TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDER:

AND NOW, this 5th day of Jan. 1987, upon motion of Brian Lindsay, Esq. atty. for Petitioner, and upon consideration of the within petition for releif and further, upon Petitioner's showing during an ex parte proceeding to the court's satisfaction that there is an immediate and present danger of abuse to the Petitioner and/or minor child, the following Temporary Protection Order is hereby entered:

1. The respondent, Carl J. Tyler, is directed and prohibited from:

a. attempting to cause or intentionally or knowingly, or recklessly causing bodily injury or serious bodily injury with or without a deadly weapon to the Petitioner and/or the minor child,

b. contacting the Petitioner or minor child until further Order of Court,

c. approaching Petitioner or Petitioner's residence until further order of court.

2. Petitioner is permitted to proceed without the payment of costs, costs to be determined by the court after hearing.

A true and correct copy of this Order shall be made on the respondent by a sheriff or by a competent adult in the same manner as a complaint in an action of equity. A true and correct copy of the order shall likewise be given to the Pa. State Police Dept. which has appropriate jurisdiction to enforce this order and the police department of the Borough of Conneautville.

The respondent is hereby advised of the right to be represented by counsel.

A violation of this order may subject the violating party to punishment for contempt.

Jan. 5, 1986, Praecipe to Proceed In Forma Pauperis, Petition for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis and Order of court filed. ORDER OF COURT: AND NOW, this 5 day of Jan. 1987, Sheila L. Tyler, Petitioner in the above cited action, is granted leave to proceed In Forma Pauperis reserving the right to impose costs if appropriate.

BY THE COURT:

Robert L. Walker, J.

4 copies (atty)

Jan 16, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, January 9, 1987, the matter is before the court on Plaintiff's Abuse Petition and after informal discussion, Court finds as a fact that the allegations of the abuse contained in the Petition are true or at least not denied by the defendant.

It further appears that the Defendant has self-admitted himself to the Mental Health Division of Hamot Hospital in Eri, Pennsylvania, but his length of stay therein is not known by the Defendant.

Accordingly, the Defendant is hereby DIRECTED not to harass, assault, threaten or annoy his wife in any fashion or procure others to do so on his behalf.

Defendant may not go to his wife's place of residence, except noted hereafter, unless she specifically invites him to come to her residence.

The Court notes that there is a companion divorce action at 1986-1003, and a temporary custody order was entered in that case awarding custody of the minor child, Branden, to the wife. The Court reviews the Defendant his right to ask for a mediation conference regarding custody or visitation, but rather than resort to this manner of resolving it, the Court suggests the parties work out some amicable arrangement whereby the father may have visitation rights with his child.

In this regard, if the parties reach an agreement that requires the father to pick up and return the child to the home of the mother, this will act as an exception to the above condition that he not go to her home for any purpose.

It appears that a gun used in the incident bringing this matter to Court is now in possession of Plaintiff's father, James Hammond. The Defendant consents that Jame Hammond may sell this .22 calibre hand gun at the best possible price, and the Defendant consents that he relinquishes all ownership in the same.

Once sold, the net proceeds fro the sale will be turned over to the Plaintiff/wife and will be considered as applicable to child support for the minor child.

A copy of this Order will be sufficient authority for said James Hammond to carry out the conditions of this Paragraph in selling the gun.

It appears the Defendant is unemployed and has no income at this time, and accordingly, the Court declines to enter a support Order for the minor child in this proceeding.

This Order shall remain in effect for a period of one (1) year, and the Defendant is cautioned that a violation of these conditions will make him liable for contempt of Court.

If any of the conditions of this Order relating to threats or assaults upon the wife by the Defendant are violated any police officer having reasonable grounds to believe the Defendant has violated those conditions may arrest the Defendant forthwith and lodge hime in the County Jail and notify the Court forthwith that an immediate hearing is necessary.

No costs will be assessed in this case.

June 1, 1988 Order filed. The issue before the Court is a motion for non pros., for the reason that on five (5) separate occasions, depositions were scheduled to take the testimony of the minor Plaintiff with said scheduled depositions having been postponed or the minor Plaintiff having failed to appear.

The court notes that Prothonotary's record indicates that timely notice to counsel for the Plaintiff was given and a copy of the argument list setting this case for 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, May 31, 1988 was forwarded to counsel. Counsel for the Plaintiff failes to appear, and the Court reviews the matter informally with both defendants, who timely appeared. The motion of defendant for judgment of non pros. with prejudice is granted, and this case is dismissed. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

May 9, 1988 Copies of order to Attys. Watts and Kirkpatrick.

June 9, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, June 3, 1988, the matter is before the Court withthe complex issues of exceptions to a temporary Domestic Relations Order providing support for wife and child, a request for alimony pendente lite in the divorce action, and agreement by both parties that the value of the husband's business should be professionally appraised, request for attorney fees, and the complex problem of ascertaining an earning capacity for the wife.
It appears the wife had temporary school teacher employment from September, 1987 through May of 1988, but that said employment has now terminated, and she willnot become eligible for unemployment compensation until the start of the school term in September of 1988.
There is considerable dispute about the gross and net income the husband receives from his business, and thus an appraisal of that business and a review is necessary.
The Court resolves the issues raised this date as follows:
1. The Defendant will continue to apy through the Domestic Relations Section at the domestics Relations number the su mof $30.00 per week for support of minor child, Gerald Foran, III, in the custody of the mother.
2. The Court approves the request to have the accounting firm of Hill, Barth & Ling do an appraisal of the husband's business to enlighten the Court as to the value of this business asset and the estimated net income realized therefrom.
The Court is preented a letter addressed to husband's counsel dated May 20, 1988, fromthe accounting firm, estimating the appraisal and valuation of the business to cost between $800.00 and $1,200.00. Accordingly,the Court DIRECTS that an initial advancement toward this appraisal inthe amount of $500.00 be made with $250.00 to be paid by each par ty within ten (10) days of this date.

On October 1989 Trial List

Sept. 20, 1989 Deposition of Randy Kincaid filed.

Sept 29, 1989 Certificate of Service of Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Narrative.

Oct 4, 1989 Pretrial Conference Memorandum filed: The parties agree that the real plaintiff in this case is Lake Buildings, Inc., and that the real defendant is American Guarantee and Liability Insurance Company, and that the other parties named both as plaintiff and defendant really have no interest in this particular litigation.

The only real issue in this case is whether the damages which were paid by the plaintiff to a third party in connection with the collapse of a building were covered under the plaintiff's policy with the defendant, or whether they are subject to exclusions as contained on page 2 of the policy under Section (n) and page 5 of the policy under subparagraphs D.(1)(b) and D.(1) (c) on page 5 of the policy. These exclusions are commonly known as the completed operations exclusions.

It is the defendant's position that there is really no factual issue for a jury to decide. It is the plaintiff's position that there are factual issues. The case was commenced as a declaratory judgment proceeding although the prayer for relief contained in the complaint asked not only for a declaratory judgment, but sounds in essence in contract for money damages. At the time the original pleading was filed, the third party case had not been settled, but it has since been settled.

In this somewhat unusual procedural posture, the case will be tried in the following manner:

1. The plaintiff will offer all evidence as to liability and pause at that point indicating that evidence as to liability as been concluded.

2. At that juncture, the defendant will be given an opportunity to move for a compulsory non-suit and the court will be in a position based upon the evidence to determine whether there is any factural issue to submit to the jury.

3. If the court determines there is a factual issue to be submitted to the jury, it will be submitted in the nature of a special interrogatory as to liability under the terms of the policy.

4. If the case is to be submitted to the jury, the plaintiff will then be permitted to offer testimony as to damages and the jury will decide both the issues of liability and damages.

Jan. 30, 1987, ORDER: AND NOW, Jan. 28, 1987, at the time this Abuse Petition is to be heard before the Court, the petitioning Wife and her counsel appear and advise the court that service has been made upon the dft., and he has obtained attorney Thomas Minarcik of Erie to represent him, but neither defendant/husband nor attorney are able to attend the hearing this date. However, the parties have reached a mutually satisfactory disposition of this case as follows:

1. Defendant agrees that the will not annoy, harass or assault his wife in any fashion nor will be appear at the residence where she will utlimately reside, except for the purpose of picking up and returning the children in accordance with the prospective custody and visitation agreement the parties will enter into.

2. Defendant intends to file a petition for custody in Crawford County in the near future. It appears the husband now has custody of the three (3) minor children, but agrees that at such time as the wife establishes a residence, large enough to receive custody of the children, that the custody of the children will be returned to her and at about the same time, the parties will enter into a consent custody and visitation decree whereby custody will be returned to the mother, subject, however, to the temporary custody and visitation periods when they will be in custody of the father.

3. It whall be the responsibility fo the wife to notify the husband when she has established a sufficient residence for herself and the children and if she is not successful in locating said residence within ten (10) days of this date, the husband and wife will work out a satisfactory arrangement for the mother to have brief visits with the children on at least a weekly basis until she establishes a satisfactory residence.

4. In view of the fact the wife is unemployed, and the husband is employed, costs in this case in the Prothonotary's Office in the amount of $49.50 plus Sheriff's costs for service of the petition in Erie County will be paid by the defendant.

May 8, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, May 5, 1987, the matter is back before the Court on a hearing de novo, but counsel and the parties advise the Court the area of the Court's focus is relatively narrow. It appears the father of the children, wo already has some weekend visits wants to expand the weekend visits to permit him to have additional Saturdays. AFter receiving input from each party and their counsel, the Court determines additional Saturdays would not be appropriate. Accordingly, the weekend visits will stay as established bythe Court's Order of March 18, 1987.

At the Court's suggestion, the parties have agreed that expended weekend visits with the two children would be in the best interest ofthe father and the children. Accordingly, on Monday nights to pick up the chidlren at the home ofthe mother at 4:30 p.m. and return them at 8:30 p.m. every Monday night during said period of time.

During the months of May through August, the father shall have the same right to pick up the children at the home of the mother between the aforesaid hours of 4:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday of each.

In allother respects, the former Order shall remain in force and effect.

Served William H. Marks within named defendant by deputizing the Sheriff of Jefferson County, Pennsylvania, as per his affidavit of service hereto attached. Served : January 23, 1987

So answers,

Howard N. Stewart, sheriff

Jan. 30, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, Jan. 28, 1987, the matter is before the court under rather peculiar curcumstances. The abuse petition was filed Jan. 21, 1987, alleging abuse, which occurred Jan. 14th and other times prior thereto. It appears that on Jan. 14, the parties separated, with the wife leaving the trailer in the Centerville area of Crawford County, following which the husband took the three children, went to the home where the mother had gone after leaving the household, and had one of the children advise her that father and children were going to Brookville to visit the husband's father before expected surgery in Pittsburgh.

The parties are in dispute regarding the factural situation arising in the trailer on Jan. 14, and the Court defers any decision of the abuse aspect of the case, but retains court jurisdiction.

The matter is further complicated by the fact that the mother has now moved to 6 Parade Street, Union City, Pa. where she has established an apartment and is seeking the return of the children to her custody, alleging that she has been the primary custodial and caring parent.

Shortly after the Dft. / husband was served by deputized service, with a copy of the Court's Order setting a hearing on the abuse case, he retained counsel of Dennison and Dennison in Brookville, Pa. who filed a Complaint in Custody on or about Jan. 26, 1987, in which the husband was seeking custody of the three children.

At the hearing before the Crawford County Court this date, it appears that the family for about five years lived in Brookville, but for a variety of reasons, moved to Crawford County in August of 1986.

It, therefore, is the husband's contention that since they had not lived in Crawford County for a period of six (6) months, the primary residence of the family and the children was in Jefferson County.

Normally, the court would interpret Rule 1915.1 as allowing an appropriate custody action in Crawford County and would dispose of at least temporary custody under the Abuse Petition filed before the custody action in Jefferson County.

However, as previously noted, Crawford County is now a relatively disinterested third party to the custody dispute between the parents, in view of the fact that the mother is now a resident of Erie County and the father and children ostensibly are residents of Jefferson County.

Continued on

Accordingly, under the retained jurisdiction of this Court, we will temporarily dispose of the custody issue as follows:

The three (3) minor children, aged eight, five and nineteen months are temporarily awarded to the father, and continued in his custody at the residence of the father's sister, Karen Winklemen, R. D. #31, Brockway, Pa., until such time as the custody mediator at the Feb. 19, 1987, hearing or Pres. Judge Snyder makes a temporary or permanent Order regarding the children.

Pending disposition fo the custody issue, in Jefferson County, the father shall produce the children at the residence of the mother in Union City on Fri. Jan. 30th by 6:00 P.M., and will pick them up on Sun. Feb. 1, at 4:00 P.M. Likewise, on the weekend of Feb. 13 - 15, the father will see the mother has visitaion with the children between the same hours.

During the delivery and pick-up of the children, neither parent shall argue with the other parent, and the father is specifically required to bring with him sufficient clothing and any necessary children's toys for the visits with the mother.

Upon ultimate disposition of the custody issue in Jefferson County, the Court will dispose of the abuse matter by further order of court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,

Apr 6, 1987 Temporary Order filed: AND NOW, this 6 day of April, 1987, after mediation in the above captioned case, and upon the recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of their minor child, Jacob James Kane.

2. The plaintiff mother shall have physical custody of Jacob every week from Sunday at 6:00 p.m. through Friday at 6:00 P.M. The father shall have physical custody of Jacob every weekend from Friday at 6:00 p.m. through Sunday at 6:00 P.M.

3. Holidays are defined as Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve., Christmas and New Year's Day. Where the father would be entitled to a holiday on a Monday, his weekend visitation will extend through 8:00 p.m. of the Monday holiday. The provisions of this paragraph relating to holiday visitation shall govern over the provisions of paragraph two of this Order.

4. The mother had indicated to the Mediator that she may move to Florida in the next several weeks. If said move is made, then paragraphs two and three of this Order shall be inoperative and the periods of physical custody shall be governed by the following:

(a) Until Jacob shall enter a public school, the parties will alternate physical custody in form of periods. The first such period will begin on the first day of the month following the mother's move to Floriday and end four months thereafter, the second period shall begin upon the ending of the first period and end four months thereafter, and the third period will begin at the end of the second period and end four months thereafter. The mother shall have the first four months period and the parties shall thereafter alternate the periods.

(b) When Jacob enters into kindergarten, he shall reside with his father from August 15 of each year through June 15 of the following year and with his mother from June 15, of each year through August 15 of each year. In addition Jacob shall reside with his mother during his Christmas and Spring vacations from school.

6. Each party shall teach Jacob to give to the other party that love and respect which is due a parent from his or her child and neither shall say or do anything to blacken the character of the other in Jacob's estimation.

7. The Custody Mediator has noted for the Court that the plaintiff filed an AFFIDAVIT to proceed in form of properous. This allowed as she has no income except for benefits received from the Crawford County Board of Assistance.

