June 26, 1984 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Donald L. Bortnick, Sr., personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Protection Order No. A.D. 1984-570, to him on June 22, 1984, at 1:30 P.M. at his place of residence, at R.D. #1, Conneautville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

June 29, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, June 28, 1984, after brief hearing, it appears that the defendant did lose contril of his temper and himself on or about June 20, 1984 and committed acts of violence or threats of violence which he normally would not do.

It further appears that the wife is making arrangements to take up residence elsewhere for herself and the minor children and that plans are ongoing to secure another residence within the next six (6) weeks.

In the meantime, this family has an extensive family dairy farm operation and it is obvious to the Court that this farming operation cannot continue without the physical presence of the defendant father.

Accordingly, the defendant is precluded from living at the farm residence occupied by his wife and children but he may use the toilet facilities and telephone at the farm to take care of his personal needs and conduct the normal farm and gas operations businesses.

He shall not annoy, threaten, harass or assault his wife, his children or the foster child in any fashion.

The defendant husband may carry on all normal farming operations and the Court urges the children to continue with their normal farming assistance in seeing that the farm continues as an ongoing enterprise.

The defendant will arrange for overnight sleeping elsewhere and he may eat meals at the family residence inly if he is specifically invited to do so by his wife.

The defendant will arrange to see that the normal utility bills are paid and a proper amount is provided for the care and support of the children remaining on the farm. Due to the shortness of time, the Court has no opportunity to explore the net income and enter anything in the way of a support order with specificity.

In the meantime, either party may use the joint checking account to pay the requisite bills and to pay for items needed in the ongoing farm operation or for the care and maintenance of the farm home and the care and maintenance of the children.

Neither party will withdraw funds from the account in an inordinate amount in order to deplete the assests to the disadvantage of the other.

The children shall remain with the mother at the joint family residence but the father shall have equal access to the children while he is working in and about the common farm household and the farming operations.

In view of the fact the mother projects a move to a new independent living arrangement sometime in the month of August, she is authorized to take the two minor children with her in said move but this authorization shall not be interpreted as a custody award but is made for the reason that the minor children would not be capable of maintaing themselves in the farm house when the mother is living elsewhere.

Once the mother removes from the farm house on a permanent basis, the father may return and take up residence and the Court urges the parties to make a mutually satisfactory agreement as to what personal possession will remain and what personaly possessions will be removed when the mother moves.

Regarding threats against the wife and children, the same shall be effective for a period of one (1) year and if the wife removes herself from the common home to another domicile it shall remain in full force and effect regardless of where she resides.

The defendant is directed to pay costs in this case.

IN THE MATTER

OF

WALLACE P. GRIBUS

Filed June 28, 1984

IN THE MATTER OF WALLACE P. GRIBUS

ORDER: AND NOW, June 28, 1984, it appears that defendant is confined in the Crawford County Jail on a charge of homicide but has been in something of a catatonic state and has been examined by representative of the Mental Health Center and a petition is presented requesting his examination at the Mental Health Center for the purpose of determining his need for further treatment.

The Sheriff of Crawford County is directed to release the defendant from confinement and deliver him to the Mental Health Center. The Sheriff is relieved from the responsibility of providing round the clock security supervision and the Court relieves the hospital of any responsibility in the event of the escape of the defendant.

In the event the hospital considers him to be a risk to himself or others or in the event he treatens to escape or attempts an escape the Court will reconsider this order with the idea of providing round the clock security supervision so ling as he remains at the Mental Health Center.

Nov. 30, 1984 Order filed: On November 26, 1984, by special order, we authorized service of an amended complaint upon the defendant by regular mail at two different addresses. On November 28th counsel for the plaintiff filed a motion requesting appointment of a master in this case. This motion is premature.

Having ordered special service of an amended complaint, the defendant would have twenty (20) days from service thereof to file an answer to the complaint. In the event the mail was returned to counsel for the plaintiff dndelivered, the matter would presumptively be ripe for appointment of a master. Until one of these two events occurs, the divorce is not at issue and until said matters are resolved one way of the other we are reluctant to appoint a master.

ACCORDINGLY, Motion for Appointment of a Master at this time is denied without prejudice to refile an view of the foregoing.

Date: November 29, 1984.

PETITION FOR COMMITMENT

of

MICHAEL GENE FOSBURG

Filed July 2, 1984

PETITION FOR COMMITMENT FOR PERSON WHO IS MENTALLY DISABLED, MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION ACT OF 1966- Sections 406 and 413

July 5, 1984 Order for Hearing filed: AND NOW, July 3, 1984, upon presentation of a Petition for Commitment of the above alleged mentally retarded child, the court hereby sets a hearing for July 13, 1984 at 10:30 A.M. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 to determine the need for commitment.

While the petitioning parent is requesting commitment to Polk, the Court directs the Mental Retardation Coordinator to present to the Court at the time of the hearing any proposed alternatives to a Polk commitment in view of the tender age of the child.

The Mental Retardation Coordinator is directed to notify all appropriate parties concerned with the commitment of the time and place of the hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 6, 1984 Copies of order to Mental Health Office.

July 10, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, July 9, 1984, the hearing heretofore scheduled for July 13, 1984, at 10:30 A.M., is continued until July 19, 1984, at 1:30 P.M., because of the unavailability of counsel for petitioning natural parent. The Court believes it advisable that a guardian be appointed for the a alleged mentally retarded incompetent to represent his interest at the hearing and ACCORDINGLY, John Spataro is hereby appointed to represent said minor and directed to consult with Kathleen MacArthur, Terry Morris and John Fuller, counsel for the mother, in preparation for the hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

July 11, 1984 Copies to John Fuller, John Spataro, MH/MR and CYS

July 20, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 19, 1984, after hearing and listening to the witnesses, and the adoptive mother of the minor child Michael Gene Fosburg, the Court finds he is severely mentally retarded, is unable to care for himself in any meaningful fashion and should be committed to Polk Center for impatient care for an indeterminate period of time as a mentally disabled person under Section 406 of the Mental Retardation Act.

In making this commitment, one of the concerns of the Court is that placement elsewhere, even if it could be found, would not at this time be in the best interest of the child, as the mother plans to make frequent visits to the child to assist in his adjustment at the institution.

This Order is made without prejudice and indeed with the suggestion of the Court that potential alternative placements be looked for in the future. In the event of contemplated transfer to another institution, the Court requests notification of the potential transfer from the staff at Polk Center.

By prior arrangement, the mother will place the child at Polk Center on Monday, July 23, 1984, before 5:00 P.M.

Jan. 10, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, January 8, 1985, it appears the parties remained separared after the Abuse Order entered July 12, 1984 until about November, 1984, at which time, the parties started cohabiting together again, but shortly thereafter, the defendant's alchhol problem again arose and on one or more occasions, he created a situation forcing the wife's children out of the house and creating a menacing situation for the wife. The defendant admits to having a severe alcohol problem in losing memory and control of himself while under the influence. He professes to plan a return to counseling at the Spencer Drug and Alcohol Center and the Court recommends he resume the Antabuse program which he was on for a period of time.

The Court notes the has no acrimony against the defendant and only wants to be assured that he will not come to her residence as the children are afraid of him, particularly when he is under the influence and it creates an impossible family situation because of the defendant's lack of control.

ACCORDINGLY, the Sheriff is authorized to release the defendant from confinement, but the defendant is precluded from going to the residence of the wife for any purpose. He may not harass, annoy, follow or assault her or procure others to do so on his behalf.

If the parents agree that visits with any of the children are desirable, said visits shall take place outside the home of the mother of said children.

The Meadville City Police Department or any other Police agency may enforce this Order in the manner provided in the statute relating to Protection From Abuse if they are satisfiled by the proponderance of the evidence that the defendant is in violation of this Order. and law filed in the court of Common Pleas of Butler County, Pa. at No. 83-655 which is captioned Robert I. Keck and Keck Chrysler-Plymouth Inc. verses C. W. Howard Ins. Agency, Inc. A praecipe for writ of summons was filed in that matter, but there has been o further action thereon except that as of this date the plaintiff therein was served with a rule to file a complaint. The plaintiff is excused from filing a complaint in that action and the parties have agreed that that action will remain in abeyance and that all issues that would have been raised in that action will be raised under the additional defendant proceedings in the actions in Crawford County and that once those issues are resolved in the proceedings in this county, they will act as a collateral estoppel to further litigate those issues in the Butler County case.

5. Counsel for two of the parties, to-wit: Leo M. Stepanian and William C. robinson have indicated that they have authority to and are willing to waive jury trial. Counsel for the other two parties present on this date have agreed to seek authority to waive jury trial, to-wit: Mark E. Mioduszewski and Daniel P. Stefko. If the four principal parties to this litigation all advise the court that they are waiving jury trial, the Court will enter an order advising the peripheral defendants who are parties to the underlying tort actions involved in the Conneaut Lake boating accident of the intent of the court to try the case non-jury and provide those parties an opportunith to object with ten (10) days of the entry of the order. If the case is tried non-jury it will be scheduled for Dec. 9, 1985, at 9:30 A.M.

6. If waivers of jury trial are not obtained from all parties, a jury will be selected on Nov. 15, 1985 and jury trial will commence on Nov. 18, 1985 at 9:30 A.M.

7. The two above cases are consolidated for trial.

Oct. 21, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, October 21, 1985, the Court having been advised by all counsel for the primary parties in the above captioned declaratory judgment cases that they are willing to waive jury trial and it appearing that all or the parties in thr tort actions related to these cases have been joined as parties in the declaratory judgment cases as required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure it is ordered that the above captioned cases relating to insurance coverage questions will be tried non-jury beginning December 9, 1985 at 9:30 o'clock A.M. unless the parties to these cases who are joined only because as parties to the tort action, the ultimate decision as to insuracne coverage may in some manner affect the rights of those parties, shall advise the court in writing on or before November 1, 1985 that they object to non-jury trial. If there is an objection to a non-jury trial, the parties will be gien an opportunity to be heard and if a jury trial must be held, the jury will be selected on November 15, 1985 with trial to commence on November 18, 1985.

Aug 6, 1985, Affidavit of Consent of defendant filed.

Sept. 9, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, September 5, 1985, the matter is before the Court on a petition for special relief filed by the Wife/Defendant dealing with the prospective sale of their marital residence. It appears, however, the marital residence has been sold and the net proceeds in the amount of approximately $61,200.00 has been placed in a joint escrow account by agreement of counsel.
The real issue before the Court this date, although not framed by formal petition is the Plaintiff/Husband's request to withdraw one-half (½) of said account for specific porposes and to meet pressing financial needs largely keyed toward the purchase of a new residence office building for he and his son.
After argument, the Court DIRECTS that one-half (½) of the escrow fund resulting from the sale of the marital residence be distributed to the Plaintiff/Husband on the condition that approximately $15,000.00 thereof will be used as a down payment on the newly purchased dwelling office building and the balance be applied to a loan in the amount of approximately $5,000.00 incurred by the Husband to pay income tax liability, and the balance to be used at the discretion of the Husband
This Order is entered without any intent by the Court to prejudged an appropriate distribution of marital assets between the parties and in the event the aforesaid account in final determination of this divorce action along with all other accounts should be distributed between the parties in a ratio other than 50/50, the remaining assets can be adjusted accordingly to reflect the fifty percent (50%) withdrawal this date ordered. 2 copies (atty)

ORDER:
AND NOW, this 23 day of July, 1984, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition it is adjudged and decreed that a hearing on this Appeal shall be held on the 27 day of Sept., 1984, at 10:00 A.M. at the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pa., in Court Room No. 1 or 2 or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had; thirty (30) days written notice shall be given by the Petitioner to the Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety Operations, Citation Processing Division, Rm. 302, Transportation and Safety Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17120, by Cert. Mail, Return Receipt Requested.
BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept. 18, 1984 Petition to Quash filed.

Oct. 2, 1984, ORDER filed: AND NOW, September 27, 1984, the motion to quash appeal as not being timely filed is denied.

By agreement of counsel and as evidenced by Exhibit #1, the defendant received notice dated Dec. 8, 1983. It appears he was convicted of violation of Section 3743 on Sept. 1, 1983. Counsel for the parties agree that the issue then is whether the defendant received notice forthwith as required by Section 1540-B of his suspension. The Court is uncertain as to the administrative rules affecting District Justices and how promptly the District Justices' staff must forward records of convictions of this type to the Dept. of Transportation.

It appears that the defendant would testify that he never received the Dec. 8, 1983 notice sent to 62 Golden Drive, Meadville, Pa. In this regard, the Court notes that the address on the citation here at issue at the time of his arrest was given as R. D. #5, Box 104, Meadville and the certification statement of defendant's driving record carries an address of R. D. #3, Box 783, Conneaut Lake, Pa. The Court will receive testimony from the defendant regarding the various addresses and any notices of change of address he allegedly sent the Department of Transportation.

After receiving this testimony, counsel are accorded ten (10) days to cite any appropriate case law, administrative rules or other matter that would assist the court in rendering the decision.

Testimony of Edward Scott Brady was taken and counsel have requested ten (10) days to file briefs, and, accordingly, decision is taken under advisement.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 18, 1984 Appeal from License Suspension, Memorandum Opinion and Order filed: AND NOW, October 18, 1984, for the reasons stated above we deny the defendant's appeal from suspension of his operating privileges and sustain the six month suspension imposed by the Department.

Nov. 30, 1984 Amended Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint filed.

Dec. 3, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, November 30, 1984, at the time this mortgage foreclosure proceeding is set for adjudication, the parties through their counsel advise the court they have mutually resolved the issues, and the matter is to be settled by agreement on the following conditions:

1. Defendant Claude W. Cummings and Janet S. Cummings, his wife, will give a quit claim deed to John R. Basile and Dorothy R. Basile, his wife, which deed is present in court this date, and which will be signed and acknowledged this date by Defendant Claude W. Cummings. Janet S. Cummings does not appear, as she is employed at this time, but through her husband and her counsel, advises the Court that she will join with her husband and sign said deed when it is presented to her by her husband upon his return from this hearing in the State of Ohio. She will sign the deed, have it acknowledged, place it immediately in the mail to be delivered to Attorney R. Charles Thomas, with said delivery to be made on or before December 5, 1984. In the event Janet S. Cummings refuses to sign said deed or it is not delivered to counsel for the Plaintiff as above set forth, the Court will authorize the Prothonotary of Crawford County to sign a deed for both parties to consummate this agreement.

2. As part of this settlement, the Defendants are authorized to remove their personal effects placed therein during their occupancy of the premises, and they will appear at the premises Saturday, December 8, 1984 at 12:00 o'clock noon, where they will be met by the agent of the Plaintiffs, one Steve Todorvich, who will admit them to the premises for the purpose of taking personal items from the home and from a storage shed that are their personal property brought to the premises after purchase. No furniture, fixtures which were on the premises at the time of the sale will be removed by the Defendants, as this settlement agreement envisions a re-transfer of furniture, fixtures and personal property items included in the original sale as being the property of the plaintiffs in this case.

3. The parties acknowledge there is a roll-away bed and a couch in addition to personal items on the premises, which are the property of the Defendant and may be removed and there may be fishing equipment, a mower, or the Defendant's in the tool shed along with other items they brought upon the premises, which may be removed.

Mariann Luksik

Aug. 6, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, August 2, 1984, at the time set for hearing, the parties agree that the matter be amicably resolved without hearing and accordingly, consent to be bound by the following order:

1. The derendant/husbund shall not assault, annoy, harass or threaten his wife in any fashion. He shall not go to her home or place of residence unless she specifically invistes him to do so.

2. Primary custody of the minor child, Lauren Nicole, is awarded to the mother with the father's consent.

3. The father having requested the right to visitations, the same is granted. In view of the fact the father plans on leaving the community to take up other employment, he shall be accorded reasonable vists with the child providing either before he leaves or after he leaves the community he gives the mother forty-eight (48) hours notice, and the mother may select a convenient place for the visitation so long as a third party is present during the visitation. During the visitation the father may not remove the child from the jurisdiction of Crawford County or procure others to do so on his behalf.

4. It appears the father is employed at this time at Danny's Bar in Meadville, Pennsylvania and nets approximately $144.00 per week. There appears to be a Domestice Relations case in process to secure support for wife and child, and pending final resolution of that support proceeding, the defendant is directed to pay the sum of $25.00 per week for the support of his minor child through the Domestice Relations Office of Crawford County until the final order is entered.

5. Upon receipt of notice of a hearing before the Domestic Relations Section, both parties shall attend said hearing. The aforesaid order is entered as a temporary order and without predudice to the right of the Hearing Officer or the Court to enter an appropriate order under all of the facts and circumstances elicited at the hearing. The defendant presently resides at 697 Terrance Street and the Plaintiff resides at 162 Walker Drive. Both parties shall keep the Domestice Relations Office notified of any change of address.

This order shall remain effective for a period of one (1) year.

Aug. 6, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, August 3, 1984, at the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, the Court finds that there was a superficial slap on the mouth that triggered this abuse petition.

It further appears the parties have had on going arguments and disputes for over three (3) years while at the same time having a compatable sexual relation after the divorce.

It appears to the Court that this petition is a mere vehicle to resolve the issue of right to possession of formerly tenants by the entireties property but which since the divorce is now owned by tenants in common.

It appears further that the wife has now filed a support action and that matter will be heard in due course and if she is fearful the husband will abscond with the children, she may file a petition to confirm custody.

The Court has knowledge of this petition and reasons for its dismissal, and the defendant, former husband should not contrue the Courts decision in dismissing this petition as an invitation for him to proceed to the house and assault his wife or harass her in an attempt to force her removal from the jointly owned premises.

This matter should be resolved by a resolution, by amicable settlement or by filing an equity partition action.

Costs to be paid by the plaintiff.

Timothy D. McNair

Oct. 2, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Setpember 27, 1984, at the time for hearing, counsel for the Commonwealth objects to the allowance of an appeal nunc pro tunc in view of the fact the suspension notice was dated May 24, 1984, and the appeal was not filed until August 9, 1984, pointing out to the Court that the noticeof suspension precisely and clearly advises the defendants that they must take an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas in the county of their residence within thirty (30) days of the date on the notice. Further, counsel for theCommonwealth advises the Court at an earlier date in 1984 the defendant perfected an appeal from license suspension on an unrelated charge and knew definitely the precise method of perfecting an appeal on the present license suspension.

