should not be held in contempt of court and be appropriately sanctioned.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 11, 1989 Copies put in Atty's Thomas, Ferguson & Petruso's box.

Sept 18, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, September 15, 1989, hearing was set on this matter for September 15, 1989. Counsel for the Defendant appears. Plaintiff and her counsel appear. The Defendant fails to appear. From his counsel and former wife, the Court is reasonably certain he had full knowledge of this hearing, and the Court does not intend to accept second-hand information ragrding his income, current employment and his assets. Accordingly, the Court finds the Defendant in contempt of Court for failing to appear this date pursuant to our Order of September 9, 1989, which is keyed toward a previous order for payment of costs in this case, dated August 2, 1989. Prothonotary is DIRECTED to issue an arrest warrant for the Defendant for his immediate arrest and apprehension. Execution of the warrant will be suspended until after 4:30 p.m., October 2, 1989. In the meantime, if the Defendant pays his financial obligations in accord with this Court's Order by said date, the Sheriff will not execute said warrant.

This Order relates to the divorce action only, but the Court notes that a Domestic Relations action at 1981-57, there are also child support and other support arrearages due, which are not covered specifically by the Court's Order in the divorce action.

Insofar as the Plaintiff is concerned, she admits she has not paid the obligation amounting to the sum of $502.00 and postulates as a reason therefor that she has minimal income from employment at this time, and she was counting on income from her husband under the alimony and child support Order to pay the sum ordered by the Court. Accordingly, the Court will not hold the Plaintiff in contempt, but DIRECTS that commening with the week of November 12, said sum shall increase to $25.00 per week, and the entire balance due by the Plaintiff will be paid in full on or before January 1, 1990.

The arrest warrant against the Defendant is issued for failing to comply with this Court's Order of August 2, 1989 ordering payments and failing to comply with this Court's Order of September 9, 1989, setting a hearing at which the Defendant was expected to appear.

Oct. 16, 1989 Petition to Adjudicate Defendant in Contempt and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 16 day of October, 1989, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition a Rule is granted upon the Defendant to show cause, if any he has, why he should not be adjudged in contempt of the Orders heretofore entered by your Honorable Court as set forth in the within Petition.

A hearing on this matter is set for the 2 day of Nov., 1989 at 1:30 o'clock P.M. in Court Room No. 1 of the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, PA.

A copy of this Petition shall be served upon the Defendant by Certified Mail, Return receipt requested, and by regular mail and a copy upon his Attorney, Douglas Ferguson, Esquire, by regular mail.

The Defendant is warned that if he does not appear in person that a hearing may be held in his absence and an Order entered by the Court entering the relief requested in the Petition. The Defendant is further warned that if he does not appear in person the Court may issue a Warrant for his arrest.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Oct. 16, 1989 Copy of Order to R. Charles Thomas, Douglas Ferguson and Anthony Vardaro.

Nov. 3, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, November 2, 1989, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation. In regards to the attorney fees and alimony due under the divorce action, the Court is advised that the Defendant paid the sum of $650.00 in attorney fees and $200.00 in alimony on or about October 31, 1989. Accordingly, the issue in the divorce action is now moot.

In regard to the support Order, the Defendnat is under a support obligation of $20.00 per week plus $5.00 on arrears, with the $20.00 going to the mother of the child, and $5.00 applying on the arrearage of $1,185.00 due the Department of Welfare. Defendant's attorney advises they are negotiating with the Department to see if a lump sum settlement in a reduced amount would resolve the issue.

Insofar as the support Order is concerned, the Defendant will continue to pay the $20.00 per week plus $5.00 in arrears, and in addition, he will pay an additional sum of $100.00 on the arrears due the mother by November 30, 1989 and an additional $100.00 sum to apply on said arrears by December 30, 1989, and he will pay the entire balance due on these arrears in full on or before April 15, 1990.

In the event Defendant fails to comply with this Order for a period in excess of ten (10) days, the Court will entertain an immediate motion by the Plaintiff or the Domestic Relations Section for a bench warrant.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

April 4, 1990 Petition to Adjudicate Defendant In Contempt and ORDER filed. AND NOW, this 4th day of April, 1990, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition a Rule is granted upon the Defendant to show cause, if any he has, shy he should not be adjudicated in contempt of the Order requiring him to pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $2,000.00 awarded to her by the Master in his Report dated June 29, 1989 and further why appropriate sanctions should not be imposed upon the Defendant by reason of his failure to pay the award.

Returnable and for hearing on the 25th day of April, 1990 at 10:00 o'clock A.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, PA.

The Defendant is warned that if he fails to appear at the time and place of the aforesaid heraing the hearing may be held in his absence and appropriate sanctions imposed upon him.

A copy of this Petition to be served upon the Defendant by Certified Mail and regular mail and a copy to be served upon his Attorney, Douglas Ferguson, Esquire.

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J.

April 5, 1990 Copy of Order to Attys. R. Charles Thomas and Douglas Ferguson.

Apr. 25, 1990 Order filed. AND NOW, April 25, 1990, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation with the Plaintiff alleging the Defendant's wilful and deliverate failure to pay the sum of $2,000.00 as required in the equitable distribution recommendation of the Master in June of 1989. The entire unpaid balance was to be paid by February 1, 1990.

The Defendant has paid absolutely nothing on this equitable award to the wife under the divorce action. Accordingly, he is found in wilful and deliverate contempt of court.

The Court notes the defendnat has had a serious occupational accident that will delay his employment for a period of time pending outcome of healing of any injury to his right thumb. Accordingly, the Defendant will pay the sum of $100.00 to his former wife on May 15 and an equal amount on the 15th of June, July and August, with the entire unpaid balance due and payable on September 15, 1990. In default of said payment, the Court advises the defendant that it intends to sentence him mto undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of one and one-half to six months for wilful and deliberate contempt of court Order.

Apr. 27, 1990 Copies of order put in R. Charles Thomas and Douglas Ferguson's box.

Oct 9, 1990 Amended Divorce Decree filed: The Court's attention is belatedly directed to the fact that it entered a Final Divorce Decree in this case November 6, 1985, and another Final Divorce Decree August 2, 1989.

In the 1985 Divorce Decree the Court intended to bifurcate the divorce from the ancillary economic issues and, accordingly, the Court retained jurisdiction of unresolved ancillary issues raised by the pleadings.

When the divorce Master's Report was filed June 29, 1989, neither party filed exceptions thereto. On August 2, 1989, this Court reviewed the Master's Report and in view of the fact neitehr party objected to the recommendations of the Master, we adopted the Master's recommendations as they related to economic and ancillary issues raised in the pleadings. Through oversight, the Court's August 2, 1989 Order again contained an Order divorcing the parties, which was unnecessary in view of the Court's November 6, 1985 bifurcated Divorce Decree. To clarify the record, we not enter the following Amended Decree nunc pro tunc.

AMENDED DIVORCE DECREE

And Now, October 8, 1990, the first paragraph of this Court's Divorce Decree of August 2, 1989 purporting to divorce the parties from the bonds of matrimony, is recinded nunc pro tunc, with the resulting effect that the Divorce Decree of Movenber shall stand, and parties shall be considered as having been divorced November 6, 1985.

The second paragraph of the August 2, 1989 Decree, disposing of all remaining ancillary issues in accord with the recommendations of the Master, shall remain in effect as the Court's decision on all ancillary issues with the same force and effect as if specifically incorporated in the August 2, 1989 Decree. The August 2, 1989 date shall remain as controlling of the disposition of ancillary and economic issues.

The Court, being duly advised in the premises, grants said motion and the "Amended Petition for Adoption" is hereby deemed filed and approved as to form. Judge, Hancock Circuit Court

Mar 11, 1981 Motion for Relief and Order filed: AND NOW, this 10 day of March, A.D., 1981, upon consideration of the foregoing Motion, a Rule is entered upon the Plaintiff, George Alick, to show cause why the Court should not grant the following relief:

(A) Dismiss the Complaint of the Plaintiff, George Alick, for lack of jurisdiction under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act.

(B) Dismass the Complaint of the Plaintiff, George Alick, because the Plaintiff lacks standing to bring an action.

