Aug. 18, 1998 ORDER filed. This matter has come before the Court in Motion Court on the Defendant's Motion to submit additional issues for disposition by the Master. Specifically, the Defndant wishes for the Master to consider permanent alimony as well as counsel fees and costs.

The Plaintiff argues that this is not timely and the request should be denied and cites this Court's decision in the case of Papsun v. Papsun at A.D. 1996-533.

We will allow the Defendant to submit the additional issues raised by her through the Master because although the pleadings in this case should have been filed long ago, it is clear from the record in this case that unlike Papsun, the Defendant knew throughout this case that the issues the Defendant now raises would apparently be part of this case.

Specifically, in Papsun, the divorce complaint was filed on May 22, 1996 by the Plaintiff and only included divorce and equitable distribution.

A Master was sppointed to hear those issues on Nov. 25, 1997.

The Defendant's Motion to submit the issue of counsel fees and costs and permanent alimony to the Master is granted. (SEE PAPERS FILED).

Dec. 11, 1997 ORDER FILED. Dec. 11, 1997, The undersigned was assigned to a hearing scheduled Dec. 2, 1997, in the above entitled matter. At the time of hearing, counsel for Bush Agency, Inc. appeared, but neither Defendant nor counsel appeared. At that time we were advised that no counsel had entered an appearance in this case for the Defendant and that the matter had been unduly delayed due to procrastination on the part of the Defendant. At the Dec. 2, 1997 hearing, we granted sanctions in the monetary mount of $671.40. On Dec. 10, 1997, Plaintiff's counsel and counsel fro the Defendant appeared at Motion Court in regard to Defendant's Petition for Reconsideration of the Award of Sanctions. It is contended that although never having entered an appearance in this case, counsel for Deft. wished the Court to reconsider the Award of Sanctions on the basis that he had inadvertently listed the case for hearing on Dec. 12, 1997 instead of Dec. 2, 1997.

Since Judge Vardaro had not held the original Dec. 2, 1997 hearing, he declined to grant the Petition for Reconsideration of the Sanction Award and referred the matter to the undersigned who conducted the hearing. Since we were not privy to the exchange between Judge Vardaro and counsel for both parties, we will schedule a further Argument in this matter before acting on Defendant's Petition for both parties, we will schedule a further Argument on this matter before acting on Defendant's Petition for Reconsideration of Award of Sanctions.

We will consider the Petition by the defense counsel presented in Motion Court on Dec. 10, 1997 as teh entry of a appearance by Atty John Nagurney in this matter and schedule hearing on the Reconsideration request before the undersigned on the 15th day of Dec. 1997 at 1:30 P.M. in Courtroom No. 3.

Dec. 10, 1997 CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE ON BEHALF OF BUSH AGENCIES, INC. PLTF. FILED.

Dec. 23, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 15, 1997, this matter is reviewed infcrmally with Court and counsel regarading a sanction Order imposed by this Court Dec. 2, 1997.

After review of the situation with counsel, the aforesaid previously imposed sanction of $571.40 is determined to be inappropriate under the circumstances as the Court now understands them. Counsel for the defendant admits he entered the wrong date for a hearing on his desk book and consequently did not appear at the previously scheduled hearing on his desk book. We are sympathetic with counsel for kthe plaintiff in that the matters previously requested in aid of execution were delayed , but counsel for plaintiff advises he has now received the requested materials.

Under all the circumstances of this case, we amend our Order of Dec. 2, 1997, which imposed sanctions in the nature of attorney fees of $671.40 and reduce the sanction sum to $100, which we believe is appropriate to compensate counsel for attendance at a hearing when opposing counsel, through inadvertence, failed to appear. The previous sanction order is so amended.

The plaintiff agrees to pay costs in this case in the amount of $98.50, and accordingly, commencing on June 30, 1997, and each and every two weeks thereafter, she shall pay the sum of $30 direct to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County until the costs are paid in full.

June 5, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1997, this abuse matter between mother and son is before the Court with both parties represented by counsel. The Court is presented with a picture of a 16 year old school dropout who has only completed seventh grade, brought a car with his SSI money but for reasons unknown the car became dysfunctional and the Juvenile is unable to be controlled by his mother.

The mother attributed the problem to the father of the child to whom she was never married that lives next door and the mother's plans are to move either to Oil City, Pennsylvania or Boston, Massachusets. The Juvenile is totally unrealistic about his job opportunities and this Court in this abuse proceeding is unable to resolve this dysfunctioning family in this proceeding. Counsel for the Plaintiff mother requests the petition be withdrawn and the Court dismisses the Petition at the mother's request and directs the County to pay the costs in this case.

It now appears that a projected living arrangement with relatives in Cochranton has fallen through and the Juvenile now states the parents of her boyfriend Linda and Roger Davis of 104 Billings Drive, Edinboro, Pa, have accorded her the following order in the abuse action:

1. This child shall take up residence with the Davis family as noted aforesaid.

May 29, 1997 Sheriff's Return filed. SERVED John Bisbee, Jr., by deputizing the sheriff of Erie Co., PA. As per telephone call received May 28, 1997, Defendant John Bisbee, Jr., was served on May 28, 1997 by their department. Affidavit of Service forthcoming.

June 3, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, May 30, 1997, at the time this abuse action is called for hearing before the Court, the parties appear, each pro se, without counsel. The plaintiff is contending she went to Erie County from Crawford County, seeking her former husband because there was a delay in receiving support payments. It is her contention that when she stopped him with her car, that he deliberately and wilfully assaulted her and she is in fear of such incidents in the future.

The defendant's position is he was on his way to work when the plaintiff stopped him and she is the one that became roused and assaulted him.

In view of the fact this matter was not litigated, the Court will direct that the costs in this case shall be absorbed by the County, absent further Order of this Court.

Dec. 29, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 19, 1997, this matter comes before the Cjourt on the Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief in this divorce action in which he seeks to enjoin the defendant form transferring property without further Order of Court or without the plaintiff's written permission. Likewise, this matter comes before the Court on the defendant's similar petition.
Plaintiff's Petition was filed in the Court Administrator's Office on Oct. 9, 1997 and the defendant's was filed on Oct. 13, 1997.
In both cases, on Nov. 10, 1997, a Rule to Show Cause was entered, with said Rule returnable on Dec. 19, 1997 at 9:15 in this Courtroom.
Notice was provided to counsel for both parties on Nov. 12, 1997.
Apparently, the defendant attained new counsel who entered their appearance on Nov. 24, 1997, and at the time of this hearing, no one appears on behalf of the defendant.
We have contacted the officer of her new counsel and they indicate they are not aware that this hearing was to take place.
We Would expect that counsel would have reviewed the file in this mttter or would have learned from prior counsel that a hearing was set. Apparently, from what the staff at counsel for the defendant's office indicated, they were advised of this hearing late last night by the attorney for the plaintif, but we did not hear anything from defendant's counsel. Instead, the Court had

In the event either party wishes to in any way dispose of any such property, they may only do so with the express written permission of the other party or upon furhter Order of the Court.

The request for counsel fees in each case is denied.

Feb. 17, 1998 EMERGENCY PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF AND ORDER FILED.

Feb. 17, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Feb. 11, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on an emergency petition for special relief filed by the Plaintiff.

After argument with counsel present, it is ordered and directed that the Respondent acting through Beachfront Enterprises, Inc may not tender a deed for certain property, being Lot 17 and 18 in Morning Shore Acres Subdivision Phase 3 to Loyd Aiken without further Order of Court or unless any funds that result from the sale of that property by Loyd Aiken to Edward F. and Grace N. Kaufman as set forth in an agreement of Oct. 15, 1997, which appeared to be a total of $120,000.00 are placed in an escrow account at Northwest Savings Bank in the name of Victor B. Farrah, Renae L. Farah and Loyd Aiken.

The Court notes that at the time of argument, Atty Wm. Gregg appears and indicates he has a deed from Beachfront Enterprises, Inc. for those lots to Loyd Aiken, which has not been recorded. It is specifically the Court's intention that it will not be permissible to record that deed at this time or any time pending further Order of Corut, under the theory that that deed is dated prior to our Order of Dec. 19, 1997.

All other issues raised by the Plaintiff shall be heard at a hearing time scheduled before the Court on Feb. 19, 1998 at 9:15AM in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

In light of the hearing set for Feb. 19, 1998 with regard to clarification of the Court's Order of Dec. 19,1997 the Defendant shall not transfer any real estate through the Beachfront Enterprises, Inc. Corp.

Feb. 23, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Feb. 19, 1998 this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Sanctions and for contempt filed by Plaintiff in this divorce action.

This matter is handled informally with both counsel and the parties present and it appears and in fact the Defendant agrees, that she is in contempt of the Court's Orders with regard to producing documents.

