Dec. 20, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, December 14, 1978, after hearing, custody of the minor child MICHELE IRWIN is awarded to the mother Wanda Lantz effective this date and subject to the following conditions:

1. Satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child with the father either all day December 23rd or December 24th this year and in future years. Commencing with the month of January, 1979, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody at his home on the first weekend of every month and if the parties cannot agree on suitable hours, the hours will be from Saturday Noon until Sunday at 7:00 p.m. In addition thereto, the father shall be entitled to have the child in his care and custody for one continuous week, being the third week of every month commencing with the month of January, 1979, and unless the parties agree otherwise, the week shall be construed as Sunday at 10:00 a.m. until the following Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

2. In addition thereto, the Court urges the parties to cooperatively make other arrangements for occasion visits between the father and child during the time the child is in the custody of the mother.

3. Custody is awarded to the mother on the condition that the child will not be removed for permanent residence or for periods other than nominal vacation periods outside the jurisdiction of this Court without consent of the father, and in the event the father does not consent, the Court will entertain motion for further hearing on this point.

4. At this time, the Court refrains from entering an Order for support for the minor child MICHELE, but directs counsel for the parties to attempt to work out an amicable agreement, and in the event said agreement cannot be satisfactorily completed, the mother is directed to file a non-support action not later than January 1, 1979.

ORDER - CUSTODY

AND NOW, November 30, 1978, it appearing that a petition to amend custody has been filed at a domestic relations number by virtue of the Memorandum of Agreement entered into between the parties and finalized by the Court Order on March 18, 1976, the issue before the Court is the father's request to secure custody of the child, and we will consider this matter at this time and upon entry of a final order, said order on custody will be filed in the Prothonotary's Office under a number and term and copies of the petition to amend custody will be filed with a new term and number in the Prothonotary's Office. Dec. 5, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, November 30, 1978, after partial hearing the request for blood tests of Thomas Lantz are denied for the reason the Court believes that the request for blood tests in the custody proceeding now before the Court is not within the contemplation of Section 6133 of the Judicial Code as the mother of the child here at issue is attempting to prove nonpaternity of the father and for the further reasons that the father has continued to pay support over a period of some three (3) years, and that the principles of estoppel and common sense dictate that at this late date the mother should not be entitled to contest paternity of this child which was born during the time the parties were married.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas

Dec. 5, 1978 Copies of order given to Robert Bailey, Esq. and Joan Mason, Esq.

Dec. 14, 1978 Exhibits filed in file cabinet.

Dec. 19, 1978 Order filed: AND NOW, December 14, 1978, after hearing and trial, the custody of the minor child, Nancy Lantz, is hereby awarded to the father, effective this date.

The mother shall have the right to have visitation with the child on the first and third weekends of every month, commencing with the month of January, 1979, and unless the parties agree otherwise, said visitation shall commencs at 7:00 P.M. on Friday evening and terminate Sunday at 7:00 P.M. It shall be the responsibility of the mother to pick up and return the child for said visits.

During the summer months of June, July and August, the mother shall have the additional right to have the child in her possession for a period of three (3) nonconsecutive one-week periods, providing she notifies the father at least two (2) weeks in advance of the weeks she wishes to have the child and providing also said weeks selected shall not interfere with the vacation schedule of the father. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the weeks shall commence Saturday at noon and terminate the second following Sunday at 7:00 P.M.

As far as Christmas is concerned, the child will be in the home of the father on Christmas Day but satisfactory arrangements will be made to have the child in the home of the mother for a period of not less that seven (7) hours either the day before or the day after Christmas.

The Court directs that the major portion of the child's clothes, toys and other accouterments necessary for the proper care of a child of this age be surrendered by the mother to the father at such time as they mutually agree.

The visitation rights accorded the mother shall remain effective so long as she remains in residence with her parents or secures separate living arrangements for herself, provided said separate arrangements do no involve the living with a male person not her spouse.

In the event the mother moves her residence from Crawford County or leaves for an extended vacation, she shall properly notify the father and the father may petition the Court for modification of visitation rights.

The mother is directed to pay costs to the Clerk of Courts Office in the amount of $10.00. Other costs to follow the verdict in this case.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 6, 1982, Copies of Order to Robert Bailey, Esq., David Hotchkiss, Esq. and Joan D. Mason, Esq.

Aug. 13, 1982 Order filed: AND NOW, August 12, 1982, after hearing, the Court notes that the petitioner Louis Kephart is not a natural or stepgrandfather of this child and it is the desire of the parents that he not have visitational privileges with their child.

The Court has heard testimony regarding the emotional problems of the child and the progress that is being made towards stablizing her existence and believes that substantial visits away from the home with the natural grandmother would not be in the child's best interests at this time. ACCORDINGLY, commencing with the month of August and for twelve (12) months thereafter, the grandmother Louise Kephart shall have the right to come to the home of Thomas and Cheryl Lantz at such time as is mutually satisfactory for a visit with her grandchild Nancy for a period of not less than two (2) hours. Once grandmother and granddaughter re-establish a relationship with each other, commencing with the 13th month, the grandmother shall have the right to take the child away from the premises to such places as are approved by the parents so long as Louis Kephart does not accompany her or is not at any place where grandmother and grandchild will be. These visits shall be for a period of at least six hours one day per month away from the premises. In the event grandmother and parents cannot agree on the terms and conditions of these away-from-home visits, either party may petition the Court and the Court will set rules for said visits.