(C) Refuse to exercise its jurisdiction due to the fact a proceeding concerning the custody of the child is pending in the State of Indiana, and the Defendants have been made the guardian of the child by Order of the Court of Hancock County, Indiana.

(D) Refuse to exercise its jurisdiction for the reason that the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, is an inconvenient forum and the Circuit Court of Hancock County, Indiana, is a more convenient forum to determine who should have custody of the minor child.

(E) Stay the proceedings in the Court of Commons Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and cummunicate with the Circuit Court of Hancock County, Indiana, to the end that the issues may be determined in the more appropriate forum.

Mar. 12, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 5, 1981, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the plaintiff advises the Court the parties are willing to enter into an amicable agreement, and accordingly, with the consent of the parties, the Court enters the following:

1. The defendant shall abstain absolutely from annoying, harassing, assaulting in any fashion the plaintiff in this action. The plaintiff has expressed a desire that they not associate with each other but concedes that the defendant should have permission to visit their minor child. By agreement of the parties the defendant my come to the home of the plaintiff on Tuesday nights from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 12:00 Noon to 5:00 p.m. for the purpose of visiting said child. By agreement of the plaintiff, the defendant may take the child from the premises and have the child in his own custody so long as he returns the child at proper times.

2. It appears that there has been filed a custody action but at this time the defendant is unwilling to agree to any Consent Order in that case until he explores his rights with counsel.

3. It appears also that the defendant at this time is making a voluntary support payment to the plaintiff in the amount of $20.00 per week, but this agreement has not been reduced to writing and is not processed through the Domestic Relations Division.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Mar. 10, 1981, Sur Petition For Writ of Habeas Corpus - ORDER: AND NOW, March 9, 1981, upon presentation of this petition requesting modification of a previous visitation arrangement due to the fact that the mother of two minor children, age two and four, has moved from this jurisdiction andnow has resided in the state of Arizona for nearly a year and in view of the fact that the mother is only back within the jurisdiction of this Court for a temporary visit with the children, the Court believes that this Court is an inconvenient form to decide an appropriate modification of the original visitation agreement.

Accordingly, we direct the filing of this petition and Order and encourage the plaintiff to petition the appropriate court in the state of Arizona to secure adequate visitation arrangements with his minor children.

The Court notes that the original agreement was apparently entered into on the assumption that the children would remain within the jurisdiction of this Court but this Court believes the Arizona Court a more appropriate court to review the family situation of the mother, her employment and to consider any requests presented by the plainitff in a petition to the Arizona Court to establish and to finance travel for reasonable visitations with the children.

Accordingly, this Court declines at this time to hear the issue of visitation with the minor children and urges the plaintiff to file an appropriate proceeding in the state of Arizona, with a request to be allowed to be heard on said petition without the expense of traveling to said state and the Court urges the appropriate court in the state of Arizona to give a sympathetic ear to the wishes of the father to visit with his children and to consider any proposition he wishes to make to the court regarding the location and terms of reasonable visitations with his minor children.

COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE, CUSTODY AND SUPPORT, EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION, COUNSEL FEES, ALIMONY AND ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE

1 copy attested (sheriff)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 13 day of March, 1981, pursuant to the within Complaint in Divorce, a Rule is issued upon the Defendant to show cause why he should not pay Plaintiff counsel fees and costs and alimony pendente lite in the above matter.

Rule returnable the 29 day of April, 1981, at 1:30 o'clock P.M. in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania, at which time a hearing will be held.

PER CURIAM,
P. Richard Thomas,

Mar. 16, 1981, Copy of Order to Douglas Ferguson, Esq.

ORDER: AND NOW this 13 day of March, 1981, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition, the parties hereto and their respective counsel are ordered to appear before William Pineo, the Child Custody Master who is hereby appointed in this case, and said parties and their respective counsel shall appear at such time or times as the Child Custody Master shall hereinafter determine. Mar. 30, 1981 Sheriff's Return filed: SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Larry V. Martin personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Complaint in Divorce and Order No. A.D. 1981-246 to him, on March 23, 1981 at 11:37 A.M., at the Sheriff's Office, Room 101, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, State of Pennsylvania.

So answers, Ruth Lou Weaver, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

May 6, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, April 29, 1981, at the time set for hearing, the matter is discussed informally with counsel and the parties and it appears that to review the entire financial situation of the parties for the purpose of awarding alimony pendente lite would take an expensive hearing at considerable additional expense to the parties. After review of the basic financial situation of the parties and the indication that the parties may be able to amicably reach an agreement to dispose of their jointly-owned assets or marital assets, the Court hereby believes that equity will best be served by requiring the defendant to pay one half of the mortgage payments now paid on the jointly-owned property in which the wife resides. ACCORDINGLY, commencing with the monty of April, 1981, the defendant will be required to pay the sum of $280.00 per monty direct to his wife and her obligation will be to pay the mortgage payment of $560.00. The first payment will be made on or before May 13, 1981, and the payment for May will be due on or before June 1, 1981. This Order shall be in force and effect until July 1, 1981, and if the parties have not resolved their differences by that date, either party may petition for reconsideration.

The Court notes at this time that counsel for the plaintiff waives rights to counsel fees at this time without prejudice to the right to reapply to the Court in the future for reasonable counsel fees nunc pro tunc and without prejudice to his right to request that counsel fees in a reasonable amount be paid upon settlement and distribution of the jointly-held assets.

Aug. 28, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, August 28, 1981, a Motion for Appointment of a Master having been filed by the plaintiff and it appearing that the Plaintiff has not filed the necessary income and expense statement, and the defendant has not filed an income and expense statement or inventory and appraisement as required by the rules, it is ordered that the plaintiff file an income and expense statement within fifteen (15) days of this date and the failure to file such statement shall be conclusively deemed as an abandonment of any claim for permanent alimony.

The defendant is directed to file an income and expense statement and inventory and appraisement on or before Sepember 28, 1981. If the defendant fails to file an income and expense statement as required hereunder, he shall not be permitted to offer any evidence at the time of the Master's hearing regarding his income and expenxes, and nothing herein contained shall preclude the plaintiff from calling the defendant as for cross examination relating to those issues. If the defendant fails to file an inventory and appraisement as required hereunder, the inventory filed by the plaintiff shall be conclusively deemed to be accurate and the defendant shall not be permitted to offer testimony to refute any fact contained in the inventory filed by the plaintiff.

The Master shall not be required to schedule a Master's hearing prior to September 28, 1981 or prior to the filing of all inventories and income and expense statements whichever shall first occur.

At such closing, from the sum of Fifty-Nine Hundred Dollars ($5,900.00) being held is excrow as proceeds from the sale of the parties' fifty-nine (59) acre farm and equipment, the following sums shall be subtracted and paid as indicated:

1. $1,500 to Douglas Ferguson as counsel fees.

C. Counsel Fees

Plaintiff's request for counsel fees is granted and the Defendant is directed to pay directly to counsel for the Plaintiff the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) from the sum of Fifty-Nine Hundred Dollars ($5,900.00) presently being held in escrow representing the balance of proceeds from the sale of the parties' fifty-nine (59) acre farm and equipment, said sum to be paid at the previously referenced closing.

June 3, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 2, 1981, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the Commonwealth advises the Court that after interview with the arresting officer, the officer would not be able to testify categorically that he advised the Defendant that his operating privileges would be suspended for refusal to take the test, and accordingly, counsel sees no need to involve the Court's time and request dismissal of this action against the Defendant. Accordingly, Court grants the request, and the appeal is sustained and the Department isDIRECTED to restore the suspension standing against the Defendant for refusal to submit to a breathalyzer test.

PETITION TO RECOGNIZE THE OHIO TEMPORARY CUSTODY ORDER FROM CUYAHOGA COUNTY, OHIO
CASE # D122166

ORDER:

Defendants Joseph R. Gyulay, Joseph M. Gyulay, and any other party in Crawford County, Pa., are hereby ordered to produce Nicole Marie Gyulay, at the Crawford County Court of Common Pleas, April 6, 1981, at 11:00 A.M. for a hearing to determine the validity of the Order of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas order granting temporary custody to the Plaintiff herein.

Defendants are hereby further ordered not to remove Nicole Marie Gyulay from the jurisdiction of this Court.