After the informal hearing, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED AS FOLLOWS

1. The Defendant shall produce all of the documents requested by Plaintiff in his request for production within ten days from this date. It appears that most of those documents center around bank statements and canceled checks, but to the extent there were any objections to those requests, those objections are overruled at this time, because they were not raised in a timely manner and the Defendant shall produce all items requested within the 10 days.
2. If the Defendant has not produced the items requested upon request of Plaintiff's counsel, the Defendant shall sign a release for the Plaintiff to obtain those documents in a prompt manner. This means that the release shall be signed and provided to Plaintiff's counsel within seven days of the request for that release and no later then 7 days.
3. in the event the Plaintiff is required to obtain documents as a result of suce release or releases this Order is without prejudice to him to petition the Court for reimbursement for the expenses of those itmes if that cannot be reimbursed directly through agreement of the parties, it being the Court's intention that if that becomes necessary, that we will expect the Defendant to reimburse the Plaintiff and only if there is a dispute that cannot be worked out between the parties will that matter have to come before the Court.
4. The Defendant will appear in the offices of Plaintiff's counsel so that her deposition may be taken on March 16, 1998 and if it cannot be complete on that day, on March 17, 1998. She is strongly cautioned that will only be changed upon compelling reason presented to the Court in advance of that deposition, and if she fails to appear by unilatreal decision as she has done previously, without court consent, it would be the Court's intention that shebe incarcerated in the Crawford County Correctional Facility until such time as she may be deposed.

In addition, the defendant will receive from the sale proceeds $30,000 which shall be a salary for her services in operation Morning Shore Allotments.
The balance of $67,985.21 shall be placed in an escrow account witht he defendant's social security number and with James Irwin, Esq. and Wm Gregg Esq. as excrow agents.
The amounts paid and particularly the amount advanced to the defendant are being paid in advance without prejudice to either party to raise any issues that may be appropriate with regard to those funds at the time of an equitable distribution in this divorce matter.
It is also orered and directed that the plaintiff may sell his share in Water Street Enterprises for the approximate sum of $57,000 with the entire proceeds to be applied to the plaintiff's federal tax obligation for 1995 and 1996. It is understood that the amount that will be applied will not completely pay the obligation and may not, in fact pay his entire 1995 tax obligation.
Again, this advance to the plaintiff is without prejudice to either party to raise issues with regard to those funds at the time of an equitable distribution in this divorce action.

*April 5, 1999 Order filed. And Now, March 24, 1999 upon oral motion of the plaintiff through counsel it is ordered and directed so that it is clear with regard to our order of April 17, 1998 and the previous order of December 19, 1997 it is our intention at this time that any funds generated form the sale of any marital property unless otherwise upon writte agreement of the parties or specified somewhere in a court order shall be placed in an escrow account which is to be created pursuant to another order we entered this day with the social security number of the Defendant and with James R. Irwin Esq. and william Gregg, Esq. as the escrow agents.

We also note that there will be other hearings comint in this case and current counsel for the defendant indicates that because of a balance owed to previous counsel the file including pertinent discovery items in the possession of previous counsel has not been provided ot the defendant or her current counsel.

It is our understanding of the requirements of the Code of Professional Responsibility that those documents be provided so that the Defendant may litigage this matter and there is other recourse for previous counsel to obtain any fess that are due. We would expect this matter to proceed in that fashion.

July 14, 1999 ORDER: AND NOW, July 6, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the Plaintiff. Both parties appear represented by counsel, and essentially, there are two issues that need to be resolved with regard to an Order that this Court entered by the agreement of the parties on April 17, 1998.

Specifically, there were certain deeds that were to be issued to the Defendant's father, Mr. Yanero, which had not been issued. As it turns out, at the time that Order was entered, there reas reference made to Lots NO. 23, 24 and 25 being conveyed to Mr. Yanero and his wife andthe parties have agreed now that there was some confusion and in fact it should be Lots No. 20, 25 and 26 of Morning Shore Allotment. That has been doen as of this day and there is no longer an issue with regard to the Defendnat's contempt with regard to that matter.

A formal hearing centers around whether or not the DEfendant ha sin fact violated the terms and conditions set forth in our Paragraph No. 8 of that consent Order of April 17, 1998.

Feb. 25, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Feb. 23, 1998 this Court finds, as a fact, that the Defendant has violated the terms and conditions of the Protection from Abuse Order entered on July 28, 1998. We find that he was within one-hundred yards fo the victim's residence. He testified that he did not know where her residence was; however, we do not find his testimony to be credible. In view of the fact, he did testify that he was at someone else's apartment in Building 6, came out to go home in the early morning hours and because it was raining, elected to neither go home nor to go back to his friend's house, but to go to Building 7 and remain in the hallway or corridor. That doesn't make sence to us.

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED AS FOLLWOS:

1. As punishment for this contempt, the Defendant shall undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Jail for a minimum term of one month and a maximum term of 6 months. He shall be automatically paroled at the expiration of one month from this date, provided his jail conduct is perfect.
2. We are not able to conclude that he was the one that broke the window, because there was no testimony that places him near that window andit would be pure conjecture to conclude that.

Oct. 24, 1997 ORDER filed . This divorce matter has been referred to court for review and decree. The court is returning the record to Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because:
A. There is no indication that the 3301(d) affidavit was properly served on the responding party.
B. There is no showing that the proper notice required by 1920.42(c)(1) in the form provided by 1920.73 to a party who is unrepresented or to counsel of a rep. party was properly mialed or delievered; and /or a copy of said notice is not attached to the praecipe to refer or submit.

November 12, 1997 SHERIFF'S RETURN. Nov. 25, 1997 Upon praecipe of plaintiff, with attachments to praecipe, to transmit the record, this cas resubmitted to the court.

Dec. 8, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 5, 1997 this divorce matter has been referred to the Courtfor review and decree. The Court has reviewed the record and is returning the record to the Prothonotary. A final decree will not be entered at this time because the plaintiff has still not complied with our Order Of OCT. 23, 1997.
Specifically, she has not filed nor has she served a 3301(d) affidavit. She did file a 3301(c) Affidavit of consent on Sept. 8, 1997, and may mistakenly believed that that is what she should have filed in this 3301(d) divorce.
Additionally, while she has filed an affidavit indicating that she served the defendant with Notice of Intention to Request Entry of a Divorce Decree and, in fact, the defendant has filed a counter affidavit indicating he does not oppose the entry of a divorce decree and does not wish to make claims for economic relief, she has not attached a copy of the notice that was sent to him so that we may be sure that since he was unrepresented, he received the correct notice that he should have received pursuant to Rule 1920.73.
Either party may file a praecipe to refer this matter back to the Court when the record is in such a state that the parties are entitled to a final decree..

Mar. 17, 1998 Petition for Contempt and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 16 day of Mar. 1998 a Rule is entered upon the dft. to appear and show cause, why she should not be adjudged to be in contempt, and to consider whatever other matters may come before the court concerning the present cust./visitation arrangements as between the parties.
RULE RETURNABLE on 8th day of April, 1998 in C. R. No. 3 at 1:15 p.m.
For the court, Ann Walker - Ct. Adm.
3/17/98 faxed to Gregg

April 17, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, April 8, 1998 this matter is before the Court on a petition for contempt filed by the father contending that visitation rights accorded him under a custody order dated Oct. 10, 1997 in Paragraph 3 were violated by the mother. The mother's defense is that the father periodically fails to keep the Friday appointments for picking up the child and by the mutual agreement, they had changed the visitation starting date from Friday at 4 PM until sometime Saturday. Seemingly, the father denies this allegation.
After hearing, we find that the mother in her desire to change the terms and conditions of the Order of October 10, 1997 has at times witheld visitations to the fahter.
The father states emphatically that he intends regardless of past agreements or practices to comply with Paragraph 3 of the order and pick minor child, Karlie, up every other Friday commencing at 4:00 and returning the child Sunday at 8:00. On any Friday scheduled for the visit when the fahter or someone on his behalf does not appear at the residence of the mother to pick up the child by 5:00 PM, the visit will be automatically canceled and the fahter may not pick the child up for his weekend at any other time on Friday or saturday.
The mother is cautioned the Court expects strict compliance with this Order and while the Court is inclined to hold her in contempt this day, we decline to do so but the mother is cautioned that if the Court finds in the future she willfully and deliberately violated or manipulated the situtation to deprive the father of the right to pick up the child at 4:00 Friday on every other weekend, she will be dealt harshly with by the Court.

FURTHER, the previous Order of this Court dated June 10, 1997 and the provisions for the transfer of Sherry Huber to Warren State Hospital effective June 17, 1997 are hereby stayed until further Order of Court.

BY THE COURT:
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

July 3, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 1, 1997, this matter has come before the Court on a petition for review of an involuntary commitment order, with said petition being filed by the individual who is the subject of the involuntary commitment order.

Specifically, as required by the Mental Health Procedures Act, at §3204C, a hearing was held on June 10, 1997, in front of a Mental Health Review Officer, with the petitioner represented by counsel, although not her current counsel.

As a result of that hearing, the hearing officer in his findings of fact determined that there was clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner was severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment, and specifically the recommendation was made to the Court that the petitioner be committed to Warren State Hospital for a period not to exceed 90 days.

President Judge Gordon R. Miller on June 10, 1997, signed an order to that effect based on the recommendations of the Mental Health Review Officer.

That finding is based specifically on the testimony of the treating psychiatrist.

We further find that all procedures and due process prescribed by the Act have been followed.

Having found all of the above, the petitioner's petition is denied, and the stay of the commitment issued by the Court on June 17, 1997, is rescinded forthwith.

The petitioner may therefore be committed to Warren State Hospital for a period not to exceed 90 days, as soon as is possible.