The Court notes that the father of said child expressed to the Court his desire that daughter Nancy have a relationship with her grandmother and that the only issue is where the visits shall take place. The Court encourages such an attitude and is hopeful that the parties can mutually establish a friendly atmosphere between themselves when grandmother is visiting in the home.

It appears that Wanda Lantz, mother of Nancy Lantz, has had no visits with the child and has paid no attention to the child for a considerable period of time and even though she received notice of the initial hearing in this case, has not appeared in Court. ACCORDINGLY, the Court finds it would not be in the child's best interests for the mother to continue to have the visitation rights accorded to her by our Court Order of December 14, 1978, and accordingly, this Court cancels the provisions for said visitations with the mother without prejudice to the right of the mother at some future time to convince this Court that it would be in the child's best interest for her to renew an interest in said child.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

Aug. 16, 1982 Copies of order to Robert Bailey, Esq. and David Hotchkiss, Esq.

Oct. 7, 1983 Petition for Court Scheduling of Grandchild visits and Order filed. AND NOW, October 7, 1983, a hearing is scheduled on the within Petition for the 10 day of Nov. 83, at 10:00 o'clock A.M., in Court Room No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse in Meadville, Pennsylvania. By the Court:
P Richard Thomas, J

Oct. 12, 1983 Copies of order to Robert Bailey and Mary Ann Kirkpatrick.

Nov. 23, 1983, GRANDPARENT VISITATION ORDER filed. The matter is well known to this court and comes before the court again on a petition to review and continue previously ordered visits on a carefully structured basis between grandmother and grandchild.

After exploring the facts, concerns of the parents, the family bitterness between grandparents, natural father and adoptive mother and the substantial progress the child has made in the past year, we conclude that future visits with grandmother would not be in the child's best interest.

ACCORDINGLY, we terminate any previously ordered visitation schedule for the grandmother and decline to enter an order according the grandmother visits with the child.

We enter this order without prejudice to the right of parents to accord such visits at such times and under such conditions as they believe to be in the child's best interests.

Feb. 15, 1980, ORDER filed. AND NOW, February 13, 1980, it appearing that counsel for the plaintiffs is concerned that no responsive pleading was filed to defendants' new matter and offered to take a voluntary nonsuit and restart the case again, counsel for the defendants and counsel for the plaintiffs agree that no responsive pleading shall be required to the new matter filed in the defendants' answer and the case will proceed to trial on the assumption that all pertinent allegations requiring a responsive pleading in paragraphs 25 to 34 and, in particular paragraph 34, would be appropriately responded to or denied by a proper reply to new matter. Rather than delay the trial of the case, counsel agree that the matter may proceed on the above agreement and that neither counsel will attempt to introduce unanswered paragraphs 24 through 34 as an admission because no responsive pleading was filed.

In view of the fact counsel for the plaintiffs is engaged in a trial in Erie on February 14, 1980, this case will be continued until the March term of Court and will be heard on a nonjury basis at the conclusion of the criminal list in March.

BY THE COURT,

Feb. 14, 1979, Copy of Order mailed to Robert J. Felton, Esq.

Feb. 20, 1979 Writ Returned: SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO Linda D. Carter personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Order No. 8 May Term, 1979 to her, on February 16, 1979 at 10:45 o'clock A.M. at her place of residence, R.D. #3, Cambridge Springs, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania. So answers,

Edgar D. Householder, Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Mar. 1, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, March 1, 1979, after hearing, the Court believes the best interests of the children, DEBORAH L. CARTER and SCOTT R. CARTER would be served by awarding custody to their father, and the Court so ORDERS.

The Court believes the best interest of the child DARREN J. CARTER would be served by awarding custody to his mother, and the Court so ORDERS.

The Court refers the matter back to the parties and their counsel to establish by written agreement or by further consent Order an adequate visitation schedule that takes into consideration the fact that the Court desires that weekend visits be accorded to the non-custodial parent that at least during one (1) month during the summer school vacation period the non-custodial parent will have the children in his or her custody either one consecutive month or two (2) non-consecutive separate two (2) week periods.

It is the Court's desire that the vacation schedules of the parties be considered so that the children may have meaningful vacation periods with each of their parents.

In the event the parties are unable to resolve these visitation matters and reduce the same to writing within thirty (30) days, either party may file a motion with the Court and the Court then without further hearing will establish adequate visitation periods to which the parties must abide.

McGuire at No. 42 May Term, 1979 in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County is DISMISSED as the Court finds as a question of fact and law under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (11 P.S. 2301) thatCrawford County has no jurisdiction to entertain this custody action.