Apr. 6, 1981, Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Joseph R. Gyulay personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Order & Petition No. A.D. 1981 - 310 to him, on April 3, 1981, at 8:10 P.M., at his residence R. D. Conneautville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.
So answers,

James L. Murray, Deputy Sheriff
E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Apr. 6, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 6, 1981, after emergency hearing at which informal testimony is adduced, the Court finds that the primary residence of the minor child is in the State of Ohio and that the home State of the child is in the State of Ohio. While the father temporarily has resided in the State of Pennsylvania and his wife and daughter have temporarily resided at the home of the child's grandparents while the father attempts to establish a business in Pennsylvania, the Court does not find this gives this Court jurisdiction under Section 2304 (11 PS 2304) of the uniform child custody jurisdiction act.

The Court also notes that it is in possession of a certified copy of an ex parte decree issued at No. D-122166 in the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County, which order places temporary custody of the child, Nicole Marie Gyulay with her mother, Kathleen Gyulay.

Accordingly, this Court refuses to accept jurisdiction of this action as a child custody action and gives full faith and credit to the aforesaid temporary custody order issued by the Court of Common Pleas in Ohio and hereby directs that custody of the minor child Nicole be surrendered forthwith to Kathleen Gyulay and that said child shall be returned by the mother to her residence in the State of Ohio and shall not be removed from the State of Ohio without further permission from the appropriate court in the State of Ohio.

The Court notes at this time that service of the petition was obtained upon Joseph R. Gyulay, grandfather but not upon Joseph M. Gyulay but Joseph M. Gyulay appeared in person and agreed to participate in this hearing with the same force and effect as if he had been properly served by the Sheriff of Crawford County.

Counsel for the plaintiff requests the Court assess travel and other expenses, including attorney fees incurred by the plaintiff in securing this order all in accord with Section 2316 (b) of the aforesaid act and the Court declines said request without prejudice to the right of the appropriate court in the State of Ohio to assess such fees if the statutes and rules of procedure so allow upon making the ultimate disposition of this contested child custody case.

May 8, 1981, Sheriff's Return filed. Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Jos. E. Jan 15, 1982 Motion to Consolidate Issues filed.

Jan 20, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, January 15, 1982, upon presentation of the above motion, it is the contention of Defendant Jacobs Insurance Agency that the Plaintiffs are procedurally maneuvering the case to cause undue delay and inconvenience and that the matter should be consolidated, and they contend to the Court that they have been advised by counsel for the Plaintiff that they will strenupusly object to their appearance or argument at the argument scheduled January 25, 1982, because they are not entitled to be heard on the issues at that time.

It appears to the Court the best resolution of this problem would be to keep the matter on the argument list, and the argument judge hearing the case can accord apportunity to all defense counsel who wish to appear or wish to file briefs to clarify the procedural posture of the case and adopt such orders as may be necessary to see to the prompt disposition of the procedural matters and ultimate trial of the case.

CERTIFICATION OF RECORD FROM COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, STATE OF OHIO, CUYAHOGA COUNTY - No. 789 and 697

ORDER:

This cause came on for hearing this 15th day of July, 1965, before the Honorable John E. Sweeney, upon the petition of the plaintiff and the evidence, the amended petition fo the plaintiff, and the answer of defendant having been withdrawn with the consent of the court; the defendant having been duly served with process, personally, according to law. Upon due consideration thereof, the court finds that the plaintiff was a resident of the State of Ohio for more than one year and a bonafide resident of Cuyohoga County for than ninety for more than ninety days, both immediately preceding the filing of the petition; that the parties were married as alleged, and that no children were born as issue of said marriage. The Court further finds the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty towards this plaintiff, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for. The Court further finds the parties have, prior to this hearing, entered into a Separation Agreement, which is fair, just and equitable, and orders that said Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto and for identification purposes marked "Exhibit A" be incorporated herein as if fully rewritten and its terms ordered into execution. IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff be and she is hereby granted a divorce from the defendant, and that the marriage contract heretofore existing between the parties be and is hereby dissolved and set aside. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Agreement of the parties, Exhibit A attached hereto, is incorporated herein as if fully rewritten; that said agreement is made a part of the judgment of the court, and that execution may issue thereon. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant pay the costs of this proceeding for which judgment is rendered and execution may issued.

Jan 18, 1982 Affidavit of Consent of Defendant filed.

Jan 18, 1982 Upon Praecipe of Plaintiff's Attorney, this case is submitted to Court.

Jan 26, 1982 Order filed: We return this 201(c) divorce to the Prothonotary's Office for technical reasons.

The divorce Complaint was filed April 20, 1981. The parties apparently resolved all their differences and it comes to the Court for grant of the divorce on affidavits of consent in accord with Divorce Rule 1920.42 (a)(2), which reads as follows:

"(2) The affidavit shall be substantially in the form prescribed by Rule 1920.72(b) and must have been executed

"(i) ninety days or more after the filing of the complaint and

"(ii) within thirty days of the date the affidavit was filed."

(Emphasis added.)

The Complaint was filed April 22, 1981, and the affidavit of John E. Smith was timely executed more than 90 days later on August 11, 1981. However, the affidavit must be executed with 30 days of the date it was filed. Thus, the filing on January 18, 1982, was far more than 20 days of the date it was filed. This, the filing on January 18, 1982 was far more than 30 days after its execution on August 11, 1981, and runs afoul of the requirements of Rule 1920.42 (a)(2)(ii).

Likewise, the affidavit of Diane M. Smith was filed more than 30 days after its execution and also was not timely filed.

The simplified divorce procedures adopted in uncontested divorces make for more speedy processing but the Court of this County insists that the simplified procedures be strictly complied with.

We return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office until it can be resubmitted, accompanied by timely dated and filed affidavits.

May 4, 1981 Rule To File Complaint Issued.

May 4, 1981 Proof of Service filed.

May 15, 1981, Motion to Quash Appeal and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 15th day of May, 1981, upon consideration of the foregoing Motion, the Court grants a Rule upon the Appellant, Rillie Colicchio, to show cause why the appeal should not be quashed in the above captioned case.

All proceedings to stay in the meantime.

Returnable the 11 day of June, 1981, at 10:30 o'clock in Courtroom No. 1 or 2, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Crawford County, Pennsylvania.

By the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

May 15, 1981, Copies of Order to Thomas E. Lindquist, Esq., and mailed to Defendant Rillie Colicchio.

May 27, 1981 Affidavit of Service filed: THOMAS E. LINDQUIST, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that:

1. He is an attorney authorized to practice law within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

2.He is the attorney for the Appellee in the above-captioned case.

3. That on May 15, 1981, he deposited in the United State Mails by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, certified mail number P30 8107955, as evidenced by certified mail receipt number P30 8107955, attached hereto and made a part hereof, a true and correct copy of the Motion to Quash Appeal.

4. The service was obtained upon Rillie Colicchio by her signature as evidenced by the return receipt for the certified mail number P30 8107955, attached hereto and made a part hereof.

FURTHER DEPONENT SAYETH NOT: Thomas E. Lindquist

June 12, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 11, 1981, motion to quash the appeal is DENIED as the defendant produces notice that judgment was entered April 10, 1981, which fact was verified by the Court this date in a telephone call to the District Justice's Office. ACCORDINGLY, the appeal has been timely filed and there is no grounds to dismiss the Appeal.

It appears, however, that in the notice of appeal served on the plaintiff, the date of judgment is given as November 25, 1980, which fact plaintiff had a right to rely on. We grant the plaintiff an additional twenty (20) days from the date of this Order to file the Complaint required under the Rules of Procedure.

MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE
District Justice Harry Randall
(Assumpsit)

ORDER:

AND NOW, to-wit, this 20 day of May, 1981, upon consideration of the foregoing petition and on motion of Howard L. Rubenfield, Attorney for Petitioners, a Rule is granted upon Edward E. "Ted" Wilson to show cause why a change of venue should not be granted. All proceedings to stay meanwhile.

P. Richard Thomas,
J.

May 20, 1981, Copy of Order to Howard L. Rubenfield, atty.