8. Costs and fees of this Mediation, which are fixed at $120.88, are divided equally between the parties. The father's share is assessed to him as costs in this case and the mother's share is assessed to Crawford County.

9. Either party may move the Court for a hearing de novo for a period of thirty days from the date hereof. If neither party so moves, this Order shall be considered permanent.

Sept. 22, 1987 Petition for Custody filed.

Sept. 22, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Sept. 22, 1987, it appears that the mother of this child had a disagreement with her boyfriend, ended up in the Greenhouse in Meadville, PA., and voluntarily surrendered custody of the child to the child's father in Mercer Co. Apparently, the Mercer Co. Court confirmed said custody by an Order dated Sept. 21, 1987. That Petition was filed in Mercer Co. relating to this custody incident which has now been withdrawn. It appears further that the mother, accompanied by a police officer, resecured custody of the child in Mercer Co.

ACCORDINGLY, it tentatively appears to the Court that if the plaintiff's factual situation is as related in Answers to Interrogatories, that the joinder of plaintiff's employer, Cabot Oil should not be allowed. HOWEVER, the Court recognizing that discovery is not totally complete and that an entirely different factual version of the employee's location and status at the time of the injury may develop, the Court enters the following Order:

Permission of Devonian Drilling to join Cabot Oil and Gas Company as an additional defendant is DENIED, without prejudice to the right of Devonian to conduct further discovery and re-petition the Court if a factual situation regarding the plaintiff's activity and conduct at the time of the accident develops through discovery that indicates there is a legal basis for allowing Cabot Oil and Gas Company as employer to be joined. In the event of said petition, the Court will set further argument before acting upon said request.

1. Plaintiff will pay the Defendant alimony pendente lite at the rate of $90.00 per week, commencing with the week of Dec. 25, 1988, with said payments to continue on a regular weekly basis for a total of eight (8) consecutive weekly payments.
2. In regard to counsel fees, Plaintiff will pay direct to counsel for the Defendant the sum of $200.00 in counsel fees on or before January 22, 1989.

Both these Orders are entered without prejudice to the right of the Defendant to re-petition for additional alimony pendente lite or counsel fees, and this Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Master or the Court to enter further Orders and allocate counsel fees of both parties equitably between the parties.

By Order of the Court,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Dec. 29, 1988 Copy of Order to Atty. Joan Mason and Alan Pepicelli.

Dec. 29, 1988 ORDER filed. The matter comes before the Court on motion of counsel for the defendant to appoint a Master in divorce to resolve the issue of property distribution, counsel fees, costs and expenses. This matter is not in a posture for the Court to appoint a Master, nor do the pleadings raise any issue, property distribution, counsel fees or expenses.

Plaintiff filed the divorce Jan. 27, 1987, raising the sole issue of an irretrivably broken marriage. The only responsive pleading is filed by the wife Nov. 18, 1988, requesting alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs. Hearing without hearing Dec. 22, 1988, awarding limited alimony pendente lite and minimal counsel fees. Wife has filed an inventory and appraisement and a budget statement, but there is no such filing by the plaintiff husband.

Neither party has filed the requsite 201(c) affidavit, and more importantly the pleadings in this case contain no answer or counterclaim requesting equitable distribution or permanent alimony. Thus, on the incomplete record in this case we decline to appoint a Master as there are no issues the Master or the Court can legally rule on at this time.

The file is returned to the Prothonotary's Office without ruling.

Adsit vs. Adsit A.D. 1987 - 72 DIVORCE

Jan. 27, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, January 25, 1989, the matter is before the Court on issues of visitation rights with children and a separate issue in the divorce action to set aside an agreed settlement of marital property issues.

In regard to the visitation issue, theCourt notes that a recent incident on or about January 13, 1989, has upset the children and has been discussed with counse and the Court in the privacy of the Court's chambers. The Court is satisfied that for the immediate future it would not be in the children's best interests to have visits with their father in his home. The children express an interest in visiting with their father but are fearful of being with him alone in his home because of his recent conduct. Accordingly, commencing with the week of January 29, 1989, the father will have the right to visit the children at the visiting room of Children and Youth Services on Park Avenue in Meadville, Pennsylvania at an agreed to hime for a period of not less than one hour every other week.

On the weeks where the children are not visiting with the father at Children and Youth Services, the father willhave the opportunity tp pick up the chidlren at the mother's home and take them to dinner or to other public places for a period not in excess of two hours but he may not take them to his home.

This visitation arrangement shall last through the month of March with the Court hoping that the father's condition will stabilize and the children will become more acclimated to a stabilized condition and the visitation schedule can be changed to the mutual advantage of father and children.

It shall be a condition of all visits that the father may not have in his possession or in any automobile anygun or other dangerous weapon at any time he has the children in his custody.

It shall be the responsibility of the father to make arrangements with Children and Youth Services for use of the room and to designate the day of the visit every oth er week to make certain the room will not be otherwise in use.

The matter of setting aside the divorce settlement agreement cannot be litigated this date cecause of other Court business. Accordingly, the Court continues this issue for a future date. If the Court does not receive from the Defendant through his counsel a further request for hearing on this narrow issue on or before 4:30 p.m., February 6, 1989, the Court will consider the Defendant has abandoned his request. If the request is made, the Court will schedule a hearing in due course and it notes it has explained the possible consequences of the results of said hearing to the Defendant and in the presence of his counsel.

P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

David P. Truax

✓ Apr 9, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, April 7, 1987, the matter is before the Court on the Defendant's Appeal from 365 day suspension and the issues key around three guilty pleas to summary violations and sentence thereon of November 7, 1985.

By order dated April 30, 1986, Judge Robert L. Walker of this Court found that the record presented at that hearing and this court notes that the record presented at this hearing shows the Defendant received no notice of any suspension or point assessment for violation of Section 3361. Additionally the record presented by the Commonwealth at this hearing contains no record of a notice to the Defendant of violation of Section 3114, even though the summary sheet seemingly indicates that said notice was sent on or about 1-15-86.

Accordingly, the Court finds that the Defendant should not have been assessed points under these two sections because of failure to receive notice. Taking that fact into consideration, the Defendant's point accumulation then is only ten and ten points does not trigger the mandatory suspension schedule dictated by Section 1539(b).

Accordingly, the Defendant's appeal is sustained and the Department is directed to correct the Defendant's point accumulation accordingly.

July 26, 1988 Order filed: This matter is before the Court for grant of a divorce on praecipe filed by the plaintiff. The original divorce action incorporated a custody action which required services of a custody mediator on at least three occasions, incurring total mediator fees and costs in the amount of $372.62. Various court orders ordered the parties to jointly pay the costs, and we note the defendant has paid her share in the amount of $182.22. There remains unpaid by the plaintiff the sum of $190.40.

This Court has adopted a policy of not granting a divorce when there remains outstanding unpaid master fees, and we believe the same principal sould apply to unpaid mediator fees when the custody action is an ancillery part of the divorce proceeding.

Accordinly, we return this praecipe and the attached divorce papers to the Prothonotary's Office until such time as the aforesaid sum is paid by the plaintiff, when we will entertain a new praecipe to grant the divorce action.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

Feb. 3, 1987, copy of order to E. Spadafore, Jr.

Apr. 9, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, April 7, 1987, the matter is before the Court on an appeal from a summary conviction for violation of Section 3345(a) regarding illegally passing a school bus (Citation No. B21292).

The records of this Court reflect that on February 26, 1987, at the time this matter was heard on appeal, the District Attorney and defense attorney mutually agreed that the citation should be withdrawn as not being appliable to the facts of the case. Accordingly, with the consent of the District Attorney, B21292 was ithdrawn and substituted therefore with the consent of the Defendant and his attorney with citation B21335 charging violation of Section 3361 of the Code (driving at Safe Speed). The Defendnat pled quilty to violation of Section 3361 (B21335) and the Court imposed the appropriate $45.00 fine and costs.

From the aforesaid, it should be noted that the original charge of 3345(a) was withdrawn withthe consent of the District Attorney and, accordingly, is nonexistent. To further clarify the record, the District Attorney this date files a motion for nolle prosequi requesting Court approval of officially nolle prosse Citation B21292 (Section 2245(a)) and the Court hereby grants the District Attorney's request. Accordingly, there no longer exists officially or unofficially a charge against this Defendant for violation of Section 3345(a) of the Vehicle Code and under these circumstances, the Court sustains the Defendnt's Appeal from suspension of his operating privileges and directs that his records with the department obe corrected to show that he was never convicted of violating Section 3345(a) in an incident occurring on or about October 6, 1986, in Vernon Township, Crawford County.

Oct. 21, 1988, RE: PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS - MEMORANDUM AND ORDER -filed. The matter is before the cour on preliminary objections to a rather routine negligence complaint seeking damages for a "side-swipe" accident between two vehicles. The plaintiff's complaint in Paragraph 8 elicits carelessness, recklessness and negligence in nine sub-paragraphs. Preliminary objections were filed to sub-paragraphs 8. d. and g. whichread as follows:

"d. In driving the motor vehicle in an unsafe manner;

"g. In otherwise disregarding the rights and safety of others utilizing the public highway;"

The thrust of the objection is that these allegations are too broad in nature and should be stricken so that at trial unpled facts cannot be produced to surprise the defendant on the rationale that these facts are contained within the broad negligence allegations of the two sub-paragraphs in question.

It appears that this case cannot be tried until at least February 1989 term of court, and that discovery is not yet complete. Accordingly, we deny the defendants' request to strike the two sub-paragraphs at this time. We will give the plaintiff until Jan. 1, 1989 to amend said paragraphs to amplify in detail wnay additional allegations of precise negligence not already contained in other sub-sections of Paragraph 8 of the Complaint. If there is no amendment, the plaintiff will be precluded at trial from presenting any evidence of negligence not reasonably falling within the language pled in the other sub-paragraphs.

A preliminary objections was also filed to Paragraph 5, wherein the accident was alleged to have occurred "February 7, 1975." At argument, counsel for both parties acknowledged this to be a typographical error and accordingly the court sua sponte amneded the date to February 7, 1985. We therefore dismiss the preliminary objections to this typographical error in Paragraph 5 of the complaint.

It is the intent of this decree to allocate current an dfuture payments of the Navy retired pay (exclusive of any disability pay which is not marital property), and to make provision for protection of the defendant as former spouse of the Plaintiff, in accordance with the Pennsylvania Divorce Code. The court finds that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has jurisdiction over the parties hereto, based on their residence and domicile, which continued for a period in excess of six months prior to the date that the complaint in divorce in this matter was filed, which filing took place on February 6, 1987. The Court hereby determines that that portion of the military retired pay accrued between October 9, 1954 and August 11, 1969, is marital propery, and that division of such property is within the jurisdiction of this court, pursuant to the Pennsylvania Divorce Code, 23 P.S. 101, et seq (April 2, 1980 P. L. 63, No. 26).

The Plaintiff, Thomas A. Heaney, is a retired Chief Petty Officer of the United States Navy, who at the time of his retirement, had served active duty for twenty years or more. His Address is P.O. Box 1386, Meadville, Pennsylvania 16335, his social security number is 018-24-5046, and his birthdate is February 5, 1932.

The defendant is Jean T. Heaney, whose address is 471 Creighton Road, Orange Park, Florida 32073, whose social security number is 016-24-9616, and her birthdate is April 26, 1931.

The court hereby awards the military retired pay, title to the Plaintiff, to be payable entirely to him until January 1, 1994. Beginning with the check to be issued for the month of January, 1994, and provided that the defendant, Jeanne T. Heaney is alive, the Navy will issue a check in the amount of $300.00 to her as alternate payee, until her death. All sums over and above said $300.00 to her as alternate apyee, until her death. All sums over and above said $300.00 per month, shall be payable entirely to the Plaintiff, Thomas A. Heaney. Each par ty shall be responsible for any income taxes assessed or due on the portion of the retired pay that he or she receives individually. Jeanne T. Heaney shall declare $3,600.00 ($300.00 per month) per year, as income she receives form the Plaintiff through the Navy. Said sum of $300.00 gross to be paid to the alternate payee, Jeanne T. Heaney, shall be gross monthly pay (i. e. not net).

To provide for the possilibity that the Plaintiff, Thomas A. Heaney may predecease the defendant, Jeanne T. Heaney, provision is made by way of this decree in accordance with the Uniform Services Former Spuses' Protection Ace, which is 10 U.S. Code §1407 et seq. The Plaintiff, Thomas A. Heaney is ordered to continue his participation in the Survivors' Benefit Plan (SBP). At the present time, the Plaintiff, Thomas A. Heaney shall continue to pay the monthly premium of $65.46 to provide this SBP coverage (55% of gross retired pay) to the Defendant, Jeanne T. Heaney, which premium is deducted monthly from his military retired pay. Furthermore, in the event that Jeanne t. Heaney prodeceased Thomas A. Heaney, whether she has prior to her death or married or not, any provision in her favor under the survivor benefit plan is automatically revoked. In the event of the remarriage of the defendant, Jeanne T. Heaney, and pursuant to the Uniform Services Former Spouses' Protecton act, any survivor benefit option or designation in her favor shall automatically cease by operation of law. However, if documentation of her remarriage and any other paperwork is required, she shall promptly supply the same and cooperate in executing the necessary documents to accomplish said cessation of SBP coverage.

each party shall keep the appropriate division of the Navy, and the other party's attorney informed of any address or other idemtification change, including marital status. In the event the Defendant remarries, she shall notify the Plaintiff within one week thereafter, and provide him with a certified ocpy of her marriage certificate.

The Navy is directed to issue separate checks to the Plaintiff and Defendant in accordance with this decree.

7. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY: All tangible personal property has been divided by the parties prior to the date each signs the Stipulation hereto, and each shall retain those items in his or her individual possession. Neither shall make further claim to the tangible personal property in the possession ofthe other party hereto.

8. DEBTS: The parties hereto have likewise divided all bills and debts between themselves, prior to the date each has signed the Stipulation attached hereto. Thomas A. Heaney has assumed responsibility in his own name, for the prior joint debt owed to the Jacksonville Navy Rederal Credit Union, on a personal note, which loan was used for the purchase of the Daytona time-share condominium. He shall continue to pay that debt until it is paid in full. The only other joint debt is the GMAC debt referred to above in paragraph 3, relating to the Oldsmobile Firanza, which remains the responsibility of the Defendant. All remaining accounts that may have previously been utilized by both parties have been allocated to one party or the other, and are no longer joint accounts, and each pa rty shall be responsible for those accounts allocated to him orher respectively.

9. WAIVER OF FILING: Each party hereb waives the requirements of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, that the other shall file an inventory and appraisement, as each is fully aware of the assets and liabilities of th eother.

10. ADVICE OF COUNSEL: Each pa rty hereby represents to the Court that he or she has been repreented by indpendent legal counsel throughout the course of this litigation, and that he or she has had opportunity to his or her satisfaction, to counsel with said legal counsel.

July 25, 1989 Exhibits filed.