The Defendant was operating a pickup truck that was larger than the pickup truck being operated by the Plaintiff. The Defendant was following the Plaintiff. June 16, 1997 SHERIFF'S RETURN: SERVED Richard R. Petruso on June 12, 1997 at 11:10 AM by handing him a copy of the Protection from Abuse in the Sheriff's Office, third Floor, Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Crawford County, PA.

So answers, Barbara J. Reagle, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

June 30, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 19, 1997, this abuse act is before the Court. Both parties appear without counsel. The Court interviews each party and receives input. Apparently, the problem arises because a 16 year old daughter of the Plaintiff has now gone to Texas and the father of said child who is still the husband of the Plaintiff has made some type of threat to take the life of Richard Petruso, the Defendant.

Apparently, there has been stress between the parties. The Plaintiff contends that sometime in March of 1997 he made some threats against her family but the parties continued to see each other. The Plaintiff further alleges in her petition that the Defendant struck her in October of 1996 and pushed her daughter up against the wall.

It further appears that the State Police have filed charges of threatened homicide or aggravated assault against the Plaintiff's husband who has now returned to the State of Texas. Under all the circumstances, this Court does not believe the Abuse Act was intended to cover the situation presently presented before the Court. Accordingly, we dismiss the petition and direct the county to pay the costs.

October 6, 1999 Pre Trial Order filed. And Now, October 4, 1999 afer a pre-trial conference with all counsel present the court enteres the following order:

1. All discovery is completed, the parties are ready for trial and the exact date of trial is not yet known. The parties shall appear at the second Call of teh Trial List at 9 am on Monday, October 11, 1999 in Courtroom 2. It is anticipated tha this case will take two days to try.

2. Description of teh case. This is an automobile accident case. On June 25, 1995 the defendant Kegley was operating a motor vehicle in an easterly directin on Routes 6 & 322 west of Meadville. He atempt4ed to make a left hand turn across two lanes of traffic into the Wal-Mart parking lot. Unfortunately a vehicle operated by Exley was traveling west in the opposite direction. Kegley maintains that Exley had her right turn signal on indicating tha she was turning into the Wal-Mart lot. Exley denies that. Kegley did turn in front of Exley causing a collision and causing the vehicles to be pushed into a stopped vehicle occupied by the plaintiff. Plaintiff maintains that she suffered personal injuries, economic and non-economic losses as a result of this accident.

The plaintiff claims she suffered the following injuries:

a. cervical strain/sprain;
b. thoracic strain/sprain;
c. lumbo-sacral strain/sprain;
d. pain in shoulder/arm region;
e. cervical paraspinal musle spasm;
f. bilateral carpel tunnel syndrome;
g. triggering of fingers in both hands; and
h. tendonitis in the elbow.

3. Factual issues.

There is a dispute as to whether or not Exley had her righ turn signal on at the time Kegley was making a left turn in front of Exley. What damages did the plaintiff suffer as a result of this occurence?

4. Legal issues. The legal issues include:

a. Whether or not Kegley was causally negligent.
b. Whetehr or not Exley was causally negligent.
c. a determination of the causal negligence of Kegley and Exley, if any.

a. Medical bills in excess of $41,000.00
b. Pain and suffering, past, present and future.
c. Disfigurement.
d. Loss of the enjoyment of lie's pleasures.

7. The plaintiff's case in chief:

a. Witnesses. The plaintiff intends to call the witnesses listed on her pre-trial narrative except that she will call only on Bradley and one Byler. She intends to subpoena Dr. W. Scot nettrour.
b. Bills. The plaintiff intends to introduce a list of medical bills. The defendant Kegley has not stipulated to the admission of teh bills, except Dr. Shall's bill. Kegley claims the pliantiff did not suffer any injuries in this accident and that the bills must be properly introduced and proven.
c. Exhibits The plaintiff intends to introduce the exhibits listed on her pre-trial narrative.

8. The defendant Kegley's case in chief: A. Witnesses. Kegley intends to call the witnesses listed on his pretrial narragive.
b. Exhibits. None.

9. Stipulations. The parties have not entered into any stipulations except that the Shall bill can be introudced into evidence without furhter proof. Counsel are encouraged to arrive at as many stipulations possible, especially with respect to the medical bills.

10. Medical bills. Plaintiff's counsel has delivered a list of the medical bills which he intends to introduce and prove at trial. Even though the medical bills were not pled the Court will permit the medical bills to be introduced into evidence after the plaintiff files a motion for leave to amend her complaint provided, howerver plaintiff files a motion for leave to amend her complaint provided, however Egley cannot show that he is prejudiced by his amendment on the eve of trial.

11. All counsel shall prepare and exchange written voir dire quetions no later than 4:30 pm on Friday October 8, 1999 all objections to proposed voir dire questions shall be brought to the attention of teh Court prior to trial. After the Court has asked questions of teh jury panel counsel shall be permitted to read or paraphrase their own vior dire quesitons. The court will permit counsel to supplement their voir dire questions if said questions are reasonably necessary to make further inquiry on matters raised by voir dire of the Court and other counsel.

PURSUANT TO PA. R.C.P.240

June 23, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, June 20, 1997, the plaintiff appears with counsel in Motion Court with a Petition for Custody and Emergency Ex Parte Relief.

We will direct that a Custody Mediator be appointed and mediation be scheduled but we will decline to sign an Emergency Ex parte Order of Court at this time.

The reason is that we do not perceive this to be an emergency that is endangering the child in question, Amanda Krenisky, and the defendant has not been provided with notice under the local rules that this petition would be presented in Motion Court and therefore cannot be heard.

This Order is without prejudice to the plaintiff to present a similar petition with proper notice to the defendant.

July 29, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, July 28, 1997, at the time scheduled fro hearingon thea bove above actiαn, the defendant wife appears with interpreter(signer) and iwth an attorney, but plaintiff Guy H. Fultz fails to appear. The record in this case and the dockets in the Prothonotary's Office seemingly indicate that plaintiff Guy H. Fultz got no no notice of this hearing date when the case was continued from June 30, 1997.

Counsel for wife advises the Court tha tthis will be a contested custody matter and that the abuse petition apparently arises form disagreements between the parents over the cusotdy issue.

Counsel for the wife defendant advises the Court that she intends to file immediately following the entry of this Order a Peittion for contempt in the custody action.

ACCORDINGLY, this Court sets a hearing for August 25, 1997 at 1:30 on the wife's Petition forContempt in the custody action at 1996-858 an dwill also at the same time hear the husband's abuse action at 1997-625.

Counsel for the wife advises the Court it will take at least a half day to hear the issues in these two cases.

Since wife is deaf, it is necessary for an interpreter (signer) to be procured and interpreter (signer) Bonnie VanNOrt appears this date and is directed following this hearing to the Court Administrator's Office with instructions that the Judge advised an interpreter (signer) will be needed for the hearing on August 25, 1997.

Nov. 26, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, November 24, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Civil Contempt filed by the Plaintiff.

Both parties appear and the Plaintiff appears with counsel and the Defendant indicates his atotrney is not available insofar as he is changing attorneys.

There is an order setting this hearnig a copy of which has been provided to the Court by counsel for the Plaintiff which indicates that it was set at this date and time on November 14, 1997, by Judge Miller. There is no record of the Petition nor of this Order with the file and the Prothonotary's Office indicates they have never received the Contempt papers.

First of all, we note that the plantiff only served the Defendant with notice of this hearing but not a copy of the Contempt Petition so that he would know what heneeded to defend.

Based on all of this, this matter is continued until December 2, 1997 at 9:15 a.m. inCourtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

Counsel for the Plaintiff shall promptly provide the Defendant with a complete copy of the Petition for Contempt filed by the Plaintiff by regular mail no later than this date. He shall also file a copy of the Petition and the notice in order to appear scheduling this matter for this date witht he Prothonotary which shall take the place of an original until the original is found.

The Defendant shall be sent the required papers by regular mail at 15½ West Main Street, Greenville,, Pa.

And Now, November 23, 1998 teh plaintiff's Motion to Appoint a Master is denied because the defendant has not filed an affidavit of consent in order to proceed on a 3301(c) divorce; there has been no affidavit and opportunity to file a counteraffidavit for a 3301(d) divorce and there is no allegation in the ocmplaint upon which a fault divorce could be entered. Since the Court cannot enter a divorce under these circumstances there is no need to appoint a Master.
If the defendant does file an affidavit of consent we suggest that the defendant also comply with Pa.R.C.P. 1920.33(a) and file an appropriate inventory as the Rules require him to do.

November 5, 1997 ORDER: And now, October 29,1997, the matter is before the Court on a Contempt Citation alleging that the defendant came to the residence of the plaintiff without her consent, all in violation of Paragraph 2 of the Abuse Order of July 28, 1997. After informal input between counsel and the parties and the Court, it appears that the defendant was incarcerated on an unrelated charge in the Crawford County Jail and on or about October 13, 1997, succeeded in procuring his release. The plaintiff mother of the child had moved his clothing and possessions to her house at 298 Walker Drive, Meadville, PA and seemingly agreed that the defendant could reside with her until finding another place to live, all of which would be in violation of Paragraph 2 of the aforesaid Order.

Apparently, on or about October 18th or 19th the plaintiff complained to the police because the defendant was still residing at her residence and the police arrived, picked up the defendant for violation of the original Abuse Order and confined him in the Crawford County Jail, where he still remains.