With regard to the petition of Karen A. McGuire to establish jurisdiction of the Wisconsin court over this child custody action and for Pennsylvania to recognize said decree, the Court grants said petition and rules as a question of law and a question of fact that the State of Wisconsin had jurisdiction to enter the temporary and final custody decree as evidenced by a divorce decree entered in the Circuit Court, Branch #1 of Rock County, State of Wisconsin, Case No. 22871,which decree awarded custody of the minor child Paula Jeannette McGuire to the Mother Karen A. ACCORDINGLY, Stanley McGuire is hereby directed to surrender custody of said minor child to Karen A. McGuire on or before 6:00 o'clock p.m. this date and the said Karen A. McGuire is hereby authorized to remove said child to the State of Wisconsin forthwith.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of Stanley McGuire to request modification of the custody order entered at Case No. 22871 in Rock County, Wisconsin and to present any evidence to the Court in said County entitling him to a modification of the decree awarded custody to him or exending to him appropriate visitation rights.

In accordance with Section 16 of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (11 P.S. 2316), the Court believes the awarding of expenses is appropriate but in view of the fact that counsel for the defendant came to the hearing assuming the matters would be limited to legal argument and advised his client it was not necessary for him to appear, the Court will reserve its ruling on the appropriateness and amount of expenses and hereby sets a hearing on this matter for Monday, March 12, 1979, at 4:30 p.m.

In view of the fact testimony regarding expenses of Karen McGuire has already been heard and cross examination thereon adduced, her attendance will not be required at said hearing .

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, President Judge

Mar. 12, 1979 3 Copies of order (2 certified) to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq. and 2 copies ot Gordon Miller, Esq.

Mar. 16, 1979, Order To Pay Expenses filed. ORDER: The defendant, Stanley McGuire, is directed to pay to Northwestern Legal Services for forwarding to Karen A. McGuire, the sum of $425 within twenty (20) days of the filing of this order. The Court declines to award any expenses for legal fees in view of the fact the mother used nonprofit Legal Services in Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

In awarding the aforesaid amount to the mother the Court notes that some of the mother's expenses were advanced by charitable or nonprofit organizations (other than Legal Services) and the Court recommends that the mother return said advances to the organizations assisting her; it being the Court's intent to reimburse the mother for such "out of her own pocket" expenses as she actually incurred.

Date: March 15, 1979.

PETITION FOR CHILD CUSTODY BY INITIAL OR MODIFICATION DECREE

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 21st day of February, 1979, upon consideration of the within Petition, a Rule is granted upon the respondent, Karen A. McGuire, to show cause why the prayer for relief requested by the petitioner and Stanley J. McGuire should not be granted. Returnable for argument the 9th day of March, 1979, at 2:30 o'clock, P.M., in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania. Notice shall be given forthwith by certified mail to Karen A. McGuire at 339 South Locust Street, Janesville, Wisconsin 53545, and by personal service within Crawford County, Pennsylvania, by the Sheriff of Crawford County, Pennsylvania, or a constable duly acting with Crawford County, Pennsylvania, and upon Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, of Northwest Pennsylvania Legal Services, believed to be counsel for the respondent.

Robert L. Walker,
Judge

Mar. 8, 1979, Motion To Dismiss Petition for Child Custody filed. 1 copy attested. (atty)

Mar. 9, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, March 9, 1979, after brief hearing and legal argument, the petition for child custody or modification of a Wisconsin decree filed by the father Stanley J. McGuire at No. 42 May Term, 1979 in the Court of Common Pleas of Crawford County is DISMISSED as the Court finds as a question of fact and law under the Uniform Child Gustody Jrisdiction Act (11 P.S. 2301) that Crawford County has no jurisdiction to entertain this custody action.

With regard to the petition of Karen A. McGuire to establish jurisdiction of the Wisconsin court over this child custody action and for Pennsylvania to recognize said decree, the Court grants said petition and rules as a question of law and a question of fact that the State of Wisconsin had jurisdiction to enter the temporary and final custody decree as evidenced by a divorce decree entered in the Circuit Court, Branch #1 of Rock County, State of Wisconsin, Case No. 22871, which decree awarded custody of the minor child Paul Jeannette McGuire to the mother Karen A. McGuire.

ACCORDINGLY, Stanley McGuire is hereby directed to surrender custody of said minor child to Karen A. McGuire on or before 6:00 o'clock p.m. this date and the said Karen A. McGuire is hereby authorized to remove said child to the State of Wisconsin forthwith.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of Stanley McGuire to request modification of the custody Order entered at Case No. 22871 in Rock County, Wisconsin and to present any evidence to the Court in said County entitling him to a modification of the decree awarding custody to him or extending to him appropriate visitation rights.

In accordance with Section 16 of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (11 P.S. 2316), the Court believes the awarding of expenses is appropriate but in view of the fact that counsel for the defendant came to the hearing assuming the matters would be limited to legal argument and advised his client it was not necessary for him to appear, the Court will reserve its ruling on the appropropriateness and amount of expenses and hereby sets a hearing on this matter for Monday, March 12, 1979, at 4:30 p.m.

In view of the fact testimony regarding expenses of Karen McGuire has already been heard and cross examination thereon adduced, her attendance will not be required at said hearing.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, President Judge

Original
(Order filed at No 16 May Term, 1979)

Mar 12, 1979 3 copies (2 Certified) to Mary Ann Kirkpatrick, Esq. and 2 copies to Gordon Miller, Esq.