Counsel for the defendant presents in the petition and factually recites to the Court a series of facts which he contends evidence negligence on the part of the judicial system which would permit the defendant to file the petition nunc pro tunc. The Court directs counsel for the defendant to place on the record an offer of what the testimony on behalf of the defendant would show were she permitted to testify in furtherance of her right to file an appeal nunc pro tunc:

MR. McNAIR: As an offer of proof, the petitioner would submit that based on the petitioner's testimony would be shown that subsequent to receipt of the notice of suspension or revocation rather; that she sought legal advice, was unable to secure the same; that she was put in contact with an Erie County District Justice who advised her to send a letter to the Department of Transportation requesting a hearing; that she did send a letter requesting a hearing and was advised by letter dated June 20th that this was not the proper procedure.

Thereafter, she again sought counsel and I accepted her representation.

THE COURT: On when?

MR. McNAIR: June 29th, I believe was the date. I would submit that the reliance upon the advice of theDistrict Justice is such that would excuse her foom at least that period of time upon which she was relying upon and would therefore extend her period of time.

THE COURT: The Court inquires if the testimony would show with preciseness the date of the telephone call and the name of the District Justice she talked to?

MR. McNAIR: We would precisely show the date of the telephone call to be June 15, 1984. The identity of the District Justice is unknown to counsel and apparently forgotten by the petitioner.

THE COURT: Miss Norkus, put your motion on the record please.

MISS NORKUS: The Commonwealth moves to quash the appeal before this Court on the basis of the relevant statute and the Commonwealth Court cases which state that an appeal must be filed within thirty (30) days from the mail date notice of suspension of revocation or the Court is without jurisdiction to entertain the appeal.

THE COURT: Motion is granted and the appeal is dismissed.

AND NOW, September 27, 1984, the petition for allowance of appeal of suspension nunc pro tunc is dismissed after an offer of proof has been placed on the record and the Court finding no reason to allow the appeal nunc pro tunc and noting that notice of suspension was made May 24, 1984 and the petttion for allowance of appeal was not filed until August 9, 1984.

Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

APPEAL FROM SUSPENSION OF OPERATING PRIVILEGES

1 copy (atty)

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 17th day of August, 1984, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, it is adjudged and decreed that a hearing on this Appeal shall be held on the 27th day of Sept., 1984, at 9:30 o'clock A.M. at the Crawford County Court House Meadville, Pa. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 or as soon thereafter as the attention of the Court may be had; thirty days (30) written notice shall be given to the Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety Operations, Citation Processing Division, Rm. 302, Transportation and Safety Building, Harrisburg, Pa. 17120, by certified mail, return receipt requested.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Aug. 17, 1984, copy of order given to Atty. Truax.

Oct. 2, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, September 27, 1984, it appearing that the defendant was involved in an accident at approximately midnight on June 15, 1984 and before arrival of the police on the scene was transported to Spencer Hospital in an injured condition, pursuant to Section 3755, hospital personnel withdrew a blood sample from the defendant at 1:20 A.M. which sample came into the possession of the police or District Attorney in preparation for an upcoming DUI charge.

It appears that during the investigation the police were delayed in consulting with the defendant in the emergency room or requesting a further blood sample, but at approximately 3:30 a.m., while the defendant was still under treatment in the emergency room the arresting officer requested a further blood sample to which request the defendant did not respond. At the time of the request, the officer testified he was aware by looking at the hospital chart that a smple of blood had been taken at 1:20 p.m.

The Court views the factual situations of this case as peculiar and the Commonwealth's usspension of the defendant's operating privileges for a period of one (1) year because of his failure to respond to the officer when the officer knew that a blood sample had been taken approximately two (2) hours earlier to be beyond the intent of the Legislature in imposing a suspension.

Accordingly, we sustain the appeal and the suspension imposed upon the defendant by notice dated Aug. 3, 1984 is reversed.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Oct. 4,1984, copies of order to Attys. David P. Truax, and Nancy Norkus.

Oct. 25, 1984, Notice of Appeal of plaintiff, copy of docket entry and Proof of Service of Notice of Appeal filed.

Oct. 30, 1984, Supplement to Court Order and Findings of Fact Entered September 27, 1984 filed: We sustained the defendant's appeal from a suspension of his license, after hearing, on September 27, 1984 and the reasons therefore are partially set forth in said order. We wish to supplement said findings by noting that the defendant had been involved in a serious automobile accident, was extensively injured, had glass in his eyes, was ministered to by a doctor and a nurse and at the time the police officer requested him to submit to a blood test at approximately 3:30 A.M., he was physically, mentally and emotionally incapable of making a knowing and intelligent response to said request.

We believe our original order of September 27, 1984 and this supplement give adequate reasons for the court's decision and find no need to write a formal opinion.

June 20, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, June 18, 1986, through inadvertence, this matter was not listed on the Court schedule and there is inadequate time to give consideration to the issues raised in this case.

It appears that there is an agreement by both parties that the divorce proceed with dispatch and that neither party will seek a bifurcation.

Accordingly, all that remains is for the Defendant to file a 201(c) affidavit and for each party to file the requisite income and expense statements.

The Defendant agrees that he should be liable for reasonable counsel fees but the sole issue confronting the Court is the Defendant's contention that the wife has employable skills and is not entitled to alimony pendente lite.

Accordingly, the Court lacking the time to hear a contest of this issue this date hereby continues this case until June 30, 1986, at 2:00 p.m.

The Court advises counsel that if the preliminary requirements have been satisfied for the appointment of a Master, it will appoint a Master on that date and it will put a limitation on any award of alimony pendente lite and also will award counsel fees in an appropriate amount.

The defendant is directed to present at that hearing a statement from his employer of gross and net earnings up to June 1, 1986.

Sept. 4, 1984, copies of order to Atty. R. Charles Thomas and defendant.

Sept. 28, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, September 21, 1984, the plaintff filed a Complaint requesting visitation with his son but the Court realizing the complexities of a regular visitation schedule because of the fact the plaintiff resides in Florida and his son resides in Crawford County, and the further complicating factor that there has been no close assocation between father and son in receipt years and the fact that the son is now seventeen years of age and will become eighteen years of age in June, the Court declines to set any specific visitation schedule. In view of the fact the plaintiff will be in Crawford County over the weekend, he is directed to meet with his son and the son's mother in an effort to establish some future plan for visits of the son to the State of Florida for a meaningful visitation period with his father providing it does not interfere with his schooling and providing the tramsportation costs thereof are underwritten by the father. Plans should also be made for visits between father and son at any time the father returns to Crawford County for periodic visits. In the event this matter cannot be amicably resolved, the Court will entertain a petition from the Plaintiffs attorney specifying the proposed visitation dates requested and the Court will schedule a further hearing to ascertain whether a visitation Order is appropriate. In the event this happens, it will not be necessary for the father to undergo the expenses for returning to Crawford County for said hearing as the Court believes through his counsel, the mother and the son, we would have sufficient input from all parties to enable the Court to arrange a meaningful visitation schedule absent an agreement among the parties to the same.

1. The parties shall have joint legal custddy of the minor children, i.e., Jonathan David Rosen, born June 18, 1974, and Seth Ian Rosen, born January 31, 1981. Labor Day weekend, commencing Friday at 6:00 p.m. through Monday at 8:00 P..M.

The first night of Rosh Hashanah, commencing at 5:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. the next day;

The second night of Rosh Hashanah, from 5:00 P.M. the second night until 5:00 P.M. the next day;

From 9:00 A.M. Yom Kippur Day until 8:00 P.M. that night;

From 12:00 Noon Thanksgiving Day until 8:00 P.M. the day before school commences;

From 12:00 noon Christmas Day until 8:00 P.M. the day before school commences;

Seth Ian Rosen's birthday (January 31) from 6:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M.

A. the parties will commence the above partial custody schedule with the mother having partial custody of the minor children for the first night of Passover in 1985 and so on alternating in sequence. The holiday schedule shall supersede the regual weekly partial custody schedule to the extent of any conflict, and following the exercise of the holiday partial custody in accordance herewith, the regual weekly partial custody schedule shall be resumed in accordance with the same schedule as would have obtained had there not been the intervening holiday. In any event the Jewish holidays will supersede all other partial custody times as set forth above.

4. The father shall have partial custody of both minor children each year on Father's Day and on the father's birthday, and the mother shall have partial custody each year on Mother's Day and the mother's birthday. These days shall supersede the reguaar weekly partial custody schedule to the extent of any conflict, and the parties shall work together to rearrange the regular weekly partial custody of the minor children in the event that Mother's Day or mother's birthday, or Father's Day or father's birthday, conflict with the regular weekly partial custody time of the other parent.

5. Father shall be entitled to custody for up to one-half (½) of the summer school recess provided he shall submit his scheduling of same in writing to mother on or prior to April 15 of each year. If the parties shall agree that either or both of the children shall attend summer camp or school for any period of time, one-half (½) of the time involved shall be allocated as mother's time and one-half (½) as father's time for purposes of calculating the parties' respective custody entitlements for that summer.

It is understood that father may elect to exercise less than his full summer right of custody, but his failure to take advantage of same in any year shall not be deemed a waiver of his right to do so in any succeeding year.

6. The parties shall scrupulously honor the foregoing scheduling, each party promptly complying with the scheduled times unless both parties shall otherwise agree.

7. All information and decisions regarding the education, health, welfare and summer camp of the minor children, or either of them, shall be shared by both of the parents, and mutual decisions made with respect to same, each parent keeping the other fully advised with respect to any and all developing issues concerning either of the said minor children. The education, development, health and well being of the children shall at all times be the paramount consideration of the mother and father.

8. It appearing to the Custody Mediator that both parents are fit, prudent and trustworthy, each parent shall be entitled to exercise his or her respective good judgment with respect to permitted activities of the minor children during their time of partial custody.

Neither parent shall expose the children to any situation which would be harmful to their physcial or emotional well being and neither parent shall speak disrespectfully of the other parent in the childrs presence, but on the contrary, shall do everything in the power of each to foster respect and a loving attitude on the part of the children to both parents

9. Conflicts in the extracurricular activities schedules of the minor childre may arise from time to time. The parents are encouraged to consult each other regarding schedule conflicts in order to work out a mutually agreeable and convenient schedule; however, the parent in whose actual custody (father or mother) the children are at the time of the scheduling conflict shall have the right to make the decision as to whether or not the children shall attend the extracurricular activity.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

Costs of the mediation conference are to be equally divided between the parties.

Apr. 17, 1985 Alimony Pendente and Counsel Fees Orders filed: ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE ORDER, After lengthy hearing and argument we award alimony pendente lite and child support. We direct the plaintiff Daniel H. Rosen to pay his wife Regina Rosen combined and unallocated alimony pendente lite and child support in the amount of $8,000 per month retroactive to the month of September, 1984 through March 1985 and into the future.

By agreement of counsel, credits against this total award for a wide variety of support and family obligations in the amount of $30,000 already paid by Daniel Rosen from September 1984 through March 1985 will be allowed Balancing the aforesaid credit of $30,000 against the seven month alimony and support obligation of $56,000 results in a balance due and owing as of April 1, 1985 of $26,000 in unpaid alimony and support. These arrears will be paid as noted hereafter.

Commencing with the month of April 1985 and monthly thereafter, on or before the 15th of each month, the plaintiff Daniel Rosen will pay his wife the sum of $8,000 per month for alimony pendente lite and support, plus an additional $1,000 to apply on the arrears aforesaid until paid in full. In the event a final divorce and equitable property division decree is entered before the arrears are paid in full, the unpaid balance will be treated as a liquidated obligation due the wife.

The court recognizes the latent earning capacity of the wife but rejects the argument that this capacity should be considered in the present award. However, we find that once the trauma of the past and present ameliorates with time, that equity requires the earning capacity of the wife to be reflected in a reduced alimony pendente and support award. ACCORDINGLY, commencing January 1, 1986, the basic monthly payment will be reduced to $7,500.

ATTORNEY FEE AWARD

Defendant wife has incurred attorney fees to date with billings totaling $12,797.84 through March 31, 1985. We are advised these fees have been paid by the wife defendant. We are aware that additional attorney fees have been incurred in April in litigating this complex alimony matter and that ongoing attorney fees will be incurred as this contested matter is further litigated.

We find the wife defendant to be without the necessary resources to meet past and future expenses for attorney fees. We direct that one-half the attorney fees aforesaid be paid to the wife as reimbursement by the plaintiff on May 15, 1985, and the balance on June 15, 1985.

We have been requested to make a prospective award in a substantial amount for attorney fees to be incurred in the future. For a variety of reasons we deny said request and resolve current fees due for the April litigation and unascertained future fees in the following fashion:

Plaintiff Daniel Rosen will pay his wife an additional sum of $2,000 for Aprio and/or future attorney fees with said sum due May 15, 1985. The wife, at her discretion, may apply all or a portion thereof toward her account with her attorney.

Commencing July 1, 1985, the plaintiff will pay in addition to the alimony and support award and attorney fee awards an additional sum of $300 per month to be received by the defendant wife as payment toward on going and final attorney fees incurred in this case.

This award for payment of past, ongoing and final attorney fees is made without prejudice to the right of the master in divorce and ultimately the reviewing judge to pass on the reasonableness of total attorney fees incured and to allocate payment of the same between the parties as equity requires, giving consideration to each party's last payments toward the same.

This Court will not be receptive to further requests for attorney fees and ancillary expences unless the matter becomes unduely protracted or the defendant's posture becomes prejudice because required services for attorneys or other experts are refused because of the likelihood of nonpayment.

✓Oct. 11, 1985, Affidavit of Service filed.

✓Oct. 18, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Oct. 11, 1985, after extensive hearing the Court believes that the interest of the children at the present time is best served if both parents have a role in deciding schooling, religious training, health matters and general upbringing of the children, and that both parents should share important decisions to be made in that regard.

Under the present circumstances, as the Court finds them, after extensive hearing, the court believes the best interest of the minor children, Seth and Jonathan will be served by awarding primary custody to the mother at her current residence and a prospective new residence in the State of Florida. The Court desires that liberal visitations be accorded the father, and that the parties take into consideration the travel distance, school requirements, school vacations and parental vacations.

This Court believes the short and extended visits with the father should be left to the good discretion of these devoted parents, and accordingly, we Direct counsel for the parties and the parties to meet forthwith and attempt to establish a meaningful visitation agreement schedule to become a part of this Court Order between the children and their father, This schedule should include an extensive visit with the father in Titusville during the summer school vacation period. The Court notes it will refuse to exclude the father's present companion from sharing all or a portion of any said visits.

Counsel for the parties have mutually agreed that the school schedules for the children will play a critical role in structuring a decision for visitations with the father. Accordingly, counsel for the mother will furnish a school schedule to counsel for the father within ten (10) days, and the Court will expect within twenty (20) days of this date to have in its hands a recommended agreement of the parties, which can be incorporated as a visitation schedule with this custody award.

Nov. 7, 1985 Order filed: We entered a Custody decision in this case October 11, 1985, and urged the parties to reach a visitation schedule after review of the shildrens school schedules and school vacation aches-ules in the state of Florida.

Counsel for the parties now advise the Court that there has been some delay in meeting to resolve the visitation issues and that they wish additional time to resolve the collateral issues and to preserve the appeal time on the custody issue.

Accordingly, the Court advise counsel for the parties that it will consider its order of October 11, 1985, to be a temporary order as it affects custody and visitation, and any appeal period regarding either custody or visitation will date from a subsequent Final Order to be entered in the future by this Court.

BY THE COURT:
P. Richard Thomas, J

June 20, 1986 Copies of order to Joseph Altomare and Mark Goldberg

June 20, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, June 18, 1986, in response to a Petition indicating the aprties are in adisagreement about visitation with minor child, Seth, for the summer months, the Court deemed it inadvisable to require the presence of the mother from Florida to resolve this isuue and, accordingly, met with counsel for the parties in a chambers conference and informally reviewed the posture of the parties.

It appears that the parents have been unable to agree on a summer visit regarding 5 year old Seth. The mtoher's posture is that she enrolled him in a four week day care camp commencing on or about June 16, 1986. She contends she advised the father of this enrollment and the child's desire to go to the camp. On the other hand, the father says he was not so notified and the enrollment in the campt was a unilateral decision on the part of the mother. The father postulates that in view of his limited opportunities to have the children in his custody he is totally unwilling to give up four weeks of a ten week planned summer custody to accommodate the mtoher and the child's desire to attend the day camp.

The Court is call upon to resolve this issue after input from both counsel and enters the following Order regarding the summer visit for the two children in 1986

The chidlren shall be in the custody of the father in accordance with airline tickets purchased between the dates of approximately June 21, 1986, and approximately August 30, 1986. The Court is advised that Jonathan apparently has an illness that may prevent his arrival at the previously arranged date between mother and father, and the Court makes the aforesaid dates approximate in order that Jonathan will be guided by his doctor's opinion as to when he is able to come and that child Seth should accompany child Jonathan on the same flights.

In previous Orders the Court left to the discretion of the parents custody and visitaiton schedules, and it appears that the parents have made some agreements regarding school holiday visits and custody of the children with the fahter, but were unable to resolve a more extended summer visit. The Court reiterates what it noted in prior Orders that the chidlren should be with the fahter in his hole exclusive custody for an extended period of time during the summer school vacation period and urges the parties to reduce to writing their agreements regarding school year vacation and custody periods with the father and particularly establish definitive summer vacation custody with the father so disagremeents of the kind confronting the Court on this date will not reoccur.

In view of the extensive time both chidlren will be away from the mother, the Court grants the mtoher the right to come to the Titusville area for visits with the chidlren on two occations during the time they are in the custody of the father, but said visits may not interfere with the fther's planned vacation schedule for the chidlren, if said plans are to take the chidlren away from the Titusville area to speical vacation spots or with special vacation travel plans. The Court visualizes that if the mother comes to the Titusville area on these two occasions she should have the right to have the chidlren in her custody for a period, of not less than 3 consecutive days on two occasions, provided , however, as noted above, these periods may not interfere with planned vacation periods of the father when he will have the children outside of Titusville for an extended period of time.

Oct. 9, 1986 Exhibits filed (from hearing on OCt. 9, 1986)

Oct. 16, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, October 9, 1986, partial hearing is held in this matter on the contempt petition and on the petition to reduce alimony and support payments. Due to the lack of time, schedule of the parties, witnesses, counsel, and Court, it is impossible to schedule completion of this hearing until November 24, 1986, at 9:30 a.m.

In the interim, the Plaintiff will pay alimony pendente lite and child support in the unallocated amount of $6,000.00 by October 17, 1986, and the sum of $6,000.00 by November 17, 1986. The Court reserves the right to make further adjustments in these two payments depending on the Court's ultimate finding of whether the original order should be maintained or should be reduced.

The hearing is continued under these circumstances until November 24, 1986.