The matter is discussed informally between counsel, Court and all the parties and the plaintiff now again says she does not wish the defendant to visit her or come to her residence at 298 Walker Drive for any purpose.

ACCORDINGLY, We find the defendant in contempt of court for taking up residence with the plaintiff, even in spite of the fact that he alleges she invited him to do so.

The defendant will be released forthwith from confinement.

The plaintiff agrees she will deliver the defendant's clothing, household utensils and other personal items to the mother of the defendant, Mrs Frances Cooper, at 1120 Market St, on Saturday, November 1, 1997, between the hours of 1p.m. and 3p.m.

Having found the defendant in contempt, we warn the defendant that further violations of the Abuse Order of July 28, 1997 will likely involve more incarceration as punishment for violation of said Order. The Court advises the plaintiff if she wishes to reconcile with the defendant or have him spend any time at her home, she should immediately petition the Court to modify Paragraph 2 and other related Paragraphs of her change of intention regarding permitting the defendant to come for visits or to stay at her residence for the purpose of visiting the child or any other purpose.

Costs in this case in the amount of $118.50 remain unpaid and the defendant is directed to see that the same are paid in full to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County on or before January 1, 1998.

The parties mutually agree that Paragraph 3 of the Order will be the Paragraph each rely on for visitations between father and child.

By THE COURT
P. Richard Thomas, Senior Judge

November 5, 1997 Distributed Attys. Maurer, Truax

December 16, 1997 ORDER FILED. We entered an Order in this abuse action July 28, 1997 apparently by agreement of the parties. We entered an Order preventing the defendant from abusing, threatening, assaulting, stalking or in any way contacting the plaintiff and granting the plaintiff exclusive possession of the residence at 296 Walker Dr. Again on October 29, 1997 we held a contempt hearing because apparently upon release from confinement in the Crawford County Jail, the defendant had taken up residence with the plaintiff at 296 Walker Drive and she wished him held in contempt for violation of the original order. We held the defendant in contempt and released him from confinement on certain contditions.

There is now delivered to the Court a pro se motion signed by both parties and delivered to the Court Administrator's Office by the defendant. The thrust of this motion to amend the Protection From Abuse Order is that the parties are requesting that paragraphs 1 and 2 of the July 28, 1997 Order be deleted from the abuse order. We take it from this request that the plaintiff no longer desired exclusive possession of her residence at 296 Walker Drive and wishes that the defendant be permitted to go there. However, the parties apparently want the visits subject to a condition that the defendant shall not harass, threaten, annoy or abuse the plaintiff in any manner.

The apparent thrust of the motion to amend appears to be that the mother of the child now wishes him to come to her residence in Walker Village. While we are somewhat reluctant to amend court orders entered after full hearing because one or both parties have had a change of heart we would normally do so if said requests is signed by both parties, which it is in this case.

However, we note that there are total costs in teh amount of $123.50 outstanding in this case and also note that in our most recent Order of October 29, 1997 we gave the defendant until January 1, 1998, to pay costs in full. The Prothonotary advises that no costs have been paid in this case.

ACCORDINGLY, WE WILL RETURN THIS MOTION TO THE PLAINTIFF at 296 Walker Dr, Meadville, PA while noting we will not sign the same until unpaid costs in this case are paid in full. When costs, are paid, she may reifle the motion to amend and the Court will grant the same without setting further hearing.

Aug. 22, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 21, 1997, it is ordered as follows:

1. This action is dismissed as we have concluded after a full formal hearing that the plaintiff has not proven by the preponderance of the evidence that the defendant engaged in abuse as defined by 23 Pa. C.S.A. 6102. There was no showing that the defendant attempted to cause or intentionally, knowingly or recklessly caused bodily injury or serious bodily injury to the plaintiff. She was never hurt, in a physical sense, by any of the defendant's actions. She was never placed in reasonable fear of imminent serious bodily injury. The defendant did not knowingly engage in a course of conduct which would place the plaintiff reasonable fear of bodily injury. The only question is whether or not the defendant inflicted false imprisonment upon the plaintiff. She did not carry her burden of proof. We think that that requires some period of time and space and the amount of time that the defendant kept the plaintiff in the bedroom or held her on the bed was never developed.

2. The temporary protection from abuse order of July 28, 1997 is hereby vacated.

3. A true and correct copy of this order shall be delivered to the Meadville City Police Department and the County Control.

4. The plaintiff shall pay $60.00 toward the record court costs within thirty (30) days from this date. The balance of the court costs shall be absorbed by Crawford County.

BY THE COURT
Gordon R. Miller, P.J.

Aug. 22, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 19,1 997, after a full formal hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Contempt, the Court finds as a fact that the Defendant did violate the temporary Orders of July 28, 1997 by having contact with the Plaintiff at Palmer's Geneva Spirits on August 1, 1997. In view of the fact that this violation is minimal, we will not incarcerate the Defendant. The Defendant is ORDERED and DIRECTED to pay a fine of $150.00 within thirty-five (35) days from this date.

PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF PARTIAL SETTLEMENT OF WRONGFUL DEATH AND SURVIVAL ACTION AND PARTIAL SETTLEMENT OF CLAIM OF MINORS

Aug. 1, 1997 AND NOW, July 28, 1997, a decision on the Petition for Approval of Partial Settlement is deferred until after a hearing is held. This Court will require more information regarding the services the attorneys performed, for which they propose to recieve a feee of $32,047. This Court normally does not approve fees appoaching 33 1/3 percent of settlement proceeds of a minor's claim, especially where the minor was a passenger. We will require counsel to justify their fees in more detail.

Furthermore, we cannot understand why this Petition was presented to us when the settlement has apparently been approved by the Probate Court of Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

Accordingly, a hearing is hereby scheduled for the 15th day of August, 1997 at 3:45 o'clock p.m. in Courtroom No 1 of the Crawford County Courthose to receive evidence and hear arguments on the issues we have referred to above.

ORDER ATTACHED TO PETITION:
And Now, Aug. 28, 1998 this matter comes before the court for cross contempt petitions, the first one being filed by dft. in which she alleges that she lost a weekend of visitation because whe was not available to pick up the child at the orig. designated time and was, therefore, slightly late and did not receive custody.
The cross petition, filed by the plff. apparently as a result of the dft's petition, alleges that on three occasions, the first dating back to Jan. 1998 the dft. mother idd not return the child in a timely manner.
After listening informally to the parties, it seems to this court that these are issues that these parents should be able to work out with regard to the best interests of this child or perhaps neither one of them should be in custody of this child.
ACCORDINGLY, both petitions are dismissed.

Aug. 25, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 22, 1997, at the close of the plaintiff's case-in-chief in this PFA action, the Court has run out of court time this date, and accordingly, order as follows:

1. The hearing in this case is continued to Friday, September 12, 1997, at 1:30 o'clock p.m.

2. In the meantime, the Temporary Protection From Abuse Order of August 12, 1997 shall remain in full force and effect.

3. A copy of this Order shall be sent to the Pennsylvania State Police at Meadville ant to County Control.

4. Franklin County Children and Youth Services and Franklin County Mental Health and Mental Retardation are ORDERED AND DIRECTED to send a true and correct copy of its entire record involving Shannon Osman to the undersigned judge. If there are any costs for photocopying, that bill shall e sent along with the records. The court Administrator of Crawford County shall see to the payment of that bill and the Court may impose that bill on one of the parties in this case in the final disposition of this case. These records shall be received in Crawford County by Friday, September 12, 1997. There may well be an evidentiary issue as to some or all of these records being used in this case. However, this Court believes that in addition to a potential PFA case, we are dealing with a serious custody case with a child who has changed her mind on two occasions. If she has been under the supervision of Franklin County Children and Youth Services, we want to know what has taken place there. The Court Administrator of Crawford County shall send a true and correct copy of this record to Franklin County Children and Youth SErvices at 425 Franklin Farm Lane, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, 17201.

5. Execution of the Bench Warrant issued in the Domestic Relations case of Osman vs. Osman at D.R. 1993 - 755 shall be suspended until Friday, September 12, 1997, in order to permit the child to remain with her mother.

6. The Court fully intends to incarcerate the mother because she has been sentenced to a period of incarceration. That issue is not open for discussion. However, we will keep that in abeyance until this PFA has been resolved.

Aug. 27, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 18, 1997, this matter comes before the Court in Motion Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed on behalf of the Petitioners. The Petitioners have had physical custody of the two minor children essentially since June of 1996 with their mother, defendant Zuber, having visitation and periods of temporary physical custody with both girls and the respondent Hamerick recently had visitation with both girls after a period of incarceration for him.

This custody action has not proceeded to mediation, although a Mediator has been requested and a deposit has been made.

Under all of these facts, we believe it appropriate to maintain the status quo, and accordingly, it is ordered and directed pending mediation in this matter, the Petitioners Mary B. Waterhouse and Donald F. Waterhouse, her husband, shall remain in primary physical custody of both minor children.

The Respondents Tammy L. Zuber and Randy C. Hamerick shall have visitation and temporary periods of physical custody pending mediation to be arranged between the parties.

This Order is not intended to give any guidance whatsoever to the Mediator nor to the Court ultimately in rendering a decision with regard to custody insofar as we have only had a brief opportunity in Motion Court to review this matter with regard to the status quo.