July 26, 1989 VERDICT filed. AND NOW, July 25, 1989, after nonjury trial, the Court finds in favor of the plaintiffs against defendant Rodney Haverty and awards plaintiff Daniel R. Coffee the sum of $154,400.00, and likewise, awards plaintiff Jef B. Monday a like sum of $154,400.00.

Oct 1, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, September 28, 1987, the matter is before the Court on Defendant's preliminary objections raising the adequacy of the verification to the complaint in two respects, first in that it does not comport with past verification requiring the affirmance that the facts are true and correct and second and most important, the affidavit attached to the complaint makes a request for attorney fees.

By agreement of counsel this date, counsel for the Defendant will not require an amended affidavit or verification of the complaint and will agree that except as noted hereafter, the verification generally meets pleading requirements.

Counsel for the Plaintiff agrees that no claim for attorney fees has been pled or will be made at the time of trial even though the same are claimed in the affidavit attached to the complaint. Accordingly, the matter shall proceed and no decision on the preliminary objections is necessary by the Court.

5. Should it be necessary for either party to cancel or modify the visitations as set out in this Order or as previously arranged, the party seeking cancellation or modification shall notify the other party as soon as he or she knows of the necessity which impels the cancellation or modification. Said modifications or cancellations shall not be proposed except for good reasons. Shoudl a cancellation or modification be necessary, the parties shall attempt at once to arrange for alternative visits or to make alternative arrangements.

6. The parties shall share responsibility for transporting Marina. They shall arrange to meet at some convenient place halfway between their residences for the purpose of making the necessary transfers.

9. Any person transporting the child shall make sure that the seat belts or other restraints are used in accordance with the law of PA.

June 16, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 12, 1992, after receipt and review of the Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Postponement of Summer Visitations, and after an informal discussion and argument, where counsel for both parties were present, the Court takes the the following position:

The Court is very concerned with the allegations and recommendations of Dr. LeVan for if continued contact with the child's father would be detrimental to her best interest, then the visitations should terminate or be structured differently. However, Dr. LeVan indicates tha the incidents of alleges sexual abuse occurred when the child was younger and has not happened since that time. Furthermore, it appears to the Court that these events may have occurred prior to the hearing and Order of June 1, 1990 or could have been raised at that time and could be considered finally litigated. Dr. LeVan also indicates that the scope and depth of his initial assessment was limited and that it would be important to conduct a more comprehensive evaluation over a period of time. Furthermore, if we were to proceed to a hearing, the defendant would certainly have an opportunity to presnet similar expert evidence. Since there is no allegations of current sexual abuse, since it may be some time before a full hearing on this could be held, since the child has already spent weekends with her father recently, since the child will be living ina home where there is another adult female, since the child is seven years of age and certainly articulate and since the child may be seeing her mother for one full week end each month this summer, the Court believes there are adequate safeguards to protect the welfare and interest of the child without going to theextreme of canceling the visitation period.

ACCORDINGLY, the plaintiff's emergency motion is denied and the summer visitations shall take place in accordance with the Order of June 1, 1990.

HOWEVER, the Court does not make a decision with respect to the truth of the allegations contained in the motion and this Order is without prejudice to the plaintiff to file any motion for modification based upon the matters raised in her emergency motion, at which time, the Court wuld schedule a hearing to hear all of the evidence that is relevant to any such motion or petition for modification.

In the meantime, however, the defendant is ordered and directed to not be present at any time when the child is undressed. Furthermore, he shall not be undressed in the presence of the child.

Mar. 6, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, March 6, 1987, at the time scheduled for hearing, it is noted that the Defendant calls the Court this morning to advise that he was in Detroit, that he had been unable to obtain a counsel to represent him, and that he was desirous o fhaving a continuance. At the time set for hearing, Court has also been advised by Plaintiff's counsel that because of an incident, which occorred when the Defendant returned chidlren from a visitation, charges have been filed against the Defendant in the Office of District Justice William Chisholm, and the Defendant released on his own recognizance to return for a sscheduled preliminary hearing.

The Distrct Attorney also being reprsented at this time has advised the Court that because of the crowded jury trial schedule, they are going to request a continuance of the preliminary hearing that is now scheduled for March 10th.

This hearing is continued to March 25, 1987 at 1:30 o'clock p.m., and it is suggested that the District Attorney's Office notify District Justice Chisholm's Office in the hopes that they might be able to schedule the preliminary hearing in the criminal matter either on the same day or in close proximity to that time.

The Defendant is cautioned that the temporary Order entered February 27, 1987 remains in full force and effect, and that he is not to harm, attempt to harm or threaten to home the Petitioner nor enter her household.

A copy of this ORder shall be forwarded by the Petitioner to the Defendant at his address by certified mail and by regular mail.

Feb. 27, 1992 Order filed. AND NOW, February 26, 1992 the parties are before the Court on a petition for contempt of a custody order filed by the Plaintiff, and on a petition to modify custody filed by the Defendant.
The Court listens to testimony from the Plaintiff and from the Defendant and with the agreement of both parties, interviews the children in chambers without counsel present and without the parties present.
The parties have agreed to a stipulated orde rto try to resolve this matter without further testimony, and accordingly, the Court enters the following Order:
1. The Court declines to find the Defendant in contempt of Court based on the facts currently before the Court.
2. The order regarding custody of March 31, 1987 remains in effect only to the extent that it is not modified by this order, it being the intention of the Court that the parties continue to have shared custody and that they, specifically with the intentionof shared custody, make sure that they share copies of any medical records and psychological records, as well as the normal other meaning of shared custody in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
3. Mother shall continue to have primary physical custody of both minor children, and visitation with father set forth in the original order of March 31, 1987 shall be suspended, and in its place the following visitation schedule will be set forth until further Order of Court.
(a) The father shallhave the right to visit with both minor children together on Saturday, February 29, 1992 from noon until 5:00 p.m., with father picking up the children at the mother's home and mother picking up the children at father's home at the end of the visit.
(b) Thereafter, beginning in March 1992 until further Order of Court, father shallhave the right to visit for two (2) Saturdays from noon until 5:00 p.m. in each calendar month, with the only restriction that the father shall call the minor daughter Any no later than 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday before the visit to determine whether the weekend visit will occur on the subsequent weekend. The mother is directed to make every effort to make Amy available to said phone call and if the phone call has not occurred by 9:00 on Wednesday, the mother shall call or have Amy call to determine whether the subsequent weekend will be a visit.
(c) The intention of the Court is clearly that the Plaintiff have two Saturday visitations as set forth each month so that if he does not receive the visitations at the minor daughter's discretion and there are only two weekends left in the month, those visitations will be mandatory and he does not have to call to make arrangements, but only arrive at mother's house at noon on the appropriate Saturday.
4. During the time period tha tthe children are visiting withthe Plaintiff, he shall have have nay firearms visible in his home, nor shall he carry any firearm on his person, whether or not he is permitted to do so. This restriction shall not require the plaintiff to hide guns that are in his gun cabinet, but he shall, during the period of time the children are present, keep the guns locked in the gun cabinet, and shall not remove the same.
5. The parties shall not say anything bad in front of the children about the other party, not make any effort to blacken the character of the other party in front of the children.
6. The children will continue to participate in appropriate counseling, and if the professional or professionals invovled believe that it would be to the the benefit of the children to have father involved in counseling at some point in time, father will aprticipate and cooperate in such counseling that is reasonably required. The parties will share the cost of all counseling, with each party paying 50% of the cost of counseling. IN doing so, the mother will present the bill from the professional to the father, and father will make his payment on his one-half directly to the professional.
7. During the times that the Plaintiff is with the minor children, he shall not smoke cigarettes or other tobacco products in the presence of the children. If it is necessary for him to smoke, he should make sure that he is clearly away from the area where the children are during the thime period that he does smoke any tobacco products.
8. The intention of the court is that each itme a visitaiton occurs pursuant to this orde,r that both children shall visit with their father at the same time, an dif one child is unable to visit, then visitaiton shall occur on a subsequent weekend. If, however, doing so will mean that father loses a monthly visitation or two monthly visitations, it is the intention of the Court that those be made up in the subsequent month.
9. The Court Administrator is directed to schedule a review hearing with regard to this matter no earlier than May 15, 1992 and no later than May 30, 1992 so that the Court may review the status of this situation. The Court notes that if is not the court's intention to take testimony at the review hearing, but only to review the matter if things are not proceed ing as hoped and the parties are not agreeable to continuing this process, a new time would be set for taking any testimony that may be required.

May 28, 1992 ORDER FILED. AND NOW, May 28, 1992, the parties are before the Court for a review hearing which was required by the Court in its Order of February 26, 1992.
The Court listens to both children in chambers with the attorneys present and listens to recommendations from the attorneys and the Order of February 26, 1992 will remain in full force and effect with the following modifications:
1. The visitation times set forth in the Order in Paragraph 3 shall be expanded so that the visitations that occur pursuant to that Paragraph shall be from 10:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.
2. With respect to subsection B of Paragraph 3 concerning notification with respect to the visits by Amy to her father, that shall occur by 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday before the visit rather than 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday.
3. The defendant is DIRECTED to provide the Plaintiff as soon as any schedule is available to her all schedules with regard to Timothy's Little League as well as any other activities of the children that it might be beneficial for the father to attend. It is theCourt's intention that the father have an opportunity to attend as many events as possible that are public events that the children are involved in so to encourage a positive relationship with them. In that respect, the father is DIRECTED to be as positive with the children and as encouraging with the children as possible in their activities and in general in an effort to try to rebuild the parental relationship with them.

4. The parties are again DIRECTED not to have anything negative to say about one another in front of the children and to in fact make every effort to say positive things about each other as it affects the children and to encourage a positive relationship with the children.

5. A review hearing in this matter is set for July 29, 1992 at 1:30 p.m. at which time theCourt will hear the children in chambers once again and will review a report from Doctor K.Anderson with respect to counseling and evaluation concerning this matter.

6. Insofar as those sessions and report from Doctor Anderson will be shared by the parties with respect to costs, The Defendant is DIRECTED to supply a copy of that report once she receives it to the Plaintiff's attorney as soon as possible after receiving it and in any event at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing set for July 29, 1992.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J.Vardaro, J.

May 28, 1992 Copy of the Order to: Douglas W. Ferguson,Esq.and James R. Irwin,Esq., Plaintiff and Defendant

August 4, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 29, 1992, this matter is before the Court once again for review hering consistent with Paragraph 5 of the Order of this Court of May 28, 1992.

The Court interviews the children with counsel present in chambers and has also reviewed a report presented from Dr. Kay Anderson, dated July 15, 1992.

The Court believes that there has been some progress toward the ultimate goal of bringing the father and children together for more extended visitations and significant time together, but believes the process has been moving somewhat slower than the Court had hoped when this matter began earlier this year.

The Court believes that in light of Dr. Anderson's comments, it would not be prudent to try to move the process along any faster at this time.

It appears further that the children do not believe that father should be involved in counseling with them with Dr. Anderson and the Court believes that that creates the problem of father not being able to address the problems that the children raise in their counseling in order to try to improve the relationship.

Rather than to require that the father participate in such counseling against the current wishes of the children, the Court directs the father to begin counseling with David Glenn at father's expense and directs that mother, through her attorney, provide to father's attorney at least a monthly report from Dr. Anderson so that father in his work with Mr. Glenn, can work toward adjusting his behavior toward the ultimate goal of bringing the family together so that he may have more significant visits with the children.

Additionally, if Mr. Glenn produces any reports, then the father should supply those to his attorney and his attorney shall be required to supply those to mother's attorney. It is not mandatory that Mr. Glenn produce reprots, but if they are produced, they should be so exchanged.

Father's obligation to go to counseling with Mr. Glenn shall cease at any time he becoems involved with counseling with the children and Dr. Anderson, and the Court would hope that that process would occur some time prior to the next review hearing.

The Court Administrator is directed to schedule this matter for hearing as close as possible to Thanksgiving in November of 1992, but in no event, later than Thanksgiving Day in 1992.

The hearing in November of 1992 will be of a general nature and testimony will not be limited except that the parties may present no testimony with respect to expert psychological data unless the party presenting the same has presented the other party with a report from their professional at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the hearing.

1. The Plaintiff shall continue to be entitled to the two visits each month set forth in the prior orders but the process for arranging each month's visit shall change. By the last day of the preceding month, the minor daughter, Amy, shall have contacted Plaintiff to arrange which two Saturdays the visits shall occur on for the next month so that the parties will have some idea what to expect for that month. The parties shall still be flexible in making any changes that are necessary to accommodate the schedules of one another even after each month's schedule is set but no party shall act unreasonably in making changes.

2. The parties shall continue the children's counseling with Dr. Kathryn Anderson and father Plaintiff shall participate in such counseling as long as Dr. Anderson shall deem it appropriate or until further order of Court.

3. The Court will not now set a review hearing but this order is wothout prjudice to either party to request a further modification hearing if the facts warrant the same.

Apr. 20, 1987, MOtion for Continuance and Order filed. ORDER: AND NOW, this 20 day of April 1987, upon consideration of the foregoing motion, the hearing scheduled for April 28, 1987 at 9:30 A.M. is hereby continued to the 28 day of May 1987 at 9:30 A.M. at the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadvile, Pa. in Courtroom No. 1.

Counsel for the defendant is directed to send a copy of this order to KaTHY Lynn, Esq. attorney for the commonwealth, at her address of 1209 State Office building, 300 Liberty Ave, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15222.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Apr. 20, 1987, copy of order to Wm. Walker, atty.

May 28, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, May 28, 1987, at the time this license suspension appeal is before the Court, counsel for the Commonwealth and the Defendant advise the Court that this appeal now is moot in view of the fact that the Defendant appealed the summary conviction of 1543A, which occurred on Oct. 28, 1986 (Citation number T171767) and by Order of May 5, 1987, the Court sustained the appeal, but noting therein that the Defendant would be charged in a new citation with a ciolation of Section 1501a (Driving Without a License) and pled guilty to said citation and paid a fine of $200.00 and costs on Citation number T330523.

Accordingly, the Court remands the record on Citation number T171767 charging violation of 1543a (Offense date October 28, 1986) to the Department for correction of this Defendant's driving record to show that there was never a valid conviction of Section 1543a, but there is a valid conviction of Section 1501a as reflected in Citation number T330523 as noted above with the same violation date of October 28, 1986.

June 24, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, June 22, 1987, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

I. Legal custody of Ian James Legnosky and Christopher Eric Legnosky shall be shared between the mother and father , Cheryl Lee Legnosky and David E. Legonsky, Jr., that is, each shall be entitled to full access to medical records, school records, and other important records, and each shall be entitled to take part in important decisions affecting the children, including but not limited to, religious instruction, education and medical treatment.

II. Physical custody of Ian James Legnosky and Christopher Eric Legnosky shall be with the mother, Cheryl Lee Legnosky, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father, David E. Legnosky, Jr., shall be entitled to visit and take the children into his custody for a continuous period of six (6) weeks each summer during the months of June, July and August, beginning with the summer of 1987. The father shall notify the mother as soon as possible of the six weeks in which he intends to exercise his summer visitation, and in 1988 and each year thereafter, to provide the mother with at least thirty (30) days notice of the time in which he intends to exercise such six week visitation.