Mar. 16, 1979 Order to Pay Expenses filed: We heard the above case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (11 P.S. 2301) and found the defendant father had vidlated a Wisconsin Court Order awarding custody of a minor child to his former wife. He absconded with the child from Wisconsin to Pennsylvania and secreted his whereabouts from the child's mother for a number of months. After the child was located, we held a hearing and returned custody to the mother without prejudice to the father to petition the Wisconsin Courtfor a dange in custody order.

The petitioning mother asked for reimbursement of expenses as allowed by Section 16 of the aforesaid Act (11P.S.2316). We held a hearing to ascertain the expenses incurred by the mother to explore the income and assets of the offending father. We enter the following order: The Defendant, Stanley McGuire, is directed to pay to Northwestern Legal Services for forwarding to Karen A. McGuire, the sum of $425 within Twenty (20) days of the filing of this order. The Court declines to award any expenses for legal fees in view of the fact the mother used nonprofit Legal Services in Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

In awarding the aforesaid amount to the mother the Court notes that some of the mother's expenses were advanced by charitable or nonprofit organizations (other than Legal Services) and the Court recommends that the mother return said advances to the organizations assisting her; it being the Court's intent to reimburse the mother for such "out of her own pocket" expenses as she actually incurred.

Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

Mar. 26, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, March 22, 1979, after informal exploration of the facts and consultation with the children, counsel for the parties advise the Court that a hearing is not necessary as the parties have amicably agreed to the following terms and conditions:

1. All three children will remain in the custody of the father until the termination of the present school year in June. Within five (5) days after the termination of the school year, custody of the children CANDACE PETERMAN AND REBECCA PETERMAN will be transferred to their mother, custody of CHRISTOPHER PETERMAN will remain with the father.

2. Present arrangements between the parties for visits of the children until the school year is over appear to be satisfactory, and the parties advise the Court they will continue to make their own arrangements for weekend visits.

3. After the transfer of custody of the two older children to the mother, the parties will mutually agree on alternate weekend visitations for the children in order that all three children will be in the home of one of the parents on alternate weekends.

4. The parties agree no special arrangements will be made for Christmas and other holidays as the parent who is entitled to visitations will have the children on the holiday weekends if the holiday falls on said weekend.

In view of the fact this matter is reached by mutual agreement, the father is apprehensive that the desire of the two older girls to live with their mother may be a temporary nature, and in view of the fact the Court did not hold a fact finding hearing on this matter, this Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the father to request, by motion at this term and number, the return of one or both of the children to him and request a hearing thereon with said request not to be made before October 1, 1979.

Nov. 30, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, November 28, 1979, at the time set for hearing, Court refuses to adjudge the mother in contempt, it appearing that the difficulty between the parties is largely a matter of technicalities and clash of personalities. In order to clarify the matter, the Court enteres the following modification to the previous order dated March 22, 1979:

As far as Paragraph 3 is concerned, it appears the mother has a work schedule that occupies most of her weekends, but when she has occasional weekends off, wishes to have custody of the children. Accordingly, in view of said schedule, the father will be accorded weekend visits as follows: Weekends of December 15th and 22nd; January 5th and 12th; February 2nd and 16th; March 1st and 22nd. On or before March 15, 1980, the mother shall send the father a list of the weekends when she will be off work for the balance of the year, and the father shall within seven (7) days notify the mother by mail the two (2) weekends of each of the remaining months of the year that he will exercise his visitation privileges.

By agreement of the parties, weekends shall be considered as running from Friday to Sunday, and the father shall pick up the children on Friday at 6:00

July 15, 1980 Order filed: AND NOW, July 14, 1980, after review hearing, the Court finds that the patient, KENNETH ROCKAFELLOW, is not a menace to the community, but is a menance and a danger to himself, because his independant living arrangement has allowed his physical and mental condition to deteriorate to the point where his health is endangered. Further, he has elected not to take his medication as prescribed and to attend partial hospitalization. Accordingly, the Court feels that a period of stabilization is neeessary and a more structured environment is required.

Accordingly, the Court sustains the order of the hearing officer committing him to Warren State Hospital under Section 304 of the Mental Health Act for a period of not in excess of ninety (90) days.

The Court recommends the Mental Health Center, the staff at Warren State Hospital and the after care team look into the possibility of foster home placement, in view of the fact the patient has no great desire to attend out-patient, partial hospitalization and has little incentive to mix with people or adopt a hobby.

Staff at the Mental Health Center may transport the patient to Warren State Hospital at such time within the next three (3) days that meets their convenience.

PETITION FOR CUSTODY

ORDER:

AND NOW, this 26 day of March, 1979, upon consideration of the within Petition and Motion of counsel, a Rule is hereby granted upon the Respondent, George R. Dooley, to show cause, if any he has, why the relief in the within Petition should not be granted. Rule returnable for hearing on the 25 day of April, 1979, at 9:30 A.M. o'clock in Courtroom No. 1 or 2 of the Crawford County Courthouse, Meadville, Pennsylvania.

Pending resolution of the within custody Petition, it is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall have temporary custody of the above named minor children until further order of this Court.

The Petitioner and Respondent are hereby ordered and directed not to remove the above named children from the jurisdiction of Crawford County, permanently, without further order of this court. Both parties are further advised that should this order be violated, the Court will impose the severest sanctions upon the offending party.