June 17, 1981, ORDER filed.AND NOW, June 17, 1981, the matter comes before the Court on a rule to show cause issued May 20, 1981 on a motion for change of venue. It appears to the Court, however, that in spite of the fact the Court entered a rule to show cause, that the issue of venue should be first determined by the district justice before whom the matter was filed (J.P. Civil Rule 302H).

The Court, therefore, rules that a district justice has jurisdiction to determine venue in his magisterial district, and the Court will refer the matter back to District justice Harry Randall with directions to schedule a hearing with proper notice to the parties or their counsel, at which time the first matter to be resolved at thet hearing will be the question of venue. No further pleadings shall be required in Order to raise this issue.

At said hearing, the district justice will first take testimony and listen to legal argument as to whether the parties have filed the action in the proper district justice office, and in the event Justice Randall rules they have not, he will transfer the case upon the request of the Defendant to an appropriate district justice in Erie County.

In the event the district justice rules that venue before him is proper, he shall then proceed forthwith to take the necessary testimony to resolve the case.

The Prothonotary is DIRECTED to return all of the papers in this case forthwith to District Justice Harry Randall.

Dec. 12, 1983 RE: Hearing Under Section 201 (d) (I) (ii) Order filed. AND NOW, December 9, 1983, at the time set for hearing, the plaintiff and her counsel appear but defendant fails to appear. The Court notes an affidavit of service was filed showing service on the defendant of notice of this hearing on November 8, 1983. The Court further notes the defendant is apparently represented by counsel. The court is advised that while the defendant filed an answer denying that the marriage was irretrievably broken that he has advised counsel for the plaintiff that the mail reason he opposes the action and refuses to admit that the marriage is irretrievably broken is because of certain religious beliefs on his behalf. The plaintiff advises the Court there is no chance of reconciliation and that in her opinion the marriage is irretrievably broken.

Accordingly, the Court finds that the parties have lived separate and apart for a period of three (3) years and that the marriage is irretrievably broken and that the plaintiff may proceed to process the case to completion in the normal course of events without further litigation of the issue of a irretrievably broken marriage.

Oct. 14, 1981 Order filed. And Now, October 9, 1981, after reviewing the matter of the exceptions with counsel for the parties and listening to informal input by both parents and after interviewing the son David, it appears the parties are satisfied with the recommended Order entered July 13, 1981 insofar as it allows the parties to work out satisfactory arrangements for son Douglas, who is with the mother, to visit his father, and as far as daughter Darlyne, who resides with the father, to visit the mother.

The only firm request the mother makes is for expanded visits with son David, age twelve, requesting two (2) weekends per month and some extended summer visits with said son.

Sept. 25, 1981, RE: MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF MASTER - ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 24, 1981, a motion is presented to the Court for the appointment of a Master, alleging that the only issue for determination by the Master is the equitable division of marital property. The motion notes that neither party has filed income and expense statements. Rule of Civil Procedure in divorce actions 1920.33 specifically mandates that within 60 days after service of a divorce pleading containing a claim for distribution of property, each party shall file an inventory and appraisement in accordance with the guidelines set forth in said rule. We note the Complaint in this case was served June 27, 1981, and since neither party has complied with the aforesaid rule, the appointment of a Master at this time is premature.

Accordingly, the Motion for Appointment of a Master is denied until such time as both parites have complied with Rule 1920.33. Upon compliance with said rule, the Court will reconsider appointment of a Master.

So answers, E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

June 22, 1981 Appearance of Culbertson, Weiss, Schetroma & Schug by Donald A. Fickenscher, Esq. for Defendant filed.

June 23, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, June 22, 1981, after hearing, the Court finds it is in the best interest of both parties in view of the conduct of the defendant and his admitted lack of control of his temper that the Court enters a protection order under the Protection from Abuse Act. Accordingly, the temporary order is continued to the effect that the defendant, Thomas Roan, shall not be permitted to reside at the home at R.D.#1, Conneautville, The plaintiff is given the exclusive right to reside in said residence.

The defendant will be permitted, however, to come to the premises for the purpose of farming the extensive acreage now under seed or which he wishes to seed and, in this regard, he may enter the garage to secure any of the necessary equipment, and if any equipment, tools or materials are in the house which he needs to complete the farming operations, he may request the same of his wife, and she will promptly deliver them to him.

While he is on the premises, he may not threaten, molest or harass the wife in any fashion, nor may he threaten, annoy or harass the twelve year old son of the wife residing with her at the residence.

In accordance with Section 1016 of the Act, the Court directs the defendant to pay temporary support to his wife of $75.00 per week commencing the week of June 21, 1981. In this regard, the Court notes that a divorce action has been filed June 15, 1981 and a petition for Alimony Pendente Lite contained in said petition is a requirement of the commencement of a Civil Action for support. However, the Court does not preclude the wife from proceeding with a formal civil support action if she so desires on advice of counsel.

This order shall remain in force and effect for a period of six (6) months unless further modified.

In regard to the petition for Alimony Pendente Lite and counsel fees, the Court believes this matter can best be handled in a further proceeding as the parties formalize their positions regarding the divorce. Accordingly, hearing on said matter is set for July 21, 1981 at 10:00 o'clock.

The defendant husband shall have the right to use the barn as he comes to do the farming operations and the defendant agrees he will turn over the keys to the riding lawn mower to the wife so she can arrange for mowing the grass.

By agreement of the parties, the husband will come to the premises at 1:00 o'clock on Sunday, June 28, 1981, to remove his personal clothing, personal papers, work and personal possession but he agrees he will not remove any appliances or other instrumentalities necessary to maintain the household.

Feb. 5, 1985 Pre-Trial Conference Minutes filed. AND NOW, February 4, 1985 pre-trial conference was held this date in connection with the above case. The Plaintiff has submitted a listing of medical expenses of Cheryl A. Cervone and a listing of past lost earnings of Cheryl A. Cervone, which will be accepted as Exhibits without the necessity of other supporting data unless defense counsel has notified the Plaintiff to the contrary on or before February 7, 1985.

There is a legal question concerning Plaintiff/Husband's right to recover for loss of consortium if he should be ultimately found more than fifty (50) percent negligent, which all counsel are requested to review and give their proposed answer to the Court at or before the beginning of trial.

Photographs of the injury, labled Plaintiff's Exhibits 18 and 19 are objected to by the Defendant, and a ruling will be made on this issue prior to trial. Otherwise, it would appear that the major issues are factual disputes as to the occurrence and as to the existence of negligence on the part of either the Defendant or the Additional Defendant and the amount of damages that would be awarded in the event of a recovery.

The parties agree that Cheryl A. Cervone, one of the Plaintiffs was not negligent in any manner, and that the sole issue as to comparative negligence will be as between Michael Reading and Joseph Cervone.

Plaintiff have requested leave to amend the Complaint to reflect the fact that the medical expenses have been paid by and are the obligation of Cheryl A. Cervone, and the Complaint is so amended without the filing of additional pleadings

A jury will be selected on February 11, 1985 immediately following the indoctrination of the prospective jurors and trial will commence on that date as soon as possible. Plaintiff will have two physicians, who will be testifying in person, who would like to testify after noon and every effort will be made to accommodate the Plaintiff in that regard.

Plaintiff's pre-trial narrative will be filed on or before or before February 6, 1985.

a single plan which is in the best interest of the children. At least to some degree, it appears to us that the plan submitted by each parent is more attuned to the best interest of the parent submitting the plan than to the children themselves. However, given the unwillingness or inability of the parties to submit a joint plan in accordance with our Order, we are left to devise a plan of our own.

No plan is entirely satisfactory, but we believe both of the plan submitted require far too much moving of the children during the school year and too short periods of basic custody to provide the stability that the children should have. The shortcoming of our own plan is the fact that the children will be changing schools on an annual basis. However, in our mobile society many children change schools with great regularity as their parents are transfered from job to job or otherwise required to move. Further, even within the Crawford Central School District, children are moved from school to school depending on enrollment and the needs both of the children and the economic operation of the school district. In recent years, some school have been closed and children have been moved from one school to another. There is certainly no guarantee of a continuity within a certain class framework for any child. We believe that the plan we are adopting provides maximum stabiltiy with a minimum of disadvantages. We are concurrently filing a order.