B. Holidays shall be defined as Christmas, Thanksgiving and Easter. In 1987, the children shall spend their Christmas vacation with their mother. In 1989, and thereafter, the parties shall continue to alternate having the children in their custody on the above stated holidays in the same manner as provided above. The length of the holiday vacations would depend upon the length of the children's vacation from any school that they might be in on such holiday and the ability of the parties to transport the children from the mother's home to the fathers home.

C. The parties shall equally divide transportation expenses on summer visits and on holiday visits.

D. This order is entered without prejudice to the right of either party to request a further mediation conference or hearing in the event the parties move to a location close enough to each other to allow the father to have weekend or more frequent visits.

This order shall be temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions thereto are filed by either party within thirty (30) days of the date hereof.

Dec. 18, 1987 Order filed. This 201(c) divorce comes before the court for a grant of the Final Decree, but we cannot do so at this time. we note the original complaint filed March 18, 1987, contained counts requesting alimony, counsel fees, expenses and costs, as well as equitable distribution. Since both parties have filed the requisite affidavits of consent, we assume these collateral matters have been amciably resolved. However, following the practice of the courts in this County, we decline to grant the divorce until said counts are either withdrawn or a written agreement of the parties resolving these issues is attached to the recordsiin this case.

Accordingly, we return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office without prejudice to repraecipe the matter to the court for the grant of a divorce upon resolution of the above problem.

Mar 27, 1987 Copies of order to Douglas Ferguson and Brian Lindsay, Esqs.

Mar. 31, 1987 ORder ifled. AND NOW, March 31, 1987, it appe aring that a Consent Order was entered in this matter on March 25, 1987, which had been proceded by a Temporary Order of March 20, 1987, which forbid the defendant following the petitioner and the Court being convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, in fact, followed the petitioner on the evening of March 27, 1987, ultimately becoming involved in a minor automobile accident with her car, and although the Court accepts the fact that the defendant had not received a copyof the March 25, 1987 Order at the time of that incident primarily becuase on the advice of counsel, he had not appeared in court although the Court disapproves of that practice, but the defendant being aware of the March 20, 1987 Order which had been served on him, he was therefore in violation of at least the original petition under the Abuse Act Temporary ORder.

In light of the fact that he has been incarcerated for the best share of four days as a result of this incident by the Meadville City Police enforcing the ORder, he is not adjudicated further in contempt, but is cautioned that any repetition of that behavior will result in an adjudication of contempt and can result in a jail sentence up to six months under the Statue.

Paragraph 5 of the Order of March 25, 1987 is vacated since the defendan tsays he did not agree to that provision and the parties may resolve their differences regarding personal property by such legal means as them deem appropriate, but under no circumstances, shall the defendant have any contact with his wife concerning that except through counsel.

The Warden ofthe crawford County Jail is directed to release the defendant form confinement.

Nov. 20, 1987, RE: MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT BY J. WILLIAM McBRIDE AND MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT BY MARGARET M. McBRIDE - ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 20, 1987, after review of the pleadings and depositions in this case and after oralargument, the Court denies the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment regarding Counts 1 and 2 ofthe Plaintiff's Complaint as it related tothe defendant,J. William McBride. This court believes that in view of the brother/sister relationship between Wilomenia Mattera and J. William McBride that a fact finder should listen to the totality of the evidence as to whether there was an oral contract for the sale of realestate or whether the plaintiffs are entitled to recover under the reliance theory set forth in Restatement, Second, Contracts § 34. Accordingly, J. William McBride's Motion for Summary Judgment on Counts 1 and 2 are denied.

With respect to the Motion for Sumamry Judgment regarding Margaret M. McBride, the Court notes that the deposition testimony of the plaintiffs discloses little if any evidence that the defendant, Margaret M. McBride, knew of the relationships between her husband and the plaintiffs regarding this property. However, even though the property was apparently solely owned by J. William McBride, it became marital property for the purposes of the divorce settlement and it may be that the Plaintiffs can establish their allegation that margaret M. McBride knew or should have known that the property she was awarded as part ofthe divorce settlement and in which she had a marital interest was subject to some type of encumbering negotiatons carried out between her husband and his sister and the sister's husband. Accordingly, we believe summary judgment to be improper at this time and deny Margaret M. McBride's Motion for Summary Judgment.

July 20, 1987 Temporary Order of Court filed: AND NOW, this 20th day of July, 1987, after mediation and upon recommendation of the Child Custody Mediator, it is hereby ordered and decreed that:

1. The parties to this action, the natural parents of Gregory T. Smith, age nine, shall share legal custody of the minor child. Said joint legal custody being shared shall entitle both of the parents to equal access to any records relating to the child held by a third party, including, but not limited to, school and medical records and shall also entitled both parents to equal input with regard to educational and religious upbringing of the child, as well as elective surgery.

2. The primary physical custody of the child shall be with the father, Thomas R. Smith, who currently resides in the City of Meadville, County of Crawford, Pennsylvania. Regular visitation and temporary custody of the child shall be granted to the defendant mother. The transfer of physical custody shall be effective the date of the signing of this Temporary Order. Thereafter, the mother shall be entitled to have the child in her physical custody as follows:

a) For ten days at Christmas school break each year, subject only to the responsibility for paying one-half of the transportation cost to and from the mother's place of residence.

b) Beginning in 1988, for six consecutive, uninterrupted weeks, during each summer which, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, shall begin the Suday after the 4th of July each year.

c) The mother shall also have the right to visit with the child and take the child into her physical custody for periods of time that do not interfere with the child's attendance at school at any time with notice of forty-eight hours to the father, such visitations to be exercised in Crawford County.

d) Transportation expense, by rail or plane, shall be the equal responsibilty of the parents.

3. the parent having custody of the child at any time shall notify the other parent as soon as possible in the event of injury or illness requiring medical treatment.

4. Neither of the parents shall take the child to any environment which would be commonly thought of as detrimental to his development or the development of his character or which would be commonly thought of as dangerous to his physical person.

5. The parents are encouraged to discuss arrangements for physical custody of the child; and, if the parties mutually agree to an alternative arrangement to accommodate themselves or the child's schedule, they may adjust the physical custody arrangement accordingly, and are encouraged to do so by mutual consent and agreement. However, it is the intent of this Order that the child shall attend school in the school district in which the father resides.

6. Each of the parents will teach the child, as will the grandparents on both sides, that love and respect due a parent from his child, and neither of the parents nor the grandparenys will do anything to blacken the character of either parent in the eyes of the child.

7. This Order shall not prejudice the right of either party to request a mediation conference if there are changed circumstances in the lives of the parties or the child. For the purposes of this paragraph, the child becoming involved in school or other extracurricular activities shall be considered changed circumstances, as shall the father moving from the Meadville School District be considered a changed circumstance. In the event that either of the parties begins abusing chemical substances, that shall also be considered a changed circumstance, entitling either party to a review of visitation provisions.

8. The Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, shall retain jurisdiction of this matter so long as either parent or the child resides in the court's jurisdiction and for at least six months from the date of this Temporary Order.

9. The fee for the Child Custody Mediator shall be paid firty percent by the father and fifty percent by the Mother.

10. This Order shall be a Temporary Order, but shall become a permanent order, unless exceptions are filed by either party within thirty days of the date of this Temporary Order.

BY THE COURT
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Apr. 15, 1987, Praecipe to Procedd In Forma Pauperis, Petition for Leave to Proceed In Foram Pauperis, and Order filed. ORDER OF COURT: AND NOW; this 15 day of April 1987, Darlene Richardson Petitioner in the above cited action, is granted leave to proceed IN Forma Pauperis reserving the right to impose costs if appropriate.

BY THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, J.

Apr. 22, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, April 20, 1987, this abuse matter is before the Court and it is impossible for the Court to rationalize the two versions given by these people about the incidents causing the separation ofthe parties. It appears now that the mother and the four minor children, ages ten, eight, seven and five, have been asked to leave her residence at R.D.2, Saegertown, by the landlord and that she is now residing with her mother, Grace Humes, at R.D.1, Box 92, Cambridge Springs, with the four children.

The Defendant/Husband, without admitting the allegations of the petition, agrees with the wife that it is impossible forthe parties to live together and, accordingly, he consents that he will not attempt to live with his wife, will not go to her residence where she resides at her mother's home for any purpose, and will not directly or indirectly annoy or harass her in any fashion. The Defendant/Husband will not telephone the under any circumstances.

The parties are mutually agreeable that the father should have visitation rights with the four children but cannot reach an amicable agreement at this time as to how these visittions will occur. It seems mutually agreeable that the visitations should not occur at the home where the mother now resides and the mother has postulated that perhaps Reverend Unick of the Lyona Bible Curch could arrange to have the visits at the church, and the mother has also postulated a visit at the home of Bernard Tobin, a mutual friend, bu the father apparently has had some type of a falling out with the Tobin family and doesn't think this is reasonable.

Accordingly, the Court is unable to resolve the visitation issue at this time and if the parties, through their counsel, cannot work out a visitation arrangement that allows the father to see the children for a reasonable period at leas tonce every week or ten days, the Matter will have to be referred to a custody mediator through the usual visitation and custody channels.

In this regard, the Court notes that the father is contending the mother is an unfit mother and he now has an apartment at R.D. 1 Cambridge Springs, and he may bring an action to week custody of the four children.

It further appears that the father has removed certain items from the former mutual residence and the parties are not in agreement about what times he has removed. The father claims he took none ofthe children's clothing or possessions but if he did, he will see they are returned tothe custody of the mother.

The father's work record is somewhat sporadic and claims he was in the pop selling business and is currently in the lumbering business and while he intitially postulated that he was now earning a substantial income per week, he opines that his costs of doing business may exceed the income he earns, so it is impossible for the Court to ascertain a net current income. However, with the father's earning capacity, the Court believes a temporary support order should be entered and, accordingly, commencing with the week of April 19, 1987, the Defendant will forward by postal money order or pay in cash the sum of $25.00 per week for the support of the four minor children. The Court notes the mother is receiving Public Assistance, so this money will be forwarded by the Domestic Relations Section to the Department of Welfare when it's received.

The Court directs the County to pay the costs in this case.

May 27, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, May 22, 1987, the matter is before the Court on an abuse petition with both parties represented by counsel. Parties and counsel advise the Court the matter has been amicably resolved without the necessity of a hearing in the nature of a consent order by the Defendant without any direct admission by the Defendant that he committed the acts alleged in the abuse petition. Accordingly, the Court directs that the agreement of the parties be turned into a Court order as follows:

1. The Court will maintain jurisdiction for a period of 12 months.
2. Parties will attend marriage counseling for at least three sessions and both will faithfully attend all meetings required.
3. In relation to the custody of the two children, they shall remain in the custody of the mother and visitation rights will be accorded to the father every other weekend commencing with the weekend of May 29, 1987. Unless mutually agreed otherwise by both parties, the weekend visits shall last from Friday at 4:00 p.m. until Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

The parties mutually agree that the father may pick up and return the children providing that he is not to any degree under the influence of drugs or alcohol at the time he picks up the chidlren or returns the children.

The parties mutually agree that responsible adult friends ofthe father may also pick up and return the children.

So far as holiday visits are concerned, the mother shall have the children on the Memorial Day holiday and the parties will alternate holiday custody for the two chidlren after that date and the holiday custody will be between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Holidays are considered to be Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Easter.

In addition, the father shall have the right to have the children in his exlusive care and custody for a period of two weeks during the summer school vacation period providing he gives the mother ten (10) days advance notice of when the two weeks period shall commence. If the aprties are not in agreement of the period constituting the two week period, the Court decrees that it shall run from 9:00 a.m. on Sunday to 9:00 a.m. the second Sunday following.

The parties are attempting to mutually agree for a more extended visitation with the non-custodial parent around the Christmas season and the Court leaves to the discretion of the parties' amplification of these visitations.

It shall be aspecific condition of this order that the Defendant will not harass, annoy, assault, or molest the Plaintiff-Wife in any fashion.

The County is directed to pay costs in this case.

July 6, 1987 Order for Pre-Trial Conference filed.Order: The above two summary cases which are interrelated with the above mandamus action have been scheduled for appeal hearing July 16, 1987, at 2:00 P.M. After review of these three cases, the court believes a pre-trial conference involving the overall factual and legal situation would be beneficial in enlightening the court as to the respective postures of the parties, and counsel's interpretation of statutory and ordinance law.

Accordingly, no hearings will be held on the aforesaid date, but counsel will be prepared to enlighten the court regarding the law involved and cite any controlling case law they believe sustains their position.

If the matter cannot be amicably resolved, the court will set hearing dates at the conclusion of the conference on July 16, 1987.

July 21, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, on this 21 day of July, 1987, after a pretrial conference in the above case, the Plaintiffs request leave to amend their original Complaint in Mandamus.

The Plaintiffs' original complaint was filed on May 6, 1987. On July 3, 1987, the Defendant filed preliminary objections and the Plaintiffs filed an amended Complaint on June 19, 1987. Accordingly, we grant leave to amend the Complaint and will consider the Defendant's original preliminary objections to apply to the Amended Complaint. Either party can praecipe the Prothonotary to place the preliminary objections on the next argument list.

Oct. 2, 1990 Plaintiff's Attorney Bill filed.

Oct. 4, 1990 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Oct. 2, 1990, the matter is before the Court on a request for counsel fees and costs. It appears this divorce was filed May 7, 1987, was appropriately served and an Amended Divorce Complaint was filed June 13, 1990 because the defendant was not willing to sign a 201(c) affidavit. The divorce was amended to a 201(d) affidavit and the plaintiff's first affidavit under 201(d) was filed June 22, 1990.

The defendant appears without counsel and advised the Court he earns approximately $944.00 per month net and has certain payment obligations, including support for the minor child. The defendant's posture is he does not want the divorce and is not going to cooperate in any fashion in allowing his wife to procure a divorce under Sections 201(c) or 201(d), alleging an irretrievable breakdown of the marriage.

Counsel for the plaintiff postulates that there are further procedural steps that will have to be taken to perfect the 201 divorce and praecipe the same to the Court which will incur additional attorney fees. Currect attorney fees, represented by a bill presented to this date stand at $847.50.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court enters the following Order:

The Court finds the defendant through his own conduct to be responsible for costs and attorney fees in this case in an amount of $847.50, and he is directed to pay $300.00 towards said account directly to counsel for the plaintiff on or before Oct. 18, 1990; an additional $00.00 by Nov. 15, 1990; and the balance of $247.50 by December 10, 1990. Any day the defendant is in default for a period of five (5) days in making these payments required by the Court, the Court will entertain a motion to set a contempt hearing.

The mother shall have the right to visit on the first full weekend of each month from Friday after school until Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m., with transportation to be furnished by the mother.