In light of the Petitioner's alleged indigency and recent child care expenses, the Court hereby grants the Petitioner leave to file this Petition for Custody in forma pauperis; however, the Court specifically reserves the right to assess costs at the conclusion of these proceedings.

Service of the within Petition and Rule shall be made upon the Respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressee only, and proof of service shall be filed with the Court by appropriate affidavit.

4. That the foregoing statements are true and correct to the best of your deponent's knowledge, information and belief.

Otto F. Hofmann

April 26, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, April 25, 1979, at the time scheduled for hearing on this petition for custody, it appears the defendant was served on March 30, 1979 and has not filed an Answer or contest to the custody petition within the required twenty days. The Court notes also the defendant does not appear nor does counsel appear on his behalf.

The Court notes at this time that the defendant George R. Dooley has filed a divorce action in the state of Alabama and that in said divorce action, he does not request custody of any of the children here at issue.

There being no denial of the allegations set forth in the petition, the Court therefore awards custody of the minor children, Elizabeth Ann Dooley, Christiana Marie Dooley and George Robert Dooley, Jr., to their mother Bernadette A. Dooley.

This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the father to petition this Court for reasonable visitation privileges with the children.

Costs to be paid by the plaintiff.

May 9, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, May 7, 1979, after hearing, the Court finds as a fact that the best interest of the minor children Consuelo Shearer and Charles A. Shearer, II will be served by leaving them in the custody of their mother Nancy J. Shearer.

The Court notes at this time that the father has custody of the seven-year-old son Jack and this ruling does not affect that custody.

The parties have previously entered into a visitation agreement that seems to be reasonably satisfactory, and accordingly, the Court makes no further directives or Order regarding appropriate visitation of the children between the two families and leaves this to the good discretion of the parents to accomplish the desired results. In the event the parties cannot so agree, then the Court will enter on its own a hearing for appropriate visitations.

Oct 6, 1988 Order filed: AND NOW, October 4, 1988, the matter is before the Court on a contempt citation. After informal review with counsel and after the Court finding the contact between the child and Mr. Haggerty were of a minimal nature and were made in the presence of other adults and the Court considering that counsel for the mother advises he misadvised his client to the end that the prohibition against the child being in ghe presence of Mr. Haggerty was no longer in effect, the Court finds no grounds justifying a finding of contempt of this Court's Order.

The mother agrees that she will not permit the child to be in the presence of Mr. Haggerty during any visitation periods the child is with her.

There is some misunderstanding between the parents regarding a note the mother wrote regarding ongoing weekend visitations previously accorded and the mother now advises the Court that she wished the renewal of visitations with the minor child Connie. ACCORDINGLY, the weekend visits with Connie will recommence the weekend of October 7, 8 and 9, 1988.

April 30, 1979, Sheriffs Return filed. SERVED AND MADE KNOWN TO David Kerr personally the within named defendant by handing a true copy of the within Petition for Emergency Relief from Abuse and Order No. 199 May Term, 1979 to him, on April 26, 1979 at 5:05 P.M., at his place of visitation, West Mead No. 2 Fire Hall, Ryan Road, Meadville, in the County of Crawford, State of Pennsylvania.

So answers,

E. Ralph Copeland, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Howard N. Stewart, Sheriff

May 2, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, April 30, 1979, at the time set for hearing on the petition for emergency relief, it again appears as it did when the matter was last before the Court, January 23, 1978, that the services of the Court can be of no help in meeting the needs of the parties involved in this case, It appears to the Court that periodically the Defendant resorts to alcoholism, which results in economic, marital and family problems, The Court notes at this thime that the petitioner, Beverly Kerr, is unable to advise the Court whether she intends to continue living with the Defendant or to suggest to the Court any meaningful solutions for this problem.

The Court also notes at this time that there is also a simple assault charge pending in Justice of the Peace Reisner's Office, and in view of the fact the Courts have had this couple before them on numerous occasions before, the Court believes at this time the answer to the parties' problems may be to simply file appropriate criminal charges in the event the Defendant violates any criminal statutes and to impose appropriate penalties called for by the circumstances in each case as it occurs throughout the life of these parties.

No Order is entered on the petition for emergency relief and the same is continued generally for a period of thirty (30)days after which time this petition will be automatically terminated without further Order of Court unless the Court or counsel petition for some appropriate relief under the petition in the next thirty (30) days.

1. That he represents your Petitioner, Kathleen S. Lauderbaugh in the above custody proceeding.

2. That on April 25, 1979, he forwarded to the Respondent, a true and correct copy of the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed in the above case; that said petition was mailed to the Respondent, along with a copy of the correspondence hereto attached.and said mailing was by certified mail No. 909468 return receipt requested, and directed to the Respondent at 10-½ Bells Ferry Road, Lot No. 29, Rome, Georgia 30161.

3. That the Respondent receipted for the above mailing on April 30, 1979, as is evidenced by the receipt for certified mail and return receipt card hereto attached.to this affidavit.