Aug. 29, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 26, 1997, this abuse matter is before the Court on a Petition filed by a twelve-year old child, essentially, alleging an assault upon him by his mother. The mother denies the allegations, but it appears after interviews with mother, Attorney Butcher and the child, that there have been stressful situations between mother and child. Grandmother seems to feel the mother has a drinking problem, but she denies the same.

The Court asks Earl Brown, Chief Juvenile Probation Officer to sit in on this hearing, and it is disclosed to the Court that there is pending another juvenile petition against the young man, Timothy Keys, but it has not been scheduled for hearing. Accordingly, this Court DIRECTS that Timothy Keys take up residence with his grandmother, Marjorie Smith, 940 East Main Street, Titusville, Pennsylvania, for an indeterminate period of time and the Probation Department is DIRECTED to interview the child and others regarding his incident.

The mother consent to the transfer of temporary custody to the grandmother, but the Court believes there should be some contact between mother and child and DIRECTS that the mother be allowed to visit the child at the home of her mother's two times per week for not less than one hour each on the condition that the mother shall not have consumed alcoholic beverages for a period of at least twelve hours before the visits.

Aug. 29, 1997 Sheriffs return filed. Served Kelly R. Dickerson by deputizing the sheriff of Warren County, Pa. as per his affidavit attached. Served on Aug. 20, 1997 at R. D. #2, Titusville Warren county, Pa.
So answers, Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Before me, the undersigned authority personally appeared Ronald L. Hodge dep. sher. to Larry E. Kopko, sheriff of Warren County, pa. says that on Aug. 20, 1997 he served complaint upon Kelly R. Dickerson at her residence R. D. #2, Titusville, Pa., by leaving with her and making known contents thereof. Dep. Sher Ronald L. Hodge
So answers Larry E. Kopko, sher.

Sept. 1, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 28, 1997, this abuse action, which allegedly largely occurred in Warren County, is before the courts of Crawford County. It seems that in Warren County, an abuse action was filed by Kelly Dickerson against Russell Boyle, Sr. arising from an incident allegedly occurring on June 29, 1997. The August 1, 1997 Order in Warren County places the defendant under an Abuse Order for a period of one year and names certain conditions therein.

Apparently, Mr. Boyle, who was the defendant in the Warren County action, after the Order was entered in Warren County filed an abuse action against Miss Dickerson on or before August 18, 1997 in Crawford County, the main thrust of which keys around the alleged incident in Warren County that resulted in the aforesaid Abuse Order against Mr. Boyle.

The matter is informally discussed and input is received from counsel and informally from the parties and the matter appears to be amicable resolved without admission by any party as follows:

1. The defendant Kelly Dickerson agrees she will not assault or threaten, contact or go to the residence of Russell Boyle for any purpose and he will not procure other to do so to annoy or harass Russell Boyle at any time.

2. The plaintiff Russell B. Boyle agrees to pay the costs in this case in the amount of $140.40, to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County on or before 4:30 p.m. October 1, 1997.

P.Richard Thomas, S.J.

AND NOW, August 29, 1997, this abuse matter is before the Court allegedly resulting from some type of an abuse, supposedly perpetrated by the mother upon two of the minor children, Josh Eaton and Justin Eaton. The third child Sarah Eaton is in the custody of the father. State Police Officer Robert Chisholm, Girard Barracks, made an investigation and gave the Court the benefit of his input in this matter after picking up the children at a store two mile from their home. Apparently, Erie County Children and Youth Services was contacted because the children are in primary custody with the mother and they referred the matter to Crawford County Children and Youth Services.

In this abuse action, it is understandable that the investigating officer from Children and Youth Services was apparently not notified of the hearing on this date. This Court is unaware of the extent of the investigation that the Crawford County Children and Youth Services made. ACCORDINGLY, we referr this matter regarding the abuse of these two children Josh and Justin back to Crawford County Children and Youth Services and request they complete an investigation and prepare a report of their findings, with a copy of said report to be forwarded to counsel for each of the parties in this case. The Court requests the report be completed within two weeks, and upon receipt of the same, counsel for either party may petition the Crawford County Court to set a further hearing in this abuse case.

Sept 26, 1997 Appearance of Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esquire on behalf of Plaintiff, filed.

Oct. 14, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, October 8, 1997, this matter is before the Court on the sole issue of exclusive possession of a marital residence. The plaintiff husband is eighty-nine years of age and residing in the residence and the defendant wife is eighty-five years of age and currently residing at the Hillside Home. There are apparently adequate assets either individually or jointly owned to sustain both parties. The court notes unfortunately that of the three children, apparently one sides with mother in this bitter dispute and the other two side with father.

This court grants the prayer of the petition of the plaintiff that he be given exclusive possession of the marital residence. In this regard, it appears that daughter Jean, who lives across the road, boards two horses at a barn located on property of the marital residence. The father apparently is upset with daughter Jean and no longer wishes her to have the right to store the two horses in the barn.

Oct. 14, 1997 Petition Raising Economic claims by Defendant filed.

November 13, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, November 12, 1997, at the time the matter is before the Court on a petition for alimony and related matters, the matter is informally discussed between counsel and the Court. It appears that Olive Elizabeth Beedy is a resident of Hillside Home and Asa Hotchkiss Beedy remains in the marital home. The Court receives input regarding the respective aspects of the parties, Asa Beedy's finances and an updated account involving life insurance policies, Marquette account and assets of the parties which we this day file amongst the records in this case.

The parties acting through their counsel advise the Court the alimony pendente lite issue and counsel fee issue has been resolved as follows by agreement:

The parties agree to retain the services of appraiser John Pritchard as to their real property and appraiser Bruce Nichols as to their personal property and the payment for those appraisals will come from marital assets currently in the possession of the Plaintiff, namely moneys that were formerly in the New York Life Annuities which have been deposited in his checking or savings accounts. And the parties will not be bound, however, by the values found by those appraisers.

The Defendant will be entitled to take from the New York Life investment, which is in her sole name, the sum of $2400 to be treated as alimony pendente lite for a two-month period and that amount is to be taken without prejudice to her to request additional alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, costs and expenses.

2. Both parties will file requisite inventories under oath by 4:30 PM April 17, 1998.
3. Plaintiff's counsel will on or before April 15 file for the appointment of a Master in divorce with the Plaintiff paying the advance fee of $250 without prejudice to the Master in the divorce action to allocate the Master's fees equally between the parties

April 29, 1998 INVENTORY OF PLAINTIFF FILED.

August 5, 1998 PETITION TO RELEASE ASSETS FILED.

Aug 6, 1998 ORDER: AND NOW, Aug 5, 1998, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition to Release Assets which is filed on behalf of the defendant in this action. The plaintiff in this action, which was a divorce proceeding, died on July 7, 1998.

There are certain accounts which apparently are joint accounts created prior to the date of separation located at Marquette Savings and Loan Association in Waterford and that bank will not release those funds to the defendant without an Order of Court.

It appears that there should be some funds released which are joint funds, and accordingly, it is ORDERED AND DIRECTED that Marquette Savings and Loan Association unfreeze and thereby release to the defendant any certificates of deposit, savings accounts or any other accounts on deposit which were in joint names of Asa Hotchkiss Beedy and Olive Elizabeth McAfee Beedy prior to June of 1997.

No other accoutns may be unfrozen without further Order of Court.

For clarification, in the event there are any accoutns held by Marquette Savings and Loan Association at a location other than Waterford, this Order is intended to cover those accounts and it is intended to cover any accounts that were in existence prior to Juen of 1997 which were titled between the parties as either and/or with respect to both names.

Aug 26, 1997 SHERIFF'S RETURN: Served Randy Lee Cottrell personally on August 22, 1997 at 6:30 PM at the Crawford County Jail, Saegertown, Pa.

Sept 2, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 29, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on an Abuse Petition in which plaintiff alleges some type of assault or confrontation took place on August 20, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on an Abuse Petition in which plaintiff alleges some type of assault or confrontation took place on August 20, 1997, and she fears a repeat of the same confrontation involving the defendant, herself and her children.

The matter is informally discussed and the defendant denies that he committed most of all of the acts he is accused of in the Abuse Petition. It appears that the defendant is now incarcerated for alleged parole violation on an Erie County sentence.

The Defendant is adamant that he did not commit the acts alleged by the plaintiff in this case, but he is willing and consents that an Abuse Order be entered against him as he has no desire to continue the relationship with the plaintiff or take up residence in her household.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following Order:

1. The defendant is precluded from abusing, threatening, or assaulting the plaintiff in any fashion. The defendant is precluded from contacting the plaintiff in any manner and shall not go within 100 yards of her residence or attempt to threaten, annoy or assault the plaintiff or any of her children.
2. The plaintiff admits she has possession of the defendant's wallet and she will return the wallet and any of his clothing to the defendant at a District Justice hearing scheduled this date before District Justice Hanson on cross assault complaints scheduled before the District Justice.
3. This Order shall remain in force and effect for a period of one year.
4. The defendant shall pay costs in this case in the amount of $93.50 to the Prothonotary's Office of Crawford County within 45 days after his release from confinement.

Oct. 6, 1997 Memorial Resolution and Order filed. AND NOW, to-wit: this 3rd day of October 1997, upon presentation of the wtihin Report in open Court by John D. Petruso, Esquire, Chairman of the committee appointed by the Court, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that this Memorial Report be spread at length upon the Minutes of the Court and that this Report be delivered to the Prothonotary and a copy of the Report shall be delivered to each of Fred C. Kiebort, Jr.'s children.