In lieu of the first weekend in December, that visit shall occuntover the Thanksgiving holiday and shall extend throughout the period that school vacation extends form Thanksgiving.

A review hearing will be held in this case on January 4, 1988, at 9:30 a.m., it being the Court's thought that such a review hearing should be held because presumably, by that time, the father will be paroled and some idea of his employment plans will havebeen formulated. The date has been selected since that's the day following the visit in which Mrs. Barnett will be returning Laurie to her grandparents' home to avoid as much unnecessary travel and expense as possible.

If the parties agree on some other arrangement, by the consent of both aprties, the hearing may be canceled.

The court does not have jurisdiction over the second child, Leslie, but we express condierable concern that the two children be together and if the parties are to reach any sort of an agreement regarding future visitation beyond January 1, 1988, it would be suggested that one-half of the summer vacation both girls would remain in the father's home and the other one-half in the mother's home or such other reasonable division as might occur and that other vacation periods be arranged between the parties so that the siblings are in contact with one another.

The request of the Plaintiff for counsel fees in connection with a deposition in Indiana is denied.

June 7, 1988 Temporary Order filed.

AND NOW, this 7th day of June, 1988, after Mediation in the above referenced matter and upon the recommendations of the Child Custody Mediator, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The parties shall share legal and physical custody of the subject minor children. Because this is a joint legal custody arrangement, each party is directed to share with the other anyand all informtion which he or she may have regarding the children's health, education, adn the major events in their lives. Health care and school personnel are her eby authorized to release to either par ty any confidential information which they may have regarding said children except that information which the chidlren have legally requested be kept confidential from anyone.
2. The father shall have primary physical custody of said children from June 23, 1988 to June 15, 1989, and the mother shall have physical custody from June 15, 1989 through June 15, 1990. Thereafter, the children shall reside with their father from June 15 of each year through the following August 20, and with their mother from August 20 of each year through June 15, of the following year. The party not having physcial custody during the school year will have the right of visitation and temporary physical custody during the school year will havethe right of visitation and temporary physical custody for a period not to exceed two weeks during the school year. If the plans of the visitig parent are such that the children would b eunable to attend school, then the visitation period shall coincide with the children's vacation from school, either at christmas, or during the Spring or Easter vacation. Costs of transportation for this visitation will be apportioned 80% to the father and 20% to the mother.
3. The party not having temporary physical custody of the children shall also have the right of visitation with the children at any time when said party is in the area of the other's residence provided that he or she has given the other two weeks notice of his or her intended presence in the area.
4. Each party shall teach the children to give to the other par ty that love, respect, and obedience which is owed a party from his or her children and neither shall do or say anything to blakcen the character of the other in eyes of the children.

June 9, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, June 2, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a petition for alimony pendente lite, interim counsel fees, and actuarial fees. The matter is handled informally by counsel and the parties and to a large extent, the matter has been amicably resolved along the following lines:

1. There appears to be a joint savings account in an amount of approximately $17,000.00 in the names of both parties held as an escrow account with the firm of Watts, Pepicelli, Youngs & Youngs. The parties mutually agree that the firm holding the escrow account willimmediately advance the sum of $4,000.00 to Barbara Blood Rankin and the sum of $3,000.00 to Richard K. rankin. These advances will be made without prejudice to the right of the Court to equitably divide this account and all other assets in the final divorce action.

2. There are substantial attorney fees due Attorney Stephen Hall by Barbara Rankin and Barbara Rankin advises the Court this date that form this sum receive, she will advance $1,000.00 in interim attorney fees forthwith to Attorney Hall. In additional, the Court directs that the Plaintiff, Richard Rankin, advance from his own funds an additional sum of attorney fees in the amount of $500,00 on or before August 1, 1988. This payment by Mrs. rankin fromthe aforesaid allocation andthe payment of Mr. Rankin fromhis own funds is awarded and made without prejudice to the right of the court to ultimately allocate both parties' counsel fees equitably among the parties in the final disposition of the divorce action.

3. The Court notes a companion Domestic Relations Orderinvolving spousal and child support at D. R. 1987 - 55 requiring $175.00 per week child support for the two children and $175.00 per week spousal support. It now appears that on or about June 24, 1988, by mutual agreement of the parties, the two children will be surrendered to thecustody of the father and take up residence with him at his military location inthe State of Hawaii. Accordingly, under normal circumstances, the obligation to pay child suport would terminate. However, by agreement of the husband and in lieu ofthe Court determining whether present support should be augmented by alimony pendente lite, the husband agrees to apy in addition to the $175.00 per week spousal suport an additional sum of $75.00 per week as both aprties agree that the present support obligation of $175.00 plus the alimony pendente lite award of $75.00 will be paid through the Domestic Relations Section.

4. One ofthe substantial assets inthe divorce action will be the husband's potential military pension, which apparently will best after twenty years of military service. The husband now has approximately eighteen years of military service. The wife has reqeusted through counsel the sum of $250.00 to hire an actuary who is experienced inthe peculiarities of military pensions to estimate the actuarial value of the husband's military pension depending on the number o years of service before actual retirement. The husband and counsel argue that this is a relatively simple mathematical calculation and cannot accuarely be made untilthe future length of service is calculated. Be this as it may, this Court believes the request ofthe wife is logical and directs that on or before June 20, 1988, the husband forward to counsel for the wife the sum of $250.00 for actuarial services relating to the pension.

5. The court notes that neither party has filed the requisite income and expense statements or the required inventory and appraisements. In view ofthe fact the wife is moving at the end of June, any income and expense statements on her part would be conjectural at best; however, both aprties are directed to file, to the best of their ability, income and expense statements on or before July 1, 1988, on the forms supplied by the domestic Relations Section.

6. Likewise, aside from a vacant piece of land in Florida, there does not apper to be any complex assets that would complicate filing inventory and appraisement forms. The parties mutually agree that they will attempt to resolve the Florida land valuation without the added substantial expense of either party.

7. With regard to the filing of inventory and appraisement required under the Rules, the parties mutually agree that the husband will file don or before June 15, 1988, an inventory and appraisement and the wife will have ten days thereafter to file a supplement thereto or file objection thereto in such form as she desires.

8. The Court recognized the cmplexities of scheduling a Master's hearing due to the military service fothe husband but believes the divorc eshould not be unduly delayed because of this fact. Accordingly, the Court directs that either party may move for the appointment of a Master after July 1, 1988. The Master may hold such pretrial conferences with the parties or their counsel as he believes appropriate, but the Master's hearing will not be held until after September 1, 1988.

In this regard, in view ofthe requirement of secure military leave onthe part of the husband, the Mster will give at least thirty (30) days notice of the date of the Master's hearing.

Jan. 17, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, January 13, 1989, the matter is before the Court today on a sanctions motion because of inaction on the part of the Defendant in filing an income and expense statement and a response to the Plaintiff's inventory and appraisement as ordered by Court Order of June 2, 1988. Attorney Mason appears postulating she may represent the Defendant and advises that the Defendant/Wife is unhappy with the services of Attorney Hall.
The Master's Hearing is set for February 27, 1989. The Defendant shall file an income and expense statement on or before February 15, 1989, and will likewise file her own inventory and appraisement or a response to the Plaintiff's inventory and appraisement by said date.
The Court finds no justification at this time for fialure to comply with its June 2nd Order and advises the Defendant that if the requirements of this Order are not complied with, monetary sanctions will be imposed.
The Court notes that Attorney Stephen Hall has filed an official withdrawal of appearance January 13, 1989, and is no longer in the case. If Attorney Joan Mason is to represent the Defendant, she will file an appearance within seven days of this date.

I. DIVORCE AND NOW, this 18th day of September, 1989, it is Ordered and decreed that Richard K. Rankin, Plaintiff, and Barbara Blood Rankin, Defendant, are divorced from the Bond of Matrimony

II. DIVISION OF PROPERTY Militry Retired or Retainer Pay

1. Plaintiff is currently a member of the United State Army with a rank of lieutenant colonel. In the event Plaintiff completes the required number of years of service, Plaintiff will have the right to receive military retired or retainer pay upon his retirement from the United States Army at whatever rank he may retire. At the time said retired pay goes into pay status, beginning with the first payment of such retired pay received by Plaintiff, Defendant shall receive a marital share of the retired pay to be determined by the following formula: Fifty (50%) Per Cent x 9/33 years divided by the number of total years Plaintiff served in the Army x Plaintiff's "Gross Retired Pay". "Gross Retired Pay" shall mean the gross figure without reduction for any deductions, charges, expenses, tax withholdings or other sums which may or are requested to be deducted or withheld therefrom. To The extent possible now ir in the future, Plaintiff shall arrange for Defendant to receive direct pay from the military of the aforesaid benefit and shall forthwith complete and sign the necessary forms to expedite the accomplishment of this provision. Plaintiff's gross retired pay shall or may increase periodically with the result that Defendant's share thereof will always be based upon any such increased amounts.

2. Except for the share of military retired pay which Defnedan tis to receive under the above-described formula, Defendant shall have no further rights, now ir in the future, to claim or demand a spousal benefit annuity or former spousal benefit annuity, or any other benefit which would result in a direct cost to Plaintiff. Provided, however, this provision shall not be deemed to deprive Defendant of other benefits provided to her by the military at no direct cost to Plaintiff.

3. In the event Plaintiff retires from the military after the required number of years of credited service so that he is eligible to receive military retired pay, and Defendant begins recieving her share of military retired pay in accordance with this Decree, then any alimony due Defendant for a month in which Defendant receives her share of military retired pay shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-half (1/2) of the gross amount of military retired pay which Defendant receives for said month. However, if Plaintiff rejoins the United States Armed Forces, thereby resulting in the temporary discontinuance of military retired pay payments to Defendant, then Plaintiff shall reimburse Defendant the full amount of all alimony saved by the foregoing formual.

4. Should Plaintiff be entitled to reduce alimony by both military retired pay and "earned income", as provided in Section III "ALIMONY", below, such that alimony is reduced to zero, then, for purposes of reimbursement by Plaintiff to Defendan tin the event Plaintiff rejoins the United States ARmed Forces, reduction of alimony shall be by military retired pay first, so that Defendant is reimbursed the full amount of alimony reduced due to her receipt of military retired pay. Defendant shall receive reimbursement as follows: one-half (1/2) within six (6) months of Plaintiff's date of rejoining the military and the remaing one=half (1/2) within twelve (12) months of said date of rejoining. Plaintiff shall immediately notify Defendant of rejoining the military.

PETITION FOR RELIEF UNDER PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ACT

1 copy (atty)

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF:

AND NOT, this 18 day of May 1987, upon presentation of the foregoing petition for Protection from Abuse, after ex parte hearing thereon, the court finding that there exists immediate and present danger of abuse to the plaitniff, it is hereby ordered that:

1. Defendant is prohibited from abusing plaintiff;
2. Defendant is prohibited from contacting or attempting to contact or otherwise communicate with plaintiff, and
3. Defendant is prohibited from entereing or trespassing upon the premises of plaintiff's residence, wherever that may be.

FURTHER, it is ordered that a hearing on the foregoing Petition shall be held on May 27, 1987 at 1:30 P.M. in Court Rm. No. 1 or 2 Crawford CountyCourthouse, Meadville, Pa.

Service of this order upon defendant shall be made by certified mail, return receipt requested.

BY THE COURT,
Robert L. Walker, J.

May 28, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, May 27, 1987, at the time set for hearing, parties acting through their counsel agree to postpone the hearing in this matter until July 2, 1987, at 9:00 a.m. In the meantime, the parties agree that the husband may return to reside in the residence on the condition that he will not threaten or assault his wife in any fashion, and likewise, the wife agrees that she will not assault or falsely accuse the husband of assaulting her in any fasion.

The Court notes that apparently the parties spend relatively little time together as the husband works daytimes and the wife works largely at night. The Court also notes that a sixteen-year-old daughter ofthe husband resides in the household.

There is a divorce pending in this matter and at this time, the parties mutually agree that as the divorce progresses, one or the other should find other living arrangements. Accordingly, the Court's proevious ORder of May 18, 1987, is rescinded and the Order herein substituted therefore and the Court urges the parties to be decent and respectful of each other and if indeed the marriage is to be terminated by divorce, that they attempt to amicably resolve the issues through their counsel and without bitter agrument between themselves.

Costs will abide the final outcome of this case.

Sept. 23, 1987, Upon praecipe fo plaintiff attorney, for Review Under 201(c) of the Divorce Code, this case moved to court.

Oct. 6, 1987 ORDER filed. The original Divorce Complaint in this case filed by the Plaintiff made claims for a 201(c) Divorce and said Complaint claimed a second count requesting alimony pendente lite, counsel fees, expenses and costs, and a third count requesting equitable distribution of property.

The matter comes before the court on Sept. 24, 1987, with Affidavits of Consent filed by both parties. However, it is the policy of the Court of Crawford County not to grant a divorce action when there would remain outstanding collateral matters which the record does not disclose the parties disposed of by amicable agreement or withdrew said counts of the Complaint.

Accordingly, we return this divorce to the Prothonotary's Office, until such time as Counts Two and Three of the Complaint are withdrawn, or there is evidence in the record that these matters have been amicably resolved by the parties.

Aug. 28, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, August 27, 1987, at the time set for hearing, counsel for the aprties and the parties themselves advise the Court that there seemingly was a justifiable reason for a missed visit that triggered a contempt citation and the Plaintiff/Petitioner does not wish to pursue the contempt issue. Accordingly, insofar as contempt is concerned, the petition for contempt will be dismissed.

The parties mutually acknowledge that there has been a change of residence on the part of the mother and the mother advises the Court that she now resides at R.D.#2, Box 242, Venango, Pennsylvania, and that she will at the conclusion of this hearing, give to the father of the child precise directions to locate her new residence.

At the present time, the mother has no telephone at the new address but anticipates within the next two to four weeks a phone will be installed. Within forty-eight (48) hours or the time a new phone is installed, she shall personally call the Plaintiff at his residence and convey the telephone number for the newly-installed telephone at her residence.

The parties mutually agree that for the visit the last weekend and all future visits prescribed by the previous Order of Court, the father shall have the responsibility of picking up and returning the child and the Court directs that the hours prescribed in the former Order be strictly complied with.

In all other respects regarding custody and visitation, the previous temporary Order which became a final Order on or about July 25, 1987, shall be controlling of the custody and visitation rights regarding the child.

Nov. 23, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, November 21, 1988, this matter is before the Court on the Plaintiff's petition for adjudication of contempt for various reasons as alleged in the petition but primarily because the Defendant's present husband has been involved in those visits contrary to the Order originally entered and on a petition for modification. The parties have had some contact with Debbie Gregg at the Meadville Mental Health Center as has the child. The parties agree that there have been some violations of the current visitation Order but have taken the position that they believe the matter can be worked out on an amicable basis without a formal adjudication of contempt and therefore by agreement of the parties, the existing Order shall be modified as follows:

The mother will continue to have visitations as set forth in the original Order, provided, however, that those visitations shall take place either at the Davis home, in which case, the overnight portion of the visit will have to be reasonably modified by the parties, or in a neutral home of responsible adults who will be able to monitor the visitation. Such neutral home shall be suggested by the mother for approval by the father, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, but in the event the parties cannot agree on the reasonableness of the suggested neutral home, before applying further to the Court, they shall confer with Debbie Gregg for the purpose of attempting to resolve that question.