David P. Truax

June 4, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, June 1, 1979, after hearing, the Court finds both parents are adequate and qualified parents to have custody of the child, but in view of the circumstances, the Court awards primary custody of the minor child Chad to the mother, subject, however, to the following visitation rights with the father: Commencing with the calendar year 1979 and yearly thereafter, the father shall have the right to have the child in his custody in the State of Georgia or wherever he lives for a period of two (2) months, which at the discretion of the father may be two consecutive months or two non-consecutive one-month periods. These visitations with the father shall be arranged by the parties as near as is practical so that the child will be with his respective parent during their vacation period. It shall be the obligation of the father to pick up and deliver the child for the two-month visitation period.

In addition, the father may have the right to visit the child any time he is in the Meadville area and have the child in his custody during said visitation periods not to exceed five days; provided, however, he gives the mother at least one week's advance notice of the time he wishes to be with the child for a short visit in the Meadville area and providing said visit does not interfere with the mother's summer vacation from her employment.

Each party will keep the other informed of any illness of the child and neither parent in the event they move shall attempt to secret the whereabouts of the child from the other parent.

The Court notes at this time there is a reciprocal support proceeding pending which apparently has not at this time been served upon the father in the State of Georgia. The Court urges the parties to get this amicably settled at this time.

The child shall be in the home of the mother on Christmas each year; provided, however, that if the father arranges for a visit with the child in this area at the Christmas season, satisfactory arrangements will be made so that he may spend a reasonable period of time either the day before or the day after Christmas with his child.

June 1, 1979 Order filed: ANDNNOW, May 30, 1979, after hearing, the Court believes the best interest of the children will be served with continuing custody in their mother, and accordingly, the custody of the four children is awarded to the custody oftheir mother, Ruth B. Gray.

The Court believes it is important for the children to have a re-association with their father, and accordingly, commencing with the month of June, 1979, the father shall have the right to pick up the children at the home of themmother on the second and fourth Sundays of every month commencing between the hours of 9:30 and 10:00 o'clock and return them to the custody ofttheir mother Sunday night at 7:00 P.M.

On any Sunday when the father does not appear by 10:30 A.M. and has not notified the mother of the reason why he is delayed, the mother may consider the visit cancelled.

After a reasonable period of time if the father has faithfully kept the visits with the children in accordance with this Order, the Court urges the parties to mutually agree to some extended weekend visits for the children. In the event the parties cannot so agree, the Court will entertain a motion and will on its own without hearing grant the father additional weekend visits on his affidavit that he has faithfully complied with the two Sunday visits each month.

In accordance with the parties' original agreement in 1975, the Court believes at this time it will be to the advantage of the children to spend extended periods of time with their father during the summer vacation periods. Accordingly, the father shall have the right to have the children with him for two consecutive one-week periods during the months of June, July,and August so as not to interfere with the school schedule ofthe children. In view of the fact the father does not know at this time when his annual factory shutdown will be, he will be required to give the mother at least two weeks notice of the two-week period that he intends to have the children in his custody. The parties will mutually agree on the commencing date and the termination date of said two weeks visit, but if the parties cannot agree, the two-week period shall commence Noon on Sunday and terminate at Noon on Sunday two weeks following.

It appears the mother has a private telephone number that she will not disclose to the father and the Court believes that it is desirable for the father to have the telephone number of the mother and she is directed to furnish number to the father.

The father is not to use the telephone number for any harassment and is only to use it to arrange visits for the children or to cancel the same in accordance with this Order.

CONSTANCE LEE WARD

Filed May 7, 1979

ORDER

AND NOW, May 4, 1979, upon presentation of a petition for commitment under the Mental Health Act, the Court sets hearing on the matter for May 11, 1979, at 2:00 P.M., and the caseworker is directed to notify the patient by a copy of this order, Bruce Barrett, Court appointed counsel for the patient, Joseph F. Kulwicki, attorney for patient's guardian, Charlotte M. Jockel, who is also petitioner and the appropriate staff at the Mental Health Center.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas,
P.J.

May 8, 1979, Copies given to Mental Health (Robert Curtis), Bruce Barrett, Esq. and Joseph Kulwicki, Esq.

May 9, 1979, Petition For Commitment For Person Who Is Mentally Disabled - Mental Health and Mental Retardation Act of 1966 - filed.

May 11, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, May 11, 1979, after hearing at which appeared the sister Charlotte Jockel, her attorney Joseph Kulwicki, the patient Constance Lee Ward and her counsel Bruce Barrett, together with representatives from the Mental Health Center and the Mental Retardation Office and it appearing to the Court, after hearing, that present placement in a group home setting supervised by the Retardation office is no longer practical and that no other alternatives other than institutionalization are possible at this time, the Court notes that there is presently being explored the possible admission to the Barber Center in Erie.

It appears further that it is impossible at this time to accommodate the patient with relatives or in any partial hospitalization or group home facility, and accordingly, in accordance with Section 406 of the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Act, the Court finds Constance Lee Ward mentally retarded and directs that said Constance Lee Ward be committed to the Polk Center for in-patient care. This Order is entered without prejudice to the right of the Mental Retardation Office to continue the possibility of admission to the Dr. Gertrude A. Barber Center in Erie, Pennsylvania and the Order is made without prejudice to the right of Polk Center to transfer said patient to the Center if they agree to accept her without further Order of this Court.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT,
P. Richard Thomas, P.J.