In the interim period, if the Plaintiff files any original or amended tax returns, a copy of the same will be forwarded to counsel for the defendant on the date the same are filed. This order covers any personal, corporate or trust tax returns.

Nov. 24, 1986 Petition for Counsel Fees, Costs, Expenses and Experts Fees filed.

Dec. 9, 1986 PETITION TO REDUCE ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE AND CHILD SUPPORT PETITION FOR CONTEMPT, PETITION FOR ADDITIONAL COUNSEL FEES AND EXPERT FEES : ORDER filed. This complex contested divorce matter is back before the Court onthe above three issues and after extensive hearings, we are called upon to make an equitable and fair decision in light of an unusually complex family financial situation. This figorously contested alimony and support matter produced testimony from two CPA's and a flood of acocunting exhibits, income tax returns, summary accounting sheets and testimony from each of the aprties attempting to show the precarious financial posture of the parties. There is no question that the Plaintiff physician generates through his two corporations substantial gross income, but he contends that his medical practice, for a variety of reasons, is now netting substantially less then when our original alimony order was entered in April of 1985. The financial posture of the parties is complicated by the husband operating his professional practice through two separate "one man" corporations and the aprties' previous joint establishment of four separate tax shelter type "Clifford Trusts" for their two children, which trusts own the business building and all of the equipment used by the husband in his practice. The matter is further complicated by a series of amended income tax returns and recent Internal Revenue Services audit which took a dim view of the tax shelter devices and has levied as assessment against the husband of $115,411.00 for past due taxes, Apparently, the husband is not contesting some $46,000.00 of this assessemtn, but contends that the balance of some $69,000.00 will be vigorously litigated.

The wife and two children now reside in Florida and have attempted to adopt a lifestyle commensurate with the advantages and amenities formerly enjoyed beofre the separation. The wife has purchased a house for $193,000.00, which is subject to a $140,000.00 mortgage. She presents a budget sheet (Exhibit D) showing a montly mortgage payment of approximately $1,800.00 and other routine expenses for herself and children, totaling slightly in excess of $7,400.00 per month. In addition, she is currently obligated to her divorce attorney for outstanding unpaid litigation fees in the amount of $12,600.00 and to the accountant for approximately $5,700.00 for services rendered in contesting the husband's peption for reduction of alimony.

The wife is currently not employed in the State of Florida and testified she had no intention of seeking immediate employment, but after the divorce is finally resovled may seek an additional Master's Degree in psychology to enhance future employment opportunities. She was a teacher before and during the erly years of marraige, holding a Master's Degree and commanding compensation in the $20,000.00 per year range in New YOrk State. She opines that even with her Master's Degree the teaching opportunities in Florida are minimal and projects that a person with her experience and degree would command only about a $14,000.00 salary in the state of Florida.

With this complex fatual situation compounded by a stack of 34 exhibits presented by the aprties and their accountants, we reach the following conclusions:

1. We accept the husband's testimony and evidence that his affluent practice subjected to competition and other relevant factors has resulted in some decline of net income.
2. While the ill-fated tax shelter plans were entered into by both of the aprties, the onus of paying the IRS tax assessment falls on the husband.
3. While we believed, as noted in our previous order, that the wife was entitled to some "breathing time: to recover from the shock of the separation and the establishment of a new liefestyle with the two children, we now believe that after more tahn two years of separation her earning capacity must be taken into consideration indetermining an appropriate amount of alimony pendente lite and child support to be paid by the husband/father. Accordingly, in reducing the father's alimony obligation we will attribute approximately $1,000.00 per month earning capacity to the wife.

MODIFICATION OF ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE and CHILD SUPPORT AWARD.

This Order heretofore entered requireing the payment of $7,500.00 per month, plus $300.00 per month attorney fees is modified to the sum of $6,300.00 per month plys $300.00 per month attorney fees, effective for the month of October, 1986, and monthly thereafter until further ORder of Court.

By Order of OCtober 9, 1986, pending final hearing, we arbitrarily reduced the alimony award to the sum of $6,000.00 for the months of OCtober and November, and we now amend that ORder nunc pro tunc to require the aforesaid payment of $6,600.00 per month for the two aforesaid months of October and November. The arrears in the amount of $1,200.00 which would thereby exist because of the ORder modification will be paid inthe month of December in addition to the $6,600.00 alimony, support and attorney fee payment required to be paid in December.

PETITION FOR ATTORNEY AND ACCOUNTANT FEES

We recognize that unanticipated attorney and accountant fees were generated by the husband's Petition to Modify, but we decline to order the Plaintiff husband at this time to pay the full amount thereof. We order the Plaintiff husband to pay the sum of $2,800.00 as a portion of the accountant expert fees incurred, with said payment to be made on or before January 15, 1987. We further order the husband to pay additional attorney fees inthe amount of $3,500.00 (in addition to the monthly requirement of $300.00), with said payment to be made on or before January 30, 1987.

In making said orders for payment of expert and accountant fees, we do so without prejudice to the right of the Master in this divorce case, or ultimately the Court, to divide both parties' attorney and expert fees betwee the parties insuch manner as equity and justice require.

PETITION FOR CONTEMPT

We find no evidence of willful and diliberate contempt of this Court's prior orders and accordingly dismiss the Defendant wife's Petition for Contempt, with the cautionary notation that we expert the monthly payments to be made on or before the 20th day of each month.

July 13, 1987 Special Order filed: AND NOW, July 10, 1987, the matter is before the court regarding a dispute over the father's planned vacation trip to Israel while the children are in his custody during the summer of 1987. Rather than inconvenience the parties, the court listens to input from counsel for each of the parties in a conference telephone call and resolves the matter as follows:

1. The children's passports now in the custody of Attorney Goldberg will promptly be forwarded to Attorney Altomare for immediate delivery to the father. Upon return from the projected trip, the father will surrender the passports to the court, who will lodge them iwth the Prothonotary. They may not be removed by either party without further order of court or uon the signed consent of both for the release of said passports to either parent because they are need for the children's use.

2. The mother expresses some concern about not having detailed knowledge of the projected itinerary of father and children while in Israel. The court is aware that a partial intinerary giving flight times and at least on hotel stay is available, the father will supply the mother with the names and telephone numbers, if possible, of any other hotels where the parties will be staying while in Israel.

3. During the children s stay in Israel the father will arrange for the children to make two collect calls to the mother from Israel, with said calls to be received by the mother at a reasonable Florida time and will not be scheduled to reach the mother between the hours of 11:00 P.M. and 8:00 A.M. Florida time.

4. There appears to be some justifiable confusion by the parent's regarding the court's order of June 18, 1986, regarding the precise time the father's summer visit ends and the children are to be returned to the mother to commence the school term in Florida. Accordingly, the court hereby directs that the former order of June 18, 1986, be amended to the end that in 1987 and subsequent years the father's summer visit with the children will end at such time as puts the children back in the custody of the mother in the state of Florida five days before the first day of the start of the fall school term.

June 13, 1990, Answer to Petition for Summer Visitation filed.

June 21, 1990, SPECIAL ORDER - RE: CHILD VISITATION filed. This court is aware ofthe complications arising regarding the summer visitation of minor child Seth with the father in Crawford County. This court is aware that the mother has petitioned the court in Florida to take jurisdiction of the custody issue, and this court is advised after personal conversation with Judge James M. Reasbeck that the circuit court of Florida will decline to take jurisdiction of the custody issue involving the children and particularly the custody issue involving minor child Seth. this court was advised by Judge Reasbeck that in view of this court's long-term jurisdiction of this case that the best interest of the visitation regarding child Seth would be served by allowing the Crawford County Court to resolve the issue.

This court is in possession of a letter dated June 18, 1990 w ith copies thereof to counsel for the mother in which father of the child is amenable to a shorter summer visitation period with minor child Seth in Crawford County due tothe recent traumatic event involving said child and his possible counseling in the State of Florida.

ACCORDINGLY, This c ourt directs the following regarding the summer visitation of minor child seth with his father, Dr. Daniel rosen.

1. The summer visitation period for the minor child with father shall commence between the dates of July 31 and August 3rd with the final date to be amicable arrived at by the parents. In the event the parents are unable to agree the court orders the visit shall commence Aug. 1, 1990.

2. The father previously forwarded airline tickets for a visit commencing about June 26th and said tickets are in possession of the mother. It sahll be the responsibility of the mother to make the necessary flight arrangements for th summer visitation.

3. the visit with the father will terminate and the child will be returned to Florida to the custody of the mother three (3) days before the commencement of the fall sc hool term at the child'sschool in Fla.

4. It appears the child is undergoing counseling in Florida and it shall be the responsibility fothe mother to arrange with the counseling professionals in Florida to send summary reports regarding the child at least every two weeks directly to the father for transfer by the father to the child's previous therapist, Dr. albert Scott.

5. Father shall likewise be responsible for forwarding to the mother for delivery to the Florida therapist periodic reports fo counseling received during the summer by the child.

6. The father shall arrange for telephone communication between chld and mother and mother on not less than a weekly basis during the summer vacation period. Likewise, until the father's visit commences, the father shall be entitled to telephone communication with the minor child on at least a weely basis.

7. The court considers this order as dispositive of the petition fo Daniel H. Rosen filed June 11, 1990 in this court requesting an order requiring visitation transfer of the child June 16, 1990, and regina E. Rosen's answer thereto. the court also considers this order as a denial of Regina E. Rosen's petition to stay proceedings and transfer the custody proceeding in this case to the state of Florida.

July 6, 1990 Re: Application for Stay of Coaurt Order Requiring Summer Visitation and Order filed: This Court entered a visitation order on or about June 21, 1990, regarding minor child Seth. This Order was entered after consulting with the appropriate Judge in the State of Florida, who advised this Court that the Florida Court woul decline to entertain jurisdiction in the case. The original visitation plans for the child accorded the child an extensive summer vacation with his father. In view of a traumatic experience involving the child, the father proposed reducing the planned summer visit to a three or three and one half week period in the month of August. This Court is advised that correspondence or input from the mother indicated no objection to a drastic reduction in the summer visit.

From our Order according a shortened summer visit, the mother has not taken an appeal to the Superior Court, and we are now asked to stay our order for a summer visit pending disposition of the mother's appeal.

This Court has dealt for year with the family and visitation problems impacting on this family, and we are well aware of the counseling the child has received in this county and in Florida, both before and after the most recent traumatic experience. Under all circumstances, we could find no reason why a shortened summer was not appropriate, particularly in view of the fact that the father would arrange for ongoing counseling with counselors in this area who were familiar with the child and had counsel him in the past.

We find no reason to dictate a lengthy opinion sustaining our judicial discretion in this case, and sustain the posture of the father as expressed in a brief received this date. To that end we direct this brief be filed in the Prothonotary's Office with the records in this case.

For the foregoing reason, we deny the Application for Stay of our August visitation order without hearing.

Oct 24, 1990 Order filed: AND NOW, October 22, 1990 the matter is back before the Court on a petition attempting to set firm dates for the remainder of 1990 and into the future for visits between minor child Seth (now 10) with his father in Pennsylvania. The mother does not appear, but is represented by counsel. This Court is aware that in the past, the parents attempted to arrange mutually satisfactory visits for the children between the mother in Florida and the father in Pennsylvania, and the mother has been before the Court on numerous occasions. There is presently an appeal pendiang regarding this Court's authority and jurisdiction to enter a special order regarding minor child Seth, which this Court entered June 21, 1990. This Court rejects the mother's contention that because an appeal from this Order is pending that this Court has no jurisdiction to set further visitation schedules regarding minor child Seth. We reject said contention.

Commencing for the balance of 1990, and in future years, the Court set the following visitation schedule for minor child Seth:

Thanksgiving -- The child shall be sent to the father Wednesday night before Thanksgiving and will be returned by the father to the mother the following Sunday.

Christmas -- For 1990, because the father has already purchased airlien tickets, the child shall be in the custody of the father from December 19th until January 2nd. Commencing in 1991, the visitation schedule for the father shall commence two days after the last day of the child's school before the Christmas holiday, and the father shall return the child one day before the recommencement of school.

Easter -- For the Easter or spring school vacation period, the father shall be entitled to a 6-day custody period, with the first day to be counted as the day the father receives the child and the sixth day to be counted as the day the father puts the child back on the plane. In view of the fact that the spring/Easter recess periods may vary eachcalendar year, the court urges theparties to agree on the precise dates for the Easter vacation period. IN the event they are unable to agree, the court directs that the first day of the period shall commence the day following the last day the child is required to be in school before the vacation period commences.

SUMMER VACATION: The court notes taht the mother's counsel strenuously argues that a 6-week summer visitation between the mfather and the minor child would be sufficient. The court rejects this contention but believes that a portion of the summer vacation should accommodate the mother accordingly. Accordingly, commencing in 1991, the father shall have the child during the summer school vacation period commencing 7 days following the last day that the child attends school before the summer recess and terminating four days before the commencement of school for the fall school semester.

It shall be the responsibility fo the father to underwrite the cost of all transportation for the visits herein described, both for sending the child from the Florida and returnign the child to Florida. It shall be the responsibility of the mother, regina E. Rosen, to provide transportation to the airport and from the airport toaccommodate the scheduled times whenthe child departs and returns by airplane.

ORDER: The father has moved to quash as moot the mother's appeal from an order giving the father partial custody of their child for the vacation month of August, 1991. The mother complied with the order by trunign custody over to the father during that month. An appeal from a grant of partial custody for the limited purpose of summer visitation becomes moot and msut be quashed once the appealing party has complied with the order. Commonwealth ex rel Dustin v. Hiepler, 209 Super. 513, 228 A2d 671 (1967). The custody court's denial of the mother's petition to ransfer the case to the state where she and the child have moved was interlocutory and unappealable without a certification of appealability by the court or an election to treat the order as final under Pa. Aug 13, 1991 Order filed: AND NOW, August 9, 1991, after partial completion of the father's case, the Court lacks the necessary time to complete the hearing this date. Further counsel for the mother wishes the opportunity to review an extensive written report submitted by Dr. Scott before cross examining the Doctor. ACCORDINGLY, we continue the case until august 22, 1991 at 9:30 a.m.

The Court is advised that counsel for the motehr will discuss the situation with her and if the matter can be amicably resolved, counsel will notify the Court of said fact on or before August 19, 1991.

In the meantime, the Court recognizes the dilemma of the father in a delayed decision regarding enrollment of the child in the Titusville school system in the event of an ultimate award of custody during the school term to the father. ACCORDINGLY, the father is authorized to take all necessary steps to enrol the child in the Titusville school system until ultimate decision by this court.

The Court notes that at the beginning of the hearing, jurisdiction to hear this case was raised by the mother, and while many aspects of this Order are agreed to by counsel for the mother, the Order is entered over the continued objection on the jurisdiction issue.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

Aug 14, 1991 Copies of order put in Atty. Kirkpatrick's box and mailed to Attys. Altomare and Goldberg.

Aug. 28, 1991 CONTINUANCE ORDER filed. AND NOW, Aug. 20, 1991, the Court is orally advised by counsel for the defendant mother, that she will consent to a change in custody regarding minor child, Seth. The Court understands she will consent that primary custody of Seth will be changed to the father and that the child shall be enrolled in the Titusville schools commencing with the fall term of school 1991.

Counsel for the mother therefore requested a continuance of the hearing scheduled before this Court on Aug. 22, 1991, in order to accord counsel and the parteis an opportunity to reach an amicable agreement regarding holiday and summer visits between mother and child Seth.

ACCORDINGLY, the hearing scheduled Aug. 22, 1991, is continued generally and the Court directs that primary custody of the minor child Seth shall be with the father and he shall be enrolled in the Titusville school system.

If the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding visits between mother and child, the Court will entertain a motion from counsel for either party to set a further hearing to determine the visitation issue.

Nov. 15, 1991 Order Setting Further Hearing filed. This Court by Order of August 20, 1991, continued a custody hearing regarding minor child Seth on the basis that the parents had reached an agreement giving primary custody of said child to the father. Hearing was continued generally to accrd parents the opportunity to amicably resolve periods of visits between child and mother on the holidays and during summer school vacations.

We have recently received correspondence from the mother complaining that the parents have been unable to resolve mother/child visitations particularly involving the upcoming Christmas holiday vacation period. The mother also advises she can no longer afford to retain her original counsel and requests the court to resolve visitation issue in some fashion. In correspondence, the mother complains about intractable attitude of the father.Mother also advises that because of her employment and lack of finances, she will unable to attend any hearing.

We hereby set a hearing to review this matter for December 5, 1991, at 9:30 A.M., in Courtrrom No. 1 2 or 3 and will require the presence ofthe father and minor child Seth at said hearing. We enter this Order realizing the mother will not be in attendance and advise the parties tha tif they cannot reach an amicable visitation arrangement for holiday and summer visits between mother and child, the Court will establish the same after hearing on December 5, 1991. To said the Court in making this determination, we direct that the mother will advise the Court, in writing, as soon as possible (witha copy to the father) of her specific desires regarding periodic visitations in the state of Florida with minor child Seth, as well as, any visitations requested she have the child in the event she travels to Crawford County, Pennslylvania.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S. J.

Dec. 2, 1991 copies to J. altomare and Mark Goldberg Esqs.

Dec. 12, 1991 ORDER filed AND NOW, Dec. 9, 1991, the Court notes that transfer of custody of minor child Seth apparently occurred by agreement of the parties and various Orders of this Court, dated Aug. 9, 1991 and Aug. 20, 1991, left to the parents the opportunity to attempt to amicably resolve visitation schedules during school vacation periods and other holidays between mother and father. Apparently the parents were unwilling to reach any semblance of an agreement and the mother has proceeded on the assumption that she would receive approximately the visitation rights previously accorded the father when the mother had primary custody of the child. Accordingly, she has scheduled a Christmas vacation period for the child to be with her in the State of Florida. The father disputes this visitation, contending that the child's therapists contend it is not in the child's best interest to have this Christmas visit with the mother and the visits where mother has custodial visitation in the State of Florida with the child should be continued until at least the Easter school vacation period.

At a hearing held this date, the Court again receives input from the psychologist and psychiatrist treating the child and brief testimony from the father. The child was consulted out of the presence of the father in chambers and the conclusion of this Court is that the child still has an ongoing animosity with the mother that has gradually ameliorated and hopefully will continue amelioration in the future. However, at this time, both of the treating specialists opine that is would be unwise to force a visit between the mother and child over the Christmas holiday period and it would not be in the best interest of the child to do so. Both of the therapists continue to hope that ongoing counseling and the maturation of the child will ameliorate his feelings towards his mother and the child himself expresses a willingness to try a vacation period during the Easter school vacation recess where he would go for a period of time to the State of Florida and visit his mother. When questioned about summer visits, both the counselors and the child opine that a visit of not less than three weeks is a distinct possibility if the child continues to progress.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court directs that there be no visit between the child and mother in the State of Florida for the Christmas holiday season, 1991, but the child be accorded the opportunity to have necessary phone contact with the mother over the holiday period on several occasions.