By the Court,
Gordon R. Miller, Prsident Judge
Anthony J. Vardaro, Judge
P. Richard Thomas, Senior Judge

The committe appointed by your Honorable Court to prepare a memorial resolution in the above matter respectfully reports as follows:

Fred C. Kiebort, Jr. was born, November 27, 1912, a son of Fred C. and Adeline Kane Kiebort, Sr. He was one of four children. He graduated from meadville High School in 1930. He then graduated from Allegheny College in 1934. After college he worked fro the former Talon, Incorporated for a period of about two years before he attended Georgetown Law School in Washington, D.C. He received his law degree in June, 1939 and was admitted to practive before the several courts of Crawford County on July 3, 1939. He practived as a sole practitioner for a short time but eventually joined the practive of his father and E. Lowry Humes. he married Lucille Mackanic on August 19, 1940 and they had five children, Patricia, Peter, Mary Jean, Rosalie and Kathleen.

During World War II, Fritz saw duty as a Lieutenant with the Navy in the Pacific Theater serving in the Phillippines. Upon his return from military service he continued to be assocaited in the practive with his father and E. Lawry Humes. Years later he became associated with the firm of Shafer, Swick, Bailey, Irwin, Stack and Millin where he practived until his retirement.

He prided himself on his knowledge of the history of Crwaford County real estate and was well known for his detailed expertise regarding the intracacies of real estate titles surrounding Conneaut Lake. He served as one of three trustees of the Conneaut Lake Ice Company for many, many years. He loved to assit other and younger attorneys with issues of titles that involved the Ice Company or surrounding plans in the Conneaut Lake area. It seemed that he was always able not only to accurately relate thehistory of any given chain of title but could put names and faces with the ownership of many parcels in the county.

His wife preceded himin death on November 20, 1965. He subsequently married Evelyn McDonald on October 28, 1972 and moved to Titusville. He resided there until shortly after her death on February 22, 1995. Like many who are required to make the arduous journey from Titusville to Meadville, Fritz did not seem to mind it and prided himself on being at the office at 9:00 a.m. each morning.

He was a very devoted family man and father and enjoyed playing golf. He would often recount stories of when he served as a caddy at Oakland Beach Golf Course for famous golfers of his day such as Walter Hagen. He served many years on the Board of Spencer Hospital before it consolidated with City Hospital and became what is known now as the Meadville Medical Center.

e was also a deeply religious man and for him Mass was not a weekly event but a daily one. He served as president of the Crawford County Bar Association and retired from the active practice of law in August, 1996 after having practiced law for 56 years. He was honored upon the occasion of the anniversary of his 50th year in the practice of law with a celbration hosted by the members of the Crawford County Bar Association. He was a meticulous practitioner well known for his knowledge of real estate law, estate planning and estate administration work.

You committee has solicited input from the family to assist in the preparation of this presentation. Attached hereto are the remarks of the family marked as Exhibit "A". The family has given permission to read their thoughts into the record.

On behalf of the Bar Assocaition, the Memorial Committe wishes to extent its sincerest sympathy to his family.

Respectfully submitted
John D. Petruso, Chairman

We have come to remember out father as a remarkable human being-stubborn and ornery - but noteworthy none th eless. We think of our father as a man of his beliefs, a man of his work, a man of his family and his private life. Dad stood firm in his beliefs, unwavering in any storm of popular opinion that might try to change them.

He was a devout member of his Church, leaving the office daily at 11:15 to attend 11:30 Mass. On his daily tirp from Titusville, he stopped at St. Hippolyte's Church in Frenchtown and would also return to the Church on his way home to visit.

Dad stood strong behind his opinions but never told you that you had to believe in those thoughts, never thinking that he had the ultimate right answer. Evenin family discussions if a good argument was made from our contrasting views and we stood behind our throughts as he did his, he gave us his respect regardless of whether he gave us his approval.

Dad was an ever present father and grandfather, attending grade school, high school and college functions for his children and grandchildren. He gave all four of his daughters in marriage as a single parent and held up well or so we thought.

His ongoing advice and guidance will greatly be missed by the five of us and we only hope that we will be to our children what Dad was to us.

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT
3 copies Sheriff
1 copy Plaintiff

AND NOW, this day of , 1997, upon review of the petition of Plaintiff, the Court enters the following Temporary Order.

1. The Defendant shall not assault, abuse, harass, stalk or threaten the Plaintiff or any of the minor children named in the Petition.

2. Speical Conditions:

3. A copy of this Order shall be delivered to the police department in the jurisdiction where the Plaintiff resides, the Pennsylvania State Police Registry, and County Control.

4. Service of a copy of the Petition and this Order shall be made upon the Defendant by a sheriff, constable, police officer or competent adult.

5. This temporary order shall remain in full force and effect until modified or terminated by further order of this Court.

6. This Order may be enforced wihtout a warrant of arrest by any law enforcement officer having reasonable ground to believe it has been violated.

7. Defendant is advised that violations of this order will subject defendant to arrest or contempt of court orders.

8. The Defendant is reminded that this is an ORDER OF COURT, and violation of this Order may be punishable by a fine of $100 to $1,000 and a jail sentence of up to six months.

9. The court reserves ruling on allocation of fees and costs.

10. Defendant's social security number is and date of birth is .

11. If the plaintiff and defendant decide to live together contrary to this order this order is still in effect until further order of this Court.

12. ( ) The Court concludes that the defendant poses a threat of continued danger to the plaintiff, the plaintiff requests that information about her whereabouts not be disclosed and thus the Court directs law enforcement agencies, human service agencies and school districts that they shall not disclose the presence of the plaintiff or any children in the jurisdiction or district nor furnish any information about the plaintiff or children without further Court order. A copy of this order shall be mailed by the Prothonotary to . This paragraph is applicable only if the court placed a check mark in the parentheses above.

Hearing is hereby set for , at m., in Courtroom 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse.

The defendant is advised that the defendant may retain a lawyer to represent the defendat at said hearing if defendant desires to do so but the defendant is not required to do so.

BY THE COURT,

Aug. 29, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 29, 1997, this abuse matter comes before the Court on a Petition by wife plaintiff, requesting protection during an alleged planned visit by the defnedant husban dto the marital home which is scheduled to occur over the upcoming weekend. Both parties are represented by counsel in a divorce action filed in Crawford County.

Wife evidences a desire to permit husband to take certain possessions, but is fearful that through disagreements, an assault may occur, and contends in her abuse petition that a physical confrontation occurring in January or February between the arties may reoccur.

This Court is reluctant to intermix the divorce action with this abuse aciton regarding possession ofthe marital residence and the division of marital assets, inclduing household possessions.

ACCORDINGLY, if the defendant returns to this area and contacts the plaintiff regarding child visitation or attempts to reach an agreement regarding hosuehold items he may remove, that there shall not be any threats or assaults occurring between the parties. Accordingly, the defendant Victor B. Farrah is directed not to abuse or assault or threaten to abuse or assualt the plaintiff in any manner during any contact between the parties on the weekend of August 29 September 1, 1997 or at any time hereafter.

The Court believes that both parties should consult with counsel to see if an applicable resolution of the defendant's right to remove personal possessions or marital assets form the home can be amicably resolved.

Since obth parties are represented by counsel in the divorce action, and in view of the distance the defendant has to travel to attend further proceedings in this abuse action, the Court withholds setting a date for hearing on the Abuse Petition without prejudice to the right of counsel for either party in the divorce aciton to move the Court to set a specific date and time for a hearing on this proceeding in the future.

✓Oct. 29, 1997 Appearance of Shafer, Swick, Bailey, Irwin, Stack and Millin, by James R. Irwin, attys. for dft. filed.

✓ October 24, 1997 ORDER: AND NOW, October 15, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Contempt and For Clarification of our Order entered on August 14, 1997, which was done by agreement of the parties.

First of all with regard to the Clarification, Paragraph 3 of that Order indicates the Defendant may store certain items in a garage or on land in which the marital residence is situated.

Apparently, the Plaintiff believed that to be a garage separate from the marital home and the Defendant believed that to be the garage at the marital home. At this time, the Defendant agrees that he will not occupy the garage at the marital home nor shall he store anything in that garage with the exception of certain carpeting we will address later in this Order. Based on that at this time, we will clarify that, by the garage that he may store items in, we mean the garage at 800 West Church Street in Corry, Pennsylvania and he may not go to the garage at 1392 Corry Road, Spartansburg, Pennsylvania, the marital home, except as hereinafter set forth.

The Defendant despite our Order of August 14, 1997 has entered the marital home and has removed certain possessions which we believe were above and beyond that explained by the Order. He has indicated reasons why he has done so but we find that he is in contempt of that order of August 14, 1997.

In order to purge himself of contempt, he must comply with the additional terms and conditions of this Order.

Specifically, as of October 18, 1997 at 5:00 P.M., the Plaintiff will have exclusive possession of the marital home at 1392 Corry Road in Spartansburg, Pennsylvania and teh Defendant may not go to that residence or enter that residence for any purpose at any time and he shall not be on the property or grounds at any time except that he shall be permitted to drive in the driveway and stand outside the front door for the purpose of picking up the minor children for visitation on Friday, October 31, 1997 at 6:00 p.m. and on alternating Fridays at 6:00 p.m. thereafter Additionally, he is permitted to drive in the driveway and stand outside the front door to pick the children up for such other visits as may be authorized by Order of Court.