VI. Neither parent shall expose the child to any situation or person which would adversely affect the health, welfare or well-being of the child and shall not take the child to any place of business which is not appropriate for a child of his age.

VII. So that there can be no dispute concerning the facts, this Order shall not be altered or changed by the parties except in writing submitted to the Court for addition to or amendment to this Order to be filed of record.

VIII. The parties should understand that this Court Order must be obeyed by both parties and the Court will impose the severest sanctions on the party violating said Order.

IX. Neither party shall remove the child from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, except for a weekend or limited summer vacation periods, without securing leave to do so under conditions to be specified by the Court.

If this portion of the Order is violated, the rights accorded the violating party shall immediately cease and subject said party to severe penalties.

X. Fairness requires that all cases be heard in open court when all parties are present with their counsel. Therefore, no letters or other communications shall be addressed to the judge. If there are any violations of the Order or complaints concerning the conduct of the other party, the complaining party should consult counsel to warn the other party or to properly bring the matter to the attention of the Court for hearing and possible penalties.

Apr. 8, 1981 Motion to Set the Master's Fees filed.

Apr. 8, 1981 Re: Motion to Set Master's Fee and Order filed: AND NOW, April 6, 1981, the plaintiff has requested the Court to enter an order regarding additional Master's fees in view of the fact that apparently extensive hearings are anticipated and the issues of alimony and equitable property division are at issue. Accordingly, the defendant is directed to post additional Master's fees in the amount of $300 with the Prothonotary within ten (10) days of this date. The Court authorizes the Master to allocate attorney's fees between the parties in his final decree taking into consideration the amount originally paid by the plaintiff and the amount to be paid by the defendant in accordance with this order. The Master may also petition the Court for additional Master fees as such time as it appears the professional time involved exceeds the amount currently posted.

Aug. 14, 1987 Order filed. AND NOW, August 13, 1987, after an informal hearing on Plaintiff's petition for special relief, the Defendant represents to the Court that while he is the owner of Patchco, Inc., and is working at that business, the business has no liquidity with which he can make the mortgage payments, and it further appearing that while the mortgagee, Pennbank, is expecting that payments will made, they have not at this point in time begun formal foreclosure proceedings, which would appear to permit some time in which to resolve the problem, and it further appearing that Paul D. Shafer, Jr., who was appointed Master in this matter concluded a master's hearing in 1985 but has not as yet filed his Master's report, in part because further information had to be obtained has only been furnished to the Master fairly recently but counsel indicating that he should be in a position now to have all information necessary to file a Master's report, the Court reserves decision on the initial petition for special relief and directs that both parties sign a real estate listing agreement for the marital property for $55,000.00 and the aprties shall not refuse a sale that would equal $52,000.00 gross before commission, expenses, and liens, in an effort to obtain a purchaser for the property to save it from ultimate foreclosure.

Paul D. Shafer, Jr., the Master, is directed to file a Master's report within twenty (20) days of this date unless he can convince the Court that there is somereason caused by the parties that makes the filing of a Master's report in that time impossible.

Either aprty may request a further Orde rin connection with this petition for special relief in the event execution proceedings in foreclosure are commenced by Pennbank. BY ORDER OF THE COURT, o'clock and have them in his custody until Sunday at 7:00 o'clock. If the father is to be delayed in the pick up, he will promptly notify the mother by phone, and if the mother does not hear of a delay and if the father does not arrive by 7:30, the visit will be canceled.

There appears to be a dispute over toys and clothing items, and the father agrees to return all clothing and any toys the children wishes on their next visit so they may remain in the home of the mother. On every visit if toys and clothing items are sent with the children, all such items will be returned at the end of the weekend visit.

There exists a dispute about whose responsiblity it is to deliver the children to their father, and the Court DIRECTS that the father shall go to the door of the residence of the mother and receive the children, and the mother shall make every efford to see the children, their possessions and toys are ready and available. Neither party shall cause any argument or make any adverse comments of any kind during the pick up or the return of the children, it being the intention of the Court to prevent arguments between the parties, which it is admitted occur without seemingly any provocation.

The Court intends that the parties share the children during their respective work vacation periods. The father shall have the right to have the children during his two-week vacation period and he shall give the mother thirty(30) days notice of his vacation period and the exact time he will pick up and return the children.

When the mother's vacation period occurs, she shall notify the father, and the father may not be entitled to weekend visits during the mother's work vacation period.

By agreement of the parties, the mother may pick up the son Chris for her weekend visits on her way home from work to save an extra trip, which will be approximately 3:30 P.M. Friday and will return him by 7:00 P.M. Sunday.

With regard to mother's visits with son Chris, it is the intention of the parties that all three children be together on weekends and the mother will arrange the visitation schedule for Chris to accomplish this purpose.

In the meantime, the Court suggests to the mother that in view of the fact she did not have the child for most of the child's tender years, that a parenting skills course might be advantageous, and in view of the fact the child has not had extensive interaction with piers of her own age, that perhaps an appropriate pre-school program might also be advantageous.

This hearing is continued generally with the right of counsel for either party to request further hearing any time after February 1, 1980, and this order is entered with the specific understanding that it is not a final order and this court reserved jurisdiction of the child even though said child will temporarily be located in Lake County, Ohio.