The child will continue in the custodial care of the father and the Court directs that the parents plan on a spring vacation visit between mother and child in the State of Florida and a summer vacation period of not less than three weeks between child and mother in the State of Florida, and after said period, arrangements will be made for other holiday or religious celebration visits between mother and child on an expanding basis.

The Mother has requested visits on the appropraite Jewish holidays, but the Court is advised that their duration is only for a few days and that the father never had the child come from Florida to visit him on such days. ACCORDINGLY, the request of the mother is DENIED as far as Rosh Hashannah and Yom Kippur are concerned.

Any time the mother wishes to come to Pennsylvania to visit with the child and have the child in her custody for a period of three or four days, she may give the father appropriate advance notice and the father will accommodate her desire so long as the visit does not occur during the 1991 Christmas holiday season.

Both of the specialists testifying this date have expressed an opinion that it is in the ultimate best interest of the child to establish a strong relationship with his mother and that the family goals should look toward that accomplishment. ACCORDINGLY, they recommend that after the brief Easter and summer visits of 1992, that the parents look toward a goal of expanded visits between mother and child as the child matures and the present negative feelings become ameliorated. It is the Court's desire that the child re-establish a meaningful relationship with his mother, that he continue in counseling to that end, that the father encourage such relationship and that as the child progresses in age, that the visits with the mother will be correspondingly enlarged.

The Court notes that the mother is contending that she did not receive a support obligation for minor child Seth for the month of Aug., 1991 in an approximate amount of $1250.00, with the Court noting that it was early in August that the Court directed that the child be enrolled in the Titusville schools and there is some doubt as to what portion of the support obligation would be payable under those circumstances. The mother also advises she paid a $700.00 advance tuition fee for enrollment of the child in school and that if the same was paid, she would consider the support obligation for August as being satisfied. This date, the Court is advised that Dr. Rosen will forward her within the next seventy-two hours the sum of $700.00 to cover this school fee paid by the mother and unused by Seth in return for which payment he considers she will have abandoned her claim for August support. The $700.00 will be forwarded by Dr. Rosen on the condition and with the expectation that he will receive a copy of a receipt issued by the school showing the mother had previously paid the $700.00 advance tuition fee.

DEc. 12, 1991 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Dec. 11, 1991, the Order heretofore entered Dec. 9, 1991 is modified as follows:

In the last paragraph of said Order, the father volunteered to pay $700.00 to the mother in reimbursement for school tuition fees allegedly paid by the mother and which she contended were non-reimbursable.

On Dec. 10, 1991, the day after the original Order was entered, Attorney Joseph Altomare appeared at the Judg's Office with a check for $700.00 and advised the Court as follows: He had called the Administrative Office of the school where mother had planned on enrolling child Seth for the fall school term and had advised the Court that the $700.00 had been paid by the mother, but upon her application for refund, the school had refunded her any monies advanced toward the fall tuition fee.

ACCORDINGLY, either the Court misunderstood the mother's position regarding this alleged unreimbursed advance made or the mother misled the Court when she advised that she had not applied for or received reimbursement for the monies advanced.

Under the aforesaid circumstances, the provision in the Court's Order of December 9, 1991 requiring the father to reimburse the mother for "lost" advanced tuition is rescinded.

By Order Of The Court,
P. Richard Thomas, S. J.

Sept. 19, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, September 18, 1984, without any admission of mistreatment, the Defendant consents to a protection from abuse Order, and accordingly, the Court grants the prayer of the petition and DIRECTS that the Defendant not harass, assault or annoy his wife in any fashion.

He shall not go to the wife's residence or any residence where she is residing, without her express invitation.

The parties having two (2) small children, have mutually agreed that the Defendant/Father may have the children in his custody each Saturday between the hours of 10:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M., providing, however, that because of the tender age of the children, they shall remain primarily with the Defendant's mother at her residence during the visitational period. Because of friction between the parties, it is mutually agreed that Defendant's mother will pick up and return the children from the residence of the Plaintiff.

This order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one(1) year from this date.

The Court grants the prayer of the petition to permit the petitioner to proceed as an indigent and the County is DIRECTED to pay the costs.

Jan. 11, 1985 Sheriff's Return filed. NOT FOUND, as to the within named defendant Ralph E. Galford, as of January 9, 1985.
So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Jan 14, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, January 9, 1985, after an extensive hearing, the Court is unable to decide from all the evidence whether or not the father committed the sexual acts upon the minor child, Tiffany, as alleged by the mother in this case. The Court finds, however, that the child Tiffany is fearful of her father, does not want further visits with her father, and from the testimony is undergoing emotional stress from an undetermined origin that gives her nightmares, causes excessive masterbation and causes her to have ill feelings toward her father at this time.

Accordingly, personal visits between father and child Tiffany will be suspended for a period of six (6) months, but commencing the second week of March, 1985, and at least once every two (2) weeks for the remainder of the six (6) month period, the father shall have the right to have one weekly conversation with his daughter on the telephone. The court will review the matter if the parties cannot mutually agree on a renewed visitation schedule after six (6) months to determine whether visitations should be renewed between father and child and whether or not the child's emotional stability has stabilized and what her attitude is regarding renewed association with her father.

In regard to the minor child, James, the Court finds there is no evidence of any misconduct toward the minor child James, and, accordingly, visits will continue between father and minor child James in accordance with the previous order entered October 26, 1984, but the Court suggests to counsel for the mother and father they review the situation to ascertain if the best interest of the child would be served by having the the mother transport the child back and forth which may afford an opportunity for excessive argument between the father and mother. If the matter is not changed by agreement, the former agreement of October 26, 1984 will remain in effect as far as visits with James are concerned.

The Court requests Children and Youth Services to continue to monitor the case and particularly be observant of the development, change in attitude or other factors involving the minor child Tiffany.

The Court requests the mother to continue her counseling as she appears to rely on her counselors to augment her judgment in raising the children.

Any written evaluations, psychological or psychiatric reports regarding minor child Tiffany receive by the mother or Children & Youth Services, a copy will be made and delivered to counsel for the father.

BY THE COURT:
P. Richard Thomas, J

Mar 21, 1990 Order filed: AND NOW, March 19, 1990, the matter is brfore the Court on a petition for special relief in the form of an injunction directed against the mother alleging she intends to remove the children from the jurisdiction of Crawford County in the immediate future and requesting an Order preventing the same.

The parties are in court and the matter is discussed informally. The mother assures the Court that while she has remarried on March 2, 1990, that her husband is from the Pittsburgh area, she has no intention of moving her residence or removing the children on a permanent basis from Crawford County until at least August 1, 1990.

In view of the fact this matter has been already been referred to Custody Mediator William Pineo, the Plaintiff and his counsel agree it would be inappropriate to schedule an emergency hearing at this time in view of the statements of the mother. Accordingly, the court considers the matter moot, returns the petition to the Plaintiff without filing and without prejudice to the right to refile the same if there is substantial indications that the mother plans to remove the chidlren before the matter can be resolved at the mediator level.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar 21, 1990 Copies of order put in Attys. Pineo, Kirkpatrick, and Pepicelli's boxes and copy mailed to Atty. Beigley.

TERM

Nov. 26, 1986, Order filed: AND NOW, November 25, 1986, various orders relating to visitation have been entered in this proceeding by consent of the parties, the most recent of which is dated February 14, 1986, and the proceedings in this case having been, to some degree, superseded by a Juvenile proceeding and the Juvenile proceeding having been terminated removing Children and Youth Services from the supervision, custody and visitation shall be controlled by the order heretofore entered in this case subject to any modification that may be appropriate upon request of any party in interest.

Both parents and children are referred to Mr. James Fox at the Titusville Mental Health Center for counseling concerning visitation.

The prior visitation orders entered in this proceeding required certain visits to be under the supervision of Children and Youth Service since they are no longer available; those visits which were to be supervised by Children and Youth Services are terminated at this time.

The Court recommends that visitations with the paternal grandparents be revived as contained in the prior Court orders provided that in the event Mr. Fox, in his professional opinion, indicates that such visits, once attempted, will have a serious detrimental effect on either or both of the children, then such visits shall not continue without further Order of Court.

A further hearing will be scheduled upon request of any party in interest as to modification of the present orders. Such hearing will not, however, be scheduled until after January 1, 1987.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

June 4, 1987 copies of order to Attys. D. Pickens and R. C. Thomas.

June 16, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, June 12, 1987, at the time set for hearing on Plaintiff's petition for contempt, it appears that shortly after the entry of the order for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees, the Defendant became unemployed through no fault ofhis own and continued essentially unemployed until early May of this year, although he had nine days of employment for Rax in about November of 1986 and a few other days of employment at various places, and it further appearing that he has now obtained gainful regular employment at Meadville Forging Company which began yesterday, in which employment he has not year received a paycheck but believes that the job will within ten (10) days of this date, and it further appearing that at the time he became unemployed, the support order for the children filed in the Domestic Relations action was suspended and that although the petition referred to the alimony order, the Hearing Officer made no reference to it, probably because he felt that he could not suspend the order entered by this Court.

Under all the foregoing circumstances, we will decline to find the Defendant in contempt for a willful failure of payment provided that he deposits $250.00 with the Prothonotary in accordance with the order appointing a Master on or before June 22, 1987, and that he deposits with his counsel for payment to Plaintiff's counsel the sum of $250.00 on or before the same date and that he pay $50.00 per month as originally ordered to his wife as alimony pendente lite and an additional $15.00 per month on the arrearages. Because of the Defendant's involuntary unemployment, the arrearages through May of 1987, which would have amounted to $1,100.00, are fixed at $300.00

The Master heretofore appointed is requested to schedule a hearing in this matter promptly following the deposit of the security for Master's fees.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J

June 16, 1987 Copies of order to David Pickens, R. Charles Thomas and Ann H. Gamble

Sept. 11, 1987, Petition for MOdification of Alimony Order and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 11 day of Sept 1987, upon presentation and consideration of the within petition, a rule is hereby granted upon the plaintiff to show cause, if any she has why the order heretofore entered for payment of alimony should not be suspended.

Returnable for hearing on the 29 day of Sept., 1987, at 3:00 P.M. or soon thereafter as the attention of the court may be had.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Sept 11, 1987, copies of order to D. Pickens, R. C. Thomas, and Ann Gamble.

Oct. 2, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Sept. 29, 1987, the matter is before the Court on a petition for modification of an alimony Order alleging the Defendant had lost his employment. The petition now seems to be moot as the Defendant, shortly thereafter, secured new employment and now apparently is working on a relatively steady basis for Rand Homes. Accordingly, the prayer of the petition to suspend alimony payments is denied.

The Court is unable at this time to compute the arrearages due on the alimony Order but in addition to the $50.00 per month, commencing with the month of Oct., the Defendant wil pay an additional $25.00 per month to apply on any arrears until the same are paid in full.

It appears this matter is now in a posture for quick action by the divorce master and the parties agree that both parties are ready to be divorced and have filed the requisite 201(c) affidavits so there remains only the issue of equitable division and permanent alimony.

The Master is directed to schedule a master's hearing on or before Oct. 30, 19887, and the Court directs that alimony pendente lite will terminate Jan. 1, 1988, or sooner if a divorce is granted and alimony pendente lite may only be expended beyond the aforesaid date by further Order of Court.

By Order Of The Court.

Dec. 11, 1984 Petition To Add To Divorce Complaint The Claim Of Equitable Distribution filed.

Dec. 12, 1984 ORDER filed. AND NOW, December 11, 1984, the Decree of Divorce in connection with this matter having been delayed because of some confusion over a reference, the Decree of Divorce in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, and the plaintiff having this day clarified the fact that that reference to a divorce decree did not relate to this marriage by letter to the Court which is satisfactory, but a petition, having also been filed this date for equitable distribution, this matter is returned to the Prothonotary's Office for further proceedings either by agreement as to equitable distribution, reference to a Master as to equitable distribution, or the requewt for a hearing on the issue of bifurcation.

Oct. 26, 1984 Plaintiff's Income & Expense Statement filed.

Oct. 26, 1984 Order filed: AND NOW, October 23, 1984, after hearing, the defendant is directed to pay through the Domestic Relations Office of Crawford County as alimony pendente lite to the plaintiff, the sum of $55.00 per week, and in addition thereto, shall pay through his counsel to plaintiff's counsel the sum of $200.00 to apply on counsel fees, $100.00 to be paid on or before October 31, 1984, and $100.00 to be paid on or before November 30, 1984. The award of alimony pendente lite shall remain in full force and effect for a period of six (6) months from this date without prejudice to the right of either party to apply for a modification following that date,but any party seeking to continue payment of alimony pendente lite should be prepared to establish that the fact that the divorce has not been granted was not due to any dilatory conduct on that party's part.

The Court understands that a temporary Order was entered October 22, 1984, in a Domestic Relations proceeding at DR 1984-527, and that Order is stayed so long as this Order is in existence or until a permanent Order is entered in that case, the defendant having advised the Court of his intention to request a de novo hearing before the Court in connection with that matter. It is not the Court's intention that both the amount awarded herein and the amount awarded in the Domestic Relations action be paid concurrently.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

6. Either party may move the court for a hearing de novo for a period of thirty days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this order shall be considered permanent, except that as the child approaches school age, it is contemplated that further mediation may be necessitated because of the child's educational requirements.

Jan. 10, 1985 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO William Edward Ball, Jr., personally, the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Contempt and Rule to Show Cause #AD 1984-909 to him on January 9, 1985 at 11:02 A.M. at his place of employment at the end of Cullum Street, Conneaut Lake, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Jan. 14, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, January 11, 1985, after informal hearing with the parties represented by counsel, the Court finds the Defendant in wilful and deliberate violation of Clause 1 and Clause 2 of the Protection From Abuse Order entered October 9, 1984. Punishment for contempt is postponed, but the Defendant is advised that if further conditions of this Order are found or the original Order are found, the Court will incarcerate him as punishment.

It appears the attempt to work out a visitation arrangement through Familes in Change was unsuccessful, and accordingly, the Court continued the award of custody to the mother, but accords the father the following visitation schedule:

1. Father may have the children on Sunday, January 13th between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 7:00 P.M. Connencing with the first Sunday in February and monthly thereafter, the father will have the children on the first Sunday between similar hours. The father shall be entitled to have the children on the third weekend of every month, commencing at 6:00 P.M. Friday and terminating 7:00 P.M. Sunday.
2. During the time the father has the children in his company, he will not consume any alcoholic beverages of any kind.
3. In any event, the father is accorded one or more weeks of vacation from his employment during the summer months, he shall be entitled to have the children in his exclusive possession for a period of two separate one-week periods during his vacation schedule. If the parties cannot agree when the weeks start the Court deems they will run from Dunday, 7:00 P.M. until the following Saturday at 7:00 P.M. In regard to holidays, the mother shall be entitled to have the children on the Fourth of July holiday in 1985, and with regard to Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas, the parties will alternate, having possession of the children on the the holidays of July Fourth, Labor Day, Christmas and Thanksgiving.

The Defendant is advised that as an additional condition, he will not annoy harass, assault, threaten his wife or threaten her with an automobile under any circumstances. He may not go to the residence of his wife without her express invitation.

In view of the fact the wife is fearful of the husband, he will pick up the children for these visits at the home of the wife's mother. Any time he does not appear within one (1) hour of the prescribed time to pick up the children, the visit will be cancelled, and he may not take the children for the prescribed visit.

This Order shall continue for a period of one (1) year.

Commencing with the week of January 13, 1985, the Defendant will pay temporary support for the two childre in the amount of $50.00 per week. The wife is directed to file a petition at the Domestice Relations,Section in order to formalize some type of Order.

January 11, 1985, in that the testimony shows that on the early morning hours of January 15, 1985, contrary to the Court's Order, he went to his wife's home, threatened her, terrorized her, forced her to take her car, and drove her through Pennsylvania, ultimately returned her to her residence. The Court finds the Defendant again in wilful, flagrant violation of this Court's Order, contained in Paragraph 3 of the Order of January 11, 1985. The Court will postpone sentence for contempt for the following reasons:

Apparently the Defendant voluntarily admitted himself to the Mental Health Center at City Hospital, and the Court is advised by the Mental Health Center that they find him in a depressed state at this time, and he may be a menace to himself or to others, including his wife, if he is released. Accordingly, the Court permits him to return to the Mental Health Center as a voluntary patient, but DIRECTS the Mental Health Center not to grant him any leaves nor permit him to leave the premises. At such time as the defendant is ready to be discharged from care at the Mental Health Center, they will notify the Sheriff's Department of Crawford County, who will take the Defendant into their Custody and notify the Court of said fact, and the Court will schedule another hearing to ascertain what punishment to mete out for contempt and how to safeguard the wife from further threats and assaults by the Defendant.

In the event the Defendant escapes from the Mental Health Center or any time while this Order is in existence, he threatens his wife or goes to a residence where she resides, the State Police are authorized to immediately apprehend him and incarcerate him in the Crawford County Jail without further Order of Court.

In the event the Defendant escapes from the Mental Health Center or leaves without permission, the Court believes the life of the wife is in serious danger, and the Mental Health Center is DIRECTED to forthwith call her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Wise, 382-7808.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan 18, 1985 Copies of order to Margaret Eglinton, District Attorney, William Gregg and Mental Health Center.

Jan. 31, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, January 29, 1985, it appears the defendant has now been discharged from the Mental Health Center and is on Antabuse and anti-depressant medication. It appears he is able to work and the Court is anxious to preserve his employment.

HOWEVER, the Court is convinced that the defendant wilfully and deliberately violated prior Court Orders and since the Court suspended any sentence for said violation, we will now sentence for that contempt charge. The defendant is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of ten (10) days commencing January 28, 1985, to a maximum of six months.

He will be placed in the Work Release Section, and if his conduct is exemplary after the ten days, he may be released by the Work Release Director without further Order of Court, subject to the following conditions of a contempt sentence and abuse conditions:

1. He will not go to the residence of his wife.
2. He will not annoy, harass or threaten her or procure others to do so in any fashion.
3. He will be accorded visiation rights with his children on the 10th day of February and every other Sunday thereafter any may have the children in his possession between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. He will pick the children up at the home of the wife's parents and return them to the home of the wife's parents and will cause no disturbance in doing so. On any date that he is to pick the children up and does not appear by 9:30, the visit will be cancelled and the mother may make other plans and need not surrender the children to the father if he does not appear by 9:30. The arrangement on Sunday visits will continue through the months of February and March.
4. The Court directs the parties and their counsel toward the end of March to explore a broadening of these visitation rights to accord the father some overmight visits with his children, and if the parties cannot mutually agree, either party may petition the Court to set further visitation rights.