It appears there is a child support Order at Domestic Relations No. 1980 - 216, and the Court directs that child support in the amount of $35.00 per continue to be paid under said Order, and in addition, the $30.00 per week plus $20.00 on arrearages required by this Order be paid through the Domestic Ralations Division so that an accurate record can be maintained as to the amount due.

The Court notes that this date the defendant advises that he has sold a marital asset, namely, a Ravens trailer to a Francis McCauley of Box 286, Washington, Pennsylvania, for the sum of $5,000.00 and that he is currently receiving and will receive in the future the sum of $100.00 per week for sale of said trailer, ACCORDINGLY, even though the defendant professes to be currently unemployed and unable to find employment the Court believes he has sufficient income and earning capacity to meet the requirements of this Order as well as the child support Order.

Dec. 29, 1982, Notice of Master's Hearing filed.

Dec. 30, 1982 Order filed: The matter is before the Court upon a petition for contempt. The defendant admits he has not paid the Alimony Pendente Lite ordered by the Court Order of June 29, 1982. The defendant also admits that he has not been paying on a child support order in the Domestic Relations Division.

The defendant contends he has exhausted all efforts to secure employment and is now or shortly will be receiving a Department of Public Welfare payment in the amount of $172.00 per month plus $75.00 worth of food stamps to maintain himself.

In view of the fact that the Court cannot find the defendant is willfully and deliberately failing to comply with the Court Order, the Court declines to adjudge him in contempt because of his failure to secure gainful employment.

At the hearing, however, it appears that the defendant sold a Ravens trailer valued at around $5,000.00 to one Mr. Francis McCauley, Box 286, Washington, Pennsylvania, which trailer was to be paid for by Mr. McCauley at the rate of $100.00 per week. It appears, however, that the first $100.00 check was returned for insufficient funds and that the defendant did not note any encumbrance when he transferred the title to Mr. McCauley.

Apparently Mr. McCauley has promised to make good on the $100.00 check but has failed to do so and the defendant has taken no legal action to recover this valuable asset, claiming that Mr. McCauley has done favors for him and he is reluctant to pursue a collection or a repossession action against his friend. He advises the Court and counsel for the plaintiff that he will not assign his interest in said trailer to his wife so she may pursue a collection or repossession action and the Court views this as being unrealistic.

Accordingly, the defendant is directed within ten (10) days to sign an assignment of his interest in said trailer to his wife with said assignment to be prepared by wife's counsel. Once the trailer is repossessed, paid for or satisfactory arrangements are made for payment, if the parties cannot agree on the division of the proceeds from sale or division of the asset itself, the Court will entertain a motion by either party to do the same. If the defendant fails to comply with the Court's direction to assign this asset to his wife, the Court advises it will consider this a contempt of court and punish the defendant accordingly.

Robert L. Walker, J.

Jan 17,1983 Copies of order toR. Charles Thomas, Esq. and Don Fickenscher, Esq.

Jan 31, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, January 28, 1983, at the time of hearing, the Defendant advises the Court that he wilfully and deliberately lied to the Court at the last hearing in December, about the disposition of a trailer, as noted by the facts recited in the Court's Order filed December 30, 1982. The truth of the matter is that early in 1982, he sold said trailer to Mr. McCauley for $5,000.00, and received a pickup truck in return of a value of approximately $3,500.00, and Mr. McCauley paid an additional $2,000.00 cash to the Defendant over a period of time in installments to complete the transaction.

In additon thereto, the Defendant has made no diligent effort to pay even a modest sum on the Court Order for support for his wife and child, and accordingly, the Court finds him in contempt of this support obligation.

The deliberate lying to the Court in the Court's presence is direct contempt of court, and the Court having found a wilful and deliberate failure to pay support, the Defendant is hereby sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of sixty (60) days.

By agreement of counsel, the Defendant may purge himself of said contempt and be released from serving said time in jail if he sells and assigns his interest in approximately $3,500.00 worth of jointly owned personal property now located on the family farm. The Plaintiff will prepare a list based on a mutual agreement of valuations apparently established in the divorce action by counsel for the parties, and prepare an assignment of the Defendant's interest therein, and a consent that said items may be sold at the best possible market price by the Plaintiff, and a receipt obtained therefore. Upon sale of said items, the sums will be forwarded to the Domestic Relations Section first to be applied on arrears existing on this Order, which amount to approximately $3,110.00 this date, and any overage to be applied for future support due and owing to the child.

The Court notes this matter is in litigation in a contested divorce at AD 1981-470 and the Court directs that a copy of this Order be forwarded to the Master, and that this transaction is not bo be considered by the Master as a fair and equitable property division, but as a required procedure for the Defendant to purge himself of contempt, because of non-compliance with the Court Order and deliberately lying to the Court about his assets.

Feb. 16, 1983, Re: Petition To Fix Master's Fees - ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 16, 1983, the Court hereby fixes the fees of Master Theodore H. Watts at the sum of $850, to be paid by the parties in the amount set forth below:

Divorce Master's Fee	$850.
Disbursements
(Court Reporters and Appraisal)	650	$1,500	$ 250 to be paid by plaintiff
Previously paid by plaintiff	500
Previously paid by defendant	200	700	$550 to be paid by defendant
Balance owing.....		$ 800

Our decision requires the parties to share the costs and Master's fee equally. The Court is aware from reading the report that each of the parties lacks ready cash to pay the aforesaid amount. We believe, however, that the Master should not be required to await his fees until exceptions that may be filed to his report have been disposed of or to wait until the marital assets be sold to secure his fee. Accordingly, we direct the parties to pay said sums within fifteen (15) days of the filing of this Order and in the event either or both of the parties fail to pay said sums, the Court will entertain a motion by the Master or either of the parties to sell specifically designated marital property assets to pay the unpaid balance due in the Cost Account.

May 24, 1983 Order filed: AND NOW, May 20, 1983, this bitterly contested divorce action is again before the Court on a petition to hold the Defendant in contempt of court because of his wilful and deliberate refusal to comply with the tems and conditions of a Divorce Decree entered March 3, 1983. This date the Court has held a hearing on minor disputed items wherein the Defendant contends that certain items in the possession of his wife were not exposed for sale.

After testimony of the parties, the Court resolves the issues regarding the burn torch, the air compressor, the water hydrant and rototiller in favor of the version given by the former wife. It further appears the Defendant bid at the sale the sum of $1400 for a tractor on the assumption that this bid would be accredited for out of his share of the marital property proceeds. This date, the wife advises the Court that she will keep the tractor and credit against the Defendant's share of marital proceeds the sum of $1400.

The Defendant will be able to keep a hot box for a truck, for which he bid $8, and will, within fifteen (15) minutes after signing of the agreement, deliver to his counsel or counsel for the Plaintiff the sum of $8 to pay for the same.

The Defendant will signe the article of agreement and deeds set forth in the Decree and in the petition to adjudge in contempt of court.

The Court requests counsel for the Plaintiff to prepare an appropriate Decree of this Court to this effect, review it with opposing counsel and re-present it to the Court within five (5) days of this date.

It appears that a payment of $365 to CIT, Corporation had to be made by the wife, because of the delay in culminating the ultimate sales and finalization of this matter, and accordingly, there shall be deducted from the Defendant's share of marital proceeds the sum of $365, because the Court has found that the delay was occasioned by the contempt and wilful refusal of the Defendant to comply with the previous Court Orders.

The Court finds the Defendant wilfully and deliberately in contempt of the Court Orders as aforesaid noted, and upon approval of the final decree of this Court and the signing thereof, if the Defendant fails to comply with the terms and conditions of that Decree within forty-eight (48) hours of the signing thereof, he shall surrender himself to the Sheriff of Crawford County and will be lodged in the Crawford County Jail for his wilful, deliberate contempt of Court Orders, and will remain until he complies with said order.

3. That the Defendant shall sign and execute a certain Sales Agreement for the 100 acre parcel of land referred to in Paragraph 2 of this Order and Decree, which Sales Agreement provides for the sale of said land to Recland Company for the price or sum of $27,900.00 and upon the signing and execution of said Sales Agreement the same shall be delivered to the Defendant's attorney for delivery by him to Bruce Nichols of Future Real Estate.

9. That there shall be deducted from the Defendant's share of the proceeds from the sale of the marital assets the sum of $365.00 representing a payment made by the Wife Plaintiff by reason of Defendant's delay in concluding the disposition and sale of the marital assets.