No party shall use any illegal drug or controlled substance during the visitation of the child nor expose the child to such illegal drug or controlled substance, and Jeffrey Caldwell shall not be permitted to take part in the visitation unless it is at a mutually agreed upon neutral home with a responsible adult present. It is recommended that the mother and her present husband Jeffrey Caldwell participate in such counseling or parenting training as may be recommended by Debbie Gregg with a view toward ultimately permitting unsupervised or more liberal visitation.

The provision for telephone calls to the child is reduced to every other day as opposed to every day and in calling, neither the mother nor her husband shall use, either toward the father his wife, or the child, any inappropriate language.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Mar. 15, 1989, copies to Dennis S. Shostak and Stewart B. Barmen, Bruce Smith, Esqs.

April 10, 1989 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 7, 1989, after hearing the testimony of the Defendant in support of his request for bifurcation of this divorce, the Court notes that neither party has filed an inventory and appraisement and an income and expenses accounts, even though both are long past due, and neither party has requested the appointment of a Master to resolve the economic issues, we feel that it would be premature to grant a dissolution of the marriage even though it is clear that the parties are entitled to a 201(d) divorce at this time.

The request for bifurcation is denied as premature without prejudice to the right of the Defendant to re-apply for bifurcation once the required pleadings for the economic issues have been resolved and if the Defendant fiels the necessary inventory and appraisement and income and expenses statement and the Plaintiff fails to do so, we will entertain a motion for sanctions, particularly if there is a request for an appointment of a Master.

July 1, 1987, ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 30, 1987, at the time set for hearing on the petition objecting to the private sale of property in West Shenango Township consisting of fourteen (14) lots, for the bid price of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars, the Court notes that David Soeder objects to said sale, and at the time of the hearing, advises the Court he is propared to offer to apy taxes, advertising and ancillary costs to purchase the property James Taraczkozy appears on behalf of the owner Gerta Flummer and officers to pay the same.

Accordingly, in accordance with 72 P.S. 5860.613a as amended July 3, 1986, the court directs the county may not sell the fourteen (14) lots as one parcel for a price of less than Eight Hundred Fifty ($850.00) Dollars.

It further appears that the aforesaid persons are the only interested parties, and, accordingly, the court directss Frederick Wagner, Tax Claim Director, to conduct an immediate auction to sell said foruteen (14) lots as one parcel.

The court noties that Mr. Wahner conducted an action and said lots being fourteen (14) in number were sold to the objector, David Soeder, for the sum of Three Thousand Two Hundred Fifty ($3,250.00) Dollars, and the Tax Claim Bureau is DIRECTED to prepare and execute a deed to the purchaser conveying said lots uponsthe receipt of the sum of Three Thousand Two Hundred Fifty ($3,250.00) Dollars. Aug. 19, 1987 Petition for Additional Remedies , Equitable Distribution filed.

Sept Sept 1, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, August 28, 1987, the matter is before the Court on a request for special relief. It appears that the parties own joint real estate upon which there is a mortgage to the Lomas and Nettleton Company. It appears the mortgage is denying receipt of the payments for the months of May, June, July and August for the reason that the required accompanying coupon payment was not received with the checks forwarded by the Plaintiff's husband and attempts by the attorney to rectify the situation disclose some misunderstanding about the proper account number.

Counsel for the Plaintiff has advised that he has personally contacted the aforesaid company and that in settlement of this matter, both with the company and regarding his wife's interest in the property, he will forthwith forward a check or money order to pay the aforesaid four (4) months arrears, and the company has promised to return his previously mailed and uncashed four (4) checks covering said payments.

The husband will assume the responsibility to pay the September payment of $497.00 on or before September 10, 1987. The husband agrees that all future payments will be made on or before the first day of each month commencing with the month of October.

The husband shall furnish on the same day forward a xerox copy of his check or mony order and when he is ultimately re-supplied with the required coupons, a xerox copy of said coupons also.

If any checks are returned for insufficient funds, the husband will promptly notify the wife and in said event, all future payments can only be made iwth money orders, with copies of coupon and money order to be furnished in accord with the above.

If the husband intends to move from the jointly owned real estate, he shall give his wife thirty (30) days written notice of the date he will be removing his residence from the jointly owned property.

So answers, Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

June 9, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, June 8, 1987, the matter is before the Court and handled in an informal manner and the Court directs that the father promptly remove himself from the premises, take nothing more than his personal clothing and personal effects, and even though no formal adjudication of abuse is made, the father consents to an ORder that he will not assault, harass or annoy the wife and children in any fasion.

It appears that the father has already removed a chair, couch, china, crystal, piano, TV and his wife's clothing fromthe premises and he will return the same within forty-eight (48) hours.

Temporary custody of the children is awarded to the mother and the Court urges the parties acting through their counsel to attempt to resolve any partial custody or visitation issues. If they cannot be resolved, either party may file a custody action.

The matter is further complicated by the fact that the father reports that he is unemployed and without assets of any kind. ACCORDINGLY, the Court does not enter a Support Order at this time, but directs that until the matter can be resolved in a formal Domestic Relations actions, the fther pay in the nature of support for the four youngest chidlren in an amount equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of his net earnings from any souce, with payments to be made weekly.

This Order shall remain in force and effect until January 1, 1988, unless sooner terminated or extended by agreement of the parties.

The defendant will pay costs in this case wit hin thirty (30) days.

Once the defendant removes himself from the premises, he may not return to the home without specific invitation of the wife and he shall be excluded from occupying the home once he removes himself in accordance with this ORder.

By agreement of the parties, the children are of sufficient age that if they wish visitations with the father they will call the father at his residence, and after clearing with their mother, will make whatever visitation arrangements they find convenient for the father.

June 22, 1987, RE: CONSENT ABUSE ORDER - ORDER filed. AND NOW, June 22, 1987, the court is advised that the defendant is incarcerated in the Crawford County Jail for allegedly abusing the terms and conditions of a consent order of June 12, 1987.

A hearing is scheduled for June 24, 1987 at 9:30 a.m. in Courtroom no. 1 or 2.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard thomas, P.J.

June 23, 1987, copies of order to Attys. B. Lindsay, JOan MAson and Dist. Atty.

June 25, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, June 24, 1987, this matter is back before the Court for an incident between the parties occurring June 19, 1987, wherein it is alleged by the plaintiff that the defendant assaulted her and inflicted a small would on her neck allegedly with a knife or in some other fashion. The defendant has been incarcerated for violation of the Consent Order previously entered June 12, 1987, and the Court finds just and probable cause for the Police apprehending the defendant for violation of the Order and confining him in jail.

The Court listens to the parties' various complaints about each other, noting that the plaintiff contends the defendant cannot abstain from abuse of alcohol and becomes abusive under the influence and the defendant contending he is concerned that the wife's proclivity for marijuana is endangering not only her health but the welfare of the child she is carrying.

It appears at this time that the wife is not interested in reconciliation and desires a Court Order precluding the defendant from visiting her residence or harassing or annoying her in any fashion. It further appears the defendant is to start a food service training course at the Vo-Tech School on June 23, 1987 and has some possibility of living with his brother Jack Rhoades in Kerrtown.

ACCORDINGLY, we enter the following order:

The defendant shall not contact, annoy or harass or threaten his wife in any fashion or procure others to do so on his behalf.

In the event the parties wish to discuss reconciliation, the Court suggests they do it in front of another third person. In the event the wife invites her husband to return to her residence or the parties take up living arrangements with each other and there are disagreements, arguments or assaults, the Court opines that those matters could be better resolved by the filing of appropriate assualt criminal charges rather than filing an abuse petition bringing the matter to Court in an attempt to restore marital harmony.

This Order shall be in effect for a period of one (1) year and if the defendant violates the terms and conditions of this Order, any Police Officer is authorized to apprehend the defendant upon ascertaining there is probable cause to believe he has committed a violation; place him in the Crawford County Jail and notify the Court to schedule an immediate hearing.

The Warden is authorized to release the defendant forthwith from confinement.

Nov. 9, 1987 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Nov. 6, 1987, the matter is before the Court for review and a request to continue a prior consent Order. It appears the parties have not effected a reconciliation and the Court reviews the income of the Defendant/Husband and ascertains at this time that the Defendant has a net income of approximately $550.00 per week. The Plaintiff/Wife is unemployed, has custody of the two minor children, and is a full-time student at Edinboro University.

Under all the circumstances, the Court believes an Order of $200.00 per week is appropriate with $85.00 of the same being alimony pendente lite and the balance of $115.00 being for child support.

The prior Order of June 12, 1987, provided for the Defendant to pay utilities adn we change said arrangement to the end that it shall be the responsibility of the Plaintiff to pay the utility bills for services rendered after this date.

As far as uncovered medical and dental expenses for spouse and children, the Defendant shall be responsible for paying 75 percent thereof and when bills for the same are received by the wife, she shall forward a copy thereof to the Husband, who wil pay said 75 percent within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the bill directly to the supplier. The wife shall remain responsible for the remaining 25 percent.

In the event the wife pays at the time said services are rendered, she shall get a receipt for the same, forward the receipt to the husband, and he will reimburse the wife 75 percent of said amount.

Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esquire

Oct. 7, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, October 6, 1987, the parties are before the Court represented by counsel on a petition for contempt and a requested change in custody by the father. The matter is handled informally, and it appears that the last visit of the child was without problem and both parents are optimistic that the visitation and custody Order entred July 30, 1987 can be more satisfactorily complied with.

Insofar as contempt of the mother is concerned, the Court withholds a ruling on whether of not her conduct on or about September 11, 1987 would constitute contempt of the Court's Order, but cautions the mother that any further evidence in the future that she is directly or indirectly thwarting the visitation schedule accorded the father will result in contempt citation and appropriate punishment by the Court.

It seems that the five year old child may have some reluctance to leave the mother, and the parties aree with the Court's suggestion that perhaps the best solutuion would be to have the mother take the child to the home of the father and pick the child up at thehome of the father for the next two visits, and then for on or more following visits, have the mother take the child to the father and the father return to the mother , after which time the parties could mutually arrange which parent should pick up and return the child that would prove to be most convenient for both parties.

The father has remarried and mother is contemplating remarriage in 1988, and the Court dicusses withthe parties the possibility that in the event of great inconvenience or illness, the spouse or prospective spouse could perform the pick up and delivery chores ofthe child. Both parties seem agreeable to this, but would not want it to become a standard practice, but only be used in case of emergency or great inconvenience.

The Parties mutually agree that the Order entered July 30, 1987 will be amended to the end that the child will be with the mothr on Mother's Day and the with the Father on Father's Day at hour to be arranged mutually by the parties, and if they fail to agree, the Court establishes the hours as 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

The father at this time does not wish to pursue a change of custody. According the Court does not rule, without prejudice to the right of the father to re-petition for custody under this same petition without the necessity of filing a new petition.

The parties agree that the motehr and child are now in counseling with Titusville Mental Health Center, and this counseling seems to be satisfactory, and both parents agree that if requested by the counselor, they and their prospecitve spouses will keep all appointments and pursue said counseling if requested by the counselor.

July 12, 1993 Complaint For Custody, Petition For Special Relief, filed.
July 12, 1993 (2 copies atty)

July 12, 1993 ORDER filed. AND NOW, July 12, 1993, the Plaintiff in both of these actions appears in motions court with his attorney and the Defendant appears unrepresented.

The Plaintiff has this day filed the second action, which is a Custody Complaint, apparetnly with the belief that there was not already a custody Order in place. Our review indicates that there was a temporary Order entered on July 13, 1987 after mediation and that Order apparently is in full force and effect at A.D. 1987 - 530, although the parties have apparently not followed it.

This day the Plaintiff seeks to stip the Defendant from allowing the minor child to go on a scheduled vacation to the State of New York to visit with other individuals, which vacation apparently the child was going to go on by himself. The Plaintiff indicates that he has problems scheduling his vacation without much notice and that the next time he can schedule a week is in August.

It is apparent to the Court that this action needs further mediation after sic (6) years have passed and that there needs to be some structure with regard to summer periods of temporary Custody.

We cannot solve the various problems of the parties at this late hour when the child is prepared to go on vacation, and accordingly, the child shall be permitted to go on vacation to New York so long as the Defendant accompanies the child.

Once the Plaintiff has posted $150.00 as reguired by the Local Rules for this matter to go back for Mediation,it shall be referred back to Bruce L. Smith, Esquire, Child Custody Mediator for further mediation.

Pending that mediation, other than the trip to New York as aforesaid, no parties shall remove the minor child from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pending further Order of Court.

Mediation shall be scheduled by the Mediator at a time that is convenient for him.

Additionally, the Plaintiff shall advise the Defendant within fourteen (14) days of the date of this Order when he wishes to have the child in his temporary Custody for a period of up to three (3) weeks sometime during the remainder of tis summer once the child has completed his vacation in New York.

Mar. 10, 1994 Order filed. AND NOW, March 8, 1994 after hearing, theCourt finds that primary physical custody of the child chould remain with the mother, but extensive visits with father at appropriate times should be accorded. The Court believes that during the school year, three consecutive weekends with either parent is a desireable alternative but no months should go by without a parent having at least one or two extended weekend visits.

As far as major holidays are concerned,those should be shared and the Court urges the parties through their counsel to try to reach an amicable agreement onthe method of share major holidays.

The attorneys shall each draft a proposed order and submit it to the Court within one week from this date.

Howard N. Stewart, sHeriff

July 14, 1987 Order filed: AND NOW, July 14th, 1987, after mediation conference before John Fuller, Esquire, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED as follows:

I. Legal custody of Benjamin R. Stroup, Seth A. Stroup and Kelly E. Stroup, shall be shared between the parties, that is, each party shall be entitled to full access to medical records, school records and other important records, and each party shall be entitled to take part in decisions affecting the children's education, religious instruction, medical treatment and other important decisions.

II. Physical custody of Benjamin R. Stroup, Seth A. Stroup and Kelly E. Stroup shall be with their mother, Cynthia E. Stroup, subject to the following conditions:

A. The father shall be entitled to visit and take the children into his custody every weekend, with the exception of the last weekend of each month, beginning July 10, 1987, from 5:00 P.M. Friday afternoon until 5:00 P.M. Sunday afternoon. On the last weekend of each month, the children shall be in the mother's custody and the last weekend of the month is defined as that weekend in which the Saturday is the last Saturday of a particular month.