The defendant is cautioned that any violation of this Order will result in his further incarceration andthe Court authorizes any duly constituted law enforcement Officer who has probable cause to believe that the terms and conditions of this Order in regard to threats against the wife have been violated, to apprehend the defendant, incarcerate him in the County Jail and notify the Court, who will accord an immediate hearing.

As a condition of these conditions, both on the contempt charge and the abuse charge the defendant will continue all counseling with Mental Health until relieved from further reporting by the Mental Health staff.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 31, 1985 Copies to Margaret Eglinton and Wm. Gregg

July 3, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, June 25, 1985, the matter is back before the Court on an incident that occurred February 16, 1985, at which time the defendant willfully and deliberately violated condition one of the Court's Order of January 29, 1985, in that contrary to the Court's order went to his wife's home on February 16, 1985, broke in the door, came into the house without her consent, threatened, annoyed and harassed her for a period of approximately three (3) hours, Apparently, after this episode, he left for the state of Colorado and remained there until approximately June 20, 1985. Apparently he surrendered himsel himself voluntarily to the State Police and was incarcerated in the Crawford County Jail on June 22, 1985.

In view of the foregoing, the Court again finds the defendant in willful and deliberat deliberate contempt of the Court's order of January 29, 1985, and accordingly, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of fifteen (15) days and a maximum term of six (6) months, to be computed from June 22, 1985. On his good behavior, he will be released at the end of the fifteen (15) days, subject to the following conditions:

1. He will not contact his wife or children, directly or indirectly.
2. He will seek employment and attempt to secure employment in his trade. Once emp employment is secured, he will work every day employment is available.
3. On the defendant's exemplary conduct, the Court directs counsel for the parties and the parties themselves to meet shortly after August 15, 1985, to see if any feasible visitation schedule that will allow the father to commence having visits with his two (2) minor children can be worked out in an amicable written agreement. If the father fails to agree on some meaningful visitations, the matter may be petitioned back to the Court for a further hearing on the visitation issue.

4. In the event visitation is worked out, the Court visualizes that the first visit would not be on an overnight basis and would be of relatively shor duration so that the children will become re-acquainted with their father and on the condition that the children will be in a stable home, preferably with some additional person in the household to give complimentary supervision to the children.

5. The defendant is cautioned that if he violates the terms and conditions of this order in any respect, he will be required to serve the maximum sentence.

On February 1986 Trial List - Jury

✓Feb. 5, 1986 Pre-Trial Conference Memorandum filed. Pre-trial conference in this matter was held February 5, 1986, and it appears that the statute of limitations issue raised in the pleadings by the defendant has been withdrawn. The Statute of frauds issue may be dependent on testimony at trial and cannot be resolved.

The defense in this case is that William Boyle is not individually liable and that he acted through Meadville Foods, Inc., of which he was an Officer in all of the transactions with the plaintiff. The plaintiff's posture in this regard is that they intend to present sufficient evidence which would allow the Court or the jury to find that the corporate veil must be pierced and William Boyle held individually liable for the bills incurred for eggs by the plaintiff. This matter undoubtedly will be raised at the close of the plaintiff's testimony in the form of a motion for compulsory non-suit, and accordingly, cannot be resolved without the establishment of a factual record.

It appears this case is still listed as number five for trial for the trial term commencing February 10, 1986, but the court alerts counsel that cases ahead of it may be settled, thus moving the case further up on the list and that absent further instructions from the Court, counsel and the parties should be ready to select a jury on Monday February10, 1986.

It appears at this time the case will take a day or day and one-half of trial. The Court has explored the possibility of settlement with counsel and it appears at this time the case will not settle if the plaintiff expects any monetary contribution from Boyle individually toward the settlement.

Oct. 16, 1984 Answer to Petition for Relief filed.

Oct. 17, 1984, ORDER: AND NOW, October 16, 1984, this abuse matter is before the Court and following customary court practice, the Court discussed with counsel and the parties informally before commencing the hearing their various postures and possiblility of solution. Counsel for the defendant/wife strenuously objects to any verbal in-put from either of the parties without first being placed under oath and the Court noted said objection, overrules the same and now orders a hearing with all witnesses under oath.

Oct. 17, 1984, ORDER filed. AND NOW, October 16, 1984, after hearing the Court finds that the act complainted of dows not fall within the purview of the intention of the Legislature in adopting this Act. Further, the Court finds that the parties seemingly are irreconcilably separated and that the possession of the real estate, custody of the children and support should not be resolved in this type of abuse proceeding. ACCORDINGLY, the petition is DISMISSED and the plaintiff is directed to apy the costs in this case.

✓ Oct. 10, 1986 ORDER Pretrial Conference Summary filed. AND NOW, Oct. 7, 1986, counsel for the parties meet with the Court to discuss this case which has been recently continued and will be tried at the Feb. 1987 Term of Civil Court.

The parties are far apart in attempting to reach an amicable resolution with the plaintiff demanding $48,000.00 and the two defendants offering a combined $12,000.00. The plaintiff at this time orally moves to amend Paragraph IX by striking out the words in the second sentence, "as well as the fair market value", and increasing their claim for building loss from $38,500.00 to $48,000.00. Additionally, the plaintiff's request to amend their complaint in Paragraph XIII by striking out the words in the second sentence, "the fair market value" and substituting therefor the words "actual value". Said amendments are allowed without the necessity of presenting a formal motion to the Court.

Counsel for the parties seem to agree that case law indicates that in a situation of this peculiar nature, actual value is the measure of damages. However, counsel are not in agreement as to the elements that comprise actual value for the jury's consideration. Apparently their experts are in disagreement by a wide margin on their estimates of appropriate monetary damages which should be awarded in this case.

The Court directs counsel, at least one month before commencement of trial, to submit to the Court a list of cases they are relying on for the definition of "actual value". The Court requires no extensive briefs but suggests to each counsel it would be helpful to the Court if after citing the cases they are relying on as to the appropriate measure of damages, that they attempt to structure for the Court their suggestion as to an appropriate charge to the jury as to the definition of actual damages and the manner in which the Court should instruct the jury and the elements that make up actual damages.

Mar. 5, 1985 Settlement Agreement and Consent Court Order filed.

Mar. 27, 1985, ORDER filed. A one count divorce claim of an irretrievably broken marriage under 201(c) of the Divorce Act was filed Oct. 24, 1984. The requisite affidavits of consents were filed Mar. 5, 1985, and the matter praeciped to the Court the same date, together with a twelve page "Settlement and Consent Court Order" attached to the praecipe. This Consent Agreement has attached a proposed court order making the agreement effective in the form of an approval and court order signed by the court.

The Divorce Code of 1980 and the implementing Rules of Civil Procedure substantially changed prior divorce practive in Pennsylvania and lend themselves to some experimentation, innovation and confusion. In the instant case, plaintiff started a divorce by complaint and only alleged an irretrievably broken marriage and made no claim for resolution of ancillary rights such as child custody, alimony and equitable division of real and personal property. Apparently the parties reached an amicable agreement regarding the aforesaid and many other matters of joint concern in the breakup of a marriage and reduced their agreement to writing. They now wish the court in entering the divorce decree to incorporate within the decree by reference the plethora of ancillary matters agreed to by the parties.

White the aforesaid request greatly simplifies divorce proceedings and reduces to writing the ancillary rights and obligations of the parties inter se and as if affects their children, the Courts of this county have declined to incorporate such ancillary agreements into the divorce decree for a variety of reasons. First andforemost, the matters resolved by agreement were never pleaded by either party in their pleadings. Secondly, Divorce Rule 1920.52 by clear implication provides that the divorce decree may address only the issues raised in the pleadings between the parties. Thirdly, if the Court incorporates directly or by reference the ancillary agreement between the parties covering matters not raised in the pleadings, a breachof the agreement would then subject the offending party to a contempt citation which may involve a penalty not within the contemplation of the parties when the amicable agreement was reached. Additionally, we believe it generally to be an unwise practice in divorce cases, or any other case, for the court toencourage a flood of contempt citations arising by virtue of attachments of private agreements to legal documents purportedly resolving matters not raised in the pleadings.

In summary, we are willing to grant the uncontested 201(C) divorce in this case, but we are unwilling to incorporate the terms and conditions of the parties provate agreement covering unplead issues as part of that decree. THis would not invalidate the agreement, but would require the parties to their rights by bringing a breach of contract action.

We will withhold decision in this case until counsel for the plaintiff advises us of his intentions in this regard.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas

July 8, 1986 Copies of order to Anthony Vardaro and James Irwin

July 11, 1986 Order filed: Order: AND NOW, July 8, 1986, at the time the matter is before the C ourt on an abuse petition at 1986 - 556, the Court hears arguments from counsel and the parties about the subject matter of this Special Relief Petition. It appears that the parties are in violent disagreement regarding ownership of the coporation known as Northwest Landscape Contracting. The husband contends that the wife clandestinely secured a majority stock interest has secreted funds in her role as bookkeeper and granted herself unauthorized pay increases as bookkeeper and officer of the corporation. On the other hand, wife contends that the husband has misappropriated monies and that she currently holds a $37,000.00 account in her own name as president and secretary of the corporation which is unavailable to the husband for the alleged reason that it is for the financial protection of the corporation.

What this dispute boils down to is a dispute among owners of a family corporation who are both allegedly manipulating corporate records and corporate funds to their advantage and in negotiation for the divorce.

Under all the circumstances, the Court does not believe that the divorce rules contemplated the resolution of this type of corporate entanglement as a prelude to ultimate disposition of a divorce action. If either party believes they are entitled to relief, it should be brought as a separate equitable action or an action authorized by the corporate code for the protection of majority or minority shareholders.

It is obvious to the Court that if both parties would agree that a qualified accountant take possession of the books and records of the corporation so that each would have an accurate statement of the financial condition of the corporation at this stage in the divorce proceedings, that this matter could be amicably resolved so the business could be preserved for the benefit of both parties and the Court urges both parties to be reasonable and try to reach such agreement.

The Court declines to entertain this Petition for Special Relief.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 19, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, Dec. 18, 1984, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED:

I. That legal custody of Justin James Henry, shall be shared between the mother and father, that is, each shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records, and other important records, and each shall be entitled to participate fully in decisions affecting the health, education and religious instruction of the child.

II. Physical custody of the minor child, Justin James Henry, shall be divided between the parties as follows: The child shall be in the home of the mother subject to the following conditions:

A. Beginning December 14, 1984, the father shall be able to see and take the minor child into his custody on the first, second and fourth weekends of each month. On the first weekend of every month, the father shall pick up the child at 9:00 A.M. Saturday morning and shall take the child to YMCA Day Care Center, at or about 9:00 A.M.on Monday morning, or, if for some reason the child is not attending Day Care Center, the father shall return the child to the home of the mother at 9:00 A.M. on Monday morning. On the second and fourth weekends of every month, when the child is in the custody of the father, the father shall pick up the child either at the home of the mother or at the Day Care Center, as agreed upon between the parties, at 5:00 P.M. on Friday evening, and shall have the child in his custody until Monday morning at or about 9:00 A.M., when the father shall take the child to the Day Care Center, or, if the child is not for some reason attending the Day Care Center, shall at that time, deliver the child to the home of the mother. Prior to the third weekend of every month, when the child would be in the custody of the mother, the father shall have a right to see and have the child in his custody for two evenings in that week prior to the third weekend from 4:30 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. The father shall notify the mother at least twenty-four hours in advance of which evenings he intends to exercise such visitation. B. Holidays are defined as Christmas, Easter, the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving. Each parent shall have custody of the child on some portion of each of the four major holidays, the exact arrangements for the holidays being left to the discretion of the mother and father.

C. Beginning with the summer of 1985, the father shall have a right to see and take the child into his custody for two weeks in June, two weeks in July and two weeks in August, each summer. These two week periods need not be consecutive and the mother shall be entitled to thirty days notice from the father of the weeks in which the father intends to exercise his summer vacation visitation periods. During the summer months when the child is either in the home of the mother, or in home of the father, there shall be no weekend visitations by either the mother or the father.

D. Neither party shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but on the contrary, shall do everything in their power to foster a feeling of love and respect for the child for both parents.

E. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or condition that would be harmful to the health and wellbeing of the child.

The above visitation schedule is intended to be a minimum visitation schedule and other visits can be arranged between the parties provided they both agree on such additional visitations by either the mother or the father.

Apr. 16, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, April 10, 1985, after extensive hearing and in view of the unstable conditions of both parents at this time, the Court believes the Order previously entered on recommendation of the Mediator January 15, 1985 is the best possible solution for the properecustody of the children. ACCORDINGLY, THE Court re-affirms said Order and adopts the same at this time.

The Court urges the parents to be particularly observant of Paragraph 6 of the January 15, 1985 Order, urging both parents to show respect for each other and teach the children to have love and respect for each parent.

In view of the unsettled conditions of the parties regarding finances, working , living arrangements, et cetera, the Court urges both of the parents to expand the visitation rights between themselves if the same can be done without serious inconvenience in order that the children may have the maximum opportunity to spend as much time with each parent and with each other as possible.

Aug. 30, 1985 Defendant's Budget Information filed.

Aug. 30, 1985 Inventory and Appraisement of Defendant filed.

Sept. 5, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, August 30, 1985, the matter is before the Court requesting sanctions against the plaintiff for her failure to file income and expense statement and inventory and appraisement.

The matter regarding income and expense statement has been mutually resolved statement reposing in the files of the Domestic Relations Section regarding a support action will be duplicated and filed with this divorce action and truly and accurately represents the income and expense statement of the plaintiff in this action.

Insofar as the inventory and appraisement is concerned in this immensely complicated financial structure of the family finances, the court notes that on August 30, 1985, the defendant filed his budget information with attached exhibit and filed an inventory and appraisement. Since counsel for the plaintiff admits that the defendant has a firmer grasp of the family financial problems than the wife, and since this inventory and appraisment was only filed this date, he desires some time to review the same and ascertain whether to accept the same as the inventory and appraisement of the plaintiff or whether there is disagreement with any items on the defendant's inventory and appraisement. Accordingly, the Court declines to impose sanctions on the plaintiff for failing to file an inventory and appraisement and plaintiff and plaintiff's counsel will have until 5:00 p.m., September 12, 1985 to review the inventory and appraisement and file a statement on behalf of the plaintiff as to whether they agree in toto with said inventory and if not which specific items on the inventory they are in disagreement with and will file the plaintiff's statmment as to her claim for valuation of said assets or her claim as to encumbrances due against the same.

The defendant this date has filed a motion for appointment of a Master and the Court Court defers any action thereon until after September 12, 1985, when the matter will be reconsidered on motion of either party.

In the event counsel for the plaintiff fails to file any statement or response above noted by 5;00 p.m. September 12, 1985, the Court will assume and directs said inventory and expense statements be accepted in toto by the plaintiff.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 5, 1985 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas and Joan Mason

Sept. 12, 1985 Plaintiff's Statement Pursuant To Court Order Dated August 30th, 1985. filed.

Sept. 20, 1985, ORDER filed. The matter is back before the court on a motion by defendant's attorney to appoint a master as the response to defendant's inventory and appraisement has now been filed in accordance with our Order of August 30, 1985.

Plaintiff in this action seeks a divorce on the grounds of an irretrievably broken marriage and indignities. Defendant counter-claims, likewise alleging an irretrievably broken marriage and indignities. Obviously, both parties are desirous of a divorce in this case and the crux of the problem lies in an appropria te dispostion of marital property and the question of permanent alimony. It is obvious that the family finances are in a precarious condition and attempted equitable distribution of heavily encumbered assets poses complex problems.

However, our immediate concern is that while both parties seemingly desire a divorce on the grounds that the marriage is irretrievably broken, the plaintiff has not filed the requisite affidavit. The defendant' affidavit under §201(c) was filed August 7, 1985.

Thus, we are not in a present posture to appoint a master to recommend a divorce under §201(c) desired by both parties and make equitable distribution. ACCORDINGLY, unless the plaintiff files the requisite affidavit within fifteen (15) days of the filing of this Order, we will entertain a motion from the defendant to dismiss her complaint.

We note for the enlightenment of counsel that before ultimately appointing a master in this case, we would require a deposit from both parties in the amount of $500 each as security for the payment of costs and the lengthy amount of time a master will obviously have to spend in resolving and equitably adjusting the family's chaotic financial situation upon dissolution of the marriage.

Date: September 18, 1985

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Sept. 24, 1985, Copies of Order to Attorneys' R. Charles Thomas, Wxxxxxxxxxxxx and Joan Mason.

Sept. 20, 1985, Motion to appoint Master filed.

Feb. 10, 1986, Appearance of Williams and Adair by Dennis V. Williams, Esq attorneys for defendant, filed.

Mar. 3, 1986, ORDER filed. THis court is advised by new counsel for Defendant Frank Urbanick that they wish to have a Master appointed to hear the divorce action and make recommendations regarding equitable distribution of marital property and permanent alimony. Since it is obvious that even though the wife plaintiff has alleged grounds for a no-fault divorce, she has declined to file the requisite affidavit. Accordingly, the Defendant wishes the divorce litigated on the Plaintiff's alternate grounds of indignities and on his counterclaim of indignities.

The Court advises counsel for both parties that it will proceed to appoint a Master to decide the divorce on the ground of indignities and dispose of the other collateral matters upon the defendant posting the sum of $500.00 and the plaintiff posting a similar sum to defray the initial expenses of the Master and court reporter. Defendant shall file his deposit in the Prothonotary's office on or before March 10, 1986. Upon the filing of said deposits, the court will appoint a master. If the plaintiff Lynne Urbanick fails to make said deposit, the Court will still appoint a Master and will suspend further obligations of the defendant Husband to pay wife and spousal support under D.R. 1984 - 676 until the sums due and owing for support in the future amount to $500.00.

and the Plaintiff will file her deposit on or before March 14,

The Court reserves the right to permit the Master to allocate costs including Master fees and stenographic fees, between the parties in such equitable manner as ultimately is deemed appropriate, but the court cautions the plaintiff that if substantial additional costs are incurred in pursuing the divorce on the indignities grounds, rather than the no-fault grounds, this factor will be taken into consideration in making a final division of Master and stenographic costs.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar. 3, 1986, copies of order toDennis V Williams and R. Charles Thomas

March 20, 1986 Requested court finding of facts filed: AND NOW, March 19, 1986, the matter is before the Court in this divorce action to ascertain whether or not Lynne Urbanick Plaintiff-wife in this divorce has any interest in a 1986 corm crop of 7,776 bushels now in storage at the George Love farm in Conneaut Township, Crawford County, Pennsylvania. After hearing and without objection from the Plaintiff-wife, the Court finds as a fact that this corn crop is not marital property under general Pennsylvania law and specifically the divorce code of Pennsylvania that would vest in the plaintiff-wife anytangible or intangible interest in said corn crop. The Court arrives at this decision because by agreement of the parties in this action, the corn crop was planted, harvested, and stored after the separation of the parties and, accordingly, after-separation-acquired property does not constitute marital property subject to equitable division between the spouses in any divorce action.