The Defendant may also enter the marital property being the acreage for the purpose of using certain equipment which will be stored on that property. Specifically, he may store the Dynahoe backhoe, the Rayco stump cutter, the Yanmar diesel tractor, and a 12 foot trailer with a wood plank deck on the marital property so long as it is stored in an area which is directly behind certain trees which are adjacent to a former foundation for a farm house. Those trees are located approximately 450 to 500 feet from the marital home and at no time shall the Defendant come closer to the marital home than that particular area where those items are stored.

The Defendant shall remove those items of equipment to that location no later than October 18, 1997 at 5:00 p.m. If he has not done so, he may not touch that equipment without further Order of Court.

Additionally, by October 18, 1997 at 5:00 p.m., the Defendant shall have removed two rolls of carpeting and any underlayment for that carpeting from the garage at the marital home. If he fails to do so, he may not obtain possession of that carpeting for any reason unless it is agreed to by the Plaintiff in writing or unless there is further Order of Court.

The Defendant indicates that he is no longer receiving mail ata the marital residence and therefore, he shall at no time shall he use or touch the mailbox located at the marital residence.

It is the Court's intention that if the Defendant violates the terms and conditions of this Order it may be enforced by the appropriate police agency.

There was certain personal property apparently removed by the Defendant contrary to our Order of August 14, 1997 and he shall not in any way destroy that property, sell it, dispose of it, or do anything inappropriate and ultimately it shall be up to the Master and perhaps the Court in the future to determine how that property shall be distributed notwithstanding the fact he has it in his possession. The Defendant shall however remove no further property from the marital residence from this date until the time period that he has access to the property on October 18, 1997 at 5:00 p.m. Nothwithstanding this Order, the Defendant may take the metal desk out of the basement of the marital residence so long as he does so by October 18, 1997 at 5:00 p.m.

✓December 19, 1997, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER FILED. On Oct. 9, 1997, after mediation, we entered an Order with regard to the custody of the parties' four minor children. On Nov. 21, 1997, the plaintiff filed a Petition For Contempt alleging that the defendant had violated that Order in numerous ways.

After a formal hearing in this matter, we find as a fact the defendant has violated the Order in several ways. First of all after this period of temporary physical custody was to end on 4:00 PM on Sunday, Nov. 16, 1997, he refused to return the two youngest children. He has also violated the Order by returning the two oldest children during the course of that weekend visitation when they were supposed to remain in his custody and then returning for them at a later time to attempt to resume that visit without any notice to the plaintiff.

Further, he endangered the children through his erratic driving on Nov. 14, 1997. Also, he has violated the Order by referring to the plaintiff-mother in front of the children in negative and obscene ways.

After hearing testimony in this case, we are very concerned about this father and his relationship with these children. It is obvious that he has a serious anger problem from the testimony of the plaintiff, the children and a baby-sitter who happened to just be in a public area when the defendant was essentially screaming at the children for a long period of time. It is equally obvious that he does not accept the fact that he has a serious anger problem which is of even more concern.

Based on all of this, we find that the defendant is in contempt of the Court's Order of Oct. 9, 1997, and he is so adjudicated. Until he purges himself of contempt, he will be limited to visitation with the children as follows:

1. Provided Angela Mitchell or her husband are agreeable, the children shall be taken by the plaintiff to the home of Angela Mitchell in Spring Creek, Warren Co, at 3:00 P.M., on Dec. 24, 1997 and shall be picked up by her at that same location at 8:30 PM on that same date. The defendant may visit with the children provided they remain in the company of either Angela Mitchell or her husband at all times and provided that they are not removed from the Comm. of PA

2. If Angela Mitchell or her husband are agreeable, a similar arrangement under the same conditions will be required for any visitation with the natural father until he purges himself of contempt with that visitation to take place every other Saturday beginning Jan. 3, 1998, with the children to be delivered by the plaintiff to the Mitchell residence at 11:00 AM and to be picked up at 5:00 PM on each of those every other Saturday visits.

The defendant may purge himself of contempt by doing the following:

1. He Shall complete successfully The Anger Management Course conducted by the Center For Family Services, Inc.

2, At the defendant-father's expense, both he and all 4 children will be evaluated by Dr. Kathryn Anderson so that she may generate a report for this court as to what futhre temporary physical custody or visitation will be appropriate with the defendant and with regard to whether any treatment is necessary for the defendant and/or one or more children for such visitations to occur appropriately.

It shall be the defendant's responsibility to arrange those appointments and to arrange payment for those evaluations and any further treatment, together with payment for Dr. Anderson to generate a report. When those arrangements are made, a copy of this Order shall be provided to Dr. Anaderson and when she generated a report she shall provide a copy of the same to counsel for both parties and to the court.

Once the defendant believes he has done everything to purge himself of contempt, he may request further hearing in front of this court and the Court Administrator is instructed to schedule that as promptly as possible.

✓Feb 10, 1998 Iventory of Plaintiff, filed.

✓Feb. 12, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, FEB. 6, 1998, this matter is before the Court on three (3) different issues. First of all, there is a request for DeNovo Child Support Hearing filed by the Defendant with regard to an Order entered by the Court on Sept. 17, 1997, as a result of a hearing in front of the Hearing Officer on Sept. 8, 1997. Secondly, the Plaintiff has filed a contempt petition at this Domestic Relations' case with regard to alleged unpaid child support. Finally, the Plaintiff has filed a petition for special relief in the divorce action.

The parties have agreed to resolve all of these outstanding issues and accordingly the Court will enter this order based on the agreement of the parties. First of all, as part of the arrangement, the Plaintiff's petition for contempt is withdrawn and the County shall pay costs with regard to that petition.

The parties agreeing, accordingly, it is ordered and directed that the Defendant shall, this day, sign an affidavit of consent at the divorce number in term and both parties agree to expedite the the divorce proceedings.

The parties agree that they will deed a rental property in Corry to Corry Saving Bank and for the purpose of equitable distribution, they agree that that property will not be considered as having any value to one or the other of them.

The parties agree that the remaining marital property will be divided with each party receiving fifty (50) percent, in a manner to be determined by them as to who gets what property to satisfy that fifty (50) percent arrangement. If they are unable to do that in a reasonable period of time, the issue will be referred to the Master for a determination, but he will only be deciding value and distribution since the parties have agreedd that each will have a fifty (50) percent share. Again, with respect to the apartments, there will be no equitable value placed on those apartments for the purpose of equitable distribution.

Each party will waive spousal alimony, alimony pendente lite, counsel fees (except for any future enforcement), expert fees, costs, and evpenses with regard to the divorce and support action.

The support amount determined by the Conference Officer as a result of a Sept. 8, 1997 hearing, shall be the support amount due through this action until there is a modification in the future . However, the Domestic Relations Section will credit toward arrears the amount of support the Defendant would have owed for a period of thirty (3) days commencing this date, or for a lesser period if he obtains employment within that thirty (30) day period.

If the Defendant does not obtain employment within thirty (30) days from this date, the support obligation will continue based on his imputed income of $1500.00 per month until further Order of Court. If the Defendant does obtain employment, he shall immediately notify the Domestic Relations Section and shall file a petition to modify whether that new income from employment is less than or more than the $1500.00 per month which is now imputed. Only if his new income is exactly $1500.00 per month will he be required not to take action to file a petition to modify, but he still shall be required to notify the Domestic Relations Section of that employment and when it begins.

With regard to the rental property,the parties agree that no party will make any claim for any credit, for any payments paid, for the upkeep, or other expenses of the property, nor shall any party make a claim for any rental income of the property . It being their intention, that when this equitable distribution takes place, it will essentially be as if the parties never owned this property as equitable distribution property.

The defendant shall pay Court Costs to the Domestic Relations Section in the amount of $35.00 within thirty (30) days from the date of this Order.

✓Jan. 28, 1999 ORDER filed. AND NOW, January 25, 1999, this matter comes before the Court on Exceptions to the Master's Report filed first by the Defendant through counsel and then by the Plaintiff through counsel.

The Defendant is currently incarcerated and his attorney withdrew representation on Dec. 21, 1998.

The original exceptions filed by the Defendant were filed on Oct. 19, 1998 and those filed by the Plaintiff were filed on Oct. 26, 1998.

Counsel for the Defendant originally filed a praecipe to list this matter for argument in Oct. of 1998, but it was not listed because, apparently, he had not filed a brief.

Ultimately, this matter was listed for argument by a filing of Dec. 22, 1998 by Plaintiff's counsel.

The Defendant argues that he does not have available to him the necessary papers to represent himself and wishes to obtain counsel, but has not done so, and indicates he is unable to do so from jail.

Our experiences in the past, he has been successful in obtaining what he needed while in jail through the efforts of his brother, but at this time, he simply indicates he has not been able to even reach his former attorney.

Based on discussions this day, it is ordered and directed that this matter will be decided by the Court based on briefs filed by the parties and the transcript, which is now available.

The Defendant will have until Feb. 28, 1999 to either file a pro se brief or to have counsel file a brief.