B. The father shall be responsible for transporting the children to and from the home of the mother on weekend visits.

C. Beginning with the summer of 1987, the father shall be entitled to have the children in his custody for four one-week summer visitations to coincide with the children's vacation from school. The father shall provide the mother with at least thirty (30) days notice of the weeks that he intends to have the children in his custody. The four one-week summer visits shall be non-consecutive weeks unless the parties both agree otherwise.

D. While it is provided above that the mother would have the children in here custody the last weekend of each month, it will be acceptable if the mother has the children in her custody on a weekend other that the last weekend of each month, provided mother and father both agree, and in the absence of such agreement, the mother will have the children in her custody the last weekend of the month as provided above.

E. Holidays shall be defined as Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. The parties shall each have the children in their custody for part of each of the aforesaid holidays, dividing the time roughly in half. In other words, if the mother has the children on Christmas day in the morning, the father would have them on Christmas Day in the afternoon.

F. Neither mother nor father shall say anything in the presence of the children to turn the children against the other parent, but on the other hand, shall do everything in the power of each to foster a favorable and loving attitude on the part of the children towards both parents.

This order shall be a temporary order but shall become a permanent order unless exceptions hereto are filed by either party within thirty (3) days of the date hereof.

Costs of the mediation conference will be divided so that Crawford County pays one-half thereof, and Richard J. Stroup pays the remaining one-half.

vs.

David E. Legnosky

AD 1987 - 193

June 30, 1987, ORDER filed. This divorce action was praeciped tothe court for review of a 201(c) divorce and its procedural posture requires the court to defer decision pending further input from counsel.

First, we note that the Defendant is in active militarY service and even though he filed the requisite 201(c) divorce affidavit this c ourt is concerned that the provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act may require representation of counsel or at least the entry of an appearance of ocunsel on the defendant's behalf before according legal validity to pro se actions by a person in active military service.

The matter is further complicated by the fact that the plaintiff originally plead only a 201(c) divorce action but filed a SEPARATE COMPLAINT FOR CUSTODY, GIVING IT THE same number as the divorce action eventhough there was no count in the divorce complaint raising the custody issue. Apparently, the parties were willing that the custody issue be litigated as part of the divorce action and this procedural oversight may be a MOOT ISSUE. However, we note that in the custody action the matter was referred to a custody mediator who filed a mediation report with the court, and the court entered an order on said recommendation June 22, 1987. The mediator's report notes that the father intended to file exceptions to the mediator's recommendation, but the 30 day period for filing the same does not lapse until July 22, 1987.

In view of the foregoing, we are uncertain as to whether the parties wisdh to bifurcate the divorce from the custody issue and have the court reserve ruling on the custody problem. If such is the case, we request counsel for the plaintiff to cite the court appropriate sections of the aforesaid civil releif act or at least pertinent case law that assures the court that an uncounseled memeber of the military service can consent to the entry of a divorce decree.

Likewise, if the parties wish the court to bifurcate the divorce action and grant the divorce decree but reserve for future decision the custody issue, a petition for bifurcation must be presented to the court.

In accord with the foregoing, we decline to act on this divorce decree at this time and return the same to the Prothonotary's Office pending further procedural clarification as n noted above.

12 Oct. 6, 1987, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed. We write this brief memorandum for the enlightenment of the Commonwealth Court noting that we are somewhat handicapped due to the fact that most of the record in this case, including the hearing transcript, was forwarded to the Commonwealth Court on June 8, 1987. The transcript, which was forwarded to the Commonwealth on said date, would disclose that this was an extremely confusing case, keying around a 365 day suspension imposed upon the defendant. The Commonwealth's case rested entirely on a 29 page Certification and Transcript of this Defendant's prior indiscretions regarding the Vehicle Code.

Our order of April 7, 1987, noted that the exhibit presented by the Commonwealth does not disclose the defendant received appropriate notice of any suspensions or point assessments for violation of Section 3361 of theVehicle Code. Additionally, we noted that the confusing record before the Court contains no record of notice to the Defendant for violation of Section 3114, even though a summary sheet seemingly indicates that said notice was sent. We therefore found the assessment of points for violation of these sections was improper because of the failure of the record to disclose that adequate notice of point assessment or suspension was given to the defendant.

We adopt our Order of April 7, 1987, as our opinion and reason lying behind the court sustaining the defendant's appeal and see no need to further enlighten the Commonwealth Court.

We note that apparently through oversight an Application to Withdraw Appearance for Appellee was overlooked by theCourt and not approved until September 29, 1987. The Prothonotary is directed to forward to the Commonwealth Court additional records received afther the original record in this case was forwarded to said court. BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

May 23, 1988, Notice of Discontinuance that the above captioned matter has been withdrawn discontinued and ended, certified from records of Commonwealth Court of Pa.

The balance of the appraisal fee will be paid two-thirds (2/3) by husband and one-third (1/3) by wife, upon submission of a bill by the accounting firm.

In the event a hearing is necessary and the accountant preparing the report must appear and costs are incurred in regard to further court hearings requiring the attendance of the accountant, the court reserves the right to allocate these fees between the parties by further Order.

3. The Defendant will be required to initially advance $500.00 in attorney fees on or before July 1, 1988 to counsel for the wife. This Order is made without prejudice to the right of the wife to apply for additional counsel fees after August 1, 1988, and without prejudice tothe right of the Master or ultimately the Court to divide counsel fees of both parties equitably between the parties in the ultimate divorce decree.

4. In regard to alimony pendente lite, the support obligationunder the Domestic Relations proceeding is rescinded insofar as support for the wife is concerned. Commencing with the week of June 5, 1988, the Court DIRECTS the payment of alimony pendente lite for the support ofthe wife in the amount of $75.00 per week for the months of june, July and August. In the event the parties cannot amicably agree to an extension or midification, either party may petition the court for review of the alimony dendente lite Order after September 1, 1988.

5. In view of the uncertain income of the wife and a dispute about the net income ofthe husband, which may be clarified by the above accountant analysis, the Court arbitrarily contributes earning capacity of $350.00 per week tothe husband and $100.00 per week to the wife in entering this Order.

6. The area of immediate concern is the failure of the parties to pay the monthly mortgage payments on the jointly owned residence occupied by the wife. The Court receives conflicting reports regarding the intention of the company financing the mortgage, while noting that the property is now listed for sale on a listing signed by both parties.

The Court DIRECTS counsel for the husband to produce some statement in writing that will ascertain whether the company holding the mortgage intends immediate foreclosure, will postpone foreclosure for a certain period of time or take some other position requiring the parties to paycertain sums within a definitive period of time. Once this notification is received, with a copy to opposing counsel, either party may petition the Court for review, if they believe a Court Order is equitably required under the circumstances.

July 8, 1988 Copies of order to Theodore Watts and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick

Aug. 2, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, August 1, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a petition for contempt wherein the Plaintiff alleges the Defendant while current on support and alimony payments is not paying them on a w eekly basis as required by this Court's Order of June 3, 1988. The defense is the action is pure harassment and further, that with the nature of the husband's employment and income, a weekly payment is difficult or impossible because ofhis sporadic income.

The Court compromises the matter and converts the two Order into monthly orders, effective August 1, 1988 and will require two payments per month with the requirements that the payments must be made promptly on or before the dates specified.

Accordingly, we modify the Order as follows: The support Order of $30.00 per week ordered by our Order of June 3, 1988 is converted into a monthly child support Order of $129.00 per month, with payments in the amount of $64.50 to be made on or before the 10th and 30th of each and every month commencing with th emonth of August, 1988.

In regard to the temporary alimony pendente lite Order contained in Paragraph 4 of the Court's Order of June 3, 1988, this Order is converted intoa monthly alimony Order of the amount of $322.50. The August payment will be made at the reate of $161.25 onthe 10th and 30th of August. The Court notes that unless the matter is further modified, this payment in August will terminate the present obligation to pay alimony pendente lite.

The Court notes it expects these payments to b emade promptly on the date specified in this Order.

It appears that the mother's medical plan affecting the minor child has terminated, but the father advises that his plan would cover the minor child and he is DIRECTED to see that the mother receives the name and code number of the plan so she may appropriately apply for any benefits covering the minor child.

Until further Order of this Court, any uncovered medical expenses in excess of Seven Dollars ($7.00) will be paid three fourths (3/4) by the father and one-fourth (1/4) by the mother.

Nov 23, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, November 23, 1988, the matter is before the Court for review on a contempt citation because of the Defendant's lack of cooperation in furnishing Hill, Barth & King the appropriate information necessary for them to make an evaluation of the business so this asset may be ascertained in the divorce action. The Court hears input from a representative from the accounting firm of Hill, Barth & King and receives through testimony a list of requests made of the Defendant for records between the years 1980 and 1986. The Defendant testifies and contends that employee problems in the business, an excessively busy work schedule and other factors prevent him from furnishing the information requested by Hill, Barth & King.

The Court believes the Defendant has not extended his best efforts to get this information and, accordingly, the Court finds him in contempt for failing to cooperate and furnish the information requested. Any sanctions or punishment for contempt is suspended on the condition that the Defendant furnish the information requested by Hill, Barth & King to the best of his ability from his office records, tax records, and his own personal knowledge and said information is to be furnished on or before January 16, 1989.

The Domestic Relations child support Order is discussed, although this issue is not properly framed for consideration by the Court. The Defendant is apparently proceeding on the assumption that Domestic Relations practices permit him to continually run one month in arrears on the child support Order. It appears there is currently an arrearage of $129.00 on the support Order and the Domestic Relations Section is directed to list this case for the next session of Domestic Relations Court for review of existing arrearages unless the Defendant brings the matter current on or before December 16, 1988.

April 19, 1989 Order filed. AND NOW, April 18, 1989, the matter is before the Court on Wife's request for alimony pendente lite in the divorce action. It appears the husband's tax return indicates a comparatively bad year financially in his insurance and pension business yielding an adjusted net income of approximately $11,000.00 culminating from a gross income of approximately $61,000.00. The husband is giving up his local pension and insurance business and moving to the Allentown area to continue employment with Massachusetts Mutual Insurance Company and perhaps some ancillary continuing business in pension consultation work. The Court anticipates the defendant/husband will have an increased earning capacity over the result shown on the tax return for 1988.

The wife is a school teacher and had full or part-time teaching work through calendar year 1988 that grossed something between $16,000.00 and $17,000.00 in income but has registered with only one school district as a potential substitute teacher. For unexplainable reasons, employment in a substitute category since January 1st has dramatically fallen off and has yielded practically nothing. The marital home is for sale and the wife anticipates moving to her mother's residence on a temporary basis in Pittsburgh and pursuing new employment or further educational OPPORTUNITIES IN THE health care field.

From the foregoing, it appears that at least for the immediate future, both parties have an earning capacity of approximately equal proportions, with the husband's potential in his insurance business dramatically increasing once he re-establishes himself.

The Court finds the wife, by not accepting other employment offered because the gross and net pay would be less than she could earn as a teacher and by not registering with other school districts as a substitute teacher, has not taken full advantage of her earning potential.

However, in view of her projected move and the uncertainty about procuring employment in the immediate future after the move, we believe she is entitled to temporary alimony for a period of ten weeks until she can re-establish herself. Accordingly, commencing with the week of April 16, 1989, the Court awards temporary alimony pendente lite for a period of ten weeks in the amount of $50.00 per week to be paid on a weekly basis through the Domestic Relations Section of Crawford County..

The wife will keep the Domestic Relations Office notified of her future employment and the gross and net earnings therefrom. Alimony beyond the ten-week period will only be extented by further Order of Court and a Court finding that the wife is totally unable to secure employment of any kind at her new location.

The Defendant is directed to pay costs in the amount of $23.00 forthwith.

Oct. 12, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, October 7, 1988, at the time a hearing is set for contempt for failure to pay alimony pendente lite, through some oversight, the Defendant was not notified to appear or failed to appear. Under any circumstances, counsel for the parties agree the case shall be continued and, accordingly, hearing is reset for October 19, 1988, at 3:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 1 or 2.

The Court notes at th etime of this continuance the Master appears and advises the Court that it will be impossible for him due to the lengthy delay between hearing and Master's report to file a report without transcription of the testimony. the Court notes an Order of Judge Walker of June 29, 1988, requiring a deposit of $2,000.00, which not reposes in the Prothonotary's hands to cover costs and transcripts. The Master is directed to forthwith order a transcript of the testimony in this case and if there are insufficient funds on deposit in the Prothonotary's Office, to move the Court for additional deposits with a recommendation as to how the same should be divided between the parties.

Oct. 12, 1988 Copies of order to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, R. Charles Thomas and Peter Blystone

Oct. 21, 1988 Order filed. AND NOW, October 19, 1988, the matter is back before the Court for review under a change of circumstances. It appears the home has now been sold and the money placed in escrow pending outcome of the divorce action.

It appears the parties now live in rental apartments and that the wife now is a full-time college student and is financing her college education through grants and loans. The wife hasno discernible income and is in her second year of college.

A review of the husband's earnings indicte a net take-home pay of approximately $543.00 per week to which the Court adds $100.00 because the net per week reflects a payment of $199.00 per month for car payments, of which the Court allocates one-half to the car in posssession of the husband and one-half to the car in possession of the wife. Additionally, the Defendant has the opportunity for Coast Guard service approximately one weekend per month and the Court adds an additional $25.00 per week to account for this income making the husband's net take-home pay approximately $668.00 per week for the purpose of ascertaining a support obligation.

The Court notes the husband now has the responsibility of support fo rthe two children and beieves that an alimony pendente lite Order in the amount of $130.00 per week would be appropriate. In view of the fact the defendant is paid twice per month by his employer, the support Order entered is for $282.00 payable in two equal monthly installments.

The Court grants the plaintiff's request to have this support Order processed through Domestic relations and accordingly, the Defendant will pay direct to his wife for the week commencing October 16, 1988, the sum of $130.00 and for the week of October 23, 1988, the sum of $130.00. Commencing with the month of November 1988 and monthly thereafter, the Order shall be the sum of $560.00 per month for alimony pendente lite payable in two equal installments each week of $280.00 each through the Domestic Relations section. The parties are directed to go to the Domestic Relation Seciton. to fill out the requisite forms necessary for processing this case through that office.

The aforesaid Order is made with the understanding that the husband will continue to make car payments and made no change in his insurance policies.

The parties will continue to pay uninsured medical expenses except non- prescription drugs on a 75 percent husband/25 percent wife basis. The wife will not be responsible for payment of any of the children's medical expenses.

There is a dispute over non-prescription drugs secured through a doctor in Erie. The Court directs the husband shall not be responsible unde rthis clause for reimbursement to pay for any non-prescription drugs.