The wife, speaking through her counsel, advises the Court in accordance with this ruling and in order to affectuate a loan agreement by the husband Frank Urbanick with the Commodity Credit Corporation she will sign a waiver of any interest in said corn crop to augment the Court's finding of fact and ruling in this case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

March 20, 1986 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas, Dennis Williams, Esqs. and Frank Urbanick and Blair McCurdy.

April 16, 1986 Clarifying Order filed: This intertwined divorce, support and Master's fee problem became unduly confused by an Order of this court in the divorce aciton, undated but filed March, 1986, in which we attempted to devise a system whereby an initial deposit of $1,000.00 would be made in the divorce action to assure that at least the initial Master's fees and court reporting fees will be paid in this admittedly complex situation.

While the wife initially filed the divorce action, the matter has laid dormant for some time because she has not filed the requisite affidavit for the divorce to proceed on No-fault grounds. Accordingly, to force the divorce issue, the husband has filed a Counterclaim alleging indignities and has in the past asked for the appointment of a Master to hold heaings and resolve the divorce on the grounds of indignities and collaterally the almost hopeless tangled financial affairs involving individual and marital property. Since we felt that this matter would be protracted and since obviously both parties want the divorce but have been totally unable to resolve the equitable property division issue amincably, we determined that equity and justice should require each to pay one-half the initial deposit usually required before this Court appoints a Master.

We previously entered an Order requiring each party to deposit $500.00 toward Master's fees and expenses. Feeling that a simple order requiring the wife plaintiff to pay the $500.00 deposit would be met with a contention she lacked the financial wherewithal to so so, we ordered that if the deposit was not made by March 14, 1986, we would permit the husband defendant to to suspend the support payments due the wife in the amount of $62.00 per week and use the same to pay the wife's $500.00 deposit obligation. Unfortunately, our order was not clear as to how this was to be accomplished mechanically and is further complication by the fact that this cort overlooked the fact that the $62.00 support Order covered both support for the wife and one child.

The Prothonotary advises that as of April 14, 1986, the defendant husband has paid into the Prothonotary's office a total of $186.00, representing the Defendant's weekly support obligation for three weeks. Understandably, the Domestic Relations Division is not quite sure where they stand regarding giving credit against the support Order and, most importantly, what portion of the $62.00 support Order is allocable to the wife and what portion to the child.

We shall endeavor to enter an amended Order clarifying this situation for the parties, their counsel and the Domestic Relations Section.

Initially, we follow the division of the support Order between mother and child in roughly the same proportion established by our Order of January 3, 1985. Accordingly, we allocate $40.00 of said Order for support of the wife and $220.00 support for the child.

This Court is determined that the aforesaid $500.00 each will be paid by the parties in the divorce action before the Court appoints a Master who will commence this extremely complicated divorce action which will be now fought out on the basis of the fault ground of indignities, complicated by a property issue to a financial zero.

The Domestic Relations Section will credit the support account for the $186.00 already paid by the Defendant husband direct to the Prothonotary to apply toward the wife's share of Master's fees, with the same force and effect as if said sums had been distribued directly to the wife Plaintiff. Commencing with the week of April 20, 1986, the Defendant will continue to make $62.00 per week payments to the Domestic Relations Section and the Domestic Relations Section will forward $40.00 thereof to the Prothonotary's Office to apply toward the unpaid balance of the wife's Master's fee deposit now standing in the amount of $386.00. The remaining $22.00 will be forwarded by the Domestic Relations Section to the wife as support for the minor child.

In view of the husband's desire to expedite the divorce actiom, he may prepay future support obligations to the Domestic Relations Section to apply toward the unpaid Master's fees owned by the wife. We received a report from the Domestic Relations Section on March 14, 1986, noting the Defendant made a payment toward arrears in the amount of $1,650.00, as required by former Court Order. In the event there are now existing any arrears on this Domestic Relations Order after recalculation by the Domestic Relations Section, the Defendant father will be required to pay, in addition to the $62.00 per week, an additonal sum of $20.00 per week to apply on the arrears to bring the account current. All future payments by the husband shall be made at the Domestic Relations Section. After the support payments have satisfied the wife's required $500.00 deposit in the divorce case, the support obligation will continue to be forwarded to the wife until further order of court.

We direct the Prothonotary to notify this court when the remaining balance on the wife's Master's fee obligation of $386.00 is paid in full, at which time we will act on the Defendant's request to appoint a Master in this case.

Other provisions in previous support order requiring the continued coverage of hospitalization of wife and minor child and the proportionate sharing of the uninsured medical and dental expenses established in prior Orders shall continue.

June 5, 1986, ORDER APPOINTING MASTER filed. The Court is now advised that the Dom. Relations Section has forwarded the requisite payments of $386.00 to the Prothonotary's Office on behalf of the plaintiff in this case (see Clarifying Order filed April 16, 1986.)

The Plaintiff has alleged an irretriebably broken marriage and indignities as grounds for the divorce, and the defendant counterclaims likewise alleging the same grounds. However, while the defendant has filed the requisite affidavit to procure a 201(c) divorce, the plaintiff has failed to do so. Accordingly, it appears the divorce will now have to be litigated on an indugnities basis with the attendant added time and expense involved. In this regard, the Master should note cautionary remarks of the court contained in an order in this case filed Mar. 3, 1986.

From the court's ongoing experience with this case, it would seem that the catastrophic financial morass the parties find themselves in virtually negates either party realizing any net financial gain under any conceivable theory of equitable distribution in this case.

Accordingly, the Court finding this divorce in the posture to appoint a master now that the requisite deposits have been made, the Court hereby appoints Emil M. Spadafore as Master in this case to resolve the issues of divorce, equitable distribution of property, permanent alimony and an equitable division of court costs and attorney fees between the parties.

In the event the Master finds this matter will be protracted, he may petition the court for the deposit of additional fees by either or both the parties to assure that the basic costs incurred by the Master will be paid

Aug. 29, 1986 Transcript of Master's Hearing filed.

Sept. 9, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, September 4, 1986, the matter is back before the Court on cross petitions with each parent seeking custody of both children.

The Court has interviewed the Children in the presence of counsel and has heard approximately two hours of testimony from each parent and believes each has a satisfactory living arrangement for the children and that the children could be adequatley cared for in the home of either. The main compelling argument of both parents seems to be that the two children should each reside in the same household so that the children could be raised together.

While the Court recognizes the advantages of this, under the peculiar circumstances of this case and under all of the evidence, the Court believes the present order is the best solution for the custody issue and, accordingly, denies both petitions to change custody and directs that the parties comply with the previous Court order which was entered January 15, 1985.

It appears from the testimony that each of the parents violates, directly or by implication, the provisions of Paragraph 6, which admonishes the parents not to make derogatory remarks about each other and to each each child love and respect for each parent.

The Court cautions the parents that it expects this order to be strictly complied with.

As time progressess and the children age and have other disires and needs, the Court urges the parents to modify, by agreement, the previous order to avoid the cessity of returning to Court to meet special situations regarding vacations, special projects of the children illnesses, and other matters that are bound to arise. The Court believes it is dealing with two intelligent parents and that the need to return to Court for minor modifications of the prior order should not arsie as the parties have the capabilities of resolving the issues by mutual agreement.

Each party will pay their costs in this case.

The Court has noted the master advises that further hearings and court reporter services may be necessary and the court realizes the virtual insolvency of both parties in this proceeding. Accordingly, the Court directs the master to meet with counsel for both parties and attempt to ascertain how many more hearings and how much more Master time will be spent on this case and make a definitive recommendation to the court as to the respective liabilities of each of the parties for future costs and whether or not installment payments to pay said costs is a viable solution for the parties.

ORDER:

AND NOW, November 21, 1984, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a hearing thereon is scheduled for the 29 day of Nov. 1984, at 9:30 AM in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pa.

The Respondent, Randall Peters is directed and prohibited from attempting to cause or intentionally knowingly or recklessly causing bodily injury to Petitioner and children or in any way threatening them, or harassing them.

The Petitioner is authorized to take the children Thomas Peters, Jennifer Peters, Lisa Peters and Adam Peters to reside with her at the Greenhouse pending further order of Court.

Petitioner is permitted to proceed without the payment of costs, costs to be determined by the court after hearing.

Respondent is hereby advised of his right to be represented by counsel, and he is notified that his failure to attend the hearing scheduled above may have serious legal consequences.

By the court,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Nov. 21, 1984, copy of order to M Kirkpatrick, Atty.

Nov. 21, 1984, Affidavit of Service filed. Art Pringle, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and sets forth as follows:

1. That he is a duly certified and licensed constable in Crawford County Pa.

2. That on information furnished to him, he caused a cert. copy of the Petition for Emergency Relief From abuse and Order in the above matter to be served upon respondent at 12:00 P.M. on Nov. 21, 1984, at 578 South Main St., Cambridge Springs, Pa. 16403 or at Sherry's Beer Dist. in Meadville, Pa.

3. That costs incurred for this service were as follows:

a. Service $25.00 for P.F.A	$25.00
b. Mileage, City	2.05
total	27.05

4. Further deponent sayeth not. Art.Pringle.

Nov. 30, 1984 Order filed. AND NOW, November 29, 1984, at the time set for hearing, the Defendant denies the allegations of the Petition, but advises the Court through his counsel that he would not appose the entry of an appropriate relief Order in this case. Accordingly, the Defendant is DIRECTED that he shall not abuse, harass, assault or annoy his wife in any fashion or procure others to do so. He may not visit her premises or her place of employment without her express invitation to do so.

It appears the parties were living at Forest Green Estates, and it is alleged by the wife that the Defendant took the majority of the furnishings from said apartment. The husband denies said allegations, contending he has only a couch, a stereo and one television, and a few pictures, and that the other household furnishings remain at the apartment. The Court is unable to ascertain the truth of these allegations in view of the fact the wife has not visited the apartment, claiming she has no key. The husband surrenders his key to the Forest Green apartment to the wife this date for her permanent possession.

Commencing with the week of November 25, 1984, Defendant will pay through Domestic Relations Section the sum of $50.00 per week for the support of the three minor children, Jennifer, Lisa and Adam.

Parties are in dispute about the transfer of a car of the husband to his family and the unpaid bills that must be satisfied to enable the mother to move back into Forest Green Apartments.

Accordingly, in addition to the foregoing support payments, the Court, DIRECTS the Defendant to pay the sum of $50.00 per week commencing with the week of December 2nd, 1984, for a period of three (3) weeks, to help compensate the wife for the umpaid bills in the apartment to enable her to establish minimal cost housing for herself and the children.

Defendant is DIRECTED to pay costs within thirty (30) days in the amount of $35.50 to the Prothonotary's Office and $27.05 to Plaintiff's attorney to underwrite service costs advanced by the law firm.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

Jan. 10, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, January 8, 1985, after hearing, the Court is satisfiled beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant violated the terms and conditions of the Order previously entered November 29, 1984 by deliberately annoying, harassing and abusing his wife. ACCORDINGLY, he is sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a period of twenty (20) days effective January 6, 1985. In view of the fact the defendant has employment if the Sheriff ascertains that he still has employment he may be removed to the Worl Release Section at the discretion of the Work Release Director so that he may keep his employment.

Upon release, the defendant is not to go to the residence of his wife for any purpose.nor be within five hundred yards of said residence for any purpose. He will not go to her residence for the purpose of visiting the children. Any visitations arranged between the parties must provide for the mother to leave the children at some separate and distinct place and for the father to pick them up.

The parties are still in dispute about the items taken from the household by the defendant at the time of their separation, the plaintiff contending a large quantity of household goods still remain in the possession of the defendant and thecontending that he has nothing in his possession but a couch, a stereo, a television, a few pictures, two towels and a single knife, fork and spoon. The plaintiff wife is authorized to go to the residence of the defendant at 502 South Main Street and the residence of the defendant's mother at 503 South Main Street accompanied by a law enforcement officer for the purpose of searching for other items than those listed above that belong to the common household and if the same are discovered, may remove them and take them to her residence, keeping an accurate list of the items she takes from either household.

The defendant will not call his wife or procure others to do so on his behalf.

The defendant is directed to surrender the keys to the car in his possession to his wife and she will have the right to have the car in her possession for her sole and exclusive use until February 9, 1985 when it must be returned to the defendant. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar. 22, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 20, 1985, after hearing, the Court listens to the versions of the parties and determines this is a case of credibility. If the version of the plaintiff wife is believed, the defendant is obviously in willful and deliberate contempt of the Court's former order. The Defendant believes he did not make the calls or the threats that he is alleged to have made and should not be held in contempt. It further appears that three potential witnesses by the names of Duda, Potts and Catalano may be able to aid the court in judging credibility as it is alleged by the wife plaintiff that these three people would confirm that instead of visiting with a friend between approximately 8:00 o'clock p.m. and 3:00 o'clock a.m. during this period of time, the defendant visited a tavern in Cambridge Springs.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court continues this hearing until April 8,1985, at 3:00 P.M. at which time, the Court requests the witnesses be subpoenaed. The Court directs the plaintiff's counsel to subpoena the witnesses and directs that either attorney may talk with these witnesses about the thrust and importance of their testimony, but neither the plaintiff nor the defendant or any members of their family may contact these three witnesses directly or indirectly about what their testimony will be at the April 8th hearing regarding whether or not they saw the defendant between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 3:00 a.m. on the night of March 8, 1985.

In the meantime, all visits with the children are suspended and the defendant is cautioned prior Orders are in force and effect and he may not contact his wife directly or indirectly or procure others to do so, on his behalf. Likewise, the wife may not call the father for any purpose unless it involves a dire emergency affecting the children.

If counsel for the parties can arrange a mutually satisfactory visit that does not involve confrontation between the parents and the children, counsel for the parties may arrange the same in spite of the above.

Apr. 16, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, April 11, 1985, at the conclusion of a hearing on an appeal from a summary conviction of harassment involving Mary Luzier, mother of Rosa Ann Peters, the Court inquires of Rose Ann Peters as to her understanding of an indirect request the Court has to continue a contempt hearing scheduled April 8, 1985. Rose Ann Peters advises the Court it was her understanding her attorney would request a continuance of the contempt hearing but the Court this date is presented with a copy of a motion filed by plaintiff's attorney, which apparently indicates a desire to withdraw the contempt petition. Rose Ann Peters advises the Court she is unwilling to withdraw the contempt petition and believed that the matter was only being continued because certain witnesses were unavailable for court appearance on April 8, 1985.

Accordingly, the Court generally continues this case and will reset a further hearing on motion of either party to ultimately resolve the contempt issue previously raised involving an abuse order originally entered November 29, 1984.

Dec. 31, 1984 Upon praecipe of attorney for Plaintiff this case is placed on the next available argument list filed.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR FEBRUARY 25, 1985

Feb. 27, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, FEbruary 25, 1985, the matter is argued before the Court and raises the issue of a lack of specificty in the general allegation against certain or all Defendants of "a failure to use due care and caution under the circumstances." Additionally, the allegation of agency inter se and concerning other non-defendant persons is causing concern to all parties.

After argument and discussion, the Court believes the matter can best be resolved by the following:

1. All defendants will respond to the best of their ability regarding the "agency and servant" allegations of the Complaint within twenty (20) days, in which pleadings they will admit a principal or agency or servant relationship with other persons or parties or deny involed in pre-operation, operation and post-operation care of the Plaintiff, and specifically name any person they represented as a servant or agent or as any person who acted in the care of the Plaintiff, who was their agent or servant.

2. Plaintiff will complete all discovery in this case by October 1, 1985 unless extended by further Court Order upon good cause shown.

3. Plaintiff will complete any amendments to their Complaint broadening the general paragraphs alleging failure to "use due care and caution under the circumstances" the same will be strikken without further Order of Court, and the Plaintiff will be precluded at the time of trial from raising further allegations of negligency or lack of due care or caution not specifically spelled out in the original Complaint or Amended Complaint. Any amendments to the Complaint or Amended Complaint will be filed by November 1, 1985.

4. The Court has advised all counsel that it has a passing acquaintance with all Defendant doctors by virtue of the fact they are well known in this small community. Further, that Doctor H. W. Brookman serves as gynecologist to the Judge's wife, but that the Judge's personal acquaintance with the doctor has been limited to one brief casual introduction to him by his wife outside of his office. Unless there is objection filed within twenty (20) days, the Court will decline to entertain a recusal motion.

Dec. 1, 1989 ORDER filed: AND NOW, November 29, 1989, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation alleging a failure on the part of the mother and children to comply with previous visitation Orders. With the consent of the parties and their counsel, the matter is handled informally, without formal testimony, and in chambers conferenc e with the children and father, the matter has been amicably resolved along the following lines:
Accordingly, the Court at this time refuses to adjudge the mother or the children in contempt for a wilful and deliberate failure to comply with existing Court Orders. However , the Court cautions all parties that it expects the Order hereafter entered to be followed diligently, and the Court would have no reluctance or hesitancy in finding contempt if after a hearing the Court found the Order was wilfully and deliberately violated.
The Court believes reinstatement of meaningful relationships between father and children will best be accomplished by a series of one day visits, gradually working into occasional two day, and then three day weekends. Accordingly, by agreement of father and children, the following schedule is established:
Sunday December 3rd, children's visit with father, Noon to 7:30
Sunday December17 th, Noon to 7:30
December 25th, visit with father, 11:00 to 7:30;
January 7th, Noon to 7:30
January 20, 21, Saturday Noon until Sunday, 7:30;
February 4, Sunday Noon to 7:30

February 11th, Noon to 7:30;
February 24th, Saturday, weekend visit Noon Saturday, 7:30 Sunday;
March 4, Sunday visit, Noon to 7:30;
March 11th, Sunday visit, Noon to 7:30;
March 30, 31 and April 1, three day weekend visit;
Friday one hour after school, Sunday 7:30;

The father and mother both agree it shall be the father's obligation to pick up the children at the home of the mother, and the mother's obligation to pick up the children at the home of the father and return them to her home at the end of the visit. At any time when important family, school or unusual social activities would interfere with the schedule, it shall be the obligation of the two children to contact the father at least four days in advance of the visit, and request of the father that he give permission for the visit to be changed.