10. That if the Defendant fails to comply with the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 and 5 of this Order and Decree within forty-eight (48) hours of the signing of this Decree, he shall surrender himself to the Sheriff

6. Each party will disclose to the other the whereabouts of the child upon request and the father shall tell the mother where he intends to take the child for visitation. Each party shall also disclose to the other any inforamtion about the child which reasonably affects his welfare, including any medical problems and treatments, school performance, participation in formally organized sporting programs, and so forth.

7. Each party shall teach the child to give to the other that love and respect which is due a parent from his children and neither party shall do or say anything to blacken the character of the other in the eyes of the child.

8. The Court notes that the Mediator understands that the parties have agreed to the terms of this Order. However if either party wishes to take exception to this Order he may file a Motion for hearing de novo within ten (10) days of the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall continue as a permanent Order.

9. The Court also notes from the Mediator's Report that both parties have some income and therefore the costs of the Mediation are divided equally and the share of each party shall be assessed to him or her as costs in this case.

July 1, 1982, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 29, 1982, the Court refuses to award additional counsel fees at this time, believing an appropriate division of counsel fees can be made at the time of ultimate resolution of the divorce action and the sale or distribution of jointly-held assets.

It appears that a former alimony Order was entered June 22, 1981, which ran for a period of six months and would have terminated on December 22, 1981.

The wife contends that there are four payments at @30.00 per week unpaid on this Court Order for alimony pendente lite. The husband contends thare are only two payments in arrears. The Court accepts the wife's position but accords the husband the opportunity to prove through counsel that there are only two payments missing from the required alimony payments.

The present petition addresses itself to the continuing need for alimony pendente lite and the Court notes that the perties are in dispute regarding appropriate diviaion of marital assets. ACCORDINGLY, commencing with the week of June 27, 1982, alimony pendente lite will be reinstated at the rate of $30.00 per week as temporary alimony to the wife, with said period to rune for a period of three (3) months from said date.

In addition to the $30.00 per week, the defendant will be required to pay an additional $20.00 per week until the arrears in the amount of $120.00 are paid in full, unless the defendant can produce evidence that said amount is only $60.00.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, Judge

Apr. 12, 1982 Copies of order to Attys. E. Spadafore and D. Hotchkiss,

Apr. 13, 1982 Exhibits filed with papers.

Apr. 27, 1982 Plaintiff's Proposal for Terms of Split Custody filed.

May 24, 1982 Memorandum Filed: The parties are the parents of two minor children, Jennifer Briggs, now eleven (11) years of age, and Stacey Briggs, now eight (8) years of age. The parties separated in February, 1982 and since that time basic custody has been with the father with visitation rights in the mother. Since that Order was entered, the parties have been divorced and the mother has remarried. The mother presently resides in Cambridge Springs and the father resides in Meadville. Both children presently attend the East End School in Meadville, a part of Crawford Central School District. If the children were to reside with the mother, they would attend Cambridge Springs Elementary School, a part of the Penncrest School System.

After a rather extensive hearing, we were convinced that this was an appropriate case for shared physical and legal custody and entered an order creating shared custody. In accordance with Section 7 of Act No. 1981-115, we directed the parties to submit a plan to the Court for implementation of shared custody within twenty days of that date. The statute seems to imply that a single joint plan would be submitted by the parties, but in this case the parents simply could not agree. The net result has been that each party submitted their own plan. The mother's plan would provide for the children attending Cambridge Springs Schools on a fulltime basis with basic custody split on a six months basis, the father having custody from January 1st of each year to June 30th of each year and the mother having custody from July 1st of each year until December 31st of each year with appropriate weekend visitations and the like in the non-custodial parent. This would mean transportation of the children from Meadville to Cambridge Springs, a distance of approximately fifteen miles each day to attend school when the father has custody.

The mother's suggestion is that this be done by the father taking the children with him when he goes to work at 7:00 o'clock in the morning at Hughson Chemical in Saegertown which is approximately halfway between Meadville and Cambridge Springs, and the mother picking the children up at Hughson Chemical before 7:00 A.M. and taking them to her home from whence they would depart for school. The father sould then pick the children up at the mother's home following work and return them to Meadville. The father complains that this would mean a lot of shuffling of the children, getting them up at a very early hour in the morning and would, in effect, give the mother custody of the children during a substantial part of the day during the six months that he has basic custody. He also objects to the six months alternating schedule because this would mean that the children would be with the same parent during the same seasons and months of each year.

The father's plan would have the children attending Seton School, a Roman Catholic parochial grade school, and apparently neither party has any objection to this on religious grounds. It would, however, mean transporting the children from Cambridge Springs to Seton School during the portion of the school year the children are with the mother. The father proposes to do this by having them ride the Vo-Tech bus which hauls older high school students from the Cambridge Springs area to the Crawford County Vocational Technical School. The disadvantage of having young children ride the school bus with a group of high school juniors and seniors would appear obvious. Further, according to the mother's counsel, they have checked with the administration of Seton School and there are no openings in the class in which Stacey would be enrolled, at least for the fall of 1982. The father also proposes that basic custody be changed every four months so that the net results would be that the same parent would not have basic custody during the same seasons and the same months of each year, but they would, in fact, alternate.

It is unfortunate that the parties cannot agree upon and submit to the Court

Accordingly, the order heretofore entered July 13, 1981 is affirmed except insofar as it relates to son David, and commencing with the month of October, the mother shall have the right to have David in her custody on the first and third weekends of every month, commencing Friday at 7:00 p.m. and terminating Sunday at 8:00 p.m.

The Court urges the parties to attempt to accommodate each other and the child by rescheduling the weekend if special events would inconvenience the parent or the child on the first and third weekends.

Insofar as the request for extended summer visits is concerned, the Court directs that the father advise the mother of his scheduled summer vacation on or before June 1st of each year and the mother may arrange a four (4) week visitation schedule with her for son Davis, which visitations, however, may not interfere with the father's regularly scheduled vacation plans of which he has notified the mother.

It is left to the discretion of the mother as to how and at what times the four (4) week visitation will be held; namely, one week at a time, one month at a time or dividing the four (4) weeks into such other divisions as would accommodate her scheduling and the father's scheduling.

Both parents agree that they will keep each other advised immediately of any serious accidents or illnesses involving the children.

Insofar as daughter Darlyne is concerned, the visitation is to continue as prescribed by the July 13, 1981 order, paragraph # 2, unless mother and daughter agree that a weekend other than the third weekend of each month would be more appropriate for the visit.

Dec. 11, 1981 Copy of Order to Legal Services.

Dec. 17, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, December 16, 1981, the matter is back before the Court again on a new petition for abuse, which has been indexed at the same number as a prior similar proceeding. At this time the Court notes the defendant was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail on a DUI charge for minimum period of one (1) month to a maximum of twelve (12) months. The Court notes that the parties each have no desire to reconcile the marriage and live together, because of the differences in personalities and the husbands' physical and alcoholic problems; accordingly, the Court enters the following Order:

1. Defendant Robert L. Watts, Sr. is ORDERED to refraim in any way from injuring or making threats of bodily injury against his wife or harassing or annoying her in any fashion.

2. He shall not go to the marital residence at 1217 Elm Street or harass or annoy his wife at any other place where she may be.

3. It appears the family income is derived from the Veterans Administration check, and the Defendant this day has consented to endorse said check so that hospitaliaation bills and living expenses for his wife and children may be paid.

Acoordingly, he is DIRECTED to endorse the next check due December 31, 1981 and turn over the entire proceeds except for the sum of $100.00, which the wife must return to the husband to deposit in the husband's account at the County Jail. This order shall continue in this fashion regarding dispensation of the Veterans check until such time as the Defendant is paroled.

4. Once paroled, the father may visit his children every Thursday afternoon between three and four o'clock at the family residence, at which time he shall not annoy or harass his wife or cause any argument while visiting the children.

5. The wafe shall keep a list of bills paid from the aforesaid Veterans check so that in the event future argument arises regarding disposition of the monies received through the Veterans Administration, there will be written proof of the expenditures.