It appears a hearing has been held before the Master in the divorce action and the Master is waiting for a transcript to make a final decision. The parties are in dispute about this Court's Order of June 12, 1987, anda subsequent Order on November 6, 1987. In the June 12, 1987, Order in paragraph two thereof, the Court Ordered the defendant to continue making mortgage payments. In theNovember 6, 1987, Order, no specific mention was made of the continuance ofthe payment of the mortgage by the husband but it was the intent of this Court that in its November 6, 1987, Order, that the Defendant continue the responsibility of making mortgage payments. Apparently the husband defaulted in these payments in February or March of 1988 and the Master may take into consideration this default in the Court's Orde rifthrough said defeault the parties received less fromthe sale of thehouse than had the husband complied with the Orde rand ocntinued to keep the mortgage payments current up to the date of closing.

July 12, 1989 Order filed: AND NOW, July 6, 1989, at the time set for hearing on a contempt petition, the parties and their counsel agree to proceed on an informal basis, with added input from a Child Welfare caseworker involved in the case. The Court finds no reason why its previous Orders according the mother a two (2) month summer visit with the minor child Tara should not be complied with, and finds that the reasons advanced for failing to comply with said Order by the father are unjustified.

The mother shall have the right to take possession of the minor child, Tara, on July 6, 1989 at 6:00 p.m. In view of the fact said visit should have started June 1, 1989, the summer visit with Tara shall be changed for the calendar year 1989 to run from July 6, through September 6.

The father expresses concern about the welfare of the children when they are in the presence of a former companion of the mother by the name of Brian Holter. The mother agrees, and the Court DIRECTS that the Orders heretofor entered be augmented by the following provision. Neither of the minor children while in the custody of the mother or anyone in whom she has place their custody for a temporary period of time shall come in contact with Brian Holter.

Both parties agree that in any prior custody and visitation Orders be amended to require that neither parent nor other members of the household shall possess or use illegal drugs of any kind in the presence of the children.

The Court finds that the Defendant/father's conduct in this case to be in contempt of the visitation and custody Orders, but suspends at this time any punishment for said contempt, but in the event the Court finds in the future a wilful and deliberate further violation of this Court's Order, this contempt finding this day entered will also be considered at the time of any future contempts.

May 21, 1998 ORDER FILED. AND DNOW, May 12, 1998 this matter is before the Court on a Petition for Contempt of an October 12, 1989 child visitation custody order. The circumstances have changd since the order was entered in that the father of the children now lives in Edinboro while the mother remains residing in Meadville. This caused complexitis and problems which have been compounded by the fact that the mother does not have a driver's license and claims she has to rely on friends, boyfriend, or mother for transportation.
There is no doubt in the Court's mind that the order of October 12 has not been complied with fully by the fahter and mother has been denied 8 visits with the children.
After receiving input from the parties and counsel, the parties mutually agree the order mentioned heretofore entered in 1989 will be modified as follwos:
1. The Mother shall have the responsibility of picking up the children on Friday at 7 adn the father shall have the responsibility of picking up the children at the mother's home on Sudnays at 8.
2. The parties mutually agree that the daytime visits accorded the mother under Paragraph 2 shall be canceled as the children are not of school age and conditions for daytime visits are no longer practical.
3. The mother contends she has lost approximately 8 visits because of the fahter's failure to comply with the aforesaid 1989 order adn the father agrees to accord the mother additional visits for these lost visits is appropriate.
Accordingly, the parties mutually agree that mother's summer visits shall be extended from Aug. 12 until the 28 for the calendar year 1998.
Due to the extension of the mohter's visitation in August, father shall be entitled to weekend visitation the third and fourth weekend of the month of August with father to provide transportation both ways.
5. The parties mutually agree that for unforseen reasons such as illness, working schedules or other unexptected problems either parent will not have the children ready for pick up or either parent will not be able to makae the pick up for the children they shall notify the other party at least 3 hours in advance that they will not be picking upo the children.
6. The parties agree that under Paragraph 3 of the aforesaid order holiday visits will remain the same.
7. The parties mutually agree that Paragraph 4 putting the entire transportation on the father has been modified by the above.
8. All other conditions of the order setforth on October 12, 1989 shall be complied with by the parties.
9. This Court finds that fahter's arbitrary action in this case caused the Contempt Petition to be filed and while the Court declines at this time to find the father in willful and deliberate contempt of the order, he is cautioned that such leniency will not be extended if the Court in the future finds he has violated this modified agreement. The Court believes equity and fairness require the Defendant, father to pay a portion of the attorney fees for the Plaintiff and accordingly the father is directed to pay the sum of $200 to Atty Bernadette DeVore with $100 to be paid on or before June 1, 1998 and another $100 to be paid on or before July 1, 1998.

Aug. 9, 1991 Answer and Counterclaim filed.

Aug. 16, 1991 ORDER, filed. ORDER: AND NOW, Aug. 9, 1991, this matter was scheduled for hearing on Aug. 9, 1991, at the request of the defendant wife, asking for continuance of a temporary alimony Order entered De. 22, 1988. Apparently, even though said Order required the plaintiff husband to apy alimony pendente lite only for an eight-week period, the husbnad continued to voluntarily make some payments until May of 1991 when he discontinued the payments.

As noted in this Court's prior Order, no Answer of Counter-Claim to the husband's divorce Complaint was made, and thus the only issue raised in the divorce pleadings was the grant of the divorce. The Court is advised this date that an Answer to the Complaint will be filed with a Counter-Claim raising the issue of equitable distribution.

Apparently, no permanent alimony is pled or will be sought on behalf of the wife.

The Court notes there has been a change of counsel, and Attorney Douglas Ferguson now represents the plaintiff and Attorney James Irwin now represents the defendant. Apparnetly, because no formal appearance was entered by Attorney Ferguson, he did not receive notice of the hearing scheduled this date. ACCORDINGLY, we continue the hearing on the motion of the wife to continue the payment of alimony pendente lite and other ancillary expenses to Aug. 21, 1991 at 2:00 p.m. in Courtroom No. 2.

Sept. 23, 1991 ORDER filed. AND NOW, Sept. 19, 1991 at the time fixed for hearing on the Defendant's request for alimony pendente lite, the parties agreed to a resolution of this matter and therefore, based upon said agreement, it is ordered as follows:

The Plaintiff shall pay the Defendant alimony pendente lite in the amount of $90 per week for a two month period commencing with the week beginning Sept. 23, 1991.

The Court reserves the right on request or petition of the Defendant to grant additional sums of alimony pendente lite if the facts and law warrant the same.

Mar. 24, 1992 copy in box for D. Ferguson & J. Irwin

Apr. 20, 1992 ORDER filed. AND NOW, April 16, 1992, this matter is before the Court on the request for hearing by the Defendant with regard to her petition for related alaims including alimony pendente lite, counsel fees and costs.

The parties appear with their counsel and agree to proceed informally.

The Court believes that this matter is at a point where it needs to be resolved and the parties appear to have worked hard to settle it and settlement just isn't going to be possible.

The Court further believes that the economic situation of the Defendant warrants further alimony pendente lite and she is granted alimony pendente lite in the amount of $75.00 per week for a three (3) month period maximum beginning with the week of April 20, 1992.

In order to move this divorce forward, it appears that the only outstanding filing necessary is the inventory and appraisal of the Plaintiff, and his counsel indicates that that can be filed within a period of ten (10) days and accordingly, he is directed to file the same on or before April 27, 1992.

Additionally, apparently both parties are prepared to file affidavits of consent with regard to the divorce and those shall also be filed on or before April 27, 1992.

Thereafter, within a period of ten (10) days from that date, the Plaintiff shall move the Court for appointment of a Master to hear the remaining equitable distribution issues and counsel fees and expenses with regard to this matter.

At that time the Court will allocate the Master's deposit to be made by both parties.

Alimony pendente lite will terminate at the expiration of the three (3) months unless there is further Order of Court or will automatically terminate if the divorce is granted prior to the expiration of that three-month period.

Additionally, the Plaintiff shall pay to the Defendant toward her attorney fees the sum of $250.00 on or before April 30, 1992 and $250.00 on or before May 15, 1992, without prejudice to the Master to award additional attorney fees or otherwise make a determination with regard to the same in hsi or her discretion.

It is the Court's hope that this matter is resolved within the ninety (90) day period from this date, however, this Order for alimony pendente lite is without prejudice to the rights of the Defendant to request additional sums of alimony pendente if the facts and law warrant the same.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
Anthony J. Vardaro, J.

April 12, 1988 Copies of order to counsel of record.

April 11, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, April 7, 1988, the parties, in relation to securing appraisals for the three parcels of real estate listed in the inventories and appraisements, agree as follows:

An appraisal in late 1985 or 1986 on the apartment building at 215 McClelland Avenue was appraised by Appraiser Ted Wilson and a copy thereof will be submitted to counsel for Mrs. Swift within forth-eight (48) hours. Unless said appraisal is different than represented by counsel for Mr. Swift, the Plaintiff and her attorney will accept the same as being a fair representation of the value of said apartment house as of April 1, 1988.

With relation to the marital residence at 108 North Main Street, Cambridge Springs, the value thereof is not stated in the wife's appraisal but a value of $50,000.00 is estimated in the husband's appraisal. Both parties agree that Appraiser market value of the residence at 108 North Main Street and submit a copy of said appraisal to counsel for both parties. The cost of said appraisal will be paid within twenty (20) days by Defendant/Husband without prejudice to the right of the Master, or ultimately the Court, to allocate costs for this appraisal along with all other costs in the case between the parties in an equitable manner.

There apparently remains five items of personal property that there is no agreement on the valuation. At this time, the parties mutually agree that for the autos in possession of each of the parties, the value expressed in the NADA booklet commonly used by car salesmen will be used and the values therein will establish the value of each vehicle in eahc party's possession.

With regard to a camper, both parties agree a valuation of this item will be $1,000.00.

With regard to a fishing boat, the parties agree the value shall be $500.00.

With regard to a snow blower, the parties tentatively agree that the value shall be $300.00, reserving unto the wife the right within the next fifteen (15) days to secure a key for the garage where the same is lodged and take anyone she wishes for an inspection and appraisal thereof at her expense.

PETITION FOR CONTINUATION OF ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE

Alimony pendente lite under Judge Walker's Order of September 2, 1987, termination on or about March 1, 1987. Under the facts produced before the Court this date, the Court believes that alimony should have been continued in this interim period and should continue into the future. ACCORDINGLY, alimony pendente lite in the amount of $725.00 per month is continued commencing with March 1, 1988, for an additional period of six (6) months thereafter unless the divorce action is sooner terminated. Alimony shall be paid at the rate of $725.00 per month on or before the 10th of each and every month. In addition, to make up for the month of March, the Court believes it inequitable under the previous Order to require the Defendant to make one lump sum payment for the missing month of March. ACCORDINGLY, in addition to the aforesaid Order, the Defendant will be required to pay an additional sum of $125.00 until a total sum of $725.00 is paid as arrearages.

Both parties contend they are anxious that this divorce matter be disposed of as quickly as possible, and accordingly, the Court directs M. Dan Mason, the Master in this case, to schedule a pre-trial conference with the parties at a date of his choice, but to schedule a hearing to dispose of the divorce matter not later that June 9, 1988.

In view of the promptness of prior payments, the Court will not order at this time the payments processed through the Domestic Relations Section. HOWEVER, any payment that is received more that ten (10) days after the same is due on the 10th of each and every month, counsel for the Plaintiff may certify said fact to the Court, together with a motion to transfer processing and collection of this alimony to the Domestic Relations Section.

Wojsiat vs. Wojsiat A.D. 1987 - 377 Divorce.

June 29, 1987 ORder filed. AND NOW, June 26, 1987, the matter is before the Court for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees. The matter is informally discussed with the aprties and their counsel and parties and counsel are unable to agree upon an amicable ORder.

ACCORDINGLY, the Court enters the following ORder:

1. Commencing with the month of June, 1987, and continuing for the months of June, July, August and September, the defendant/husband will pay the sum of $325.00 per month in two equal payments payable onthe first and 18th of each and every month as alimony pendente lite, with said payments going directly to the plaintiff.

2. The Court notes that the plaintiff will become fully employed in the military while taking specialized LPN training during the month of September. However, wife advises that the military will withhold the september pay until she completes approximately one year of specialized LPN training. In view of the fact that she will be fully employable in the month of September but will not receive pay therefor, the Court has ordered the husband to pay alimony pendente lite for the month of September. However, in any resolution of this divorce, either by counsel, amicably or by a Master, the Court directs that there shall be a final deduction of $325.00 from the wife's equitable share as reimbursement to the husband for the fact that she received alimony pendente lite during the month of September while she was fully employed and no longer entitled to alimony pendente lite.

3. The Court directs this award of alimony pendente lite also includes support for the minor child now in her custody.

4. There is some dispute about a bill from Dr. Barry Bittman, upon which thereis an unpaid balance due of $116.25. A copy ofthe bill will be returned to the husband who will check through his employer to ascertain if the balance due on this bill is covered by the husband's insurance policy. If it is not, the husband shall be responsible for the same and shall pay onne-half of said bill on or before July 15th, and the remaining balance on or before August 15, 1987.

5. Regarding counsel fees, the defendant will pay to counsel for the wife the sum of $100.00 on July 24, 1987, and a similar $100.00 on August 21, 1987 as parital counsel fees of wife's counsel. Unless the matter becomes unduly protacted, the Court will entertain no further motion for additional counsel fees. The Order of counsel fees is made without prejudice to the right of the Master and ultimately the Court to allocate each party's counsel fees equitably under the Divorce Act.

6. As far as standard uninsured medical expenses are concerned, the father shall remain responsible for any such expenses incurred on the child's behalf not covered by his insurance policy. The husband shall also be responsible for seventy-five percent (75%) of uninsured medical expenses incurred by the wife. Neither party nor the Court anticipates any unusual expenses in this regard, and if major surgery or some severe injury is incurrred, either party can petition the court for reconsideration. Likewise, the Court does not anticipate that routine over-the-counter frugs, routine standard medical or dental expenses in included in this type of an ORder. If procedure requires that for any medical expenses covered under the husband's policy, that the expenses first have to be paid, but upon submission of the claim, will be reimbursed to the husband, the husband shall pay the same and shall be entitled to all reimbursement thereon.

7. Order regarding costs of mediation, plaintiff/wife has filed request for rehearing onthe Court's previous ORder of June 15, 1987, allocating mediation costs equally between the parties. The Court directs that of the wife's share of $79.44, be paid as follows: $29.44 by the wife on or before sEptember 1, 1987 and the remaining $50.00 to be paid bythe County.oThe Prothonotary is directed to correct his billing records and the records in this case accordingly.

Taking the broad interpretation of the Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 3.7(a)(2), plaintiff's counsel will be permitted to testify as to the reasonableness and extent of attorney's fees and litigation costs expended in the third party litigation, but will be expected to have other counsel available to take over on interrogation at that point in the trial. If requested, we will make an appropriate cautionary instruction to the jury as to the testimony of the advocate in a trial.

Each counsel shall submit to the court at the time of jury selection the following:

1. Proposed jury instructions regarding the meaning of the policy which is a matter of interpretation for the court.

2. Proposed special interrogatory to be submitted to the jury if the issue of liability is in fact submitted to the jury.