Commencing with the month of April, the Court DIRECTS that the children and the father and the mother, if she so desires, sit down and draft a visitation schedule that accords the father weekend or individual day visits not less than three times in any calendar month, and this schedule shall be designed to accommodate school hours, vacation schedules for both parents, and any special projects involving the children during the summer months. The Court requests the parties establish early in April a visitation schedule for the remainder of 1990.

In the event children and father are unable to agree on said visitations schedule, the Court will establish the same without further hearing, but after receiving written input from the children as to their wishes and the father as to his wishes.

Both parents shall keep the other notified of any illness or health problems affecting the children.

BY THE COURT
Robert L. Walker, J.

Dec. 17, 1984 Appearance of Mariann Luksik for Defendant filed.

Jan 7, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, January 4, 1985, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

I. Legal custody of Matthew Lynn Loper shall be shared between the mother and father, that is, each shall be entitled to participate fully in decisions affecting the child's health, education and religious instructions and each shall be entitled to full access to school records, medical records and other important records.

II. Physical custody of Matthew Lynn Loper shall be with the mother, subject to the following:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the child with him every Wednesday evening from 5:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M., beginning January 2, 1985, The father shall be responsible for picking up and returning the child to the home of the mother on such Wednesday visitations. Beginning January 4, 1984, the father shall be entitled to visit and take the child into his custody every other weekend from Friday at 6:00 P.M. to Sunday evening at 8:00 P.M., both prevailing local times. Until such time as the father has established a residence of his own, the child shall be taken on such weekend visitations to either the paternal grandmother's home, or to the home of Lyle and Donna Loper, or to the home of Thelma and Louis Loper, In the event the father is required by his employer to work on Saturdays, he shall give the mother at least twenty-four (24) hours notice and instead of picking up the child on Friday evening for the weekend visitations, we whall pick up the child on Saturday Afternoon, after the father gets out of work.

B. Holidays are defined as Christmas, Easter, the Fourth of July, and Thanksgiving. Both of the parents shall be entitled to have the child in their custody for some portion of each of the aforementioned major holidays. Each parent shall be entitled to have the child in their custody for a minimum of four (4) houss on each of the said four holidays.

C. Because of the age of the child, and the fact that the father presently has very little vacation time, no provisionsis made herein for an extended vacation visitation between the child and the father; however, this order is entered without prejudice to the right of the father at some future time to ask for a further hearing or mediation conference to determine his entitlement to an extended vacation visitation.

D. Neither the mother nor the father shall expose the child to any person or situation that would be harmful to the best interests of the child and neither the mother nor the father shall say or do anything in an attempt to turn the child against the other parent, but on the contrary, shall do everything in the power of each to promote a feeling of love and affection by the child for both parents.

E. Both parents shall notify the other of any illness or other emergency affecting the child, at the earliest possible time and for that purpose, shall provide the other parent a telephone number or other way of contacting the other parent.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

Costs of the mediation conference in the amount of $80.00, shall be paid by Crawford County.

Mar. 4, 1985, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Feb. 28, 1985, at the time set for hearing, the Defendant fails to appear. It appears he received notice of the hearing from his counsel and from counsel for the wife, and the wife appears and advises the court that as recently as Feb. 24, 1985, she saw the husvand and that he was aware of the hearing this date.

It is the contention of the mother of the child that the father has no special interest in visits with the child, and she is concerned that his living arrangements for the weekend visits contained in the Order of Jan. 4, 1985 are not in the best interest of the child.

Dec. 14, 1984, ORDER OF COURT: NOW, Dec. 11, 1984, after consideration of the Defendants petition for change of venue which is treated by this court as a petition for transfer in accordance with R.C.P. 1006(d)(1), and it appearing that the original plaintiff, Robert I. Keck, has no objection to said transfer, and it also appearing that the action for declaratory judgment before this Court is not dispositive of all issues and that there are seven other actions filed in Crawford County, the site of the boating accident that underlies all of the proceedings, it is therefore ordered that the petition for transfer to Crawford County is granted. The Prothonotary of Butler County is directed to forward to the Prothonotary of Crawford County certified copies of the docket entries, process pleadings, and other papers in the action. The costs and fees of the petition to transfer and the removal of the record shall be paid by Pennsylvania National Mutual Casualty Insurance Company inthe first instance and to be taxable as costs in the case. BY THE COURT, John C. Dillon, President Judge Crawford County entries: Oct. 4, 1985, MEMORANDUM AND PRETRIAL ORDER filed. Keck and Keck Chrysler-Plymouth Inc. The following agreements were reached between counsel and the Court and are now adepted as a part of a pretrial court order. 1. Robert I. Keck and Keck Chrysler-Plymouth Inc. are granted leave to join David C. Howard, C. W.Howard Ins. Agency, Inc and Pa. Nat. Mutual Casualty INs. Keck and Keck Chrysler-Plymouth Inc. versus C.W. Howard Ins. Agency, Inc. A praecipe for Writ of summons was filed in that matter, but there has been o further action thereon except that as of this date the plaintiff therein was served with a rule to file a complaint. The plaintiff is excused from filing a complaint in that action and the parties have agreed that that action will remain in abeyance and that all issues that would have been raised in that action will be raised under the additional defendant proceedings in the actions in Crawford County and that once those issues are resolved in the proceedings in this county, they will act as a collateral estoppel to further litigate those issues in the Butler County case.

5. Counsel for two of the parties, to-wit: Leo M. Stepanian and William C. Robinson have idicated that they have authority to and are willing to waive jury trial. If the case is tried non-jury, it will be scheduled for Dec. 9,1985, at 9:30 A.M.

6. If waivers of jury trial are not obtained form all parties, a jury will be selected on Nov. 15, 1985 and jury trial will commence on Nov. 18, 1985 at 9:30 A.M.

7. The two avove cases are consolidated for trial.

Apr. 23, 1985 Order filed. AND NOW, April 19, 1985, after lengthy hearing, the Court is satisfied that both parents are competent parents and are capable of giving the child careful and loving custody and attention. Under all of the circumstances, however, the Court believes the best interest of the child at this time will be served by allowing the child to remain in the custody of the mother and the Court so orders.

In general, the Court adopts the original temporary Order entered January 25, 1985 as the custodical and visitational order in this case, with the following exceptions:

1. At the hearing, the mother evidenced no opposition to according the father additional visits on Friday, because under most circumstances, his peculiar working schedule gives him approximately three (3) Fridays a month off work. In view of the fact that the child will be starting kindergarten in September, and in view of the fact the Court believes the father should be required to give advance notice of at least forty-eight (48) hours of his intention to exercise additional Friday visits or his desire to have perhaps one or two evening visits a month in addition to the visits set forth in the aforesaid January 25th Order, the Court DIRECTS the parties to meet with their counsel and reduce to be attached as an agreement to this Order any modifications they can agree on according the father additional visits on Friday or longer hours on Friday or in the alternative, a few evening visits a month.

2. The Court believes there is some unfairness about the choice given to the father for Christmas visits in subparagraph II(e) of the January 25th Order, and if the father desires a change in his choice set forth in that Order, the parties will make other satisfactory arrangements for Christmas Day or periods immediatley beofe and immediately after Christmas so that both parents may have an ample opportunity to share meaningful time with the child during the Christmas holiday season.

Jan 31, 1985 Order filed: AND NOW, January 28, 1985, upon request for modification of the order of November, 19, 1984, said order is amended and clarified as follows:

1. The plaintiff may withdraw from the business operation the sum of $75.00 per week for such period of time as she is personally engaged in the management of the business and may further reinburse herself at the rate of twenty cents per mile for necessary milage on her automobile used in connection with the business and shall on her semi-monthly reports indicate the amount of mileage, the date and the destination of such trip.

2. The plaintiff shall make available at the office of her counsel for inspection and copying, the supporting receipts, salesslips or other supporting documents relating to the expenses shown on her monthly reports which may be inspected and copied by defendant or his representatives.

3. The plaintiff is cautioned that it was the Court's intention that every cent of money received or spent from the operation of the business would be accounted for and would be deposited in and debited out of the separate bank account established for the business. Apparently some vending machine money has not been so treated in the past and the plaintiff is cautioned that thet practice will have to berminate and the plaintiff shall append to the last half of January's report an accounting of all prior funds she treated in some manner as petty cash and did not report in prior accountings.

4. The Plaintiff shall forthwith sign the application for registration of the motor vehicle presently in the possession of the defendant and when the application for registration of the vehicle presently in the possession of the plaintiff is received, the defendant shall promptly sign the same and return it to the plaintiff so that the vehicles may both be properly registered.

5. The plaintiff shall file her inventory and appraisement and income and expense statement on or before February 11, 1985.

6. Although an allowance has been made for funds for compensation to the plaintiff out of the business, it is doubtful in the Court's opinion that the business would be earning sufficient profits to pay that amount and the Court reserves the right to make any adjustments necessary at the time of the ultimate equitable distribution in relation to the drawong account established in this order.

7. Nothing herein contained shall effect a support order entered in a separate Domestic Relations proceeding.

June 3, 1985 Motion To Temporarily Suspend Child Visitation and Order filed. AND NOW, this 3rd day of June, 1985, the Respondent-Petitioner, Judy L. Loper, by her attorney, Mariann E. Luksik, Esquire, moves this Court to temporarily suspend the visitation rights of Jeffrey L. Loper, Petitioner-Respondent, based upon the following:

2). On March 27, 1985, an order pursuant totthe Protection From Abuse Act was entered by this Court protecting both the Mother, Judy L. Loper, and the child, Matthew, from injury and harassment by Jeffrey L. Loper, a true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "B".

3). On April 26, 1985, Jeffrey L. Loper was adjudicated in contempt of court of the March 27, 1985, Protection From Abuse Order, a true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "C".

Jan 14, 1986 Order filed: AND NOW, January 10, 1986, at the time counsel for most of the parties are present to take the deposition of the Plaintiff, counsel requests the attention of the Court to several unresolved matters involving the discovery process. The Court resolves the matters as follows:

1. Plaintiff complains there has been no answer to detailed interrogatories presented to all Defendants. It appears that oral depositions of most or all of the Defendants have been taken and the interrogatories were filed subsequent to said deposition taking. The Defendants generally contend the interrogatories to be burdensome and duplicitious of much of the information already received at oral depositions. The Court directs the Defendants answer those interrogatories that they believe are pertinent and object to any interrogatories as being burdensome or that the matter requested in the interrogatories was already covered in the oral depositions. Defendants will file requisite answers within 30 days of this date.

2. In fesponse to production of documents requests, Plaintiff is complaining that they received only a one-and-a-half-page portion of Spencer Hospital's Policy and procedural manual, otherwise known as Medical Staff Bylaws. The Defendants contend they produced the pages relevant to the request but Plaintiffs want the entire manual. Accordingly, counsel for the Hospital will have Xeroxed or produce a duplicate copy of said manual on or before January 20, 1986, together with a bill for the cost of the same which will be paid forthwith by the Plaintiffs.

Counsel for Defendant Farrah are anxious that this Defendant's exposure and alleged negligent conduct be clarified as they contend he was only minimally invovved and they wish to file motions to have him removed as a party defendant. Plaintiffs contend in spite of the fact Farrah's deposition as been taken, there is no exposure but Plaintiffs contend that an upcoming medical expert opinion from a Dr. Weinstein may disclose that Farrah is a viable defendant. The Plaintiffs argue that the report from Dr. Weinstein cannot be procured until all discovery is completed, but Defendant Farrah argues that all of the information necessary to keep Farrah in the case has already been produced or will be produced in answers to interrogatories. Accordingly, the court directs that if the Weinstein expert opinion report is to opine that Farrah is a viable defendant, the total report or so much thereof as holds Farrah into the case will be produced by April 10, 1986.

3. All Parties are anxious to conclude pre-trial discovery and deposition taking and the Court directs all discovery and production of documents be concluded by March 30, 1986.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, PJ

Feb. 26, 1986 Supplement To Original Answers To Interrogatories filed.

Feb. 26, 1986 Deposition of Dr. Jose Maccera filed.

Mar. 10, 1986, ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 5, 1986, after argument on the defendants' blanket objection to Interrogatories propounded by the plaintiff and motion for protective Orders, the Court finds that the 241-question Interrogatories addressed to all defendants is an unreasonable procedure and is oppressive and an undue burden on the various defendants and their counsel, particularly in view of the fact that defendants Brookman, Watson, Farrah and Maccera have already been deposed a total of 496 deposition pages.

CONTINUED ON

After argument, counsel for the plaintiff agrees to withdraw the voluminous depositions now served on counsel for each of the defendants and severely limit and be more specific in addressing an individual set of interrogatories to each of the four doctors.

ACCORDINGLY, counsel for the plaintiff is given until March 14th to draft new Interrogatoreis specifically addressed to each named defendant and covering essential information necessary for preparation of trial which is not already obtainable by a review of the medical charts now in possession of plaintiffs counsel and which was not covered generally or with specificity in the prior deposition taking. The questions to each individual defendant will be limited to twenty in number and upon receipt of said interrogatories, defense counsel will have answers thereto completed within twenty (20) days.

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR PLAINTIFF TO COMPLETE DISCOVERY

By prior Order, this Court required plaintiff to complete all discovery and furnish medical reports by March 31, 1986. In view of the above order, said deadline is extended to April 30, 1986.

However, at that time we did not rule on whether summary judgment should be enter partial judgment in favor of Spencer Hospital against the Plaintiffs as to any claims made by the Plaintiffs that the hospital is liable to the Plaintiffs as a result of any negligence of any of the hospital's actual agents or employees.

Oct 9, 1986 Copies delivered to attorneys at time of Pretrial conference by Judge Thomas.

Oct. 9, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, OCtober 7, 1986, at the time of pretrial conference, the following items are agreed upon:

1. The Jury will be picked on OCtober 14, 1986, and three or four alternates will be picked for connencement of the trial, October 27, 1986, at 9:30 a.m. Immediately before trial, the Court will exercise its discretion and may excuse one or two of the alternates.
2. Various exhibits delineating medical expenses have been prepared by the Plaintiff and a sumamry of the same presented to the court and counsel are in agreement that a thick stack of medical bills will not be submitted to the Jury but that a summary of said bills will go out with the Jury.

The only modification to the above is that Spencer Hospital will attempt to ascertain the normal costs of a normal cesarean section and delivery and said figure will be presented to the Jury and the aforesaid total medical expenses will be reduced by said amount. Likewise, Dr. Brookman's normal charges will be deducted from the total medical expenses unumerated in the exhibits.

3. The various hospital records to be alluded to or introducted into evidence in this case may be introduced without the necessity of producing the records custodian from the hospital to testify as to their authenticity. sAid records, of course, are subject to any fulings on the evidentiary propriety ruled upon by the Court.
4. The Court is presented with a laboratory pathology report dated 12-24-83 with the first page thereon signed by Dr. Maccera and dr. Marty. the four-page document purports to be the pathological report involving the patient and counsel agree that Page 1 thereof and the first two lines on page 2 under macroscopic examination will be admitted into evidence without the necessity of calling Dr. Jerry Marty to testify that that reflects an accurante representation of his findings.

The parties are unable to agree at this time as to whether the remainder of the report ostensibly prepared by Dr. Maccera will or will not be admitted by stipulation. Accordingly, Plaintiff now asks for the addition of the name of Dr. Maccera to his witness list and the same is added thereto.

5. It appears that in answer to Question 16 of Dr. Brookman's interrogatories, the Plaintiff is contending there is a typographical error and the word "resulted" should be replaced by the word "resolved" Counsel for brookman will review his file and unless objection is expressed prior to trial, the Court will consider and question appropriately amended to reflect the correct language.

May 10, 1993 Petition for Civil Contempt/Modification for Disobedience of Custody Order and Order filed. AND NOW, this 7th day of May, 1993, upon presentation of the foregoing Petition for Contempt, a Rule is issued upon the Respondent, Sheryl Fleeger, to show cause, if any she has, why she should not be held in contempt of the October 24, 1984 Order of theCourt of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pa., and a hearing is thereon set for the 27th day of May, 1993, at 9:15 A.M. o'clock in Courtroom #1 or #2 of the Crawford County Courthouse at Meadvile, PA

BY THE COURT,
Gordon R. Miller, J.

May 11, 1993 Copy of Order to Attys. Luksik, Dratler & Sullivan and Defendant.

May 28, 1993 AMENDED ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 27, 1993, the matter is before the Court on a Contempt Citation contending that the mother is not complying with the Oct. 25, 1984 Order.

The matter is informally reviewed with input from the parents, a conference with the child and discussions with other interested parties.

While the mother has not strictly complied with the Order, a variety of circumstances intervened and the Court refuses to adjudge the mother in will ful and deliberate contempt of the previous Order.

With the consent of the parties, the following Custody and Visitation Order shall become effective this date:

1. Primary custody of the minor child Andrew shall be with the mother, subject to liberal visitations with the father.

2. Commencing with the month of June 1993, the father shall have the right to have custody of minor child Andrew on the first and third full weekends of every month, commencing with June, 1993, and said visits shall be between the hours of 6:00 p.m., Friday, and 6:00 p.m., Sunday. It shall be the obligation of the father to pick up and return the child on said visits.

3. The father's current vehicle admittedly has dangerous mechanical problems that makes the safe transportation for driver and passenger extremely suspect. ACCORDINGLY, until the father's present car is repaired and becomes safe, he shall have to use other transportation of a safeness necessary to pick up and return the child.

4. During the summer school vacation period in 1993 and following years, the father shall have the right to exclusive custody from the day after school is recessed until August 1 of each year. After August 1, the every -other- weekend visits with the father shall resume.

5. As far as the major holidays of Easter, July 4th, Thanksgiving and Christmas are concerned, these holidays will be alternated between mother and father and shall supersede the first and third weekend schedule if there is a conflict. Commencing in 1993, the father shall have exclusive custody for Thanksgiving; the father, exclusive custody for Christmas; and the mother, exclusive custody for Easter, 1994. Thereafter, the holidays will be alternated between the parents so that the same parent does not have exclusive custody on the same holiday each year.