6. The Court considers this matter in the same fashion as a newly filed abuse petition, and accordingly, this Order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one (1) year from this date unless further modified by Order of Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 19, 1982, Order filed: AND NOW, January 13, 1982, the matter is back before the Court for review of the Probation Order and for review of the abuse petition and the Order entered thereon. It appears the defendant is now under medical care at the Veteran's Hospital in Pittsburgh and with the consent of his Probation Officer, has resumed an association with his wife. The wife this date advises the Court that she wishes the previous orders amended so the defendant may take up residence with her again.

ACCORDINGLY, the Abuse Order entered December 16, 1981 is amended to the effect that the defendant may be permitted to take up residence agains with his wife and children, and he shall use his veteran's check for the care and maintenance of his family and he will not threaten or abuse or assault his wife in any fashion.

As far as the sentence is concerned, the defendant is officially placed on parole on the following conditions:

1. He will continue his medication prescribed by the Veteran's Administation and keep all medical appointments scheduled.

2. He will abstain absolutely from the consumption of alcoholic beverages and will not have alchohol in the residence at any time.

3. He will continue his association with Alchoholic Anonymous and attend such meetings on a weekly basis as prescribed by his Probation Officer.

4. He will not assault his wife or children in any fashion.

5. He will use his veteran's check to pay the normal household bills and maintain the family to the best of his ability.

6. He will attend the next DUI Reeducation Course scheduled for March and attend every session and make arrangements to pay the tuition fee and all other fines and costs levied in this case in such installments and in such manner as the Probation Department directs.

In the event the defendant violates any terms and conditions of this Order, the Probation Department is authorized without further Order of Court or the issuance of a Bench Warrant to apprehend him and commit him to the Crawford County Jail untal a hearing can be scheduled.

him

PER CURIAM.

June 19, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, June 15, 1984, the matter is before the Court on a motion by Deidra Manning to review a decision of the hearing officer entered April 19, 1984.

The earnings of the defendant are reviewed and it appears that at this time from his employment he is netting a net take-home pay of $189.00 per week. The Court reviews his rent and other living expenses and concludes that a modest increase in alimony and child support is in order.

While Deidra Manning was suffering from multiple sclerosis at the time of the divorce and the award of alimony is in the amount of $23.00 per week, she now has further complocations and expenses from the disease and her physical condition has deteriorated since the original award of alimony. Accordingly effective the week of June 17, 1984, alimony in the divorce action is increased from $23.00 per week to $35.00 per week.

Insofar as child support is concerned, the award of $20.00 per week for the support of the eight (8) year old child Gary is hereby increased to the sum of $25.00 per week effective the week of June 17, 1984.

Commencing with the week of June 17, 1984, the defendant will pay the additional sum of $5.00 per week; $3.00 of which shall be allocated to arrears on previously awarded alimony and $2.00 per week to be applied on arrears of previous child support.

In view of the fact the defendant is now subject to wage attachment for alimony and child support and arrears payments, a copy of this Order to Aardvark, Inc., will be sufficient authority to change the perviously entered wage assignment order so that the force and effect for the employer will be that commencing the week of June 17, 1984, the total sum of $65.00 will be deducted weekly from the defendant's pay and forwarded to the Domestic Relations Division, to be allocated as noted above.

The plaintiff, at her own expense, may cut and remove sufficient tree top timber from the jointly owned real estate in order to adequately heat her premises for the winter and spring of 1982 and 1983. The defendant will not interfere with her right to do so, and the parties specifically agree that the plaintiff may not remove, as part of this agreement, firewood already cut and stacked by the defendant.
In the event either party contracts to sell the tops from the timber already cut, they will notify the other party of the terms and conditions of said sale and will jointly divide the proceeds from said sale. However, any such sale by the defendant will not deprive the plaintiff of the right to remove adequate firewood to cover the terms of this agreement.

Mar. 26, 1984 Motion For Pre-Trial Conference filed.

Apr. 2, 1984 Answer to Requests For Admission filed.

Apr. 5, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, April 4, 1984, at the time set for pre-trial conference, the matter is reviewed generally and points and contentions are reviewed with the Court. There will be a factual dispute as to whether one of the exit dorrs was or was not locked and this in turn leads to whether or not Section 1234 of the Fire and Panic Code comes into focus in this case which in effect is a strictly liability doctrine. The Court is of the opinion at this time that while the Fire and Panic Code may have some application to this case, that the pleadings are insufficient to allow the plaintiff to base a case soley on strictly liability and expect a charge thereon.

The Court also notes that various sections of the Titusville Building Code may come into focus but counsel advises the Court it is extremely difficult to interpret in the facts of this case and it will attempt to give the Court some assistance in citing specific sections and exceptions in indeed either side is resting their liability theory on portions of the Titusville Ordinance.

The requested stipulations set forth in the plaintiff's pretrial narrative numbers one through nine are agreed to by defense counsel, subject, however, to review of certain itemized lists of personal property. It is also stipulated that the life expectancy table will be admitted without objection.

The Court reviewed the proposed testimony of the plaintiff as it relates to expectations of future earnings and rules that damages will not be limited to a projection of merely the plaintiff's earning at the time of death but that testimony may be received and considered by the jury which elicits prospective estimates of increased earning capacity in the future.

The plaintiff originally demanded $500,00.00 and the defendant this date responds with a series of offers totally approximately $50,000.00 but in private conference between counsel these figures appear unrealistic and the Court urges counsel to re-explore their settlement opportunities at more reasonalbe figures.

The Court projects trial lasting three or four days in this case and counsel are alerted it is now #3 for trial in the first week and a jury will be picked Monday, April 9, 1984 at approximately 10:30 a.m.

the order of paragraph C, requiring the mother to have no unrelated male visitors in the home after the hour of 10:00 P.M.

It is the contention of the mother that the presence of such a visitor has no bearing on her ability to act as a proper parent and that mother and admittedly live-in boyfriend "D", do sleep together during the times he is in the home but that this has no bearing on the issue of custody or the best interest of the child.

We were submitted a memorandum in support of the exceptions taken and we accord counsel for the plaintiff father of said child to review said memorandum and submit us any appropriate case law by October 13, 1981, after which time, we will either deny or sustain the exceptions.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 1, 1981 Copies of Order to Attys. Bruce Johnson and Judith Wilson.

Nov. 6, 1981 Re: Exceptions to Custody Order and Order filed: The Custody Order in this case provided in Paragraph 1.C, that the custodial parent (mother) shall not have unrelated male visitors in the home after 10:00 P.M. while 13 year old female child was present. A hearing was held on the issue and we are not convinced that the non-marital relationship between mother and boyfriend has such a harmful effect on the child that the aforesaid provision of the Court's custody Order is warranted. (See Commonwealth ex rel. Myers v. Myers, 468 Pa. 134, (1976).)

Accordingly provision of paragraph 1.C of the Order of May 20, 1981, is recinded.

The Exception filed as to the provisions of paragraph 1.B is dismissed.

Order shall become effective, he will be required to convince Child Welfare Services of this County that he has adequate housing and adequate facilities to care for these three small children.

When Child Welfare Services is satisfied of the living arrangements, they will so notify the Court, and the Court will give permission for him to remove the minor children from the custody of the grandparents.

2. In view of the father's admitted past and present alcoholic problem, and the fact that he is under an antabuse program at this time gives the Court grave concern. The Court accepts the testimony of the father that he is making a diligent effort to control this problem, and accordingly, when he secures custody of the children, he will continue faithfully attending drug and alcohol counseling, and the taking of antabuse until such time as the Counseling Center relieves him of the responsibility for continued treatment.

3. In view of the close relationship between the children and their grandparents, the Court believes the children should have occasional visits with the grandparents and encourages the father to expand the visits prescribed by the Courts if he deems it appropriate.

Accordingly, on the third weekend of every month, once the children are surrendered to the custody of the father, the father will see that the children spend a weekend visit with the grandparents, and in the months of June, July and August, the weekends shall be from Noon on Friday until 8:00 P.M. Sunday night. During the school term, the visits will be from 7:00 P.M. Friday until 8:00 P.M. Sunday.

A copy of this Order will be sent to Child Welfare Services, and Child Welfare Services is privileged to review the Court file and notes in this case in order to have a background and understanding of the problems presented tt this hearing in their informal supervision of this case.