The Defendant's former counsel, James R. Irwin, Esq., is ordered and directed to provide to the Defendant the necessary items from his file that are in Mr. Irwin's possession to allow the Defendant to intelligently prepare a brief, with regard to the issues he has raised, within seven (7) days of this Order.

May 5, 1998 NOTICE APPOINTMENT OF VIEWERS AND NOTICE OF VIEW AND HEARING FILED.

June 8, 1998 Petition for Recusal filed.

June 8, 1998 Rule filed. AND NOW, this 8 day of June, 1998, a Rule is entered upon the Titusville Area School District, Condemnor, to show cause why the Petition of the Condemnee for recusal of Ted H. Cox from the Board of View and for the appointment of a replacement viewer should not be granted.

This Rule is returnable before Senior Judge P. Richard Thomas, for evidentiary hearing the 12th day of June, 1998 at 11:15 o'clock a.m. in Court Room 1 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania, and all other proceedings are hereby stayed meanwhile.

BY THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J

6/9/98 Faxed Altomare, Walker, Stevenson

June 18, 1998 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 12, 1998, this Court believes that Ted H. Cox could act as an impartial viewer. However, his former interests in the United Citizen movement and their opposition to school construction may incorrectly convey to the citizens of Titusville his lack of ability to act as an impartial and objective viewer in fulfilling his role in this condemnation case. While this Court believes he could act as an impartial viewer, we believe the interests of the Titusville community would best be served by a viewer who has had no remote association whatsoever with any group opposing construction of the new middle school. We will rescind the former Order appointing Ted H. Cox with the thanks of the Court for being willing to continue to serve. We believe he would be a fair and objective viewer in this case. However, public apprehension of his objectivity may still be present in the community in a matter of this importance. We believe justice will best be served by replacing him with thanks and appointing another viewer in his place.

The Court having reviewed the backgrounds of the three remaining eligible viewers, one of which to be appointed to replace Mr. Cox, receives no input, objections or preference from either counsel in this case.

ACCORDINGLY, this Court appoints Jack Curtin of 740 Seminole Drive, Meadville, PA. 16335, as Viewer in this case to replace Ted H. Cox.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, Senior Judge

Oct. 10, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, October 3, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed by the Defendant. Essentially, she is requesting relief with regard to a 1996 Buick Century automobile which was previously addressed in a Protection from Abuse Action filed by Mrs. Beck at No. 1997-526.

Hearing on this matter is set for October 10, 1997 at 3:45 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2 before the undersigned.

The Plaintiff in this action Mr. Beck has filed also this day a Petition for Visitation Pending Mediation. The parties apparently have not been following a July 1997 PFA Order at No. 1997-526 with regard to that issue and mediation has not yet beenscheduled as a result of the Plaintiff, father's request at 1997-491.

We decline to adjust the visitation schedule pending mediation but the parties are directed to fully and completely comply with the portion of the July 1997 Order in the PFA Action with regard to custody and visitation pending that mediation.

Oct 15, 1997 Order: AND NOW, Oct 10, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Special Relief filed by the defendant in this action. Essentially, she is asking that the defendant comply with aportion of a Protection From Abuse Ordr which was entered into by consent at another number and term in which the plaintiff agreed to provide certain insurance coverage on a Buick Century automobile that is in the defendant's possession but has not done so. Essentially, he argues that he did not do so because his license is suspended and he cannot obtain insurance.

Without taking away the rights of any party to file a contempt proceeding or to proceed further, the parties have agreed to the following resolution of the Petition for Special Relief and to the extent that we make that agreement more specific, it is this Court's intention to do so.

Specifically, the defendant shall this day deliver the title to the vehicle to T&R Notary on Stan Road in Meadville. The plaintiff will then go to T&R Notary to arrang eto sign whatever papers are necessary to place the title to the vehicle in both parties' names and to obtain a registration in both parties' names so that the defendant will then be able to drive the vehicle.

Npv. 24, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, this 21st day of Nov. 1997, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The mother shall have legal and physical custody of the subject minor children, Brandon L. Beck age 8 and Elizabeth C.L. Beck, age 5.

2) The parties shall share with each other any and all information which each may have regarding the health, education, and major events in the life of the subject minor children. Health care, school personnel, and other care providers are hereby authorized to release to either party any and all confidential information which they may have regarding the subject minor children.

3) Mother shall retain primary custody of the children, subject to the visitation privileges of the father as follows;

A) Father shall be entitled to take the children into his care and custody on Sunday afternoons from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. During this period of time the father shall not allow the children to be in the company of father's girlfriend, Cindi Schwab.

B) Pick up and delivery of the children shall take place at a mutually agreeable location. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon a location, then the pick up and delivery of the children shall occur at the McDonald's Restaurant located on U.S. 322 in Vernon Twp., across from the Meadville Mall.

4) Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Should a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

5) Each party shall teach said children to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her children.

6) Neither party shall use illegal drugs or be under the influence of alcohol at any time when said party has the care and custody of the subject minor children. 8) The parties are free to make additional or alternative arrangements respecting the custodial and visitation periods and are strongly encouraged to do so if that would be proper and convenient. Said arrangements shall be by mutual consent only, in the absence of which this order shall govern.

9) The father shall enroll in the Anger Management Course conducted by the Center for Family Services, Inc. 213 Center St., Meadville, PA 16335 (814) 337-8450. He shall complete the course by March 15, 1998. If he has not completed the course by March 15, 1998, his partial custody rights shall be suspended until such time as he has successfully completed the course. He shall send a copy of his certificate evindencing his successful completion of the course to the mother within ten (10) days of receipt of same.

Aug. 28, 1997 Order filed. AND NOW, August 20, 1997, this matter comes before the Court on the plaintiff's petition for contempt with regard to a protection from abuse order. The defendant in an informal hearing admits that he took the 1980 Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme which was jointly titled from the C&J Industries parking lot where the plaintiff had parked it while working and essentially made the vehicle inoperable by removing the ignition and removing the tires and apparently doing some other things to the car.

He indicates that he has pursuant to our previous order made the car available to the plaintiff, but she disputes that. And in any event the defendant has not yet complied with the order entered by this Court on August 12, 1997 because he admits that the car needs to have a new key ignition because he removed or destroyed the old one.

Under these circumstances, he is adjudicated in contempt of court.

For his contempt he shall pay a fine of $100 and undergo imprisonment in the Crawford County Correctional Facility for a minimum term of one month and a maximum term of six months. Said sentence of incarceration and said fine are suspended provided the defendant purge himself of contempt.

He may purge himself of contempt by complying with the Court's Order entered this day requiring that he produce the 1980 Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme to the plaintiff by 11:00 a.m. on August 30, 1997 in fully operable condition.

If he does not do so, the plaintiff may request that the Court issue a bench warrant for his apprehension and detention in the Crawford County Correctional Facility.

Dec. 10, 1997 SHERIFF's RETURN FILED. Served Lisa Ford, by handing the notice to her Grandmother, Luella Pope, signed accept. of service attached, this was served on Dec. 3, 1997 at 3:00 PM 432 Fairmont Ave. Meadville, PA so answers,

Chris D. Gillingham, Deputy
Robert M. Stevens, Sheriff

Dec. 23, 1997 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, Dec. 15, 1997, we find as a fact that the mother is in contempt for the second time in this case. She has engaged in illegal drug use and tested positive every time she has been tested by the Adult Probation Department. She has failed to enroll in the drug and alcohol treatment outpatient treatment program and she has failed to deliver the children to SCI Mercer as ordered.

The most serious aspect of this case is the mother's continued drug use which has gone on for several years. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

1. The children, Marcello and Juan, are immediately removed from the mother's home. The sheriff of Crawford County, CYS and Mr. & Mrs John Moore shall make certain that this takes place immediately.

2, The children are placed in the custody of the paternal grandparents, John O. Moore, Sr. and Elena Moore until further order of court.

3. The mother shall have a right to visit her children in the Moore home but not remove the children from the Moore home for at least six hours per week on dates and times to be agreed upon between Mr. & Mrs. John O Moore, Sr. and the mother. The mother shall give the Moores at least 24 hours notice of intended visitaiton so the Moores can be ready. If the Moores cannot be ready, the parties shall attempt to work out mutually acceptable times for the mother to visit the children. We will not let the mother remove the children form the home because we are fearful that she will take them and abscond. We think these are high-risk children in view of the mother's continued long-term durg use.

Neither John O. Moore, Sr. or Elena Moore shall be under the influence of any alcohol, intoxicating liquors, beer or wine or non prescribed drugs or medication while the children are in their custody.

4. The mother may purge herself from contempt by performing the following acts:

A. Enrolling in an inpatient and/or outpatient durg and alcohol treatment program and successfully completing the same.

B. Remaining drug-free for at least six months.

C. Testing negative for six months.

5. We are not going to order the Adult Probation Department to test the mother. It will be up to the mother to have herself tested. If she wants to be tested by the Adult Probation Dept., she shall arrange to have the test performed at the Adult Probation Dept., she shall arrange to have the test perforemd at the Adult Probation Dept. We will not involve the Adult Probation Dept. unless the mother seriously intends to live a drug-free life and then will be tested by the county through the Adult Probation Dept.

When the children are delivered over to Mr. & Mrs. John O. Moore, Sr., the mother shall give adequate clothing and toys, et cetera.

In order for the mother to receive the children back, she must file a petition asking for a court hearing to prove that she has satisfied teh conditions of purge.