The Court advises counsel for the parties that it will send a copy of this order, all prior orders and the reports submitted to the court to Judge Ross D. Avellone for placement in his files in the event this court requests further cooperation of the Domestic Relations Court, child services agencies or the Juvenile Court Services in Lake County, Ohio in carrying out the intent and spirit of this order.

AND NOW, April 11, 1980, the matter having come on for further hearing on the petition for rehearing filed by Ann Kozen and the Court and counsel having met informally and counsel for Ann Kozen having withdrawn the request for hearing and both counsel having stipulated that a report of investigating officers be made part of the record in this case, the Court sees no reason to make any change in the Order heretofore entered regarding custody of the child.

Counsel for the parties advise the Court they are still exploring the possibility of some minimum visitation arrangements with the great grandmother Ann Kozen, and accordingly, the Court continues this case for a period of two (2) months in the hopes that an amicable agreement on visitation may be reduced to writing and filed as part of the records in this case.

This Court is of the opinion that the appropriate forum for any further litigation in this case lies with the appropriate Court in Lake County, Ohio in view of the residence of the child and the mother in that County, and accordingly, if the parties cannot agree on visitation arrangements or in the event there is further litigation involving custody of this child, this Court will decline jurisdiction and will be willing to forward any and all of the files and any pertinent legal documents to the appropriate court in Lake County, Ohio.

The Court directs counsel for the mother to forward a copy of this Order to Judge Avellonne, Lake County, Ohio.

Sherie Walkos

of No. 169 May Term, 1979

July 16, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, July 12, 1979, the Court believes the best interest of the child at this time would be served by leaving the child in the general custody of the step grandmother Ann Kozen. However, it appears the mother of said child has stabilized her existence, is in the process of divorcing an unsatisfactory husband, apparently has a stable living arrangement with her mother and the Court believes that ultimately the mother and child should be reunited in a mother/daughter relationship with full custody awarded to the mother.

HOWEVER, it is obvious the mother has not demonstrated a total concern for the child, seems to have a limited education and in this regard, at the suggestion for counsel for the mother, we accept their offer and direct that an appointment be made with the Mental Health Center at City Hospital and preferably with Dr. Kay Anderson who has some superficial knowledge of this case from past evaluation. In this regard, the Court requests that Counsel for the mother provide a release and waiver for the Mental Health Center so that all school records, previous psycological or social evaluations may be made available to Dr. Kay Anderson and that said release be submitted to the Mental Health Center so that said records may be acquired.

In order to accord the mother and daughter more extensive visits and in view of the great distance between grandmother and mother, the Court directs that on the third week of every month commencing with July, 1979, the child spend one complete week in the home of the mother. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the week will commence Sunday at Noon on the third Sunday and terminating the following Sunday at 7:00 p.m. It shall be the obligation of the mother to pick up and return the child. It shall be the obligation for the grandmother to surrender at the time of said visits appropriate clothing, toys and other items necessary for the proper case of the child.

In addition, the mother shall have the right to visit the child and remove the child from the home of the grandmother on the first Saturday or Sunday of every month commencing with the month of August, 1979, between the hours of Noon and 8:00 p.m. It shall be the obligation of the mother to notify the grandmother which day she will make said visit and may remove the child from the custody of the grandmother between the hours herein stated.

The Court will review the situation upon motion of either party after four (4) months passage of time and in the event the circumstances erratically change and sooner consideration may be requested.

The Court requests a report from the Mental Health Center within thirty (30) days and the Court authorizes a copy of said report to the Court to be submitted to counsel for both parties.

The Court reserves the right to ask any social agency to make a home investigation in Cleveland if it deems it is appropriate or to make a home investigation in the event of a change of residence of the mother.

Nov. 30, 1979 Order filed: AND NOW, November 27, 1979, at the time scheduled for review hearing, it appears that Sheri Walkos' divorce has not been granted in the State of Ohio, and the Court is reluctant to enter a final order in this case at this time. The Court notes the divorce is pending in the Lake County Court in Ohio and has this date discussed the matter of expediting the divorce and noting this child custody action pending in Pennsylvania with the presiding judge of the Domestic Relations Court, Judge Ross D. Avellone.

The order heretofore entered on July 12, 1979 is recinded and the child, ANN MARIE WALKOS is hereby temporarily awarded to the custody of her mother, Sheri Walkos, subject to the following conditions:

1. The mother shall arrange for satisfactory visits with the grandmother for a period of one (1) week, namely December 16, to December 22, 1979 anf for another week in January, and if the parties cannot agree, the week shall be the week of January 20 to January 26, 1980.

2. The mother shall not remove the child for residence purposes from Lake County, Ohio, without further order of this court.

3. Counsel for the mother shall promptly advise the Court when the pending divorce in Lake County, at No. 79 Domestic Relations, 1406 is granted and shall notify the court when and if Sheri Walkos remarries.

The Court believes at this time as a result of reports received that the mother has the basic ability to care for her child, but before a final order is entered in this case, the Court will enter a formal request at a later date through the appropriate court in Ohio asking cooperation in having the appropriate Lake County Child Welfare Services Unit make periodic home visits to ascertain that the mother has the ability to properly supervise and care for the child.