6. It appears minor child Andrew is extremely allergic to certain bee stings and is under treatment to build up an immunity with a Dr. Kerry, 17 6th Avenue, Greenville, Pa., 16125, ((412) 588-2600), and it shall be primarily the mother's responsibility to take the child for appointments to Dr. Kerry. During the summer extended visits with the father, it shall be the father's responsibility to take the child for the appointments with Dr. Kerry.

7. There is a dispute about whether minor child Andrew has his own bed to sleep in when he visits his father, and the Court directs that regardless of other house guests in the home of the father at the time the child is there, the child shall be provided with a bed to sleep in.

8. The mother shall see that the father receives emergency injection medication for the father's use while the minor child Andrew is in his possession in the event he is stung by a bee, hornet, wasp, or other stinging insect.

9. If the father is unable to exercise the weekend visitation privileges, he shall notify the mother by calling Connie Simons of Meadville, Pa., who will see that the mother is so advised. In the absence of such notice on any scheduled weekend visit, if the father does not appear by 7:00 p.m. to pick up the child, the visit will be considered canceled and the mother need not anticipate or plan for a weekend visit with the child with the father.

10. Each parent shall notify the other as soon as possible of any illness or emergency injury or hospitalization of the child. Neither parent will do or say anything in an attempt to turn the child against either parent.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, S.J.

G. Neither parent shall expose the children to any situation which would adversely affect the health, welfare or wellbeing of the children and shall not take the children to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of their age.

6. The parties may telephone and talk to their children and vise versa so long as said telephone calls are not used to harrass or annoy the other party and so long as the calls are limited to one half hour in the evening.

7. The mediator has noted for the court that the children are of the Protestant Christian faith, and therefore the parent having custody or visitation with said children at the relevant times shall see that the children have the opportunity to observe the celebrations and festivals of that faith.

8. Neither party shall expose said children to situations which are unsafe or morally improper for children of like age and experience and neither party shall expose said children to the company of members of the opposite sex to whom the are not related by blood or marriage during the hours of from 10:00 p.m. through 7:00 a.m.

9. The parties are free to make additional or different provisions with respect to physical custody and visitation schedules of their children but only if they mutually agree. If the parties do not agree, this Order shall govern.

Dec. 10, 1984 Re: Exceptions of Plaintiff and Defendant to Alimony Pendente Lite and Counsel Fee Award, Petition for Special Discovery, Petition for Expenses, Opinion and Order filed: 1. Exceptions of both parties to award of Alimony pendente lite in the amount of $175.00 are dismissed, and said Order shall remain effective commencing the month of September, 1985, and all arrears on said award shall be paid by December 13, 1985.

2. The Court recognizes that in protracted divorce litigation it is impractical and inequitable in some cases to expect diligent counsel to await the ultimate outcome before receiving counsel fees. The Court has as an exhibit counsel fees incurred by the Plaintiff between August 1984, and September, 1985, a bill for $1,643.89. The Court finds it was previously in error in not requiring payment of these fees in full in its prior Order and, accordingly, now directs that counsel fees be paid in said amount, conditioned however as follows:

(a) Since it appears to the Court that there are ample funds in the frozen accounts in the two institutions hereinbefore noted that will in all likelihood be ultimately classified in part or in toto as marital property, the Court believes equity and justice requires that presently due counsel fees be paid from these frozen accounts. Accordingly, we direct that American Federal Savings or Mellon Bank, upon receipt of a copy of this Order, authorized the withdrawal of the sum of $1,643.00 from accounts in their possession that have been previously frozen by Court Order and pay the same to E. Lorene Spaid or her counsel. This sum is awarded to the wife, however, without prejudice to the right of the Master, or ultimately the reviewing Court, to allocate counsel fees incurred by both parties in an equitable manner.

(b) The Court leaves to the discretion of the parties as to which of the frozen accounts should be used to pay said counsel fees. If the parties cannot mutually agree, then the Court, on motion, will designate the account to be involved.

3. By agreement of the parties, realtor Fran Richmond will be employed to appraise the residence at 276 Church Street, Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania, and a dwelling house situate on a one acre parcel on Dickson Road, Woodcock Township, plus a vacant parcel of 4.14 acres jointly owned by the parties situate in Oil Creek Township, Copies of the appraisal will be furnished to both parties.

(a) The parties mutually acknowledge that the Defendant husband has a joint interest in a hunting camp near Sheffield, Pennsylvania, but by agreement of counsel no appraisal of his interest in this real estate will be made by Mr. Richmond, and the parties mutually agree they will establish the husband's financial interest therein without the necessity of employing an appraiser.

4. The parties mutually agree that appraiser Bruce Nichlls will appraise the personal property located in the residence at 276 Church Street and in the aforesaid Woodcock Township property. Copies of said appraisal will be furnished to both parties, and the parties mutually agree that E. Lorraine Spaid, Plaintiff, may accompany appraiser Nicholls to assist him and to ascertain whether the personal property previously located in either dwelling house.

5. The appraisers' fees incurred will be paid from frozen accounts in the same manner as directed in Paragraph 2(a) and (b).

6. The parties mutually agree, and the Defendant husband consents, that counsel for the wife Plaintiff may consult with Mr. Ron Harned of the Defendant's employer and that Harned is authorized on behalf of the Defendant to furnish a copy of the pertinent company pension plan and amendments thereto and any other benefit plans of the husband and a copy of an employee booklet, if the same exists, to counsel for the wife. To the best of his ability, Mr. Ron Harned will furnish to counsel for the wife his evaluation and opinion of the present status of Defendant's pension account, his rights therein, and the present and future monetary benefits accruing to the husband, particularly as it relates to the time when company policy would permit retirement at various ages. A copy of this Order presented to Mr. Harned shall be sufficient authority for him to disclose the aforesaid information, and counsel for the wife plaintiff agrees that copies of pertinent information will be furnished to counsel for the husband.

7. To rectify an oversight in our previous order, we direct that husband continued to maintain wife as a beneficiary on any hospitalization and health coverages in effect at the time of separation.

8. The request to employ an actuary to evaluate the pension plan or other fringe benefits is denied at this time without prejudice to the right of counsel for the Plaintiff to petition to the Court in the future for reconsideration.

Oct. 27, 1987 defendant's Answer To Plaintiff's Inventory & Appraisement filed.

Oct. 27, 1987 Inventory and Appraisement Of Carl W. Spaid, Defendant filed.

Oct. 27, 1987 Defendant's Income and Expense Statement filed.

Oct. 28, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, October 27, 1987, the matter is before the Court on a Contempt request with a campanion request to impose sanctions and a motion for discovery order listing some twenty requests for matters which Plaintiff contends were prviously requested under discovery proceedings and not produced.

Court notes that in response to petitions previously filed, the Defendant's income and expense statement and inventory and appraisement were not filed until this date, and that the Defendant in spite of being ordered on August 11, 1987 to deposit $600.00 toward Master fees, and in spite of a further Order for contempt on September 11th, to make said deposit, only deposited said required amount on October 26, 1987.

There is a conflict bewteen counsel for the parties as to the intent and meaning of discovery proceedings, and counsel for Defendant/Husband contends that he has been cooperative and offered to permit counsel for the Plaintiff to go through his files to ascertain if any of the requested items repose therein. Apparently sereral meetings between counsel did not materialize. It is the posture of the Plaintiff that it is the Defendant's obligation to produce the matters requested and that the mere fact that they may or may not repose in his afforney's file does not meet the discovery requirements. On this date of October 27th, the day before the Master's scheduled hearing, the Court believes it is useless to go through the twenty items listed in the motion for discovery order filed August 10, 1987 and listen to the rangling between counsel as to whether of not those items are material, whether they exist, whether they are in possession of theDefendant or whether they repose in defense counse's file and should have been copied from said filed by the Plaintiff's attorney. The Court envisions this as an exercise infutility and accordingly, we enter the following Order:

Master, Gordon Miller, will proceed with the hearing on October 28, 1987 and will attempt to narrow the focus of the materials, exhibits, finanical statements and records that are missing, have never been requested or are material to a decision in the divorce case..

The Master is AUTHORIZED in the name of the Court to direct said matters forthwith by the Defendant without the necessity of a subpoena, is AUTHORIZED to direct the Defendant to disclose any organizations or persons that mayhave the material and direct the Defendant to produce it within a certain time period. The Master is also AUTHORIZED to direct the Defendant to sign any authorization directed to any person or any organization to produce within a specified time span any material directly or indirectly relating to the defendant and his financial status past, present or future, and consent to the production and release of the same to counsel for the parties, and the Master without further Order of Court.

It is the intent of this Order that the Master be given the broadest discretion possible in making certain that the financial position of the parties in the pastat the time of se pration and at present be made known in order that the Master may carry out his functions in recommending appropriate Orders to the Court to be contained in the divorce decree.

In the event the Master would find there has been negligent or wilful in activity or refusal on the part of the Defendant to complete the discovery process, Court will entertain a motion from the Master as to what sanctions should be imposed for the Defendant's noncooperation or dilatory tactics.

ON ARGUMENT LIST FOR SEPTEMBER 1988

Sept 13, 1988 Master's Petition for Fees and Expenses filed.

Sept 13, 1988 Re: Master's Petition for Fees and Expenses Order filed:
The Master in this bitterly contested divorce petitions the Court for fees and expenses. The Court notes that each side has filed numerous exceptions to the Master's Report and Recommendations, and these exceptions are currently scheduled for argument September 26, 1988, which argument however must be rescheduled due to the Court's projected absence on the scheduled date.
It is obvious the issues raised by both parties are alleged to be complex, and the Court's ultimate ruling thereon may take considerable research and study time.
The Court does not believe that Master should await the ultimate outcome of the divorce action before being paid. In this regard, we note that the Master recommended master fee and costs be paid by the defendant husband, and exceptions to this recommendation have been filed. Accordingly, we direct the defendant to pay a portion of the master's fees due at this time, with the balance of the master's fees to await a court ruling on the defendant's exceptions. The Court sets master's fees at $2,300.00 plus $120.27 in unpaid expenses. We direct the defendant to pay the Prothonotary's Office the sum of $1,000.00 to apply on master's fees within 20 days of the filing of this order. Dec. 12, 1986 Petition for Supplemental Relief and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 12th day of December, 1986, upon presentation and consideration of the within Petition, a Rule is granted upon the Defendant, Thomas L. Guthrie, to show cause, if any he has, why the relief requested in the aforesaid Petition should not be granted.

Hearing on this matter is set for the 30th day of December, 1986 at 2o'clock P.M. in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Court House, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Pending Final Order in this case the Agway Insurance Company is directed not to issue a check for the proceeds from the loss to the aforesaid Pontiac automobile until further Order of this Court.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Dec. 12, 1986 Copies of order to R. Charles Thomas and Emil Spadafore

Dec. 31, 1986 Order filed. AND NOW, Dec. 30, 1986, the matter is before the Court on a hearing on a petition for supplemental relief regarding the destruction of a Pontiac automobile by fire with the Plaintiff's contention that she should have a lien or control of the proceeds from the settlement of this loss to offset against a fixed sum monetary award recommended in the Master's divorce report to the Court.

Further, it appears that counsel for the Defendant left the practice of law in August of 1986 and so notified his client and there has been some confusion about the Defendant's opportunity to file exceptions to the Master's report, which was filed July 31, 1986.

The Court is satisfied the Defendant has had adequate notice and adequate time both to get new counsel or to pro se file exceptions to the Master's report and the Court accordingly decrees that the time for filing exceptions to the July 1986 Master's report has passed and the Court will entertain by separate order a divorce decree divorcing the parties and incorporating the recommendations of the Master in the decree.

Fire Loss To 1981 Pontiac Automobile

The Court directs that the Agway Insurance Company, in making final settlement for the fire loss occasion to the Pontiac automobile, make their check payable to Attorney R. Charles Thomas, Attorney for Carol A. Guthrie and Thomas L. Guthrie, and forward the same to Attorney Thomas for deposit into a special escrow account.

If the sum of $6,875.00 awarded to Mrs. Guthrie in the Court's divorce about to be entered has not been made within 60 days of the date of said divorce decree, then Attorney R. Charles Thomas is authorized without further order of Court to use said check proceeds to apply to the sum owed by the Defendant to the Plaintiff in the divorce action.

This order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Plaintiff to proceed against such other property as the Defendant may possess to satisfy any remaining outstanding sums due awarded to the Plaintiff in the divorce decree.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 6, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, May 1, 1987, at the time of hearing, the Court decusses with the Defendant and counsel for the Plaintiff the factual background of the case, and after a brief recess, counsel for the Plaintiff advises that he has reached an amicable agreement with the Defendant to resolve the remaining issue of the unpaid cash balance as ordered by the Divorce Decree.

It appears that the previous matter concerning an insurance check has been resolved, and the Plaintiff has received $2,666.25 thus leaving a balance due under a cash payment awarded in the Divorce Decree the sum of $4,208.75.

The Defendant and counsel for the Plaintiff advise the Court that the Defendant will pay $2,500.00 cash forthwith and that the balance due of $1,708.75 will be paid to counsel for the Plaintiff by 5:00 p.m., May 6, 1987.

Accordingly, the Court finds the Defendant in contempt of Court for failing to comply with the terms and conditions of the Divorce Decree, but suspends any punishment for said contempt. In the event the Defendant complies with the agreed Order heretofor entered, the Court's finding of contempt will be dismissed, and the Plaintiff will give up and relinquish any claim of interest onthe upon paid amounts and any attorney fees necessary to bring this matter before the Court.

Mar. 23, 1992, Petition of Jeffrey L. Loper Concerning Custody, filed.

March 25, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, March 23, 1992, the plaintiff pro se presents to the Court a motion asking that the Order previously entered Jan. 4, 1985 regarding minor child Matthew Loper be enforced. The defendant's contention is that he is being refused visits with the child. An informal discussion between Court and plaintiff discloses there have been severl changs mutually agreed upon in the aforesaid Order and that for a period fo five yeras, the plaintiff father was not in the area.

The plaintiff advises the Court he is not asking for a contempt citation, but merely would like to renew visits with his child.

Under the foregoing circumstances, the Court believes the matter should be referred back to original Custody Mediator John Fuller for scheduling of a conference with the parents and the child and explore the possibilities of an amicable Order regarding visitation between father and child.

Feb. 23, 1994 ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 16, 1994, the Plaintiff appears in Motion Court with several papers including a petition to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to Pa. R. C.P. 2040; an affidavit in support of the petition; a custody complaint (modification); and a notice and order to appear with respect to reference of the case to a child custody mediator.

He also produces a copy of an August 27, 1993 order which is the current existing custody order.

When he appears, the Plaintiff has not notified the Defendant of his appearance and in our discussions with him it really appears that he is asking that the Defendant be held in contempt for violations of the current custody order and it also appears that he may want a modification of that existing order but wishes to proceed in forma pauperis with respect to the deposit necessary in order for this matter to go back to a child custody mediator.

After reviewing his petition to proceed in forma pauperis, we deny the same based on his current employment.

Therefore, we will direct the Prothonotary to file the collection of papers that he has filed in Motion Court but we will not appoint a child custody mediator with regard to a modification untilthe $150 deposit is paid and we have advised the Plaintiff of that in Motion Court.

Even though he has not filed a motion specifically setting forth the reasons he believes she should be held in contempt he has indicated some of those to the Court in Motion Court and we will now set a hearing for the Court to consider whether the Defendant is in contempt of the custody order of August 27, 1993 said hearing set for April 27, 1994, at 1:30 P.M. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2, Crawford County Courthouse.

The Prothonotary of Crawford County shall send by regular mail a copy of this order to Jeffrey L. Loper at 970 Park Avenue, Meadville, PA 16335 and to Judy L. Loper at R.D.#3,Grange Center Road, Saegertown,PA 16433 as well as putting a copy in the box at the Prothonotary's office for Brian Lindsay, Esquire, who at least previously represented the Defendant.

The Plaintiff shall within 15 days of the date of this order file a petition with the Prothonotary setting forth the facts which he alleges constitute the Defendant's willful failure to comply with the custody order of August 27, 1992 which is required pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1915.12 (b). He shall, pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. 1915.12(c), serve a copy of that petition upon the Defendant by personal service or regular mail together with a copy of the notice required by Pa. R.C.P. 1915.12 (a). We note that we have attached to this order a photocopy of Pa. R.C.P. 1915.12 in its entirety.

Mar. 29, 1994 Motion To Dismiss filed.

Mar. 29, 1994 Order filed. AND NOW, March 28, 1994, upon consideration of the Defendant's motion to dismiss, a rule is entered upon the Plaintiff to show cause, if any he has, why his petition to hold the Defendant in contempt should not be dismissed for his failure to comply with our order of February 22, 1994.

Said rule is scheduled for argument on April 27, 1994 at 1:30 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No. 2, Crawford County Courthouse, before the undersigned, just prior to the time set for the original hearing with respect to Plaintiff's motion.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

Mar. 31, 1994 Copies of order to Plaintiff and Atty. Lindsay

Apr. 28, 1994 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 27, 1994, this is before the Court on a pro se motion filed by the Plaintiff for the Defendant to be held in contempt. After the Plaintiff appeared in motions court we entered an Order in February of 1994 setting this hearing and directing the Plaintiff to file his precise reasons as to why he was asking for the Defendant to be held in contempt.

He never did so, and as a result, the Defendant filed a motion to dismiss this contempt matter.

The Plaintiff appears pro se today and indicates that he attempted to get counsel and shows the Court a letter from Sylvia Dratler, Esquire, indicating that she will not be able to represent him We allow the Plaintiff to set forth his reasons why he believes the Defendant should be held in contempt and than the Defendant through counsel and through her own words indicates her position with respect to the same.

While the contentions differ greatly the bottom line is that the Plaintiff has not visited with the child since February of 1993 and it appears that there maybe some reluctance on the part of this child to visit with his father.

Because of the fact that there has been no contact other than some telephone contact for about fourteen (14) months, we believe that this matter should be turned to mediation. The Plaintiff has previously petitioned the Court to proceed informa pauperis for the purpose of requesting further mediation, and we denied that petition due to his income at his employment at Trio Tool and Die.

After hearing this matter, we will return this matter to John Fuller, Esquire, for further mediation, and we will specifically waive the requirement that any party deposit $150.00 prior to such mediation.

This is without prejudice to the Mediator to recommend an appropriate allocation with respect to any costs of mediation.

When this matter is mediated, the Mediator may request or require any further psychological reports that he may deem appropriate.

Pending the mediation conference, any visitation or periods of temporary custody afforded to the Plaintiff pursuant to the Court's Order of August 27, 1992 are suspended due to the fact that there has been such a lengthy period of time since the Plaintiff has seen this child.