Unless Child Welfare Services recommends earlier termination, the Court asks them to continue informal occasional supervision of this case to ascertain the intent of the Court and the welfare of the children is being carried out with this supervision to last for a period of six (6) months unless a recommendation is recieved for an extension of said period.

Until satisfactory living arrangements are established, the father may continue weekend visits as set forth in a prior Order.

not be held in contempt of court for violation of the January 26th, 1981, Order. Rule Returnable hearing the 13th day of February, 1981, at 9:30 o'clock A.M., in courtroom Number 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

By the Court,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Feb. 10, 1981 Copies of order to James R. Irwin, Esq. and Defendant.

Feb. 13, 1981 Order filed: AND NOW, February 13, 1981, at the time scheduled for hearing, it appears that the defendant has been advised by counsel for the plaintiff that the petition was pending and he could accept service of the same in the Sheriff's office which he indicated he would do. It appears further that counsel for the plaintiff has attempted to serve the defendant at his last known address at the House of Defense, but apparently service has not been perfected.

After informal hearing, the testimony of the plaintiff indicates that there has been a clear and wilful violation of the previous Court Order, and accordingly, this hearing is continued generally with hearing to be set on further motion once service is secured.

In the meantime, any law enforcement officer is authorized upon complaint from the plaintiff that the Order is being violated from this date forward to apprehend the defendant, incarcerate the defendant and produce him before the Court at the earliest possible moment.

Mar. 23, 1981, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 19, 1981, after hearing, the Court reserves decision on whether or not this Court should entertain jurisdiction under the uniform child custody act as the most convenient forum. The issues are complex and the Court has received legal briefs from counsel for the defendant and has granted counsel for the plaintiff an additional seven (7) days to submit an appropriate legal brief. Accordingly, the Court reserves any decision in this case but continues jurisdiction and this day has the assurance of Lisa Kennedy and John Kennedy that they will return the child to this jurisdiction if, indeed the Court deems further hearings are appropriate in this case.

In the meantime, this Court places the child Rebecca under jurisdiction of this court but releases her into the care and custody of John and Lisa Kennedy until further order of this Court.

The Court notes a companion adoption proceeding pending in the State of Indiana and it is the strong recommendation of this Court that the appropriate Court in Indiana stay any further proceedings on this adoption matter until this Court makes a decision whether it is proper forum to entertain a child custody action for the child brought by the putative father of the child.

The Court directs counsel for the defendants to forward a copy of this order to the appropriate court in Indiana.

No. A.D. 1981 - 42

Counsel for the defendant petitioned for the appointment of a Master April 27, 1981, requesting that the Master resolve the issue of the division of marital property. In view of the fact there was no request for resolution of the initial claim for permanent alimony, we consider this matter abandoned by the defendant.

By order of April 24, 1981, we appointed Bruce Johnson as Master, directing that he hold a hearing and make report and recommendation regarting division of marital property and required each party to pay $50 in attorney's fees. These fees have been paid and by subsequent order, we will direct the Master to hold a hearing and make a recommendation to the Court regarding a fair and equitable division of marital property.

Accordingly, we enter the following order.

DECREE OF DIVORCE: And Now, November 19, 1981, Cora S. Cocolin is hereby divorced from James Cocolin on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken.

Reserved for future decision is an equitable division of marital property. This matter is referred back to Attorney Bruce M. Johnson, Master, with instructions to hold a hearing within thirty (30) days on this issue and we reserve unto the Master the right to request additional attorney's fees or expenses in this matter.

Feb. 24, 1982, Affidavit of Defendant Under Section 201(d) of Divorce Code and Motion For Review Under Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code filed; divorce moved to Court.

Mar. 3, 1982 Pretrial Conference Order filed: The issues to be resolved by the Master in this case are equitable distribution, permanent alimony, counsel fees, division of costs and the dissolution of the marriage. Insofar as equitable distribution is concerned, there are basically four properties to be considered: one in which the plaintiff now resides known as the Gail Avenue property; second, the Saeger Mobile Home Court property, both of which are owned as tenants by the entireties; third, the husband's business property and fourth, the husband's interest in a partnership or joint venture known as Vern Mead Associates.

The parties agree that as to the Gail Avenue propety and the Saeger Mobile Home Court, they are marital property although there may be an issue as to improvements to the Saeger Mobile Home Court and as to an accounting for rents since the separation. The defendant denies that his business operated as an individual proprietorship, or his interest in Vern Mead Associates is marital property and that issue will have to be determined by the Master.

There may be disputes as to values.

There are no special problems relating to permanet alimony, counsel fees or costs except as would ordinarily be anticipated.

The parties estimate that one day of testimony will complete the case.

A Master's hearing is hereby set for April 28, 1982 beginning at 9:30 A.M. in an available room at the courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Each of the parties are contemplating additional discovery by way of interrogatories, requests for production and the lake, relating to the business interests of the parties. Any such discovery shall be submitted to the other party on or before March 15, 1982 and responded to timely in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

In accordance with a prior Order, the defendant shall deposit the sum of $800.00 towards Master's fees and stenographic costs, said sum to be deposited on or before April 1, 1982. The ultimate disposition of Master's fees and costs shall be determined by the Court and shall be a part of the Master's recommendation with adjustment to be made at the time of the final decree is entered.

PERMANENT ALIMONY: The defendant shall pay to the plaintiff as permanent alimony the sum of $500.00 per month effective for the months of March, April and May of 1983 and beginning June 1, 1983 shall pay as permanent alimony the sum of $325.00 per month for a period of nine (9) months ending with the month of February 1984.

The payment of alimony shall terminate upon the remarriage of the plaintiff, the death of the plaintiff or the co-habitation of the plaintiff with a person of the opposite sex in violation of Section 507 of the Divorce Code.

The payment of alimony shall be subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth under Equitable Distribution for a charge or lien upon the defendant's property and the death of the defendant shall not terminate the requirements for the payment of alimony, and such obligation shall continue as an obligation of the estate of the defendant and the lien hereinabove referred to shall continue in full force and effect until paid in full. The Court reserves the right to modify this decree relating to alimony for cause shown.

This Order for alimony is entered because the plaintiff is substantially without income and all assets currently producing income are being awarded to the defendant in this decree. However, the plaintiff will have substantial liquid assets available to her upon settlement of the fire insurance claims which may be invested in such a manner as to give her a substantial income. Therefore, the payment of permanent alimony is limited to one year.

COUNSEL FEES AND COSTS: No counsel fees are awarded to either party and each party shall pay their own counsel fees. Costs have been paid under prior orders and no further award of costs is made for or against any party.

EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION: 1. The plaintiff is hereby awarded all that certain piece or parcel of land situated in Vernon Township, Crawford County, Pa. and bounded and described as follows:

Vernon Sub-division, a plat or plan of which is of record in the Recorder's Office of the aforesaid County in Plan Book No. 2, page 92.

2. The plaintiff is awarded all fire insurance proceeds payable by reason of a fire which destroyed or substantially damaged the residence located on Gail Avenue on a part of the above described land, free and clear of all claims of the defendant against such proceeds and the settlement of all claims with the insurance company shall be solely at the discretion of the plaintiff. The fire insurance carrier or any other person dealing with the parties may accept as a full release or acquitance any release properly executed by the plaintiff and there shall be no necessity that the defendant execute such releases, proofs of loss or other necessary documentation.

ORDER. Re: Order Affirming Discontinuance filed. We are presented with a motion to dismiss by counsel for Tri-County Developers of Pennsylvania, Weldon Levinsonand Robert Moss t/d/b/a Tri-County Developers filed May 11, 1995. The certification shows a copy was served on counsel for the Plaintiff.

Apparently in response to this motion, counsel for the Plaintiff filed a praecipe to discontinue the action as to all Defendants May 18, 1995.

This discontinuance renders the motion to dismiss as to selected Defendants moot and we now consider the Plaintiff has discontinued the action against all Defendants.

The rule to show cause entered upon the Plaintiff by order of President Judge Gordon R.Miller on May 24, 1995 setting hearing and/or argument for July 5, 1995 at 2:00 P.M. is dissolved and said hearing and/or argument is cancelled.
